SEVEN DIE IN STEEL PLANT FIRE TODAY

PITTSBURG, Jan. 31.—Seven persons were burned to death early today when a fire, fanned by a high wind, destroyed fifteen temporary residences occupied by employees of the Carnegie Steel company at Clairton, fifteen miles from here.

FIGHTING A. E. F. JOURNALISTS TO MEET IN MAY

FORT WORTH, Jan. 31.—Three hundred newspaper and magazine writers have indicated their intention of attending the first annual reunion of the Fighting Journalists, A. E. F., which is scheduled to be held in Fort Worth the first week in May. The organization, which was organized in the army of occupation in Luxembourg, Jan. 26, 1919, will lay a "literary siege" to North Central Texas, according to advance announcement.

Membership in the Fighting Journalists is limited to writers who saw service with combat divisions in France. George E. Morrison of Fort Worth is secretary and treasurer. Many of the most prominent writers among the younger literary set in magazine and newspaper circles are members and their stories of the May convention, appearing in thousands of periodicals, are expected to be of immense value to Texas.

A special feature of the convention will be a de luxe tour of the oil fields. Entertainments also have been arranged, including an Indian buffalo hunt, a barbecue, a rodeo, and, of course, the visitors must see a "gish-er" shot.

Among the more notable members of the organization who are expected to attend are William Slavens McNutt of Colliers' Weekly, Major Bozeman Bulger, New York World; Captain Grantland Rice, New York Tribune; Captain William Howells, Cleveland Plain Dealer; Floyd Gibbons, Chicago Tribune, war correspondent, now editor of Paris edition of the Tribune; Charles V. Slattery, Chicago Examiner; E. W. Bachelor, military editor of Detroit News; Cornelius Vanderbilt, New York Herald, and other celebrities.

"Every Texan who is interested in the future development of the state, who expects to profit from oil, coal, agriculture, stock raising, mining or merchandising, will in years to come look back upon this convention as marking the date of the great forward movement of the commonwealth," predicted Secretary Morrison.

"When this publicity campaign finishes, there will be few people in the world who will not know that Texas offers them better opportunities for success and happiness than the place where they now live, or any other place to which they could go. Scores of famous writers in scores of newspapers and magazines will drive these truths home in an effort to win the big money in the prize story contests. These stories will provide a complete library for the future promotion of Texas industries."

"Texans have already shown their determination to do their part handsomely when the fighting writing men come, and it is likely that the more Texans do for the visitors, the heartier will be their reciprocation. It will be necessary to share part of the financial burden, as traveling these days is expensive, and all the members have been very busy for several months since their discharge from the army in reorganizing themselves on a peace basis."

PARRISH TRIES TO MAKE ISSUE PERSONALITIES

On a par with his first attempt to muzzle the press, and with the order Friday morning, which was quashed as soon as the city administration learned of it, prohibiting members of the Times staff from entering police headquarters to get police news, was Parrish's attack on Larry Smits and Paul Yates by handbill Friday night.

It was an attempt to sidestep the issue, which is open gambling and a clean town.

Were the Times to fall into his methods, it could, with perfect regard for the truth, a quality of which his handbill is guiltless, make an interesting report.

It might delve into Parrish's private life to furnish reading of the sort that he peddled, which on Parrish's assurance to members of the Times staff, would furnish a plenty.

The Times will not do this. The courts are better suited to the airing of such attacks than the columns of the Times. The matter already has been taken there.

Deranged by Flu Kills His Wife and Baby; Wounds Self

CLEVELAND, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Edith Sullman and her five-months-old daughter were shot to death early today and the husband and father is reported to be dying in a hospital with a bullet in his brain.

The police believe that Sullman, temporarily deranged by an attack of influenza, first killed his wife and baby and then shot himself.

Milford Co. Plans New Building at Rusk and Walnut

Plans for a modern fireproof structure at the corner of Rusk and Walnut streets, on the property recently purchased by John E. Milford, of the Milford Furniture company, are being drawn.

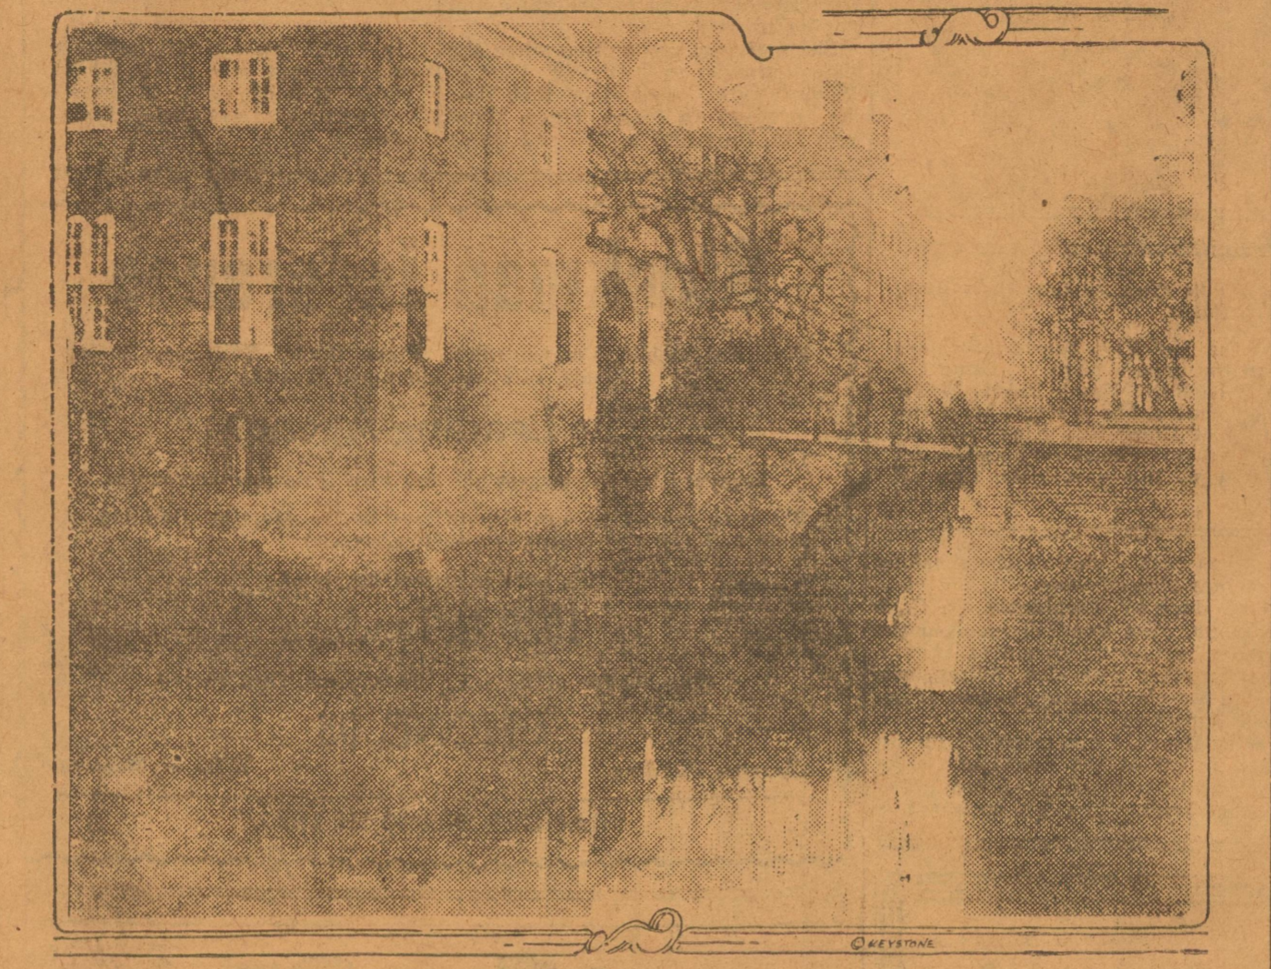

Mr. Milford expects to be in a position to make a definite announcement concerning his new building in a few days.

City Mission Board Named by Baptists

A city mission board for the Baptist church of this city has been appointed. The following persons have been named to serve on the board: J. E. Reyburn, chairman; Sam E. Bamber, secretary; Dr. Weir, Dr. Shelton, George W. Brasher, G. W. Williams, Dr. R. H. Hodges, C. W. Glenoud, Mrs. N. Walker, Mrs. J. B. Moore Sr., Mrs. A. Davenport, Mrs. Hurt and Mrs. Brown.

The Baptist church already has one mission here, the Lindsay mission, in the Riddle addition, under the charge of Rev. J. E. Drury. This mission has done splendid work since its establishment last October. Rev. Drury has been in charge about two months.

HOLLAND PROTECTS EX-KAISER, BUT WATER MAY DRIVE HIM OUT

Although Holland has decided to protect ex-Kaiser Wilhelm by refusing to turn him over to the allies, nature is making things uncomfortable for the former ruler and may force him to move from castle. Recent floods have threatened his quiet retreat in Amerongen.

Issue in Fight for Close of Gambling Remains Unchanged

The issue remains unchanged. Personal attacks cannot alter it. The Times is for a clean town. The Times is opposed to open gambling. Is Parrish? Do his actions in office prove it?

A scant third of the handbill purporting to be Chief Parrish's answer to the questions asked by the Times was given to reply. The Times would like to call attention to these excerpts: In answer to the question, "Why has open gambling persisted in spite of general knowledge of it?" the handbill says: "Every man knows and has known that gambling has been going on in the town of Ranger ever since oil was first discovered or has reasons to know and that it is no worse now than it ever has been. Every gambler in town knows this to be a fact. The general knowledge of being scattered broadcast as much as could possibly be done, aired and blown sky high, howled and preached in the last few days by a few thoughtful men whose sole duty and aim and sole intentions was to appease their revengeful appetites. Some political aim being their selfish aim."

Yet, in reply to a second "Why," the Chief's answer is: "Chief Parrish never at one time admitted knowledge of or knowing that there was any open gambling at any time to the investigating commissioners, nor anyone else."

Does this mean that Parrish did not know what he admits was general knowledge, or that he merely would not admit knowing? The paragraph just quoted continues: "But (Parrish) stated to the best of his knowledge and from what he could learn that there were some poker games going on in town, and upon receiving this information he immediately called upon his Police Commissioner to whom it was his duty to report to get his advice as to the best course to pursue; having had past experience towards assessing fines on gamblers and he knowing in the past that there had been but very little accomplished in the way of fining said gamblers, he having other things more drastic, more severe, up his sleeve."

This, his answer, when he assured the commission and the city, after the first session of flagrantly open gambling, that there would be no return and in the face of his offer of $20, to any man who could show him an open game! The paragraph concludes, "These trips to the Police Commissioner were made Friday, Saturday and last Sunday, which was attested to and proved before the commission, police commissioner being in Dallas Friday, Saturday and last Sunday. Chief Parrish finding the commissioner away told his, the commissioner's partner, of what he learned and what he intended doing regarding suppressing gambling. The City Editor, knows this to be a fact and why didn't he, Herr Smits, say so instead of so many whys?"

Commissioner Davenport also told the commissioners that it was his opinion that Parrish should not have waited to see him, but closed the games. Parrish's "intentions" have been expressed before, to the city commissioners, and twice to the Times, when he took office and when the first period of open gambling was called off.

In answer to "Why did the chief tell a representative of the Times that his hands were tied and tell the city commissioner that no one had a string to him?" the handbill says: "The Chief positively never told no man this; another political lie or revengeful lie, not a white lie, but a Pure Dee, 22 Karat, Ball Face, premeditated, uncalculated, stinking lie."

But this statement by Parrish, however, the Times can prove. The handbill continues: "Because of his own personal knowledge of what he that was best and that was to curb the cabarets, would be a great help towards abolishing of other things that came under his observation. That he (Parrish) knew to stop an evil of any kind, that he had to go to the bottom of and uproot its foundation as any reasonable thinking man knows, reasoning from cause to effect."

"You close the cabarets and I'll close gambling," he told them. He told the commissioners that one of his first requests, after his appointment as chief of police, was that the cabarets be closed. Members of the commission bore him out in this statement, as to his request for the closing of the cabarets, and voiced their disapproval of the places.

Parrish's assertion that he is and has been against the cabarets, as the Times can prove. He has yet to show where he has taken any steps to have the cabarets closed. At a conference at his house, where several cabaret owners were present, he offered to aid the cabaret owners to secure a restraining order preventing county officials from interfering with the cabarets. He strongly urged this action, and he had an attorney present at the meeting.

The closing paragraph of the handbill states: "The closing of the cabarets was not discussed to any great extent at the meeting." Exhaustion of patience of the commissioners cut off Parrish's tirade against these places, and the chief was reminded that the subject under investigation was open gambling.

Wife Offers Home to Sweetheart of Her Husband

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—A plea that her husband's sweetheart, Miss Emily Knowles, a young English girl, and her three-month-old baby be permitted to land in this country was made to the bureau of immigration at Washington by Mrs. Cora M. Spiker of Baltimore, wife of an American aviator.

Mrs. Spiker declared that she and her husband will adopt the child and offer Miss Knowles a home. Spiker's brother, who has never seen the girl, submitted an affidavit that he was willing to marry her. Miss Knowles and her baby came to this country with funds furnished by Mrs. Spiker, it was said.

GRAND JURY COMPLETES WORK IN CASE OF "REDS" CAUGHT BY GOVERNMENT

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Indictments against thirty-seven members of the Industrial Workers of the World were returned today by a special grand jury investigating radical activities.

The chief among those indicted were William D. Haywood, former secretary of the organization, and Thomas Whitehead, who succeeded Haywood as secretary.

The indictments complete the work of the "Red" grand jury. Last week the grand jury indicted eighty-five members of the Communist party and thirty-eight members of the Communist Labor party.

The charges in all cases are conspiracy to overthrow the government and advocating the overthrow of the government by means of force.

CROWN PRINCE TO BE DEMANDED BY THE ALLIES

PARIS, Jan. 31.—Included in the list of Germans, whose surrender by the Berlin government will be demanded by the allies, the Echo de Paris says, are former Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, Field Marshal Duke Albrecht of Wuerttemberg, Field Marshal van Kluck, Field Marshal von Buelow, Field Marshal von Mackensen, Baron von der Lancken, former civil governor of Brussels, Admiral von Capelle, former minister of marine, and Field Marshal von Sanders, who commanded the Turkish armies.

BASEL, Jan. 31.—Because of the alleged impossibility of insuring the execution of its orders for the surrender of the Germans accused of violations of the laws of war by the Allies, the German government will resign if the Entente powers insist upon their delivery, according to the newspaper Nachrichten, which says that it has received information from reliable sources.

T. P. WILL SPEND $8,500,000 FOR IMPROVEMENT

FORT WORTH, Jan. 31.—The Texas & Pacific is to spend $8,500,000 on improvements here as soon as it is assured that the railroads will be returned to private control, according to an announcement by Superintendent J. A. Somerville of the Texas & Pacific.

Italian General Is Kidnapped by D'Annunzio's Men

MILAN, Jan. 31.—General Nigra, commanding the Italian forty-ninth division stationed at Istri, was kidnapped Wednesday night by a party of D'Annunzio's troops while motoring along the armistice line and taken to Fiume, according to the newspaper Secolo.

VILLA DRIVEN FROM THE STATE OF CHIHUAHUA

JUAREZ, Mexico, Jan. 31.—General Manuel M. Dieguez, federal commander of military operations in the state of Chihuahua and in the Laguna (Torreon) district of Coahuila, with a force of from 20,000 to 25,000 men, has driven Francisco Villa almost entirely out of Chihuahua and forced him frequently to seek refuge in Coahuila or Durango, according to a summary of the military situation in Chihuahua given to the Associated Press by General J. Gonzalo Escobar, commander of the Juarez district.

Villa now has no more than 150 men, according to General Escobar. In every fair-sized town there is a garrison of from 500 to 1,000 federals, besides, occasionally, a flying column ready upon short notice to pursue the rebels, according to the Mexican commander. There are 1,600 soldiers in the Juarez district, of which 500 are stationed in Juarez proper.

Russian Relief Ship Is Ashore Off Norway Now

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Reports that the British steamer Willdomino, bound from New York to Dantzig with supplies for Poland, has gone ashore off the Norwegian coast, is viewed in a serious light here. The vessel carried a cargo of milk and other food, especially adaptable to feeding children, which would have met the pressing demands at Warsaw for two months.

Mary Pickford is an Optimist. When thousands upon thousands of people start to play the same game, a game that is unusual in its every detail, and yet quite simple, one naturally becomes interested. The game of "Pollyanna," in other words, the game of being "glad," has swept this country from coast to coast and it has gotten such a stronghold upon the people that they have gone so far as to exclaim that "If there was a 'Pollyanna' in every household, we would, in time, be able to close half of our hospitals and reformatories and sanatoriums—half of our medical schools and drug stores and we would put half of our physicians and lawyers out of practice."

For that reason, Mary Pickford, who will appear in the screen version of "Pollyanna" at the Lamb theater on Sunday, was recently asked to talk about this wonderful "glad game." This picture is Miss Pickford's first independently produced picture for United Artists corporation.

HIPPODROME.

Here's "Smiling Bill" Parsons with us again! This time it is in "Wanted—A Baby," newest of his Capitol Comedies distributed by Goldwyn, that the fat funster gives further proof that his transition from big business to an enviable place in the screen firmament was a joyous move not only for him, but for lovers of clean and original comedy the world over.

Thousands of motion picture enthusiasts, who up to a year ago had never even heard of the millionaire comedian, are today his greatest admirers. Parsons' nation-wide popularity is not due to his fun-making capabilities alone. His knowledge of the public's amusement wants and his ability to supply them have much to do with the brilliant success of Capitol Comedies.

IT'LL BE AN OFF DAY FOR YANKEE FANS WHEN THEY DON'T SEE A HOME RUN OR TWO

Unless the old John Dope goes loony the New York baseball fans are in for the greatest orgy of home runs in the game's history. Lamp the roster of the Yankees. In the list are Babe Ruth, Frank Baker, Wallie Pipp, Roger Peckinpaugh and Ping Bodie. Ruth is the greatest home run hitter of all time. Baker earned his title of Home Run King with his heavy walloping. Pipp and Peck slammed out seven home runs apiece last season. Ping Bodie got six. What'll they do this year when they all get going?

"Wanted—a Baby," which is a cream from start to finish, is announced by Goldwyn for presentation at the Hippodrome theater tonight.

OPERA HOUSE.

Gertrude Bondhill is a Big Stage Star.

Gertrude Bondhill, star of the five-reel western feature, "Miss Arizona," which comes to the Opera House today, has been a star on the speaking stage for several years. While playing in stock in Washington, D. C., a year ago, Miss Bondhill received the personal praise of President Wilson, who, together with Mrs. Wilson, witnessed her clever acting in one of her stage successes.

Miss Bondhill has appeared on the stage in all of the prominent cities and has been given unstinted praise for her work. She has appeared in Washington, where she is always a big favorite.

In "Miss Arizona" Gertrude Bondhill plays the part of a "tomboy," which gives her an opportunity to display her skill as a horsewoman. She is also an adept at shooting and handles a gun with the skill of a born westerner. James O'Neil, a strong cast ably support Miss Bondhill in this exciting and thrilling western production.

LONE STAR.

Jane Novak Popular—Plays Opposite Hobart Bosworth in "Behind the Door."

Jane Novak, who plays opposite Hobart Bosworth in "Behind the Door," which is being shown at the Lone Star, has won a wide following in film circles for her excellent characterizations in Paramount-Artcraft pictures.

Miss Novak is by birth a St. Louis girl, where she was educated in a convent. Her dramatic talent manifested itself early and even while she was in stock plays unbeknown to her instructors. After leaving school she went to Los Angeles, where she found the opportunity to play in pictures starting as an extra girl, but soon attracting attention by her grace and wonderful expression.

She first won recognition when she played opposite to William S. Hart in "Selfish Yates," and since that time she has appeared in "The Tiger Man" with Mr. Hart and in "The Claws of the Hun" and "A Nine O'clock Town" with Charles Ray, etc.

She has an unusually big opportunity for dramatic acting in "Behind the Door," in which she has a role of unusual strength.

LIBERTY.

Adoring Cows, Fond Chicks, Radiant Pigs Are Chaplin Bugaboos in News: Film.

Charlie Chaplin is far from the maddening throngs in "Sunbyside," his newest million dollar comedy, which is being distributed by First National, and which is scheduled for appearance at the Liberty theater, beginning tomorrow. Here one sees Charlie far from the city hotels, the sum streets, the big bakery, the trenches and all other locations which helped to make him famous. He is far out in the country, the much-abused man of all work to a hypocritical old farmer.

Although this hard master pretends to be very religious, he does not have a faint conception of the true meaning of the word, and goes on hectoring Charlie and forcing him to work long hours for little more than his keep. So life out among the flowers and the beasts of the field would be indeed for Charlie if it were not for one person, his sweetheart.

A CLEAN FIGHT.

The Times is in the fight for the permanent closing of open gambling and rampant vice in Ranger. It has from the expressions received Friday, the backing of the good citizenship of Ranger. It has the expressed approval of the mayor and the city commissioners in its fight.

Attempts to muzzle the Times have failed. Threats have not prevented the printing of true news articles nor weakened the original determination. Intimidation has failed, an order to suppress police news and bar the Times men from police headquarters has failed and a personal attack, with the intention, presumably, of diverting the issue, has failed.

Such attacks will be ignored by the members of the Times staff, or by the Times itself. Parrish will be given his opportunity to prove his scurrilous statements in court.

But the Times will continue in the fight without adopting any of these tactics.

It will go as far as is necessary to win, and win cleanly.

It will spend its last dollar, if necessary, in the battle for a cleaner city.

The Times is grateful for the flood of expressions of approval that were received Friday. It appreciates the courageous friendliness of the many who said they were with the Times, heart and soul and purse, in the fight. The Times hopes for a continuation of that approval and support.

The Times will keep on A-keepin' on.

A FEDERAL BUILDING.

The real solution of the post office question here, in the opinion of the Times, is a federal building. A site for such a building, offering the advantages of central location and sufficient ground to meet the requirements of the department, is available. It can be secured by the government as a gift.

If the department would accept this site, or any suitable site, and build a structure large enough to accommodate the post office here for a number of years to come, it would be much better than a makeshift arrangement which would afford only temporary relief.

A government building would also be a good advertisement for the town, since it would be evidence of the post office department's faith in the future of the city.

There is a good chance of securing a federal building, if the business organizations of this city make a concerted and determined effort to get it. Congressman Blanton would doubtless support it. Other congressmen from Texas and the two Texas sena-

Ranger has grown to be a real city. It deserves to have a federal building, and a deserving case always has good chance of success if it is wholeheartedly pleaded.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE ACT UPHELD

The decision of the supreme court in holding constitutional the woman's suffrage act lays at rest any doubt that may have existed as to whether the women of Texas have a vote in the primary. The decision of the supreme court was made in regard to a case that was sent up to it from the third court of civil appeals. The case has long been in the courts and yesterday's action is final in the matter.

The ruling of the court is considered an epoch-making one in the history of the state, as the case has been one of the hardest fought in the Texas courts.

FASHIONABLE LONDON ORDERS GOWNS BY PLANE

LONDON.—"Order me by wire a gown, to be flown across, so that I can wear it tonight," is a common order received in Anglo-French dress-making firms' offices in the West End.

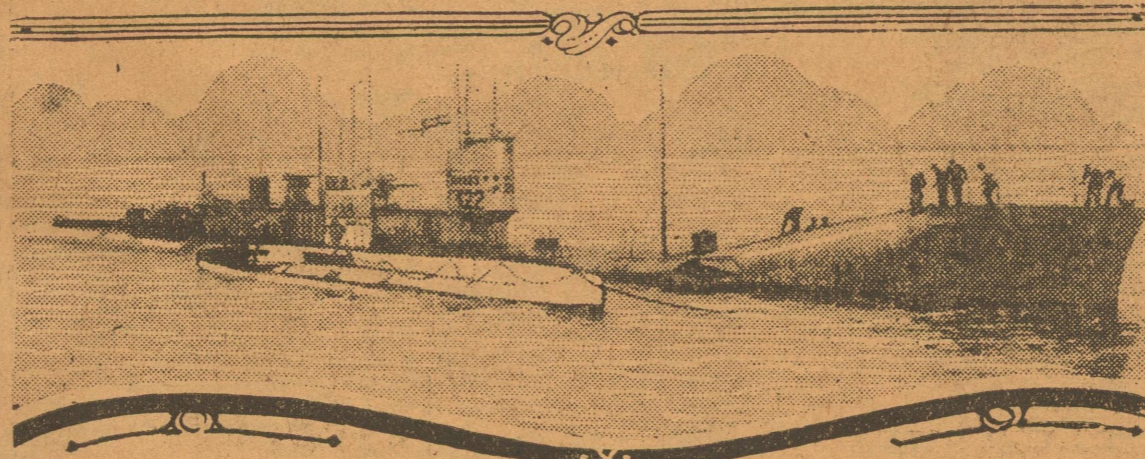

"There must be no delay in transit nowadays," says Mlle. Cleo Deroux. "Styles change so rapidly that what is here today is gone tomorrow. Before a stupid old boat reaches the harbor, skirts may have ceased to be narrow and become wide, or per chance, become plain instead of bouffant, or, perhaps, bodices may be frontless instead of backless, or waistless instead of sleeveless."

Many women are almost doubling the cost of their gowns by ordering them direct from Paris by aeroplane. It's all the fad.

FROM YARMOUTH COMES TALE OF JONAH SECOND

LONDON.—From Yarmouth comes the true story of Jonah the Second. Jonah No. 2 is a fish. Stanley Watling, of the Anchor hotel, Coltishall, Norfolk, says his son hooked a twenty-pound pike on Barton Broad. Several hours later when the pike was cleaned an apparently

The British submersible K-22 with a German U-boat chained to her side.

One of the greatest war engines evolved during the world conflict is the new K type of submarine designed by British experts. The first K boat was finished several months after the war ended, so that there was no chance to use it against an enemy. But to show the world what the last word in under-sea boat construction in England is, the British government is sending the K-22, the greatest of the boats, on a trip around the world. Unless an accident happens, the K-22 will make the entire trip under her own power. Above water she travels from twenty to thirty knots an hour on steam. Under water she makes from fifteen to twenty knots on electricity. She carries two three-inch guns, depth charge projector and eight torpedo tubes.

dead beam weighing three-fourths of a pound was found inside the pike. When examined, the beam's tail was seen to quiver.

"Thereupon," said Mr. Watling, "I poured a drop of brandy down its throat and fixed it up in a bait can so it couldn't turn over, changing the water every twenty minutes. It soon began to revive and in two hours was swimming about in the can."

Jonah is now living a quiet life in a nice pond at Scratchy Hall, Normes-

RANGER FIELD SHOWS GAIN OF 4,000 BBLs.

The Ranger field gained 4,000 barrels during the present week as compared with last week. The daily runs of the North Central Texas fields averaged 200,810 barrels. Stephens county gained 1,000 barrels; Desdemona dropped from 23,000 to 18,750 and Burk Burnett dropped from 82,485 to 79,850 barrels.

WEIMAR OIL CO. PAYS 10 PER CENT DIVIDENDS

Special To The Times.
FORT WORTH, Jan. 31.—W. J. Dobbs, president of the Weimar Oil company, has announced that that company has paid a ten per cent dividend to all stockholders of record on Dec. 20, 1919. The company has purchased three tracts in the Louisiana oil fields, or a total of 90 acres, and is negotiating for acreage in the Desdemona and Sipe Springs oil fields.

CHILLS, COLDS, FEVERISHNESS

Black-Draught Is Used by Virginia Lady for Colds, Fever and Other Troubles With Fine Results.

Rocky Mount, Va.—Miss Mae Chitwood, of this place, recently stated: "I have used Black-Draught for colds and stomach trouble and certainly have found it very satisfactory. When I would feel bad and feverish, as though I was taking a fresh cold, I would make a good cup of Black-Draught tea and it would soon set me all right.

I can recommend it as a splendid laxative and gladly do so. You may publish my statement."

When you feel, chilly, tired, feverish, headachy and fear that you are taking cold, take a good dose of the old, reliable, liver medicine you have heard so much about—Thedford's Black-Draught. It is made from purely vegetable ingredients, acts in a gentle, natural way, and by helping to drive out poisonous waste matter from your system, it will often, if taken in time, prevent a chill from developing into a cold.

Thousands of people, during the past 70 years, have found Black-Draught of benefit in such cases.

Try it, the next time you chill or sneeze.—Advertisement.

BRIEF CASE PROVES A PERFECT DISGUISE

ALBERT LEA, Minn.—The old familiar attorney's brief case is being used these days by many persons who are far from being members of the bar.

Salesmen who run out to the country for one or two days find them convenient to hold a pair of "pajies," shirt and collar and a few "handies." They take up no more space than a brief or transcript of testimony, providing one is familiar with the skillful art of packing.

They enable the oil stock salesman to make a faultless approach, and cover the mission of the magazine salesman until he gets inside the door. As a disguise, the brief case is perfection personified.

It pays to be persistent in the use of Daily Times Want Ads.
