K. K. K. DECLARES ITSELF IN RANGER

RANCHERS WANT OIL COMPANIES TO PAY $35,000

Two Plaintiffs Claim Their Grass and Water Were Damaged to This Extent.

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 29.—Two suits aggregating $35,000 have been filed here within the last few days by ranch owners against oil companies of this section, alleging damages to stock and land as the result of negligence and disregard of plaintiffs' rights by the defendant companies. The sum of $20,000 is sought by J. A. Davenport of Eastland from five companies as damages to dipping vats and cattle and fences; and the sum of $15,000 is sought by Mrs. Mae Zant of Hubbard creek for damages to grass and water from oil and salt water, as the result of the alleged failure of the Atlantic Oil Producing company to properly plug a hole.

Says Cattle Died.
In the suit for $20,000 filed by Davenport in the Ninetieth district court, the Brazos River Oil company, the Jack Crosby Oil company, Inco, the Superior Oil company, Inc., the Texas company and the Gulf Pipe Line company are named as defendants. It is set forth in the complaint that Davenport was pasturing some 400 head of cattle on land leased from the L. C. Dennison heirs, located on the south line of the county, when the operating companies began drilling on the track in October, 1918. Davenport claims that his cattle were certified free of tick infection at the time but that after his fences had been cut and his dipping vats damaged by the defendant companies that his stock had become infected from other cattle and that as the result seventy head contracted fever and thirty-five head died. The companies, he claimed, tore down his fences at will for two years, causing him to start over again on the slow process of ridding his pasture of ticks and preventing him from marketing his cattle because of a quarantine.

Water Is Ruined.
In the suit filed by Mrs. Zant in the Forty-second district court it is claimed that the Atlantic Oil Producing company drilled a well on the D. C. Brazel tract adjoining her land and abandoned the hole at a depth of 3,719 feet in September, 1920. A good oil showing was struck in the hole, the plaintiff contends, and that on the failure of the company to properly plug the hole oil and salt water has been escaping from the mouth of the hole and running into a small creek which crosses her land and empties into Hubbard creek. The water holes and tanks which were her chief dependence for stock water were ruined, she states, and the waste oil carried over the land by the overflow of the creek has killed grass and trees and rendered the land unfit for grazing purposes or for cultivation, the complaint continues.

Additional sums are asked for alleged damages to oil-bearing formations on her place.

POURS GASOLINE ON FIRE, BADLY BURNED

COLORADO, Texas, Oct. 29.—R. M. McClarty, plumber, was badly burned here when he poured gasoline on a fire in the stove in the office of Dr. E. F. Dulaney, dentist. The explosion set fire to McClarty's clothing and also to the office but was quickly extinguished with slight loss to the office.

McClarty mistook the gasoline for kerosene and was endeavoring to revive the fire in the stove.

BROTHERS MEET IN SHELL HOLE; DIDN'T KNOW IT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 29.—Separated more than seventeen years, after being placed in an orphanage in St. Louis, Frank Joseph and Florence Payne were united again the other day in the home of Mrs. Edward Stanley, a cousin. The two brothers after their meeting learned they had sought safety together in the same shell hole in the Argonne. Neither knew of their relationship then, but in telling their war experience, the shell hole incident was mentioned and the truth came out.

KARL'S EXILE HOME IS APPROVED BY BRITISH

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Great Britain has approved Madeira Islands as the exile residence of former Emperor Karl, it formerly was announced this afternoon.

Britain proposed that Karl be sent to the islands whether he abdicates the Hungarian throne or not. Permission to intern Karl on the Madeira Islands already has been asked at Lisbon, as Portugal owns the groups, which is forty.

PAGE ACHILLES!

RICHMOND, Oct. 29.—John Fitzgerald, who recently lost his heel in an accident at the Western Pipe & Steel plant, where he is employed, has slipped one over on Achilles.

Medical science, which the Greek warrior could not invoke, aided Fitzgerald and he is now walking on the foot without difficulty. A surgical operation, by which flesh from his thigh was transferred to his foot, has supplied him with a new heel.

FLOOD WATERS TAKE TOLL NEAR VANCOUVER

Between 35 and 50 Lives Lost and Damage Heavy in Cloudburst.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 29.—Between thirty-five and fifty lives lost and property damage of several million dollars tonight was the estimated toll of floods that swept away parts of several towns north and east of here last night and today.

The most damage was at Britannia Beach, a mining village with a population of 350, eighteen miles north of Vancouver. There last night a cloudburst broke through a fill and released a torrent which rushed down to the ocean, carrying with it about half the houses in the town. Later this afternoon meager advices placed the number of dead and missing at thirty-five. A ship bearing medical aid has gone from Vancouver.

A portion of the Port Coupliam, fourteen miles east of Vancouver, was floating down the river. No mention was made of casualties in reports from this district but fourteen families were said to be marooned. Communication with the stricken area is impossible except by boat.

The Canadian Pacific railway reported extensive damage to its property. Several bridges and miles of track were washed away on the main line, paralyzing trans-continental traffic. The Canadian Pacific estimated its damage at $1,000,000.

At Britannia Beach several bodies had been recovered and at an improvised morgue the work of identifying them was proceeding tonight.

Water Is Ruined.
In the suit filed by Mrs. Zant in the Forty-second district court it is claimed that the Atlantic Oil Producing company drilled a well on the D. C. Brazel tract adjoining her land and abandoned the hole at a depth of 3,719 feet in September, 1920. A good oil showing was struck in the hole, the plaintiff contends, and that on the failure of the company to properly plug the hole oil and salt water has been escaping from the mouth of the hole and running into a small creek which crosses her land and empties into Hubbard creek. The water holes and tanks which were her chief dependence for stock water were ruined, she states, and the waste oil carried over the land by the overflow of the creek has killed grass and trees and rendered the land unfit for grazing purposes or for cultivation, the complaint continues.

LEWIS WON'T CUT OUT ORGANIZING MINERS, HE SAYS

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 29.—Refusal of President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America to agree to send union efforts to organize the Williamson coal fields of West Virginia was followed by the announcement of Judge A. B. Anderson in the federal court here today that an injunction will be issued Monday.

The enactment scope of the order was not stated by Judge Anderson, whose decision to issue it was made at the conclusion of the hearing on the Borderland Coal corporation petition for a temporary order in its suit alleging the union is an unlawful organization.

The decision to issue the order was made by Judge Anderson after he had expressed the intention to defer all action in the case until the final trial. However, he held that meanwhile efforts to unionize the field must be stopped and he called on Lewis for a decision.

Finally Lewis declared: "We have a constitutional right to organize and I decline to stop organizing."

SHIPS COLLIDE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Red Sea passenger steamship Maracaibo, leaving here today for the West Indies, collided with the navy supply ship Promatheus, inbound from Philadelphia, as the ships were passing Governor's island. The Maracaibo returned to her pier with bow damaged. The Promatheus proceeded to the navy yard.

KANSAS CITY'S RAIN WASHED STREETS GREET MEMBERS OF LEGION AT BIG CONVENTION

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29.—Rain, such as brought back to the minds of overseas veterans days and nights spent on the soap-slippery soil of France, greeted the American legionnaires who came in today to attend the national convention which opens next week.

But the ties of friendship were stronger than mere physical comfort and on dozens of downtown corners stood groups of khaki clad heroes utterly oblivious to the downpour, lining again the days of Chateau Thierry and the Argonne. Lines were pierced, villages fell and the stars and stripes were run over conquered enemy positions. Here and there in the groups were seen men leaning on crutches or canes and in nearly every instance attended by a husky service man.

To them the tales brought back an especially strong memory of stirring scenes and frequently pale faces would light up with anticipation as one or another of the story tellers would call to mind some feat of heroism performed by Yanks. Frequently members of a group would crowd their way outside to give a hug and handshake to a new arrival and the story of the days over there would go on.

Ranger Driller, With Three Busted Ribs, Goes Adam One Better by Taking Wife

Adam's fortitude in taking into himself a wife immediately following his noted rib operation has been surpassed by D. A. Rollins, Ranger driller, who with three busted ribs, one crushed side and a bruised kidney, was quietly married Thursday afternoon to Miss Lois Causey of Beaumont. Rollins was married in his room at the Majestic hotel, where he has been confined since he was injured Sunday when struck by a portion of the rig at the Lander well northwest of town. Rev. Johnson officiated and only a few friends were present at the ceremony. The driller will spend five more weeks of his recuperation in his bed, he humbly stated yesterday afternoon.

Kollins' marriage came as a distinct surprise to his friends, who had no inkling of his matrimonial plans until summoned to witness the ceremony. Mrs. Rollins, who is a native of Beaumont, had been visiting in her room at the Majestic hotel for several months prior to her marriage. She and her husband plan to make their home here, where Rollins has resided for the last three years.

DISPUTE OVER BURGENLAND IS NOW ADJUSTED

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The allied council of ambassadors today notified representatives of Austria and Hungary that it had accepted the terms of the Venice protocol signed recently as a preliminary settlement of the dispute between those countries over Burgenland. The strip of West Hungarian territory was awarded to Austria by the treaty of Trianon.

The protocol was signed Oct. 13 by Hungarian Foreign Minister Banffy and Austrian Chancellor Schober. Marquis Della Torretta, Italian foreign minister, acted as a mediator in the negotiations leading to the agreement. One of the features of the Venice protocol, according to dispatches at the time it was signed, was the agreement by Austria to return Oedenburg, one of the principal cities in Burgenland, to Hungary as soon as Burgenland had been cleared of complications. A number of the provisions of the protocol are designed to clear up the whole difficulty between Austria and Hungary arising out of the treaty of Trianon.

'EMPTY GRAVE' CASE COMES TO LIFE WHEN TWO ARE CONVICTED

ABILENE, Oct. 29.—A new episode in the noted "empty grave mystery," in which Byrd J. Cochran is alleged to have simulated death and went through with a fake burial, resulting in the collection of $10,000 insurance money, was enacted yesterday at Aspermont, Stone wall county. C. O. Hoggett pleaded guilty to false swearing and was given two years in the penitentiary.

Wayne Ussery pleaded guilty to the false swearing and was given two years in the penitentiary, which was suspended. All other cases against the two men were dismissed by the court. Hoggett and Ussery were charged with falsely swearing that they knew Cochran to be dead. Cochran, the central figure in the case, drew two years in the penitentiary at his trial at Aspermont.

DID YOU FIND IT?

The sum of $9.15, representing the entire capital of a destitute widow of the city, was lost on the streets yesterday afternoon by her small son, who was hurrying home with freshly bought groceries. The amount was received in change by the boy after purchasing groceries with a $10 bill contributed by the Catholic charity organization to the immediate needs of the mother and her three children.

In view of the urgent need of the family it is urged that anyone finding the pocketbook leave it in care of the Times.

FRAZIER FIRED!

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 29.—Recalling the election of Governor Lynn J. Frazier and two other state officials endorsed by the Non-Partisan league was conceded tonight by the Fargo Courier-News, official paper of the league in North Dakota. The concession came after unofficial returns from approximately 1,800 of the state's 2,086 precincts had shown a majority of 13,000 for R. A. Nestos, independent gubernatorial candidate. Svein Bjorn Johnson and Joseph A. Kitchin held corresponding leads, respectively, over Attorney General William Lemke and J. N. Haden, commissioner of agriculture and labor, the two other officials whose recall is conceded.

RAIL WORKERS WHO STRIKE ARE NOW 'OUTLAWS'

Labor Board Makes This Ruling for Future Guidance of Men.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The United States railway labor board today in effect forbade railroad union labor from striking without the board's permission, and declared that all strikers who violated the order would be classed as outlaws who had voluntarily removed themselves from the protection of the transportation act.

The board made three findings:

1. That all such disputes must be referred to the board before any action is taken.
2. That any interruption of traffic would be a blow made at the peace, prosperity and safety of the entire nation.
3. That any union going out on strike will forfeit its right and the right of its members in all existing contracts, and lose all benefits accorded by the transportation act.

The board's official statement on the railroad strike which was to have been called tomorrow morning by the Big Four brotherhoods and the switchmen's union toned down considerably from the first draft, prepared before the unions had called off their threatened strike, and decision based on the hearing held by the board last Wednesday still set forth in plain language the board's determination to assert the maximum power allotted to it under the transportation act.

Every dispute involving changes in wages, rules and working conditions, etc., must be referred to the board and no action taken by either side until authorized by the board, the decision says.

ARMY ENLISTS SCHOOL KIDS TO RAISE FUNDS

Some 1,500 Salvation Army buttons will be distributed among the teachers of the city schools Monday in an effort to increase the amount already obtained for local work. The pupils will be asked by Chairman Jack Jarvis of the Salvation Army committee to solicit donations from their parents and others in amounts ranging from 10 cents up.

But little more than $2,500 has been realized so far by the workers in the campaign to secure funds for local work of the Salvation Army, since the appeal opened on the first of the month. An additional $1,000 at least is needed to meet the needs of the coming winter, it is stated. With subscriptions from the industries still out and by the proposed campaign of the school children, it is hoped to realize the amount needed.

Colonel Cole of the Dallas office of the Salvation Army, was in Ranger yesterday and expressed his appreciation to those subscribing to the work. The state official came here to look over the local field and to visit Captain Mullens who returned after several weeks spent in a Dallas hospital.

NO MORE TO SAY.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The labor board, after speaking of the decision of both sides to abide by the law, said: "These facts render it unnecessary for the board to make any further order on or about this matter, and move it to congratulate the parties directly interested, and the public most vitally and profoundly interested on this return to industrial peace, triumph of the rein of law and the escape from national disaster."

"But at this time, and while matters are intensely before the minds of all, the board deems it expedient and proper to make its rulings and positions on some of the points involved so clear that no ground for any misunderstanding can hereafter exist."

BLOODHOUNDS CHASE BANKER WHOSE BOOKS ARE IN GOOD ORDER

GREEN BAY, Wis., Oct. 29.—A posse of seventy-five men, headed by bloodhounds, searched the countryside today for Arthur C. Davler, vice president of the Bank of Luxemburg, who disappeared last Thursday. It is believed by his friends that Davler suffered a mental collapse. The blood hounds were sent for by Albert Kerol of Kewanee, president of the bank.

Bank examiners today completed an audit of the bank's books and found them in good order.

EVANGELIST FINDS 100 BUCKS AND LETTER FROM LOCAL KLAN BETWEEN LEAVES OF HIS BIBLE

Communication Typewritten on Official Stationery and Bears Seal of Order, Ranger Klan No. 150; Says "We've Been Here Long While But Said Nothing;" Will Back "Law" if They're Sincere.

The Invisible Empire has definitely made its appearance in Ranger. Announcing that the purpose of their organization is to see that the laws are duly respected and enforced and arraying themselves "solidly behind the ministers of the city in their efforts to better conditions," members of the Ranger Klan, No. 150, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, last night made known their organization here in a communication accompanying a $100 donation to "the work of Evangelist L. C. Garrison."

The money and letter, the latter written on Klan stationery and bearing the seal of the organization, was found by the evangelist between the leaves of his Bible in his room at the Crescent hotel last night before services started at the revival tent on East Main street.

The crowd that thronged the revival tent cheered as the evangelist read the communication and commended the spirit of the Klansmen and "the principle on which they were working." The donation from the Klan followed a recent sermon by the evangelist in which he attacked hotels and certain drug stores of Ranger for alleged immorality and illegal sale of intoxicants. In the course of the particular sermon in which Ranger was declared "Sold out to the Devil," the evangelist remarked that there appeared to be work here for the K. K. K.

The Klan communication follows: Klan No. 150 Realm of Texas KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN Ranger, Oct. 29, 1921.

"To Evangelist L. C. Garrison, and All Law-Abiding, Upright Citizens of the City of Ranger, Greetings:

"We, the members of the Ranger Klan No. 150, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, wish to announce ourselves through the medium of this small, but well meant subscription toward the work of the Evangelist Garrison.

"We stand unanimously and undivided behind the ministers of the city in their efforts to better conditions, and we will stand unanimously and undivided behind the officers of the law, and the city commission if they will endeavor to the best of their ability to respect, preserve and enforce the laws and make our city a better place in which to live. We are not an organization of destruction but one of construction. We are not an organization to break laws but to see that they are duly respected and enforced.

"We have been among you for a long while but have said nothing. However, we have seen, and we have heard, and we know. "We maintain that cleanliness is the only solid rock on which to build a city, and believe that cleanliness makes toward good times, good business and prosperity as well as toward Godliness. We have joined our energies to strive for a clean, graftless, moral, decent city and that is what we must and shall have."

APPEAL WILL BE TAKEN IN SUIT ON ROAD AFFAIR

'Citizens' Committee' Will Go to Higher Court in Fleming-Stitzer Case.

EASTLAND, Oct. 29.—Notice was filed this afternoon that an appeal will be taken in the suit filed by the "Citizens' Committee" against the county commissioners and the Fleming & Stitzer Road Building company, asking that the contract be dissolved and a receiver be appointed for the company. This action followed overruling of a motion for a new trial by Judge E. A. Hill of the Eighty-eighth district court. No arguments were made either for or against the motion.

The case was decided several weeks ago in favor of the defendants, after a trial which consumed nine days and in which numerous lengthy depositions were offered as evidence. Many of the depositions were ruled out as evidence in the suit, as being not germane to the matter at issue; that is, the validity of the road contract. They cover ground ranging from affairs of the closed Security State bank, which was the county depository, to inquiries as to acts of the bank's officials and of county officials, which it was ruled were not evidence bearing on the suit at hand, but rather to prove malfeasance in office on the part of county officials.

Nearly half of the 119 exceptions listed by the plaintiffs are said to be due to the ruling out of the depositions.

Whether the case can be exploited in the court of civil appeals is not known. If not, it threatens to tie up the road work indefinitely.

MISS RAPPE WAS SICK 8 YEARS, ARBUCKLE SAYS

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The defense of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, movie actor, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe, an actress, will be based upon physiology, according to a statement of Charles H. Brennan of San Francisco, Arbuckle's attorney, today.

The defense will contend that Miss Rappe at the time of her death suffered from a malady that had been pronounced permanent and chronic at least eight years ago, he said.

"Nothing will be done by the defense that can be construed as an attack on the character of Virginia Rappe," Brennan said. "The matter will be handled from the physiological standpoint."

Brennan is here to examine three Chicago witnesses, Dr. Maurice Rosenberg, who attended Miss Rappe during an illness, and Mrs. Josephine Roth and Mrs. Virginia Warren, nurses who also attended her. Brennan will go to New York Tuesday to take the deposition of Lowell S. Hearman, actor, who was present at the party staged by Arbuckle at which Miss Rappe became ill.

T. & P. GUARD KILLED; CAUGHT ON TRESTLE

FORNEY, Texas, Oct. 29.—Charles Tatum of Dallas, one of the guards recently employed by the Texas & Pacific in anticipation of the strike, was struck by the Sunshine Special on a trestle near here Friday afternoon. Tatum was caught in the middle of the bridge and instead of jumping tried to run to the end. The body was terribly mangled. The remains will be sent to Dallas for burial. It was said Tatum had not been informed of calling off the strike and was attending to his duties of guarding the tracks near Forney when killed.

CYCLONE NEAR MARSHALL.
MARSHALL, Texas, Oct. 29.—Ed Stringer of the Gill neighborhood, about twelve miles south of Marshall, this morning stated that a cyclone hit that neighborhood Friday. The cyclone did considerable damage to outhouses and blew down and unroofed several vacant houses. It tore a path through the timber about 100 yards wide for a quarter of a mile. No one was killed or injured.

YOUTH IS HELD AS SLAYER OF GINNER

PADUCAH, Texas, Oct. 29.—Walker Tucker, manager of the Dunlap gin, was shot and killed this morning while sitting in a store at Dunlap. He was fired upon three times with a 32-caliber automatic pistol. Alvin Francis, 20 years old, is being held in jail awaiting examining trial.

Tucker and Francis are said to have quarreled four days ago at the Dunlap gin. This morning, it is said, Francis walked into the store at Dunlap and ordered Tucker to throw up his hands. Tucker was shot while his hands were in the air, it is alleged.

(Seal). Printed by The Ku Klux Press.

Evangelist Pleased.

Evangelist Garrison expressed his profound appreciation for the contribution and told his congregation that speaking, "not as a klansman but simply as a citizen," he believes the klansmen are doing a good work and expressed his belief in the principle on which the klan is working. The announcement from the evangelist of the existence of the klan in Ranger was received with distinct surprise by the congregation as no intimation of the organization of a klan has been received here in several months. Some time ago it was rumored that the klan was being organized in Ranger but at that time the report appeared without any particular foundation.

Found in Bible.

Following the services, Mr. Garrison stated that he found the money and communication in a plain envelope on which his name had been printed, between the leaves of his Bible, which he had left on his table. He was unable to say how it got into his room. He had stopped by his room on his way to open the services at the revival tent about 7:30 o'clock.

The announcement of the klan organization here was preceded several days ago by a statement from Sheriff Sam Nolley in which that official declared that no parade of klansmen or any other masked parade would be permitted in Eastland county, if he could prevent it.

The evangelist spoke last night on "Profit and Loss" Sunday morning he will preach on "Working Out Our Salvation," Sunday afternoon on "Good Roads," and Sunday night on "The Most Vital Moment of Your Life." The services will close Sunday night after lasting two weeks. Two conversions were effected at last night's services, bringing the total number of persons uniting with the church during the revival up to 132.

WHITE MAY LOSE JOB AS BIG BOSS OF DEMOCRATS

By Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—George White, chairman of the Democratic committee, and several other party leaders, left here tonight for St. Louis to attend the committee's meeting opening Nov. 1. The party leaders upon their departure expressed themselves as uncertain whether a "fight or a frolic" would develop at St. Louis.

There were several reports that a move might develop at the meeting to oust Mr. White from the chairmanship, but several said every possible effort would be made to continue party harmony.

Chairman White conferred at the capitol late today with several friends and it was decided that he should be accompanied to St. Louis by Senator Harrison of Mississippi, chairman of the speakers' bureau during the last presidential campaign. Senator Glass of Virginia, who was chairman of the platform committee at the San Francisco convention, left Washington on a separate train.

Some reports here said that friends of William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, were behind a plan to have Chairman White superseded. Mr. White's friends at the same time said he was willing and anxious to retire if all elements of the party could agree upon a successor.

Friends of Mr. McAdoo were reported as stating that they favored Daniel C. Roper, former internal revenue commissioner, for chairman, and denying that although Mr. Roper is a McAdoo supporter, the movement involves any aspirations of the former secretary of the treasury.

TEXAS FRIENDLY TO VOLSTEAD ACT MORRIS SAYS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Texas is perhaps more friendly to the enforcement of the Volstead law than any other state in the opinion of State Prohibition Director David K. Morris of Texas, who Thursday replied to the query of Prohibition Director Haynes as to the attitude of juries and newspapers in Texas on prohibition enforcement. Morris' letter was as follows:

"With reference to steps taken to co-operate with the various law enforcement agencies, I wish to say that I have been in conference with the United States attorneys, governor, adjutant general, ranger captains, sheriffs and city chiefs of police. These gentlemen have all agreed to co-operate in every possible way with me and my federal agents in the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment.

"As to the attitude of the press, I find that they are eager and anxious for all items that will enlighten our citizens with reference to laws and regulations governing the eighteenth amendment. They are endeavoring to instruct everyone as to just what this law means and very promptly correct any erroneous statements that are too prone to mislead.

"I am glad to say that as a whole I consider Texas to be in sympathy with the Volstead act as much or more than any other state in the union. And from rumor reports that I have been receiving from other towns, I know we don't have the open violations that are claimed in those states."

WHY NOT?

"Don't you think I'll make her happy?"

"Well, she'll always have something to laugh at!"—London Mail.

Mrs. Jessie M. Leveridge, of Schoolcraft, Wis., recently elected president of the Twenty-fifth Infantry association, is believed to be the first woman ever elected president of a G. A. R. regiment. It was while the regiment was stationed at Louisville, Ky., that a special order allowed her to be mustered into the regiment a few days after her birth.

RICHARDSON-BROWN'S OLD STAND

PROHIBITION CAUSE OF LOW PRICE OF CORN

Leading Starchmaker of Central Illinois Says So, but Crop Is Fine.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Oct. 29.—Prohibition is responsible for the low price of corn, according to A. E. Staley, one of the leading starch manufacturers of Central Illinois. He purchases 1,000,000 bushels every month. "New uses must be found for corn," he says. "When the brewers and distilleries were put out of business, big buyers of corn went out. I think that they used from 6 to 7 per cent of the total corn crop. Now there is no market for that proportion of the yield, and it is enough to keep prices down. If we had a market for this excess amount of the grain, I believe that prices would soar to 75 cents. That's the trouble with the corn market today. Things would be better if the price of corn was higher, but it looks as if it was going to stay down. There is nothing to the report that the estimates of the department of agriculture of total in excess of 3,000,000,000 bushels are too high. The corn is in the country as the department says it is. The buyers also know that it is there," he concluded.

Illinois commenced this week to harvest its bumper crop of corn. Abnormally high temperature all through September hastened the ripening of the grain and it is now in first class condition. Frost came late this season and conditions were exactly right in every respect except price. The total yield in Illinois is estimated at 300,000,000 bushels, but the farmers are facing a 40 per cent quotation, the smallest in years. Instead of a stronger market, as was experienced by cotton, grain has declined. After enjoying the wartime quotations of $1.75 to $2 per bushel, farmers find it hard to accept one-fourth or one-fifth as much. Even with the abnormal yield, the prevailing quotations will repay the farmer but a small return, in most instances, for his labor.

MISTER PACKER WILL GO A 'OILING' AT KOSSE

W. S. Packer, superintendent of the Rickard-Texas company, is going to do a little oiling at Kosse. It's pure wildcat territory now, but it looks promising, he says. He has a 2,000-acre lease, five miles east of the Jones-Humphreys well, and if he strikes anything, an ocean of oil can easily reflect the golden gleams of fortune in his direction. His first well will start down at an early date. Wildcatting at Kosse, twenty miles south of Mexia, is just the same sort of thing as drilling at Desdemona after the McCleskey well came in at Ranger.

Mr. Packer returned from the Kosse section last week, to find that fire of unknown origin had destroyed one of the Rickard-Texas derricks on the Coffman lease. The well was a small pumper. Another fire, equally mysterious, the same night destroyed a Culcan derrick on the Davis. It adjoined one of his company's big gas wells on the Barker, and if it had spread there, would have made a serious fire.

PRODUCTS WORTH $1,358,000 MADE IN RANGER IN FIVE YEARS

Manufactured products to the value of $2,358,000 were turned out in Ranger during the five-year period from 1914 to 1919, according to census bureau statistics recently given out in Washington. The figures cover only one year of the city's boom period and give but little conception of value of manufactured products produced here during the height of the city's prosperity. The products included in the list included refinery products, printing, tools, etc.

During the five-year period the value of production from factories in other Texas cities announced by the bureau is as follows: Abilene $766,000, Amarillo $1,897,000, Corsicana $8,000,000, Del Rio $271,000, Denison $5,078,000, El Paso $16,650,000, Austin $4,996,000, Beaumont $52,975,000, Brownsville $505,000, Cleburne $2,335,000, Corpus Christi $647,000, Fort Worth $38,160,000, Greenville $4,152,000, Houston $86,874,000, Laredo $705,000, Marshall $6,904,000, Palestine $2,810,000, Paris $6,080,000, San Angelo $454,000, San Antonio $35,456,000, Sherman $19,176,000, Temple $2,839,000, Texarkana $4,474,000, Tyler $2,616,000, Waco $13,085,000, and Wichita Falls $16,832,000.

I. & G. N. CAN HANDLE ALL BUSINESS OFFERED, FREIGHT AGENT SAYS

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 29.—An inquiry as to the number of striking trainmen on the International & Great Northern railroad who have returned to work as well as inquiries as to whether the railroad has adopted the open shop policy with reference to the trainmen's department were met at division offices here tonight with the statement that the road is able to handle all business offered.

Continued improvement in the movement of freight is reported by L. S. Goforth, district freight agent, and trains were said to be moving as fast as tonnage is produced.

MAJESTIC.

In producing the eight-reel picture "Under the Black Flag," portraying the life of Jesse James, Franklin B. Choates, the director, has taken a subject that might have turned out a blood and thunder affair, reeking with crime and exploiting the crimes and bravery of "America's most hunted outlaw" and turned it into a romance of bandit life, with the romance flavor predominating throughout the story. Five states were covered in the production of the film and all the authentic haunts of the James gang were used in the backgrounds.

The story opens in modern times when Lucile James, daughter of the son of Jesse James, comes to her father with the young man whom she wishes to marry. In order that the young man may know the character of the grandfather, the father gives him the book, "Jesse James Under the Black Flag" to read. As he turns the pages of the absorbing story the life of Jesse James is enacted upon the screen.

Jesse James, Jr. appears in the role of his father. His performance from the standpoint of makeup and character interpretation shows careful directing and attention to detail. It is claimed that the picture can hardly be called a bandit film as while it deals with crime it does not attempt to justify crime. The picture seeks to bring out that Jesse James was forced into a life of crime and to portray the "finer" side of his character. In attempting to do this, the picture abounds with thrills and realistic scenes.

DOG RACES ARE LATEST SPORT AT E. ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29.—Dog racing with betting as the principal attraction, is now in full swing at the new track of the St. Clair Amusement company, just beyond the eastern limits of East St. Louis. Yesterday ten bookmakers were grouped in the paddock, accepting wagers at stated odds, and any person desiring to make a wager was accommodated. Each bookmaker was assisted by a recording clerk and a paymaster, and the acceptance and payment of bets was carried on systematically.

The bookmakers, the majority of whom were Oklahomans who had followed the dogs here from Tulsa, where this form of racing has been popular, were grouped beneath an L-shaped shed. Each held an official program of the races, with the odds on the various dogs penciled off conspicuously, so that bettors had no difficulty in seeing what prices were being offered.

For a half hour before each race the paddock was the scene of great activity, similar to what formerly was a daily occurrence in the betting rings of the old St. Louis racetracks before the "sport of kings" was legislated out of existence in 1905 because it had degenerated into a syndicated gambling institution.

Numbers Identify Bettors.

The bookmakers were identified by nickel-plated badges bearing numbers. The bettors identified themselves by means of numbered cards strung in coat buttonholes. Each bettor was presented with such a card when he paid the 50-cent admission fee to get into the paddock. The general admission charge is 90 cents. There was some oral betting going on in the grand stand, but the big portion of the gambling was handled by the bookmakers in the paddock.

Half an hour before a race was scheduled to start, when the entries were taken from their owners and placed in the hands of track officials, crowds surged into the paddock, where the dogs were on exhibition, and moved about from one book-maker to another seeking favorable odds. When a wager was made, the recording clerk would accept the money of the bettor and write a memorandum on a slip of paper, noting the number of the bettor's badge, the dog he had bet on, and the odds at which the bet had been made. The bettor would note the bookmaker's badge number and then saunter back to his seat in the grandstand to await the result of the race. At the conclusion of the race those who had won would return to the paddock and collect their winnings.

SECRET SESSIONS.

Some criticism is being made of the commissioners' court because Mr. Overson's selection as county attorney was made at an executive session, from which the public was barred. And this criticism comes from persons who have no objection to Mr. Overson's appointment, but who take an interest in public affairs and want to know how things come about.

If unofficial reports of what took place at the meeting are correct, the wonder grows that a secret session was necessary. It seems that certain men were admitted and allowed to urge that certain other men be appointed to the position; that a number of ballots were taken, and Mr.
Overson was finally selected by a vote of 3 to 1. That was about all there was to it, according to an account considered reliable.

Surely there was nothing in such a proceeding that needed to be concealed from the public gaze. And yet it was concealed, and thereby suspicions were aroused in many minds that a "frameup" had been put over.

It is possible that the board felt that some embarrassment would be saved to unsuccessful candidates, that there would be disputations as to the choice after it was made, and on the whole the matter could be attended to in a more efficient manner, by this method.

If this was its reason, it is based on entirely erroneous premises.

In the first place, all transactions of the commissioners' court is public business. Every taxpayer feels that it is HIS business and that he is entitled to know not only the decisions made but what considerations enter into their making. It may not be statute law, but it certainly is the common feeling that anything that must be put over in secret is something against the public interest. This feeling will persist, whether the fact is true or not. And there is enough suspicion in Eastland county, without it being needlessly augmented by secret sessions.

County officials might take a lesson from business life in this matter.
Suppose, for instance, that the executives of a corporation held a meeting, to make a decision, but when the president came around and sought to enter, he was told to stay away and he would be informed as to what was done after the meeting had adjourned. Do you think that proposition would go over very big with the Big Boss?

Now in government, Mr. Taxpayer is principal stockholder and titular president. He hires managers, known as county commissioners. Does that mean that President Taxpayer must abide by whatever they do, has no cept what is handed to him in the rights in the way of information exchange of typewritten memos? Not on your life. That is not good either for the president or the hired executives.

Needless suspicion and distrust can easily be aroused by such business.
Open and above board discussion of things which will affect the public welfare will abate suspicion.

The public is entitled to know not only what is done in its name and its behalf, but also the alternatives that might be followed. It is not a case of being told "take this, it is good for you."

FATE OF MANY OIL WELLS IN TEXAS DEPENDS ON RULING,
HUMBLE COMPANY DECLARES

The fate of a large percentage of oil wells in West Texas depends, according to officials of the Humble Oil & Refining company, on the decision of the railroad commission in the case of the company's Keathley No. 1, two and a half miles southeast of Breckenridge. The well, which is producing some 300 barrels of oil and 21-000,000 feet of gas, is said to have been classed as a gas well several days ago by Judge Hassell, chief oil and gas supervisor of the commission and the Humble company ordered to "lubricate" it as a means of conserving the heavy gas flow, much of which is going to waste for want of a market or use.

The company officials claim that should the railroad commission adopt a policy of requiring all wells to be killed where they produce both oil and gas that hundreds of wells, in fact a large percentage of the wells in West Texas would have to be shut in or "lubricated," and thereby lost to oil operators and royalty owners. The hearing in the case opened before the commission on Oct. 25 and recently adjourned to convene on Monday in order to give royalty owners and anyone else interested in the pending question, an opportunity to be heard and express their views.

No Agreement Reached.

The hearing was opened after conference between Judge Hassell and representatives of the Humble company failed to bring about an agreement in the matter. It was the contention of the chief supervisor of the commission that the well is a gas well and that waste of gas is being committed and that the fact that the well was producing between 300 and 400 barrels per day did not justify the continued flowing of same and further that the casing is now unseated so that the hole below the seat of the ten-inch casing is no properly cased.

The company, on the other hand, contended at the hearing that the well should be classed as an oil well; that it is saving and utilizing about 7,000-000 feet of gas and allowing 13,000-

000 feet to flow into the air, only after their attempts to sell or give the gas away failed; further that the casing in the well was originally properly set and that if any string is now unseated that it is due to the terrific blowout that occurred unexpectedly and with such force that it blew a string of tools that was caught in the well, out of the hole and a distance of over a quarter of a mile. The oil and gas was struck unexpectedly, the company claims, and was in a freak sand about ninety feet above the depth of the Breckenridge lime. In denying the claim that the oil stratum is endangered from the unseating of the casing, it is contended that the oil and gas stratum is not exposed and that it would be impossible, with the gas pressure from the bottom of the hole, for water above to get into the stratum from which the oil and gas is now being produced.

Any attempt to "lubricate" the well with the present gas pressure might result in loss of life, destruction of the well and flood of the oil and gas stratum, it is claimed.

"INDIAN SUMMER" IS TERM
OFTEN MISUSED.

Any fine days in autumn are called Indian summer days by those who do not know when that season really comes. In reality Indian summer is in November. One of the best descriptions of this season is taken from the "National Intelligence" of Nov. 26, 1857, and the definition was printed to settle a dispute among the readers of that publication. It follows:

"The short season of pleasant weather, usually occurring about the middle of November, is called Indian summer from the custom of the Indians to avail themselves of this delightful time for harvesting their corn, and the tradition is that they were accustomed to say they always had a second summer of nine days just before winter set in.

"It is a bland and genial time, in which the birds, insects and plants feel a new creation and sport a short-lived summer ere they shrink finally from the rigor of the winter's blast. The sky in the meantime is generally filled with a haze of orange and gold intercepting the direct rays of the sun, yet possessing enough light and heat to prevent sensations of gloom or chill, while the nights grow sharp and frosty and give cheerful forecast of the social winter evenings near at hand."

In the building trades women have are listed in practically every craft.

There are women carpenters and ers, paper hangers, roofers, glass workers and plumbers.

SOCIETY AND ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

MRS. R. B. CAMPBELL, Editor Telephone 418

The Week in Retrospect

"Coming events cast their shadow before" and if the activities of the past week can be called a "shadow," then we can safely predict that the coming season is to be a very busy one in social and club affairs.

SHRINE CABARET-DANCE MAKES GHOLSON LOOK LIKE BROADWAY

By MRS. R. B. CAMPBELL. The lobby of the Gholson hotel, Friday evening, was the scene of one of the most elaborate and delightful functions given in Ranger this season.

Dr. Craig for once forsook the "tooth doctor" business and went into surgery, the victim being Oliver Gibson.

The spacious lobby was curtained off from the main corridors and it was here that the "stage was set." The interior was beautifully decorated.

Owing to the illness of Dr. Carl Wilson a very beautiful number had to be called off. This number was the exact opposite of the modern dance, being the stately minuet, in which Dr. Wilson and Miss Dora Mayme Cole were to appear.

RUSSIA SEMI-WET, BUT HAS NOTHING TO DRINK

By Associated Press. MOSCOW, Oct. 3.—(By Mail.)—In three weeks of travel through Soviet Russia The Associated Press correspondent has seen but one intoxicated man.

The new decree permitting 12 per cent of alcohol in beverages has not produced the results wine-bibbers and beer-lovers had hoped for.

Following the program the floor was cleared of chairs and dancing followed, the grand march being led by Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Harkrider.

Restaurants and cafes have no alcoholic drinks for sale. There is an abundance of kvass and various non-fermented drinks alleged to be made from fruit but probably largely chemical in their composition.

The "Tell Me Pretty Maiden" chorus caught the crowd and some of the younger members are still asking that eternal question—but pretty maidens were ever non-committal.

There is no examination on Monday on account of the Missionary societies.

Little Miss Virginia Douglas, the "Littlest One," was very clever in "Mama, Papa's Getting Mad," singing the song and following it with a dance.

Have you a large kitchen that can be converted into a kitchenette and breakfast room combined? A small kitchenette will appeal to you as efficient after you have learned to work in it.

Mr. Oliver Gibson, as usual, held his audience spellbound while he sang "Mother Mathree" and encore.

AUCTION BRIDGE—NO. 3

"United We Stand, Divided We Fall"

Without unity and team work in bidding, auction bridge can never be made an interesting or a brilliant game.

winner, especially if you hold three or four small trumps.

The rules given here for bidding should, in a measure, be memorized, so that even when playing with a stranger, he has the right to assume that your bidding is along the lines generally accepted as conventional and standard.

Questions and Answers. Q. What is a quick trick? A. An ace of any suit.

The opening bid of one spade or heart suggests the trump and two quick tricks toward the defeat of any bid the opponent may make.

NEGROES OFFER $500 REWARD FOR BRANDERS. PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 29.—Negro residents of Portland have subscribed $500 to be offered as a reward for apprehension of the two men responsible for robbing, beating and branding with the letters "K. K. K." Mrs. Elsie Reynolds, colored, of this city.

It is advisable in a suit bid to hold a top honor at least, but the state of the score will often justify a bid of a long holding and the under honors at head.

Standard for Major Suit Bid. A One Bid demands: 1. Five or more, headed by A. K., A. Q. J., or K. Q. J., and one quick trick in a side suit.

Standard for Major Suit Bid. A Two Bid demands: 1. Five or more, headed by four honors, and one quick trick in a side suit.

SCHOOLS SUP'T WANTS BANK TO HANDLE FUNDS

Ulala Howard Says Any Bank Can Handle Account By Vouchers, Same as Checks.

Eastland county is without a depository for its school funds, and in a signed communication Ulala Howard, county superintendent, makes an appeal for some bank in the county to come to the front and assume the responsibility. The statement and appeal by the county superintendent, a copy of which has been received by the Times, is as follows:

To the General Public, Bankers Included:—
Practically every bank in the county responded to our appeal through the papers for some one to take over the school funds; but after having the difficulties and the supposed difficulties of the enterprise fluently set before them, they failed to bid for the fund. I cannot blame them, and therefore have made some investigations which may help the situation and enable us to secure a depository. I have learned the following facts:

1. The school depository will NOT be required to keep a fund at Eastland for the payment of accounts. Any Eastland bank, by taking up vouchers, as the banks of the county have always done, and clearing them later as all checks are cleared, will act as an agent for the depository, and thereby answer the requirements of the law, as I have been informed by a very reliable firm of lawyers, whose opinion all of you respect.

2. The state department of education has informed me that a surety bond will be accepted, just the same as a personal bond, although the latter is designated by law.

3. A separate account for each district has NEVER been kept by ANY Eastland county depository, so far as I have learned. Three funds have usually been kept: The available school fund, the permanent fund and the sinking fund. There will be no permanent fund in the future, unless it can be recovered from the Security State Bank & Trust company, or its sureties. There will also be no sinking fund until next April, and then only a nominal sum, as all our permanent funds were tied up with the failure of the Security State bank last August.

4. Any assistance which this office can render in the making of reports by the depository will be gladly given. Our books will be available at all times, and we shall be glad to render any aid possible. I assure you it will not be such an undertaking as many seem to think.

Doing Her Best.
I am being asked constantly if I have yet secured a depository, and what I intend to do about the school funds. The answer is this: I am allowed by law to do nothing; all the authority is in the commissioners' court, concerning the depository. I am doing, however, as practically all of you know, everything within my power to secure a depository for our rural schools. I cannot see how banks can lose, nor why the handling of these funds should prove such a difficult enterprise as has been represented. Heretofore we have had several bids each time for the funds.

The commissioners' court met last Tuesday and designated one of the county banks as depository of the school funds; but after a long conference with others, the bank representative indicated to me that it is not very probable that his bank will make bond. If it does not, we shall remain without, unless one of the others will come to the rescue. Will you do so?

I have blank bonds in my office, and the commissioners' court has promised to appoint any who will pay as much as 1 1/2 per cent interest on these funds, which is the minimum required by law.

MAJESTIC THEATRE MAY HAVE MUSICAL COMEDY BEGINNING TODAY

Happy Jones' musical comedy and a special picture program will be shown at the Majestic theatre today in case Jesse James, Jr., and his eight-reel motion picture "Under the Black Flag," do not arrive here in time. The theatre management was notified yesterday morning that James was ill in Galveston and could not accompany his picture here. Later they were notified that James had left for Ranger. In case James does not arrive in time today, his picture will be exhibited Monday, it is stated.

Happy Jones and his company will reach here tonight from Breckenridge for a ten-day stay at the local playhouse. The musical comedies will be changed every few days and will be featured by girls and music. The company will give three performances a day which will be combined with motion pictures.

MANHATTAN.

History, romance and tragedy are blended into an awe-inspiring and thrilling spectacle in George Kleine's gigantic photodramatic production of Henryk Sienkiewicz's celebrated novel "Quo Vadis," which will commence a three-day engagement at the Manhattan theatre today. "Quo Vadis," is accredited by all who have seen it, with being the most marvelous motion picture spectacle of the century.

It has created a sensation wherever it has been shown. For scope, magnitude, extravagant splendor, realism, thrills and sensation, it is said the picture has never been equalled.

The beautiful love story of the pagan Vinitius, for the Christian girl, Lygia, is related with remarkable fidelity, and the companion love story of Petronius and Eunice, his slave, is also faithfully shown.

The trials of the early Christians, the vain and cruel temperament of the wicked tyrant Nero and his courtiers, which were so graphically drawn by the author, are illustrated on the screen with remarkable veracity.

The burning of Rome, the marvelous feasts of the pleasure-loving Nero, the combats of the gladiators, the maddened horde of lions, the stirring conquest of an infuriated bull with a woman tied to its back by the barbarian Ursus, the gathering of the Christians in the catacombs, and the appearance of the Savior to St. Peter, are all shown with wonderful truth of detail and form a spectacle so stupendous no one should miss the opportunity to see it.

MAY BE NEXT MRS. CHARLIE CHAPLIN

Clair Windsor

LOS ANGELES—Dame Rumor says that either May Collins, brunette and beautiful, or Clair Windsor, blond and equally beautiful, will be the second Mrs. Charlie Chaplin. One holds the key, but neither will admit it, and Charlie refuses to be interviewed on the subject. Miss Collins said: "There really isn't anything definite. He's been away two months, and time makes an awful lot of difference. He's human, and so am I. He may change his mind, and so may I. So I don't know." Miss Windsor said: "I can't answer, honestly. There's never been anything serious between us—anything really deeply, honestly serious, I mean. Of course, he's been at the house many times—a good many just before he left for abroad. We've been out together, and all that. But he's not divorced yet, you know, and—with a long pause—"I am not sure whether I am."

TEMPLE.

Starting Sunday at the Temple theatre will be "Squandered Lives," an adaptation of the well-known novel "Duke's Son," by Cosmo Hamilton. It is the initial release of the Stoll Film corporation of America, and marks the opening of a program that will bring to picturegoers one subject each week. Just as "Squandered Lives" is from the pen of a writer of reputation so will be the ones to follow. The Stoll productions are all represented in the world famous authors series. Among the list of twenty-five men and women known to the reading world are Marie Corelli, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Hamilton Gibbs, Robert Hichens, A. E. W. Mason, E. Phillips Oppenheim, Sax Rohmer, E. Temple Thurston, Stanley Weyman and H. G. Wells.

"Squandered Lives" features Ivy Duke and Guy Newall, two actors of ability. They are supported by a cast of strength. Miss Duke has a striking personality and possesses a wealth of charm and attractiveness. There are many stirring situations running through the six reels and picture patrons are promised not only a subject that is out of the ordinary but one of much heart interest.

There is a fine supporting cast and the picture is adequately staged. The production was made at the Stoll studios in London, and the patrons of the Temple may be assured the settings are accurate. "Squandered Lives" marks the introduction of the Stoll Film company of America, of which George King is president. The company plans to issue one subject each week.

INDIA GIVES 'PUSSYFOOT' JOHNSON RECEPTION EQUAL TO ROYALTY

DELHI, India, Oct. 29.—William E. ("Pussyfoot") Johnson, the American anti-saloon crusader who lost an eye in trying to dry up the British Isles, is getting another kind of a reception in India. Moslem and Hindu, thousands of them in the past two weeks, have rendered Johnson honors rarely shown to any person short of royalty.

Mr. Johnson has been lavishly entertained by the Thakor Sabh of Limbri and other ruling princes and has been the recipient of numerous gifts. These include a case of jewels and a gold watch, containing one prince's photograph and his engraved coat-of-arms inlaid in regal purple enamel.

Talks in Pajamas. The night before at 11:30 o'clock, Johnson's train pulled into Ajmer. About 500 natives were at the station and yelled for a speech. The crusader was awakened and as the stop was only for a few minutes he didn't have time to dress. Whereupon the American appeared on the platform in slippers and pajamas and gave the crowd a vehement if brief broadside against the drink evil.

at 2:30 p. m. All are invited to attend these services. A cool, clean, well lighted place to spend an hour in worshipping Him who lives, loves, and is the Savior of all. CAPT. AND MRS. F. F. MULLINS, Officers in Charge.

OLDER THAN GRANDAUNT

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Oct. 29.—George W. Weaver, Centre county, enjoys the distinction of having a great-grandchild who is older than his youngest daughter, and Weaver himself is only 68 years of age.

His oldest granddaughter married Edward Askey of Liberty Township. Their oldest son is 13 years old and older than Mr. Weaver's youngest daughter by his second marriage, who is great-aunt to the lad who was born before her.

Weaver is regarded as the Daniel Boone of Curtis Township, as he has probably killed more deer and bear during his life than any other resident. Every season he spends some time in the woods after deer.

Madame Kajiko Yajima, the "Carrie Nation" of Japan, who is now past 83 years of age and president of the Japanese Women's Betterment association, representing a membership of more than 500,000, is accompanying the Japanese peace delegation to the United States.

Baroda, governed by a native ruler, entertained "Pussyfoot" as a guest of the government. An entire mansion, with a coterie of servants and a chief of staff, and a carriage with driver and footman, were assigned to him and the reception was attended by Indian rajahs and princesses as well as officials of the state.

Though she is only 13 years of age, Miss Naomi Ehanland, of Effingham, England, actively assists her father in the training of race horses.

'Bo' McMillan Hurls Men To Victory Over Harvard

RANGER HIGH LICKS THURBER INDEPENDENTS IN HARD GAME

Strong Offensive Play Shown by High, but Fumbles Keep Down Score and Give Thurber Touchdown Which Almost Decides Contest; Straight Football Features Play.

Ranger High, by sustained pounding at the line, nosed out a team from Thurber yesterday, 7 to 6. The Thurber team, it might well be made known at the beginning, was not the Thurber High school. It did not claim to be the Thurber High school, and that fact was known to the Ranger athletic authorities before the game began.

Thurber was badly battered last week in Eastland, and late this week they told Ranger that without outside assistance, they would be unable to play. Because the game had been scheduled, and the only alternative was an open date, it was agreed that the Thurberites might play three members of the Thurber Legion team. That was all there was to it. The game would not have counted against the High school's record if it had lost. The victory does not count anything either, except it was an example of how the Ranger youngsters could go out and lick an eleven which had it all over them in age, weight and experience.

Ultimately, fumbling, and poor choice of plays on at least one occasion, cost the touchdowns that would have more nearly represented the power of the two elevens. Three times the ball was pushed into the ten-yard zone without a score being registered. On only one of these occasions was the Ranger attack smashed. Once a forward pass over the goal line—on first down and seven yards to go—gave Thurber the ball. Again a fumble on the ten-yard line did the same thing. Several other fumbles interrupted marches down the field that represented lots of work.

Give 'Em Touchdown.
Worst of all, a few pss to Mills went astray as the third quarter was drawing to a close, and Roberts, the husky Thurber right end, snatched the ball and raced seventy yards up the ball and raced seventy yards up the field. His teammates dumped his pursuers from behind and he went on to a touchdown, almost unopposed. Unfug missed goal. Possibly his foot had gone to sleep during the long squabble over whether unnecessary roughness had been shown in dumping the Ranger defenders.

Anyway, it came in handy, as was seen a few minutes later, when High school marched half the length of the field on hard-running plays in which the purple-jerseyed backs fought for every inch, ending up with a clean line smash by Alworth which went for eight yards and put the tying touchdown across. A moment later, Mills' trusty toe put the winning point over the crossbar.

There is much discussion in football circles about the goal after touchdown. Often it gives a good team an undeserved loss. Yesterday it was entirely appropriate. By no

LONGHORNS PUT RICE OWLS DOWN FOR COUNT 56-0 SOUTH BREAKS 40-YEAR RECORD BY 6 TO 0 SCORE

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Oct. 29.—Texas university walked over the Rice Institute Owls here today for eight touchdowns and a score of 56 to 0. The Longhorns simply outplayed the Owls, crippled by the absence of Dyer and McGee. Only in the last three minutes of the play did the Owls make a first down, that also being the only time they threatened the Texas goal. The ball was on Texas' four-yard line when the game ended. Rice had placed it there by completing several forward passes in a desperate attempt to count. Texas did not resort to the pass at any time, sticking to line bucks and end runs, both from straight and trick formations.

PENNSYLVANIA BEATS GEORGIA TO STANDSTILL

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Pennsylvania State's stalwart football warriors swept around through and over the fighting Georgia Tech eleven here today. The final score of Penn State 28, Tech 7, shows how markedly was the margin by which the Northerners outclassed the widely heralded Golden Tornado. The feature of the game was a thrilling eighty-five yard run by Killinger, State's fleet quarterback, who caught a kick on his own fifteen-yard line and never stopped until he had sprinted through the Tech team and planted the ball on the Southerners' goal.

SOUTHWESTERN GOES DOWN BEFORE BAYLOR

By Associated Press.

WACO, Oct. 29.—The Baylor eleven defeated the Southwestern Pirates, 16 to 0, in a slow game here this afternoon. Both touchdowns were made on fumbles by Southwestern in the first quarter, Tanner making the first one after a fifty-yard run, and Pittman the second on a fifty-three yard run. Bradshaw kicked a goal from the thirty-five yard line in the last period.

Southwestern had a chance to score by kicking from the ten-yard line in the third quarter but elected to pass and lost out.

ABLENE, Oct. 29.—When Halton, jeweler, inadvertently left some beautiful "sparklers" in his show window the other night and closed shop, he made it possible for burglars to get away with the diamonds. When he came down the following morning the display window was broken and diamonds gone. The loss reaches several hundred dollars. There is no clew.

ARKANSAS U. BLANKS S. M. U. BY FOURTEEN

By Associated Press.

FORT SMITH, Oct. 29.—The University of Arkansas walked away from Southern Methodist U. with a score of 14 to 0 here this afternoon. The squad from Texas did not make a first down after the beginning of the second half.

Winkleman was easily the individual star. Robinson ran him a close second, however, on his ability to make gains through the Texans' line was spectacular. For the Mustangs, Kitts played well during the time he was in the game but was forced out because of injuries. The general defensive work of the Arkansas line prevented the Texas backfield from showing up well.

OFFICERS FIND BOOZE GROWING ON VINES IN WATERMELON PATCH

LAUREL, Del., Oct. 29.—Watermelons don't always grow on watermelon vines, revenue officers learned here today when they raided a farm. What might have been mounds of melons turned out to be demijohns of liquors. Lott Pooks will explain the alleged phenomena to a United States commissioner.
