TEXAS CRUDE ADVANCES 25 CENTS

NEW PRICE, $1.25 BARREL, POSTED BY TEXAS AND PRAIRIE AT ONCE

Humble Begins Tomorrow Laying of Pipe Line and Will Have Jobs for 50 to 60 Ranger Men Who Have Families.

North Texas crude oil has advanced 25 cents a barrel and is now bringing $1.25, posted price. The Texas Pipe Line company posted the new price this morning and it was immediately met by the Prairie Oil & Gas company. Other offices could not be reached this morning but it has always been the custom for pipe line companies to meet each raise and decline, and it is thought certain all other companies will pay the price.

This is the first optimistic sign seen in the oil market since last December when the price began to toboggan and comes on the heels of an announcement yesterday that Pennsylvania crude had advanced 25 cents a barrel.

Instructions to the local offices of the Texas Pipe Line were to pay the advance on North Texas oil. No mention was made of mid-continent crude but it is believed the same advance has been made over the mid-continent field.

Operators over the Ranger and Breckenridge fields have, in many instances, been paying a bonus of from 15 to 40 cents a barrel for crude for several weeks, though the larger companies have not been paying a bonus, it is said.

To Lay Pipe Line.

With the increase in oil the Humble Oil & Refining company will tomorrow start laying a pipe line from the Phillips to the Baccaman farm and expect to employ fifty or sixty men for a period of thirty to forty days. This employment will be given to Ranger men with families. Ray Waylin will be the foreman in charge.

It is believed by local men that these two events and others of like nature which have been taking shape for the past few weeks, constitute a forerunner of a returning prosperity. The new price for oil is thought to be evidence that consumption has equalled or passed production and that the large companies will start bidding for stock.

This view is shared by those who know the immense quantities of crude now in storage and they are certain that if storage stock was increasing instead of diminishing the price would remain the same or be lowered. The opinion is also freely expressed that the upward trend from now on will be in small sums but will be gradual until oil has reached a profitable basis.

BRECKENRIDGE FOLLOWS.

BRECKENRIDGE, Tex., Sept. 28.—The Texas Pipe Line Co., today posted a notice of an increase of 25c in the price of Stephens county crude oil. The new price is $1.25 a barrel. The notice was posted at the local headquarters of the company. Other companies were expected to follow suit.

POSTED AT HOUSTON.

HOUSTON, Sept. 28.—North and West Texas crude oil is increased 25c a barrel by the Texas company, with headquarters here, today, officers of the company announced.

LLOYD GEORGE NOTE IS ON WAY TO SINN FEIN

By United Press.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—Members of the British cabinet who have been considering the text of Lloyd George's proposed note to De Valera have agreed as to the main points, and the reply will be forwarded this morning, according to advices from Gairloch today.

It was stated that the British note which would once more outline the government's attitude towards Irish independence, but would make a conference with Sinn Fein delegates possible, would be sent by telegraph. The British press today was very optimistic over the next exchange of notes.

NOTE EXPECTED.

DUBLIN, Sept. 28.—Sinn Fein expected the British note today. Eamonn De Valera called a meeting of the Dail Eireann for tomorrow to consider Lloyd George's reply to his latest telegram. This was accepted here as an indication the Irish leader had been advised the communication from the British premier would be dispatched today.

STABBED!

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 28.—R. D. Watson today was held in jail here, in connection with the death of Cove Swayze, 36, a plasterer, who was stabbed to death at Watson's home last night. The stabbing was said to have followed a quarrel between Watson, his wife and Swayze.

FATTY'S FATE TO BE DECIDED ON BY JURY TODAY

Indications Are That Corpulent Comedian Will Be Held on Murder Charge.

By M. D. TRACY, United Press Staff Correspondent.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The fate of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle was expected to be determined before the end of today's preliminary in his trial for the murder of Virginia Rappe.

Whether the film comedian would face trial for murder or manslaughter, or go free, would probably be announced by Judge Lazarus before night, it was said.

The state rested yesterday, but the hearing was to be resumed briefly today. It was believed Arbuckle would be held for trial. The declaration of Judge Lazarus that he did not like to dismiss any case without a showing of evidence supporting the charge which was made was taken to mean he would order Arbuckle to be held.

A subsequent announcement that he would not specify upon what charge he would order the comedian held was taken to mean he was considering reduction of the charge from first degree murder to manslaughter.

The latter offense carries a maximum penalty of ten years in the penitentiary. The defense today was prepared for the judge's decision, and was ready to agree to submission of the case, or offer additional testimony.

Fred Fishbeck, motion picture director, who attended Arbuckle's labor day party, was to be called. Another doctor was expected to be examined by Arbuckle's attorneys before the defense rested.

STATE RESTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The district attorney rested late today in the Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle case hearing in police court on the ground that sufficient testimony had been developed to warrant the defendant being held on the murder charge.

Frank Dominguez, for the defense, objected violently to the fact that Mrs. Bambina M. Delmont, the complaining witness, had not been put on the stand.

Judge Lazarus denied a motion to dismiss and the case was continued until 2 p. m. tomorrow.

Miss Zeh Prevost, one of the show girls participating in Fatty Arbuckle's hotel party, was the first witness today in the Arbuckle murder charge hearing in police court.

FEW RAILROADS OUT OF MANY IS PLAN OF I. C. C.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—A tentative plan for the consolidation of all the railroads of the United States into nineteen competing systems was announced by the interstate commerce commission today.

The commission's plan follows closely the recommendations made by Professor William Z. Ripley, of Harvard university, expert economist, who studied the plan for the commission.

NOT GUARANTEED!

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—When a clothing clerk tells you that a suit will "wear like iron" he shouldn't be taken too literally, because his expression is figurative and does not bind his boss as giving a warranty entitling the purchaser to his money back when, after several months of wear, holes make their appearance in the seat of the trousers.

This, in effect, was the decision yesterday of three learned justices of the supreme court, sitting in the appellate term which passes on judgments of lower tribunals. The ruling was made in an action brought by Lewis W. Harburger against Stern Brothers, clothing dealers.

CRUELTY!

United Press. BEAUMONT, Sept. 28.—Thompson M. Thames, father of Dell Thames, who died at the state juvenile training school, will make formal charges of cruelty at the school to Governor Neff, Thames said today. One arrest has been made in the case. Strangulation was given as the cause of death in the death certificate which accompanied the body when it arrived here. A complete examination was made by two local physicians, and photographs were taken to show alleged bruises on the body.

"OUTLAW" MINE STRIKERS ARE GIVEN PANNING

Hawat Told to Get Busy and Stop Two Insurgent Strikes in Kansas.

By United Press.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 28.—Insurgent miners were severely drubbed by administration forces in the "confidence" vote at the United Mine Workers international convention here today.

With nearly all of the 29 districts it was certain that the convention would support President John L. Lewis and the executive board in their demand that Alexander Howat, insurgent Kansas leader, reverse himself, and stop two outlaw strikes in his district.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—Alexander Howat was dined today, by the convention of United Mine Workers of America, to order strikers of Dean and Reliance mines to return to work. The decision became a certainty before polling was complete.

LABORERS OFFERED IN BROOKLYN FOR ANY JOB AT DOLLAR-FIFTY A DAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Labor reached its lowest level in many years in Brooklyn yesterday, when Capt. John Kingsepp, in charge of the Salvation Army's social center, announced that he could provide men who would work for $1.50 per day.

"If the people want their cellars whitewashed, their fences repaired or painted or any odd jobs done, now is the time to grasp the opportunity," Capt. Kingsepp added. "I am ready to offer the men and I hope the people of Brooklyn will take advantage of the proposition."

He declared that his organization is giving meals and lodging to many men and has cared for more than 15,000 during the last three months. "It is a mistake," he added, "to suppose these men are holding out for high wages. I will gladly supply these men at $1.50 a day."

PANTHERS AT HOME!

FORT WORTH, Sept. 28.—The Panthers are at home today, ready for the day's contest. If the locals are victorious today they win the series and the southern championship.

Pate and Haworth are announced as the probable batteries of the Panthers while Manager Abbott said he would depend upon Oscar Tuero and Hungling or Dowie.

CHICKS TO CUBA.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 28.—The Memphis club, champions of the Southern association, will go to Havana, Cuba for eight weeks of baseball after finishing the playoff with Fort Worth, Oscar Tuero, Memphis Cuban pitcher, announced today. Tuero said terms had been arranged for Memphis to begin playing in Cuba Oct. 8, meeting independent teams.

ROBBERS!

By United Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 28.—Police today were searching for two masked robbers who last night held up Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopely of Atlantic, Iowa, and W. H. Purse of Fort Worth, securing diamonds worth $3,900 and $552 in cash.

Purse is manager of the livestock show at Fort Worth. Hopely was here to judge cattle at the state fair.

BABE RUTH AND "BANJO," TWO VERY IMPORTANT MEMBERS OF THE YANKEES

Here are Babe Ruth and Eddie ("Banjo") Bennett, mascot of the New York Yankees. Both are doing much to bring the Yankees home first in the pennant race. Eddie admits that Babe and the other players are doing great work, but insists that he should not be overlooked when the credit is handed out. Here is Eddie's record: 1919—Mascot of the Chicago White Sox, winners of the American league pennant. 1920—Mascot Brooklyn Dodgers, winners of the National league pennant. 1921—Mascot for the New York Yankees, probable winners of the American league pennant. Yes, sir, Eddie must be given credit. It's a record to be proud of.

MISTER FORD READY TO LAUNCH PEACE SHIP ON POLITICAL SEA

By United Press.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., Sept. 28.—Henry Ford today announced he was ready to start a drive to clean up politics.

Ford, who is here inspecting some of his properties, issued a statement saying he would carry on a countrywide campaign if necessary to cleanse politics.

The manufacturer said he issued his statement to emphasize the telegram he sent to the senate Monday demanding that the upper house "clean its own skirts" in handling the Newberry case.

BIT OF FLY PAPER MAY DETERMINE FATE OF ALLEGED "BLUEBEARDESS"

By ROBERT A. DONALDSON, United Press Staff Correspondent.

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Sept. 28.—The fate of Mrs. Lydia Southard, alleged "female bluebeard" hinges largely on a little roll of poison fly paper, according to plans of both the defense and prosecution revealed today.

Chemists for both sides will testify regarding the composition of this paper, and the form and amount of arsenic found in it. Mrs. Southard is specifically charged with the murder of her fourth husband, Edward Meyer, by poison. She is also alleged to have caused the death of three previous husbands, brother-in-law, and 2-year-old baby. The state, it was learned, also will attempt to introduce a second roll of fly paper found in the home of her third husband, Harlan Lewis, following his death in Billings, Mont., in 1919, after an illness showing the same symptoms as that leading to Meyer's death.

Mrs. Southard was visibly nervous today, apparently as a result of the announcement late yesterday that even if she were freed in the present trial, she would be re-arrested and taken to Montana to answer the charge of causing Lewis' death.

Call New Venire.

Exhaustion of the original venire of seventy-five men caused Judge Babcock to adjourn court yesterday until 2 o'clock this afternoon. He ordered a new venire of forty men. The state's initial testimony, expected to be introduced Thursday afternoon, will be that of physicians who attended Meyer during his fatal illness, according to present plans. They will tell how he was brought to Twin Falls while suffering from a mysterious malsady, apparently ptomaine poisoning. Of unusually rugged constitution, he began to recover, they will testify. They then advised his wife to dismiss the nurse, and the same afternoon he experienced a relapse, from which he died the next day, according to expected testimony.

Despite alleged absence of typhoid fever symptoms, physicians, who had called in a bacteriologist, signed a death certificate giving typhoid as the cause of death when the bacteriologist informed them he had found typhoid germs in examining Meyer's blood, although it was said his temperature had been sub-normal. Mrs. Southard had expressed the belief that she was a "typhoid carrier" because of the death of her husbands from that disease.

CHURCH TO BE TRIED ALONE FOR MURDER OF TWO AUTO SALESMEN

By United Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Sept. 28.—Counsel for Carl Wanderer, who is to hang Friday for the murder of the "poor boob" was to make a last appeal for his client's life before Governor Len Small today.

Upon learning that Governor Small, on recommendation of the division of pardons and paroles, had refused Wanderer a pardon or commutation of sentence, Wanderer's counsel declared he would make a final appeal to the state executive today.

Wanderer was sentenced to death for the murder of the "poor boob" and given twenty-five years for killing his wife and unborn babe.

DIED AT HIS POST!

United Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Dead at his post, his revolver, containing four empty shells, still clutched in his hand, Patrolman Joseph A. Reuchle was discovered here on Riverside Drive early today by a party of prominent New York theatrical people, including John Emerson, playwright, and Helen MacKeller. A bullet had pierced his heart.

A metal syringe about five inches long was the only weapon, save Reuchle's pistol, found near the body. Examination of the policeman's eyes lead the medical examiner to believe that he was first blinded with poisonous liquid, and then shot.

DALLAS WILL STILL REMAIN LEGION H'DQ'RS

Charges of Crooked Financing in Organization Will Be Investigated.

By United Press.

EL PASO, Sept. 28.—Dallas will remain as the state headquarters of the Texas department of the American Legion, according to a vote just before noon of the convention of that organization meeting here.

The committee revising the constitution and bylaws will submit their report before a vote is taken on state officers, it was announced.

The Texas department of the Legion now has 322 posts with 18,437 members, according to the report of Retiring State Adjutant C. W. Spriggs.

Hundreds of members have been lost through unemployment, increased state dues and the "regrettable Kerrville fund incident," Spriggs reported.

The convention voted to inform a proper grand jury of the alleged irregularities of the Legion finances while Dr. Guy Shirey was commander and also ordered an investigation of John W. Young of Dallas, former editor of the state organ of the Legion.

Legionnaires showed their disapproval of President Harding's opposition to the bonus bill and favored a five-fold bonus measure to the one supported by the national Legion and by a resolution called on the Texas legislature to provide and finance a bonus system for ex-service men.

George H. Slater, president of the Texas federation of labor was a speaker at the convention today.

WANDERER TO APPEAL!

By United Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Sept. 28.—Counsel for Carl Wanderer, who is to hang Friday for the murder of the "poor boob" was to make a last appeal for his client's life before Governor Len Small today.

Upon learning that Governor Small, on recommendation of the division of pardons and paroles, had refused Wanderer a pardon or commutation of sentence, Wanderer's counsel declared he would make a final appeal to the state executive today.

TAX WAR IS ON!

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The battle to reduce transportation taxes was opened in the senate today by the agricultural bloc. Repeal of the taxes on freight, passenger and Pullman charges next January, is provided in an amendment offered by Senator McNary of Oregon, a "bloc" leader. The senate bill would cut the taxes in half next January and repeal them Jan. 1, 1923. The McNary amendment makes an exception of the oil pipe lines.

WALTZ IT, PLEASE!

By United Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The latest stroke of genius for the rejuvenation of tired business men was the talk of Broadway this afternoon. A large barber shop engaged an orchestra to play every afternoon from 5 until 6 o'clock. At that hour the greatest rush for tonsorial treatment along "Flash alley" takes place. To the latest popular refrain the strokes of the razor keep time as they flash over one's chin.

And if one is in need of refreshment, tea will be served with a manicure. Patrons issuing from the shop, dizzy with jazz and orange juice, say the first dollar and a half is the hardest.

MOVIE BURNS!

By United Press.

WAXAHACHIE, Sept. 28.—Fire which started when a broken film ignited, caused approximately $6,000 damage to the Empire theatre here last night. The fire started shortly before 10 o'clock. The theatre was owned by the Waxahachie Amusement company. The loss included eight films and two machines. The furnishings were badly damaged by water.

There was only a small audience in the theatre at the time, and no one was injured.

BETTER COTTON PRICES RELIEVE SITUATION, SAYS RESERVE BANK

By Associated Press.
 DALLAS, Sept. 28.—Changes in the business situation in the past thirty days in the Eleventh Federal Reserve district seem to be overshadowed by the improved market position of cotton, the monthly review of business and industrial conditions in the district, issued by the Federal Reserve bank of Dallas today says.

The increase in the price of cotton had an important psychological effect upon the cotton industry. Confidence caused by the better cotton prices is being communicated to other industries and channels of commerce, indicated by reports of revived wholesale trade activity, according to the statement.

Improvement Continues.
 The slight improvement in general conditions described in the statement a month ago assumed somewhat more distinct lines in August. All branches of wholesale trade reported larger sales and collections. Increased bank clearings, building permits and charges to depositors' accounts were among the month's favorable developments. Demand for oil and lumber displayed more strength than had been exhibited for several months. The livestock market, however, failed to reflect the increased demand for meat animals that was reported from other districts.

"A magnificent feature of reports from member banks," the statement says, "is the fact that despite a formidable increase in unemployment during the past twelve months, savings accounts in this district have shown a 17 per cent increase in number and a 5 per cent increase in aggregate amount since Aug. 31, 1920." The general credit situation, however, showed only slight improvement in contrast with conditions of the previous month's report.

Statewide Drouth.
 The drouth which started in the eastern part of the district two months ago has extended westward until practically all of Texas was affected, with the exception of about twenty counties in Central and Southwest Texas, where there were torrential rains.

Heavy deterioration in the cotton crop, due to boll weevil was the most important development in the crop situation. The Aug. 25 condition of 42 per cent was the lowest ever recorded in the state. Since the Aug. 25 report on crop conditions cotton suffered further damage as the result of the storm of Sept. 9 in Central and Southwest counties of Texas.

A bumper corn crop has been made in the Eleventh district and farmers generally are reported to have an abundance of feedstuffs of all kinds until another crop.

Record Wheat Movement.
 Wheat continued to move in record breaking volume through the port of Galveston, the amount moving being 15,262,476 bushels in August, as against 11,000,000 bushels in July.

Drouth and heat have affected adversely the range conditions in West Texas and the eastern part of New Mexico, although the effect has not yet been reflected in condition of livestock in those areas.

"Values of all classes of livestock underwent a sharp depreciation at the Fort Worth market during August, and while the early trading in September was marked by a reaction and better demand in the steer and calf trade, other classes of stock continued a downward trend up to September 15," the statement said.

An improved demand for pine lumber was reflected in August reports from thirty-six mills in the district. It was said to be due largely to improved showing in orders from railroads for car repairs.

There was sufficient shrinkage in output of oil wells in North Louisiana in August to slightly more than counterbalance the increased yield of the Texas fields, the net result for the month being a decrease for the district of 127,453 barrels.

AMERICAN PEOPLE GABBIEST ON EARTH

By United Press.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The American people are far and away the gabbiest in the world, according to relative use of telephones and increasing their facilities in this regard.

Statistics just submitted to the Interstate Commerce Commission, to which the telephone companies must report, show that from July 1, 1920 to July 1, 1921, there was an increase of 562,000 telephones in the United States. The total number is now nearing the ten million point, or one for every eleven persons—men, women and children.

Telephone revenues and telephone earnings are increasing.

GUILTY!

By Associated Press.
 DALLAS, Sept. 29.—Reducing the charge from maiming to aggravated assault the jury in the case of J. O. Sinsabaugh late yesterday returned a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at sixty days in the county jail and the payment of a fine of $300. Evidence was to the effect that Sinsabaugh several weeks ago found Adolph Lang in the house with Mrs. Sinsabaugh. Tying Lang to the bed Sinsabaugh operated on him with a razor, witnesses testified.

BARED KNEES BARRED!

By United Press.
 TOPEKA, Kansas, Sept. 28.—Kansas school teachers cannot "roll 'em down," and retain the modesty befitting the dignity of their work, Miss Lorraine Wooster, state superintendent, declared today.

Miss Wooster said she was preparing a manual specifying the proper dress for teachers, and peek-a-boo knees would certainly be classed as immodest.

TYPHOON!

TOKIO, Sept. 28.—Several hundred persons were killed by a typhoon in Central Japan, entering Nagoya island at Hondo where a tidal wave destroyed houses and crops. Several steamers were sunk and many fishermen are missing.

BANK ROBBED!

By Associated Press.
 ARLINGTON, Kan., Sept. 28.—Five bandits early today blew the vault door of the Farmers State bank here and escaped with several thousand dollars' worth of bonds following a pistol fight with City Marshal Edwards in which one robber is believed to have been dangerously wounded.

BRIDE SEEKING THRILLS PLANS TO EXPLORE TIBET

Only a few months ago Mrs. William V. Alford, formerly a school teacher in Ohio, returned from a honeymoon trip through Peru, in the course of which she crossed the Andes on muleback, and penetrated to the headwaters of the Amazon, after traversing country inhabited by tribes of savage Indians, one of which was said to practice cannibalism. Now she is en route to China in search of further thrills which she hopes to obtain during trips of exploration in the northern provinces and in Manchuria and Tibet. With her husband, an engineer employed by the Chinese government, she sailed from Seattle and expects to remain in the Orient three years, while Mr. Alford replaces, with steel bridges, the ancient ferries on the more important canals and rivers in China.

WITH ONLY TWO SUITS, SAYS FASHION HEAD

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 28.—The man with two changes of clothing is about half naked, according to the standards of L. C. Tyler, chairman of the fashion committee of the National Cutters' association who declared $2,000 a year was an insufficient expenditure for modern apparel.

The styles will give the men the "bustle" effect, according to Tyler. The trousers will have plaits in the front, "creating a large thigh," he announced.

The only other changes will be in the waistcoat, which will be shorter and with "round points."

APACHE INDIANS IN THIRD DECADE OF FREE RIDES

GLOBE, Ariz., Sept. 28.—Free rides for the Apache Indians on the Arizona Eastern railway across the San Carlos reservation are going into their third and last decade.

By a contract with the railroad the Apaches were permitted to ride free for 30 years. As the line was completed in 1898, they have had 23 years of passes.

For two years this railroad, first known as the Gila Valley, Globe and Northern, was held up because the Indians would not grant a right of way across the reservation. A conference was finally arranged. Gifts of ponies and blankets were finally exchanged, a pow-wow followed, and the pipe of peace was smoked. Each Apache received $10 in cash and a thirty year pass.

SNAKE BIT!

By United Press.
 AUSTIN, Sept. 29.—Ruby Wimberly, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wimberly of Spicewood Springs, near Marble Falls, died at a local infirmary today from effects of a rattlesnake bite. The child was bitten Monday night while she was asleep at a camp on the Pedernales river west of Austin, her parents having stopped at the river for the night on an overland trip to this city. She was in a critical condition when she arrived at the hospital.

SO IS GERMANY!

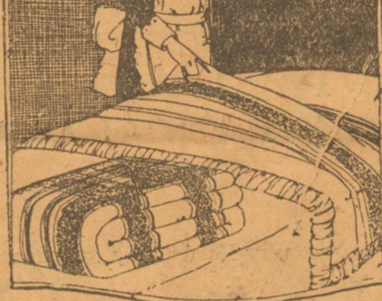

By United Press.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Reports from Berlin that the German government regards the peace treaty with the United States as "unworkable" and "full of holes" may be used by the opponents of the treaty to block ratification by the senate, Senator Borah of Idaho, said today.

LIGHT ON HIS FEET!

Tanlac Accomplishes Remarkable Results In Geo. H. Nickels Case

Prominent Wisconsin Man Says Tanlac Promptly Relieved Him of Bad Case of Stomach Trouble of Six Months' Standing—Gains 27 Pounds and Feels Fine As a Fiddle.

GEORGE H. NICKELS.

It is an unquestionable fact that Tanlac is now being more widely endorsed by well known men and women than any other medicine on the American market. One of the latest to testify is George H. Nickels, well known lecturer, residing at 227 Wells St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

"Tanlac has not only completely restored my health, but I have actually gained 27 pounds in weight," said Mr. Nickels in referring to the remarkable benefits he had derived from the medicine.

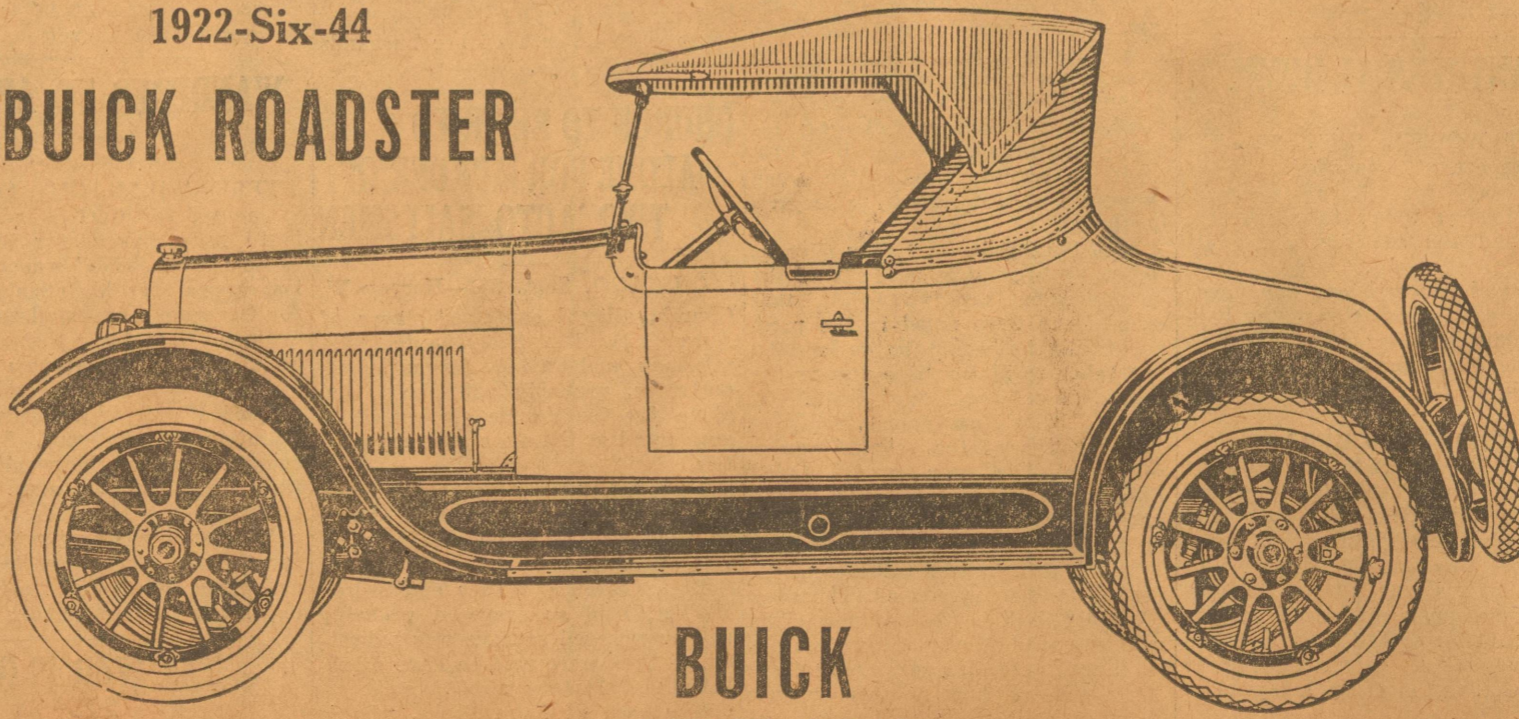

"For something over six months, my stomach was very badly disordered. I suffered terribly from indigestion and dyspepsia. At times I would be in great stress, and I would invariably experience an uncomfortable bloated feeling for hours after eating. I had no appetite scarcely and the little I ate would often make me deathly sick. My head ached until I felt like it would burst and I was so nervous I trembled like a leaf. When I got up in the mornings, I was so weak and dizzy, I couldn't trust myself to walk around and I just hurt all over.

"Tanlac has brought about a wonderful change in my condition for I am now enjoying the very best of health. My appetite is splendid, I relish my meals. Everything agrees with me perfectly. The nervousness, headaches and dizzy spells are all gone and I never have an ache or pain. I am only too glad to tell others about the wonderful good Tanlac has done. It has no equal."

Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros. and in Eastland by Palace Drug Store.—Advertisement.

FORMOSA GIRLS DON'T EVEN GET TO ANSWER 'YES'

They Are Chosen and Paid for Out of Hand Same as a Good Horse.

TAIWAN, Formosa, Sept. 28.—The world movement for woman's emancipation has struck Formosa at a time when the high cost of wives is being felt severely. The women, who are mostly of the Chinese race, are demanding the abolition of the system of engagement money which is paid by their suitors when the marriage contract is made, declaring that the payment of money to their parents is an insult to their dignity and position as free-born women.

Doesn't Even Say "Yes." Most Formosan marriages are arranged on the basis of the engagement money and the bride-to-be has little to say about the matter.

There are young women who insist that the trouble with engagement money is that it is too high and desirable suitors are often kept away because they cannot pay the price demanded. There is much in this argument which appeals to Formosan women, and a certain number of the less modern women are demanding that engagement money be radically reduced to a point where matrimony will be easier of accomplishment for them.

The Formosans are polygamists. But the modern tendency is to remain satisfied with only one wife. And it is said that if engagement money does not decrease soon the habit of plural marriages will decrease too, because very few men can afford to purchase more than one wife at present high prices.

New York Society Startled By Shooting and Suicide

HE CAGED SONGBIRD—Mrs. Margarete Matzenauer, Metropolitan songbird, and her new husband, Floyd Glotzbach, of San Francisco, with whom she came back to America from Europe recently. She denied that her husband had been a chauffeur, but she said, "What of it? He is a man."

Miss Mildred Hanan, heiress to the millions of the late Alfred G. Hanan, shoe manufacturer, was shot and seriously wounded by Mrs. Grace Lawes in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Lawes committed suicide immediately after the shooting. The affair has stirred New York society, as both Miss Hanan and Mrs. Lawes were well known. The shooting and suicide occurred in front of the home of Miss Dorothy Gottschalk. Miss Hanan, with John S. Borland, New York importer, had driven Miss Gottschalk to her home after a dinner party at the Hanan home. Mrs. Lawes, who was a relative of Miss Hanan by marriage, waited for the party to leave Miss Gottschalk's home and opened fire on Miss Hanan. That Mrs. Lawes was a victim of drugs and alcohol, which had unbalanced her mentally, was proved by the examination of her body by physicians. In a letter to a friend, Mrs. Lawes said, in part: "I can't stand this sordid tinsel life any longer. The Hanan's are too fast and furious for me. I have been drinking too much liquor, and there is nothing but conversation on all sides." Mr. Borland admitted to having paid attentions to both women during the past few months, but denied that jealousy had ever been expressed by Mrs. Lawes. The police believe that Mrs. Lawes had been crazed by liquor, which caused her to commit the act. The above diagram shows where and how the tragedy occurred. Both Miss Hanan and Mrs. Lawes were divorcees. Miss Hanan obtained a divorce in Reno last year and resumed the use of her maiden name.

PAINTING WITH IODINE KILLED BABY. MEDICAL EXAMINATION SHOWS

NEW YORK, Sept. 28—The death of 17-months-old Winston Lanier Washington, Jr., son of the clubman and banker, in a nursery operated by Mrs. Amelia Cohen, Richmond, Hill, was caused by shock from iodine burns, according to Dr. William H. Nammack, medical examiner of Queens.

Dr. Nammack said the child developed a skin disease, and Mrs. Cohen was ordered by physicians to "touch" the spots with iodine. Following the death of the babe, Dr. Nammack says he found the infant's entire body had been painted.

Mrs. Cohen is quoted as having said that she followed the instructions of Drs. E. J. Cronin and Russell J. McGraw and applied an iodine salve.

Mr. and Mrs. Washington said the child had been placed in the care of Mrs. Cohen because Mrs. Washington was not well enough to care for the babe.

The baby died in convulsions, and Dr. McGraw reported the death to the medical examiner, who immediately made an investigation.

Ranger Folks Have Chance to Help Aged Woman Earn Her Own Living

Old as her years, and they are many, a woman is in Ranger, alone, waiting for the only thing for which the old, who are alone, can wait—the peace of perfect rest. But while she is waiting, with the fortitude of the pioneers of which she is one, she wishes to eke out a livelihood for herself. Even while neighbors and the Charity club were helping her through a long illness, nursing her, providing medicines and food, the sparkle of independence never left her eyes. She is cured now; not strong, but able to totter around. She has a few chickens and she says that if she can have a few more she will earn her own way, and in the request can be seen the yearning of a mother for something she can love and call her own. The Charity club has appealed for some hens for the old lady. The club has not the money with which to buy them and it hopes the public will supply this need. If you can help, call 295. Was Ill Two Months. The aged woman has been in Ranger some time. She became ill and for two months neighbors cared for her and then the club discovered her condition. With the Milk and Ice fund it purchased milk, ice, medicine and food that she might live. That is only one instance in which the club, with the help of the fund, has come to the aid of those in distress during the summer. There have been many and there will be others as approaching winter complicates the problem of living. Such money as the club has in its treasury it will use to care for sickness, hunger and want wherever it can be found.

Dusky Damsels and Swarthy Swains "Walk" for Big Cake Tomorrow Night

A cake, which is a thing of beauty, is now on display in the window of a local dry goods store and will be given to the best pair of negro cake-walkers at the Red Cross ball to be given tomorrow night at the Summer Garden. Eight dusky couples have been allowed to enter the lists and will make their bow to the handsome cake at 11 o'clock on the night of the dance.

That is only one feature of the dance; many others have been planned by Mrs. William Clegg, director in charge, and patrons and patronesses of the dance.

It is expected that the occasion will be one wherein Ranger's society folks will be present almost en masse. The folks who are sponsoring it, by their interest, almost promise that. Among the events will be several of the old-fashioned dances that were so popular with a past generation.

Old Folks Will Dance. Dignified dowagers and pompous patriarchs in these numbers will gambol in the spirit of youth. Men and women who have not felt the thrill of a waxed floor under their feet for decades are expected to let the years slip from their shoulders and for the course of a little while remember that it is good to be young again.

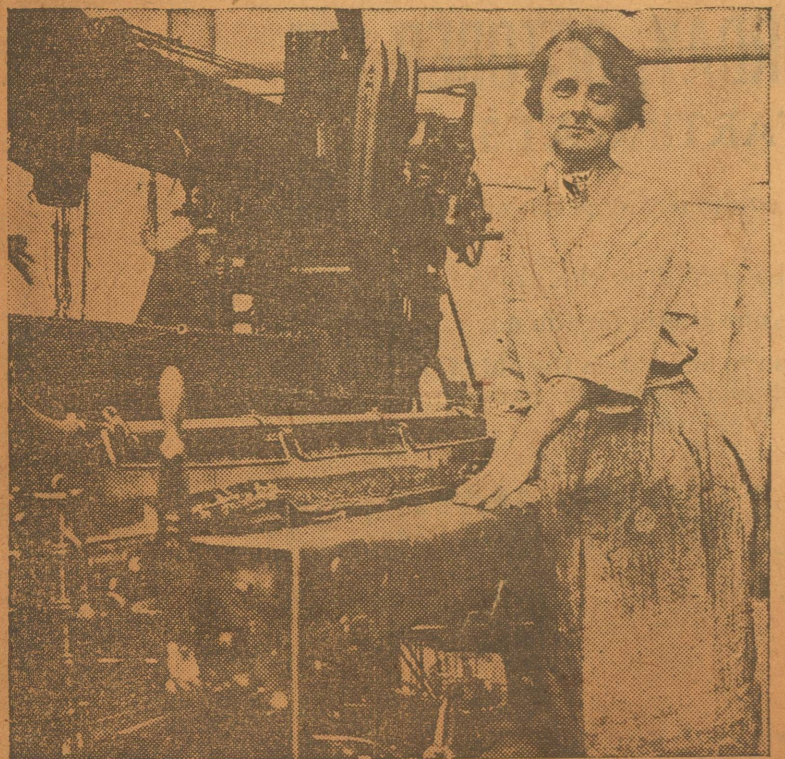

For those of the fast moving present day there will be two jazzy jazz bands. The toddle and all the other new dances will make the program replete with pleasure.

That the setting may be perfect, the hall will be decorated with warm colors enhanced by warmer lights.

JOB DEPARTMENT

RESIGNATIONS AND RUMORS OF RESIGNATIONS IN CABINET MAY ENLIVEN ENSUING SIX MONTHS

Mellon Disheartened, May Resign His Post; Daugherty, Potentate of Patronage, May Give Up His Portfolio; Weeks Has Eye on Treasury Department, So Gossip Says.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES, International News Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The first six months of the Harding administration having gone by without the occurrence of anything startling, the tea table and cloak room gossips of the national capital are predicting some radical changes in the make-up of official Washington for the next six.

It is the gossip of Washington that before the new administration celebrates its first anniversary, there will be at least two, maybe three and possibly more, cabinet changes. The rumors have recently become so circumstantial that they have found their way into some metropolitan papers and have resulted in the expected denials. The reports, however, persist.

The names chiefly concerned in these rumored changes are Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon and Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty.

According to the stories that circulate among the tea tables of Washington, Secretary Mellon has tired of public life after his brief first taste of it, and is desirous of getting back to the placid serenity of directing a score of big corporations and banks with which he is connected. This is Sec. Mellon's first taste of public life and political contact, and it is admitted by his few intimates that he has found it little to his liking. Being naturally of a shy and retiring disposition, the secretary of the treasury is said to have formed a pronounced dislike to the rough give-and-take of Washington political life, and it would not surprise his intimates should he embrace the first opportunity to get back into private life.

Mellon Disheartened. Secretary Mellon has found rough sledding in Washington with his program, and this is said to have increased his dislike for his job. One of his first official acts was the presentation to congress of an estimate of how much money it would take to run the federal government for the next fiscal year, based on the amount of expenditures which he saw would be necessary in the existing state of things. Congress, with an eye to re-election next year and realizing the potency of an economy argument with the average voter, slashed his estimates unmercifully. President Harding was called in as a mediator in the resultant dispute and, realizing the party's need, the chief executive supported the congressional side, with the result that Mellon's figures were discarded.

Many of the secretary's recommendations suffered the same fate at the hands of house Republicans in charge of framing the new revenue bill. The Republicans of the senate finance committee likewise disregarded and cast aside a number of his recommendations.

The net result of these experiences is said to have increased the secretary's dislike for a post which he was reluctant to accept in the first place.

Weeks Wants Mellon's Post. If Mellon does resign, it is generally believed in Washington that Secretary of War John W. Weeks will be shifted over to the treasury department, where he has long desired to be. It is understood that Weeks accepted the war portfolio with the understanding that he would be given the treasury berth at the first opportunity.

The cast of Attorney General Daugherty is not, like that of Mellon. The attorney general has been the grand master of patronage since March 4 last, and the demands made upon him have been tremendous. Aspirants for every kind of a federal job—from watchman to ambassador—have had to "see Daugherty," and as all have not been taken care of it has led to some hard feelings in many quarters.

Personal reasons also are said to figure largely in the attorney general's reported desire to retire from his post. His own health is none too good, and Mrs. Daugherty is an invalid, necessitating his spending much time traveling back and forth between Washington and Ohio.

No confirmation of the rumors regarding either Mellon or Daugherty is obtainable, but the gossiping persists around the capital.

Should Daugherty leave the cabinet, the belief prevails that President Harding would name as his successor either former Senator George Sutherland of Utah, or James M. Beck of New York, at present solicitor general in the department.

ing feature of the entertainment events. One hundred bands and drum corps will provide the music to the stirring tread of marching feet. A programme of night bombing parachute drops, trials for the world's altitude record and other feats of aerial prowess will be featured in the three-day flying show that will be staged under the auspices of the Flying Aero club of Kansas City. A culminating feature will be the American Legion Derby, a 150-mile race open to any make of plane. A purse of $10,000 in cash prizes and cups to the value of $10,000 will be awarded to winners in the events. A number of famous aces in the American forces have been enrolled for the contests.

Prices Not to Go Up. Dedication ceremonies on the site of Kansas City's $2,000,000 liberty memorial to her dead will be held just prior to the parade. A number of distinguished visitors will give addresses at the dedication programme.

The hotels and housing committee are prepared to hold a rigid investigation over the rates charged at all hostels and rooming houses. Hotel rates will not be advanced during the convention.

"All we do is sign the payroll," was once the well-known lugubrious plaint of the four million victims of army efficiency. The convention's committee on registration has perfected a system by which the legion men will be required to sign the dotted line only once, which will suffice for the complete information concerning the visit. The member will give his name and address and the organization he was with in the army, navy or marine corps.

The legion post member who desires to attend the convention should give his name to his post adjutant, who will forward it to the department adjutants. Reservations will be made by the state adjutants with the hotels and housing committee.

By THOMAS HORGAN, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

BOSTON, Sept. 28.—Diagnosis of the strange case of John Shanley, Canadian war veteran, has just been completed here by the Massachusetts Clinic for Diagnosis. Shanley had previously been examined by more than 350 surgeons without success. He has been under treatment in French, English, Canadian and American hospitals since his rescue on the battlefield by a 10-year-old Belgian girl, whom he later married.

The veteran, with a number of his comrades, lost his hearing when struck down by a German shell. Many of the others lost their power of speech, and it was thought at first Shanley would also become dumb.

The diagnosis showed both of Shanley's ear-drums had been destroyed. Another opening in his cranium was discovered connecting this passage with his mouth and nose. Shanley has frequently demonstrated his ability to pass shoe buttons through his head. He has inserted as many as six buttons into his head at one time and then subjected himself to the X-ray. He first became concerned over his condition while eating army "chow." Laughing suddenly, a bean emerged from one of his ears. Further experimenting showed that he could at will pass small objects through his head.

Shanley is far from helpless because of his misfortune. He has become so adept in the art of lip-reading that those with whom he is conversing, if uninformed, are not aware that he is deaf. At night, when he is unable to see his young wife's lips he is able to converse with her by holding the back of his hand over her lips. He has astonished many by turning his head away, holding his hand lightly against a speaker's lips and repeating, word for word, what has been said.

Dr. Leo Hanson, director of the clinic, states definitely that Shanley will not lose his power of speech, although other medical men had declared he would. According to Dr.

Hanson, Shanley cannot regain his hearing, because of the destruction of his ear-drums and the permanent breaking down of small muscle fibres and tissues inside his head. Dr. Hanson is aiding his patient in a plan to establish a school for instruction in lip-reading.

Shanley's battlefield romance and marriage read like fiction. Honora Fountain dragged him to safety, after he had been thirty-nine hours in a shell-hole at the battle of Ypres. She dressed his wounds and nursed him back to health in her shell-riddled cottage. All other members of her family had been killed. As Shanley was about to return to the front he told his commanding officer he wished to marry the girl. Because of her extreme youth the officer consented to the ceremony only on condition that Shanley send the young heroine to England until he returned from the war. An army chaplain married the couple, and Shanley returned to the lines. It was after this that he was rendered deaf by the shell explosion. When he rejoined his bride she was a young woman of fifteen. When they arrived in America the Shanley family numbered three.

The Canadian government has spent $18,000 on Shanley in treatment and instruction for lip-reading.

It is a common sight in the Philippines to see a mother and her children smoking big cigars together.

"Why Shouldn't Young Men Marry?" Asks Four-Time Spouse; "It's Easy to Get Out Of"

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Manuel A. Plaisantin, a real estate broker of Brooklyn, obtained an order from Supreme Court Justice Strong amending a decree of divorce won eleven years ago by his fourth and last wife, Mrs. Edith Plaisantin, so that he may remarry; but he says he does not yet know who the fifth Mrs. Plaisantin will be.

"I obtained the court order simply as a preparatory measure," he declared to a reporter. "I am in the position of a man who is hungry. He knows he wants to eat, but doesn't decide what to order until after he has carefully looked over the menu."

A statement in Plaisantin's petition to the court that he is "desirous of remarrying" was called to his attention.

"That but stated my position in general terms," he replied with a smile. "It had no reference to any particular lady. You see, I've been married four times already, so I'm in no hurry. I take the matter of marriage quite calmly. I'm used to it."

Always Game. "I have always been game," Plaisantin answered, drawing a baby-blue bathrobe closer about himself. "I used to do a bit of amateur wrestling, and have had several ribs broken in that way." (He proudly disclosed a powerful arm-muscle.) "I was usually thrown, but I have always made it a rule to take on all comers."

"Tell us how you won all the ladies?" Plaisantin was asked. "I will give you a concrete illustration," he said. "Once I said to a young lady, 'Come, let's get married.' 'But I don't want to be married,' she objected. I simply took her by the arm and overruled all her objections. That's the way it's been with all of them—I have overruled their objections. I suppose I'll proceed that way this time. One of my marriages occurred in a livery stable in Jersey City. The justice who tied the knot happened to be a livery stable keeper there, and he married us as you might say, in the course of business."

Easy to Get Out. "From your experience would you advise a young man to marry?"

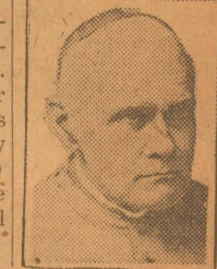

"Of course I would. It's so easy to get out of."

"I made no defense in the divorce suits my wives brought," Plaisantin concluded. "I never deny what the ladies say about me. That would be impolite."

Japanese women, as a rule, are extremely courteous.

SACRAMENT TO INDECOROUSLY-DRESSED WOMEN REFUSED BY CARDINAL

ROME—Cardinal Billot, who is a Jesuit, caused a great sensation in the Jesuit church here by refusing to administer the Holy Sacrament to three young women in very short skirts, low necks and short sleeves. When he came to them he said, in a low voice: "I refuse to administer the Blessed Sacrament to those dressed as you are." The women rose, very red in the face, and hurriedly left the church. Cardinal Billot had often said he would refuse the Sacrament to indecorously-dressed women, but this is the first time he has actually done so. This is a recent portrait of Cardinal Billot.

KANSAS CITY PLANS FEATURES FOR THIRD LEGION CONVENTION

By THOMAS WRIGLEY, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. Sept. 28.—The "Heart of America" is soon to capitulate. American Legion members a hundred thousand strong will enter the city Oct. 31 in the greatest "drive" of the year—the third annual national convention of former service men.

Terms of the surrender of the city to the invading hosts have already been made. The city offers its all and adds—"Welcome."

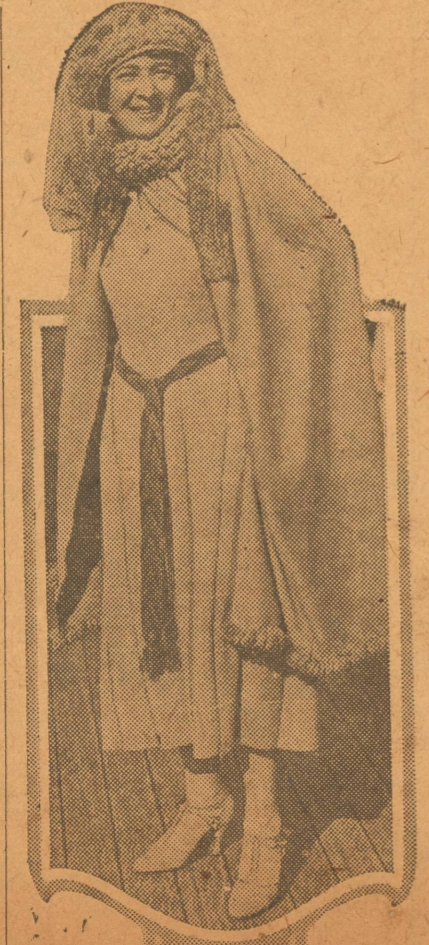

"Meet your old buddies" is the keynote of the invitation being extended from convention headquarters to the service men and women of the nation. And from every nook and corner the legionnaires will come in response to the call for one of the greatest gatherings held in the Middle West.

Among those who have answered the invitation of comradeship are Marshal Foch, Admiral Beatty, General Pershing, General Diaz, Admiral Sims, Major General John A. Lejeune and Mme. Ernestine Schuman Heink, as well as twenty-five wearers of the Congressional Medal, the highest award for bravery. Tentative acceptances are being considered by President Harding, Lieutenant General Baron Jacques, of Belgium; Lieutenant General Sir William Currie, former commander of the Canadian Corps in France; Vice President Calvin J. Coolidge, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Rear Admiral R. E. Coontz; Major General Charles P. Menoher, Brigadier General William C. Mitchell; the commanding generals of all combat divisions in the world war and the governors of twenty states.

Hundred Thousand Expected. It is now believed that fully 100,000 visitors will be here during the convention, which will be in session Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 and 2. Sixteen railroads have made this great figure possible by offering rates of a cent a mile to legion members and their dependents.

The first annual convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, to which at least 5,000 women will be drawn, will be held in Kansas City at the same time. Annual reunions of the eighty-ninth and thirty-fifth divisions and a number of minor regimental reunions will be additional attractions. More than

THE EFFETE WEST.

Press dispatches indicate that a bunch of millionaires on Long Island are somewhat "put out," to employ a British term, because of the hair-raising exploits of certain gentlemen who make use of violent means to extract what they need of this world's goods from the pockets of the over-rich. In plain words these persons of great wealth have appealed to the authorities for "special protection from bandits."

It has always appeared strange that men will continue to abide in the midst of turbulence and unrest when the quiet places of earth offer so great an attraction.

Take the oil fields, for instance. If there are bandits hereabouts there are likewise minions of the law with so terrifying a reputation for quickness at the draw that seldom is the peace and solemnity of the community disturbed by a vulgar display of armament.

True, Ranger has its occasional hijacker, as have all up-to-date oil fields, but even these highly romantic knights of the highway have found it hard sledding of late, so that venturesome individuals find interest, but no thrill, in a trip to Thurber.

Time was when a pilgrimage to the district skirting the site where the new Texas & Pacific railway station will be erected would be certain to yield a magnificent thrill as a result of being stuck up at the business end of a brace of forty-some-odds, but that time is past.

Nowadays the best one can hope for is the questionable "kick" in the reading in the afternoon paper of a chewing-gum joint being burglarized the night before, or the stereotyped purloining of a tin Lizzie from the Main street hitching rack.

Really, there is no more peaceable spot on the face of the earth these days than the oil field town of Ranger, barring the somewhat disconcerting frequency with which the fire department makes its "practice run," and we would advise the Long Island millionaires who are beset on all sides by the marauding flying-machine bandits of the uneffete East to "come to Texas," to Ranger, where the nights are long and cool at this season of the year, and where the only wielders of the deadly six-shooter are those alert citizens who sit up nights to note the rosy glare denoting conflagration.

It must be terrible to live in so unsettled a community as Long Island.

Suppose the government set aside a special fund of $10,000,000 to stop murder, as well as a similar fund to stop people from drinking liquor. Isn't it worth it?—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

'SOFT JOBS' IN HAWAII SOUGHT BY THOUSANDS

Mail Clogged by Persons Who Seek Ease, Idleness and Nothing to Do.

HONOLULU, T. H. Sept. 28.—The romantic lure of the south seas has become so potent throughout the world that the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce is faced with an increasingly onerous and embarrassing problem, its officials announced here recently.

For inhabitants of the crass, cold commercial world of the Temperate Zone desire—and make their desires known in a pile of mail that is increasing constantly with each steamer—to leave their unromantic atmosphere and come to Hawaii, the land of music and flowers, where tradition has the golden moon always full and where a person's life, according to popular belief, consists of lolling on the shaded beach at Waikiki, fanned by the cooled trade winds and reaching up occasionally to pluck enough fruit from the overloaded boughs to afford sustenance.

Must Be "Soft."
The writers of the last steamer's mail ranged from stenographers, educators, chiropractors, ex-jockeys, to schoolboys and countless others. All emphasized the great sacrifice they would make in coming to the islands. The only condition they impose about the positions they hoped to obtain was that they be "soft," according to Mrs. E. K. Stone, acting secretary of the chamber.

"That's all they want," she added. "The number of letters containing the same request is increasing with each steamer and some drastic measures will have to be taken soon to cope with the situation. It can't go on, or the Chamber building will be inundated."

One graduate of four leading universities, with a long string of degrees capped with a "Ph. D.," desired to come to some local corporation as an "efficiency educator."

Another letter asked whether hem-stitching was popular in the islands. If so, the woman desired to transport her sewing to Honolulu. A young man in the backwoods of Maine offered to travel 5,000 miles to Hawaii to instruct the residents in higher education.

A girl in California referred to the spell that the Hawaiian moon has cast over her and wondered whether she couldn't help out some business man by doing "just a little typing."

Wants an Island.
"Some of the letters show that the writers have at least a little knowledge about the islands," Mrs. Stone said. "Others are just as far-fetched as that written recently by a man in a small Virginia town. He wanted to know whether there were any nice, warm tropical islands for sale in this vicinity. I answered that he could find, without any trouble, a real estate firm that would sell him part of this very island but doubted whether he could even obtain a lease on all of it."

HUNGRY EX-SERVICE MEN NEAR RIOT FOR FOOD

THE SHORN LAMBS OF LABOR

Urban Ledoux.

The hardships uncomplainingly endured by thousands of war veterans and jobless men are visible on every hand in New York City. Every night, rain or shine, hundreds of ex-soldiers go into Central park and, suppers, fall to sleep on the hard ground. They are not of the riff-raff, but clean young fellows unable to get work. Spectacular and other efforts to gain sympathy and help for these men have met with scant approval by New York police, who have clubbed into unconsciousness jobless men who crowded around women passing out free sandwiches. Efforts of Urban Ledoux, the Boston auctioneer of unemployed "slaves," to call public attention to these men's plight by passing out free doughnuts and meal tickets, likewise were discouraged by the New York police, who, like Prussians, rode horses into crowds, wielded their maces without mercy or pretext and generally made it unpleasant for any hungry demonstrators. In the tenement districts the cheapest of fare has been provided by charitable organizations for the hungry men. Soup is dished out of a wash-boiler, as shown in one of the illustrations. The man with the quizzical smile, who is shown holding the sign, "The Shorn Lambs of Labor," is Ledoux. The photograph on the top of the illustration was made when a man, loaded with sandwiches, appeared in Bryant Park and announced that the cats were for unemployed ex-service men—there was a wild rush, and many sleepers were badly trampled on, while the man was soon minus his sandwiches.

SOURDOUGH PETE STUCK, MADE PILE, TAKES VACATION

TONOFAH, Nev. Sept. 28.—Not all the romance is gone out of gold mining. Witness Pete Oslund motoring back to Sweden to enjoy a vacation after two months' work at a profit of $25,000 in a mine everyone said was hopeless.

Several lessees had gone broke trying to get pay ore in drifts where there wasn't any. Then Pete and a partner took over the lease. About $10 a day was all they could get and Pete's partner quit, saying he could make that much money prospecting without risking his life underground.

Pete wanted to stay long enough to use up another $50 worth of powder, steel and fuse. His partner said no and Pete went on alone. Ten days later he hit upon a high grade ledge and in six weeks more had pocketed $25,000.

Now Pete and family have started for Sweden, taking their old family automobile along to cut railroad fare to New York and shorten distances when they get to their native land. They expect to stay all winter.

ASKS PRISON RELEASE.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 28.—Everett A. Harding, who posed as a cousin of President Harding and claimed to be assistant secretary to the President, is tired of the life of Leavenworth federal prison.

He has petitioned United States District Judge John C. Pollock for a release on habeas corpus proceedings. Harding was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment last April for impersonating a federal officer. He says there is no such office as "assistant secretary" to the president and that, therefore, he is illegally held.

INDIANS STILL HAVE HOPES OF WINNING "RAG"

Are Bound for Chicago, Where They Have a Game With White Sox.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Urban Shocker held the slugging Yanks in the palm of his hand Tuesday. St. Louis Browns won by a score of 2 to 0.

The Brown hurler was in wonderful form and let the league leaders down with five hits. Harry Harper pitched very good ball for the Yanks after the opening frame, in which the Browns got to him for two runs on three hits, one of which was a double by Sisler.

The Indians were idle today. They were headed for Chicago, where they have four games to play with the White Sox. They have not yet given up hope of winning the pennant.

NEGRO PASTOR EARNS 'SALARY' BY DANCING AT RAILWAY STATION

KINGFISHER, Ok., Sept. 27.—Paul Sykes, a negro, is beginning his twenty-eighth year as pastor of the Straight Gate church. And for nineteen of those twenty-eight years Sykes has earned his "salary" by dancing and singing at the railroad station here for the entertainment of passengers on trains passing through the town.

Sykes founded the Straight Gate church in 1893 and has occupied the pulpit since that time. He has built a small edifice by means of the funds he collected at the station and preaches in it Sunday mornings and evenings.

The big event of the year at his church—and the one day it is full—is when he holds the passover. He collects chickens and other food from the residents of Kingfisher and provides a feast which attracts all negroes of the town—believers and unbelievers.

DANVILLE, Va., Sept. 28.—The economic law of supply and demand has accomplished what that sponsored by Velstead failed to do, according to the reports from the sections of Carroll and Patrick counties. With the price of "moonshine" down to $2 per gallon, as compared with $15 a few months ago, many operators have put aside their stills and have taken new interest in the crops of bright leaf and sorghum.

PITCHING WAYS OF INDIAN STAR MAY BE PROBED

Yanks Think Illegal Roughing May Be Responsible for "Comeback."

A story from Boston is to the effect that the methods of Allan Sotheron, now the only dependable pitcher of the Cleveland Indians, may be investigated by President Ban B. Johnson of the American League.

The sudden comeback of Sotheron, according to several players, is not due to any sudden or new-found skill as a fielder, as some suggest. It is true, to a certain extent, that constant practice improved his fielding, but the Browns could not use him and the Boston Red Sox passed him up.

The Yanks became suspicious of Sotheron while he was pitching against them on Aug. 26. He is a certified spitball pitcher, and makes a ball perform some unusual freaks on its way to the plate.

This ball, according to the statements of New York players, was cut cunningly along the side of the seam, just enough to slightly slit the skin. A player who knows where that cut was and having a sharpened thumbnail might dig into the cover and raise a little rough spot on the surface.

Sotheron, being a spitball pitcher, is allowed to fuss around with a ball more than the straightaway pitcher. He can hold it close to his mouth so that he may properly anoint it with tobacco juice, saliva or slippery elm, according to taste and predilection, or he may make that same anointment to camouflage a curve or fast ball.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—While thirty terror-stricken spectators among them his wife and mother, cringed in doorways, Vincent Cummo, 36, was shot to death in a revolver duel in which his opponent, Antonio Bartatlan, 26, was probably mortally wounded.

Their fight was over a grocery bill of $10, owed for some time by Cummo to Bartatlan's father-in-law. Cummo, who was the father of five children, was talking in front of No. 38 Nostrand avenue with his mother and wife, when Bartatlan came up and demanded payment of the bill.

HEAVY MAULERS ON A. L. WINNER, WHOEVER IT IS

National League Heavers Will Face Hard Task in World Series.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—It will take good pitching on the part of the National league entry to stop the American league champions, whoever they may be. Both the Indians and the Yankees are powerful clubs at the bat, with their lineups full of men who bring fear to the heart of an opposing pitcher.

In the first world's series ever played under national commission rules, the winning club used only two pitchers. That was in 1905, when the Giants met the Athletics and won their only series out of five starts.

They were favored by one day of rain, which gave them a twenty-four-hour rest not called for by the schedule. But they played five games in six days and won four of them and the series.

It is going to be a big strain on the hurlers of the National league entry to hold back the big sluggers who will face them, no matter which club wins in the American league. If the Yankees are victors Babe Ruth, Meusel and company are likely to hit the ball out of the lot at any stage.

GREAT PLAYS IN WORLD'S SERIES ARE RECALLED

Boston-New York Game in 1912 Was Among Most Thrilling Ever Played.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Unusual plays, brilliant performances of individual players and freaky things have entered into many of the series for the world's baseball championship. Such occurrences are recalled each year in fandom and lend to the speculative interest in the championship games about to be played.

The outstanding feature of the series in 1908, in which the Chicago Cubs defeated the Detroit Tigers, was the hurling of Pitchers Overall and Brown of the Cubs. Overall won two games, the second in which he allowed the Detroit four hits and won six to one, and the fifth in which he allowed three hits and won two to nothing.

Thrills aplenty were had in the 1912 games between the Boston Red Sox and the New York Giants. In the eighth game at Boston, on Oct. 16, the score was tied in the ninth.

BANKHEAD HIGHWAY PETITIONS BEING CIRCULATED IN RANGER

Ranger folks are being petitioned to request the commissioners' court to make plans to complete the Bankhead highway from Ranger to Cisco. It is said the court will do this if the people are in favor of the move. J. E. T. Peters, manager of the Chamber of Commerce has left petitions in many places to be signed by those who believe the highway should be completed at once. Some time during the week a mass meeting will be held to find the minds of the people of Ranger on this subject. Similar meetings will be held at Eastland and Cisco.

The petitions circulating in Ranger read:

"The commissioners' court of this county called representatives from Cisco, Eastland and Ranger before them on Monday of this week and asked that the citizens of the three towns express themselves as to whether they want the contract let for the Bankhead highway at this time.

"This particular twenty miles of road between Ranger and Cisco is not embraced in the present road contract with the Fleming & Stitzer Road Building company, and will be the highest class road in the county. The cost of its construction will be around $40,000 a mile and the total expenditure will approximate $800,000. Of this amount the state and federal governments have agreed to spend $325,000 if the work is done promptly. The contract would be let by the commissioners' court and the state and federal highway departments.

Citizens Will Decide.
"The attitude of the court is that they are willing to abide by the decision of the citizens in the three towns most effected. Should they be against letting the contract, the court is willing to wait until such time as the people are ready. On the other hand, the court is willing to begin advertising for bids at their next regular session, Monday, Oct. 3, if it is the wish of the citizens. In view of the bitter antagonism to which the court has been subjected, I believe their view is well taken.

"It seems that the expenditure of this sum of money during the coming winter will benefit directly or indirectly, every citizen in this part of the county. It will insure our getting state and federal aid and is a matter of the utmost importance to everyone.

"You are asked to attend the mass meeting to be held this week. The time and place to be announced later. It is necessary that you attend this meeting in order that the whole town may be represented. You are wanted there whether you are for or against letting the contract. We must get together and decide what Ranger wants done.

"J. E. T. PETERS, "Manager Chamber of Commerce."

EASTLAND CHAMBER SEES NECESSITY IN BANKHEAD HIGHWAY

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, Sept. 28.—The completion of the Bankhead highway is a vital necessity, according to the view taken of the matter by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce which has gone on record as favoring the move and has so petitioned the commissioners' court. In a resolution adopted by the organization last night it asked that steps be taken at once to get the work under way with as little delay as possible.

It is thought the chamber at Cisco has taken the same action and that no opposition to the move has developed either there or at Eastland.

FATTY'S FATE TO BE DECIDED BY JURY TODAY

Alfred Semmacher and Lowell Sherman were in Arbuckle's suite when she joined the party, she testified. Arbuckle and Sherman were dressed in pajamas, bathrobe and slippers, she said.

Miss Rappe was seated on a settee at Arbuckle's side, according to the witness, who said she saw "a little bit" of drinking.

About three-quarters of an hour later, according to the witness, she and Mrs. Delmont rapped on the door and the latter kicked it, saying loudly: "Open the door; I want to speak to Virginia."

Arbuckle opened the door, Miss Prevost testified, and stepped into room 1220, the scene of the festivities, whereupon she and Mrs. Delmont went into room 1219 and found Virginia Rappe in bed.

"She was fully dressed but her hair was hanging down, and she was moaning," the witness added. "Mrs. Delmont and I went over and asked her what was the matter," Miss Prevost said. "She said 'I am dying, I am dying; I know I am going to die.'

Tore Off Clothing.

"Oh, no, you're not going to die," I replied, and then she sat up in bed and started to tear off her waist and stockings. Mr. Arbuckle then came in and started to help pull at her waist."

Miss Rappe's clothes then were taken off, according to the witness, and she was put to bed.

"Then she started to cry again, 'I am dying; he hurt me,'" said Miss Prevost.

A restorative given the girl caused her to become sick at her stomach, the witness continued, and she was dipped in a tub of cold water.

"She cried loudly again when she was put back on the bed," Miss Prevost said.

"Then Arbuckle said, 'If you don't stop yelling, I'll throw you out of the window.'

Someone put in a telephone call for aid, Miss Prevost stated, but some other person jerked away the receiver, saying no notoriety was wanted.

While Arbuckle and Miss Rappe were out of the room, she said there was music and "plenty of noise."

On examination by the defense, Miss Prevost stated that she received an invitation by telephone to come to Arbuckle's party. She had met the comedian a long time before, she said, but he did not remember her. She did not know who the invitation came from, she said, and when she entered Arbuckle's suite there was no introductions, merely a request to "take your hat off and make yourself at home."

Living at Attorneys.
Miss Prevost and Alice Blake have been living at the home of an attache of the district attorney's office, the witness testified.

She denied having been told she would be charged with perjury if she refused to sign her statement made to District Attorney Brady.

Contradicts Semmacher.
After the girl was given the cold bath, according to Miss Prevost, someone put a bag of ice at the back of Miss Rappe's neck.

Asked if it was not true that Mrs. Delmont removed the torn garments previously introduced, Miss Prevost replied that she did not remember.

She contradicted Semmacher's story told last week that he was among those present when Miss Rappe was found and that he sat on the bed and attempted to revive her. Semmacher was not present, according to Miss Prevost.

Miss Alice Blake was called as a witness at the afternoon session of the Arbuckle hearing, the defense announcing that it had decided not to question Miss Prevost further.
