Horror Sits Grinning In Convict Camps

Prisoner Who Survives Makes Affidavit as to Savage Cruelty of Lease Masters.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 13.—Spurred on by the wrath of public opinion that has been aroused by tales of horrors and savage cruelty in peonage camps of this state where men sentenced to serve short terms in prison for minor offenses such as vagrancy, and then, leased out to contractors, are made to work long hours under distressing conditions and treated in inhuman manner, the grand jury which brought in an indictment in connection with the death of Martin Tabert of North Dakota, following a flogging, is also investigating the beating of Paul Revere White, who survived and was able to tell what happened to him.

The Florida house of representatives has passed a resolution urging the committee as part of its work to give Talbert "a decent burial at state expense." If this is done, the body will be exhumed, dressed in another suit and reburied in another coffin.

White Makes Affidavit.
White's affidavit begins with a statement of his arrest for vagrancy Nov. 9, 1922, in High Springs, Fla. He was tried at 4 o'clock the same day and sentenced to six months at hard labor, or $25 fine and $25.13 court costs. He said he had pleaded not guilty before the justice of the peace, saying he was looking for work when arrested.

"That night as they were taking me to Gainesville in a car," reads the affidavit, "they—the sheriff and the judge—stopped and the sheriff got out to get another prisoner, a woman prisoner, and while he was gone the judge made a little speech to me, saying for me not to think hard of him or the sheriff and then he ended by slipping 50 in my hand and telling me to write letters to everybody I knew and to ask them to send the money so I could be freed."

Sent to Turpentine Camp.
Then White tells of his imprisonment in the county jail for 12 days. On Nov. 21, he said, a guard took him to T. J. Knab's convict turpentine camp. On Nov. 22 they dressed him in stripes and put him to scraping gum from the pine trees. As a part of the work he had to drag a heavy scrape-board on runners from tree to tree "through swamps, bays, branches, creeks, slimy mud knee deep, and through waist-deep water, over submerged logs, dead trees and other submerged stumps.

"Because I could not do as much work as the negro convicts, I was beaten on the third day I was there. He gave me five licks with his eight-pound strap, each time knocking me flat to the ground, and at each beating he gave me he would either give a cut down between the shoulder blades or down the small of my back and elsewhere. He drew blood every time he did it, and he always wielded the strap with a twist so the sharp edge would cut in my flesh.

"The third day was the 24th of November, 1922, and from that date through the next two weeks I was beaten almost every day, through no fault of mine, for I was doing the best that I possibly could. Every time the officer beat me, and there was a log in sight, he would have me get part way across it, with my legs stretched straight out behind me. Then he would stand on one side of me, and lay on with the heavy strap, and when my hands and feet were about rotted and when I was so weak I could hardly hobble around he beat me just the same, kicked and struck me with his fist.

Flogged Twice a Day.
"Sometimes he would beat me twice a day, from 10 to 12 licks each time. And the worse condition I was in the worse he seemed to knock me around.

FLORIDA SWAMP HOLDS PARTY IN ITS FASTNESS

Three Men Fight Way Out and Urge Immediate Help Sent To Others.

MIAMI, Fla., April 13.—An airplane with food and medicine was to start this morning for the Everglades to give succor to a party of 16, marooned eight days in the fastness of the big swamp. The location of the lost party was given when three men came out of the morass yesterday covered with sores and cuts and completely exhausted. They reported all of the party safe, but from their cots urged that food be rushed to them.

The airplane that started at noon was forced to return because of engine trouble.

The three men who returned yesterday are: Charles Hunt, a guide; Ora E. Chapin, Fort Meyers banker, and Frank E. Cosden of Easton, Md. Chapin was taken to a hospital in a serious condition from mosquito and "chigger" bites and cut from the "saw grass" of the Everglades.

Guide Describes Wanderings.
The story told by Hunt tells how the party became lost and was exposed to great perils.

"We left Fort Meyers April 4," Hunt said, "for Royal Palm Hammock. Every member of the party, including the women, wore heavy army clothing. We had no trouble in covering the 70 miles, camping on the road.

"Thursday came the storms and we found ourselves in a sea of mud. We worked like swamp men in them, but made only a few miles, building fourteen bridges for the cars and filling in ten culverts. Friday we reached Lemmon Camp, also known as Seminole City, an Indian village, and by that time the frolic had ended and we knew we were in for it.

Indian Village Refuge.
"We left the women in the Indian village, where they are now and with two Indians as guides, we started on an old ox trail Saturday morning, aiming for Cypress camp.

"We were in a wilderness, such as even Floridians generally do not know exists in this state. We worked army fashion, in three squads. Maurice Ayer was in command, then Mr. Chapin, then myself, and the two guides.

"While one squad cut the long slashes and saw grass with axes, the second piled brush and dug mud to fill holes, the third squad resting.

"Sunday and Monday we worked waist deep in the muck, cutting, digging, slashing and killing hundreds of snakes and a few alligators. During the day clouds of flies and bugs worried us and at night the mosquitoes were terrible. We had little shelter and slept on the ground most of the time. Two of the 10 cars and the tractor went in too deep and we abandoned them. Fred Hough was the only one ill when we left, having cut his knee with an axe, swinging at a snake.

"Millions of dead fish carried out of the canals by the flood, sent up a stench that was terrible and sickening. By Monday night we began to fear for our safety. We were on short rations and that terrible lost feeling began to make our digging and mucking seem aimless. Many of the party were useless now because of the insects and weakness.

Reach Cypress Swamp.
"Monday night we reached the big cypress swamp, but we spent that night and all day Tuesday without food or water, before one of the guides found a small Indian camp and got us some meal and grits and water.

"We saw an airplane fly over the grove Tuesday, but while we thought it might be searching for us, I think they did not see us, as we were in a cypress jungle.

"Wednesday morning we were desperate, so Chapin and Cosden and I left the party and headed for McCarty's dredge. We cut our way through 26 miles of the worst jungle on earth. The sun was terribly hot, but it kept us from getting lost. Near dark we sighted the dredge, and N. T. Torsenson in charge of a searching party, found us and helped us in."

Outside World Wanting to Know More of Ranger

Inquiries from the outside world of Ranger's resources are coming into the Chamber of Commerce offices, it was said today. The renewed activity in the Ranger oil territory is responsible for some of the inquiries.
Some of the letters declared frankly the information was sought with the idea of locating here.

Ranger's comeback in the commercial world is "making" people sit up and take notice," B. F. Bennett of the chamber said today.

LOSES HIS LIFE WHILE LOOKING FOR TREASURE

Dallas Police Claim to Have Confession Clearing Up Sulphur Springs Mystery.

DALLAS, April 13.—Search for buried treasure caused Sam Clay, 45, a commercial truck driver, to lose his life at the hands of a friend, authorities revealed here today following the arrest of C. E. Seals, 34, from whom a confession is alleged to have been obtained. Clay's body was found at a lonely spot near Sulphur Springs last Monday. He had been slain with a shotgun and $300 which he was said to have had with him had disappeared.

Seals, according to the alleged confession, needed money for his wife and children, who were starving. He knew his friend Clay had cash and made his plans accordingly, confiding to Clay that he knew of a buried treasure near Sulphur Springs. Clay asked to be taken to it and a deal was made. When they arrived at the spot near Sulphur Springs, Seals designated the spot where the treasure was supposed to lie buried and Clay began digging. Seals climbed aboard the truck, took careful aim with the shotgun and fired point blank at the bending man's head. He then finished the job with a pistol and drove back to Dallas. Seals, who is charged with murder, is held in jail here.

Veterans Parade To Mark Closing Of Big Reunion

NEW ORLEANS, April 13.—The four-mile parade of the Confederate veterans was to wind up the thirty-third annual encampment of the old soldiers today. Automobiles were provided for the 10,000 delegates, the distance being too great for the veterans to attempt on foot.

General W. B. Haldeman of Louisville, Ky., today was the new commander in chief of the Confederate veterans. He was elected in the final business meeting of the reunion yesterday. He defeated Gen. E. W. Kirkpatrick of McKinney, Texas.

W. McDonald Lee of Virginia was re-elected commander in chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Memphis was selected for the reunion next year, winning from Dallas by a close vote.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., April 13.—Miss Alice Robertson, former woman member of congress from Oklahoma, will start all over again. She will soon be back at the same station that she occupied three years ago when the political world grabbed her and placed her in congress as the only woman member.

Miss Robertson is going back into the cafeteria business here.

CULLMAN, La., April 13.—Three negroes were injured, several barns blown down and scores of livestock killed in a violent windstorm which swept the Cinceo section, 15 miles southeast of here last night.

HARDING NOW IS ALARMED AT SUGAR PRICES

Discusses Situation With Cabinet While Quotations Continue to Advance.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—President Harding and members of his cabinet today turned their attention to the sugar situation when dispatches from New York told of new high price levels to which sugar was fast climbing.

Acting Attorney General Seymour, returning from a hasty conference in New York with District Attorney Haywood, today took with him to the cabinet meeting a mass of data on sugar prices and the situation in the sugar growing, marketing and refining industries as shown by the investigations being made by the department of justice.

Frankell Wells Producing Oil and Gas; One Is Shot

The Texas Fidelity Oil corporation well No. 3, on the W. J. Gardenhire lease at Frankell, made 65 barrels the first 24 hours at a depth of 2,048 feet. At the same depth, 6,000,000 cubic feet of gas was produced. The well is now at a depth of 2,105 feet.

The No. 2 well on the same tract, which before being shot with 60 quarts of nitroglycerin was producing 93 barrels, made 524 barrels the first 24 hours following the shot.

CRAZE TO MAKE NEW ENDURANCE DANCING RECORD SPREADS FAST

Attempts to break the endurance dancing record were under way today in three cities of the country.

Sixteen couples had reached the 14-hour mark at Baltimore, only two dropping by the wayside in the race for the 52-hour mark.

Twelve women and 12 men were competing in a Houston dance hall and all had passed the 15-hour mark. Mr. and Mrs. Brown at Toledo had passed the 14-hour mark at noon today.

DANCING IN HOUSTON
HOUSTON, April 13.—Twenty-five dancers were still dancing at noon today in a non-stop contest which started at 9:15 o'clock last night to break the 52-hour record set in Cleveland yesterday. It will be necessary for the contestants to dance till 2:32 o'clock Sunday morning.

WEST TEXAS RANCHMEN HELD WITHOUT BAIL
SEMINOLE, April 13.—Tom Ross and Milt Goode, charged with the killing of Dave Allison and H. L. Robinson, were refused bail last night by Judge C. M. Mulligan, after a habeas corpus hearing that lasted all afternoon. Defense counsel gave notice of immediate appeal.

The state put on a number of character witnesses who testified to the good character of the slain men. The two prisoners in their testimony told of alleged threats made against their lives by the dead men.

The two men who were brought here from Lubbock yesterday morning will probably be taken back there today.

FARM LABOR SHORTAGE IS EXPECTED THIS YEAR
WASHINGTON, April 13.—A serious shortage of farm labor is imminent in this country, the employment section of the labor department predicted today. So great has been the demand already in some sections of the West that already a shortage has appeared.

The whole industrial employment situation in the country shows a "healthy and robust" condition, according to the statement. "This is productive of optimism in the outlook for steady decrease of unemployment in every section of the country."

Chamber of Commerce To Discuss Measures of Wide Importance

Progressive measures that will require co-operative effort by commercial organizations in Eastland county and adjoining counties will be discussed at the big open meeting that is to be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the Gholson hotel. Everybody will be welcomed. It makes no difference whether a member of a Chamber of Commerce or not. The chances are, it is said, that after the meeting everybody who attends will want to join a Chamber of Commerce here or elsewhere.

O. D. Dillingham, president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, will preside. Mayor J. M. Williamson of Cisco, and R. Q. Lee, president of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, are expected, together with G. C. Richardson, secretary, P. W. Campbell, L. H. McCrea, C. C. Wild, F. D. Wright, R. F. Holloway, B. S. Huey and A. L. Mayhew, all of Cisco.

Visitors are also expected from Eastland, Breckenridge, Strawn, Olden, Thurber and other places. Methods of advertising this section at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce meeting in San Angelo next month will be discussed. Brief reports are expected on the subjects of civic development, gas and oil, poultry and livestock.

Long speeches are to be barred. "Say what is on your mind and say it briefly" will be the motto. President Dillingham has a kind heart and hates to sound the gavel on a speaker, it is said, but he is determined to be firm tonight. He wants everybody to come.

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING IS THROWN OPEN FOR INSPECTION

Completion of Structure Marked by Interesting Exercises, Music and Addresses in Afternoon and Evening.

The new high school building in Ranger was opened to the public yesterday for the first time and today the process of "moving in" is being completed. The school board declared a holiday in order to facilitate the move and many of the students volunteered to help in every way they could.

The Ranger band in full uniform and the Ranger Boy Scouts in their practical scout clothes assembled yesterday afternoon at the Masonic hall and marched to the high school, where the exercises were held in the open air, the speakers taking position on the stairs leading into the building and the audience being grouped about it. Superintendent E. A. McNew presided, the Rev. H. B. Johnson, pastor of the Christian Tabernacle, gave the invocation and addresses were made by Miss Ulala Howard, county school superintendent; the Rev. A. N. Stubblebine, pastor of the Presbyterian church and M. H. Hagaman, secretary of the school board. Mayor John M. Gholson, being sick, was unable to attend.

Old Schools and New.
Contrasting the log cabin schools of our grandfathers with the splendid schools and equipment of today, the Rev. Dr. Stubblebine said that while modern schools are a great help in studies, they really make little difference in student attainments, for it depends largely upon each student what is got out of the schools. He expressed the hope that all the Ranger boys and girls would embrace the opportunity afforded them and get the advantage of a high school education.

All members of the school board, headed by V. V. Cooper, president of the board, were present both at the afternoon and evening exercises. The school board which has served so efficiently for the last year includes: V. V. Cooper, president; M. H. Hagaman, secretary; Mrs. C. E. Maddocks, H. E. Clewell, Jack Jarvis, T. O. Gray and E. H. Mills.

The band played several selections. The boy scouts and other students gave the flag raising exercises and saluted the flag, the band playing "Star Spangled Banner."

Superintendent McNew also presided at the night session when an overflow audience filled the auditorium to hear addresses by Dr. L. C. G.

RADICALS MAY BECOME MENACE ASSERTS BURNS

Suggests Men Like Texas Rangers Needed to Drive Them Out.

DALLAS, April 13.—Radicals are becoming a menace to the United States, preaching armed resistance and open rebellion among the laboring classes of the North and East and the time is near for legislation to prevent the obtaining of a foothold in this country, William J. Burns, head of the bureau of investigation, department of justice, said today. He is on a tour of the Southwest.

Burns said that with men like the Texas rangers working in various sections of the country, it would be only a short time till the radicals were driven from this country. The reputation of the rangers has traveled far, and other states are attempting to organize similar bodies, he said.

Concerning the report that men who are members of the Ku Klux Klan, must either resign or quit the federal service, Burns said that no official orders along that line had been issued to his department.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The activities of the "political reds" are centered in making a desperate effort to control and dictate the policy of the United Mine Workers of America, a statement from that union said today.

"It is the same crowd of reds and radicals who were revealed in the exposure of the communists and bolsheviks as in control of the Charles Garland fund of $800,000," the statement said.

Michigan Church Is Temporarily Without Pastor

KALAMAZOO, Mich., April 13.—The Rev. Father Charles Pillon, assistant pastor of St. Augustine's Roman Catholic church, is being held here today for the shooting to death of the Rev. Father Henry O'Neill, rector of the church. The shooting took place at the dinner table last night. Four shots were fired, all of which took effect.

According to the confession which the police claim was made by Father Pillon, he says he was driven to fury by alleged ill treatment at the hands of the pastor.

FAST INTERURBAN HITS MILK CAR; MOTORMAN MAY BE FATALLY HURT

AKRON, Ohio, April 13.—One person was perhaps fatally injured and at least two others seriously injured when a special Cleveland and Akron interurban car crashed into a milk car here today. The special car was carrying 40 boy and girl students from Central High of Akron to Cleveland to participate in a music memory contest.

Early reports said that the injuries of the motorman, named Hutchinson, may prove fatal.

WORK OF TOPPING RANGER-THURBER ROAD TO BE BEGUN SOON

T. B. Keller, one of the sub-contractors for the Hogan Construction company, was in Ranger today, and said that the work of topping the road between Ranger and Thurber will be begun within the next week or 10 days.

The work will be begun on Hunt street at the Hamon-Kell railroad tracks and continue out to and beyond city limits. Only about one-fourth mile of road can be completed each day at the beginning of the work, but later it is hoped two crews can be put on and the work pushed faster.

WICHITA FALLS.—Wichita Falls has 6,500 children of school age, according to the results of the scholastic census just announced. This is an increase over the census of last year when 6,090 scholastics were reported.

HARDING WRITES ON STYLE IN STRAW HATS NEEDED FOR SUMMER

NEW YORK, April 13.—President Harding can keep in hat style this summer without spending a cent.

Together with announcement of straw hat modes, the National Association of Men's Straw Hat Manufacturers of America Thursday made public a letter from Mr. Harding thanking it for sending him a season's supply.

To be in style a man must have three hats this summer—one in June, another in July and the last in August, but three every minute; a rough straw for general protection, a leghorn for sports wear and a smooth straw for evening wear.

ESCAPES FROM PEN BUT DIES ON GALLOWS

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 13.—Paul V. Halsey died on the gallows today for the murder of Mrs. Anna Johnson. He maintained his claim of innocence to the last and met his fate calmly. He was baptised during the night.

Halsey was an escaped life-terminer from the Oklahoma penitentiary. He was convicted of killing Mrs. Johnson in November, 1921, in a trip over the Arizona desert. Peter Johnson, husband of the slain woman, who was severely wounded at the time his wife was killed, was the chief witness against Halsey and witnessed the hanging.

Halsey is survived by his mother and two divorced wives.

FORT WORTH.—Hope for the construction of a city auditorium for Fort Worth was expressed recently by Mayor E. R. Cockrell. Mayor Cockrell stated that he has not formulated plans for financing such a project but suggested that a portion of the lands owned by the city might be sold as a revenue raising measure.

Buchanan for the Rotarians; Dr. W. C. Palmer for the Lions; E. F. Bennett for the Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. C. C. Chenoweth for the Women's clubs and M. H. Hagaman for the school board. The Rev. Dr. Stubblebine gave the invocation and the Rev. W. H. Johnson, pastor of the Baptist church, pronounced the benediction.

Appeal to Motherhood.
 Mrs. Chenoweth's address was an appeal to the motherhood of the community to support the schools by their presence, by their efforts and by their contributions. She also emphasized the importance of the vocational work in the school.

A display of dresses made chiefly by the seniors was a feature of the evening. The girls wore the dresses on the stage. They were made of gingham, calico and other material. Each dress was made entirely by the girl who wore it.

Musical features were given by the Ranger Band, under the leadership of "Pop" Endicott, and by a sextette, composed of Mmes. A. L. Leake, W. J. Roland, C. E. Maddocks, Roger Fenlaw, T. J. Holmsley and J. M. Dodson. Two songs were also given by the High School Glee club.

After the exercises in the auditorium, the people were invited to inspect the building and then were served with light refreshments in the school lunch room by the High School Parent-Teachers Club.

TEXAS RANGERS ACQUIRING FAME SAYS CAPTAIN

Hollywood and School Debaters Especially Keen in Inquiries.

AUSTIN, April 13.—Texas rangers stand as models for state police throughout the nation. This fact is shown by the numerous inquiries received at state headquarters for information regarding ranger activities and history. State headquarters are becoming somewhat of an information bureau, according to Ranger Captain R. W. Aldrich, in charge of state offices.

Moreover, Texas rangers are models for scenario writers, the ranger captain reports. Several inquiries have come to the department recently from Hollywood and other motion picture centers for stories about the Texas rangers. Captain Aldrich states that he is gaining considerable experience in writing for the movies through such inquiries. The movie writers want to know all about what the rangers do, how they look and act.

"Most of such writers have an idea that the Texas rangers wear hairy leghorns and ribbon sashes," Captain Aldrich said. "We try to give them some idea about ranger activities and show them that Texas police are maintained for work and not for show purposes."

The rangers also are the subjects of many debates in other states, Aldrich said. Requests for information on the ranger force have come from a dozen or more states within the last month. Among those from which inquiries have come are Utah, Illinois, California, Michigan, Montana, and others. High school students in Texas also often write for information about the rangers.

The state department has sent out numbers of copies of the adjutant general's annual report giving a summary of the ranger activities during the past year. Captain Aldrich also has written many letters explaining the organization and giving some of the outstanding instances of ranger activity.

CLARENDON.—Preparations are going forward for the annual convention of the Seventh district, Texas Federation of Women's clubs, here on April 24-25, local club women report. Delegations from all parts of the district are expected in attendance.

PREDICTS ONE MILLION BUSHEL OF WHEAT FOR WEST TEXAS PLAINS

AUSTIN, April 13.—The wheat crop yield on the West Texas plains this year is bright, R. P. Smyth of Plainview, said today. He stated that the yield will be approximately 1,000,000 bushels as compared with 700,000 last year.

Smyth is here with S. E. Williams and Arthur Boyd filing briefs with the secretary of the locating board of Texas Tech. Plainview is bidding for the location of the college.

RANGER DOG CATCHER IS AGAIN ON DUTY

Ranger again has a dog catcher. Unable to stand the taunts of the crowd, the man engaged by Sanitary Officer Wade Swift to gather in the loose canines, resigned last month after three days on the job.

However, the same man has accepted a different view of his duties and regardless of the razzing of the crowd he is back to gathering in animals whose owners are careless enough to let them roam with "freedom's will."

The dog catcher has been working for more than a week this time without any threat of resigning.

Bobbed Hair Has Come to Stay, Says Educator's Wife

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 13.—Mrs. W. O. Thompson, wife of the president of Ohio State University, is not unduly perturbed over the reported prevalence of flapperism at that institution.

"The best way to solve the flapper problem is to let it alone," Mrs. Thompson declared in an interview printed today in the Ohio State Lantern, the daily organ of the university. "If she is let alone, the college girl will work out her own destiny. Whatever is expressed by flapperism now was expressed in other ways in other times. Such actions do not mean much. They are but the pose of youth."

The greater freedom in dress and manner assumed by the American girl in other ways in the last three years will result in a better American womanhood, Mrs. Thompson believes, according to interview. Bobbed hair is here to stay, she said, predicting that in the future all women will wear their hair short because of its convenience.

Mrs. Thompson's interview was concluded with a wholehearted endorsement of the co-educational system.

BROWNS DO NOT LOOK SO STRONG AS LAST SEASON

Sisler Out of Game Hurts St. Louisans; Pitching Staff Disorganized

By HENRY L. FARRELL, United Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Lee Fohl, had he the temperament of a crab, could find plenty of reasons for howling that he had been picked out for about all the slaps that Bad Luck reserved for the American league in 1922.

This time last year the pennant chances of the St. Louis Browns were so bright and rosy that the fans of the Missouri metropolis were tuning their voices to acclaim the virtues of the man and the team who were to bring the first world's series into their front yard.

The voices were tuned up harmoniously, but they were never used, because a load of bad breaks settled on the Browns and they missed out in a terrific battle with the New York Yankees by one slim game.

First came the injury which threw Ellerbe off third base and forced Fohl to use the veterans, Bronkie and Foster, in a position where speed on foot and a live arm are needed more than the stout hearts of those veterans.

Then the pitching staff was disorganized. "Shucks" Pruet, young Missouri university pitcher, who jumped into fame by fanning Babe Ruth 10 times out of the first 12 times that he pitched to him, came up with a lame arm and held the bench for most of the season. Dave Danforth persisted in tampering with the hall until he had to be released, because the umpires and the managers of the rival clubs camped on him too much for the use of illegal deliveries.

Perhaps the peculiar conviction that he couldn't pitch winning games without digging his finger nails into the seams of the ball made Danforth one of the biggest factors in the loss of the pennant for the Browns. There is little doubt that Danforth could have won 10 or 12 games instead of five, because Fohl insisted that he had plenty to get by well with on "straight stuff."

Sisler, according to late information, will not be able to start the season, and it may be months before he can get into his real game. No one can take the place of Sisler in that lineup because there is only one Sisler.

Some rather competent baseball judges have said that the Browns were not a smart ball club last year, and if they had been mentally alert, they might have picked up a couple of games they dropped and that they could have overcome the Yankee lead with those games.

Since nothing is really known about what Fohl has found among his rookies, the Browns do not look so strong as they were last year. If he is not overworked, Shocker may win more games than he did last year, but he is no youngster and he might feel the effects of what he went through last year.

Morally, at least, if not in actual mechanical strength, the Yanks ought to be better this year and they will be harder to beat. The Detroit Tigers are stronger and the Browns perhaps are in such a position that they have to watch the White Sox and the Athletics to keep from being run over in the big push.

Judge Ove Overson is back in his office after a week's stay in Waco.

Mrs. Charles W. Milliken and baby girl will come to Ranger in a few days to make this city their permanent home. Mr. Milliken is proprietor and manager of the Paramount hotel. The Millikens temporarily resided in Weatherford.

Albert Holloway, who has been a patient at the Ranger General Hospital, returned to his home yesterday.

Drs. T. L. Lauderdale and C. O. Terrell have returned to Ranger from the meeting of the medical association of the Northwest district.

"Lefty" Lybrand of Ranger has cinched a berth with the San Antonio ball club of the Texas league, according to an item in Sporting News.

HERE'S ONE WHO BELIEVES RANGER HAS GREAT FUTURE

"Buy it in Ranger" is urged by the Chamber of Commerce. "Pay Up Day," clearing up all the I. O. U.'s and helping to sweep away all worries, is urged by the Retail Merchants' association.

In this connection, here is an optimistic message from one who writes as "one who believes in a greater Ranger and one who loves the name of the Ranger Daily Times." "Doc" J. H. Wamsley writes:

"There are no hard times coming. It is just the easy times going. The merchants of Ranger believe that could the paying public realize the economic importance and the fairness of paying their bills promptly good times could be restored. Everything runs in a circle. You pay me, I pay the next man, he pays someone else. Let's pay up promptly and keep the ball rolling. It will surely roll back to you. So buy it in Ranger. That's what builds a city—the city trade. Watch Ranger grow with the Peoples State bank and the Ranger State bank as a strong foundation; the Chamber of Commerce with B. F. Bennett putting things in first class, and the Retail Merchants association with Karl E. Jones bringing things to pass."

WACO.—Highland Place, in West Waco, has voted to incorporate as a separate municipality. W. A. Lucas, Waco real estate dealer, was elected mayor.

The Chamber of Commerce is filing away names, addresses and employing qualifications of men and women who apply to the office for jobs in Ranger. Secretary Bennett today said his organization will be in a position to assist Ranger employers to get competent help, skilled and unskilled.

Two men today applied at the chamber for work. Mr. Bennett said it will be a practice of the chamber to investigate the men's references and so have it ready for use when employers call for a worker.

This will be the only clearing house for employers and employes in Ranger.

OWNERS OF MISSING DOGS ASK AID OF POLICE

Police are being enlisted by owners of dogs in their efforts to locate their missing pets.

B. Slay of Olden, general delivery, yesterday reported that two male bull pups, each six months old, were missing and that he suspected one of them was being detained in Ranger. He gave the address of the place where he thought the pup might be found. One is a dark brindle and the other a yellow brindle, he said.

A Mrs. Bartley today appealed to the police to help her find a white female dog, which she said disappeared from her property.

The incomparable beauty of thousands of women—that smooth, satin-like skin texture so much admired—is the result of Nadinola Cream, which has proved itself for a quarter of a century, the standard bleaching and beautifying cream.

Scientists long ago discovered and combined in Nadinola Cream, elements which bleach the skin and remove tan, freckles, pimples and other discolorations. Of its own peculiar virtues, it rids the skin of impurities and leaves it smooth and beautiful. The 50c. package will remove mild cases, the $1.00 size more stubborn cases. HORROR SITS GRINNING IN CONVICT CAMPS

From that time on I was beaten at least once every two or three days. "After I was there a week my feet began to get bad; sores began to appear scattered from a little above the ankle down to the toes of both feet. This was caused from water poison and dew poison, as Dr. Lamb told me when I was taken away from the camp. As soon as I found these sores coming on me I told the captain about it and he replied that he did not have time to bother with sick convicts, and that when a convict got in too bad a shape to work, they always ended up in his evergreen cemetery just back of the stockade."

A great deal of the time the convicts worked as far as 15 miles from the camp, meaning a 30-mile walk a day, according to the affidavit. Six miles a day was the least distance they had to go in a day. They often worked in the rain, White said, and the next morning had to put on sopping clothes. "No matter how cold it was I had to wade in deep water and mud from daylight to sundown. Nearly all of the time Roddenbury cursed me and especially when he beat me," reads the affidavit.

Feet Too Sore for Shoes.

His clothes became ragged so that he was not decently covered. Because of the sores he could not wear shoes, once running the prongs of a rake into his foot when he was dodging Roddenbury. Most of the time he wore sacks around his feet.

"Knabb told the inspector—Thomas—on one occasion that he could not afford to buy stripes for the men to wear, as the briars would tear them up in a week," the affidavit says.

"One day the inspector of state prisons came to camp. While there he found out about my hands and feet. The skin on my hands puffed up in places and filled with pus. Altogether I drew about two cups of puss from each hand before I got all the skin off to the red meat of my hands and fingers. And during the two months my hands were in that condition I could not straighten my fingers more than half way at any time, nor could I do much work, yet I was beaten continually while in that condition. "So Inspector Thomas gave strict orders not to send me out to work any more but to keep me in the stockade until I got well again, and for him not to beat me or strike me. But that morning, after the inspector had gone, the guard beat both myself and a white man by the name of Bill Kirk. (Not sure about the spelling of his name. Think he is still at the camp.) He whipped Kirk because a negro told the captain Bill was the one who told the inspector about my condition."

Food Half Cooked.

The captain made many threats to White, according to the affidavit, which goes to describe the food at the camp. It consisted of half-cooked grits and coarse corn bread for breakfast, "collard greens about a foot long," coarse corn bread and occasionally a small piece of fat meat for dinner and supper, the food dipped out of pans by the fingers of a negro who had no other means of serving the meat than tearing it apart. No salt was used in the food. T. J. Knabb is said to have told the cook one Sunday that he did not buy salt for convicts, that he did not lease convicts to drink water.

Two weeks after the visit of the inspector Knabb had White brought to his home for treatment—in reality, to enable him to escape, according to gossip White heard. In a back room of Knabb's commissary White slept between two thin mattresses, Mrs. Knabb serving him two "very scant meals a day."

After 10 days of this the inspector and Sheriff Joe Jones of Baker county, according to White, took him from Knabb's place to the county jail at Macclenny. On the way they encountered Knabb, who ordered White back to his home, but the inspector ordered the sheriff to continue on to Macclenny.

Sheriff Protects White.

Knabb called the next day at the jail, saying he had paid White off and that he wanted to take him away. The sheriff telegraphed Gainesville and found Knabb had not "paid off" White, but Knabb did go to Gainesville and "free" the prisoner the day following. When he again called for White the Macclenny sheriff refused, as he had consulted White, who "most certainly" did not want to go back with Knabb. The sheriff got a doctor for White and took good care of him.

This doctor—Dr. Lamb—said that White would not have lived two or three weeks longer had he stayed at the prison camp. Knabb was called before the board of county commissioners at their next meeting. "He said the reason for his not giving me any sheets or blankets was because I made improper use of them," White's affidavit reads. "And he also told the board that I put pine gum on my feet and hands and then roasted them before the fire so I could get out of work and to create sympathy and pity for myself. At the board meeting I accused him of lying to his face.

"Knabb said nobody was going to call him a liar and get away with it. He acted as though he was going to strike me, but after looking around the courtroom he thought better of it. About three days before he was called before the board he called me over to him as he sat in his car and said, 'Paul, I'm the best friend you've got,' and asked me to go home with him and if I would go at once he would pay my expenses to my very doorstep. But I told him nothing doing. The next day my brother came down from Washington and took charge of my affairs."

Years and years ago, Mr. Newton and the apple warned these stunt fliers.—Detroit News.

CLEAN KIDNEYS BY DRINKING LOTS OF WATER

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BLADDER BOTHERS OR BACK HURTS.

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—(Advertisement.)

ANNOUNCEMENT Of Interest to MILLIONS OF FAMILIES

"I will build a car for the multitude" Said Henry Ford in 1903—Read how the fulfillment of that prophecy is now made possible through the

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership. During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford cars have been placed in the hands of retail customers—more than a million and a half of them within the past twelve months—and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford. And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in one of the local banks where it will draw interest. Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little. Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

TEXAS STRAWBERRIES TO BE IN THE MARKET SOON

South Texas strawberries will be here in a few weeks, say Ranger merchants. Louisiana berries are coming in now and Arkansas berries are due to arrive most any time.

Ranger folks are not yet buying them as an every-day dessert, said one merchant. "Cream and berries makes a nice dish for Sundays," he said. "We have our biggest sales on Saturdays."

Sixty cents a quart is the price being generally asked by merchants. Texas berries, when they arrive, will knock the bottom out of this price, dealers declare. The berries are of a fair quality for this time of the season.

"Take a tip, Peter. Lay off the big eats and stick to Kellogg's and you'll feel like a bird!"

Most men and women who win their way with their brains eat sparingly at breakfast. The ideal diet is Kellogg's Corn Flakes because they have such a wonderful flavor of which you never tire; alluring crisp crunchiness—and they are so satisfying and sustaining.

If you realize how heavy, greasy breakfasts help to dull brains and slow up work-capacity, you'll switch to light breakfasts QUICKLY and get to the day's work feeling fine and fit!

As an extra treat, serve Kellogg's Corn Flakes with your favorite stewed fruit; or with bananas or other fresh fruits in season.

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are sold only in the RED and GREEN packages that bear the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. None are genuine without it.

Texas Woman Finds Health

Mrs. W. H. Strawn, of Dallas, Who Tells How to Have Perfect Health.

"There were times when I felt so bad and skinny, I was ashamed to go out and meet my friends," says Mrs. Strawn, popular resident of Dallas. "I weighed only 108 pounds. But now I am taking on weight and new life. Ironized Yeast did it. It is amazing what it has done for me. I now weigh 126 pounds. It means so much to me, because 127 pounds was my weight before I married. My husband says I am now more like the girl he married eight years ago, and my lost strength of six years standing is coming back."

No discovery in the field of medicine has aroused more comment than that of the principle embodied in Ironized Yeast for building firm flesh on thin, anemic people and restoring the strength and vigor of health. Ironized Yeast will calm your tired nerves and nurture your shrunken tissues; you will soon know the joy of a hearty appetite, good digestion, rosy cheeks, plump limbs and buoyant spirits. These are the things Ironized Yeast has given to thousands of others, and is guaranteed to give to you. Get it today from your druggist. A ten-day treatment costs only a dollar. Nolley Fined in Fort Worth For Carrying Pistol

Special to the Times.

FORT WORTH, April 13.—Sam Nolley, ousted sheriff of Eastland county, and now proprietor of a barber shop in Fort Worth, yesterday was convicted on a charge of carrying a pistol by a jury in the county court-at-law and was fined $200 with costs, amounting to approximately $50. The jury was out 45 minutes.

Nolley in his plea testified that he armed himself because he had been told that J. C. Jordan had arrived here to kill him.

The complaint stated that the offense occurred March 15, when Nolley and Jordan met at Ninth and Houston streets and engaged in a pistol fight. Each man was shot in the leg. The grand jury investigated the shooting and declined to indict on charges of assault to murder which had been filed in justice court.

The trial of Jordan on the complaint of carrying a gun was to be held Friday.

FORD WANTS RELICS OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN TO PLACE IN MUSEUM

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Henry Ford has offered $50,000 for the famous Oldroyd Lincoln memorial collection, consisting of more than 3,000 articles owned by or closely identified with the martyred President, it became known today.

It is the plan of the automobile manufacturer to remove the collection to Detroit and place it in a Lincoln memorial museum. News of the Ford offer caused a sensation here and resulted immediately in a movement to have Congress appropriate funds to purchase the collection for the government.

At the present the collection is on exhibition in the house in which Lincoln died. The house is opposite the old Ford Theatre, where the assassination took place.

Ford's offer was communicated to Captain Osborn Oldroyd, who has passed 63 years assembling the 3,000 relics. Various collectors here declared today that the offer of $50,000 was "ridiculously low." They expressed the belief that $50,000 would be realized at private sale of less than 200 of the 3,000 articles comprising the collection.

DEFENSE CLOSES CASE.

Some things you should know about your heart

THE first thing a physician examines, when summoned, is the heart pulse. A normal heart will beat one hundred and three thousand times each day. You depend on it to beat every second of your life. You realize the heart should not have to overwork constantly to throw off blood impurities. It is impurities which increase the heart beat. More red-cells mean cleaner, purer, richer blood. They mean nerve-power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. This means freedom from pimples, from blackheads, from boils, eczema and skin eruptions; from rheumatic impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-cells are the most important thing in the world to teach us. S. S. S. will build them for you! S. S. S. has been known since 1826 as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleaners and system-strengtheners ever produced.

Mr. Arthur A. Smith, 509 S. Ada St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "After suffering with bad boils, I commenced using S. S. S. I wish to say that it came up to all expectations and relieved me of boils. I wish to express my appreciation for what S. S. S. did for me."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical. Get a bottle today!
