

RESERVE 'LOOTS' TO BE ASSIGNED TO DIVISIONS

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Detailed regulations under which thousands of world war veterans, now members of the officers' reserve corps, will be assigned for duty in the reserve army framework contemplated by the national defense act, were made public today by the war department and will be distributed immediately to the 66,800 officers who now compose the corps. Assignment of reserve officers to the twenty-seven divisions of organized reserves throughout the country will follow immediately, as the first step in the general staff plans under which an army of more than 4,000,000 could be formed within a short time.

The regulations are extensive and cover every phase of the relationship between the citizen officers and the regular army. The same theory of decentralization of administrative authorities from the war department to corps area commanders is carried out by the officers that were employed in planning for the reserve system.

HARDING TRAMPS OVER FIELDS IN WATCHING MARINE MANEUVERS

WILDERNESS RUN, Va., Oct. 1.—President Harding watched field maneuvers of the East Coast expeditionary forces of the marine corps over the famous civil war battlefields of the Wilderness today and camped tonight under canvas at marine headquarters here. The president witnessed open order work by platoon and battalion during the afternoon and later he saw a demonstration of day and night bombing by marine and navy aviators staging a battle between aircraft and anti-aircraft guns under modern conditions.

In following the maneuvers, the president plodded across corn fields and through meadows with the first line of the advance and inspected a machine gun in action.

He will return to Washington tomorrow after attending military religious exercises and reviewing the troops engaged in the maneuvers.

ARMY OFFICERS' BOARD TO REPRESENT PEACE ARMIES

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Appointment of a board of officers to formulate policies governing "administrative relations" between the regular army service and the national guard during peace time, when the state forces are not in the federal service, was made today.

Colonel Frank M. Humbold of Missouri, and Colonel Frank W. Ward, of New York, will represent the national guard on the board, both now being on duty with the general staff in connection with the militia bureau.

Lieutenant Colonels U. H. Bryson and John W. Gullick and Majors T. W. Harmong and L. C. Wilson, all of the general staff, are the regular army members.

FRENCH STILL KISSING.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—General John J. Pershing was received by the entire population of Chaumont when he reached the scene of his former headquarters on his trip through France.

The American commander was kissed by the mayor of Chaumont. The general slept in his old bed.

U. S. PREPARES TO MEET PROBLEMS OF ARMS PARLEY

By A. L. BRADFORD, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—All departments of the government, under orders of President Harding, are hard at work tabulating a mass of information for use of the American delegates at the conference on limitation of armament.

Officials have found that the argument question is related to virtually all phases of government activity.

While the state department is trying to clear up some diplomatic problems preparatory to the conference, the war and navy departments are compiling the latest information regarding fighting forces of the world.

The cost of war and preparedness is being tabulated for all nations by the treasury. The effect of armament limitation on commerce and labor is being studied by Secretary of Commerce Hoover and Secretary of Labor Davis. The drain of war on the coal and oil reserves of the world will be shown by the interior department, while the agricultural department has figures revealing the effect of the last war on food production.

The greatest care is being exercised in picking advisors and experts for the American delegation who are thoroughly versed in every angle of all these problems.

With these physical preparations—even down to provision for the entertainment and comfort of the various delegations—being rushed, Secretary of State Hughes, head of the American delegation was beginning to see complete victory ahead for the conference in accord with American principles and plans.

Hughes has had two big difficulties to overcome in the negotiations he has conducted to pave the way for the successful opening of the Washington conference. These were:

1. The desire of Great Britain, prompted by the dominion premiers, to hold a preliminary conference on the Far Eastern situation with the United States and Japan in London, a plan which was finally dropped because of Secretary Hughes' insistence that there be only one conference, and that that be held in Washington.
2. Japan's hesitance to agree to a discussion among all the powers, in the conference, of problems in the Pacific and Far East, where Nippon holds she has a special position.

In accepting President Harding's informal invitation to the conference, Japan noted reservations to the proposed discussion of Pacific and Far Eastern problems, and this question has not been completely settled yet.

PRESENT-DAY O. HENRY TURNS TO COMMERCE

O. Henry—not the one who wrote stories—but O. Henry, the man who sells goods, is in Ranger and will have charge of the sale at the Leader store, on Austin street. Mr. Henry's purpose is to dispose of the entire stock within a short time, as Saied Bros., the proprietors, have decided to retire from business here. He announces that unusual bargains will be offered, and especially low prices will prevail for those who are present during the first half hour Wednesday morning, when the sale opens.

KU KLUXERS SHOOT WACO SHERIFF

Sheriff Buchanan was asked. He looked confused "It started," he said vaguely. "I begged and pleaded."

It was evident he was too weak from excitement and loss of blood to continue.

Sheriff Attacked.

The battle between the sheriff and the paraders took place at the first cross street at the entrance to Lorena from the Waco road. When the sheriff attempted to stop the robed, masked figures and clear the masks from the faces of the leading men, he was attacked. The leading figure in the parade, carrying the American flag, was first stopped by the sheriff. The noise that preceded the sheriff's action made it almost impossible to hear what he said. Other robed figures rushed up to join in the melee. A wild scene ensued. A pistol shot rang out in the clear air. A lull of a few seconds followed, then between ten and fifteen shots were fired in rapid succession. The sheriff and Deputy Burton were seen dashing about the road. Sheriff Buchanan, knife in hand, soon cleared a space about him. He was knocked down at the beginning of the fight by a pole in the hands of one of the paraders but arose, knife in hand. He said someone took his gun away from him while he was down.

While he was down one of the white-robed men grabbed the flag, another lifted the fiery cross and the cavalcade vanished.

So far as known, none of the paraders was injured.

ARMS TO IRELAND!

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Charged with conspiracy to ship arms and ammunition in violation of the neutrality laws of the United States, John J. O'Brien today was held by United States Commissioner Hitchcock under $3,000 bond for hearing on Oct. 10.

The arrest of O'Brien, who described himself as a carpenter, is the second within a week by federal authorities as a result of investigation following the discovery of a shipment of machine guns concealed on the steamship East Sid, prior to her departure for Norfolk and Ireland.

NEGRO CARRIED WHIP, HAD RIGHT TO LASH BOYS

Thames was whipped and choked, this being admitted by both state and defense witnesses. The methods of punishing inmates at the school was gone into rather thoroughly and the witness declared that he was opposed to violent punishment, but that whippings were necessary at the school and that the system of having the boys bare their backs to receive lashings met with his approval.

"We have boys of all kinds there," said King. "Some are murderers and hijackers, and we must have strict discipline. A three-inch strap is applied to the bare back for it enables whoever inflicts the punishment to see whether he is beating too hard or not. Some boys are more thin skinned than others and I believe the practice of whipping them barebacked is sensible."

Three Clothed With Straps.

"Besides Twyman, Harvey Thomas and George Gerald, a negro, have the authority to whip boys. Twyman had the larger boys, Thomas the smaller and Gerald had the negro boys."

"These men are supposed to report first to me before administering a whipping for a serious offense, but for minor offenses they flog the boys without letting me know. With 900 boys at the school it is possible that advantage could be taken of this privilege and they could punish cruelly.

"After I became suspicious that Thames had been killed I talked with Joe Thomas and other boys and got the facts late Sunday afternoon. Twyman came to me and asked, 'Mr. King, do you think I killed that boy?' And I told him I did not know."

King testified that neither Twyman nor anyone else had reported to him that Thames had been unruly and had been whipped either on Friday or Saturday. When District Attorney Edison asked if it were not true that Thames was beaten the first time he started to drill at the school, King replied it was possible. Evidence shows that Thames was beaten Friday, Saturday and the last time Sunday morning.

Thames, it was brought out, died where he had fallen, but he was taken to the hospital and his body turned over to a nurse. The Thomas boy testified that the strap was not put into effect until Twyman joined the school and acknowledged that he had been strapped twelve times, seven times by Twyman.

The defense sought to bring out that many new students try to stall by pretending sickness and Thomas said only the new ones try this stunt.

One boy from Galveston received so much whipping with the strap he was sent to the hospital, Thomas said.

"When we observe all the rules the officers do not make trouble for us," the Thomas boy declared. And he admitted that since Twyman had been at the school fighting, gambling, etc., had decreased, but he added, "We haven't time any more," which caused a laugh and a rap for order by Judge Cross.

Guard Testifies.

Jesse J. Johnson, guard at the school, declared that Twyman had given Thames only a light whipping and that he admonished the boy during the whipping that he only wanted him to drill. Johnson also said that the whippings were administered with a three-inch strap on the bare backs of the boys while they were lying on the ground. He declared that it was very evident that the Thames boy was unruly, that he had confidence in the judgment of Twyman whether a boy needed a whipping and that the officer did not appear angry with the youth. He was on the spot when the rope was brought up with which to tie Thames and agreed that the captain had said something about showing what hanging was like.

"Of course I did not think Twyman meant to hang the boy. I think that he was only meaning to scare the boy into obedience. I think he gave Thames ten to fifteen lashes the first time. I came up just about the time the boy was choked for the last time and saw something was wrong. I said, 'Cap, haven't you choked this boy too much?' and he said 'What' or something like that. Twyman later asked me what he had better do and I told him that if he had killed the boy he had better give up to the officers. I saw the boy's body in the hospital. Twyman was with me and the neck bore black and blue marks. After the death of Thames that morning, it was Sunday. Twyman asked me to go to church and we took the boys to chapel as usual. Between 10 and 11 o'clock I reported the affair to Mr. King, head of the school."

Many Use "Sick" Ruse. Johnson declared that many of the boys try to fool the officials by playing sick, insisted the whipping he saw Twyman give Thames was not severe enough to inflict permanent injury and said the captain ceased his lashings as soon as Thames said he would drill.

Johnson declared that the behavior of the boys had greatly improved since Twyman came; denied that it was the custom to choke boys, but admitted that Twyman once told him he had choked a negro.

Ice Cream and Laughter Keynotes of High School Reception to Visitors

Youth exuberant and full of life last night filled the Chamber of Commerce rooms to overflowing. The occasion was a reception given the visiting Comanche high school football team by the senior class of the Ranger High school. The occasion was properly ushered in by much ice cream and cake. While the ice cream went to that place from which no ice cream ever returns, laughter was the main attraction. With the true boy and girl spirit they laughed at anything or nothing.

After the matter of refreshments was attended to, old-fashioned games such as "drop the handkerchief" were played. Throughout the evening youthful spirits ran high.

MEAT CHEAP HERE.

By United Press. SYDNEY, Oct. 1.—Meat may be high elsewhere in the world, it is not in Australia. Imagine fillet de mignon steak at 22 cents a pound retail—according to the price fixed by the profiteering prevention court—rump steak at 20 cents, sirloin at 18 cents, short loin chops at 16 cents, leg of mutton at 13 cents and shoulders at 11 cents. This does not take into consideration the depreciation in exchange. If that is done, these prices must be reduced by about 15 to 18 per cent.

DUCK HUNTER SHOOT'S EAGLE, RESCUES LAMB

DOSTER, Mich., Oct. 1.—When hunting for ducks on Shelp lake recently Les Thatcher saw flying above him a huge bird carrying in its claws some sort of a burden. He blazed away with both barrels.

The big bird uttered a shrill cry, swooped downward, dropped its burden.

The falling object struck the water near Thatcher's boat with a resounding splash. When rescued it proved to be a lamb, unharmed except for a couple of holes shot through one ear. The eagle—a very scarce bird in these parts—evidently had made a raid upon some farmer's flock and was taking the lamb to its eerie devour it.

TEXAS FUGITIVE CAUGHT IN OKLAHOMA CITY

By United Press. OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 1.—H. T. Graves, who is said to be wanted by authorities of Quanah, Texas, on a charge of killing a depot agent there, was under arrest here today. He will be held pending arrival of Texas authorities to identify him.

ABUSE WOMAN, AND YOU MAY ESCAPE, BUT SCORN MAKETH HER POISON IVY!

Opal Cates, about 7 years old, appeared in the police station Friday. Opal had a grievance; she had been run down by a bicycle ridden by Gregg Simpson, she told the sergeant, and she wanted something done about it. She exhibited bruises on her arm and shoulder and declared she had to stay away from school because of them.

Opal being of the eternal feminine, perhaps would not have recited her woes to the police sergeant if the Gregg boy had not laughed when he ran over her and then laughed again yesterday when he saw her, or so she said. And thus again is the trite truism exemplified that "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned."

The accident happened on Marston street near the school building. The little girl was standing within the safety zone; one foot on the sidewalk and the other on the pavement when she was struck by the bicycle, she said.

Beware of little extravagances; a little leak will sink a big ship.—Franklin.

'DON'T PARK HERE' MEANS JUST WHAT IT SAYS, IS FIRE CHIEF'S WARNING

The signs on the corners of downtown streets which read "Don't park here," mean just what they say, according to Fire Chief Murphy, and every car found in the zone marked by white paint on the curb will be driven to the police station and its owners will pay a fine.

Chief Murphy also calls attention to the ordinance against parking within ten feet of a fire plug and asserts that arrests will follow where the law is violated.

The fire department has spent much time in marking the safety zones on the corners and painting the "no-parking" sign.

Mr. Saied's Statement to You

This immense stock is turned over to Mr. O. Henry, the Chicago Merchandise Adjuster, for quick and efficient sale. SANGER, BROS., Dallas, and MONNIG, DRY GOODS CO. of Ft. Worth, to drag it to the Bargain Block. Mr. O. Henry has entire jurisdiction over this sale, and while it is out of my hands, I want to say that anything and everything Mr. Henry tells you I will vouch for. Read his printed announcements and believe them the same as if he talked to you face to face. He has a new way of pushing it out, so as to wind up the business in the shortest possible time. In retiring from active commercial life in Ranger, I want to thank my former customers for the splendid patronage that you have bestowed upon me in the past. I want you to be here on the opening morning of this immense campaign, because you are going to buy merchandise at bargain prices, because you are going to buy merchandise at prices that you have bestowed upon me in the past. On account of leaving Ranger I offer my home together with all improvements at a sacrifice. Don't fail to be here when the doors open at 9 a. m., because Mr. Henry is going to inaugurate a closing out campaign that will thunder across the entire state. Come early, because early birds will get the best choosing. (Signed) OSCAR SAIED, Manager

SLASH! SMASH! CRASH!

This high grade stock consists of Dry Goods, Ready-to-wear, Shoes for men, women and children, Men's Clothing, Trunks and Suit Cases all to be thrown on the Bargain Block at prices unbelievable.

Mr. Saied offers his home for sale with all improvements at a sacrifice.

I AM THE MAN!

That was sent here from Chicago to close out this stock. The orders are given me and the "The Law Must Be Obeyed"

MY ODDS are to put everything in this big store on a quick and immediate close out—convert it into cash in the shortest possible time.

This I will do. My prices will turn this community into a seething, scrambling mass of merchandise buyers. In any eagerness to sell out this stock in a limited time I will slash prices right and left. People will flock here because this peculiar upheaval in the merchandise world will give them a great opportunity to save and people are not slow to grasp the significance of a sale like this, and seldom let a chance like it go by.

Come expecting crowds—Come expecting the greatest bargains of your lives. You will not be disappointed. O. HENRY, Chicago Merchandise Adjuster.
