UNITED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

Tony Canzoneri, a bouncing spaghetti-eater from the wilds of Brooklyn, has an excellent chance of winning undisputed possession of the world's featherweight championship Friday night.

The chubby little Italian's opponent in Madison Square Garden will be Benny Bass of Philadelphia, who reached the top of the division by disposing of "Red" Chapman of Boston. Canzoneri is a sprightly youngster, utterly lacking in punching power, but a fast and fairly skillful boxer. Bass is the better hitter of the two, but Tony is the cleverer, and this is likely to count with the judges in New York.

Bass is recognized by the National Boxing association as king of the 126-pounders. Canzoneri, who recently grew out of the featherweight division on a diet of spaghetti and "red ink," defeated Johnny Dundee last year and consequently claimed the title.

It did seem a bit far-fetched to maintain that Johnny, because he retired undefeated from the featherweight ranks, remained champion of the division. Dundee is a natural welterweight at the moment, but he boiled and baked himself down to 126 pounds for Canzoneri, in order to make the affair take on the semblance of a championship bout. It turned out to be a farce, since Johnny was too weak at the weight to do more than defend himself. Canzoneri punched until his arms were weary, but he couldn't put the old man away.

It is one of the minor tragedies of the ring that Johnny Dundee finds it necessary to go on fighting. They do not make them any gamer, nor much cleverer, than the "Scotch Wop."

Johnny has taken part in more than 300 ring battles. He gave Benny Leonard several tough fights when that consistent young business man was lightweight champion. He has fought bantamweights and welterweights, a range of 30 pounds. He has made several hundred thousands of dollars with his fists.

Yet Dundee is not well-to-do. Horse racing took a lot of his earnings, although Johnny himself is not overaddicted to gambling.

Fighters today are better advised than those of a previous generation. Nowadays, you find youngsters socking their earnings into gilt-edged securities with the same vigor that they apply to socking their opponents.

The featherweight division has been in an uncertain state since Lou Kid Kaplan retired, also undefeated.

Finding the proper successor to the Meriden Kid proved too much of a task for the New York state athletic association. Finally, the National Boxing association, never bashful, took a hand and named Benny Bass.

The little Philadelphia is an able fighter, but it will be just as well for him to mind his P's and Q's when he gets into the ring with Tony Canzoneri Friday night.

Ask everybody Who Is Who and keep on asking until you find who it is. Watch the Ranger Times for the facts that will be released soon.

Al Smith urges local self-government, but it's what the boys do when they're away for conventions that worries most of the little women.

"Scarface Al" Capone at Play

Frogs Will Start Spring Football Practice Soon

Special Correspondence

PORT WORTH, Jan. 27.—An innovation in spring football training camps as far as Southwest conference teams are concerned will be conducted for the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, beginning the latter part of April, according to Coach Madison Bell.

Every candidate who expects to report to the Frog varsity next fall is expected to take part in the spring practice. The schedule of workouts planned are the most elaborate ever attempted here or elsewhere in the Southwest circuit.

For four regular workouts each week, starting Monday and continuing through Thursday, and a practice game each Friday. The squad will be divided into two groups, the team winning the weekly game to be treated to a theatre party.

Each squad will have a student manager whose duty it will be to keep a close check on the men on his squad as to attendance at practice, condition and individual performance in the games.

As Coach Bell will be working with his track squad most of the time during the period planned for the football work, Line Coach Ed Kubale will be in charge of the grid training. He will be assisted by Harold Carson and Raymond Wolf, former Frog stars.

The new plan of practice is certain to prove much more attractive and interesting to the men and is sure to create more interest among fans than the old routine used in the past.

Home of Earnest Morton North Of Ranger Burned

Fire yesterday afternoon destroyed the home and furnishings of Earnest Morton, located about 10 miles north of Ranger, in the heart of the Texas-Louisiana gas field.

The Texas-Louisiana Power company had just completed the Morton No. 2, 1,500,000-foot gas well and had turned the gas into the line.

The Morton homestead was piped from the drip and the line did not have a regulator. When the gas was turned on the increased pressure threw the gas flames all over the house and the three-room frame structure was destroyed.

Officials of the gas company had to the scene of the fire last night to extinguish burning embers that were endangering the gas well.

The fire occurred about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Madrid has banned dog races.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR SUNDAY

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR JANUARY 29TH

By H. W. Wrye.

"The Growing Fame of Jesus." Lesson Mark 3:7-12; 6:53-56.

Golden text: "The common people heard him gladly." Mark 12:37.

Jesus received all classes, He ate with publicans and sinners and "the common people heard him gladly." He cared nothing for Pharisaical professionalism, but His great heart sympathetically sought their salvation from satanic delusion. The work of our Lord was the talk of the country. His teaching was rapidly destroying the influence and popularity of the religious doctors of the law, and their jealousy had reached the high degree of envious hatred, so much so that atrocious murder was being planned.

Satan had tempted Jesus with a plan whereby far reaching publicity would be given Him immediately. To cast himself down from the pinnacle of the temple would give Him such distinction that the people would flock from everywhere to see Him. The world loves a show, especially a sensational stunt. Gratifying idle curiosity with sensationalism is the crowning feature of the circus, the "movies," etc. Sensational preaching, and sensational religion in modern times have served to destroy much interest in spiritual things, resulting in empty church pews, but filled playhouses and circus seats, for the show is better. The church cannot compete with the world if it deals in the same line. Christianity has something better for faltering humanity than sensationalism. Jesus knew how to get before the people. He knew how to advertise heaven's wealth, power and love. He had a heavenly offering and "the common people heard him gladly." Jesus practiced what he taught in a sermon later, viz, humility, meekness, peaceableness, mercy, purity, and sacrifice, advising "let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Herein is the secret of Jesus' growing fame. His doctrine was simple, easily understood, the uneducated eagerly listened to His heavenly messages and was cured of their distressing afflictions. He was the idol of the hour, great multitudes crowded upon Him from every quarter. His good works seasoned by the virtues catalogued in the beatitudes was interesting the throngs, and the divine Letter from heaven was being read by all men, the "unclean spirits" recognized the post mark "and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God." The Pharisees laid grievous heavy burdens upon the people and would not move them with one of their fingers. They exalted themselves and required the people to support them in their egoism. Quite a contrast in their work and that of Jesus. No wonder the popularity of our Lord grew to such an enormity.

This old world is a vast hospital and the earth a revolving graveyard. A perfect well person is rare, at no time can we get very far from a bed of pain and the cry of suffering. Jesus, while here in person cured many by His miraculous power, but let us not lose sight of the fact that He is still relieving distress. Another comforter, the Holy Spirit, came to minister to suffering humanity after Jesus ascended. Through the spirit, our Lord is using modern science to serve Him by the system of medicine, surgery, sanitation and hygiene to bring about the happy results prevailing today. Hospitals, medicine, nurses and physicians are all agencies of good. Unfortunately the "multitudes" give man the credit for present-day results instead of giving God the glory. The minister and the physicians are co-workers in the hand of God to relieve distress.

The disease of the soul is far more destructive than that of the body. The body may be healthy, but sin like a cancer, is eating away on the conscience and destroying the sensibilities, gradually sinking the soul into that dreadful death of eternal suffering. The blood of Christ is the remedy, and can be applied with as-urance of curing when obedience to the Divine prescription is observed. Let us who are in covenant relationship with Jehovah, pray that history repeat itself, that we contribute every inch of our strength in exalting Christ and making His blood bought institution, the church, famous as in primitive times. We can do it by walking in the steps of Jesus.

MR. WARREN WRIGHT
President of
CALUMET BAKING POWDER COMPANY

SAYS:
"Newspaper Advertising Proves Most Productive In Promoting Sales"

"We attribute our gigantic success," says Mr. Warren Wright, president of the Calumet Baking Powder Co., of Chicago, "to the fact that Calumet Baking Powder Co. procures its distribution and sales through tested methods. We employ newspaper advertising almost exclusively and utilize perhaps as much space as any food manufacturer in America.

"Advertising in local newspapers produces direct trade development for local dealers. That fact has been conclusively demonstrated by the tremendous and consistent growth in Calumet sales.

"When a housewife reads an advertisement in her home town paper, she knows that the advertised article can be purchased from local merchants. For that reason, there is an immediate and most favorable reaction in the way of buying response. She knows, too, that the article possesses merit or the local publisher would not accept the advertising. Her purchases are protected.

"Through newspaper advertising, the manufacturer not only displays sound judgment in the selection of effective advertising mediums, but also evinces a sincere desire to be of the utmost service to the dealer in creating wide distribution and active turnovers.

"Then, too, there is another side to the matter that should be given serious consideration by both the dealer and the consumer: the manufacturer who spends his money for newspaper space is contributing to the welfare of the town or city in which his advertising appears, by putting cash right into home-town pockets.

"So, all in all, we consider, and have proven beyond all doubt, that newspaper advertising represents the very best kind of good business. It reaches local readers; builds trade for local dealers, and puts many dollars from a distance into local circulation. It is worthy of the hearty support of consumer and dealer because it reacts to their personal benefit."

Calumet Baking Powder company are large buyers of advertising space each year in the Ranger Times and Eastland Telegram—just good newspapers, that's all—more news—more circulation—more advertising. There is no substitute for results.

DRILLING REPORT

F. A. Huber Cathey No. 2, Callahan, county, intention to plug.

IT TAKES ALL-BRAN TO RELIEVE CONSTIPATION

More and more people are eating bran for "health's sake" these days. And it's a fine thing. But not everybody realizes what a difference there is in so-called "brans." Doctors say it takes 100% bran to supply enough roughage to relieve constipation.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is 100% bran. It furnishes roughage in effective quantities—and in the most effective form: cooked and krumbled. It does a work part-bran products cannot hope to equal.

Serve ALL-BRAN often. With milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Be sure you get genuine Kellogg's though—in the red-and-green package. Use it in cooking. Sprinkle into soups. ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Dameron Is Named Superintendent Of Sonora Plant

Special Correspondence.

W. H. Dameron, wool and mohair specialist, Texas agricultural experiment station, has been appointed and has assumed his duties as superintendent of the ranch experiment station near Sonora succeeding E. W. Thomas who resigned to take up extension service work. Mr. Dameron, who was reared on a Texas ranch as Mertz and has a broad practical knowledge of Texas ranching conditions, is a graduate of the University of Wyoming, having specialized in wool under Dean John A. Hill, a nationally recognized authority on this subject. His work during the past year is evaluating wool and mohair fiber under the general supervision

Operators believe that when the well is drilled deeper it will be good for 1,500 barrels. Three United States presidents fought in the Revolutionary war: Washington, Monroe, and Jackson, according to an answered question in this week's issue of Liberty.

Mexico Federal Troops Defeat Rebels in Fight

By United Press.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 27.—Federal troops defeated rebels in a battle of several hours at San Francisco Del Rindon in Guanajuato state after inflicting heavy losses, a dispatch said today.

The rebels attacked the town, the dispatch said. Federal soldiers were sent to repulse them.

of J. M. Jones, an outstanding leader in the sheep and goat industry has brought Mr. Dameron into contact with many of the leading sheep and goat raisers of Texas. These contacts have given him ample opportunity to study the quality of wool and mohair which is being produced. He has accordingly been able to point to numerous means whereby ranchmen can increase their earnings by improvement of their flocks. Mr. Dameron, therefore, carries into his present position a thorough understanding of the problems of the ranch country, in the Edwards plateau where the station is situated, which assures a continuance with increasing effectiveness of the researches being made by the experiment station into problems that are most vital to the producers of wool and mohair. His exact knowledge of the benefits which they can secure by patronizing the wool scouring plant at the station at College Station will enable Mr. Dameron to supply ranchmen with information which many have not heretofore had and which should encourage them to take advantage of this valuable service.

UNEASY SLEEP

"Nerves Were All to Pieces," Says Lady Who Tells How Cardui Helped Her When She Was Run-Down.

Hopkins, S. C.—Mrs. G. W. Arrants, of this place, says:

"I was suffering from spells of weakness. These would come on me suddenly and I would have to give up and go to bed. For several months I did not sleep well at night and got no rest from sleep. I was very nervous. I could not bear the least noise. The children worried me. My nerves were all to pieces.

"I had taken Cardui several times before, so I sent at once for some and began to take it again. At the end of a short time I felt much better, so I kept right on taking Cardui. When I would feel a nervous spell coming on, I took it more frequently for a few days.

"I can certainly say Cardui helped me wonderfully, for after a time the nervousness disappeared entirely. I could sleep at night and my general health was better. My appetite picked up and I enjoyed my meals, too."

Thousands of other women have told of the benefit they have received from the use of Cardui. Keep it on hand, to take when needed.
