SANCTITY OF THE HOME BIGBEE'S DEFENSE

COLE WILL MAKE REPORT ON ROAD HERE TONIGHT

Meeting of Citizens Will Hear Findings of "Committee of Eight" on Highway.

At a mass meeting to be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock, H. S. Cole will report the findings of the road "Committee of Eight," and the sentiment of the people will be asked regarding the completion of the Bankhead highway from Ranger to Cisco. Mr. Cole was sent as a delegate to the Eastland road meeting several weeks ago, from a mass meeting of citizens, and he will report back to a mass meeting.

The commissioners' court has said it would arrange to complete the highway from Ranger to Cisco if it was the desire of the people, and Ranger folks' wishes in the matter will be determined tonight.

Petitions which have been circulated by the Chamber of Commerce leave no doubt as to the minds of Ranger citizens. The petitions which will be directed to the commissioners' court ask that the work go forward at once and have been signed by more than 700 folks.

Few Refuse to Sign. Similar meetings and petitions have been held and have been circulated in Eastland and Cisco and it is thought there is no doubt that the entire county is anxious that the highway be completed at the earliest date. In Ranger only five men refused to sign the petitions.

With public sentiment with it, it is believed the court will enter an order that a contract be awarded for completing the road and some arrangement made for the contractors to accept road bonds in payment.

It is particularly requested that a large attendance be present tonight in order that a representative opinion of the city may be had.

RISE STAR TO OPPOSE DELAY IN ROAD WORK

Special to the Times

RISE STAR, Sept. 30.—That Rising Star will support the commissioners' court and oppose any further efforts of the Citizens' Committee investigating the road work was the sense of a resolution passed at a mass meeting here Wednesday night.

The resolution says the meeting does not endorse and is not in sympathy with the ideas, work and criticism that is being fostered and propagated by the committee and declares the county judge and commissioners' court have been exonerated from all charges and that the road work should proceed. It is requested that J. R. Stubblefield refrain from addressing the meeting, at which Judge Starnes spoke.

Mr. Stubblefield rose to speak, however, after Judge Starnes had finished. About half the audience left the hall, as the resolution provided should be done in case Mr. Stubblefield spoke.

GRIEVANCE BODIES OF RAILROAD MEN ARE CONSIDERING STRIKE

By United Press

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 30.—Grievance committees of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen of fifty-seven lines today began consideration of the advisability of going out on a strike. The decision will be in the hands of President Wm. G. Lee. Lee will then lay the facts before the brotherhood's highest tribunal, the executive committee.

There is but little doubt among organization officials as to the attitude of the grievance committees. The official canvass of the strike ballots showed 91 per cent of the membership voted to walk out rather than accept wage cuts decreed by the United States labor board. So union officials believe there was nothing else for the committees to do but to abide by the majorities' choice.

COLD AT ABILENE. ABILENE, Sept. 30.—The thermometer at the federal weather bureau here last night registered forty-nine plus, which is the lowest of the season by almost twenty degrees. The weather is fair and cold today.

Singing, Wanderer Drops to His Death

A Free Ad

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, Ranger High school will play football against Comanche High, at Nitro park.

Ranger folk have announced their intention of backing the schools, in order to better them, and make them grow.

One of the best ways of improving schools is to increase the school spirit and school morale.

One of the best ways of doing this is to encourage athletics, for the students are welded into a homeogenous unit in supporting the teams.

Good teams can be had only if there is financial and moral support. Personal attendance at the games supplies both. Every school child in Ranger whose parents can afford the expenditure should have a season ticket, at the cost of $1; every adult who can afford to spend $1.50 should have one of these tickets.

If results elsewhere establish a rule, good results will follow this support of and interest in the schools. The result may not be clearly apparent this year, but it will be in the years to come. School children, as well as others, do better if they think someone is interested in their efforts. And athletics furnish everyone a chance to exhibit this interest.

RANGER'S NEW T. & P. STATION IS UNDER WAY

Work Has Started on $64,000 Structure for Local Depot Needs.

It has happened. After three years of waiting, hoping, "cussing," fighting and praying, the Texas & Pacific railroad has started clearing ground for its new passenger station and will survey the site shortly.

Today a gang of Mexicans are taking up a sidetrack near Commerce street over the depot site and it is expected the contractors, Henger & Chambers of Dallas, will have material on the ground within a few days to start actual construction of the building. Within two weeks it is believed the structure will be well under way.

The building, under the contract price, will cost about $64,000 and is considered by the railroad company to be of ample proportions to care for its needs here.

Agents working on the case expect to make other arrests of higher-ups, and believe that the statements which have been made by those now held will reveal a gigantic plot hatched to swindle the government out of many thousands of dollars' worth of materials.

The thefts were said to have been accomplished by means of enlisted men working with the army officer, and delivering the property to their accomplices.

WHY IN THE LEG? DALLAS, Texas, Sept. 30.—Police today were trying to find the motive which led Guiseppe Lavelle to shoot Elmares Barnes in the leg, and then kill himself here last night.

KANSAS MINERS PARADE UNDER MUZZLE OF GUNS

Sheriff Unable to Prevent Demonstration in Honor of Howat and Dorchy.

By United Press

COLUMBUS, Kan., Sept. 30.—Armed deputies, led by Sheriff Bill Harvey, patrolled the streets here today as hundreds of Kansas miners blocked the streets to see Alexander Howat and August Dorchy go to jail.

The two district mine chiefs were to face Judge Bose, to be remanded to jail or give bond. They will call no more Kansas mine strikes pending appeal of their sentence of six months and $500 fine that resulted from a conviction of violating the Kansas industrial court law by calling a strike over wages of a miner.

Howat and Dorchy declared they would not give the bond. Six hundred miners were here an hour before court opened and special inter-urban cars were still bringing them in.

"There will be no speeches or demonstrations," Sheriff Harvey declared, as he patted a six-gun significantly. "Strike if Howat goes to jail" is the spirit of the miners, according to leaders. The union officials declared practically all southern Kansas miners would quit work while their leader is in jail.

Howat ignored Sheriff Harvey's ultimatum against demonstration and preceded by three bands and more than 3,000 miners, he marched to a mass meeting.

PRISONERS MAKE ESCAPE AFTER THREE TRIALS

By United Press

LUBBOCK, Texas, Sept. 30.—"Charlie you don't blame us, do you?" was the closing statement left in a letter by Sam Gates under sentence of fourteen years for the murder of Judge Burton of Crosbyton, when fully equipped their third attempt to escape from the Lubbock county jail.

A month ago they attempted to overpower Sheriff Holcomb but were thwarted by Deputy Sheriff McCullough. Since that time they have been confined in the dark cell. Through some mysterious method or assistance they picked the locks of five doors last night including the combination lock, and made their escape around 5 o'clock this morning.

Sam Gates was first sentenced to ninety-nine years for the murder of Judge Burton but upon the second trial received only fourteen years. An appeal to the higher courts has been filed and he was being held pending a decision in the case.

Smith was awaiting trial for forgery and has been a partner with Gates in two previous unsuccessful attempts to escape. A posse is searching throughout this section, and all points have been wired to look out for the men.

AUSTIN, Sept. 30.—Governor Neff was unable through a rush of official business to go to Gatesville to assist in the investigation of facts connected with the violent death of Dell Thames, an inmate of the state juvenile training school. Slayer of Wife, Unborn Babe and "Poor Boob" Game to His Last Breath

As Black Cap of Death Hides His Face Triple Murderer's Voice Is Lifted in Song to Spirit of His Companion Gone Before— "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me?"

By United Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Carl Wanderer, with a song to the wife he murdered on his lips, was hanged at the Cook county jail at dawn today.

The murderer of three, Mrs. Wanderer, her unborn babe, and the "poor boob," went to his death without a show of fear or outward sign of repentance.

As he stood on the scaffold, and the hangman's noose was being adjusted, Wanderer was asked if he had anything to say. He responded by singing in a clear, resonant voice, the chorus of "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me?" A deathlike quiet settled on the crowd, which packed the little enclosure where the scaffold was erected, until the last note was finished.

"The long night through I wait for you, Old Pal, why don't you answer me? My arms embrace an empty space, The arms that held you tenderly, If you can hear my prayer away up there, Old Pal, why don't you answer me?"

Prays Audibly. As the hood was adjusted, Wanderer repeated clearly the prayers intoned for him by his pastor. He stood erect with his head and shoulders thrown back.

The trap was sprung at 7:21, and he was pronounced dead five minutes later.

"The gamest man ever hanged in this jail," was the comment of attaches of the prison.

Wanderer spent his last night singing and whistling between intermittent spells of sleep. He was buoyant and happy, and talked and laughed with his guards. Frequently through the night the guards heard the strains of "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me?" coming from the condemned man's cell. He apparently was practicing the song which he planned to sing on the scaffold.

Had Wife's Picture. Wanderer had a newspaper picture of his wife near his heart when he was hanged. He was allowed to place the picture inside his shirt. Shortly before the death march began, he read a few passages from the Bible, and then read from a pamphlet entitled "Hell" which he had taken to the death cell.

The triple murder which cost Wanderer his life was committed in the vestibule of his home on June 21, 1920. He was returning from a theatre with his wife. A tramp, who had been hired by Wanderer to commit a fake hold-up, stopped them inside the door. The wife and tramp were killed.

Confessed Crime. His story of the hold-up was at first accepted, and he was regarded as a hero for killing the "bandit." Police, however, traced the gun used by the "poor boob" to Wanderer, and he confessed.

There were three possible motives for the killing: Wanderer's love for another girl, his desire to return to the army, and the fact that his wife withdrew $1,000 from the bank on the day of the murder. This money was used in Wanderer's defense.

At the first trial, on the charge of killing his wife, Wanderer was given a sentence of twenty-five years. He was brought to trial for the killing of the "poor boob" and sentenced to death.

Met on Street. Dickson, before his death, had lived at the Bigbee home in Ranger for some time and on the date of the slaying, Bigbee met Dickson at Main and Austin streets and shot him several times. In surrendering to officers he made this statement: "Boys, he broke up my home; I had to do it."

The first session of the grand jury following the shooting, failed to indict Bigbee, but he was indicted by a subsequent jury on a charge of murder.

That much interest hinges on the outcome of the trial was evidenced by the crowd that was in the court room this morning. The room was filled during the examination of the veniremen and the crowd began to thicken after the lunch hour.

Challenges Used. Each side was allowed fifteen preemptory challenges and at a late hour today the state had availed itself of eleven challenges and the defense eight, which is thought to mean both sides are sparing for any possible advantage in jury-men. Of the ten who had been selected, all have families and children. This is thought to give the defense some advantage. All veniremen were questioned closely on this point. With ten of the twelve jury-men selected, it is expected the state will start taking evidence before court adjourns this afternoon.

MAN WHO SLEW W. L. DICKSON IS ON TRIAL TODAY

State's Questions Indicate Death Will Be the Penalty Asked for Killing.

Special to the Times

EASTLAND, Sept. 30.—That a man has the right to protect his home and fireside against all invaders even to the extent of taking life, will probably be the defense of Ed Bigbee, who, today went to trial for the killing of W. L. Dickson, taxicab driver, of Ranger, on Jan. 19.

This defense is indicated by the questions put to jury-men, ten of whom had been selected at 2 o'clock by the defense attorneys.

The trend of the state's questions to veniremen leads to the supposition that the death penalty will be asked. In several instances veniremen were excused when they stated they were prejudiced against capital punishment.

Stenographic reports of the convention proceedings will be transcribed in "takes" which will be turned over to the American Legion news service desk, where the copy will be edited down to what might interest the newspaper writer. The edited copy will be sent, a page at a time, to the multigraph machine beneath the stage, where it will be stenciled and multigraphed, and the copies sent back to the press box, to be distributed to the news correspondents.

Under the plan an adequate running story of the proceedings will reach the press box on an average of twenty minutes behind actual happenings on the convention floor, according to Chester T. Start, chairman of publicity.

'GOOD' CONVICTS AT HUNTSVILLE MAY READ BOOKS

HUNTSVILLE, Texas, Sept. 30.—Prisoners in the Texas penitentiary at Huntsville whose conduct is considered such as to merit privileges are permitted to while away the hours in their cells with books from the prison library, according to O. F. Wolff, secretary of the state prison commission.

There is a steady demand upon the library for different classes of books by the prisoners, said the Rev. I. P. Dickey, prison chaplain, who has charge of the library facilities. Volumes on technical subjects apparently are the favorites of the men, he said, but fiction and other classes of books also are popular.

The penitentiary library contains 7,896 volumes. These do not include 341 Bibles and Testaments, 350 song books and 8,550 school books. Thus prisoners may satisfy varied literary tastes, while provisions are made for those musically inclined and others who care to improve a meagre knowledge by further study during the leisure afforded them by confinement.

Eyes that can not see the happenings of the outside world can read of these events and keep the possessor informed on current topics through recent copies of a daily newspaper kept on file in the library. The short story also is available in twelve copies of a popular weekly and 212 copies monthly of fourteen different magazines.

Prisoners are allowed to take books to their cells. As this is a privilege, the books may be denied to those guilty of breaches of discipline.

There is a Bible in every cell, the chaplain said. In addition, 250 copies of a Sunday school paper have been ordered for the last quarter of this year.

WILL ASK CONGRESS TO PAY HALF BILLION DOLLAR RAIL REFUND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—A recommendation that congress immediately pass the $500,000,000 railroad refunding bill was to be presented late today to President Harding's unemployment conference. The conference steering committee which drew up the recommendation called it "the most important act the government can do toward bringing relief in the present labor distress."

HO HUM!

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The anti-beer bill today blocks the vote in the senate to an agreement to vote Oct. 15 on the peace treaty with Germany.

Senator Sterling, South Dakota, objected to any treaty agreement unless he was given a promise that the anti-beer measure would be disposed of before congress adjourned.

WOMAN SAYS IT WOULD BE WRONG TO KEEP SILENT

"No one knows how glad I was, after using Tanlac a few days, to find I was getting better and I have been getting better ever since," said Mrs. Myrtle Boatman, 540 West Sixteenth street, Houston Heights, Texas.

"For two years I was all run down and in dreadful health. I never felt like eating anything, lost weight and was tired and worn out all the time. I suffered from headache, my nerves were upset and I could hardly ever get a good night's rest. To add to my troubles, I took inflammatory rheumatism and in my right arm the pain was almost unbearable.

"Tanlac suited my case exactly and I feel stronger and better than I have since my troubles began. The rheumatism is entirely gone, my appetite is good and my digestion is just perfect. I have tried lots of different kinds of medicines, but Tanlac is the only one that did me any real good and I feel it would be a positive wrong for me not to tell others of my experience."

Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros., and in Eastland by the Palace Drug Store.—Advertisement.

Legends Are History! Engineers Vouch for Indian Tale of Natural Bridge Over River

CASCADE LOCKS, Ore., Sept. 30.—The "Bridge of the Gods," a natural bridge which Indian legend says once spanned the wide Columbia river here, may be replaced by a bridge of steel or concrete for passage of the white man's automobile.

From father to son, back farther than the white man's writings go, has come the tale of how once a great mass of stone and earth and huge trees arched the Columbia as a causeway upon which the Indians crossed the wide-flowing stream. Then there came a day when the bridge of nature was shaken from its moorings, and sank into the water. And that is how, they say, the cascades were created.

Geographical and geological investigators have reported that the red men's story may be true. When the waters of the Columbia are clear and low late in the year, remains of trees may be seen standing, as they may have stood before the bridge fell and formed the cascades.

Credence is placed in the natural bridge by F. H. Balch, author of the Indian romance, "The Bridge of the Gods." He says that Indians everywhere along the mid-Columbia tell of the great bridge that once stood over the cascades.

"All Columbian tribes tell the story," he says, "in different versions and different dialects, but all agreeing on the essential features as one of the great facts of past history."

Engineers were recently reported making preliminary surveys on both sides of the Columbia for a bridge just below the cascades.

CONGRESS TO ACCEPT KU KLUX INITIATION FOR INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Congress will in all probability accept the invitation of the Ku Klux Klan telegraphed by Imperial Wizard William Joseph Simmons, to members of the house and senate, Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, said today.

"In view of things that have happened, there should be a congressional investigation," Pomerene said. "Senators generally are favorable to an investigation of the Ku Klux Klan."

Pomerene was among the senators to receive a copy of Simmons' message inviting the investigation. "I think the invitation will be accepted," he said.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 30.—Telegrams addressed to members of congress, urging them to vote in favor of a resolution providing for a congressional investigation of the Ku Klux Klan was dispatched today by William Joseph Simmons, imperial wizard of the order.

NAVAL BAND SCORES HIT IN ISLAND PORT

BRIONI ISLANDS, Istria, Sept. 30.—The band of the United States cruiser St. Louis scored a hit with the dancers of this dazzling summer resort recently when it played for an affair given in the ballroom of the hotel. The ship had called at Pola and Brioni being just across the channel, the American sailors came over on leave. The band was taken over to play at a dance. The music produced was such that girls clamored about the Americans urging them to continue playing without stop. The American jazes were very popular.

BLOOD-CRAZED CANNIBAL TELLS CRIME DETAILS

Grossman, German Degenerate, Slew 20 Girls; Sold Flesh as Meat.

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—His confessions have been confirmed that Grossman, cannibal peddler and sausage maker, slew upward of twenty persons, nearly all women and girls, and found in his horrid crimes an intoxication of blood as others find it in drugs and alcohol.

His own descriptions of his man eater's urge fit to a nasty the ravings of the drug addict deprived of his heroin. In this and in his parentage history the medical fraternity find Grossman a perfect type of the psychopathic degenerate.

His crimes, extending over a series of years; his animal ferocity of attack, stirred by his wild beast appetite; the human shambles in which he lived; his feeding as veal to his friends the flesh of those he had slain and his coldly commercial use of the same material for the sausages he hawked for years at a Berlin suburban railway station, stamp Grossman the most degenerate and appalling criminal in the history of Germany if not of all the world since man was created. His counterpart is to be formed in William Krafft-Ebing's "Psychopathia-Sexualis."

He has told the police that he never long meditated the killing of any victim but that, looking upon some woman or girl, he suddenly was overcome with blood lust just as at times he had been frantic with desire for liquor.

His father was an incurable alcoholic. His mother was a victim of a malignant blood disease. One of his brothers in jail and another died insane in an asylum. Grossman served fourteen years in the penitentiary for an attack upon a little girl, seven years old.

His subnormal faculties reacted in a queer but typical fashion to the efforts of the police to obtain a confession. He never admitted any crime they sought to clear up until they had half the truth and recited the other half. Grossman was easily tempted into correcting their errors and telling the whole story of that crime. In this way he has been led to confess several.

Mrs. Itzig, who lived in the same dreary tenement which housed the cannibal, has been arrested, charged with accepting money from Grossman to conceal her knowledge of his murders. The police had taken him to the morgue and shown him the bones of a girl they had recovered from the bottom of the Spree. Previously Grossman had confessed his slaying of a girl named Sosnowski. He looked at the bones and said they were those of the Sosnowski girl.

When the police told him these bones had been found while the Sosnowski girl was still alive Grossman fell into his irresistible trick of straightening out a story and admitted the killing of another girl he said he knew only as Marthe. He told the police he had met Marthe in the streets, taken her to his room and lived with her for a few days.

His cannibal appetite suddenly overcame him one morning, he said, and he slew Marthe as he had slain so many other girls.

"I was overcome by blood intoxication," he said. "All common sense left me and I murdered her. Her body, still warm, was on my bed when Mrs. Itzig came into the room and saw her."

This confirmed the suspicions the police long had had in regard to Mrs. Itzig and she was arrested at once. Querying Grossman further about her, they were told that he had often given her small sums of money "to keep quiet." Grossman made this accusation against the woman in her presence.

CAT PLAYERS GET $1,130.52 OUT OF SERIES

The Fort Worth Dixie champions will not wait until Oct. 8 for a series with Wichita, it was decided yesterday. It was felt that both players and fans are tired of baseball for the year and it would be an onerous task to wait until Oct. 8 for the series. Moreover, it would fall right in the middle of the world series, on which interest would center.

The Panther players fared very nicely as a result of their winning. They split a pot of $19,742. About $12,000 of this came from the winning players' share of the first four games and the remainder from the admiration fund. Fort Worth fans gave about $2,000 toward this fund and the club threw in a $5,000 bonus.

Sixteen regulars drew down $1,130.52 each as their share, and Bill Stellbauer and Lefty Phillips, who have only been with the club part of the season, were awarded $812.02 each.

The average pay of women engaged in the government service is $200 less than that paid the males, though many do highly technical work.

GIANTS' FIRST OWNER BEARS SCARS OF GAME

Jim Mutrie Had Fame and Money—Once; Had Troubles, Too.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—"Smiling James" Mutrie, who once owned the Polo Grounds, owned the Giants, nicknamed them, managed them and won two pennants with them, and now, 77 years old, smiles as of old and follows "his" Giants in the sporting pages.

Baseball gave Mutrie both fame and money, but now he is bereft of well nigh everything save his smile and memories. He is crippled in his legs, his hands are gnarled and twisted as relics of his playing years ago and his jaw is all awry where once it stopped a hard hit ball.

Over on Staten Island this grand old veteran of the game has found the home base in a lodging house, and his greatest joy is in taking the neighborhood youngsters to shady spots and spinning yarns to them of the Babe Ruths of years gone by.

How Giants Were Named. "Yes, I named the Giants myself," he chuckles. "It was perfectly natural to call them that. The boys were all tall in those days because most of them were sluggers and they didn't go in for speedy playing then. One day when we were winning I remarked, 'There are giants, both in stature and playing,' and the name stuck."

"No sir, baseball ain't any better today than it was then, only on a business basis." "Smiling James" has his opinions and he sticks by them. "The first game I ever put on in New York was in 1880 when John B. Day and I started the Mets. It was played on the old Polo Grounds at 110th street and Fifth avenue. Two thousand persons came out to watch us play—that was a great gathering."

"And believe me, we have our troubles with the fans. One year I suffered an injury and had to umpire. I had to run many times for my life, and once, when a woman fan took exception to one of my decisions she horsewhipped me."

"Once, I remember, we walked five miles on a dusty turn-pike to play a game. Oh, yes, we won—134 to 17—some game, boy! We didn't have any upholstery to catch balls with in those days. I was laid up for a year once when I tried to stop a foul tip on my collar bone."

"When I came to New York in 1880 I walked the streets for weeks trying to convince somebody that baseball was a paying proposition. Finally Mr. Day believed me, and we started the game in old New York. Just look at the game here today. Yes, sir, and I started it."

WILLARD SENT CONTRACT FOR BOUT WITH DEMPSEY

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Willard will get his chance to meet Dempsey again, according to an announcement from Tex Rickard's office that he has forwarded Jess a contract for the bout. The contract has already been submitted to Willard's manager and approved, but to put a quietus on any arguments, Willard must sign up.

The battle may be held anywhere in the United States that Rickard sees fit to place it, and on any date between June 15 and July 5, but it is Rickard's intention to stage it in the Jersey City arena on July 2 on the anniversary of the Carpentier-Dempsey affair.

SENATE IN DEBATE ON EUROPE TREATIES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—President Harding, in a letter to Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader, read in the senate today when consideration of the treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary was begun, said the pacts would put aside the last remnant of war relationship and bring a complete return to peace.

MAMMON GRIPS MOVIE SCREEN, PREACHER SAYS

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—Commenting on a recent newspaper dispatch to the effect that the motion picture producers intended to make all their contracts with actors subject to their good behavior, Rev. S. Clark Riker, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, Ninth street, in a sermon preached last night on "The Movement of the Movies," said: "The motion picture industry will never reform from within because it is dedicated to Mammon; it will never reform any more than did the liquor traffic."

"We live in one of the best theatre cities in the country, and what is considered by some as one of the poorest church towns in the land. During the last two years we have built four beautiful theatres, while in the last ten years we have not built one church of equal architectural grandeur. We have even changed one church into a playhouse, which some do not consider to be of the greatest refinement. "The movies' rank as one of the greatest inventions of the age, and they would have been a great blessing to society if they had not been dedicated in their infancy to Mammon. "True to Mammon form, they have made their appeal to the baser side of human nature. The other night I made the rounds of the downtown mo-

GIANTS CINCH; TRIS SPEAKER'S HOPES VANISH

When Dickie Kerr curved the White Sox into a 5-0 victory against the Indians yesterday, the American league pennant virtually was cinched by the Yanks, who beat Philadelphia by the same score. One more victory will give New York a certainty of meeting the Giants at the Polo grounds in the world's series classic. The Indians' only hope lies in New York losing all remaining games while they themselves win all.

Kerr's pitching was the principal part of the Sox play, though in the sixth, when Cleveland threatened, two brilliant plays came to his rescue. The score at the time was 2-0, and Speaker, first up, led off with a long single to right center. Up came Smoky Joe Wood, who has at times wielded a powerful bludgeon. Joe lined a long one to left field which looked like a homer, but Strunk made a wonderful one-handed catch. Then Sheely, Sox first baseman, took an infield roller and nipped Speaker at second. That settled the contest, and just as the inning ended, the scoreboard showed New York had won.

The Yanks, minus Babe Ruth, who is suffering from an attack of the grippe, mopped up easily at Philadelphia. Shawkey held the Athletics to four hits and was never threatened, while three of New York's nine drives were for extra bases and figured in the scoring.

The Red Sox hopped on Walter Johnson in the sixth, counted four times on five hits and beat Washington, 5-2.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York was idle yesterday, but a double defeat handed Pittsburg by the St. Louis Cardinals, gave the Giants a cinch on the National league pennant.

The Cards took the first game, 5 to 4, scoring the winning run on Schultz's homer in the ninth. The second went only six innings until called on account of rain, with St. Louis leading, 3-1. If the Cards can make a clean sweep of the series, they will wind up in a tie with the Prates for second place.

Miss Grace Abbott, now head of the United States Children's bureau, was formerly executive of the Illinois state immigration commission.

There was not a single one which did not have reproductions of scenes of their films outside on display, which did not show some actor with a gun in his hand or a girl in his arms.

"A gun seems as essential to a motion picture actor as his hat. You cannot tell me there is no connection between the gun play in the movies and the crime wave in real life. We ought either to take the pistol out of the movies or the law against carrying weapons off the statutes, for they cannot go hand in hand."

ARDMORE, Sept. 30.—The Ardmore Peps won from Chickasha of the Southwestern league yesterday, 3 to 1, in the opener of a series to determine the class D championship of Oklahoma. All games of the series will be played at Ardmore. The Peps hit Henry hard in the first two innings, during which they scored all their runs.

DALLAS WINS.

Dallas, by counting seven runs in the last inning, beat San Antonio, 12 to 7 in Wednesday's game at Mexico City. Jim Galloway and Munson hit homers during the massacre.

MANHATTAN.

One of the fastest-moving picture plays of the year is "The Last Door" the latest Selznick picture starring Eugene O'Brien. This will be the attraction at the Manhattan theatre today and Saturday. The entire action of the story takes place between the dinner hour of one evening and breakfast time the following morning. In this one night there is a thrilling escape and chase, a mysterious visit by an elusive adventurer to a house where many jewels are known to be in a safe, a kidnapping, and a love story that has a unique twist at the end.

The central figure of "The Last Door" is Somerset Carroll, who for many years has been in South Africa. Immediately upon his return he is induced to join a house party given by Mrs. Hamilton Rogers, who is herself a lion-hunter of note, her lions being social ones. Her home is near a penitentiary, and the guests are treated to the sensation of a general warning that a prisoner has escaped. For the sake of excitement they decide to join in the hunt, but Carroll refuses to accompany them.

While Carroll is alone in the house, a girl in convict garb enters through a window, and pleads for protection. Carroll turns back the guards and helps the girl to escape. It is mid-winter and they skate down the river, but while in full flight the girl falls into an air-hole in the ice and Carroll takes her to a nearby farmhouse. This is the beginning of an exciting chase, with surprises at every turn.

In the supporting cast is Miss Martha Mansfield, who shares honors with Mr. O'Brien in this exciting story. The production was directed by Wm. P. S. Earle, from an original story by Ralph Ince and W. B. Foster.

SKILL AND ENVIRONMENT.

At Amarillo recently two Indians from a blanket tribe near that city sought to entertain an audience with an exhibition of archery. A dispatch has it that their skill with the bow and arrow, one of the most ancient of weapons, failed to measure up to the expectations of the crowd. It hardly seems fair to criticize the noble red men of the present day for his lack of accuracy in the use of the bow and arrow.

The modern Indian has little to do with bows and arrows. He long ago laid aside his quiver for the automatic rifle and pistol, and discarded his trusty bow for the more deadly if less romantic "splatter gun."

Man is just as much a creature of environment today as he was when the war-whoop of the red skin mingled with the howl of the coyote on the prairies and the thud of his pony's hoofs beat time to the thunder of the lordly buffalo in his ponderous flight.

The failure of "Lo" to register a kill in two attempts with a running calf as target is no cause for criticism or surprise. Put that same Indian at the steering wheel of a speedy automobile and he will acquit himself with credit.

In a contest at archery not long ago in one of the eastern states a white man, in competition with a number of Indians, carried off all the honors and was declared the world's most expert exponent of the use of the bow and arrow.

The best negro, or "black-face" comedy, is the work, not of a member of the Ethiopian race, but of a white man, a "burnt-cork artist."

And that is also due to a difference in association and environment. But no one would attempt to deny that, given a chance at his own game, "crap shooting," the average black man will uphold the honor of his race.

VOLIVA'S FOLLY.

The only way some folks can break into print is to publicly declare their belief in some theory that upsets the calculations of all the brainy men of the past hundreds of years.

Now comes one Wilbur Glenn Voliva, "ruler of Zion," who solemnly assures his followers that "there is no such thing as a law of gravitation."

Well, suppose there isn't. One thing is certain, and that is that there is some force that even Mr. Voliva can't explain that will give him an unpleasant moment if he foolishly opposes himself against it with his physical body.

Whether it's a "law of gravitation" or not, it seems to work pretty well, and it could be called a fluttery budget or anything else and it would still continue to function to more purpose than Mr. Voliva's mental machinery.

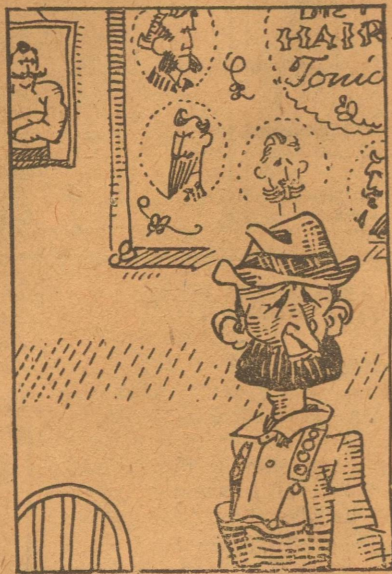

"A rose by any other name would smell as sweet."

The critics who wish to scrap the national anthem have one sure way of doing it. Let them produce one that the nation likes better.—Boston Herald.

Cricket Hicks has written to the editor of the Beauty Column to find out what kind of food he must eat to reduce his hands and feet.

In last week's paper Sim Flinders read something about where the president of the United States was wanting to aid a father of sixteen children. Sim says what that man really needs is the aid and sympathy of the secretary of the treasury.

Dock Hooks says it is a wonder a great many people don't buy shoes that are not mates, since the factory has quit fastening them together at the back end with a string.

CONSTITUTION OF THREE NATIONS BARS LAWS BEARING ON RELIGION

By Associated Press.
TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, Sept. 30.—Liberty of thought and free exercise of all forms of worship and religion are to be recognized by the constitution of the new Central American federation, which is being discussed in the constituent assembly meeting here. The provision was adopted after a fierce contention led by the representatives of the Catholic clergy of Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras. (The federation is composed of those three countries.)
The new constitution proclaims advanced principles. It declares the inviolability of the human life. This has been a tendency of the Latin-American republics, death penalty having been abolished in the laws of Brazil, Costa Rica, Colombia, Ecuador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Uruguay and Venezuela.

Liberty of thought and of conscience is guaranteed. There can be no legislation on religious matters and all forms of worship not opposed to morals good customs and public orders are allowed. Religious associations which compel a person to an unconditional obedience or establish confinement in cloister, are prohibited.

A religious act cannot be presented to prove the civil status of a man. This provision is meant to do away with the ancient principle of Spanish legislation which recognized the religious certification of birth, marriage or death as valid and good as the state certification.

SMALL, BUT STILL---

Special to the Times.
BRECKENRIDGE, Sept. 30.—The tiniest still ever captured in this section of the oil fields was brought to Breckenridge last night by Deputy Sheriff Nelson Smith. It is of block tin and copper construction, pronounced a "little beauty" by an expert in such matters and had a boiler holding a half gallon. Running full blast, it would produce about a gallon of whisky a day.

It was found hidden in an oil well, six feet down in the casing, where it had been suspended by a piece of cable. The driller, starting to rig up the well preparatory to cleaning out, discovered the tiny outfit.

The bridal veil of Princess Helene of Greece, worn at her wedding to Crown Prince Carol of Rumania, is valued at a half million francs and was made by the women of Bucharest.

LYOYD LYON GIVEN BIG FINE FOR VAGRANCY

Lloyd Lyon, charged with vagrancy, was yesterday fined $60.70, which included costs of the court, by police Judge L. H. Flewellen. This is the second time within a week Judge Flewellen has assessed a fine of this amount under the same charge. The testimony showed that Lyon was living with his wife in a house alleged to be disorderly, she paying the rental and other upkeep, and that he had no other visible means of support. He appealed to the county court.

Lyon's wife, also under a charge of vagrancy, will be tried today before Judge Flewellen. The charge arose from a raid made by the police department on the Austin rooms several days ago.

RED CROSS BALL WAS BABE RUTH SWAT IN RANGER SOCIAL SEASON

The Summer Garden sparkled last night with jazz and gayety and enjoyment as Ranger folk by the hundred swayed to rhythmic strains woven into melody by "Pop" Endicott's orchestra and the Illinois Five. It rang with applause during the exhibition dances and the prize waltz and its walls shimmered to the echo of ecstatic laughter as six or eight negro couples cake-walked, did fancy dancing, and jigged, in perfect harmony and with a quirkiness that only the feet of the African can achieve.

After the exhibitions, the open-to-everybody events started again, amid a maze of confetti and paper streamers, and with horns tooting in futile attempt to mar the melody being dispensed. It was truly a gorgeous evening put over by Mrs. Helen Gifford Clegg and her Red Cross cohorts; put over with an attention to detail in all particulars and with an eye to entertainment that put it in a class by itself. The event promises to be the social Babe Ruth of the Ranger season, for the uniqueness of its features and the spirit of merriment which its promoters injected made it indeed an affair which others will find hard to equal.

Prize Waltzes.
 In the prize waltz, two couples survived all tests and then judges were "stuck." They couldn't make a decision, so two prizes were awarded—to Miss Mavis Douglas and Dr. Owen, and to another couple, new residents here, who refused to have the limelight splashed over them in the public prints. The prizes were later auctioned off; for $5.25, the first time, and again when the successful bidder offered them to the fund. This time the bidding didn't last. Music was awaiting, and when one bidder said "one-fifty," to start it off, someone shouted "Sold!" And it was.

Following the prize waltz, Mrs. Jean Clegg and Leonard Hudson, Mrs. C. H. Endicott and Wilbourne Collier, interpreted dances of the past, these being the three-step, polka and schottische.

The monster cake, ornamented with candles, which was the prize in the cake-walk, went to Johnnie Ware and Carrie Hunt.

D'ANNUNZIO MAKES A LITTLE 'HOOTCH' NOW
 By Associated Press.
 GARDONE, Italy, Sept. 30.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, the poet and hero of the Fiume independence, has become a producer of wine in his hours of quiet on the lake here.

"I produce very little wine but enough so that I can call myself one of the Italian family of wine producers," he told a friend recently. "I expect to produce a wine that will be the envy of the French and Spanish producers. I will give it a new name of my own coining so that it will not be confused with any of the wines at present on the market."

TOO MUCH FOR BABY.
 Underhill. Doctor, how can sleeplessness be cured?
 Doctor—Well, the patient should count slowly, and in a meditative manner, 500, and then—
 Underhill. That's all very nice, doctor, but the baby can't count.—Edinburg Scotsman.

MRS. CLEGG SAYS:

Editor Ranger Times,
 Dear Sir: With the strains of the "Illinois Five" still titillating responsive chords, I want to thank you for the publicity given the Red Cross ball. To the well written articles, more than to any other one factor, is due the success of the ball. I wish also to thank others contributing, to Mrs. Jonas, giving the Summer Garden, the City Bakery and the baker for the generous and beautiful cake, the Palace of Sweets and the Texas Drug company, for the candy and cigarettes, the E. B. Reid Furniture company and J. H. Mead.

My last and deepest bow is made to the public, who so agreeably lent themselves to the plans of the evening, and to the cake-walkers whose occupations furnished amusement and entertainment to the guests of the evening.
 HELEN GIFFORD CLEGG,
 Manager Red Cross Shop.

Many Human Ills Are Due To Impurities in the Blood
 Pure, Rich, Red Blood Nourishes the Body and Fights Off Disease.
 Waste Products or Impurities Cause Many Forms of Rheumatism, Skin Disorders and a Lowered Vitality.
 How S. S. S. Clears the Blood of Waste Products.

Your system is continually taking in nutrition and throwing off waste products. This process goes on all during life. But, sometimes the organs do not properly function and these waste products, instead of passing out through the pores of the skin, through the kidneys and through the alimentary canal, are absorbed in the blood. Then the blood becomes poisoned, and cannot properly nourish the system.

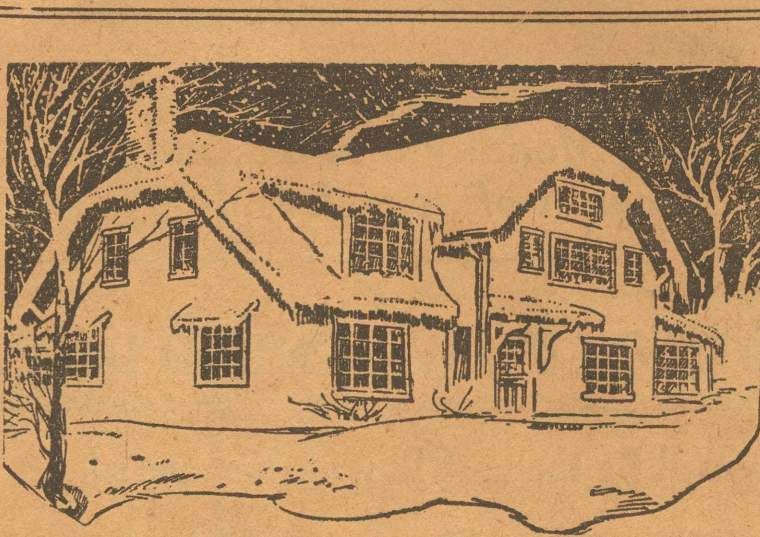

Ill health sets in. You may lose your strength and vitality; or you may have rheumatic pains in the muscles and joints; or you may be troubled with bad boils, sores or some other skin eruptions. All because of the poisonous waste products in the blood. Nature now needs help. She has done her best but is failing. A blood purifier should be used at once to assist nature to throw off these waste products.

S. S. S., the standard blood purifier and system builder, is the ideal remedy in these cases. The effect of S. S. S. is to rid the system of the poisons which are causing the trouble. For over 50 years, S. S. S. has proven to be of unusual merit.

LAREDO HAS TROUBLE IN FINDING SERVANTS

LAREDO, Texas, Sept. 30.—The problem of domestic help is a serious one in Laredo. It is difficult to obtain good cooks, housemaids and washerwomen, housewives say, for the reason that many of the Mexican servant class are demanding high wages for little labor.
 Servants who formerly did all the work of a small household for low wages now demand three or four times as much for only a part of the work and they want to go home early, with Sunday afternoon off. Some of them refuse to work after 5 o'clock in the evening.
 Some housewives say they are doing their own work rather than risk theft and suffer from careless work on the part of the servants. The younger class of Mexican servants wear silk hose, costly millinery and expensive clothing and the housewives of Laredo long for the old style servants who worked for low wages and dressed as they did in their native Mexican home.

High Class Histrionic Ability Will Be Seen in Elks' Variety Show Oct. 4-5

With its population drawn from the far reaches of the world, Ranger, it is said, can produce a man or woman for any job, and the statement is verified, to that extent at least, in the Elks' Variety Show to be given Oct. 4-5. Talent is here which would produce a good show on any stage in the country, according to the Elks and the Library association; the two organizations which will put on the show.

In conjunction with the Elks exhibition, the Retail Merchants will stage a style show which, it is said, will leave nothing wanting in beautiful girls or clothing. The models will also be local talent and the prettiest girls in the city have been drafted for the event.

One of Chicago's largest wholesale clothing houses for men is extensively advertising knickerbockers for women for general wear.

USES OF FORDSON WILL BE SHOWN TOMORROW

Plowing, harrowing and drilling will be demonstrated with the Fordson tractor tomorrow by the Leveille-Maher Motor company under the direction of two experts from the Ford Motor company and an expert from the Oliver Chilled Plow works. The demonstration starts at 9 o'clock and will last all day. It is expected R. H. Bush, farm demonstrator, will be present and deliver lectures on deep plowing and other farm problems.

The event will be held north of Hodges Oak Park. Another feature of the tractor which will be demonstrated will be its ability to furnish power to operate churns, pumps or other farm machinery of like nature operated by power.

Tractors, it is said, are rapidly becoming an essential farm implement and the Fordson particularly fills this need. Besides furnishing power for the churn, pump, grindstone and other such implements, it will, for less money, go out in the fields and do everything a team can do, it is said.

RANGER FARM BOY WINS VISIT TO DALLAS FAIR

boy, will be presented a week's visit to the Dallas State Fair. The expense of Young Coffman's stay in Dallas will be paid by the state department of education and his railroad fare will probably be paid locally.

The arrangements were made through the co-operation of the Chamber of Commerce, R. H. Bush, farm agent, and H. D. Woods, principal of the high school.

The state department has made the appropriation that farm boys may see the advantages of the pure-bred stock, improved farm machinery and other farm improvements which are exhibited at the fair.

Coffman lives at Bullock and will go to Dallas Oct. 11.
