R. R. EXECUTIVES NOT FAVORABLE TO PEACE PLAN

Prediction Made That It Will Be Voted Down This Afternoon.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—President Harding's proposals for settlement of the nationwide rail strike were made public today at the meeting of rail heads to consider them. They were three in number.

The first provides that the roads and men abide by the wage decisions reached by the labor board.

The second provides that all lawsuits brought by either side in connection with the strike be withdrawn and that disputes arising out of the walkout be left with the labor board for settlement.

The third proposal—the one calculated to provoke the most discussion when the conference meets this afternoon for a vote of acceptance or rejection—suggests that the strikers be taken back on a basis of the seniority which they enjoyed before they walked out.

The executives' conference, which met at the Grand Central terminal, adjourned until this afternoon without taking any action, after Secretary Hoover had presented the administration's position.

Those in close touch with the executives believe it a foregone conclusion that they will refuse to accept Mr. Harding's suggestion that men be allowed to return without impairing seniority rights. It was declared that the railroads believe such action would precipitate an even worse strike than that now in progress, because supervising forces which have shown ability to organize new forces would be forced to quit.

SHOPMEN MAY MAKE PEACE WITH INDIVIDUAL ROADS

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—A proposition that the striking shopcraft settle their strike with the roads that are willing to agree to President Harding's proposal, regardless of whether all the roads agree to them, will be placed before the meeting of union chiefs in session here today.

Executives of the six federated shop crafts went into conference today. Chairman Ben Hooper of the labor board was present. He was met at the train on his return from a conference with the President and escorted to the conference by J. O. Wharton, labor member of the board, and B. M. Jewell, head of the shopcraft.

NEW YORK CENTRAL STANDS PAT ON SENIORITY QUESTION

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 1.—The New York Central railroad today posted notices in all yards and shops over the entire system that it will not change its position on the seniority question in the shop strike and that it will stand by the old men who remained at work and the new men employed since the strike.

NEFF WAITS ON PEACE PARLEY BEFORE INCREASING GUARD

AUSTIN, Aug. 1.—Further movement of troops to Texas railroad centers depends on the outcome of the negotiations under way today, Governor Neff announced this morning. Adjutant General Barton on his return to Austin late today will render his report on the situation at Amarillo but no action is contemplated until the outcome of the peace negotiations is known.

CHICAGO 'LOOP' PARALYZED AS CARMEN STRIKE

Streets Clogged With Tightly Packed Motor Cars; No Cars Running.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Traffic was hopelessly confused and congested in Chicago's loop district today as a result of a strike of street car and elevated line employees. Automobiles and trucks, honking and tooting, were lined up for blocks, with no prospect of moving for hours. Some machines moved a block in an hour.

Many accidents were reported. Two trucks loaded with many workers crashed in a head-on collision and three were taken to the hospital.

Twenty thousand traction employees went on strike in Chicago today against a wage reduction, tying up the city's transportation system.

All surface cars and elevated trains were at a standstill and no immediate efforts will be made to operate with strikebreakers. The company asked the men to accept a wage of 60 cents an hour, a cut of 20 cents.

ABILENE MEN OPEN AUTO SUPPLY HOUSE ON WALNUT STREET

The Bailey Auto Supply company, which opened for business in Ranger three weeks ago following purchase of the supply and accessory stock of the W. H. Rogers garage, has moved into new quarters at 214 Walnut street, where a complete stock of automobile supplies and accessories will be installed.

The owners of the company are Julian Bailey and Gray Wooten, both of Abilene and members of the firm of J. P. Wooten & Co., accessory dealers, with branch houses all over West Texas. The Bailey Auto Supply company, however, is a separate and distinct company and not a branch of the Abilene company, it is declared. Members of the firm state that they decided to open a business here believing strongly in the future of Ranger and that they are here to stay.

Lee C. Franklin is manager of the company and F. H. Gray is assistant manager.

POISON PIES OF N. Y. RESTAURANT CAUSE 3 DEATHS

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Arsenic mysteriously placed in pie-dough was responsible for the death today of three persons and the illness of more than 100 more who partook of the poison pastry in a Broadway restaurant yesterday, a medical examiner's office announced after an investigation.

CITY BUILDING BRIDGE ON TIFFIN ROAD; NO. RUSK STREET GRADED

A bridge gang in charge of City Engineer M. H. Redwood is now at work on the construction of a wood and concrete bridge on the Tiffin highway, just south of the Hamon-Kell tracks, in line with the street department's program to bend every effort to keep the bridges, culverts and streets in the best repair possible with the limited funds available. The bridge is being constructed on concrete piers with the expectation of making it an all-concrete structure in the future.

A similar bridge has just been completed on Railroad avenue a short distance north of Hunt street and over a spot that has been almost impassable in wet weather. Railroad avenue is also being graded for about two and one-half blocks north of the paving on Hunt street.

Other work being done by the street department includes the opening of North Rusk street from the end of the paving to the Sinclair camp. Although dedicated as a street this section of Rusk street has been until the present nothing more than a narrow road full of holes and gullies. It is now being widened and graded. Mr. Redwood explained that other streets needing attention would be reached by the department as soon as possible.

AUCH, France, Aug. 1.—Forty persons were killed and 52 seriously injured when a special train carrying children to Lourdes crashed into another here today. Most of the occupants of the children's special were crippled children, bound for the Shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes, where miraculous cures are said to be performed. Helpless in the tangled wreckage, many died before rescue workers could reach them.

BLANTON 384 VOTES SHORT OF MAJORITY

ABLENE, Aug. 1.—Congressman Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene lacked 384 votes getting a majority over his three opponents in the election of July 22, complete official returns announced here today by District Chairman Cokrell, shows.

The official vote: Blanton 24,570, Callaway 10,438, Cunningham

Klan Kards Drop From Klouds as Oklahoma Votes

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 1.—The invisible hand of the Ku Klux Klan took part in the primary election being held in Oklahoma today.

Mysterious airplanes circled high above the city and surrounding country, sending showers upon showers of cards fluttering to the ground. The planes were too high for identification.

"If you are not legally registered do not try to vote," was printed on the cards. There was no signature to the warning, but on the reverse side of the card appeared a picture of a klansman in full regalia.

TOWN ROWDIES BEAT JOBLESS MAN TO DEATH

ALVIN, Texas, Aug. 1.—Claims that Ed Cooper, 28, found dead here late yesterday afternoon, was "pounded to death," were made by friends and neighbors of the dead man today.

Threats against Cooper, already worried because of his inability to find work, were made Sunday by a crowd of men thought to be "town rowdies," his friends say.

The collision took place at Lester station, a suburb of Cincinnati.

The ripping crash and explosions of steam were succeeded by screams of the injured. The cars were entangled and twisted into each other, presenting a terrifying aspect as those who were within the vicinity ran to the scene to render aid.

KLAN SPEAKER LECTURES HERE THURSDAY EVE

Dr. W. A. Hamlett, D. D., until recently pastor of the First Baptist church at Austin and formerly in charge of the Baptist missionary work in the Jerusalem area, will lecture in Ranger Thursday night on "The Principles of the Ku Klux Klan," according to a communication received this morning through the mails from Ranger Klan No. 150. The communication, written on Klan stationery, states that the address will be delivered from the bandstand adjoining the fire station on Elm street and will open at 8:15.

A special invitation is extended to women and children of the city.

Dr. Hamlett, who has had charge of numerous Baptist churches throughout Texas and Oklahoma, is heralded as a lecturer on European conditions, having made three trips through the principal countries there and through Palestine.

CIGARETTES AND KNICKERS NO PROOF OF DEPRAVITY

NEW YORK, July 31.—Cigarettes and knickerbockers for girls are not insignia of depravity in the eyes of law. So ruled Judge McLaughlin in the King's county court Thursday in reversing the conviction of Edna Hobbs Heych, 18 years old, of Brooklyn.

Miss Heych had been sentenced to three years in the House of the Good Shepherd by Magistrate Closkey and Thursday's decision was the result of an appeal. She was arrested last February in company with Jeanette Sandler, 15, and Vincent Lawless, both of Brooklyn, in a bungalow owned by the Heych girl's father at Bergen Beach. At the time both girls were attired in knickerbockers and smoking cigarettes.

Judge McLaughlin ruled cigarettes and knickerbockers are not evidence of immoral character. Attorney McNally, Miss Heych's lawyer, said he would bring suit against the Children's society and the arresting officer, alleging malicious prosecution.

BANS GERMAN WIVES

PARIS, Aug. 1.—The United States war department has issued an order forbidding members of the American army of occupation on the Rhine from marrying German women, according to a dispatch from Coblenz. Coblenz is headquarters of the American army.

In the past large numbers of American soldiers took German brides back home with them.

Willing to Waive German Reparations If All Countries, Including the United States, Will Cancel Obligations.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—In a note to the ambassadors this afternoon, Great Britain formally offered to abandon her claim to reparation from Germany and to cancel all allied debts provided this became part of an international agreement, including the United States.

"It cannot be right that one partner in a common enterprise should recover all she has lent, while another, recovering nothing, should be required to pay all she has borrowed," the note said.

MINERS' HEAD CALLS CONFERENCE TO MAKE PEACE IN COAL STRIKE

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 1.—A joint wage conference of operators and miners of the central competitive field, to be held in Cleveland next Monday for the purpose of negotiating an agreement to terminate the present coal strike, was called today by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

President Lewis also summoned the general policy committee of the union to meet in Cleveland at the same time, for the purpose of acting promptly upon developments as they may occur in the joint wage conference. The men will remain on strike until an agreement or a definite understanding is reached.

ILLINOIS OPERATORS DECIDE COURSE FRIDAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Illinois coal operators will pass on John L. Lewis' invitation for a central competitive field conference to the state operators' scale committee at a meeting Friday, the secretary of the coal operators' association said today.

INDIANA TO REFUSE?

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 1.—Indiana coal operators will not attend the conference called at Cleveland by President John L. Lewis, of the miners' union, to negotiate an agreement in the central competitive fields, President Gould of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' association declared today.

SAYS LEWIS IS SPOOFING.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 1.—"There will be no joint interstate conference of the central competitive fields and Mr. Lewis knows this to be true," President Kavanagh of the coal operators' association of the fifth and ninth districts of Illinois, stated here today.

PITTSBURGH OPERATORS TO CONFER WITH MINERS

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1.—Although repeatedly denying it would become a member to a four states conference the Pittsburgh Coal Operators' association today called a special meeting of its scale committee on John L. Lewis' invitation to a conference in Cleveland on Aug. 7.

YOUNG FARMER ASSASSINATED AT TEXARKANA

TEXARKANA, Texas, Aug. 1.—Archie Armstrong, a young farmer, son of Walter Armstrong, living 15 miles southeast of here, was shot from ambush and instantly killed about noon yesterday. He was standing on the front porch when the sound of a shot coming from a thicket 100 yards away was heard and the young man fell dead, with a bullet through his body. It is thought the assassin used a high-powered rifle.

There is no known motive for the murder. Sheriff John Strange wired to Shreveport for bloodhounds and then left for the scene of the tragedy.

Business Houses Close as Denison Prays for Peace

DENISON, Aug. 1.—All Denison prayed this morning that the nationwide strike of railroad men would end.

Every business house in the city was closed from 9 to 11 o'clock and business men and strikers, sympathizers and their families, crowded into four Protestant churches. With heads bowed they listened while four ministers besought God to "guide the railroad men to peace."

MISSOURI VOTE GIVES TEST OF WILSON'S POWER

Nomination of Reed Will Show Revolt Against Democratic Leaders.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 1.—Voters swarmed to the polls today to decide important issues in the state primaries in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma. Early polling was especially heavy, according to the first reports and indications were an unusually large vote would be cast in the three states. The day dawned clear and bright and predictions were for fair weather in the three states.

Missouri Race Watched. The attention of the country is centered on the senatorial fight in Missouri, where Senator James A. Reed and Breckenridge Long are seeking the Democratic nomination. The voters' verdict was expected to show whether a revolt similar to the Republican upsets in Iowa, Pennsylvania and Indiana is on in the Democratic party.

Reed, virtually ousted from the party at the San Francisco convention, seeks indorsement of his opposition to former President Wilson and the League of Nations. Wilson took a hand in the contest with a letter attacking Reed's record.

The women and farmers of the state carry the balance of power in the election. Both Reed and Long claim they will receive heavy majorities in St. Louis and Kansas City.

KLAN NOT ISSUE IN OKLAHOMA ELECTION

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 1.—Oklahoma politicians and campaigners fired their last shot last night and were today "standing by" for the verdict to be decided by votes in today's primary election. As a final maneuver in their respective races, the candidates issued statements saying: "I will win by a safe majority."

As a result of alleged official warnings to members of the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma to disregard efforts to "herd the klan vote," he nonpartisan question was again the big question in today's election.

Polls opened at 6 a. m. and the first polling indicated voting would be the greatest in the state's history. Twenty-one women are seeking nomination to state and district offices. Numerous other women are seeking places on the general election ballot this fall as candidates for county offices.

SEN. SWANSON LEADING IN VIRGINIA PRIMARY

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 1.—Senator Claud A. Swanson is leading Governor Westmoreland Davis for the Democratic nomination for United States senator, according to indications founded on reports of early morning voting in a dozen counties.

MAYFIELD NOT WORRIED OVER REPORTS OF INELIGIBILITY

FORT WORTH, Aug. 1.—Reports from Washington that his eligibility will be questioned if he is elected United States senator from Texas are "propaganda of the liquor enterprises," Earle B. Mayfield declared here today. Mayfield will open his runoff campaign at the First Baptist church here tonight.

"The people of Texas are still capable of selecting their senators without being dictated to by Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York," Mayfield stated.

"My candidacy is submitted to the people of this state, not to the Republicans and brewery interests of the North and East."

"I am going to the senate as the representative of all of the people of Texas, regardless of religion or creed."

Mayfield and James E. Ferguson are the candidates in the senatorial runoff primary.

SPORTS NO RULES AGAINST BUSINESS MEN CLOSING FOR LION-ROTARY GAME

Contest Tomorrow Will Be a Real Entertainment—First Affair Is Proof.

"If any of the store owners in Ranger want to close up and send their entire force out to the Lion-Rotary game Wednesday afternoon it will be highly appreciated by those who have to help hustle the money for the Nitro payroll. But, on the other hand, if said store owner refuses to go to the game or let his employees go if they want to, he will be dealt with in a manner becoming to and commensurate with the heinousness of the crime."

Thus saith the committee in charge of boosting the attendance at the game.

There is an ancient grudge between these two teams and the supporters of each side, so if you are a neutral just mention it to the usher as you go into the grandstand and you will be seated where there will be no danger of your being injured by flying missiles or being mistaken by one side or the other as being in sympathy with either side, thereby preventing your personal feelings from being injured by the quick exchanges of repartee between the onlookers.

The game will be played rather late in the afternoon so as to give everyone a chance to see the best game of the year and if you want to go, the boss will be glad to let you off, as all the money for the Nitros makes his contribution to the club a little less, and if he is not a regular contributor he will let you go quicker than ever—"dodging the draft," so to speak. You are assured of one and one-half to two hours of real, thrilling entertainment—ask anybody that saw the first game.

WEST TEXAS GAMES

JOHN KING IN RUCUS. ABILENE, Aug. 1.—A tight game became a massacre in the fifth inning yesterday, when the Eagles fell on Gressett for nine hits and nine runs. The final score was 13 to 6.

The wild inning was preceded by an even wilder fourth round, when John King, Eagle fielder, became incensed at the remains of a Sweetwater fan and entered the bleachers with a broomstick, with which he belabored his tormentor. An officer interfered, drawing his gun, and serious trouble was averted only when others came to his assistance. King was arrested but was permitted to finish the game, as Umpire Miers claimed he had no authority to banish him. The game was protested by President Aiken of the Sweetwater club.

Score by innings— R. H. E. Sweetwater . . . 100 002 300—6 14 3 Abilene . . . 100 092 001—13 8 1 Gressett, Frierson and Howze; Scruggs and Burch.

HOMERS BEAT STAMFORD. CLOVIS, Aug. 1.—Clovis took a free-hitting game Monday, 7 to 6, by pounding Appleton in the latter innings while Vick was pitching airtight ball. Stamford knocked Wetzell from the box in the fourth round. Four home runs, three triples and three doubles aided in running up the scores of both teams. Clovis got three of the homers.

Score by innings— R. H. E. Stamford . . . 200 400 000—6 14 3 Clovis . . . 211 000 21x—7 11 0 Appleton and Schmidt; Wetzell, Vick and Erwin.

MOORE STOPS GASSERS. AMARILLO, Aug. 1.—The Broncs hit Badger hard today and beat the Gassers, 9 to 5, grouping their hits in two innings. Moore, the Bronc spithaller, stopped the Gassers in spite of miserable support. Five errors and only one hit gave them three runs in the sixth. Amarillo protested the game because Dean was allowed to score from second on a passed ball, in the seventh round.

Score by innings— R. H. E. San Angelo . . . 003 001 410—9 14 7 Amarillo . . . 000 203 000—5 6 1 Moore and Klindworth; Badger and Byers.

NITROS KNOCK TWO PITCHERS COLD, WIN 9-2

LUBBOCK, Aug. 1.—The ball-busting Nitros humbled the Hubbers before their home folks Monday, smashing two pitchers into small fragments and winning 9 to 2. Not only that, but they outfielded the locals, whose five miscues aided the scoring to some extent.

Morgan was hopped on in the first round for three scores and was driven from the box when the Nitros threatened after Clayton had compiled a homer in the third. Cantrell weathered the storm momentarily, but the biffing gang from the oil town, displaying a form not previously shown here, smote mightily in the fourth, knocking in four more scores.

Leedy was the day's high man with the stick, with three, including a double. Clayton pried off a double in addition to his homer, and Conley also drew an extra base knock. What peeved Lubbock most, however, was a three-base rap pried off by Brooks in the thick of the fray. It didn't make Sled's deal for Flagg look any too good.

The Hubbers were helpless before Lybrand's shoots, getting only four hits, and their two scores came after the Nitros were sitting on top of the world with an eight-run lead.

Score table for Nitros vs Hubbers. Includes columns for AB, R, H, PO, A, E and individual player stats.

TITLE IS CLAIMED TO CITY

LOT ONLY 24x26 INCHES

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—"Property of the Hess estate which has never been dedicated for public purposes."

The words, in black and yellow tile in a space 24x26 inches, in the sidewalk at Varick and Christopher streets, aroused the curiosity of hundreds of passersby yesterday. It is probably the smallest parcel of privately-owned property in the city.

The small piece of realty is about a foot from the building line. It is believed that the bit of land was overlooked due to inaccurate surveying and that the estate had the tile placed so as to assert its title.

CHASES HUSBAND TWO MILES AND KILLS HIM

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—After a two-mile chase in commandeered automobiles, pretty Mrs. Gladys Kirkland shot and killed her husband, Percy L. Kirkland, Monday.

"He pounded me—beat me and kicked me like a dog," she sobbed as she made a full confession to the police. "I'm glad I killed him."

Crude Copper Hugs Aunt Emma's Spirit, Breaks Up Seance

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The seance broke up in commotion when a guest attempted to embrace the eerie spirit of "Aunt Emma."

The details, aired in court here, showed "Aunt Emma's" celestial waist was quite material.

According to the evidence a stranger attended a spiritualistic seance presided over by William R. Thompson; all the lights were out except a red lantern waved by Thompson. An ethereal voice was heard in a cabinet. "Does any one here know Emma?" asked Thompson.

"Twas His Aunt.
The stranger said that he had an Aunt Emma, who had departed.
"It is she," said Thompson. "She has a message for you."
"That proposition you have in mind will turn out all right," the spirit remarked.

"Is it possible for me to see Aunt Emma?" asked the stranger, not satisfied with that class of indefinite messages.
Thompson waved his lantern approvingly. The curtains parted and the white clad figure of "Aunt Emma" emerged.

Embraces Emma.
The stranger approached. He seized "Aunt Emma" around the waist. It was quite like any other woman's. "Aunt Emma" resisted. The two went over in a scrambling heap.

"Aunt Emma's" veil was torn off. Some one switched on the lights and, lo, "Aunt Emma" had vanished and in her place was Thompson's indignant wife.

The stranger revealed himself as Patrolman Andrew McLaughlin. He cited the Thompsons to court.

The testimony also showed that before this episode broke up the proceedings there was a noise behind the curtain as though some one had stumbled over a chair.

Thompson explained it at the time, witnesses testified, by saying the spirits had caught hold of a protruding trumpet. He put it aside.

Witnesses also said the services were opened with prayers and hymns. One of the songs was "Some One Is Waiting For Me, I Know."

BANK ROBBERS' LOOT IS FOUND ON HIGHWAY

GRANBURY, Aug. 1.—A number of safety deposit boxes containing notes, deeds and various kinds of private papers were found three miles west of Granbury Sunday beside the Granbury-Stephenville highway, having evidently been thrown from an automobile some time Saturday night.

Among the papers are a number of empty envelopes which evidently had contained Liberty bonds, savings stamps and other valuables, from their markings.

The Morgan Mill bank robbery, of which the papers found were part of the loot, occurred some time ago.

HAS NEW DEVICE FOR PHOTOGRAPHING HEAVENS

Here is shown Prof. George H. Peters, of the U. S. Naval Observatory at Washington, D. C., photographing astral bodies by use of the only electrically driven clock photographic telescope in the world. This device, eliminating the use of the pendulum and replacing it mechanically, is used to keep the particular star desired in the same position on the photographic plate, and it is done by moving the telescope at the same speed as the planet moves in relation to the earth.

"Brother Charley" Bryan Pushes W. J. Out of Nebraska Limelight

OMAHA, Aug. 1.—Charles W. Bryan of Lincoln, who has just been nominated for governor by the Democrats, has suddenly become "Mr. Bryan" in Nebraska politics. For twenty years he has been simply "Brother Charley." In those years when a Nebraskan said "Mr. Bryan," he referred to William Jennings Bryan, but now "Mr. Bryan" means Charles W. Bryan.

For twenty years C. W. Bryan lived in the shadow of his brother William J. Part of the time he was William J.'s private secretary. Another part of that time he was William J.'s publisher. Some more part of that time he has been William J.'s editor. Now he is both publisher and editor of William J. Bryan's newspaper.

Mr. Bryan is 55, and has been in Nebraska for 31 years. He came to this state from Salem, Ill., where he was born. For a time, before his brother got to be big enough to have a private secretary, Charles was a traveling cigar salesman.

He has the reputation of being able to talk just as long as William J. can, but not quite so entertainingly. He can make a "pretty good speech, but he is not in it with his brother William as an orator.

Mr. Bryan is bald on top. He wears a black skull cap. He used to wear this cap when he posed for photographers, but in the last year or two he has discarded the cap when his picture is being made.

He's a big, upstanding man, above six feet tall, with lots of pep. He comes down the street in a swinging walk, head up, shoulders back.

This is not Mr. Bryan's first essay in politics. He has wanted to be governor of Nebraska for a long time, and has talked before about becoming a candidate. In 1916, he was a candidate before the primary, but was not nominated. He has been a member of the Lincoln city council several times, and was mayor one

MOVIES INSPIRE JAPAN'S FIRST TRAIN HOLDUP

TOKIO, Aug. 1.—Japan is getting all the fancy trimmings of Western civilization.

For instance, the first train robbery ever known in this land took place the other day. The whole country went wild over it. Never a train robbery before—and here was a real one, staged in approved American movie fashion.

The papers were filled with indignant outbursts from irate citizens and with scathing editorials denouncing the "crime wave" and those who failed to prevent it.

But underneath it all there was something of a whimsical affectation of pride in the affair. As one of the humorous weeklies of Tokio said: "We are in no wise behind occidental nations in modern apparatuses of travel. Japan can have just as good train robberies as anybody!" "Wild West stuff" in American moving pictures inspired the bandit police officials here think. That, however, is conceded to be speculative since the bandit hasn't been caught or interviewed.

"Stick 'em up!" was the command in English of the masked bandit. Then he repeated his order in Japanese—flourishing casually a big pistol to the while.

The passengers, while inexperienced in their roles, had also, doubtless, been to the movies and knew how to conduct themselves properly under such circumstances. They "stuck 'em up" in the orthodox fashion and were relieved of their loose change.

Then the bandit did something that proved his nationality no matter where he may have received his training. "I am humbly grateful to you honorable ladies and gentlemen!" he said, and bowed his thanks. The politeness of no nation save Japan could have inspired that.

CIVIL WAR HERO DIES AFTER READING OWN EPITAPH FORTY YEARS

RAVENNA, O., Aug. 1.—John Bergin is dead after viewing his epitaph on the Cleveland soldiers' monument for 40 years. Bergin, who served through the Civil war with the Union army, was shot through the head in one of the later battles of the war. He was left on the field as dead and was reported to the war department as having been killed in action.

He finally recovered, but it was years before it was known by his friends that he was alive. He returned to Ohio, but meantime his name was entered on the memorial shaft in Cleveland as one of the martyred dead and has remained there for 40 years.

Bergin read the epitaph, he said, on each occasion that he visited Cleveland and enjoyed telling the story of its existence.

He died at his home at Pippin Lake, near here.

Boulevard Flappers Cause Auto Accidents Chicago Police Assert

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—A concerted drive on the "boulevard vamp"—most deadly of the female species—has been ordered by Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris.

"A vamp on the sidewalk is worse than two in the tonneau," Police-woman Mary Ready declared as she prepared to stalk the wary females.

Ward on the sidewalk flappers was ordered when police learned that Michigan boulevard was becoming fraught with danger for Chicago's unprotected males.

"If they'd only vamp the guy on foot instead of the Adonis at the wheel it wouldn't be so bad," Police-woman Ready, the chief vamp detector, said.

"They insist on decoying some handsome young man just as the traffic cop signals 'go.'"

"Result: A jam, a busted fender, probably harsh words, police court and a fine for the male."

"And of course it was the chic little thing with the naughty smile that was to blame."

"It's not safe for a man with an eye for women to drive down Michigan boulevard. The vamps are out in scores, and if they don't land him at one corner, they will at the next."

The first skirmish with the vamps netted six—mostly giving the professions of models and manicurists. They were charged with disorderly conduct.

"The vamp is shy of arrest," Mary explained as she hid behind a corner lamp post.

"When we locate her we have to trail her patiently and then swoop down on her—if we don't Miss Vamp will take to her heels and run like—well, she's run away."
