BLAST WRECKS DALLAS HOUSE; WOMAN INJURED

Three Under Arrest as Police Probe Blast; Woman Feared Attack.

By Associated Press.
DALLAS, March 30.—Three men have been taken into custody today in connection with an explosion which early last night wrecked the one-story frame dwelling of Mrs. Nettie McAllister on South Lamar street, between St. Louis and Powhattan, and shook other houses in a radius of several blocks.

Miss Dorothy Mae Grace, 18, who was in the house, suffered a broken ankle and was cut about the face. Mrs. H. C. Patton, mother of Miss Grace, escaped injury.

Crawled Under House.
R. H. Solomon, who resides nearby, was attracted to the house just before the blast by the screams of the two women. Solomon, pistol in hand, crawled under the front porch to investigate and says he remembers seeing two burning fuses but before he reached them a terrific explosion occurred and he later found himself in a dazed condition in an adjoining yard. Aside from a bruised foot he was unhurt.

Neighbors say Mrs. Patton, who had lived in the house only three days, had frequently declared her life in danger and feared the house would be blown up. She had instituted divorce proceedings against her husband, she said.

Although the police had reached no definite conclusion this morning, they believe the explosion was a pan of blasting powder with two fuses. No charges have been filed against the men now held.

CITY GRADER TAKING HUMPS OFF STREETS

The city grader and tractor, which has been at work on the unpaved streets since the rain, will be moved to the cemetery road, through Hodges Oak Park to the Wayland road. After the work there is completed, other residence streets of the city will be worked. City Engineer Redwood said this morning.

The grading crew has just finished working and grading North Marston street. Other streets and roads within the city limits that have been worked since the rain include the Sinclair road, Hunt street, the Tiffin highway, North street, Strawn road, Young addition streets and West Main street.

MID-KANSAS ADKINS MAKING ONE THOUSAND

ELIASVILLE, March 30.—The Adkins No. 2 well of the Mid-Kansas Oil & Gas company is in and flowing over 1,000 barrels actual gauge. This well is in the West Eliasville field, which is becoming one of the best producing fields in Stephens county.

New activity is expected in the west and south fields as a result of the general rains which have filled the Clear Fork of the Brazos river, where all of the large companies get their water supply.

North Eliasville is the scene of extensive wildcatting since the rain. Three wells are now exploring what is known as the Fish Creek community. They are the Martin No. 1 of the Panhandle, two miles north of Eliasville, and the Cotton No. 1, drilled by Ross. The Gulf is building its rig on the Burnett lease, five miles north of Eliasville.

FIREMEN MAKE BEAUTY SPOT

The big lot west of the Elm street fire station, formerly a very unsightly spot, has been cleaned up, plowed under and leveled by members of the fire department in their work of beautifying the fire station premises. The office, formerly used by the sanitary company, has been dragged by a tractor to the rear of the lot and borders of flowers and shrubbery planted. Flowers have also been planted around the bandstand and adjoining the station and around the fire hall.

The work was one by the firemen in their spare moments and is expected to add greatly to the band concerts given by the Retail Merchants' band at the adjoining bandstand.

FAR EASTERN TREATY NEXT ON CALENDAR

Senate Ratifies Naval Limitation Pact With Only One "No" Vote.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Ratification by the senate yesterday afternoon of the two arms conference treaties limiting navies of the great powers and restricting the use of submarines and poison gas, has cleared the way for a debate on the general Far Eastern treaty today. The naval limitation treaty passed with only one dissenting vote, cast by Senator France of Maryland. The vote on the submarine and gas treaty was unanimous.

Although there were indications that the Far Eastern treaty would be opposed by a small group of senators who believe China's interests are not sufficiently protected, it was the hope of the administration leaders that this pact, along with the Chinese tariff treaty, the last remaining covenant of the arms conference, would be ratified during the present week.

The old question of whether or not the arms conference covenant requires the United States to take up arms started anew today when the senate took up the consideration of the Far Eastern treaty.

It was charged by some senator who opposed the four-power treaty that the Far Eastern treaty places a moral obligation on the United States to resort to arms in certain contingencies. Supporters of the treaty, however, denied that there was anything in the treaty to support this contention.

NURSE TELLS OF WRONGS BEFORE LOVER'S MURDER

NEW YORK, March 30.—Almost swooning on the stand, Oliva M. P. Stone, graduate nurse charged with murder, recounted details preceding the shooting of Ellis G. Kincaid, corporation counsel, of Cincinnati. In a dramatic recital she unfolded before a supreme court jury a tale of betrayal, a putative wedding, her efforts to have the man right the wrong he had committed before marriage and an attack of dizziness from which she awakened in jail without knowledge of the shooting.

MAHANEY GIVEN FOUR-YEAR-TERM FOR CISCO FIGHT

Will Appeal; Two Other Cases Pending Against Defendant.

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, March 30.—Newt Mahaney was found guilty of assault with intent to murder L. J. Starkey of Cisco, late yesterday afternoon by a jury in Eighty-eighth district court. His punishment was fixed at four years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. Attorneys for Mahaney immediately announced that they would file a motion for a new trial, which will probably be submitted to Judge E. A. Hill some time this afternoon. Pending the action on the motion, Mahaney will remain in jail, where he was taken following the verdict. He had previously been out under bond.

Mahaney is also charged with assault to murder Ross Marchman of Cisco, who was painfully cut when he went to Starkey's assistance in the former's encounter with Sheriff Sam Nollet and Mahaney in Cisco on Feb. 3, and with carrying a pistol on a previous occasion. The second assault case was originally set for the same date as the first one, but the prosecution and defense agreed to try the cases separately. The pistol case was called a few weeks ago in the county court at law at the same time an aggravated assault case was called against the sheriff. Both cases, however, were continued at the time. It is understood that Mahaney will be tried on both the assault and pistol case at a later date.

The assault case yesterday went to the jury at 3:35 and the jury reported at 6 o'clock. The court room, which had been thronged since the trial opened Monday, was practically deserted when Foreman G. B. Mitchell handed the written verdict to Judge Hill.

Mahaney's face remained expressionless as the verdict was read.

ROW OVER KLAN SPLITS KIWANIS CLUB, BEAUMONT

By United Press.
BEAUMONT, March 30.—Mayor Steinhausen issued a proclamation this morning stating that no person who is a member of the Ku Klux Klan could remain in the city's employ. "We are convinced," the proclamation said, "that it is inimical to the public interest for a city employe to belong to the Ku Klux Klan."

The Beaumont Kiwanis club luncheon, at which big league sport writers were guests, broke up in a row yesterday when the Ku Klux issue was injected by circulation of a petition denouncing "masked band lawlessness in Beaumont." Fists were used freely as various speakers tried to get the floor to denounce or commend the organization.

It is expected that the local Kiwanis club will be broken up as a result of the trouble.

Ranger Fine Site for Cement Plant, Tee Pee Official Says

All Conditions Make This Logical Place, Says Arthur Goetz of Fort Worth.

Ranger is the logical place for a large cement plant, Arthur S. Goetz, vice president of the Thurber Earthen Products company, stated last night following his arrival in Ranger on an inspection tour. This city has abundant power, he pointed out, in the surrounding gas fields. It has the largest rock crusher in the state and abundant raw materials for cement manufacture and adequate railroad facilities to get the finished product to the markets. In the event that the seeming inexhaustible gas fields would play out, he declared that cheap power could still be obtained from the electric power plant on Leon river or from cheap coal from the Thurber mines.

As a means of interesting the larger cement manufacturers of the East in establishing a plant here, Mr. Goetz recommended that a cement engineer of national reputation be employed by the civic organizations to make a full and complete report on the possibilities. The services of such an expert, he thought, could be obtained for approximately $1,000 and would have the greatest weight in interesting cement capital here.

The Tiffin rock crusher is now running at full blast, Mr. Goetz said, and turning out from twenty-five to thirty cars of crushed rock a day, for which a ready market has been found. A large part of the output is being used by the Texas & Pacific road for ballasting west of Baird and east of Ranger. The county contractors are also using some of the output in the road construction.

Mr. Goetz, accompanied by Garfield Crawford, publisher of the National Oil News and other publications, arrived in Ranger yesterday afternoon from a meeting of Texas & Pacific Coal & Oil company and associate company officials in Thurber. Mr. Crawford is gathering material for an article on the rock and earthen products industry in this section. The company is preparing to open another mine at Thurber, Mr. Goetz said. No. 3 mine is now running at its full capacity of from 250 to 300 tons daily and No. 10 mine is being put in readiness for opening as soon as conditions justify this step, he explained. Mr. Goetz left last night for his offices in Fort Worth.

CONGRESS WILL CONDUCT PROBE OF MINE STRIKE

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, March 30.—The great coal walkout scheduled for April 1 is starting today in Ohio and Illinois. Although the official hour for the walkout is midnight tomorrow, miners in those two states began dropping their tools today. Half of the south Ohio mines are idle and those in Illinois are commencing to shut down. Meanwhile, the West Virginia non-union mines are working feverishly to store up supplies.

The Kansas industrial court is expected to issue an order prohibiting a walkout in that state.

The war cabinet of miners is meeting in Indianapolis to perfect plans. Representatives of operators and miners have been summoned to Washington to appear before the house labor committee, which will investigate causes of the tieup.

In the anthracite field, likewise, preparations are under way for the suspension of work. The sub-committee of miners and operators which has been in session in New York to consider a new wage scale will temporarily adjourn tomorrow.

SIAMESE TWINS UNITED IN DEATH

Each Unwilling to Survive the Other; and No Operation Is Attempted as Blazek Sisters Expire Early This Morning.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Rosa and Josefa Blazek, the "Siamese twins," died here early today. Josefa, who has been in a stupor for nearly a week, expired first, and her sister, Rosa, followed fifteen minutes later, at 3:10 a. m. Dr. Benjamin Brakestone and a staff of eminent physicians had worked for days in the effort to save the lives of the famous pair but the battle was lost when complications set in. The twins had been suffering from an attack of catarrhal jaundice.

Josefa had been near death for nearly a week. Rosa was apparently in good health until two days ago. She had made up her mind to die with her sister. Frantz, the 12-year-old son of Rosa, was with his mother and aunt when the end came. Frank Blazek, a brother of the twins, also was present.

No attempt was made to operate to separate the two after the death of Josefa. This was in accordance with the wishes of the sisters. When the brother was asked for permission to operate in an effort to save Rosa's life he refused, saying it was not his will. Frantz said he preferred being an orphan to going against the wishes of his mother and aunt.

The twins are joined at the hips, extending up to the lower stomach by a foot-thick wall of ligament, bone, muscle and vital organs. The bone in this formation alone, X-ray shows, is four and one-half inches thick. To make the problem more delicate, each had organs vital to life, so arranged that both can live together but which would require almost superhuman skill on the part of surgeons to cause to function for one alone. So far as the surgeons have been able to determine, however, the nervous system of each is separate.

BANKHEAD RIGHT-OF-WAY TANGLE FINALLY SETTLED AT MEET TODAY

Will Go South on Commerce Through Tee Pee and Prairie Material Yards; Grading Work Expected to Start at Once; Strawn Road Surface Unsettled.

The route of the Bankhead highway through the business section of Ranger was finally determined this morning following conferences between officials of the Tee Pee and Prairie companies and members of the good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce, at which the right of way for the route was obtained through the material yards of the two companies south of town, J. E. T. Peters announces. The right-of-way was granted by the Prairie company some time ago. A hitch occurred over the Tee Pee right-of-way when it was discovered that the highway would render useless three acres of the latter company's yard. This difficulty was surmounted by the agreement of the county to purchase and donate to the company three acres of the Will McCleskey track. The deal was completed this morning at $60 an acre. The Prairie company, lessees of the land, agreed to the sale and the route through the business section was assured.

Grade Near Town.
Smith Bros., county contractors are said to have completed the grading of the road from Eastland to a point near the "100-mile mountain," a mile and a half south of town, where the business section route and the east side route divided. As the result of the agreement on the route over the Texas & Pacific crossing at Main street, and south on Commerce, work will commence at once on this stretch, it is stated. It is expected that the contractors will start their grading at the end of the paving on Commerce street as soon as the moving of material is under way from the right-of-way through the material yards is sixty feet wide and runs for a distance of approximately 3,000 feet through the properties. The paving of the road with rock and then brick surfacing will start as soon as the grading is completed, it is stated, and the entire twenty miles of Bankhead highway between Ranger and Cisco completed this year.

The highway crosses under the Texas & Pacific tracks south of the Prairie yards, through two spans fourteen feet six inches wide, with twelve feet of clearance. A total

PREFERS JAIL TO TALK ABOUT AUSTIN KLAN

Grand Jury Asks Longer Time for Probe of "Certain Cases."

By United Press.
AUSTIN, March 30.—"I will continue to stand on my personal rights and will go to jail rather than answer these questions?" declared F. G. Reynolds, who with Police Commissioner J. D. Copeland was remanded back to jail yesterday when the court of criminal appeals upheld the decision of Judge James R. Hamilton that the two men must answer questions regarding their affiliation with the Ku Klux Klan. Copeland is declared to have made the same statement. The two men later were released on bond.

The grand jury appeared before Judge Hamilton in a body shortly after noon today and requested that their term be extended to "permit a complete investigation in certain cases." Judge Hamilton took the case under advisement. County Attorney John W. Hornsby expressed the opinion that the term would be extended.

Preparations for a rehearing in the contempt case were begun this morning.

DALLAS COP ON TRIAL FOR ROTHBLUM ASSAULT

DALLAS, March 30.—Policeman J. J. Crawford went to trial today charged with the whipping of Phillip Rothblum on the night of March 6. The charges against Crawford grew out of the investigation of scores of floggings in Dallas and vicinity during the last few months. Crawford is the only man arrested in the cases to date.

It is understood Rothblum and his wife will be the only witnesses called by the state. The defense plans to present the testimony of a dozen or more witnesses and it is understood he will attempt to prove an alibi.

"Would you let all this talk, noise and hullaboo in the newspapers influence your verdict," attorneys for the defense asked the jurors, "for would you require the state to prove the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt by creditable witnesses?" were the only two questions asked by the defense in the examination.

District Attorney Maury Hughes closely questioned the jurors but laid particular stress as to the question of constitutional rights. "Do you believe that no man or set of men should take any individual and pass sentence upon him after acting as court, prosecutor and jury in the river bottoms?" he asked.

JABBING THE CIVIC LEG.

Voliva achieves "painless dentistry" by jabbing a pin in the patient's leg as the tooth came out.

Of course, it would be needless to explain to Voliva that he didn't really make the victim insensible to the extraction. He merely diverted his attention to another spot.

Dentistry has gained nothing by the discovery, perhaps, but the "experiment" brings to the light a phase of human nature which is everlasting but seldom considered. That is, the tendency to concentrate on one thing, and ignore others.

Ranger, for instance, is largely concentrated on oil. Oil is fine business. It is the mainstay of Ranger. But with the wave of speculation passed, oil has become a business, in capable hands, and the chances are it will take care of itself.

Why not, then, jab a pin in our civic leg, and get together to turn our attention to something else?

The illimitable supply of natural gas, for instance, developed as a by-product of petroleum, means cheap fuel. When that is gone, the proximity of coal mines still means cheap fuel. Some day, industry is going to seek those advantages. However, industries may "look," but it will not "see," if it should be held up for plant sites and things of that nature.

Now why not organize to promote that phase of industrial development? The individual property owner, under present conditions, cannot be blamed if he holds his lands for a good price. It is not his business to sacrifice in order that his neighbors may profit. But a way can be found to obviate this difficulty, so that cheap sites may be found for industries and at the same time all property owners will benefit. Suppose Ranger property owners formed a corporation, taking over the title to all classes of property, in all sections of the city, and issued stock in exchange? Then Ranger would be in a position to say to manufacturers: "Here is a site you can have dirt cheap." And no one would be sacrificing, because the former owner would have stock in a corporation, whose other properties would be increased in value by the acquisition of this plant. Thus he would be amply recompensed, and the entire community would be benefitted as well.

BANKHEAD RIGHT-OF-WAY FINALLY SETTLED AT MEET TODAY

of $418,000 in state and federal aid has been granted for the road between Ranger and Cisco and the county has set aside an equal amount in bonds. When completed experts declare the stretch of highway will be the best road in Texas.

Nothing definite has been determined in regard to the class of paving for the highway from Ranger to the Palo Pinto county line and from Cisco to the Callahan county line. Efforts are being made to have these stretches, which total approximately twenty miles, also paved with brick. But $50,000 in state aid and no federal aid has been granted for these two stretches. It is expected, however, that more aid will be granted. One plan advanced some time ago was to pave twelve feet in the middle of the highway from Ranger to the Palo Pinto line with brick and three feet on either side with macadam.

Arthur S. Goetz, vice president of the Thurber Earthen Products company, who was in Ranger last night, was enthusiastic over the plan for brick paving over the entire stretch. He declared that his company would make a special price for the brick and crushed rock and would donate all the sledge rock along the route through the company property.

Efforts of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce to bring the Bankhead highway through the business section of the city date back to the early part of 1920, shortly after the route was surveyed through the eastern section of Ranger. Tourists, it was felt, should be brought into the main part of town if the highway was to prove profitable as well as an advertisement investment. The good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce prevailed on the county authorities to change the routing up Main street to Marston, and secured right-of-ways through the property lying between the city and "100-Mile mountain." After repeated refusals, the state and federal highway departments finally agreed to allow the change to Commerce street, but refusing to allow a route any further west on Main street.

SLEUTHS HAVE INNING AT GENOA CONFERENCE

BERLIN, March 30.—The Genoa conference will swarm with hundreds of secret agents and secret political police, according to a dispatch from Rome.

Neither the famous Vienna conference nor the congress at Versailles had as many secret agents surrounding them as promise to concentrate at Genoa for the purpose of protecting high statesmen and ferreting out secrets of various camps. The French delegation, it has been announced here, will be preceded by no less than eighty-two detectives and secret agents. Great Britain is sending shrewd operators of the staff at Scotland Yards, and the most accomplished secret agents attached to the British foreign office.

Moscow officials it is reported, will have a corps of not less than fifty secret agents, and the Italian delegation will be surrounded with guards.

CARD PLAYING IN HOME RAPPED BY EVANGELIST

All human experience and history goes to prove the truth of scripture, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap," Rev. L. D. Coale declared last night in his sermon at the Methodist church.

The devil is always playing the role of a deceiver, he said, and every sinner is a deluded person living in a fool's paradise. They will find a day of harvest.

The evangelist scored card-playing mothers, stating that nine-tenths of the world's gamblers are made in the home and that if gambling were stopped in the homes it would be an easy matter to close the gambling halls. He closed with an exhortation to parents to keep or regain their faith in God. Otherwise, they would reap misery through their children for the habits they had sown.

At the close of the service a number of persons came forward and confessed their faith.

WICHITA FALLS JUDGE SAYS NO KLAN MEMBER SHOULD BE OFFICIAL

WICHITA FALLS, March 30.—The special session of the grand jury in the Seventy-eighth district court Wednesday was instructed by Judge Ed Napier to make a thorough investigation of the activities of the Ka Klux Klan in this county. In a lengthy charge Judge Napier strongly condemned the organization as "a menace to society."

He said that it was currently rumored that certain officers belong to the organization and charged the jury if they found such to be the case they should be cited for removal from office.

MILLIONS PAID BY COMPANY FOR THEFT CLAIMS

NEW YORK, March 30.—The crime wave sweeping the country is held responsible by the National Surety company for the increase of 51 per cent last year in the number of claims filed with the corporation on burglary insurance. The number of burglary claims filed with the company in 1921 reached a total of 3,487, against 2,314 in 1920.

Last year was particularly bad in the matter of depository bond claims, according to the company's figures, its actual loss payments amounting to $1,065,271, or approximately 100 per cent of the premiums written. The bank closures covered by these losses numbered thirty-eight national banks and 144 state banks. Surety bond claims numbered 3,176, the actual loss payments aggregating nearly $3,000,000, the largest single claim being $187,640.

The figures of the company show there were 15,000 defaults in 1921 under its bonds and policies, losses exceeding $5,300,000.

The company sets forth the following causes of the crime wave: Unwillingness of men to give up the taste of high life and expensive pleasures which were acquired during the war-wave period; drugs; unemployment; the parole and pardon of desperate criminals, as well as the system of suspended sentence.

"Our experience proves conclusively," the company holds, "that the automobile is the biggest factor in the crime wave today." The strong tendency of "eggmen" toward the use of the acetylene torch and vault burglaries is noted by the company, which cites a recent case in California, where burglars were in the bank only forty-five minutes and cut through a standard round door manganese steel safe. They burned an eight-inch core out of the top of the safe and removed the currency through the hole. Attention is also called to the "quick touch" where a complete central alarm system is in use. This class of loss was unknown until the last three or four months. Four or five men will drive to a fur store, smash in the front door, each grab a bundle of furs and get away before the patrolmen arrive.

The National Surety company notes that the worst burglary lines are drug stores, fur concerns, filling stations, automobile accessories and garages, chain stores and banks.

MOTHER FINED FOR LEAVING BABY ALONE WHILE SHE DANCED

DENVER, March 30.—Mrs. A. R. Russell, 19 years old, was fined $10 and costs in police court for neglecting her 18-month-old son, Alfred. Neighbors testified that Mrs. Russell habitually left the child alone in her apartment for long periods at night while she went to dances and motion picture shows.

The young mother admitted that she left the baby at home unattended. "But I don't see anything wrong with that," she said. "If the baby cried, some of the neighbors would come in and attend to it. If there had been fire someone would have carried the baby out of the building."

BAPTIST MINISTERS ON COAST FAVOR LOVE-MAKING IN CHURCH

SPOKANE, Wash., March 30.—Young people should be encouraged to make love in church, Dr. Owen C. Brown of Los Angeles, editor of the adult publications of the Baptist church, declared in an address at a Baptist church conference here. "Allow your Baptist young people's union meetings to be courting places," he told the assembled pastors. Dr. Brown said that courting should be encouraged at church functions to help the young people "make matches among themselves in the midst of good Christian influences."

"Do you believe that our young people ought to be encouraged to spoon at their meetings?" Dr. Brown asked the meeting, after stating his views. The response generally was affirmative. PARSONS, Kan., March 30.—The church is not the place for spooning bees," said Dr. H. A. Smoot, pastor of the First Baptist church here, when told of Dr. Owen Brown's suggestion that the B. Y. P. U. meets be made a courting hour. "We encourage couples to attend our services," said Dr. Smoot, "and we want them to sit together. But I don't think the church was intended for a spooning parlor."

$1 HEART BALM AWARDED GIRL IN $50,000 SUIT

CHICAGO, March 30.—A jury decided here that Miss Ethel Jay French had been damaged to the extent of $1 by John Wood Brooks-Ladd's failure to marry. Ladd, who is said to be a member of a wealthy Boston family, was sued for $50,000. Miss Jay French declared he "had used her body and mind, and left her a physical wreck" despite his alleged promises to marry her. Both sides declare they are pleased with the verdict. "We won and that is all that counts," said Charles E. Erbstein, attorney for Miss French. "This is a complete justification for all the acts of my client and its shows that the jury believed what she did was right."

"This is the first instance in all my experience where a jury has brought in a verdict in the interests of the community at large," said Attorney Perry Patterson, representing Ladd. "They did not make the verdict a 'sporting proposition' for the woman because she was a woman. We are entirely satisfied and will gladly pay the $1."

The girl collapsed in court, falling to the floor in a dead faint. She had just identified a letter she wrote to Ladd in which she ended with this sentence: "It won't be long before we can be married as you have promised me." She identified the note, faltered and pitched to the floor. Court was recessed until she had been revived. Ladd has stated that he did not consider Miss French his social equal, but her attorney undertook to show her lineage was equal to his own.

PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—Men as well as women should wear corsets in the opinion of Amelia Bingham, actress, who addressed the New Century club. She opposed censorship for plays and films declaring that "if they were not thus hampered" they would develop into one of the greatest educational forces in America.

PARENT-TEACHERS CLUB DISCUSS JAZZ

The Parent-Teachers' club of the Ranger high school met Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and those present enjoyed a most excellent program which had been arranged for the afternoon. Roll call was answered by quotations from Stevenson and Fields. Edna Clark gave a reading, "Boy Blue" and Mrs. M. H. Hagaman read a splendid paper on "Has Jazz Affected Ranger Boys and Girls Morally and Mentally?" A round-table discussion of this subject, conducted by H. D. Woods, brought out many fine points. However it was agreed that to a certain extent jazz had affected the morals of Ranger youth but no more here than elsewhere and felt that a concerted movement on the part of teachers, pupils and parents was necessary to combat this evil.

Mr. Woods explained the plans for the new high school building, which explanation and exhibit was very interesting to those present.

FOR MISS WATSON.

A very pretty tribute was paid Miss Catherine Watson, who formerly lived here, but is now living in Winchester, Ill., when her Sunday school class, of which she was a teacher, met with Mrs. J. B. Stackable Wednesday afternoon and had a handkerchief shower for her. Miss Watson was identified in the organization of this class, which is the Young Matrons' class of the Methodist Sunday school and it was through her untiring efforts that it built up to its present strength and interest. Each guest brought an offering of handkerchiefs, which today are being forwarded to Miss Watson in her new home. This little "bouquet to the living" comes at a very sad time in Miss Watson's life, she having recently lost her mother, and no doubt it will be very sweet to her to know that the old friends here have not forgotten and that her spirit lives with those she worked with here.

Mrs. Stackable served refreshments of tea and cake to the following ladies: Mmes. Reid, Ashford, Klinger, Clyburn, Coleman, Ruble, Griswold, Whitbeck, McKinlay, Kimball and Baker.

PURELY PERSONAL.

W. W. Ford of Dallas is visiting in the city.

BLUSHING BRIDE OF WOMANLESS WEDDING LED TO ALTAR TONIGHT

Tonight at 9 p. m. Jimmie Ward, of the Tee Pee company, will lead his fair and blushing bride, who in male attire is Commissioner Lon Davenport, to the marriage altar, which has been improvised at the Liberty theatre. The ring is a product of the carpenter's art, and will no doubt fit the dainty finger of the bride. Chief Luther Davenport and Fire Chief Murphy as flower girls will be the "chiefest" little things imaginable. On account of the widow's foot measuring over a foot, it has been impossible to fit "her" up in lady's shoes, but it won't be her feet that will be attracting notice, as she is a perfect vamp in an evening gown. Flowers have been coming in all day and the bride's bouquet is a masterpiece in apple blossoms, peach blossoms and cherry blossoms.

"Quiet" Rogers is as pretty as a girl in his make-up and the ushers will all look like real ushers, with John Milford's pure white cotton gloves covering their hands. The wedding party is composed of our most charming men and "girls" and there has been nothing left undone to make it a real bona fide looking wedding; even wedding bells will ring and real policemen will keep the space in front of the door clear for the bride party. It's going to be a scream from start to finish and judging by the sale of tickets everybody is going to be there to see the knot tied.

FRECKLES

March Worst Month for This Trouble—How to Remove Easily.

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength, from your druggist and apply a little of it at night and morning, and in a few days you should see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely. Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they may stay all Summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if Othine fails—Advertisement.
