COMMUNISTS AND POLICE MAY CLASH SUNDAY

Demonstration at American Embassy in Paris is Forbidden, But Plans Proceed.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The ministry of the interior today prohibited a communist demonstration at the American embassy, scheduled for tomorrow.

Communists, however, went right ahead with their plans for marching upon the embassy through eight converging streets.

The Sunday demonstration at the American embassy will not be permitted, it was stated to the United Press at the ministry of the interior. No public procession will be allowed. The most rigorous measures will be taken to prevent it. This is taken to mean that if necessary, troops will be used.

Police heads are drawing up plans to throw a cordon around the whole embassy district tomorrow. Thousands of gendarmes and mounted officers will be used.

Police Threw Bomb?

The communists were in an ugly mood today, judging from their newspapers. They charged that police themselves had thrown a bomb which exploded at the mass meeting at the Sallee Wagram last night and slightly wounded sixteen persons. Police deny this, and say the bomb was thrown at gendarmes when they broke up a column of reds starting to parade towards the American embassy, as the mass meeting was dispersing.

Police have secured a description of the man who sent a bomb in a perfume package to American Ambassador Herrick last Wednesday. They say he is a well known anarchist. Sixty letters and resolutions bearing on the Sacco Vanzetti case were received at the embassy this morning. Two threatened the life of Herrick. One was inscribed on black-bordered paper.

Forty policemen paced the streets around the embassy today questioning all who sought to approach.

HE REFUSES TO BORROW, BANK SUES FOR DAMAGES

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Clerks accustomed to read strange assertions in the maze of petitions on file in the circuit court here, rubbed their eyes in perturbed astonishment when the Bank of Commerce and Trust company of Memphis, Tenn., submitted an attachment suit through a local law firm. The petition asks $7,200 damages from a client for refusing to accept a $90,000 loan from the bank.

The plaintiff asks the court to levy against certain securities in St. Louis banks belonging to Ben Walker and his wife, Ada M. Walker, of Tribett, Miss., to be held pending adjudication of the claim.

The Walkers, according to the petition, own 2,240 acres of land in Washington county, Miss., and on Sept. 8, last, applied to the Memphis institution for a loan of $100,000, offering the property as security. The plaintiff investigated the title and agreed to advance the Walkers $90,000, which they intended to use for the purpose of floating a bond issue, the document sets forth.

But Walker, after first agreeing to accept the money, changed his mind and refused the offer, failing to explain his sudden change of attitude, it is charged. The bank was to have received 8 per cent of the amount involved as commission on the deal, and went to considerable expense in investigating the title before approving the application for a loan, the petition alleges.

BULL "SOUSED" ON SILO FODDER, MAKES IT HOT FOR "HOOPEE"

ADAIR, Iowa, Oct. 22.—Duke, a prize bull owned by a farmer near here, attacked an automobile belonging to Mail Carrier Clyde Edwards, it became known today.

The bull was declared to have been under the influence of fermented silo fodder and staggeringly planted himself in the center of the road. When the car came up he let drive with both horns and then veaved down the road, leaving a badly battered "flivver."

MEXIA BLOCK BURNS; THIRD FIRE IN WEEK

Guests Leave Two Hotels in a Hurry; Water Runs Out.

MEXIA, Oct. 22.—The third fire inside of a week swept practically an entire block here early today, causing a loss estimated at close to $50,000. The fire started from a gasoline station in the Hickman cafe and spread rapidly.

The Clifton hotel suffered the greatest loss, which was estimated at $20,000. Several guests in the hotel at the time of the blaze are reported to have escaped with their personal effects.

Other buildings burned included another frame hotel, a tent hotel, a confectionery and fourteen tent homes. Owing to a lack of water power the fire department was badly handicapped.

PAPER SCOLDS ENGLISH FOR BAD MANNERS

LONDON, Oct. 22.—"Why We Are Disliked" is the caption for an editorial in the Manchester Guardian, which says: "As a nation we do really wish to be civil to other people, but it seems extraordinarily hard to get all our agents to be civil in our behalf, even when we stand to lose enormously by their incivility."

"At the beginning of the war, when William Redmond's remarkable power over Irishmen brought us an offer of their help in the field, some government office—believed to be the war office—mustered enough boorishness to freeze off Irish recruiting by a series of petty discouragements and insults to the new Roman Catholic Irish soldiers. We paid pretty heavily for that piece of rudeness, although a very large number of nationalist Irishmen joined the army in spite of the war office, and did extremely well in the war."

"The latest triumph of diplomatic discourtesy done in our name is now said to be gaining numerous recruits for an anti-English party in America, which was only too strong already."

"Congress very handsomely and gracefully decided to confer the American Congressional Medal for valor on our unknown warrior, and Gen. Pershing was instructed to place it on the grave in Westminster Abbey. This symbolic act was one of those spontaneous gestures of sympathy and comradeship which no decent human being receives with anything but reciprocal warmth."

"But either the war office or the foreign office, or the two between them, seem to have accorded to the American offer the reception which in the first months of the war, commonly greeted public-spirited people here who offered steam yachts to the admiralty or divisional training grounds to the war office."

"Instead of sending an obvious answer instantly, our officials fell into one of their accesses of meditation and internal correspondence, as if America's letter were an application from one of our private soldiers for a refund of five shillings, improperly deducted from his pay last year. Today we get explanations and apologies. They are not badly done, especially the latter of the two, but why create the need for them?"

TWENTY BILLION TO EX-SERVICE MEN, UTAH SENATOR PREDICTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Former service men will cost the United States government $20,000,000,000 within the next twenty-five years, said Senator King, of Utah, today to the United Press.

Most of this great sum, King said, would be paid out of the treasury in some form of pension for the victims of the world war. Bonuses and various kinds of allowances and benefits will make the remainder, he said.

BABE CANCELS TOUR

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 22.—A wire cancelling the engagement of Babe Ruth's team here Sunday was received today by local American Legion officers who were sponsoring the game, from Ruth's booking representative.

ELECTION NOT EXCITING, EVEN TO CANDIDATES

One Hundred and Twelve Votes Cast at Noon, Three by Women.

But little interest is being manifested in the special city election today, judging from the light vote cast in the forenoon at the Elm street fire station. At 12:30 o'clock only 112 votes had been cast for the four candidates seeking the offices of finance and street commissioners. Three of the voters were women.

No campaign work was in evidence around the poll or in other parts of the city and the candidates were apparently not letting the outcome of the election excite them any. One slept through the greater part of the forenoon. In the absence of posters and cards the names of the candidates were made known to the voters only on the ballots.

The polls will close promptly at 7 o'clock tonight and by the time the last ballot has been cast the election of Raymond Teal or J. M. White as finance commissioner and I. N. Roúsh or Dr. C. O. Terrell as street commissioner will be known.

ROW OVER KLAN MAY BREAK UP LEGION POST

HOUSTON, Oct. 22.—Thomas Dismuke Post No. 52 of the American Legion, located here, was disrupted last night and threatens to be sent to pieces by the Ku Klux Klan question, according to R. R. Lewis, post commander.

The trouble arose at a meeting last night when the post passed resolutions accepting $45 from the Ku Klux Klan, offered to buy bugles for the local post drum and bugle corps. Today all but two of the local executives resigned, Lewis announced. The quitting officials said they were not in favor of taking gifts from the Ku Klux Klan and wanted to have nothing to do with Klan sympathizers, according to Lewis.

WOMAN WANTS CASH ON WARRANTS ISSUED IN 1862

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Fannie A. McCall of Baltimore, Md., today told State Treasurer G. N. Holt and Comptroller Lon A. Smith that she would make efforts to collect from the state on seven registered treasury warrants issued by the state of Texas in 1862 to her father, James S. Wells, for $100 each, for services rendered by Mr. Wells while an instructor in the state school for the deaf. The warrants bear 6 per cent interest, and Mrs. McCall figures that their present value is $2,500. Mrs. McCall said that she did not know of the existence of the warrants until about two years ago. In the opinion of Texas officials, it will be necessary for Mrs. McCall to take her claim to the legislature, as there are no funds available for the redemption or payment of such warrants.

FEDERAL AGENT RESIGNS.

DALLAS, Oct. 22.—F. W. Spencer, chief agent in North Texas for the department of justice, with headquarters here, announced his resignation today. He will resume the practice of law in Dallas.

Spencer's place will be taken by Charles E. Brennerman, former division superintendent of the department at Los Angeles.

REDUCTION OF 16 PER CENT MADE ON GRAIN

Manufactured Products Also Get Lower Rate, Effective in Month.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—In a sweeping decision involving the entire railroad situation, wage scales and the depression in finance and industry, the interstate commerce commission today ordered freight rates on grain, grain products and hay throughout the western half of the United States reduced an average of approximately 16 per cent.

The commission also found present rates on coarse grain, including oats, rye and millet, to be unjust and unreasonable and ordered them to be fixed generally at 10 per cent less than the tariffs set for wheat. The railroads were directed to make the reductions as soon as possible and not later than Nov. 20, 1921.

Rates on commodities recognized as products of the named grains, including flour, feed and finished or semi-finished manufactures, the commission held, would be unjust and unreasonable unless reduced to a relationship corresponding to the new rates on raw materials.

The decision, though chiefly affecting products of the West, would make rate reductions necessary in certain portions of the eastern territory.

CONTINUANCE OF IRISH MEET UP TO DE VALERA

LONDON, Oct. 22.—With the Irish peace negotiations trembling on the brink of disaster, Michael Collins, leader of the Sinn Fein army, and one of the delegates, went to Dublin today to confer with Eamonn de Valera.

De Valera, it was believed, would decide whether the negotiations would be broken off due to the differences that have arisen between the negotiators.

IOWA TOWN, 50 YEARS OLD, TO HAVE FIRST SUNDAY SCHOOL

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Oct. 22.—There is great excitement in the town of Walcott, Iowa, twelve miles west of Davenport. For the first time in its history the community has a Sunday school. It starts with twenty-six pupils, members of the Camp Fire Girls.

Walcott is unique in its religious sentiments. It has not a single church. Since the founding of the town more than fifty years ago its citizens have steadfastly refused to support or even tolerate a church.

Yete Walcott is a town of fine homes, schools and banks. It recently erected a public auditorium where chautauquas and other educational affairs are held. Until a few years ago it had the distinction of being the wealthiest city per capita in the United States.

BANDIT'S ROB CRIPPLE.

POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., Oct. 22.—Beaton and robbed by two bandits, Claude Wilkes, a crippled farmer, was carried a distance from his wagon and crutches and left to crawl back to his wagon, giving the highwaymen sufficient time to escape.

WOMAN MILKING, HIT BY ROCK BLASTED 1-4 MILE OFF

POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., Oct. 22.—Mrs. David Casey was fatally injured here while milking a cow on a farm near here, when a rock from a dynamite blast by a road crew struck her. She was more than a quarter of a mile from the scene of the blasting.

THE WEATHER.

Tonight, fair; colder in north portion. Sunday, partly cloudy.

OUTA LUCK!

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The gradual withdrawal of American troops from Germany is expected to begin within two weeks, it is announced, and will involve a reduction of American forces there to about one-half of the present force of approximately 13,500 officers and men. The movement is not expected to be complete until the middle of March.

EX-EMPEROR AFTER THRONE OF HUNGARY

Reaches Burgenland by Airplane, and Marches with Army on Budapest.

VIENNA, Oct. 22.—Former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary, arrived at Oedenburg, Burgenland, Friday afternoon in a plane from Switzerland, according to an Oedenburg message today, and is reported to be proceeding toward Budapest, escorted by Oostenburg troops.

A provisional government, the advice state, has been formed in Burgenland in the ex-emperor's interest under Count Julius Andressy, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister. The Oostenburg forces immediately went over to Charles upon his arrival at Oedenburg and he was proclaimed king, according to the message.

Princess Zita went to Oedenburg in the airplane with her husband, the dispatch stated.

PARIS NOT UNEASY.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The Hungarian government will act as it did on the occasion of the previous attempt of Charles to resume the throne, according to information obtained here today, and will take measures to expel the former monarch from Hungarian territory, it is declared.

HOBO BANDIT GETS THREE PENNIES FROM HOLDUP ON FREIGHT

DENVER, Oct. 22.—Three pennies was the size of the haul made by the mysterious "hobo bandit" on a Burlington freight train, when he held up and robbed John J. Laidner of Kansas City, Mo., one of a gang of hoboes traveling toward Denver, according to a report made to Frank C. McCabe, city detective at the union station.

The holdup is believed to be the same that has terrorized "knights of the road" in northern Colorado during the last three weeks, taking $200 from one man and $65 from another. His specialty is climbing aboard freight cars and fraternizing with tramps until he ascertains that one or more of them have money, when he pulls a revolver and forces them to deliver.

Frank Goad, special agent for the Burlington, and George Evans, head of the special agents' force of the Union Pacific, have made arrangements to co-operate with Sheriff Frank N. Hall and deputies of Greely in a widespread search for the mysterious bandit.

The agents will ride freight trains disguised as tramps and will be heavily armed. It is hoped to bag the stranger within the next few days.

NOT ONE RETURNED FROM WAR.

One of the most tragic of England's war memorials has just been unveiled in the village church of Holywell, Lincolnshire—a simple tablet of white stone let into the church wall. It only contains the names of twelve villagers killed in the war, but the tragedy is emphasized by the statement that these twelve were the village's entire fighting strength.

With a population of less than 100, Holywell mustered twelve men of fighting age and they went with the first rush of recruits for Kitchener's army. Not a man came back. Five fell at Gallipoli, two at Jutland and the remainder in France.—Milwaukee Journal.

DALLAS WOMAN FATALLY SHOT BY STRANGER

DALLAS, Oct. 22.—Mrs. C. E. Gunn is probably fatally wounded as the result of two gunshot wounds sustained shortly after noon today. The woman was found lying in a semiconscious condition in her front yard here and removed to the hospital. Mrs. Gunn was shot twice with a shotgun.

She declared to surgeons that she was shot by a white man who approached her while she was washing in the rear of her yard.

DENVER WOMAN ASKS LAW FOR PERMISSION TO SHOOT HER RIVAL

DENVER, Oct. 22.—"I want your permission to shoot a woman to death."

District Attorney Philip S. Van Cise jerked the telephone receiver from his ear, rubbed his ear, put the receiver back, and gasped into the transmitter:

"What's that?"

"I want your permission to shoot a woman to death," a woman at the other end of the line repeated. "She's just telephoned me that my husband is in her room and she wants me to divorce him so she can have him. I want to go down there and kill her."

Van Cise received the telephone request for "permission to kill" while at his home. He declined to make public the name of the woman.

She insisted, he declared, that no jury would convict her of murder under such circumstances but she wanted some assurance from him that she would be justified in taking the life of the woman who, she alleged, had vamped her husband away from her.

"It took me about twenty minutes to talk her out of it," Van Cise said Tuesday.

COTTON PALACE OPEN FOR THIRTEENTH TIME

WACO, Oct. 22.—The Texas Cotton Palace opened its thirteenth annual exposition here today under favorable auspices. Governor Neff arrived this morning and will take part in the festivities this evening.

QUIT PLACES AT NOON TODAY AS SCHEDULED

Armed Guards Go in as Strikers Go Out; No Excitement or Disorder.

HOUSTON, Oct. 22.—The strike on the International & Great Northern became a fact at noon today when more than 200 trainmen in the yards at San Antonio, Houston and Palestine quit work as the whistles blew for noon.

Union officials said that several hundred would be out before nightfall but the total would not be known until reports from all points on the road were heard from. The trainmen who struck included brakemen and switchmen. Approximately 500 men of this union are employed by the road.

"The strike is now on I suppose," D. G. Goforth of Palestine, general manager of the road, said here today as the noonday whistles sounded. From all indications Goforth was correct. With the sounding of the whistles in the railroad yards here, yardmen and switchmen began checking out.

"Passenger trains will be operated just as if nothing had happened and there are enough experienced men remaining with the company that we can get along all right," Goforth said. "When we get well under way without the yardmen and striking switchmen, we will endeavor to resume operation of freight trains and yard activities."

All Out.

"There are 104 men out now and that completes the list," Geo. Nellice, chairman of the local trainmen's union, said as he finished checking a list of members of his union.

At 12 o'clock all switch engines were in the round-house and the steam had begun to die down. As the last of the men walked from the yard, fifty armed guards took their places at intervals in the yards, carrying their rifles with an air of authority.

At headquarters of the railroad clerks it was announced by T. D. Armstrong that all clerks employed at the local yards would close their desks and "lay off" while the other men were out on strike.

Trouble Not Expected.

No trouble is expected from the striking men, according to Goforth, who said: "All the union chiefs seem very friendly and have promised to try to avert any disturbances."

At the railroad yards about half an hour before the strike was scheduled to start, switch engines were puffing up and down the yards, bumping cars on the sidings and putting everything in shape for the walkout.

Engineers and brakemen showed signs of pleasure as they put their engines "to bed," as one striker called it. The final "high sign" was signalled by the brakemen and engineers. They banked their fires and walked to Nellice to be checked off.

There was no demonstration of any kind before or after the men went out. In the neighborhood and on street cars passing the yards, policemen were stationed. There had been no announcement of their being stationed there but their presence was unquestioned by the men, who went their way.

LABOR BOARD DEFIED.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 22.—The initial step in the threatened nationwide railway strike was taken today without any interference by the brotherhood chiefs, so far as could be learned. Despite the warning of the railway labor board in Chicago, that pending the joint meeting of union leaders and railway executives with the board there Wednesday, employees should not leave their jobs. Trainmen on the International & Great Northern railroad went out at noon, as planned.

The brotherhood chiefs explained that the Texas situation was entirely in the hands of the local union officials there, they having been given permission several days ago to strike on Oct. 22. This was in keeping with the chiefs' attitude that they had no power to withdraw the strike call, which becomes generally effective Oct. 30, except in case of a complete settlement.

PECANS.

"Why should any young man worry about the future when he can plant pecan trees?" was the question hurled the other night by a plump, reddish-faced gentleman with sunflower-colored hair, who is widely known in fraternal activities and is one of the outstanding props on the shady side of Main street.

Government experts do say there is money in pecan raising, if one has the patience to wait ten or fifteen years for returns. After that, the returns come with such ease that it really seems like unearned increment, so to speak, and on paper it is highly appealing. It perhaps would be just as easy in practice if one would set his mind to it.

The gentleman above referred to says this is a fine pecan country and even if one weren't looking for a life of ease and affluence in the years to come, it would be advisable to plant them. A few trees will give a family all the pecans it can use, even if there is no desire to raise them for market. Maybe he is right.

Of course it is conceivable that the pecan industry would descend into the dumps if everyone were doing it. But there is no danger in that.
Not all of the farmers fall for it, and with the cityward drift of population, somebody is going to harvest pecans for somebody else. It's just like the poultry business or any other production of foodstuffs. It can never be overdone for long at a time.

If Horace Greeley lived today, his injunction probably would be: "Get some land, young man, and raise something. Somebody will want to buy it." After all, why should man work for a salary when nature is anxious to work for man without salary?

perience knows that.—Houston Post.

T. & P. HEAD ASKS CITIZENS FOR AID IN COMBATTING R. R. STRIKE

The railroads of the country have made between 4,000 and 5,000 reductions in freight rates during the past year and any other reductions in freight rates are simply out of the question unless the roads are permitted to pass them on in wage decreases, according to a statement issued by J. L. Lancaster, president and co-receiver of the Texas & Pacific, through the local office. Lancaster, who has just returned from Chicago where he attended a conference of railroad executives, states that the road will win out in the event of a strike if they can obtain the moral and active support of the public whom they serve. This support, declared essential by Lancaster is mainly the supplying of labor to take the place of the strikers and protection of railroad property. The statement follows:

"Between January, 1917, when through passage of the Adamson Act the government took charge of railway employes' wages, and July 1, 1920 when the governmental authority made the last increase, labor costs of the railroads jumped from $1,468,000,000 annually to $3,700, 000,000, an increase of $2,232,000, 000 annually. In the light of these figures it is manifest that the recent 12 per cent reduction in wages authorized by the labor board in no sense meets or solves the problem of labor costs, and in no way makes it possible for the roads to make any reduction in their revenues, and any suggestion that this be done, without a corresponding further reduction in wages, is out of the question.

"Right now many roads are paying around 40 cents an hour for unskilled labor when similar labor is working alongside the railroads and could be had by them at 20 cents an hour. Last year the railroads paid unskilled labor alone a total of over $1,800,000,000, and regardless of how desirable it might be to pay this or that schedule of wages, it is evident such costs cannot be paid out of railroad earnings unless the industries which use the roads are capable of meeting such charges.

Rules Are Wasteful.
"Working rules and conditions inherited from federal control and since upheld by the labor board prevent economic operation of the railroads and add to the burden of the public which pays the bill, these rules and conditions preventing the roads from dealing equitably with labor costs in accordance with rapidly changing conditions and the great variety of local conditions which ought to control wages in different parts of the country. It is these rules and working conditions which the roads are seeking to have abrogated.

"In an effort to meet those cases where a hardship was evidently being worked on some particular commodity or industry, the railroads have made between 4,000 and 5,000 reductions in freight rates during the past year, these reductions amounting on some roads to more than the wage reductions so far made, while on many other roads the reduction in wages allowed no net return on operation, but merely provided against a further accumulation of a deficit.

Asks Support.
"In the crisis created by this impending strike, the officers of the Texas & Pacific railroad fully realize their responsibility to the public and will do their utmost to meet the transportation needs of the communities we serve. Just how nearly this can be done if a strike of the magnitude threatened occurs will depend on the extent to which we receive the active support and assistance of the citizens along our line in supplying persons to take the places of striking employes and in fully protecting those who undertake to operate the property from interference by strikers and their sympathizers. Prompt and vigorous preparation should be made for the threatened strike, each community organizing for the purpose of assisting officers of the railway in providing and maintaining necessary train service. With the full support that the public can give, the railways will be able to fill the places of employes who may strike, and if the public will make the fight theirs, as they should, by giving the railways their vigorous active and moral support, the inconvenience suffered will be of short duration.

"Moral support alone will not win tive assistance will be necessary—

L. & G. N. TRAINMEN DEFY LABOR BOARD

strike were formulated by the United States railway labor board today for submission to union heads and executives at the conference here next Wednesday.

The proposition for calling off the walkout starting Oct. 30 will be based mainly on proposals submitted to union chiefs at a conference here early in the week.

Failure of the conference of union heads, labor board members believe, was due to the fact that the executives had not yet agreed to the propositions of immediately reducing freight rates, in accordance with the July 1 wage decrees, and to withdraw from the determination to ask for further wage reductions immediately. Board members believe that if they can get the executives and union leaders together in the same room, and obtain concessions from the employers on these two propositions, the union heads will be forced to rescind their strike call.

GOVERNMENT WILL WAIT.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Decision has been reached by President Harding and his advisers to leave the rail crisis in the hands of the railway labor board until an actual walkout on an extensive scale begins, it was learned today.

If the strike comes, then the federal government will step in and move necessary commodities by whatever methods deemed wise.

RAILWAY IS GUARDED.

By United Press.
PALESTINE, Oct. 22.—Guards patrolled the yards of the International & Great Northern railroad here today in anticipation of the walkout scheduled for noon today.

The strikers' places probably will be filled temporarily by other railroad employes, who will endeavor to keep the trains running until the general strike called for Oct. 30 takes them out.

According to members of the yard-master's force, passenger trains and a few freight trains will continue to operate. They would not say definitely whether these trains would be manned by non-union men or union employes not yet called out on strike.
Only brakemen and switchmen are affected by the strike called today.
Other brotherhood employes will not be called out until Oct. 30.

MORE FEDERAL OFFICERS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Instructions to cover the course of action to be pursued by the federal authorities in Texas in connection with the strike of trainmen on the International & Great Northern railroad, which went into effect at noon, were in preparation this morning.

Acting Attorney General Goff called a conference of high government officials which considered the railroad situation in Texas and formulated the instructions.

These officials said, would probably authorize the district attorney to employ additional United States marshals to assist in the preservation of order, but beyond this, they were inclined to think no action would be taken.

LEAD ON, POSSUM!

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 22.— Failure of an opossum to play up to his name resulted in the finding today of one of the largest distilleries in this section, according to revenue officers.

When attention first was called to the inability of the animal to pursue a straight line of retreat the raiders thought it was ill.

One of them, however, pursuing the rules of investigation laid down in best detective narratives, captured the fugitive and smelled its breath.

The still, erected on a concrete base, had a capacity of 250 gallons.

ARLYE STEPP ALLOWED BOND.

MCKINNEY, Oct. 22.—Arlye Stepp, indicted by the grand jury as accessory to the murder of Hardy Mills, for whose murder his uncle, Ezell Stepp, was given the death sentence Monday by a jury in the Fifty-ninth district court, was Friday released on bond in the sum of $5,000.

ELSIE TO DEFEND FISHERMEN'S CUP

Marty Welch, winner of the International Fishermen's Trophy at Halifax last year, will again take part in the international race as skipper of the Gloucester schooner Elsie. In the trial races off Gloucester Elsie won the title as the fastest in the fisheries of New England. According to Captain Welch the Elsie is a much faster boat than the Esperanto, winner of last year's race.

CIRCUS FOLK CAST ENVIOUS EYES AT CHIEF REYNOLD'S TRICK PONY

Ranger's juvenile population could have almost been ascertained at a glance last night at the circus tent in Nitro baseball park. The tent was packed during the performance with grown-ups and children who viewed with evident delight the Gentry Brothers collection of trained dogs and ponies.

But for the fact that the circus season is drawing to a close, Ranger in all probability would have contributed to the collection of trained ponies and lost her one trained horse,
"Tex," belonging to Chief of Police Eugene Reynolds. Tex, who is a recent arrival from the Cherokee nation was exhibited to the circus management yesterday afternoon in a private performance behind the police station, and made a decided hit.
The circus people were enthusiastic over Tex's line of stunts but explained that the show could make no purchases at this time as it would shortly go into winter quarters and

TURN ON THE LIGHT

OWLS see better in the dark than they do in daylight.
So do bats and one or two other freaks of animal life. But human beings do not.

Yet, it is peculiar how some of us persist in remaining in the dark on the very things that concern us most.

For instance: now more than ever before, we ought to see that every cent we spend buys its full quota of value. Yet lots and lots of folks go blithely along making their everyday purchases with their eyes shut tight.

And it's so easy to be sure you're right.

Spend a few minutes a day running through the advertisements in this newspaper. Then buy the products that have proved up under the spotlight of consistent publicity.

Merchants and manufacturers who advertise invite the inspection of thousands of eyes.

Here in the advertising columns you see products that have made good before the critical audience of buyers. These products are full value products. They

BILL HART SAYS HIS RETIREMENT IS PERMANENT

Famous Gunman of Screen Could Be Multi-millionaire on Offers.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 22.—Strenuous efforts are being made to lure William S. Hart from his retirement, it has become known. The Paramount picture people, through whom all Hart's pictures have been released, have made him an offer for twelve to twenty-four features at a price that would make the actor several times a millionaire. At the same time, the Shuberts are doing their utmost to entice the "two-gun star" onto the speaking stage, guaranteeing him a solid year's run on Broadway in a new western play.

To these offers, so far as known, Hart persists in turning a deaf ear. He says he is through and means it. "It's far better to quit at the height of your popularity, when the public is friendly, than to hang on and wear out your welcome," he says. "I love acting in pictures, but how could I possibly use any more money? Additional wealth would only worry me."

Living on Ranch. Since his retirement, some months ago, Hart has been living on his ranch, not far from Los Angeles. He is writing books of western stories for boys—putting into them his own experiences when, as a boy, his father was a government Indian agent in North Dakota. Hart is unmarried. His household consists only of his sister, Mary; a cook, and a few ranch hands—mostly cowpunchers who had worked with him in pictures for years.

Aside from writing, his favorite pastime is caring for his two beloved horses, "Fritz" the pinto, and "Nig," the black pony. These animals—one or the other of which he rode in all his pictures—have been turned out "to loaf the rest of their days." Mr. Hart rarely goes into the city. He probably leads the simplest life of any millionaire in America.

Besides one picture, "Three-Word Brand," which is now being shown throughout the country, Hart still has two pictures—made before his retirement—awaiting release. He seems firm in his refusal to make any more.

VISION OF GHOSTLY HAND LED TO FINDING OF HUSBAND'S BODY

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 22.—Mrs. John Nagaj, held on the charge of having beaten her husband to death while he slept, told the police that a ghostly hand awakened her on the night of the tragedy and she found Nagaj dying, bleeding from many wounds.

According to her story the hand, not attached to a body, reached for her throat. She screamed, awoke her little daughter, and going to her husband's room found his body.

Police declare the story was invented to obtain the testimony of the child that she was in bed when the attack was made. Mrs. Nagaj formally has been charged with murder.

Two former boarders are being held on suspicion. The finding of a blood-stained overcoat in the room of one and bits of hair on the sleeve of the garment give them grounds to hold him, police say.

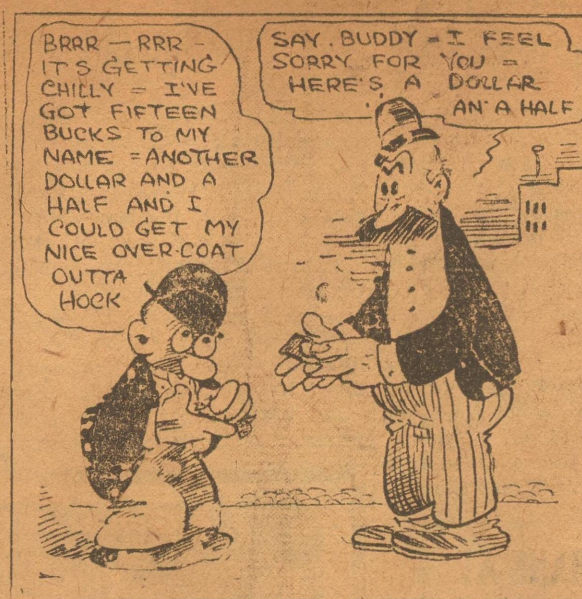

CISCO PASTOR RESIGNS TO MOVE TO DALLAS

CISCO, Oct. 22.—The Rev. J. D. Leslie, who has for the last ten years been the pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, has resigned to accept a call to be the secretary-treasurer of the executive committee of the Presbyterian synod of Texas, with headquarters in Dallas. Dr. Leslie expects to move to Dallas in the next thirty days to take up his new work.

CHICAGO LANDLORDS CAN'T EVICT TENANTS

By Associated Press CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—While John Gierzt was out mending shoes for his four small children yesterday seven bailiffs armed with an order from Mrs. M. Stiglich, wife of the landlord, arrived at Gierzt's home and began to move out the furniture.

Gierzt returned to his home as the stove was being carried out. He hustled to Judge Bernard P. Barasa, of the renter's court and the judge called up Mrs. Stiglich, saying: "John Gierzt is in my chambers. He was moved out contrary to my orders. He has paid his rent and can stay there. See that he is permitted to move back in."

Mrs. Stiglich's answer apparently did not please the judge, for he continued: "You be in court Tuesday when the case comes up and if you give me any more insulting talk you will go to jail." He then addressed Gierzt: "Put in a bill for damages against the landlord for the expense of moving those things back and for any damage which may have resulted from their removal or exposure."

ANOTHER USE FOR CELLARS.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—While she supposed him to be at work, Henry L. Maisch, a bookkeeper, spent the evenings in the cellar of their home, at 6833 Gravois avenue, tapping the telephone wire, according to the petition for divorce filed in the circuit court today by Mrs. Ada F. Maisch. She alleges he was insanely jealous and attempted to listen in on telephone conversations.

DES MOINES TO HAVE CAR SERVICE AGAIN

By Associated Press DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 22.—Federal Judge Martin J. Wade yesterday ordered that street car service be restored in Des Moines immediately upon passage of third reading of a proposed franchise by the city council, which is expected to take place next Monday.

The franchise provides for one-man cars and a sliding fare scale, beginning at 8 cents, reducing as the earnings of the company increase to as low as 5 cents, with ten tickets for 30 cents.

Street car service was suspended here on Aug. 3.

The street car men's union yesterday announced that it had made a voluntary cut of 7 cents an hour in the men's wages in order to get service restored and to assist in bringing about a lower fare. The reduction is from 59 cents an hour to 52 cents.

"BUCKING STRAP" LATEST IN FOOTBALL

Cincinnati university football players have something new to train with this fall. It's called the bucking strap, and it is expected to make the players more proficient at carrying the ball and a couple of tacklers at the same time. Two handles on the strap enables two players to hold back the man with the ball, while he does his best to advance. The photo shows how the strap works.
