STICK UP SANTA FE MAIL TRAIN IN OKLAHOMA, AND ESCAPE WITH FOUR POUCHES

By United Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 29.—Six masked bandits early today held up Santa Fe passenger train No. 5, Kansas City to Galveston, near Edmond, Okla., and escaped with four pouches of mail, one of which was said to be registered.

The robbers forced the mail clerks to throw the mail sacks from the car door. They escaped in an automobile

Posses from here, headed by county officials and police, are in purit. No attempt was made by the bandits to molest passengers, it was said. One of the robbers forced his way into the engine cab at Edmond. and at the point of a revolver compelled the engineer to stop the train a short distance south of here. A charge of dynamite was placed under the mail car and exploded, the explosion tearing the mail car door from its hinges. The lone robber was then joined by five other companions. They entered the mail car and forced the clerks to turn over to them all mail pouches in sight. They tossed these into a waiting automobile,

While awaiting the advent of the lady in a hotel, she is accosted by a young man, who seems like an American and is in apparent trouble. He begs Annesley to save him by pretending to be his wife. She is astounded at the proposal, but the man's distress is so great that she agrees. Later two men have threatened the young man, who gives his name as Nelson Smith. To escape, the couple return to Annesley's home. The whole affair so enrages her aunt that she orders Annesley to leave forever, whereupon Nelson declares his love for Annesley, who having lived a colorless life, devoid of romance, accepts him. Some time later Annesley is horrified to learn that her husband robbed her uncle of his gems, but she sticks to him and the story moves to an unusual conclusion.
