TWO BLOCKS BURN IN MEXIA FIRE

Bankhead Contract Awarded

PROJECT TO BE COMPLETED IN TWELVE MONTHS

Work Will Start as Soon as State Department Approves Contract.

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, Jan. 14.—Construction of the Bankhead highway between Ranger and Cisco is to start in approximately ten days and be completed in one year's time, under the terms of the contract let this afternoon by the commissioners' court to Smith Bros., contractors, of Crockett, Texas.

The highway is to be brick surfaced the entire distance and the construction will include a cut under the Texas & Pacific tracks near Ranger and a giant viaduct at Cisco. Other specifications under the contract call for a rock base, sand cushion, asphalt filler, and asphalt macadam shoulders. The project will cost in the neighborhood of $806,000, in addition to the work already done, of which half is paid by state and federal aid.

Following the meeting this afternoon James Smith, representing the contractors, stated that the formal contract between the company and the county would be signed Tuesday and that it would be sent to Austin for approval. Work will be started, he stated, just as soon as the company is notified of the state's approval. Eastland county labor and material will be used so far as is possible, Smith said. It is understood that the construction company will make bond for one-third of the value of the contract, as required by law.

The cut under the Texas & Pacific tracks south of Ranger will be constructed by raising the present railroad bridge over the creek near the Prairie company's yard and lowering the present creek bed. The county will spend $15,000 for the work and the railroad $7,500. The viaduct over the Katy tracks at Cisco will cost $80,000. The county is to pay $830,000 of this amount and the railroad $50,000. Under the contract with Cisco, the city is to build the approach to the viaduct.

The Bankhead highway will enter Ranger from the east via Hunt street and after crossing the Texas & Pacific at the station, turns south on Commerce street to the Prairie company's material yards, where it will dip under the tracks and proceed to Eastland on the east side of the tracks and thence to Cisco.

NOT ONE-FOURTH OF VOTERS HERE HAVE PAID TAX

Thirty-one poll tax receipts were issued from the office of the deputy tax collector here yesterday afternoon, bringing the total now on the books to 382 with 28 exemption certificates issued to persons who have become 21 since Jan. 1, 1921, or who have passed the age limit of 61. The present number of poll taxes paid is thought to represent less than one-fourth of the voting strength of the city.

It is reported from Eastland that approximately 4,000 poll taxes have been paid there to date, or nearly half the number paid last year. The time limit for the payment of poll taxes expires at midnight, Jan. 31.

BURCH JURY STILL SPLIT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14.—The jury in the case of Arthur C. Burch, unable to reach a verdict after twenty-four hours deliberation on the charge of murder of J. Belton Kennedy, Aug. 5, communicated with the judge today and he then left for his home, saying that he would not return to court until 9:30 o'clock Monday morning, unless the jury sent for him.

SUIT FILED TO ANNUL ROAD BONDS

Eastland Lawyers Allege That Tax Levy for Issue Is Higher Than State Constitution and Special Road Law Permit.

Special to the Times.

EASTLAND, Jan. 14.—Citations were served today on a dozen or more defendants in the suit filed here Monday in Ninety-first district court by Chastain, Judkins & Chastain, attacking the validity of the entire $4,500 road bond issue. The suit is filed by O. F. Chastain, Frank Judkins and C. P. Chastain as tax payers and names county officials, contractors and bond firms as defendants.

Attacking the constitutionality of the bond issue, the plaintiffs ask that "all the bond issues in excess of $500,000 be cancelled and declared null and void and that the commissioners court of said county be forever restrained from levying or collecting from these plaintiffs or from any other taxpayer of Eastland county any tax in excess of 15 cents on the $100 valuation for the purpose of paying interest or creating a sinking fund to pay said bonds at maturity."

Defendants in the suit are: County Judge C. R. Starnes, County Commissioners Webb, Camp, Robertson and Stubblefield; G. A. Davison, owner of the Fleming & Stitzer Road Building company; John S. Hart, county tax collector; Stacy & Brown and Harold G. Wise & Co. The last two firms named handled $2,000,000 in Eastland county road bonds. The petition follows in part:

"Unconstitutional? Plaintiffs further show the court, that said bond issue is in contravention also of Article 8, section 9, of the constitution of this state as amended by proclamation of Jan. 7, 1907, which said article and section reads as follows: 'No county, city or town shall levy more than 15 cents on the $100 valuation for roads and bridges provided the legislature may also authorize the levy of an additional ad valorem tax to be levied for the further maintenance of the public roads, provided that a majority of the property tax paying voters may so vote, not to exceed 15 cents on the $100 valuation in said county,' and in this connection plaintiffs show the court that the taxable values of Eastland county for the year 1919 was in round numbers the sum of $24,000,000 and that a special tax of 15 cents on the $100 valuation will not authorize a bond issue in excess of $500,000 and that the said bond issue insofar as the same is in excess of half a million dollars is null and void.

"These plaintiffs further show the court that said $4,500,000 bond issue is null and void and illegal in that same is in direct contravention of the act of the legislature of this state, creating a road system for Eastland county, which said act was approved and became effective on June 17, 1920 (and which is the law under which a large part of the said road bonds were issued and sold), provides in section 21 of said act as follows: 'Provided that in no case, shall the said (commissioners) court issue bonds under this act, for a greater sum or amount, than a levy of 15 cents on the $100 property valuation of said county, will yield a sufficient revenue, to pay such interest as it accrues and will at the same time, create a sinking fund, sufficient to pay the principal of such bonds at maturity' and these plaintiffs show the court that said act provided for the issuance of bonds for the purpose of building roads in Eastland county, and that by the direct provisions of said law, the said bond issue is illegal, null and void to the extent of its excess over said statutory limitation, and

HIGH SCHOOL WILL OVERFLOW AFTER EXAMS

One of the Central Ward school rooms will be taken up by the High school to accommodate the influx of pupils from the four ward schools after the winter examinations this week. The examinations will start Tuesday and continue through the week and are expected to be followed by the promotion of fifty or sixty pupils from the Cooper, Young, Central and Merriman ward schools. Part of the new pupils will be accommodated in the ward school room taken over by the High school and others will be scattered over the High school rooms in the few empty seats left.

OPERATORS TO IGNORE HOWAT'S FOLLOWERS

PITTSBURG, Kan., Jan. 14.—"No miner who has been working will be discharged to make a place for a striking miner," Ira Clemens, president of the Southwestern Interstate Coal association, said in a statement this afternoon.

FOUR TEXANS NAMED FOR AGRICULTURAL CONFAB

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The number who have accepted invitation to sit in the national agricultural conference called to meet in Washington Jan. 23 was brought to 238 tonight when Secretary Wallace made public an additional list of ninety-four names.

The list as announced included the names of Clarence Ousley, Fort Worth, Texas, former assistant secretary of agriculture; Joseph Hirsch, Corpus Christi, Texas, president of the American Bankers' association; J. C. Orr, Dallas, president Farm Bureau, and Sam Cowan, Fort Worth, cattleman.

ARBUCKLE JURY NOT COMPLETED IN FOURTH DAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Inability of opposing counsel to complete the jury today in the second manslaughter trial of Roscoe Armbuckle led to the belief that the trial would not begin until Tuesday. Defense attorneys expressed the opinion that this trial would take at least as long as the first one, which occupied three weeks. The jury box has been filled six times since the trial opened last Wednesday, but the use of six peremptory challenges has lengthened the process of selection. Eleven temporary jurors were in the box at adjournment today and examination of a twelfth was virtually completed.

The crowd which waited in front of the hall of justice the first few days to see the notable figures in the case pass by are no longer to be seen, according to court employees.

The case is attracting less public interest than the ordinary criminal case.

MEXICO'S BEST VOLCANO SLINGING ASHES AROUND

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 14.—Popocatepetl volcano, which again has awakened, is belching from its crater an enormous quantity of ashes that are hurled far over the country, according to a message received today by La Prensa, a Spanish language newspaper published here. Snow, which always covers the summit of the volcano, has melted, and observers believe that an eruption is due.

CARDS TO KEEP SAME TEAM.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 14.—Manager Branch Rickey of the Cardinals plans to start the 1922 championship race with virtually the same team that finished in third place last year. Rickey declared today that he had made numerous attempts to strengthen his pitching and catching staff by trading but that all deals of any consequence fell through. He said he does not expect to transact any deals which would have any important effect on his club's chances for the pennant.

JAPS TO BUILD AIRCRAFT FLEET SECOND TO NONE

156 Planes Now Figured on to Offset Decrease in War-ship Strength.

By Associated Press.

TOKIO, Jan. 14.—Heads of the Japanese navy, faced by the decision of the arms conference at Washington to cut Japan's naval strength in accordance with the 5-5-3 ratio, plan to give the mikado a great air force of 156 planes, six balloons and four airships.

In the words of Captain Takahashi, director of the aerial bureau of the naval office, Japan "will insist on at least the same aerial strength as England or America."

Japan has at present only one airplane carrier, with a displacement of 3,875 tons, but when her new vessel of this type, the Houchi, is launched, she will rank next to England in number of carriers, America being third with one.

BARON KATO SAYS ARMS MEET PROMOTES FRIENDSHIP

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The advancement of American-Japanese friendship has been signally promoted by the Washington conference, Admiral Baron Kato, senior Japanese delegate to the conference, said tonight in an address before the Japanese society.

"In a few short weeks," he said, "we have dissipated the clouds that marred the naturally clear and happy skies of the Pacific."

Two months ago," Baron Kato continued, "we heard the talk of a possible war. Today we are contemplating an established peace. Early in November the newspapers frequently used such phrases as 'conflict of interest,' 'supremacy of the seas' and 'menacing aggressions.' Today we are talking more in terms of 'understanding,' 'accord' and 'co-operation,' and the principal criticism of Japan nowadays is that she does not agree quite as quickly as you make proposals for accord."

FORD PEEVED AT DELAY IN MUSCLE SHOALS DEAL

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Henry Ford in a statement tonight declared that Secretary Weeks was apparently delaying settlement of the Muscle Shoals proposition and that the fertilizer trust, the power and chemical interests of Wall street, the money brokers and other interests that fear to have a success made of a proposition that will serve all the people are deluging Weeks and congress with literature that grossly misrepresents the facts.

"This is not a political matter," he added, "to be bandied and juggled about. Why doesn't Secretary Weeks take it or leave it, as he would a private business matter? I repeat that now, after six months, he is still asking what appear to me as irrelevant questions and delaying the settlement of this matter. We didn't want Muscle Shoals for selfish purposes in the first place, hanged if we care very much whether or not we get it now. We did not make the government a selfish business proposition. It was an industrial philanthropy which we offered."

TURK LEADER SLAIN?

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Mustapha Kemal Pasha, Turkish Nationalist leader, has been murdered, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Constantinople, quoting reports from Ankara, the Turkish Nationalist capital.

SEAPLANE MISSING.

MIAMI, Jan. 14.—Former subchasers and seaplanes searched today for the flying boat New York, which left here late yesterday for Bimini with three passengers. Word was received here that it had not reached its destination and it is believed to be floating disabled at sea.

DYNAMITE FAILS TO BLOCK FLAMES' PATH

Telephone Exchange, Bank and Oil Office Among Buildings Destroyed; Started in Restaurant, Leaped Street.

By Associated Press.

MEXIA, Jan. 14.—Fire damaged the business section of Mexia to the extent of $500,000 to $2,000,000 early tonight, according to first estimates. The blaze, after raging two hours, practically burned itself out shortly after 9 o'clock and danger of a general conflagration was thought to be over. A cordon of guards was placed around the burned area. Local police and civilians were assisting the state troop and rangers. General Wolters took personal command of the situation.

The fire is reported to have started in a Commerce street cafe about 6 o'clock, and fanned by a high wind spread to other buildings. Two entire blocks on either side of Commerce street are reported to have been destroyed before the fire was got under control at 9 o'clock.

Buildings reported to have been destroyed were the Ross & Green building, the Pitt Oil Exchange, the Prendergast & Smith bank, Roller's Drug Store, the telephone exchange, the Wells building and the Petroleum building.

The largest loss in the fire was by the Ross & Green and Prendergast & Smith companies, the latter a banking concern. The Southwestern Bell Telephone company's plant was located over the rooms of the banking concern. The structure was dynamited in the effort to save other buildings. The other business houses and concerns burned were restaurants and news stands.

An inadequate water supply rendered fighting the flames virtually impossible.

The fire started in the Ross & Green building, near the depot, and jumped across the street to the banking house and telephone office.

LIMESTONE COUNTY ATTORNEY IS CHARGED WITH BOOZE CONSPIRACY

By Associated Press.

WACO, Jan. 14.—County Attorney Eubanks of Limestone county and fifteen others were brought to this city late this afternoon and arraigned before United States Commissioner McCormick, charged with violation of the United States liquor laws and conspiracy. Eubanks was released under a bond of $1,000 while the others were locked up in the county jail. Among them was Deputy Sheriff Steale of Eastland, charged with resisting an officer. It was said at the time of his arrest he attempted to knock a revolver away from the hands of a Ranger. McCormick when questioned as to the identity of the men arrested refused to answer and barred newspaper men from his office. It was stated by a federal agent working on the Mexia case that twenty-five more prisoners will be brought to this city in the morning. They are now being held in the camp of the national guard at Mexia.

SNCLAIR STRIKES OIL AND GAS ON EITHER SIDE OF DRY HOLE

To drill a dry hole between a good producer and a good-sized gasser is the unusual experience of the Sinclair company, it developed Saturday when its Davis No. 4 struck a strong flow of gas at a little more than 1,800 feet. The gas itself was a surprise, as this territory—opened up by Barney Carter with his first Lankford well—has shown virtually none heretofore.

The Sinclair, offsetting the Carter well, got a good producer in the Davis No. 3, and immediately started work on Nos. 4 and 5. No. 5, off setting No. 3, was as dry as a Mexia bootlegger since the rangers raided. Then No. 4 struck the gas, which is scarcely noticeable two locations away, and there is a possibility that it will also make an oil well, as there is still more than 100 feet to go before the oil depth is reached. The gas was estimated when struck at 1,000,000 feet, and increased during the day to 2,000,000 feet.

LESS WASHIN' LAST YEAR

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Jan. 14.—Employees in the laundry industry in Texas decreased during 1921, according to figures announced by Joseph S. Myers, state commissioner of labor.

The recent survey of industrial conditions in Texas, conducted by the state bureau of labor statistics, covered, among other industries, 118 laundries.

In December, 1920, there was employed in the laundries 1,511 males and 3,181 females, a total of 4,692. In December, 1921, there was employed in the same places 1,423 males and 2,560 females, a total of 3,983, or 709 less than the previous year.

Forty-four laundries reported no change in their wage scales during the year. Fifty-nine made reductions, averaging 15 per cent; thirteen increased wages an average of 21 per cent, and two failed to report on this subject.

BIG GASSER IN M'MULLEN

By Associated Press.

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 14.—A 50,000,000-foot gas well blew in in McMillen county today, according to a telephone message received by W. M. Stephenson, president of the Grubstake Investment association, owner of the well, from his son, Donald. The company now has three wells with a capacity of 118,000,000 feet. A movement is on foot to pipe the supply to San Antonio.

FIVE KILLED IN EXPLOSION AT MT. PLEASANT

Blast at Sawmill-Gin Wrecks Havoc; Three Others Badly Hurt.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Texas, Jan. 14.—Five persons are dead and three others seriously injured, one probably fatally, as a result of an explosion at the sawmill of George Parsons near here today. The mill was demolished, the boiler being blown 300 feet through a pile of timber. The dead are:

GEORGE PARSONS, 50. THOMAS PARSONS, 16, son of George Parsons.

LOUIS HAYS, 34. HENRY CHURCHWELL, 34. LOUIS EVANS.

The injured: A man named Parker, leg and arm broken; Cary Graham, broken arm and internal injuries; DeSoto Martin, internally injured, not expected to recover.

The heads of George Parsons and Louis Hays were blown from their shoulders.

Parsons operated a combination sawmill and cotton gin. Churchwell had just driven into the gin yard with a load of logs. Parker had just finished having a bale of cotton ginned.

The exact cause of the explosion is not known. After the blast the vicinity of the mill looked as though a cyclone had struck it, logs and timbers being scattered in all directions. A rescuing party is engaged in clearing the debris to ascertain if there are any more fatalities. All available physicians of Mount Pleasant responded to the call for help.

PERIL HOVERS OVER RESCUERS IN WRECKED MINE

By Associated Press.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 14.—Despite the continued efforts of rescuing parties today to reach the three men entombed in the National mine of the Glen-Alden Coal company, no trace of them has been found. Crews maintained in relays toiled late into the night, however, to find the victims. All hopes of finding the men alive tonight was abandoned by the rescuers. During the day they found three caps and two mine lamps thought to have been worn by the entombed men, but the hazardous position prevented their progress, forcing them to leave their posts until the soil had settled.

Inside the mine great havoc was in evidence. The tremendous pressure of air, forced through the gangways when the roof fell, blew heavy wooden doors from their hinges and snapped in two the large props which supported the roofs. This, coupled with the fact that the cavern has not subsided, has jeopardized the work of the rescuers, placing them in constant danger of being trapped.

MILAN NAMED MANAGER OF WASHINGTON TEAM

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Clyde Milan, outfielder, will be the manager of the Washington American league baseball club this season, it was announced today by President Clark Griffith.

Milan is a native of Tennessee and has been a member of the local team since 1907, when he was obtained from the Wichita club of the Western league.

As pilot he succeeds George McBride, who resigned last month, due to illness resulting from an injury received on the field last season.

TO DISCUSS RAILWAY AID.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representatives of 1,400 business organizations within the membership of the United States Chamber of Commerce and comprising the national council of that body, will meet in Washington Feb. 8 and 9 to discuss amelioration of the railroad situation, it was announced today. A constructive plan to help the situation will be presented by a committee which has been studying the railroad situation.

MERCHANTS SEE GOOD BUSINESS DURING SPRING

Ranger merchants are already preparing for a brisk spring business here and are arranging to import the latest in spring stocks. E. M. Humes, of Humes' women's ready-to-wear store, will leave this morning on a three weeks' buying trip to the East and North. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Humes and will visit New York, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis.

PREACHER PROMISES REVELATIONS TONIGHT

Some interesting facts about Ranger are promised tonight by the Rev. A. N. Stubblebine of the First Presbyterian church in a sermon on "The Only Way Out of the Dark." Souvenirs will be given every person attending the service, it is announced.

PREACHER TO DISCUSS PETTING PARTIES, ETC.

Rev. J. G. Winsett returned last night from the town of his birth, Del Rio, where he has not been for twenty-two years. He spent a busy week with relatives and boyhood friends and reports that Mexico is still wet and that oil has been found in eighteen-foot wells near Del Rio.

SUIT FILED TO ANNULL ROAD BONDS

Continued from Page 1. that said bond issue to all over and above the sum of one-half million dollars is null and void, and that the said tax levy of any sum over 15 cents to pay interest and create a sinking fund is null and void and is and constitutes a taking of property and money from these plaintiffs and from every taxpayer in Eastland county without due process of law.

NEW STYLES AND LOWER PRICES MAKE 1922 AUTOS HARD TO BEAT

With substantial reductions in the prices of 1922 models and many added features, automobile dealers of Ranger are offering double values in cars, with every indication that the automobile business in Ranger as well as in other cities over the country, is on the upgrade. Many of the new models have cord tires this year or other changes in the type of accessories and improvements which have been added by the manufacturers at an increased cost to themselves despite the reductions.

DANCE HALL CLOSED; PARENTS WARNED TO WATCH CHILDREN

A warning to Ranger parents to pay more attention to the associates of their young daughters, was issued last night by Chief of Police Luther Davenport in commenting on the closing of a dance hall on South Hodges street a few nights ago. Conditions at the dance hall were intolerable, the chief stated, and quoted the proprietor as stating that he could not control the actions of the men and young girls who frequented his place.

reduced from $1,885 to $1,595, delivered. Even greater reductions have been made in the closed models of both the Studebaker and Nash cars. As usual nothing has been left off the new Studebaker and Nash cars that can add to the comfort, performance or beauty of the new models.

Speaking of Fords, Ed R. Maher of the Leveille-Maher Motor company, stated, "there is no slacking up in the birthrate and the new 1922 arrivals are even surpassing the traditions of the older generations and are greater values this year than ever before. Use your imagination in telling about them and you can't go wrong."

BASKETBALL TEAMS PUT IN FOUR GROUPS

EASTLAND, Jan. 14.—Eastland county was divided into four basketball divisions this afternoon at a meeting of faculty representatives of the various schools of the county here to arrange a schedule for the season. The divisions roughly follow the precincts. Eastland and Cisco are the two main towns in one division, Ranger and Olden in a second, Gorman and Desdemona in a third and Rising Star and Carbon in the last division.

CARBON BEATS EASTLAND. EASTLAND, Jan. 14.—The Carbon High school basketball team this afternoon defeated the Eastland High by a score of 32 to 8.

HUNDRED THOUSAND SUIT FILED AGAINST TWO TEXAS LEAGUERS

HOUSTON, Jan. 14.—Neither Ex-President Walter Morris nor J. Doak Roberts, present president of the Texas league, showed any marked concern when notified here this afternoon that along with Ike Sablosky they had been made defendants in a $100,000 damage suit brought by Ham Patterson of Dallas.

This is the time that most people's fiscal year ends. It just has to.

WOMAN AMONG FIVE ARRESTED AT GROESBECK

WACO, Jan. 14.—United States Deputy Marshal W. F. Eakin arrived here from Groesbeck this afternoon with four men and a woman charged with violation of the federal liquor law. They are Garrett Carter, Jim Speele, T. G. Stafford, Claude Riley and Mrs. Minnie Hawkins. The five were arrested in Freestone county. They were placed in jail following complaints being filed.

When you see a picture of Mr. Balfour and Baron Kato standing side by side it seems funny to speak of the baron as a high contracting party.—Ohio State Journal.

Wanted — Second-hand furniture. Wright Furniture Co., 207 South Rusk street. Phone 154.—Advertisement.

SORES DEVELOPED IN CHILDREN'S MOUTHS

Caused by Acid Stomach. "My two children have been troubled for several years with acid stomach. They had it so bad that sores appeared in the mouth. I tried doctors and many other preparations but the children did not get any better. I have given them one box of FERRASAL and the sores are all healed and I am convinced it will cure them. I shall always keep FERRASAL in my home. I have told my friends about it and they too are taking it."

WOMAN RETURNS HISTORIC FLAG TO OHIO VETERAN

Banner Stolen From Veteran Confederates by Quaker Girls in Virginia.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Jan. 14.—Lying in folds across a chair in the office of General Warren Keifer is an old American flag. It has come to him by parcel post, and with it a letter written in a quaint, old-fashioned hand. The bunting still is clean and freshly colored, and has been well preserved against time's tooth.

The last time General Keifer saw the flag was on the evening of June 15, 1863. It then was floating above a fort on the hill which overlooks Winchester, Va.

That night Union forces, under General Milroy, evacuated their position, and cutting their way through a badly arranged obstructing force escaped capture at the hands of a Confederate division commanded by General Ewell, who had been dispatched by General Robert E. Lee to make them prisoners.

Lee then was preparing the historical drive into Pennsylvania, which had its momentous ending at Gettysburg, and he planned picking off Milroy's men as an integral part of his operations.

Ewell, after two days' campaigning, believed he surrounded Milroy. Indeed, the Union commander seriously contemplated surrender, but was dissuaded by Keifer and other subordinate commanders.

On the 15th it was decided to abandon the artillery and other trains and make a "break-out." The movement was a success.

The Confederates seized the abandoned material and hauled down the flag which had been left flying to deceive pickets into believing the fort was occupied. This later was abstracted by a group of loyal girls and given to Annie Jackson, a young Quaker. It was concealed, and at one time worn as an undershirt to prevent confiscation.

The letter which came with the flag was written by Mrs. Annie Jackson Reese, its guardian, now an aged widow living in Winchester, and was presented to General Keifer to be placed in Ohio's war archives.

It likely will be sent to Columbus to be placed in the relic room of the Ohio Historical and Archaeological society in its building on the campus of the Ohio State university.

General Keifer will contribute a short sketch of the historical incident in which it was a figure, and in it pay an enduring tribute to the little Quaker girl, who dared to prove her loyalty by rescuing her country's emblem from dishonorable captivity.

INHERITS SOFT JOB ON MUNICIPAL PAYROLL

BRUSH, Colo., Jan. 14.—A. D. Leerskov, well known Brush official, is a man of titles. Here's what he does for a living: city manager, superintendent of water works, superintendent of streets, clerk and recorder, superintendent of sewers, plumbing inspector, fire chief, police magistrate and electrical inspector.

When things are quiet he attends to the duty of cemetery sexton. His father held all the jobs before him.

EXHAUST FUMES ASPHYXIAE TWO IN CLOSED GARAGE

IOWA FALLS, Iowa, Jan. 14.—Thomas Cosgrove and Charles Borschel Jr., both of this city, were found asphyxiated in a private garage here. When found their car was still running. The supposition is that they drove into the garage, closed the door and tarried a few minutes to visit and were overcome by the fumes from the exhaust.

'SPANISH FAD' LATEST THING IN PARIS LIFE

BY WILFRID FLEISHER
By United Press.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—This is the Spanish season in Paris, everything Spanish is in vogue.

Theatres are giving Spanish plays, vaudeville dancers are performing to the sound of castanettes, orchestras are playing Spanish melodies, crowds are swaying in dance halls to Spanish tunes, art exhibits are favoring Spanish artists, people are reading Spanish novels, and women are affecting Spanish wear.

There seems to be no other reason for the Spanish vogue than that life in Paris goes by fads, and this is the latest and most startling fad Paris has produced since the war.

The Spanish craze has taken the theatres by storm. From the opera house to the cheapest vaudeville, Spain holds sway. A new one-act operette entitled "Spanish Time" has been given at the opera house where it has been acclaimed as one of the most successful modern productions of recent years. The famous novel of Blasco Ibanez, "In the Shadow of the Cathedral" has been dramatized and is being played to a crowded house at the Opera Comie. Spanish numbers figure in almost every variety show and three review houses: the Folies Bergeres, the Alhambra and the Olympia are now featuring Spanish numbers.

But the Spanish craze is not alone revolutionizing the activities of Parisians; it is about to decree what "Parisienne" shall wear, and, according to an advance hint given the United Press by a well known dress-maker of the rue Royale, bright yellow is to be the popular color for spring gowns, with bright red for evening wear, with black Spanish lace overdress.

RABBI'S RECONCILIATION PLAN ENDS IN TRAGEDY

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Rabbi Harold L. Shenson, seeking to compose differences between Mr. and Mrs. Mark Port, members of his congregation, invited them to his home here, and then left them alone in his parlor while he went for a walk.

He returned to find Port in a serious condition from a bullet wound in the neck and Mrs. Port suffering from the effects of poison. The police said apparently the woman had shot Port and then taken poison. At the emergency hospital it was said Port probably would recover, but that his wife might die.

TO THE PEOPLE OF EASTLAND COUNTY—

Nearly two years ago I was defeated trying to win the office of County Clerk which I am now a candidate for again.

I am a young man who was born and reared on a farm in Eastland county and whose interest is in the welfare of the good people of this county.

Since I have a good education and have had the experience in this office under the past three clerks with the present incumbent included, I think myself able to take care of any problems that might arise.

Thanking you in advance for the many favors which you may render me, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

ERNEST JONES.

LIGHTS NEEDED.
 Four merchants of Ranger have endorsed the proposal to light up Main street—a plan which has the merit of combining low construction cost with low operating expense.

Ranger's downtown district should be lighted at night. There is no question but what the life of a town is in proportion to the amount of illumination. Whether it is lighted because it is a live town or is a live town because it is lighted makes no difference. The fact is true in either case.

This proposition will not be put over, however, by merely saying,
 "That's good." As with any other accomplishment, it will take some action toward bringing about a concerted movement. But if business men who will themselves benefit will line up others, then in a short time
 the plan will be in workable shape.

FORGETMENOTS.
 A substantial increase in the rate
 of poll tax payments is encouraging.
 But Ranger has not started yet in taking out its proper portion of voting licenses—which is practically what the poll tax payment amounts to.

There are only fifteen days left.
 Why not save yourself inconvenience and the Chamber of Commerce force from nervous prostration by dropping around now instead of waiting for the last hour of the last day in January?

Without going into details, it may safely be asserted that you will want a poll tax receipt when July rolls around.

DOES PENNSYLVANIA COUNT?
 Some persons have been depressed in the last few days by the drop in Pennsylvania oil. It is their fear that this presages a cut in Ranger prices.

To offset this, it may be noted that the Humble company on Saturday boosted Mexia crude another 25 cents, in the face of a constantly increasing production.
 That surely is an augury that
 Ranger crude may also advance.
 According to the Times' advices Pennsylvania oil has no bearing on the supply and demand ratio, and therefore should have none on prices.
 We are told that production of the entire state is only about 17,000 barrels, which is not equivalent to a drop in a "fifty-five" tank.

Two reasons are advanced for the recent cuts in Pennsylvania. One of these is that competition of Mexia and Mexican oils brought it about.
 The other is that operators were holding pipe line receipts in expectation of an increase, and the price was cut in order to make them sell.
 This latter theory may be taken straight or with as many grains of salt as suit the individual taste.

At any rate, it certainly is logical that while other oils may affect the price of Pennsylvania crude, Pennsylvania itself should have no influence on the price of other crudes.

 effect that Colonel William Boyce of motion picture producers to act as

 Don't forget to give fowls at least one feed a day so that they will have to work for it. Exercise is healthful and necessary to thrift in the flock.
 Don't stop fighting lice, as they are Deuteronomy 10:12-20.

 And now, Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, but to fear the Lord thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul.
 To keep the commandments of the Lord, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good?
 Behold, the heaven, and the heaven
 of heavens, is the Lord's thy God,
 the earth also, with all that therein is.
 Only the Lord had a delight in thy Fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.
 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked.
 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God,
 a mighty, and a terrible which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:
 He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and the widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.
 Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
 Thou shalt fear the Lord thy God;
 him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

Now to keep the four-power alliance hitting on all four.—Philadel-

PAYMENT OF ONLY 50 CENTS ON $13 SCHOLASTIC APPORTIONMENT PUTS SCHOOLS IN HARD SHAPE

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Jan. 14.—Public schools of Texas are in probably the most critical condition of their history, due to the lack of funds with which to pay the per capita apportionment,
 according to Miss Annie Webb Blanton, state superintendent of public instruction.

Letters from teachers, declaring they have not drawn their salaries for several months, storm into the state department of education.
 School trustees write that they are unable to borrow funds from the banks in their communities.

Lon Smith, state comptroller, declares that the situation will be clear after January, when the tax money begins flowing into the state treasury.

Blames Legislature.

The lack of funds with which to pay the per capita apportionment is partly due to the act passed by the last legislature in January, 1921, extending the time for enforcing the penalty against delinquent tax payers of 1920 to October 15, 1921, said Miss Blanton. The reason for the extension, financial officials of the state said, was to aid the taxpayers during the stringent financial period.
 Because a great deal of the 1920 tax money has not been paid into the state treasury, Miss Blanton said, only 50 cents of the $13 per capita apportionment has been paid for this year. Payment of last year's apportionment was only completed in November, 1921.

To correct this situation, Miss Blanton said, she recommended a special session of the legislature. It was only for such a critical condition, she said, that she would urge an extra legislative session, but she thought the school needs justified it.
 A more optimistic view, however,
 was expressed by Comptroller Smith.
 Payment of the taxes will begin after Jan. 31, Mr. Smith said. The state will receive taxes for two years, in most instances—1920 and 1921—although a large number of taxpayers have paid their 1920 taxes. With the 1920 taxes will be paid the 10 per cent penalty which now has become a part of the taxes.

BOY STEALS FORTUNE IN CHECKS; CAN'T SPEND IT

MASON CITY, Iowa, Jan. 14.—A search through the contents of a waste paper baler at the postoffice today revealed $25,000 in checks to add to the $7,000 which Cecil Jensen, 9 years old, yesterday confessed he had stolen, according to police. Confronted with the additional checks,

the boy admitted having taken them from boxes at the postoffice and discarded them in a lobby waste paper basket, police said.
 Along with the checks in the baler were contracts and mortgages, involving thousands of dollars. Efforts of postoffice inspectors working on the case will be centered largely upon determining whether or not the boy had adult assistance, it was said. The lad's attempt to purchase a pair of roller skates with a check for $5.89 led to his arrest.
 Officials were about to release the boy when a second check, indorsed in a scrawly script, came to their attention. The questioning was renewed and, police say, the boy broke down and confessed.

HIGH BESTS CHEANEY IN TIGHT GAME

Ranger High in the first official basketball game of the season Saturday afternoon at Nitro park defeated Cheaney school, 18 to 15, in a hard fought but loosely played game. Little teamwork was shown by either side and fouls were called at various times on both teams.

Cheaney threatened to overcome Ranger's small lead several times but each time was turned back and at no time got in the lead.

The goal throwing of Mills and the guarding of Henshaw and Pruitt for Ranger, and Wheeler for Cheaney were the sensations of the game. Substitutes were used at frequent intervals by both teams.

The lineup: Ranger. Cheaney. Mills, Huffman. R. Love, Thomas. Forwards. Hazzard. Gentry. Center. Pruitt, Henshaw. Wheeler, L. Love. Guards. Substitutes: Ranger—Jones, Pellem, C. Allworth, Hensley; Cheaney—Blackwell, Scott. Timekeeper, J. B. Caldwell.

NORTH BRAZIL RUBBER EMPIRE HAS COLLAPSED

BY MILES W. VAUGHN BELLO HORIZONTE, Brazil, Jan. 14.—In Rio they talk of hard times and thank the Lord things aren't as bad as they are in Amazonas.

Travelers who have just arrived here by river, mule and railway from the great northern state, substantiate the news of the collapse of the "rubber empire."

Manaos, once one of the great boom cities of the world, now is shrinking to its old place as an equatorial river port "a thousand miles from here." The famous Hotel Grande, which a few years boasted the largest champagne cellar in Brazil, has been closed and travelers must find accommodations in a pensao operated by a kindly German who understands how to combat tropic bugs.

The great theatre Municipal, built during the halcyon days of the rubber trade, is falling into decay and the street car system is failing to pay operating expenses, according to travelers.

Thousands of Spanish and Portuguese emigrants already have deserted the rubber country—scattering throughout Brazil or returning to their homes. Steamship service between Manaos and Para continues on regular schedule, however, and traffic is considerable. The population of the river state has not lost hope and is waiting only for a new boom in "para" rubber to start new purchases of diamonds to replace those that have gone the way of hard times.

One of the few men making money in Manaos, according to the travelers, is a young Jew with capital enough to conduct a pawn shop. Last month he shipped jewelry to Paris valued at 75,000 francs and admits he made 40 per cent profit on the deal. All the jewels came from once wealthy families now pinched by the low rubber market.

SMALL LOSES PLEA TO AMEND ALLEGATIONS

By Associated Press. WAUKEGAN, Ill., Jan. 14.—The prosecution in the case of Governor Len Small and Vernon Curtis, charged with conspiracy to defraud the state, won a victory today when Judge Claire C. Edwards overruled an attack by the defense on the state's bill of particulars.

Judge Edwards ordered the defendants arraigned to enter their pleas but both had left for Chicago a few minutes earlier and the arraignment finally was set for next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. At the same time the defense will present a motion for separate trials for Small and Curtis.

The decision of the court furnished dramatic surprise at the close of the day of argument, in which the defense attacked the state's bill of particulars as "irrelevant, incompetent and scandalous."

Court recessed for a few minutes at the close of the defense attack while attorneys for both sides reached an agreement whereby the state was to have begun arguments today and continued them Monday.

When the court reconvened, Judge Edwards unexpectedly announced he had reached a decision overruling the defense and that it would be unnecessary to hear the state.

FIRE AT PONCA CITY, OKLA. PONCA CITY, Okla., Jan. 14.—A block of business buildings was destroyed by fire early today at Apperson, a small oil town in Osage county, according to a telephone message received here. The cause of the fire or the amount of loss was not learned.

POINCARÉ WILL WAGE FIGHT ON ALLIED COUNCIL

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—M. Poincaré, who has accepted the premiership to succeed M. Briand, and expects to have his cabinet complete tomorrow, engaged in a lengthy conversation today with the British prime minister, who came to Paris from Cannes especially for the purpose. What conclusion the heads of the two governments reached is not known, but M. Poincaré in a statement to the correspondents this evening declared that international questions henceforth will be settled as heretofore through ambassadors.

This, in the expressed opinion of the premier-designate, would mean the virtual disappearance of the supreme council, although he added there must be one final meeting of the supreme council, to which all the allies should be invited. "Should the French viewpoint prevail—and I have good reasons to believe that it will so far as Great Britain is concerned—let us have our ambassadors settle these questions for us," M. Poincaré said.

Too Many Sessions M. Poincaré thought there had been too many meetings of the supreme council to various accompaniments and he desired a return to the old-fashioned way of dealings between nations.

"My meeting with M. Lloyd George was most amiable. We got along finely together," the new premier declared.

The conference turned out to be quite a success for the new French premier, according to the French view, as he apparently convinced Lloyd George that it would be construed by the French nation as unfortunate and by himself as inimical to him personally should Lloyd George meet ex-Premier Briand and the German representative.

PARIS MAY CANCEL SATURDAY HOLIDAY

By WILFRED FLEISHER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Jan. 14.—It is proposed to upset the traditional progress of the Paris working week by annulling the Saturday afternoon holiday. This measure is being contemplated as a substitute for a reduction in wages in the larger wholesale organizations and notably in the dressmaking establishments.

At present Paris goes on a holiday at noon on Saturday and remains "en fete" until Monday morning. The thousands of "Midiennes" who work in the dressmaking establishments of the rue de la Paix swarm onto the boulevards when the noon whistle blows on Saturday and fill the cafes until the early hours of Sunday morning. It is expected that the proposed regulation will meet with considerable opposition from the younger element.

Economic experts are of opinion that the rehabilitation of the country depends on increased production and this is one of the means which they have suggested to meet the situation. German industry is going full speed ahead, and if France is to maintain her position in commerce she must be prepared to meet the competition.

Domestic life and affection is very highly developed among wild ducks.

HEAVY LASH LAID ON BACK OF ATTORNEY

By Associated Press

DALLAS, Jan. 14.—Bloodstained garments and a severely lacerated scalp and back were exhibited by Harold F. Mulks, of Chicago, at a local hospital tonight as the result of a beating he received at the hands of a band of men last night at Shreveport, La.

According to the statement Mulks was seized by two men as he stood in the lobby of one of the largest hotels of Shreveport, was forced into a waiting automobile and carried twenty miles from the city, where the beating was administered by several unmasked men, none of whom he said, were known to him.

Struck Forty Times. He estimated he was struck forty times with a heavy leather strap, in addition he said to being throttled and otherwise mistreated. He was then placed on a train at a small railroad station with the injunction not to return. The train carried him to Greenville, Texas, whence he came to Dallas.

Mulks gave his age as 35. He said he had been hired by Chicago individuals, whose names he did not care to give, to act as counsel for three men at Shreveport charged with vagrancy. He stated that on several occasions while in Shreveport he had received verbal warnings from men on the streets to leave town or sever his relations as counsel for the accused men.

Mulks said he was married and the father of one child. He announced his intention of returning to Chicago for a time as soon as he recuperates from his injuries. These are said by medical attendants not to be of serious nature.

GERMAN U-BOATS BEING REBUILT AS FREIGHTERS

By Associated Press.

KIEL, Germany, Jan. 14.—The machine guns of peace, pneumatic riveters, are rattling day and night in the former war harbor of Kiel, where a score of large commercial ships are under construction, the majority of them for use in the campaign Germany is waging for control of the maritime commerce of the world.

All of the great shipyards are active, but not all of them are working toward increasing the German fleet. Scores of Scandinavian, Dutch and English ships are docked here, undergoing repairs or being remodeled. The cost to the foreigners is negligible, and the Germans are willing to work. The Krupp works are the busiest and Hugo Stinnes, Germany's chief industrialist, is the best patron. He built freighters and tankers out of former U-boats. Two of these recently made a round trip to Mexico in good time and without accident. When loaded the rounded U-boat understructure is below the waterline, but the boats present an odd appearance when in ballast.

There is a rumor that Will Hays will resign, but it gives us no comfort. Will is going to be particular to have William J. Burns to search the postal service to see that no Democrat is left in it before quitting his place at the guillotine.—Houston Post.

We hate to be skeptical, but we can never regard the fruitcake or mince pie of a strictly law-abiding household as the uttermost of cooking skill.—Houston Post.

This Must Affect Your Buying Plans

NOW $1695

For the Phaeton

Hudson's new price greatly simplifies the question of what car to buy.

You naturally include it in that small group of cars which all acknowledge as truly great products.

But do you compare its price with theirs? That makes the real contrast of value. Even to those whose preference may incline to some other car, it presents the fair question whether the preference is worth the big difference in price asked.

That explains why thousands of Hudson owners contend that costlier cars than Hudson are not justified by value. Not that they necessarily hold Hudson to be the greatest car built, but they find no value elsewhere commensurate with the difference in price. It is a view confirmed by Hudson's six years leadership of fine car sales, the well-weighted verdict of more than 110,000 owners.

And Hudson's new price now brings its greatest worth within reach of thousands who heretofore have owned only mediocre cars.

If you are thinking of buying a car above $1,200 in price you should surely come see the Hudson Super-Six and allow us to give you a demonstration.

PRISCILLA DEAN HAS HER GREATEST ROLE IN SUPERFILM, 'CONFLICT'

Reaching the apex of her career as a dramatic actress, Priscilla Dean, starring in "Conflict," now at the Temple theatre, has brought to the screen a piece of work which will go down in history among the first ranks of screen acting.

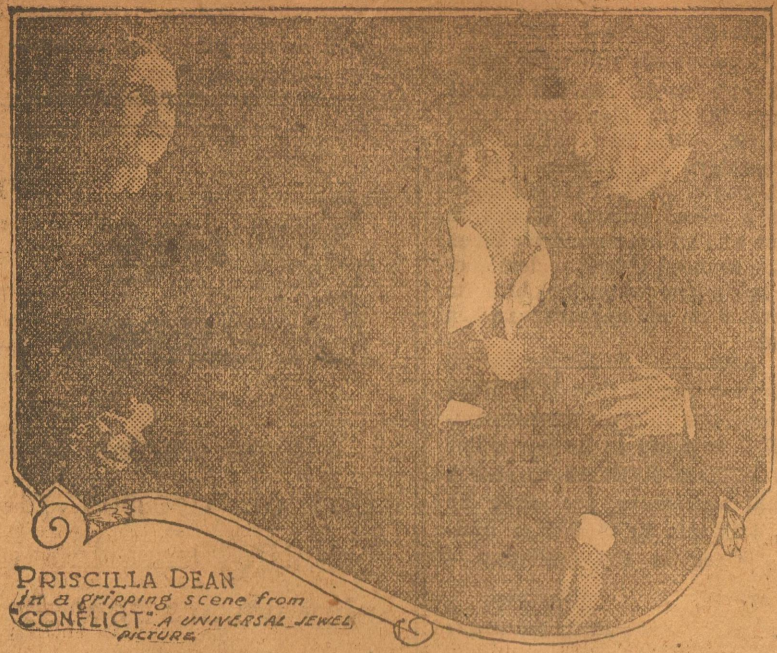

After her work in "Reputation," Miss Dean had a reputation of much merit to maintain. This she has done most admirably in "Conflict," under the direction of Stuart Paton.

From a pampered daughter of the city, Dorcas Remalie, played by Priscilla Dean, moves to her uncle's home in the Big North Woods. She hates the place she is obliged to call home, until quite suddenly a beautiful new love comes into her life. From then on events take on a dramatic intensity which makes "Conflict" one of the most forceful films of all times.

Clarence Budington Kelland wrote the original story. It recently appeared in serial form in the Red Book magazine, and which was read by thousands of people. It was scenarized by George C. Hull for Stuart Paton, who had directed "Reputation," Miss Dean's previous success.

Herbert Rawlinson, in the chief supporting role, lends excellent support as the lover, while Martha Mattox and Edward Connelly handle the chief character parts with exceptional ability. The rest of the cast includes such well-known players as Hector Sarno, L. C. Shumway, Sam Allen, Capt. C. E. Anderson, Milton Brown and Bill Gillis.

England Wonders What Changes Irish Freedom Will Make in Flag

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Jan. 14.—The question has been raised whether the designs of the Union Jack and Royal Coat of Arms of Great Britain will have to be altered if Ireland becomes a free state within the empire.

The Union Jack has the cross of St. Patrick superimposed upon the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew. The Royal Coat of Arms has the Irish harp in one of its corners. At the college of arms in London, it was stated that certain modifications were under consideration and that if any action were taken it would be done by the king in council. No parliamentary action will be necessary.

Heraldry experts say that alterations in arms are very expensive. Some years ago there was a demand from Irish quarters that the blue ground of the golden harp on the royal standard should be changed to green. It was then estimated that the alteration would cost at least 2,000,000 pounds. To remove all reference to Ireland from the present Union Jack and Royal Arms would be vastly more expensive.

One authority said that it would not be correct for England, the predominant partner, to leave Ireland out of account in the national flag and the royal arms, unless and until Ireland herself demanded it.

CLOTHES ONLY A WASTE OF TIME?

By United Press.
LONDON, Jan. 14.—Ten years of a woman's life is spent in putting on and taking off her clothes, according to the dean of St. Paul's. Man, according to Dean Inge, wastes but two of his years bothering about with his raiment.

"All in all," Inge declared in an address before the Savage club, "clothes are the cause of an unredeemable waste."

'GOLDEN RULE' MAKES SUCCESS OF IRON WORKS

By Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Jan. 14.—The teachings of Jesus Christ are to be "the ruling principles of our business," said John J. Eagan of this city, following his election as president of the American Cast Iron Pipe company. He expressed surprise on learning that his election on such a platform had occasioned any comment.

Employees of the company have been enjoying the results of efforts of the officers to practice Christ's teachings for about eight years, it was pointed out by Mr. Eagan. First, a large industrial Y. M. C. A. building was erected, he said, and "with that as a center we have been enlarging constantly the scope of the company's service to its employees. Now we have a staff including physicians, a surgeon, a dentist and a nurse. We have a mutual benefit association, operated by company and employees jointly and recently we established a pension fund for old age or disability."

Company's Platform.
Mr. Eagan summarized his "platform" briefly in the following:
"A reasonable living wage to the lowest paid workman."
"Constant employment for every member of the organization."
"An actual application of the Golden Rule to all relations between employe and employer."
Results to the company from such a course of action, Mr. Eagan believes, will include:
"Service to the public, by manufacturing an honest product."
"Service to employes by the application of the Golden Rule and the payment of at least a comfortable living wage to each.

"Service to the stockholders by earning for them a fair return on their investment."

In proof of his contention that business may be operated successfully on the principles he advocates, Mr. Eagan pointed out that in the last twelve months his company "provided work for all its employes—and this was not exactly an easy matter—and we are paying wages above the market."

MORE RUSSIAN HORRORS! DIVORCES NOW LIMITED TO THREE PER PERSON

By Associated Press.
RIGA, Latvia, Jan. 14.—Three divorces to any one person are considered the limit in Soviet Russia, according to Parley Christensen, of Chicago, candidate for president of the United States on the Farmer-Labor party ticket in 1920, who recently spent a month in Moscow. Mr. Christensen visited several Bolshevik courts.

"It is fairly easy to get a divorce in Soviet Russia," said Mr. Christensen when in Riga, "but I understand the limit is three for each person. If a man or woman has appeared in the divorce court more than three times, he or she has a very difficult time."

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 14.—Three Kentucky counties contained no automobiles of any kind on July 1, 1920, when the assessment of taxes for 1921 were made, according to the annual report of the state tax commission. These were the mountain counties of Knott, Leslie and Clay.

SOCIETY AND ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN MRS. R. B. CAMPBELL, Editor Telephone 418

January Looks Forward

January derives its name from Janus, a Roman god, who took precedence of all gods. He had two faces, one youthful, looking forward; the other aged, looking backward. He was the god of all beginnings—so January is the month of beginnings. In these days a face that looks backward would be of little use to even a god, for young and old all look forward, there is ever the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow to lure one on, and nobody looks old nor feels old any more. They say there are no old ladies in New York—well, where are any anywhere?

We often wonder what has become of the old fashioned grandmothers of our childhood, the ones who tied up their heads in a multitude of kerchiefs early in the fall to avoid colds in the head, and only unwound them after Easter. Truly they belong to their generation, for women do not know December now—they may be piling up the years and admit it is Indian Summer, but they stop there.

Laying aside the double faces, and the whimsies of women's seasons, and going back to January, it has indeed been a month of beginnings in social affairs in Ranger, as the past two weeks have witnessed the meeting of practically every club, and the formation of plans for the spring festivities. Rumor has already hinted that the Gholson will be the scene of several functions in the near future.

In fact, next Saturday the Catholic ladies will give a benefit bridge there, from 2 to 5 in the afternoon, and 8 to 11 in the evening, to which all bridge lovers are looking forward.

On Tuesday, the 17th, comes the Shrine club reception, bridge and dance at the same place, except that the ballroom as well as the mezzanine floor will be the scene of this gay affair, which is the second big function given by this club this year.

Probably the most important and the most far touching subject just now is the planning for the district meet of the Mothers' Congress and the Parent-Teachers' association to be held here early in March. Chairmen of the different committees are already lining up their assistants and in another week or so the plans will be in full swing.

The largest social function of the past week was the card party given by Mmes. E. J. Barnes and F. P. Hodge at the Barnes home on Wednesday afternoon.

FIRST AND LAST DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ables and their family have gone to Beaumont to live. On the day they left Ranger they were entertained with a dinner by Mr. and Mrs. "Pop" Endicott. Covers were laid for ten, which included Mr. and Mrs. Ables, their children, the host and hostess and their little daughter, Nora.

A peculiar co-incidence in regard to this dinner was that the first dinner that these guests ever had in Ranger was with Mr. and Mrs. Endicott, and that the last dinner they had in Ranger was also with them.

O. E. S. BIRTHDAY PARTY.

All members of the Eastern Star and their husbands are invited to attend the birthday party to be given at the Masonic Temple on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. This is the first of a series of birthday parties that will be given by the chapter each month. A program has been arranged and refreshments will be served. Mmes. R. M. Schmuck and Flora Alcorn are the committee in charge for Monday evening's party. Members of the Eastern Star will please take notice—and bring yourselves and your husbands. Everybody is sure to have a good time.

BENEFIT BRIDGE.

For the second time this year the mezzanine floor of the Gholson will be the scene of a benefit bridge. This one is to be given under the auspices of the Catholic women, and will occur Saturday afternoon and Saturday evening. The afternoon hours will be from 2 to 5 and the evening hours from 8 to 11. Tickets are now on sale and it is very evident that both afternoon and evening parties will be well attended.

EPWORTH LEAGUE PARTY.

The Senior Epworth league entertained in the league room of the Methodist church Friday evening. There was a splendid attendance and during the evening several very interesting contests were enjoyed. The girls of the league sold ice cream and home-made candy to the boys and, playing big sisters to the Intermediate league, they donated the proceeds from this sale to them. The party was a success socially and financially, just as all of these league parties are, proving that the church as a social center offers its young people as much entertainment as any one could desire.

French Footwear and American Feet Written for the United Press BY HEDDA HOYT

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Women who hoped that the French shoes which came to America with the little war-birds would last longer are peevish to find instead a longer last. Shoe dealers declare that it is the length of the American women's toes which necessitates the longer vamp.

For many years women of latin countries, such as Cuba, Spain and France, have been wearing short, snub-toed shoes. The underlying reason for this being the short, chubby toes of the average Latin.

The long, flat walking boot of the Bostonian type so popular in England and America would seem ridiculous on a shawl-draped Spanish beauty. Although every American woman who toddles in the short vamp boot knew that though the boot pinched it was a thing of beauty. American boot makers, who are the finest in the world, have come to the front with a modified French vamp which gives the appearance of being short and has all the chic of the French boot, but adds the additional length necessary to comfort.

These are made in various materials. For afternoon wear the most prevalent type is made of patent leather with an instep strap. Some of them have pipings of red or green leather and have heels of red or green. Others are made to slip on over the foot as a Russian boot does. The evening slippers are especially beautiful, made in silver and gold brocade with tiny cross straps held in place by rhinestone buckles.

The woman who prefers to wear the low pump instead of the high shoe for winter months will be able to purchase a spat that is long enough to reach the hem of the shortest skirt. They come in the eighteen-button length and are made in satin and in felt, with an elastic band at the top to accommodate the stout woman as well as the svel.

Ankle straps are no longer being used for street wear and only occasionally for dress wear.

Sheer gauze has replaced the silk net mesh hosiery.

Long earrings which are constantly gaining in popularity here are worn with the bobbed head dresses as well as with the most fastidious chignons.

How greatly the simple little kerchiefs of colored linen add to the smartness of a costume. These can be purchased in at least a dozen colors and are easy to make if one is handy with the needle.

Monkey fur continues to hold its own as a trimming. This season we find it combined with sapphire blue and persimmon red, as well as with black. The fur itself is being made in different shades: Taupe, brown, grey and a mixture of black and white being the most popular.

Long gloves are no longer considered necessary for the most formal affairs, such as balls and operas. The smartly gowned women seldom appear in them this year, but often the upper arm is bedecked with as many as a dozen bracelets.

The first woman to be elected to the Canadian parliament is Miss Agnes McPhail, daughter of a farmer at Ceylon, Ontario. The Dunsans, a curious tribe of people inhabiting a section of British North Borneo, are dominated by women priests.

Auction Bridge—No. 14 "Avoid incurring penalties, for they must be paid"

One of the most confusing points of Auction is the scoring, as there are two scores to be played for; trick score, and honor, penalties, and bonuses.

Trick score has been explained in full in one of the preceding articles, also the honors, penalties, and bonuses; but today we will review the penalties especially, as they seem to be the stumbling block, not only to the student, but to the advanced player, since there is one set of penalties for adversaries and an entirely different set for declarer and his partner.

Penalties for Adversaries. 50 penalty points added to score for each trick the declarer falls short his contract or bid. 100 penalty points for each trick the declarer falls short his contract or bid if doubled. 200 penalty points for each trick the declarer falls short his contract or bid if re-doubled. Re-doubling is the limit.

Neither doubling nor re-doubling affects the honors, but, as shown above, both affect the penalties. Penalties for Declarer and Partner If Doubled. 50 penalty points added to score for fulfilling contract or bid. 50 penalty points for each trick above contract or bid.

100 penalty points for fulfilling contract or bid if re-doubled. 100 penalty points for each trick contract or bid if re-doubled. The adversaries never score a trick column.

The declarer and his partner never can score penalty honors unless there has been doubling or re-doubling. The declarer and partner also score in trick column the value of the tricks they make, at the double or re-doubled value, as the cards may be.

Among the bonus scores is also the Slam. A side winning all thirteen tricks scores 100 points for Grand Slam. A side winning twelve tricks scores 50 points for Little Slam.

Far, or Comparative Auction, a bonus of 125 points is given for a game won in one deal. Rubbers are not counted.

When Pivot Auction is played, rubbers are counted. The side which has won two games adds a bonus of 250 points to its honor score. The side having the greater total number of points, including trick, honor, penalty, and bonus points, wins.

Revoke Penalty. When declarer revokes, he cannot score for tricks, and his adversaries, in addition to any bonus for under tricks, add 50 points to their honor score for each revoke.

When either adversary revokes, declarer for first revoke may either score 50 points in honor score or take two tricks from adversaries and add to his own score. Such tricks may assist declarer to make good his contract, but shall not entitle him to any further bonus in honor score by reason of the bid having been doubled or re-doubled, nor to a slam or little slam, nor otherwise obtained. For each revoke after the first, declarer adds 50 points to his honor score.

The value of honors as held is the only score that can be made by a revoking side unless both sides revoke. If one side revokes more than once, the other scores 50 for each extra revoke.

Penalties always should be exacted. To waive one is in itself a violation of the laws, which no expert player would tolerate.

Questions and Answers. Q. A bids for spades. A takes five tricks above book. What is the score? A. Five spade tricks would be 5x9=45. Doubled, this would be 90 trick points. Four honors in one hand is 8 times value of trick—72. (Honors never are affected by doubling.) A also would get 50 for fulfilling contract, and 50 for each trick above contract—in this case, one trick, or 50 points, making a total of 100 bonus; also 125 points for game over won in one deal.

Super Music. And the music: Those who have heard the orchestra that has been engaged for this dance are very enthusiastic in their praise, all agreeing that it is the best, by far, ever heard in Ranger.

The orchestra has been engaged for 10 o'clock and will play as late as anyone cares to remain to dance. There will be refreshments, too. This item has not been revealed to me in full, but I understand that there will be REFRESHMENTS.

Beginning at 8:30 in the evening, bridge will be played on the mezzanine floor, the ladies of the reception committee being hostesses. These ladies are forming their parties for a series of tables, but there will be additional hostesses on the reception committee who will not form parties, but will form their parties and fill their tables after the guests arrive. This is planned as an additional courtesy to ladies and gentlemen whom it may be impossible to reach by telephone before Tuesday evening. No formal invitations will be sent out to this tourney, but everyone who plays bridge and who is of the elect is expected and urged to be present at 8:30 in order that the events may begin on time.

Elks, Masons, Shriners and Rotarians and their ladies, and the ladies of the several musical and literary clubs and of the private bridge clubs and their husbands and escorts, are expected to be present and no other invitation or notice will be sent other than through this notice. All those who took part in the Shrine club cabaret and those who have received invitations to the previous affairs which were given under the auspices of and by the Ranger Shrine club, are invited to the bridge party and to the dance.

The bridge tourney will extend throughout the evening for those who do not care to dance. However, those who dance will form in grand march on the mezzanine floor at 10 o'clock and proceed to the ball room. For those who like to watch the dancers, a series of tables will be arranged in the ball room.

The ladies' check and rest room will be on the mezzanine floor, with competent maids in charge. The men's game won in one deal. Rubbers are not counted.

Receiving Line. The reception committee will be composed of Mayor and Mrs. John Gholson, Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Harkrider, Dr. and Mrs. Callet O. Terrell, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Craig, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barnes, Mrs. Frederick P. Hodge, Mrs. R. B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur George Jury, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kinard and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brown.

Each of these hosts and hostesses will have from two to twelve tables of bridge. For those who do not care for bridge there will be five hundred and soiree, single and double. Prizes will be awarded by the hostesses.

In addition to the above host and hostesses, receiving for the Rotarians will be Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Humes. Receiving for the Shriners and Masons will be Mr. and Mrs. James A. Davenport, Mayor and Mrs. John Gholson, Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Harkrider, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lacy. Receiving for the Elks will be Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Teal, Mr. Paul Teal, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gholson. Receiving for the 1920 club will be Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Phillips. Receiving for the Amusu club will be Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moyer. Receiving for the Young Matrons' club will be Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hill. Receiving for the Friday Bridge club will be Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Haden and Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Burt. Receiving for the Wednesday Bridge club will be Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burden. Receiving for the Music club will be Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Wakefield. Receiving for the Saturday Evening Bridge club will be Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Steele and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Vandervoort. Receiving for the Twentieth Century Bridge club will be Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wiss and Mr. and Mrs. Saunders Gregg.

Go Early. The reception will begin at 8:15 in the evening and all guests whether they play cards or not, are expected to arrive between 8:15 and 8:30. There will be numerous diversions for those who do not play cards, until dancing begins.

Chaperones for the ball will be Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, Mrs. H. B. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Cole Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hill, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Cole Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crawford. The entertainment committee for the Ranger Shrine club is made up of Dr. Carl Wilson, chairman, social manager; Arthur G. Jury, business manager; Chas. D. Wells, entertaining manager; R. O. Bundick, advertising manager; W. P. Lacy, musical director and manager.

WICHITA FALLS LAKE TO COVER 25,500 ACRES

By Associated Press.

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 14.—The largest artificial body of water in Texas and probably in the Southwest will be created by the building of the Wichita river irrigation project, according to the local chamber of commerce. The contract has been let for the enterprise and actual construction probably will begin this month.

Irrigation of 110,000 acres of fertile farm land in the Wichita river valley and a water supply for a quarter of a million persons are the benefits for which the dam will be built. The lake will connect with the municipal water lines of Wichita Falls, Iowa Park and Electra.

The dam for the storage reservoir will be constructed across the Wichita river in Baylor county about fifty miles west of Wichita Falls. It will impound about 500,000 acre feet of water. This water will be drawn from a run-off or drainage area of about 3,000 square miles and will be caught and stored in a lake eighty-five feet maximum depth. The lake will be five miles across at the widest point and have a short line of about 225 miles. The lake will submerge approximately 25,500 acres.

The general contract for this dam, a diversion dam fifteen miles down the river toward Wichita Falls and a canal on the south side of Wichita river of 1,000 second feet capacity, has been let to the W. E. Callahan Construction company of Dallas. The total estimated cost of this work, including a canal on the north side of the river and the land to be submerged by the lake, is $4,000,000. Between 750 and 800 men will be employed on the job for the greater part of two years.

The Brazos river runs close to the headwaters of the Big Wichita river, being separated by a comparative narrow ridge. As the Brazos valley at this point is about 150 feet higher than the Wichita valley, should the necessity arise its storm waters can be diverted into storage reservoir by means of a tunnel. The area of the Brazos river watershed above the tunnel location is about 12,200 square miles. With the diversion of the Brazos river waters, it will be possible to irrigate some 300,000 acres of land in the Wichita river valley.

RANCH WOMAN SLAYS INDIANS TO SAVE SELF

TIMBER LAKE, S. D., Jan. 14.—Two Indians, their brain fired with liquor, were shot to death yesterday by Mrs. A. Pfaff. They had tried to force their way into her ranch home.

The Indians, according to the story told by the woman last night, came to her home and demanded she let them in. Seeing they were intoxicated and fearing for her life, she ordered them to stop, then shot when they refused. A single charge from a shotgun ended both lives.

The bodies of the Indians were brought from the ranch to Timber Lake where they are being held by the authorities pending an investigation.

An effort is being made to learn who sold the Indians liquor.

Germany announces that she will not be able to make her January reparations payment, which goes to prove that the nutritive value of snowballs and icicles is no greater than is commonly supposed.—Houston Post.
