BOYD'S TRIAL IS POSTPONED FOR TWO DAYS

Technical Errors Are Cause; Motion to Be Tried Last Is Denied.

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, Dec. 5.—The trial of Johnny Boyd, charged with the murder of Joe Fiebrich, Ranger tailor, was continued this morning in the Ninety-first district court as the result of technical errors in the list of veniremen as furnished the defense. It was reset for Wednesday.

Judge Davenport overruled the motion of the defense for a continuance of the case until after Jack Stovall and Lloyd Line, also indicted for the murder, had been tried. It was contended by the defense counsel that a continuance was desired in order that Stovall and Line could testify for Boyd, as the evidence against them was not strong enough for a conviction. Exceptions were taken by the defense to the rulings of the court. It is understood that defendants charged with the same offense cannot testify in each other's behalf until they have been acquitted.

Among the list of witnesses called by the defense this morning were the names of Doc Fancet and Clarence Taylor, under indictment for automobile theft in Ranger.

It is presumed that the trial of Lloyd Line, which had been set for Wednesday, will be automatically postponed by the continuance of Boyd's trial to that date.

CONGRESS IS BACK ON JOB

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Congress was back on the job today, confronted with the huge legislative task of a regular session.

The main job of appropriating the billions to pay the government's bills for the next fiscal year will be set out in the President's budget message, which was to be read in both houses today.

Revision of the tariff will be started at once by the senate. This will follow the lines suggested by Harding in his message, to be delivered in person tomorrow at a joint session.

Congress opened its regular session promptly at noon. Both branches selected committees to notify President Harding that they were in session, prepared for his recommendation.

The senate then notified the house that it was in session, and the house in turn sent a similar notice to the senate.

Although the arms conference seems on the threshold of success, President Harding in his budget message today gave notice to the world powers that if a definite agreement is not reached on limitation of armament he believes the United States should expend more than $800,000,000 on its army and navy during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923.

The Budget.
Submitting to congress the first national budget prepared by Budget Director Daves, Harding estimated that the nation's two arms of defense should expend $801,656,107 in the fiscal year 1923—or more than three times the pre-war appropriations of approximately $250,000,000. The estimates, which were framed without regard for any limitation of armament that may result from the conference, are about $66,000,000 less than is being expended this year. The president in this respect is following his policy that the United States cannot make a big cut in its military and naval appropriations until all the powers definitely agree to do likewise.

The federal government during the year ending June 30, 1923, will cost the people of the United States approximately three and a half billion dollars, Harding estimated.

Although this amount is about three times the cost of the federal government before, the President pointed out that the estimated expenditures for the fiscal year of 1923 would be $2,032,285,962.30 less than the payments from the federal purse for 1921, during which year he assumed office. The 1923 expenditures, he said, would be $462,107,639 less than for the present fiscal year of 1922.

SUSPENSION OF CO. EXECUTIVES NOW IS SOUGHT

Petitioners in Ouster Suit Say They Desire to Stop Bond Sale.

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, Dec. 5.—A motion was filed in the Eighty-eighth district court this morning by the relators in the recent ouster suit against County Judge C. R. Starnes and Commissioners Webb, Camp and Robertson, seeking the suspension of the officials from office pending the outcome of the ouster suit. The motion was based on the allegations set forth in the ouster petition and on the allegation that the relators had reason to believe that the officials named were seeking to dispose of a portion of the good road bonds of the county in a way and manner not authorized by law.

The court reserved his decision in the matter for the present. The petition was signed by Grisham Brothers and J. R. Stubblefield, as attorneys for the relators.

'NOT MONKEYS,' BAPTISTS SAY

By Associated Press.
DALLAS, Dec. 1.—The closing session of the Baptist general convention here today was more spirited than previous sessions. The report on social service by Dr. W. A. Jarrell of Dallas contained objectionable phrases and was recommitted.

The Darwinian theory of evolution came up for discussion, some of the delegates emphasizing that they were not descendants of the monkey, and President J. D. Sandefer was authorized to appoint a committee of five to draw up resolutions memorializing the Texas legislature to change certain textbooks used in public schools, because the books were said to teach the Darwinian theory.

'ALL WRONG BUT ME'—BLANTON

BRACKENRIDGE, Dec. 5.—"If you go to Washington, you had better wear moral armor, if you don't want to be corrupted," Representative Thomas L. Blanton declared in a speech here today, and added: "I have heard more vulgarity in congress in five years than I have heard in cow camps in twenty-five years." Blanton further stated that "Every time those big steers in Washington lay down on the people I prod them up."

The congressman who was recently censured for remarks he had published in the Congressional Record, declared that his task in Washington was to guard the public funds against a corrupt congress.

"I am the only man who has ever gone to congress and withstood all side degrees and lived," he said. "Those side degrees were conferred because I made forty-seven congressmen mad."

Blanton will speak in Ranger Tuesday night. The place will be announced tomorrow.

PEACEMAKER IS BEATEN BY FIGHTING COUPLE

DALLAS, Dec. 5.—The same old story about the peacemaker that stepped between an irate couple and got an unpleasant reward was played here when a man from Farmers Branch refused to stand up and watch a man beat his wife in the Dallas County State Bank building. Both the man and wife then attacked the peacemaker. He was not seriously injured. Charges of aggravated assault were filed against the husband.

ARBUCKLE JURY HAD TO DODGE DICTAPHONES?

That's One Rumor; 'Obstinate' Juror Charges Attempts to Intimidate Her.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—A murky atmosphere of whispered or implied charges of all sorts was left behind today by the manslaughter trial of Roscoe Arbuckle, which ended with a disagreement and discharge of the jury.

Veiled declarations of the principal characters in the unfinished drama, charging that "propaganda" had been used to influence the jurors, was the most tangible story of many. The rumors started when the bailiff adopted the practice of changing rooms for the jury.

Dictaphone Used.
After Saturday noon, no two sessions were held in the same room. Many were in ignorance of exactly where the jury was meeting. Reports—unconfirmed, of course—had it that dictaphones hidden in the walls were responsible for the shift of rooms.

For the greater part of the balloting the vote stood 10 to 2 for acquittal, with one man and one woman wavering back and forth and one woman, Mrs. Helen Hubbard, holding out with adamant firmness for conviction.

Foremost of the issues attracting public attention was the charge made last night by Mrs. Hubbard that attempts had been made to intimidate her.

When the jury reported to the court, the foreman stated the count was 10 to 2 for acquittal.

Arbuckle was to leave today for southern California for a few days' rest. He will then return to San Francisco to join his lawyers in laying plans for the second trial, which will begin Jan. 7. He issued a statement late yesterday, declaring that "one woman" on the jury had prevented a verdict, and claiming that the result is a moral, if not a legal, acquittal. He charged that "organized propaganda designed to make the securing of an impartial jury an impossibility, and to prevent my obtaining a fair trial" was used.

AGED COUPLE'S LIVES SAVED BY CHILDREN'S KISS

By United Press.
DALLAS, Dec. 5.—A good-by kiss delivered daily before they left for school by Mary Virginia Buckley, 10, and her sister, Frances, saved the lives of their aged grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Grace, here today.

The children entered their grandparents' rooms to perform the daily rite. The aged couple was unconscious from the effects of gas escaping from a cook stove.

Mrs. Grace was found sitting in a rocking chair. It is believed she was overcome by gas while dressing. Mr. Grace was in bed, and was evidently overcome while asleep. Mr. Grace is 70; Mrs. Grace 66.

The family physician announced that both were in a critical condition, but there is a possibility that they will recover.

Packery Strike Fails

REPORTS SHOW BIG MAJORITY OF MEN AT WORK

Few Fist Fights Only Disturbance on First Day of Walkout.

By United Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—The strike of unionized packing plant employees of the country, called today in protest against wage slashes and refusal of employers to recognize the union, was only partly effective.

Many plants in large packing centers claim to be operating at normal capacity.

The "big five" in Chicago claim to be operating 95 per cent normal. Indications, according to neutral observers, were that about 12,000 of the 35,000 employees were out. Long lines of men looking for work stood in front of employment offices, ready to take the places of the strikers.

Kansas City employers declared 70 to 80 per cent of the men were at work, while unions said the percentage was smaller.

The only violence reported was a few fist fights in Chicago and St. Paul.

Situations at other leading packing centers follow:

Omaha, 50 per cent of 6,000 employees at work.

St. Paul, union leaders claim 100 per cent effective with 3,700 out. Women and children joined in picketing.

At Sioux City, 1,000 are on strike; Denver, 700 men out; East St. Louis, union leaders claim 2,300 men out; Indianapolis and Milwaukee not affected.

TROUBLE AT ST. PAUL.

By United Press.
SOUTH ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 5.—Striking packing plant employees attacked a trainload of strikebreakers here at 10 a. m. today, breaking windows in the train, and prevented packing plant officials from unloading the strikebreakers. Packer chiefs asked the mayor to petition for state troops to prevent further interference by strikers.

FORT WORTH.

By Associated Press.
FORT WORTH, Dec. 5.—Both Armour and Swift officially announced at 8 o'clock today that all but about 200 of their employees are in their places in spite of the strike order and the plants are operating normally. The union chiefs have as yet been unable to check up and are not in a position to say how many remained out.

Large crowds of men are congregated at the entrance gates of each plant and several fights have already occurred. However, the crowds are mainly contenting themselves with railferry at the men going to work.

CHICAGO.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Plans for immediate replacement of union packing house employees who obey the strike order were being carried out at fifteen packing centers in the Middle West affected by the walkout. The strike was voted two weeks ago after a wage reduction of approximately 10 per cent had been ordered. Two hundred extra policemen were assigned this morning to the stockyards district here, where a large percentage of the 40,000 packing house workers had voted to go on strike, according to union leaders.

Hell Hath No Terrors for Men Who Dance in Fire Before Prince

By Associated Press.
BIRANCE, India, Dec. 5.—A religious fire dance was held for the Prince of Wales as part of the program of entertainment during his visit here. Bare-legged natives danced through the embers of a bonfire. As they danced they sang wildly and snatched up red hot embers which they placed in their mouths. A shower of sparks followed their footsteps.

Subsequently, they procteted before the prince, inviting inspection of their legs and feet, which were apparently moist and cool. Several members of the prince's staff burned their fingers in attempting to pick up some of the embers.

TRAIN CRASH KILLS 9 NEAR PHILADELPHIA

Head-On Collision Occurs Early This Morning in Rock Cut on Curve.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3.—At least nine, perhaps a dozen or more persons, were killed or burned to death and a score injured near Bryn Athn, seventeen miles north of here, at 7:45 a. m. today when passenger trains Nos. 151 and 156 on the New York division of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad crashed head-on, according to unofficial reports here this afternoon.

The trains, both locals, made up in a large part of wooden coaches, collided on a curve between Woodmont and Paper Mill stations. Many of the cars burst into flames immediately following the crash and a number of occupants were unable to escape.

The engineers of the two trains were unable to see the approach of the other because of high rock walls on each side of the one-track line.

"Overran" Orders.
According to Reading officials, the crew of train 151 "overran" orders probably passing a signal set against it.

The impact of the crash was so great as to force the engine of the south-bound train over the top of the other engine. Both trains overturned, showering red hot coals from the fire boxes over the wooden coaches.

The Philadelphia & Reading railroad issued an official statement admitting "some" had been killed.

OTHER YANKEE BARNSTORMERS GET SAME DOSE

Home Run King Also Suspended for First Month of Next Season.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Babe Ruth's share of the world series profits in 1921 were declared forfeited and Ruth himself was suspended until May 20, 1922, by Commissioner K. M. Landis in a decision today, fixing punishment for the New York Yankee ball players for participating in a post-season barnstorming tour. Ruth may apply for reinstatement on May 20, 1922, by Commissioner K. that date, Commissioner Landis said. The 1922 baseball season starts about the middle of April, so Ruth will be prevented from participating in baseball for at least one month of next season.

Bill Piercy, New York American pitcher, whose home is at Westport, Texas, and Bob Meusel, Yankee right fielder, were handed the same punishment by Commissioner Landis. They participated in the trip with Ruth. The trio started out from New York city, playing several dates in New York state, but the trip was called off after they had been warned that they were violating the rules of organized baseball.

Ruth's share in the 1921 world series amounted to $3,362.26, which he will lose by the Landis decision. Meusel's share was the same, while Piercy received $100 less than his two teammates.

MARINE MAIL GUARD SHOTS LOUISIANA BOY

By Associated Press.
BEAUMONT, Dec. 5.—T. A. Willis, marine private acting as United States mail guard, is under military arrest following the killing Sunday morning at Blanchard, La., of Wiley Clarke, aged 20. According to the marines, the four Clarke brothers have frequently threatened the guard since he put Wiley Clarke off a train last week. Willis shot Clarke through the abdomen, marines said, when the latter came to the car and put his head in at the door, saying:

"I am not afraid of you and all your guns," at the same time putting both hands on his right hip.

Sergeant Niblo, who has Willis under arrest, commenting on the marine's refusal to submit to civil arrest at Leesville, La., said a marine on duty is under military authority, the mail cars are under martial law and that marines on duty must be tried in military courts.

"Willis has been relieved from duty until we hear from headquarters to which I have forwarded a report of the shooting," Niblo said.

Clark was a nephew of Dr. W. A. Turner, superintendent of the Aud-Saloon league of Louisiana, who declared in a statement last night that he expected to employ special counsel to prosecute Willis.

JUST LIKE DOBBIN.

What is the great pacifier that has soothed the people, anyway? Is it that financial depression causes them—whether greatly affected or not—to stay at home, hold onto their money and in general lead an inactive social life? Or is it reaction from the nervous excitement wrought by war, or something else?

Whatever the cause, there certainly has been a change in the conduct of the people.

Most of those in Ranger are drawing salaries—steady salaries—and in some respects are better off than they were during the days of the boom. Yet their habits have changed.

Two years ago, knee-deep mud could not keep them away from town. Youths went to dances, with rubber boots on feet and shoes in hand. Damsels did the same. Places of amusement, of refreshment, were crowded, whatever they offered and whatever the price. There was an air of carnival in the air, and everyone was zealous in the pursuit of pleasure, with the cost not to be considered.

Today, with salaried persons doing substantially as well as they did during the boom, they have lost the old gadabout spirit. They don't care to dance, they don't care for shows, they don't care for anything in the old happy-go-lucky way.

It is not lack of money, it is not lack of attractions; it is just plain lack of interest.

How come? We dunno.

Montreal now is the fifth city in North America, in point of population, and the Star believes it will pass 1,000,000 within three years. The figures show plainly enough that many Americans dislike the climate of Havana and make their choice accordingly.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

INTOLERANCE IS CONDEMNED AT K. OF C. ANNUAL BANQUET

In support of the constitution and of American institutions, he stated, the Knights of Columbus sent out lecturers over the country to counteract the socialist doctrine. In educational work the order is maintaining 500 free scholarships in colleges over the country and has established 101 free night schools, from which 300,000 men were graduated last year.

J. E. T. Peters, called upon to show that "It is Not in Dallas," praised the spirit of the men who had helped in the upbuilding of Ranger on the discovery of oil. The same adventurous spirit, he declared, had caused Columbus and his band to cross the ocean and discover a new continent and later had sent the pioneers westward from the coast. This spirit is both in Ranger and Dallas, the speaker said.

Man's Yardstick.

In simple and beautiful language, the Very Rev. Marshall F. Winne, president of Dallas university, presented a description of "The Hundredth Man," and the "yardstick" by which he may be measured. Such a man may be determined by what he likes and not by his possessions, the speaker asserted. The "hundredth man," likes to serve, he is clean, and never bitter. The man who remarks that the virtue of womanhood is at a low ebb or persists in a pessimistic philosophy is the petty, mean fellow, Dr. Winne said.

Mrs. R. C. McCoy sang a number of selections during the evening and after her first song continued to receive ovations. She was accompanied by Mrs. Vincent Wakefield on the piano. After a number of selections she closed with several of her own improvising, which were received with special delight.

Condemns Intolerance.

John W. Philp, speaking on "The Ideals of Our Order," declared that such ideal could be expressed in the work of Christ, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's."

The Knights of Columbus is an American order, organized by Americans, he said, but that it had been maligned he said by charlatans hiding behind a pretense of patriotism.

He explained that he was born in Texas, the son of a Confederate soldier and yielded to no man in patriotism for the state and nation, but that he would yield to no man the right to say how he should say his prayers. "The serpent of intolerance has reared its head, as it has since the world began, and will so long as it exists. It will be the purpose of the order," he said, "to crush this head and make any sacrifice in order that Catholic and Protestant may worship their God as they see fit. The order will also fight the propaganda to destroy the glorious history of this country as is taught in the schools.

The educational program of the order, he said, included every race and creed and was untainted by any propaganda of any kind.

E. J. Barnes, president of the Rotary club, spoke on "What a Man Thinks Is the most Important Thing About Him."

F. W. Hustmyre of Orange spoke on "What Is Columbianism." After counting the history of the order and what had been accomplished, he told his brother knights that they must rest on laurels of the past but carry Columbianism on to greater things.

Bishop Lynch's address on "Our Country" was a "verbal mosaic," in the words of the bishop, of the beauties of "Columbia." Ranger was characterized as a 100 per cent American city by Bishop Lynch, in that men were taken for what he professed to be until proved different.

E. D. Davoren, past state deputy of the Knights of Columbus, told of the old-timers of the order.

GOV. LEN SMALL BALKS AT TRIAL ON LOOT CHARGE

Says Political Enmity Is Back of Indictment for Taking State Money.

By United Press.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Dec. 5.—Governor Len Small, charged with looting the treasury of Illinois, today balked at efforts to bring him to trial.

Through his attorney, C. C. La-Forge, the governor asked that the indictment alleging he juggled millions in state funds, be thrown out of court on the grounds that the grand jury that made the return was illegally chosen.

Argument to quash the case were heard before Judge Clark C. Edwards of Lake county circuit court. The governor was granted a change of venue from Springfield to Waukegan some months ago, when he charged he could not get justice among his political enemies in a trial at the state capital.

The employment office at the yards of Swift & company reported that they had two men for every job. Officers of the company said that about 90 per cent of the regular force had reported for work.

The first call for police came from the Swift plant, where 700 men had gathered waiting for jobs. Police said there was no trouble forming them into line.

E. A. Cudahy, Jr., of the Cudahy Packing company, said that reports from the company's plants were that about 50 per cent of their employes had reported for work. The company has no plant in Chicago.

John E. O'Hearn of Armour & company announced that 7,860 of the 8,000 Armour employes came to work as usual this morning. In outside plants it was about a fifty-fifty break, he said. Shipments today were very light and there was no necessity for filling the vacancies here today, he said.

Wilson & company also reported about 90 per cent of its employes returned to work, although the killing department did not begin operations until noon. Two of the employes' conference, composed of thirty-six men, failed to report.

KANSAS CITY.

By Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 5.—Union officials estimate that 80 to 98 per cent of packing house workers at the five plants in Kansas City, Kan., failed to report for work this morning, and plant officials placed the number at 20 to 25 per cent. There are about 9,000 employed in the five plants, 7,780 of whom were affected by the recent wage cut. About 300 men were congregated outside the various plants this morning at the hour the men usually report for work.

FORT WORTH, Dec. 5.—The holiday season is on at the postoffice. One-half million circulars were entrusted to Uncle Sam by four local oil companies Friday and Saturday. The circulars, holiday specials, calling attention to the nice gifts oil stock made, etc., taxed the capacity of the local office.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 5.—Discharge of four grand goblins of the K. K. K., announced this week, has been followed here by warrants charging three of them with larceny after trust and by a $50,000 damage suit filed in behalf of the fourth.

Edward Young Clarke, imperial klegale of the order, swore out warrants charging larceny after trust for F. W. Atkins, Philadelphia; Lloyd P. Hooper, New York, and A. J. Padon Jr., Chicago, it being alleged they had failed to turn in certain funds to the treasury.

Clarke is temporarily in charge of the klan while W. J. Simmons, imperial wizard, is in North Carolina because of ill health.

By Associated Press.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 5.—A detachment of fifteen men of the Thirty-second infantry, with a machine gun, left Yuma shortly after midnight for special patrol duty along the international line, according to private dispatches received here early this morning. Persistent rumors in circulation had said that rebels from Lower California were preparing to cross the Colorado river at Andrade, a head gate of the Imperial valley irrigation project, and attack San Luis, twenty-six miles south of Yuma, before morning. The detachment was sent from Yuma, army officers said, to prevent the rebel band from passing through American territory.

ARIZONA LAD KILLS BIG BEAR WITH .22 RIFLE

By International News Service.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 5.—Fighting to save his own life and the lives of several younger brothers and sisters, George Haught, 14-year-old son of an Arizona backwoodsman living in the heart of the Mogollon mountains, with one shot of a .22 calibre rifle killed an 800-pound silver tip bear that had attacked the children on a narrow mountain trail.

Reports of the youth's bravery and his dead-shot accuracy were received here from members of a de luxe hunting party, which, outfitted at a cost of $25,000 and composed of Southern California motion picture stars and business men, penetrated the heart of the Arizona big game country several weeks ago to hunt and take motion pictures of bear, deer and mountain lions in their native state.

The bear confronted the children as they rounded a turn in the trail on the way home from school. Flight, the elder boy saw was impossible as the younger children would soon be overtaken if the bear attacked and the dim light of approaching night made the trail unsafe for rapid progress.

Leveling his rifle, and aware that to wound and not to kill would mean death from the infuriated beast, the big brother fired with a deadly accuracy.

TWENTY-FOUR NEW MEMBERS RECEIVED INTO PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Twenty-four additions were received at the Presbyterian church yesterday, two by baptism and the rest by certificates. The new members received into the church have been residents of the city for some time, it is stated, but have heretofore not been identified with the church. After being received into the church the new members attended communion services.

LARCENY CHARGES FILED AGAINST FOUR GOBLINS

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 5.—Discharge of four grand goblins of the K. K. K., announced this week, has been followed here by warrants charging three of them with larceny after trust and by a $50,000 damage suit filed in behalf of the fourth.

Edward Young Clarke, imperial klegale of the order, swore out warrants charging larceny after trust for F. W. Atkins, Philadelphia; Lloyd P. Hooper, New York, and A. J. Padon Jr., Chicago, it being alleged they had failed to turn in certain funds to the treasury.

Clarke is temporarily in charge of the klan while W. J. Simmons, imperial wizard, is in North Carolina because of ill health.

By Associated Press.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 5.—A detachment of fifteen men of the Thirty-second infantry, with a machine gun, left Yuma shortly after midnight for special patrol duty along the international line, according to private dispatches received here early this morning. Persistent rumors in circulation had said that rebels from Lower California were preparing to cross the Colorado river at Andrade, a head gate of the Imperial valley irrigation project, and attack San Luis, twenty-six miles south of Yuma, before morning. The detachment was sent from Yuma, army officers said, to prevent the rebel band from passing through American territory.

JUDGE MAXEY DIES.

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Dec. 5.—Judge T. S. Maxey, 75 years old, eminent Texas jurist, died at his home here today. Judge Maxey served as judge of the United States court for the western district of Texas for twenty-eight years, retiring voluntarily in 1916. He was appointed as judge of the court by President Cleveland in 1888. He came to Texas in 1869. He was a native of Mississippi and graduated from the University of Mississippi and the University of Virginia.

IRISH PARLEY ENDS BUT TRUCE WILL CONTINUE

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The Irish negotiations have broken down, according to statements in responsible quarters today, and the Dail Eireann delegates are expected to return to Ireland tomorrow or Wednesday. The truce will remain in effect and no immediate resumption of hostilities is looked for.

The entire British cabinet went into session today and the crisis in the negotiations held the exclusive attention of official circles. Premier Lloyd George obtained an audience with King George and explained the situation to him.

KLAN IS TOTTERING?

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5.—Receivship for the Ku Klux Klan and possible criminal action against Edward Young Clarke and Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, will probably be the next move on the part of thousands of klanmen who have resigned from the organization following the nationwide exposure of the klan's workings.

F. W. Atkins, former grand goblin of the Atlantic domain, who admits he was "fired," is authority for the statement prophesying legal action. His announcement today closely followed word from Atlanta that "Imperial Wizard" Simmons had taken to the mountains for his health. Clarke is said to have been left in full control of the tottering klan.

Mr. Atkins said: "Receivship is my idea of what should be done. The other grand goblins who were fired at the same time I was, will help in exposing the true state of affairs. Whether we will also file criminal charges will depend on the consensus of opinion." If there are criminal charges filed, it was said, they will probably be along lines of illegitimate handling of funds, rather than any attack on the moral relationship between Mr. Clarke and Mrs. Tyler.

RAILROADS REPLY TO TEXAS BRIEF ON I. C. C.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Declaring that the only power denied the states by the transportation act is that of fixing intrastate rates that discriminate against interstate commerce, Alfred P. Thom, general counsel for the Association of Railway Executives, in a brief filed today, asks the United States supreme court to sustain the constitutionality of the statute. The railroad's brief is in reply to that filed by Assistant Attorney General Thomas L. Beauchamp of Austin in the Texas case making a general attack upon the validity of the transportation act, and which is an argument before the court this week.

ANGELO'S WOMAN JAILER ABLE TO TREAT 'EM ROUGH

By Associated Press. SAN ANGELO, Dec. 5.—Kindness toward prisoners is shown by Mrs. Conway, jailer of the Tom Green county jail in San Angelo, but Mrs. Conway uses force, if necessary, to control her charges. She is the only woman jailer in Texas, so far as known, and one of the few, if not the only woman jailer in the country. For more than twelve years, Mrs. Conway has had charge of all kind of criminals, including the real "bad men" of the west, cattle rustlers, house breakers, yeggs and petty thieves. Care is given by Mrs. Conway to her charges and in case one becomes ill, she feeds the prisoner with specially prepared food from her own table. So far as possible, she tries to make her charges forget they are in prison and to make the surroundings as comfortable as possible. On one occasion, Mrs. Conway was tipped off that a big negro prisoner and others had planned to overpower her and make their escape at meal time. Calmly she began her duties of giving them supper. The negro edged toward the door of the cage and ignored a command to move back into his cell. Mrs. Conway had the bunch of big keys in her hand and with one blow rendered the prisoner unconscious and forced the others back into their cells. Mrs. Conway has been a resident of San Angelo since the days of old Fort Concho. Her husband, Pat Conway, janitor at the Tom Green county court house, was a soldier at Fort Concho when it was a frontier post.

TARIFF IS BIG ISSUE IN CANADIAN ELECTION

By Associated Press. OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 5, 1921.—The tariff again looms up as the big issue in the Canadian elections to be held Tuesday, Dec. 6, to choose a new federal parliament for the dominion. In that respect, the situation is a repetition of that of 1911, the last "normal" general election held in Canada when the political struggle was decided on purely political issues. The tariff, then, as now, was the main question. Apprehension that Canada may fall under the economic domination of her wealthy neighbor, the United States, is again a battle cry of the coming election as it was in the campaign of 1911 when the late Sir Wilfred Laurier, went down to defeat when he appealed to the people to ratify the reciprocity agreement which had then just been concluded with the United States government. It will be recalled that in that campaign of ten years ago the Conservative party, under the leadership of Sir Robert Borden, fought the reciprocity treaty on the ground that "truck or trade with the Yankees" was taking the first step toward economic servitude to the United States. The Conservatives were returned with a huge majority in parliament and reciprocity died a sudden death.

MICHIGAN LETTER MEN RESENT ALUMNI CRITICISM OF YOST

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Staunch support of Fielding H. Yost, football coach at the University of Michigan for twenty years, is asserted in an endorsement of the Michigan mentor passed by the "M" club, an association of Wolverine letter men who voice the highest praise and condemn criticism of the famous "Hurricane" coach, made by some alumni. Unfounded rumors, which reach the ears of a Michigan alumni association, were responsible for condemnation of Yost by that organization, the "M" club resolution said. These rumors were investigated by the club, as a result of which, the "M" men said, they found that Coach Yost had worked faithfully for the best interests of the 1921 football squad. Had the alumni associations taken the time to acquaint themselves with the true situation and the handicap under which Coach Yost was laboring the criticism would have been stamped out," the resolution said. Any team in the country has always been proud to beat Michigan, the alumni declare, and point to an athletic record on the gridiron, track, diamond, basketball and tennis courts which has a decided list to the winning side. The football figures against Ohio show eighteen games played, of which Michigan has won thirteen and lost three. Two have been ties. The Illini have been humbled six times to a pair of victories by the Urbana men; Chicago has come on top only six times to eleven for Michigan, Wisconsin twice to Michigan's five; Iowa once in two Michigan victories; Indiana nothing to four, Northwestern two to four and Purdue two to five. Michigan's grand percentage is better than 70.

COLUMBIA U. HAS STUDENT WHO'S BEEN RAH-RAH BOY FOR 41 YEARS

By LEO T. HEATLEY,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—William Cullen Bryant Kemp, now in his forty-first undergraduate year at Columbia university, will be a rah-rah boy for the rest of his life. He cavorted on the Columbus campus with Nicholas Murray Butler back in 1880. Dr. Butler is now president of Columbia and has achieved various kinds of fame, while Kemp is still a student, a man in the sixties, with iron-gray hair, rather portly and with very snappy eyes. Also, he wears a cane.

Kemp's real reason for sticking to Columbia is a dark and deep secret that has never been penetrated by his most intimate acquaintances and friends at the college. All sorts of stories have developed among his classmates as to what keeps him grinding out at his studies all these years, with no hope of relief. Most boys at college go through their four years acquiring learning with always the same aim in view—to get it over with.

Has All the Degrees.
But it is different with Kemp. He doesn't look upon his college course as a matter of drudgery. He will not be unusual or photographed, but his unusual academic career is familiar to the students of Columbia. Kemp, with his poetic name, has acquired all the degrees that can be conferred—A. B., A. M., LL.B., Ph. D., D. D., LL.D., M. E., C. E., M. D., D. D. S., and a few others. His greatest degree, however, was conferred by his fellow students—that of P. S., meaning Perpetual Student.

Kemp has not yet tackled such subjects as archaeology, paleontology, or ethnology, anthropology and a few other "ologies." But give him time. Among the many stories circulated about Kemp is that he was sentenced for life to be a student of Columbia. The students say this sentence was imposed upon him in his freshman year because he did not study, hard enough. He was a freshman at the college in 1880. College gossip says that this man had a relative who was worried over his lack of application to his studies and devised a unique method of making him learn. To this end he left an annuity of $2,500 to William, providing he could only draw this sum by remaining a registered and chartered student of the university. If ever he left the classic seat of learning he could wave good-by to the annuity.

Another version of the will left by this fond relative is that he left the money to Kemp through fear William would beat it at his studies at the college. But he hasn't tried to beat it yet, and he has plugged along for forty-one years as an enrolled student. He is still enrolled in the registrar's office as a student.

Forbidden to Marry?
The rumors of the campus go on to say that another clause in this strange will forbids Kemp to marry. It also says he must make the college, or a part of the college, his dormitory. For he has never married. He has been living for a number of years in Livingston hall, off South Field, where his lamp burns brightly every night. Other students may worry for fear they will flunk and fail to get honorable mention, but Kemp constantly fears that he will pass and be turned out into the cold, cruel world without his annuity. And, as everyone knows, there are few things in this old world more helpless or more dependent upon public charity and beneficence than a college boy sent out into the well-known world without an annuity.

MAN AND DOGS DEAD, LIFELIKE, UNDER ICE

THE PAS, Manitoba, Dec. 5.—Searching parties combing Moose Lake have found the body of Walter Goyno, American dog derby racer, who drowned Nov. 15.

Through the transparent ice the body could be seen in eight feet of water, sitting bolt upright on the sled, partly covered by an eiderdown robe.

Provincial police, who investigated the incident, said they believed he was traveling at racing speed toward shore in an effort to escape thin ice, when he plunged through under heavier ice, where escape was impossible. Intensely cold weather began soon after the tragedy, and the spot where Goyno went down was frozen over with a foot of ice, thus removing every bit of evidence that might have aided searchers.

TOWN WIPED OFF MAP WHEN LARGE FAMILY LEAVES

By Associated Press

LANCASTER, Ohio, Dec. 5.—George Fraire, who moved his wife and fifteen children from Hocking county to North Berne, two years ago, thereby doubling the population and causing the census enumerator to change it from a hamlet to a village, today literally wiped the place off the map again by moving away.

Fraire operated a general store and was mayor and postmaster.

Owing to the removal of his big family, North Berne now loses its postoffice and will receive its mail by rural delivery out of Lancaster.

Petitions are being filed for Fraire's return.

FORMER BANDIT STUDYING HARD TO BE MINISTER

By International News Service

CANON CITY, Col., Dec. 5.—From banditry to the ministry is the jump Charles Clinton, notorious bank robber and gunman, hopes to make.

Clinton is serving a twelve-year term in the state penitentiary here. He was captured in Colorado Springs after a sensational battle with police officers, following a series of crimes that started police of half a dozen western cities on his trail.

Snugly ensconced in one of the cells of the Canon City state prison, each evening sits Clinton, middle-aged and prematurely gray, constantly reading by the light of the one dim lamp which illumines the cell he is forced to call home.

Every evening when the day of toil is ended he peruses his books—carefully lifting his eyes from the printed pages as the hours pass until all lights are extinguished and the prisoners are required to retire to their cots.

And the books that Clinton pores over so diligently are the Book of Mormon and other sacred books of the Church of the Latter Day Saints. He is planning to enter the ministry.

Was Daring Bandit.

Less than a year ago a daring bandit, scornful of God and man alike, he terrorized the entire Middle West until Colorado Springs officers brought his career to an end and started the legal proceedings which sent him to the penitentiary.

Warden Thomas J. Tynan is authorized to make the statement that Clinton desires to become a minister of the gospel.

"Crime has brought me nothing," Clinton is quoted as having told Warden Tynan. "It lost me my wife and baby. It brought me here—and I have nothing to show for the years I was violating the law and fighting the authorities.

"I am going to study while I am here. I am going to improve my time. I am going to enter the ministry upon my release—and I shall tell the world the awfulness of the years of criminality; I can tell them as no one else can, for I know."

SCIENCE EXPLAINS LIGHT ON MOUNTAIN

By International News Service

ASHVILLE, N. C., Dec. 5.—The mysterious light on Brown mountain, in Burke county, which has puzzled scientists for several years, leading to many and varied theories as to its origin, is a mystery no longer, if an explanation contained in the current publication of the American Meteorological Society Bulletin has the correct solution.

"Andean lightning" is the name of this phenomenon, according to the bulletin. "Andean lightning," says the report, "is the name given to a very striking luminous discharge of electricity seen over the crest of the Andes, in Chile, in a region where ordinarily thunderstorms are almost unknown. The mountains appear to act as gigantic lightning rods, between which and the clouds silent discharges take place on a vast scale. Because more frequently seen in the Andes than elsewhere the term 'Andean lightning' has been adopted.

"However, the same phenomenon has been observed in the Swiss Alps and the mountains of North Carolina. Detailed accounts of its appearance in the region of Brown mountain, seventeen miles from Blowing Rock, in the summers of 1917 and 1918, were given. According to Dr. Walter Knoche, for a number of years director of the weather bureau of Chile, these great silent brush discharges of electricity extend from the crest of the Cordilleras far out to sea. They almost always appear in a clear sky upon the approach of nightfall. As regards seasons, the phenomenon begins in the fall. The frequency of discharge, says Dr. Knoche, seems in general to decrease or increase with distance from the equator.

"In the discussion, the occurrence of such mountain brush discharges in the White mountains was mentioned."

GETS GRANDFATHER'S PAY

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 5.—Charles H. Corbett, Minneapolis, will receive pay earned by his grandfather, John Corbett, as chief mechanic in the construction of the Monitor during the Civil war, when depositions taken recently reach Washington.

The affidavits were taken in the clerk of district court's office.

Corbett's claim passed on to his father and then to him, will be the last to be settled by the United States.

When the Monitor was built the Confederates were threatening Washington, and the Ericson "cheese box" was put together with no appropriation to pay the men.

As a result of red tape and delays the claims filed for wages were not paid for many years, and the Corbett claim finally has been approved. Harry J. Blksom, Minneapolis attorney, forwarded the necessary affidavits recently.

TRAIN ROBBER'S WIFE GREETES HIM IN PRISON

On hearing that her husband, Roy Gardner, train robber and escaped convict, had been recaptured, Mrs. Dolly Gardner hurried from her home in San Francisco to meet Gardner in the prison at Phoenix, Ariz. The bars prevented any more intimate greeting than a handclasp between Gardner and his faithful wife. The photo shows Gardner, his wife and United States Marshall Joe Dilliam.

COLLEGES HOLD TRACK MEET BY TELEPHONE

Conducting an athletic meet by telephone is a novel method of deciding intercollegiate contests. It saves expense, time, and trouble, though, perhaps, it may lack in the excitement produced when the competitors are visible to one another. Not long ago Amherst and Wesleyan colleges held a telephone track meet, in which

Amherst took the honors. According to the Wesleyan Alumnus:

As an event was run off at either college the result was telephoned to the other and posted on a large bulletin. Thus the spectators at each field knew how the meet was progressing. The final score was 8-5, in favor of the Purple and White, which means that Amherst won eight entire events and Wesleyan five. Ten men were entered by each college in the event, their total times or distances added and these figures used in judging the events. It is a new idea original with "Doc" Fauver, Wesleyan's head coach, inasmuch as he desired to have the colleges compete on a larger scale than has been the custom in past years.

In all probability, if it can be arranged successfully, Wesleyan will compete with both Amherst and Williams in track events next year by this method.—Chattanooga (Tenn.) Times.

POSITIONS THAT PAY WELL AND ARE ALWAYS TO BE HAD

The perfecting of typesetting keyboards has brought new and unusual opportunities in the printing business. The business that gives development to great minds.

Positions of this kind always have paid well and perhaps always will, and doubtless they will always be plentiful, because the printing business expands as civilization develops. Anybody who could learn to operate a typewriter can learn to operate a typesetting machine. If you want to learn how to do the work of a monotype machinist; if you want to learn to do the work of an intertype or a linotype machinist; if you want to learn to operate any of these machines; if you want to learn the work of the business office—if you want to get into a work that will always pay you well, and if you can spare three to four months for preparation, write for Prospectus to American Publishers' and Southern Publishers' TYPESETTING DEPARTMENT OF THE GEORGIA - ALABAMA BUSINESS COLLEGE, Macon, Ga.—Adv.
