DUAL CONFERENCE TO END STRIKE

R. R. EXECUTIVES AND UNION CHIEFS SUMMONED TO MEET WEDNESDAY

THOUSAND OFFICERS GUARD U. S. EMBASSY FROM RED PLOTTERS

French Officials Say Terrorists Have Come to America to Make Trouble.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—One thousand policemen will guard the American embassy and the residence of Ambassador Herrick tonight, to prevent a threatened march of communists and a demonstration against the United States in favor of the release of Sacco and Vanzetti, communists convicted of murder in Massachusetts.

Steel blinds will be drawn at the embassy and Herrick's Rue de Messines home, and armed guards will prevent communists who are to hold a monster mass meeting at the Salle Wagram, from approaching either building.

Threats Made.

Hundreds of threatening letters of protest against the sentence passed upon the convicted communists continued to pour in through the embassy mails today. Blowing up of the building in which the passport office and the reparations committee are housed was threatened in one letter, and extraordinary precautions are being taken.

Detectives working on clues connected with the bomb outrage at Ambassador Herrick's residence Wednesday evening had today traced the package in which the bomb was mailed to a Paris postoffice. A clerk there remembered receiving it, but was unable to recall the appearance of the person leaving it.

Police announced today they believed an American was responsible for the attempted assassination of the ambassador.

A letter, four newspaper columns in length, addressed to President Harding, regarding the Sacco and Vanzetti trial, was published today in the Journal de Peuple.

Trouble Raisers Cross.

French police officials asserted today that more than 100 members of the Young Communist had succeeded in entering the United States in the last two months, for the purpose of causing trouble if the two Italians, Sacco and Vanzetti, were executed for the murder of which they were convicted in Massachusetts last summer.

Many of these men, the officials said, had applied for passports to the United States consulate and had been refused.

Police authorities throughout France were today carefully guarding American consulates and other buildings occupied by citizens of the United States, as a result of a flood of threatening letters received by Ambassador Herrick and Alexander M. Thackara, United States consul general here.

HARVEY GETS LETTERS.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Threatening letters, purporting to come from communists, demanding the release of Sacco and Vanzetti, convicted of the murder of a paymaster in Massachusetts, were received today by Ambassador Harvey.

"MRS. BUFFALO BILL" DIES IN WYOMING

CODY, Wyo., Oct. 21.—Mrs. William F. Cody, widow of Buffalo Bill, died at her home here last night after a long illness. She was 78 years old.

Buffalo Bill died several years ago, and his body was buried on the top of Lookout Mountain, near Denver, Colo., at his request. His widow's body may be buried beside that of her husband.

WIND UNCOVERS INDIAN CHIEF'S GRAVE

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 21. Buried in his canoe and with his steel bow strapped to his body, the body of an Indian chief has been uncovered by the wind at Wallula, Wash., thirty miles from here. The shallow grave was directly back of the present site of the Wallula hotel which has been built for more than forty years.

The body was in almost a perfect mummified condition, and vermilion war paint still plainly discernible on the face. An earthenware pot of paint and many beads and other relics were also found.

ARMORED CORSETS TO BE WORN BY POLICE ON DANGEROUS MISSIONS

In the future when any member of the New York police department embarks on a particularly dangerous mission he will be protected by the latest device in light armor, a steel corset, or bullet-proof jacket. The jacket, invented by Albert Schwartz of New York, is made of Norwegian steel plates, silk and canvas. It weighs only six pounds and has been proven practical in tests conducted in the shooting gallery at New York police headquarters. The jacket deflected a bullet fired at close range. The photo shows Mr. Schwartz wearing his jacket while permitting a bullet to be fired at him at close range.

WHITE MEN RUN AMUCK IN CHICAGO BLACK BELT; KILL TWO, WOUND TWO

By United Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—A moonshine crazed white man, armed with a long butcher knife, ran amuck in Chicago's black belt early today, killing two persons and wounding another. In another section of the belt, two white men stabbed a negro policeman, who attempted to stop an argument in a cabaret. The assailants escaped. Police reserves and plain clothes men were held in readiness to rush to the belt, the scene of the race riots of over a year ago, in case feeling ran high because of the crimes.

Cuts Woman's Throat.

Daisy Jackson was the first victim. Witnesses said they saw a white man follow her into an alley. Screams were heard and the woman was found dead, with her throat cut. Before search for the slayer was organized, it was reported to the police that a man of the same description had cut the throat of Louise Franklin. She was fatally injured. Later the same man attacked Mannie Williams, a hot tamale vender, and killed him.

Following Daisy Jackson's murder, her sister, Susanne, 8 years old, was missing and has not yet been found.

It was feared by police that the murderer had mutilated and hid her body. Policeman Stabbed.

Miles Sylvester Brown, patrolman, was stabbed by two white men in a cabaret shortly after midnight, when he attempted to stop an argument between the men and a white woman. Police said this case had nothing to do with the three other stabbings.

TWO NEGRO WOMEN SLAIN AT KANSAS CITY

By United Press.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 21.—The bodies of two murdered negro women were found hidden at different places in weed clumps along roads in Argentina, a suburb, by police here today.

The bodies of both the women, Mrs. N. B. Grady and Mrs. Hattie Bailey, had been mutilated with knives.

The police said this was the sixth or seventh of such cases found here in the last few weeks. Recently the body of a negro girl was found partly burned, it was stated at police headquarters.

BONDS MISSING FROM CLEBURNE BANK'S SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES

By United Press.

CLEBURNE, Texas, Oct. 21.—Further investigation today indicated that more than $500,000 in securities and Liberty bonds are missing from the safety deposit vaults of the National Bank of Cleburne.

The city of Cleburne and A. J. Wright, business man, are the heaviest losers. It was reported that the city faced a loss of $77,000 in bonds. Forty-six thousand dollars in securities were missing from Wright's deposit box.

S. D. Norwood, president of the bank, left the city Saturday. His whereabouts are unknown. A warrant, charging him with theft of more than $50, has been issued.

Bank examiners have sealed the safety deposit boxes following their investigation, and would not make public any statement. Department of justice representatives were on the scene today.

Norwood left a wife and children here. Mrs. Norwood declared she knew nothing of her husband's disappearance.

After nearly three weeks spent in preliminary work, ground was broken for the new Texas & Pacific station this morning and the first car loads of material are expected here in the next few days. Since Oct. 4, the date set for starting construction of the building, the time has been spent in removing the old Pullman and team tracks from the site, in constructing a new Pullman track and obtaining elevations. Wherever possible, local labor will be employed in the work by the contracting firm of Henger & Chambers, it is stated. Gravel for the platform and other concrete work will be purchased locally if the proper arrangements can be made, Superintendent Childs, in charge of the work states.

R. G. Smith, head of the R. G. Smith Plumbing company of Fort Worth, plumbing contractor for the new station, was in the city this morning conferring with City Secretary George Hemmingson on ordinances and regulations effecting plumbing installations here. Smith drove through from Fort Worth in his car and left shortly for Cisco, where the plumbing contract for the high school is to be let today.

Four University of Chicago students were instantly killed and one fatally injured when the automobile in which they were riding and a freight train crashed near Milford, Ill., last night.

The students were on their way to Princeton, N. J., to attend the football game between the University of Chicago and Princeton tomorrow.

FOUR STUDENTS KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

By United Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Four University of Chicago students were instantly killed and one fatally injured when the automobile in which they were riding and a freight train crashed near Milford, Ill., last night.

The students were on their way to Princeton, N. J., to attend the football game between the University of Chicago and Princeton tomorrow.

UNION CHIEFS REJECT LABOR BOARD'S PLANS

Board Says Another Cut Would Not Be Effective Until Next Fall.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Lack of any proposition by the railroads for a suspension of the railroad strike made it impossible to accept the plan offered by the United States labor board, it was said today in union circles.

The strike authorized provides only for ending the strike presumably after a settlement which union leaders have maintained must involve more than the question of the July wage reduction, on which the strike was technically called.

The board in its session Thursday afternoon made three proposals to the presidents of the Big Four brotherhoods and the Switchmen's union. They were:

1. The railroads to make a reduction in freight rates corresponding to the wage reductions of July 1, less such reductions as have already been made since that date.

2. The roads to refrain from asking the board for further wage reductions until the last cut had been translated into rate reductions.

3. The unions to suspend or withdraw the strike order.

These proposals made no mention of overtime, and other rules formulated under federal control, which the employees seek to retain. The brotherhood chiefs declare their strongest fight in any strike settlement will be made on these rules.

The five brotherhoods agreed to accept the first two proposals but declared they had made no arrangements for suspension of the strike and any settlement must be made before Oct. 30 or the walkout would automatically become effective.

No Cut for Year.

The board, it was reported today, assured union leaders that the railroads could not get a decision for months, even if they filed their proposed request for a 10 per cent reduction immediately.

Cases now on the docket would prevent taking up the railroad's application before next March and the bulk of the testimony naturally to be expected in a case of such importance would probably be heard in the next few months, making it highly improbable that the roads would get an answer before next August or September.

The proposals submitted by the

STRIKE SUMMARY

Following are the strike developments of the day:

Chicago—The railroad labor board, having failed in its conference last night with the brotherhood leaders, sends its report to President Harding. The eleven "standard" unions continue their meetings in an effort to reach a common agreement on steps to be taken. Managers of western roads meet to discuss plans to keep the roads in operation in case the strike materializes.

Washington—Government officials are awaiting the report from the labor board before taking its next step in an effort to avert the strike.

Cleveland—Brotherhood chiefs return to headquarters and resume preparations for the strike.

St. Louis—Managers of southwestern railroads meet to arrange their program for operation of the roads in case of strike.

San Antonio—Six hundred members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen on the International & Great Northern are prepared to walk out at noon tomorrow. This is the first union authorized to go out under the strike orders.

COMMISSIONERS WILL BE NAMED TOMORROW

Two Vacancies to Be Filled and Four Men Offer Selves for Places.

The special election called to fill the vacancies existing in the offices of finance and street commissioners will be held tomorrow at No. 1 fire hall on Elm street, with E. J. Barnes in charge. None of the four candidates for the offices have made an active campaign, but their friends and all others interested in the welfare of the city are expected to turn out a heavy vote.

Raymond Teal is opposing J. M. White for the office of finance commissioner and I. N. Roush is opposing Dr. C. O. Terrell for the office of street commissioner. No special platforms have been announced by the candidates other than if elected they will give the affairs of the city their earnest attention and in every way work for the interest of Ranger.

The election will be in charge of E. J. Barnes, president; A. F. Hartman and J. F. Connell, judges; Karl Jones, L. H. Hagaman and J. A. Pitcock, clerks.

Several matters, including the election of a police chief are being held up until the vacancies on the commission are filled. Chief Reynolds is expected to be a candidate, but it is not known whether Luther Davenport, who was discussed for the position, will again apply.

MORMONS MUST SUPPORT PLURAL WIVES, RULING

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 21.

—Any members of the Mormon church who have plural wives still living should be compelled to support them, declared Judge Page Morris, Minnesota federal judge, who temporarily is presiding in the federal court here during arguments in a case involving the plural wives of John Beck, deceased Utah mining magnate. Mormon history, the former and present extent of the practice of polygamy and the testimony of high church officials and Utah capitalists are of chief interest at the hearings.

ROBBER DEFENDS TITLE.

HAMILTON, Ontario, Oct. 21.—A robber, who was foiled in an attempt to rob the Bank of Hamilton yesterday after a pistol duel with an official of the institution, tried his fortunes again today with better success.

SAYS WALKOUT IS DEFIANCE OF BOARD'S ORDERS

Both Sides Are Forbidden to Make Changes in Present Status.

By United Press.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Railroad executives and union chiefs were ordered to appear before the United States railroad labor board next Wednesday in an effort to avoid the rail strike called for Oct. 30, in an order issued by the board today.

The board, whose efforts to prevent the strike through conference with the union heads alone has failed, announced that it took this step under the transportation act on the ground that the walkout threatened to tie up commerce.

The board stated that strike orders issued by the brotherhood chiefs were in violation of its rulings of July 1, which cut wages 12 per cent.

A strike vote of the railroad employees was taken on the July 1 decision.

Chiefs Must Explain.

Brotherhood chiefs were told they would have to explain at the hearing Wednesday why they should not be held in violation of the board's decrees for calling the strike.

The board's statement said that the whole matter of the dispute was thrown before it when the brotherhood chiefs and a committee of executives were unable to agree at a conference held here last week.

Walkout Forbidden.

The men were directed to stay at their posts until after the conference. This, it was believed was aimed at the strike on the I. & G. N. railroad of Texas, the employees of which had been ordered to walk out tomorrow morning on instructions from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

The carriers were also told to maintain the present status of wages of their roads and keep in normal operation.

Each brotherhood chief and railway executive will be ordered to attend the conference in a telegram which will be followed by a copy of the board's resolution.

Closely following the action of the railroad board, F. H. Grable, president of the Maintenance of Way Workers, announced that strike plans had been completed and that his organization would issue a statement to the public late today.

UNION MEN AGREE.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21.—The brotherhood chiefs will attend the joint conference with railroad executives and the railway labor board in Chicago on Wednesday.

GILMORE URGES CUTS.

AUSTIN, Oct. 21.—An immediate and horizontal reduction in all freight and passenger rates is urged by Clarence E. Gilmore, member of the Texas railroad commission, in a telegram sent to the interstate commerce commission today.

PACKERS DISTRIBUTE MEAT.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Chicago packers today began storing fresh meats for emergency use in the event of a railroad strike. Preparations are being made to stock strategic distribution centers throughout the country to the maximum capacity.

I. & G. N. TRAINMEN GO OUT TOMORROW

By United Press.

PALESTINE, Texas, Oct. 21.—Indications today were that between 700 and 800 trainmen on the I. & G. N. railroad will walk out here at noon tomorrow, in compliance with the strike call issued by union headquarters.

Although union leaders had not completed their plans for the strike early today, it was said on good authority that practically all of the trainmen were in sympathy with the strike order, and would quit their jobs at noon. Members of other labor organizations on the I. & G. N. will remain at work until 6 p. m. Oct. 31. The strike will be directed by union officials, who will establish headquarters in Palestine, San Antonio, Houston and Fort Worth.

MEN GET ORDERS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Official strike orders from the offices of the Big Four brotherhoods and the

BOILER BURSTS, DRILLER'S WIFE BADLY BURNED

Cold Water Turned Into Hot Boiler Near Olden; Explosion Blows Clothing Off.

Mrs. J. T. Lykins, wife of a driller at Olden, who was badly burned about the face and chest by a boiler explosion Monday afternoon near Olden, was brought to the Ranger General hospital last night, with her sight endangered and otherwise seriously injured. Hospital authorities state that she was out of danger this morning and will recover her sight.

Mrs. Lykins explained this morning that the accident occurred when her husband turned cold water into the heated boiler at a well, which he was drilling on shares, near Olden. Mrs. Lykins was standing in front of the boiler when the explosion occurred. She was knocked down and partially buried in the debris and her clothing was torn from her body by the force of the explosion. Scalding water from the boiler was blown on her face and chest, inflicting serious burns. She received medical attention at Olden following the accident and brought to the hospital here last night when the extent of the injuries to her eyes was realized.

Mrs. Lykins is a member of the Rebecca and of the Order of the Eastern Star at Olden.

SAFE CRACKER'S WEALTHY WIDOW WOULD JOIN HIM

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Chas. Reiser, wife of the most notorious safe cracker in the Middle West, tried to follow her husband in death today, when she attempted to end her life by slashing her wrists and throat with a razor blade.

Mrs. Reiser attempted suicide in the undertaking parlors of Joseph Walder immediately after her husband's funeral. Her condition is serious.

Reiser shot and killed himself with a shotgun his wife smuggled into the hospital, where he was taken after his body was riddled with bullets in an underworld gang war.

Police held his wife in connection with Reiser's death, but she was released later. Reiser was reported to be worth half a million dollars.

NEGRO BOYS WHIPPED; K. K. K. CLAIMS CREDIT

DENTON, Texas, Oct. 21.—A party of men took two negro boys from the city jail at Pilot Point last night and whipped them.

A notice was found on the door of the Pilot Point newspaper, reading, "Yes, we did it, applied the lash. The should be a warning to all loafers and law breakers."

The notice was written on the back of a plain envelope and signed "K. K. K."

The two negroes whipped are believed to have been from Texarkana. Their names were not known.

They were arrested at Pilot Point yesterday after a young girl had seen them enter the home of Sam Norrid.

BREAKFAST FOOD LOOTERS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Two bandits held up a freight train on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, near McCook, Ill., early today, and carried off the contents of one box car in a motor truck. The loot was made up of cereals and grains.

THE WEATHER.

Tonight, fair and warmer. Saturday, partly cloudy; colder in north portion.

Switchmen's Union of North America were being communicated today to railroad employes in the New York district. The order, received late last night, was promptly passed along down the line. Local officials said the work was being expedited in order to forestall probable injunction proceedings by the government.

I. & G. N. CONFIDENT IT CAN RUN TRAINS

PALESTINE, Texas, Oct. 21.—Belief that the International & Great Northern will be able to maintain train service in event its trainmen strike tomorrow was expressed here today by E. G. Goforth, general manager of the road. The service may be abbreviated for a few days, he said, but the road "has enough men who will remain loyal to the company and their jobs to run trains."

CHANGES MADE ON SENATE COMMITTEES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Senator Curtis of Kansas was chosen chairman of the senate rules committee, and Senator Wadsworth of New York, was given a place on the foreign relations committee, under a rearrangement of Republican places on senate committees made today by the Republican committee on committees.

FORBIDS RAILROAD DECLARING OPEN SHOP

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The labor board today ordered the Tremont & Gulf, a sixty-seven-mile long railroad between Tremont and Winfield, Ia., to suspend operation of an order establishing open shop conditions today, and appear at a later date for a hearing to show cause why it should not be held to have violated the board's orders.

The Tremont & Gulf posted a notice, notifying all train and engine service employes that present contracts would be canceled at 6 p. m. today, and road staff shops operated under the open shop plan, subject to rules and regulations made by the company. The employes were ordered to signify their acceptance of the order in writing before 6 p. m. today, and the bulletin stated that those refusing to accept the change would not be called for service in the future.

The board notified the road that a date for the hearing will be set as soon as the employes file a formal complaint.

400 GUARDS SIGNED.

WACO, Texas, Oct. 21.—Special Agents Hunt, of Mart, and Ed Williamson and C. P. Standford of Waco, under direction of Chief Special Agent Fuller Williamson, of Palestine, are rustling about 400 men, to be distributed along the northern division of the I. & G. N. railroad to guard the company's property.

Most of these men were at the station at 11 o'clock today to take the train south. The men will have nothing to do with the running of trains.

board followed closely the advance predictions of terms they would offer.

Harding Notified.
A report of the conference was telegraphed to the President at Washington and both labor leaders and board members feel inclined that the next step will be taken there.

The union heads before departing for organization headquarters expressed resentment over the meeting with the board. While the adjournment of last night's conference was called by Judge R. M. Martin, chairman of the board, a final adjournment with no plan for the immediate future, it is said the way is still open to again call the union presidents into conference. The conference, it was said, developed only one point on which the conferees were in entire unanimity, although all of the discussions were conducted in an amiable manner. This is taken to indicate that both groups in the meeting are fighting for their lives.

Watch Shopmen.
With failure in what was considered by many as the government's first effort to prevent the strike, attention today again turned to the eleven standard unions, which still are considering a strike, with no definite indication as to which way they will jump.

Their final meeting began today and ends in a few days.

Telegraphers, clerks, signalmen and other groups also are holding conferences today.

Local railroad presidents expressed great surprise when informed of the failure of the labor board conference to bring any definite results. Many were not inclined to believe the first reports to that effect.

FISHERMEN RESCUED AFTER LINER PASSED THEM BY

Captain Albert B. Randall, commander of the United States liner Hudson, has been suspended from duty as the result of his failing to aid three Brooklyn, N. Y., fishermen who were drifting seven miles out on the Atlantic in a disabled motorboat. The men had been drifting seaward more than twelve hours, when the Hudson came up on seeing their signals for assistance. The Hudson, however, failed to stop, sending out a radio telling of the fishermen's plight. More than seven hours after the Hudson had passed them by the three were rescued by the coast liner Nantucket, bound from Boston to Philadelphia. Captain Randall's defense was that another steamer was nearer the men and that he had ordered his wireless operator to notify the freighter to go to the assistance of the men and to explain that he had mails aboard and was proceeding. The photo shows the rescued men, who testified at the hearing. Left to right: Albert R. Tuveri, Edward D. Young and William T. Tuveri.

ORIGIN OF CANCER DISCOVERED BY GERMAN SCIENTIST, IS CLAIM

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A German scientist claims to have discovered the definite origin of cancer, the mysterious disease which has defied science, it was learned here today.

Dr. Franz Kopsch, of Berlin University, has informed his friends in this country that while experimenting with frogs, he accidentally discovered that cancer was transmitted from a larva of the earth, carried by angle worms.

Dr. H. A. Haubold, New York medical scientist, and friend of the Berlin professor, is now directing a series of experiments in New York laboratories, through which it is hoped that a practical method of the prevention of cancer may be found.

EVERY LITTLE THING FRENCH USED IS TAXED

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The French nation is paying many unusual taxes as a result of the heavy burdens imposed by the war. The ministry of finance states that there are 183 persons in the country who have incomes of 1-000,000 francs or more.

Taxes are collected on all and any paper used in the transaction of current business in France. The little revenue stamp is ever present on checks, invoices, promissory notes, bills receivable, bills of lading and receipts.

If one desires to travel to Nice or to any other points in France, besides paying 130 per cent more for his fare than he would before the war, he will have to pay 10 per cent for a government tax and a neat little stamp on his berth ticket in the sleeping car will cost him another 10 per cent.

If he desires to send letters from Nice to his friends in Paris or in foreign countries he will find that the cost of the former will be 25 centimes instead of 10 and, for the latter, 50 centimes, as compared with 15 before the war. Should a postcard suffice his epistolary needs, he will pay 20 centimes instead of one sou.

The waiter brings him his bill for the amount of his dinner and he notes a charge of 10 per cent is added to the total of the bill as a government tax. It is the last line. Tickets to the theatre are taxed 10 per cent.

At the race track, if he bets 100 francs, he will find that he has only wagered 90. The government retains 10 per cent, as against 5 before the war.

The midinette who signs the receipt for the 75 or 80 francs of her weekly wages has to obliterate a little government stamp of 25 centimes with her signature.

The most profitable tax in France is that on tobacco, which has been increased about three-fold since 1914 and which brought into the French treasury for the year, 1920, 816,000,000 francs, as against the income tax of 812,000,000 francs.

SELLS CRUTCHES!

Summers, proprietor of Summers' Quality Market, who broke his leg last July 14 as he was sliding into home plate in a baseball game, auctioned off his crutches yesterday for six bits to a DeLeon man. The leg is mending rapidly, Summers states, and in a few days he will dispense with his cane.

RUM RUNNERS BATTLE COPS ON BIG LINER

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A quarter of a million dollars' worth of drugs and whisky was seized after a pitched battle, when the White Star liner Cretic docked here today.

Three arrests were made by the customs' searching squad, which boarded the vessel, a lively running fight with some Italians, in which revolver shots were exchanged, and chairs and boots used as weapons, resulted in the complete wreck of the interior of a section of the liner, and the discovery of morphine, heroin, opium and cocaine, and a quantity of whisky.

The Cretic arrived here from Italian ports, and illicit cargo was found stowed away.

"TERROR OF SHAILERVILLE" FACES TRIAL ON TRIPLE MURDER CHARGE

Emil Schutte, better known as the "Terror of Shaileville," is on trial in Middletown, Conn., charged with a triple murder. Accused and described by his own family, Schutte entered court a broken man. All the bravado that had characterized the man, known in Shaileville and vicinity for years as a tyrant, deserted him as he was led to the bar to answer to the charges accusing him of the murder of Dennis Le Due, a farm hand, and two members of the Ball family, of Shaileville. Schutte is said to have set fire to the Ball home and then shot Mr. and Mrs. Ball as they fled for their lives. The bodies, burned to a crisp, were found in the ruins of the burned home the following day. His own sons gave the information that resulted in Schutte's arrest. The accused man was a grocer in Shaileville, and he lorded over the town as did the feudal barons in the land of his Teutonic forebears. The photo shows Schutte.

ONE KING THAT DOES NOT WANT A THRONE

King Alexander refuses to return to his throne in Belgrade, Jugoslavia, and all persuasive powers used upon him are to no avail. Alexander fears the dislike of a few of his countrymen and prefers the pleasures of Paris and the comforts of peace in polite society to the nightmares of sovietism, republicanism of antidynasticism. Hence his decision to stay where he is in Gay Paree.

ment value promises to eclipse all entries for the season. Accompanying the production is a Metropolitan orchestra with a complete musical setting keyed to the theme of the picture, and the presentation here will be one of the screen events of the season.

E. C. Jeffress, managing director for the show, who arrived here Thursday and who attended the premiere of this picture at the Lyric theatre in New York, stated that "The Three Musketeers" is one of the greatest pictures that has ever been produced and that Fairbanks has achieved a triumph in it that has seldom been equalled in the history of motion pictures.

"Every critic in New York praised the production," Mr. Jeffress stated. "Superlatives of the most unusual sort were used in their articles commending the greatness, the stupendousness, the beauty and attractiveness of the picture from every angle."

"The opening night at the Lyric theatre was a scene that will long be remembered in theatrical history," continued Mr. Jeffress. "Seldom has a reception like that been accorded any person, and for hours before the opening of the doors of the theatre traffic was blocked by the thousands of people who endeavored to gain admission to the theatre. At the opening performance Mr. Fairbanks and Miss Pickford appeared in person with Charlie Chaplin as a guest. There were hundreds of persons prominent on stage and screen among the first-nighters, and it was necessary for Mr. Fairbanks to appear before them three times because of their enthusiasm."

There will be two shows daily, matinee at 3 o'clock and the evening performance at 8 o'clock. The advance sale started Monday and tickets may be had at the box office of the Temple theatre. All tickets will be reserved.

MAJESTIC.

Rupert Hughes has done it again. His "Scratch My Back" and "Hold Your Horses" has a successor that surpasses even these delightful comedies. It is "The Old Nest," a film version of the author's story that appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, now on view at the Majestic theatre. It is the photoplay of the year.

"The Old Nest" is a series of dramatic episodes that reveal the life of an American family. The theme is mother love and the audience is privileged to look into the home and into the hearts of a typical family. All the little joys and sorrows that every one of us remembers are flashed on the screen and bring tears and laughter in quick succession.

In the story, the mother lives to see her family of six children gradually drift away from the old home. But in the end, they remember the old nest and come home to roost. There is no plot, any more than there is a plot in life itself. Things happen, no one knows why and no one questions. A reproduction of life is "The Old Nest." The picture, which was directed by Reginald Barker, was made at the Goldwyn studios. It was perfectly acted by a cast with Mary Alden in the role of the old mother. Some of the other players are Dwight Crittenden, Helene Chadwick, Molly Malone, the three children who acted in the Booth Tarkington "Edgar" comedies: Johnny Jones, Lucile Ricksen and Buddy Messenger; Louise Lovely, Nick Coglay, Billie Cotton, Fanny Stockbridge and M. B. ("Lefty") Flynn.

LAMB.

D. W. Griffith's wonder spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation," is showing today and Saturday at the Lamb theatre.

It will be presented upon the same elaborate scale which has marked its recent presentations in New York and other important cities, where the great public demand for it induced

Mr. Griffith to send several companies on tour.

No American film spectacle has enjoyed the vogue or the fame of "The Birth of a Nation," and it stands alone as an achievement of the American screen. The story which moves through the most stirring periods of our history lends itself to that form of sweeping drama Griffith has enjoyed in recent years to astonish the world. No screen spectacle of contemporary times has for its lay characters such wonderful figures in our native history as those in this elaboration of Thomas Dixon's novel, dealing with the events that lead up to the civil war, the great battles of that conflict and the thrilling days of the reconstruction period when the South had to be reclaimed from a horde of adventurers who landed there with the back wash of war and caused more suffering than the war itself with its bitter disappointments and terrible sacrifices. Running through it are several love stories and touches of romance which materially heightens the action.

Among the screen favorites and stars who have prominent parts in this story are: Henry B. Walthall, Mae Marsh, Lillian Gish, Miriam Cooper, Mary Alden, Josephine Crowell, Spottiswoode Aiken, Ralph Lewis, Joseph Henabery, Raoul Walsh, Donald Crisp, Howard Gaye, George Siegman, Walter Long and Elmer Clifton.

WHY WE'RE "FRIENDLY."

"I like these people out here fine," is a typical comment. In fact almost a universal comment, when several men get together and begin to talk about their native section and its woods and dells and sparkling streams and other natural advantages.

When it comes down to deciding why they like "these people" better, it develops that these people are "more friendly." They do not hold aloof from strangers who "look all right."

That, after all, is easily explained,
"Southern hospitality," which once was famous and now notorious for its absence when one goes unintroduced into a community, arose because strangers were an event. The plantation owner was lonesome in the big white house overlooking his broad acres. He was bored stiff with himself and his family and the unhappy necessity of drinking mint ju-leps all alone. Therefore the open arms for strangers who rode within his gates. Now it is different. The South is settled up. The old-timers have a ready-made circle of friends who please them and keep them company. They really need no strangers, they think. Therefore, there is no great rush to hang out the welcoming sign.

In the West, there are few old-timers. At least it is only the second generation of those rooted to one locality by habit and property. And these are vastly in the minority. The greater part of us are strangers, from somewhere else, and longing for companionship. If it weren't for other strangers, we would all be lonesome, therefore, the free and easy friendship that prevails. It is a pleasant state of affairs, and let us hope that the population of the West may never become so localized and stagnant that it needs no acquaintances from the outside.

Recently, it is stated, to one table in a dining room, six men came by chance. Being strangers in a strange land, all were glad to talk to those whom they thought were home folk.
The conversation developed that all sections of the country were at that table, they hailing from New York,
San Francisco, Minnesota and South America, and places in between.

There's romance in that—and an example of why we are "friendly."

SAILOR STOLE
$72,000; TELLS
HIGH LIFE TALE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 21.—Patrick T. Brennan, who, in company with two other navy enlisted men, absconded with $72,000 from the paymaster's office in the navy yard at Norfolk, Va., on Dec. 22, 1920, has been arrested here. Brennan's story was told in a written confession made by the prisoner, according to agents of the federal department of justice.

Brennan is said to have related in his confession how he and his accomplices, all of whom were yeomen in the paymaster's office, took the money from a safe containing $100,000 in ten, twenty, fifty and one hundred dollar bills. He said they only took $72,000 because that was all they could get into the handbag in which they carried the money from the yard. He and his companions parted company at Petersburg, Va., he said. The other two are said to have been arrested shortly after the money was stolen.

In his confession, Brennan related a story of "high life" in all parts of the United States. He told of buying expensive automobiles and of extended trips taken by him until his share of the money was all spent. He said he was married after he stole the money and that he and his bride lived in Tucson, Ariz., for a time. He arrived here in a box car, financially "broke," according to the officers who gained the confession.

When first arrested the prisoner gave the name of W. B. Hutcheson but later he declared he was Brennan. Director Burns of the federal department of justice at Washington has been notified of the arrest.

BOLMER SAYS IT
PUT HIM BACK
ON JOB AGAIN

"I can't say too much for the good Tanlac has done me and I wish there was some way I could get everybody who has trouble like I had to take it," said George Bolmer, 2204 Campbell street, Houston, Texas.

"My stomach was out of order and I had liver complaint and rheumatism right along for fifteen years and the combination got the best of me. I fell off until I was almost a shadow and got so weak I could hardly drag one foot after the other.

"I was going down hill fast when I began taking Tanlac, but it helped me right from the word go. It built me up in a hurry and put me back on the job again feeling fine. If anything can make a man over again I'll tell the world it is Tanlac. There is no mistake about it—it does the work."

Tax Assessors Will Chase Elusive Bank Deposits; Ask Full Rendition

Legislation creating a state board of equalization as a remedy for inequalities in the distribution of school funds will be sought by the county tax assessors of the state, under the provisions of a resolution adopted yesterday at their convention in Fort Worth. E. A. Ringgold, city tax assessor, who returned this morning from the convention, where he was a visitor at a number of the sessions, explained that in one county of the state it had been found that the state was paying $60,000 more in school funds than was being received in taxes. In two other counties in the southern part of the state, of equal population, area and valuation, one is paying an excess into the state treasury while the other is drawing approximately $21,000 more than it is paying in, according to the statistics presented at the convention.

Want Full Rendition.

It was also the opinion of the convention, Ringgold stated, that the necessary legislation should be enacted to secure assessments on the full valuations of all property in the state. While the law now required the full valuation of property, assessments are now being made on a basis averaging between 60 and 70 per cent of the real valuation, it is stated. Statistics from the state comptroller's office were presented at the convention showing that the assessments for the whole state were but 20 per cent of the full valuation.

The tax assessors will also seek legislation giving them more authority in uncovering invisible property that is subject to taxation, such as bank deposits, notes and other personal property, which under the present system is said to be escaping taxation in the majority of instances. In many cases, it was pointed out at the convention, property owners in one community carry large bank deposits in banks at other places and in a large number of cases have by this means avoided the payment of taxes on their invisible property.

The convention, which opened Wednesday, will adjourn today following the election of officers and a trip to the State fair at Dallas. More than 100 county officials were in attendance.

"QUIEN SABE," MEXICANS SAY, AFTER COMPATRIOT IS KILLED IN DUEL

Special to the Times.

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 21.—Guadalupe Parras, Mexican laborer living in Breckenridge's "Little Mexico," paid with his life for his part in a mysterious feud. He rose from his bed at 9 o'clock last night, armed himself with a pocket knife and went out. His body, pierced by two bullets, was found by officers shortly later.

Investigations by county officers, carried on until early this morning, met only shrugs and "quien sabe" from the countrymen of the dead man. According to them, no one saw the slaying. Parras was reported to be a good worker, who talked little and came and went his way quietly. He came here two months ago from El Paso.

UXORICIDE IS SENTENCED. DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 21.—Herman F. Rademacher, former patrolman, who confessed that he murdered his wife, Gertrude, by throwing her from

Goes Farther

A can of Calumet Baking Powder will make more pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins, etc. than a can of most other brands.

It lasts longer—goes farther because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—therefore you use less.

When a recipe calls for two teaspoons of baking powder, use two level teaspoons of Calumet, the results will always be the same—perfectly raised bakings—remember this when you buy baking powder and don't forget that Calumet is the economic buy because it goes farther.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

LIFE OF CHRIST IS PICTURED AT TENT MEETING

The life of Christ and his crucifixion was pictured last night to a large congregation attending the co-operative tent meeting on Main street, by Evangelist L. C. Garrison in his sermon on "God's Remedy for Sin." The evangelist took his text from John iii, 14-15: "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up that whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life." God had momentarily forsaken His Son on the cross, the evangelist said, in order that he might taste the full agony of death and bring salvation to the world.

At the conclusion of his sermon the evangelist pleaded earnestly for his hearers to accept Christ. Four came forward and expressed the desire to unite with the church.

The evangelist tonight will preach on "Bombarding the Fort of Hell," Saturday night on "The Hard Way," and Sunday afternoon on "Mother, Home and Heaven."

WEIDLEIN DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Announcement was made by the University of Pittsburgh of the appointment of Edward Ray Weidlein as director of the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research. Mr. Weidlein has been acting director since the recent resignation of Dr. Raymond Foss Bacon. Mr. Weidlein first came to the institute in 1916, as assistant director. Later he was appointed associate director. In March, 1918, he was appointed director of the war industries board. His activities in this position called forth the highest official commendation. He has a rich experience in the supervision of industrial research and in the systematic investigation of the problems of chemical and physical technology.

"TOO BEAUTIFUL TO LIVE IN BIG TOWN"

Miss Barbara La Mar

Perhaps he thought she looked like an angel and her home was in heaven when the judge, from his bench in California on Jan. 20, 1914, said to Reatha Watson of El Centro, "You are too beautiful to live in a large city." Thus was the 16-year-old girl banished to her home. That was seven years ago. "Too beautiful," the judge said, and thereafter so she was known. If the girl felt disappointment because of her beauty on that memorable day when the judge uttered those words, she has been compensated for today her face is her fortune. For the little girl from the small town has now blossomed forth as the dazzling Barbara La Mar of filmland, and she is still very beautiful.

The Greatest Physician of All Is Pure Blood

When the Foods You Eat No Longer Seem to Do You Any Good—Look For the Danger Signals Which Denote Waste Products in The Blood.

How to Clear Your Blood of Waste Products.

The blood is the means by which all the tissues of the body are directly or indirectly nourished. You will at once realize that unless the blood is pure, some part of the body will soon become diseased.

Waste products in the blood are an element of danger. Ninety per cent of the people "below par" are suffering with waste products in the blood. When your blood is loaded with waste products, you become weak, nervous, irritable and easily upset. Other symptoms are pimples, boils, or some other skin disorder; loss of weight; and probably rheumatism.

Your blood is your fountain source of energy—therefore keep your blood rich and pure.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by relieving you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles—skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality.

The same qualities which give S. S. S. its beneficial effect in clearing your blood of waste products make it extremely desirable for keeping your blood in good condition.

Get S. S. S. at your druggist. Beware of substitutes. Write Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., D-719 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. for special medical advice (without charge). He is helping people every day to regain their health and strength. Ask him to send you his illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free. S. S. S. is sold by all drug stores.

SMALL BOYS AND BOX OF MATCHES START $50,000 FIRE AT HOUSTON

By United Press.
HOUSTON, Oct. 21.—Two youthful "firebugs" paid the penalty here today to the tune of a peach-tree limb.

After their parents had completed operations on their respective battlegrounds, Jess Willard Collins, 5 years old, and Joe Cross, 6, explained how yesterday they started a $50,000 fire with a penny box of matches.

The two boys, having a fortune of 2 cents between them, yesterday afternoon started out "to have some fun."

Candy was purchased with half the fortune. The other half went for a box of matches.

Then their "fun" began.

They built a fire by the side of a mattress factory near their homes. Today the mattress factory and eight residences are in ruins and a score of houses in the neighborhood damaged. Joe Cross' father, who worked in the factory is out of a job. Jess Willard Collins is homeless, as his mother's home was among those destroyed.

LOW EUROPEAN CURRENCY OBSTACLE TO U. S. TRADE, SAYS EXPERT

William Sherman Gill, head of the foreign exchange house, who, in an interview, stated that the depreciation of paper currency in Europe in the mid-continental countries is a great obstacle in the way of their rapid resumption of trade with the United States.

"Every day emphasizes the necessity for America to take steps toward counteracting this demoralization of European markets," said Mr. Gill. "Many Americans who have funds to invest are today buying foreign municipal bonds. This will help the present situation."

METHODIST MEETING ENDS

Dr. Ashley Chappell closed the meetings at the Methodist church last night, a packed house turning out to hear the Ardmore pastor in his final appearance. Dr. Chappell's sermon was taken from Matthew's description of Christ before Pilate and the latter's question, "What then shall I do with this Jesus who is called Christ?"

That is every man's question, the minister said, and it cannot be sidestepped or left to someone else to answer, any more than Pilate could pass the decision on to Herod.

Pilate's predicament and his efforts to escape reaching a decision were described as one of the three greatest and most colorful dramas of the ages. But the same drama exists in every man's heart, the speaker continued. Before Pilate, the crowd shouted "Crucify him!"

"We of today won't press down the crown of thorns upon His brow," said Dr. Chappell, "but we crucify Him daily with our godless lives."

"Men look Golgotha in the face, look Gethsemane in the face, look the Son of God in the face, and deny Him," the speaker cried.

"The way to salvation is given in the Savior's own words, 'If you will confess Me before men, I will confess you before the angels and My Father in Heaven.' That statement answers the question, 'What shall I do with Christ?'"

A solo by Mrs. W. G. Grabbis, "Will I Empty handed Be?" and an instrumental duet, "Humoresque," by Miss Wildeman and Mr. Coleman, was special music for the evening.

The Methodist pastor and congregation were much elated at the success of the meeting, which they feel has led several hundred into the work of the church.

WAS RECLUSE MURDERED?

Edward F. Searles. Howard Donnell. Arthur Walker.

A resident of Methuen, Mass., has written anonymously to District Attorney Donnel of Essex county, urging exhumation and an autopsy on the body of the late Edward F. Searles, aged eccentric, who died in his mansion, in Methuen, in August, 1920. Searles left the bulk of his estate to Arthur T. Walker of New York, for many years secretary to Searles. The letter suggested that Searles "had been hastened to his death." The body will be exhumed and examined. The illustration shows Searles, Walker, Donnell and a view of the Searles estate.

BIG GASSER MAY COST HUMBLE CO. $500 PER DAY

That's Recommendation After Refusal to Plug: Came in on Sept. 1.

Special to the Times.

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 21.—Humble Oil & Refining company's big gasser, the G. W. Heathley No. 1, three miles east of Breckenridge, drilled into a 57,000,000 gas sand Sept. 1, will cost the company $5,000 a day penalty, for failure to plug, if recommendations of Chief Supervisor J. W. Hassell of the oil and gas division are heeded by the railroad commission at the hearing set for next Tuesday.

Officials of the Humble Oil & Refining company may make a test case of the decision, if adverse, by putting up a legal battle when the oil and gas commission starts suit for the amount, according to the attitude of the company officials at a three-day conference at Austin this week.

At a conference of Hassell and H.

M. Pardee, superintendent of the Humble operations in Stephens county, in Breckenridge Oct. 1, the Humble company official was told that the well must be conditioned by lubricating with mud fluid to shut off the waste of gas. The well has been producing 330 barrels of oil daily, 2,000 barrels of salt water and 20,000,000 feet of gas, wasted under the 600 pounds pressure kept on the well, according to the commission. The value of the gas wasted, rated at 6 cents per 1,000 feet, is twice that of the oil at the present price of crude, according to the state officials.

GOOD LIKKER ALL USED UP, IS JUAREZ WAIL

EL PASO, Oct. 21.—All of the original stock of so-called good liquor that has flowed so freely on the Mexican side of the border and frequently from the Mexican side across to this, is all gone, according to a man who says he has been a "stool pigeon" for prohibition agents and who is anonymously interviewed on the subject in a recent issue of the El Paso Herald.

According to the man interviewed, the hordes of tourists that have rushed borderward since the Volstead act became law have consumed the liquors that are genuine and what remains and what is being daily added to the stock is "a cheap imitation that isn't fit to drink."

"Even the tequila you find in Juarez and along the Mexican border is generally a product of backroom shops. There is no good tequila on the border," the informant said. "Stool pigeon" is quoted as saying:

"These shops," the interview goes on to say, "and there are scores of them, use alcohol, grain or any other kind, to start with and out of that they make any brand of whisky or tequila you want. Some of them have their own printing shops and make labels to suit the suckers' tastes. To make tequila they take any kind of leaves and make a tea. They mix with alcohol. This combination sells to bootleggers for $9 a dozen short quarts. It is peddled retail at all kinds of prices."

"NO MASKED PARADES," SAYS SHERIFF; BUT HE DIDN'T SEE THIS ONE

"Ku Klux parades will not be permitted in Eastland county if I can prevent it," Sheriff Sam Nolley stated yesterday while in Ranger on a blind tiger hunt. The sheriff repeated his recent statement in Cisco that if his understanding of the law is correct he could not permit such parades and be true to his oath of office.

"My understanding of the law is that masked parades are illegal in Texas," Nolley said. "I am under bond to enforce the law and I am going to enforce it to the best of my ability. My office took no stand on the Ku Klux Klan until the attorney general ruled that these parades are in violation of the law; and until the governor called upon officials to enforce the law. We are simply going to observe the instructions of our superior officers. However, so far as I know there are no Ku Klux in Eastland county and I am hopeful there will not be any."

So far as could be learned the sheriff's hunt for corn liquor in Ranger was unsuccessful. If he had remained over a day he might have had his first experience with a "masked parade" when a lone rider in klan regalia rode over the city streets. He was an "ad" rather than a Ku Klux, but how would the sheriff have known. For under the attorney general's ruling, he constituted a "masked parade."

CHIEF'S REAL SLEUTH—FINDS 'STOLEN AUTO' WAS IN LOCKUP

The mysterious disappearance of F. O. Gray's rakish Ford speedster, which had tried the ingenuity of the Ranger police department since it was reported stolen Tuesday morning in front of a lumber company on Commerce street, has at last been solved and by none other than Chief Eugene Reynolds himself.

While the force prepared detailed descriptions of the missing car, to be sent over the country and sought clues here and yon for nearly two days, Chief Reynolds was arriving at a scientific conclusion. When all "deductions" were completed the chief raised the window in the sergeant's office and pointed to a weary-looking car parked a few feet away.

"I have found the car," said the chief. The "Watsons" of the force were amazed for the chief had not left the office but as their glance followed his index finger, light dawned upon them. There stood the missing Henry; moreover, it had stood there for several days and in fact had stood there while the owner was reporting the theft, having been brought to the station by an officer when found without a license plate.

No one had thought of the car at the time, the officers state, as it had been brought to police headquarters a day or two before and the owner had reported that his machine had been stolen that very morning. Moreover, there was no license plate and only the yellow home-made body and one broken headlight fitted the description that was turned in.

The case of operating a car without a state license against the owner was dismissed when he exhibited a copy of an application for a license, made shortly after he purchased the machine.

PONIES, MONKS AND CLOWN BAND FEATURE CIRCUS DAY PARADE

With a street parade that reached the business section of the city promptly at the advertised time, the Gentry Bros. show and wild animal arena opened their circus engagement here today; the paraphernalia was bright and clean looking, the stock appeared to be in the pink of condition, much as if the show had just left winter's quarters for the season's tour, instead of being near its close; the red and gold wagons, the calliopes, etc., were of the regulation circus style, but the peculiar features that have made the Gentry show so dear to the hearts of the children were dominant everywhere, consisting of the smallest ponies, the cutest dogs, and many chattering monkeys, that seemed to shout their approval of the crowds in the streets and the small boys that followed their cages about.

While the elephants received their full share of applause, also peanuts, the tiny mites of equine aristocracy, the diminutive Shetlands were the favorites; there was music aplenty, four bands being in evidence; the clown band forgot themselves, momentarily, and played an entire selection through properly, for which they were promptly "called down" by the boss clown, but it proved they were musicians as well as clowns.

After traversing the business section of the city, the parade returned to the show grounds, followed by a large crowd, who immediately got busy with the side-shows, interested in seeing it all. The first big show performance was scheduled for 2 o'clock with a night exhibition at 8.

RANGER HIGH TROUNCES GORMAN; FIVE TOUCHDOWNS ON VISITORS

Ranger High school, reeling off plays with a speed and accuracy too dazzling for their opponents and presenting a stone wall defense at all stages of the game, barred Gorman yesterday, 35 to 0, at Nitro park. Long runs to the goal line by Mills and Huffman accounted for two of the touchdowns, another was due to a long run by Schertz and a snappy forward pass that covered the last twenty yards. And early in the fourth period, with seven regulars resting on the sideline, the subs showed their might by stopping the visitors in their tracks and pushing over a touchdown on their own account. The other was made by steady gains off tackle and through the line.

Team play and aggressive football earned the victory. Clean, hard tackling, hitting a loose ball like a ton of brick, stiff arming, snatching passes from the air, featured the melee.

The regular team was in with the exception of Heasley, the husky tackle, who has a nose somebody stepped on or something. It was thought best not to take any chances with it, as the team is now looking forward to the critical game with Cisco, on which the championship of the county depends.

Would Cut In. The faults of play were few, principally several bad passes from center that checked marches down the field, and a failure to follow interference. This perhaps is a double fault that must be ironed out. Certainly the half backs cut in too often and were stopped, when by sticking with the shock troops they could have made good gains. On the other hand, the interference had a tendency to run wide around the ends, instead of smothering them, and the man with the ball might have been thrown for a loss if he had stuck behind them.

The game was one of the most sportsmanlike yet played here, the only penalties being for offside play. Happy Gets Loose. From the time Happy Schertz sidestepping two tacklers, went around left end for forty yards on the fourth play of the game, the result was never in doubt. Happy's run carried the ball to the eight-yard line and resulted indirectly in a touchdown, although the Gorman team, forced to its goal line, staved off a line attack and kicked. Huffman took the short punt and wriggled his way up to the twenty-yard mark. Then Schertz lined a pass to Hubbard, who was streaking down the field. Hubbard took the ball on the run, dodged a pair of outstretched Gorman arms and raced across for the score. It was a brilliant and perfectly executed play. Mills kicked goal, making the score 7 to 0, after seven minutes of play.

Gorman received, but after attempting to send a mastodonid named Ross through the line, found that three tries netted them only three yards, so they kicked. Two bad passes from center caused Ranger to lose ground and they also were forced to punt. It was a beautiful spiral from Mills toe, which went forty yards, with Hubbard down under the ball and dropping the safety man almost in his tracks. The play ended the quarter.

Huffman Sidesteps. The Ranger line opened the second quarter by again smothering Gorman's rushes and after an exchange of punts, Huffman, behind interference which opened a wide hole, dashed through the Gorman line and secondary defense, sidestepping enough to break the tackle of the safety man, and crossed the goal line unopposed. The total run was sixty yards. Mills again kicked goal, making the score 14-0.

Gorman again received the kickoff, lining up on the thirty-yard line when Yonkers' hard tackle dropped the man with the ball. A short forward pass and two off tackle plays gave them first down for the first time during the game. Then Ross elected a forward pass. It was a peculiar formation, with the line shifted to the right, and the backfield to the left, but the Ranger defense gauged it accurately. Charley Mills intercepted the throw and before the dazed Gormanites realized what had happened, was speeding through a clear field for the third touchdown. Mills again kicked goal, making the count 21-0.

Buck One Over. That made three touchdowns Ranger had scored on long runs. Then they set to work in the third quarter to show they could earn 'em. Schertz went off left tackle for fifteen yards. He repeated around right end for twenty, having a bit of luck as he was tackled on the eight-yard mark. The ball bounced from his arms, then obligingly hopped into them just before a Gorman man descended upon the mixup. Mills plowed through a hole opened by the linemen for seven yards and put the ball over the next play. Goal made the score 28-0.

There was a terrific collision on the kickoff as the pigskin hopped from a Gorman chest and in the rush for the ball, time was called for High of Gorman. Coach Hart took advantage of the wait to send in all his younger and smaller hopefuls. They made good from the jump, smothering the Gorman offensive with a united effort that looked just as good as the first string. Simpson especially broke into the limelight by downing big boy Ross before he could heave the ball on an attempted forward pass. Then early in the fourth quarter, they took the ball and by steady rushes put across a touchdown on their own account. Huffman kicked goal, making it 35 to 0. The regulars went in again in the last ten minutes and experimented with the forward pass, with about fifty-fifty luck. Hubbard took two beauties for a total gain of about forty-five yards. Time was called with Ranger holding the ball on Gorman's four-yard line.

HAD EIGHT HUNDRED COMING—BUT HE TOOK IT IN BEER, JURY SAYS

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—High society of the lower east side Friday ruefully was contemplating the alternatives of calling off festivities incident to its first "classy" wedding of the season or going through with it minus all its usual parade of evening gowns, claw hammer coats and "three gallon" hats.

For thieves, ignorant or heedless of the Ghetto's inflexible rules of nuptial propriety, Thursday night stole the whole works—forty-three gowns, twelve bridal costumes, including veils, and thirty-four full dress suits—from Barnett Michaelson, purveyor to the district of such indispensables. And now, the thieves caught, an almost equally unfeeling magistrate has impounded the regalia as evidence.

"Please judge," pleaded Michaelson, "I will be glad to let the prisoners go if I could only get back those gowns and suits. If these folks don't get my suits the wedding will be ruined and I will be lynched. Even the bride's and groom's clothes are in this stuff."

But the law, commented the judge, is after all the law. CHINESE STOWAWAYS FOUND HALF STARVED. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Customs officials searched the British freighter Helenus for smuggled drugs, but instead they found fifteen Chinese hidden in empty ballast tanks, several of them afflicted with beriberi.

A report that another Chinese who had the disease had been thrown overboard before he was dead, either in the harbor or on the voyage from Boston, started harbor police on a search for the body. The fifteen were taken to Ellis Island, and, after they had been questioned, Fong Yow, known on the ship as "No. 1 Chinaman," or boss, was detained on charges that for

ANGRY DUCK WHIPS COW. CHARITON Mo., Oct. 20.—It is being told on the streets of Keyesville how a wandering cow was recently badly licked by an angry duck. They had both ducks and cows at the county poor farm. Recently one of the cows went to the duck pond to get a drink, and while there was viciously attacked by the duck, which completely lost its ungovernable temper and proceeded to kick the stuffin' out of the intruder. In the final round-up of the hectic encounter, the cow turned tail and fled ignominiously, with the battling duck in hot pursuit.

ONE TEXAN IN EVERY TWELVE IS ILLITERATE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—There were 295,844 illiterate persons of 10 years or over in the state of Texas in 1920, according to the census figures for that year, made public Thursday by the census bureau. The percentage of illiteracy was 8.3 that year, compared with 9.9 in 1910.

Of the illiterates, 60,425 were native whites or native parentage; 30,219 were of foreign and mixed parentage, and 112,417 were of foreign birth. The percentage of illiteracy in the cities ranged from 11.4 in San Antonio to 1.6 in Wichita Falls, while in the counties the percentage ranged from 44.6 in Willacy to .01 in Hansford county.

DREAM LEADS TO BANK LOOT. SUMATRA, Mont., Oct. 20.—A dream of John Buchanan, a blacksmith, was realized when loot from the Sumatra bank here robbed several weeks ago of papers and money to the value of $5,000, was recovered. Buchanan said he had a dream in which he saw the robbery and followed the robbers to a culvert near Myers station, where they buried the loot. The dream was so vivid, he says, that he took his automobile and Percy Steele a companion, and went to the culvert. The stolen securities were there.

AIR "PIPE LINE" DENIED. DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 21.—Denial that United States army airplanes had been used for smuggling liquor across the Canadian border is made here by Captain C. H. Kells, intelligence officer at Ft. Wayne, who recently investigated the destruction of an army plane on Canadian soil.

The airplane, Captain Kells reported, made a forced landing near Sunnyside, Ontario, Aug. 20 and the pilot, Lieutenant James Hutchinson, was injured. Later the motor was stolen from the machine and the inflammable parts burned.

Swell Wedding Is Put on Blink When Thieves Capture Classy Toggery. NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—High society of the lower east side Friday ruefully was contemplating the alternatives of calling off festivities incident to its first "classy" wedding of the season or going through with it minus all its usual parade of evening gowns, claw hammer coats and "three gallon" hats.

For thieves, ignorant or heedless of the Ghetto's inflexible rules of nuptial propriety, Thursday night stole the whole works—forty-three gowns, twelve bridal costumes, including veils, and thirty-four full dress suits—from Barnett Michaelson, purveyor to the district of such indispensables. And now, the thieves caught, an almost equally unfeeling magistrate has impounded the regalia as evidence.

"Please judge," pleaded Michaelson, "I will be glad to let the prisoners go if I could only get back those gowns and suits. If these folks don't get my suits the wedding will be ruined and I will be lynched. Even the bride's and groom's clothes are in this stuff."

But the law, commented the judge, is after all the law. CHINESE STOWAWAYS FOUND HALF STARVED. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Customs officials searched the British freighter Helenus for smuggled drugs, but instead they found fifteen Chinese hidden in empty ballast tanks, several of them afflicted with beriberi.

A report that another Chinese who had the disease had been thrown overboard before he was dead, either in the harbor or on the voyage from Boston, started harbor police on a search for the body. The fifteen were taken to Ellis Island, and, after they had been questioned, Fong Yow, known on the ship as "No. 1 Chinaman," or boss, was detained on charges that for

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—There were 295,844 illiterate persons of 10 years or over in the state of Texas in 1920, according to the census figures for that year, made public Thursday by the census bureau. The percentage of illiteracy was 8.3 that year, compared with 9.9 in 1910.

Of the illiterates, 60,425 were native whites or native parentage; 30,219 were of foreign and mixed parentage, and 112,417 were of foreign birth. The percentage of illiteracy in the cities ranged from 11.4 in San Antonio to 1.6 in Wichita Falls, while in the counties the percentage ranged from 44.6 in Willacy to .01 in Hansford county.

DREAM LEADS TO BANK LOOT. SUMATRA, Mont., Oct. 20.—A dream of John Buchanan, a blacksmith, was realized when loot from the Sumatra bank here robbed several weeks ago of papers and money to the value of $5,000, was recovered. Buchanan said he had a dream in which he saw the robbery and followed the robbers to a culvert near Myers station, where they buried the loot. The dream was so vivid, he says, that he took his automobile and Percy Steele a companion, and went to the culvert. The stolen securities were there.

AIR "PIPE LINE" DENIED. DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 21.—Denial that United States army airplanes had been used for smuggling liquor across the Canadian border is made here by Captain C. H. Kells, intelligence officer at Ft. Wayne, who recently investigated the destruction of an army plane on Canadian soil.

The airplane, Captain Kells reported, made a forced landing near Sunnyside, Ontario, Aug. 20 and the pilot, Lieutenant James Hutchinson, was injured. Later the motor was stolen from the machine and the inflammable parts burned.

RELIGIOUS WRITER IS FEARFUL LEST AGITATION FOR BLUE LAW PUT CHURCHES INTO DISREPUTE

Legal enforcement of religious principles may bring the church into disfavor, thinks a writer for the Epworth Herald (Methodist), who appears to be somewhat troubled at the most recent attempt to have congress enact so-called "Blue Sunday" laws. Already, he finds, the church censured for its activity in trying to enforce its doctrines by legal enactment, and is therefore, in danger of losing influence.

The idea is not new, but it takes on an added significance in coming from such a source. There are, we are told, other means, means more in conformity with the teachings of Christ, whereby man may be taught the practice of Christian virtues. And the writer wonders "if it isn't about time to put some check on all this flood of talk about laws to forbid this, that, and the other practice, disapproved by Christian people." He notes:

"We have a prohibition clause in the constitution. It is properly there, and it ought to be thoroughly enforced, in New York as well as in Maine and North Dakota.

Amendment is Not Popular.

"Its enforcement is not easy, and in many quarters it is not popular. The rebellious minority blames the churches for the law, and not without abundance of reason.

"We may as well admit that the Christian faith and its professors are disliked today, positively and definitely, by many Americans who heretofore have scarcely given a thought to religion.

"What troubles me is that we may be in danger of thinking that all the ends of the Gospel can be secured by law, and particularly by law which forever says, 'Thou shalt not.' Jesus our Lord, did not always teach men so. He left something to persuasion, to forgiveness, to tolerance, to love.

"I do not plea for lowered standards or for a church silent in the presence of grave evils. But there are churches with penal enactments in their own laws, and the success of those enactments has not been brilliant enough to arouse much faith in more laws to make people conform to churchly rules.

"If we could see the picture of the Christian church in the mind of today's non-Christian American, the chances are that it would show a joy-killing, narrow-minded company of ignorant, bigoted meddlers in other people's affairs.

"The picture is not true, and it has been drawn, in large part, by unscrupulously cunning propagandists who hate Christianity as did the silver-smiths of Ephesus.

"All the more we need to give freedom and breath and beauty of our faith a larger opportunity to be seen of men."

POWERS WILL REQUEST U. S. TO DO MOST OF DISARMING, IS BELIEF

By T. N. SANDIFER,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Possibility that the United States will be asked to do most of the actual disarming when the nations gather for the discussion of that subject in November is foreseen today by close observers here.

CAUSED 'EM TO HESITATE.

"Well, Mose, how'd the racee come out yesterday?"

"Putty good, sub, putty good; on'y some fool drapped a bag o' cats on de track an' all de hosses hesitated."

—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

STILL KEEP COMPANY.

"They kept company for a long time before they were married, didn't they?"

"Yes, and they've kept company most of the time since. All her relations seem to live with them."

—Minneapolis Journal.

Supporting their contention that the United States may find most of the disarming forced on herself, the observers here point out that both Japan and Great Britain, major participants in the forthcoming parley, are maritime powers. They depend on the sea for their commercial and national life. Accordingly they will both be likely to object to any great reduction in their actual power at sea. On the other hand, the point will be made that the United States is a self-contained country and thus will only need sufficient naval forces to protect her coasts.

Of all the nations involved, it is stated by competent authorities here, Japan probably has most to gain or lose from the parley. Her actual navy is powerful on paper, and while its potential force is not discounted, it is well known that Japan's finances make any naval force a critical problem. Thus, if England and the United States can be persuaded into a curtailment, Japan, while not actually having to drop many of her own real ships, will be rid of just so much costly competition.

At the same time Japan, following the diplomatic tactics she used at Versailles, when by constant objections and bickerings, she forced concessions from the other nations, may be able to bring official sanction from the same powers of her course in China and Siberia.

TO THE CITIZENS OF RANGER

If I am elected to the office of City Street Commissioner at tomorrow's election I will stand firmly for a city government that respects the rights of all the citizens alike, whose business or vocation is along legitimate lines.

I will stand firmly for an honest, practical expenditure of the city's monies for the benefit of the city as a whole, with favoritism to no particular person or persons and will openly oppose any movement that is intended to benefit a few to the detriment of the many.

I will stand firmly for a morally clean city and at no time nor place will I show negligence nor unwillingness to stand out for law and order.

In the matter of appointive offices, I will stand firmly for none but men of honor and ability. My policy will always be, get a man for the job and not, a job for the man.

My business interests are all in Ranger and I am prepared to give the city the time necessary to fill this office.

I am under no political obligations whatever except those stated above, and that I will fulfill these I do pledge myself to all the citizens of Ranger.
