Buck Garrett's Suspension May Close Ardmore Court

ROTARIANS TO BOOST PAYMENT OF POLL TAXES

Sell 'Em in Stores, to Be Slogan of Civic Club; 500 Paid.

An effort to have Ranger merchants deputized as tax collectors will be made by the Rotary club, under plans adopted at the noon luncheon of the club yesterday for the inauguration of a "Pay-Your-Poll-Tax" campaign here. By having merchants of the city suggest the payment of poll taxes to all their customers as a reminder of their civic duty and by deputizing them to issue poll tax receipts, it is estimated that the tax lists of Ranger would be increased by several hundred names, at least.

A committee was appointed at the Wednesday meeting to work out details for the campaign and to investigate the feasibility of the plan for the corps of merchant-tax collectors. It was pointed out at the meeting that the welfare of Ranger and Eastland county demands that all citizens pay the poll taxes and interest themselves in the affairs of the community in which they live.

RUMOR OF KEELING'S RESIGNATION PERSISTS

AUSTIN, Jan. 19.—When attorney General W. A. Keeling returns to Austin tomorrow, it is expected he will make definite statements as to his future plans. That General Keeling will tender his resignation to the governor to accept a partnership in the law firm of Vinson, Elkins & Wood of Houston, is confidently expected. This firm represents large interests in the Mexico oil fields, and according to reports, General Keeling, whose home is in Mexico, is to return to that city and represent the law firm in the production area.

General Keeling was not at his office today. He left last night either for Houston or Mexico. It was stated he would return tomorrow. That General Keeling is soon to retire from public life is made confident by the fact that he has not announced his candidacy for attorney general in the coming July primaries, and also by the fact that W. P. Dumas, for nine years connected with the attorney general's department, has tendered his resignation as assistant attorney general, effective Feb. 6. Mr. Dumas has had charge of bond matters coming before the department. There may be other resignations. Dumas will go to Dallas to practice law.

IRISH UNEMPLOYED DEFY NEW GOVERNMENT

DUBLIN, Jan. 19.—Unemployed men seized a meeting hall here last night, formed a "volunteer army" of four companies, and refused to evacuate, despite orders from the provisional government. About 120 men took part in the demonstration.

ROSWELL, DENVER AND CATALINA HEAR TRUETT PREACH IN DALLAS

GAINESVILLE, Texas, Jan. 19.—Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas, in his Sunday sermons at the Baptist church, possibly preaches to the most varied and long-distance audiences of any man in America. By the radio wireless telephone installed in the home of Jimmie Davis here, a junior student in the Gainesville High school, this writer, with a number of others, Sunday evening sat in the room ninety miles away and enjoyed the sermon preached in Dallas by Dr. Truett; heard him make all announcements for the week and the words of his sermon sounded clear and distinct. At the close of the service when he announced hymn No. 57, "He Will Save You," and gave an invitation to those in the audience who wished to unite with the church, the choir and pipe organ could be heard very distinctly and the members of the choir could have been

Legion Commander, Who Succeeds Sheriff, Has Hard Time Getting Deputies.

ARDMORE, Okla., Jan. 19.—Sheriff Buck Garrett, picturesque character of the "Old West," who has held office here for more than ten years, today stood suspended pending his trial in district court on charges of permitting gambling and liquor violations.

Garrett's suspension was ordered by District Judge E. D. Oldfield of Oklahoma City, last night, after two days of argument on the petition of the state to suspend him.

Legion Man Named. Pending Garrett's trial, which is expected to get under way late this month, E. C. London, commander of the Ardmore post of the American Legion, will act as sheriff.

London, who was selected after a long conference between opposing attorneys and a group of prominent citizens appointed for the purpose by the court, was scheduled to file his oath of office with the court and county commissioners today and appoint the necessary deputies. It was announced that attorneys for both sides have waived the usual formality of requiring new officers to make bond.

Court Forced to Recess.

Suspension of Sheriff Buck Garrett and subsequently of his entire force of deputies last night, today began to show its effects upon the grindings of the Carter county criminal courts. Judge Thomas W. Champion found it necessary to adjourn the day's session until tomorrow when it was learned that the new sheriff was experiencing difficulty in obtaining deputies to serve with him and that there was no one to serve a summons on the defendant whose case was scheduled for trial.

This, Judge Champion intimated, might make it necessary to adjourn court until after Garrett is tried.

He pointed out that it had been reported to him that assistant Attorney General Fulton, in charge of the prosecution in the oyster proceedings, has announced he would require the services of the new sheriff and his entire department in summoning between 300 and 400 witnesses for Garrett's trial. In addition, the judge said the defense will have two or three hundred witnesses to be summoned.

Lengthy Trial Expected.

Attorneys estimated today that it would require between two weeks and a month for Garrett's trial alone. After filing his oath of office and executing bond with the district county clerk, Sheriff London immediately began drawing a jury of 100 men from which the jury to try Garrett will be selected.

NEW DIRECTORS OF SALVATION ARMY WORK ARRIVE IN RANGER

Ensign and Mrs. W. T. George of San Angelo arrived in Ranger yesterday afternoon to take over the local work of the Salvation Army, formerly conducted by Captain and Mrs. F. F. Mullins, who were transferred to Eastland. Ensign George has served in the Salvation Army for the last twenty years and was in Ranger ten years ago for a short period of time, in one of his trips over the state.

The street and hall meeting of the Salvation Army will be continued each night, Ensign George stated and the work of the corps carried on in the same manner as formerly.

The board, which adjourned last night after a two-day session here, paid $5,000 toward the new home of the General Federation headquarters at Washington, D. C., and it was decided to reorganize the standing committees into nine general departments.

Other matters passed upon included the creation of a new district in the Panhandle with headquarters at Plainview, Mrs. Carl Goodman of Abernathy, to be chairman.

The board authorized the appointment by Mrs. Lee Joseph of San Antonio, of a legislative council to consist of the heads of various women's organizations of the state.

EX-GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI INDICTED FOR BANK CLOSING

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 18.—Seventeen indictments were returned this afternoon against seven directors of the closed Night and Day bank, and Arthur T. Meisinger, cashier, on charges of receiving deposits after the institution was in an unsound condition.

Those indicted include former Governor Elliott W. Major and William A. Allen, judge of the St. Louis court of appeals.

WOUND BLAMED FOR BAD MAN'S BADNESS

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Results of an operation performed to remove a bullet from the brain of Benjamin Luckner, serving a life term in the Joliet state penitentiary for murder, which transformed him from a "bad man" to a model prisoner, will be put before the state board of paroles and pardons, in an effort to obtain his release, it became known here today.

SUPREME COURT MAY PASS UPON REDWINE CASE

Request for Permission to Appeal Will Be Asked by Burkett.

Special to the Times

EASTLAND, Jan. 19.—The case of Jewell Redwine, paroled Eastland county convict who must return to the penitentiary under the decision handed down yesterday by the court of criminal appeals, will be carried to the United States supreme court, if permission can be obtained, Joe Burkett, attorney for the defendant, declared this morning. The attorney stated that he had sought permission from the state appellate court to carry his client's case to Washington. It is understood that the basis of the appeal is the contention that the governor in revoking Redwine's parole is depriving him of his liberty without due course of law and in violation of the provisions of the constitution.

Redwine was convicted of murder at Gorman in 1920 and paroled by Governor Hobby six months after he had been sent to prison. He was one of the seventy-five paroled convicts whom Governor Neff ordered returned to prison and his case has been watched with interest over the state, as a test case of the governor's authority in this direction. Both Judge E. A. Hill and the Eighty-eighth district court and the appellate court have held that the governor is the sole judge of what constitutes a parole violation.

MISS GHOLSON'S COAT IS STOLEN, NO TRACE FOUND

No trace has been found by the police of the valuable fur coat belonging to Miss Helen Gholson, stolen Tuesday night from the office of John M. Gholson in the Gholson hotel. The theft is reported to have occurred during the Shrine club dance, the thief forcing an entrance to the office through a rear window. The front door to the office was locked at the time.

HOUSTON SELECTED FOR NEXT CONVENTION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

AUSTIN, Jan. 19.—Houston was selected by the executive board of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs as the place for holding the annual conference of the federation during the second week of next November.

The board, which adjourned last night after a two-day session here, paid $5,000 toward the new home of the General Federation headquarters at Washington, D. C., and it was decided to reorganize the standing committees into nine general departments.

Other matters passed upon included the creation of a new district in the Panhandle with headquarters at Plainview, Mrs. Carl Goodman of Abernathy, to be chairman.

The board authorized the appointment by Mrs. Lee Joseph of San Antonio, of a legislative council to consist of the heads of various women's organizations of the state.

EX-GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI INDICTED FOR BANK CLOSING

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 18.—Seventeen indictments were returned this afternoon against seven directors of the closed Night and Day bank, and Arthur T. Meisinger, cashier, on charges of receiving deposits after the institution was in an unsound condition.

Those indicted include former Governor Elliott W. Major and William A. Allen, judge of the St. Louis court of appeals.

BORAH WOULD FORCE EUROPE TO CUT ARMIES

Huge Establishments Paid for by Interest on Debts to U. S., He Says.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Failure to collect interest on the $11,000,000,000 debt owed to the United States means the American people must continue to pay for Europe's refusal to economize, go to work, and cut down huge military establishments, Senator Borah declared today, in demanding that the foreign debt refunding bill provide for collection of interest at stated intervals, beginning at once.

"It seems to me," said Borah, "that the bill ought to provide for the semi-annual, or at most the annual payment of interest, but there are those who want to postpone the payment even of interest for a number of years.

Injustice to Taxpayer.

"This would, in my opinion, be an injustice to the American taxpayer, and would have a tendency to lead European nations to delay putting themselves in a condition to pay. I have no doubt that most governments owing us cash, if they will, cut down their standing armies and equipments. It is hardly just to ask the American people, by deferring the interest, to maintain the huge establishments of Europe as well as our own.

"This is what we will do unless we insist on collecting the interest regularly."

REPUBLICANS CAN'T AGREE.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Republican senators were unable to agree today on a party policy with respect to payment of the interest on the debt owed by foreign governments and other features of the debt refunding bill. After an hour and a half of debate a secret caucus, continued from yesterday, was adjourned until 4 p. m. today, when efforts to obtain harmony will be renewed.

MARTIAL LAW AT OKLAHOMA CITY ASKED BY 1,500

By United Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 19.—A resolution which in effect asks that martial law be declared in Oklahoma county, as the result of riots in packing towns here recently between striking packing plant employees and strike breakers, was adopted at a mass meeting of 1,500 persons here today.

Local and county officers have proven their inability to cope with the situation, the resolution said, in urging the governor to intervene.

The resolution will be presented to Governor Robertson upon his return to the state tomorrow from a short vacation spent in Texas.

The mass meeting was called by the local Chamber of Commerce.

OKLAHOMA CITY MAY BE PUT UNDER MARTIAL LAW

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 19.—Following a conference Wednesday night with county and city officers, Acting Governor M. E. Trapp announced that he was seriously considering convoking martial law for Oklahoma City and placing the military organization of the state in charge.

The acting governor said he had taken the matter of issuing the martial law order under advisement. He said he would await developments until this time.

The conference with city and county officials was called by Mr. Trapp following the lynching of the negro, Jake Brooks, whose body was found hanging to a tree a few miles from town. Brooks is said to have worked at the packing plant here where a strike of workers has been on for several weeks.

HIS FATAL BEAUTY

TORONTO, Jan. 19.—Anderson Buchanan, a law student, died suddenly Wednesday after taking a "beauty powder" sent to him by mail and "guaranteed" to change his complexion within twenty-four hours.

The authorities are investigating.

Breck Driller Loans Car to Friend; Forgets, Tells Police It's Stolen

Arch Graham, drilling contractor of Breckenridge, may or may not be out $200 as the result of a lapse of memory shortly after arriving in Ranger last night. The $200 is in the form of a check left at police headquarters as a reward for the recovery of a brand new Hudson speedster, which Graham is said to have loaned to a friend after his arrival here, and to have forgotten it.

Failing to find his car some time later he had visions of auto thieves speeding his new car out of the city, and hurried to police headquarters. Instructions were given to notify all surrounding towns of the description, with serial and engine numbers, and a check for $200 was left as a reward for its recovery.

Some time later Night Patrolmen Jim Ingram and Floyd Daniels located the machine and the friend in front of the McCleskey hotel, and carried both to the station. Graham recalled the loan when he came down to claim his car and take a look at the "thief."

The police still have the check but are doubtful as to whether they have a deed to it.

THERMOMETERS DISAGREE WHEN ICY BLASTS CHILL THEIR SPINES

A thermometer war started in Ranger last night with the advent of the cold wave and by daybreak this morning not a single mercury elevator would agree with the others on the degree of the sudden drop. The more radical dropped below zero, others discounted the cold wave and refused to register more than 20 degrees, even when subjected to the same chilly blasts as the zeroes.

An average temperature struck from the readings of the various thermometers hovers around 15 degrees above zero, which is one degree lower than the Abilene report. Anyone not willing to accept the average of the various indicators may take his pick from the reading of several of the local favorites.

The thermometer in front of the Oil City Drug store insisted that the temperature stood at even zero and refused to reconsider the matter. The Milford Undertaking company thermometer, after several hours in the cold wind, refused to drop below 17 degrees. The one at Jameson's market also stood at 17. High above the street in the window of May & Grubbs insurance office in the Guaranty Bank building, still another held out for 10 degrees above, while the thermometer at the Chamber of Commerce shivered up and down the tube every time a fresh gust of wind struck it.

Numerous car owners found their radiators and water pumps frozen when they started to town this morning and were forced to call on garages to tow them in for repairs.

TOMMY O'CONNOR BOBS UP AGAIN; RETURNS PART OF STOLEN BONDS

ELKHART, Ind., Jan. 19.—Marines and postal inspectors today are seeking a robber who stole two registered mail pouches containing $500,000 in bonds and then shoved $100,000 worth of the loot in the post-office window.

Dan Ingram, negro porter, who had charge of the mail truck when the pouches were stolen, has vindicated himself, police stated, and will be released soon.

The thief, it was believed, is an expert on securities. He picked out the $100,000 worth of non-negotiable ones and returned them to the postoffice with a note, "Here's your bonds," signed "Tommy O'Conner."

NAVAL LIMIT RATIO IS CAMOUFLAGED TO SALVE JAP PRIDE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Reference to the 5-5-3 capital ship ratio has been omitted in the final draft of the naval treaty, the United Press learned today.

Omission of the actual ratio was due to Japanese sensitiveness, the Japanese holding this would tend to give an air of inferiority to their nation. The ratio, however, is indirectly provided for in specific figures of total tonnage.

ANOTHER TREATY SCRAPPED BY NEW OPEN DOOR POLICY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The Lansing-Ishii agreement, by the terms of which the United States recognized Japan's superior interest in China, has been scrapped, is the view of some of the arms conference delegates, by the action yesterday of the Far Eastern committee in adopting the open door resolution.

One of the delegates today expressed the belief that this action amounted to a return to that open door policy of John Hay, which absolutely decried the superior right of any power to a special position in any part of China.

In this connection it was recalled today that Secretary Lansing and Viscount Ishii in recent years developed a decided difference of opinion as to the scope of this document, the former secretary of state being disposed to limit its operation narrowly, with the attitude of America towards Mexico as a basis for the agreement.

LOST MEMORY, LILLY'S PLEA

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—J. Frank Lilly, Broadway broker who failed in 1919, was arraigned today on a charge of larceny in the first degree. Lilly was found at Dallas, Texas and brought to New York by detectives.

TEXAS CO. MAKES FOUR LOCATIONS NORTH OF TOWN

Two Wells on Dennison and Two on Chambliss to Be Drilled Immediately.

Four locations have been made by the Texas company on the Hagaman leases a few miles north and northeast of the city limits, in Stephens county, and drilling is to be started as soon as possible. Water is to be furnished for all four wells from the Hagaman lake under an arrangement with the Ranger Water company. A number of other locations have been made by the Texas company in parts of Stephens county, it is reported.

Two of the four locations near Ranger are located on the Dennison tract four miles north of town and the other two on the Chambliss tract, about three and a half miles northeast of town. Both of these properties belong to M. H. Hagaman.

These are the first locations the Texas company has made in the immediate Ranger territory in many months.

About two years ago the company drilled a number of good producers in this locality, and it is possible that the four locations are the beginning of a considerable revival in activity there.

Oil men look upon the announcement as but the forerunner of a general campaign which they have for some time predicted would be staged during 1922.

TWENTY IN STEPHENS. BRECKENRIDGE, Jan. 19.—

The Texas company has started a large development program with twenty new locations in Stephens county. One is on the Black Brothers ranch near Clear Fork, where, according to high company officials, fifty locations will be made every six months. The locations announced Tuesday by the Texas company touch practically every important field in the county. The company has its own water line to the Clear Fork and is not hampered by the water shortage, which is holding up development at the hands of many operators.

HERE'S BIRD WHO HAS A DIFFERENT CRUELTY YARN

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Charges that private soldiers who had committed minor offenses were doled out to death under an icy shower at Savenay, France, were made before the senate investigating committee today.

James Elliott of Newark, N. J., swore he saw guards punish men who were late for sentry duty by holding them for twenty minutes with their clothing on under a stream of cold water, and that several men died from the effects.

POPE BENEDICT ILL

ROME, Jan. 19.—Pope Benedict, who suffered from severe bronchial catarrh and probably a touch of influenza yesterday, was considerably improved today, his physicians informed the United Press.

Attending physicians who visited the pope denied alarmist rumors of his illness.

Physicians, however, said they found Pope Benedict's fever, which was 103 on Wednesday, lowering appreciably, and "general conditions better."

VACATION-SEEKING BOY BELIEVED TO HAVE CUT CENTRAL SCHOOL GAS

The primary grades of the Central ward school took an enforced holiday this morning until noon, as the result of low gas pressure in the building said to have been caused by some one tampering with the cut-off on Marston street. The fact that the gas had been partly turned off was not discovered, Superintendent McNew said, until an inspector from the gas company arrived, after the children had been sent home. All the city schools with the exception of the Central ward school were sufficiently heated this morning, school authorities reported, and it was expected to have the various buildings used by the Central ward school comfortably heated by noon today.

Manager Clewell of the gas company stated this morning that there is plenty of gas for everybody and that in all cases where the gas pressure is found to be low, the company should be notified at once, in order that the local trouble may be remedied. The Central ward school was the only place from which the gas pressure was reported weak. Mr. Clewell said, and explained that the trouble there had been caused by someone partially turning off the gas at the meter, presumably as a prank.

An eight-ounce pressure is nominally maintained in the mains, the manager explained as a matter of safety, but as the result of the extra demand caused by the cold wave, sixteen-ounce pressure is now being maintained in the mains over the city.

NO CANNED WORSHIP.

At first glance, had news for preachers would seem to be embodied in an item elsewhere in today's Times. Apparently, it is a simple matter for amateur wireless operators everywhere to listen in on happenings occurring hundreds and thousands of miles away.

Instances of this sort might tend to the belief that some day a few eminent divines would do practically all the preaching in the United States and that the others would have to seek other vocations.

Such a condition, however, is improbable. The average church goer perhaps will always prefer to go to his own church and hear his own pastor, despite the fact that more polished and erudite sermons and more artistic music, delivered and rendered elsewhere, could be had merely by tuning up the family wireless. He will still prefer the old-fashioned way because it gives him a personal touch with worship, which the canned variety could not give him.

The wireless church services will no more displace the present church services than the phonograph has displaced the dance orchestra, in spite of the fact that the phonograph perhaps furnishes more artistic music. It is the personal touch of the orchestra with the dances that continues to keep the latter popular.

With newspapers, with everything else, it is the same. Despite improved communication facilities, which promise to make the whole earth able to converse anywhere instantaneously, and perhaps in time see occurrences elsewhere, each community will always maintain its own individuality, and take more interest in the things that happen close to home.

HI BASKETEERS PLAY SATURDAY AT NITRO PARK

Ranger High plays its second basketball game of the season when it meets Crossroads High at Nitro park, Saturday at 4 o'clock. With an additional week of practice with both teams fighting to win, so as to enter the county meet, Feb. 4, a better game is expected than was seen last Saturday when Ranger defeated Cheaney. Should Ranger win this game she will have won two and lost none and will be sure to enter the county meet. But should Crossroads win, Ranger will have one more chance to win two out of three games, that with Olden to be played here tomorrow week.

Crossroads has a good record so far this season and from all reports will have a strong team on the court tomorrow. Coach Hart has given his team several new plays since last Saturday's game and says his quintet is in tiptop condition. The men who will start the game tomorrow for Ranger are: Hazard, Pruitt, Henshaw, Mills and Huffman.

CANADIANS VISIT RANGER DURING TRIP OVER OIL FIELDS

Officials of the Drury Petroleum company and a party of thirty-five Canadian and eastern capitalists, who have been inspecting the company holdings near Cisco, passed through this city yesterday morning in making a circuit of the Eastland, Ranger, Caddo and Breckenridge operations. The party was in a number of cars and returned from Breckenridge to Cisco. The party previously made trips over the Sipe Springs and Rising Star areas in their general inspection of the Texas oil fields.

Company officials in the party included: Cyrus Drury, president; W. A. Brown, vice president; Charles G. Walker, treasurer; A. B. Graham, secretary and J. K. Gano, field superintendent.

WHERE TO OBTAIN INCOME TAX BLANKS

Income tax blanks may be obtained early next week from Karl Jones, accountant, at the Chamber of Commerce, so long as his supply lasts. Mr. Jones announced this morning. He will go to Dallas Saturday and bring back a supply. Blanks also may be had after tomorrow upon application to the collector of internal revenue at Dallas, a communication from George C. Hopkins, collector, announces. The communication states that corporations needing large quantities of blank forms 1096 and 1099 should make request direct to the bureau of internal revenue at Washington.

No schedule for the traveling collectors who visit Ranger and other towns in this district has been announced.

SIMPSON-ALEXANDER STOCK SOLD TODAY

The bankrupt stock of the Simpson-Alexander Mercantile company was sold at auction this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the former location of the firm on Main street. A number of Dallas and other out-of-town buyers reached Ranger last night and this morning to attend the sale.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS

By GEORGE BINGHAM

A man came by one day this week and wanted to buy the second-hand baby buggy that for many years has been in use in the family of Jefferson Petlocks. But Jeff would not part with it, as it comes in so handy on circus days, to put the big children in and haul them past the ticket taker as being under age.

Sidney Hocks took his fiddle over to Luke Mathews's house the other night and rendered several pieces, including "A Midsummer Night's Serenade." He dressed for this piece, having on his summer necktie.

Atlas Peck says when the children get right quiet for a while he always grows suspicious, for that is a sign they are doing something they ought not to.

TEACHERS STRONG ARM TRUNKS AS GAS PIPE BREAK THREATENS HOME

TEACHERS STRONG—DC 30 Young women teachers at the teacherage late yesterday afternoon performed undreamed-of feats of strength by hurling trunks from upstairs windows, when alarmed for the safety of their personal belongings by a threatened fire in the building. The trunk hurling started when the feed pipe of a gas stove became disconnected from the stove and the flame shot forth into a room from the mouth of the pipe. Fire extinguishers were brought into use and the flame put out before the arrival of the fire department. Firemen turned off the gas until the break could be repaired and carried a number of trunks back into the building.

COSSACKS ON RAID PASS UP RELIEF GOODS

NIKOLAIEVSK, Samara Province, Russia, Dec. 26.—(By Mail).—Cossacks counter-revolutionaries who have just raided this place respected to the last detail the American relief administration supplies but shot fifty Communists, blew up the principal building of the town, and looted Soviet government warehouses filled with furs, matches, skins, tobacco and military stores. Their entrance was picturesque. They came in 800 strong, mounted on black horses, and each man and woman armed with rifles, two slings of cartridge belts, knives and pistols. Riding at their head was their leader, Safins, tall and wearing a ferocious-looking black beard. Behind the cavalry came a train of 200 wagons, brought from the fastness of the Ural mountains to carry away the loot.

Have Discipline. Their actions were regulated with much discipline. Arriving early on a Saturday morning, they first cut all telegraph wires, then rounded up the Communists and executed them. The people of the town were notified from the public square that they would not be shot or injured, and also Safins ordered that C. E. Floete, of San Francisco, the only American in the place and in charge of the relief supplies for the children, be notified that American supplies would not be looted.

During the day the Soviet supplies were loaded on the wagons, 175 prisoners were released from the jails, all the available horses were taken, and the counter-revolutionary band departed. On the way out they passed undisturbed other American supplies.

Priests Locked Up. When the Communists returned, they at once locked up the village priests and shot a number of villagers guilty of looting the stores left by the counter-revolutionary band. In this region there are 140,000 children, 46,000 of whom are being fed by the Americans. The others are starving. The country is desolate, barren of grass and trees and its scanty crops of the past summer were all requisitioned. In September, 24,000,000 pounds of flour were milled here and all of it shipped to Moscow or Petrograd, for the Red army, or other uses. Unlike other towns, here no food of any kind is to be had for the money.

STAMFORD WILL PIPE WATER SIXTEEN MILES

STAMFORD, Texas, Jan. 19.—A deal has just been consummated in which the city of Stamford absorbs the Stamford Waterworks company, owned by the Swenson brothers of New York. This is the final step in the consummation of municipal ownership of the city waterworks. A little more than three years ago the city voted $450,000 in bonds with which to dam the Clear Fork of the Brazos river, thus establishing a permanent system for the city. The construction of the dam began three years ago and while in course of construction high water damaged it to a very serious extent. Overcoming this difficulty the dam has been completed and the pipe lines laid from the Clear Fork of the Brazos to Stamford, some sixteen miles.

YOUNG SCHOOL GIRLS, CENTRAL BOYS, BEST IN BASKETBALL GAMES

Watched by a large and enthusiastic crowd of high school and ward school students, Young and Central schools battled for ward honors in two games of basketball Thursday afternoon at the Central court. The girls' game, refereed by J. B. Caldwell, resulted 25 to 7 in favor of Young. The boys' game, refereed by W. J. Herrington, went to Central, 23 to 17. Both games were cleanly played.

POLICE HOLD PIPE

Eighteen joints of two-inch tubing, thought by the police to have been stolen from some of the leases near the city, is being held at police headquarters for the owner. The tubing was found by the police in some weeds just off North Austin street, where it had evidently been thrown from a wagon.

CULBERSON UNDECIDED ABOUT SENATORIAL RACE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senator Charles A. Culbertson has not yet decided whether he will make the race for the United States senate to succeed himself. He has been considered a certain candidate among the politically minded in Texas for more than a year, but it is known in government circles that the senator is now debating in his own mind whether, in his impaired physical condition, he will hazard another race, or retire after a continuous service of the people of Texas lasting twenty-eight years, and an aggregate of thirty-two years.

SMALL-CURTIS CASES LIKELY TO BE DELAYED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.—Indefinite postponement of the Small-Curtis conspiracy cases at Waukegan was in prospect last night when word reached States Attorney C. F. SPEND THEIR HONEYMOON ON ELLIS ISLAND

Violin Player and Actress Spoon Too Much and Are Ordered Deported.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—By an unusual procedure on the part of the Ellis Island authorities, Alexander Vernesca and Helena Dobresco were taken, under guard to an attaché, to the municipal building and, after their marriage there, were returned to the island, where a board of special inquiry re-excluded them and ordered them deported.

"Too much spooning," was the explanation given by one in authority, who added that the marriage was mainly to establish whether or not their "intentions were honorable."

Once Denied Admittance. Previous records in the case show that Vernesca and his bride were denied admittance to the United States when they arrived here on the steamer King Alexander, Nov. 1, because of their failure to observe American standards. Both admitted they were very much in love with each other.

Vernesca claimed to be a violin player, while Miss Dobresco said she had been playing roles of heavy tragedy in Rumania, where they both came from in the hope of delighting audiences in America.

Rumors of their spooning aboard ship, linked with their spooning every day when permitted to see each other had much to do with their exclusion. They were once put aboard an outgoing ship for deportation but were saved at the last minute by a writ of habeas corpus.

Ask Right to Marry. A pudgy hand holds a Japanese fan and his eyes and mouth are wide open as if in amazement at the approaching future. Nikki is regarded as the most attractive in the claim charms of which have appeared since 1914. His quilted satin coat gives him a friendly fireside air which endears him to everyone.

They were re-excluded and began yesterday their honeymoon on Ellis Island where they will await a further appeal for admittance.

TREASURER SUED BY ATTORNEYS FOR COUNTY

EASTLAND, Jan. 19.—Damages of $500 are asked against County Treasurer Ed Pritchard and the National Surety company, in a suit filed yesterday afternoon in Ninety-first district court by Burket & Orr, as plaintiffs, to force the payment of a county warrant for $625. It is set forth that the county treasurer stopped payment of the warrant at the county depository and the plaintiffs have been damaged to the extent of $500 by his act. The petition further states that the warrant was issued several days ago by the county treasurer's office on instructions from the commissioners' court, in payment of fees due the plaintiffs for legal work performed for the county in 1921. The case has been set for hearing tomorrow morning.

STAMFORD WILL PIPE WATER SIXTEEN MILES

STAMFORD, Texas, Jan. 19.—A deal has just been consummated in which the city of Stamford absorbs the Stamford Waterworks company, owned by the Swenson brothers of New York. This is the final step in the consummation of municipal ownership of the city waterworks. A little more than three years ago the city voted $450,000 in bonds with which to dam the Clear Fork of the Brazos river, thus establishing a permanent system for the city. The construction of the dam began three years ago and while in course of construction high water damaged it to a very serious extent. Overcoming this difficulty the dam has been completed and the pipe lines laid from the Clear Fork of the Brazos to Stamford, some sixteen miles.

YOUNG SCHOOL GIRLS, CENTRAL BOYS, BEST IN BASKETBALL GAMES

Watched by a large and enthusiastic crowd of high school and ward school students, Young and Central schools battled for ward honors in two games of basketball Thursday afternoon at the Central court. The girls' game, refereed by J. B. Caldwell, resulted 25 to 7 in favor of Young. The boys' game, refereed by W. J. Herrington, went to Central, 23 to 17. Both games were cleanly played.

POLICE HOLD PIPE

Eighteen joints of two-inch tubing, thought by the police to have been stolen from some of the leases near the city, is being held at police headquarters for the owner. The tubing was found by the police in some weeds just off North Austin street, where it had evidently been thrown from a wagon.

CULBERSON UNDECIDED ABOUT SENATORIAL RACE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senator Charles A. Culbertson has not yet decided whether he will make the race for the United States senate to succeed himself. He has been considered a certain candidate among the politically minded in Texas for more than a year, but it is known in government circles that the senator is now debating in his own mind whether, in his impaired physical condition, he will hazard another race, or retire after a continuous service of the people of Texas lasting twenty-eight years, and an aggregate of thirty-two years.

SMALL-CURTIS CASES LIKELY TO BE DELAYED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 19.—Indefinite postponement of the Small-Curtis conspiracy cases at Waukegan was in prospect last night when word reached States Attorney C. F. Mortimer of Sangamon county that Vernon S. Curtis, co-defendant with Governor Len Small, is quarantined at his Grant Park, Ill. home where his son is ill with diphtheria.

COURT DENIES KAUFF'S RIGHT TO BASEBALL JOB

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Benny Kauff, suspended Giant outfielder, was denied by Supreme Justice Whitaker an injunction restraining the National Exhibition company—the Giant owners—and Judge K. M. Landis from continuing his suspension from professional baseball.

Justice Whitaker held that there was no grounds for an injunction since Kauff's contract with the Giants expired last October.

Kauff was suspended by Judge Landis following his appearance in court in connection with the sale of a stolen automobile. He was acquitted, but he never has been restored to baseball.

TEST TO BE DRILLED IN DALLAS COUNTY

DALLAS, Jan. 19.—Drilling for oil and gas is about to be undertaken on a large scale in Dallas county. C. R. Rea of Lancaster and E. I. Newblock and John A. Sheppard of Tulsa, Okla., filed for record with the county clerk leases on a block of 6,000 acres of land four and one-half miles southwest of Lancaster.

It is stipulated in the leases that they shall terminate March 1, 1922 unless before that date the actual work of drilling shall have been begun by the lessees at some point north of the south line of Dallas county, east of a line extending north and south through the town of De Soto, and south of a line extending east and west one mile north of De Soto, and west of a line extending north and south four miles east of De Soto.

FIRE DESTROYS RESIDENCE OF JUDGE STARNES

Special to the Times.
 EASTLAND, Jan. 19.—Fire completely destroyed the residence of County Judge C. R. Starnes here Wednesday afternoon. The loss is estimated at $7,000, partly protected by insurance, there being $3,500 insurance on the house and $700 on the contents. With the exception of a piano, two chests and a trunk, all the contents were consumed by the flames.

The fire broke out while no one was at home except Judge Starnes' baby boy and a negro washerwoman. The little fellow toddled out the back door and gravely informed the negro who was washing clothes in the back yard, that the house was on fire. She rushed to the kitchen and saw that the room was rapidly becoming a mass of flames, and she turned in the alarm.

The house consisted of six rooms and a hall and was located on Pershing street. It is believed that the fire originated in a hot water heater as the washerwoman had the fire burning there to provide plenty of water for her work and that the blaze in some way spread.

LEGISLATORS THINK RASCALS COMPOSE ALL STATE BOARDS

AUSTIN, Jan. 19.—"Absolutely no confidence is reposed in the governing board of any state institution by the legislature of the state," Dr. Robert E. Vinson, president of the University of Texas, declared before the executive board of the Federated clubs of Texas, which held a two-day session here.

"Rascality of the officials is presupposed, and we are so hampered by petty restrictions as to make progress very uncertain and almost impossible," Dr. Vinson continued.

"Never before in my opinion has the educational system of Texas been in such jeopardy. The educational institutions of the state must be made independent of the governor, the legislature, the supreme court. There is but one way of attaining this goal, and that is by constitutional amendment."

OLDEN BEATS EASTLAND.
 EASTLAND, Jan. 19.—Olden High school basketball team was victorious in a game on the local court Wednesday afternoon against the Eastland High squad. The score was 26 to 11. The game was unofficial and does not affect the standing of the two teams in the race for the county championship.

TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY—

I wish to take this method of announcing my candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Eastland County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July. I have lived in Eastland county for twenty-seven years, spending most of my life in and around Gorman. I have been a peace officer and deputy sheriff for several years and I am well acquainted with the duties of a sheriff. I have resided in this county long enough that the people know me, know my character and know that I stand for the enforcement of the law. I believe in the capture and punishment of all law violators, and promise you that if I am elected your sheriff to go to the full extent of my ability in capturing and punishing all violators of the law. We cannot have a clean county unless lawlessness is wiped out and it will not be wiped out until the officers of the law fulfill their oath of office. I solicit your earnest support and influence, and you may rest assured that, if the majority of the voters of Eastland county see fit to give me their vote, I will endeavor to make Eastland county the best sheriff it has ever had.

CABINET BUCKS AT GOVERNMENT ECONOMY PLAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The administration's scheme of executive reorganization, one of the basic parts of the program for putting "more business in government," has collapsed, at least for some time.

The collapse is due chiefly to the opposition of cabinet heads to the realignment of departments that was contemplated.

While efforts will later be made to revive the scheme and put it into effect, it was said that to work out a solution would be a very slow process.

President Harding made every effort to accomplish the reorganization, and the obstacles encountered were displeasing to him. But they could not be overcome.

COMPULSORY EXERCISE IS URGED AT EASTLAND

Special to the Times.
 EASTLAND, Jan. 19.—If the girls of today would take more exercise, nature would tint their cheeks with the glow of health and they would not need to use paint. So stated H. S. Parker, member of the local high school faculty, in an address to the students of the high school Wednesday. He discussed the need of physical training on the part of the American people, particularly the school children. He estimated that not more than 20 per cent of the school children of America are taking part in athletic work and he urged that facilities should be provided for physical training and that it be made compulsory.

MRS. SALLIE HORN DIES AT SON'S HOME NEAR WILES

Mrs. Sallie Horn, 62, mother of R. L. Horn, superintendent of the Palo Pinto Oil company at Wiles, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her son in that place. Death followed an attack of heart trouble.

Mrs. Horn had been a resident of Wiles for over two years. She is survived by two sons, R. L. and E. E. Horn of Wiles, and four daughters. The body will be sent to her former home in Brashear today by the Milford Undertaking company.

EASTLAND AFTER $2,000 FOR SALVATION ARMY FUND

EASTLAND, Jan. 19.—An appeal for $2,000 to carry on the activities of the Salvation Army here until Nov. 1 has been launched. This sum is needed in addition to the $500 already pledged by the Rotary club. Captain Mullins, who came here from Ranger at the beginning of this week, is in charge of the newly established headquarters here.

CORONER'S JURY LAUDS GANGSTER'S SLAYERS

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—"I am sorry I cannot pin medals on these policemen."

Deputy Coroner Dever made this statement after the jury in the inquest had returned a verdict that John J. Doyle, 28 years old, gangster and ex-convict, had been shot by the police in the performance of their duty.

Doyle was fatally shot during a 60-mile-an-hour automobile chase yesterday in which he was pursued by a police automobile and during which fifty shots were fired by the officers and twelve by Doyle and his two companions.

Planes May Reduce Time Around World From Eighty-nine Days to Seventeen

By Associated Press.
 PARIS, Jan. 19.—A trip around the world in seventeen days by international mailplanes is regarded as one of the possibilities of the future by airplane experts. They say seventeen-day schedules with stops for deliveries at the chief cities en route may be realized when trans-atlantic flying becomes a reality.

A suggestion for even reducing the time to 300 hours was made by one expert who said this would be possible if "airmen's islands of floating fuel bases" were stationed at points in the Atlantic where the mailplanes could replenish their fuel. Such a scheme would make possible a speed of 100 miles an hour, he estimated.

It is claimed that in a recent test a letter dispatched from New York by land and sea went around the world in 89 days and that this is the world's record to date.

FARMER ARRESTED AFTER MAN'S BODY IS FOUND IN WATER HOLE

MOUNT PLEASANT, Texas, Jan. 19.—Luck Walker, a farmer about 40 years old, was arrested late Wednesday afternoon on a complaint charging murder in connection with the death of Don Turner.

Turner had been missing for several days. This morning his body was found in a pool west of Mount Pleasant.

Walker was remanded to jail without bond to await the action of the Titus county grand jury, which is now in session.

 From all appearances Turner had been in the pool two weeks. There was a wound on his forehead.

M. L. DAVENPORT, Chief of Police.

Washington's birthday party, the decorations being carried out along those lines. The house was decorated in the national colors, and a picture of the Father of Our Country, draped in the colors was hung very effectively between the colonnades in the living room. Flags, flower pots and baskets in red, white and blue, with tiny hatchets for souvenirs, further carried out the decoration scheme.

Now, this was a birthday party and each visitor was supposed to contribute as many pennies as she was years old, and perhaps this gallant gentleman who "couldn't tell a lie," was responsible for the large number of pennies that swelled the waiting basket. Several contests were featured during the afternoon, one being a "penny contest," the answers being found on a penny, and the other was a "Bible contest." Mmes. J. E. T. Peters and George Taggart were leaders in this contest, each choosing sides as in a spelling contest, and Mrs. Peters' side won.

The presidents of the various other church organizations were asked to be present and to represent their societies. Mrs. A. N. Stubblebine made a talk in behalf of the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church, and also represented Mrs. Burden, president of the St. Mary's Guild, who could not be present. Her subject was "Ideals." Her talk was short, but very interesting and to the point. Mrs. Blodgett, president of the Woman's Missionary society of the Christian church, made an interesting talk on "The Requirements of the Women of the Missionary Societies." Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, president of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church, made a splendid talk on "City Federation."

Mrs. Blodgett was assisted in receiving by Mrs. White, Mrs. Garber and other members of the Missionary union, while Mmes. C. A. Means, W. R. Eaves and H. T. Carpenter, dressed as maids, served a delicious sweet course. This was but another one of those affairs that strengthens "the tie that binds," these church organizations together, a further cementing of their sisterhood, whose work, regardless of their respective church is for the same sweet Master.

Among those present were: Mmes. Roy Wilkes, John Barnes, John Fulcher, J. F. Jones, W. R. Eaves, W. C. Marlowe, A. K. Weir, S. M. McMullen, M. H. Hagaman, A. N. Stubblebine, W. S. Blodgett, C. W. YOUNG SCHOOL PARENT-TEACHERS' CLUB MEETING.
The Parent-Teachers' club of the Young school met Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was opened by the repeating of the Lord's prayer, in union. Mrs. Lyon's room was the reception room for the afternoon and her class gave some very interesting memory and reading tests.

Among them was the story of "The Red Cross Dog," the pupils giving memory selections from the story. Six girls in union gave memory selections from "The National Flag" and "It Isn't Raining Now" (which wasn't disputed). Nine boys gave "The Flag Goes By," while seven boys gave "The Grapevine Swing." "The Footpath to Peace" was rendered by five girls, as was "America Called." Tommy Knight gave a reading, "Dates in History." Margery Maddocks read "His Mother's Cooking," and Florence Kerr read "Somebody's Mother." J. E. T. Peters was present and made a short talk of the Lyceum course and on poll tax paying, which was greatly appreciated.

Dr. Sanford Terrell favored the association and its guests with a splendid talk on "Some Things That Mothers Ought to Know."

After the regular business was dispensed with the club adjourned to meet on Jan. 31.

RECTOR DISAPPEARS FROM HOME IN CHICAGO.
CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Search was being conducted here for the Rev. William F. Taylor, rector of St. Christopher's Episcopal church of Oak Park, said to have been missing since Saturday when he left the table at which his wife and three children were seated, and wandered coastless from the room.

According to information received by the Rev. George Craig Stewart, brother-in-law of the missing man and pastor of an Evanston church, Taylor notified Bishop Anderson Saturday that he wished some one to care for his pastorate for two or three days.

Tee Pee Folk Dance in Celebration of Wedding and Birthday Anniversaries

One of the prettiest affairs of the season was a dance and buffet luncheon given by the Tee Pee employees last night, in the auditorium at the Tee Pee camp, north of town. This function was in honor of the twenty-second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Watson, the thirty-first birthday of R. J. Fleckenstein, superintendent of the warehouse, and as a farewell to Miss Dora Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Watson, who leaves Monday for Fort Worth, to enter Texas Woman's college. Mr. Watson is general manager of the T. P. Coal & Oil company at Ranger, and the employees of the company, and various friends who were present, were only too glad of this opportunity to give "flowers to the living," in the way of congratulations on the happy occasion of his and Mrs. Watson's wedding anniversary, as were they also glad to wish Mr. Fleckenstein many happy returns of the day, and to wish Miss Watson success and happiness in her school life.

On the reception committee were Mrs. L. Ward, Mrs. L. A. Hartung, Mrs. Harold Whitbeck, Mr. Benjamin Via, J. W. Ward, Mrs. R. C. Steidham, and L. A. Hartung. The auditorium was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being carried out in gold and purple. Real palms, and rubber plants were used in decorating, and cedars and other greenery further suggested tropical scenery. One corner of the room was banked with these plants, which formed a bower for the orchestra. Floor lamps, effectively placed, added a pleasing home-like atmosphere to this effective bit of artistry. The ceiling lights were decorated with purple and gold ribbons, which were twined and intertwined from one to another. The windows were banked in cedars and evergreens. A clever electrician had arranged an electric star in one corner of the auditorium and the lights were turned off during the moonlight dance, a wonderful effect, suggesting all the romance and glamour of the moonlight, the witchery of the Southern climes, was produced.

A buffet luncheon served during the evening was especially enjoyed. This function was attended by at least seventy-five couples. Among those present were officials from practically all the oil companies operating in Ranger, who were also glad of the opportunity to extend congratulations and felicitations to the honor guests, who are all popular on the outside of the "Camp" as well as within its confines.

Dancing was enjoyed until the "wee sma' hours." The music was furnished by the Mile Hi orchestra, and all who have heard this orchestra knows just what that means—and it seems that the very nature of the affair, honoring these dear friends, the beautiful setting of the scene, called for their very best. This dance will probably be a forerunner of other dances to be held at the Tee Pee camp, at any rate those who were fortunate enough to be present at this one hope so, and will be watching the social calendar to see when the next one is going to be. As hosts, the Tee Pee employees did their company honor, as everyone present pronounced it one of the prettiest and most enjoyable dances they had ever attended. A list of those present will not be given other than those who attended from Thurbur, which are as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. George Pauowski, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cozoe, Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman, Bill Creighton, C. A. Brewster, E. H. Sojourner, Obie Merrett.

WOMAN SEEKS CAVEMAN WHEN HER MARRIAGE WITH HIGHBROW FAILS

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—When Nina Lane became Mrs. Isaac McBride, some nine years ago, she admired her husband, a magazine writer and lecturer, for his intellect. Isaac also admired that faculty, it would seem, for he imparted it freely. In a husbandly manner he tried to share his mental superiority with his wife.

McBride taught her the intricacies of political economy and showed her the ways of logic. For her benefit he methodically analyzed problems and objects, big and small. Even his wife's gowns were chemically and geometrically analyzed.

Too much logic pallid on Mrs. McBride, who is an artist and as such possesses a temperament as well as a mind. Calling on the power of reasoning, her husband had developed in her, she directed it to an analysis of their marriage. Now she has applied to the court of Connecticut for a divorce. "Intolerable mental cruelty" is the charge.

Was Economical in Kisses, She Says. Mrs. McBride tells a woeful tale of cruelty. Isaac, she said, answered her kisses with economy—and with dissertations on political economy. He was taciturn on the subject of affection, but voluble on intellectual questions.

When his wife would dress attractively in a new gown, McBride would not express the admiration she desired. Instead he would analyze the chemicals in the colors of the gown. He would define the geometrical lines of the dress, going into minute details.

The education of Mrs. McBride began on their honeymoon. Hour after hour, she said, she had to listen while he hurled questions at her. "What's price?" "What's value?" "Define the difference between abstract and concrete labor?"

McBride, made enthusiastic by several books he had published on political economy, imparted some of his mania to his wife. She grew sufficiently interested to work with him. For a while both gave lectures on various phases of economics.

Then her analysis of their home life changed things. Mrs. McBride is not angry at her husband. Her analysis merely showed that nine years of logic was enough. It showed that they would fare better if each found another mate. So Mrs. McBride set forth to apply the results of her reasoning.

She has been half successful. Mr. McBride has found the girl he wants for his next wife. She is Lena Brauneis, one of their neighbors at Redding Ridge, Conn.

She Likes the "Other Woman." Mrs. McBride is not in the least jealous of the "other woman." Indeed, she entertains Miss Brauneis in her home. Lena's father, a butcher, is opposed to a married man wooing his daughter. He will not allow McBride in the little parlor above the butcher shop. So Mrs. McBride has given over her cozy sitting room to the courtship of her husband and Lena. Frequently the wife helps in the entertaining, singing while Lena plays the piano.

Once divorced, Mrs. McBride will go in search of a husband, she says. And this contemplated marriage, by the way, will be her third. The first to a business man, was unsatisfactory; the second, to an intellectual, likewise unsatisfactory; the third, in prospect, is to be a caveman, a man with a smaller mind than McBride's, but with a much, much bigger heart.

LEGLESS MAN MAKES GETAWAY FROM JAIL.
DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 19.—If the Des Moines police ever capture a physically perfect criminal the jail guard will be doubled—if they expect to keep him.

This was the sentiment following the escape of Jack O'Donnell, a legless inmate held for housebreaking. O'Donnell rode his coaster wagon down two flights of stairs and past the squad room where officers were on duty, to liberty.

YOUNG LOCATES TROUBLE.
DETROIT, Jan. 19.—"Pop" Young, Tiger second baseman, whose weird throwing last year continually kept Detroit fandon on the anxious seat and finally led to his removal from the lineup, has located the cause of the trouble, and is undergoing treatment at Philadelphia, which he expects to put him in first-class shape for the opening of the coming season, according to a letter he has written to a friend here.

"WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD"
Wichita Falls Man Indorses Ferrasal for Kidney Trouble.

I have suffered with kidney trouble and indigestion for many years. When Miss Fisher came to Smith's Drug store three weeks ago I had not eaten a square meal in five years without almost dying. I have taken three boxes of Ferrasal, and can eat anything I want without any bad effects. My kidney trouble is just about gone, and I feel better in every way. I would like everyone to know that Ferrasal is worth its weight in gold to all suffering people. I shall forever prize it.

R. B. SPANGLE, 1305 14th St., Wichita Falls, Tex.

Acid stomach and indigestion, disagreeable enough in themselves are also the cause of many serious and chronic ills. Ulcers of the stomach, chronic bowel trouble, impure blood, kidney trouble and rheumatism can be traced directly to neglected acid stomach. Ferrasal neutralizes the excess acids that cause these ailments and expels them from the system. Mr. Spangle is only one of the thousands Ferrasal has benefited. Profit by his experience and buy a 50c box of Ferrasal from your druggist. It will permanently relieve all forms of acidity and improve your general health, or he will refund your money.

Child Welfare Club Makes Report on Holiday Aid Work

The Child Welfare club met with Mrs. C. C. Craig Tuesday afternoon in regular session, at which time a detailed report was made to the club by Mrs. D. M. Steele, treasurer, with regard to moneys received and disbursed during the holidays. It was shown that eighty baskets delivered to the needy were filled at a cost of $4.95 per basket, which report was very gratifying to the club. The above amount does not include the toys and in some cases clothing material, both of which were furnished by the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church.

The Child Welfare club is doing some very wonderful work. This work, of course, has largely been possible by the splendid work of the Rotary club in raising funds and the very liberal response of the public towards their efforts, as well as the "Cheer Jar Funds" and contributions through the Ranger Daily Times, and this club is putting forth every effort to see that the money is expended only on worthy cases. The books are in splendid shape, and open for inspection at all times, the club reports.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mrs. George Armer, president; Mrs. L. L. Rector, first vice president; Mrs. E. E. Crawford, second vice president; Mrs. Eben Finney, secretary; Mrs. D. M. Steele, treasurer.

MAYBE WE'LL HAVE THIS HERE IF ANTI-LYNCHING BILL PASSES CONGRESS.
JAFFA, Palestine, Jan. 19.—The government forces in this district are attempting to stop rioting here by imposing fines on the inhabitants of the communities which participate in them and following this up with raids upon the towns and villages in the Jaffa district to collect the fines.

The experiment is an unusual one and its success up to the present, is not evident. The Zionists are jubilant and see in this action a definite alignment of the government on their side. On the other hand, it has stirred up bitter feelings on the part of the natives who see in the government's action the beginning of Jewish domination and the betrayal of their passionate longing for national freedom.

A fine amounting to $25,000 was imposed by the government on five towns and villages in the Jaffa district for alleged attacks made last May by their inhabitants upon Jewish colonies nearby. To collect the fine large bodies of English, Jewish and Hindu troops having machine guns surrounded Tal Karen and four other villages near Jaffa, sent in men and confiscated all the livestock including the oxen, led the animals into the fields and placed them under guard.
