'BLACK CAT' BALL WAS MAZE OF KALEIDOSCOPIC COLORS AND COSTUMES

In stately grandeur the "Devil" relentlessly stalked the "Highland Lassie" and the sweet faced "Kewpie" and they swayed to the dance through the maze of Gypsy, Chinese, Japanese, Turkish and American maidens at the "Black Cat" Halloween ball at the Summer Garden last night.

Almost every nationality was represented by a costume at the dance. More ingenuity of dress was displayed than at any costume ball ever held in Ranger.

The first prize was won by Miss Willa McNat. The second prize was awarded Miss Stella Parker.

One young man garbed in the guise of a woman came near to causing a riot by doing the "shimmy" until his identity was discovered and his exuberance restrained.

LAMB.

Conway Tearle, now a star in his own right instead of being leading man for some feminine stellar player, was presented last night in his feature photoplay at the Lamb theatre. The production was "Marooned Hearts," a National picture and Tearle plays the role of a young physician whose career is wrecked by a whim of his sweetheart.

The physician breaks the engagement and goes to the South Seas to pursue scientific research and forget. But he cannot escape his fate, for a shipwreck washes upon the beach of his island the one woman in the world whom he hates cordially.

He wants nothing to do with her, but as it happens there also comes ashore a human brute who wants to make the woman his by main force, and much against his will the doctor feels obliged to intervene.

TEMPLE.

Capacity audiences at the Temple theatre yesterday derived great enjoyment from the second showing of the Maurice Tourneur super production of "The Great Redeemer," interpreted by an all-star cast including House Peters and Marjorie Daw. It is not stretching the truth to say that the picture registered a profound impression and it was declared by many to be the best photoplay they have witnessed this year.

Certainly Maurice Tourneur has outdone himself in putting on this super-special. With all the sweep and power of the rugged West, it was also a tender story, plenty of punch, and points a moral lesson that none can disregard.

"The Great Redeemer" narrates the high lights in the career of Dan Malloy, a train bandit. Pursued by a sheriff's posse, he takes refuge in the mountain cabin of a beautiful young girl. She comes to love him and he her, when a pal induces him to have another try at holding up the mail train. This he does, but is captured and sent to prison. There the work of reform begun by the girl is completed when a miracle happens in the grim cell when Dan Malloy finds his soul.

House Peters is excellent as Dan, and Miss Daw gives a sweetly sympathetic impersonation of the girl in the story. Others in the all-star cast are Jack McDonald and Joseph Singleton. H. H. Van Loar wrote the original story, basing part of it on a happening in real life that transpired in a California prison.

SOCIETY

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

Saturday night the mysteries visited the home of Misses Viola and Mildred Page, who had their home appropriately decorated. Miss Loretta Applegate received the prize for the most appropriate lady's costume and Johnnie Johnson received the prize for the most appropriate gentleman's costume. Miss Pearl Jefferies received the prize in the cat contest. Those present were: Misses Loretta Applegate, Geraldine Gotcher, Carrie Brown, Beatrice Greenfield, Grace Crews, Mabel Chatham, Jessie Bishop, Pearl Jefferies, Mildred Page, Viola Page; Messrs. Buster Johnson, Johnnie Johnson, Roy Robertson, Jack Spangle, Cleo Applegate, Clarence Jefferies, Claid Southworth, Claid Ingram, Charles James, Tom Robinson.

Two courses of refreshments were served.

B. Y. P. U. ENTERTAINS.

The B. Y. P. U. entertained with a Halloween party Monday evening at the home of Miss Lucile Wildman. The house was decorated in the Halloween way and games and refreshments served to suit the occasion.

DODGE CAR TAKEN FROM MAIN STREET DURING DAY

A new Dodge roadster was stolen in this city yesterday at 11:10 a. m. from in front of the Farmers & Merchants bank. The car has not been heard from since. The police have a description and have sent it to the surrounding towns.

FINDS BRECK DISAPPOINTING

In a letter written by Anna Ekola, foot specialist, from Breckenridge, she states that she is coming back to Ranger to locate permanently. Breckenridge, she says, has been found disappointing.

'Pussyfoot' Johnson no Longer Regarded as Joke in Great Britain

LONDON, Nov. 2.—While each side interprets the results of the prohibition election in Scotland to its own advantage as much as is possible, one striking thing stands out in the minds of Englishmen: W. E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson, is something to worry about.

The sentence is written so, without prejudice to the general issue of prohibition, but because, taken in the large, England looks upon anybody or anything that tends toward drought as a "sorcerer."

England tried to laugh Johnson out of court a year ago. And in so doing gave him and his cause millions of dollars worth of free advertising. Johnson was literally "put on the map" by his enemies.

Many warnings have been sounded since. And the newspapers have ceased to consider any kind of "pussyfoot" joke as propaganda against the cause. For they have learned the dictum of Joe Cannon that it is better to be attacked than ignored.

Sound Warning Note.

The warning note sounded in display type by the Globe easily outranks all others, and is here given in exact form.

"It is time to issue a warning to the nation not to take this man's campaign too lightly.

"Mr. 'Pussyfoot' Johnson has methods of waging his war against 'The Trade' which the people of England do not yet understand. It is a mistake to smile and call him 'Pussyfoot.' He is much more than that. He is one of the greatest psychological experts in the world.

"He beat the United States public on the question of prohibition, not because they really wanted prohibition, but because they did not know that he was so far advanced in his methods. He beat them because he had them beaten before they knew. That is his method.

"Therefore, it is time England knew what to expect.

"In the American trade boom and the Pussyfoot campaign it is easy to discern that working of that psychological force which is relied upon by the average American to drive home his point.

"He works behind the scenes, smiling, always smiling. That smile has pulled many votes to his party. He never starts a campaign without first setting his plans in working order and his workers bring his reports on which his plans are set.

"This is not a question of whether prohibition is a good thing or a bad thing. The point I am trying to make is that unless England 'sits up,' Mr. Johnson will 'bring home the bacon' in England also.

"It's England's turn next!"

There are in London 400 prominent women of American birth either married to Englishmen or the wives of Americans whose business keeps them abroad.

RODEO PARADE WILL FEATURE OLD-TIME 'CHUCK WAGON,' ROACH WORLD'S BEST RIDER, COMING

Telegrams received almost hourly announce new entrants in Ranger's Annual Rodeo to be staged Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Forty high hopping horses, the pick of a bunch of 150 which L. F. Fletcher purchased on account of their bad dispositions and cantankerous ways, and ten wild steers from the McDowell ranch, who know little of man and that little not to his credit, will furnish the modus operandi for feats of western skill and daring. The best riders of the country, topped by Ben Roach, who recently won the riding championship of the world at Chicago, will compete for premier honors in the riding events. Roach will not have it all his own way, however, as a score or so of topnotch riders of nationwide reputation will be here to compete with him. Many of these men are wealthy in their own right and will compete merely for the love of the game and because of long-time friendship for the promoters, Messrs. Emerson, Kelly and Fletcher.

The same is true of the goat roping, which requires a high order of skill on the part of both man and his mount. It is said to be a revelation at the way trained cow ponies out-guess the quarry, and anticipate every dodge and turn, without direction from his rider. Both Mr. Kelly and Mr. Emerson will take a hand in the roping contests.

Specialty Thrillers.
In addition to the conventional riding and roping events there will be thrillers in the way of specialty stunts. "Oklahoma Ben" every day will perform the feat of vaulting from the back of a horse to that of a wild steer, both at full speed, without touching the ground. This is a feat that no other man has ever performed.

"Shorty" Rieker of Ranger will throw a steer with his teeth at every performance.

"Montana Boy" will trick ride the wildest steer of the lot.

There will be music by a jazz orchestra, and Broadway Jones will sing the latest popular songs, including one of his own composition, just published, "Rose of the U. S. A."

Boiler Loading Contest.
On Saturday morning there will be a boiler loading contest, which will be of especial interest to field workers.

There will be a parade each day, featuring an old-fashioned "chuck wagon," with full range paraphernalia, ready for the roundup, and including the horses and steers and the contestants; both men and women.

The afternoon performance will begin at 2 o'clock and last until 5. Riding and roping and specialty events will be so arranged that constant action will be furnished, and there will be no waiting between events, either from refractory animals or other causes.

Night Performances Too.
The grounds are now being wired for lights and the night performances, beginning at 8 o'clock, will be of the same general nature as the day.

Loading Contest Saturday.
The boiler loading performance will be staged Saturday morning and every spectator will be given a ticket admitting him to the afternoon performance without further charge.

Prizes in this event aggregate $215, to be given to the four quickest contestants. They are: $50 cash given by the Rodeo association; $50 in trade by the local hardware store, and the same amount by a harness company, and last, but not least, an $88 watch and chain by a prominent jeweler.

Rules for this contest provide that only one man and one team may be used. A thirty-five horsepower boiler will be placed on in front of the grandstand, and the contestants will bring their wagons up within twenty feet and unhitch. Time starts when the team has been unhitched. Then the boiler must be loaded, the team reharnessed and the wagon driven twenty feet, when the stop watch clicks finis. The record for this contest is said to be five minutes, made at Dewey, Okla. Local loading phenoms are practicing and some say they intend to beat this record. Contestants may enter for this competition up until Friday night.

Annual Attraction.
It is the promoters' purpose to make the Ranger Rodeo an annual attraction. To make the first one a success they have spared no plans or expense, it being their intention to make the spectacle so pleasing that there will be no question of a popular demand for its repetition yearly. Fifteen per cent of the receipts goes to the baseball association, also, with the idea of paying off the outstanding indebtedness on the park.

MONTANA MAKES RULING IN CHILDREN IN DIVORCE CASES

International News Service.
HELENA, Mont., Nov. 2.—That parties to divorce actions may not remove children from the state during the time the case is pending was the decision handed down here by the Montana supreme court.

The decision was rendered in the case of William A. Cash, who is suing his wife for divorce. The couple have three children who have been the object at various times of sensational kidnappings.

While living in Los Angeles with her three children Mrs. Cash permitted the father to take them to a "movie." The next news from them that the mother received was the information that the father was speeding to Montana with his three offspring. Later Mrs. Cash attempted to escape from the state with a daughter. She was apprehended in Salt Lake City and returned to Helena.

After a legal battle fraught with circumstances and recriminations on both sides, the supreme court decided that off-

BURGLAR SWALLOWS LOOTED TABLEWARE

International News Service.
BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Arrested Here Willi Pansia, a burglar who formerly drove the Berlin police chief's motor car, was found to have swallowed the proceeds of his latest robbery.

It was noticed after his arrest that he walked with difficulty and that his stomach appeared abnormally large.

The prison doctor advised him to undergo an operation, but Pansia refused, saying that he would rather be operated on at his own expense. Next day he was found in his cell with a deep knife wound in his side.

An X-Ray examination, says the Berlin Post, revealed "a mountain of foreign bodies" in Pansia's stomach, including silver spoons, small forks, a number of screws, and a silver nail file.

CAN'T STOP NOW.

The agreement of the Texas & Pacific company to build the long-sought passenger station here marks a long forward step in the history of Ranger. It is in many respects the most significant action that has been taken since the city was founded.

The goal toward being a city, in all that the true meaning of the term implies, is still far off, but a few more achievements as the securing of a new depot will place the goal that Ranger has set appreciably nearer. "Cities are not built in a day," said the sage, and he spoke truly, as exemplified by Ranger in the progress it has made and has yet to make. Ordinarily cities are built gradually, with building keeping pace with the mounting population. With Ranger it is different. It obtained the population first, and now it must obtain the conveniences.

"But the paved area is rapidly assuming respectable proportions. Buildings in the business district have become permanent. Permanent school buildings have been erected in the pastured lands of yesterday. Imposing church edifices have arisen and now comes the promise of immediate work on a new and creditable passenger station—a promise which, judging by the manner of its giving, will be kept without delay or quibbling.

These are steps in the right direction. Others yet to be taken include the extension of the telephone service to such an extent that at least reasonable communication about town can be established, obtaining of a water supply satisfactory both as to quantity and quality, and a resumption of the better homes campaign.

The telephone questio is in a fair way to be solved this week. Consulting engineer Hawley will be here today to make a preliminary report on what appears, at least superficially, to be an unquestionably good location for a reservoir. Prices of lumber dropped 35 per cent last week. This means, we are informed, that 20 to 25 per cent has been lopped from the cost of construction, and if such is the case, should be an inducement for renewed activity along this line.

All in all, the future of Ranger grows more rosy every day.

ELINOR'S SUPERMAN.

Those erotic persons, like Elinor Glyn, for instance, who write highly imaginative popular novels, and who think spiced and scented thoughts at so much per word, must have a wonderfully small amount of common sense in order to balance their overly developed imaginative ability. Elinor, you know came over to America to find herself a superman as a hero for her writings. She expected to find him among the manly young stalwarts of the western ranges, but she didn't have to look that far. She found him in little old N'York, where he was flourishing vigorously beneath the beneficent gleams of Broadway's glare. He is a super chorus man in a garish spectacle, but to Elinor's eyes he was nothing like a workaday toiler earning his pork and beans and lunions in the way he found the easiest. He is—but let her tell it:

He is magnificent, beautiful, just like the young Greek god I have always imagined my heroes to be in my novels. Wonderful, superb, magnificent!"

And then the gifted authoress must be taken behind the scenes to meet this dozen of the palaces in the sky, who had descended to earth to assist in selling happiness here below at so much per

GERMANY IS TAKING LIVELY INTEREST IN FASHIONS

By ELOISE.

WE are always reading about what petite Marie wears at the Parisian races and how comes word that Gretchen, das Deutesch Maedchen, is also attending the races at the Grunewald race track in Germany. By the looks of the photographs the chic Marie has nothing on ziemliche Gretchen when it comes to smart and fashionable clothes.

All the frocks and wraps in this group of five might take their place beside the Paris styles. At the extreme left is a white frock trimmed with monkey fur at the neck and cuffs. There is a row of buttons that runs from neck to hem and a pretty cobweby design in black runs through the material. To the right of this frock is a suit and cape combination of navy taffeta and cloth with a deep collar of Australian opossum. The hat is a draped turban trimmed with the unruly ostrich feathers which droop over the face.

At the extreme right is a smart cape which attracted especial attention. It is of striped accordion pleated material matching the frock which is worn with it. A large feather tricorn hat is worn with it. The coat to the left is a simple but effective model with a high collar and front panel with fringe and by ton trimming.

A black cloth coat dress is shown below. It is simply made, but gorgeously trimmed with silver embroidery. A tasseled cord marks the waistline.

a pointed nose and two sharp eyes, then two sharp ears, and the creature stopped dead still.

"Come on," said Tinker Bob, "everything is clear and no one is near." The creature looked from side to side and then came to the King's doorstep. Who do you think he was?

TINKER BOB

By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB

TINKER BOB HAS TWO VISITORS.

Tinker Bob had been King of the Forest long enough to learn the rap of nearly every creature of the Forest. And the minute he heard this "tap, tap, tap, tap," he knew it was none other than Jerry, the Jay Bird.

"What's the matter now?" asked Tinker as he went to answer the rap.

"Oh, I want to tell you something quick. I can hardly wait," said Jerry as the King opened the door. He had been flying so fast that he could scarcely get his breath. "Oh, King, do you know what has happened in the Forest? It is the most terrible thing that I ever heard of. Don't be surprised, oh, King, because this fellow has been acting strangely for some time. And don't let it worry you, oh, King, for he is not worth worrying about, and I hope he never comes back. It is just like this—Old Man O Possum has run away with the Moon.

Jerry thought the King of the Forest did not know anything about it.

"I am so sorry Jerry, that you used up all your breath in coming to tell me of O Possum's flight," said Tinker Bob. "For I knew he was going before he went. I saw him climb the Magic Cornstalk."

Jerry's feathers fell. He didn't know what to do at first for he thought he was telling the King something he did not know. But that was no more than what ought to come to Jerry for telling a secret.

He could say nothing more, for he was ashamed of himself, so he flew away in a hurry. Tinker Bob laughed to think Jerry, the saucy Jay, would not try to think before he journeyed so far to tell the King something he already knew.

Jerry had been gone only a moment till the King looked into the Forest from his doorstep and saw the tops of the small bushes moving—which was really

PROHIBITION LOSSES TO FORCE HOTEL MEN TO RAISE PRICE, SAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—"The hotel men will never be able to sell their goods proportionally lower, the same as other lines of business not affected by the Eighteenth amendment," says E. M. Statler, hotel owner, in an article in the Hotel Pennsylvania register.

"The public bought rooms and food in hotels in the past at or below cost, because hotel men were satisfied with profits most of which came from liquor sales. There being no more profit from this source, rooms and food will have to be priced at a figure that will enable a hotel to pay overhead maintenance, depreciation, operating expenses and leave a margin of profit sufficiently large enough to hold the organization together, so that service may be rendered to the public during the dull as well as the busy period."

Armin W. Riley, chief of the "flying squadron," which is fighting the profiteer, threatened last night to subpoena hotel men who obstruct his efforts to investigate food costs. He intimated the belief that some members of the Hotel Men's association are in a conspiracy to defeat his efforts.

He sent out agents last night to get evidence of refusal by hotels to work with him in the drive against excessive food costs. If unable otherwise to get the facts he desires, Mr. Riley says he will seize the books of the hotels under subpoena.

Mexico Strike Threat.
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 2.—There are threats of two more strikes. Coal miners in Coahuila are talking of enforcing demands by a walkout and splinters in Orizaba are preparing to quit work for the same purpose.

RIPLING RHYMES

THE DRIVE IDEA.

All our lives will be more sunny and we'll chirp a gladder song; when they quit the "drives" for money, which have bothered us too long. All such schemes were gladly pardoned when the Kaiser danced his jig, and the heart was cold and hardened that neglected to up-dig. I am always prompt and willing to help out a worthy cause, but I will not place a shilling in the drivemith's eager paws. For I'm sick of people telling wat I ought to give and where, tired of always digging, shelling, for some scheme that makes me swear. I will give to help the living and I'll give to plant the dead; but I won't be bossed in giving, and I won't be chased or led. In the war time drives were splendid, and they helped to can our foes, but the war is done and ended, and the people need repose. Do not bother friends or neighbors with requests for honest dimes; leave them to their quiet labors, as we did in olden times. Do not think up worthy causes that require financial aid, for we've all been Santa Clauses till our nerves are tired and frayed.

NEW PARIS HATS SHOW DROOPING FEATHER TRIMS

Feathers on hats this year, and they all seem to have them; act as if they were unruly locks. They either fall down into the eyes, tickle the ears, or curl about one's neck like little false curls. This is quite true of most of the new French hats which have arrived recently. Here is a stunning velvet turban of burnt orange with a tuft of paradise dropping in a very sophisticated manner over milady's right cheek.

THERE IS A HEREAFTER, SAYS BISHOP BURCH IN DISCUSSING THOMAS EDISON'S NEW THEORY

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Thomas A. Edison has now evolved a new theory concerning the human personality and its chance of existence after the death of the body in which it dwells. In an interview recently published in a scientific magazine, the inventor expresses doubt that there is any hereafter awaiting personality, or soul, as we may wish to call that part of our mental and spiritual composition.

Our bodies are made up of countless small cells which Mr. Edison calls entities. These cells never die, but at the time of death pass from the body to take other form "thus giving the eternal life which many of us hope for. This means little to you and me," Mr. Edison is quoted as saying, "if, when we come to that stage known as death our personality breaks up into small separate units which combine with others to make new structures."

Mr. Edison is at present constructing an instrument with which he expects to determine whether or not it is possible to communicate with departed spirits. Dr. Gray and hopeless as the scientist's belief may make the future for those who agree with him or are influenced by his statements, the opposite side of his argument is here given by Bishop Charles Sumner Burch of the Episcopal diocese of New York.

Views of Bishop Burch
"This is a very interesting contribution by Mr. Edison to the discussion of a subject which is before the people of today more insistently than it has been in a long time," said Bishop Burch. "I do not like to reply without giving this my long and earnest attention, but I will say this much:

"In regard to a hereafter, there would be no Christian belief that could be buttressed by logic or by hope if personally ended with this life.

"I believe in the Christian idea of the immortality of the soul, and that would include the continuance of personality after death. This is our reverent belief, yet we must depend on revelations, on our trust and belief in the past of the Christian religion and on what conclusions great philosophers have reached favorable to our faith. Take, for instance, Plato and Socrates and others, not Christians at all. They did not believe that life ended at death.

"Without such belief we have nothing by which to justify life, our efforts, our sufferings, our inequalities that are almost unbearable, are without reason if we cannot look forward to the immortal life of personality.

"There is no question but that every day there are great injustices suffered by men, women and children through no fault of their own, and if we believe in a personal God we know that somewhere these things are regulated and recompensed.

"Mr. Edison likes to theorize, imagine, discuss his likes, thoughts and tendencies—but this article of his wherein he states his theory of life is a contradiction, in itself, of the very essence of life.

"If Mr. Edison is to be believed, then our world is not worth the trouble of living in it."

Must Be Hereafter.
"To right wrongs we have suffered, the wrongs we have inflicted on others, to justly balance this world of ours, there must be a hereafter. Everything leads up to it, but we can't prove it."

"At the Lambeth conference, which I attended in London, that topic was gone into thoroughly and the mass of evidence and studies on the subject were very unsatisfactory. We discussed it at length but we got nothing out of it worth while.

"Remember, not only Christians believe in a future life. The hope is the foundation of every religious belief from the early ages. However, what I have said is only comment on the bare synopsis of Mr. Edison's article as contained in the clipping you have shown me. I wish I could take longer to consider the matter in order to give you an answer that thoroughly satisfies me."

Mr. Edison's Statements.
In order to give the reader a clearer idea of what Mr. Edison has said regarding life and its destination the following excerpts from his interview are given here.

"I believe that life, like matter, is indestructible," began Mr. Edison in outlining his theory of life and death. There has always been a certain amount of life on this world and there will always be the same amount. You cannot create life, you cannot destroy it, you cannot multiply life.

"The entities are life. I again repeat they are steady workers. In our bodies those entities constantly rebuild our tissues to replace those which are constantly wearing out. They watch after the functioning of the various organs, just as the engineers in the power house see that the machinery is in perfect order.

"Once conditions become unsatisfactory in the body, either through a fatal sickness, fatal accident or old age, the entities simply depart from the body and leave little more than an empty structure behind. Being indefatigable workers they naturally seek something else to do.

"They either enter into the body of another man, or even start on some other form of life.

"Those entities live forever; you cannot destroy them, just the same as you cannot destroy matter."

DESIGN FOR RAY CHAPMAN MEMORIAL

This is the design for the tablet to be erected to honor the memory of Ray Chapman, Cleveland shortstop killed by a pitched ball August 17. The tablet has been approved by the members of the committee chosen to decide on the memorial. This design is a combination of two submitted and selected by the committee from a group of fifty submitted by artists and bronze manufacturers throughout the country. The tablet is to be approximately four feet wide and three feet high and will be cast in one piece of pure standard monumental bronze, with the portrait, ornamentation and inscription in low relief. It will be mounted on a slab of verde antique marble and secured in a manner to make its removal impossible. The memorial is to be placed just inside the Lexington avenue entrance of League Park, Cleveland, and will be illuminated by lights placed immediately above.

'Junk Men' Make Money From Old Wells at Hogtown

Reports from Desdemona indicate that there is renewed activity there along the line of drilling wells deeper and increasing production, and in many cases re-establishing remunerative production in wells that were thought worthless except for junk. Most of these wells have been bought up from small operators by the larger companies and by "junkers." Some of them were originally barely drilled into the sand, and deeper drilling and a small shot produce very satisfactory results in the 2,700 foot sand. Others are wells bought at salvage values, whose buyers, experienced in the ways of oil and the art of coaxing it from the ground, secure enough production to repay their initial investment, leaving the tankage, casing and other equipment as pure "velvet."

There are also a fair number of new holes in the field, especially the northwest extension.

BLACK BROS. SET CASING ON WEIR WELL

Black Bros. are setting casing on their Weir No. 1 well, northeast of Desdemona, at 3,100 feet, with a good show of oil and gas. This well is about a mile north of the Magnolia's Carruth well, which came in nearly a year ago for 5,000 barrels and is still producing. It is in partially proven territory, as another well still further north has shown oil despite a faulty hole.

C. Wakeham, the horseshoer whose leg was broken three weeks ago while shoeing Gray Eagle, famous bucking horse, was out Monday visiting friends. Both bones were broken below the knee by the horse's hoof, and the leg is still in a plaster cast, but Wakeham was able to maneuver on crutches.

NEW CIGARETTE TUBE FOR LONDON GIRLS IS COLLAPSIBLE

International News Service. LONDON, Nov. 2.—Collapsible cigarette tubes of gold which fold into a tiny case smaller than a lady's thimble and dangle on her neck chain when not in use are the latest additions to the ever-growing list of feminine novelties to be seen in the shops nowadays.

Tortoiseshell and gold cigarette cases, less than two inches square, and stocked with illuminating cigarettes, are another temptation to the woman with plentiful pocket money. At the same shops are sold cigarettes as large as cigars.

Slender handles are now square in section, and square also are the slender walking sticks of ivory, headed and tipped with ebony, which are considered the fitting accompaniment to the autumn "tailor-made."

The shopkeeper is daily extending his provision of articles which form the perfect match for one another. Witness of this is a display of severely plain garters in sober colors made in unfrilled silk elastic, fashioned by a manish buckle and labelled "For wear with tailored suit."

Sets of silken harness for pet dogs are also to be obtained in regimental or racing colors, and the collars of colored leather are also to be seen edged with fur.

Altogether the craze for novelties is amazing, and however extravagant or useless a novelty may be, women will be seen displaying it within a few hours of its arrival in the shops. Women know that to get any pleasure from the new craze one must be among the first to exploit it.

BOY WILL RETURN THIS FAMILY TO GREEK ROYAL PALACE

Prince Paul, third son of ex-King Constantine, undoubtedly will be the next king of Greece, dispatches state. Admiral P. Countouriotis has been named regent to direct the nation until a successor to King Alexander is named. Negotiations for the placing of Prince Paul on the throne have been opened with the family of ex-King Constantine. Certain conditions are imposed. Two of these are that Constantine and Prince George, Duke of Sparta, the other son, formally abdicate the throne. To restore the family to its place it is believed these conditions will be met.

PRETTY ACTRESS STARTS FASHION FAD

Miss Ada Mae Weeks.

Why be an actress if you can't start a fad once in a while, is the opinion of Ada Mae Weeks, the pretty actress now pleasing Broadway audiences in "Jim Jam Jems." Miss Weeks starts a new fad weekly, it seems. Her latest is a beautiful mole scarf lined with brocade. The brocade is brilliantly colored and has a poppy design with huge flowers. Already "everybody" is getting out their old scarves and lining them with flowered brocade a la Ada Mae.

Germans Swamp English Markets With Leather

International News Service. LONDON, Nov. 2.—Buyers from Paris who wish to attend the International Shoe and Leather fair which is being held here are accommodated with a special service of aeroplanes from the French capital to this city.

The present fair, which is the twenty-first, is the biggest yet held. There are over 400 exhibitors—but none from Germany, and the department of overseas trade is actively co-operating with the British manufacturers in their endeavors to find overseas markets.

In view of the recent "slump" in the leather industry, says the American Chamber of Commerce in London, commenting on the fair, much dissatisfaction is being expressed at the imports of German upper leather, which is reported to be arriving in large quantities.

Before the British war factories only produced roughly 40 per cent of the leather used in Britain and 50 per cent of the box calf. During the war the industry was urged by the government to extend its plants so that in the future Britain would be independent of foreign supplies.

In consequence, factories and plants were extended so that more than 75 per cent of the requirements can be met from home manufacturers, and the dumping of German leather is therefore hitting the British tanning trade very hard.

Despite the fact that she is armless being born that way, Mrs. J. C. Teagarden of Denver, Col. made dainty baby garments for her daughter which was born a few days ago. She made all the clothes for the expected baby by guiding the cloth under the sewing machine needle with her chin, stitched, cut out patterns and threaded the needle with her feet.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH MURDER OF WEALTHY MINER

A new photo of Mrs. Richard Peete. Mrs. Richard Peete has pleaded not guilty to a charge of murdering Jacob C. Denton, wealthy Los Angeles mining man. He disappeared June 3. His body was found buried in the basement of his home late in September. Mrs. Peete has stated that a woman caller at the Denton home departed in anger, returned later with a man and that the pair murdered Denton.

EXACT HOUR MEANS NOTHING TO SPANIARDS

By Associated Press. MADRID, Nov. 2.—Foreign visitors after a short stay in Madrid begin to doubt whether Spaniards are able to tell the time. There are scores of public clocks in government buildings and on church towers and nearly every Spaniard carries a watch, which he often looks at, but apparently these do not mean anything to the average citizen.

An invitation to a meal at a certain hour means that the host or the guest will appear half an hour or more late, the appointment for a fixed time and place nearly always finds both parties absent at the hour named. An interview arranged with an official involves usually a wait of an hour in the ante-room. The tailor will not be ready to try on your suit until at least two days after he has promised to do so. Trains rarely start and never arrive at the scheduled hour. These are some few indications of the little interest Spaniards show in the time.

It is either morning, noon, evening or night with Spaniards generally—and of course the eternal manana which never comes. The exact hour is nothing to them; yet thousands of them will assemble on the Puerta del Sol to watch the fall of the globe on the ministry of the interior at noon every day.

DEAR PETEY:

Bet you a house and lot you'd stay in W-S a month if you ever got to know folks here like I have. Between business and Reynolds factories and a bully time—well my date book has been bubbling over! And, I'm still running into facts that would stagger even your imagination, old football, with all your kick!

Pete, take it straight from government figures direct to you, that every work day in the week R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. buys from our "Uncle Sam" enough revenue stamps to pay for a duplicate of the handsome new Winston-Salem post office building! Ever hear of such a thing?

And, if you want to get an eyefull of an army of more than 15,000 people, be down in the Reynolds factory district when the whistles blow! Never saw such a cigarette firing-up time in my life!

Peter, everytime you light a Camel in the future, call back on what I've slipped you about Camels—absolutely, the greatest cigarette at any price—for quality, for refreshing flavor, for mellow mild body, for freedom from any unpleasant cigaretty aftertaste or odor! It's worth the busiest smoker's time to compare Camels with any cigarette in the world! Camels are simply a revelation! You know that.

HARDING WINS OHIO

New England and New York Go Republican by Big Majorities; Early Returns Show Harding 2 to 1 Favorite in Ohio and Illinois; Only South for Gov. Cox

That Harding will defeat Cox in the candidate's home state by a majority of almost 2 to 1 seems to be indicated by early returns from that state. Cleveland and Columbus both report clean-cut decisions for the Republican nominee, and unless there is a strong reversal of the present trend, the senator will outvote the governor by the largest majority ever polled in the Buckeye state.

The trend in Ohio is reflected in reports from all parts of the East, with the exception of Indiana. Even there Harding is leading on first reports, from Marion county, where he defeated Cox 3,674 to 3,243. This is the smallest majority yet reported for the Republican nominee.

The only returns that have shown a preference for the Democratic nominee are those from states below the Mason & Dixon line—the Solid South. All other sections have invariably reported strong majorities for the G. O. P. Even Maryland, normally Democratic, gives Harding a handsome lead in the only report sent out.

WEATHER CONDITIONS FORECAST GOOD VOTE

DALLAS, Nov. 2.—With generally fair but cold weather predicted, an unusually large vote is expected today.

Texas returns were slow in coming in on account of the polls not closing until 7 o'clock and the lengthy ballot making tabulations slow. It is noteworthy, however, that the first ten precincts to report gave Harding 237 to 466 for Cox.

Upstate cities went for the Republicans by majorities as high as 3 to 1. Buffalo cast 76,233 votes for Harding and 32,486 for Cox.

Maine city returns show majorities as high as 5 to 1 for Harding. Bath gave Harding 1,994 to 1,092 for Cox and Rockland gave Harding 1,235 and Cox 867.

Massachusetts gave the Republican ticket a clear majority of better than 2 to 1. In Boston only did the Democratic standard bearer make any showing, but lost that city by between 15,000 and 20,000 majority with 115,000 votes counted.

Connecticut and Rhode Island show a big ratio in favor of the Republican ticket, with comparatively few votes counted.

The Chicago Journal, Democrat, concedes Illinois to Harding by 250,000 majority. First reports indicated that Harding was leading by more than 2 to 1 outside Chicago, and by about 3 to 2 in the Windy City.

Early reports on the election are mainly from the East. These indicate that Senator Harding, the Republican nominee, has carried every state between the Atlantic ocean and the Mississippi river, north of the Ohio.

Kentucky's early reports refute the Republican claim to that state, although the contest is fairly close, 108 precincts out of 3,000 giving Cox 16,713 and Harding 11,497.

In Oklahoma, 216 precincts out of 2685 give Cox 1746, Harding 1465. Ferris Democrat, is leading Harrell, his Republican opponent, by a slightly reduced majority, 1703 to 1501.

Missouri thus far indicates the heaviest slide to Harding, if early reports are representative. One hundred and seventy-one precincts out of 3810 give Harding 773 to 87 for Cox.

Wyoming's lone report gives Harding 26 and Cox 3 at some box unmentioned. Harding is leading in West Virginia, 28,000 to 19,000.

Harding is leading in West Virginia, 28,000 to 19,000. Virtually no returns have been received from New Jersey, one district, giving Harding 45, Cox 44 and Debs 1.

The Socialist, Prohibitionist, Farmer-Labor and other votes are negligible. The only reports of strength being the Socialist showing in New York City and Wisconsin, which is nothing unexpected.
