

INVESTIGATION FEDERAL BANK AT DALLAS URGED

Resolution Is Introduced By Congressman Williams; Talley's Qualifications Attacked

By United Press. WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Investigation of the Dallas Texas Federal Reserve bank and the policies of its governor Lynn P. Talley was demanded in the house today by Representative Williams, democrat of Texas. Williams urged passage of his resolution providing an inquiry by a special house committee. Governor Talley, he declared, had violated the Federal Reserve act by his discount policy. Williams attacked Talley further as "not having the qualifications necessary for governor of a Federal Reserve bank."

Arkansas Organizes Highway Campaign

Special Correspondence. MIDLAND, Texas, Feb. 28.—De Valls Bluff, Ark., actually believes in the "Broadway of America."

That Arkansas city has organized the De Valls Bluff Broadway of America club with 351 charter members, according to J. G. Thweatt of that city, who was named regional director of Arkansas, by Paul T. Vickers, eastern regional director. Mr. Thweatt declares he will get 100 cars in Arkansas to join the motorcade by the time it reaches Memphis, and declares he will join the motorcade in his own car at Texarkana to pilot the motorists through Arkansas.

The Arkansas cars will bear pennants with the wording, "Broadway of America, New York to San Diego," with the name of the town from which the car came. The Arkansas director will organize Broadway of America Clubs in every town in Arkansas through which the road passes. The eastern regional director at Midland declared Arkansas was setting an example which he hoped Texas would emulate.

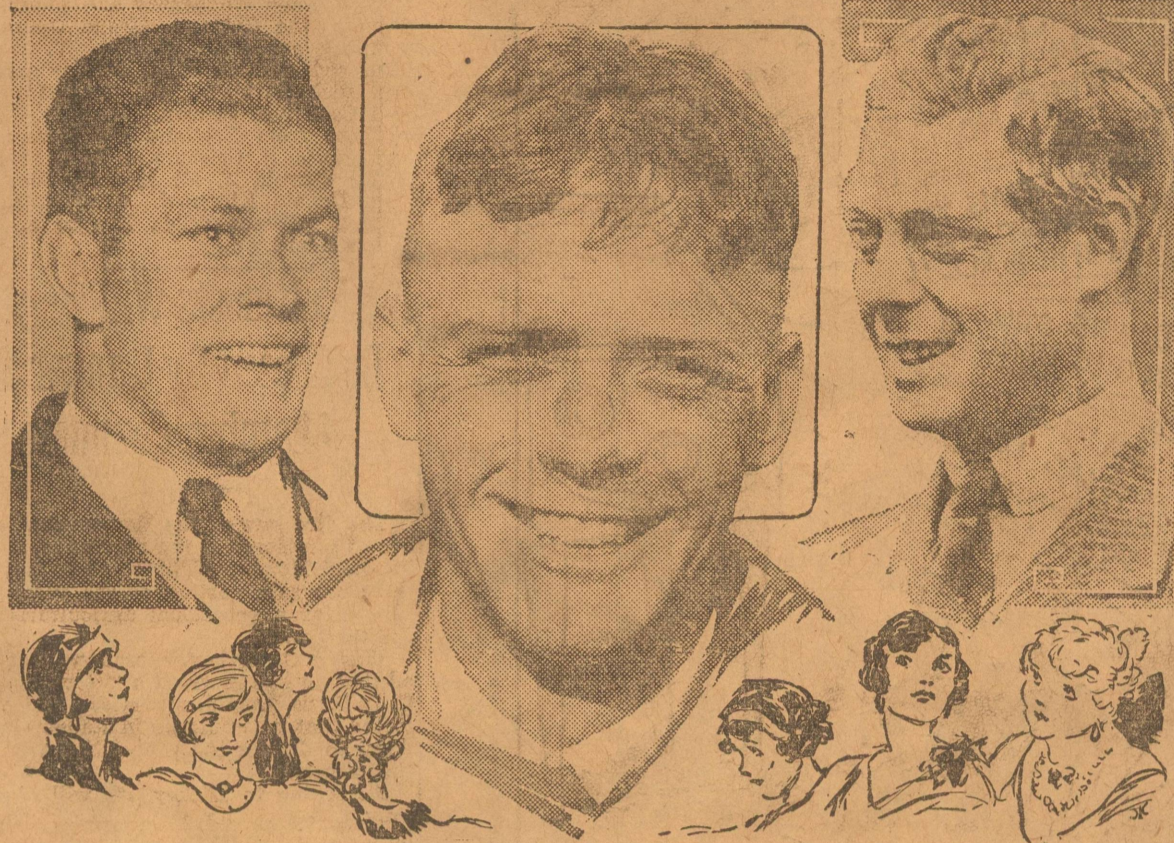

Missouri Democrats Urged Support Reed

By United Press. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 28.—The name of Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, was presented to the assembled democrats of his home state today for their endorsement of his presidential candidacy. Picturing the militant senator as "a crusader who will lead our party to an historic victory," former Governor F. D. Gardner urged the Missouri democratic state convention to throw its strength behind the movement to put Senator Reed into the white house.

AMERICAN INVESTMENTS ABROAD TOTAL MORE THAN 25 BILLIONS, REPORT SHOWS

By United Press. NEW YORK.—The stupendous sum of $25,000,000,000 represents the approximate value of American investments abroad, including war debts, the foreign policy association announced in giving out a detailed compilation made by Dr. Max Winkler, vice president of Berton, Griscom & Co., investment bankers. At the beginning of the year American investments abroad, not including the so-called political obligations of the United States government, represented an approximate total of $14,500,000,000. With the war debts the value of such investments abroad reaches the amazing total of approximately $25,000,000,000, as compared with about $18,000,000,000 or $20,000,000,000 for Great Britain and British foreign investments were at their peak. "During the 12 months of 1927," said the report, "American foreign investments, exclusive of refunding operations, aggregated $2,071,954,100. This figure is materially larger than the amount given by other agencies. The apparent discrepancy is explained by the fact that Dr. Winkler's figures include not only publicly offered loans, but also issues placed privately as well as the purchase by Americans of foreign internal securities and the purchase of properties abroad not involving the sale of securities. It also includes loans and advances to foreign governments, states, municipalities and corporations running for one year or more. "In commenting on the figures for 1927, Dr. Winkler says: "Examination of the relatively large amount of foreign issues held by many of our investment and finance companies will readily indicate that our total, large though it may seem, represents a minimum rather than a maximum of our foreign investments during the past year. An interesting feature of our foreign financing during 1927 was the marked reduction in German financing amounting to $285,237,700, as compared with $477,361,600. The introduction by Germany of a 10 per cent coupon tax together with the controversy over the relation of German commercial loans to treaty obligations is no doubt responsible for the fall in American investments in Germany during 1927. "Dr. Winkler does not discern any curtailment of American foreign financing in the near future. He states in his report that although our for-

Oh, Girls, Tomorrow is February 29th!

Girls, tomorrow is February 29, and there are just the best chances! On this day in Leap Year, you know, you are supposed to propose to somebody, so why not pick a live one? Here are three nice boys, and aren't their smiles too cute? Gene Tunney up there to the left. What a big, manly fellow! He's the champion of something, too, they say. Isn't he perfectly killing? That blond boy in the middle! Wouldn't his smile just make your hair curl? That's Lindbergh. He's an aviator, but very, very bashful. You'll have to handle him with care, girls; he never flies so well as when he's flying away from you. There to the right is a prince! The crown prince of Great Britain. They say he falls off his horse often—maybe he'd fall for you. But anyway, tomorrow is February 29, and you're supposed to propose to somebody—so why not aim high?

SPIRIT OF MARDI GRAS TO PREVAIL AT CONVENTION

Committee Makes Arrangements For Elaborate Entertainment Of West Texas Guests

FORT WORTH.—Three parades, embodying features of the gay Mardi Gras of New Orleans, a colorful pageantry in which favorite daughters of the west will participate, a social calendar that comprehends all visiting guests, and contests that offer most liberal prize awards, are among the high spots already announced for the annual convention of the West Texas chamber of commerce to be held June 18, 19 and 20, in Fort Worth.

The conclude, the most largely attended of any such held in the southwest, will mark the decadal year of the great regional organization, and will furthermore be in the nature of a home-coming organization, and will furthermore be in the nature of a home-coming event, as Fort Worth is the natal city of the chamber. At the ninth annual convention of the body held in Wichita Falls last May, it was voted that all West Texas should declare a holiday to turn out in force for the Fort Worth meeting. A fund of $35,000 for entertainment, pleasure, and convenience of the convention was voted at the first formal meeting of the general arrangements committee held in Fort Worth, this month. This sum was double the estimate given by Manager Wade to the committee, and was unanimously made by Chairman Amon G. Carter, Mayor Brice W. G. Stripling, W. G. Mommig, John P. King, F. E. Clarity, Jack Duncan and (Continued on page two.)

After Thieves

By United Press. DECATUR, Feb. 28.—Wise county poultry raisers are turning detective to stop chicken thefts. Because of the large number of turkeys and chickens recently stolen, the raisers have organized an anti-theft association. The association plans to mark and tattoo the fowls of the members, so that they can be traced. A $25 reward has also been posted for information leading to the conviction of thieves of membership poultry. The county commissioner court has made a similar offer for the apprehension of any chicken thief.

Recall Son-In-Law

By United Press. DALLAS, Feb. 28.—A recall petition being circulated in Dallas by a faction opposed to the present municipal government very nearly brought disaster to the family life of J. Barney Davis, city commissioner. In looking over the list after it was presented to the city attorney's office, Davis found the names of his mother-in-law and father-in-law on the petition asking his removal from office. The situation was cleared up when the mother-in-law explained that she signed the paper without knowing what it was while paying her poll tax several weeks ago.

Will Tour State

By United Press. AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—The Longhorn band and orchestra of the University of Texas will make a tour of Northwest Texas beginning March 19. The band will visit Belton, Denton, Corsicana, Cisco, San Angelo and Midland.

No Prerequisite

By United Press. BRYAN, Feb. 28.—Physical fitness is no prerequisite for running for public office in Brazos county. Roy Montgomery, who is a candidate for re-election as county treasurer, has no legs, while Roy Hudspheth, former tax collector and who is seeking election to that office again, is blind.

More Citrus Fruit

By United Press. SAN BENITO, Feb. 28.—An additional 15,000 acres of citrus fruits are expected to be planted in the Rio Grande valley this season, it is estimated here. Practically all plantings have been on a basis of 80 per cent grape fruit and 20 per cent oranges, mixed with lemons and lemons.

Expect 30,000

By United Press. FORT WORTH, Feb. 28.—Approximately 30,000 people are expected here to attend the annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in June. Nineteen committees have been appointed to take care of the delegates. One committee has started preparations for housing the delegates.

Much Milk Consumed

By United Press. BRYAN, Feb. 28.—The average per capita consumption of milk in the United States last year was slightly more than 1,000 pounds, according to J. A. Clutter, head of the dairy department of A. & M. college. In the past 10 years milk production in Texas increased 51 per cent. Texas leads the nation in the output of country butter, the production being 55,000,000 pounds. The production of ice cream in Texas last year was 5,000,000 gallons, he said.

LAST OF ALLEGED BANK ROBBERS TO TRIAL MARCH 19

Trial Of Robert Hill Tentatively Set For That Date, Plead Guilty When Arraigned

While the case of Robert Hill, charged with robbery with firearms in connection with the holding of the First National bank of Cisco on December 23rd, last, has not been definitely set for trial it has been tentatively set for March 19. Hill, when arraigned some weeks ago on the robbery with firearms charge, plead guilty. A few days following his arraignment Judge Geo. L. Davenport of the 91st district court appointed Judge L. H. Flewellen of Ranger to defend Hill.

W. D. Conway Elected President Ranger Chamber Commerce

W. D. Conway, formerly vice-president of the Ranger chamber of commerce, was elected to the position of president, at a meeting of directors held at the headquarters Monday night.

William M. McDonald, formerly second vice-president was moved to the office of first vice-president and Marvin K. Collie, was elected as second vice-president.

Collie's resignation as president, which was given to the directors some time ago, was officially accepted at the meeting last night.

Conway has been active in chamber of commerce and civic work since he has been in Ranger and has always been an enthusiastic worker.

He, together with McDonald, Collie, Wayne C. Hickey and W. W. Housewright, will assign the heads to the various departments this week, and concentrate work on a number of projects will be started.

There are some 14 various heads or subdivisions of the chamber and one of the directors is selected to act as chairman of the head and selects his members from the members of the chamber of commerce.

Conway presided at the meeting Monday night and set to work immediately naming committees to attend to various phases of work that had been before the directors for some time.

Collie was elected president of the organization at the beginning of the year but filed his resignation immediately. A lack of enough directors to make a quorum at previous meetings made it impossible to elect a man to fill the vacated position and it was not until the meeting Monday night that the position was filled.

SICK CHILD DOESN'T KNOW FATHER IS LOST WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Twelve-year-old Mildred Ellison tossed ecstatically on her bed in an Annapolis hospital today unaware that her father, Commander T. G. Paralytic Gains No Results From 35 Day Fasting

By United Press. OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 28.—Richard F. Kucharo who has fasted 35 days in an effort to cure paralysis has obtained virtually no results, a physician reported today. Kucharo said his treatment had had a good effect on his general physical condition. "I feel better every day," he asserted. The paralytic condition remains however. Kucharo has set March 6 as a tentative date for breaking the fast.

U. S. Talks Politics As Pre-Convention Battles Draw Near

By PAUL R. MALLON (United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON.—The end of another "eight year political cycle" and the prospects that it will as usual bring a change in national administration is giving zest to the pre-convention battles preceding the November presidential election. Politicians point that the history of the country from the start shows that regardless of parties or personalities there usually has been a change of administration every eight years—not necessarily a change in parties but a change in leadership with resultant new thought and new ideas.

In this century, they point out, there have been nearly eight years of Rooseveltian leadership, then eight years of Wilson and now concluding, almost a third cycle with President Coolidge at the helm, broken only by the four year term of President Taft. Democrats feel that the ever turning wheel has brought them a good chance this year to contest the eight years of continuous republican leadership while republicans are preparing to choose a new leader for what they hold will be a new eight-year republican era.

For these reasons the contests for leadership in both parties is more spirited this year than in ordinary years. In the republican party, Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover is battling against the opposition of a half dozen favorite sons and former Gov. Lozen of Illinois as a representative of the mid-western farm belt. Hoover is known as an engineer and a builder and is pledged to continuation of Mr. Coolidge's general policies. His friends say an administration with him at the head would in four years build power projects, flood control works and aviation facilities.

The open contest for the democratic nomination is being waged at this early date between Gov. Al Smith of New York and Sen. James A. Reed of Missouri. Nomination or election of either of them would mark a new age in democratic politics or an overturn of those now in control of the administration of national affairs.

Most of politics and political discussions now are confined to intraparty arguments over who is going to get the nomination. Until the candidates are selected it will be impossible for the republicans or democrats to find exactly the issues upon which they are going to fight each other in the election.

Developments thus far, however, point to the tariff as one of the primary points of difference.

Woman, Four Children Die In Quebec Blaze

By United Press. QUEBEC, Quebec, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Raoul Garneau, 35, with her four children was burned to death at Great Pine, near here today. Six other children in the house escaped. One child is in a hospital in a critical condition.

The baby victims ranged in age from 1 to 5 years.

Speak To Seniors WAWAHACHE, Feb. 28.—Dr. George M. Oakley, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Collingswood, N. J., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to graduates of Trinity university, June 3.

Dr. Oakley for many years was president of the Fairmount seminary, which was located at Weatherford before it was merged with Trinity university.

Will Visit Laredo LAREDO, Feb. 28.—Ten thousand American Legion members will come to Laredo in an excursion party at the close of the annual American Legion convention at San Antonio, Oct. 12.

Two bull fights, with the best breeders and most vicious bulls to be obtained in Mexico, will be staged for the visitors, according to Charles Munn, secretary of the Laredo Chamber of Commerce.

By United Press. AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—Beaumont was selected as the meeting place of the state democratic convention May 22, at a meeting of the executive committee here today.

An attempt to place a woman on the executive committee failed at the meeting when Mrs. T. A. Kindred of Mexico was defeated by Homer Jennings of Malin.

T. O. Davis of Center was elected to a vacancy in district two over Charles Bratchfield. The other vacancy in district 21 was filled by election of Winborn Pearce of Temple without opposition.

With only a few proxies to be offered by regular members the state democratic executive committee is meeting here today to make plans for the year's political activities.

Regular business to be accomplished was filling of three vacancies on the committee and selection of the place for the state democratic convention to be held May 22.

Friends of many candidates are here also to seek special action by the committee.

Organization Gives Idea of Big Highway Bond Issue In Texas

FORT WORTH, Feb. 28.—Under the $100,000,000 revolving highway bond issue, proposed by the Highway Club of Texas it is possible that $900,000,000 might be raised, but at no time would the obligation of the state exceed the original amount, according to W. T. Wheeler, general manager of the Highway Club.

Because of the fact that some newspapers in Texas misunderstood the meaning and application of the proposed bond issue, Mr. Wheeler issued the following statement:

As announced March, 1927, the Highway club of Texas is advocating a $100,000,000 revolving highway bond issue, to be redeemed with the gasoline tax. As the bonds are sold and used in highway construction, the amount of revenue received from the gasoline tax will retire a certain amount of bonds each year. Therefore, as the bonds are used and retired the fund becomes revolving, which might mean that $900,000,000 may be used, but at no time will the obligation of the state exceed $100,000,000.

The Highway club realizes that a $100,000,000 highway bond issue for the state would not get anywhere but by making it a revolving fund it simply means that we will continue to turn the fund over and over, to be used exclusively for the construction of highways, until the designated system has been connected up with the most durable type.

The better type of highway construction calls for less maintenance, and inasmuch as we are already paying a 3c gasoline tax, it should lessen the ad valorem tax, for the reason that the highway department would connect up the roads, without being compelled to wait on county bond issues. Under no circumstances, do we advocate a statewide bond issue to be taken care of with an ad valorem tax. Another important feature of the statewide revolving fund bond issue is that it will probably require an amendment to the Constitution in which a specific gasoline tax or an automotive license fee will be set aside for the redemption of the bonds, thereby assuring the motor traveling public of no increase in gasoline tax or automotive license fee, as the case may be. These being the facts in the case, how can anyone find objection to this important feature of our highway program?

 other men of that type in charge of arrangements.
 "Nothing will be too good for West Texans when they come to Fort Worth for the tenth annual convention of the West Texas chamber of commerce next June," was the terse statement of chairman Carter during the initial committee meet. Questions of details were turned over to various sub-committees, while the general arrangements group outlined major phases of work. Suggestion that registration fees be dispensed with was overruled on the basis that it would set bad precedent and would extend privileges to people not entitled to same, and the identical fee of the previous nine conventions agreed upon.
 Five thousand dollars was the sum allotted for the annual band contest, at which the official band of the West Texas chamber of commerce for the year will be determined. Business sessions, to be in the hands of executive officers, were set for from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. each day, these three hours to be respected by all activities, as usual. The remainder of the time was designated for carnival of fellowship, pleasure, and entertainment features.
 Departing from last year's plan, there are to be three big parades. The first event will be a Fort Worth affair. The second will take the form of delegations parade, and the third will be staged by schools and colleges. Hubb Diggs, parade chairman, spent the entire time at the Mardi Gras to gather new ideas for a spectacular show. A brilliant convention program is planned, in addition to which will be a rivaling display by El Paso.
 The "My Home Town Contest," choral contest, and others will attract more than usual numbers, with special group meetings will appeal to newspaper men, commercial executives, traveling men, agricultural and livestock organizations, and boys and girls clubs.
 Mrs. W. E. Moore, president of the Fort Worth Federation of Women's clubs, is in charge of women's activities, and has already planned a huge general reception to all women visitors at the convention, besides numerous other affairs.
 Raymond Gee, general entertainment chairman, is busy outlining a huge array of events, and has been given a liberal budget on which to work.
 President R. W. Haynie and Manager Homer D. Wade of the West Texas chamber of commerce, have conferred with the committees and sub-committees and announce that they feel confident that Fort Worth will entertain West Texas in a fashion hitherto unequalled in convention annals. It is their thought that the convention will fittingly mark the decadal year that the West Texas chamber of commerce has reached in its service to its territory.

FIRE THREATENS STANLEY HOTEL AT EASTLAND
 Fire that for a while looked as if it might do considerable damage, started in a flue in the Stanley Hotel building, Eastland, Monday evening. Burning papers in a stove in an apartment connected with the lady's shop on the first floor of the building, which is not a part of the hotel, is said to have been the cause of the fire.
 Eastland firemen responded promptly to the alarm and their efficient work prevented any spread of the flames and also prevented a great deal of damage.

ELKS LEAP YEAR PROGRAM DANCE.
 It only happens every four years that the ladies can have the sole right to say who they will dance with and how many times, and the Ranger Elks leap year dance, Wednesday evening, at their clubrooms will afford the ladies this unusual opportunity.
 Some of them have already started making out their programs, for the invitations had the programs incorporated therein, and it is probable that some of the programs will be nearly filled before the time for the dance arrives.
 This feature of the dance will probably permit some of the sheikhs and would-be sheiks to gauge their popularity by the number of ladies by whom they are besought for a dance.

Agriculturists Will Be Chosen By Ranger Chamber Commerce
 The directors of the Ranger chamber of commerce at the regular meeting held Monday night voted to pay their pro rata portion of the yearly salary for a vocational agriculturist for Ranger.
 Wayne C. Hickey, secretary, stated that he had received a letter from C. L. Davis, Austin, supervisor, which stated that he would be in Ranger in April to discuss the proposition with the directors.
 According to Hickey, it will be July 1 before an agriculturist can be secured for Ranger.
 All of the directors favored the engagement of a man for this territory and instructed Hickey to do everything he could to secure a good man for the position.
 Hickey stated that the salary for an experienced agriculturist ranged from $3,000 to $3,500 a year, while an A. & M. graduate in that line of work, but who had no experience, could be secured for approximately $2,500 a year. The directors favored securing an experienced man.
 R. F. Holloway, superintendent of Ranger schools, stated that the addition of such a line of work to the curriculum would add materially to the university rating. He stated that one and one-half credits could be secured for students who took the work.
 J. M. Gholson, president of the school board, stated that he thought the school board could see its way clear to pay its portion of the salary.
 The salary of a $3,000 a year man is divided between the federal government, the state and the city or schools. The government pays half of the salary, the state allows $400 and the remainder is paid by the school board or by the city.

DEFINITE MOVEMENT TO PAVE EASTLAND HILL GETS STARTED
 Billy Burke, paving contractor, engaged at the present in paving the Ranger streets, again last night submitted his bid of $31,000 for the paving of the stretch of road from Sue street to where the Breckenridge-Ranger highway begins on Eastland Hill, to the directors of the Ranger chamber of commerce.
 W. D. Conway, president, after some discussion, appointed a committee to appear before the city commissioners tonight and also to appear before the county commissioners regarding the matter.
 Burke's proposition is to lay out and pave a 30 foot street from Sue street, out West Main to the swimming pool. From there on to where the pavement of the highway starts an 18 foot highway will be constructed.
 The road will be of the same construction that the streets of Ranger are now being paved will be.
 The expense of paving the stretch was discussed at length by the directors. Approximately $12,000 would be assessed against the property owners if the street is designated. It was reported at the meeting that the property owners on Eastland Hill would be willing to bear a part of the expense of the paving.
 The committee will meet with the commissioners tonight to ascertain what amount the city can give to the project.
 It was also decided at the meeting to repair Commerce street in order to give perfect drainage and dispense with the water that stands in the street for days after each rain.
 Burke stated that the property

DOCTOR FOUND WOMEN AND CHILDREN SICK MORE OFTEN THAN MEN
 As a family doctor at Monticello, Illinois, the whole human body, not any small part of it, was Dr. Caldwell's practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.
 In the course of Dr. Caldwell's 47 years' practice (he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875), he found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pepsin. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in that year his prescription was first placed on the market.
 The preparation immediately had as great a success in the drug stores as it previously had in Dr. Caldwell's private practice. Now the third generation is using it. Mothers are giving it to their children who were usually given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it. Millions of bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are being used a year.
 Its great success is based on merit, on repeated buying, on one satisfied user telling another. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and we have gotten many hundreds of letters from grateful people telling us that it helped them when everything else failed.
 While women, children and elder-

Broadway Sets New Hair Vogue

"So many girls in my crowd are talking about the way they're doing their hair, I just had to try it," says Miss Dorothy Connor, 737 Beeson street, Brooklyn, attractive secretary for a prominent New York City business man. "You've no idea how silky and gleaming it makes your hair. And I don't have to shampoo mine more than once a month, now. Danderine keeps it so clean. All you do is put a few dashes of it on your brush every time you use it. It makes your scalp feel just grand. Your hair is lots easier to dress, and it stays in place wonderfully!"

You won't wonder at the overwhelming way millions of girls are showing their approval of Danderine, when you use it. It quickly removes that oily film from your hair, brings out its glorious color, gives it lustre. It dissolves dandruff, cleanses, tones and stimulates your scalp. All drug stores have the big 35c bottles. A fragrant necessity for the well-groomed girl.

One evening not so long ago we were doing a little work in the city of Snooperville. Of course, that ain't the name of the town, but it will do for the purpose we expect to use it.

Now people in Snooperville don't think a guy's a musician unless he either comes from California or some place like that, so we always claim to be direct from some place or other. Taking us for a total stranger, some of the town sports conversed quite freely in our presence and we learned a few things, namely, to-wit, and i. e.

That it is a generally rumored fact that Coaches Cherry and Davis have not been paid in full for their work last year, and that the presence of either of these two gentlemen would greatly enhance the prestige of any football team in West Texas.

That over in Snooperville they are devising various ways and means of raising sufficient funds to make Cherry an offer that he could hardly afford to turn down, especially in the face of the present status of his coaching salary. They will realize that he can't afford to quit here while he has so much coming to him and they are at present figuring on fixing that little matter up for him so he can leave without leaving too many shekels behind him.

Now there's a little piece of gossip that's worth while being considered, not on account of its source, but on account of the feasibility of the plan, for Cherry is generally recognized as a coach well worth having.

Now, don't get personal with us and ask too many questions, because you have received all the information you are going to get and if we didn't think so much of you we wouldn't have told you that much, but Snooperville wants to win a championship. Snooperville thinks they have a world of material. Snooperville has a lot of good sports who want the best coach they can get for their football team. They think they have a chance to get one.

Maybe they have.

Coaching School To Be Held at Abilene
ABILENE, Feb. 28.—Frank B. Bridges, athletic director of Simmons University, a graduate of the physical education school at Harvard, will conduct a coaching school at Simmons from June 11 to July 14, it has been announced. This will be the first full-fledged coaching school ever conducted in West Texas.

Bridges will be assisted by Edwin Kubale, former all-southern center, now line coach at T. C. U., Floyd (Jim) Crow, line coach and athletic director at Baylor and Earle (Mule) Frazier, nationally known trackman. Work will be given in coaching and scouting in football, track and basketball and in conditioning and training men. Baseball will be offered if enough so desire. Credit for one major in a degree in education will be given for the course. It will be arranged so that men taking regular academic work can attend.

Bridges is known throughout the southwest as the man who put Baylor on the map with two football championships and one baseball title. He is also famous on the Pacific coast as the coach of the Olympic teams. His influence has already brought two intersectional offers to the Cowboys, from the coast and from the University of Hawaii.

University of Texas Students Pay Visit To Refining Plants

Special Correspondence.
AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—An eight days trip for the inspection of chemical and refining plants in South Texas has been arranged for the 15 senior students in chemical engineering at the University of Texas, according to Dr. E. P. Schoch, professor of chemical engineering and head of the bureau of industrial chemistry of the university.

The students, 15 in number, will leave Austin March 23 and will return the following Sunday, according to Dr. Schoch who will accompany them and give lectures along the way. The trip is an annual event and is made with the idea of giving the chemistry student practical, first hand information as to what will be expected of him after he has graduated and is looking for employment.

Houston, Beaumont and Port Arthur will be the principal cities visited. The plants to be visited during the eight days are co-operating in every way to make the visit profitable to the students, Dr. Schoch said. The itinerary of the tour and the plants to be visited are: Monday morning, the class will visit the Texas Chemical company in Houston and see the processes involved in the manufacture of sulphuric acid, nitric acid, hydrochloric acid and bone charcoal. Monday afternoon the class will visit the Khune Paint and Varnish company, also in Houston.

Tuesday, the class will make an all-day inspection trip to the Humble Oil & Refining company's plant in Houston. Talks will be given by Dr. Schoch on the possibilities of the industry. In this plant there are employed four former students of the university.

Wednesday, the class will be taken through the plant of the Magnolia Gas Products company in Houston. This company manufactures oxygen, hydrogen and hardens cotton seed oil into lard.

Thursday, the class will be taken to Beaumont to inspect the Magnolia Petroleum company's plant. Friday and Saturday will be spent in visiting the Gulf and Texas company's refining plants in Port Arthur.

CITY MANAGER WARNS AGAINST LOOSE CHICKENS

Spring time and garden mean that if someone doesn't watch carefully and closely chickens, allowed to run at large in Eastland are going to do a lot of damage and for this special reason city officials are, at this time, calling attention to the fact that Eastland has an ordinance prohibiting chickens from running at large, said City Manager Chestham.

Methodist Workers Will Meet at Cisco

The place for the workers' meeting, of the First Methodist church, Cisco district, formerly announced for Wednesday, Feb. 29, has been fixed as Cisco. The meeting will convene at 10 a. m., Wednesday morning.

It will be a combination meeting, according to pastors of the various churches. Instead of calling for another gathering for Sunday school purposes it has been planned to combine this meeting with the district Sunday school institute.

The ladies of the Cisco church will serve light lunch at the noon hour. The meeting is for pastors, Sunday school workers, lay leaders, members of missionary and superannuate endowment committees and all others. A full day's program has been arranged.

Famous Cowboy Band Will Appear In New York This Summer

ABILENE, Feb. 28.—West Texas will be represented on Broadway this summer. The Cowboy band of Simmons university, the original and only cowboy band in the world, has been booked by Gilbert Sandefer, manager, to appear at the leading theatres of Manhattan from July 1 to Sept. 20.

Previous to the New York engagements, the band will play along the road on the way, being booked by Frank T. Kintzing, nationally known agent who handles engagements for Craetore's and other large bands. They leave Abilene June 1 in new 34-passenger parlor buses to arrive in time for the New York dates.

Sandefer had no difficulty in interesting the theatrical men of the great city in the band. That "cowboy idea" was something new to them and they told the Simmons representative that his band could stay on Broadway as long as it liked.

While in New York, Sandefer also signed a contract bringing Galli-Curei, world's greatest soprano, to Abilene. She will sing at the university auditorium on the evening of April 2.

One Round, One Right, One Requiem

SPORTSMATTER

The unsatisfactory outcome of the recent Olympic winter sports at St. Moritz, in which the United States representatives felt it necessary to lodge official protests against what they considered discrimination, emphasizes the need for further development of the competitive spirit in amateur athletics, according to a Harrisburg, Pa., correspondent.

The following letter, from a not unfamiliar contributor to this column is self-explanatory:

"Dear Sir:
The other day in the barber's I read about the Olympic winter bouts and I'm glad I did for they gave me an idea. I read where the Americans walked out good and mad after the Swedes or somebody had taken back the prizes.

Two Rivals for Gene.
One of Gene Tunney's best friends a man who is as close to the heavy-weight champion as any of his little group of intimates, was discussing a few days ago the prospects of the fighters who hope to relieve him of the title.

He seemed to think that of all the current troupe Tommy Loughran and Jack Delaney were the best prospects for the future, but he refused to grant either one of them much of a chance against the champion.

"If the contenders for the title were willing to put in the long period of training and preparation that Tunney went through to get into a championship match, they would stand a better chance," he said. "But they have been told that the big money day is passing quickly and that they will have to be in there soon to get some of what remains."

"Loughran and Delaney are the best of the logical contenders but weight is against each of them. Delaney is too old to put on enough weight naturally and Loughran seems off in the 10,000 meter skating race early in the morning when the ice was good and considering, he was up against a lot of tough Norwegian boys and Polacks he didn't do so bad, only 1 minute 19 1-2 seconds behind the record anyhow. Well, then, Carlson, who holds the record, he started to skate but by that time the ice was soft it took him 20 minutes so they called the race off because half the field hadn't started and you couldn't get no farther than a squirrel in a cage.

The Americans, with Gus Kirby doing the talking, protested.
"Protest over-ruled," said the watch maker who had charge of the show.
"Over-ruled hell!" came back Gus.
"Supposing we over-rule some of your milk chocolate and Gruyere cheese, where will you be?"
That is what I am for. What we need in amateurism besides a better and better expense accounts are the boys won't lose interest, is the competitive spirit. When a couple of boys in my district get in a fight, they knock each other down and stamp on him, which is the competitive spirit. They want to win. They better if they like their face.

That is the sort of thing we need in amateur games only openly and not smelted up with Houzigan like it is now. What we want to do is get these gusy to recognize the amateur spirit of no win, no expense account. Then we can put amateurism in the big money class and maybe get Tex Rickard or somebody interested and then the Olympics will be like football and other games and sportsmen, like us will be able to take some interest in them.
Hoping you will publish this, for it is the goods.
Respectfully yours,
JOE CARUPA."

PIONEER RESIDENT GORMAN DIES EARLY TUESDAY
GORMAN, Feb. 28.—Mrs. R. L. Chambless of this place died this morning about 6 o'clock. The funeral will be held from the German Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
Mrs. Chambless was the mother of Mrs. J. N. Poe of this city and has lived in Eastland county for the past 52 years. She was 68 years of age at the time of her death.

ments. He wants the name of the man well enough in advance of the date of the fight only that he may train for the particular kind of a fight that opponent may require.

He is not looking at his opponents as box office attractions as he feels that he will pack any arena as the champion and that he drew as many customers in Philadelphia and Chicago as Dempsey did. He insists that he is just as good a drawing card as Dempsey ever was and that all Rickard will have to do is to take in the dough when he arranges the match regardless of the challenger.

Rags Matthews Will Be In Ranger Friday

Raymond Matthews, the only one and original "Rags" will be a guest in Ranger Friday. He will make a talk to the boys' club at the high school in the morning and tell them something about the big game between all east and all west which was played out in California last fall. He will also have something to say to the boys about the value of clean living to the athlete and the value of athletics to the boy.

Coach Cherry has organized a club of 135 boys in the high school, most of whom are athletes, and any boy attending high schools eligible to membership in the club which meets twice a week. The purpose of the club is to create and encourage loyalty and promote better sportsmanship.

Due to the efforts of Coach Cherry the visit of "Rags" Matthews was made possible and the boys are looking forward in great anticipation to having him here in person.

Army And Navy Game At Ranger Friday

With a duel purpose in mind, Coach Blair Cherry has arranged for a fast and furious game of football to be played at Lillard field on Friday, March 2.

The two contestants will be the Army and the Navy, each team composed of Bulldogs who will represent the Ranger high school on the field of play next fall. In case you hadn't thought about it, the average weight of the men on these two squads is about 162. With a reasonable amount of good luck, the Bulldogs will have a chance to get some place in the race for district honors next fall.

The coaches have spent the week developing team work and the two teams are hot and ready for the fray. The other reason is that a small admission will be charged in order to defray a part of the expenses of the track team this spring.

The losers will buy (with emphasis on the "buy" part) a chicken dinner for the winners in this game.

The probable line up:

Army:	Pos.	Navy:
Mills	Left end.	McLaughlin
Love	Left tackle.	T. Hinman
Mitchell	Left guard.	Bumpers
Bohannon	Center.	Horton
Pratt	Right guard.	Caraway
Moffet	Right tackle.
Bruce	Right end.	Matlock
Bowden	Quarterback.	Blackmon
Hammett	Left Half	Seay
Whitehall	Niver or Thompson
Hamilton	Right half.	Glenn
Hulen	Fullback.

Garland Hinman will be captain of the Navy team, while Pud Hammet will captain the Army.

The younger intellectuals are now questioning the existence of time. Seems to us they are only trying to kill time.

Maybe those Liberty bonds traced to the Republican national committee by the Teapot Dome investigators were really guilt-edged securities.

THE "CANARY" MURDER CASE
By S. S. VAN DINE AUTHOR OF THE BENSON MURDER CASE

THE STORY THUS FAR
The thing that baffles Vance most is the jewel case. It had been opened with a steel chisel after being battered with a poker. It was found not far from the strangled body of Margaret Odell. In no way can anyone account for the presence of anyone in the apartment at the time of the murder, yet Vance is satisfied two men were there, one of them unaware of the presence of the other. Finger-prints lead to the arrest of Tony Skeel, after Cleaver and Dr. Lindquist have been questioned.
CHAPTER XX
(Wednesday, Sept. 12; 9 a. m.)
The following day, which was Wednesday, not only brought forth an important and, as it appeared, conclusive development in the Odell case but marked the beginning of Vance's active co-operation in the proceedings.

when he found she was out, he went straight home and stayed there.
"His alibi is that he sat up with his landlady till after midnight, playing Khun Khan and drinking beer. I hopped up to his place this morning, and the old girl verified it. But that don't mean anything. The house he lives in is a pretty tough hang-out, and this landlady, besides being a heavy boozer, has been up the river a couple times for shoplifting."
"What does Skeel say about the finger-prints?"
"He says, of course, he made 'em when he was there in the afternoon."
"And the one on the closet door?"
Heath gave a derisive grunt.
"He's got an answer for that, too—says he thought he heard some one coming in, and locked himself in the closet. Didn't want to be seen and spoil any game Odell might have been playing."
"Most considerate of him to keep out of the way," drawled Vance. "Touchin' loyalty, what?"
"You don't believe the rat, do you, Mr. Vance?" asked Heath, with indignant surprise.
"Can't say that I do. But our Antonio at least spins a consistent yarn."
"Too damn consistent to suit me," growled the sergeant.
"That's all you could get out of him?" It was plain that Markham was not pleased with the results of Heath's third degree of Skeel.
"That's about all, sir. He stuck to his story like a leech."
"You found no chisel in his room?"
Heath admitted that he didn't.
"But you couldn't expect him to keep it around," he added.
Markham pondered the facts for several minutes.
"I can't see that we've got a very good case, however much we may be convinced of Skeel's guilt. His alibi may be thin, but taken in connection with the phone operator's testimony, I'm inclined to think it would hold tight in court."
"What about the ring, sir?" Heath was desperately disappointed. "And what about his threats and his finger prints, and his record of similar burglaries?"
"Contributory factors only," Markham explained. "What we need for a murder is more than a prima facie case. A good criminal lawyer could have him discharged in twenty minutes, even if I could secure an indictment. It's not impossible, you know, that the woman gave him the ring a week ago—you recall that the maid said he was demanding money from her about that time."
"And there's nothing to show that the finger prints were not actually made late Monday afternoon. Moreover, we can't connect him in any way with the chisel, for we don't know who did the Park Avenue job last summer. His whole story fits the facts perfectly; and we haven't anything contradictory to offer."
Heath shrugged helplessly; all the wind had been taken out of his sails. "What do you want done with him?" he asked desolately.
Markham considered—he, too was discomfited.
"Before I answer I think I'll have to go at him myself."
He pressed a buzzer, and ordered a clerk to fill out the necessary requisition. When it had been signed in duplicate, he sent Swacker with it to Ben Hanlon.
"Do ask him about those silk shirts," suggested Vance. "and find out, if you can, if he considers a white waistcoat de riger with a dinner-jacket."
"This office isn't a male millinery shop," snapped Markham.
"But Markham, dear, you won't learn anything else from this Petronius."
Ten minutes later a deputy sheriff from the Tombs entered with his handcuffed prisoner.
Skeel's appearance that morning belied his sobriquet of Dude. He was haggard and pale; his ordeal of

Shop all day—without paying the penalty of Fatigue

You can do that if you possess a normal amount of energy, vitality and strength—and that, of course means HEALTH.
Thousands of women are constantly paying the penalty of fatigue as a result of some slight, extra demand on their energy and strength—a day's shopping—entertaining unexpected guests—a special luncheon or dinner—a theatre party—or a dance.
Fatigue is the danger signal on health's highway. When your regular household duties and normal daily activities leave you tired-out, listless and exhausted—too weak to enjoy the pleasures of life—it is time to start taking a good tonic such as St. Joseph's G.F.P.
This rich, vegetable tonic contains Nature's own medicines in the form of roots and herbs which have been used for over a century to invigorate and strengthen women. You can get the big $1.00 bottles from your druggist on a money-back guarantee.

San Antonio Making Plans For National Legion Convention

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 28.—Plans for the national convention of the American Legion to be held here October 8 to 12 will be gone into thoroughly when National Commander Edward F. Spafford visits this city on Saturday, March 3, as part of a three-day official visit to the state of Texas on March 2 to 4.

The head of the world war veterans' organization will enter Texas from Shreveport, La., according to Department Commander Walton D. Hood, of this city. He will be accompanied by National Vice Commander Dan Spurlock of Shreveport, and by C. E. McKenzie, commander of the Louisiana department of the Legion.

Representatives of the Texas Legion who will accompany the national commander throughout his tour of the state include Commander Hood, Department Adjutant Ross E. Cole, National Executive C. C. McMillan, Wayne Davis, State Membership Chairman Lewis I. Lauterstein and Philip B. Strapp, general director for the national convention.

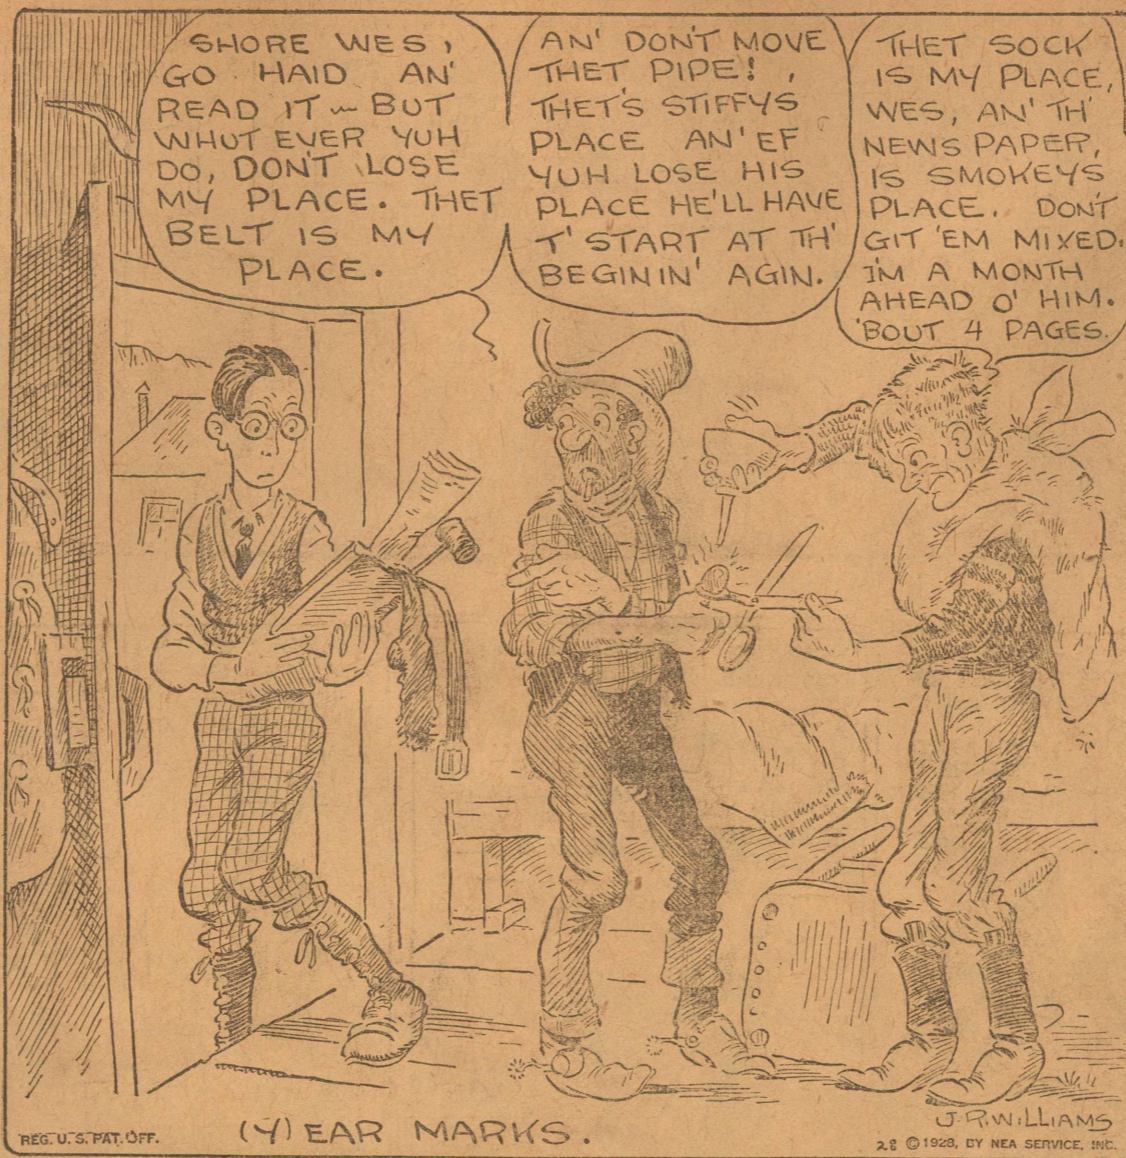

Galveston will be the first Texas city visited on the tour. Commander Spafford will be entertained at a banquet at the Galvez Hotel at noon on Friday, after which he will motor to Houston for the dedication of the new airport. A banquet will be held at the Brazos Hotel at Houston at 7 p. m.

The party will reach San Antonio over the Southern Pacific at 7 a. m. on Saturday. Commander Spafford will be the guest of honor at a public luncheon given by Alamo Post No. 2 of the legion at the St. Anthony hotel at 12:15 o'clock. Members of the legion and its auxiliary, Mayor C. M. Chambers and members of the city commission, officers at Port San Houston, representatives of the chamber of commerce and citizens generally will be present. Following the luncheon a reception will be held at which the commander will speak.

Conferences on convention plans, a sight-seeing tour of the city, a visit to the municipal auditorium (where the session of the legion convention will be held) and to the Alamo are also on the program.

The commander's party will leave San Antonio at 10 p. m., Saturday over the Missouri Pacific for a visit to the Lower Rio Grande Valley. A stop for breakfast will be made at Raymondville on Sunday. The party will then motor to various points. A general meeting will be held in the valley at the city winning a legion membership contest now on.

OUT OUR WAY

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON.—One of the most absorbing performances which the two political parties are about to offer a mildly interested nation in their quadrennial competition for the spoils of office and such perquisites as those may entail is that in which the democratic party will appear as a Magpie and the Republican party will take the role of a Clam.

That is to say, one party is going to talk and act like a magpie very angry about something and the other will talk and act like a clam.

This strange stunt may be enacted several times, but it is sure to be observed as democratic orators disembogue at their best and loudest against the oil scandals of the Harding administration. It will be recalled that when this issue arose in 1924 the democratic party followed the best traditions of magpieism and the republican party took its cue from clamdom.

In 1924 there were still some hard-boiled politicians—of the type that sent men to Montana to "get" Senator Wheeler—who still maintained that Fall was a far-sighted and conscientious official, while Doherty and Sinclair were super-patriots who had taken the navy's oil merely to save us from the Yellow Peril. The supreme court has spoken since then, however, and has denounced this involved in very strong language.

In 1924 Harding was dead and Coolidge, the candidate, had been a mere vice president when the oil gang got the oil and Fall got the money.

Whether or not the oil scandals and the new charges that Sinclair helped pay the party debt about the time the administration gave him Teapot Dome will have any effect in November, it is probable that election day will come without mention of the oil scandals by any important republican. Time G. O. P. attitude is that although it may have been indecent enough to break down the door that hid it, a dignified silence is the best answer to those who still drag it around the streets or dangle it before them.

Not once has the administration expressed itself upon the subject, not even to pat on the back the two able lawyers who have recovered the navy's reserves and kept the bloodhounds close at the coattails of Fall, Sinclair and Doherty. It has been as if no highly placed official or member of the congress, except he be a democrat or a republican of independent stripe, was at all interested. Of course, the light of recent charges that corrupt oil money helped pay party campaign debts, it was only human for the gents in power not to be especially enthusiastic over further prosecution and investigation.

INGRAM GOES TO McCAMEY FOR RETURN OF PRISONER

Chief of Police Jim Ingram, Ranger, left this morning for McCamey to bring back to Ranger a 23-year-old youth wanted here for theft over $50.

The boy was arrested by McCamey officials Sunday who notified Ingram of the arrest.

Romance Of World's Famous Fisherman

From early childhood this fisherman has been a familiar figure, yet few know the circumstances that brought him into use as trade mark. As the record reads, over a third of a century ago one of the founders of the house of Scott & Bowne, while on one of his annual trips to the Land of the Midnight Sun to select and purchase supplies of pure Norwegian cod-liver oil which has always been the basis of the merit of Scott's Emulsion, had his attention attracted to a strong, robust Norwegian fisherman, on the shore of one of the Lofoten Islands, who was just coming in with his daily catch and who was struggling under a heavy load. He had just brought ashore the largest cod-fish ever caught on that coast. Impressed with this unusual sight of the bronzed-faced fisherman with the large cod-fish strapped to his back, it was decided that they could be made into an effective advertising symbol, to send throughout the world in the interest of Scott's Emulsion of pure Norwegian cod-liver oil. Right on the shore the man with the big fish was sketched and later put into color, and since that day until now this picture has been sent as an advertising evangel in newspapers, magazines, on cards, posters, and in many other ways, to the ends of the earth.

Shortly after its origin the advantage of using this picture was more fully realized and it was registered as the Scott's Emulsion trade mark. For more than a third of a century it has annually been placed upon millions of bottles of Scott's Emulsion—guarantee of purity and goodness. Small wonder that the slogan, "See that the Emulsion that you buy always bears the Fisherman," has been accepted and endorsed by millions who know, from experience, the rich, tonic nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion.

Probably among all advertising devices or symbols used in the world, none enjoys greater prominence or is so widely known as this picture of the honest, bronzed-faced Norwegian fisherman, a picture of health taken out of real life. Those who take Scott's Emulsion are assured that it is cod-liver oil, rich, pure, health-building, pleasantly flavored, scientifically emulsified—and made easy to take and assimilate.

Texas And Pacific To Aid In Purchasing Bull

County Agent J. C. Patterson announced Monday that the Texas & Pacific railroad company would donate the price of a purebred bull to be placed in Eastland county when arrangements had been made to finance a ten bull "bull circle" in the county.

This announcement was made by Ollie Webb, assistant to the president of the Texas and Pacific railroad company at conference in Eastland Monday which was attended by W. C. Hickey, secretary of the Ranger chamber of commerce; J. E. T. Peters, secretary of the Cisco chamber of commerce; and Geo. W. Briggs, secretary of the Eastland chamber of commerce.

The purpose of the Texas & Pacific in making this offer is to encourage the "better dairy herd" movement in the county.

STOCKHOLM.—An instruction course in international peace work was held in Stockholm under the auspices of the International Women's Association for Peace and Liberty. The course, which was the fourth of a series given by this organization, was attended by many prominent Swedes and foreigners interested in the promotion of good will and understanding among the European nations. Eiel Lovren, Swedish minister of foreign affairs, spoke on the League of Nations. Lecturers on racial questions were Professors B. Karlgen and O. Nordenskjold of Gothenburg, while Rabbi Frenkel of Stockholm spoke of the peace movement among the Jews.
