

JAPAN WILL ACCEPT SHIP RATIO IF PEACE GUARANTEES ARE GIVEN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Bargaining over the big question now before the powers—the capital ship controversy between the United States and Japan—is in full swing.

Japanese sources today advanced the proposal that the Hughes ratio of 60 per cent would be accepted if an agreement were reached among the powers that no war would be started against Japan except on six months' notice. The Japanese, however, are backing away from another proposal that America agree to abandon fortifications in the Pacific before they accept the Hughes ratio, and made it clear that they will not break up the conference over the capital ship fight.

From sources close to former President Wilson it was learned that he is considering asking League of Nations advocates in this country to start a movement for American participation in the league with any reservations the senate may see fit to impose.

EXPERTS MEET TO PLAN FIGHT ON BOLL WORM

DALLAS, Dec. 2.—The seriousness of the pink boll worm situation was brought home to Texas cotton men and farmers and bankers in a conference here today.

Absolute quarantine against Texas cotton seed will be maintained by Louisiana, no matter what steps are taken to prevent infected seed being shipped, Harry D. Wilson, Louisiana commissioner of agriculture, informed the meeting.

Oklahoma will enforce a quarantine but will be ready to modify it if Texas takes proper action to enforce seed sterilization, W. J. Lackey, analyst of Oklahoma, said. Absolute extermination of the pest is called for by the federal government, it was learned.

Reference was called to department steps will be taken to fight it. It was expected that some program would be suggested session.

NAKED DANCE STAGED WHEN U. S. BARS ENTRY

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 2.—Three men from the Doukhobor, or Russian nonconformist, settlement near Nelson, B. C., discarded all their clothing in a waiting room at the Canadian Pacific railway station here and went through a war dance when they were refused admittance to the United States. They were later arrested by Vancouver police for disorderly conduct.

United States Immigration Commissioner Zurbriek had questioned them as to their fitness to proceed on their journey to the state of Washington as prospective settlers. He found their views coincided with the accepted definition of philosophical anarchy, and declined them the hospitality of the government.

The men are said to have threatened an undress parade in Vancouver by a large number of their fellow Doukhobors in protest against their arrest.

"GET MARRIED," CURE FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The latest solution for the unemployment problem is a get-married campaign. This novel idea is being practiced daily by Dr. Stom P. W. Draw of this city, who has earned the sobriquet of the "Marrying Parson" through his efforts in behalf of the local colored population. The idea obsessed him recently when streams of colored men and women applied to an employment bureau, of which he is president, for jobs. Unable to provide everyone with employment, he consorted them somewhat by offering to perform a marriage ceremony.

So successful is his idea, says the "Marrying Parson," that he has found it necessary to establish regular office hours to take care of his daily rush of business.

TOWN OFFERS REWARD FOR DOUBLE MURDERER

GALLUP, N. M., Dec. 2.—The town of Gallup has offered a reward of $1,000 "for information leading to the arrest of the murderer" of James W. Blackwell, Jr. and his pretty wife, who were shot on the front porch of their home last Friday night as they were about to enter the house. The shooting of Blackwell and his wife continues to be a profound mystery.

Blackwell was a nephew of the founder of the Bull Durham Tobacco company. Blackwell's father, who lives here, and the latter's brother also founded the town of Durham, N. C., to which place the bodies of J. W. Blackwell Jr. and his wife will be sent for burial.

APPLICATIONS FOR SCRIP SHOW DAILY INCREASE

More than $7,000 has been issued in scrip by the Retail Merchants' association against assigned accounts in the Farmers & Merchants State bank since Wednesday noon, Secretary Burt reported this morning. The number of applications is increasing each day at the offices of the association in the Guaranty bank building, reversing the procedure last summer, when the maximum number of applications were received on the first day. This morning approximately sixty applications had been received from applicants ranging in years from "eight to eighty." The accounts involved have run from $10 to $1,000, one applicant using scrip in the latter amount to purchase an automobile.

The association is issuing scrip up to a maximum of 75 per cent of accounts, the remainder being paid in cash when the bank is liquidated. Applications are being received at the offices of the association from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m.

Next Wednesday night, the offices will remain open from 7:30 until 9 o'clock, to accommodate oil field workers and others who are unable to reach the offices during the day.

They declared that they had purchased $200 worth of "money" from another man for $30. Both pleaded guilty.

Both men are in the same hospital, but are ignorant of the proximity of the other.

MARTIAL LAW FOLLOWS RIOT BY VIENNESE

VIENNA, Dec. 2.—Military police, assisted by regular infantry and cavalry, patrolled the streets of Vienna today, following the riot in which mobs looted stores and hotels and attacked foreigners.

Four hundred persons are under arrest.

The damage at the fashionable hotel Bristol, where from fifty to sixty Americans and English were gathered, is estimated at 200,000,000 kronen. None of the Americans were injured, although much of their personal property was taken by the looters.

There was much criticism of police for their failure to quell the riot or throw a cordon about the hotel, when they saw the 30,000 enraged workers swarming through the streets.

The riots were precipitated by strikers who were suffering because of the extreme high cost of living. The inner city today looked as if it had been struck by a tornado, as the result of the riot—the worst since the fall of the monarchy. Leading hotels and shops where luxuries are sold bore the brunt of the rioting. All plate glass windows were smashed and the streets are cluttered with debris. No deaths are reported but police officers said many had been injured by the mob in its orgy of plunder and destruction.

TWO POLICEMEN SLAIN IN ATTACK ON IRISH JAIL

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The most serious outbreak in Ireland since the truce was reported in a dispatch to the Evening Star, from Londonderry, where two policemen are said to have been killed in a jail battle.

Armed men attacked the jail at 3 a. m. the report said. Simultaneously prisoners began a riot and attempted to escape. The police rallied to the defense of the prisoners, driving off the attackers, and hemming the prisoners in their cells. In the fierce fighting the two policemen were killed, and seven of the attackers captured.

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 2.—The city commission at a regular session yesterday accepted a proposal of the San Antonio Public Service company to reduce street car fares from 8 to 6 cents and to reduce the gas and electric light rate, if the city would abolish jitneys operating on the streets. The lower gas and light rates become effective Jan. 1.

BRIAND LANDS IN BRISK GALE, TO FACE STORM

HAVRE, Dec. 2.—Premier Briand returned to France today after a five weeks' absence in which he presided to the Washington conference. France's position on arms limitation. As he landed here he was greeted without enthusiasm. He landed at 10:20 a. m. after being brought here on the tug Athlete, which met the ship outside the harbor. All of the French cabinet except the minister of justice and war met the Paris in a northwest wind which was blowing half a gale, threatening to send the tiny tug crashing against the big ship. A heavy sea was running, but the premier's opposition made no pretense of hiding its opinion that it was "bafny" as compared with the storm Briand will have to face in the chamber of deputies next Tuesday, when he gives an account of his Washington speech.

Poincare Next Premier?

Briand was informed that coincident with his return, lists were circulated in the chamber of deputies and senate purporting to give the composition of a cabinet under former President Poincare, which the opposition expects will succeed the Briand ministry if the latter should fall as a result of non-payment by Germany of its reparations quota due Jan. 15.

Although Poincare has refrained from attacking the present cabinet, the former president delivered an address at Bordeaux last week which has been characterized as a "program speech," and Briand's adversaries are rallying behind him.

TRANSFUSION PATIENTS IMPERILED WHEN DRUG ADDICT SELLS BLOOD

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Whether the transfusion of blood from the veins of a drug addict carries with it to the patient a taste for drugs is a question that is causing several New York physicians concern.

Members of the narcotic squad arrested James Milo, who sells his blood for transfusion, on a charge of being a drug addict.

It was learned that one patient, into whose system a quantity of Milo's blood had been injected recently, had died twenty-four hours after the operation, but the patient, according to the physicians in charge, was not expected to live when the operation was performed.

Milo has participated in twenty-five transfusion cases, and his name and address are on almost every hospital list in the city. He has received from $35 to $50 for each transfusion.

SALT LAKE CITY BUSINESS MAN REPORTS GAIN

Don J. Perry, 370 Quince St., well-known Salt Lake City, Utah, business man, in reporting remarkable gains in weight both by himself and his wife, says:

"My wife gained twenty-eight pounds and I gained ten pounds in a few weeks by taking Tanlac. The change in Mrs. Perry is all the more remarkable, as she had been going down hill steadily for four or five years. She got no nourishment from her food and I don't believe she averaged three hours sleep out of the twenty-four."

"While my condition was not as serious as hers, I had been under the weather for some time, had no appetite and was bothered a good deal by indigestion. Tanlac has certainly proved all and more than claimed for it with us."

Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros., and in Eastland by the Palace Drug store.—Advertisement

HUSBAND'S DUAL LIFE BIG SHOCK, BUT SHE FIGHTS

Widow to Contest Husband's Will Leaving Fortune to Another Woman.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—An unpretentious rooming house, at No. 114 West One Hundred and Twenty-third street, a little old woman of seventy-five last night prepared to tell in public a story fashioned of a fabric almost unknown in real life.

Dark-eyed, delicate, with snow white hair and cameo features, Mrs. Caroline Howell, timidly but no less determinedly, was schooling herself for the ordeal that must come December 1 when she sketches before Surrogate Foley the story of the unsuspected double life of her seventy-eight year old husband, James A. Howell, pioneer milk magnate.

The bird-like little old woman in black said:

"I still live amidst the shock of discovery that my darling husband for twelve years had lived with another woman.

Learned After Death.
"I did not learn until many days after my husband's sudden death on October 3 last, that he had been living, for the most part in a commodious home in New Jersey with Mrs. Alice Maloff. She was a waitress in a restaurant in New Jersey, I have been told. I don't know whether she is a 'grass widow,' though I have been told she is.

This is the woman I must face in the Surrogate's Court on December 1. I will be there and I shall take the stand and tell of my forty-eight years of happy married life with Mr. Howell. Of course, I am bitter towards her, for I feel that she deliberately fostered her association with my husband for the sake of gain.

"She is in middle age, I am told. What could she want with the companionship and attention of a man who has a son older than she is?"

"Love Forgives."

"No, I am bitter; but I loved him, and love forgives almost everything. I never knew anything about Mr. Howell's business affairs. Six years after our wedding in Goshen, N. Y. he drew up a will making me his sole heir.

"I didn't know whether he was worth a thousand dollars or a million. I didn't care. But I do feel deeply the bitterness of his will of 1917, in which he left his estate of perhaps $300,000 to the woman of whose existence I was in ignorance until a month ago.

"Now I feel sort of helpless. But I must be brave. I must realize that whatever my husband did, he was impelled by motives contrary to his nature. I can never forget our years of happiness. I can never forget the wonderful week we spent here before his sudden death on October 3.

"And I know that this other thing that came into my husband's life was in his real heart of hearts welcome.

Agree on One Point.

"Why, think of that sentence in the letter of this strange woman to my husband last Summer: 'It is surely an immoral and sinful, a miserable and unhappy life to live with a man and not be his wife.'

"At least on this one point we agree. Whatever the thing was that bound them together, the relationship between my husband and Alice Maloff was sinful."

The little widow is fighting for a share of her husband's estate. His fortune was founded upon his sale of the Howell Condensed Milk company in 1915 to the Bordens. For many years, she asserted, her husband had pleaded lecturing arrangements, as reasons for his frequent absences from her.

It was only after his death that her ideals crashed to earth with the discovery of his association with Mrs. Maloff. This came about through the discovery that the latter woman had filed a 1917 will in New Jersey bequeathing the entire estate to her.

Built a "Love Nest."
Investigation disclosed that Howell, who was wonderfully well preserved for his years, had built a beautiful "love nest" for Mrs. Maloff in Bogota. Here, it is said, the two lived as "Mr. and Mrs. Maloff," though some neighbors thought they were uncle and niece.

Mrs. Howell wishes the 1879 will to be probated in this State. This move will be fought bitterly by C. B. Alling of No. 342 Madison avenue, attorney for Mrs. Maloff. He said yesterday:

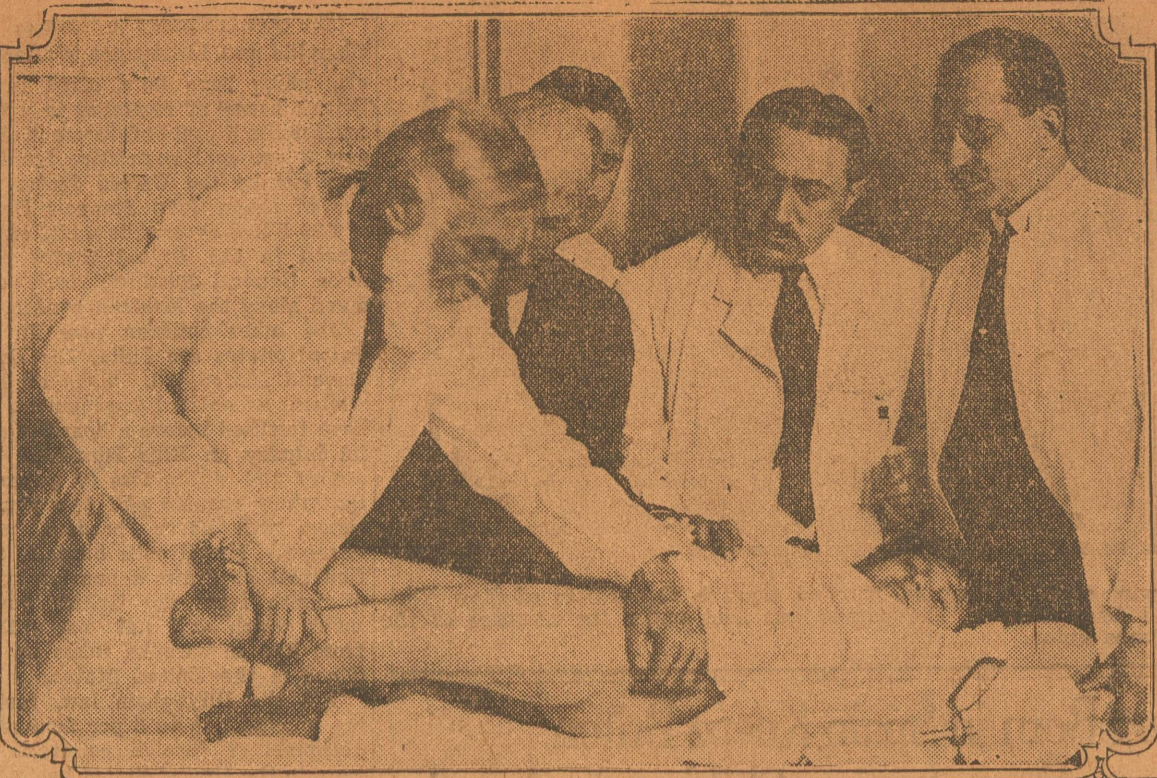

"I do not care to discuss the case. It is untrue, however, that my client was a waitress in a Jersey restaurant. There is a great deal more to this case than appears in the affidavits on file in the Surrogate's Court."

Alling refused to throw any light upon the peculiar association alleged to have existed between Mrs. Maloff and Mr. Howell. Nor would he go into particulars as to his client's identity.

She Will Not Talk.

In the papers in the Surrogate's court action, Mrs. Maloff's address is given as No. 151 West Seventy-second street. Here it was said that she merely receives mail at this address and that she lives at No. 230 Summit avenue, West Hoboken. Alling refused to permit her to be interviewed.

CRIPPLES FLOCK TO DR. LORENZ FOR TREATMENT

Two days after his arrival Dr. Adolf Lorenz, the wonder man of bloodless surgery, donned his white gown and plunged into the work of helping America's crippled children regain the use of their limbs. He held his first clinic at the dispensary of the Hospital for Joint Diseases, in New York City, where an entire floor of the big building had been placed at his disposal. For three hours the sixty-three-year old Austrian wizard of joint diseases conducted an examination of the seemingly endless stream of unfortunates who thronged the place. The photographs show a scene in the operating room, with Dr. Lorenz at work on his first patient. In the group, from left to right, are: Dr. Lorenz, Dr. H. C. Frauenthal, Dr. G. G. Wieschner, Dr. Alpert and Dr. Stein.

Bluecoats Don Evening Dress For Raid On Alleged Gambling Club in Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Police Captain Charles Goff last night led a raid on an alleged gambling club at a tiring in evening dress, an opera hat and cape, accompanied by seven policemen in full dress uniforms with white gloves.

The raid was a full dress affair, Captain Goff explained, because the manager of the club complained that on Goff's last official visit he was not dressed well enough to mingle with the club members. Sixty men were arrested, but the police furnished no limousine, requiring them to ride to the police station in a common patrol wagon.

FABER HAS OPERATION ON KNEE HURT PLAYING

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Urban (Red) Faber, pitching ace of the Chicago White Sox, underwent an operation Friday which may effect his future as a pitcher. He had a cartilage removed from his right knee, injured during the recent city series. Doctors said the operation apparently was successful but this will not be known until Faber tries to pitch, as there is a severe strain on the member in pitching.

Bobby Roth, a Yankee outfielder, is to undergo a similar operation here next Monday.

VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL IN SUNDAY THEATRE CASE

HOUSTON, Dec. 2.—C. A. McFarland, manager of the Queen theatre, was acquitted of violating the state Sunday closing law in corporation court this morning. The state had considerable difficulty in securing six men to serve on the jury who could not say that they could give an impartial verdict in the case. Two witnesses were put on the stand by the state, Mrs. T. H. Eggert, secretary of the city censor board, and Stanley Carter. Both testified that the Queen theatre had been open on the Sunday in question and that they had attended performances in it at that time. The defense did not put a witness on the stand and made no argument before the jury. A few minutes after the case was presented to the jury a verdict of not guilty was returned.

HOME-MADE GOLD TO GILD WORLD, IF THIS IS TRUE

LONDON, Dec. 2.—"H. Bond, Wholesale Manufacturer of Gold and Radium," is a business sign which may be expected soon in London if what the H. Bond in question says is true.

He is a disciple of a French professor who practically beggared himself trying to extract gold from mercury. After fourteen years experimenting the professor believes he has succeeded and is said to have submitted a specimen of his metal to a famous professor at Oxford, whose analysis, it is asserted, showed 90 per cent pure gold and 2 per cent radium.

Bond is joining forces with the Frenchman and predicts that he will be making gold in unlimited quantities at his home in the Bayswater district of London before long.

"There is not the smallest doubt that the secret of making gold has been solved," he said. "If mercury produced only gold the effect would be staggering, but the fact that radium may also be obtained makes the whole scheme simply colossal."

Pure gold costs, roughly, $20 an ounce. One hundred pounds of mercury is quoted at about $50, which, when cleaned, works out at about 75 cents a pound. The effect on gold values of such a discovery, supposing it to be practicable, numbs the imagination.

Financial experts are not so much impressed with the possibilities of such a discovery.

"The almost inconceivable possibility of any one being able to manufacture unlimited quantities of gold," said one, "would inevitably cause a financial panic throughout the world. America, which holds most of the world's gold, would be bankrupt and the goldfields of the world become valueless."

SO FAT HE CAN'T SEE MOVIES.

WINSTED, Conn., Dec. 2.—John M. Burr of Burrville, one of the heaviest men in this region, has been forced to give up attendance at the movies, because the seats in the Winsted opera house are too small for him and he doesn't care to stand. On the occasion of his last visit to the opera house, Mr. Burr got wedged in a seat so securely that it was only by dint of great effort that he released himself.

WOMEN LOSING THEIR MYSTERY AND SEX ILLUSION, WRITER SAYS

(By ELSIE GRANGE, of London.)
(An able analysis of the effect on marriage of the emancipation of woman and the dispelling of the "mystery" illusion.)

Woman's main attraction for man, up to the present has lain in her mystery. It is this elusive magic which hitherto has turned him into a lover and led him to the altar. At the moment, however, woman is throwing off the veil.

Slowly, almost reluctantly, the masculine element is being made to realize that she is not a "subtle something," but just as human as man is, dependent on the same food and air, enjoying the same pleasures and excitements, victim to the same pains and boredom.

Her so-called mystery never was more than hocus, pocus. In reality the girl of today is little different from the girl of fifty or five thousand summers ago.

She Has Freedom of Mind and Body
She differs from her Victorian ancestor in nothing but the fact that her mind and body are no longer "cribbed, cabined and confined." Neither are they unduly concealed. Both have their freedom. And, in consequence, her once portentous mystery has worn thin.

She makes some persons afraid. They tremble for her future. What will the skirtless little girls of today be when they grow up? "Cover your knees!" was a constant parental command to little daughters no more than fifteen years ago. But now fashion has made such a command absurd.

Does not all this make one think—ruffle one's brow? But, after all, what is it but the thread of evolution?

Man's Mind Enlarged Regarding Woman.

Man's mind is being enlarged regarding woman. Woman herself is the instrument of his education. Presently he will be able to view her sparsely clad figure with as little concern as in the past woman was educated to view man's.

A woman's ankle is an inconspicuous feature of her being today; whereas when seen ten years ago and mere it made a deep impression on the mind and heart of man. It is time he were evolved.

Eventually there will be no such term as "daring dress" applied to woman any more than it is applied to man. Bishops and other censors do not criticize men who, on the playing fields or on the river, display bare arms or an out-size in V-necks, or who find it necessary to keep hitching up the covering of their nether limbs.

Sees Change in Nature of Love.

These things are thought nothing of in man, simply because woman's mind has been trained long ago to think nothing of them. It is the primitive mind of man concerning woman which has made him in the past view her every action as significant of sex.

When the abolition of women's mystery is perfected—and man's mental evolution accomplished—what will be the effect on marriage? Will he still fall in love? Most certainly; but it will be love, not lust.

Nothing ever efface marriage. Men always will be drawn towards women, and women towards men, just because they are different. They may meet on an equality in parliament, in the professions and in sport, but one will be always masculine and the other will be always feminine. Nature has made one incomplete without the other. Together, they make one perfect mind, one perfect happiness, one perfect life.

Man Will See Her as Spiritual Mate.
We need have no fear of modern woman's open revelation of herself body and soul, difficult though it may seem to assimilate; for, when man's higher education concerning her is complete, he will see in her not merely a being of physical attraction, but his spiritual and intellectual counterpart and helpmate.

The era of truly happy marriage is dawning. The mystery we are losing was a lure to the false marriage; the enlightenment we are gaining is a guarantee for the true. Let patient; there is only good, of evil, in the modes and of our girls, though at may appear so alarming.

It is their necessary a the conditions of today

THE COST.

Bankhead highway and Cisco have been announced that the bids, in contract may be good, so far as prediction is venemissioners may troubles over

plain sailing,
upon one thing: That is, exact knowledge as to what the road is to cost being given to the people.

It may be the technical procedure
to submit bids on a "unit" basis;
that is, a certain sum for a certain amount of work. But those figures mean nothing at all to John Smith, who pays the taxes. The only measurement he can understand is miles and yards.

John Smith is entitled to that information. He is entitled to know the cost of complete performance—
the building of a certain type of road, of an exact length, for a specific sum. Then he can judge whether the highway is worth it or not. He should not have to submit to any contract which deals in terms of work done instead of finished performance—the "unit" system which makes it impossible for him to know whether a completed road will cost $20,000 or $100,000 per mile.

Another thing, if the contractors should "accept bonds at par" as payment for their work, why wouldn't it be simpler to pay their estimates in bonds and let it go at that. Such a method would eliminate the laying up of immense sums in banks and the complicated transfers and retrans-fers which have resulted in the county being threatened with the loss of nearly three-fourths of a million dollars.

Nature undoubtedly endowed anials with a more or less developed sense of humor, and we imagine a rabbit gets considerable enjoyment out of his uncertain life by hiding out at some point of vantage and watching the excited hunters shoot
each other.—Columbus Dispatch.

Lady Ermle Chatfield, wife of Admiral Chatfield, of the British navy, says Americans drink too much water, which only proves again that the English are devoid of any sense of humor.—Buffalo Express.

President Harding made many trips to sea on the Mayflower last season but congress repeatedly demonstrates that it needs no official yacht to get in deep water.—Leslie's Weekly.

We are not engaged in the defense
at all, but our advice to Fatty on the occasion of his trial is to strive hard for a vindication, but not reach for a nimbus.—Houston Post.

Part of the frescoed ceiling in President Harding's room in the capitol fell down the other day. The worst of it is he can't break his lease.—Life.

CO-EDS TAUGHT
MOTHERING ART
WITH REAL BABY

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 2.—Assuming the role of that messenger of the air which the kiddie knows only as "stork" when a new brother or sister arrives at his home, Juvenile Judge W. M. Morning has made possible the completion of the family that inhabits the practice house of the home economics department of the University of Nebraska by placing such a bundle of fat, curves and dimples to their care.

Kathryn Marie is the name of this parcel of five-months infancy.
Kathryn Marie's adoption as a part of the household of the practice house was for the purpose of affording college girls an opportunity to learn first hand the funda-mentals of intelligent care of the baby. Six sets of "mothers" will have been trained by the end of the school year, as six junior and senior girls in this department have a rotation six-weeks course with Kathryn Marie.
Each one of the six co-eds during the practice house course must function in one of six positions each week,
rotating so that each girl has experienced in all six of the positions of the course. One girl is to be "baby manager," and will be responsible for Kathryn Marie's care that week.
She will prepare the baby's food, see that she is fed according to schedule, bathed each day, clothes laundered and generally taken care of. Miss Marie Fuller, instructor of home economics and director of the house, will personally hover over Kathryn Marie to see that the "student mothers" do not go awry over the schedule.
Bouncing in a white baby carriage,
propelled by a blushing co-ed, Kathryn Marie already is a favorite on the university campus, around which she is pushed for her daily airing.

SHERIFF TURNS TABLES
ON TWO HOLDUP MEN

KOSSE, Limestone Co., Texas, Dec.
2.—When an attempt was made to hold up Sheriff W. S. Loper and relieve him of his automobile a few days ago, the sheriff turned tables on the two would-be highwaymen and acquiesced in the demand to turn the car over to them.
As he did so, however, Sheriff Loper covered the two men with his pistol and forced them to drive directly to the Limestone county jail at Groesbeck, where they were locked up.

KEROSENE STOVE CAUSES
$8,000 FIRE DAMAGE

WICHITA FALLS, Dec. 2.—The explosion of a kerosene burning stove was said by firemen to have caused the blaze which destroyed the frame barracks of the Wichita Motors company here Tuesday night. The loss was estimated by officials of the company to be approximately $8,000.
Ralph Arbuckle, employe of the company, and occupant of the barracks, suffered severe burns about the face and arms in attempting to extinguish the flames.

WOMAN PAYS $1.50 BILL
AFTER 49 YEARS ELAPSE

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Dec. 2.— Mrs. H. M. Farrell 68, worried over an unpaid bill of $1.50 for forty-nine years. Then she came to this city from her home in Pittsburgh to pay the bill contracted when she was a young girl attending school here with the firm of George M. John & Co.
She had an account with the store and left the city owing $1.50, which debt, she said, she could not dismiss from her mind. Mr. John, head of the firm, is still living, though no longer actively connected with the store. She hunted him up at his home and paid the bill.

BROKER FAKED
$1,500,000 TO
BUCK THE TIGER

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 2.—George V.
Halliday, bankrupt stock and bond broker, confessed today that he counterfeited $1,500,000 of "interim receipts" of French government bonds, intending to go to New York and "buck the tiger" in Wall street in an effort to pay off creditors' claims aggregating more than $140-000, then take up the spurious paper from local banks, according to C. W.
Tobie, local manager for the Burns International Detective agency.
A federal warrant, jointly charging Halliday and Harry Turner, editor of Much Ado, with counterfeiting, has been issued. They and Paul Murphy, an advertising solicitor on Turner's paper, were arrested by Chief Operative Connell of the local secret service bureau.

He exonerated Murphy and Turner
of any criminal part in the conspiracy, but while Murphy's name is not mentioned in the warrant, Turner is accused.

F. P. McGill of McGill & Co., printers, by whom the bogus documents were printed, identified Turner, according to Connell, as the man who had ordered them. Turner today denied this, saying his only connection with the case was in obtaining a plate from which the blank receipts were made. He had no suspicion that Halliday was obtaining the blanks except for legitimate purposes, Turner said.
Halliday corroborated this.

Of the $1,500,000 certificates obtained, all except $63,000 were burned by Halliday Wednesday night at the home of his wife's uncle, Robert E.
Ranken, according to Halliday.

PRINCESS BIBESCO'S BOOK
SHOCKS WASHINGTON

"I Have Only Myself to Blame."
This is the title of a book just written by Princess Bibesco, who before her marriage was Elizabeth Asquith.
She is the daughter of Herbert Asquith, former British Premier, and what is more to the point from a literary standpoint
of Mrs. Asquith,
the famous Mar-
got, whose literary indiscretions
shocked the stolidity of the British.
Readers of the book are inclined to believe that perhaps the princess has her famous mother to blame for the book, which in its frankness has startled diplomatic Washington. She is equally as frank as her mother, except that where Margot was bitterly casual about the notable, habitues of
No. 10 Downing street, her daughter takes out her frankness on the human soul—and body.

DOG JURY ACQUITS
NEW MEXICAN MALES
OF MURDER CHARGE

RODNEY, N. M., Dec. 2.—A jury of dogs recently exonerated the male population of this city of guilt in connection with the murder of George Merten, postmaster. Merten's body was found in the rear of his home.
Later, bloodhounds from the state penitentiary at Santa Fe, were put on the trail.

Every man in town—some 200 of them—was ordered out to a hill top for examination by the dogs. The dogs were started off from where the body was found, following tracks away from the Merten home. But they did not go near the 200 men on the hill.
While the dogs were following the trail the men, mostly Mexicans, sat and smoked in silence. They came down again and went their ways after the dogs returned a verdict of "not guilty."

SUSPECT ARRESTED IN IOWA
FOR THE MURDER OF PRIEST

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Dec. 2.—The slayer of Father Arthur B. Belknap at Lead, S. D., is believed to have been apprehended at Marquette, Iowa, with the arrest of a farm hand answering the description of the man sought and whose pockets were filled with clippings of the slaying. He was taken to Elkader, the county seat, after his arrest Saturday.

Being Born in Spain Keeps Briton
From Joining Children in America

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Excluded from the United States because he happened to have been born in Spain and the Spanish yearly immigrant quota already has been exhausted, Joseph Brooks, an Englishman, is held on Ellis Island. With him, and also marked for deportation are his wife, and two little daughters must Librado, and his two youngest daughters, Madelina, 11 and Mabel, 8.

The case is similar to those of Paul Clanville and Lieutenant Walter Davis, which have been aired in the British house of commons in protest against the literal enforcement of the new 3 per cent restrictive immigration law by the United States, and one of them, John Samuels Brooks of 329 Third avenue, is a citizen and served in the United States army when General Pershing took command along the Mexican border.

The other children now in the United States are Julia, 19; Emily, 21, and Alfred, 18. They all have positions of gainful employment, and have testified before a board of special inquiry on Ellis Island of their ability and willingness to guarantee that their parents and two younger sisters will never become public charges. Mr. Brooks himself, testified that he draws a pension of $60
a month from the British government which will not be withheld from him in case he takes up residence in the United States.

But the Dillingham law, restricting immigration to 3 per cent of the rationals of foreign countries who were in the United States by the census of 1910, says that in all cases
"nationality shall be determined by birth," and the boards of special inquiry on Ellis Island have no discretionary powers. Technically, therefore, Joseph Brooks must be excluded from the United States, and his wife and two little daughters must likewise be held under section 18 of the national immigration law as "accompanying aliens."

6,000,000 BARRELS STORAGE
WILL BE BUILT AT MEXIA

MEXIA, Dec. 2.—Storage facilities at Mexia for 3,000,000 to 6,000,000 barrels of oil will be built by the Prairie Pipe Line company and the Sinclair Pipe Line company in connection with their plans to handle half of the production of the Humphreys wells, it has been learned. The Prairie company will provide tank-age space for 1,000,000 barrels and the Sinclair company will build storage space for 1,000,000 barrels and 200 barrels.

Pipe lines to be built by both companies from Mexia to their trunk lines north of Ranger for the refineries are expected to be moving the oil within ninety days. The lines of each company will be of eight-inch pipe and will be approximately 140 miles in length. The Prairie line will join the trunk line north of Ranger, and stations will be at Weatherford and Cleburne. The Sinclair line from the Mexia field will join the trunk line at Grayford, forty miles north of Sanger, and will have two booster stations.

BICYCLE COPS EARN THEIR PAY IN FORT WORTH

By Associated Press. FORT WORTH, Dec. 2.—Keeping ever watchful eyes on the property of citizens, sixteen patrolmen mounted on rubber-tired "steeds" nightly weave in and out of the highways and byways of Fort Worth. To their services in protecting with watch-dog faithfulness the property and welfare of the sleeping residents, Harry Hamilton, chief of police, paid hearty tribute in words of commendation.

Chief Hamilton's only wish, he said, was to be able to add more men to his bicycle patrol.

At 8 o'clock every night, sixteen policemen on bicycles start on their vigil which lasts until 5 o'clock in the morning. They travel in pairs and the "beat" each pair rides is ten blocks square. For the sections of the city where bicycle riding is practically impossible, four patrolmen mounted on horses keep watch as they ride. A police captain, in an automobile, tours the patrolled districts nightly.

"The bicycle squad is one of the most valuable units of the Fort Worth police force," Chief Hamilton said. "I would have more men patrolling the city on bicycles, using them in the districts now patrolled by policemen on horses, if it was possible to use bicycles there. The horse is out-of-date and the automobile and motorcycles are too noisy."

Few See Them.

Few citizens, unless occasion arises, realize the great work that is being done by the bicycle squad, the chief said, in explaining how robberies and burglaries were prevented and notorious police characters picked up on the nightly rounds.

"The women realize more than the men, the protection that is being thrown about their homes by the bicycle police," said Chief Hamilton. "Prowlers have almost vanished in the patrolled sections and the attempts to pick locks and open windows have decreased to a great extent since we adopted the bicycle patrol several months ago."

The patrolmen ride in and out of city streets and alleys throughout the night while they are on duty, the chief said. They dart here and there, watching movements in the shadows or about the houses, and stop at every neighborhood store to try the locks and see that all the buildings are un-molested. If a person is seen prowling about a house, he is sent to the police station where an explanation is demanded. If a man is walking alone at a late hour, he is stopped and questioned. If his answers have the "true" ring, he is permitted to continue on his way. If his actions or words seem to bear investigation or if he is a police character, he, too, is sent to the police station.

THIRD ATTEMPT TO SALVAGE FOUR MILLIONS RESULTS IN FAILURE

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The third attempt to salvage the $4,000,000 gold and silver cargo of the Ward line steamer Merida, sunk ten years ago off the Virginia coast, has failed, it was admitted at the offices of the salvaging company which had charge of the operations.

Bad weather has been responsible for the three failures, according to officials of the salvaging company. At each attempt severe storms swept the scene of operations, carrying away the tackle and compelling the salvages to scurry to the nearest harbor for repairs. The project now has been abandoned until next spring, at least from Havana to New York, was least.

Ten years ago last May the Merida, struck in a fog by an American mail liner and a hole was ripped in the side of the Merida large enough to permit a tugboat to pass through.

She sank in thirty-five fathoms of water. The passengers and crew were rescued, but the cargo went to the bottom.

NEW WELL EXTENDS HART POOL ONE MILE NORTH

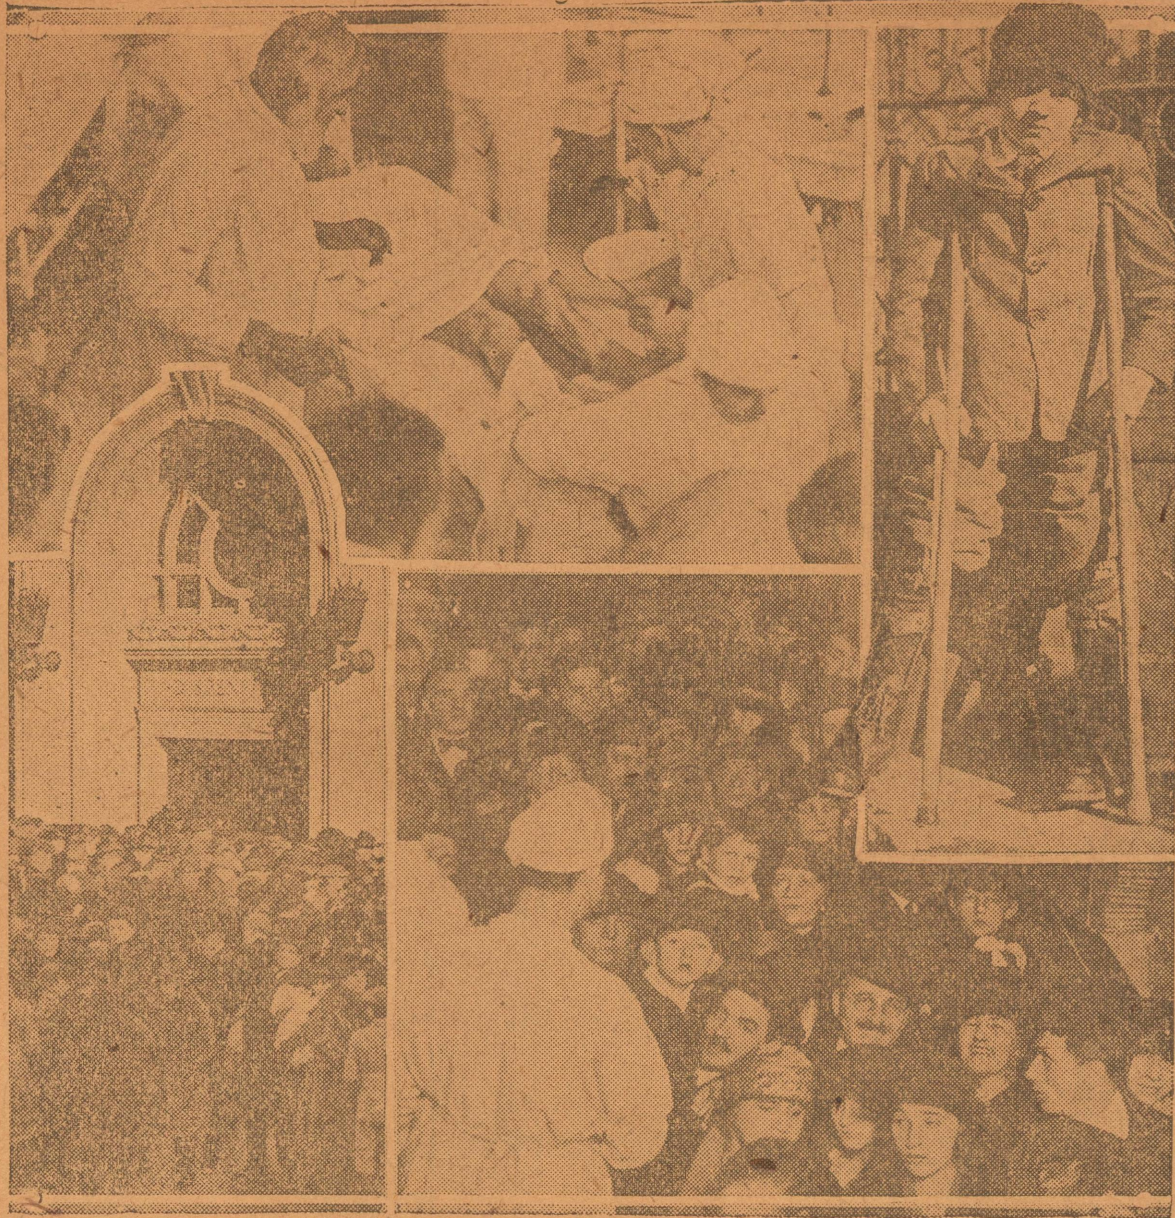

BRECKENRIDGE, Dec. 2.—Completed as the third largest well in the last three weeks and extending the Hart-Seamans-Hughes' pool a mile to the north the Tex-O-Wa Syndicate's No. 1 R. Q. Lee is a 2,400-barrel completion. The well is in the Hart-Seamans-Hughes area in Eastern Stephens and Western Palo Pinto counties. The location is said to be situated on the county line and extends the Hart-Seamans-Hughes area one mile north.

A shot was placed in the well between 3,089 and 3,117 feet, where there was hardly any showing. This well, located in section 11, is said to be better than 100 barrels an hour and is going stronger. It is the largest well in that pool, it is understood.

WELL NEAR ELIASVILLE REPORTED GOOD FOR 500

ELIASVILLE, Dec. 2.—The Kentucky Oil company E. Milan No. 1, five miles south of Eliasville, is in today and is reported good for 500 barrels. The Cedar Creek Oil company's Milan No. 3 will be in this week. This well offsets the Newell lease to the south and it is a question among the oil operators whether it will be oil or gas territory.

CRIPPLES IN DROVES SEEK AID OF DR. LORENZ

It was necessary for the police reserves to keep the crippled in line at the Hospital for Joint Diseases, New York City, where hundreds sought treatment from Dr. Lorenz, famous Austrian surgeon. Above, Dr. Lorenz is operating on Morris Rothberg, 19, for a knock-knee. Below, the throng in front of the hospital, and another large crowd in one of the waiting rooms. In the upper corner is John Jay, 9 years old, wistfully waiting for his chance to come.

'Much Alive' Marine Won't Confirm War Bureau's Word to Wife That He Is Dead

DENVER, Dec. 2.—Mrs. H. E. Kuhl has been notified by the government's war risk insurance bureau that she will receive the $4,500 due her as a result of her husband's death in the service as soon as she makes application in regular form.

As soon as Mrs. Kuhl got the notice, she asked her husband what she ought to do about it.

"It seems you are dead," said Mrs. Kuhl.

"Odd," said Kuhl.

He felt himself speculatively.

"Mark Twain was right," he declared.

"Here, I've been drawing my retirement pay regular since I left the service in 1919. On the first of every month, I pay my premium into the war risk insurance fund. Also, I have been besieging the war department to recognize my claims for physical or total disability allotments.

"Now, it seems that I am dead."

Kuhl said that when he had read the letter announcing his death, he returned it to the war department with a notation to the effect that the account of his demise was slightly overdrawn.

"I also asked them to take some action on my claims for disability allowance," he said. "As yet, I have received no answer, although there has been plenty of time for it to come."

Kuhl served ten years with the marine corps and at the time of his retirement was a warrant officer. He was in the trouble zones in Cuba in 1912 and in Mexico in 1915, but was not sent overseas during the world war.

INNOCENT PUMPKIN NOW USED TO MAKE 'HOOTCH'

By International News Service. SOUTHBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 2.—Don't be surprised if you see a prohibition agent jabbing a test tube into a common, ordinary garden variety of pumpkin.

A Southbridge man has just announced a discovery he claims may revolutionize the fine art of moon-shining. Cut a hole in the top of a pumpkin, remove seeds, fill with brown sugar, replace top, and wait twenty-one days. At the end of that period you will have a very, very powerful pumpkinful of liquor, the discoverer claims.

PUBLIC "BRIDE SCHOOL" ADVOCATED BY CONN. PHYSICIAN

Dr. Simon Katzoff, physician, of Bridgeport, Conn., author of many books on sex hygiene, has advocated to the board of education of that city the immediate necessity of establishing classes for brides-to-be. Failure of marriage is the "woman's fault," declares Dr. Katzoff and at the same time he states that they must learn the Divine gift of "Silence," the philosophy of asking instead of demanding.

ing, and also the use of endearing terms, if they would hold a modern husband,

IRISH TO HOLD WORLD CONFERENCE IN PARIS

By Associated Press. PARIS, Dec. 2.—The world conference of the Irish race to be held in Paris Jan. 21, will bring together representatives of some of the leading families of France, Spain, Italy, Russia, Austria, the Argentine, and other South American countries, families migrated from Ireland as early as the thirteenth century and ancestors of whom were Irish. These became nationals of the various countries, although frequently retaining their Irish names.

All the Irish race organizations of the world will send delegates and President de Valera of the Irish republic has promised to attend. An exhibition of Irish art will form part of the meeting.

It is estimated that there are 25,000,000 persons of Irish origin scattered throughout the world.

HEAVY SENTENCE GIVEN FOR MANN ACT VIOLATION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 2.—John Talbot of South Bend, Ind., supreme president of the Order of Owls, a fraternal organization, who was found guilty in United States District court last week of violating the Mann act, Wednesday was fined $5,000 by Judge A. B. Anderson and sentenced to Leavenworth for five years. It was the maximum sentence for the offense.

'COME EAST' TO GROW UP WITH COUNTRY, SLOGAN OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

By Associated Press. CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 2.—Horace Greeley said, "Go West, young man." Horace Greeley was a native of New Hampshire. Now New Hampshire is calling out to the Middle West, "Come East." In Ohio last month the New Hampshire board of publicity started a campaign designed to persuade Ohioans to immigrate to this state and do their farming on the hills from which many of their ancestors departed in response to the great editor's advice.

Ohio was chosen as the first objective because, the board says, "it is the nearest of the four Middle Western states whose soil is fully occupied and which annually send forth settlers to unoccupied lands to their north and west and because its farm population is of the highest order."

The campaign machinery was provided by the New Hampshire State Grange, which was stimulated by prizes donated by former Governor Rolland H. Spaulding. The board of publicity, which aims to restore abandoned farms to their former productivity, is headed by Major Frank Knox, editor of The Manchester Union.

TWO TAXICAB DRIVERS MURDERED BY HIS WIFE, DECLARES MAN

DURANGO, Colo., Dec. 2.—William Kelly, 22 years old, a taxi driver, and Samuel Grey, 37 years old, owner of a rooming house at Gallup, N. M., were murdered by a woman near the Shiprock Indian agency, San Juan county, N. M., on Aug. 1, 1921, according to a letter received by Sheriff J. B. Winn of Farmington, from the husband of the alleged murderess. The letter was mailed at Connellyville, Pa., on Nov. 5, but Sheriff Winn refuses to give the writer's name, or that of his wife pending investigation.

The writer of the letter stated that he would have confessed before this but that his wife threatened to kill him if he did. Recently he separated from his wife, but he still fears she will kill him for confessing if she is able to locate him.

Sheriff Winn does not consider the letter a hoax or the writer to be insane. Sheriff Winn states that both Kelly and Gray have been missing since Aug. 1, and that neither has been seen or heard from since that time. However, a diligent search for the bodies of both Kelly and Grey up to this time has proved fruitless, but this, declares Sheriff Winn, does not in any way disprove the statements in the letter.

According to information Sheriff Winn has obtained, a man and a woman claiming to be his wife who had been at the Coal Basin mines in the Gallup district engaged on Aug. 1, auto transportation from Gallup to Farmington, from Grey, who owned the machine. Grey engaged Kelly to do the driving, but accompanied the party.

Owner and Driver Shot to Death

While the party was traveling northward on the Farmington-Gallup highway through the Indian reservation and about twenty-five miles south of the Shiprock agency, Grey and Kelly were shot to death and their bodies thrown into a deep arroyo running full with water, and carried into the San Juan river. Robbery was the motive for the double murder, Sheriff Winn believes. The automobile owned by Grey has never been found.

Because the murder was committed on an Indian reservation, Sheriff Winn will ask the federal authorities to assist in clearing up the crime and arresting the parties responsible for the crime.

The letter received by Sheriff Winn follows:

"This is to inform you that on Aug. 1, 1921, a double murder was committed in your county on the Gallup-Farmington road below the Shiprock Navajo Indian agency by . . . who before that lived near the Coal Basin mines, near Gallup.

"She shot and killed Billy Kelly with a .22 pistol, and I was to have done the same to Sam Grey, but got a chill at the last minute. She took hold of my hand and pulled the trigger of a gun on him, a .45 Colts.

Fired Two Shots at Driver.

"She then fired another shot at Kelly, after which she threw a canteen of water at me and forced me, under pain of death, to throw their bodies under the arroyo bridge, directly opposite the river bridge at Shiprock.

"This is my first opportunity for making the information, as she has watched me too close, and threatened to kill me if I squealed. But now I have left her and am in hiding. My life is in danger until she is caught, as this is not her first crime. She committed perjury and bigamy when she married me.

"I will give myself up when I learn of her arrest.

"Yours,

"The Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs has begun a determined fight against unsightly billboards.

SQUEEZING FIANCE'S ARM CAUSES THREE DEATHS

By Associated Press. MANILA, P. I., Oct. 15.—(By Mail.)—Because Moro Mahaludin squeezed the arm of his fiance, Moro Jumalia, an act believed by the Moros to be forbidden by the Koran, Mohammedan sacred scripture, Salahudin, brother of the girl, started out with his bolo to avenge the alleged insult, and when he had finished his work, Mahaludin and three of his relatives were dead.

When Salahudin learned of the alleged insult to his sister, he summoned a friend. They sharpened up their bolos and invaded Mahaludin's household. They slashed right and left with their weapons, killing Mahaludin, his sister, Moro Damsa and his wife, the latter two relatives of Mahaludin's. The two murderers are still at large.

BUFFET SUPPER, BIG TOWN STYLE, AT SHRINE BALL

An elaborate buffet supper, something new in the catering line in Ranger, is to be served at the Shrine dance at the Gholson hotel on the night of Dec. 7. The supper will be prepared under the personal supervision of Arthur Jury, manager of the Gholson hotel, and will be served in the green room on the mezzanine floor. Fruit punch will be served on the main floor of the hotel during the dance.

The buffet supper will not only be prepared on a larger scale than anything attempted here along that line, but will include on the menu everything that constitutes the buffet suppers served in the larger hotels of the East. Jury's experience along this line has been extensive both in New York and later in Denver. The Shrine dance is to start at 8:30. At 10:30 the supper will be served, after which dancing will be resumed. The hotel will be tastefully decorated for the occasion.

BRIDE ASKS DIVORCE AFTER HONEYMOON OF THREE DAYS

CHARLESTON, Mo., Dec. 2.—After three days of married life Mrs. John W. Sexton has filed suit for divorce from the Rev. John W. Sexton, Princeton graduate and pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church here. Mrs. Sexton charges incompatibility.

"It was a very unpleasant dream," she said of her marriage, "and I wish to forget it."

"I cannot understand it," the pastor declares. "My wife has appeared happy since our marriage and I know I was."

Members of the board of elders of the church asked the Rev. Sexton for a statement regarding the affair. The statement was furnished.

"We will stick by him," was the verdict, "until he is tried. It would be contrary to Biblical teachings to condemn him now."

PUMP LEGS AND OTHERS TO BE HIDDEN FROM JURORS

SEATTLE, Dec. 2.—Short skirts rolled stockings, highly colored garters worn below the knee, dainty ankles and thin dresses all figure in an investigation being made by W. W. McGuire, superintendent of buildings, to determine the advisability of placing screens about the witness stands in the different superior court rooms.

Attorneys have often contended that juries are swayed by pretty women with plump limbs, short skirts and silken stockings, who sat with crossed legs and smile at male jury members.

MISTAKES MEN FOR DETECTIVES, ADMITS THEFT

DETROIT, Dec. 2.—Unnerved by the mistaken belief that two men opposite him in a train coming from Philadelphia were detectives, John Piquette, 17, surrendered to them and gave up $5000, said by police to be part of the $28,000 loot obtained in a holdup at Chelsea, Mass.

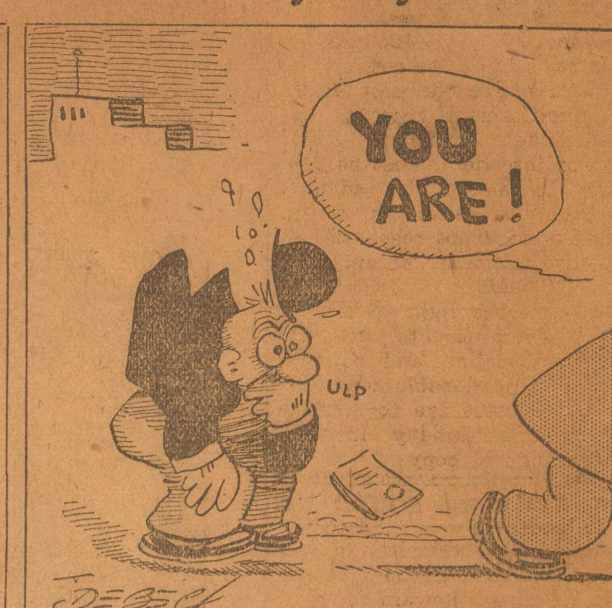

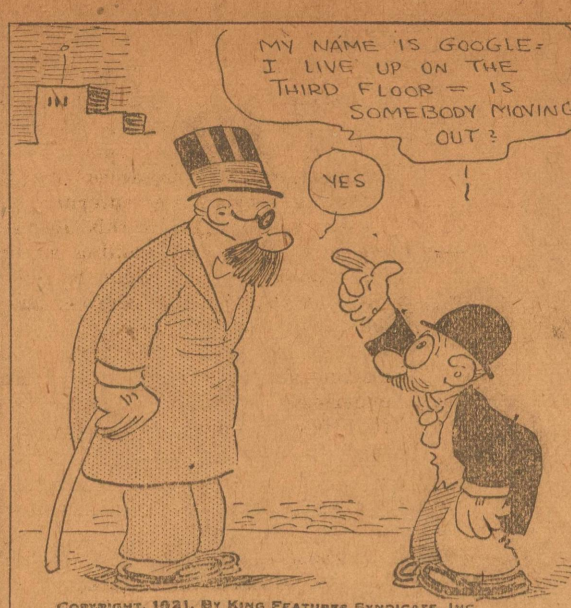

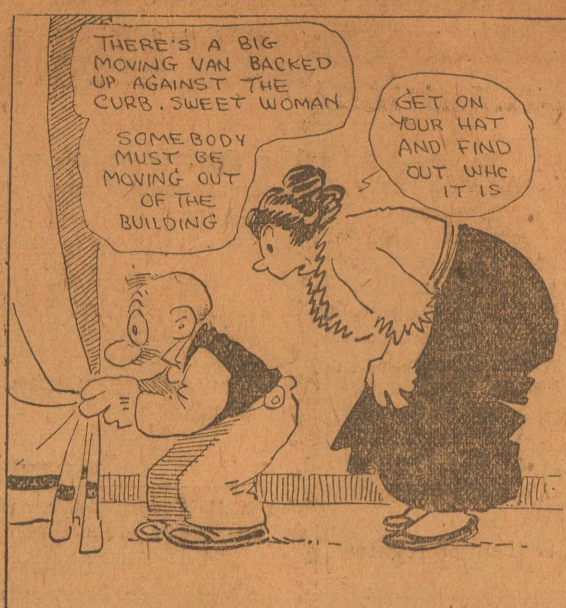

The men, Michael J. McDonough, Detroit, and William M. Corney, Chicago, posed as officers upon hearing the boy's alleged confession, and took him to police headquarters here. Piquette said he was hired by three men in Detroit and taken to Chelsea. Two men were captured there, and a fourth, also of Detroit, is at large.

ENGLAND ERECTS MONUMENT TO MAN WHO INVENTED GAS MASKS

By CHAS. McCANN

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A simple memorial has been unveiled here to the man who, next to the Kaiser, was cursed during the war by more millions of sweating soldiers than any other man in Europe—and whom millions more, gasping in a cloud of poison gas, have had cause to bless. The memorial, unveiled in the examination hall of the Pharmaceutical society, is to Lieutenant Colonel E. F. Harrison, inventor of the box-respirator or gas mask of which over 20,000,000 were manufactured, and which almost any soldier who has seen active service will say saved his life.

At the outbreak of the war, Lieutenant Colonel Harrison was a civilian, a distinguished chemist with three degrees. He made several unsuccessful attempts to enlist, but in 1915, at the age of 47, managed to get into the sportsmen's battalion as a private. His entrance into the army synchronized with the first German gas attack at Ypres, and he was immediately transferred to the special branch of the royal engineers. He quickly became a leader among the band of chemists who made up the anti-gas department.

After many experiments he perfected the box-respirator, rendering the wearer immune from fumes of any known poison. He received rapid promotion, and finally became controller of chemical warfare. He died in November, 1918, just at armistice time, from pneumonia, aggravated by exposure to gas during the course of his experiments. Shortly before his death he learned he was to be promoted to the rank of brigadier-general and that he had been awarded the Legion of Honor.

PARIS BLAMES AMERICANS FOR EXTREMES SHOWN IN NIGHT ORGIES

PARIS, Dec. 2.—Americans who take a patriotic pride in the high moral standards of their country and its people will doubtless be sadly shocked to learn that many French students of social conditions hold the Yankee allies, who rendered France such valued aid in the war, responsible for many of the habits which have held Paris in their grip and are making the always naughty city naughtier than ever.

The blame for many of the evil habits which have laid hold of Paris with such disastrous results is being freely laid on the corrupting influence of the Americans who went there in great numbers in wartime, and of the steadily increasing throngs of visitors who, since peace was declared, find along the boulevards an ideal place for seeking respite from the hardships of life in parched America.

Evisls Blamed on Americans. Cigarette smoking by women, a growing fondness of both sexes for American cocktails, the daring lengths to which the women are carrying their "cut-away-to-nothing" gowns, risqué stage spectacles and the amazing spread of the craze for what are known as "petting parties"—these are some of the chief evils which are being attributed by the French moralists to the bad example set by visitors from the United States.

Of all these, the "petting parties" and the free and easy relations which they signify are probably the ones which cause thoughtful Frenchmen the gravest concern. The growing fondness of girls and young women for "petting parties" is viewed with the gravest alarm by French moralists, and they fear that unless the custom is vigorously stamped out it will mean a serious lowering of the nation's moral standards.

U. S. Women Refuse to Reform. Recently the French dressmaker made a concerted effort to return to more conservative styles—to bring the skirt a few inches nearer the ankles and to lift the bodices so that there would not be quite so shocking an expanse of bare flesh. The French women were quite willing to accept these innovations, but the Americans—they would have none of them.

The theatre and music hall managers have had a similar experience. When they try to bar indecent nudity and risqué dialogue from their stages, Americans practically disappear from their audience, they say; but the instant the immodest and salacious features are restored their box offices are flooded with American dollars.

A striking instance of this is the case of Mlle. Dherlys, a stage favorite of exceptional beauty of face and form. When her popularity waned in an alarming manner, her manager was quick to discern the reason. Other actresses, in compliance with the demands of audiences, were appearing on the stage in costumes which, like Gunga Din's, were "nothin' much before and rather less than 'arf o' that behind."

Americans Turned Away. And, what was more to the point, the houses where they were appearing were turning Americans away nightly.

Nothing for Dherlys to do, therefore, according to her manager's edict, but to divest herself of the less essential portions of her costume. The seat sales increased slightly, and the more her manager made her dispense with, the larger the audience.

When the manager, however, insisted that Mlle. Dherlys take the role of Lady Godiva and, clad only in the aura of her personality, ride slowly across the stage, she revolted, refusing to divest herself of the few garments she retained. Her resignation was accepted, and Mlle. Dornaine, who had no such compunctions, took the part.

The actresses are not the only ones who are showing an aversion to a superfluity of clothing. The one-piece bathing suit has been unanimously adopted by American tourists who never thought of wearing it in their native country, and recent press reports mention midnight bathing parties when even this scanty covering was absolutely dispensed with.

VISITOR LOST IN LONDON IS 'MAILED' TO HIS HOTEL

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Walking into a postoffice in the east end of London recently, a newspaper reporter, an American visitor, said: "I'm lost. I want to get back to my hotel in the West End. Can you help me?" The girl behind the counter replied: "We can send you by post."

"Post!" echoed the man in astonishment. "It's quite simple," the girl rejoined. "Your name and address, please? You will be sent by express letter post immediately. The charge is sixpence a mile."

She "handed over" the lost tourist to a small messenger boy and the two set out arm in arm for the American's hotel.

The American is not the first person to be "posted" in this way. Last year the same newspaper sent by post a member of its reporting staff to a destination some miles out of London with the object of calling attention to the fact that the British postal authorities do accept human beings as "correspondence."

PARIS, Texas, Dec. 2.—J. W. Neal, a widower, living seven miles northwest of town, and his 4-year-old son went visiting Wednesday evening, leaving his 2-year-old son at home. When they returned they found the house burned and the child's charred body in the ashes.

lic scandal, say Swedish newspapers. The broken nature of the coast line and the thousands of small islands dotting the sea approaches are all in favor of smuggling enterprise. The craft engaged in this trade are generally small, fast sailing schooners, captained as a rule by ex-officers of the imperial German navy.

From Reval, Rostock, Stettin, Lubek and other German ports these vessels put to sea, their cargo always consigned, according to the ship's papers, to some Finnish port. Once among the rocky archipelago of eastern Sweden, the cargo is landed piecemeal after nightfall on the rocks, from which it is later removed by accomplices ashore who have a widely ramified organization for the island distribution of the goods.

This illicit traffic is said by Swedish papers to be enormous. The papers are full of stirring stories about smugglers and their doings. They remain outside the territorial waters, cruising about until their friends seize their chance to rush out in fast motor boats, often in a heavy gale, tranship the liquor and disappear in the dangerous labyrinth of the archipelago.

Made Officers Pay.

Lately the police has started a scheme to beat the run runner at their own game. The other day a police boat, camouflaged as a smuggling craft, boarded a German schooner and loaded up to the gunwale from the schooner's hold, unconscious of the fact that the schooner was just outside the territorial limit. When the policemen tried to leave the schooner without paying, the smugglers threatened to throw them overboard and there was nothing for them but to pay for the liquor.

In another case, the correspondent was told, a gale blew up soon after the coast guards had boarded a ship which happened to be within the three-mile limit and, owing to the dangerous coast, the ship had to put out to sea, taking the Swedish guards away to Germany.

In Sweden and in Finland many of the coast population get their living by smuggling and refuse to go fishing and carry on their legitimate trades. In Finland, where total prohibition prevails, conditions are even worse than in Sweden. Fishing there has entirely ceased, it is said, because run running is far more profitable business.

OFFICIALS FEAR LIQUOR RULING NULLIFIES LAW

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 2.—State officials became very much concerned Thursday over the filing in the court of criminal appeals of an application for habeas corpus to liberate a convict who had been convicted of having unlawfully in his possession apparatus for making intoxicating liquor. This follows a recent decision of the court of criminal appeals that, under the new law, such possession is not a violation of the statutes. If the writ is granted in this instance, it will mean the liberation of several convicts who were convicted before the last legislature amended the Dean act. That situation gives concern to the state officials.

Assistant Attorney General R. G. Storey in attendance on the court of criminal appeals conferred with Acting Attorney General W. A. Keeling, who will become attorney general today, and they agreed to collaborate in briefing the case and resisting the application.

Associate Judge Lattimore wrote the recent opinion construing the new law, which provides that no violation occurs in the simple possession of liquor-making machinery. It must be put into operation, under the amended Dean law, before a transgression occurs, he said.

Claims Illegally Restrained.

Today's habeas corpus application was filed in the name of Sellers Andres, alleging that he is illegally restrained of his liberty by J. A. Her-ring, chairman of the state prison commission, as head of the penitentiary. The averments are that Andres was convicted in Sabine county in 1920 under indictment charging him with "unlawfully having in his possession certain equipment for making intoxicating liquors, capable of producing intoxication, the said equipment being one five-gallon boiler, one iron pipe, one trough and fifteen gallons of sour mash; the said equipment not being then and there in his possession for medicinal, mechanical, scientific or sacramental purposes." He was given a three-year sentence which was affirmed on March 16 of this year. It was written in the application that it was a violation of the law to possess liquor-making equipment at the time of the indictment and trial, but that the Thirty-seventh legislature repealed that provision of the law and "the repealing statute, Chapter 61, Page 233 of the first called session of the Thirty-seventh legislature does not contain any saving clause with regard to violations of the law before the amendment became effective."

Article 16 Quoted.

Article 16 of the penal code is quoted to read as follows: "The repeal of a law, where the repealing statute substitutes no other penalty, will exempt from punishment all persons who may have offended against the provision of such repealing (repealed) law unless it be otherwise declared in the repealing statute."

By virtue of the foregoing provision the court is asked to have Andres brought before it to the end that he is discharged from confinement and given his liberty. It is not known here how many men are in the penitentiary convicted of having unlawfully possessed liquor-making equipment, but the Andres case sets the precedent for all. It is to be heard by the court on Jan. 11, 1922.

RAILROAD FINED $1,300 FOR VIOLATING NINE-HOUR LAW

HOUSTON, Dec. 2.—A fine of $1,300, being $100 on each of thirteen counts, was assessed against the Beaumont, Sour Lake & Western Railway company Wednesday by Judge Hutcheson for violation of the federal act limiting the hours of employment of certain workers. The company admitted that T. P. Rail, telegraph operator at Huffman, was employed longer than nine hours on thirteen different days last December and January.

DRAFT WILL BE STORM CENTER FOR BASEBALL

By JACK VEIOCK. (I. N. S. Sports Editor). NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Minor league ball players are strong for the draft as a general rule.

It is the draft that "blows" him from the smaller circuits to major league teams where he may earn a silk shirt salary if he is good enough. And he always believes he is.

But the draft isn't operative in all of the minor leagues. In some organizations, particularly the AA circuits, the magnates have taken advantage of their prerogative of rejecting the right of the majors to draft their star players. As a result, several hundred players have not a chance to come up to the big show unless they are sold outright by the club owners.

Many of the players are up in arms over this state of affairs. They point out that they are being denied the chance of advancing in their chosen profession and they have the hearty support of the major leagues, who can acquire talent more cheaply via the draft than competitive buying.

As a result, it is said, a number of players have made complaints to Judge K. M. Landis, baseball high commissioner, and according to gossip going the rounds in baseball circles today, he will orate at length on the question when the minor leagues hold their annual convention in Buffalo next week.

The big league magnates want the draft made operative again in all minor leagues and a majority of the minor league club owners are said to favor this move. But others, who operate in the large cities and want to keep winning teams together, are going to Buffalo to fight tooth and nail against going back to the old time custom.

THE TRUSTEES TO PAY DIVIDEND BOSTON, Dec. 2.—The trustees of Charles Ponzi, having bought together the available assets of his defunct quick-rich scheme, announced today their intention to pay a dividend of 10 per cent to his many creditors for the Christmas holidays. J. A. Lowell, one of the trustees, indicated that the creditors, whose claims run into millions might reasonably hope to get back 25 per cent of what they paid in by the time final settlement has been made.

CO-ED FOUND WHO HAD NEVER BEEN KISSED BY MAN

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The girls in Willard Hall, the main dormitory of the Northwestern University, have given surprising answers to a moral questionnaire recently sent into the dormitory. The ten questions were:

1. Have you ever cheated?
2. Have you ever been kissed?
3. Have you ever smoked?
4. Did you ever consciously tell a lie?
5. Have you ever used intoxicating liquors?
6. Have you ever danced improperly?
7. Have you ever worn improper clothes?
8. Did you ever have a "crush"?
9. Were you ever on a "petting party"?
10. Have you ever done anything you would conceal from your parents?

Most of the girls had four or five "yes's" after some of the questions. One girl had to write "yes" after eight of the questions, according to Miss Mary Day, a feature writer for the Daily Northwestern, a college paper, who compiled statistics from the questionnaire today. And no girl in the hall was able to write "no" ten times.

The most ladylike return contained only one "yes." It came from a co-ed who had never been kissed, never told a conscious lie, never drank liquor, nor smoked, nor danced improperly. Her one confessed sin was the first on the list. She had cheated.

The "20 per cent girl," who put an affirmative answer after eight of the questions, made "no" her answer to the tenth question. She had nothing to conceal from her parents, she said. The statistician would not say which of the remaining nine "sins" the wickedest co-ed denied.

The average for the hall was 60 per cent, Miss Day found, which means that the average co-ed confessed to four of the ten misdemeanors named in the questionnaire. The returns were not analyzed, however, and it is impossible to judge which of the peccadilloes is most popular.

Publication of the statistics here late this afternoon caused consternation.

Toggerly, Mr. and Mrs. Rouchberg are making their home at the Teal hotel.

Miss Vivian Sweatman has returned to her home in Ennis after a short visit to her sister, Mrs. Oliver Gibson.

C. H. Moffett, who has been located in Mexico for the past month or two, is spending a few days at home.

Dr. Gertrude Stevens will leave in the next day or two for her former home in Kansas City, where she will reside. Dr. Stevens has made many friends in Ranger, who regret her departure.

CREW HUNTS RABBITS FROM "SPEEDING" FREIGHT TRAIN

DAYTON, Ohio, Dec. 2.—The Arkansas traveler is now touring Ohio. An engineer on a freight train Saturday poked a gun out of the cab window and killed a rabbit. The fireman, co-operating hopped off, retrieved the rabbit, and swung onto a rear car and the train passed on without change of speed.

ISLAND GIRLS NOW SNUB 'VERA,' THE BOY WHO GREW UP AS FEMALE

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 2.—Because he left home as a young woman and returned as a young man, Charles E. Williams may not again be happy on Ocracoke island; off the coast of North Baltimore, and now his "girlhood" friends will not have anything to do with him.

Williams has created quite a sensation on the island, where he spent twenty-one years as a "girl." He was known as "Vera" Williams when he wore dresses and had long blonde hair. The girls he grew up with and all of whom thought he was one of them, know him no more. They blush when they see him, but do not stop to talk to him. All of them knew him as Vera Williams and swapped confidences with him.

When Williams put his feet on Ocracoke island dressed like the average young man of Baltimore no one on the island apparently had ever seen him before, although he spent all but about five months of his life there. When he tried to tell his old friends who he was they laughed at him.

Nobody there had learned that "Vera" Williams had suddenly become a man. The boy's mother is said to have explained "Vera's" disappearance by declaring "she" had gone off to college.

Vera Williams was quite a heart-breaker herself, it is said. She had at least two steady sweethearts and several more were trying to make an impression.

When Williams reached Baltimore he wrote a former sweetheart telling the whole story. The letter was signed Charles E. Williams. The writing was that of "Vera" Williams. The story was a shock to the two men, but there was the letter and they knew it had been written by "Vera."

Williams says he wants to stay at Ocracoke and fish, as his father used to do, and as nearly every other man on the island does. He does not like the outside world. Five months in pants in the world was enough for him. He prefers to go back to skirts, if necessary, if only he can remain at Ocracoke.

HEY, BRADY!

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A diet of carrots is known to improve the appearance of a horse's coat and mane. Dr. Secherbe, of Vienna, taking this fact as a starting point, has experimented with different diets and the effect on human hair.

He recommends baldheaded men to eat root vegetables in abundance. Turnips, carrots and onions all contain the salts required to stimulate the latent hair on bald heads, he says.

BUYS BARRELS OF WATER FOR LIQUOR AT $14,000

PATERSON, N. J., Dec. 2.—Ferdinand Elia, owner of twenty-six barrels of insipid water, for which he carelessly paid $14,000, Wednesday Forbes, N. D., as one of the three men identified Emil Wentz, of Grand who convinced him by a plausible test that the barrels contained 103 proof whisky.

Elia told the police he had been permitted to select a barrel, to bore his own hole, to insert a rubber tube and to sample what ran out. He did not learn until the trio had disappeared with his $14,000 that one of them had connected the tube with a rubber bag, beneath his coat, which contained real liquor.

Wentz was found in a New York jail, where he is held on a charge of having perpetrated a similar swindle.

GUMDROPS FOR ESKIMO; LOZENGES FOR CHINESE

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 2.—American candy is a favorite in every country touching the Pacific ocean. This commodity is dispatched to natives of Point Barrow, Alaska; to Paga Paga; Siberia, Japan, China, the Antipodes, South America and the Philippines.

It is a curious fact that each race of people desire a certain brand; for the Eskimo loves gumdrops; the Filipino, caramels, wrapped in tissue; the Chinese highly flavored lozenges; the Japanese, marshmallows, and the Siberian, hard stick candy.
