FINAL DECISION TONIGHT ON STRIKE

NO CLEW FOUND IN MURDER OF DAKOTA PRIEST

Called to Visit Sick Man and Killed by Roadside; Car Tampered With.

LEADS, S. D., Oct. 27.—The Black hills buzzed with excitement today over the mysterious murder of Father A. B. Belknap, a priest at St. Patrick's for the last three years, and known and liked by hundreds. No trace of the murderer had been found today.

The priest was lured from his parish house, and struck down in the dark on a roadside at the edge of town. A bullet pierced his heart. He had been struck on the back of the head with a blunt instrument. Authorities disagree as to which injury came first.

A young man came to the parish house, and asked the priest to follow him, to administer the last rites of the church to a dying man. Father Belknap tried to start his automobile, but the switch had been tampered with, and he could not start. He started to walk to the west end of town. Half an hour later the priest's body was found after residents heard shots.

Authorities believe someone with an insane grudge against the priest committed the murder.

The body of Father Belknap will be taken to Dubuque, Iowa, for burial.

ARREST ENDS LONG HUNT FOR GIRL'S SLAYER

MADISON, N. J., Oct. 27.—Suspected of hacking Janet Lawrence, 12 years old, to death with a pen knife, after attacking her in Kluxen woods, Frank Jankona, 20 years old, is held in jail here, police announced today. The crime was committed nearly a month ago.

Jankona was arrested late yesterday after Frank McGroarty, an acquaintance of his, told Captain Brex of the Newark detective bureau that Jankona had confessed the crime to him.

"I was with Jankona until noon on the day of the murder," McGroarty told police. "I met him again that night. His shirt and trousers and shoes were splashed with blood."

"He told me he had attacked the little girl, and that he killed her because she recognized him."

Jankona was questioned, but steadfastly maintained his innocence.

"It is a lie, I did not do it," he insisted, as the questions were flung at him.

MOTIVES PURE, WON'T RESIGN, TEXAN'S STAND

A. P. BULLETIN, 3:30 P. M. Eight votes saved Representative Blanton this afternoon from expulsion from the house of representatives, the vote being 203 for expulsion and 113 against, a two-thirds majority being necessary. The house then voted to publicly censure him.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Growing opposition developed overnight in Republican circles to the resolution calling for Thomas L. Blanton's expulsion from the house and started new efforts today to have all factions agree on a resolution of censure.

There was no indication, however, that Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, who introduced the measure for ousting the Texan, was willing to compromise. In urging censure, Republicans and Democrats insist the resolution they sought to offer not only would be of extreme severity in itself but would call for public rebuke of Blanton by Speaker Gillette at the bar of the house.

While informal conferences were under way, Blanton declined to make a statement, announcing that he would answer charges that he had published obscene matter in the Congressional Record later in the day. Several Republican representatives were preparing to speak in his behalf, it was said.

"Children Corrupted." Late in the morning Mondell called up his resolution.

"This vile, black thing, printed at government expense has been sent out to schools, colleges and homes all over the land," Mondell declared, adding "Our children now may be reading language so filthy that one word of it could not be repeated on this floor."

Blanton then took the floor to defend himself.

"With God as my witness," he cried, "I have intended to do no wrong." The words the house objected to in the Record were not his words, Blanton declared, saying he inserted them as "a matter of record" in his fight to help a few employes in the government printing office.

"These employes," Blanton said, "appealed to me for protection of their rights under the constitution, and I did what I considered my duty."

Words language that he inserted in the Record appears in all law statute books, and is exchanged through the mails by all states, Blanton declared.

Tells of Heroism. The Texan told of his hard struggle in early life, how he sold his home once to fight for a cause in congress and read numerous letters and telegrams supporting him.

Blanton scathingly denounced his fellow Democrats in the house, "who are intending to vote against expulsion because they fear I will go to the senate." "I want no support as a matter of politics," he cried.

Declaring some members had come to him with the word he could save himself by apologizing on the floor, Blanton cried:

"I will not apologize. Feeding I have done no wrong, I will take my medicine. I will never buy my seat from you by a surrender of my soul."

Still defying the house, Blanton shouted: "I will never resign."

Substitution of a vote to censure instead of expulsion of Representative Blanton was proposed in the house by Representative Garrett of

TEN MILLION LOOT

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Loot in the mail truck holdup on lower Broadway may total $10,000,000, postal inspectors admitted today, making it the biggest robbery in criminal history. Banking and brokerage concerns already have reported $767,500 of missing securities, and additional reports were being received. Postmaster General Hays, who offered $5,000 reward for each of the three bandits, "dead or alive," was to come here today to direct the investigation.

KANSAS COAL MINE WRECKED BY DYNAMITE

PITTSBURG, Kan., Oct. 27.—The Gray Wolf mine, at Gross, Kan., near here, was wrecked shortly after midnight by two charges of dynamite. One charge wrecked the tippie and the other closed the mouth of the shaft. This was a slope mine, which had not been worked for several days.

Eight men went to work yesterday. They told striking miners that they took the job because they were hungry.

Sheriff Milton Guild was taking precautions today to prevent further violence of this nature, it was declared at his office. Several small mines were reported working today under conditions similar to those at the Gray Wolf.

Hovay's miners' headquarters issued a statement charging the blast was a "frame up."

SPURGIN'S WIFE DENIES BODY IS MISSING BANKER

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Warren C. Spurgin, wife of the defaulting bank president, Wednesday denied that the suicide found in a Miami, Fla., hotel was the missing banker. Mrs. Spurgin said she was convinced her husband was alive.

WEST VIRGINIA MINERS' PEACE OFFER SPURNED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Peace proposals of union miners in West Virginia were cast aside today by the hearing before the senate committee inquiring into the Mingo county mine war.

The proposal was put forward by Frank P. Walsh, the miners' counsel, and Phillip Murray, vice president of the United Mine Workers of America, was met with the flatfooted declaration from the operators that "We'll have no dealings with the United Mine Workers."

NOTED ARCTIC EXPLORER TO LECTURE AT BRECK

BEER SALES BEGIN AT ONCE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Large stocks of real beer now held by brewers, some of which was made in "Pro-Volstead days" can be sold at once under the medicinal beer regulations, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon said today. Mellon said he was taking every means to make certain that the regulations were put into operation at once.

CAMP BENNING, Ga., Oct. 27.—Real shells screamed over President Harding's head and deadly bullets whistled by a few yards away as he watched a dramatic reproduction of an Argonne battle here today.

The deafening roar of battle kept up for thirty minutes while President Harding, with a light rain falling, watched the Twenty-ninth Infantry move in attacking formation toward the opposite hill.

WALKOUT MAY MEAN JAIL FOR UNION LEADERS

Department of Justice Lays Plans for Action If Laws Are Violated.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Railroad brotherhood chiefs may be jailed if they refuse to rescind their strike call, and a tieup of mails and interstate commerce results, it was indicated at the department of justice today.

With the "zero hour" for the threatened rail strike approaching, Attorney General Daugherty has decided that if the walkout develops, he has ample authority to obtain court injunctions restraining any interference with the mails or interstate commerce. Any failure of the union chiefs to obey the injunction would in all probability be classed as contempt of court, and the leaders could be imprisoned. Daugherty has found a precedent for such action was established during the famous Pullman strike in 1894. The United States supreme court then upheld such steps taken by the federal government.

Daugherty said that no action could be taken by his department under present plans until after the strike develops.

The department's plan of action, he said, is contained in telegraphic instructions to District Attorney Hartman at San Antonio, Texas, where the strike of L. & C. N. trainmen is centered. Daugherty has wired Hartman, authorizing him to make public these instructions.

LEAVE TOWN, IS WARNING TO 21 ENID NEGROES

ENID, Okla., Oct. 27.—"You and each of you have lived within the shadow of the law, in and out of courts, long enough. You ceased to labor and produce, preferring to be a burden upon society and a disgrace to your race, until long ago decent and industrious law-abiding negroes closed their doors to such as you."

"No longer will I continue. If you are within the limits of Garfield county within twenty-four hours, the all seeing, all powerful Ku Klux Klan of 1,300 members in Enid will see that you leave. Move on, on the next train."

That, in substance, was contained in a letter to twenty-one negroes of Enid Wednesday followed by a parade of automobiles more than eight blocks long last night, the supposed Klan members going through the residence section where all the negroes live.

The negroes were moving today, some of them having employed taxicabs to leave town while others remained behind to dispose of property. Fifteen men and six women were on the list.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Anna Richey, daughter of a wealthy Wyoming stockman, must spend from one to six years in the Colorado state penitentiary at Canon City, Colo., for cattle stealing as a result of a decision handed down by the Wyoming state supreme court.

Mrs. Richey must go to the Colorado penitentiary because the state penitentiary has not accommodations for women, and the two states have an agreement providing for the accommodation of Wyoming's women prisoners at the Colorado institution.

The supreme court affirmed the verdict of a district court sitting at Kemmerer under Judge J. R. Arnold, nearly two years ago. The sentence of the lower court also is confirmed.

Unless unexpected legal complications intervene it was said here this probably would end one of the most sensational legal fights ever waged in the state.

Accusations of stealing cattle and "working" brands so the stock would pass inspection at their destination in Omaha were made by several prominent cattle raisers around Kemmerer in testimony at the trial.

BOARD MAKES LAST EFFORT TO PREVENT THREATENED TIEUP

Gives Virtual Guarantee of no Immediate Wage Reduction; Tells Unionists Strike on July Wage Cut Will Be Illegal.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Government officials today outlined final concessions the United States railway labor board would make to the two million railroad workers of the nation in an effort to prevent the Oct. 30 strike.

The proposition was made to union chiefs by Ben Hooper, vice president and public representative of the board, in addressing a secret session of the union heads at the Masonic Temple.

Immediately after Hooper presented his program for settlement of the dispute the union meeting adjourned until 1 p. m., when the union heads will meet to formulate their answer.

It took Hooper nearly three hours to outline his plan. Following the meeting, he appeared very optimistic.

"The labor board will not consider any petition for further wage cuts in the near future," Hooper told the union chiefs, the United Press learned.

"All cases regarding rules and working conditions must be disposed of by the board before it would take up the question of any petition for further cuts in wages which railroad executives might file.

"You have the promise of the executives that they will not cut wages without orderly process by the board. If you strike you will be striking merely on the wage cut of last July, which was only a small percentage of the total increases granted during the war."

More than 200 union men were assembled when the labor member arrived. The meeting was arranged by Walter L. McMeninen, labor member of the board, and former member of the trainmen's brotherhood. He did not accompany Hooper into the hall.

There has been much discussion in union railway circles as to the possibility of the railroad labor board putting out an order that the strike is illegal and ordering it called off. Board members would not discuss the report this morning except to say no such order had been issued.

Leaders Pessimistic. While rumors persisted that the labor chiefs met in an effort to find a way out of the Oct. 30 strike, statements by the labor leaders were pessimistic.

"Things look even worse than last night," L. E. Sheppard, head of the conductors' union said. "I don't see how a strike can be avoided."

"It seems that every step to obtain justice for the workers has been taken without success."

Hooper was silent as he went into the meeting. He would not say whether or not he had a definite proposal to make to union members for ending the strike. He hurried into the hall accompanied by A. T. Whitney, vice-president of the trainmen's union.

Only three other members of the board knew that Hooper was going to meet with the railroad union chiefs, so secret were the arrangements for the meeting.

The railroad board's final attitude as discussed informally today, was brought out in these final salient points:

1. It is imperative that the walk-out must not take place.

2. That the walkout, if it materializes, will be in violation of the transportation act and will be recognized as in rebellion against the board's decision No. 147—the July 1 wage cut.

3. That the board will regard the strike, if called for any other reason than the wage cut of July 1, as evidence of a conspiracy to paralyze transportation. The board holds it would be contrary to court decisions, and that the "right to strike" exists only where the strike is called upon grounds set forth in the strike ballots. They refer to statements by the union leaders that the strike ballots was against the July 1 wage cut, but that the men will go out because they also fear further reductions in wages and changes in working rules.

4. That members of the Big Five and the telegraphers must remain at work and rely upon the board to safeguard their interests from further wage encroachments asked by the board.

RUM RUNNING NO JOB FOR WEAK-KNEED MAN

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 27.—Dodging through flotillas of destroyers, playing tag with submarine chasers, cruising close to the breakers, watching for the blink of a light from the shore, signalling "all's well," and cleaning up a fortune on a single voyage—these are some of the experiences of an Atlantic coast booze smuggler, as told to the United Press today.

I & G. N. LIFTS EMBARGO ON THROUGH FREIGHT

HOUSTON, Oct. 27.—The freight embargo in effect on the International & Great Northern railway since Saturday, when about 600 yardmen and switchmen on the road walked out, was partially lifted today by an order from Horace Booth, traffic manager of the road.

In reality the embargo was only loosened, as shipments from other roads were to be accepted, beginning today, from only three points, Longview Junction, San Antonio and Taylor. The last two included shipments from those points to Mexico, according to Booth's order. But consignments from one point to another on the company's main lines and branches were not to be handled. Sixteen freight trains were operated over the company's lines yesterday and last night, it was reported.

Simultaneously with Booth's order, George G. Nellis, chairman of the strikers, issued a statement, saying the embargo had not and could not be lifted. He showed orders from the Southern Pacific announcing that no freight was being sent over the I. & G. N. lines, as a result of the strike of trainmen.

Nellis said reports of freight and switching over the road had been greatly exaggerated.

Applications for jobs continued to flow in, E. G. Goforth, general manager of the road, announced today.

It is said that Hopkins had been in an asylum about 62 years old and had lived in this county thirty years.

Mrs. Obendorfer traced the history of the Indian music down to the "shimmy" dance halls of today.

CONVICT INDIAN OF WIFE KILLING, FINE HIM $1,000

PONCA CITY, Okla., Oct. 27.—Legal procedure, said by local attorneys to set a precedent, was recorded when a jury heard the evidence against Napoleon Buffalo-Ho, a wealthy Indian, charged with killing his wife, returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter and assessed a fine against him of $1,000.

The jury is understood to have been divided, ten to two, the majority favoring acquittal. Unable after several votes to reach an agreement, the fine was finally accepted as a compromise, according to members of the jury.

FLY IS TIRELESS TRAVELER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—That bothersome, obnoxious pest, the fly, is a tireless little traveler, according to experiments conducted by the bureau of entomology of the department of agriculture.

The tests showed that the house fly makes an average journey of five to six miles in the space of twenty-four hours. Upon being released after capture flies would travel as high as 1,000 feet in the air in a few minutes during the experiments.

The ease with which flies travel many miles, contends the bureau of entomology, shows the importance of general sanitary measures to destroy breeding places.

NEXT TWO WEEKS WILL SETTLE FATE OF RUTH

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Babe Ruth, baseball's home run king, will know his penalty for violating the rule against post-season barnstorming by the world's series players in about two weeks, it is learned here. Judge Landis, baseball commissioner, is now preparing his decision, it is understood.

The Judge said today he had seen nothing but newspaper reports of a proposed visit from Ruth to apologize for violating the rule, and in any case Ruth's apology would have no bearing on the judge's decision.

Suspension for a part of the next baseball season was reported to be under consideration as Ruth's punishment a short time ago, but Judge Landis refused to give any indication of his decision in advance of its announcement.

HOUSE DEBATES BLANTON CASE

Tennessee, acting Democratic leader, after the Texas representative had made a dramatic defense of his action in inserting into the Congressional Record matter characterized as objectionable.

The Garrett resolution declared that in offending the house and people by publication of offensive matter in the record, Mr. Blanton deserved "a severe rebuke and drastic censure of the house." It also directed the speaker to reprimand the Texas representative publicly at the bar of the house.

Crowded galleries were on hand when the resolution was brought up, many of the visitors being women. Blanton entered the chamber a moment before the chaplain's prayer and took his accustomed seat on the second row and during Mr. Mondell's speech sat with his hand on his lips, looking in the opposite direction.

Blanton was pale but smiling when Speaker Gillette gave him the privilege of the floor.

"If corridor reports are true," he said, "this will be my last talk in the house."

Mr. Blanton said the usual procedure was to bring witnesses against the accused and for the defense, and added:

"But there is no appeal but a convention in this case, even if my constituents should send me back to this congress."

Referring to publication of the offensive affidavit, Mr. Blanton said:

"With God as my witness I had no intention other than protecting citizens in their rights. There is not an improper word used by me in the printed speech and the sole and only document therein that has improper language in it is the sworn affidavit of a government employe that was filed with the public printer."

There was a request from the Democratic side for Blanton to raise his voice, but he declared he was physically unable to do so.

"I caused all improper words in the affidavit to be abbreviated," Blanton said, and at this point he asked that in justice to his family the remarks other than the affidavit be put back in the record. Mr. Mondell objected and some members applauded. Continuing, Mr. Blanton declared a New York lawyer had informed him that the record was not unimpeachable because of the inclusion of the alleged obscene matter.

SEVEN NURSES POISONED BY DRUGGED CANDY

Helen Rosenfeld Alma Dornfeld

Seven young women, nurses at the West End hospital, Chicago, were on the threshold of death, as the result of having eaten home-made candy, impregnated with cyanide of potassium, one of the most deadly poisons known. The candy had been sent anonymously through the mails to Miss Helen Rosenfeld. Under ordinary circumstances all would have died within a few minutes, but the candy was eaten within the hospital, where physicians were available immediately to administer emetics. It is the belief of the police that a rejected admirer of Miss Rosenfeld sent the poisoned candy. The photo shows two of the victims.

SHRINERS' BIG CABARET-BALL READY FOR SPOTLIGHT'S GLARE

The Gholson hotel was the liveliest spot in town last night, when members of the cast for the Shriners' cabaret-ball gathered for a full rehearsal of the performance set for tomorrow night. Songs, dances and stunts were gone through, while those waiting their turn laughed and chatted and kidded, and traveling men fresh from stopovers in Eastland and Cisco wondered what all was going on and what kind of place this is where folks stay up till after 10 o'clock at night.

The show showed promise. That was certain. And with the lights and gloriously colored rags and other features which will mark its staging, it promises to be a tremendous success if the crowd—that vital third

NO OIL STRIKES MADE IN MACKENZIE BASIN

EDMONTON, Alta., Oct. 27.—No oil strikes have been made in the Mackenzie river basin this year. Winter is closing down, the drilling season is over and prospectors are coming out. The country was believed to be a bonanza oil field, but, if so, its riches remain still hidden.

The only complete drilling rigs that reached the Fort Norman district were those of the Imperial Oil company and the Fort Norman Oil company. The Imperial company brought in last fall the first gusher that caused the oil boom excitement. It concentrated its work this season on a well on Bear Island in the Mackenzie opposite Fort Norman, but so far has struck no flow.

The Fort Norman company drilled a well to a depth of 1,500 feet. A flow of oil had been expected at a depth much less than that, but the supply of casing gave out and work was stopped. Drilling will be resumed next year.

The government recording office at Fort Smith for the filing of claims will be kept open all winter.

The net result of the season's work on the Mackenzie has been valuable experimental work, but the big strikes expected have not been made. The chief disadvantage in the development of the country is the lack of transportation which makes it extremely difficult to get in drilling machinery.

MUTILATED BODY OF WOMAN IS IDENTIFIED

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—With another promising set of clues broken down, the police started afresh today in their efforts to identify the dismembered body of a young woman found last Saturday in a pond at Long Island City, and to trace her slayer.

A "positive" identification of the victim as Bertha Becker, a domestic, made last night by a woman who gave the name of Mrs. Elizabeth Richards of Jersey City, was overturned when the police learned that the address given by the woman was fictitious and that the real Mrs. Richards was ill in a hospital. The woman had advanced a theory that the victim's legs had been severed to prevent identification by means of a German iron cross and the initials "B. B.," which she said, had been tattooed above one of Bertha Becker's knees.

A stained butcher's knife and a nightgown bearing brownish spots found on Staten Island and regarded as possible clues were eliminated when an analysis showed the stains were rust, not blood.

Apparently the only hopeful material the police had to work on today was two shirts which had been wrapped about the victim's head. They bore laundry marks which traced to a Long Island city laundry, but it was found that the records showing to whom the marks had been assigned had been destroyed.

MASKED BANDIT KILLS MAIL CLERK

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Frank B. Adams, mail clerk and guard, was shot and killed by a masked bandit, who entered the Ferry post-office Wednesday morning and escaped with a sack of registered mail, according to the police. The value of the loot has not yet been determined.

HOW LEGIONAIRES CAN GET SPECIAL RATE TO K. C. CONVENTION

American Legion members here who desire to obtain the special rate to the national convention of the legion in Kansas City may obtain their certificates entitling them to the special rate from the American Legion post at Eastland, according to Fred D. Lyon, traveling passenger agent of the Rock Island lines, who arrived in Ranger this morning. Two special passenger trains will leave Fort Worth Saturday night, Lyon said, for Kansas City, carrying Pullmans, tourist sleepers and coaches. More than 600 men are expected to gather in Fort Worth from many parts of the state and to board the specials in that city.

The one-cent-a-mile rate offered to legion members must be obtained on a certificate of membership, Lyon said, as the station agents have to send in these certificates as evidence of their authority for selling the cut-rate tickets. In the absence of a legion post in Ranger Lyon suggested that certificates be obtained through the Eastland post. It is understood that any ex-service man eligible to legion membership may obtain certificate on joining the legion before Saturday.

SHORT LIFE IS PREDICTED FOR NEW BEER RULE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Drys in congress are preparing to jam through the anti-beer bill on short notice as soon as the revenue bill is out of the way. This would invalidate the ruling of the treasury department that beer may be made and prescribed as medicine.

A petition will be circulated asking for the imposition of cloture, under which only brief debate would be permitted. Drys say they have the necessary two-thirds vote to accomplish this, and will be able to prevent a long-drawn-out consideration of the anti-beer bill. Debate already had on the measure is ample, they argue.

The bill already has passed the house, and was approved in the senate in a radically amended form. The house also approved the conference report, but the senate declined to do this, and the vote will be on the report when finally it is forced.

Wets in congress believe, however, that beer is here to stay. They are certain that the anti-beer bill is unconstitutional. There is no more reason to legislate against beer than against whisky, alcohol or wine, they argue, under the terms of the eighteenth amendment, and they confidently predict that the courts will knock out the anti-beer legislation as soon as it is brought up for a test.

RELIGION ADDS CHEER TO LIFE, PREACHER SAYS

Evangelist L. C. Garrison, in charge of the co-operative tent meeting, spent last night in "Knocking the Props Out" from under "excuses"—excuses of man for rejecting Christ. Men may be able to get by on earth by making excuses, the evangelist said, but "What doth it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" The general conception of life, he stated, is that too much has to be given up with nothing in return and that religion causes one to be compelled to wear a long face but that instead man receives more in return than he gives and religion fills him with cheer and rejoicing.

Most institutions, Garrison pointed out, want to take in only the best of men and thereby maintain the standard of the institution but the greatest institution, namely, religion, is one which seeks to bring the very worst of characters into the fold. Some men the evangelist said, make "hypocrisy" an excuse. Hypocrites are found in every walk of life, he declared and should not be allowed to stand between any man and his acceptance of Christ. Their feelings and careless drifting carry men to their eternal destruction, he stated.

Ten new members were received into the churches following the sermon, bringing the total since the revival started to 116, it was announced.

Rev. Garrison will preach tonight on "Billy Sunday and the Bible."

MINERAL WELLS MAY BE REDS' TRAINING CAMP

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.—Mineral Wells, Texas, is expected to be the training camp city of the Cincinnati National League baseball club next spring. President Hermann said today that of the five cities which have invited the team the Texas resort seems best suited. Mineral Wells is about fifty miles west of Fort Worth. The Chicago White Sox trained there three consecutive years.

THE BROTHERHOODS' MISTAKE.

The railroad strike looms darker and more menacing than ever. In fact, for the first time since it was called, happenings justify a prediction that it will occur. Previously, it has appeared to be headed our way, but so far-off that it was not a positive threat.

Now it is upon us. But just as the blackest clouds sometimes fail to produce any great amount of rain or be accompanied by much wind, the strike may not have the paralyzing effect that is intended. Our first gness is that the country will survive, some way or another.

It seems a pity that the brother-hoods should deliberately flout the labor board; more than a pity, to the editor's mind, it is a great mistake.
The unions, during the past decade,
have unquestionably raised the living conditions of the masses. But they have done this by education, by conciliation, by arbitration, and not by exercise of force. Now they abandon the broad highway which leads to success, in favor of a short cut which is rough and rocky and may be bisected by an unseen obstacle, which possibly, though not probably,
may smash the eggs the unions have so carefully gathered. They are choosing battle on the enemy's grounds with the flower of the capitalistic army. There is a well defined campaign in the United States to wreck the unions, and by the railway brotherhoods' acts, it is conceivable that public opinion will bring reinforcement to the management's side, which will be sufficient to turn the tide of conflict. It makes no difference that the railroads also might have flouted the board; the brotherhoods did it first.

America needs the unions. They raise the standard of living for the people. They give the Ford dealer and the Victrola salesman a chance he otherwise would not have. The smaller business man, with instincts of fair play, needs the unions, because they establish a basis of production costs and remove the menace of competition with slave drivers.
But the unions, if they win in strikes,
must do so through pressure of public opinion. The employers have the money, which is war material. And just as in the world war, the side with the most ammunition wins the war,
if the willingness to fight is anything like equal.

The brotherhoods are perhaps not to be blamed in fighting a reduction of wages. The millions of workers of the world know from bitter experience how easy it is for wages to come down, if they ever rise above the plane of bare subsistence. They know from bitter experience that they are as hard to move upward as the rock of Gibraltar would be. They know that the farmer can have a poor crop one year and make it up the next, and the merchant can do the same, (if he doesn't go broke.)
But they also know that their pay does not move up in proportion to the profits of other classes in years of good fortune, and that is the reason they so strongly resist cutting of hard won gains.

GOLDIE DAVIS
INDICTED FOR BRECK MURDER

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 27.—Goldie Davis, held without bond since the killing of Edgar Bullock on Aug. 31, was indicted for murder by the October grand jury before its adjournment yesterday. Her bond was set at $5,000, which probably will not be made.

Fred Skinner, alias Davis, is serving fifty years in the state penitentiary for the murder of Bullock. He was convicted of striking the hammer or hatchet blow which cleaved Bullock's skull and pierced his brain. The Davis woman is charged with complicity in the killing which took place in the shack near the Hamon tracks, where she plied her sordid trade. She was the "star" witness of the ineffectual self-defense plea made by Skinner.

A. B. Muncke, B. G. Mills, A. R.
Pittman, Frank Curtis and J. H. Osborne were indicted for theft over $50 in connection with alleged boiler and engine thefts turned up last week.
Bond was set at $1,000 in each case.

INSTINCT LEADS
INDIANS TO BODY
OF DROWNED YOUTH

KENOSHA, Wis., Oct. 27.—John Jermey and Indian Jack, Apache Indians, known as "professors of the water" because of the number of bodies they have recovered from lakes and rivers, have found the body of Harry Beck, 22 years old, who drowned in Fox river near Wilmot, Oct. 10,
after fifteen minutes of search.

The Indians were summoned when a continuous search by life guards and others failed to reveal the body. Jermey walked to the river near the spot where Beck was drowned.

"I think the body is there," he said to his companion. A few minutes later they brought the body to the surface. The actions of the Indians drew a crowd to the river.

Beck was the son of a prominent Kenosha business man.
"It's the instinct of the Indian,"
was the only comment Jermey made.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 27.—Ordinary dragging methods, combined with ability to see clearly when swimming under water, was given by the university life saving station as the reason for success of certain Indians in locating bodies of drowned persons.

Several years ago Indians located the body of a student after university authorities had given up search.

"There is nothing miraculous about their methods," the university life guards said.

HENRY FORD SUED WHEN
FLIVVER KICKS OWNER

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—What that new Henry did to George "as a result," reads the allegations in a $5,000 damage suit against the Ford Motor company: "He became sick, sore, lame and disordered. Divers of his muscles, tendons and sinews became wrenched, bruised, injured and contused. He suffered great pain and mental anguish and became greatly and permanently crippled."

And yet George M. Brenner told Judge David Thursday the flivver was guaranteed to be sweet and gentle and mannerly at all times. The case was continued to give Ford's attorneys a chance to explain Henry's reprehensible behavior. It balked when George tried to crank it.

DALLAS POLICE
PUZZLING OVER
DEATH MYSTERY

DALLAS, Oct. 27.—Mystery surrounds the shooting in a room here last night of J. E. Watkins, 59.

He was found dead in bed with a bullet wound on the right side of his head. A pistol, with one empty shell, was lying on the bed, but detectives said there was physical evidence that he may have been shot through a window, in the screen of which a hole had been cut.

Footprints also were discovered in a flower bed outside the window.

FRENCH FIND BLIND
CAN'T SUPPORT SELVES

PARIS, Oct. 27.—France counts
among her war heroes 2,300 veterans who will never see the light of day
again, they are totally blind.

The French army was not equipped at the outset of the war with the protective devices known to the American army when it took the field, and her soldiers paid valiantly the price of a bitter experience. The majority of the blind were victims of gas attacks at the time when the gas mask had not yet come into being.

Of the 2,300 blind, scarcely 100 have enough to live on. They have received government training in various trades, but practice has proven the fallacy of the theory current during the war that the blind would be able to earn their living. The French

EUROPEAN HEALTH

FERRASAL CONTAINS MIN-ERALS VITAL TO SYSTEM.

People of wealth spend millions of dollars annually seeking the famous mineral waters of Europe. The rea-excess acids that, if allowed to accumulate, cause 90 per cent of all health trouble.

Ferrasal contains exactly the same elements as these famous mineral waters. It is a perfect acid neutralizer;
it cleanses and purifies the system quickly, thoroughly and without leaving any bad effects. It restores the mineral elements so essential to vigorous health. It keeps the digestive system in order.

If you have indigestion, biliousness,

BIG JEWELRY TO OPEN HERE ON SATURDAY

The Jewel Shop, one of a chain of jewelry stores operated over the country by J. H. Cole, formerly of Dallas, and E. Friedman, formerly of Chicago, will open here Saturday in the P. & Q. building at the corner of Main and Austin streets. The new establishment will not only carry an extensive stock of jewelry, valued at more than $100,000, the owners say, but will maintain an optical department, with a registered optometrist in charge, for the scientific fitting and adjusting of glasses. It is stated that the local store will be among the largest of the chain and modern in every respect.

Cole, who recently moved here from Dallas, on purchasing the P. & Q. building, is the owner of the store. Friedman will be in active charge of the establishment.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED; RANGER MAN IS "OUT"

A Buick roadster, alleged to have been stolen from a Mexia firm several days ago, was recovered here last night in the possession of a Ranger resident who is said to have purchased the machine yesterday morning for $250. The car is being held at police headquarters pending the outcome of a search for the thief by Chief Reynolds and A. M. Worthington of the Automobile Theft bureau of Dallas.

Chief Reynolds and Worthington located the machine here by means of the license plate, which, according to the officers, the thief had never bothered to change. The Ranger man told the police the transaction by which he had obtained possession of the car and supplied a description of the man to whom he paid the purchase money.

KEEP MOVING, OR BILL POSTER MAY USE YOU

Douglas Powers, outdoor advertising man, chugged into Ranger yesterday in his flivver and began posting high-colored lithographs announcing the arrival here Sunday of Jesse James Jr., and his eight-reel picture, "Under the Black Flag," which will be placed on exhibition at the Majestic. From the reputation which accompanied him it will be unsafe to remain stationary on the city streets for any length of time if you object to having a "Black Flag" poster posted on your back, as all inanimate objects are said to offer an irresistible appeal to Powers in his bill posting work.

The advertising man claims to have watched over a dying horse in Chicago recently and then to have pasted a "Jesse James" poster over his ribs as the animal heaved a last sigh, and says he was arrested shortly after on a charge of "cruelty to animals."

TEMPLE—Thomas Meighan in "Cappy Ricks," also comedy, "Bubbles of Trouble."
LIBERTY—Madge Kennedy in "The Highest Bidder," and Century comedy, "For Sale."
MANHATTAN—"Rose of the West," all star cast, and comedy.
MAJESTIC—Alice Joyce in "Her Lord and Master," also two-reel comedy, "Lightweight Lovers."

MANHATTAN.
A man went out to buy a loaf of bread for his wife fifteen years ago. The other day he walked in, put down the bread and said:
"Mother, here's the bread. I've been a long time getting it!"
In that fifteen years the man's family had not heard a word of or from him. When the husband went away his wife waited for him with the devotion of Enoch Arden's Annie. Then came a corroborated report that the man had been killed in Alaska.
Just how most women would act in such circumstances is hard to say; but it is certain that what a woman of honor would do is portrayed in "Rose of the West," now playing at the Manhattan theatre.

MAJESTIC.
The contrast between American customs and those of the English is clearly drawn in "Her Lord and Master," the visualization of a famous play which is being shown at the Majestic theatre last time today. The contrast furnishes much of the humor in the production and gives Alice Joyce a bit of character development that calls forth great skill.

TEMPLE.
Thomas Meighan's new Paramount picture, "Cappy Ricks," which opens at the Temple theatre today, is one of the best vehicles in which the popular star has appeared in a long while. The story has the tang of the sea and is literally crammed with thrilling incidents. For real dramatic action it is the genuine article—the sort that every red-blooded man and woman will enjoy. The love appeal in the story is delightful also.

Captain Bonner is one of the honored Confederate veterans of Weatherford, and was a member of the Twelfth Texas cavalry in which service he had his horse killed from under him and was once wounded and left on the battlefield as dead. The flag was presented to his regiment in 1861. It was made by the ladies of Houston, where the company was stationed. It is of regulation size, with red background and the diagonal bars of blue, on which are the thirteen white stars representing the thirteen states of the Southern Confederacy. It was sent to Captain Bonner this week from Waxahachie.

PARENT-TEACHERS' CLUB MEETING.

The Parent-Teachers' club of the Central school held a very interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon. Quite a good deal of regular business was disposed of. Following the business program, Mr. Harrington, principal of the school, made a talk on "The Educational Value of Play," following the theory that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. In connection with his talk, the value of "first aid" was brought up, and the members of the club were so impressed with this suggestion that they are anxious to have a first aid kit for the school. The cost of this kit is very small, and if anyone interested in the school feels like donating this kit it would be very much appreciated; not only by the parents and teachers, but by the pupils. It often happens that a child is hurt on the play grounds, and by the service of first aid, injuries are often righted that might prove serious if treatment was delayed.

Mrs. Davis and little Miss Weir gave two very interesting readings. The next meeting will be held on Nov. 4.

HALLOWEEN PARTY AT CENTRAL SCHOOL.

A Halloween party, at which everyone is invited to appear in "ghost-like" costume, will be given Saturday night at the Central school, by the women teachers. The regulation Halloween stunts, such as fortune telling, bobbing for apples and other hilarity-making pastimes, will be indulged in. Several booths, dispensing mysterious entertainment at moderate charges, will be in operation. It is announced that the kings and queens of all the goblins will be present to make the occasion sufficiently eerie for all.

All money raised by the entertainment is to be used for the enlargement of the school library. Both grown persons and children are invited to participate in an evening of carnival.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MISS ALAYNE STROUD.

Mrs. R. B. Stroud entertained Tuesday evening in honor of her daughter Alayne's tenth birthday. After two hours of music and various games the children were invited into the dining room, where a beautiful birthday cake of pink and white with ten tiny candles was cut and served with ice cream.

Those present were: Marion Odell, Marguerite Adams, Ernestine Davis, Ottolene Ballard, Gladys Garzar, Ruth Smith, Nellie Saied, Dorothy Outlaw, Sylvia Echols, Evelyn Long, Reba Watson, Doris Russell, Billy Palmer, Clayton Long, Rex Outlaw, Jr., Lowell Gandy, Thomas Palmer, John Mc Palmer. Meses. Robert Stafford, Clyde Davis, Rex Outlaw and Earnest Davis assisted in making the occasion an enjoyable one for the young people.
