STARNES KNEW BOND WAS NO GOOD

President Harding Assailed in Senate

HOLDS MAMMON ABOVE SOLDIER, SAYS STANLEY

Debate on Bonus Bill Is Occasion for Heated Charges by Democrats.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—President Harding was assailed in the senate tonight by Senator Stanley, Democrat, of Kentucky, for what he described as the "order" given to the senate to recommit the soldiers' bonus bill.

The soldier bonus was advocated, in addition to Senator Reed, by Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, who charged that the Republicans were proposing to take the tax off the profiteers.

"You're putting the profiteers in the front rank now," he said, "and the soldiers in the rear rank."

Senator Stanley declared there was only one thing on earth that could have made the President turn his back on the 4,000,000 former service men. "That thing," he said, "was the silent, insidious power of Mammon, the ring of the dollar."

HARA'S DEATH NOT TO AFFECT JAP ATTITUDE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The assassination of Premier Hara will result in no change in Japan's attitude toward the conference on disarmament and Pacific problems, Baron Shidehara, the Japanese ambassador, said today.

In a formal statement the ambassador declared that Hara's work in shaping Japan's attitude toward the conference was destined to prove of great benefit to mankind. "A great and good man has been taken from Japan at a time when he could least be spared," he said, adding that to carry forward the Pacific policy to which the late premier had been permitted, would now be a just and worthy tribute to his memory.

Senate Expresses Regret.
A resolution expressing regret over the death of Hara was adopted today by the senate upon motion of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts.

The resolution directed the vice president to express condolence to the Japanese government and Japanese representatives here for the armament conference.

The fact that the assassin was one of their own people has tended to confirm in the minds of Japanese delegates an apprehension of the existence of a political and social unrest, of which the attack on Hara appears to have been an expression.

It is understood that the disturbed situation in China is causing considerable disquietude to the Japanese delegation. The impotency of the Peking government in enforcing its authority throughout the land, where provincial governors, backed up by their own troops, are struggling for power, makes the general situation difficult of solution.

MADEIRA THOUGHT CERTAIN TO BE PLACE OF CHARLES' EXILE

PARIS, Nov. 5.—It now is regarded as certain in allied circles here that former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary and his wife, Zita, will be exiled to Funchal, the chief city on the island of Madeira.

Although the allied council of ambassadors, which has the responsibility of selecting a place of exile, has not yet received final approval of this plan from the Portuguese government, arrangements are being made at Funchal for the arrival of the exile. Moreover, the council has abandoned consideration of all other possible places.

EN ROUTE TO GIBRALTAR.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 5.—The British cruiser Cardiff left the port of Constantinople for the mouth of the Danube Friday to embark former Emperor Charles and his wife and proceed thence to Gibraltar.

Number of Beer Prescriptions Doctor Can Issue Causes Government Row

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Another difference on the new beer rulings developed today between the internal revenue bureau and the prohibition bureau. The treasury's new regulations covering the use of beer for medical purposes placed no limit upon the number of prescriptions for this remedy a physician may write. However, according to Prohibition Commissioner Haynes, the regulations which limit a doctor to 100 alcoholic prescriptions every three months are still in effect and despite the beer regulations, that maximum will be maintained.

On the other hand internal revenue officials declared tonight that the opinion of former Attorney General Palmer legalizing the use of beer as a medicine overrules the limitation on prescriptions, as it held the treasury might limit the quantity or the frequency of issuance but not both. The question from the standpoint of regulations will be definitely settled at an early date.

KING RETAINED AT GATESVILLE BOYS' SCHOOL

AUSTIN, Nov. 5.—By a vote of 2 to 1, the board of control today voted to retain C. E. King as superintendent of the juvenile training school at Gatesville and to exonerate him of the charges of brutal treatment to the inmates of the school, about which the board has recently conducted an investigation.

This decision was made despite Governor Neff's urgent request that a "sweeping change be made in the management of the institution. Thurman Cowell and L. W. Tittle voted to retain King, while A. R. Johnson, Jr., voted for his dismissal, together with the dismissal of Chaplain T. H. Luck and at least half of the present employees.

Death Caused Investigation.
This decision follows the inquiry which came about as the result of the death of Dell Thames, 14-year-old inmate, while being punished by H. G. Twyman, then drill master, for alleged infractions of the rules. Twyman is alleged to have choked the boy to death and is now held in the Gatesville jail on a murder indictment.

The inquiry consumed almost two weeks, during which time the board heard the testimony of nearly 100 witnesses, including employees, inmates and ex-inmates of the school and numerous probation officers of Texas.

Neff Powerless.
Governor Neff was invited to confer with the board when it met today. As the board is the governing body of the school he had no direct say in the matter but was asked for his opinion. He was represented at the inquiry by Judge H. E. Bell of Gatesville. The governor urged that a change be made in the management, citing eight reasons why King should not be retained. The reasons, presented in a formal letter to the board, charged King with gross negligence of his duties; that young Thames' death was a result of this negligence; that he had allowed inmates to be mistreated and had continuously ignored the laws that govern the institution.

RICE BEATS S. M. U.
HOUSTON, Nov. 5.—Rice Institute came out on top in a hard fought contest today on Institute field, by the score of 7 to 0. In the first quarter the Mustangs developed unlooked-for strength and made two first touchdowns through the ability of Kitts to take the ball around the ends. Kitts carried the ball within striking distance of the Owls' goal but the Rice defense stiffened and the Mustangs tried for a field goal.

ANTI-FATTY WITNESS SKIPS; FOUND AGAIN
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—District Attorney Brady announced today that Alice Blake, missing prosecution witness in the Roscoe Arbuckle case, had been found and would appear to testify when wanted. She disappeared a few days ago from the custody of an attaché of his office at Calistoga, where she had been since the preliminary hearing of the complaint against the film comedian. Brady said he had served a subpoena on her.

FIND MASTODON'S SKELETON.
RUTLAND, Wis., Nov. 5.—The skeleton of a huge animal said to be a mastodon by Prof. M. S. Dyer and George Wagner of the University of Wisconsin, has just been found by excavators.

The upper jaw of this beast of a prehistoric age weighs over 100 pounds and its front teeth measure 6 1-2 inches across. Workmen found the skeleton while digging a ditch here.

FOUR SOLDIERS FOUND WITH NOOSES ABOUT NECKS; NURSES ABUSED BY OFFICERS—WATSON

Talks Sassy About Pershing and Weeks; He'll Show the General That Senators Must Not Be Called "Liars" by Mere Hired Hands, He Says.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Presenting further support for his charges against army nurses and that American soldiers were hanged overseas without court-martial, Senator Watson of Georgia, tonight turned his fire on Secretary Weeks and General Pershing for their denials of the senator's assertions.

Alluding to Secretary Weeks' statement that "no decent man would make charges with respect to army nurses such as were made several days ago in the senate," Senator Watson, while disclaiming any intent to attack the nurses as a whole, said he would leave to any impartial tribunal whether he or Mr. Weeks was more in a position to judge the truth of statements that officers in the army in too many cases made courtesans of the nurses.

"I can prove it!" he exclaimed. Reading General Pershing's statement made yesterday in Nashville, Tenn., that Watson's charges of illegal hangings and inhuman treatment of soldiers was an outrageous and untrue accusation, the Georgia senator declared:

"When the general denounces a senator as a liar he had better remember that it is within the power of the senate to bring him here, and a time may come when we will do that. If he talks that way about more senators, it may be done. We have as yet no kaiser that says 'We und do Got!'"

Keeps High Plane?
"I'm not going to lower myself," Watson continued, "to the level of either Secretary Weeks or General Pershing by indulging in abuse. I simply content myself with saying that it was a great impropriety for either of these gentlemen in the public service to publicly condemn another without the slightest investigation."

Watson then read a letter from an unidentified Richmond, Va., woman who said she had served twelve months as an army nurse. The letter said that "officers made courtesans of the nurses wherever possible and nurses who resisted were subject to personal indignities."

Watson also said he had been told personally by a former nurse that she had been compelled to repel the assault of an officer.

Reads More "Evidence."
More telegrams and letters in support of his illegal hanging charges were presented by the senator. He submitted another photograph of what he said was an army gallows in France, which photo, he said, had been smuggled into the country by a Huntington, W. Va., private.

"Apparently there was as many gibbets as hospitals," said the senator, who for the first time gave the name—Clifford L. Ayer, Jr.—of the man who he said had told him of hearing a gallows guard say that twenty-one soldiers had been hanged without court-martial.

An affidavit charging that the bodies of four negro soldiers were found with ropes tied around their necks when they were dug up in one cemetery in France, will be presented Monday before the special senate committee, Senator Watson announced today.

Only Part of Evidence.
"This affidavit is only a part of a mass of evidence I have in my possession and which I will present," said Senator Watson.

"In the case of these four men, my evidence tends to show that they were hanged without trial and that an effort was made to 'cover up.'"

"I have evidence that is categorical and unequivocal in disclosing instances, officers and places connected with outrages against American soldiers.

"The most startling is that concerning the four bodies. The man who gave it returned from France two weeks ago and is now in Washington. In France he was engaged in the preparation of the bodies of Yanks for shipment home.

Scaffold Now Stands.
"The bodies were dug up in a cemetery at Bazoilles and there is still a scaffold on the hill nearby large enough to hang three soldiers at a time, my witness tells me.

"Although the bodies of all soldiers, even in cases where they had been executed, were identified by records placed in a bottle within the coffins, there was no identification in these four cases, and the evidence indicated irregular and hasty burial."

GAVE YOUNG WRITTEN NOTICE TO MAKE IT STRONGER, HE SAYS

Also Told Him That No More Funds Would Be Deposited Until Action Was Taken, Cross-Examination Reveals.

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES.
EASTLAND, Nov. 5.—County Judge C. R. Starnes today admitted while under cross-examination in the preliminary hearing of Briggs Owen and E. L. Reid on false swearing charges, that he had sent Sam D. Young written notice that the bond protecting the Eastland county deposit was insufficient and must be changed. He also said that in conversation with Young, he told him that no more money would be put on deposit until the bond was made stronger. This was done, he said, before the trip to Chicago during which Young hypothesized Eastland county bonds, and gave Eastland county credit for $42,000 on the books of the bank.

Davison Also Went.
Regarding this trip, it also was brought out that G. A. Davison, at that time principal owner and general manager of the Fleming & Stitzer Road Building company, went to Chicago with Starnes, and the two were joined at Dallas by Young. In Chicago, Young and Starnes stopped at the same hotel and the judge thought they had adjoining rooms.

Incidentally, he mentioned seeing Ove Overson, now county attorney, while there. Although Overson was later an attorney for Starnes in the various suits, it was said that his presence had nothing to do with the bond deal.

After cross-examination for Starnes and a few minutes of direct evidence, the hearing was adjourned until Monday morning.

ROAD WARRANTS NOS. 1 TO 254 TO BE PAID AT ONCE

COUNTY ANNOUNCES IT HAS $32,000 FOR RETIREMENT OF "FLEMING-STITZER CERTIFICATES."

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES.
EASTLAND, Nov. 5.—Approximately one-third of the road warrants issued by Eastland county for road work following the closing of the Security bank and the tying up of county road funds, will be redeemed immediately on presentation.

The sum of $32,000 which it is estimated represents about one-third of the face value of outstanding warrants, is now held in the county treasury for this purpose, county officials state. The warrants, known as "Fleming-Stitzer" warrants, will be redeemed numerically and at the present time only those bearing numbers from 1 to 254, inclusive, will be accepted for payment. Warrants bearing any numbers coming within this group will be paid on presentation.

PROHIBITION AGENTS WEAR FOOTBALL TOGS TO RAID NEW YORK INN
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Five federal prohibition agents, disguised as football players and wearing full gridiron regalia, descended on the Van Cortlandt Inn, opposite Van Cortlandt park, early this morning and conducted a spectacular raid.

The inn was crowded with wealthy patrons. Golf enthusiasts, automobile parties and other guests failed to notice a quartet of sturdy men in football armor who sat at one of the tables.

At length the supposed football players called for drinks. One said he was not drinking, but the others ordered whisky, which, it is charged, was served. The agents paid the check and bottled a sample of the drinks. They arose and handed to Thomas Farrell, the proprietor, a court summons. They arrested Edward E. Edelweiss, a waiter, who is charged with having served the drinks.

34 HAVANA OFFICIALS FACING COURT TRIAL
HAVANA, Nov. 5.—Court proceedings affecting virtually the entire municipal government of Havana were instituted Saturday by Special Judge Eduardo Saladrigas when he approved indictments against Mayor Marcelino Diaz de Villegas, twenty-seven aldermen and six municipal officials, including the city treasurer and auditor.

Irregularities in administering municipal affairs, alleged to have been discovered by Judge Saladrigas during an investigation extending over several weeks, are given as the basis for the indictments.

REPARATIONS BODY TO PROBE GERMAN FINANCES
By Associated Press.
PARIS, Nov. 5.—The entire reparations commission, including Roland W. Boyden, the unofficial member for the United States, will leave for Berlin next Monday or Tuesday. The commission will remain in the German capital two or three weeks to investigate measures by which Germany may procure the necessary funds to meet the payment of 500,000,000 gold marks due to the allies Jan. 15, 1922. It also will investigate the causes for the recent depreciation in the value of the German mark.

U. S. OFFICIALS TO DISCUSS MINE STRIKE
TOPEKA, Nov. 5.—A conference of representatives of the department of justice and labor will be held next week at Washington, to discuss the strike situation in the Pittsburgh coal field, according to information received here today.

ONE THRUST WAS FATAL TO JAP PREMIER

HONOLULU, Nov. 5.—Takasha Hara, Japanese "commoner premier," fell under the assassin's knife with his "You traitor!" wringing in his ears, according to the Tokio correspondent of the Hawaii Simpo, a Japanese daily. Ryoichi Nakioka, 19 years of age, a switchman at the Otsuka station near Tokio and grandson of another Nakioka, celebrated leader of the Neiji restoration, who helped restore to the mikado the power that had lain in the hands of the Tokugawa shogunate for 300 years, was the man who cut down the leader of the Japanese government, according to the Ehimpoo's correspondent.

Nakioka used a short sword for the single stab that ended Premier Hara's career. It penetrated the lungs close to the heart.

The assassin, who was captured immediately after his attack, had in his possession a letter addressed to his mother and other papers which established his identity.

Leadership of the majority party in the Japanese government now devolves on Marquis K. Saionji, who, with Premier Hara, led in the organization of the party. Saionji is prominently mentioned as a possibility for the premiership.

The Nippu Jiji, afternoon Japanese daily of Honolulu, prints a cable from its Tokio correspondent that the assassination of Premier Hara has caused great consternation in government circles, in view of the pending conference at Washington on limitation of armament and Far Eastern problems.

WILHELM'S SUN IS SET; THERE'LL BE NO MONARCHY

American Correspondent Says Ex-Kaiser Himself Only One Worrying About It.

By CARL D. GROAT, United Press Staff Correspondent. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Wilhelm of the House of Hohenzollern, now haunting wood at his exile home—Haus Doorn in Holland—has just as good a chance of going back to Germany as Kaiser as I have. The difference in the two cases is that I can't and don't want to, while Wilhelm, can't, but may want to.

Americans ask the question, "Will Wilhelm come back?" perhaps more frequently than any other about Germany. The answer is an unequivocal "no," if words and deeds of the days since the revolution in Germany are any criterion. Germany doesn't want Wilhelm back. Not even the men who frankly strive for restoration of the monarchical system in Germany want him to head it.

He is, as the Germans say, "erledigt"—finished. To the socialists of Germany—and they are legion—Kaiser Wilhelm is a quitter. He fled like a coward in the nation's darkest hour, they say, and any attempt on his part or that of over-zealous friends to restore him would be met with overwhelming opposition.

Germany proved what it thought of monarchists when it put a crimp in Herr Kapp's private pro-monarchistic "Putsch" last year; and since that time the national feeling hasn't swung any more in favor of return of a monarchy. The Erzberger demonstration, a demonstration against reaction, showed that the Junkers and the rabid monarchists who seek to restore the old order through assassination and terrorism haven't a chance.

I would scarcely venture to assert that a constitutional monarchy, such as England's, would not one day come to Germany. But at the moment, the consciousness of the people is for a democracy. The eight-hour day—about the only fruit of the revolution—pleases the German worker, and he knows if a monarchy returns he will exchange it for an industrial slavery of twelve to fourteen hours a day, at low wages.

The men who want a monarchy back are, for the most part, disgruntled individuals, who have lost money or position through the overturn. Released officers curse the new regime.

But for the average man, the republic is satisfactory. Its overturn might perhaps come about through over-heavy tax burdens, for the monarchists appeal to the ignorant with the idea that things were better "in the old days"—neglecting to point out that a lost war with a staggering debt and new economical conditions would not make the common man's lot easier, even under a Kaiser.

The monarchists talk of the Crown Prince's son as a possible throne candidate; others would have a Bavarian monarch. But the monarchists themselves—with, of course, some exceptions—say, "Let the republic carry the load, repair the country, and then let us in, say ten or twenty years, seek to restore a monarchy."

Their prospects in that time may be better. At present, Germany isn't troubling itself to any extent with the question. The outside world worries more about it than the German.

MUCH BOOZE FINDS WAY THROUGH CANADA INTO UNITED STATES

By Associated Press. TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 5.—Despite the fact that most of Canada is "dry" (the province of Quebec being a notable exception), imports of whisky and other liquors have enormously increased in the last two years. The Toronto Globe finds in the figures, just made public at Ottawa, evidence that Canada is being used by the liquor manufacturers of the world as a gateway to pass their output into the United States.

"We are, as a people, smuggling or conniving at smuggling of a million gallons a year or more of whisky, on which Canada collects duty before it finds its way into our neighbor's backyard," says the Globe. The value of whisky imported in 1919, as shown by customs figures, was $979,700; last year it was $22,947,000. Gin imported in 1919 was valued at $59,374; in 1921 it was $4,174,925. Brandy imports were valued in 1919 at $378,694; and at $3,379,275 in 1921.

For the last three years the total value of distilled and fermented liquors imported was: $1,860,963 in 1919; $3,152,339 in 1920, and $34,653,630 in 1921.

arranged for them. This contest alone, for pure enjoyment, could hardly be equaled. Visitors to the rodeo may see City Commissioner Raymond Teal astride a Roman-nose bronc vying for honors with his friend and political supporter, Romick; H. S. Cole, leaning far over his horse's neck, pursuing a sweating and bleating calf, or Secretary Burt playing tag with some frisky young heifer calf—providing these gentlemen can be induced to respond with their usual public spirit to Ranger's needs.

The police and fire departments will contest in a special calf roping contest, likewise the constables and deputy sheriffs will be called in from their hot pursuit of bootleggers and put to chasing calves for honors. Women will ride steers and perform other feats.

Big Street Parade.

There is a big street parade planned for Friday afternoon prior to the rodeo, in which the contestants and others will participate. The steers, goats and calves to be roped and bulldogged have been arranged for and will be driven to the park Monday morning, including Joe Harness' flock or herd of wild goats which has been feeding in the hills since the rodeo last fall and acquiring plenty of vim, vigor and pep. The rodeo program, as completed up to date, follows:

- Special calf roping and bulldogging contest, open to all comers.
- Goat roping contest, open to cowboys.
- Calf roping contest, open to merchants and business men.
- Calf roping contest, between the police and fire departments.
- Calf roping contests between the Eastland county constables and deputy sheriffs.
- Relay race for women.
- Cigar race, open to all comers.
- Steer riding contest, open to both women and men.
- Bronco busting contest, open to local and out of town boys.
- Trick riding by Eugene Reynolds.

TALE OF MAN CAUGHT WITH W. H. DYER'S CAR CAUSES HIS ARREST

DALLAS, Nov. 5.—Charged with theft in connection with the alleged stealing of his own car, W. H. Dyer, of Ranger, was placed under bond here Friday for his appearance in district court. Dyer was brought here from Ranger Thursday night by a county officer following the complaint of a local automobile insurance agency which is said to have issued a policy on a Stutz automobile belonging to Dyer.

The car was captured the first of the week in the possession of a young man and his wife at Eagle Pass after the couple had eluded officers in getting over the border and had returned for the purpose of seeking a purchaser on the American side. The man gave the name of W. H. Dyer following his arrest, but a search of his rooms in an Eagle Pass hotel are said to have revealed another identity.

Eagle Pass officers have been on the lookout for the car following the receipt of a communication from the Dallas agency on Oct. 18, containing a description of the machine, which was said to have been reported stolen. The officers learned that the car described had been seen in Del Rio and had crossed over to the Mexican side after a short stay. Later the machine arrived in Pedras Negras and crossed over to Eagle Pass. After telling several conflicting stories the couple are said to have admitted their real identity and have claimed that the car had been loaned them to "take out and try to sell."

Dyer, a local candy salesman, was arrested by the police here on receipt of a communication from Dallas on Thursday and held for a Dallas county officer. The police here were without information on the details of the charge against the salesman as the supposed theft of the Stutz occurred in Dallas.

HOUSE WOULD REFUND LIBERTY BOND LOSERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—A bill refunding to Liberty bond subscribers money they lost because of the failure of five banks throughout the country, passed the house today. The banks are located in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Minnesota, North Dakota and California. The amount involved was about $250,000.

TRAVELS 10,000 MILES TO LEARN HOW TO TEACH KINDERGARTEN

The ambition to be Alaska's first kindergarten teacher has brought Miss Dorothy Troy ten thousand miles from her home in Alaska, to fit herself for her chosen work. She has entered the Kindergarten Training School at New York University. Miss Troy is the daughter of John W. Troy, editor of a Juneau, Alaska, newspaper. She was born in the states, but has spent most of her life in the far North. "There isn't a kindergarten in all Alaska," said Miss Troy, "and it is my plan to start the first one there. After I have finished the course I expect to get a year's practical training and then go back to Juneau, where I will start a school of my own."

WOMAN OF 85, SEEMINGLY POOR, DIES ALONE AMONG HER RICHES

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Although she had more than $190,000 in banks and jewelry worth $50,000, Mrs. Margaret Easton, 85, chose to live and die in seclusion in her home, a three-story frame house in Brooklyn. For six years she had permitted none to visit her but her physician and a grocer. The latter, Otto Spita, whose store is nearby, took food to her three times a day, and late each night he called to learn if all was well. About 11:30 o'clock Saturday night he called and found her dead in an armchair. Dr. J. S. Baldwin of 493 Classon avenue, found death due to natural causes.

Six years ago, when her husband died, Mrs. Easton ceased association with her relatives. Dr. Baldwin decided after her death to search her effects for a clue to them. He found two dust-covered cardboard boxes on a shelf within easy reach of the armchair.

Fifteen Bank Books.

In one box he found fifteen bank books, one showing deposits amounting to $176,000 and the others, deposits of $5,000 and $10,000. There also was $1,670 in bills of large denomination.

The other box contained old fashioned jewelry, most of it studded with big diamonds. There were two diamond bracelets, three large diamond bar pins, six diamond rings, a tiptop of twelve diamonds, two gold rings, fifteen gold dress pins, an old open-faced watch and four pairs of diamond earrings.

Dr. Baldwin turned the jewelry, bank books and money over to the police of the Classon avenue station, who gave them to the public administrator.

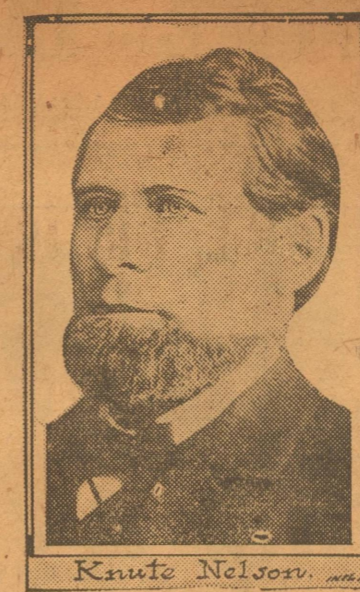

Feared Poison.

Residents of the block believed Mrs. Easton had little money, but wondered why she kept the whole house to herself and lived in two rooms on the top floor. No one had seen her leave the house since the death of her husband. Spita told a reporter she had told him she had not eaten for a week. She refused to partake of the frugal meals he prepared for her, he said, and would not let others take food to her for fear they would poison her.

He said he thought Mrs. Easton had two nieces in New Jersey and a married son in New York. Nothing among Mrs. Easton's effects revealed the name of her late husband.

As a part of the plan to enlarge its usefulness, the Royal Colonial institute, founded in London more than fifty years ago "to work for the permanent unity of the British empire," has decided to extend its privileges to women.

HIGH POWERED BILLIARDISTS TO MEET SOON

Six of World's Fastest Balkline Artists to Play Eight Days.

By Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Six of the world's leading 18.2 balkline billiard players, representing three nations, will compete in the first international championship tournament staged in sixteen years a week from Monday when Willie Hoppe, the present title holder, will defend his title here in a tournament continuing for eight days.

The contestants will be Hoppe, the champion; Edouard Horemans, the Belgian; Roger Conti, the French champion; Welker Cochran; Young Jake Schaefer, son of the famous wizard; Ora Morningstar and George Sutton.

Total purses aggregating $6,750 have been offered as prizes. Of this amount $3,000 will be awarded the winner. To the runner-up, $1,500 will be given, and prizes of $1,000, $750 and $250 will be awarded those finishing third, fourth and fifth. Games in the tournament will consist of 400 points each unless in the event of a tie for first place, in which case 500 points will be played to determine a round robin in which each of the players meets every other player, is finished.

The six who will play for Willie Hoppe's crown have been selected by a tournament committee after a thorough study of the record of the many entrants in tournament and exhibition play over a long period of years. Four of the players are Americans. Two of them, Welker Cochran and Jake Schaefer, are youngsters who have held their places in the cue hall of fame since they were in their teens.

THE KATZENJAMMER KIDS FROM RANGER MAKE BRECKITES VERY SAD

Hi Footballers Mess Up Playhouse by Winning, 13 to 0; Loss Puts Breckenridge Out of Race; Mills and Huffman Are Scintillating Figures of Hard Fought Game.

Special to the Times.
BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 5.—Ranger invaded Breckenridge this afternoon and quite to the surprise of the local grid fans, who were touting Breck for divisional honors, erased the home boys from the running with a decisive beating, 13 to 0. There was no question about it. Coach Hart's boys were just too good for Breck.

In the opening moments of play, particularly the first quarter, and even after Charlie Mills broke through the local line for an eighty-yard run and the first touchdown, Breck looked to have the edge. But any such notions were effectively dispelled in the final quarter in a march from Ranger's twenty-five-yard line to the second touchdown, in which Austin Huffman played a leading role.

Honors for the victory may be said to have been split between Mills, with the dashing run that the local ball hant end-circling of Yonkers and Huffman.

Bound to Play.

This last named lad is a determined sort of a bird. He missed his train out of Ranger, which game leaves at some ungodly hour in the a. m.—5:50 or a like figure, which should be abolished from all clocks. It can be understood how he failed to connect.

But Austin is not the man to let a mere thirty-two miles keep him from participating. He walked from Ranger to Necessary, and there caught a ride on a tool car the rest of the way to Breck. On top of that, he played as brilliant a game as any man in the Ranger back-field. Mac McArron of the Breck Buckaroos qualified for mention by breaking a toe in the second quarter, when he stumbled in trying to detain the fleet Mr. Mills. He played through until the last five minutes of the final quarter.

Certain disgruntled critics might maintain that the long dash of Mills was a break of luck, but as is generally the case in sports, the luck was with the better team. He was accorded perfect interference after he had banged through the first line of Breck forwards and he moved with commendable celerity.

In the second score, a beauty pass, one of two Ranger tries, nicked off thirty yards of the distance needed in the Ranger march of three-quarters the length of the field. Captain Schertz, crippled, but bravely determined to get in the game, justified his return by making the pass. Bob Heasley was at the other end of it. Huffman gained forty yards of the balance needed, in five wide end runs, giving Acting Captain Mills the chance to carry it over a matter of three yards or so for the touchdown.

Statistics.

Ranger made nine first downs to Breck's eight. Ranger completed one pass for thirty yards and tried one other; Breck completed two passes for twenty-four yards and tried ten more. Ranger held three times, once on the one-yard mark, again on the twenty-five interval and again twenty-eight yards from their goal. They never were held for downs.

Substitutions: Mills for Zarafonetis; Schertz for Mills; Hunt for Dunkle; Zarafonetis for Schertz; Schertz for Mills; Mills for Zarafonetis. Spears for Blackwell; Blackwell for McAron.
Referee—McKinney (U. of Detroit); Umpire—Webb (A. & M.); Field Judge—McCaskill (U. of Georgia). Head linesman—Underwood (Grinnell).

Mills' punts averaged better than Avery's, the Ranger acting captain getting off five for 165 yards, an average of thirty-three yards, while Avery booted five times for 145 yards, an average of twenty-nine yards. Penalties were even. Ranger was taxed four times for offside, a total of twenty yards, while Breck was nicked fifteen yards for one tackle after a fair catch and five for offside.

How They Scored.

First Quarter: Breck received Mills' kickoff, but couldn't gain and Avery punted to midfield. Mills tore off a long gain for one first down and then indiscreetly tried for a goal from placement on the thirty-five-yard mark. It missed widely. They traded punts and then Breck started a march from its own forty-yard mark, closing the quarter with the ball on Ranger's seven-yard line.

Second Quarter: Four straight plunges failed to put the ball over, Ranger holding one yard from their goal-line. Mills booted fifty yards out and Zeverly returned fifteen yards. Ranger held again at the twenty-eight-yard distance. Ranger took an offside penalty and Mills punted thirty yards, McAron returning twenty of that, to Ranger's forty-yard line. Breck made one first down and then the Rangers stiffened and Breck punted over the goal line. On the first play after the ball was given to Ranger on its twenty-yard line, Charlie Mills scampered eighty yards on a tackle plunge and laid the ball

FARMERS CROSS BAYLOR'S GOAL TWICE, WIN 14-3

Last Quarter Offensive Overcomes Baptists' Lead; Sanders Is Star.

By Associated Press.
WACO, Nov. 5.—Baylor's famous aerial football failed time and again today, and Texas A. & M. defeated the Baptists, 14 to 3. Baylor's lone score, a field goal, came in the second quarter. Baylor held the powerful Farmer offense until the last quarter, when two touchdowns were scored in quick fashion.

The famous Bradshaw, quarterback for Baylor, failed to show the same flash that he has exhibited in previous Southwestern conference games this season. He got away only a few times. He often failed to take advantage of splendid interference of his teammates.

Sanders, A. & M. right half, was the star player of the game. Streaks of fast playing on his part made practically all of his team's first downs. A. & M. was slow in getting started but when Sanders carried the ball over the line for the first time in the fourth quarter, his team bolstered up and scored again in the next few minutes of play. Baylor was unable to stop the line plunging Farmers from then until the last whistle was blown. Baylor made a desperate fight to score a touchdown in the third quarter. Bradshaw attempted end runs and forward passes successively, but the Farmers had little difficulty in stopping or preventing completed passes.

President Crawford of the Texas Cotton Palace association announced that 12,500 people witnessed the game.

between the Breck goal-posts. He missed goal, his first miss in weeks. Ranger 6, Breck 0. The half ended with the ball Breck's in midfield.

Third Quarter: The ball sawed about mid-field, with three exchanges of kicks and but one first down, that made by Breck toward the close of the quarter, which ended with Breckenridge on Ranger's twenty-seven-yard distance, fourth down, three yards to go.

Making It Safe.

Fourth Quarter: Breck made first downs, twenty-five yards from a score, couldn't dent the Ranger line, failed on two passes and the visitors took the ball. With Huffman staring in swinging end runs and a pass, Schertz to Heasley, counting for thirty yards, Ranger made five first downs in rapid succession and Mills sailed over the last three yards in a line smash. He kicked goal. Ranger, 13, Breckenridge 0. Desperate trials by Breck at passes in the last five minutes were unavailing and the final whistle found the ball on Breck's thirty-yard mark, in the ineffective possession of the home lads.

One of the iron-clad rules that will be rigidly enforced in the new women's hotel in Washington, D. C., is that no tips shall be given.

COOPER SCHOOL TROUNCES CISCO WEST WARD TEAM

Keeping their opponents largely on the defensive during the larger part of the game, the Cooper Ward school eleven yesterday afternoon won over the Cisco West ward team by a score of 27 to 19. The visitors were hardly allowed to get their hands on the ball during the first half of the game, while Cooper players were piling up three touchdowns and getting their revenge for the defeat at the hands of the Cisco team last Saturday. The Cisco eleven managed to run up its score during the last half by desperate effort and the local team also made another touchdown. It is expected that the Cooper school will go to Cisco for the final game of the series.

STATE U. TO DEBATE VANDERBILT AND TULANE

AUSTIN, Nov. 5.—Arrangements have been perfected for a triangular debating league between the universities of Texas, Vanderbilt and Tulane. The contests will take place on the second Friday in April, and at this time each of the three institutions will debate the same question. The institution where the debate is being held will take the affirmative side of the question, and in each case the visiting team will have the negative side.

This year Vanderbilt will send a team to Texas, and Texas will send a team to Tulane university in Louisiana.

CENTRE COLLEGE IS INVITED TO RETURN TO HARVARD IN 1922

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 5.—Harvard has invited Centre college to return next fall. The Saturday two weeks before the Princeton game, which Penn State occupied this year, is being held open for the southern conquerors of the Crimson.

TIGERS COME FROM BEHIND; BEAT HARVARD

All Scoring in Last Quarter; First Princeton Victory in Ten Years.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 5.—Princeton defeated Harvard, 10 to 3, in the Palmer stadium today in one of the most thrilling and spectacular games played by these teams since they resumed football relations ten years ago.

More than 50,000 persons sat in the great concrete horseshoe surrounding the gridiron and watched the two eleven battle for three periods without either being able to score.

Then as the shades of night began to settle, they saw the fighting Crimson team take the lead on a field goal, only to be overtaken a few minutes later by a Princeton touchdown, the result of a long run amid great excitement and much cheering. Not satisfied with the single advantage, the snarling Tigers made the victory sure by adding a placement goal to their score.

The sun was below the horizon and lights were twinkling in the distance when the final whistle blew, ending Harvard's last hope for victory. It was Harvard's first defeat by a Princeton team since 1911.

MEXICANS TRAINING HERD OF BULLS FOR THE FIGHT SEASON

By Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 5.—More than 600 native fighting bulls representing an aggregate value of $425,000 will be used in the various bullfights to be held throughout the republic of Mexico during the coming season, says Don Jacobo G. Prantl, agent of one of the largest breeding establishments in Mexico.

Senor Prantl declares that the national sport is increasing rather than decreasing in popular favor. Although an enthusiast for the sport which he terms "the grandest of all in the world," Senor Prantl joins in the objections raised almost unanimously by foreigners here against the use of horses which now are pushed blindfolded and shivering into the path of the infuriated bulls. Horses are needed, however, he says in order to allow the picadores to punish the bulls with their long poles.

M'GRAW SAYS HE WILL USE SAME LINEUP NEXT SEASON

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—John McGraw, manager of the world's champion Giants, is on his way to Cuba today for a vacation of several months. Before leaving New York, McGraw said he expects to stand pat on his team. "I have a winning club the way it stands today," said McGraw. "It is well balanced in every department and I am not worrying about strengthening it at any point. Of course we will overlook no opportunity to land a player of value."

LET'S HAVE MORE LIGHT.

After all our midsummer rucus over the road contract and bank deposit and bond sales, it seems it is to be a winter pastime also. Apparently it had been nicely settled. The committee of eight had reported everything was locally; the cases against county officials had been ruled out of court; bonds would protect the county against loss. The county authorities had repulsed all attacks, consolidated their position and were ready to go ahead with their improvements. All that was needed was to sell some more bonds to get some more money with which to build more roads.

Now comes another offensive. This time it at least penetrates the first line of the official defense. Both sides are up on the top and kicking the legal barbed wire this way and that as they struggle to and fro. In addition there is a rallying of forces and Judge Starnes launches a counter attack, both civil and criminal, against his opponents, with the issue of the jousting undecided.

Meanwhile, what of the roads? There does not seem any probability that matters will be cleaned up in time to get any action on them during the present administration. When once the courts get hold of a proposition, there is no need of a speed limit to hold back quick settlement. The people know these bodies take their time—and everybody else's.

Again, the entire situation has not been made clear. Much work has been done on the county highway system. Anyone who has been over the work can vouch for that. Engineers say the work done has been accurately measured, and comparative figures show that the rates are not excessive. BUT THE PUBLIC HAS NEVER BEEN ASSURED THAT THE BOND ISSUE WILL PAY FOR THE PROJECTED SYSTEM, OR WHAT THE COST PER MILE WILL BE, and that is one thing the public wants to know, badly.

Furthermore, it has never been clearly explained what has become of the county's money in the bank or how it got in such a shape that lawsuits must determine how much is to be gotten back, and how, if any.

It is one thing to say there is nothing wrong. But the fact that the county is at present "out" three-quarters of a million is another. Somehow, the two cannot be reconciled, they do not jibe, to be plain about it. The public is entitled to have this situation clear. It is the most improbable thing in the world that something can be very wrong and no one is to blame for it.

There is yet work the committee of eight can do. It has said the officials are not guilty of wrong doing. Let it have more meetings and go further. Let it say who IS guilty of wrong doing, or help the grand jury get the evidence on which to base an opinion. More than that, it can give the county commissioners a clean bill of health. It can, beside saying they have done nothing illegal, say that they have handled the county's affairs in a competent and businesslike way. If it can say this, the people can perforce sit back and worry along as best they can while time passes in lawsuits and costly expenditures waste to nothing under stress of weather.

If the committee cannot say it, the county officials should resign, in order that we may have a new deal and a fresh start.

RANGER TO COMPETE WITH WORLD FOR PERFECT PACKAGE RECORD

Ranger shippers are asked to cooperate with the express company, railroad lines and steamship companies of the United States and Canada in contributing to the success of the "perfect package movement," which is planned to aid the shippers in the packing problems and to help improve the transportation service of the country.

A local committee consisting of B. F. Gilmore and B. C. Bloodworth of the Texas and Pacific and B. Harmon and T. E. Townsend of the American Railway Express company will appear before the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' association at their next meetings to explain the purpose of the movement and the benefit that can be derived by the shippers, the carriers and the city itself.

Special report blanks will be made out for every shipment of freight and express that is found wanting is some detail of good shipping, and these reports will be sent to the shippers of the packages. A summary of the exceptions found during the month of November will be made up and forwarded to the Retail Merchants' association for examination and tabulation.

At the conclusion of the movement the record of each city will be tabulated and published broadcast. The leading city will be exploited as the result of its perfection in shipments. November was selected for the campaign as the carriers are in a position where they can give more careful examination of passing traffic. The entire working organization of the railroads and express companies comprising a force of nearly 2,000,000 have been enlisted in the campaign, the local committee explains.

WILSON'S REFUSAL TO MEET FOCH VIEWED AS DELIBERATE REBUKE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Close observers of international affairs saw in former President Wilson's failure to receive Marshal Foch in Washington, a deliberate and calculated rebuke. They feel that Mr. Wilson's indisposition was diplomatic rather than actually physical.

Receives Visitors. Mr. Wilson has been receiving visitors daily for a considerable period. He has been receiving numbers of them on some days. Furthermore, in formal calls, such as that which the generalissimo of the allied armies purposed to pay, it is no uncommon thing for a later time to be fixed if that first chosen is not convenient. No such arrangement was made and there is every reason to expect that Foch and Wilson will not meet during the former's presence in this country.

Those who once knew the mind of Mr. Wilson and believe that they still know it, recall that Marshal Foch represented to the former president both militarism and imperialism and say it was the thought of Foch that caused Mr. Wilson's celebrated comment upon the militarism of France.

Clashed Repeatedly. Those in Paris at the time of the peace conference remember that Mr. Wilson and Marshal Foch clashed repeatedly. The American felt grateful for the Frenchman's military ability, but he held a belief, in which Lloyd George used to share, that soldiers were for war purposes rather than peace purposes, and it used to upset him always to find Foch at the bottom of some new military enterprise which the latter regarded as essential to the welfare of his country, but which Mr. Wilson felt was merely sowing the seeds of new wars.

A case in point was the forcible annexation of the left bank of the Rhine. Another was the exaction of "guarantees" for France which, in effect, amounted to the dismemberment of Germany first proposed but turned from by the peace conference.

It is generally known among those closest to Mr. Wilson that he resents and fears the exaltation of militarism that is involved in the ovations to Marshal Foch. It is for these reasons that deliberate, calculated purpose is read into the incident.

BRITISH CHURCHMEN SANCTION PRAYER FOR CONFERENCE ON ARMS

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The following prayers have been sanctioned by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York for tomorrow, Sunday, Nov. 6, the last Sunday before the Washington conference on limitation of armament, and on suitable other occasions during the conference:

"Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed, kindle, we pray thee, in the hearts of all men the true love of peace, and guide with Thy pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquility Thy wisdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of Thy love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

"O Almighty God, who canst bring good will out of evil, and makest even the wrath of man to turn to Thy praise; teach Thy children to live together in charity and peace; and grant we beseech Thee, that the nations of the world may henceforth be united in a firmer fellowship for the promotion of Thy glory and the good of all mankind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

"God, the physician of men and nations, the restorer of the years that have been destroyed, look upon the distractions of the world, and be pleased to complete the work of Thy healing hand. Draw all men unto Thee and one to another by the hands of Thy love. Make Thy church one, and fill it with Thy spirit, that by Thy power it may unite the world in a sacred brotherhood of nations, wherein justice, mercy and faith, truth and freedom may flourish, and Thou mayest be ever glorified; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

DEATH THREAT SENT TO NEBRASKA PRIEST

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 5.—A note threatening death unless he placed $500 on his church steps has been received by Rev. Patrick A. Flanagan, pastor of a local Catholic church. The matter was turned over to the police by the priest, who said he was not alarmed by the note.

SCRIPTURE

Psalms 34:1-8 I will bless the Lord at all times, His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord; the humble shall hear thereof and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together. I sought the Lord and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. They looked unto him, and were lightened; and their faces were not ashamed. This poor man cried and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. The Angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him and delivereth them. O taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man that trusteth in Him.

TOWN DEPUTY DRINKS HORSE LINIMENT AND FORGETS RHEUMATISM

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill., Nov. 5.—Village Marshal Dennis Limberry ought to be dead, but he only finds pharmacist to get a "description" his "rheumatiz" is lots better.

Thursday he went to the local filled. He grew tired waiting and while the druggist was waiting on another customer he walked behind the prescription counter and took a "swig" of "his" medicine. He liked it. He tried it again. The third swallow seemed to set him on fire, but his "rheumatiz" felt better. At the doctor's office it was found the prescription was horse liniment to be applied externally. Limberry had swallowed enough to kill, but was "feelin' a mite better already."

the department of commerce is advised in a report from Trade Commissioner Butler at London.

Absence of the usual shoals of herring in the North sea, the report said, has caused much alarm in fishing towns along the coast, and many and diverse measures are being employed to find the fish which furnish the populations of the towns a livelihood.

Two reasons have been advanced for the disappearance of the herring, the report notes. One is that explosions in the mine fields in those waters destroyed much of the spawn and the other that the abnormally warm weather of last winter and the past summer had kept the herrings close to the bottom of the sea.

PASSING ENGINE JERKS SCAFFOLD, PAINTER HURT

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—While Edward Reuter was painting a bridge over the terminal tracks a rope attached to his scaffold became caught on a freight engine passing beneath which jerked the scaffold, throwing Reuter forty feet to the ground.

Reuter was taken to the city hospital where it was said his right wrist had been fractured and that he had suffered injuries to his back and chest.

EUROPEAN HEALTH WATERS BROUGHT TO AMERICAN HOMES

FERRASAL CONTAINS MINERALS VITAL TO SYSTEM People of wealth spend millions of dollars annually seeking the famous mineral waters of Europe. The reason is that these waters possess elements which cleanse the system of the excess acids that, if allowed to accumulate, cause 90 per cent of all health trouble. Ferrasal contains exactly the same elements as these famous mineral waters. It is a perfect acid neutralizer; it cleanses and purifies the system quickly, thoroughly and without leaving any bad effects. It restores the mineral elements so essential to vigorous health. It keeps the digestive system in order. If you have indigestion, biliousness, headache, bad breath or constipation Ferrasal is guaranteed to benefit you or your money back. At your druggist's.

UNEMPLOYMENT STRIKE IN BERLIN BECAUSE THEIR PAY SHRINKS

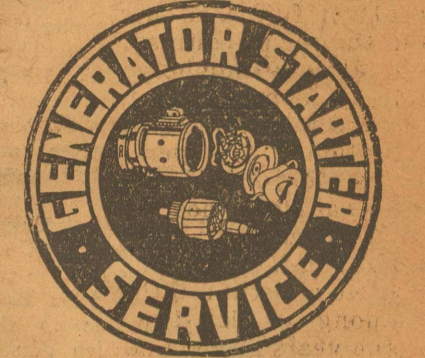

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Germany is having a unique strike—a strike of the unemployed. These unemployed, according to old laws, are entitled to jobless pay of a few marks daily. On account of the rate of exchange with the corresponding doubling and tripling of the cost of living, these few marks, which once bought three square meals, now hardly buy a loaf of bread. In demanding a raise in the unemployment pay the men refuse to accept the small doles.

Naturally, Bolshevik agitators have appeared and have organized the unemployed, who have formed a soviet. Soviet members are now posted before the state offices where the money is given out, preventing any one from drawing the unemployment wage.

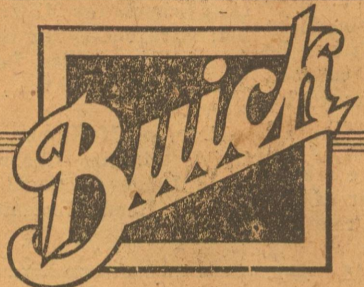

AMERICANS OWN HUGE OIL STORES IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 5.—More than 20,000,000 barrels of petroleum are stored in tanks and behind dams in Mexico of which two-thirds is American owned, according to recent figures given out by the department of industry and commerce. Reports from Tampico indicate that

Only Another Buick Can Ever Satisfy a Buick Owner

"I have owned seventeen Buicks," says Dr. Victor L. Garbutt, Detroit. "During all the years I have driven a Buick I have never had to walk home. And that's going some. I doubt if there is another car on the market that would have given me such service and I know of no car that would have given me better."

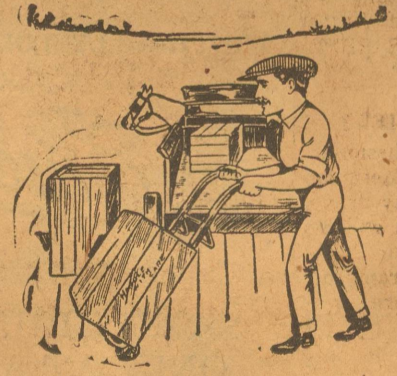

There is no proof of an automobile's intrinsic merit so convincing as year-in-and-year-out dependability. Dr. Garbutt speaks from experience.

SOCIETY AND ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

MRS. R. B. CAMPBELL, Editor Telephone 418

A Week of Festivity

Halloween is over. Like March, it came in like a lamb and went out like a lion, for it was a rampant Halloween. For two weeks it furnished hostesses with schemes for entertainment and the society editors with "copy," but with all its good times it is already numbered among the yesterdays.

A review of the past week chronicles many delightful parties, a dance or two and several other affairs more or less elaborate.

The open meeting to be given by the 1920 Club and the Symphony Club Thursday promises to be the most notable event of the coming week.

YOUNG MATRONS' CLUB.

Mrs. Karl Jones, 701 Marston street, entertained the Young Matrons' club Friday afternoon. Bridge was played and Mrs. L. A. Vandervoort made high score.

After the game the hostess served a salad course to the following: Mmes. Chas. Conley, C. C. Craig, Arthur Kinnard, L. A. Vandervoort, E. E. Crawford, D. M. Steel, R. C. McCoy, Gifford Clegg, Lytton Taylor, W. H. Burden, Misses Helen Burke and Marion Stubblebine.

1920 CLUB MEETING.

The 1920 club met in regular session Thursday, with Mrs. O. L. Phillips presiding. The following program was unusually interesting and very much enjoyed:

"Life of Henry C. Van Dyke," Mrs. A. L. Duffer.

Reading, "Humoresque," with accompaniment of Dvorak's Humoresque," Mrs. Glenn Garrett.

Themes from Henry Van Dyke—"The Blue Flower," "The Other Wise Man," "The First Christmas Tree," "The Ruling Passion," Mrs. Geo. Davenport.

"The Valley of Vision," (a)—Remembered Dream, Mrs. O. L. Phillips; (b) Antwerp Road, Mrs. C. D. Terrell.

During the business meeting the motion was made and carried, to invite the Ranger Symphony club to join with the 1920 club in an open meeting which will take place next Thursday. Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, on behalf of the Methodist ladies, offered the use of the Methodist league rooms as a place of meeting on that day. Her offer was gratefully accepted by the club.

The motion was also made and carried that the 1920 club assist the public library in observing "Good English" week, which begins on Monday. Mrs. M. H. Hagaman was appointed chairman of a committee to attend to this work.

Mrs. L. A. Vandervoort was elected recording secretary to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Duffer's resignation. PRESS REPORTER.

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Woman's Missionary society will meet at the Methodist church Monday in an all day prayer session. The morning session will begin at 10 o'clock and that of the afternoon at 1. An interesting program has been arranged for both morning and afternoon.

The offering of the day will be directed toward furnishing the Lambuth Memorial (Training school at Osaka, Japan, and the Holding Institute school in Laredo.

May we not during this day of prayer make our thank-offering truly a love gift in appreciation of the man who has contributed so much, not only to this special work in Japan, but to the great cause of world missions.

Lunch will be served at the noon hour. A cordial invitation is extended to all those interested to attend.

MRS. O. L. PHILLIPS, Publicity Secretary.

THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Thursday Bridge club will meet with Mrs. Howard Gholson on Friday instead of on the regular meeting-day.

THEY WERE THERE.

Grace Dalkamier and Harold Horton were also guests at Tom Lueders' party but through error their names were left off the list that appeared in Friday's paper.

MRS. HAROLD WHITEBECK ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Harold Whitebeck was hostess to five tables of bridge on Friday afternoon from 2:30 until 5 o'clock, at her home in the T. & P. camp. After a salad course was served the prizes were awarded to Mmes. Langston, Hailey and Howard Cole, while Mrs. W. A. Pelfrey and Mrs.

G. B. Watson captured the consolation.

Members and guests present were: Mmes J. C. Pullen, S. W. Bobo, C. L. Hall, W. C. Conway, Howard Cole, H. F. Hailey, Harry Reid, W. Pelfrey, Acens, Wiggins, Langston, Davis, Burk, Hunt, Haynes, Lerner, Watson, Harkrider, Hunt, Brown, and Miss Bobo.

Mrs. Whitbeck was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. C. R. Dutton and Mrs. J. H. Mann.

BRIDGE WITH THE MRS. JAMESONS.

Mrs. D. L. Jameson and Mrs. R. A. Jameson entertained with bridge Saturday afternoon at their home on the Strawn road. There were three tables and Mrs. Garrett Bohning won the first prize, a flower bowl with holder.

The consolation, a flower stand, fell to Mrs. Brewer. A delicious salad course with coffee, followed by marshmallow pudding, was served. During the game homemade divinity and stuffed dates were found on each table.

Those enjoying the charming hospitality of the Mrs. Jamesons were: Mmes. Garrett Bohning, Arthur Kinnard, T. J. Holmsley, Karl Jones, Ralph Stockman, Saunders Gregg, Brewer, George turgis, Faulk, Tunnell and Miss Helen Burke.

MUSICAL. The Ranger Music club, under the auspices of the ladies of the First Baptist church, will give a musical on Monday night, Nov. 14, at the church. The proceeds will go to the orphan at the Buckner home in Dallas. A silver free-will offering will be taken.

THE SEWING ROOM

A little vanity is a mighty good and safe thing to have. After all, there are two kinds of duty—that which we owe ourselves and that which we owe the rest of the world, and making the most of our appearance takes in both kinds.

Have you ever realized the effect a new hat or a new dress has upon you? You may be just as tired and nervous the day before Easter, but the next day there is something about the mental effect that the new hat has upon you—the knowledge that you are looking your best—that makes you forget about those nerves and that tired feeling, and forgetting about them you are actually more physically fit. If you feel nervous, depressed and generally ill, seek a milliner or a dressmaker; it's a sure cure.

Your Most Becoming Colors. The proper colors have a decided effect on your appearance. What colors bring out your best points?

The Golden-Haired Blonde. Brown, dark and bronze; black with touches of white; white and cream; blue, peacock, navy and delf; green, pale and dark; gray, pearl and dove; purple, violet and wisteria; yellow, soft shades; pink, rose and pale shades. (Avoid all reds.)

The Titan Blonde. Black, shimmering and transparent; white and cream; brown, deep, dark shades; blue, midnight and dark navy; green, dark, light and Irish; gray, taupe preferably; pink, very pale. (Avoid reds, reddish browns, tans, purple.)

The Light Chestnut Type. Brown, golden and reddish; blue, dull tones only; purple, all shades; white relieved with color. (Avoid red, black and bright blues.)

The Pale Brunette. Black with white relief; white and cream; brown, all shades; blue, electric and sapphire; purple, orchid and burgundy; yellow, amber and canary; pink, delicate shades. (Avoid red and green.)

Olive Brunette. White and cream; brown, mahogany and very dark; blue, darkest shades; green, very dark; reds, dark, warm shades, terra cotta, buff and apricot. (Avoid black, gray, purple and tan.)

SOCIAL CALENDAR

MONDAY.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular missionary meeting Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Stubblebine as leader.

Order of the Eastern Star will hold its regular meeting in the evening. A full attendance is desired.

THURSDAY.

The 1920 club and Ranger Symphony club to hold a joint meeting with an Armistice day program, in the league rooms of the Methodist church at 3 o'clock. Those interested in literature and music are cordially invited to attend.

RFIDAY.

Bridge club meets with Mrs. Howard Gholson.

WOMEN JURORS BETTER'N MEN IN EVERY WAY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 5.—Women jurors where they have been tried have been found decidedly superior to men in dispensing justice. A. E. Kellington, deputy clerk of the Hennepin county district court, reported on his return from investigating records of women jurors for Hennepin county district judges.

His chief investigation was at Cleveland, where women jurors have been acting for several months. As a result of his investigations women will take a large part in jury work in Hennepin county during 1922.

Among other things, Mr. Kellington found that: Handsome men do not affect women jurors' judgment as much as pretty women do men jurors.

Women jurors are not so prejudiced against corporations as are men. Women members of juries almost always agree with each other, but are frequently lined up against their male associates.

The judges in Cleveland courts reported they had found women jurors more generally satisfactory in every kind of case than men, Mr. Kellington said.

Woman's Outlook Changes at 28, 35, 45, Says Doctor

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Dr. William D. Hennen, noted surgeon, yesterday in discussing his wife's suit for divorce, incidentally said: "The ages and viewpoints of women are interesting. The viewpoint of a woman changes completely at the age of 28, again at 35 and again at 45.

"There is romance and blindness and illusion that gradually vanishes by the time she reaches 28. But children and the maternal spirit tide her over until she is about 35. Then she begins to look at facts and calculate calmly on life and to take what she wants.

"If her husband suits her, very well; if not, a dance, the man who does suit her, and cocktails will precipitate the difficulty into a real trouble.

Then at 45 comes the time when a woman loses a lot of her independence, for she is not the woman of power that she was before. She will often prove a dangerous item at the slightest difficulty that arises on the scene of her marital life.

"In society some statistics have been compiled that show that the average husband doesn't remain in love with his wife after three months."

BABE SECURES DAMAGES. WEATHERFORD, Nov. 5.—Possibly the youngest person in the United States to secure a judgment was the 10-day-old child of Mrs. Follwill, when it was made beneficiary in the damage suit by his mother against the Texas Employment association for the death of her husband, caused by accident at the Acme Brick company, at Bennett, was settled in court here for a sum of $4,026.

FIRST WOMAN PREACHER DIES IN NEW JERSEY

ELIZABETH, N. J., Nov. 5.—The Rev. Dr. Antonio Louise Brown Blackwell, aged 96, believed to have been the first woman ordained in the ministry in the United States, and a pioneer woman suffrage worker with Susan B. Anthony, died here today.

Mrs. Blackwell was born of Puritan ancestry at Henrietta, N. Y., May 20, 1825, and became a school teacher before she was 16 years old. Graduated from the theological school of Oberlin College in 1850, a license to preach was denied her on account of her sex but she won such renown as a speaker that in 1853 she was ordained as the pastor of the Congregational church in South Butler, N. Y. In 1855 she resigned because of ill health and subsequently entered the ministry of the Unitarian church.

The following year she was married to Samuel C. Blackwell. They had five children, with one of whom, a daughter in Elizabeth, N. J., Mrs. Blackwell made her home in recent years.

Mrs. Blackwell was widely known as a writer on religious, philosophical and scientific topics. Her book, "Philosophy of Individuality," published in 1893, was said to have advanced theories which have since been largely accepted by physicians.

CLUB WOMEN WILL SOLICIT SUPPORT FOR ARMS CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Millions of club women the nation over will urge the next few days to stir public opinion to its depth in support of the arms limitation conference.

A circular with this title—asking whether the nation wants war or peace; sanity or insanity; life or death—has been forwarded to the organizations of the general federation of women's club by Mrs. Thomas Q. Winter, president, of Minneapolis, who is a member of the conference advised by the council.

HOLLANDERS SORE AT EXPENSE OF KEEPING GUARD OVER WILHELM

THE HAGUE, Nov. 5.—The expense of guarding the former German emperor is the cause of irritation to some of the political leaders in Holland. One of the social-democratic members of parliament criticized this outlay in a party speech he delivered the other day and threatened to interpellate the government on that subject.

The speaker declared that the former kaiser, who he characterized as a "deserter," had not been prevented from stirring up trouble as he had sent a telegram to his son, Prince Eitel Friedrich in Germany alluding to his comrades "who had not been beaten on the battlefield."

MEXICANS COMPLAIN OF COMPETITION FROM AMERICAN MUSICIANS

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Chihuahua, Mex., Nov. 5.—A complaint to the Mexican state department and to the governor of Chihuahua that musicians resident of El Paso, Texas, are affecting the Philharmonic society of Juarez with the competition of the former by crossing the Rio Grande to Juarez to play has been made by the society, which has been notified that their grievance has been placed before the Mexican immigration office in Juarez.

WRANGLER WRANGLES OVER BUNCH OF BUM UNIFORMS

PARIS, Nov. 5.—General Baron Wrangel, formerly commander of the anti-soviet army in Southern Russia has brought suit in the Paris courts to recover 1,950,000 francs which his representative in Paris paid in 1920 for 30,000 khaki uniforms from the American army stocks. The uniforms were purchased from a dealer. General Wrangel claims that when they arrived in Russia they were absolutely useless as they had been in a fire and fell apart when the cosaks tried to wear them.

A Column for Card Players and Question Box—Conducted by Hoyle, Jr.

Auction Bridge—No. 4

"He who hesitates is lost" Should there be a question between a minor make or a no-trump declaration, the latter is preferable, for while the risk is greater, the game is more in trick score, and the loss is no greater in penalties.

Standard for Diamond. 1. Six diamonds, including one honor and one trick in another suit. 2. Five diamonds, including three honors. 3. Five diamonds, including two honors and a trick in two other suits. 4. Four diamonds, including four honors.

Standard for diamond make will also cover the standard for club make.

In auction the opening bid is a free one and should be made from strength more than length, and the information should be accurate. Later bids are according to information gained by the later bidding or conversation of the game.

No-trump is always sought for, as any good card in partner's hand will assist. It shows a good holding of high cards. It requires fewer tricks to win the game. It cuts out the smaller bids, in other words, the "pikers."

Do not be afraid to bid one no-trump, even though short in major suits. Opponents may bid the suit you are weak in. You may then change your bid, but you have informed your partner.

A bid of two in any suit means it is best to play the hand in that bid. The state of the score should never be lost sight of for a moment, for that is the goal of every good player in any game, and especially so in auction, where the 250 bonus for winning the rubber is a prime object.

How to Estimate a Hand. Dealer's Hand. Spades—A, Ten and two small cards. Hearts—K, Q, Ten and three small cards. Diamonds—Q, and one small card. Clubs—One small card.

Estimated Tricks Lost. Spades—A, Ten and two small cards. Hearts—K, Q, Ten and three small cards. Diamonds—Q, and one small card. Clubs—One small card.

In the above hand you must: Count a loss for king and queen of spades. Count a loss for ace of hearts. Count a loss for ace of clubs. Count a loss for ace and king of diamonds.

With hearts as trumps in this hand, or any suit as trumps, count a loss for each missing ace, king or queen, as long as the hand can follow suit. Whatever is left in each suit count as estimated tricks. Add to your estimated tricks the one you have the right to expect from your partner—and you have the value of your hand. I have found this method of valuation to be almost infallible.

Having two suits to declare, usually take the weaker. The stronger suit will always be good—the weaker is strengthened by making it trumps. When the hand has a "singleton," or a missing suit, the bidding should not be high, unless you hold six or more of the trump suit. You cannot afford to be forced, as it will weaken the trump holding.

The hand may be overbid one trick if it contains four honors in

When third hand and partner bid one no-trump, and you hold a hand without a trick or a "bust" if you have a five card suit, take partner off the no-trump by bidding two in the long suit. If his hand is strong he may then go two no-trump, without extra loss.

Questions and Answers.

Q. What is a ruff and a cross ruff? A. Ruff is a condition in which one player can trump a suit his partner leads, (holding none of the suit led).

Cross-ruff is a condition in which two partners alternately trump the other's lead (also called see-saw). Q. What is a singleton? A. The only card of a suit dealt to a hand, also called a "sneak."

Q. What is meant by game? Thirty or more trick points constitute a game. All points in excess of thirty are counted by the side winning them, but only one game can be won in a deal.

POILU LISTED AMONG HONOR DEAD LANDS IN JAIL FOR BURGLARY

PARIS, Nov. 5.—"Dead on the field of honor" is the mention against the name of Claudius Vrillat at the French ministry of war and his name has adorned the monument at Nogent-sur-Seine, erected to "the memory of our sons who fell on the field of battle."

Charged with burglary committed in the Moneau district of Paris, Claude Pasquet was arrested by the Parisian police a few days ago.

The authorities say that Pasquet and Vrillat are one and the same. Vrillat, it is now alleged, deserted on the eve of an attack in the Champagne district and was posted as "disappeared with no presumption of desertion, probably killed." His name has been stricken from the monument at Nogent-sur-Seine.

AT THE THEATRES

TEMPLE—Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Richard Barthelmess in "Experience." Wednesday, Constance Binney in "Room and Board"; also comedy, "No Clothes to Guide Her." Thursday and Friday, James Kirkwood and Ann Forrest in "The Great Impersonation"; also comedy, "His Precious Wife." Saturday, William Fairbanks and Dorothy Dane in "Go Get Him"; also "The Terror Trail."

MAJESTIC—Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Hap Jones' musical comedy presents "A Modern Cinderella," and pictures, Ruth Clifford in "Tropical Love"; also two-reel comedy. Wednesday and Thursday, Hap Jones musical comedy and pictures, Mae Marsh in "Nobody's Kid"; also good two-reel comedy. Friday and Saturday, Hap Jones musical comedy and picture, "Home-Keeping Hearts," and good two-reel comedy.

MANHATTAN—Sunday and Monday, "A Child for Sale." Tuesday only, Eileen Percy in "Hickville to Broadway"; also comedy and Pathe News. Wednesday and Thursday, Alice Lake in "Over the Wire," and "Miracles of the Jungle." Friday and Saturday, Tom Mix in "The Rough Diamond," and comedy.

LIBERTY—Sunday, William Farnum in "The Greatest Sacrifice," and Larry Semon in "The Head Waiter." Monday, Mae Murray and David Powell in "The Right to Love," and Mutt and Jeff in "The Knockout." Tuesday, Bryant Washburn in "Burglar Proof," and Mack Sennett comedy. Wednesday, "The Face at Your Window" (all-star cast), and comedy, "Stolen Magic." Thursday, William S. Hart in "The Square Deal Man," and Century comedy, "Pals." Friday, Douglas MacLean in "The Jailbird," and Rolin comedy, "Save Your Money"; also Aesop's Fable." Saturday, Douglas Fairbanks in "The Melly-coddle"; also second episode of "The Adventures of Tarzan." With Elmo Lincoln, and comedy, "Ready to Serve."

MAJESTIC. If you have ever stood in front of a steamship office window, with longing gaze glued on pamphlets of "Winter Cruises," you'll not miss "Tropical Love," the playgoers feature in which Ruth Clifford is starred at the Majestic theatre for three days commencing today.

Porto Rico is there with all its beauty of palm-fringed sea beach; its sugar plantations; its native huts of grass; its beautiful city of San Juan. These are a background for a fascinating story combining charmingly sweet romance, care-free adventure, and a mysterious search.

It is indeed rarely that there can be found such a wide variety of entertaining elements in a picture as Ralph Ince has, with all the directorial skill that is his, put into "Tropical Love," an adaptation of an original story by Guy McConnell.

Ruth Clifford's personality enhances the role of Rosario, the white-skinned girl whose instinct told her she did not belong to the brown woman who called her daughter. A likable hero is Reginald Denny, whose acting is fresh and natural. Other parts are capably handled by Huntley Gordon, Fred Turner, Ernest Hilliard, Margaret Fitzroy and Paul Doucet.

TEMPLE. A picture of lavish beauty with a story that has oft been told yet remains as new and interesting as tomorrow is George Fitzmaurice's big production of the famous morality play, "Experience," which will be the feature attraction at the Temple theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Richard Barthelmess, star of a number of D. W. Griffith pictures,

HAP JONES' FUN MAKERS

If Bootlegger "Short Pots" You, or Liquor Has Bugs, Swift Will Fix Him for You

Patrons of bootleggers, who have hitherto suffered in silence after receiving short quarts of white mule and whose evenings in some cases have been ruined by finding a cock roach in their liquor, now have means of redress.

Wade Swift, in the dual office of sanitary inspector and sealer of weights and measures for the city of Ranger, offers to right all wrongs.

As a sealer of weights and measures, Swift will measure all corn liquor in standard measures, where the purchaser feels that he had been city slied, and prosecute in cases where it is found that the bootlegger is found to be holding out on the innocent purchaser.

From a sanitary standpoint the inspector-sealer will be equally accommodating. He will examine all purchases for cockroaches both in the adult and larva form, weevils, microbes and germs in general. In cases where the purchaser suspects that he has purchased wood alcohol, he should make the test before bringing his sample purchase to the city official.

plays the leading role of Youth, and charming little Marjorie Daw plays the part of Love, while others in the cast are Kate Bruce, Lilyan Tashman, Edna Wheaton, Sybil Carmen, Nita Nadli, John Milern, J. C. Radcliffe and Jed Protty.

The story of "Experience" has become more or less familiar. Youth is happy in his small cottage, until he meets with Ambition from the city. After hearing wonderful stories of the life across the hill, he determines to go in search of some of the city's opportunities. He leaves his old mother in the care of Love and Hope.

In the city Youth is greeted by Pleasure, who so intoxicates him with her attractiveness that he does not fill his engagement with Opportunity and goes off with Pleasure to the Primrose Path to meet some of her friends—Beauty, Wealth, Fashion, Intoxication and Temptation. Here he completely forgets his purpose in coming to the city and lives freely until he has almost lost all his money. Then Chance leads him to a great gambling hall where he goes entirely bankrupt.

His friends fall away from him and he is forced into the House of Last Resort to find some humble work. Meanwhile, his mother has died and were it not Hope, Love would have given him up entirely. How reckless Youth finally finds himself, works out his own salvation and returns to Love is a story that finds its place in the lives of many.

THREAT OF TAR MAKES PASTOR FLEE TO WOODS

WEST RUMNEY, N. H., Nov. 5.—C. H. Bowen, former minister of the Canaan Center branch of the Mahida Pentecostal Mission of the Alliance of the General Assembly of God, yesterday emerged from the woods into which he fled several days ago to escape a coat of tar and feathers threatened as a result of the alleged confession of a woman member of the congregation. He had wandered over twenty miles through the forest during the last three days with one loaf of bread for food.

Today he is back in town, and his former flock is split over the affair. Those who have stood with him from the first say that he has suffered enough for his alleged transgression and should be taken back into the fold. When he came out of the woods Bowen was almost in rags.

Why He Fled. He arrived while a score of men were beating the woods for him. He said he fled when he came home one day last week and found this note pinned to the front door:

"Unless you get out of town within twenty-four hours, you will be tarred and feathered to the rail. The tar is ready and so are the feathers and the rail. Get out and get out quick."

Mr. Bowen showed several threatening letters signed "Me and Myself," which began to come to him just after the woman in the case with her alleged relations with the pastor.

The mission was started at West Canaan about four years ago. The members of the congregation refused to be called "Holy Rollers" or "Holy Jumpers," although several of the townspeople, who have been attracted to the little church out of curiosity say that they have witnessed some strange sights there. They told of some of the members of the flock professing their faith by barking like dogs, and of seeing them slide on the floor and climb over benches. The meetings often lasted until 2 a. m., and the shrieks of the devout could be heard a long way off. The church baptized its members in Crystal Lake, the water supply for Canaan.

FATHER KILLS WILD GOAT; MEAT KILLS YOUNG SON

LONG BEACH, Cal., Nov. 5.—David Smith, 5 years old, died here Monday night from poisoning induced, according to doctors who attended the child, from eating the meat of a wild goat, killed by the lad's father, on a recent hunting trip. Three other members of the family who partook of the meat are in a serious condition.

Young Fitzsimmons, son of the former heavyweight champion, won the decision from Fay Keiser of Baltimore in an eight-round bout.

OIL FIELD SANITATION SUBJECT OF BULLETIN

AUSTIN, Nov. 5.—Oil field sanitation is the subject discussed by Dr. A. P. Harrison, director of the bureau of county health work, in the latest issue of "Texas Municipalities," a bi-monthly publication, edited by Frank M. Stewart of the bureau of government research of the University of Texas. Dr. Harrison points out the responsibilities of oil companies and municipal authorities in checking the death rate in places where the lure of wealth draws succeeding armies to the field. Remedies for prevalent conditions in oil fields are suggested, and essentials of sanitation are listed.

Bargains Everywhere

Outclassing and underselling any sale or bargain event ever held in this town. The entire stock was placed on sale, extra arrangements were made, and a bargain event combined into a great sensation, a bewildering sight, baffling and dazzling scene of astounding bargains from one end of the store to the other.

People have come with a frown, and gone away with a smile. Every article is marked in plain figures, absolutely without reserve. You have your pick, the goods are going in a hurry. Come before it is too late.

People have come for 30 miles. It looked like a circus. They crammed and jammed the store from front to back. They came, they saw and they bought as they never did before. Everybody satisfied. Everybody coming again. The word went from mouth to mouth. The sale will not last much longer. Now is the time to fulfill your wants at less than half the price you pay elsewhere.

Something is happening every day. Good news and big bargains go in a hurry. Rushing scenes. The rattling of cash. Big packages going to the front. Men, women and children loaded down with merchandise at a mere trifle of what you pay in other sales. It is enough to make you want to come. It pays you to close up the house, postpone engagements, borrow money, dress yourself, and come prepared to buy.

C. C. MANAGERS LAY PLANS FOR INTER-CITY MEET

Plans for a countywide meeting of business men to discuss the feasibility of a co-operative publicity campaign, as a means of bringing about general development of the county, will be arranged Monday at a meeting of the secretaries of the Cisco, Eastland and Ranger Chambers of Commerce, at Cisco.

It is expected that there will be some difficulty in reconciling the different ideas of the three Eastland county towns as to the means of accomplishing the desired end, but that these difficulties will be eliminated. Manager Peters of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce has suggested that the proposed publicity campaign be directed along the lines of putting the idle farms to work in the county or in bringing industries to the towns. The ideas advanced at Eastland contemplate a campaign directed along the line of bridging about a renewal of drilling activities. There has been some contention at Cisco that the three towns have little in common and doubt expressed that they would be benefitted by a general publicity campaign.

So far Breckenridge remains aloof from the proposed plan of a joint campaign on the grounds that the activities of the town are at present engaged along other lines. It is hoped however, that the Stephens county metropolis will reconsider its refusal and join Eastland county in a general advertising campaign which would include the opportunities offered by the Eastland-Stephens county oil fields.

PASTOR WILL GIVE HIS VIEWS ON KU KLUX KLAN

The Rev. J. G. Winsett will set forth his attitude on the Ku Klux Klan, which recently announced its presence in Ranger, in his sermon Sunday night at the Christian tabernacle on "Americanism." Whether the Klan is needed here in Ranger and whether the good that might be accomplished by such an organization would be offset by the nature of its activities, will be discussed by the minister.

At the close of the sermon baptismal services will be held. All persons who gave in their names at the recent Garrison-Cohen revival meeting and others desiring to unite with the church are urged to be present. Baptismal services also will be held at the First Baptist and East Ranger Baptist churches.

KANSAS CITY BUILDS TO BEAT GREEDY LANDLORDS

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 5.—Kansas City is building to beat the landlord profiteers.

This fact was made evident by a report recently issued by the American Contractors' association, which shows Kansas City spent 220 per cent more in building during September, this year, than the same month in 1920.

Kansas City leads all other Mid-Western cities in building activities. Wichita has gained 110 per cent over last year and Omaha 50 per cent.

According to statistics compiled by the association mentioned previously, the building in Kansas City during September amounted to $1,865,850. During the same month last year $582,300 was spent.

PUPILS GIVEN QUALITY-SPEED WRITING TESTS

More than 1,000 pupils in the city schools have been tested for the quality and speed of their penmanship during the last week, with highly satisfactory results, Superintendent McNew stated last night. The tests were given to all grades from the second to the seventh inclusive, in the grade schools. Out of a total of 1,098 pupils taking the tests, 497 tested standard or above in the quality of their writing and 631 tested standard or above in the speed test. Based on a standard set by the South Bend, Ind., schools near the close of school last year, the results are considered gratifying, especially since the scores were made here at the beginning of the school term.

The Palmer penmanship system of slanting muscular writing is being taught in the Ranger schools and the test was under the scientific Ayers tests for slant writing.

During next month the Terman intelligence test will be given in the high school, also an algebra test.

Group tests will also be given during the month in the first and second grades. The Curtis test will be given in the third, fourth and fifth grades and the Stone reasoning tests given in the sixth and seventh grades.

THE SUBSTANCE OF IT.

The rookie on Post No. 1 saw the general approaching with his staff. He had the idea all right, although he was a bit weak as to formula. Bracing himself sternly, he yelled: "Turn out the whole push! Here comes the main squeeze!" — The American Legion Weekly.

Making shoes is the interminable task of Chinese women from youth to old age. They make their own tiny shoes in the seclusion of their quarters, even the husband being forbidden to watch their manufacture.

Does More For Less

THAT the Ford One-ton truck does more for the farmer or the merchant is proved by the great number of them now in daily use,—that it does this at less cost is shown by the actual figures—a smaller first cost and a much lower expense for operation and upkeep.

The Ford One-ton Truck has proved a great money saver, as well as a labor saver. It has solved the problems of economic transportation between the farm and the city.

The Ford One-ton truck has all the merits of the Ford car, with added strength for greater capacity. The worm drive of aluminum bronze gives unusual and positive power at a very low cost.

Come in and let us show you how the Ford One-ton Truck will help you and save you money in your work.

IMPORTANT

We are prepared to furnish the Ford Truck equipped either with Standard or Special Gearing. The Standard Gearing gives the truck a maximum of power. The Special Gearing increases the speed of the truck from five to seven miles an hour, converting it into a Fast Delivery Car.
