RESTRAINING ORDER IN COUNTY COURT HOLDS UP R. R. CROSSING HEARING

The special commission named to hear the testimony in the condemnation suit started by the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railroad against the Texas & Pacific railroad to affect a grade crossing a mile north of the station at Ranger, met Friday morning in the office of Mayor M. H. Hagaman, and adjourned pending the settlement of the restraining order which T. & P. counsel has secured.

The restraining order, issued through the county court, claims that the amount of the damages, if any, suffered by the Texas & Pacific, cannot be determined until the railroad commission, meeting in Austin, settles the question as to the way the crossing should be made, a matter that is scheduled for hearing Feb. 17.

Attorneys of both railroad companies are in conference in Fort Worth today. It is the hope of the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth counsel to have the crossing hearing in Austin expedited.

PLAN CHAIN OF PLANE LANDING FIELDS IN U. S.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Plans for the establishment of a chain of air plane landing fields have been worked out by officers of the army air service and the Manufacturers Aircraft association, it was announced here today.

Representatives of thirty-two large southern cities already have been invited to establish landing fields under army direction. Many others will receive like invitations during the next few months. These must be laid out according to specifications given by the army and in return the government gives steel hangars to the municipalities.

"The landing field," says the aircraft association, "is to the airplane what the harbor is to the ocean liner and the railroad terminal is to the train. It is not merely a flat piece of land on which a flyer can bring his craft to earth. Such a piece of ground bears the same relation to a real landing field as an unimproved water inlet bears to a harbor like New York or Liverpool."

"A landing field should have, first of all, dimensions which fit it to handle all forms of aircraft. It should be drained so as to permit its use even in the wettest weather. It should have shelter and supplies for flyers and their crafts and should be accessible to the trade center it is meant to serve. This feature is of supreme importance because commercial aerial navigation will develop only in proportion to its commercial value. The field should be identified with markings visible from great heights and with radio apparatus so that flyers may be aided in finding their way in spite of the fog or failure to identify the country over which they are passing."

"Fields at frequent intervals mean that cross country flyers can come to the earth for rest, replenishment of supplies and adjustments to their machines without inconvenience or unnecessary delay. In the event of a mishap in the air, such as a stalled motor, the nearby landing field permits the pilot to glide to it without damage to the machine or to himself."

INFLUENZA CONDITIONS IN RANGER IMPROVING, HEALTH OFFICER SAYS

The order closing all theaters, churches, schools and public gatherings generally will be lifted Saturday, and all theaters will be permitted to open Saturday night, on the recommendation of Dr. C. O. Terrell, city health officer.

The theaters, cabarets and dance halls have been closed since Wednesday morning, at which time the closing order went into effect.

Unless conditions change, the city schools will be opened Monday morning. At the time the order was placed in effect, Dr. Terrell stated that the extent of the influenza in Ranger did not justify calling it an epidemic, but he said that a closing order was the best step to stop a possible spread of the disease to proportions that would make the fight much more difficult.

Schools were closed Wednesday morning for the rest of the week.

Special precautions in avoiding coughs, using individual drinking cups and isolating those known to be infected still hold, and should be observed until all danger of the disease becoming prevalent has passed, according to Dr. Terrell.

Do You Know Why Red Blooded Men Are Successful?

There are just two kinds of men—the weak, thin blooded, half sick, discouraged kind, who lack ambition, strength and vitality—the red-blooded, ambitious, brilliant men—vigorous and successful.

The strong, red-blooded, healthy men who can stand the strain of hard work, and carry heavy responsibilities, without worry or fear, are the men who succeed.

Do you know why they are red blooded, full of energy and vigor? Do you know why they succeed?

The blood supplies the material necessary for nourishing every tissue, nerve, bone, muscle and fluid in the body, and for carrying on every process of life.

There are over three million red blood corpuscles in one droplet of blood, and these red blood corpuscles carry the iron in the blood. Iron attracts oxygen, just as a magnet attracts steel. Without oxygen you cannot live. It vitalizes the blood and makes it red, rich and healthy. That's why red blooded men are strong, energetic, and successful. Their blood is vitalized with life-giving oxygen, and liberally supplied with the iron and cell-salts that nature must have to maintain health.

REOLO produces a rapid increase in the number of red blood cells and plasma of the blood. It increases the supply of oxygen in the blood, stimulates the nervous system, and accelerates the circulation, sending through the entire body a stream of rich, red, vitalized blood, abundantly supplied with oxygen, iron and the cell-salts that nourish and rebuild the cells.

Start the REOLO systematic treatment today and you will be delighted with the steady improvement in your health.

"THAT LITTLE GAME" --- An Extra King in the Deck

where women are not represented in the legislature," declared Miss Florence Underwood, secretary of the Women's Freedom League. "The advocates of compulsory annulment for this reason will find no adherents among British women."

"I consider," said Mrs. Hudson Lyall, of the London county council and the Marriage defense council, "that the proposal to make childlessness a compulsory or voluntary basis for annulment of marriage is not only thoroughly unchristian, but a degradation of womanhood. To regard marriage as only a means of raising children is a lowering of the whole ideal of the greatest and best of human partnerships."

"The Roman Catholic church will never tolerate such a decree," said George Egerton (Mrs. Golding Bright) the writer. "Marriage must be regarded as a sacrament or a mere civil contract. The Catholic church regards it as a sacrament and never will annul it on the ground of barrenness."

"I say emphatically that childlessness is not a suitable plea to put in the foreground of an application for divorce," says Havelock Ellis, the eminent psychologist and eugenicist. "Many of the happiest marriages are childless. Far from encouraging the birth of more children, I think the birthrate is far too high in Europe. If it had been lower in Germany we probably should not have had the great war, and, again, there would not be so many people starving."

It is impossible to make a general rule as to the limitation of families. The larger the number of children healthy parents have, the better the welfare of the community. The problem is how to discourage the unsound from bringing children into the world. If it were generally recognized that it is a disgraceful thing for people who are not fit in health to have children, it would act as a great social force.

Mrs. M. L. Scaton-Tiedman, secretary of the Divorce Law Reform Union, takes a different view, saying: "There are thousands of people who would welcome a law making childlessness a basis for divorce. Where childlessness leads to excessive unhappiness and separation, and which is continued, say, for three years, an opportunity might well be given the parties to seek divorce. We have letters showing there are many childless homes where children are desired. "The high cost of living appears to be increasing the proportion of childless marriages. In several cases that have been brought to our attention there is a difference of opinion between the husband and wife on the question of whether children can be afforded. For these the law should give some avenue of escape."

MAN IN BED AND SO WEAK

suffered terribly for weeks but her case was wonderfully improved after taking Cardui.

Memphis, Tenn.—Mrs. M. R. ... living near this town, states: "Three years ago I was down and so terrible and so couldn't bear the sight of this condition continued for eight weeks. I was going to die, and I must get something to do me good. I had heard all my friends talk about Cardui and the good results from its use. So I decided to try it."

"I bought about a half bottle of Cardui. My appetite improved, then I was nervous. I kept it up until I had taken five bottles—and such a difference! I gained flesh and strength. The picture of health, due, I believe, solely to the use of Cardui. I am now the mother of ten children and am strong and well."

Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic for men. It has stood the most rigorous tests—the test of time, and has been in use for over forty years. It is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which have been carefully selected to help build up the vitality, strengthen the nerves, and strengthen the manly constitution.

MANTAMATA TURTLE IS WORLD'S UGLIEST ANIMAL

International News Service.
LONDON.—The wart-hog is no beauty; the Tasmanian devil is no pet for a lady, but the London Zoo's candidate for the world's ugliest animal is a new Mantamata turtle, which has been hunger striking since brought from Rio Negro, Brazil.
It has a shell which looks like a lump of rock on which weed grows freely. His head appears to be a smaller flat rock, and around his jaws are a number of tenacles resembling worms. These are his bait. Fish nibble at the "worms" and Mr. Turtle gobbles up a meal.

JUSTICE OFFERS LEAP YEAR BARGAINS IN MATRIMONY

International News Service.
PEORIA, Ill.—Since it's leap year, justices of the peace here are offering bargains in matrimony to the fair sex. One offers to wed any couple beyond the age of forty-five where the woman admits that she proposed to the man, free of charge. A graduating cost scale is proposed for those younger who disclose the same information. As one of the judges said: "All women love bargains and they won't be able to resist this."

Others in the party, which also landed a large devilfish, were Charles M. Eaton, New York; Rollin A. Dewes, Dayton, Ohio; and Dean Brown, of Washington.

WALES TO TAKE FLING AT "SPORT OF KINGS"

International News Service.
LONDON.—The King's winning of the second most important race of Derby day at Epsom last year has roused ambitions in the breast of his son and heir.
The Prince of Wales will take a fling at the "sport of kings." It is understood that Lord Lonsdale, England's leading peer-sportsman, will be the prince's "turf adviser," and many expect to see the prince's colors appear early during the spring "flat" racing season.

HARD LIQUOR AS DIVIDENDS TO BREWERY STOCKHOLDERS

International News Service.
BOSTON.—Here are at least a few brewing companies that are getting rid of their "hard liquor" without loss. The Harvard Brewing corporation is giving away "hard liquor" to its stockholders in the form of an extra dividend. The only requirement is that each shall carry away his own "dividend" and that it shall not be sold or negotiated.
The other brewing companies following this plan are the Providence breweries. Each stockholder received two barrels.

"SINNAPASCHUGY" IS NEW INDIAN TERM FOR AUTOS

International News Service.
MONTICELLO, Utah.—The automobile has become so common among the Indians of the Navajo, Hopi and other tribes in San Juan county that the redmen have coined a real Indian name for it. Because of its length, the word may not become as popular with the pale faces as "wampus" and "wigwam," but the Indians are using it exclusively.
"Sinnapaschugy" is the new adaptation for the buzz wagons, and translated means "goes with a chug."

AFFECTIONATE STORK PECKS BUTTONS FROM BRIDE'S COAT

International News Service.
CHICAGO—Capt. Roy M. McKerchar, an attorney, and his bride returned here recently from their honeymoon in Florida. While there they visited an ostrich farm. During their inspection they were followed persistently by a long-legged, long-billed bird much different from the others. It finally became so affectionate that it pecked a couple of buttons off the bride's coat, which McKerchar decided was somewhat nervy.
"What kind of an ostrich is this, anyway?" he demanded of a keeper.
"That ain't no ostrich," replied the keeper. "it's just a plain stork."

RANGER AMERICAN LEGION JOINS THE 1920 CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, ACTION TAKEN ON JACK DEMPSEY

John Barnes post of the American Legion met in enthusiastic business Thursday night, voted to join the Chamber of Commerce, considered a free employment bureau for former service men, established Jack Dempsey's status among local fighting men and adjourned to the McCleskey cafe for refreshments, smokes and talks by Mayor W. H. Hagaman and L. A. Marck.

To the original fifty-four members who have qualified for membership for the new year, sixteen new applications were handed in by P. H. Souris, chairman of the membership committee, twenty-one applications made in person were accepted and nine legions applied for transfer, bringing the membership of John Barnes post to an even hundred. Almost all that many were present, filling the McCleskey cafe at the smoker.

Those applying for transfer were William Cuddy, Jack Frost, Ernest Tam and John Gooding, all from the Reno, Nev., post; Edward D. Ragon, from San Francisco, Calif.; R. M. Warthen, from Newark, Ohio; John C. Follire, from Fort Worth; James A. Driver, from Birmingham, Ala.; Fr. Luken, from the Honolulu, Hawaii, post and Robert M. Molesworth, from San Antonio.

Arguments as to Jack Dempsey's qualifications for membership in the American Legion were interesting and two personal friends of the heavy-weight champion defended his action in claiming exemption. It was agreed that his ship-yard fighting did not make him eligible for legion membership and the action of the meeting was stumped up in the motion: "That without censuring Dempsey, the John Barnes post condemn the action of the Milwaukee post which made him a member of the American Legion."

The motion carried unanimously. Ross Hayes, known within the squared circle as "Kid Howe," and himself a fighter before and after his army career, which started before April 6, 1917, said that while no station in Salt Lake City, Utah, as a soldier, he knew Dempsey personally and believed that he had good basis, in the support of his mother, a crippled brother, and an incompatible wife for his claim for exemption. He closed with the statement that he thought Dempsey had as much right to stay at home as those who did and "voted the country dry while we were away."

Edward Ragon, formerly of Post No. 1, San Francisco, also defended Dempsey from personal knowledge of the fighter. Others, among them John H. Moore and Leon D. Brooks, post commander, expressed the belief that Dempsey was not a soldier. It was agreed that his status as a fighter was not under discussion.

On suggestion of Mr. Ragon, a free employment bureau for service men, which he said would give new-coming ex-soldiers, sailors and marines the help they most wanted and act as a fine advertisement for Ranger, was needed. He suggested that it be supported by the employers benefiting from the service.

R. B. Waggoman, L. S. Black, Drs. Spearman and Boles and W. T. Cunningham, appointed as an executive and finance committee, decided to await action pending a feeling-out of the companies as to such a service. R. H. Hansford, finance officer, offered the use of one of his tents for that bureau and it was agreed that the bureau will be tried, for a month if the big employing companies favor such a service. Non-service men should be charged for the service, it was suggested by the committee. Mr. Waggoman offered the use of the Times columns without charge for a card advertising the bureau as long as it should be conducted.

Agreeing that proper spirit of cooperation with the progressive business men of Ranger would be displayed by taking a membership in the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, the legion ordered the finance officer and adjutant to see Dr. R. H. Hughes and take out a membership.

At the smoker at the McCleskey cafe, Commander Brooks suggested that Al Hastings be nominated as mess sergeant of the smoker following next Thursday's meeting and that the refreshments be "on" him. The nomination was carried unopposedly and gracefully accepted by Al.

In addition to talks made by Mayor Hagaman and Mr. Marck and enthusiastically received by the legion, Guy Wetzel, R. B. Waggoman, Dr. Henry, R. H. Hansford, L. H. Hargaman, Al Hastings and R. H. H. Wick, also were called on for talks.

"Gimme About 5,000 Gallons of Oil," Says Chauffer "Flivver" Is Mogul Engine

"Hello, Bill. Gimme five thousand gallons of oil for my flivver."

The "filling station" is in the railroad yards and the "flivver" is a mogul locomotive. The fireman wouldn't know a shovel if he saw one. He rides an oil burner, and it's a snap.

Only five coal burning locomotives remain on the Texas and Pacific railroad. They operate out of Big Springs. In a short time they will be converted into oil burners, and then the Texas and Pacific will be 100 per cent. oil burning.

The new way is the best way, according to Master Mechanic Aycock, in charge of the oil station here.

"A barrel of fuel oil will run a train as far as two and a half tons of coal," he stated, "and every barrel of oil used means a saving of several hundred per cent. on the cost of hauling." The fuel oil can be bought for $1.40 a barrel; coal costs the railroad $3.50 a ton. Figure it out for yourself.

This oil is distilled, all the gasoline and other high priced products have been removed, and it is suitable only for fuel.

"But it's the best fuel in the world," declared Mr. Aycock. "Ask any railroad. It makes an even heat, easily regulated, and it increases the hauling power of an engine many tons."

"Then the saving in labor to the T. & P. railroad, as a result of using oil instead of coal, will amount to $100,000.00 a year. There is also a saving in time.

"The comfort of passengers is greatly increased by removing the source of cinders, which often caused annoyance and pain to travelers." The oil used on this part of the T. & P. is hauled from the refinery of the Texas company, located in Fort Worth. There are two large tanks to a division and a number of smaller tanks for the convenience of switch engines. The tank here and the one at Eastland are for this purpose. The one here has a capacity of about 35,000 gallons.

The oil is forced from flat cars into the overhead tanks by means of a pumping system installed at each "filling station."

An arrangement similar to that used for taking water allows the tender to be filled with fuel in a very few minutes.

Oil burning locomotives were first tried on the Southern Pacific railroad, about ten years ago. It is the prediction of prominent railroad authorities that in a few more years most of the roads in the United States will discard coal in favor of the cheaper and better fuel.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE IS CRIME INCREASER, HE SAYS.

ABILENE, Texas, Feb. 6.—Frequent giving of suspended sentences has a tendency to increase crime among boys and young men, according to W. J. Cunningham, of Abilene. Mr. Cunningham asserted boys are encouraged to commit crimes by seeing others go free under the operation of the suspended sentence law, and pointed out that almost two-thirds of the court business this term was concerned with boys under 20 years of age.

Federal Church Council Urges Care in Action Toward Mexico

Resolutions on Mexico, urging care in any steps that may be taken to follow up "the train of wrongs" against American citizens in the southern republic, were passed by the executive committee of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, in session at Baltimore.

The resolutions following the annual meeting of the executive committee of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America at Baltimore, a delegation from that body proceeded to Washington to bear to the state department resolutions passed regarding relations with Mexico.

Whereas the friendly relations between the United States and the Republic of Mexico are being jeopardized from time to time by untoward incidents such as the abduction and arrest of Mr. W. O. Jenkins, the American consular agent in the city of Puebla; and whereas the case of Mr. Jenkins is declared to be only one of a "train of wrongs" by which our citizens have been deprived of their rights and in some cases of life itself, and which, therefore, it is the duty of the American government to investigate; and whereas the Fall resolution, calling for the severance of diplomatic relations is still before the senate; and whereas the situation thus developing, in our judgment, threatens to continue and increase the difficulties between republics that should live in peace and friendly relations—

Resolved: 1. That the federal council, by its executive committee, representing more than 20,000,000 of the Christian citizens of the republic, views with the most serious concern the trend of the present situation and is moved by a sense of its responsibility to the people it represents to make the most earnest protest against a course which may be regarded by the Mexican people as distinctly unfriendly.

2. We believe, further, that to follow up even "trains of wrongs" without friendly conference, with efforts made apparently on the presumption of international trouble, rather than on the clear conviction that mutual interest will find a way to the maintenance of peace, will have a disastrous effect on the strivings of nations for a better world and, further, will jeopardize our friendly relations with all the republics of South America, who will read into our conduct only selfish considerations and interests.

3. In view of these and similar con-considerations, the federal council appoints a committee to seek an interview with the state department to convey to it the sentiments herein expressed, and to inquire whether it is not possible by the appointment of a friendly commission to meet for conference with the representatives of the Mexican government, that misunderstandings between friendly nations may be removed and that agreements may be reached which will protect the citizens of both republics and secure the maintenance of international peace. Man Held in Jail Said to Be Same as One 'Drowned'

SPRINGFIELD, Missouri.—Suspicion that Karl Mueller, held in the Green county jail, is in reality James D. Lester, supposed to have been drowned in Galveston bay five years ago, was aroused by a letter said to have been written by Mueller to Charles Freelove of Houston, Texas, according to John F. Cole, a Houston attorney, who has been in Springfield obtaining dispositions in the case.

The letter was written, Cole said, a few months after Lester was reported drowned. The letter, in substance, read:

"What kind of a stunt did I pull off? Good or bad? I'm not drowned, but very much alive. Tell my wife to go to my lawyers if she needs anything. She can collect my insurance as so many were drowned in the storm it would be an easy matter to put my ring on one of their fingers and make them think it was me."

Letter First Clew. According to Attorney Cole, no doubt as to the truth of the report that Lester was drowned was entertained by the insurance companies until this letter was received by Freelove.

After the receipt of the communication, an investigation led to the location of Karl Mueller, held in the Green county jail on a federal charge of conspiring to rob freight cars bearing merchandise in interstate shipment. The three insurance companies protested the claims of Mrs. Lester when they learned that such a letter had been received by Freelove. A picture of James D. Lester was later printed in the monthly magazine of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, with instructions that if any member of the brotherhood knew of the whereabouts of Mueller they were to inform their local officials. A Springfield member of the brotherhood recognized the picture as a likeness of Karl Mueller, held in this city. The Texas authorities worked on this clew and have since been able to produce several former acquaintances of Lester who also have identified Mueller as Lester.

The case has progressed until little doubt is entertained by authorities that Mueller is in reality Lester, Cole said.

Believes He Has Proof. Attorney Cole went to Houston, where he will ask Mrs. Lester to withdraw her claims against the three insurance companies. Attorney Cole stated that he believed he had proved conclusively that Lester still lives and therefore Mrs. Lester has no claims against the insurance companies.

In the first suit against the International Life Insurance company, Mrs. Lester was allowed $2,500 by a jury in the circuit court at Houston. The case was appealed and the decision reversed when it was learned that additional information had been obtained. The claims against the other companies amount to $5,000.

Depositions of Sheriff Webb and attaches of his office will be taken to use in a case pending in the circuit court in Houston, Texas, in which the Brotherhood Insurance company is attempting to establish the fact that Karl Mueller, in the Green county jail is John D. Lester. Depositions of J. Will Webb, Homer T. East, Henry Tracy, Anderson Owens and Ed Gammon will be taken in an effort to show that local officials identified the photo of Lester as that of Mueller. It was claimed that Lester was in a boat that capsized in Galveston bay and was drowned while his companions swam to the shore. His widow brought suit to recover the life insurance.

SHIP, IMPRISONED ON LAKE EIGHT DAYS, TRIES ANOTHER TRIP

The little steamer Sidney O. Neff, attempting a trip from Milwaukee to Chicago became caught in the ice of Lake Michigan within a few miles of Chicago harbor and before help could be summoned the boat was lost in the storm sweeping the lake and drifted in the ice for thirty-five miles. She was believed lost for four days while airplanes aided the coast guards in searching for her. She was found but it was four more days before the boat was freed from the ice and helped to port by the steel steamer Alabama. Despite the hardships the crew of thirteen suffered during that time, every man stuck with the ship when Captain Olson decided to attempt a return trip to Milwaukee, where most of the crew live. While the boat was caught in the ice, seven men, including a photographer, walked across the ice to it, the photographer taking the above pictures.

Asleep 100 Days, Music Awakes Her

New York World: Music of a boy violinist, succeeding where the medical profession failed, apparently has effected the first cure on record of encephalitis lethargica and restored to consciousness and health Mrs. Dora Mintz, 29, of No. 740 Trinity avenue, the Bronx, who has been asleep for more than 100 days and nights.

Dr. Charles Dixon, chief resident physician at Willard Parker hospital, where Mrs. Mintz has been peacefully sleeping, reported yesterday to Health Commissioner Copeland that she is now in full possession of all her faculties, is able to walk around, eats substantial food and will be sent home in a few days as cured. She is rapidly regaining the strength she lost through her inability to take nourishment for a long time.

It was announced some time ago that M. Hoffman, a boy student of the violin, had heard that music once cured such a malady, and asked permission to try it on Mrs. Mintz. Dr. E. Giddings, in charge of the case at the time, indulged the youth, believing the music could do the patient no harm. Several melodies were played at her bedside without visible effect upon the sleeper.

The boy returned to the hospital again and again. One day he tried Schubert's Serenade, and was delighted to see the patient smile understandingly and nod her head in recognition. He followed this with a Russian song to which she also responded in a similar manner.

Before that time it had been impossible to arouse the sleeping woman except for brief intervals by speaking to her sharply in German. She would immediately thereafter drop back into the coma. Gradually the persistent youth made his violin win her back to permanent consciousness with the kind of music she seemed to like best. For the last few days she has appeared as a normal woman except for extreme weakness. Mrs. Mintz, the records of the health department show, became ill Oct. 1 from sore throat. She treated herself and recovered sufficiently to attend a wedding Oct. 5. The following day she had a severe headache and lapsed into unconsciousness and was taken to the Willard Parker hospital Oct. 16.

In addition to being the first cure on record, so far as the health commissioner and Dr. Dixon know, Mrs. Mintz's case establishes a record also in the length of time she remained in a state of coma.

Diagnosis of the case of Louis Rosner, senior member of the firm of Rosner & Kanner, candy manufacturers at No. 2663 Third avenue (yesterday confirmed an earlier report that he is suffering from encephalitis lethargica. He has been ill for ten or twelve days at his home, 163d street and Southern boulevard, the Bronx, and is in a coma.

HIGH PRICE OF SILVER BRINGS OUT FAMILY PLATE

International News Service. BIRMINGHAM—Because of the high price of silver, thousands of fam-

Where Can I Find Relief From Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

Question on Lips of Afflicted. There is a harassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source, which is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., which acts by cleansing the blood. Get a bottle to-day, and you will see results from the right treatment. AUSTRALIA EXCITED OVER NEW GOLD DISCOVERY

International News Service. LONDON.—Western Australia is becoming excited over stories of the discovery of a new stretch of wonderful gold-bearing country, for the certain amount of official backing.

J. D. Connolly, agent-general for Western Australia, has received the information from his government that recent finds in a direct line from Kalgoolie cover a distance of about sixty miles, a stretch of gold-bearing formation longer than anything of the kind hitherto realized in Australia.

A more recent report from Kalgoolie, too, records the first indications of a fresh field in which the samples from a lode that has been struck are reported to have given extremely high values, but the width of the lode is not yet known.

BASEBALL.

By putting the relations of the proposed baseball company and the city on a sound business basis, members of the special committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the representatives of the Ranger Baseball & Amusement Association rendered support to the city a real service.

When the plans which were roughed out at that session are completed the backers of the baseball club may go to the business men of the city and ask its support on a fair basis.

Though Ranger should be one of the best baseball cities of its size in the country, the returns from an investment in a baseball club should not be expected to be comparable to those from a drilling operation in sure-fire proven territory.

Baseball, many times called the great American sport, is, probably, the greatest American spectacle. And as such, it is second to none. Each good summer day it takes thousands of Americans outdoors, provides them with two hours of keenly enjoyable amusement, gives them vent for the boyish and ever-alive impulse to shout, and cheer, and laugh and sends them home, at supper time, happier and healthier than when it called them.

Baseball as a business, from the civic standpoint, is invaluable. Daily it advertises cities of all sizes all over the United States, and its reports are flashed by telegraph to all corners of the states and by cable to other countries.

Even in those cities whose support has not justified the continuance of organized baseball, as a paying investment, live commercial clubs and business men fight and fight bitterly against the loss of league franchises. They know the value to their cities of baseball, as a maker of advertising copy.

With the assurance that the local company will be engineered by capable business men, whose reputations are firmly established in this city, Ranger baseball lovers and business men may consider the support of their club in the light of an aid to clean sport, to civic growth and a possible paying investment.

New Hun Airship Defies Weather

WASHINGTON — Commercial air navigation is coming and the United States must prepare to meet that issue, declared Col. William C. Hensley in a report to the air service, United States army, from Germany, where he is studying dirigibles. "Airships are now possible in any kind or condition of weather," Colonel Hensley wrote. "No weather conditions, except a strong cross hangar wind, prevent the Bodensee, the commercial air liner built since the armistice by the Zeppelin Airship corporation at Friedrichshafen, on Lake Constance, from making its daily flight of 390 miles to Staaken, thirteen miles from Berlin.

"Because she flies between Berlin and the natural outlet to Switzerland, the accommodations are at a premium. Bookings have been made four weeks in advance at 475 marks.

"Latest Design in Airships. The design of the Bodensee is the latest in airships, so far advanced over anything I have seen that it is not to express the opinion that in airship construction (and operation as well), all other countries are mere babes in the woods compared to the Germans.

"Our airship construction and operation should be patterned after the most efficient system. There is no doubt in my mind that that system lies in Germany. "Commercial air navigation is coming and we must meet that issue very soon. Let us be prepared to choose our course so that we shall make as few mistakes as possible. The building up of the present small commercial enterprise in Germany has meant numerous heartbreaking experiences. "Millions of marks have been lost in the beginning, and lives of members of crews have been lost, but let it be said to the eternal credit of the man with the fixed idea and of his subordinates, that not a single passen-

MANY PEOPLE REPORT BIG GAINS IN WEIGHT

THOUSANDS OF THIN, FRAIL PEOPLE RESTORED TO HEALTH BY TANLAC.

MANY REMARKABLE EXPERIENCES TOLD

People in All Ranks of Life Tell What Celebrated Medicine Has Done For Them.

One of the most noteworthy features in connection with Tanlac and the one that stands out more prominently than all the others is the fact that it is the very large number of well-known men and women from all parts of the country who have recently reported astonishing and rapid increases in weight as a result of its use. "When so many well-known people of unquestioned integrity make statement after statement, each corroborating the other, the truth of such statements can no longer be doubted. Thousands have testified that this famous medicine has completely restored them to health and strength, after every other medicine and the most skilled medical treatment have failed.

"One of the most remarkable cases on record is that of Mrs. Viola Ives, of 315 Cross street, Little Rock, Ark., whose statement appears below. "In May of 1913," said Mrs. Ives, "I suffered a complete breakdown of my nerves and my entire system gave way. About six weeks afterward I was carried to the hospital. I became perfectly helpless—couldn't move any part of my body and just lay there in bed for five months, not knowing anything or anybody. I was brought home in October, 1913, and tried all kinds of medicine and everything I was told about.

"I read about so many people getting relief by taking Tanlac and my husband got me a bottle. After taking three bottles, I began to feel better. I have taken several bottles of Tanlac now and I can walk anywhere and sleep like a child. When I took my first dose of Tanlac I weighed only one hundred and twenty-two pounds. I now weigh one hundred and sixty-two—an actual gain of forty pounds since I started on Tanlac.

Texas Man Testifies. Another remarkable case was that of John M. Crabtree, a general merchant of Five Mile Station A, Dallas, Texas:

"I have actually gained thirty-four pounds on three bottles of Tanlac and I now know what it is to enjoy good health after suffering for twenty years," said Mr. Crabtree. "I suffered with catarrh of the stomach and indigestion for twenty years and for eighteen months before I started taking Tanlac. I had to live almost entirely on cereals. I spent nearly all of one whole year in bed and I was unable to do anything at all and I fell off in weight to 118 pounds.

"After using my third bottle of Tanlac I found I had increased in weight from 118 pounds to 152 pounds, making an actual gain of thirty-four pounds—all my troubles were gone, and I was feeling like another man." Captain Jeff D. Riggs, popular Y. & M. V. engineer, running between Vicksburg and New Orleans and residing at 2020 Pearl street, Vicksburg, in speaking of his experience with Tanlac said: "Yes, sir, it's an actual fact, I have gained twenty-five pounds on Tanlac.

"When I began taking the medicine," continued Captain Riggs, "I was simply a nervous and physical wreck and had dropped down in weight from one hundred and forty to one hundred and ten pounds. "I have just finished my second bottle of Tanlac, have gained twenty-five pounds and I feel like a new man."

Old Time Engineer Talks. Engineer Charles J. Weeks, who

MRS. CHAS PEDEN GAINS 27 POUNDS

WAS TWICE EXAMINED AND TOLD OPERATION WOULD BE HER ONLY HOPE.

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have gained twenty-seven pounds," was the truly remarkable statement made by Mrs. Charles Peden, residing at 550 Mill Street, Huntsville, Ala. "When I commenced taking the medicine," she continued, "I only weighed ninety-eight (98) pounds; now I weigh 125 pounds, and never felt better in my life. For years I have suffered with a bad form of stomach trouble, constipation and pains in my side and back. At times the pains took the form of torture, and I was twice examined and each time I was told that I had appendicitis and that an operation would be my only hope.

"I had made all preparations for the operation and called in my sister to tell her good-bye, as I did not know whether I would live to see her again or not. My sister begged and pleaded with me not to allow them to cut on me and told me to wait and try a good tonic for a while. The next day, as I returned from the consultation room I thought of what she said, and as I had heard so much about Tanlac, I decided to try it and get a bottle.

"I never returned for the operation, but just kept taking the Tanlac. Right from the start I began to feel better. The medicine seemed to take hold right at once. "I was so happy over the wonderful improvement in my condition that I sent for my neighbors to tell them how much better I felt. I sent and got another bottle of Tanlac, and have just finished taking my third bottle and feel as if I have made all over again into a new woman."

runs the Seaboard Air Line fast train "Fox" between Jacksonville and Tampa, bears the distinction of being the second oldest engineer in point of service with that road, having been with the company for thirty-five years. "I have gained twenty pounds on seven bottles of Tanlac and feel as well and happy as I did when a boy," said Mr. Weeks. "For twenty years I suffered with nervous digestion of the worst sort," he continued, "and at times during the past fifteen years I didn't think I would last much longer. To tell you the truth, I finally reached the point where I didn't care much whether I lived or died."

Thousands of other people all over the country have reported the same astonishing gains in weight after taking Tanlac. Among these are: Mrs. E. O. Wilson, of 197 Bass St., Atlanta, Ga., who gained 25 pounds; Edward Heno, 1721 Broadway, Kansas City, Mo., who gained 25 pounds; Mrs. W. C. Cochran, of Juliaetta, Idaho, who gained 22 pounds; Mrs. Doll Davis, of 108 Samuel Ave., Peoria, Ill., who gained 30 pounds; Chas. E. Shaffer, 508 W. Charleston St., Portland, Ore., who gained 24 pounds; Mrs. Amelia Mann, R. F. D. No. 2, Ogden, Utah, who gained 25 pounds; Mrs. W. S. Hukil, 7308 Park Ave., Tacoma, Wash., who gained 20 pounds; Mrs. B. W. Smith, 3113 Burdett St., Omaha, Neb., who gained 35 pounds; Fred J. Saunders, 710 Market St., San Francisco, Cal., who gained 24 pounds and many others too numerous to mention. Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros., and in Eastland by Butler Drug Co.—Adv.

of spectators; but we can at least conduct our service along scientific, known principles, that can be obtained from an intimate study of the German methods, and thus minimize the number of disasters. "America is by nature the chosen spot of all the world for commercial airship work; with her great expanse of territory within, with her far-flung territories and insular possessions, with her commercial possibilities in Central and South America, with her centers of population disposed so as to require more rapid transport than yet in operation, with her push and energy that bids for supremacy in all things good, with her supply of helium gas unexcelled in all the world, she should bid for that which is, unquestionably, her way in the path of progress."

Marriage and Art Are United at Last

International News Service. PARIS, Feb. 2.—In the world of Bohemia, whether it be Murger's extinct Latin quarter or New York's pseudo prototype down Greenwich Village way, there was one inevitable rule—the artist must not be married. It was supposed to devote his entire time to the cultivation of art. Feminine charms, of course, were not outlawed. They were, on the contrary indispensable to the development of his genius. But—the marriage bond was regarded as a hindrance, the death of all talent. 'Tisn't so any more. The French government has so decreed, and, far from acting in an arbitrary manner, in an attempt to crush budding genius, the government has merely listened to the appeals of the artists themselves.
M. Leon Berard has decided that the ban on marriage hitherto preventing a Prix de Rome artist from taking unto himself a wife must be lifted. Moreover, the minister of fine arts will ask parliament for funds to enable the artists sojourning at the Villa Mediceis in Rome to take care of the extra expense of maintaining a household.
Those who imposed the condition of celibacy on the winners of the Prix de Rome acted in accordance with the view that artists would study better if they lived in common in the villa occupying their leisure time in esthetic discussions and sipping their coffee over harangues about the Muses.
Within the last few years there have been several artists who, in order to get married, were forced to give up the privilege of the Villa Mediceis, and, worse still, the subsidy of about 6,000 francs a year which is continued after their return to Paris for three years, so as to enable them to get a real foothold in their profession. There has, therefore, been a clamor on the part of the artists enjoying the government subsidy for a relaxation of the old rule against marriage, and the authorities have finally yielded.
The Villa Mediceis is more than its name indicates. It comprises a vast park, with gardens, separate studios for the students, buildings for art exhibitions, forming, in fact, quite a colony. Entry is by open competition yearly in the art schools of Paris and the Prix de Rome entitles the winner to an income of 6,000 francs a year
