By United Press.
 BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 9.—Local police are still endeavoring to clear up the tangle growing out of the death here last Sunday of four persons, when their automobile was struck by an Alton passenger train at Cooya, Ill.

Mrs. Carl Johnson, or Mrs. T. P. McKnight, as she now prefers to be called, admitted to the police that Carl Johnson was not the real name of the man killed in the accident. She says his correct name was T. P. McKnight, but could give no reason for the masquerade. She also could not explain how $100,000 in bonds, deeds, etc., in the name of Carl Johnson, came into McKnight's hands.

Mrs. McKnight, who is the only survivor of the accident, resides in Buxton, Iowa.

Harris was killed in action in France June 24, 1918, and the body was buried in Thurber under military honors. However, it was thought fitting that the dance should be postponed until the body had been returned to the state.

JURORS CAN'T DECIDE WHETHER HE OR SHE WAS ROUGHEST ACTOR

Third Trial This Afternoon Will Endeavor to Make Decision Whether Gentleman Should Eject Lady From Automobile During Darksome Hours.

Charged with loud, violent and abusive language toward a woman, Frank Beaver yesterday came to trial a second time in the court of Justice of the Peace McFadden and according to the evidence, the prosecuting witness, Stella May Wisdom, bit him, hit him, scratched him, called him a lousy so and so and he in turn threw her and her sister out of the car and left them at the dead of night on the top of Eastland Hill. The trial of yesterday, as did the first one, resulted in a hung jury, with three for conviction and three for acquittal. The third trial will be had this afternoon.

Too Rough?
 According to the testimony of Stella May and her sister, Ola Wisdom, who also was in the car, Beaver called the girls dirty names. The defense, represented by Sam Wasaff, denied using naughty words but admitted that the women were made to get out of the car, because the

LAW MAY BAR JUDGES FROM OUTSIDE JOBS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—There is a feeling in both branches of congress that federal judges should stick to the bench and not take any other jobs, as Judge Landis has done.

Following the criticism of Judge Landis' action in becoming supreme arbitrator for organized baseball a measure was introduced, favorably reported from the judiciary committee and placed on the calendar, which forbade any federal judge from accepting any other compensation during his service than that received for his official duties.

An amendment to the bill was offered by Senator Borah to prevent members of congress from representing corporations that have claims against the government, or those engaged in interstate commerce.

Defeated by Tie Vote. Shortly before the recess a motion was made to take up this bill for consideration. It was defeated by a tie vote, which indicates the strong sentiment in favor of it.

The action of the American Bar association will meet with approval in the house, but it is unlikely any action will be taken looking to the impeachment of Judge Landis.

Ordinarily a judge is expected to have a sufficient regard for the ethics of his office so that it is not necessary for congress to act to impeach him or remind him of his duty.

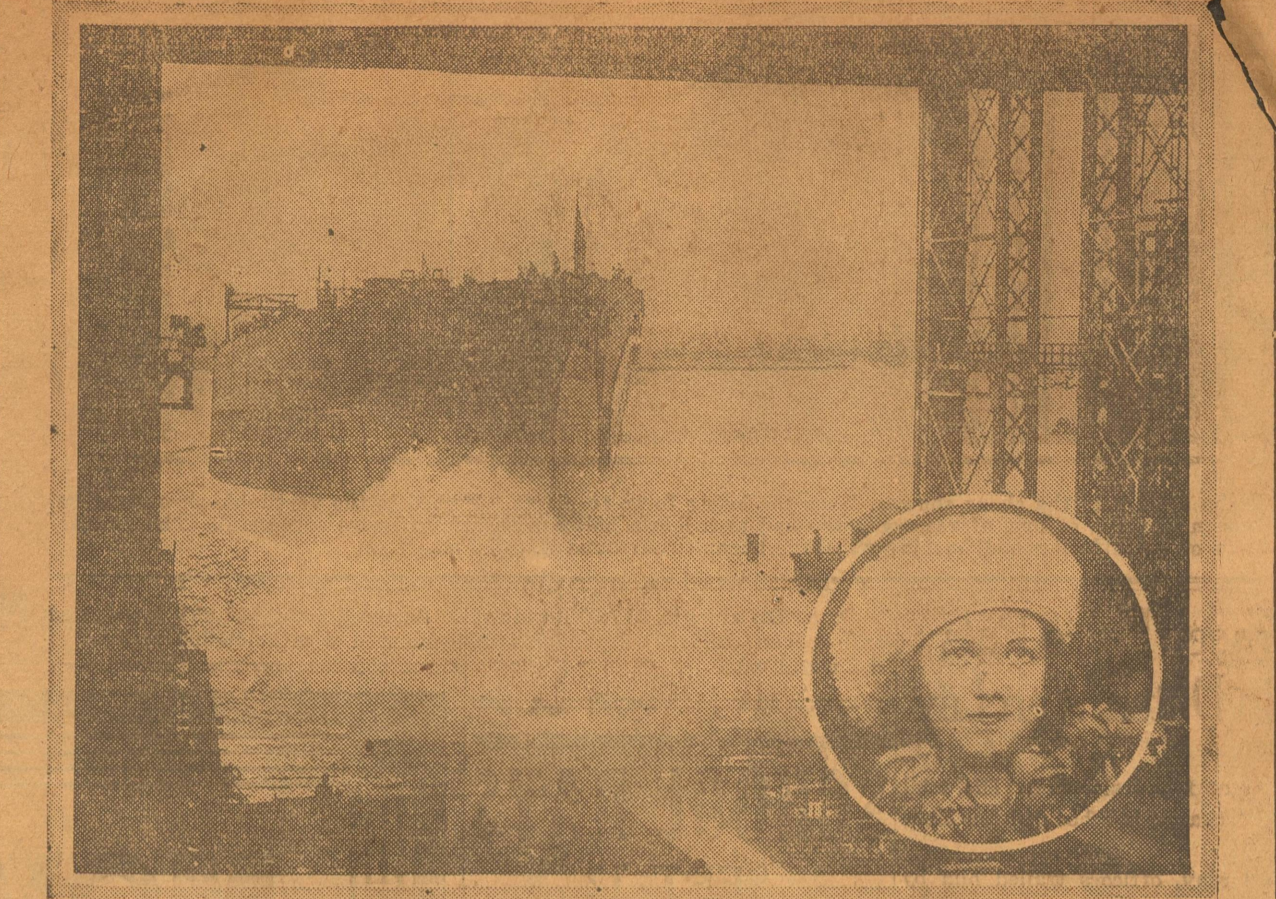

Allowed Proceedings to Die. Congress has allowed impeachment proceedings started before the Harding administration took office to die in the judiciary committee.

The report went out that the matter would be bridged over into the sixty-seventh congress, but nothing further has been done with it.

MANHATTAN. Movie fans of the city are in for a treat when "One Man in a Million," the latest Robertson-Cole super-special release starring the inimitable character actor, George Beban, opens at the Manhattan theatre today for a run of two days.

The story of "One Man in a Million" has to do with the reward brought by kindness. Mr. Beban in the role of Lupino Delchini, an humble and big hearted Italian, becomes pound master in a western town as the result of a good turn he performed for a secret service operative.

ways felt in animals and their many pranks. At the pound Lupino finds Flora Valenzi, a stenographer, whose heart is as big as his own.

A Belgian waif, adopted by Lupino plays a great part in the lives of Flora and Delchini. All would have been well but for the arrival of the boy's mother who comes from Belgium in search of him.

There are many dramatic moments and many comedy situations. Mr. Beban who, as well as playing the leading role, wrote the story, produced and directed the picture, has apparently thought of everything that goes to make a successful photoplay.

TEMPLE

Well enacted, well directed and with a particularly timely theme, "Wealth," Paramount's new picture starring Ethel Clayton, will be the feature attraction at the Temple theatre for the last time today.

Herbert Rawlinson is seen as a wealthy idler who has grown to be parasitically dependent on his mother's money. He meets Mary McLeod, the role played by Ethel Clayton, a charming little artist in Greenwich village, who has worked long and hard for her success in life.

GIRL WHOSE FATHER SLEW PRIEST TO ASK COURT'S PROTECTION

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 9.—Mrs. Ruth Stephenson-Gussman, 19-year-old central figure in what is developing into one of the greatest legal dramas in the South's history, plead for court protection against alleged plots to kidnap her, do her bodily injury, or confine her in an insane asylum.

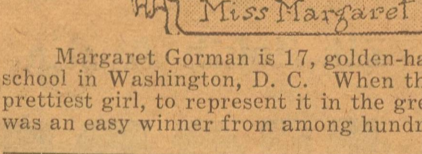

Her appeal is the latest development in a series of sensational incidents following the killing of Father James E. Coyle, priest of St. Paul's Cathedral here and dean of the Catholic church of North Alabama, by her father, the Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, Methodist minister.

The case has created interest and excitement in Birmingham, which promises to make the Stephenson case rank with the famous Leo Frank case in Atlanta in bitterness.

Calmly reading his Bible in his cell and refusing to see anyone except attorneys and relatives, Stephenson has apparently paid little attention to the series of events following his arrest.

Stephenson, if indicted, will be tried early in October. Selection of a jury is expected to be difficult, because of the widespread interest in the case and the fight which is expected to be made by both sides to bar jurors, whose religious membership would be thought prejudicial.

ARE YOU MISS JONES?

Miss Matilda Jones, leader of fashion in Podunk, goes to Squashville for her clothes. She thinks she can find things better and cheaper and more exclusive. Then, like as not, when she steps off the train in all her new-bought finery and pauses a moment for the gazers to admire, she is struck dumb with mortification. . . .

Americans—women especially—are mirage chasers when it comes to clothes. They always look better somewhere else. And the trouble is not confined to the smaller cities, at all. Dallas, the largest city in North Texas, and the center of the state's merchandising, finds it necessary to stage an "It's in Dallas" campaign, in order to persuade its wealthier shoppers to remain at home. . . .

Towns are built by co-operation; by those who make their living in a place spending their money in that place, in order that still more persons can make their living there. Such a practice is both good business sense and good common sense. . . .

Worth and Dallas, and in general, their selections are much the same. So WHY LEAVE RANGER to do your shopping?

The ZR-2 As She Appeared an Instant After Her Fall Into the Humber River

For an instant after striking the water the ZR-2 held the shape shown. Then she began to go to pieces. Buried in the veritable shrouds were the bodies of the dead and dying. The picture shows the ZR-2 immediately before the smoke of smouldering and burning wreckage began to surround it.

Wire-Wrapped Wagon Wheel Twice Puts Breckenridge Man in Dutch With Law

BRECKENRIDGE, Sept. 9.—The wire-wrapped wheel of the old wagon to which he clung, perhaps with some measure of friendly feeling, certainly with a large amount of carelessness, has led to the arrest of George Vaughan twice within two months. The first time he was charged with theft of household goods from a lease two miles north of Breckenridge, from which the peculiar trail left by the wired wheel led the officers to the shack where the missing goods were found and Vaughan and his companions were found sleeping. His trial on that charge is scheduled for Monday. Yesterday, officers trailed him by the wheel tracks to Graham, over the Young county line, and secured his arrest there on the charge of theft of two saddles and a set of harness from the Charles Stewart ranch on the Ivan road. Officers believed that it was Vaughan's intent to dispose of the harness, which was found in the fatal wagon, and leave the country before the first case came to trial.

JUDGES DIFFER ON SANITY OF MAN WHO GOES OUT ON SPREES

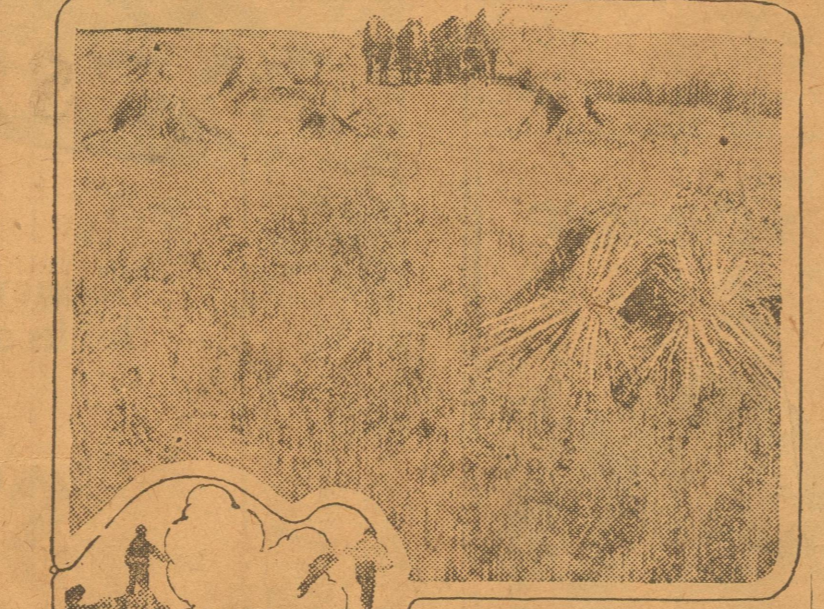

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—John J. Knecht, "awakening" from a protracted "spree" finds himself in a most peculiar situation. By one judge he is declared to be entirely sane and competent to handle his business affairs, while a second judge holds Knecht to be an insane person, and will not rescind that position. Knecht now plans to bring mandamus proceedings against the latter judge, to compel him to recognize his sanity. It all comes as the result of a "drunk" on the part of Knecht. Some months ago Knecht started on a tear, during the process of which it was complained by his wife he dissipated approximately $20,000. The wife brought action to have the estate removed from the hands of her wayward husband, claiming that he was insane as the result of excessive drinking.

Such a decision was returned by Judge Rieheimer of the county court. The husband, however, after sobering up, brought habeas corpus proceedings to secure his release, and was adjudged sane by Judge McKinley of superior court. Now husband and wife have become reconciled, and both would have the decision of Judge Rieheimer set aside and the remainder of the Knecht estate placed in the hands of the husband once more. But this the judge refuses to do, stating that Knecht can mandamus him if he so desires.

Lady Gregory, the famous Irish dramatist, wrote her first play when she was 52 years of age.

Methodists would replace dance with 'mutual athletics'. CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Methodists feel may soon "snap into it" with concert of the church. This means the possible invention of a dance which may overcome the old antagonism of the church to dancing. Dr. C. H. McCrea, assistant editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, official publication of the Methodist Episcopal Church, has proposed a name for the substitute, but he stated today that the idea had gone no further. He is looking for suggestions. He calls the proposed dance "mutual athletics."

FARMERS TURN FROM GRAIN POOL; NEW EVENTS FORESHADOW FAILURE

CHICAGO.—Marketing experts of grain exchanges say three recent events have proved a serious blow to grain-pooling advocates. First came the announcement that the Canadian grain-pooling plan, watched with sharpest interest in America, has been abandoned because farmers refused to tie up their grain on long contracts. In a previous pooling attempt farmers lost heavily, 50,000,000 bushels of wheat having been reported held while the market slumped $1 a bushel. Experts say the Canadian pooling contract was less rigid and less involved than that offered American farmers. In Spokane, it was announced, members of the Northwest Wheat Growers' Association received an average of $1.04 to $1.06 for 3,000,000 bushels consigned to the association last year, while the Volmer Clearwater Company bought 1,500,000 bushels from farmers in the same territory at an average of $1.53 and in a signed statement offered their open books to farmers as proof. A third event which caused additional American farmers to reject the pooling contract, according to advices here, was announcement that the Northwest Wheat Growers' Association would market through usual grain channels and that attempts to obtain the association's grain as a nucleus for the proposed national pool had failed. George C. Jewett, general manager of the Northwest Association, is also a director of the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc.

JAPAN AGREES WITH HUGHES ON YAP SOLUTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Japanese government has approved the plan worked out here for a settlement of the Yap mandate and Pacific questions, it was learned authoritatively today.

The plan for a settlement of this difficult problem has been agreed upon informally in principle by Secretary of State Hughes and Baron Shidehara, the Japanese ambassador, it is said. The terms of this informal agreement were cabled some time ago by Ambassador Shidehara to his government, and the Japanese government now has given its approval, likewise "in principle."

Secretary Hughes now is expected to proceed to put the tentative agreement into formal and binding terms.

MOSQUITOES TRAVEL NORTH IN BOX CARS

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 9.—Enter the newest specimen of the insect family, the tramp mosquito. Or perhaps you might call it the mosquito de luxe. It is just a matter how you look at the latest statement of Col. Finch of the health department of Springfield.

He declares that the mosquitoes are coming to Springfield in box cars from the south and are coming in such numbers that they are providing a menace to the health of one section of the city of Springfield. Box cars which have been used in southern trade and which frequently stand on railway sidings in East Springfield are reported to be infested with mosquitoes.

It is claimed by persons acquainted with the situation that mosquitoes were first brought to Springfield in box cars, following the opening of railroads to Memphis and other southern points. Before that time, local citizens declare, mosquitoes were unknown here. Col. Finch has sent out an order to all home owners to keep their grass and weeds cut short as a means of combatting the pest.

JOBLESS ARCHITECTS MAKE WOMEN'S CLOTHES

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Scores of architects who before the war were earning more than $10,000 a year are now glad to accept office jobs at $20 a week.

This remarkable statement was made by one of the leaders of the profession in London.

"I know one young member of the profession," he continued, "who, despairing of finding employment, is now making women's girdles, which he sells to fashionable dressmakers. Another is designing and manufacturing fancy articles in leather."

"I believe architects have been harder hit than members of any other profession by the widespread distress and unemployment."

Sir Banister Fletcher, the famous architect, agreed with this view. "I have encountered hundreds of young men who can scarcely eke out a bare existence from the profession," he said. "Many have been badly hit by the scrapping of the ministry and health's housing plans. I think, however, that the dropping of the government's financial proposals may do some good in the end, as it will lead to an increased desire to build on the part of individual members of the public, and so help to provide a reasonably lucrative private practice for a certain number of architects."

"This cannot happen until the cost of labor and materials has decreased," said Sir Banister Fletcher. "Meanwhile, like everybody else, we must wait patiently for better days."

SPANK YOUNG BRIDES.

LONG HILL, Conn., Sept. 9.—Any girl who marries before she is 20 years old ought to be spanked, according to Mrs. Emeline Gilbert, aged 85, oldest inhabitant of Long Hill.

Mrs. Gilbert says she is qualified to know. Married at the age of 17, she found herself a widow before she was 20 years old. At that time the new foot-power sewing machines were introduced and the girl borrowed enough money to buy one. She vowed that she would work day and night and never marry again, at least not until she saved $3,000. When all but $30 of this sum had been earned her health broke down and she was an invalid for many years.

Then a peculiar thing happened. When 80 years old her strength came back and her eyesight returned. She takes daily walks now, but says she is "still afraid of the motor cars." She never married again.

POLICE OUT ON STRIKE TO BACK OUSTED CHIEF

CONCORD, N. C., Sept. 9.—This city is without police protection today, following the resignation of all members of the force after the mayor appointed Harry Joyner as chief, to succeed C. A. Robinson. The latter's resignation was demanded because of his alleged failure to suppress disorders in the textile strike.

The aldermen are to meet tonight to consider the policemen's strike. The men assert they will not serve under the new chief.

FRANCE POOREST COUNTRY.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—France is the poorest country on earth, according to income tax returns published recently, which among other astonishing things state:

First—There are only 183 millionaires in all France.

Second—Four-fifths of the population boasts of incomes lower than $2,000 a year.

Third—The total French income amounts only to 11,850,000,000 francs.

Government officials charged with the investigation are plainly nonplussed at the revelations that, instead of the reported 800 millionaires in Paris, there are really only sixty, according to the statements on income tax blanks.

AMERICAN HOBOES, FLOCKING TO MEXICO, MAKE BEGGING A SCIENCE

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 9.—Mexico City is beginning to look like itself, for the swallows are coming home. The birds of passage that flit from city to city and live on the charity and pity of the more charitably inclined of the inhabitants (and the Mexicans are notably charitable) are flooding into the city. The poor you have with you always, and the American hobo most of the time. But the strenuous days of the revolution were too much for him, and he faded away, like the cattle on the thousand hills, before the rancorous breath of civil strife. But he again is taking his stand on the street corner, as in the days of old. And one feels that the Mexican capital is coming into its own once more.

"MODERATION" OF DRY SPELL TO BE TALKED OF

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—The amalgamated wets of the country are off on a national campaign against Volstead act enforcement, according to statements made by officials of the United Veterans' league, a Chicago "wet" organization, to the United Press today.

The Amalgamated Association opposed to federal prohibition is arranging a national convention of anti-drys at Washington in October, at which measures for "moderating" existing enforcement acts will be discussed. The Amalgamated associations were recently organized in New York from nine anti-Volstead societies.

The meeting will probably devote its time to measures for legalizing the use of light wines and beer, the United Veterans' officials said.

The American hobo always has been a thorn in the side of the American resident in Mexico. He is omnivorous, feeding on the Jew and the Gentile, the devotee and the pharisee, the washed and the unwashed.

He has all the self-assertiveness of the traditional American, and he lords it over the other beggars who make their home in the streets of the capital. He is ever doing thus his little best to make still more vivid and irradicable the impression of assertiveness and "unculture" of the "Norte Americano" to which the extremely polite and deferential Mexican clings as the breath of life.

Swarmed Before Revolt. Before the outbreak of the revolution against the Diaz government in 1910 there were hundreds of American tramps in the capital; and all of them seemed to be making a good living. They swarmed the streets of the sunny southern city, and they were extremely aggressive. Now and then an effort was made to restrain their activities, and some of them were arrested on the charge of having no visible support. But, after all, an American is an American, and more especially so if he is broke in a foreign land. So whenever the hobo got into trouble there was always some one to see him out of it.

The Mexican beggar is content with the donation of a centave (one-half of an American cent), but the American hobo always wants the price of a meal, or a meal and a bed, or a ticket to the United States. He has at his command a fund of most wonderfully artistic hard luck stories, some of them with a really dramatic finale that is truly appealing to one who has not heard the same tale over and over again with variations.

If the American hobo would confine himself to the use of English alone, he would not leave such a bad odor in the nostrils of the self-respecting, well-to-do American with wide Mexican connections.

Were "Artists." But he doesn't; for all along the route across the border American states and throughout the uplands of Mexico to the capital he has picked up a collection of Spanish words and phrases most fearfully and wonderfully made, but sufficient unto his needs; and he uses them on all occasions. He also has picked up the Mexican gestures of distress and helplessness, and these he uses upon the natives with even more telling effects. Thus it will be surmised that he is an artist at his trade.

In the pre-revolution days there was undoubtedly some sort of close union among the American hoboes tramping the country, for whenever a certain house was known to be charitably inclined toward tramps, it was visited daily by scores of them; but houses that rigorously refused to help them were avoided almost altogether.

At one time the American colony school had a boarding department for boys, and the principal of the institution had the habit of sending American tramps around to the kitchen for a meal whenever they applied for help, which they did almost every day. Soon the place was so overrun with tramps that he was forced to refuse to help any of them. He found marks on the front gate and the fence left by tramps to inform others that the pickings were good and the graft easy.

MINERAL WELLS MAN HAS OPTION ON DALLAS CLUB

Ike Sabolosky, Formerly Reporter President, Makes Deal.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 9.—Last night's Star-Telegram published a dispatch from Dallas that Ike Sabolosky, owner of the Mineral Wells team in the 1920 West Texas circuit, has obtained a thirty-day option on the Dallas franchise for the price of $150,000. Sabolosky will take over the complete interest of the field, the lease on the playing ground and the stands. Ham Patterson and Jess Hassell, co-owners, agreed to release all rights to the holdings when Judge John F. Murphy, acting for Sabolosky, closed the option.

NICK CARTER IS BOUGHT BY OKLAHOMA CITY

ARDMORE, Okla., Sept. 9.—Nick Carter, one of the premier twirlers of the Ardmore Peps, has been sold to the Oklahoma City team of the Western league, according to an announcement made here yesterday by Manager Sled Allen. Carter reports at the close of the Paris-Ardmore championship series. Nick has made a notable record during his stay with the Ardmore club with a string of victories on his griddle that would be a credit to any league. He has pitched a big game and earned a big salary after the close of the season. He has been described as a twirler who can make the ball talk in any regular language.

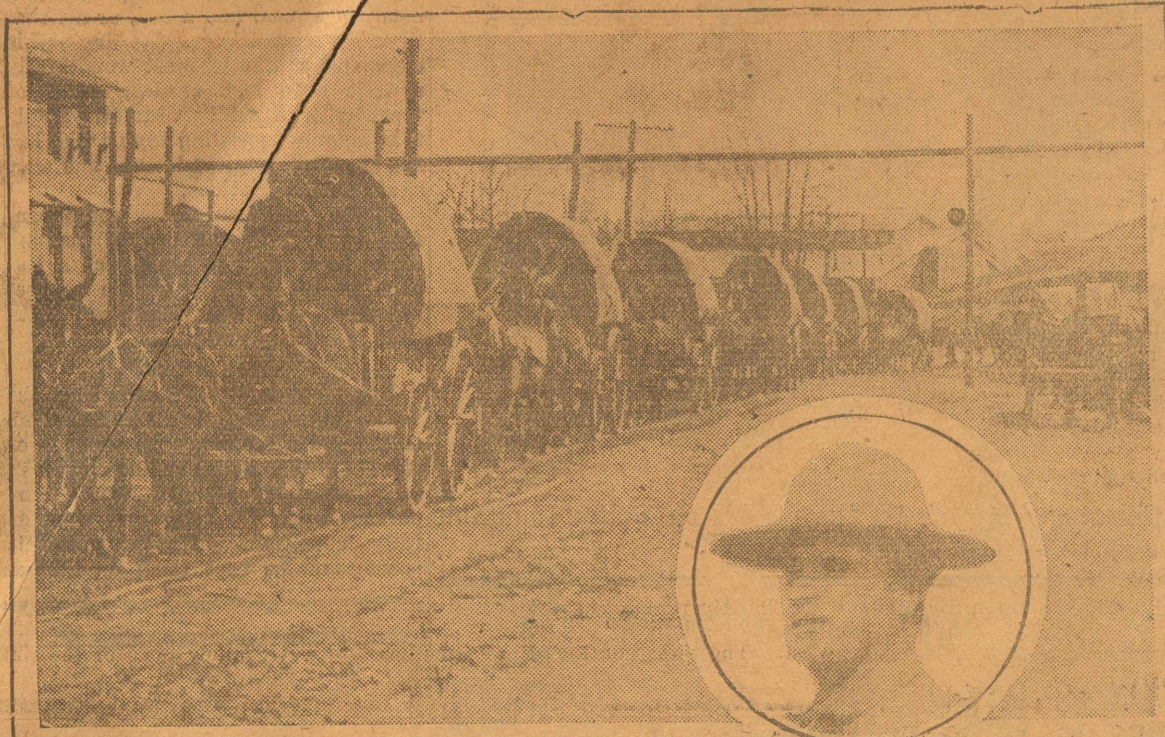

ARDMORE AND SWEETWATER WIN OPENERS

Ardmore 1 1 0 1.000
Paris 1 0 1 .000
PARIS, Sept. 9.—Ardmore won the first game of the series in the play-off for the pennant here today by a score of 5 to 3. The visitors hit the ball hard in the third and sixth innings, when they made their scores. Hill, who started for the locals, was pulled in the sixth after allowing seven hits and three runs and Appleton replaced him. Two runs were scored off Appleton before the side was retired, Appleton's hurried throw with a double play in front of him, allowing the runs. Appleton was pulled in the seventh for a pinch and Lefty Williams finished the game, which was capped in the ninth with Ardmore at the bat. The fielding of Dodd, a wonderful catch by Jones and the hitting of Kizzlar, featured the game.

SWEETWATER, Sept. 9.—Before one of the largest crowds of the season, Sweetwater outthrew and outplayed Abilene at every stage and won the opening game of the post-season series, 8 to 5.

Johnson was ineffective and was derricked in the third inning after allowing eight hits and six runs, and Crowson appeared on the scene too late to save the game. The clubs play here again Friday and jump to Abilene for two games.

Horses will penetrate the mountain fastnesses of West Virginia, where miners and deputy sheriffs are battling in one of the most sanguinary contests in American industrial history. Colonel Anderson, in command of the troops at Camp Dix who were ordered to the Mine front, is shown in the inset. Each side declared its willingness to have martial law come to West Virginia, and each side regards its coming as a victory.

IF PIRATES LOSE, IT'LL BE DUE TO WEAKNESS AGAINST SOUTHPAWS

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 9.—If the Pittsburgh Pirates fail to win the pennant in the National league this season, they can lay their defeat directly to the inability to beat southpaws, especially Art Nehf of the Giants and Richard Marquard of the Reds. These two kithoques have been "poison" to the Corsairs. Against all the left-handers, the men of Gibson have a record of 15-15, .500, whereas the mark against right-handers is 63-32, .663. Art Nehf, one of the Giants' big winners this season, has faced the Smoky City aggregation six times him in a single tilt. Once he blanked them, while on three other attempts he held them to one tally. They have been able to get only 33 hits off him, an average of 6.5 a game. Against the Giants the Pirates have hit .185.

Record Against Nehf.
The Pirates' record against Nehf this season is as follows:
Date A. B. R. H. G. R.
May 24 31 3 5 5
June 2 29 0 4 7
July 18 30 1 8 12
July 27 32 1 7 4
Aug. 24 27 2 5 10
Aug. 27 30 1 4 8
Totals 178 8 33 41
(G. R.—Giants' runs.)
Against the pitching of Marquard, the Pirate batters have been more successful than against Nehf, owing a swat figure of 249, with 43 hits in 173 attempts. They also have scored 17 runs against the former Giant and Dodger. However, seven of these came on April 14, the only clash the Pirates have been able to win from him. In the four he has won, he has held them to ten markers, an average of 2.5 a game. Against Marquard the Pirates have fared as follows:

Date A. B. R. H. G. R.
April 14 37 7 10
April 23 34 4 8
May 26 31 1 4
May 28 33 3 9
July 3 38 2 12
Totals 173 17 43
Success of Other Southpaws.
George Tyler, one of the stars of the Boston Braves in 1914, downed the Pirates twice before he was handed his unconditional release by Johnny Evers, Eppa Rixey and Walter Reuther have each beaten the Smoketown entry, once, while on May 29, Coumbe and Rixey of the Reds, both left-handers, downed them with three runs, while on July 11, Smith and Mitchell of the Superbas, gained a 9-8 victory over the N. L. pacemakers.

The Corsairs have been blanked by southpaws three times, Rixey, Nehf and Reuther accomplishing the trick. In thirty games against left-handers the Pirates have batted .251. Unless the unforeseen happens, the Pirates will be called upon to oppose Nehf one more time this season, while there is a chance they will be forced to go against Marquard's twisters twice before the end of the campaign.

HOW IT HAPPENED

TEXAS LEAGUE.

The Marines are at their old trick of beating the Panthers again. Yesterday they stopped the league leaders after eight straight victories, 2 to 1. Roy Mitchell had the Indian sign on the Cats while Buzzer Bill Whittaker, though pitching excellent ball, walked 'em at the wrong time. A pass with one out, followed by an infield play and a double, counted the Marines' first tally. A shot on the slats to Munson, first up, gave Dallas the winning run in the next round. Munson was sacrificed to second, went to third on a passed ball and counted on a pinch single by one James Galloway. Matic's error on Kraft's fly, followed by Hoffman's double, counted for Fort Worth's only run. It came in the fourth, just between the Dallas scores.

Wichita Falls continued to drop, Red Bird hurling a wonderful game and blanking them while Shreveport was counting three times. The Spudgers collected nine hits off Red and there were two errors behind him, yet they could not dent the plate. Shreveport's six safeties were bunched in the first and fifth, for their tallies.

South Texas games were rained out.

AMERICAN.

Both New York and Cleveland lost yesterday, maintaining their places one game apart. Detroit smothered Cleveland, 15 to 1, the Indians using eighteen players in their efforts to stop the slaughter. Sothoron, Caldwell, Clark and Morton were the pitchers treated to a bumping.

The lowly Athletics maintained their season's record of being the Yanks jinx by coming from behind in the ninth and winning 6 to 5. Until the ninth, the Yanks were leading 5 to 4—and a recruit named Rogers had relieved Rip Collins. Consecutive hits gave the Athletics the victory. Babe Ruth hit his fifty-third homer, with none on in the fourth, and he is now only one behind last year's record. It begins to look as if the Bambino will be well over sixty when the season ends.

The Browns also staged a last-round rally and beat the White Sox, 4 to 3. Bayne of St. Louis was nicked for two singles and a homer by Ellerbe in the first round. In the remaining eight innings he allowed only three hits.

NATIONAL.

Neither New York nor Pittsburgh was scheduled in the National league.

Philadelphia and Boston split a double-header, the Phillies winning the first game 8 to 6, by counting all their runs in the ninth inning. Oeschger was the victim of the unexpected assault. The Braves took no chances in the second game, making it a 13 to 2 walkaway.

Pete Donahue, the T. C. U. boy, was bumped by the Cubs, who beat the Reds, 6 to 2. Cheeves, last year with Eastland, hurled for the Cubs.

COALINGA, Sept. 9.—Kickless "moonshine" is a possibility. According to a court ruling there might be such a thing.

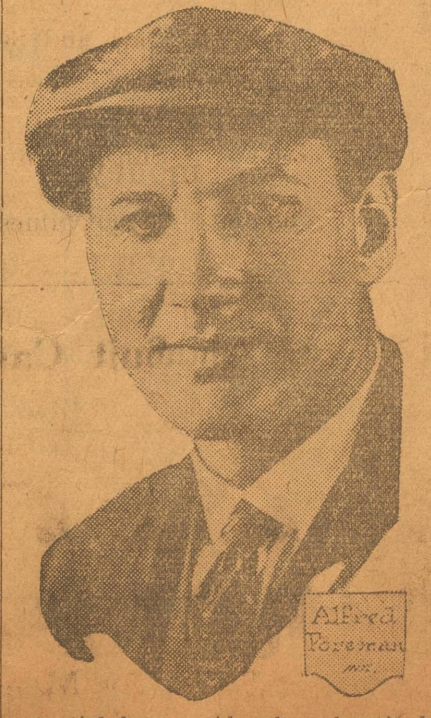

V. M. Smith, sentenced to thirty days imprisonment for making moonshine, was released on that theory.

He admitted he manufactured the stuff, and pleaded guilty. He accepted his sentence without a word, and then he was released by Judge Woolley at Fresno on a writ of habeas corpus.

Smith was freed because in the complaint it had not stated whether the "moonshine" liquor was intoxicating.

CHAMPION FORGIVER FEEDS HUBBY NO. TWO

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 9.—Ralph Obenchain, forgiving Chicago lawyer, is a stern, relentless husband, compared to a Kansas City packing house worker who, rejected by his wife for a husband more handsome, is now providing for his former mate, their two children—and husband No. 2.

The peculiar case came to the attention today of Miss Agnes Martin, investigator for the associated charities, Kansas City, Kansas, when the young wife appealed to her for aid in finding employment for the second husband.

The wife, twenty-five years old, divorced her first husband, aged thirty, about a year ago to marry a handsome young man of nineteen. Since their marriage the young husband has been out of a job.

"I can't stand to see them go hungry," is the reason the deposed husband gives for his philanthropic attitude. Besides lending financial aid to the family and aiding husband No. 2 in his search for employment, the former husband lives in the same house with his handsome young rival, paying weekly for his. LIGHT FLICKERED OUT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Flickering electric lights in thousands of San Francisco homes at the dinner hour last night caused comment and question. Today the newspapers explain that the flickerings marked the death of 14-year-old Forder Abbott, electrocuted at play.

Young Abbott, playing with other boys, climbed a high-tension power pole, slipped and fell across the electric light wires. Two other boys were on the pole. The body interfered with electric transmission until removed.

Mrs. A. A. Ratte, of Haverhill, Mass., a young French woman, who came to this country during the world war and married an American doctor, recently discovered a talent for drawing, and is now doing fashion designs.

CATTLE PRICES DRIVE NESTERS FROM WEST, 'BEAR HUNTERS' SAY

The majority of the cattlemen in New Mexico are "broke" and for miles one can see excellent pasture land with not a head of stock on it, according to a report brought back from that state by J. T. Gullahorn and R. B. Waggoman, who have spent ten days touring it in quest of "bear." They didn't find any but they found quite a few game wardens. Because of the blow to the cattle industry they said many of the nesters were moving out and leaving their homesteads. This also is true in Western Texas. In a Dodge car they visited Las Vegas, Roswell, Clovis and other places. While in the mountains four blankets were comfortable at night. Miss Mary Banta, of Brooklyn, who has been a missionary in New York's Chinatown for many years, is connected with the Church of All Nations.

FRENCH MAYOR ACCUSED OF CRUCIFYING BOY

M. Buffet with wife and daughter.

M. Buffet, the mayor of Compiègne, France, with his wife and daughter, is charged that the mayor is responsible for having an 18-year-old boy, who was said to have burned the mayor's farm, crucified and burned. The event took place in 1914, when the Germans were outside Compiègne. This is the second time the attention of France has been called to this atrocious crime. It is said that the infuriated villagers, urged on by the mayor, crucified and horribly mutilated the boy, and, while there was still life in his body, he was burned at the stake.

"Hush-Footed Burglars" Were Not; Owner Hid His Money So Well He Couldn't Find It.

BRECKENRIDGE, Sept. 9.—Hush-footed burglars who "tip-toed softly past the beds where Leon Greenburg and his 12-year-old son Abe were sleeping," in the rear of the Under-selling store, and looted $250 cash from its hiding place on the shelves, are no longer sought by the officers. Their cleverness has been exceeded by the proprietor of the store himself. He hid the money so well that he, or any phantom marauders, could not find it.

It was discovered by the man he left in charge of the store, when Greenburg left town on business. A roll of currency was found in the pocket of a pair of khaki trousers. Another pair was heavy with silver quarters. Still another contained a roll of small bills. Greenburg is happy, but he still shivers when he considers what a bargain some customer might have made in the purchase of that pair of khaki trousers for $2.85.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelly and small son, J. F. Jr., have returned from a visit of several days to Graham.
