CAVE-MAN CARRIES GIRL INTO THE HILLS

NEW OIL FIELD IS LOOMING UP IN REAGAN COUNTY

If It Materializes University of Texas and Orient Railroad Will Profit.

SAN ANGELO, June 9.—Texas today was believed to be about to have a new wealth producing district opened and the "black flowing gold" which in the last few years has stirred the whole state, may bring prosperity and wealth to the almost defunct Orient railway and to the University of Texas.

The Santa Rita well, on University of Texas land, near Big Lake in Reagan county, brought in a few weeks ago on a small scale, and which has gushed oil in small amounts at intervals, today gushed for 39 minutes, going high above the derrick.

This is the first oil well of importance to flow in Texas west of Ranger and in a virtually undeveloped field. The oil is 36 gravity and valuable. The well, besides being on University of Texas lands, which are leased to the Texas Oil and Land company, are near the right of way of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad.

The University of Texas has a 74-section tract of land in this vicinity and if the prospect of valuable oil fields being found there prove well founded, the University of Texas will become one of the richest educational institutions in the world. The Orient railroad too owns considerable land in the immediate section and may profit from oil production in addition to the prospect of getting a large amount of profitable business from oil development.

AUSTIN HEARS NEWS

AUSTIN, June 9.—Great concern was shown by University of Texas officials today on reports of a producing oil well in Reagan county. The belief was expressed that it would mean riches for the university.

BONHAM MAN GIVES PARTY FOR HIS SIXTY THOUSAND NEIGHBORS

BONHAM, Texas, June 9.—When Will H. Evans gives his three-day party here June 10 to 12, all of the 60,000 inhabitants of Fannin county will be invited as will all of his friends in other counties.

The party will consist of a series of eleven varied entertainments. A theater, in which many of the entertainments will be held, has already been leased for the occasion. Motion pictures, addresses and various contests will be included in the program.

All that the people who come to the party will be required to furnish will be their food. Everything else will be furnished free by Evans.

Evans has been prominent here for a great many years as a lawyer, bank director and real estate man and has taken an active part in virtually all civic and progressive affairs. He is a Rotarian and is president of the Bible in the public school association.

Asked for his reason in giving the party, Evans said it was his means of expressing his appreciation to the people of the county who encouraged him during his youth.

"I want to say 'Thank You' to all the people for their kindness to me during my youth when I needed encouragement. This is the best way I can think of to announce my gratitude."

Little Tot Buys Cup of Water for Thirsty Stray Dog

DALLAS, June 9.—Filled to the brim with the milk of human kindness, a little youngster in the neighborhood of five walked up to a soda fountain in the business district of this city, elevated himself on tiptoes and asked for a glass of water.

"I want to take it out," he said. "There's a dog down the street an' he's awful thirsty and I think he would like a drink."

The dispenser smiled, filled a paper cup to the brim, passed it to the "good samaritan" and the little tot shoved up a nickel.

GERMANY WILL CONTINUE HER RUHR POLICY

Will Not Abandon Passive Resistance Attitude. Says Cuno.

BERLIN, June 9.—"Germany will continue her policy of passive resistance in the Ruhr Valley." This is the answer of Chancellor Cuno of Germany to the French demand that Germany abandon her Ruhr policy before the reparations question can be discussed. The statement was made today at Muenster to press representatives.

"The policy of passive resistance against the French occupation must continue," said Cuno. In Paris, Premier Poincare stated on receipt of the latest reparations offer that no effort to solve the question would be undertaken until Germany abandoned her policy of "passive resistance."

MILLIONAIRE WEDS HIS COOK; COOKING MEANS "LIFE ITSELF"

MUSKOGON, Mich., June 9.—Eugene E. Meurer, millionaire paper manufacturer of Muskogon, has married Miss Margaret Wasserman, his "40,000 cook," whose specially prepared dishes, Meurer repeatedly declared, meant "life itself" to him.

The marriage license was obtained May 24, but information concerning it was suppressed at the county clerk's office here until last week. The millionaire gave his age as 62 and that of his bride as 42. The two were married May 25 by the Rev. George Bohn, pastor of St. John's Evangelical church. Efforts had been made to keep the marriage a secret.

The manufacturer's fondness for the woman's cooking led to a break between Meurer and his family. His domestic difficulties began to attract international attention last January, when his daughter, Mrs. Walter Voit, came here from Germany and had Miss Wasserman, who she charged was taking the place of the wife in the home, hurried to Germany.

Meurer fought the move, after first consenting and giving the cook $40,000 for faithful services.

Efforts at reconciliation failed and Meurer filed suit for divorce against his wife, who had been visiting in Germany for two years. He charged desertion.

Miss Wasserman attempted to re-enter the United States, but immigration officials interferred until Meurer provided bonds.

Meurer is suffering from a chronic stomach ailment and declares his present wife's cooking is indispensable if he is to live.

DeLeon police notified the Ranger authorities today that no trace of the two missing girls from Cheaney has been found in or around that place. The DeLeon authorities were asked yesterday to look for Winnie Lee Harper and Odessa Mae Akers, who Monday night left their homes, 10 miles south of Ranger. The two men now held at Gainesville in connection with the disappearance, are said to have told Officer Jim Ingram that the young girls intended to go to DeLeon, when the men left them at Dublin last Tuesday morning.

Officer Ingram went to Gainesville to bring Wesley Fox and Jim Carter, charged with removing the girls from their homes, and also the Harper girl's father, George Harper, in locating the girls. He was still in Gainesville, it was said at the police station this afternoon.

CHOKES HER FOR HALF-HOUR AND SEES HER DIE

Filipino in New York Confesses to Murder of His Fiancee.

NEW YORK, June 9.—"I choked her for half an hour; then she was dead."

In these words, Eluigo Lozade, a Filipino, today confessed to the murder of Miss Blossom Martin, a trained nurse, according to police of the West Brighton station.

Lozade was arrested about 2 o'clock this morning as he was endeavoring to throw the body of the woman, wrapped in brown paper and tied with a cord, over the rail of a ferry boat. He had carried the body about the city with him for hours trying to find an opportunity to dispose of it, carried it in taxicabs and on ferry boats, and many persons had turned to look curiously at the little man struggling with a big and apparently heavy bundle.

According to the police, Lozade said he had killed the woman in the basement of an apartment house in a fashionable neighborhood near Central Park in which were the offices of a physician who employed Miss Martin on his staff of trained nurses.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Eluigo Lozade, a Filipino butler for Dr. G. W. McAuliffe, today confessed, police said, that he had strangled his fiancee Miss Blossom Sealy Martin, who was employed by the physician as a nurse.

He admitted he had taken her body, wrapped in a green portiere, to Elizabethport, Staten Island, 18 miles distant, and was attempting to drop it overboard from a ferry boat into the harbor when arrested.

Although Lozade refused to tell why he killed the girl, the police believe that his poverty caused her to break the engagement.

Ford Expansion Program Affects Numerous Cities

DETROIT, Mich., June 9.—One phase of the Ford Motor company's expansion program, entailing the expense of millions of dollars, is strikingly illustrated in a survey of improvements made in assembly plants throughout the country, all of which have brought better business and employment conditions to several cities affected.

The survey, which is just announced through the Ford News, shows that every assembly plant of the company, numbering twenty-eight, is now in full operation and producing more Ford cars and trucks than ever before.

New additions have been erected, or are under construction, new equipment has been installed, and greater facilities afforded all around.

The plant at Atlanta, Georgia has been considerably enlarged since its reopening a year ago. At that time its capacity was 150 cars and trucks a day. This already has been increased to 210 and when improvements are completed the maximum for an eight-hour day will be from 250 to 275.

British Station Military Forces In Ruhr Valley

BERLIN, June 9.—British military forces have entered Dusseldorf in the Ruhr valley, it was stated in dispatches received here today. A section of artillery and another of infantry are reported to have arrived at the industrial center which has been in the hands of the French occupational troops since the Ruhr was first seized.

Government advisers declare additional British artillery and infantry on its way to Dusseldorf. It was believed at first this was merely a "parade" movement, there is now evidence that Great Britain intends to take over the southern section of the Ruhr and permit France and Belgium to hold the northern section.

SHIP OFFICER, RUNNING AMUCK, KILLS THREE

LISBON, June 9.—Second Officer Taetto of the steamship Bravo Coour, committed suicide today at Oporto while policemen were endeavoring to arrest him on charges of killing Captain J. M. Neilson, commander of the vessel; First Officer J. G. Parry and Wireless Operator Alfred Glaiser, according to a message received here.

Taetto is said to have done the shooting with a revolver when the vessel was two days out of Hamburg bound for Galveston. After running amuck he took refuge in his cabin, from which the police were trying to take him after the ship put in at Oporto. He put up a struggle and when he found that he could not escape, turned the pistol on himself.

ARKANSAS MINE HAS YIELDED 6,000 DIAMONDS

CHICAGO, June 9.—Arkansas' diamond mine, the only one ever discovered in North America, has yielded nearly 6,000 diamonds since the "pipes" were first located in 1906 according to a report of the U. S. Geological Survey.

Most of these diamonds have been small, but a number of large stones have been found. The largest weighed 21 1/4 carats and the second 17.85 carats. Dr. George F. Kunz, diamond expert, says Arkansas diamonds are as fine as any found anywhere, and of one lot which he examined, said: "These are absolutely perfect and are equal to the finest stones ever taken from the Jagersfontein mine in South Africa, or that were ever found in India."

A few of the Arkansas stones have sold for as high as $600 a carat, the report says. The output of the South African mines is about one carat to two tons of ore and of the Arkansas mine about one carat to eight tons of ore.

Discovery of the Arkansas mine created excitement, but its output so far has cut little figure in the world's supply. Ninety-five per cent of all the world's diamonds come from South Africa. The price of the very best African diamonds in 1890 was $150 per carat, and this year is $750 a carat.

CUT FARE FOR GARDENERS TRAVELING TO GARDENS

BERLIN, June 9.—In order to encourage the gardening of vacant land in and about Berlin, the state railways have cut their fares in half for all needy tenant gardeners traveling to and from their gardens.

It is a practice here to lease for the spring and summer small patches of acreage held for speculation or building purposes. So much of such land has been taken up by truck gardeners that there is now a continuous chain of vegetable plots encircling the city, comprising approximately 15,000 acres. The number of gardeners is 170,000 an increase of 12,000 over last year.

SENATE CONSIDERS VARIOUS REVENUE AND APPROPRIATION BILLS

AUSTIN, June 9.—Downs house bill requiring sworn statements of personal property renditions and prescribing conditions on tax collections was engrossed by the senate today.

The finance committee reported favorably the Wood bill, appropriating $600,000 for a court building to be erected jointly by the state and Travis county.

The Cowan substitute gasoline tax bill, placing a one per cent gross tax on wholesalers, was sent by the house to the governor when it concurred with the senate bill.

The house declined to concur to the senate amendment to the educational bill and the speaker named a conference committee.

The miscellaneous claims bill was finally adopted, which appropriates $11,000 more than the bill passed at the last session.

IMMIGRANTS ENTERING U. S. FROM MEXICO

Inspector Charges Undesirable Aliens Are Being Smuggled In.

By United Press. SAN ANTONIO, Texas, June 9.—Undesirable aliens are being smuggled from Mexico into the United States by professional smugglers who charge from $5 to $200 a head for their services, according to Captain W. M. Hanson, inspector in charge of the Rio Grande border district of the United States immigration service.

Captain Hanson recently returned from a trip along the Rio Grande on which he obtained much first hand information in regard to the immigration situation. He found a camp of more than 200 aliens near Nuevo Laredo, awaiting an opportunity to cross the river into this country, he said.

"Anarchy and bolshevism are rampant among the aliens who have assembled in Mexico awaiting an opportunity illegally to enter the United States," Captain Hanson declared. "These aliens carry with them the spirit of bolshevism and should be classed as dangerous characters. Should they succeed in entering the United States they will be a potential source of unrest and economic and social strife."

Captain Hanson declared that the combined force of immigration and customs inspectors is not adequate to cope with the situation as it now exists. His district extends from a point on the river just below Sanderson to the mouth of the river, a distance of 2,500 miles. This territory, he explained, must be covered by a force of 28 mounted inspectors. "Our chief difficulty lies across the Laredo district. There are scores of professional smugglers who will take aliens across the river for any sum from $5 up to $200. We have had reports to the effect that these professional alien smugglers have agreed to take European aliens to San Antonio for $200, but, after bringing them across the river and taking the money, they have deserted the aliens and left them to shift for themselves."

PASS CHILDREN ALONG JUST LIKE PUPPIES.

ATHENS (By mail to United Press) Just as puppies or kittens are handed on to other families when one family moves away from a neighborhood in America, waifs in Cavalla are being passed along from one refugee family to another. This strange situation, according to E. A. Eckman of Glendale, California, who is American Red Cross field manager in the Western Thrace district, is an odd mixture of humaneness and indifference.

"In the last two months," Eckman told Col. William N. Haskell, American Red Cross commissioner to Greece, "there have been 315 infants abandoned in the streets of Cavalla, where there are 20,000 refugees and a civil population of 15,000. These little ones have been taken in by refugees and treated as well as they were able to treat them."

"But when a refugee family which has been caring for such a child moves away, instead of taking it along, they will find another family which is willing to take it in. From reports by the refugees the mothers were victims of Turkish soldiers."

WHAT THE WORLD IS DOING

Circular Bungalow Saves Space and Steps

A British architect has designed a circular bungalow which is cheap to construct and easy to maintain, whose interior arrangement should save many steps daily for the housewife. The structure of the inner room, the largest one shown in the accompanying floor plan, forms the backbone of the whole framework, and from the corners of this, six partitions radiate, giving space for four rooms, a kitchen, a hall, a servant's bedroom, a bathroom, and a larder, in addition to the inner room.

The outside wall forms a polygon of 12 sides, a dome fitted over the center room providing light and air. A form of laminated wood is used in constructing the bungalow, all sections of which are ready-cut at the factory and so designed as to enable three men to assemble them into a house in a week.

A Simple Method of Edging Lawns

When the surface of a lawn is on the same level as the lawn, it is a common practice to trim the overhanging grass by means of a spade or other sharp implement, leaving a small V-shaped trench. If there is much of a slope to the lawn, the rains often wash away the exposed soil, and make refilling necessary at intervals. Under such conditions it is better to refrain from further trimming, and allow the grass to grow. As soon as the roots have gained a firm foothold, to prevent erosion of the soil, further growth can be checked for the remainder of the growing season by running the flame of a gasoline blowtorch along a narrow strip.

Weed-Pulling Fork for Hoe

A practical and back-saving tool for pulling weeds from the vegetable garden that cannot easily be reached with an ordinary hoe without endangering the plants, is shown in the illustration. A piece of 3/4-in. round iron rod is bent to the shape shown, to form a two-pronged fork. This fork is flattened and drilled at the points indicated. Corresponding holes are drilled in the blade of the hoe, and the fork riveted to the blade.

In use, the weed is gripped between the prongs of the fork, and the handle of the hoe pulled down, the edge of the hoe blade acting as a fulcrum. In this way the most stubborn weeds that often grow so close to potato and tomato vines that they escape notice until they have attained considerable height, are uprooted. To remove dust and lint from dark-colored clothing, rub lightly with a piece of damp chamois skin.

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS By GEORGE BINGHAM

Fletcher Henstep says he does not know which is the most critical period in a man's life: when he gets married, or tries to get a new hat that looks exactly right on his head.

A girl informed Cricket Hicks that he looked awful nice and handsome last Sunday; and he remarked to her that she just ought to have seen him at the singing last summer.

Raz Barlow says the only time-piece he knows of that does not vary even a fraction of a second the year round is the big wooden watch, in front of the jewelry store at Tickville, and it has stood at twenty minutes till eleven for the past thirty years.

CENTRAL BAPTISTS INSTALL CHAIRS IN TEE PEE BUILDING

The Central Baptist church has just installed 900 new chairs for auditorium and Sunday school rooms. The Tee-Pee brick building of three stories and the brick annex with 14 rooms, constitutes one of the most comprehensive accommodations for a downtown institutional church in central West Texas. The trustees of the church purchased 700 opera chairs, formerly of the Rex theatre. These chairs are being used in the auditorium and choir and other departments of the building.

Rev. A. L. Leake, pastor of the church, advocates providing a library, gym and club rooms, shower baths, making this church minister to the whole man's nature, physically, mentally and spiritually, "keying all the work of the church to the salvation of lost souls." "This is the ideal toward which we should strive," Mr. Leake said. "Every provision has been made to contribute to the comfort and service of those who worship in this place. The largest Bible school attendance of the year is expected Sunday at 9:45. All departments and rooms will be ready for use. A cordial welcome and greeting to all who can come."

MARSH HAY PUT TO GOOD USE; VALUELESS WASTE MADE VALUABLE

By United Press. OSHKOSH, Wis., June 9.—Marsh land, which only a few years ago was considered valueless because it could not be drained and put under cultivation, is now a real money-making proposition in Wisconsin. Winnebago county farmers recently struck a scheme for the sale of the marsh hay for packing purposes and for use in steel mills, and now a huge industry is springing up.

The scene of this new industry is the Waukau marsh, a section of low and wet land containing about 6,500 acres, located about two miles south of Waukau. The originator of the enterprise was D. W. Osborn of Oshkosh. He placed the project on a business basis, cutting and baling the wild grass that grows on the marshes and his introduction of tractors in the work has been an innovation.

There was only one other large marsh hay operator in the entire country who could be classed as a rival to Osborn. This man, J. R. Guild of Medaryville, Ind., used horse drawn machinery in haying. Recently Guild purchased the Osborn interests here. There were two kinds of grass on the marsh, one known as blue joint grass and the other as long swamp hay. The best and finest hay is sorted out and sent to market for feeding cattle. The long coarse grass goes to the steel factories in the East where it is spun into rope and used for making cords for moulding iron pipes.

The grass rope is wound on steel cylinders and covered with a thin coating of clay. Then the molten iron is poured into the moulds and the heat burns away the hay, making it easy to take out the cores. The coarse grass is sent to glass factories at Pittsburgh, and other centers of industry and is used for packing window and other glass for shipment. It is also used for packing bananas. The cutting of the hay starts about the middle of July.

BARRED LIVING MODELS FROM DISPLAY WINDOWS.

By JOHN GRAUDENZ (United Press Staff Correspondent.) MOSCO (By mail to the United Press)—Titled mannikins displaying in Moscow shop-windows the newly arrived Paris fashions—the first since the revolution—have so mesmerized the proletarian man-in-the-street that the police have had to ban animate models to the more intimate show rooms inside.

The mannikins, beautifully gowned and beautiful—many of them are countesses and even princesses—nearly caused a riot. Crowds of men, thousands strong, gathered at windows to watch them. Street traffic was blocked.

And angry wives, jealous and also tired of watching carefully cooked meals cool off uncaten, themselves complained to the authorities.

Finally the police requested the shopkeepers to keep the mannikins out of masculine sight.

21—LEGAL NOTICES

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

The State of Texas, to the Sheriff or any Constable of Eastland County, Greetings: You are hereby commanded to summon Marvin Hughes, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, and 88th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the 88th District Court of Eastland County, to holden at the Court House thereof in Eastland on the first Monday in July, A. D. 1923, the same being the 2nd day of July, A. D. 1923, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 2nd day of May, A. D. 1923, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 9966, wherein Margaret Hughes is plaintiff, and Marvin Hughes is defendant, and said petition alleging that plaintiff and defendant were legally married in Jack County, Texas, on or about November 30th, 1919. That after their marriage the defendant began a system of abuse and neglect of plaintiff; that he would frequently drink to intoxication; that he was coarse in his manners and associated with companions, men and women of the baser sort.

That a child was born to plaintiff in December, 1921, and defendant left plaintiff to the mercy of strangers; that he failed and refused to provide a nurse or a doctor for her, and soon thereafter defendant left and deserted plaintiff. Plaintiff alleges that she was young and inexperienced, and that she was reared by refined parents and the fact that defendant associated himself with questionable characters, both men and women, was to this plaintiff the severest kind of maltreatment; that his drunkenness was very distressing to plaintiff, and plaintiff states that defendant's conduct and cruel treatment toward her are of such nature to render their further living together insupportable.

That said marriage relations still exist. Plaintiff prays for judgment dissolving said relations, for custody of their child, Leon Victor Hughes, and for costs of suit. Herein fail not, and have before said Court at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Eastland, this 9th day of June, A. D. 1923. Roy Nunnally, Clerk, District Court, Eastland County, Texas. By Wilbourne B. Collie, Deputy.

CHANGE OF LIFE

Florida Lady Was in a Miserable Condition, But Says She Found Cardui Helpful, and Got Well.

Altha, Fla.—In explaining how she found Cardui so helpful during change of life, Mrs. Ella M. Bailey, of Route 2, this place, said:

"I became so weakened it was an effort for me to get around. I knew what was the matter, but I felt like I couldn't give up."

"I just dragged, and I certainly was nervous. I was so restless I could not sit down long—yet so weak I couldn't get about. It is a most miserable and such a helpless feeling. "I would get depressed and out of heart."

"I began to feel, after awhile, there was no use to try to get well. This is all wrong, for it makes a person worse. "I had heard of Cardui, and thought it might strengthen me. A neighbor had used it with good results. "I took one bottle of (Cardui), then I saw I wasn't so nervous, so kept it up. "Gradually the nervousness left me. I began to eat and sleep better. Was soon well, and all right. Cardui did wonders for me, and I certainly do recommend it."

Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others. Sold everywhere. Try it. NC-146

WILL TO WIN MAKES WINNER SAYS EXPERT

By HENRY L. FARELL (United Press Sports Editor.)

NEW YORK, June 9.—No factor on the field of sport plays such a big part in making winning teams and individuals as the "will to win."

"A team that will not be beaten, cannot be beaten," hung on the walls of the Princeton club house last fall, and it inspired the Princeton football team to go through a glorious season to a championship.

There may have been better teams in the east last year than the Tigers, but there were none with more spirit and more of the will to win.

The same can be applied to Harry Greb, the former American light heavyweight champion. Boxing experts say it is his "crazy style" that enables him to beat middleweights, light heavyweights and heavyweights.

Greb cultivated his "crazy style" because he had the will to win and he hadn't the qualification to become successful in orthodox ways.

In the sensational rush of the Philadelphia Athletics toward the pennant in the American League this spring, the most recent example of the will to win has been provided.

The Athletics were a good young ball club last season, but they lacked the spirit and the will to win. Wise old Connie Mack during the off season convinced his youngsters they could win and they went out to do it.

There is nothing as hard to beat as a young ball club which thinks it can win.

The Boston Braves of 1914 and the Cincinnati Reds of 1919 are examples.

While the Athletics are looked upon in seven American League cities as a dangerous contender, in Philadelphia they are reaching for the pennant.

Philadelphia is baseball crazy. It is like Cincinnati of 1919 and Cleveland of 1920. The Athletics are looked upon as a city institution and the support of the public will not take any spirit away from the club.

The Giants and the Yankees have no such spirit behind them. New Yorkers don't care much who wins as long as they see a good ball game. The Yanks sometimes become influenced by that atmosphere, while the Giants apparently hear nothing but the voice in the dugout.

SYSTEM OF SCORING IN TRACK AND FIELD MEETS MAY BE CHANGED

By HENRY L. FARELL (United Press Sports Editor.)

NEW YORK, June 8.—Since the University of California succeeded in winning its third straight track and field championship, the officials of the inter-collegiate association, exclusively an eastern-ruled organization in suggesting some changes in the program and the method of scoring for championship meets in the future, wants it understood that it is not seeking to place obstacles in the way for more California victories.

In considering the motives behind the suggested changes the east is entitled to its own opinion and so is the Pacific coast.

If the Californians have a poor memory, they may hold the view that the motive is not one of discrimination against them, and if they hold an opinion to the contrary, they no doubt will be good enough sports to keep it to themselves.

Because the California team won the intercollegiate title three times in succession with a team composed almost of field stars, it is not necessary that something should be done about it.

Some baseball teams win games on speed and others on power and it follows that a track team might just as well win with power in the field as with speed on the track.

From a strictly neutral standpoint, however, it is logical that the system of scoring points should be changed to place a higher valuation on first place.

The British system of scoring only one point in each event for the winner works out acceptably in dual meets where one team can beat another five events to four events or the like, but it cannot be applied to meets in which a score or more teams are competing. This system was tried out for fourteen years by the intercollegiate association and it was finally dropped as unsatisfactory.

The present system of scoring gives five points for first place, four for second, three for third, two for fourth and one for fifth.

Realizing that first place ought to be worth winning, it might be better to award seven points for first place, five for second, three for third and so on.

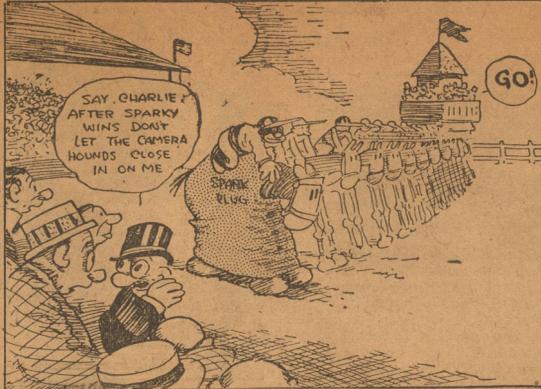

If all men attended to their own business history wouldn't be much more exciting than a market report.—Baltimore Sun.

ROSE COVERED ISLAND ADA KALEH IN DISPUTE AT LAUSANNE MEETING

BUCHAREST, June 8.—On the agenda of the Lausanne conference is an item which has baffled the world's statesmen who are trying to reestablish peace in the Near East. It is the question of the "Kadi or Ada Kaleh."

Ismet Pasha claims Ada Kaleh for Turkey, while Rumania insists it is hers by reason of the Trianon treaty. Before the treaty Ada Kaleh was in Hungarian possession, although the Budapest government always recognized the nominal sovereignty of the sultan over the isle.

The victories of Kemal Pasha re-awakened Turkish nationalism among the peaceful rose and tobacco planters on the picturesque "isle of roses," and they sent a petition to Angora asking Kemal to reestablish the ancient Turkish sovereignty over the island.

Mustapha Kemal dispatched a Kadi, or judge, to Ada Kaleh, and the Rumanian government, suspecting nothing and regarding him as only a harmless Turkish visitor, granted a visa to Kemal's emissary. Now Ismet Pasha pretends that the granting of the visa is equivalent to the recognition of Turkey's rights to the island.

When the Rumanian authorities learned that the newly-arrived Kadi had taken over the administration of the island they immediately asked him to leave Ada Kaleh, and, with all honors due to Kemal's governor, the Kadi has very politely been deported from Rumanian territory.

5,000,000 YOUNGSTERS IN BOYS' WEEK PARADES

CHICAGO, June 9.—More than 5,000,000 boys in 1,000 cities marched in loyalty parades incident to Boys' Week celebrations throughout the country during May. This is the estimate by William Lewis Butcher of New York, originator of the Boys' Week idea, who is here after watching the celebration in Chicago.

In most of these cities the Boys' Week observances are under the general sponsorship of the Rotary clubs. In cities where there are no Rotary clubs, the American Legion and other organizations are directing the work.

Albert D. Lasker, chairman of the United States shipping board and other officials of the board have declined to take seriously the offer of the Columbia Postal company, of Silver Creek, N. CLIFF DWELLERS' WOODS MAKE EXCELLENT VIOLINS.

Reports from New Mexico say that fine violins are being manufactured from woods taken from the ruins of the cliff dwellers near Aztec. While making excavations in the ruins, Carl Morris, research investigator for the Smithsonian Institution, found many perfectly preserved timbers which are believed to have been used in constructing the homes of cliff dwellers.

The timbers are estimated to be more than 1,000 years old and due to the hot, dry climate, the wood has become so well seasoned that high class violins are being made from it which have a tone, it is said, equal to that of an instrument which has been in use for a number of years. The violins made from the wood are bringing high prices.

REPUBLICAN HEAD RAISES RUCTIONS

Chairman John T. Adams, of the Republican national committee, has called upon Cordell G. Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee, to "set forth accurately and positively" his organization's position on the League of Nations question. He has asked whether the party's views on the matter are those of Woodrow Wilson or of Senator James Reed, of Missouri. Adams recently took issue with President Harding and other Republican leaders on the World Court problem, and the storm of discussion, pro and con, has apparently caused a serious split in Republican ranks.

JAPAN WANTS UNITED STATES TO ENTER THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

By CLARENCE DUBOSE (United Press Staff Correspondent.) TOKYO (By mail to United Press.) Japan wants the United States of America to go into the League of Nations.

Official opinion, privately expressed, the attitude of big business leaders, and the unanimous position of every important Japanese newspaper, are that Europe will waddle along from bad to worse until the United States goes into the league.

Such expressions have been exceedingly frequent in the press here of late—occasioned by comments upon the European situation and upon the rumors of America's possible entrance into a world court.

Japanese editors, statesmen and public leaders follow these situations—and all world politics—closely and intently, because Japanese business and foreign policies are vitally, although indirectly, involved.

The Japanese conclusion seems to be, very definitely, the opinion that the world's best hope for economic and political stability is a League of Nations with America in it.

TRIAL OF TWO, MURDER CHARGE, TO START SOON

Milt Goode and Tom Ross to Be Arraigned in Lubbock June 18.

West Texas News Service.

MIDLAND, Texas, June 9.—Over 60 witnesses have been summoned for the trial of Milt Goode and Tom Ross charged with the murder of Cattle Inspectors H. L. Robison and Dave Allison, which is scheduled to start at Lubbock Monday June 18. Judge C. M. Mullican, of the 72nd Judicial district, will preside. Dayton P. Moses, of Fort Worth, attorney for the Texas & Southwestern Cattle Raisers association will assist District Attorney Maguire in the prosecution. Ross and Goode will be represented by State Senator W. H. Bledsoe, of Lubbock, and W. I. Lockhart, of Tahoka.

A large number of witnesses have been summoned from Midland, the home of Robison and of which town Allison was a former sheriff.

The shooting took place April 1, in the lobby of the Seminole hotel. Robison and Allison were in Seminoles to appear before the grand jury for the purpose of presenting evidence against Ross and Goode (it is alleged, in connection with the theft of cattle. Sunday evening, while seated in the lobby of the hotel in the presence of a number of people, including District Attorney Maguire, Ross and Goode entered the lobby armed with shotgun and six shooters and blazed away without uttering a word. Robison and Allison were instantly killed. The two defendants were arraigned and committed without bond, and have been in jail since the night of the shooting.

The case has attracted wide attention on account of the prominence of the principals and it is expected that the trial will be attended by friends of all parties from all over the state.

Music Necessary to Liberal Education

The decision of New York University to establish a department of music to form a regular part of the curriculum cannot be said by the most conservative to have come too soon, according to Richard Aldrich, music critic of the New York Times. Music is now very widely regarded as a proper subject for collegiate and university education, and most of the important colleges and universities of the country, and a great many of the unimportant ones have departments of music. Since the first one was started at Harvard in 1875 the value of music as one of the disciplines of a liberal education has become pretty thoroughly established.

As with most of the university music departments, the one to be started at the New York University will "aim to offer student courses that will give a comprehensive understanding of music as an important element of liberal culture; and also to teach the theory of music and all that is included in the term 'composition.' It will also provide an outlet for the energies of those musically inclined students who are gifted with good voices, and also for those who possess the ability to perform upon orchestral instruments." These are the words of Albert Stoessel, who has been appointed head of the new department; an appointment that has apparently much to commend it. Mr. Stoessel is a young man, still in his twenties; but he has an unusual record of achievement in music; he is a composer, a conductor, a violinist, and in all these capacities he has done something of importance that promises even more for the future.

Thus the powers that be in New York University have come to realize, as so many others have realized, that it is as much to be expected of a liberally educated man, that he shall have a knowledge and appreciation of Bach, Beethoven, Schumann, Chopin, Wagner, Brahms and the later creators in music as that he shall have a knowledge and appreciation of Shakespeare, Milton, Shelley, Keats, Browning and their successors in literature. It also recognizes that there should be an opportunity for the musically gifted to learn how to express themselves in music, as for those gifted in literature to express themselves in English, and for both classes of talent to have a fundamental grounding that shall not exclude a variety of other interests proper to the training of an educated man.

Walter S. Josephson, M.E.

Walter S. Josephson, a modest and hard working mechanical genius of New York, is the first man, so far as is known, to store a highly explosive liquid for every day use. He is shown here in his laboratory releasing from a steel bottle a vapor which is powerful enough, when turned into a cylinder jack, to lift a street car in a few seconds. Josephson's development has been acclaimed by his scientific associates as one of the foremost discoveries of the day, and in its own field will rival radio in its sphere, they say. He has been offered a fortune for his device.

CIVIL WAR IS LIFTING UP ITS HEAD IN BRAZIL

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

RIO DE JANEIRO—The situation in the state of Rio Grande do Sul Brazil's great cattle state, situated on the southern border of the largest of the South American republics, presents some phenomenal problems, unprecedented in the annals of Latin-American political conflagrations.

Since the state elections of last November, the state has been seething with revolt, while Dr. Borges de Maderios, the self-perpetuating president, or "Dictator," of the state's destinies, has held the whip hand in every center of strategic importance. He now holds every town of any significance, all of the railways, and has some ten thousand troops at his disposal.

On the other hand, public opinion throughout the commonwealth is dead against him, and the opposition party which backed Dr. Assis Brasil (one time Brazilian Minister to Washington) in the recent elections, is gaining prestige daily.

Thus far nothing has been accomplished except the paralysis of commerce, the diminution of passenger traffic, the frightening of the laborers in the fields, and the creation of great public apprehension.

Maderios is termed by many a "usurper," owing to his power in having perpetuated himself for thirty years as governor of the state.

Along the border of Uruguay, the revolutionists are arming rapidly. It is reported that they are getting all of the most modern repeating rifles that they need at ten dollars apiece—having sold their cattle to the American packing plants. These transactions have supplied him with sufficient resources to carry on a desultory warfare.

At this writing, Col. Neto and Mepomuceno Saraiva, the latter an Uruguayan adventurer of some fame, are planning to joining forces near

PARKER REPORTS WORK IN MAY OF LIVESTOCK SANITRAY COMMISSION

Frank Parker of Cisco, having charge of the tick eradication work of the Live Stock Sanitary commission in Eastland and Erath counties, was in Ranger yesterday inspecting cattle.

During the month of May, 910 herds of cattle, comprising 24,792 head in Eastland county, were dipped and no infection found, according to Mr. Parker. The outlook for the county to be released from quarantine this year is looking favorable unless the county shows up bad this month, he said. He has instructed the various inspectors working with him to get as many herds and cattle as possible inspected and dipped, for the June showing is considered important.

There are 60 dipping vats in Eastland county, but only 42 are in operation this year, for a large part of the county is clean of ticks and there is no need for the vats.

MURDER THREE YEARS AGO TO BE RECALLED

Two Men to Be Tried at Barstow on Charge of Killing C. V. Nixon.

West Texas News Service.

MIDLAND, Texas, June 9.—W. S. Ham, 26, and W. P. Howard, 36, who were indicted by a grand jury at Barstow last Tuesday in connection with the death of C. V. Nixon, taxi driver of El Paso, in June 1920, will go to trial Monday, June 18 at Barstow. Both men are charged with murder. Judge Charles Gibbs of the 70th judicial district will preside.

It is alleged by District Attorney Birge Holt that Ham has made a confession, implicating Howard in the death of Nixon. Howard has so far refused to make any comment. The defendants will be represented by John Howard of Pecos, Dan Jackson of El Paso and J. F. Cunningham, of Abilene. W. J. Cunningham, no relation to the attorney of the same name for the defense, will assist District Attorney Birge Holt in the prosecution.

It is alleged that the defendants engaged Nixon who was a taxi driver at El Paso, to drive them to the oil fields at Ranger where the defendants expected to obtain employment. At the Sand Hills, near Monahans, and east of Barstow, it is alleged that one of the defendants under a ruse of doing some prospecting, took a shovel and dug a grave. Nixon was then shot, his body buried, and car taken. Three months later coyotes dug the skeleton of Nixon up.

Howard had been married and divorced and it was through his divorced wife that the defendants were located at Los Angeles, May 25, when they were arrested. Ham is reported to have lived at Abilene and Big Spring. He is now in the Midland jail. Howard is in jail at Pecos.

PARIS' CITY OF DEAD.

PARIS, June 9.—The Paris catacombs—the famous subterranean city of the dead—recently reopened after being closed throughout the war, are again becoming one of the show-places of Paris. Scores of Americans make the trip through the weird underground vaults. The vast labyrinth corridors cut from stone hold the skeletons of more than three million persons who have died in Paris during several centuries. Nowhere in modern civilization have the remains of the dead been employed on such a scale for ornamental and show purposes. Hundreds of thousands of skulls, arm and leg bones are arranged in artistic patterns and mosaics on the walls. In other corridors the bones and skulls are piled neatly in square piles. On one wall is a great spider, its body formed of skulls, the legs of leg-bones.
