HERE IS REASON G. F. P. IS POPULAR WITH MANY WOMEN

Nothing Can Keep Them From Prais-ing G. F. P. When It So Quickly Restores Their Vitality.

No other medicine has been quite as successful in overcoming the pains, irregularity and misery of women, both mental and physical, as has St. Joseph's G. F. P. It has been very successfully introduced in the larger cities of the country, and now here thousands of the best known girls and women are praising it to the skies since it was introduced

The sale of G. F. R is overwhelming, and the reason for it is clear. G. F. P. is proving that it is the first direct specific for the mysterious and dreaded malady—catarrh which keeps so many girls and women weakened and suffering, and they really don't know what is causing all their trouble.

Women of all classes—rich and poor—are using St. Joseph's G. F. P., and judging it impartially because it is a medicine for the common good of all womanhood. The verdict seems to be always in favor of its wonderful merit. This is proven by the fact that when a wom Brooklyn ... 48 46 -511 an once takes St. Joseph's G. F. P. She showed Gloria what was inside the crown of the sport

THE STORY SO FAR: Gloria Gordon, beautiful flapper, marries Dick Gregory, struggling young lawyer. Her idea of marriage is fun and fine clothes, but no work or children!

Dick borrows his mother's maid,

Maggie, to teach Gloria to cook. But She refuses to learn.

Gloria gives a "wild" party, and asks Stanley Wayburn, an actor with whom she was once in love, to be one of the guests. When Wayburn comes, Dick is instantly jealous of him, although the crafty actor de-votes himself to Mrs. Myra Gail. Gloria drinks too much and faints away while dancing with Dr. John Seymour, whose wife, May, is in love with Jim Carewe. The party breaks up when Lola Hough scolds Bill, her husband, for petting. Maggie, disgusted, leaves and returns to Mother

Then Gloria hires Ranghild Swanson, although Dick says they can't afford a maid. And she buys $400 worth of new clothes, loading Dick with debts. About this time Gloria begins to be jealous of Dick's secretary, Miss Briggs.

Dick sells his old car to buy Gloria a new one. Gloria goes riding in it with Wayburn. They are seen by Mother Gregory, who sends for
