PRAIRIE PUTS RANGER OIL TO $1.50

North Texas crude is ballooning; a second raise was posted today by the Prairie Oil & Gas company, making the product worth $1.50 at the wells. This follows a raise of 25 cents posted Wednesday by the Texas company and immediately met by the Prairie and other companies. The new raise does not include Oklahoma and Kansas oils, which went to $1.25 Friday. However they are expected to follow the lead of North Texas. The Texas Pipe Line company which took the lead in the first boost had not received instructions to meet the Prairie's price at 2:30 o'clock today.

GATESVILLE'S REFORMATORY IS UNDER FIRE

Testimony Offered Shows Beaumont Boy Was Choked and Beaten to Death.

By United Press.

GATESVILLE, Texas, Oct. 1.—The Gatesville training school scandal threatened to have far-reaching effects as the examining trial of H. G. Twyman, instructor at the school, who is charged with the murder of Dell Thames, was resumed today.

Rumors of hard treatment accorded the boys at the State Juvenile Training School were heard today. It was reported here that the mother of one of the inmates of the school, who was sent here from Dallas, was on her way to Austin for a conference with Governor Neff.

Judge H. E. Bell and A. R. Johnson, representing the governor, will make a thorough investigation of the methods and management of the training school immediately after the Twyman examining trial is completed. This, it is expected, will be today.

Four witnesses were called by the state yesterday, two of them boys from the institution. Both testified that Twyman beat and choked Thames. The boy's father declared that the body of his son showed bruises and marks about the face when it arrived in Beaumont for burial. A half dozen other witnesses are expected to testify for the state today. Indications were the defense would not offer any testimony.

The evidence given by Joe Thomas proved the most startling. He was on the stand for two hours and was subjected to direct examination, cross examination and redirect examination, but he stuck to his story. The Thames boy was 15 years old, not 19, as some papers have reported and was of average weight for that age. He had been at school only five days.

Twyman Used Stick First.

"Thames did not go through the drills right," said Thomas on the stand, "and Cecil Lightfoot, one of the boys in charge, brought him to Twyman, who ordered him taken behind the belfry, a sort of enclosure where punishments are inflicted. I was sixty yards away from this first punishment and while I did not see any of the lashes given I could hear them. Twyman used a strap about one yard long, three inches wide and an eighth of an inch thick. It had a leather handle. It is the custom to whip the boys on their bare backs and this was done in the case of Thames. After the first whipping he was placed back in the squad and he drilled about a half hour longer. Then he rested an hour and a half in the arbor after which he drilled

EASTLAND OIL & REFINING CO. SOLD AT DALLAS

By United Press.

DALLAS, Oct. 1.—All property of the Eastland Oil & Refining company including its 3,000-barrel refinery in Dallas, and acreage and production in North Texas, has been purchased by the Trinity Oil corporation, it was announced today. The consideration was said to be $410,000. The Trinity corporation has just taken out its charter. The deal was made through the Southwest National bank. It was also stated that the new company will build a lubricating oil plant, in which all grades of lubricators will be made.

DELEGATION TO ASK IMMEDIATE WORK ON ROADS

Seven Hundred Rangerites Sign Petition to County Commissioners.

By United Press.

A mass meeting held last night at the Lamb theatre voted to request the commissioners' court to begin the task of completing the Bankhead highway from Ranger to Cisco and a delegation will go to Eastland Monday and ask the court to proceed with the work as quickly as possible.

H. S. Cole, chairman of the Committee of Eight, made a report to the meeting in which he stated the committee had not been able to find anything wrong with the affairs of the county or the contract of the Fleming & Sitzer Road Building company. His report was accepted and indorsed by the meeting.

About thirty men were present at the meeting, which was held to find the sentiment of the people regarding completing the highway. The small gathering is explained by the fact that more than 700 persons had signed petitions asking that the court build the road.

Similar meetings have been held at Eastland and Cisco and with the sentiment found to be about the same as that in Ranger, it is thought that tomorrow the court will start making arrangements to have the highway completed. It was said it would do that if the sentiment of the people was in favor of the move.

APPEALS ARE FILED IN TWO CAPITAL CASES AT AUSTIN

By United Press.

AUSTIN, Oct. 1.—An appeal was filed in the case of C. E. Gaines from Dallas county, given the death penalty upon conviction of connection with the killing of G. W. Street on Jan. 14, 1921.

Street was a postal clerk and was killed during the robbery of the Jackson street postoffice.

Appeal was also filed in the case of J. T. Parks, from Dallas, sentenced to hang for criminal assault on a 13-year-old girl.

LONGSHOREMEN STRIKE

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Several thousand longshoremen and checkers walked out today as a protest against the working terms agreement made recently by the trans-Atlantic steamship operators and the International Longshoremen's association. The district council of the association announced it has not authorized a strike.

PERSHING IN PARIS.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—General Pershing arrived from Coblenz this morning and went immediately to the Hotel Grillon, where he spent the forenoon considering plans for tomorrow's ceremonies at the grave of France's "unknown soldier." A composite battalion from all the units of the American expeditionary forces of the Rhine army, numbering 700 officers and soldiers, arrived shortly after noon.

HINT TO U. S. PROFITEERS.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—The all-night mon-matree dancing joints have hit upon a new supplement for their bills, which already included cover charge, luxury tax, obligatory bottle of champagne, and sometimes the date. In several cases it has been worked as follows: Tired business man takes his wife to "see life." He isn't fond of dancing. Sleek young man in evening dress respectfully offers to dance with "madam." As a lark, "madam" dances. When the tired business man gets the bill it includes the item, "Dance for madam, 20 francs."

His Wife Aids Bigbee With Testimony

MANY FARMERS HERE TO ATTEND TRACTOR SHOW

Five Fordsons Put to Work to Show Value to Agriculture.

Nearly 150 men, with a sprinkling of women, the majority of whom are from the farms, were in attendance this morning at the Fordson tractor demonstration being given by the Leveille-Maher Motor company, under the direction of W. J. Atwood, a tractor expert from the Ford factories. The demonstration was given north of Hodges Oak Park. Five tractors were in use, each hooked to a different implement. The following implements which are carried in stock by Leveille-Maher were used: a seven-foot disc harrow, a Martin ditcher, a feed mill, an Amso drill, and a road grader and a four-disc plow.

Barbecue Served.

At 12 o'clock barbecue was served the guests by the local company, and soda water, lemonade and cigars were available all day.

During the afternoon Mr. Atwood made a talk on the help Henry Ford expects to extend to the farmers and Mr. Maher talked on the service his company will extend.

The tractors in use were of the "10-20" type, which means that on a straight pull they develop as much power as ten horses and on a pulley will do as much work as twenty horses.

One-Man Operation.

One demonstration given was deep plowing with four discs cutting six to ten inches deep. This plow, as are the other implements, is arranged so the man who drives the tractor may also handle the levers on the plow. One tractor, without a driver, was turned loose to run in a circle. It tracked itself for more than an hour without attention.

The interest in the exhibition displayed by the farmers of this section came as a surprise to several business men who were present. In their opinion it is an omen that farming, which virtually was discontinued with the finding of oil, is again becoming an industry of importance. The demonstration began at 9 o'clock this morning and lasted until about 4 o'clock this afternoon.

CARBUNCLE ON NECK IS FATAL TO C. M. BOSWELL

Blood poisoning, which set up in a carbuncle at the back of his neck was responsible for the death of C. M. Boswell, owner of the Ozarka Water company, this morning at 5 o'clock. Mr. Boswell, who was a pioneer railroad builder of South America and Louisiana, and who was the sole owner of the Ozarka Water company, was afflicted about two weeks ago and removed to the Clinical hospital, where a struggle ensued to save his life. He underwent operations, almost twice each day, in an effort to combat the insidious disease, but death won. The Milford Undertaking company is holding the body pending funeral arrangements.

Mr. Boswell was a member of both the Masonic fraternity and the Episcopal church. Mrs. Boswell, two children, Charles McA. Jr., of Ranger and Mrs. D. B. Whitley of Dallas, are the survivors. His mother and a sister have their home in Russellville, Ind., and a brother lives in St. Louis.

Was Railroad Builder.

To his friends, Mr. Boswell's death from such a minor cause seems one of those queer quirks of fate, of which the world is amazingly full. For six years he fought the swamps of Panama and Brazil; building, and later managing the Madero & Matamoros railroad. Then he went to Louisiana and built the Louisiana & Pacific railroad. Four years ago he put into operation the Ozarka Water company of Dallas.

Last December Mr. Boswell came to Ranger, to personally put the local branch of the water company on its feet, and has been living in the city continuously since.

SUPES HIRED TO WELCOME FATTY, LATEST RUMOR IN MOVIE WORLD

By United Press.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—Rumors ran through the Hollywood film colony today that the demonstration Fatty Arbuckle received upon his arrival yesterday was a staged affair, with hired supes doing the cheering.

This rumor originated at the Hollywood hotel, where many film stars make their headquarters. It was hotly denied by friends of the comedian, who is out on $5,000 bond, charged with causing the death of Virginia Rappe. Fatty's arrival in Los Angeles has caused a sharp division in the ranks of the movie people. Some favor Arbuckle, and others denounce him.

HATCHET SLAYS SAILOR'S WIFE IN LOVE TRIANGLE

Husband and Nurse Under Arrest; Twenty-Nine Wounds on Body.

By United Press.

COLONIAL BEACH, Va., Oct. 1.—The brutal murder of Mrs. Roger D. Eastlake, mother of four children, today was charged jointly to her husband, a naval petty officer, and Miss Sarah E. Knox of Baltimore, by a coroner's jury. The mutilated body of Mrs. Eastlake was discovered in her home here. Nearby was found a sharp hatchet which police believe was used in the murder, and a blood-stained revolver.

Eastlake and Miss Knox are now in the Westmorland county jail at Montrose, awaiting action by a grand jury.

Twenty-Nine Wounds.

Twenty-nine wounds, inflicted by a hatchet and revolver, were found by an autopsy here today on the body of Mrs. Eastlake, whose brutal murder is charged by a coroner's jury to her husband and his alleged sweetheart, Miss Sarah E. Knox, of Baltimore. This little village has been stirred by the brutality of the murder, and threats of violence have been made against Eastlake. He and Miss Knox, who is a trained nurse, graduate of Johns-Hopkins, have been removed to Westmorland county jail at Montrose, to await grand jury action.

The body of Mrs. Eastlake was found in her home early yesterday. Miss Knox had rushed through the village, telling that Mrs. Eastlake had been murdered.

Her head was almost severed from her body. The jury found that Mrs. Eastlake's death was caused by "sharp instruments in the hands of her husband and the nurse."

Testimony against Eastlake was given by two of his children, 8 and 10 years old. They said they were awakened by the noise of the brutal murder. They entered another room of the house and saw their father. He, according to the children's testimony, rushed them back to bed, saying their mother had been hurt, and was being taken to the hospital.

Her head was almost severed from her body. The jury found that Mrs. Eastlake's death was caused by "sharp instruments in the hands of her husband and the nurse."

PACKING HOUSE EMPLOYEES WILL VOTE ON STRIKE

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—A strike vote of the union packer employes of the country will be taken next Saturday, it was learned by the United Press today.

The vote will be on the question of whether the men favor leaving their jobs in the event the union is unable to obtain recognition from the employers. No question of wages is involved.

Packers declared an open shop on Sept. 15, when the agreement under which they have been operating, fixed by Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler, expired.

PRESIDENT HARDING TO WITNESS MANEUVERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—President Harding, accompanied by Mrs. Harding and a small party left Washington this morning for Fredericksburg, Va., where he will witness the fall maneuvers of the East Coast expeditionary force of the Marine corps, spending the night in a "tent White House" on the battlefields of the Civil war and the campaign of the Wilderness.

WEAK WOMAN FALTERS AS SHE BARES SORDID DETAILS OF DUAL LIFE

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, Oct. 1.—With the ravages of ill health on their cheeks, and their statements broken now and again with emotion, both Mrs. Ed Bigbee and Bigbee himself, have testified at the trial of Bigbee who is charged with murder in connection with the slaying of W. L. Dickson in Ranger last winter. In their testimony, all the sordidness of another of the eternal triangles was laid bare—two men and one woman. Mrs. Bigbee told of her illicit relations with the slain man and the inhuman way he treated her after she had given him all she had to give, without urge or protest. She told how finally she had to appeal to her husband, whom she characterized as "Dad," to ask Dickson to leave their house, where he had been treated as a brother for eighteen months, because of his threats and treatment of her.

In speaking of Bigbee, Mrs. Bigbee declared that "Dad is the best husband in the world." At one point in her testimony she became so weak that she had to leave the witness stand and her husband tenderly assisted her.

Bigbee detailed how she had appealed to him and the events which finally led to the slaying of Dickson. In his testimony and that of Mrs. Bigbee were the statements that on Monday morning, before the killing on Tuesday, Dickson followed her into her husband's room with a gun in his hand and she cried out "Look out Dad, he is going to kill you," and that Bigbee threw Dickson on the bed and said, "Dickson, I can talk to you even with a gun in your hand."

Wife Testifies.

Mrs. Bigbee testified last night at a night session of Judge Hill's court and Bigbee took the stand this morning. Other important witnesses who have testified are Miss Jean Nichols of Ranger and Mrs. A. W. Patterson, whose home is now in Dallas, but who lived in Ranger at the time of the tragedy.

The defense is expected to rest this afternoon and the jury probably will have the case tonight. The state rested yesterday afternoon but had its witnesses summoned again today. It may offer testimony in rebuttal.

Mrs. Bigbee testified that she met Dickson in May, 1919 and that the man roomed in the Bigbee home for a year and eight months. She told of the improper relations that existed between her and Dickson—relations which began about nine months after she met the man. Dickson gave her a silk dress and other articles of clothing, she said.

Dickson Violent.

The woman then told of violence and threats that Dickson made beginning about three months before he was killed. The man was "insanely jealous," the witness asserted, and accused her of being intimate with other men and threatened to kill them. She denied that she had been intimate with other men.

On one night in the fall of 1920, Mrs. Bigbee had been to the home of a neighbor seeking her son and demanded where she had been and she answered that she didn't think it on returning to her home, Dickson was any of his business. He then seized her and hurled her against a door and she fainted, she said. It was necessary to summon a doctor. At that time she explained her injury by saying that she tripped and fell over a gas pipe in the back yard.

Strikes Woman.

On another occasion Dickson struck her, and on the Saturday morning preceding the Tuesday on which Dickson was slain, Mrs. Bigbee said that he called her into his room and demanded where she had been the night before. She told him it was none of his business, whereupon he took a strap and fastened it around her neck, then placed it over the door in such a way as to choke her. Mrs. Bigbee threatened to tell her husband.

"If you do, I'll kill him, and then you, and then myself," she said was Dickson's answer.

Mrs. Bigbee declared that she loved Dickson until "he showed what a beast he was."

Dickson urged her to kill her husband, and told her that the law would not harm her as "they never do anything to a woman for killing a man." He also urged her to desert her husband and leave with him—Dickson, she declared.

On three occasions Mrs. Bigbee gave Dickson money with which to leave town and he promised he would go, but did not, she stated.

Asks Dickson to Leave.

On Sunday—just two days before the tragedy—she asked her husband to have Dickson leave their home.

At this point in her testimony, the witness had to stop, being seized by a spell of weakness. The defendant who was seated just opposite the

By Associated Press.

PITTSBURG, Kan., Oct. 1.—There was complete idleness in the coal mines of Kansas today except in small mines not operated by members of the operators' association. The miners refused to work, it was stated, because Howat and Dorchy, union heads, were jailed at Columbus yesterday.

BEEF SHORTAGE THREATENED BY CATTLE SALES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—A serious cattle shortage will confront the United States within a year unless livestock raisers stop the flood of immature cattle to the slaughter house, Eugene Meyer, Jr., head of the war finance corporation, said today.

Meyer returned today from a tour of the cattle raising country in the West and Middle West. He said that he warned the bankers that they must extend adequate financing in their respective territories to avoid a breakdown in the cattle industry, which in turn would seriously affect farmers and the general public.

NINE ESCAPE IN BARTLESVILLE JAIL DELIVERY

By United Press.

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., Oct. 1.—A sheriff's posse was searching for nine prisoners of the county jail here, who last night lured the night jailer to their cells on the pretext that one of them was sick, and in need of medicine, overpowered him and escaped.

Two of the escaped prisoners were women. Twenty-one other prisoners in jail declined to follow their cellmates to liberty.

Among those who escaped was Floyd Bynum, 22, charged with murder, who was only recently captured in South Dakota, after nearly a year's hunt.

BRECKENRIDGE JEWS TO OBSERVE HOLIDAY

Special to the Times.

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 1.—Practically all of Breckenridge's shops will be closed Monday and until noon Tuesday in observance of Rosh Hoshanah, or Jewish New Year's, marking the start of the year 5682. Services will be held at the Jews' hall by Cantor B. Schlachmar, of Philadelphia.

GUN-PLAY IN THE MOVIES.

"Mammon grips the screen, and the film world never will reform," declares a preacher from his pulpit in Cincinnati.

No observing person will refuse to admit that there are many objectionable features connected with the producing and exhibition of film plays.

It is also obvious that "reform," as the term is made use of by the reverend gentleman referred to, must be taken to mean just what he would like to have it mean.

It is the ages-old conflict between those who demand "prohibition," and are too self centered to permit themselves to envision a happy medium wherein "temperance" would be the guiding star.

Admitting that there is too much play in the movies on the "six-shooter stuff," it could not logically be eliminated altogether, as this divine would advocate.

The greatest evil in the portrayal of gun plays on the screen is their use in picturing the consummation of crimes of violence. There is surely some way by which the knowledge of what has transpired can be conveyed to an intelligent audience by means other than the filming of the act itself.

Certainly the films cannot be "reformed." But the tone of their product can be elevated, and there is now a healthy trend in this direction, or we do not read the signs aright.

witness box, arose and assisted her to leave the box. In a short time she had sufficiently recovered to return to the stand.

After breakfast on Monday morning—the day before the killing—Dickson told her he would shoot it out with Bigbee and followed her to Bigbee's room with an automatic. She gasped out "Dad, he's going to shoot you," to her husband and Bigbee grappled with Dixon as the latter entered the room. Bigbee overpowered Dickson and then told him to leave the house and to leave town.

Tells Husband All. On Monday night, Mrs. Bigbee told her husband "the whole story, from beginning to end," she said.

Mrs. Bigbee testified that she met Bigbee when she was a girl only 12 years old. Her father and Bigbee's father owned farms near Hico and the two families lived a quarter of a mile apart. Many a time, she and Bigbee had played together as children. They went to school together and were childhood sweethearts.

Bigbee Breaks Down. As Mrs. Bigbee told of the happy, by-gone days when she and the defendant were children together, Bigbee—who through the trial had maintained a calm, interested but not at all excited or nervous air—gave way to emotion. He strove to keep back the tears. He closed his eyes and compressed his lips but at last was forced to wipe away the tears.

"Dad was the best husband in the world," Mrs. Bigbee said. She declared that he had always been dutiful and affectionate and that they had been happy until Dickson entered their lives.

Bigbee Is Moved. Shaking with emotion as he related the events that led to the shooting, Bigbee testified this morning in his own behalf. Dickson had betrayed his confidence and stolen his wife's affection, he said, after being an inmate of his home for eighteen months. At times his voice broke and he placed his hands over his eyes as tears trickled down his cheeks. As proof of the affection he had for Dickson, he testified that the slain man was ill in his home for five weeks in December, 1919, and he sat up with him a large part of the time. Coming to the events preceding the shooting, he testified that on Sunday evening his wife was crying. She refused to tell him what was the matter but asked him to have Dickson leave and never come back. He did this, and Dickson left without saying a word, but came back during the night.

Meets Dickson. The next morning, he continued, he told Dickson he wanted to see him in his (Bigbee's) room and looking out the door a little later saw Dickson come down the hall, "looking desperate."

Mrs. Bigbee was walking just in front of him and she cried out, "He's going to shoot you, Dad." When Dickson came through the door, Bigbee testified, "I grabbed him and threw him on the bed, trying to take the gun away from him." He was unable to obtain the weapon Dickson is alleged to have carried and finally let him up, saying, "Dickson, I am not afraid to talk to you with a gun in your hand." That he again ordered him to "be sure you leave."

Kissed Mrs. Bigbee. That afternoon he gathered his two small children and asked them if they had seen anything out of the way, and they told him they had seen Dickson kiss their mother. Then he talked with Mrs. Dickson and she told him everything.

Admits Having Gun. He admitted coming to town Tuesday morning with a gun in his pocket, then walked to the corner of Main and Austin. Someone called him and he turned, to see Dickson coming toward him "with a wild stare in his eye." Dickson came over to him.

"Aren't you going to leave town? Are you going to break up my home?" Bigbee quotes himself as saying. Then, according to Bigbee, Dickson reached for his hip pocket, saying, "There is nothing to this," and the shooting followed.

Things Looked Peculiar. Neighbors of the family and two of the children testified that things had looked peculiar at times about the Bigbee home. The children said

FORTY ACRES IN STEPHENS SELL FOR $100,000

Special to the Times.

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 1.—Forty acres in the Curry pool, six miles southwest of Breck, were sold to Charles S. Rosser by D. T. Finley et al., for $100,000 this week. The deal has been completed and the new owner is going ahead, spudding No. 2 and rigging No. 3.

E. A. Landreth and Fred B. Foster company on the Baker Gannon lease in the same pool jolted its No. 1 well with eighty quarts of tincture of TNT after it had come in for 400 natural and raised production of the well to 700 later yesterday. The shot was given from 3,160 to 3,200 feet.

They had come home from school at times and found the screens fastened so they could not get in. The elder boy said he tried to enter his mother's room once and saw a man there and she sent him on an errand. When he returned the room was open.

Two Ranger physicians said Dickson had threatened to kill them if they did not stay away from a certain woman, but no names were mentioned by him.

The state cross-examined Mrs. Bigbee but failed to shake her story. Bigbee was under cross-examination when the court reconvened this afternoon, and it is possible that the case will be given to the jury before midnight.

Mrs. Patterson Testifies. Mrs. A. W. Patterson testified that on the morning of the tragedy she was seated in an automobile drawn up at the curb near the intersection of Main and Austin streets. She was waiting for her husband, who had gone to a tailoring shop nearby. Suddenly she heard a noise, which she thought was a blowout, and she turned around.

She saw Bigbee and Dickson. The former was grasping Dickson by the coat with his left hand. The witness said she heard Dickson shout for help. In Bigbee's right hand was a pistol and Dickson strove to push up the hand that clutched the weapon, she said, and then there came more shots.

"I tried to close my eyes to shut out the dreadful scene," the witness stated. She declared she did not remember seeing Dickson fall. After Dickson had fallen, she saw Bigbee walk away, she said.

Was a Nightmare. On cross-examination, when the witness stated she could not answer some questions as to circumstances surrounding the affair, counsel for the defense asked if the occurrence really did not seem like a "hazy dream" to her.

"No," came the reply, "it was a nightmare." Miss Jean Nichols of Ranger was walking along the street near the intersection of Austin and Main, so Miss Nichols testified, when she heard a noise which she at first thought was a tire blow out. The second shot came after quite a pause and then there were three shots in rapid succession. Miss Nichols said that she saw Dickson lying in the street, his clothing at the knee and over the left breast burning. She saw Bigbee walking away after the shooting, she stated. The defense did not cross-examine the witness.

APPROPRIATION FOR STATE RAILWAY MUST REMAIN IN TREASURY

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Oct. 1.—Twenty-five thousand dollars appropriated by the legislature for the rehabilitation of the state railroad, not a penny of which has been used, must remain in the state treasury until disposed of by the state legislature, according to an opinion of the attorney general's department today. Comptroller Lon Smith asked for the ruling. The board of managers took charge of the road and placed it on a paying basis without drawing on the special fund and leased the property to the Texas & New Orleans railway.

"HE CORSET" LATEST.

By United Press.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—Georges Carpentier has adopted the "he corset"—the newest think in wear for males.

From time immemorial, Frenchmen have worn the old-fashioned "galuses." During the war they discovered the advantage of the belts as worn by Americans. But the manufacturers want the Americans one better, and are making them about four inches wide, in fancy stamped leather or embroidered canvas and advertising them as "a great aid to the manly form."

Maurice Chevalier, the famous comedian, has also adopted the new style.

again for two hours. He had gone without his dinner on orders of Twyman.

Given Recent Whipping. "I saw Thames later that night in the dormitory, but he looked all right at that time. The next day Twyman made Thames stand at attention on line for half an hour and then compelled him to 'pull toes.'"

By this I mean that the boy had to bend over, with knees stiff and touch his toes and he had to keep this position for thirty-five minutes. Thames then was taken behind the belfry again and Twyman whipped him again on his bare back with the same strap. He was given between thirty and thirty-five lashes and his body was black and blue. Twyman then kicked and choked Thames. He asked him if he would drill and the boy said "Yes." Twyman then asked him if he knew what the third degree meant and Thames said "No." Twyman then slapped Thames and he fell down and the officer picked him up. The boy was too weak to rise himself. Twyman had lifted him to a sitting position and when he asked the boy to get up the rest of the way he declared he was unable.

Too Weak to Stand. "Another boy, Algin Slossons, was then sent for and helped Thames get to his feet. Twyman ordered us to let him loose and when we did so Thames staggered and fell. We raised him again and after taking two steps he again fell and we left him while we went to supper. He was out in the yard twenty minutes and then he was sent help and he was brought inside."

Given Second Whipping. "I next saw him at 5:30 Sunday morning. He drilled after breakfast, but he would fall down every three or four steps and Frank Bailey and I had to help him up. I reported this to Twyman and he ordered us to take him back so we marched back to the belfry again and Twyman came and gave Thames another whipping with the strap, back bared as before. He received between twenty-five and thirty lashes and the officer demanded of him if he would now drill and Thames said he was too weak. But Twyman insisted on a 'Yes' or 'No' answer. Thames was lying upon his stomach when whipped, which is the custom at the school.

"I was ordered to put him in the squad again and when he tried to drill he continued to fall every few steps and he kept this up for forty minutes. Eddie Stokes and myself again took Thames back side and when Twyman came up he said to Thames, 'Now I will give you an idea of what hanging is like.' A rope was ordered and fetched. The Thames boy made no reply. Twyman caught the boy by the throat and threw him down and met no resistance. Once he started to put his hand to his throat, but Twyman ordered him to keep his hands down and he obeyed. The officer kept choking Thames and finally he began to gasp for breath. Twyman then said, 'Feel yourself slipping, don't you?' But there was no reply. Twyman kept on choking him a while longer and when Thames tried to speak he could not. Twyman then exclaimed, 'I liked to have got you that time, didn't I?'

"Thames fell to the ground and tried to arise and when he failed Twyman grabbed him, resting the boy's head upon his knee and choking him further. The youth then sat down unconscious. 'I expect you'd better get some water,' the captain told us, and Stokes and I went for water. Mr. Johnson, in the meantime, had come up and he said to Twyman, 'Captain, I believe he's gone.' Twyman replied, 'Oh, he's only stalling.' 'I believe the first time Thames was choked it lasted about thirty seconds and the last time about a minute and a half.'"

Thames, it was brought out, died where he had fallen, but he was taken to the hospital and his body turned over to a nurse. The Thomas boy testified that the strap was not put into effect until Twyman joined the school and acknowledged that he had been strapped twelve times, seven times by Twyman.

The defense sought to bring out that many new students try to stall by pretending sickness and Thomas said only the new ones try this stunt.

FINGERPRINT TOURISTS.

By United Press.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—If a project just announced by the prefect of police, M. Leullier, is approved by the ministry of the interior, every tourist coming to Paris for an extended visit will have to submit to fingerprinting before he, or she, can circulate without let or hindrance in this town of joy and light. As the law stands now, every visitor who intends to remain two weeks in France must obtain a carte d'identité, or certificate of identity, from the prefecture of police. French protests have induced the reform-prefect, as M. Leullier is known, to propose the institution of a new form of carte d'identité, which will include the holder's photograph and his, or her, digital impression. It will apply to foreigners as well as to natives.

HOLLAND AND BELGIUM IN FAR EAST CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—All the powers invited to the Washington disarmament and far eastern conference have agreed that Holland and Belgium will be represented in the conference when it takes up far eastern questions, it was learned today.

The state department is now awaiting replies to suggestions that Portugal also be invited for this phase of the conference.

GREAT STATE PET. CO. IS SUED FOR $215,625

By United Press.

DALLAS, Oct. 1.—Thirteen New Jersey and New York stockholders of the Great State Petroleum company have brought suit in federal court here against J. T. M. Johnston and Alexander Campbell Parker and others, seeking damages totalling $215,625.

The complaint charges that the stockholders were induced by misrepresentation to buy stock in the Great State company. The company was organized several months ago as a $20,000,000 corporation under Delaware laws. Parker, who lives in Dallas, was president of the concern. It is reported that the company has holdings near Wichita Falls. The corporation went into the hands of receivers last spring and a bankruptcy petition was later filed.

YANKS WIN!

By United Press.

NEW YORK, POLO GROUNDS, Oct. 1.—The New York Yanks clinched the American league pennant and gained the right to meet the Giants in the world series when they beat Philadelphia in the first game of a double header here today. The score was: R. H. E. Philadelphia 3 10 2 New York 3 8 0

GETTING EVEN!

By Associated Press.

DALLAS, Oct. 1.—Gasoline jumped from 15 to 20 cents at practically all filling stations here today. Announcement of the increase was made by the Magnolia Petroleum company, the Pierce Oil corporation and the Producers' Refining company. Most of the smaller companies followed suit. The Texas company filling stations were still selling gas at 15 cents.

MISS FRANCES FRASER GOES TO NEW YORK SCHOOL

By Associated Press.

Miss Frances Fraser, who has spent the summer at the Gholson with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fraser, leaves Sunday morning on the Sunshine for New York City, where she will again attend the French Home Training school. Mrs. Fraser will accompany her daughter as far as Cincinnati, but will return to Ranger in a week or ten days.

QUAKE IN ILLINOIS.

By Associated Press.

HARRISBURG, Ill., Oct. 1.—Two distinct shocks, believed to have been caused by a slight earthquake were felt here at 3 o'clock this morning. Houses were shaken on their foundations and sleepers awakened, causing considerable alarm. No damage was reported.

CITIZENS FLEE IN TERROR FROM QUAKE IN UTAH

By Associated Press.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 1.—Three more earthquake shocks were experienced in Elsinore, Utah, this morning, and the inhabitants are fleeing in terror from the town. Monroe also suffered from shocks today. Several buildings were badly damaged by the shocks this morning in Elsinore.

The quakes started Thursday morning when three residences and a school building were wrecked and have continued at intervals of a few hours ever since. The shocks have a range of about fifty miles. Elsinore has a population of about 1,000.

RANGERITE GETS BIG FINE FOR COHABITING

By Associated Press.

"The sins that we do by two and two we must pay for one by one" so sang Mr. Kipling. Mr. Bud Rice, who is a hauler of water by trade, probably never heard the song, but it is thought likely, he felt something like the same emotion which inspired Kipling, yesterday when Judge Flewellen fined him $200 and costs under a charge of unlawful co-habitation.

The judge has been unusually severe all week in assessing fines but the punishment put on Rice is a record for his court, and is a record at the police court for a misdemeanor charge. Rice has not yet given notice of appeal, but it is thought he will.

NAVAL OBSERVATORY TIME ON TAP IN RANGER

By Associated Press.

At 10 o'clock this morning all Western Union clocks south of Main street were connected by wire, with the naval observatory at Washington. Clocks north of Main street will be connected within a few days. Clocks which have been in operation were run on a battery pending the final connecting of the time wires.

SPEAKER'S MEN BEAT SOX; HANG ON BY EYELASH

The Yanks were rained out yesterday, and although they could lose two games and still top Cleveland if the Indians won the remaining games, the Indians cling to a fighting chance by virtue of a league rule that postponed games must be played if the contending teams meet again. Connie Mack insists that the Yanks must play him a double-header at New York today, and the season closes tomorrow with a game between the Yanks and the Red Sox. If the Yanks win one game of the three, they are "in." Tris Speaker's only chance is for New York to lose three straight while his men are winning from Chicago today and tomorrow.

The Indians bumped Red Faber in the fifth inning of yesterday's game, making four hits and three scores, just enough to top tallies made by the White Sox in the first and fourth. Neither team scored after that. Covaleskie pitched for Cleveland.

Washington beat Boston, 6-4, in a game featured by the hitting of Goslin and Milan. Goslin knocked in four of the Senator's runs. The victory gives Washington a fighting chance to edge into third place, as St. Louis is only seven points ahead. A double victory today would put the Senators half a game ahead, if St. Louis loses to Detroit.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Friday was Hornsby day at St. Louis, and the Fort World lad was presented with two diamond rings, a diamond stickpin, $2,000 in Liberty bonds with which to buy himself a home in St. Louis-and a basket of flowers. He responded by knocking a home run and two doubles, which contributed materially to the Cards' 12-4 victory over Pittsburgh. The Cards are coming close to the clean sweep of the series, which would bring them into a tie with the Pirates for second place.

Boston and New York were rained out, but the short game between the Giant old-timers and the present team, played for the benefit of Christy Mathewson, was played. The old-timers won, 2-0, with Jeff Tesreau doing the bulk of the twirling. Mathewson, one of the greatest pitchers known to baseball, past or present, has been at Saranac Lake, N. Y., for more than a year fighting the greatest battle of his life-that against tuberculosis. He was anxious to attend the testimonial to him, but because of the long distance he would have to travel and the conditions which have attended the demonstration for him had he done so, he was persuaded to remain there.

Mathewson today is winning his fight for life. A year ago last July he went to Saranac Lake in quest of health. He was there only a short time when he became seriously ill. He was in bed for thirteen months. Today Mathewson looks like the Mathewson of old. He appears to be in normal weight and so greatly has he improved in health that now he is permitted to take automobile rides and short walks in the village. He'll soon be allowed to go anywhere.

MATTY'S BENEFIT MAY YIELD FIFTY THOUSAND

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.-Christy Mathewson, the "Old Master," who is now fighting tuberculosis at Saranac Lake, will get between $40,000 and $50,000 as a result of the testimonial game yesterday at the Polo Grounds, Giants officials estimated today. The exact sum will not be known until after the world series, when the club is going to redeem the rain checks issued.

Sale of tickets netted more than $12,000, while rain insurance taken out by the Giants brought in $22,500 more. Auction of autographed baseballs brought in close to $1,200. The attendance was 15,000.

A YEAR AGO TODAY

By winning one game of a double-header with Detroit, the Cleveland Indians made it impossible to get less than a tie for first place in the American League. The Cubs won a seventeen-inning game, 3 to 2, from the Cards, Alexander going the distance. Brooklyn beat the Giants without having a man left on base.

LAST NITE'S FIGHTS

DENVER, Oct. 1.-Charlie White, of Chicago, lightweight, knocked out Bobbie Ward, of St. Paul, in the fifth round of a scheduled ten-round bout here last night. White was the aggressor all the way.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 1.-Jack Josephs of Minneapolis, took ten rounds of terrific punishment at the hands of Benny Mitchell of Milwaukee. Mitchell floored Josephs in the second round for the count of eight. Josephs tried everything but flying to stay the limit. He did.

FORT WORTH, Oct. 1.-Before a small crowd, Art Magril, claiming the Australian middleweight championship, and Johnny Celmars of Dallas boxed ten rounds to a draw here last night.

TWO STRAIGHT FOR PEPS; BEAT CHICKASHA IN NINTH

ARDMORE, Okla., Oct. 1.-Base slam in the last half of the ninth broke up a tight pitcher's duel here yesterday afternoon and the Ardmore Peps of the T-O. league made it two straight in the Oklahoma Class D championship series against the Chickasha Western association champions by the score of 2 to 1. Gains of Ardmore and Meadows of Chickasha both twirled effective ball and were well supported, with Dodd, Peps' shortstop, and Zuingha, Chick second sacker, in the lime-light. Dodd's slam arrived with Kizziar on first. The Chicks got their run on Ardmore errors. Lovelace's two-bagger in the seventh scored the Peps' first run. Score by innings- R. H. E. Ardmore . . . 000 000 101-2 5 2 Chickasha . . . 000 001 000-1 3 1 Batteries-Gaines and Lemasters; Meadows and Gomes.

INDIANS WIN FIRST GAME FROM AMARILLO

AMARILLO, Oct. 1.-The Oklahoma City Indians romped on Lefty Wilson for sixteen hits Friday afternoon and won the first game of the series 10 to 6. Errors in the first inning by Clark, Wichita Falls second baseman, now playing with the Grays, and three scratch hits, started the ball to rolling and it was the sixth inning before the locals could get settled. Warden, who pitched the thirteen-inning tie game against the Swatters here two weeks ago, will work in Saturday's game.

WILSON TO GET MONEY.

Joe Vila prints an informal tip to the effect that the attorney general of New Jersey has informed the state boxing commission it will have to pay over to John Wilson the $37,000 he is stated by competent authority not to have earned in the match with Downey. This is only logic. Since the Jersey law authorizes boxing, not fighting, it occurs to us that the commission goes on record as endorsing a felony if it attempts to penalize Wilson for not fighting.-Dallas News.

A ROYAL COMMUTER.

PARIS, Oct. 1.-King Alfonso of Spain has joined the ranks of royal air commuters. An air-taxi, designed for his personal use, has been completed by a French firm. The machine will make 130 miles per hour and bears the royal coat-of-arms. Jaille, a well known French pilot, will act as chauffeur.

AS FOOTBALL STARTS MOST OF THE TEAMS WILL HAVE EASY GAMES

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Staff Correspondent. NEW YORK, Oct. 1.-Easy games incidental to the annual process of getting the machines working, appear all over the football schedule today, the second week of the season.

With the exception of the Lafayette-Pittsburgh game at Easton, which is the biggest early season game of years, all of the sectional leaders have light opposition.

Harvard, perhaps, has the hardest game of the far east against Holy Cross. The Worcester eleven held the Crimson to a 3 to 0 game in the opener last season and Bob Roper's team cannot afford to take chances this year.

Yale has Vermont, and Princeton has Swarthmore. Two rather important inter-sectional games will bring Syracuse and Ohio university together at Syracuse, and the Navy and North Carolina State at Annapolis.

On the coast California will play the Olympic club, a team of ability that cannot be taken lightly. Outside of the Oregon Aggies, which have a soft team, the other conference elevens are idle.

No western conference games are on the card until Oct. 8. Ohio State swings into action for the first time against Ohio Wesleyan, a ranking member of the Ohio conference, which might not give the Buckeyes a walkaway. Wisconsin plays Lawrence and Michigan goes against Mt. Union, Eddie Casey's aggregation. Notre Dame has DePaul to beat.

Easy games prevail in the south, with Georgia Tech playing Oglethorpe, and Centre meeting Clemson. The lone game in the Missouri Valley conference will bring the Oklahoma Aggies against Missouri at Columbia.

Thirteen games will be played in the South Atlantic group. Georgetown plays Lebanon Valley. Johns Hopkins meets Mt. St. Mary's, and Virginia Military Institute goes against Hampden-Sidney in the feature games.

LIBERTY.

It is always a treat for moving picture patrons to see a child player in a picture-if the child does his or her part well. With this as a criterion there is no doubt but what all those who see "Partners of the Tide" which comes to the Liberty today have a real treat in store for them.

The cast in this picture has been exceptionally well-chosen for the part they play. For example consider J. P. Lockney as Captain Ezra Titcomb; Jack Perrin as second mate on the coast-wise schooner; Daisy Robinson as "the" girl; Sam Hammond as the "second-best" suitor for her hand; as well as other favorites who strike a true chord in their delineations of their various parts.

The factory girl in Russia receives more money than a teacher or office worker.

DANCING WITHOUT CORSETS DEFENDED BY WOMAN OSTEOPATH

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1.-The girl who dances without a corset was defended here by Dr. Josephine de France, who addressed the monthly meeting of the St. Louis Osteopathic Society.

She challenged the "host of calamity howlers" who denounce women's modern styles. The vogue of days gone by was bad, the speaker said. If present modes of dress are continued, she predicted, there will be no shortage of doctors, but a paucity of patients. Dr. de France called the corset a "strait jacket of torture."

MORE MONEY FOR BABE.

HARRISBURG, Ill., Oct. 1.-Babe Ruth Friday was offered $1,000 and expenses to play one game with the Harrisburg Miners, a semi-professional team within a week after the world series.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 1.-A draft plan for the training of university cadets by the Canadian air force, and by that means provide not only a reserve of flyers, but aeronautical mechanics in case of need, has been submitted by the air board to the various universities in Canada for consideration and comment.

BOY WHO WANTS TO QUIT SCHOOL IS SHOWN ERROR

What are you going to say to him—that boy who wants to turn quitter when his job of getting an education is only half done?

You may find just the convincing argument you need in an article entitled "Mark Tidd Says Something" in the September number of the American Boy. Mark Tidd, that fat, stuttering, keen-witted leader among boys who has won the friendship of every boy who ever read Clarence B. Kelland's many stories about him, has a number of arresting arguments that he hurls at the fellows in his crowd who want to quit school. Here are some of them:

"Studvin' don't make you smart," said Binney.

"No," returned Mark, "but bein' smart makes you study."

"Huh" grunted Plunk. "You looky here, if you happened to find an aeroplane in your yard, what would you do? Could you hop in and start her and go for a fly?"

"No."

"Just like smartness. You find smartness in your head, you can't make it work any more than you can the aeroplane, till you learn how. You own the smartness, just like you own the aeroplane, but neither's any good till you've learned how to work 'em. That's what schools are for. . . . Schools don't just teach you multiplication tables and what's the capital of Idaho. They're just kind of exercises to work up your smartness so it'll run smooth. Suppose you want to learn to be a fast runner. Well, you have to learn how to get ready to start, and how to start, and how to throw up your knees, and how to make your stride. . . . You don't learn all those different parts of running just for the sake of learning them—you learn them so you can run. That's the way with school, you don't learn all the different studies just to fill up your mind with stuff that maybe you don't care whether you know or not, but they're the exercises to make your smartness run, and the more exercises you take the faster it'll go.

"Tell you how I look at school. It's this way. A man can git along without it and live. So can a man git to Chicago by walkin'. But it's easier and a lot pleasanter to take a train. You kin git to Chicago in a night by train, and it would take you a couple of weeks and a pair of shoes to walk there and you'd be darn tired and disgusted before you arrived. Going to school is a train that gets you to success in life the quickest and most comfortable way. You buy your ticket with study, and the first thing you know, you're there. . . . But if you haven't got any sense you say it's cheaper to walk, so you walk. You can get there, but it takes ten times as long, and it's dog-gone disagreeable."

TAYLOR MEETINGS IN BRECKENRIDGE FINE, MRS. JOHNSON SAYS

Revival meetings being held in Breckenridge by Charley Taylor are creating much interest and bringing splendid results, according to Mrs. W. H. Johnson, wife of Rev. Johnson, pastor of the Baptist church here, who has just returned from several days' visit in Breckenridge.

"The Charley Taylor meetings are wonderful," Mrs. Johnson said, "and much good is resulting from them. I wish Ranger folks could attend them and hear the splendid manner in which the evangelist delivers his message."

AUSTRIA FEARS KARL AGAIN SEEKS THRONE

VIENNA, Oct. 1.—Austria expects the allies to prevent former Emperor Karl from using West Hungary as the base of operations in a new campaign to regain the Hungarian throne. The Austrian government today sent a note to the council of ambassadors in Paris, calling their attention to West Hungary's action in proclaiming its independence. Austria fears that Karl may go from Switzerland to West Hungary, and will be proclaimed king there, and will attempt to extend his rule over the rest of the country.

The territory which has proclaimed its independence has been claimed by both Austria and Hungary. The Budapest government denies it had anything to do with the declaration of independence.

OKLAHOMA AND KANSAS OIL ALSO UP TWO-BITS

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 1.—The Sinclair company today announced a 25-cent increase in all Oklahoma and Kansas crude oil, the price now being $1.25 a barrel.

Breck Officers Use Flashlights in Tracking Horse Thief; Fondness for Wire-Wrapped Wheel Betrays Another

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 1.—Two convicted prisoners, one on a charge of horse-theft and another on the second charge of plain theft, into which the wire wrapped wheel of his wagon entangled him, were sentenced by juries in Ninetieth District court late yesterday.

George Bradford was tried on two charges of horse-theft. He entered pleas of guilty in each case and was given four years in the penitentiary after the jury had deliberated an hour and a half. Bradford was arrested after a search which lasted from 3 a. m. until daylight three weeks ago, after he had left the city with three horses and two saddles which officers said he had stolen from Breckenridge men. He was trailed with the aid of flash-lights.

George Vaughan was given a second sentence of two years after a plea of guilty to theft of harness. He was sentenced to two years by a jury last week on a similar charge. In both cases he was arrested through the peculiar trail left by a damaged wheel on a wagon, which had been repaired by wrapping it with wire.

GIRLS GET EYELASHES DYED WHILE THEY WAIT

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Getting sunburnt eyelashes dyed dark while you wait is the latest trick of Brooklyn girls. A beauty parlor near Brooklyn hall which does the job in fifteen minutes for 50 cents is doing a sure fire business "getting settings to the eyes."

The proprietress, whose method is to drop a white and then an amber fluid on the sun-bleached lashes, declared Egyptians had used the system and that the French had followed it.

And, it was hinted, certain men also ruled by vanity, dropped into the shop to have their lashes re-varnished.

FOUR HUNDRED GALLONS OF LIQUOR ARE SEIZED

MODESTO, Oct. 1.—Over 400 gallons of illicit liquor, and a complete distilling plant comprising one fifty-gallon still, two twenty-five gallon stills, a bottling machine, a capping machine and a wine press, were seized at the ranch of P. and J. Rampoldi, one and a half miles southeast of Escalon last night.

Four federal enforcement officers from San Francisco, assisted by Chief of Police Lee Smith of Modesto, and officers from San Joaquin county took part in the raid.

WIFE, DAUGHTER AND SON GIVEN LIFE TERMS FOR FATHER'S MURDER

By CLYDE A. BEALS, United Staff Press Correspondent.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The film version of the battle of Jutland, in which the British grand fleet for the first time succeeded in engaging the German grand fleet, and which resulted in the return of the Germans to their stronghold, is now being shown in London.

One mile of film is used in showing the battle, and the miniature ships are maneuvered with such smoothness and such realistic effect that the picture goes far toward giving the illusion that one is seeing the battle from high overhead. The withering gunfire, the paths of torpedoes swishing through the water, the rapid wheeling of a column of ships to escape the torpedoes, maneuvers to gain position and races to head off a column of ships, together with rearguard action to defend the escaping German main fleet, all interspersed with occasional pictures of actual ships at sea, give a highly realistic effect.

The film has been made with the aid of Major General Sir George Ashton, formerly a professor at the Royal Navy College, Greenwich, England. The model ships were moved throughout by hand, and to move each one an inch and maintain the illusion and the smoothness of the film, it was necessary to move each sixteen times. It is estimated that 3,000,000 motions of the models had to be made. To prepare the data required two years, and to make the film, one year.

JUAREZ, Mexico, Oct. 1.—News at the American consulate here says that the rice crop in the Yaqui valley of Sonora is only 45 per cent of normal. The rice growers foresee the low market, it is said, and curtailed their planting. The crop was further reduced through lack of sufficient water to properly irrigate it.

MARRIAGES IN FRANCE DOUBLE, BIRTHS MORE

PARIS, Oct. 1.—The number of marriages in France has doubled, the number of births increased while fewer deaths are registered in 1920 than in 1913, the last full year of peace. This is shown by the official figures just published by the ministry of labor. The excess of births over deaths in 1920 was 159,790, as compared to 58,914 in 1913. The marriages totalled 623,869 in 1920 against 312,036 in 1913.

The significance of these figures is increased when it is remembered that the total population of France has decreased sensibly as a result of the war.

MARYSVILLE MURDER SUSPECT CONVICTED

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 1.—Jack McGill was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a superior court jury here last night for the slaying of John D. Koplos, Marysville merchant and former resident of Anderson, Ind. Koplos was shot and killed by supposed robbers in front of his home last June 30.

The jury recommended that McGill be sentenced to life imprisonment. He will come up for sentence next Monday morning.

McGill is one of four persons, two women and another man, indicted by the grand jury recently in connection with the death of Koplos.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY—

Is the Church an asset or a liability to the community? It becomes a liability when it fails to uphold the moral standard. It is an asset as long as it advocates clean living and demands it of its members. Don't weigh religion by the demerits of the hypocrites. Weigh religion on its own merits and accept that which comes up to the standard of weights. Attend Church Services Sunday. J. W. MCKINNEY, Church of Christ.
