Romancers Three

Here are the dramatis personae in Germany's "princess and the pauper" wedding. In the lower photo you see the 61 year old Princess Victoria of Schaumburg-Lippe, sister of the former Kaiser Wilhelm, and her 23-year old husband, Alexander Zoubkoff, who made his living by washing dishes. Outside of working hours he made his living, and that's where Mlle. Suzette, shown above, comes in. Suzette is sometimes known as "queen of the Paris mannequins," but in spite of her youth and beauty, could not compete against a great title and a large fortune. She did go to Bonn, Germany, and try to recapture her sweetheart before the wedding bells rang, but failed. Meanwhile former Kaiser is more than slightly disturbed.

POOL IS NAMED HEAD OF SCHOOL OF MINES

SAN BENITO.—San Benito will seek the 1930 convention of the Lions Clubs of the United States, according to Harry D. Bartsch, president of the local club.
The lower Rio Grande valley council of Lions clubs will support the local club in its bid for the convention. The valley council will meet here Jan. 9 and will be attended by more than 400 Lions.

AUSTIN, Nov. 22.—Adrian Pool was elected to an office by the University of Texas regents but it will cost him another office to accept it. Because of his activities in the School of Mines, he was named "president" of the school at a dollar a year.
Should he accept the honorary position he would forfeit his right to sit as a member of the legislature.

NOTICE

In order that our employes may have the opportunity of observing Thanksgiving day, the Times Publishing company is this week going to follow its usual custom of combining its Wednesday and Thursday editions into one edition, which will be delivered early Thursday morning.
Consequently there will be no Wednesday edition of either the Ranger Times or the Eastland Telegram. Neither will there be a Thursday afternoon edition of either of these papers.
In recent years we have followed this custom on the Thanksgiving occasion and we have found that in every instance it has met with the whole-hearted approval of our subscribers and advertisers alike.
In doing this we find it possible to join our many friends and patrons in the proper observance of Thanksgiving.

GOVERNOR IS STILL SILENT ON POLITICS

Moody Maintains Open Mind on National Situation, Dispatches Say.

AUSTIN, Nov. 22.—Governor Dan Moody's attitude in the national democratic race is still an unknown quantity.
The governor is giving the matter consideration. He has not yet announced his views. When he does, they will not be capable of misinterpretation.
That the governor still remains sphinx like on the matter, became more apparent following a long conference between him and Charles F. Francis of Wichita Falls, head of the movement for an unstructured delegation from Texas to the national convention.
It is known that the governor and Francis really discussed that plan and its possibility of success. They discussed also the Tom Love plan of declaration against any candidate of wet tendencies. Following the conference Francis gave it as his view that Governor Moody will be for the unstructured delegation.
Moody, however, still retained an open mind on the proposition.

Victims of Auto Spill Reported To Be Improving

Reports from the J. H. Mead Art and Novelty Store, Ranger today were that Mr. Mead might return to Ranger today or tomorrow and that he was reported as recovering nicely from a recent automobile accident. Marion Glenn the other man in the wrecked car, has already returned to Ranger.
W. H. Clapp of the Sinclair Oil and Gas company, Ranger, who was in the party that left here Friday for a hunting trip, related how the accident happened. It seems that the car in which Mr. Mead and Mr. Glenn were driving had some trouble, so Mr. Clapp and his companion were following that car.
Sunday night shortly after midnight and about twenty miles south of Brownwood, the front car turned over on a short curve and pinned both men beneath it.
Mead suffered a broken wrist, and a dislocated shoulder in the spill but Glenn was only bruised. However, had it not been for the fact that help was behind them when the accident happened a far different story might have been told, as the gas was leaking on to Glenn's face when the other two men arrived on the scene and both would have doubtless been overcome by gas fumes had not help arrived almost instantly.
The injured men were taken to Brownwood and treated by the house surgeon at the Southern Hotel.

Attorney Denies Expressing Any Doubt of Guilt

TYLER, Texas, Nov. 22.—The only feature of an otherwise dull morning of court procedure in the examination of veniremen to try Cain Anderson, wealthy Harrison county planter, was a sweeping denial by Galloway Calhoun, assistant attorney general of an Austin story Monday which quoted him as expressing doubts as to the guilt of Anderson.
Calhoun was permitted by the court to tell the prospective jurors that the Austin story was false.
Objections by defense counsel were overruled.

PAUL CHIRMINISE'S DEATH CASTS PALL OVER RANGER

Funeral Wednesday Morning at Catholic Church, Elk Members Will Assist

A pall of sorrow hung over Ranger last night when word came that Paul Chirminise, owner of the Gholsion Hotel Barber shop, who was injured when his car skidded and turned over on the highway two miles east of Weatherford early Monday morning, had died.
Today business men were seen on Main street in groups, talking of the accident that had befallen one of their friends, for Paul Chirminise was indeed "friend to man." In his shop in the basement of the Gholsion, he was a friend to rich and poor, young and old. He was always interested in the welfare of his friends, ever courteous and gave to the world the happiness and sweetness of a spirit that only emanates from those who live an earthly life.
Paul Chirminise was born in Palermo, Italy, 39 years ago, and came to the United States when about 19 years old. He first settled in Alabama, but when oil was struck in Ranger he came here and opened up a shop on Rusk street nine years ago. When the Gholsion hotel was opened, he moved to the basement of that building and there he has operated his business in a manner that was lucrative to himself and pleasing to his clientele.
The deceased was a member of the Elks club and the Knights of Columbus and tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the Catholic church, a requiem high mass, conducted by Rev. Father Collins, will be held, followed by interment in Evergreen cemetery, with pallbearers being members of the two above named orders. The body arrived from Weatherford at noon today and will rest until Wednesday morning in the mortuary parlor of Killingsworth-Cox company.
Yesterday several friends rushed to Weatherford when news came that Chirminise had been hurt. P. A. Babami of Abilene, went from that city. Dr. Harry Logsdon, Wade Swift, Tony Lewis, Nick Gallagher and others went from Ranger. The dying man requested that Dr. Logsdon be sent for and when he arrived at the hospital, Paul wanted to know if there was any chance. When told that the chances were against him, he, typical of his character, made no complaint, but took advantage of the time to tell his friends what he wanted done with his property. He tried to meet his last adventure as he met life—with a smile.
Logsdon said that he was crushed from the middle of the chest to the waist and that death was due to shock and internal hemorrhage.
The deceased leaves few relatives. His parents died recently, and a nephew, Dominick Chirminise, in Knox, Pa., and a brother, in Italy are his immediate survivors.
P. A. Babami of Abilene, and his father, I. Babami of Denison, both life-time friends of the deceased are in Ranger now and will remain until after the funeral. Another old friend, Ralph Nicossia of Waco, is expected here tonight and it is said that about 50 families from Thurber and Miners, where he had many friends, will be here for the funeral services.
The dead man had accumulated some property, probably not as much as he would have had he not been so generous, for friends state that he had always contributed to his family in Italy and never turned a deaf ear to the poor and needy of this country.

CRIME, BILLION DOLLAR INDUSTRY IN U. S., GUNMEN ARE SPECIALISTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Crime has become a billion dollar industry in the United States.
Never before in history have the professional gun-man and his allies enjoyed such rich harvest in a civilized community than during the post-war period in the richest country in the world.
Estimates of the value of the aggregate loot of safe breakers, jewelry thieves, dock and railway pilferers, bank robbers and others engaged in hold-up and thievery vary. A nationally known editorial writer recently stated that the big business of crime had an annual turnover of $3,000,000,000 of which one half was profit.
Specialization has seized upon this newest and richest American industry. There are gunmen who perform murder or lesser violence for pay, frequently acting as guards in labor disputes in the larger centers of population. Other gunmen engage to protect bootleggers and to prevent rival liquor sellers from invading their employers' sales territory. Jewelry stores attract still another specialist type. Behind the operations of these active criminals is the shadow of the "fence."
A "fence" is a man possessed of ready money to whom is disposed for cash the loot obtained in robberies of all kinds.
Instances have been known, as was the case with the Richard Reese Whittemore gang in New York, where diamonds stolen at the point of a gun were disposed of to a "fence" within a few hours of the robbery and while the police search for the robbers barely had begun.
Machine guns, bombs thrown from automobiles and even from airplanes have figured in the battles between guards of rival bootleggers in and around Chicago. A popular practice is to locate the leader of the gang which is encroaching upon another's sales area.
Discovering his habits and the streets he is likely to appear in, several gunmen drive through the neighborhood until the quarry is sighted. A fusillade of revolver or machine gun bullets from the moving car creates panic in the neighborhood while it is killing the human game. The car speeds away and even if the shot man has enough life left to talk it rarely happens that he will tell police officers who his assassiliants were. Revenge is exacted by the shot man's henchmen and the feud develops.
From time to time gunmen are captured and often they are hanged—as were Whittemore, Gerald Chapman and others. For the most part these gunmen exterminate themselves, usually dying in their twenties having embarked on their profession before reaching their majority.
Such is the condition with which the United States is confronted. The National Crime commission which met in Washington this month sought a remedy. A number of contributory factors were cited, chief among them an appalling tangle of technicalities and red tape in which the legal system of the United States has become involved.
Sharp lawyers, the commission was informed, could so weave the evidence of a criminal case that the trial

Negro Porter Held Up, Bandit Gets 15 Cents

A lone hijacker or stick-up man got only 15 cents for his efforts last night when he had the porter of the Elks club "stick 'em up" under a light at the corner of Walnut and Market streets.
The porter said that the hijacker was a young white man about 22 years old and that a confederate was waiting for him in a car farther down the street.
Judge almost inevitably would be compelled to commit some minor error requiring a higher court to reverse him and thereby enable defendants to obtain a new trial in the event of conviction.
Delay, the commission learned, had become so great that even murderers had no fear of immediate punishment. Court dockets were over crowded. Technicalities defeated justice. Judges frequently powerless to lend adequate direction to trials because of the limitations placed upon their authority. Bondsmen and lawyers of a certain type infested court rooms exerting influence and a knowledge of technicalities, sometimes resorting to bribery, to relieve clients of the law's exactions.
With these short comings in mind the commission exposed the structure of crime as a big business with an annual turn over of tremendous proportions.

Gripings

We noticed where Governor Dan Moody went hunting last week. He was also hunting for a chance to think in quiet solitude and see what the heck he was going to do about Al Smith. Al Smith being a probable nominee for president from the democratic party.

If we was a powerful politician we believe we'd have the nerve to speak our piece on the question of prohibition. Some fearless but ambitious gentleman is going to step out one of these days and make his campaign motto, "Don't kick yourself!" and lead some of us poor misguided souls out of the wilderness.

Which reminds us of a conversation we heard when we was a kid back in the Indian Territory, which run something like this:
First party: "The lips that lick liquor shall never lick mine."
Second party: "You mean your lips?"
First party: "No—my liquor."

If the "peepul" were so dad blasted in favor of prohibition they wouldn't force their grocers to handle malt syrup and they wouldn't sneak around on the sly and feel out the officers and see if they could get by with a little home brew so long as they were not selling it.

We figured up last summer and decided there were about 30,000 bottles of home brew consumed in our own little community each week. All of it that we tasted was pretty good, too.

Some smart politician is going to read the people's mind on that subject one of these days and the home brewers are going to elect him. They have enough majority to carry any election if they will vote the way they brew.

There are, of course, a lot of people left who respect the law enough that they don't brew, but they are always parking in front of fire plugs and driving over the hose lines and other minor infractions of the law. Thoughtlessly, of course, but none the less flagrantly.

Some of them who wouldn't think of making a batch of home brew take a great delight in feeding their chickens on some neighbor's garden and turn their stock out at night.

Up to now it's been so that a fellow was afraid to step up to the polls and vote for a candidate who was inclined toward liberality for fear of what somebody might think of him. But at the same time the same voter would slip out and take a few snorts of liquor whenever the opportunity afforded.

BONNET AND APRON GIRLS GO FORTUNE HUNTING.
The Bonnet and Apron club girls with their sponsor went on an outing. They reached Strawn and then went on to Mingo, and while taking an ice cream soda at a cold drink stand there, they heard of a fortune teller who could tell the past, present and future, and of course, they went fortune hunting.
The next stop was at Strawn for dinner at a Strawn cafe, and dressed in their green and white aprons and little sun bonnets they naturally attracted a great deal of attention wherever they stopped. A theatre party concluded the outing.
Those in the party were Bernadine Kribbs, Joe Burch, Jimanna Caraway, Leatrice Echols, Sug Wallace, Agnes Reuser, Marie Crutinger, Theo Stidham, and the sponsor, Miss Wilma Simer.

Junior College Finance Body On Big Fund Drive

The finance committee of the Ranger Junior college met last night and made arrangements to put on a campaign for renewing of pledges, together with enlisting of new donors, who heretofore have not had the opportunity to contribute toward the maintenance of this institution.

Howard Gholson and Dr. L. C. G. Buchanan were placed on the finance committee, already consisting of Ed R. Maher, Walter Murray, Hall Walker, Mmes. Thurman and O. L. Phillips, to assist them in this work.

O. G. Lanier read a financial report of the college as of August 31, 1927, in which were set forth the receipts and disbursements of the college. This report was approved by the committee.

On Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the chamber of commerce, the committee will meet for the purpose of renewing organizing and for completing plans for extending the funds campaign. This was decided at last night's meeting.

It was explained by O. G. Lanier today that in addition to the tuition derived from pupils, a voluntary donation has been necessary to meet the college's obligations. The deficit has been met by college donors. Last year these donors contributed something like $4,000 and while it will not take quite so much this year as it did last to operate the college on account of an increase in pupils, still the committee will ask for $3,500 with which to increase the library, put more equipment in the laboratory and to take care of its part of the operating expenses of the school.

Twenty girls came out for this sport and Miss Wilma Singer a T letter woman, will be the coach. Practicing will start this afternoon.

Struck by Car, Boy Asks Damages To Amount of $5,790

Grady Gibson, 19-year-old son of H. L. Gibson and wife of Eastland, has brought suit in the Eighty-eighth district court of Eastland county against Tom Jones and wife of Eastland for $5,790 alleged damages sustained by cause of personal injuries received when he was struck by a car driven by T. A. Jones, minor son of the defendants.

Gibson's petition alleges among other things that T. A. Jones is under 15 years of age, that he was driving a car that was the community property of his parents, that he was driving the car and was accustomed to driving it at an excessive speed and that the defendants, Tom Jones, a policeman, knew, or should have known, that T. A. was driving their car recklessly and carelessly on the streets of Eastland, that they had been told of that fact, etc.

The accident in which Gibson was injured occurred on West Commerce street in Eastland on Sept. 13, 1927. Gibson sustained a broken shoulder and was otherwise cut and bruised about the body. He was carried to the sanitarium where he was given medical treatment. Gibson claims in his petition that he is permanently injured.

Would-be Robber Warned By Poster At Bank Entrance

A grim poster in the forefront of the Citizens State bank Ranger, makes one believe that the Banker's association of Texas is in real earnest in its efforts to get dead bank robbers.

The poster sets forth in big black letters that a reward of $5,000 is offered for dead bank robbers and states in very certain words that this big cash reward will be paid for each bank robber killed while robbing a bank. This reward is offered by the Texas Bankers association and is a standing reward for "dead ones only" as the poster states "we will not give a cent for a live robber."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Bill Roper of Princeton is one of football's foremost coaches. Tiger teams are always well tutored in the strategy of the game as well as the fundamentals.

Bill Roper is a great coach because he is always willing to learn, not too proud to accept the grid wisdom of others.

In the Yale game, Princeton used a short forward pass behind the line that didn't seem to travel but a few yards. It was very deceptive and resulted in a number of early gains that helped Princeton to its only touchdown.

Later while talking to one of Roper's assistants, I commented on the deceptiveness of the short pass.

"We picked that up from Cornell," was his reply. "Our team had trouble solving it and Roper decided it would be a good play to use against Yale. We worked on it for a week and had it moving smoothly."

All of which is proof why Bill Roper is one of the game's greatest coaches. He is always willing to learn, doesn't feel that he knows it all.

Know of Other Cases.

While watching Yale and Princeton take their preliminary workouts prior to the start of the game, it was but natural that the absence of Caldwell from the Yale lineup should be discussed. I expressed regret that some one had to spill the beans at a most inopportune moment.

"There hasn't been any secret about Caldwell and his playing at Brown as a freshman," replied the scout, a former eastern star. "His case didn't seem to come under the transfer rule, so no one objected to his playing with Yale."

"As a matter of fact, I can name you three other stars on prominent elevens, whose cases are similar to that of Caldwell, yet no attention has been paid to them."

"Since none of the players starred as freshmen and no persuasion or inducements were offered to them to change, their cases are hardly identical with the star who shifted college because pressure was brought."

The Caldwell case, however, should serve to make the leading colleges look closely into the pedigree of their athletes from now on.

Brown Beaten Often.
What a tough year this has been for Brown—and next year it will be even tougher in several respects.

Brown has taken six trimmings in a row. Defeat at the hands of Pennsylvania, Yale, Dartmouth and Harvard carries no disgrace but trimmings from Temple and Lebanon Valley are difficult to explain.

Undoubtedly there is something under the surface at Brown. Tuss McLaughtry is too good a coach and Brown had too good a team to experience such a terrible season.

On top of this comes the announcement that Brown may lose several of its best attractions for next season. It is said Brown will not be on the schedule of Yale, Harvard and Dartmouth in 1928. It will be hard to replace this trio of big games.

Brown has been a factor in eastern athletics for so many years that it is certain the alumni will step into the picture and try to straighten out the situation.

A few hours before the Princeton-Yale game I chatted with a former Princeton star, close to Bill Roper. In reply to my query as to how he doped the outcome, he said:

"Princeton has a great team, but if the game is close and it is hard pressed to hold a scant lead, it may prove unequal to the occasion. Not because of lack of courage, but rather poise."

"The Princeton team is largely made up of sophomores. Few of them have ever faced Yale. It will be a terrific strain for most of the youngsters and it is only natural that they may suffer from lack of experience in the final stages if the score is close."

After the game was over and Yale had won in the closing minutes of play, I vividly recalled the comments of the Tiger star of six years back.

Changed Fight of Line.

Glancing over the list of players in the Princeton squad who were eligible for the Yale game, I find the names of 15 sophomores and as many juniors.

While Princeton was far from a one-man team, as a matter of fact the Tiger lineup was one of the best all-around combinations I have seen this year, it seems to me that the moment Center Howe passed from the gridiron, the Princeton line lost much of its power.

I am told that Howe, badly used up in the Ohio state game, wasn't physically fit to engage in a single scrimmage prior to the Yale game.

In that contest he was pitted against the best center I have seen in action this season, Charlesworth.

Until he was forced out because of injuries with about 12 minutes to play, Howe held his own, despite the fact Charlesworth was pressing every minute. Fatigue more than injuries finally forced Coach Roper to withdraw Howe from the game.

How he hated to go. He fought off five or six Tigers who sought to induce him to depart from the field and it was not until the officials stepped into the picture that he consented to go.

Was Costly to Tigers

Physically unfit to play, for he staggered to the sidelines as would a drunken man, Howe showed the fighting spirit every inch of the way several times turning his head to where the teams were lined up as if debating as to whether or not he would return.

As he neared the lines he removed his headgear and tossed it aside in disgust and disappointment. Howe wanted to remain in that game until the finish.

I have since wondered if the picture of Howe as he left the field didn't have its effect on the Princeton team. Certainly the Tigers' play deteriorated after he retired.

COAST TEAM READY FOR IRISH TILT

Southern California to Meet Notre Dame in Chicago Next Saturday.

By United Press.

LOS ANGELES.—With national football honor as its goal, the University of Southern California team, outstanding eleven on the Pacific coast, will leave here tomorrow for Chicago to battle with the strong Irish eleven of Notre Dame at Soldiers Field, Nov. 26.

Leading the Thundering Herd will be Captain Morley Drury, credited as the fastest and shiftest player of the west.

The red and gold team is the strongest in the history of the institution. For the 110,000 fans who jam Soldier's Stadium, Drury will center their interest in the western team.

Southern California presents an essentially offensive team and Coach Howard Jones, brother of Tad Jones of Yale, has built his power plays around the bulk of "The Drury."

Drury stands almost six feet. He scales 190 pounds. And he combines this height and weight with speed and a peculiar hip motion. The combination permitted him to gain 203 yards from scrimmage in the California game and to total 165 yards against Stanford.

He is the sparkplug of an eleven which has scored two or more touchdowns in every contest during the past two seasons. He is the coast's bid for all-American honors and the coast's hope for a victory over Notre Dame.

REDUCED RATES IN EFFECT FOR PONY FROG TILT

Large Crowd Expected, Both
Teams Said to Be in Fine
Shape for Battle.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 22.—With railroads in Texas offering fare and one-half rates for fans who plan to see the Thanksgiving Day football game here Thursday between the T. C. U. Horned Frogs and the S. M. U. Mustangs, Fort Worth and T. C. U. are ready to receive what is expected to be the largest crowd ever to attend an athletic event here with the probable exception of a Dixie series baseball game.

The game will start at 2 o'clock. Athletic Director L. C. (Pete) Wright has announced, and all out-of-town fans are urged in plenty of time to arrive at the stadium early as it will be a huge task to seat the big crowd before the game time.

Additional distinction is given the T. C. U.-S.M.U. annual tilt this year inasmuch as it has been designated as T. C. U.'s first homecoming game, an event to be celebrated annually hereafter. Hundreds of the university's alumni already have made reservations for the game. The program of entertainment for the visitors includes a parade, luncheon, class reunions and banquets and many other group entertainments.

After a week's work on new signals and formations especially designed for the Mustangs, the Frogs Monday resumed practice for their final game. They will finish their workouts today, only light practice being scheduled for Wednesday. Coaches Bell and Kubale are confident that their men will put up a great battle Thursday as the squad is in the best condition it has enjoyed all season. Every cripple, with the exception of Acker and Clark who were put out for the season with broken and dislocated shoulders, respectively, in the game with Centenary, has recovered and the team will have its full strength for the first time this year.

Reports from Dallas indicate that the Mustangs also are in good condition and ready for a supreme test against the Frogs. The Ponies still have a chance to win the conference title provided they beat T. C. U. and the Texas University downs the Aggies. The Frogs can finish in a tie for third by downing the Ponies.

The Frogs probable starting lineup will be as follows: Matthews and Steadman, ends; Jake Williams and Felix Reynolds, tackles; Brumelow and Fain Reynolds, guards; Melton, center; B. Williams, quarterback; Toler and Morgan, halves, and Thompson, fullback.

Oh, what is so rare as a day in November, in the Arctic zone?

Lonnie, 19-year-old cowboy of Ardmore, Okla., was crowned best all-around cowboy in the world at the Madison Square Garden rodeo in New York. Miss Craig of Thatcher, Colo., is said to be the best rider of bronchos and wild steers that her sex can boast.

Ponies and Frogs Are Both in Good Shape for Game

FORT WORTH—With the Thanksgiving day battle between the S. M. U. Mustangs and the T. C. U. Horned Frogs only three days off coaches of both teams report their squads in fine condition and confident of their ability to put up a real fight.

The game is given special significance as an annual T. C. U.-S. M. U. contest on account of it being the first annual homecoming game for the Horned Frogs. Hundreds of T. C. U. alumni have made reservations for the game.

Athletic Director L. C. Wright is confident that all attendance records for a local football game will be broken. Practically all of the best seats are gone but there are plenty of good seats still available which afford a clear view of the playing field, Wright said.

The game will start promptly at 2 o'clock, Wright announced.

In addition to its other attractions the game will have a direct bearing on the championship of the conference. Should the Mustangs win and Texas University should beat the Texas Aggies in their Turkey Day battle, the Ponies would be in a tie for the title with the Arkansas razorbacks.

Soldiers in the German army must serve 12-year enlistments.

Vote-Getter

As a vote-getter, George Cole, Arkansas quarterback, is there. The Razorback star who hopes to gain all-southwestern quarterback honors this year recently was elected president of the student body at his college by a two-to-one vote.

The last white chalk-line glistens just ahead;
Another football season passes on;
The last long forward pass will soon be sped;
And everything would be for the best in this best of all possible worlds if only we did not have to become embroiled in the annual post-season farcical, fruitless arguments over the "all-America" team.

Now in the days when the late Walter Camp, father of football, was recognized as the name of the official "all-America" team, the matter was simplicity itself. In those days, you could take your "all-America," or leave it alone. The names of anywhere from three to seven or eight Yale men adorned the roster of the "first team," and nobody cared much one way or another.

Nowadays, there are a great many people who care a great deal, which is why it is unfortunate, to my mind, that numerous self-appointed successors to Walter Camp continue to attempt with ludicrous gravity, to name "all-America" eleven. It can't be done. A consensus means no more than the studied opinion of an expert. With football, and cracking good football, too, played in every corner of the land, now is anyone to say who are the eleven best players?

In the days when Walter Camp made his annual selections, inter-sectional games were infrequent. Football men in the south and middle west and on the Pacific coast were content to take it for granted that Camp must be right, and that most of the game's giants wore blue jerseys and posed on the famous senior fence beneath the graceful elms of New Haven.

And if Harvard and Princeton, Pennsylvania and Cornell, with maybe now and then Chicago or Michigan, had not enrolled all the really good football players in the land—well, it would just have been the height of lese majesty to say so.

Nowadays we know that the light of many a Coy and Heston was hidden beneath a bushel in what then constituted the gridiron hinterland. Today we discover and recognize these youngsters who run and kick and pass like Jim Thorpe himself, for all their alma mater hasn't as yet afforded a $10,000,000 stadium.

It was impossible, this season, to say that any one team was the best in the country.

When the class of the game is so wide-spread (and one man can watch no more than one game each Saturday) it seems to me that attempting to establish some standard whereby 11 players can be declared the best

Delegation Of Ranger People At Bus Hearing

Ranger was represented at the hearing today in Mineral Wells before the Texas railroad commission of motor bus operators, by Wayne C. Hickey, secretary of the Ranger chamber of commerce, E. F. Murphy, manager of the Cholson Hotel, Maurice Rish of the West Texas Coaches company and G. A. Longley of the Longley Stage line.

At yesterday's session the two chief protagonists were the West Texas Coaches, Inc., and the Lone Star Stage line, both having Fort Worth as the eastern terminus and each serving jointly such cities as Weatherford, Mineral Wells, Breckenridge, Ranger, Eastland, Cisco and Abilene. In addition each line has other important stations where competition is not direct.

Application by the Lone Star Stage Line to buy the permit now held by W. A. McClann for the bus line between Breckenridge and Lamesa, which will give this company its own route from Fort Worth to the South Plains of Texas, proved to be the high point of interest in the first day's session.

During the morning the West Texas Coaches, Inc., announced that application is now being made by them at Austin for the operation of through busses from Sweetwater, their present western terminus, to El Paso. It was explained that such a schedule would not seek to eliminate other bus operators between Sweetwater and points between there and El Paso, but was designed to aid them.

Breach of Contract Is Alleged in Suit

R. A. Henderson has brought suit in the Eastland county district court against J. I. Foster, also of Eastland county for approximately $5,000 for damages alleged to have been sustained when the defendant breached a contract to lease to the plaintiff a sheep and goat ranch in Uvalde county and also when the defendant breached an agreement to make a certain real estate deal in which plaintiff's Eastland county property was being considered at a certain value.

is an unfortunate form of self-indulgence.

In a few days, we will be selecting an "all-America" eleven, and upholding its merits to anyone who will listen.

Freshmen of T. C. U. Will Meet Ranger Junior College

T. C. U.'s freshmen eleven went through its final workout Tuesday in preparation for the battle on Frog field Wednesday with Coach Tricky Ward's Ranger junior college eleven.

Coach "Dutch" Meyer of the Pollywogs is pleased with the showing made this year by his men and is confident that they will give the Ranger team a real battle. The freshmen are undefeated so far this year, having downed the Ranger high Bulldogs Deatur Baptist college and Weatherford college.

The Ranger college-Freshmen game will serve as a curtain-raiser for the Thanksgiving Day game Thursday between the T. C. U. varsity and S. M. U.'s Mustangs, the Horned Frogs' first homecoming game.

A large crowd is expected to attend the Ranger-Pollywogs game as it will be the last opportunity fans will have to observe next year's varsity prospects in action.

The Pollywogs' probable starting lineup will be as follows: Robertson, and Baxter, ends; Swofford and Hopkins, tackles; Butler and Martin guards; Hirstine, center; Sain, quarterback; Lee and Dennis, halves, and Griffith, fullback.

Frankell Area Is Getting Number Of Tests For Oil

In the Frankell area, north of Ranger, several tests are holding the attention of Ranger oil men at present. Among these is the W. D. Conway et al, drilling now at 800 feet on the W. J. Gardinire, section 47 not far from Frankell. On the Riddle Heirs tract, in the same sector, Mook-Texas drill at 1960 feet, are reported as having struck a flow of water at that depth.

Coming nearer Ranger interest is centered on the outcome of the wildcat on the Powell well, east or town a few miles, which is being plugged back to an oil sand encountered at the bit went down, preparatory to shooting. Two shallow wells are reported near Eastland. One No. 3 Adamson and Bearman, on the N. N. Rosenquest is estimated as a 100 barrel per day well and the other, Fox No. 4, John W. Hooser of Dallas, south of Olden and an extension to the Parsons pool is reported as making the same amount of oil daily.

Traveler Seeks Aid, Enroute For Mother's Health

A young man, an ex-service man, and his 74 year old mother, traveling from New York state to New Mexico in an old 1926 model Ford touring car, were compelled to apply for charity in Eastland Sunday.

The boy, who was endeavoring to get his aged mother, who was very ill to New Mexico where he hoped her health would be benefited, had only $110 he stated, when they started from New York and had exhausted their funds when they reached Eastland.

Earl Bender, himself an ex-service man, helped the boy to get gasoline and took him to the Eastland post of the Salvation army, where help was given the couple, who proceeded on their way in search of health and comfort for the mother.

EASTLAND BOY NAMED PAGE IN SENATE OF U. S.

Milburn McCarty and Mother Will Leave Sunday For Washington.

Milburn McCarty, Jr., son of Judge and Mrs. Milburn McCarty of Eastland and a student in the Eastland high school where he is president of the junior class and assistant business manager of Hi-Life, the school paper, has received notice of his appointment as a page in the United States senate and with his mother will leave Eastland Sunday for Washington where Milburn will make preparations to enter upon his duties when congress convenes in December.

Milburn, who is only 15 years of age, has an unusual record of achievement for a boy of his age. In his school work he has always made splendid grades. He is proficient in school athletics and has always been active in all school activities.

During the fall of 1926 he was a page in the house of representatives during the special session of the 39th Texas legislature, and in January, 1927, entered the Texas senate as a page in that body. During the interim between the special session of the 39th and the convening of the regular session, he was the page for the senate finance committee and made a tour of the state with that committee, which took him to most all of the principal cities of the principal cities of the state. Following this he re-entered the senate as a page.

At the end of the special session in the fall of 1926 Milburn entered Austin high school where he completed his work for the fall term although he was three weeks late in entering. During last summer he attended Stewart's camp at or near Kerrville, where he made up the school work he missed during the spring.

While attending Austin high school Milburn represented the boys' class of that school in the state tennis tournament at Waco and won a loving cup in that contest. He was a member of the Austin athletic club.

For some time before going to Austin Milburn was a carrier boy on a paper route for the Eastland Telegram, where he showed marked ability. In this capacity he was very popular with everyone with whom he dealt. Patrons on his route frequently spoke to the management of the Telegram commending Milburn on his business like manner and his politeness and courtesy.

The appointment as page in the United States senate will afford Milburn opportunities seldom enjoyed by boys of especially boys of this section, and his friends are glad indeed that he is to have this opportunity as they know full well he is thoroughly capable and will make a good showing for himself.

ELKS POSTPONE ACTION ON CLUB IMPROVEMENTS

Final action by the Eastland Elks' club on improvements proposed for their clubhouse was postponed until next Monday night, at which time the building committee will have plans for the proposed improvements. A special meeting of the club was called for last night to consider the plans, which involve an expenditure of some $5,000 or $6,000.

Bohning Will Go To Dallas for Ford Dealers Meeting

Garrett Bohning of the Bohning Motor company, Eastland Ford dealer, will go to Dallas Thursday afternoon where he will attend a meeting of Ford dealers for the Dallas territory Friday. The meeting will open at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

While not even the dealers know anything about what information is to be given them at the Dallas meeting concerning the new Ford car, it is the opinion of many of them that at least something definite will be given them as to when they may expect cars.

EASTLAND FIREMEN TO GO TO STRAWN MEETING

Eastland firemen and members of the women's auxiliary are planning to attend the district firemen's meeting at Strawn on the night of Nov. 20th. The last turn at the top of the long flight that led into the gallery. I sped up the steps, three at a time. The house was crowded and we caused considerable commotion.

Hearing our racket and the cries of the audience, the house detective had followed me to the gallery. He demanded to know what was happening. I told him that I was an officer and that the justice I wanted was barricaded behind the door in the attic.

"I want you to help me to get him," I said, wiping frozen blood clot from my eyes, nose and mouth. My face was as raw as beefsteak and my clothes were torn and wrinkled from being yanked through the dirty snow at the end of Spencer's coat tails.

The detective forced the door and dragged Spencer out. When he emerged from the door in the clutter of the office's heavy hands, he held a roll of bills big enough to choke a cow. Perhaps he knew the sure way to an officer's heart.

Light Crisp Pastry Young cooks, as well as the more experienced, find that Rumford makes delicious pastry--that it makes all baked foods lighter and more wholesome--that it adds real food value.

Spencer had darted down the fire escape. I walked outside just in time to see him race down an alley and turn a corner. A door stood open and, quick as a flash, he banked it between us and shoved the lock into place.

A doctor from Rochester, Minnesota, occupied the room next to mine and he attended to the dressing of my injuries. I was more seriously battered up than I thought and I was kept wrapped in bandages for ten days. During this time, I was in daily communication with the police.

Out Our Way

Prevention Of Diphtheria Now Is Being Urged

This is the season of the year when those who have children get terribly frightened whenever there are complaints of sore throats. We wonder if the present generation can quite appreciate the terrors of a people when epidemics of diphtheria came before the days of anti-toxin. A child with diphtheria is usually extremely sick—much sicker than would appear to be warranted from the amount of fever. The temperature is usually from 102 to 103 degrees, which is not high for a child. The little patient is listless and the skin is usually pale. A child may, however, have such a light attack that he does not even feel ill enough to go to bed. Symptoms as described should warn the parents so that a physician is called early. The doctor will examine the throat carefully, and if there are whitish membranes on the throat or nose he will take small bits of the growth and examine it thoroughly under the microscope. If diphtheria bacteria are found, he will return very soon and give the child an injection of diphtheria antitoxin. The whitish membranes will soon begin to disappear from the throat and nose. By the Schick test we can now tell if a child is in danger of taking diphtheria after being exposed. The test is made by placing a bit of the toxin upon a scratch on the skin. If the child is in danger of taking the disease, a red area will appear within 48 hours about the spot upon which the toxin was placed.

It is no longer necessary for any child to have diphtheria. Complete immunity against the disease develops in about eight months after three injections of the toxin-antitoxin. When this result is contrasted with what happened 50 years ago, one must marvel at the advancements of medical science. The parent who refuses to have diphtheria anti-toxin used upon his child with diphtheria is certainly negligent. However, only an occasional incident of this sort ever happens any more.

A. C. C. Orchestra Renders Program At High School

The fine arts program given last night at Ranger high school by the Abilene Christian college orchestra and quartet, was one of the finest heard in Ranger in many months. The attendance was not what it should have been and a very small sum was netted by the pep squad. The program was well arranged and well rendered and the sponsors of the pep squad feel very grateful to J. Sullivan Gibson, director and Miss Yetta Mitchell, reader, for the interest they showed in putting the program over. The program was divided in three groups. The first group was composed of two marches, one "Spirit of the Hour" and the other "Happy Hours," a serenade, "Romanza" and an overture "Poet and Peasant." Miss Mitchell added tow readings to this group. The second group was in charge of the orchestra and the college quartet, the latter being heartily endorsed after each number. The third group had for its numbers "Men Homme" fox trot; "Cupid's Appeal" serenade; "Me and My Shadow" fox trot and "Aloha" waltz.

Tax Reduction Be First Order When Congress Meets

By PAUL R. MALLON, United Press Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Tax reduction will be the first order of business when congress meets Dec. 5, leaders of both parties in both houses are agreed.

The preliminary bill now is being concluded by the house ways and means committee and it will be ready for presentation to the house itself the day congress is called to order. Chairman Green of the committee believes he can get the measure through in the two weeks before the Christmas recess and send it to the senate where final action is expected long before the initial income tax payments are made next March 15. This is the fourth tax reduction to be attempted since the war and leaders in congress want it to get back as far as possible to normal levies. Of course they point out that the war still is continuing as far as taxes are concerned. War expenses incurred such a heavy national debt that it will be some years yet before the final penny is paid. But the bill as finally passed will be designed primarily to remove as much of the war burden as possible and equalize levies for the remaining portion.

Both republicans and democrats are agreed that the corporations tax should come in for the lion's share of the reduction. The normal income rates adopted in the last reduction went just about as far as it is logical to go with personal income levies, they say.

Corporations, they add, have been paying 13 1-2 per cent of their profits since the excess profits tax was repealed. This tax, it is contended by many tax experts, has been passed by the corporations on to the consumers. Reduction of this tax should ordinarily result in a little decrease in the price of manufactured goods all along the line, they say.

Because of this general agreement, the contest this year over taxes has incited no great interest. The chief dispute centers around how much the corporations tax should be cut.

Treasury acturaries say that every single per cent lopped off the 13 1-2 per cent of tax will deprive the government of $90,000,000 in revenue.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon says the reduction should not go below 12 per cent; democrats want it to go to 10 per cent. Another important point of dispute is over the automobile tax. The present levy of 3 per cent on passenger cars was recommended for retention by Mellon but the automobile industry and motorists organizations say the tax is the last of the excise war levies and that it should be abolished, just as taxes on yachts, works of art and jewelry have been abolished.

With a presidential election year in the offing, both republicans and democrats are expected to put up a determined fight but in the end the bill will represent—no matter who wins—a big definite step toward placing federal taxation where it was before the world war.

Utilities Concern Sued for $35,000 Damages by Girl

Bernice Gilbreath, a minor, suing by her next friend Noah Gilbreath, has brought suit in the Eastland county district court against the West Texas Utilities company in which she seeks to recover $35,000 damages for alleged injuries sustained by her on May 14, 1927, when she came in contact with a live wire of the defendants near the home of her father, Noah Gilbreath, on the Burns lease in Coleman county. Plaintiff alleges that the defendant carelessly and negligently constructed and maintained the high voltage line and that she came in contact with a guy wire attached to the main line, which was charged with electricity and by reason of such contact was permanently injured.
