It is alleged that the canteens contained liquor which was poured from a faucet at the lower end.

Confers With Union Leaders at White House; Southern Railroad Seeks Separate Peace on President's Terms

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Negotiations to end the strike of railroad shopmen were resumed today by President Harding. B. M. Jewell, president of the railroad employes' department of the American Federation of Labor; W. H. Johnston, president of the machinists; and J. N. Noonan, head of the electrical workers' brotherhood left the White House after an hour of conference with the chief executive, expecting to be recalled on Monday.

It was not disclosed whether the President had communicated again with railroad heads whose refusal this week to agree to his proposal to give returning strikers back seniority status terminated the first settlement attempt, but the strike leaders said after the conference that the proposals as originally outlined by the President constituted their irreducible minimum in seeking honorable settlement.

H. G. Wills, J. Paul Stephens and Arthur J. Lovell, representing respectively the engineers, trainmen and engine men and firemen, saw the President and presented the possibility that grave prospects of further rail unrest were in sight unless the shop situation was straightened out. It was understood that while they did not set up a possibility of sympathetic strikes by their membership, they declared that the conditions of the railroad equipment, locomotives particularly, on many roads was growing to be such that train crews might refuse service.

A meeting between general chairmen of shop workers on the Southern railway and operating officials, set for today, was postponed until Monday because all of the representatives of the men had not arrived in Washington.

Wants Separate Peace.

The Southern has acted differently from the other roads of the country and has offered a separate settlement on the basis of President Harding's proposals without reservations. Officials of the shop unions, though informed to a degree concerning the representations made by the brotherhood representatives at the White House, declared they had no connection with the move. All participants believe that the President, if he intended to exercise further suasion on the railroad executives, would ask no further concessions from the men other than that involved in his original proposal of accepting the labor board's decision and returning to work pending rehearing.

Jewell and Johnston called on Samuel Gompers at the American Federation of Labor headquarters after the White House visit and two of the representatives of shopmen on strike in eastern territory were called into Washington for the week-end to discuss the strike with the national officers.

Union Busters Busy.

Gompers gave out a statement tonight which charged that organized employing and financial interests were rallying to the support of railroad managements in order to link up the railway strike with a unified union smashing campaign. Gompers, to support his charges, presented a telegram which he declared the National Industrial Council of New York had just sent out, urging its membership to send a volume of expressions of associations, but particularly of individuals, to the President, sustaining the position of railroads on seniority; assist railway officials to man shops and to bring pressure on presidents of the roads in your territory to stand firm in their position to date.

WOULD TELL HARDING OF 'ARMED GUARD' MENACE

By Associated Press.
CINCINNATI, Ohio, Aug. 5.—A conference "to prevent further fatalities to our membership on account of defective equipment and armed guards in shops and yards" is asked in a telegram sent to President Harding tonight by E. H. Fitzgerald, president of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Station and Express Employees.
Fitzgerald in making the telegram public through the Associated Press, stated he had instructed J. J. Forester, national legislative counsel of the brotherhood at Washington to arrange a conference with the President

Monday to lay before him all the details of the situation.

Claims Lives Endangered.

"Unless armed guards are withdrawn from railroad shops and yards," Fitzgerald said in a statement issued in a telegram, "we will be compelled to advise our members not to strike to remain away from their usual places of employment until their safety can be assured."

The telegram said that "in view of the attitude of the railway executives and the situation facing our membership, I am convinced that we should arrange a conference with President Harding at the earliest moment. If you agree, would you instruct our Washington representative to make arrangements that we proceed to Washington and lay before the President the entire situation?"

Fitzgerald stated that he was receiving daily protests from the members that the use of armed guards in shops and yards endanger the lives of our members. He said that in many yards men have to work with defective equipment which in at least one instance has caused the death of one member.

Wants Parley at Washington.

Telegrams were also sent by Fitzgerald to Warren S. Stone, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employes department of the American Federation of Labor proposing that the representatives of the five organizations would hold a conference at the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks' headquarters in Washington Tuesday at noon.

Fitzgerald stated that an effort would be made to hold the conference with the President Tuesday.

CITIZENS URGE REDUCTION OF ORIENT'S TAXES

By Associated Press.
SAN ANGELO, Aug. 5.—Citizens in mass meeting here last night appointed a committee to urge Tom Green county commissioners to reduce the tax valuation of the Orient railroad in this county to $100 per mile. Clyde M. Keed of Parsons, Kan., chairman of the Kansas public utilities commission, told the meeting this was one way in which the territory served by the road could aid in averting the threatened suspension.
Keed declared abandonment of the Orient within six months is certain unless it obtains more traffic and reduces expenses. Clarence E. Gilmore, member of the Texas railroad commission, another member of the inspection party, urged that towns on the Orient line give it all the possible traffic.

Keed said the Orient railroad is now being operated solely for the benefit of the people, that in but three of 18 years has its revenues exceeded operating expenses and that a dividend had never been paid. He said investigation so far refutes any charges that the Orient management is inefficient.

The wounded are being cared for at the Methodist church, which has been turned into an emergency hospital. Mrs. Massengale, Fairchild and Mrs. Vestal are the most seriously injured.

The accident occurred at the Texas company camp, two miles northeast of Pioneer, as Massengale was preparing to grease a wagon, mistaking the high explosive for linseed oil. A wooden shack a dozen feet away was demolished and the explosion felt three miles.

E. J. McGouldrick, district manager of the Independent Torpedo company, with headquarters here, declared tonight that he was unable to understand the report that the nitroglycerin belonged to his company and felt sure that the report was erroneous in regard to the ownership.

All explosives, he explained, are carefully checked by the company representatives and accounted for.

VERA CRUZ LABOR UNION BOYCOTTS PIERCE OIL CO

VERA CRUZ, Aug. 5.—The union port workers here have declared a boycott here against the Pierce Oil corporation, owing to the closure of the company's refinery here. The workers allege that the company has refused to indemnify former employees who are now out of work. SCORES MANGLED AS WRECKAGE TUMBLES DOWN MISSOURI HILL

More Than 60 Dead and 100 Injured as Four Cars Telescope; Most of Dead Are St. Louis Boy Scouts

By Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 5.—More than 60 persons were killed and about 100 injured tonight when fast train No. 4 on the Missouri Pacific, enroute from Fort Worth to St. Louis, crashed into the rear of the local passenger train known as No. 32 at Sulphur Springs, 26 miles south of here.

Four rear coaches of the local were telescoped and went crashing down into a ravine about ninety feet below the tracks, and from which came the cries of the injured and dying. The accident occurred at the Sulphur Springs station, where the local passenger had stopped to take water. Engineer Glenn on the fast train was instantly killed and his fireman, J. E. Kinsley, was badly injured.

Most of the injured, it was said were Boy Scouts who were returning from their summer camp at Ironton, Mo., about 100 miles south of the scene of the disaster. The names of the dead are not known and many are said to be so badly mangled that identification is impossible.

Relief trains from here, Poplar Bluff and De Sota were sent to the scene of the wreck carrying all physicians available from towns along the line. The relief train from Poplar Bluff was manned by union men now on strike, who offered their services when they heard of the wreck.

Because of the confusion and debris, the relief work was generally hindered and only slowly could the injured be taken from the wreckage. Among the first dead to be taken out were Rev. V. O. Penley of DeSota, Mo., Miss Irene Moon of Festus, Mo., and Engineer Glenn.

FEDERAL RESERVE HEAD CHARGED WITH PROFITING BY DEFLATION

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Belief that Governor Harding of the federal reserve board had speculated personally in cotton while directing the deflation policy of the board in 1920 was expressed in the senate today by Senator Heflin of Alabama, in another speech against reappointment of Governor Harding.

"Lots of people," Heflin said, "believe that the governor of the board was speculating himself in cotton at the time of this deflation. What other motive could he have had?"

Senator Heflin also reiterated charges that Wall street was behind the alleged deflation policy and that portions of the press were suppressing speeches against Governor Harding. "A large portion of the press is clean and I respect it, but a large portion can be bought like sheep," said Senator Heflin.

ROCK WORK ON THURBER ROAD IS UNDER WAY

Road Not Closed But Motorists Are Warned They'll Meet Inconveniences.

The work of rocking the Bankhead Highway from the Hamon-Kell tracks to the county line near Strawn is now under way and the route, while not closed, has become exceedingly difficult for motorists. Marvin Hood is the subcontractor and it is stated that by the first of this week ten trucks and fifty teams would be at work and that it would be a great help both to the contractors and travelers themselves if traffic was diverted over another route wherever possible.

Sledge rock is to be used on a portion of the road and crushed rock on the other, the contractor said, but could give no details as to the type of paving, if any, that has finally been decided upon by the commissioners court.

Two rock crushers are to be set up for the work, one near the contractors' camp at Russell creek, about five miles from Ranger and the other at the foot of the big hill. Mr. Hood was formerly in charge of the construction of roads around Gorman.

It is reported that brick is being laid on the Bankhead Highway near Olden.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS WILL NOT FIGHT REED

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 5.—Following a conference of anti-Reed Democrats this afternoon it was said that no action would be taken to pursue the reported movement to put an "independent Democrat" in the field in an effort to defeat United States Senator James A. Reed for re-election at the November election.

First information that such a movement was afoot was made public by the St. Louis Post Dispatch today which stated democrats opposed to Reed had considered the plan since Reed's nomination over Breckenridge Long was assured several days ago. Long denied to the Associated Press that he had taken or would take part in such a move. At the same time he refused to make any comment on the outcome of the election, merely saying he was sitting tight.

REPRODUCTION MADONNA OF LORETTO STATUE COMPLETED

ROME, Aug. 5.—The reproduction which the late Pope Benedict XV ordered made of the famous Madonna of Loretto now is completed. The original statue was burned last year with the altar on which it stood in the Holy House of Loretto.

Pope Pius has examined the reproduction, designed from photographs of the original, finding it a marvelous likeness of the original. It is a small figure of the Madonna and child and like the original was carved from Lebanon cedar.

The original was popularly believed to have been sculptured by St. Luke, but the workmanship suggested it dated from the latter half of the fifteenth century.

BIG ADDITIONS MADE TO PLANT OF STANDARD TANK & STEEL CO.

The capacity and payroll of the Standard Tank & Steel company on the Tiffin road has been increased approximately five times with the installation of overhead and jib cranes and additional machinery. Fifteen men are being worked daily at the plant where formerly four or five were employed and the company is busy turning out orders for its branches at Cross Plains, Eastland, Breckenridge, Graham and Caddo and for the Ranger territory.

The new 60-foot overhead crane with jib cranes projecting from the sides carries huge sheets of steel to the shearers, punches, and other machines recently installed, each separately driven by electric motors. A new air compressor and a new-air reservoir have also been installed. The size of the overhead crane is to be doubled, it was announced at the plant yesterday and a building 128 by 40 feet constructed over the crane and machinery.

The new machinery is of a powerful type and handles almost any thickness of steel. Beside tanks and boilers the plant turns out tool boxes, derrick barrels, smokestacks and other steel work of similar nature.

L. C. McFall is president of the company, L. L. Rector is field superintendent and S. E. McCaskell is plant foreman.

How We Sell Used Cars

When you buy a used car from us you purchase it on the same basis as a new car fresh from the factory. The same merchandising policy governs either transaction. Whether the car be new or one that has been used, the purchase price represents the same proportionate values. One dollar buys as much motoring value in one case as in the other.

This is the only sound basis on which used cars can be bought and sold. Furthermore, as in the case of our new cars, our interest in your purchase continues after the sale is made because we recognize that in the long run business success is built on the Good Will of satisfied customers.

The extraordinarily low prices at which used cars can now be bought is common knowledge. It only remains for the purchaser to make his selection from cars of reputable make handled by dealers who tell the truth about a car's condition and give every man a square deal.

We Guarantee our used cars to be exactly as represented or money refunded.

HUDSON-ESSEX TO BE HANDLED BY HUB GARAGE

The Hub City Garage has obtained the agency for the Hudson and Essex cars, formerly held by the W. H. Rogers garage, and will commence the construction of a sales room on the Rusk street side of their building, where the accessories department is now located. Plate glass windows will be installed and the display room made one of the most attractive in the city. E. E. Dreby, secretary and treasurer of the company, stated last night. The vulcanizing department, now occupying a portion of the front end of the building, is to be moved to the rear, fronting Pine street.

Parts Here Tuesday. The company plans to have a number of new model Hudsons and Essexes on the floor as soon as the railroad strike conditions will permit. A number of cars consigned to Dallas are now tied up at Demison. A large stock of parts have been ordered and is expected here Tuesday by express. Any parts not kept in stock can be obtained for Hudson or Essex owners within 24 hours, Mr. Dreby said, except parts which have to be shipped by freight.

In deciding to take over the Hudson and Essex agencies, E. L. Chapey, president, and Mr. Dreby were moved by the big improvements offered in the new models of both cars. The new Hudson will develop 76 horsepower, Mr. Dreby said, and will average between 16 and 18 miles on a gallon of gas, while in many instances they have made from 18 1-2 to 20 miles a gallon. The engine has been made more silent and practically vibrationless. On the Essex cars, he said, the trouble experienced with the oil pump has been eliminated and material improvements made.

It has been asserted that quills have been used for writing as early as the fifth century.

N. Y. FLYERS PLAN START TO BRAZIL ON AUGUST 12

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Final arrangements have been made for an 8,500-mile flight from New York to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, to be undertaken early this month by Walter Hinton, one of the pilots of the NC-4, first aircraft to cross the Atlantic.

An H-16 flying boat, equipped with two 400-horsepower Liberty motors, has been bought from the navy department, and the tuning up of this powerful air cruiser has begun at the navy aircraft factory at Philadelphia.

Mr. Hinton will have in his party Da. E. Pinto Martins, a well known Brazilian, as navigator; John Wilsbush, chief mechanic; a historian of the flight, a Pathe motion picture camera man and a radio operator.

It is expected that the start will be from West 86th street Aug. 12. Mr. Hinton will fly to New York Aug. 8 to load the flying boat.

Bedecked with American and Brazilian flags, the aircraft will be moored off West 86th street for ceremonies which are to dedicate the flight as a hand wave from the American people to the people of Brazil.

If successful, this flight will be the first between the Americas and one of the longest ever undertaken. The arrival in Rio de Janeiro will be about Sept. 7 the opening day of the World's exposition there celebrating the centennial of Brazilian independence from Portugal.

PLEADS THAT MASONS BE PROTECTED IN HUNGARY

BUDAPEST, Aug. 5.—Victor Drozdy, liberal member of the Hungarian parliament, Saturday spoke about the persecution of the Freemasons and demanded from the authorities a fair and speedy restitution of all the buildings and movables taken from them. He further demanded that persecution of the members of lodges cease.

He pointed out Hungarian Freemasons have contributed remarkably to the progress and development of Hungarian culture. He emphasized that all civilized nations esteem the liberality and appreciate the work of freemasonry, especially in line of charity; while in Hungary the lodges have been plundered, requisitioned by military and political organizations.

The great symbolic lodge of Hungary was attacked two years ago by a mob, he said, and after private documents and furnishings had been ransacked, the building was transformed into headquarters for a reactionary political society.

Freemasons were cowed by threats and their humanitarian work stopped, he charged. He demanded a strict accounting and called for the punishment of those who are taking advantage of the disturbed mind of the people to hinder the peaceful and beneficial activities of the society.

Drozdy's interpretation of the situation occasioned something of a sensation. It was the first daring and open defiance hurled against the forces operating against the lawful rights of citizens.

MARK TWAIN FILM POKES FUN AT HISTORY

"Fun with a purpose" is what Mark Twain gave the world in "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," which, presented by William Fox as a special film production, is now playing at the Liberty theatre. Mark Twain wrote this great comic romance first to make the world laugh and second to "show up" King Arthur.

Twain had not a very high opinion of the Knights of the Round Table. He had heard too much about them. Ruskin and William Morris had been feeding the public on the Middle Ages, and it had become the fashion to believe that everybody dead and gone was better than everybody alive. Tennyson's "Idylls of the King" made Mark Twain sick. He was tired of the Middle Ages. Ladies languishing in high, inaccessible towers, waiting for knights to come and rescue them, did not appeal to him at all. He had been brought up on the Mississippi, and he had the idea that one Mississippi riverman was as good as several of the Knights of the Round Table, and probably a lot better. Sir Galahad he considered a wishy-washy sort of hero; he preferred Tom Sawyer.

"I'll show up King Arthur and his well known knights," said Mark Twain, in effect. So he wrote a book describing the adventures of a modern, smart, clever young American at the court of King Arthur.

One of the first things this young American, Martin Cavendish, discovered was that Arthur and the knights were victims of superstition. Then he discovered that the plumbing of King Arthur's castle was very bad indeed. The vaunted knights did not take a bath any too often, and the ladies of the court were not particularly attractive.

Worst of all, the Knights of the Round Table were no great shakes hard wood, using a piece of glass for a hammer. A thin glass tumbler was heated in a stove to such a temperature that wood placed in it was charred to ashes.

The glass not only stood the heat, but even remained unbroken when plunged into cold water while still in an overheated condition, says Popular Mechanics. The carborundum stones used for cutting ordinary glass cannot be used on the unbreakable glass, as even a diamond sometimes fails to cut it, due to its extreme toughness.

UNBREAKABLE GLASS WITHSTANDS ALL TESTS

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—According to recent reports, a Bohemian inventor, after thirteen years of research, has succeeded in producing unbreakable glass. At a recent demonstration, it is said, plates and vessels of the material remained whole when thrown to the ground from a height of 12 feet. Meat was roasted on a thin glass plate over an open fire at a temperature of 750 degrees Fahrenheit. Tin was melted in a glass pot, and nails were driven in a piece of when it came to fighting. Martin, armed with a revolver and a lasso, defeated the whole company of them in a great tournament, and then turned around and told the king that all this talk about nobility was bunk.

Life in Lyonesse was uncomfortable for the Yankee until he had mounted all the knights on motorcycles, given them revolvers, and improved the royal telephone service—and the plumbing.

This was all great fun for Mark Twain and his readers, and it did good work in decreasing the sale of art-leather books of neo-medieval works such as Morris' "Three Red Roses Across the Moon" and Rossetti's "The Blessed Damozel."

And it is great fun for the motion picture public, judging from the success "A Connecticut Yankee" is having all over the country.

Forty-six years ago there was but one telephone in the world. Today there are 14,000,000 instruments in the United States alone.

RANGER THRU TRAVELERS' EYES.

Travel broadens the mind, 'tis said. And Ranger folk on vacations lend testimony to prove that the saying is so.

One and all, after visits into the provinces, come home or write back, bubbling with enthusiasm for Ranger. It may be dusty, and hot, and scattered out, and the roads rough. But there's money here, tinkling on the counters; there's movement; there's always something to scrap about or something happening to give a tang to life. There is an optimism, a morale, expressed in deeds if not with words. There is a high hearted, generous citizenry, which is no mean asset for a town to have. But it sometimes takes a trip to open the eyes of Ranger folk to these things.

Those who feel depressed are invited to get out and compare Ranger with similar communities elsewhere. They will find the Ranger virus has gripped them and holds them. They will find solid, material reasons for renewed faith in the mirage that is coming true, the dream city that prophets said would vanish.

Ranger is here because it is built on a solid foundation. It has pay-rolls. It has business and influence reaching out into the furthestmost corners of the oil fields. It will hold those things and will add to them.

Temporary depression, here as elsewhere, may follow in the wake of oil cuts. Rather, it will perhaps hold down business revival. But Ranger weathered one depression, when it was more weakened than it is today. And Ranger will surmount this one, just the same. Perhaps it will take it on high.

The thing to do now is to plan new things, new growth. The city which looks ahead and steps ahead while others are down in the mouth is the one that eventually emerges on top. If Ranger will stand united on commercial advancement, in spite of differences that exist over other matters, then Ranger can well be optimistic. But if Rangerites persist in cleaving into factions, the chasm will widen until it will be difficult to bridge. And when that happens, Ranger will have lost the civic leadership which gives it renown throughout the state.

It is extremely unlikely that Senator La Follette's motion to send the tariff bill back to the committee will be passed, but there must be a whole lot of senators who wish they could get rid of it that way.—Detroit Free Press.

Lloyd George would "democratize" the house of lords. Still, we read not long ago that a scientist had made a silk purse out of a sow's ear.—Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

Elmer Dover, of the treasury department, now realizes that when one has a row with the boss it generally is not the boss who gets fired.—Indianapolis Star.

LOWER POSTAL RATES.

The people of this country are entitled to lower postal rates on magazines and newspapers. We say the people and not the publishers because the publisher must collect more from the subscriber if his postage bill is more. There is no magic way by which a magazine or newspaper can continue to furnish a publication for the same price when the postage is heavily increased as it has been during the past four years. It is largely this heavy postage rate which has forced up the subscription price of magazines and newspapers.

In 1918 the government collected from publishers $11,712,068. In the last fiscal year this had grown to $25,496,719. During the current year it is estimated that the publishers of this country will pay the government for carrying their publications approximately $33,000,000. This is nearly two million of dollars each month more than was paid in 1918. This tremendous sum will have to be passed on practically in its entirety, to the subscribers.

With practically no exceptions war taxes have been removed from other lines of industry. But the publishing business is paying all the usual forms of taxation, which other lines of business pay, and in addition, is paying this enormous special tax. Not only has this special war tax been retained on publications, but it was heavily increased in 1920, and again in 1921. This is unjust and unfair to both publisher and subscriber.

The rate on newspapers and magazines has now become so exorbitant that millions of pounds are shipped in other ways by the larger magazines. This takes business away from the government postoffice department which could be carried at a profit. The result is that the government is losing money in large amounts, in many cases, because its rates of postage on publications are so very high.

If there is any business in the world that should be favored by a democracy, it is the distribution of literature and information. Only 7 per cent of our boys and girls go beyond the grammar grades, and they need all the education that they can get through the distribution of good literature at low cost. But instead of favoring such distribution, the government has placed an almost prohibitive tax on magazines and newspapers which are the greatest source of education outside of the public schools.

A bill is soon to be introduced in congress to repeal the last two increases in second class postage. The rate would still be 175 per cent higher than before the war and would be a profitable rate for the government. This bill should be passed and should have the earnest support of all classes of people. Every one is entitled to have a chance at plenty of good literature at the lowest possible cost. It is the best insurance for a free government.—People's Popular Monthly for June.

WAGES ALWAYS GO UP.

The trend toward higher wages is inexorable. Recent researches in England have developed that over a period of 750 years the wages in British building trades have advanced at least 20 per cent during every 50 years. At times the increase has been made as much as 40 per cent. During every war in this period, wages increased more than 40 per cent. There were reactions, but in no case did the reaction carry the wages below the point where the 20 to 40 per cent average increase for a 50-year period was disturbed.

The wage increase during the great war reached 320 per cent. That, of course, could not be expected to continue. But our own bureau of labor statistics has found that over a long period of years the wage increase in the building trades in America today was bound to be 18 per cent higher than they were in 1913. These increases denote an improvement in the standard of living regardless of costs and prices. Higher cost of living may necessitate adjustments upward, but never below the average increase in the standard.

History seems to establish this law of continued increase. The acceptance of this law by our employers would do much to eliminate our industrial unrest, but rather, and fully as important, its acceptance would tend to stabilize and stimulate our whole business structure.

For our workers are the great buying public. There are 41 and a half million persons gainfully employed in the United States. Of these, 24,800,000 are the actual wage earners, skilled and semi-skilled workers, laborers and servants. If to these you add those engaged in clerical and kindred work, you have practically 30 and a half million, or 73 per cent of all those gainfully employed who are on a wage or salary basis. Their income lies in the pay envelope. They and their dependents make up the great buying body of the American public. Their money makes the mare go in American business. From a bald business point of view this fact should establish the wisdom of the saving wage, regardless of its effect on the social and civic life of the nation.—Secretary of Labor Davis in Farm Life.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Aug. 5.—A tree on William Bagley's farm which last year bore apples, this season was loaded with cherries—and Bagley says it isn't a grafted tree either. Bagley says he bought the tree five years ago from a nursery, and last year was the first it produced fruit.

JAILED JAILER MAKES BID FOR CONGRESS SEAT

By Associated Press.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 5.—Ten Kentucky congressmen, eight of them Democrats and two Republicans will go before the voters in today's primaries asking for re-election. Charles F. Ogden, of Anchorage, Republican, will ask for his seat again from the voters of the fifth district and Maurice H. Thatcher of Louisville, has no opposition at the primaries. This district normally is Republican.

John W. Landey, of Pikeville, the Republican incumbent from the tenth district, has one opponent, Fess Whitaker, widely known as the "jailed jailer" of Letcher county, served a sentence in his own jail after conviction on charges of turning out prisoners charged with a felony and of bootlegging and assault.

While still in jail Mr. Whitaker announced as a candidate to fill out the unexpired term of Sam Collins, county judge, who resigned to become state prohibition director. He was elected and while serving in that office he announced for congress.

This Winter to Be Humdinger, Champ Forecaster Warns

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Nathan Kaufman, 31 years old, brought up before Justice McMahon in Kings county court, pleaded guilty to stealing a total of $53 in petty sums from his employers.

The judge had sent for Kaufman's wife and their four small children. Moved by the sight of the children, the judge asked Mrs. Kaufman what she would do if she had the power of sentencing her husband. She said in a calm voice:

"I would send him to the penitentiary for life."

Judge McMahon was appalled. "I hate him," she continued. "He stole to buy pretty things for another woman while I slaved to care for our children. I don't want him back."

Asking the woman to take two weeks to reconsider, the judge deferred sentence.

HIGHEST PERSIAN AWARD MADE TO U. S. MISSIONARY

TABRIZ, Persia, Aug. 5.—The Persian government has awarded its highest decoration, the Star of the Order of the Sun and Lion, to the Rev. Ernest Yarrow, American missionary and Near East relief worker. The decoration was awarded in recognition of Dr. Yarrow's relief work in northern Persia during the last two years. The presentation will be made through the Persian legation in Washington.

MACHINE CAN TELL TOBACCO FROM ROPE

Here is an ingenious machine that smokes four cigars at a time and can tell the difference between various kinds of tobacco. The cigars must be tested, and there are too many for a man to do the job, so this machine was built. Currents of air are sucked through the glass tubes, at about the human rate of speed. The ash from the cigar is then given to the chemist to analyze. This instrument is owned by the Department of Agriculture.

Billy Sunday Says Flapper Clothes Cause Men to Have Moral Blowout

HOOD RIVER, Ore., Aug. 5.—A flapper's clothes, said the Rev. W. A. (Billy) Sunday in his annual "at home" sermon preached in Hood River, would be insufficient for making the tail of a kite. "No man," he declared, "can look upon such a sight without a moral blowout."

He told the story of Abraham and Sarah, when they visited in the foreign land and the king's eyes fell on Sarah, who was comely. Abraham, Sunday said, knew the customs of the country, and he knew that he would lose his wife to the king's harem if he told the truth, so he announced that Sarah was his sister.

"I'd lie to save Mrs. Sunday from such an old hellion," said Billy Sunday, "and make it right with God afterward."

CARRIER PIGEONS FLY 174 MILES IN 3 HOURS

WINCHESTER, Va., Aug. 5.—Eight carrier pigeons owned by William Hillyard, a local fancier, flew from Buchanan, Va., to their loft here, a distance of 174 miles, in three hours, or at the rate of 58 miles an hour.

The birds were liberated by T. M. Sheets at Buchanan at 6:20 a. m., and just three hours later Hillyard was checking them in at the home loft.

AIREDALE LEAPS THROUGH SCREEN TO ROUT BURGLAR

NEVADA CITY, Mo., Aug. 5.—Mrs. M. Dow was awakened by a noise. Looking toward the window she saw the head and shoulders of a man attempting to break into her home. She screamed.

'NOTHER THRILL SHOT!

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Rescuing persons from watery graves as performed by coast guard life savers will proceed as usual except, Lieutenant Peter Jensen, division commander, said today, that the authorities at Washington had stricken out the last whisky requisition, and re-issuance will be completed instead with spirits of ammonia.

POOR PAHYDERMS PLUCKED HAIRLESS FOR 'LUCK' CHARMS

LONDON, Aug. 5.—London zoo authorities have been forced to take action to prevent spectators, guards and attendants from plucking hairs off elephants as good luck symbols. The head keeper recently noticed that the elephants' tails were denuded and that they were whiskerless and blinking because their eyelashes were gone. Investigation showed that girls and women offered a few shillings apiece for elephant hairs, the kind-hearted attendants supplying them as a lucrative business. Many women wear long, thick hairs the size of rat tails as bracelets, and smaller ones as rings, sometimes encased in platinum and gold, believing the hairs are guaranteed to insure good luck.

Well, we've had a lot more than three strikes, but we're not yet out.—Charleston News and Courier.

Give Him Life, He Stole for Another, Wife Tells Judge

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Beware and prepare.

With the country already facing a coal shortage from the mine and rail strikes, along comes Prof. Albert Lee Snider, peerless prognosticator of Griffin, Ga., warning the weather bureau to "sit up and take notice, for the coming winter will be a humdinger." He predicts:

"The coming winter will be a severely cold one for all sorts of rough weather will occur and heavy snowstorms will be followed by cold waves turning into severe blizzards that will reach far into the south."

The professor's prowess as a long distance forecaster has been acclaimed in the halls of congress and broadcast through no less a medium than the Congressional Record, so his warning is not to be lightly brushed aside.

Look out for a "humdinger."

PAPAL CASH FOR RUSSIA CAME FROM AN AMERICAN

ROME, Aug. 5.—The 2,000,000 lire which Pope Pius XI. contributed for the relief of the Russian famine sufferers did not come from the Vatican treasury, but was contributed by a New York financier, who requested that his name be kept secret, said a report circulated here today.

Among those received in audience by the pope was Archbishop Curley of Baltimore.

We Now Handle the Hudson Super-Six and the Essex

It is an ambition we have long held.

Our selection as Hudson and Essex dealers marks an important step forward for us as automotive merchants. We prize it as the highest recognition of worth.

For no company weighs a prospective dealer more carefully than the builders of these cars. Most important among their requirements is the ability to organize and execute service to owners, of a high character.

To Serve Two Great Cars

For buyers today consider not only the qualities of the car they get, but the character of dealer association they thereby form.

Yet it is also true that no such dealer organization, as Hudson and Essex have built, could have been gathered about cars, that in themselves had not established a great public following, with abiding faith in their qualities.

The Hudson Super-Six is now in its sixth year as a leader among the world's fine cars. It holds its place rightfully by mechanical superiority, fine-quality and appearance, and by a price advantage that makes it the best value among fine cars, by a wide margin.

And you already know what owners say of the economy, long life and reliability of the Essex. Certainly no car of its price was ever so widely compared in essential qualities to costly fine cars.

It is our wish to pledge the public a service that in all respects will match the uniformly high character of Hudson and Essex service, and be in all ways worthy of these two great cars.

1920 CLUB ADDS NEW BOOKS FOR CHILDREN TO PUBLIC LIBRARY

The good right hand of the 1920 club has not been idle during the summer vacation, for they report an addition of 55 new books placed on the shelves of the public library this week for the use of Ranger children. This number will be supplemented by 45 other books which have been ordered but not yet received. Included are books for children of various ages.

In reviewing the list of books as compiled by the club one finds quite a number of literary masterpieces for children of all ages. Among the list is included "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland," Eugene Field's poems, Kipling's "Just So" stories, Hans Christian Anderson's Fairy Tales, and Child's "Garden of Verse," three volumes of the "Winning of the West" by Theodore Roosevelt, books by Parkman and Helen Hunt Jackson,

"First Course in General Science," by Barber, Mark Twain's "Tom Sawyer," Zitkala's "Old Indian Legends," and a number of other books which show the versatility of those who made the selection as well as a deep knowledge of the books that girls and boys most need for the development of their imagination and general knowledge of good English.

The 1920 club is especially active in promoting good English, and the choosing of these books is one of the means toward that end. The library at present is open on Saturday afternoons, but no doubt at an early date it will be open more frequently. These books are quite an acquisition to the Ranger library, and the citizens as well as the children should feel very appreciative of this effort on the part of the 1920 club.

RANGER WOMEN SCRUTINIZING FAMILY TREES

The latest indoor sport in Ranger is searching ancestral trees in hopes of shaking down a revolutionary ancestor—for those who are behind the organization of a Daughters of the American Revolution chapter here, are in dead earnest and are hunting down their lines, so as to be ready for permanent organization by fall. To that end a meeting is called for Thursday afternoon at the Gholson at 4 o'clock of all those who are interested in this movement.

A few already have their lines completed—and it's very interesting. For instance:

Mmes. William Clegg, who is already a Daughter, R. B. Campbell, Robert Bates, George Armer, Gifford Clegg and Scott Blair have their lines completed. Mrs. J. G. Pipkin, A. E. Duncan, H. G. Wilson and Miss Stevens are working on theirs and hope soon to have all data complete.

No doubt there are a lot of folk who are eligible for membership. Any woman may be eligible who is of the age of 18 or past, and who is descended from a man or woman, who with unflinching loyalty, rendered material aid to the cause of independence; from a recognized patriot, a soldier, sailor or civil officer in one of the several colonies or states—provided that the applicant be acceptable to the society. Official proof of service must be furnished; also references to authorities quoted to show line of descent. All interested are requested to attend Tuesday's meeting.

of the regular members being away on their summer vacations, there was not as large a crowd as usual, but those who were present had a most enjoyable evening.

The gentlemen's high score favor was a pie, and very fittingly went to Lytton R. Taylor, who is a summer bachelor. E. E. Crawford was consoled for low score, by a pongee handkerchief. A hand-made guest towel went to Mrs. J. C. Pullen, who made ladies' high score, and a set of ice tea sippers to Mrs. Shirley Marston, which were given as a low score favor.

Refreshments of fruit salad, nut bread sandwiches, ice tea and devil's food cake were served to the following club members: Messrs. and Mmes. E. E. Crawford, J. C. Pullen, J. B. Haden, Shirley Marston, Roy Jameson, and Mr. Lytton R. Taylor.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL A HUGE SUCCESS.

The ice cream social given Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Plummer was a huge success in every way and was but a continuation of the successful affairs of the W. M. U. of the East Ranger Baptist church sponsors. The lawn of the Plummer home was gay with its many Jap lanterns. There was ice cream, cake and soda pop, and fish ponds for the children's pleasure. A program under the supervision of Mrs. McNeil added much to the evening's success. A large crowd was present and all "cats" were sold out—so naturally it was a financial as well as a social success.

GERMANY ASKS PRINCESS TO PAY $10 FOR "INSULT"

BERLIN, Aug. 5.—The French Princess Faucigny-Lucigne has been sentenced by a Dresden court to pay a fine of $10 or serve nine days in jail. The princess became indignant when, crossing the border near Dresden, a German customs official pawed over the beautiful lingerie in her baggage. She exploded with a temperamental: "You are a Boch."

The Dresden court holds that this was an insult to an official of the German republic and has invited the princess to come from Paris to serve the jail sentence or send a check for the amount of the fine.

BUFFALO TRACTION HEAD REJECTS ARBITRATION

BUFFALO, Aug. 5.—President Tully of the International Railway company, in a letter to the members of Mayor Schwab's investigating committee, refused to arbitrate differences between the company and its carmen, which have tied up city and interurban trolley traffic for four weeks.

The demand for recognition of the Carmen's union through a wage contract until May, 1923, President Tully holds, is not a question that can be arbitrated.

BRITISH STYLES NOW FAVORING LONGER SKIRTS

LONDON, Aug. 5.—Observing the fashion world go by from a bench on London's "Rotten Row" one sees that the season's modes tend to more conservative skirts, higher waist lines, picture hats a yard wide and pointed American shoes. The dressmaker's intent seems to be to cover what was once uncovered. Ankle-length skirts, voluminous sleeves, high neck-lines and loose-fitting gowns that subordinate the contour of the body, seem destined to restore woman's lost charm of mystery.

Most frocks are of the fluttering flowing order which, caught by the breeze, look very graceful. Foulards are taking the place of georgette and crepes and laces. Hats are circled with posies instead of being covered with plumes. Parasols are of foulard with wallpaper designs, or figures of green parrots or love-birds. Long, narrow feet are the craze of the moment, and slender, high-heeled shoes of snakeskin are coming into vogue. For evening attire backless frocks with diamond or pearl supports are popular with some women of fashion. Many evening gowns are of a new cloth of silver or gold that resembles mottled metal and that shimmers and glistens brilliantly under the electric light. Trains are inclined to be shorter, and are usually of gold or silver net. The new transparent cloaks which are being worn are trimmed with white gray and black monkey fur.

Very little jewelry is worn, only a simple chain of jade or amber, or a Chinese Mandarin's collar or teak-wood beads.

PARIS BANS FEES FOR USE OF CITY'S PARK BENCHES

PARIS, Aug. 5.—As a tribute to the shoppist, the "midnette" of French literature, fees for the use of seats in municipally controlled parks have been abolished during the two-hour "dejeuner" period, from 12 to 2 o'clock.

Effort is being made to obtain the same privilege for the lunching shoppist in the nationally controlled parks—the Tuileries, the Jardin des Plantes and the Luxembourg.

NIGHTLY SERENADE BRINGS DEATH TO DOGS AND CATS

GLOUCESTER, N. J., Aug. 5.—Forty cats and dogs found dead in the upper part of this city are believed to have died from poisoned meat scattered in that section.

The great number of cat and dog pets in the neighborhood had led to many complaints that slumber was disturbed by yelps and yowlings.

MRS. JENSEN ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE.

The V. V. Cooper home in Cooper addition was the scene of a very delightful mid-summer party Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Carl Jensen, one of the daughters of the home, who is visiting here from Oklahoma, entertained at bridge. A color scheme of yellow and white prevailed, which was effectively carried out in crepe paper of the two shades and in the refreshments. On entering the house, a punch bowl, filled with delicious punch, and presided over by Miss Vera Blackwell and Miss Glenn McKinley, greeted each incoming guest and found immediate favor in their eyes. In serving and entertaining Mrs. Jensen was assisted by Misses Vera Blackwell, Elizabeth Blackwell, Dorothy Taggart and Lois Phillips. Particularly attractive was the refreshment course, which consisted of cantaloupe ala mode, angel food cake, with yellow icing and toasted marshmallows.

When the score was counted the favors were awarded to Mrs. J. B. Haden, who made high score, and received a hand-made breakfast set; Mrs. J. C. Pullen, who made next to the highest score, and received a hand-embroidered dresser scarf; Mrs. E. L. McMillen, who made low, and was given a fancy powder puff, and Mrs. D. L. Jameson, who won the cut favor, a hand-embroidered tea towel.

Those enjoying Mrs. Jensen's hospitality were: Mmes. Walter Burden, C. C. Craig, Oldenette, L. L. Rector, Lloyd Rhoades, J. T. Gullahorn, George Jennings, Mary C. Blair, E. J. Wiss, J. C. Pullen, E. L. McMillen, Frank Brahaney, George Taggart, W. J. McFarland, John Thurman, W. D. Conway, A. E. Ernst, Ed Maher, R. D. Lavery, Charles Bobo, S. W. Bobo, J. B. Haden, E. E. Crawford, Earl Taylor, Roy Jameson, D. L. Jameson, Walter Cluney, Frank Reames, D. M. Steacie, Harry Reed, Sickles of Dallas, Jack Blackwell; Misses Nell Tibbels, Douschka Bobo and those assisting the hostess.

A PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER.

On Friday night Misses Mabelle and Winifred Dunkle entertained with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Jessie Winchell, who was married Saturday afternoon to Mr. Dewey Cox. The Dunkle home was the scene of this happy event, and the manner of announcing the approaching marriage was very unique. Mrs. John W. Dunkle came in with a big bag in which was a big black and white cat, and announced that she was "going to let the cat out of the bag" and that the one who captured the cat and obtained the message tied around its neck would be the next to be wed. The bag was then opened and a chase after the cat ensued, with Mr. Staling as the one who made the capture, and read the announcement.

Miss Winchell was then showered with a number of lovely gifts, all typical of the love and esteem her friends have for her. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Those wishing the honoree the fullest and sweetest measure of happiness were: Misses Mabel Knight

Hilda Frasier, Blanche DeBolt, Stella DeBolt, Eulalia Wolfe, Bonita Cox, Doris Gholson, Marnie Stiles, Reana Holstin, Catherine Shea, Esther Yonker, Messrs. Stallings, Tom Yonker, Rolla Gordon, Jimmie Pureforth, Chester Williams, Cuba Gordon, Areean Stiles, Lloyd Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Williams, W. J. Cluney, P. J. O'Donnell, John Keith, Guy Koontz, Winchell, Pirkle, Frank Hill, Childs, Morris, Moody, Morris.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. E. L. McMillen entertained the Twentieth Century club Friday afternoon at her home in Hodges Oak park. Tables were arranged for bridge and Mrs. John Thurman carried off club honors, receiving as an award a recipe file. Mrs. J. B. Haden made high score and received an ivory buffer as a favor, while the low score favor, went to Mrs. William Denning. A luncheon of creamed chicken in pattie shells, stuffed tomatoes, potato chips, sweet pickles, hot rolls and iced tea, made the players forget the weather, and proved very delightful. Those present were: Mmes. Mary C. Blair, E. J. Wiss, Frank Champion, Frank Reames, F. A. Brown, Walter Cluney, William Lowe, John Thurman, J. B. Haden, Gilson, William Denning.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE.

Mrs. Walter Burden was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club this week at her home on Pershing street. In bridge the two high score favors were alike, being hand-made tea aprons, which went to Mrs. Frank Champion, who made the club high score, and to Mrs. John Thurman, who made guest high score. The low score club prize went to Mrs. Lloyd Rhoades and Mrs. Earl Taylor. These prizes were tea towels. After the game, the hostess served a salad course, followed by an ice cream. The players for the afternoon were Mmes. Brahaney, Lloyd Rhoades, A. S. Bergere, W. D. Conway, A. E. Ernst, Frank Champion, J. B. Haden, W. A. Cunningham of Cisco, Clyde Gorman, Carl Jensen, John Thurman, Earl Taylor.

UNEEDA SEWING CLUB.

A new girls' club, to be known as the Uneeda Sewing club, was organized Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Gladys Harding. Officers were chosen as follows: Miss Marjory Couffield, president; Miss Dorothea Plumlee secretary; Miss Geraldine Williams, treasurer; Miss Leola Ivy, English critic. Each member of the club will be fined 1 cent for each use of slang.

The hostess served sandwiches and ice cream to the following charter members: Misses Ethel Shaw, Geraldine Williams, Leola Ivy, Dorothea Plumlee, Marjory Couffield and the hostess.

The next meeting will be held with Miss Geraldine Williams.

PASTIME CLUB MEETING.

PHILLIPS STOPS SWATTERS AND NITROS WIN, 8-2

Sweetwater, Aug. 5.—Lefty Phillips, refusing to let the Nitros leave Sweetwater with a percentage of .000, went in today and whipped the Swatters to a frazzle. The final score was 8 to 2 in favor of the Nitros, which they achieved by pouncing Frierson hard and consistently. Johnny didn't receive any too good support, but with Nitro flails working overtime, it didn't make any great amount of difference. Conley led the attack with 4-4, while Craig was his first assistant, getting three knocks in five trips. Many of the Nitro hits were of the slow infield variety, but with fast base running they put men on the sacks and got them off in a manner highly satisfactory to a knot of Ranger rooters.

Persistent rumors that Sweetwater will drop out of the league with Stamford were denied today by President J. O. Aiken. Through the scorekeeper's error, Phillips was credited with pitching yesterday. It should have been Thomas.

WEST TEXAS GAMES

WOOLDRIDGE HIT HARD. LUBBOCK, Aug. 5.—Woodriddle gave a poor exhibition of pitching today, getting in trouble in every inning except one, the Orphans winning 9 to 5. Fast fielding again marked today's game or the score would have been larger. Speegle's fielding and throwing featured.

HOMER BEATS EAGLES. AMARILLO, Aug. 5.—With the score 3 to 3 in the fifth, Anhier poked one over the fence with two on and the Gassers took the deciding game of the series from the Abilene Eagles, 7 to 4. Scruggs was sent to the showers in the seventh. Morton was in good form, allowing only eight scattered hits.

CLOVIS WINS BATTLE. ROSWELL, Aug. 5.—Clovis won today's game from San Angelo in a hard fought pitchers' duel. Skipper McIver drove in the winning run in the eighth with a single to right. Tucker, Clary and Scoggins hit home runs.

HORNBY KNOCKS OUT TWENTY-EIGHT HOMER. NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Rogers Hornsby's home run in the sixth inning of the Philadelphia-St. Louis National league game today, giving him a total of 28 for the season, ties the record of Kenneth Williams of the St. Louis Americans, who also has 28.

HOUSE WRECKERS FIND MONEY LOST IN 1844. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 5.—Geo. Eiler is searching for heirs of Thomas I. Atwood. While tearing down the old Atwood home here workmen employed by Eiler found coins which had slipped through cracks in the floor.

FANNING WITH FARRELL

WHITE LIGHTS AND KING HEROES. By HENRY L. FARRELL. (United Press Sports Editor.) NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Joe Lynch, the west side Irish boy of New York, is back on the bantamweight throne and he should remain there just as long as he elects.

In possession of almost a clear field, Lynch's reign looks to be limited only by the length of time he can be prevailed upon to say—"No."

If he chooses again to go the way open for his money in New York he will be a short-lived champion.

Joe was champion once before, but he had so many friends eager to show him a good time that he went along with them and did most of his training in Broadway clothes. He found out the truth of the old, old saying that it just can't be done.

Lynch has a bigger following than any boxer in New York. The neighborhood boys charter sight-seeing buses, hang Lynch banners on the side and go to his fights en masse. They sit in the bleacher seats and root like college boys.

If he is smart enough to decline invitations to parties, his admirers will not be reduced by one. Benny Leonard and Jack Britton have large followings, but they stick close to home and they have not suffered declining respect or popularity.

After Johnny Buff had the title taken away from him by Lynch, he said he was through with the bantamweight class, but that he would continue working with his American fly-weight title.

Buff has stored away about $100,000 and he can earn enough among the fly weights to live comfortably without going down into the sock.

Pete Herman, former champion, is practically through, as he is almost blind in one eye and has passed the peak. Midget Smith, the New Yorker, is not in the same class with Lynch. Frankie Jerome, Abe Goldstein and the other contenders are also out of the reckoning.

Two Westerners are the only ones who look to have a chance against Lynch—Joe Burman and Sammy Mandell, both of Chicago.

Burman is more or less of a veteran in the class and he is well known, but it is only in the last year that Mandell has come forward with a rush.

Western writers have been saying nice things about Mandell for six months but it was only recently when he whipped Pal Moore, in Memphis, that he sprang up as a real contender.

You can count on your fingers, the boys who have beaten Moore and when Mandell can turn the trick, he must be good.

LIBERTY MOTOR DESIGN CHANGED TO DOUBLE LIFE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—One of the most important aeronautical developments since the war was made known here recently when it was announced that changes have been made in the design of the Liberty motor which will double its life.

This has been brought about principally by considerably increasing the oil pressure, lengthening the life of the bearings while at the same time reducing oil consumption.

During the recent ferrying of 12 P-5-L seaplanes from Hampton Roads to Pensacola, naval experts say, the performance of the motors reflected the generally excellent results that have been attained. With the exception of one forced landing because of a leaky water jacket, the engines came through 25 hours of flying without the slightest trouble.

So great has been the improvement in the war-born motor that A. H. G. Fokker, the Dutch airplane maker, one of the greatest aircraft designers in the world, is using the Liberty in the new torpedo plane he has been testing for the navy department.

The gears have been redesigned, the pistons have been modified by cutting a groove around the edge of the lower piston ring and drilling oil return holes to the inside of the piston. With this change, sparkplug troubles are eliminated, as oil was prevented from getting into the combustion chamber. To eliminate generator troubles, a flexible drive was introduced. To overcome the cracking of cylinder jackets, a reinforced strip has been welded across the top of the cylinder on the inside of the water jacket.

The ignition system was improved by substituting a 12-volt system in place of the 8-volt in use. This prevented the battery from discharging too rapidly and made for easier starting.

OFFICIAL COUNT SHOWS BLANTON LACKED ONLY 85

The official count in the congressional election, received this morning from Fred Cockrell of Abilene, district chairman, shows that Thomas L. Blanton lacked only 85 votes of having a majority over his three opponents, not counting a scattering vote for N. S. Holland. His plurality over Callaway is 14,448 votes.

Blanton carried every county in the district with the exception of Comanche—Callaway's home county. His vote was especially heavy in the southern counties of the district, he securing a majority in nearly all of them.

Following is the official vote for Blanton, Callaway, Cunningham and Dibrell, in order: County, Blan, Cal, Cun, Dib. Taylor 2266, 233, 1804, 88. Shackelford 743, 56, 290, 4. Totals . . . 24895 10447 9382 5151. Thomas L. Blanton received 14,448 votes more than Oscar Callaway, but lacks 85 votes of having a majority over his three opponents. N. S. Holland's scattering vote not counted, as he withdrew and did not pay assessments. Certified this Aug. 4, 1922.

ANTI-LYNCHING BILL FAVORED IN SENATE REPORT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Condemning lynching as a "monstrous evil," which is a "disgrace to the nation," a majority report submitted to the senate by Senator Shortridge, Republican of California, from the senate judiciary committee, declares the pending anti-lynching bill, as amended to be constitutional, and said it should be passed as a "shield of protection" to every American citizen.

The report summed up the conclusions of the committee as follows: "A careful and dispassionate study of the provisions of the bill as amended will, the committee thinks, convince senators that it is 'appropriate legislation' within the competence of congress to enact, to safeguard and protect those rights to life, liberty and property which are guaranteed by the constitution of the United States.

Is Not Sectional.

"The proposed legislation is not, and should not, be considered in any sense sectional. The evil it is designed to cure is not confined to any particular section or states—North or South, East or West. This monstrous evil, which is a disgrace to the nation, we should strive to wipe out by a firm and just exercise of every legitimate power conferred upon and residing in the federal government.

"The proposed legislation is not an invasion or subversion of the rights of the states, nor is it designed to relieve the states from the performance of their duty to secure to all persons within their several jurisdictions equal protection of the laws; on the contrary, the proposed legislation is in aid of the several states and will be impartially administered by the people of the several states.

Asks Early Passage.

"It is sincerely hoped and confidently believed that the early passage of this bill as amended will have a salutary effect and go far toward insur-

PLAY WRITER AND STAR TO WED LEADING LADY

Mlle. Suzanne Caubet ... Crane Wilbur

The engagement has been announced of Crane Wilbur and Mlle. Suzanne Caubet, his leading lady. Mr. Wilbur was first prominent as a motion picture actor in the early days of the silent drama, later as writer of plays, and now is leading man in a play of his own. Mlle. Caubet, who has been in the United States for three years, is said to be a niece of Sarah Bernhardt.

...ing that equal protection of the laws, state and federal, to which 'all persons born or nationalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof' are entitled.

"American citizenship is indeed a badge of honor. It should be, and this bill seeks to make it a shield of protection to every American citizen—man, woman and child, native and nationalized, who stands on American soil, hedged round and guarded, as they are, by the constitution of the United States."

BUSHMAN KILLS "WITCH" BLAMED AS WIFE SLAYER

SYDNEY, Aug. 5.—The native of Australia still clings to superstition and tribal rights, it was shown during a recent trial here, when an aborigine was tried and convicted on a charge of murdering a woman.

It developed at the trial that the man had lost his wife and two children through disease, and believing the deaths due to witchcraft had slain a woman upon whom his suspicions centered.

PRISON INMATES AS HONORABLE AS OUTSIDERS

By Associated Press.

JACKSON, Mich., Aug. 5.—The inmates of a prison are as honorable as are the people outside its walls, according to Harry L. Hulbert, warden of Jackson prison, Michigan's largest penal institution, and one of the leaders in the modern prison reform movement.

Several weeks ago Warden Hulbert persuaded Governor Groesbeck to sanction the removal to Camp Custer, near Battle Creek, of 60 "honor men" from the prison for service in building several structures needed for the Roosevelt American Legion hospital.

The men went to the camp without guards. They were told if they remained on the premises until fall, performed a good day's work each day, and followed faithfully the simple rules they would walk from the shadow of the prison walls forever when the work was finished. This in spite of the fact that many of them will have as many as 10 years to serve.

Since the "honor men" went to Custer, 55 have kept the faith. The other five have broken their contract in one way or another and today are back at Jackson working inside the walls. Each of them has forfeited his right to a shorter term. Each will serve his sentence to the last minute.

Warden Hulbert believes he has set a record in the prison honor system. He believes the percentage who have not kept the faith is remarkably low. It caused him to make this statement:

Issues Remarkable "Defi."

"I will defy any contractor to take 60 average men outside of prison, put them to work on a job for the summer, tell them not to leave the place until it is finished and have 55 men left by midsummer. Before I entered prison work I was a contractor. I have handled hundreds of men doing similar work and I know what I am talking about. It simply couldn't be done."

Then Warden Hulbert preached a sermon in a few terse sentences. He was speaking to every one outside of prison. The sermon went something like this:

"To succeed an honor system must have the support and respect of the community outside. The public must help in the uplifting and rebuilding of the unfortunate. Unless the public gives this help the honor system will fail.

"If those who call themselves free men deliberately put temptation into the paths of men on their honor, the system will be lost. I have known persons living near prison farms to encourage inmates to do wrong.

"The honor system is right. It is putting into practice the precepts laid down in the Sermon on the Mount. The only fault in the entire system rests on the shoulders of the general public because that public often does not co-operate with the prison officials in keeping both the honor men and those who have been paroled from prison on the right path."

Last year Warden Hulbert placed 610 men on their honor and sent them outside the prison. Escape was an easy matter for most of them, yet the records show but 57 were unequal to the test.

MAN FATALLY SHOT WHILE DEFENDING WIFE

CARTHAGE, N. C., Aug. 5.—A. E. Ketchen of Miami, Fla., was shot and perhaps fatally wounded while defending his wife from an attack by three negroes near Southern Pines. Two of the negroes who attacked the Ketchens' automobile have confessed, according to Sheriff Blue. All three have been placed in the state penitentiary for safekeeping. The Ketchens were en route from Miami to New York and were camped along the road when attacked.

HORSE STEALS RIDE ON LOCOMOTIVE COWCATCHER

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Aug. 5.—How a horse stole a ride on the cowcatcher of a railway train is told by the crew of a British Columbia electric railroad train, Fraser Valley branch.

At Hope, B. C., according to the story, the train was forced to stop to allow a band of horses to get off the track. No member of the crew saw one of the animals mount the cowcatcher, but when the train reached a stop near here a horse was seen to step off the catcher, calmly shake itself and trot off into the fields.
