Soviet Forces Press Advance Past Kharkov

Russians Beyond Their High-Water Mark Of Winter Campaign

LONDON, Aug. 26 (AP) Forging steadily ahead on an ever-widening front, Red army troops today were beyond the high-water mark of their winter counteroffensive after capturing Zenkov, 85 miles northwest of Kharkov.

A Soviet communique, announcing the fall of Zenkov and 60 nearby villages, said savage German counterattacks had failed to halt a Russian surge toward the Dnieper river bend as Red army units streamed through fallen Kharkov, pointing toward Poltava and Lozova, 75 miles to the southwest and south, respectively.

Russian forces on the lower Donets, meanwhile, were reported to be widening a breach in the German lines southwest of Voroshilovgrad and penetrating ever deeper into the Donets basin.

Capture of Lozova, a strongly-fortified Nazi anchor, would sever one of the Germans' main railway supply lines in the important Donets area.

Only limited Russian gains were recorded on the Bryansk salient to the north, but Red army planes bombed and strafed German troops and supply trains in attacks on Unecha and Novozybkov, east of Gomel.

Soviet bombers also were blasting enemy airbases and troop concentrations below Kharkov, where ground forces were storming deep into the Donets basin in a drive aimed at turning the German defense line and trapping thousands of enemy troops.

South of Izyum and southwest of Voroshilovgrad, the Soviet war bulletin said, hundreds of Nazi soldiers were slain as they stubbornly contested every mile.

Capture of Zenkova, a rail city 25 miles southwest of Lebedin, places the advance guard of the Soviet forces 42 miles northwest of Poltava, key German base on the approaches to the Dnieper bend.

Pioneer Building Contractor Dies

J. M. (Jim) Morgan, pioneer resident of Howard county, died suddenly Wednesday night in Kansas City, Mo., according to word received here.

Mr. Morgan with Mrs. Morgan, and their daughter, Mrs. L. D. Jenkins and Mr. Jenkins were visiting in Wichita, Kas., with another daughter, Kathleen Williams, at the time of his death.

The group had arrived in Wichita Monday where Mrs. Williams was to undergo an operation.

The body is expected to be shipped back to Big Spring for burial, it was understood here.

Morgan, who was for years one of West Texas' leading building contractors, migrated from Kansas City to Texas in 1890. He went to Barstow in 1892 to build a courthouse and then came to Big Spring in 1894 to build the T. & P. rock roundhouse. In 1908 he moved here to build the country courthouse and decided to make his home here.

He also built the old city hall in 1909 and erected many of business buildings in Big Spring. He was an ardent sports and baseball fan.

Morgan had been in ill health for the past year and had retired from much of his active work.

Among other survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Rose Taylor, a member of the WACS; and four sons, James Morgan, now in the Seabees; Eddie Morgan, Houston; Pete Morgan and Frank Morgan, Big Spring.

Woman Convicted In Assault Case, Husband To Trial

OLTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—The state prepared today for the trial of Mrs. W. R. Newton for the shooting of Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield, after winning a jury verdict of guilty against her physician-husband, charged jointly with her in the case.

Dr. Newton was convicted last night of assault to murder Dr. Hunt, the jury recommending a sentence of seven years.

Mark Her Off—Tommy Manville said today in New York he had called it quits with his seventh wife, the former Marie Marie (Sunny) Ainsworth, Matagorda, Texas, dancer, to whom he was married yesterday.

City Makes Final Conservation Appeal; Texas Points Need Rain

While other Texas points also troubled over water problems induced by record-breaking drought conditions, City of Big Spring officials Thursday made a final appeal for volunteer water conservation.

Consumption is continuing over 2,000,000 gallons daily, which B. J. McDaniel, city manager, said is in excess of the safe production level for the city's deep wells.

He urged that only limited irrigation be employed to keep alive shrubs, that cars not be washed and that consumers try to save in every way on water.

Big Spring was not the only point needing rain. The situation in the Rio Grande valley was described as bad with the Rio Grande ceasing its flow four miles below Brownsville.

In Chihuahua, Mexico, across from El Paso, Frederico Rubio Lozano, chief of the state veterinary service, said the prolonged drought threatened the state with loss of 40 per cent of its cattle.

C. S. Clark of the board of water engineers at Austin, explained that continued drought would affect stream flow and that the situation was discouraging in the San Angelo, Stamford and Ballinger areas.

He added that no apprehension was felt over artesian wells except where there has been excessive use and that water tables in the plains country are not declining materially.

ert W. Warren, presented the wings, and special awards went to Lieut. Thomas Digan, Jr., Pittsburg, Pa., outstanding athlete; Lieut. James C. English, Jr., Pulasqui, Tenn., scholar; and Lieut. Paul A. Grassie of Rochester, Minn., outstanding bombardier.

Officers of class 43-12 include Lieut. J. S. Beattie, wing commander; Lieut. P. I. Anderson, wing adjutant; Lieut. N. L. Kohmescher, group adjutant; Lieut. C. A. Esterbrook, squadron commander; Lieut. A. M. Strinari, squadron adjutant; and Lieut. A. J. Hackbarth, first sergeant.

Ration Board Gets Bear By Tail And Issues New Tire

The ration board hears all kinds of original reasons why motorists should have tires but Sam Eason of the board got a new one Wednesday—concerning a bear.

The ration office was closed and Eason was at home when his phone rang with the man on the other end of the line pleading for two tires which he said had blown out on his pick up truck.

Somehow this didn't seem like such essential business that it couldn't wait until morning, but the man in charge of the bear kept the phone "red hot," Eason said, and finally threatened to turn the bear loose in town unless he got his tires.

The bear was so hot, his keeper said, that his nose was bleeding and he, Brer' Bar, was in no mood to listen to tire shortage problems.

With such a threat hanging over his head, and feeling that he literally had a "bear by the tail," Eason called together Tracy Smith and B. F. Robbins, general chairman, and they finally decided this was an emergency and issued the man a new grade III tire.

(The report was entirely unconfirmed and London authorities said they had no knowledge of such a mission and placed no credence in the report.

Foggia Airfield Wrecked By US Heavy Bombers

Twenty-six Of Enemy Planes Shot Down, Others Destroyed

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Aug. 26 (AP)—Roaring swarms of Lightning fighters hedgedhopped all the way across Italy and shot up ground defenses at Foggia yesterday, preparing the way for the all-American wrecking of the airdrome and 10 satellite fields by three waves of Flying Fortresses and Liberators.

The Lightnings were specially equipped for the long-distance run to Foggia, southeast of Naples and on the Adriatic side of the peninsula. Twenty-six enemy planes were shot down in combat and Allied sweeps over southern Italy and scores of others were knocked to pieces on the ground.

Paving the way for the assaults, which were delivered from bases in both northwest Africa and the Middle East, a force of P-38 Lightning fighters attacked at treetop level, knocking out a large proportion of the enemy's potential fighter strength.

Liberators from the Middle East then roared in to smash at railway areas and airbases from the northwest African air command followed up to blast enemy airfields with heavy bombs.

The Liberators alone were credited officially with knocking seven German Messerschmitt fighters out of the sky. All the Middle East raiders returned safely to base, a Cairo communique said.

Heavy fighter opposition was encountered by the attackers for the first time in three days.

Fifteen Allied planes in all were missing from the sweeping operations, which were described officially as "one of the most successful surprise air attacks of the war."

Stage Set For Drive On Rats

Men, ammunition in the form of poison, and the motorized division, consisting of county and city trucks are ready!

The city-wide war on rats will begin at 6 o'clock Thursday evening when a group of 14 supervisors working with 20 workers each will canvass the town to distribute rat poison to every household.

The business district, which must pay for its poison is cooperating almost a 100 percent and the city health sanitarium will be in charge of laying the poison in this section of town and also in taking it up.

In the residential areas only adults will be allowed to accept and sign for the poison which should be placed in places where rats breed. A questionnaire and information on how to handle the poison will be distributed by the workers.

The only plea of the chamber of commerce, sponsoring the campaign, is that adults stay at home during the hours of 6 p. m. and 8 p. m. today in order to receive the poison.

The poison should be left out until Sunday when it should be taken up and destroyed. Householders were warned to keep children, pets and chickens away from the poison.

Big Spring Soldier Blasts Nazis Into Surrender, Wins Silver Star

Braving enemy fire that harassed sizeable American infantry units, Private Clarence C. (Cliff) Rumpff, Big Spring charged up a hill during the North African campaign, hurled hand grenades and blasted more than two score Germans into surrender.

In recognition of his courage and fearlessness, Pvt. Rumpff has been awarded the Silver Star medal.

Until his wife heard about the award, he had not mentioned it, modestly explaining "I wasn't going to tell you anything about it. All I was going to do was send you the citation. . . ."

His gallantry in action occurred in the vicinity of Ras El Dehils, Tunisia on March 29, 1943, and although he came out of it without a scratch, he was struck in the foot three days later by shrapnel and now is convalescing in a North African base hospital.

Pvt. Rumpff described the incident vividly in a letter to his wife, explaining that enemy snipers were harassing his units.

"The captain asked for volunteers to get two snipers that were bothering us," he wrote. "So three more boys and I spoke up. When we got to the spot

Mountbatten Appointment Hailed As Offensive Move

Swedish Boats Sunk By Nazi Destroyers

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 26 (AP)—Three German destroyers sank two Swedish boats in the North Sea off the northwest tip of Denmark last night, the Swedish news agency reported in a Gothenburg dispatch today.

A foreign office spokesman said that if the attack occurred, the Swedish government would regard it as an "extremely serious" affair and the worst in a series of incidents involving Germany since the sinking of the Swedish submarine Ulven April 16.

Accountants from Gothenburg said 12 Swedes might have lost their lives when the boats went down under the attack, wreathmen in flames. Returning fishermen said the destroyers struck from a range of about 50 yards, although the boats were flying the Swedish flag and had blue and gold Swedish insignia painted on the sides.

The fishing craft were operating close together in international waters, it was said.

Sweden ordered cessation of the movement of German troops and supplies by railroad across her neutral soil between Germany and Norway and Finland only this month. The traffic had gone on for three years.

The submarine Ulven was sunk with a crew of 33 during spring maneuvers off Marstrand in the Kattegat, and divers who inspected the hull reported May 21 she apparently was destroyed by a mine.

Sweden was at the time awaiting Berlin's reply to her protest that Nazi mines had been found in Swedish territorial waters.

Other incidents have involved both ships and planes.

Probe Ordered In Death Of Husband Of Bette Davis

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 26 (AP)—The coroner's office ordered an autopsy today in the death of Arthur Farnsworth, 36, husband of screen actress Bette Davis and western representative of a Minnesota firm manufacturing aeronautical equipment.

Farnsworth, former commercial pilot, succumbed yesterday to injuries sustained in a manner which police said was puzzling.

He was found unconscious on a Hollywood boulevard sidewalk Monday, Dr. Paul Moore said. Farnsworth suffered a basal fracture of the skull, presumably in a fall, and never regained consciousness sufficiently to relate what happened.

Miss Davis, at the bedside when death came, was overcome by grief and placed under a physician's care.

Det. Sgt. H. R. Johnson reported Dave Freedman, tobacco store proprietor, told him Farnsworth fell in front of his store. Freedman related that Farnsworth uttered a muffled cry and fell backward, his head striking the walk, the police report said.

Japs Duck Death On Transport—As a stick of B-24 Liberator heavy bomber falls across the course of a 1,500-ton Jap transport off Mussau Island, north of New Ireland, in the South Pacific, Japanese sailors (circled) duck from the explosions. A photographer aboard another B-24 made this picture as his plane swooped down to drop the bombs that sank the ship.

Army Bans Judge From Enforcing Contempt Fine

HONOLULU, Aug. 26 (AP)—A federal judge was prohibited by army restrictions today from enforcing a $5,000 fine he imposed for contempt of court on Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., commander of the army's Hawaiian department.

Further, he was confronted with the prospect of a fine and prison term for himself if he persists in what the military regards as his efforts to contravene martial law.

Thus the army took direct action in Hawaii's explosive test of the relative precedence of civil and military law under the circumstance of the territory's semi-martial rule.

Federal Judge Delbert Metzger provoked the question of unholding the validity of a writ of habeas corpus for two naturalized citizens of German ancestry who are held incommunicado by the army.

General Richardson failed to produce the men, explaining that while martial law in the islands has been relaxed in part, the civil right of habeas corpus still was suspended.

Judge Metzger then ordered General Richardson to show cause why he should not be held in contempt and, when the order was ignored, adjudged the officer to have shown "open and notorious defiance of the mandate of the court." Richardson was directed to pay the $5,000 fine.

Immediately the general retaliated by ordering the case and all like it closed to any further action.

Richardson's order forbid anyone connected with any court from applying for, issuing, serving or accepting a plea for a writ of habeas corpus, making violation by Judge Metzger or anyone else subject to a five-year sentence and a $5,000 fine.

Martial law was relaxed partially by military authorities last March. Judge Metzger argued that if the jurisdiction of the civilian courts was restored in part it must be restored in full, including the right to grant writ of habeas corpus.

Outcome of the controversy is expected to have an important bearing on 300 persons of Japanese ancestry and a score of German ancestry who are being held incommunicado by the military.

Examining Trial Set For Kidnap Suspects

GRAHAM, Aug. 26 (AP)—Examining trial was set for today for Willard Holton, 22, and Herbert Frayer, 18, charged with extortion and burglary in connection with the imprisonment of John Hogan, Young county ranch employe and the abduction of an Ellenville merchant, Tom Stinson.

The charges were filed here last night before Justice of the Peace J. T. Rickman after District Attorney Ben Dean took written statements from the youths.

Holton and Frayer were captured Tuesday night after police used tear gas to rout them from a small cafe in Fort Worth's south side residential area.

Conferences Due To Be Continued In Washington

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL OTTAWA, Aug. 26 (AP) The acclaim of Canada's capital aped President Roosevelt on his way back to the United States today for a prospective renewal of conferences with Prime Minister Churchill and perhaps more announcements vitally affecting the conduct of the war.

Before the president left here last night his counsils with Churchill in Quebec already had borne their first fruit with the announcement that Lord Louis Mountbatten, second cousin of King George VI, had been named supreme Allied commander in southeastern Asia.

News of the appointment, coming shortly after the president had addressed 50,000 applauding Canadians and admonished Nazi war lords they would do well to surrender now, reinforced an official Roosevelt-Churchill statement at Quebec that much attention had been centered during their meeting there on plans for aiding China and crushing Japan.

While Churchill's movements were obscured by a veil of censorship, British officials did not discourage speculation that the prime minister might move on to Washington later after resting up from the Quebec war conference on Sunday (noon, CWT).

The president and prime minister themselves had said discussions still were in order among various governments concerning the administration of territories to be liberated in Europe. Before the week closes, they had promised, an announcement will be forthcoming from a number of governments with reference to relations with the French committee for national liberation.

(The first of these announcements was issued last night as dispatches from Algiers disclosed that the Belgian government-in-exile had recognized the French committee and that envoys were being exchanged.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Sharply-accelerated pressure on Japan from the east, together with a sea-air-land drive to reopen the Burma road, were regarded here today as likely outcomes of the appointment of Lord Louis Mountbatten as supreme Allied commander in southeast Asia.

His appointment, first concrete result of the momentous conferences between the Allied leaders, underscored the emphasis which undoubtedly was placed on the Pacific part of the global war at Quebec and served notice of an impending spurt in Allied efforts to bring aid to China.

In Mountbatten's background military observers found basis for speculation that a direct blow by air and sea may be aimed in the near future at the vital port of Rangoon, even as the offensive down the Arakan coast is continued with stepped-up intensity.

Success in reopening the Burma Road would serve the double objective of getting more supplies in to the Chinese forces of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, and as a route for bringing in fuel for Allied planes and bombers for a close-up air attack on Japan from Chinese bases.

GRAHAM, Aug. 26 (AP)—Examining trial was set for today for Willard Holton, 22, and Herbert Frayer, 18, charged with extortion and burglary in connection with the imprisonment of John Hogan, Young county ranch employe and the abduction of an Ellenville merchant, Tom Stinson.

The charges were filed here last night before Justice of the Peace J. T. Rickman after District Attorney Ben Dean took written statements from the youths.

Holton and Frayer were captured Tuesday night after police used tear gas to rout them from a small cafe in Fort Worth's south side residential area.

More Power Reported For German Gestapo

LONDON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Tass, Russian official news agency, reported from Zurich today that Adolf Hitler had issued a new decree giving Reich Administrator Heinrich Himmler control of the ministry of justice and all judicial bodies.

Himmler was named minister of the interior and "chief of the reich administration" in a sudden reorganization among Hitler's high-ranking subordinates earlier this week.

Bombers Keep Berlin Awake

LONDON, Aug. 26 (AP)—RAF mosquitoes kept the nerves of Berliners on edge last night with the third raid on the German capital in as many nights.

The air ministry communique said one of last night's raiders was missing. Simultaneously with the new stab at Berlin, other aircraft laid mines in enemy waters, it was announced.

Three German airfields and a power station in western France were raided yesterday by American and British medium bombers without loss.

A Berlin broadcast by the German news agency DNB today said Allied "nuisance raiders" again were over northern Germany and had dropped bombs, causing slight damage. The broadcast was recorded by the Associated Press.

U. S. eighth air force Marauders concentrated on the power station at Rouen and the Tricqueville airfield while RAF Mitchells were bombing the Bernay St. Martin air base and RAF Boston the one at Beaumont Le Rogez.

WAC Diary: 4

No Hot Water--But This Is War

By CORP. TRUDY WHITMAN AP Features

Two sergeants have us in their charge. We were all impressed favorably from the start. These gals are competent, helpful and always pleasant. They are strictly GI, highest rating of WAC approval. They taught us how to make a bed, but properly; how to clean the barracks, but thoroughly, and how to stand inspection.

This is not as simple as it sounds. All of us think we are reasonably neat and tidy but the army has a way of saying "just so." And there is no other way, no reasonable facsimile.

Many mothers back home would be surprised and pleased to see how fast their pampered darlings learn to condense their personal property into a minimum of space; how they reach out for an elusive piece of dust just before the officers come through for inspection; how adept they become, overnight, with broom and mop and how fast and generously they cooperate.

Cooperation is the first essential for a happy life in the army. We learn on the double that it does no good to have our own bed pulled tight, unless everyone's bed is just as tight and proper. A mark against one of us, in inspection or anything else, is a mark against us all. We are a unit now.

There's no point to rugged individualism here.

In the reception area, we are getting a brief taste of what lies ahead; a little drilling, so we won't start basic training cold, but not too much, so we'll have some spirit left to take it!

There were more examinations—horrible things! The gals who came out smiling got a suspicious eye from the rest of us. We just don't believe that anyone is that smart. In addition to the General Army Classification Test, there was a neat number, most appropriately entitled Mechanical Aptitude; and another radio aptitude test that had us all panting.

The next day we were interviewed—and it is obvious that an effort will be made to fit us into our future jobs, instead of vice versa. We were given full opportunity to tell what we had done in civilian life, what we thought we could do and what we thought we would like to do in the WAC.

"Releasing a man for combat duty." That's the silent refrain; that underlies our every activity and finds us tackling the dirty chores with vigor. If not enthusiasm. We smile when we sweat about the cold water. No one really grouches. Those who make wise-cracks hasten to add a covering phrase lest someone think they mean it.

We are gay in spirit and serious in purpose. We are from various sections of the country; we are all ages, sizes and shapes. We're a swell bunch of gals. We'll be wonderful WACs.

Polly Noblitt And Lieutenant Meyers Married At Post

Polly Noblitt of Houston and Lieut. William S. Meyers were married Wednesday evening in the post chapel at the Big Spring Bombarrier School.

The ceremony was read by Chaplain James L. Patterson at 8:30 o'clock.

The bridegroom received his commission with class 43-12 at graduation exercises held at the post theatre this morning.

Miss Laneoy Notes

MARY WEALEY

There's one thing about the war, if any good can come out of bad, and that's the habit of economy that we are learning the hard way. Instead of throwing away slightly worn out articles, we've learned where the repair shops are located.

This habit of getting it fixed instead of buying a new one has put the repair man back in business too. Every shop used to have a small spot in the rear of the business house, labeled for repairs. Now the repair shop has taken the place of the new business.

It took a war to do it, but we are learning that things work just as well with replaced parts. Even half-soled shoes stand the strain and look as well as before—yet there was a time when many people didn't even know they could get shoes half-soled.

When the war is over and factories are booming again with luxury "must" items and all the equipment that advertisers have convinced us no home can be without, we wonder if the economical streak we've accumulated will continue.

We learned to do without that second cup of coffee and now we can get it, many times we don't. Maybe we will keep on "making things do" after the war. We just wonder.

Ceremony Read In Chapel At The Post

In a double ring ceremony read Wednesday evening in the post chapel at the Big Spring Bombarrier School, Miss Frances Little of Tulsa, Okla. and Lieut. Robert J. Petty were married by Chaplain James L. Patterson.

Lieut. Petty received his commission as a second lieutenant at graduation exercises held in the post theatre this morning.

Mrs. M. H. Smith and daughter, Gladys, have had as house guest, Miss Evelyn Pickle of Lubbock. Miss Pickle returned to her home Wednesday. Pvt. Alvin H. Smith returned to New York where he is stationed with a postal battalion after visiting with Mrs. Smith and Gladys. Mrs. Smith has also received word that her other son, Lieut. James H. Smith, has been promoted to the rank of first lieutenant at Drew Field, Fla., where he is stationed.

Couple Married By Justice Of Peace

Miss Imogene Miller and Pvt. Herbert Shevock married Monday evening at 9:45 o'clock by the Justice of the Peace Walter Grice.

The bride wore a light blue ensemble with brown accessories and her corsage was of summer flowers.

The couple was attended by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller.

The bridegroom, formerly stationed at the Big Spring Bombarrier School, is now at Shreveport, La.

Delegates Return From Convention

Three delegates representing the Howard County Home Demonstration club have returned from a state HD convention which was held in Dallas last week. The group includes Mrs. W. L. Eggleston, president of the Fairview club; Mrs. H. C. Read, president of the R-Bar club, and Mrs. Paul Adams, president of the Knott club.

"Women in the Home Front Battle" was the theme for the three day parley which was held at the Baker hotel. Final check revealed that 535 persons, representing 175 counties over the state attended.

Election of officers highlighted the parley and Mrs. Leon Sullivan of Paris was named state president. Other officers include Mrs. J. A. Rogas, state vice president, Mrs. C. A. Cathy, secretary and Mrs. O. Henderson, treasurer. Mrs. John Yancy was named vice president of District Six.

Mrs. Adams, reporter for the Howard County Home Demonstration Council, will give a full report of the convention at council meeting.

Sgt. and Mrs. Charles E. Hunter have returned from a trip to Carlsbad Caverns, N. M. They were accompanied by Mrs. Clayton Jorgenson, Cpl. Al De Cruise and Cpl. Cizec.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 14 million of tiny tubes or filtes which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or steady passages with smearing and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, peaceful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisons to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, excessive gain, big urine, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 45 years. They give happy relief and will help the 14 million of kidney tubes flush out poisons waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

City To Push Search For Additional Water Wells

Commissioners Seek Ways To Conserve Water

The city is taking immediate steps to supplement the current supply of water, which is wholly dependent upon deep wells.

This information came from the city commission Tuesday evening when commissioners made an analysis of the water situation and looked for possible emergency relief as well as to a long-range solution.

City Manager E. J. McDaniel said that test wells were to be drilled below the section 32 lease, from whence comes the major portion of the well supply, and along favorable formations toward Moss Springs. Commissioners also heard reports of a new water supply which was indicated by an oil test southwest of Coahoma. The city of Coahoma is drilling some wells in that area and it is possible that the city of Big Spring will sink a test in addition to watching the Coahoma wells. If equipment can be had, the abandoned oil test may be tested for water although preliminary studies did not indicate a sufficiently heavy flow to justify production on a scale for a city the size of Big Spring.

It was disclosed at the meeting that Big Spring has been entirely on its well supply since early Monday morning. Production from this source is around 2,000,000 gallons a day, which is about half a million under the average daily consumption this summer. Resection of the wells to this heavy pumping can not be determined accurately until the water tables reach the bow of the sump, or underground bowl.

G. H. Hayward, manager for the Dora Roberts interests and active in civic affairs for many years, was sworn in as a member of the commission to fill the unexpired term of J. B. Collins, resigned.

Action was taken by the commission to close the front eight holes of the municipal golf course to ascertain if this would effect a water saving of 500,000 gallons monthly. They also raised the price of golf for nine holes to 35 cents but kept the 18-hole price at 50 cents.

Closing of the swimming pool as of Sept. 1 was approved and watering of the city park and the remaining golf greens will be done from the pool. Announcement of refunds on season swim tickets will be made later.

The city also called for an increase from $40,000 to $60,000 from each of the two local banks in depository bonds.

Officers Draw New Assignments

A dozen officers at the Big Spring Bombardier School have drawn new assignments.

Transferred to Hendricks Field, Sebring, Fla., were these first lieutenants: William S. Robinson, Houston, holder of the DFC; Francis M. Mognett, Jr., Phoenix, Ariz.; and David Bennett, Bronx, New York.

Assigned to San Marcos Army Flying School for specialized training were 1st Lieut. Carl E. Marshall, Stillwater, Okla.; 1st Lieut. Jordan B. Cannon, Levelland, Tex.; 1st Lieut. Homer H. Fields, Onelda, Ill.; and these second lieutenants: Edgar G. Bartholomew, Geneseo, N. Y.; Edward L. Bacon, South Haven, Kas.; Robert A. Moreshead, Portland, Me.; Robert W. Pence, Harrisonburg, Va.; Gerald B. Tompkins, Milwaukee, Wis.; and Jorsey V. Twidwell, Austin.

Announcement was made of the promotion of Thomas V. Platten, New York City, from second to first lieutenancy.

Relationship Existed Between These Two

SALT LAKE CITY, UP—Patrolman Stanley D. Butcher didn't suspect the relationship that existed between the young couple, age 2, that he found walking down the street—clad only in high-heeled shoes.

But there was one. Young Lee Pierce and Miss Wanda McCarthy—his aunt—were bundled home in separate blankets.

Well, Anyway the Fire Wardens Were Handy

COLUMBIA, S. C., (AP)—Mrs. T. W. Dreher, lying in bed reading, failed to hear the warning signal for a test blackout. An alert warden stepped to her window and asked her to turn off the light.

She complied, but in a moment the warden was back. This time it was a light in the kitchen, she complained. She was positive she had turned it off.

They investigated and found the kitchen in flames. Fire wardens extinguished the blaze.

Stretch It, But Make It GOOD TO EAT

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
AP Food Editor

The big job of the menu-maker on the home front today is to line up a substantial main-dish, easy on budget and ration stamps. Energy-building bread and cereals, plentiful and comparatively cheap, can be used to extend meat and vegetable loaves. But remember that tasty goodness is important, too.

Less cheese is available in some sections of our country because it has to do. Half a cup of grated cheese only is needed to eke out half a cup of cooked meat when made into SOMERSET LOAF, a main dish with plenty of taste appeal. To serve 4 or 5, mix together 1-2 cup each, grated cheese, cooked chopped meat, 1 cup boiled rice, 1-4 cup each chopped onions and green peppers. Add 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon each pepper and celery salt, 1 egg, 1-2 cup cooked green beans and 1-2 cup milk. Pour into greased loaf pan and spread top of loaf with 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, leftover gravy or chicken fat. Bake 45 minutes in a moderate oven. Baste twice with 2 tablespoons catsup added to 1-3 cup boiling water. This helps moisten the loaf. Bake a vegetable (carrots, turnips, beets) in a tightly covered pan and a little water along with the loaf. And you might want to have a quick bread (biscuits, corn muffins, blueberry gems) and baked fruit dessert at the same baking period.

This TOMATO SAUCE recipe is a family heirloom and I find it hard to beat for serving with loaves of all kinds: Simmer, covered, 2 cups tomatoes, 1 cup water, 1 crushed bay leaf, 2 thin onion slices, 4 celery leaves, 4 whole cloves, 1 teaspoon each of sugar and salt and 1-4 teaspoon paprika. Pour through a sieve and add 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, blended with 4 tablespoons flour. Cook slowly for 5 minutes. Stir constantly. The family likes this sauce over MEAT BALLS, made like this:

MEAT LOAF WITH OATS: It tastes good, too. ....

Mix together 1 cup each chopped cooked meat and soft bread crumbs, 2 eggs, beaten, 1 cup hot milk, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper and 1 tablespoon butter or margarine. Fill greased custard cups or individual baking dishes. Bake 35 minutes in pan of hot water in moderate oven. Unmold the meat loaves onto a heated platter and cover and surround with the tomato sauce. Fish or chicken or leftover vegetables can be used in place of the meat or along with the meat to make up the cupful.

MACARONI LOAF takes a cheese sauce for extra nutrition. Here is the loaf recipe: Cook 1 cup broken macaroni in 4 cups boiling salted water for 20 minutes. Drain and rinse in cold water.

1-4 teaspoon pepper
1-4 cup green pepper, chopped
1-4 cup onion, chopped
1 egg
1 cup milk or water
Mix the ingredients well. Turn into loaf pan, well greased. Press down lightly. Bake an hour in moderate oven. Serve hot or cold. Will give 8 to 12 servings. (Cut in half for smaller family.)

This removes any sticky part and separates the macaroni. Mix the macaroni with 1-2 cup sliced or finely grated cheese, 3 tablespoons each chopped onions, green peppers and celery, 2-3 teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup cracker or bread crumbs, 1 egg or 2 yolks, 1 cup tomatoes (juice and pulp), 3 tablespoons fat, melted (bacon fat, margarine or butter), 1-4 teaspoon pepper and 1 tablespoon chopped parsley. Bake 40 minutes in greased loaf pan in moderate oven. Unmold and cover with 2 cups vegetable sauce with 1-3 cup grated cheese added.

Salads For Summer

Dinner For Four
Brazilian Browned Rice
Diced Beets
Whole Wheat Bread Plum Jam
Crispy Salad
Lemon Ice Cream
Hot Tea or Coffee
Milk for Children

Brazilian Browned Rice (Meat Alternate)
4 tablespoons salad oil (or other fat)
1-2 cups rice
1-3 cup chopped onions
1 teaspoon salt
6 cups boiling water
1 cup vegetable white sauce
3 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
1-3 cup chopped ripe or green olives

Heat fat in frying pan, add rice and onions. Simmer until a light brown in color about 10 minutes. Add salt and water. Boil gently 25 minutes. Drain and add rest of ingredients. Reheat and serve.

Crispy Salad
1 cup cooked peas
1 cup sliced diced cucumbers
1-2 cup sliced diced radishes
1-4 cup sliced diced onions
1-4 cup sliced diced green pepper shreds
1 cup shredded diced cabbage shreds
1-3 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon paprika
Speck garlic salt (optional)
1-4 cup French dressing
Combine peas with icee vegetables, well drained. Add rest of ingredients and serve in chilled bowl.

Lemon Ice Cream (About 1 1-2 quarts)
1-3 cups sugar
1-2 cup lemon juice
3-2 cups thin cream
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1-4 teaspoon salt
Mix sugar and juice for 10 minutes. Slowly add cream, chilled, add rind and salt. Pour into sterilized freezer and freeze until stiff. Repack and let "ripen" for several hours to develop better flavor.

Make up leftover pastry crust into shallow tart cases. Cool and fill with creamed boiled custard and top with berries or sliced peaches.

Some chopped olives and sweet or sour pickles added to cole slaw give an interesting new flavor. Serve with fish, meats or fowl.

Stuffed Veal Shoulder
*4 pound shoulder of veal
3 tablespoons flour
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper
1-4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1-4 cup boiling water
Have butcher remove bones from shoulder. Reserve bones for soup. Fill the cavity in the veal with Savory Stuffing. Sew the cavity into place. Set the stuffed veal on a rack in roaster. Sprinkle with flour and seasonings. Add water and lid. Bake 2 hours in moderate oven. Baste every 20 minutes. Discard the threads and make gravy from the drippings. After the veal has cooked an hour surround it with 6 or 8 peeled raw turnips and potatoes. Turn them several times during the baking period so they will brown evenly.

Savory Stuffing
3 tablespoons bacon fat or meat drippings
3 tablespoons minced onions
1-3 cup diced celery or tender celery leaves
2 tablespoons chopped green peppers (optional)
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 egg yolk
1-4 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon paprika
1-3 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1-4 cup hot milk
2 cups cubed bread (any kind)
Heat fat in frying pan, add onions, celery and peppers and simmer 5 minutes, stirring frequently with fork. Add rest of ingredients. Mix and cool. Lightly stuff the veal.

Velvet Gravy
Blend 1-4 cup of flour with 1-2 cup of cold water, add 1-4 cup of drippings and pour into roaster. Cook slowly, stirring, for 2 minutes. Add speck of salt, pepper, and cup of boiling water. Boil, stirring, 5 minutes.

Trusting Texan Is Poorer But Wiser

BOSTON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Corporal Philip McCusker, of Denton, Texas, was short in cash today, but much wiser in his knowledge of the pitfalls of a big city.

McCusker told police that he returned to the United States recently after 14 months in an army outpost in Greenland, with a bankroll of $3,000.

At the suggestion of a waitress in a cafe, he told police, he turned his roll over to three cafe employees for safe-keeping.

A few days later he became uneasy, he said, and confided his suspicions to the worldly wise police of the cafe district.

They found the roll, $1,100 short.

They also arrested a waitress and two waiters, and charged them with larceny. They are to be arraigned in court today.

Runaway Boat Proves Obliging To Police

YONKERS, N. Y., (AP)—An empty barge broke away from its mooring at a sand and stone company's wharf and began drifting south in the strong current of the Hudson river. Onlookers notified police who hopped into a car and headed for the city's recreation pier, some distance down the river, pondering how to get out on the river to stop the barge. When the police arrived, however, they found the boat had swung right into the pier—and all that was necessary was to tie her up.

Tokyo Making Large Claims Once More

By The Associated Press
A Tokyo broadcast recorded today by the Associated Press asserted that between June 30 and Aug. 25 Japanese forces in the Solomons had sunk nine Allied cruisers and 11 destroyers and destroyed 836 planes. The claims were without Allied confirmation. The broadcast said that an additional four cruisers, eight destroyers, and 78 planes were damaged. Another broadcast declared, also without confirmation, 17 Japanese carrier-based planes inflicted heavy damage on one of seven cruisers sighted moving northward in the vicinity of Savo Island at dawn Aug. 23.

Japs Say Attack On Hong Kong Repulsed

By The Associated Press
Tokyo reported today 20 Allied bombers and fighters attempted to attack Hongkong yesterday in two separate raids. The broadcast was recorded by the Associated Press. The radio said a few bombs were dropped from a high altitude by a formation of 13 planes which attacked during the morning and that slight damage was caused. The announcement declared the attackers were "immediately repulsed" by anti-aircraft batteries. Seven planes which approached the city in the afternoon were "forced to flee," the broadcast declared.

Invasion Jitters

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 26 (AP)—Dispatches from Budapest to the Svenska Dagbladet today said that King Boris of Bulgaria and Premier Ion Antonescu of Rumania had visited recently at Adolf Hitler's headquarters and discussed the present Balkan situation. The Svenska Dagbladet correspondent said the visit had focused new attention on what he described as German anxiety over the possibility of an Allied invasion of the Balkans.

Agent Suggests Fall Gardens Be Tried

By O. P. GRIFFIN
County Agent

It is so dry and looks like it would stay that way, people are apt to forget about fall gardens. As a rule fall gardens are much more successful here than spring gardens. But to be successful preparation must be made in advance of planting time. The land should be cleaned of weeds. It will not do to plow them under, because they make the ground dryer and hotter.

I do not know of any place where it is easier to grow fall turnips than in Howard county. They can be planted for a full month yet without being too late. Then there is mustard, radishes, carrots and beets, as well as lettuce and spinach that will do well in the fall. If it rains by September 1, string beans may be added to this list. The War Board News this week will have something to say about vegetables that can be grown in the fall.

There may be some farmers who did not have much success with their summer garden, maybe because they got it started late and it got caught in this summer drought. The air has been so hot and dry that it was difficult to keep gardens growing even with plenty of water. Now, fall gardens will not be that way. The weather will be cooler, and the rate of evaporation of moisture much lower than during the summer. Fall gardens are successful four years out of five. And where they are irrigated it does not take nearly as much water.

No English home is more than 70 miles from the sea coast.

Information Given On Potato Planting

O. P. GRIFFIN, County Agent A. & M. Extension Service.

Plant by September 1. Use southern grown seed potatoes that have been exposed to light for at least a week. Cut through the center, halves, quarters according to size. Hen egg size or smaller halves.

If good rains should come before September 1, plant as soon as the land will do. No use to plant on weedy land. List the land in late afternoon and plant early next morning. Cover by relisting them, when potatoes have sprouted, rake off the dirt until ground is level.

Fall grown potatoes are easily kept through the winter, unless they are allowed to freeze. They make good seed for spring planting.

Winter Vegetables

Spinach, carrots, beets, turnips, and lettuce will stand some frost. All of these should be planted in September.

Spinach requires a firm seed bed. After the seed are planted walk on them to firm the ground then soil mulch the surface to keep from drying out.

Carrots requires a deep seed bed. When the root reaches hard soil it becomes ill shapen. Danvers half long is a good variety.

Onions to have early green onions plant sets in September. Beets, to get a uniform stand mash the seed coat with a rolling pin, then soak over night in warm water and plant 2 inches deep using 10 to 12 seed to the foot of row. Thin when 3 inches high to a spacing of 2 or 3 inches.

Head Lettuce should be planted in October. Use New York or Imperial; and when plants are two or three inches high, thin to 6 or 7 inches apart.

First remove all vegetation. Do not plow it under for a fall garden. Plow shallow except for carrots. See that all clods are broken up before planting.

The soil for a fall garden should be fertile, because fertilizers cannot be used successfully in fall gardens in this area.

Conversion of New Georgia's headhunting cannibals began more than thirty years ago.

Farmers Advised To List Available Peas

The Govt. Food Distribution Administration has announced that it will buy dry black-eyed peas at the announced support price. That price is $5.75 cwt. for No. 1 grade; $5.65 for No. 2 and $5.35 for No. 3.

Graders will be provided and arrangements made for recleaning for bags and storage where there is enough peas to justify.

The arrangements for this service will be made by the County War Board. At the present time it is not known whether there will be enough black-eyed peas in Howard county to justify handling them in Big Spring.

A meeting has been called by the War Board for 4 p. m. Saturday. It would be well for farmers, who have peas to sell, and who do not have a better market than 5 cents per pound, to notify the War Board, Box 711, Big Spring. Arrangements for government purchase will be made only to assist farmers to get the guaranteed price.

Chilean and U. S. Nationals Due To Be In Second Exchange

LONDON, Aug. 26 (AP)—Tokyo reported in a broadcast recorded by the Associated Press that about 1,500 Americans and Chileans will be included in the second exchange of American and Japanese nationals.

The broadcast said the agreement provided for the exchange to be made in the second week of October at Mormugao, Portuguese India.

A Japanese ship carrying persons interned in Japan, China, Manchukuo, Thailand, French Indo-China and the Philippines will leave a Japanese harbor between Sept. 10 and Sept. 20, the announcement said.

An exchange of Japanese and British nationals also is being considered, the broadcast said.

Waste Oil Fire Threatens Dock

Quick action on the part of the fire department stopped a fire Wednesday afternoon about 3 p. m. that threatened the railroad bridge and the ice plant's loading dock at the T. & P. railroad yard. Firemen said the fire, of unknown origin, started in a ditch near the tracks where waste oil from the T. & P. shops drains off. The flames of the oil fire were burning 40 feet high when firemen arrived. Two lines of hose used from each end of the ditch, quickly extinguished the blaze. Firemen said there was only slight damage to a few ties.

Midsummer garden plates

Now's the time of year to take a careful look at the fresh vegetables on the market, for varied menu inspiration. The ways you can serve these garden treats are almost limitless—and they do wonders for lazy appetites.

COMBINATION SALAD PLATE—A whole meal on one plate! Arrange shredded greens on large plates. Lettuce, other salad greens, or crisp, raw spinach may be used. In the center of each plate, place large tomatoes hollowed out and filled with chopped egg, meat or chicken salad. Around the tomatoes, arrange a circle of chilled, cooked peas, then another circle of sliced, pickled beets. Pass the salad dressing separately. Hot cheese biscuits or toasted cheese sandwiches are delicious with this. And custard or pie fits in well for dessert.

MIDSUMMER PLATTER—At one side of a large, heated platter, place pastry shells filled with creamed, sliced, hard-cooked eggs and peas. In separate groups place mounds of sauteed, shredded cabbage, broiled tomato halves and broiled fresh peach or apricot halves. Serve with toast or crackers, and follow with a fruit bread pudding.

HOT WEATHER SALAD PLATE—Place in separate lettuce cups a generous serving of potato salad, chopped sliced beets and cottage cheese, and cooked, green string beans. Garnish with cucumber and carrot strips. Serve your favorite dressing separately, and pass a plate of oven-hot muffins. Apple pie and cheese will polish this meal off.

Yanks Plaster Tigers Twice To Corner Title In American Loop

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The mathematical lock hasn't been turned yet, but the New York Yankees have just closed the door on another American League pennant, their seventh in eight years.

The St. Louis Cardinals have been conceded the National League flag for a couple of weeks or longer, but up until yesterday the Cardinals refused to admit the American League race was over. The Yankees had been inconsistent and the Washington Senators had been persistent.

There no longer is any reason to doubt that the Yankees will be host team when the World Series opens in a little more than a month. They finished their last western trip with a bang (it was that door slamming) by drubbing the Detroit Tigers in both ends of a doubleheader 7-5 and 5-1.

This performance gave them a record of having won 12 consecutive series, a feat not equaled even by the great Yankee clubs of the past, and sent them home with a 10 1-2 game lead to friendly Yankee Stadium where they have won 36 out of 52 games this season.

Rudy York took personal issue with the Yankees in their final games, hitting a home run in each half of the bill to bring his total for the season to 28 and his record for the month to 15.

In the other American League contests Cleveland beat the Boston Red Sox twice 6-3 and 4-1, the St. Louis Browns whipped Washington 7-4 and the Philadelphia Athletics resumed their losing habits by folding before the Chicago White Sox 4-0 as Jake Wade pitched four-hit ball and Luke Appling drove in three hits.

In the National League the St. Louis Cardinals completed their last eastern trip with their second straight shutout of the Boston Braves 2-0 as Lefty Harry Breechen allowed five singles.

It was the champions' 15th straight success against the Braves. The Brooklyn Dodgers stopped the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-4 in the only other game in the senior circuit.

The Pirates provided most of the fun for the fans. In the fourth inning Vince Dimaggio argued with Umpire George Barr and was banished. Al Lopez stood at home plate and clapped his hands in loud applause for Barr, and found that the umpire didn't like applause. Lopez, too, was trounced off the field and in the next inning Barr cleared half a dozen other Pirate players out of the dugout because of their jibes.

Leo Cuts Capers For A Man Who Didn't Want To Do Any Skating

By CHIP ROYAL
AP Features Sports Editor

NEW YORK—For a fellow who didn't want to skate, Chicagoan Leo Freisinger is doing all right on the ice.

He broke nine world records while winning six national speed skating championships. He was Olympic speed skating champ in 1936 and 1940.

Today, at 27, he is a featured performer in the Center Theater's "Stars on Ice" and making more money as a professional skater than any other Olympic performer outside of his boss, Sonja Henie.

"I really owe my skating success to my father," Leo tells you. "I had my mind set on being a big league ball player from the time I could toss a baseball. My father had different ideas."

"When I was 11, he gave me a pair of ice skates for Christmas. I told him I didn't want them, but he convinced me I should try them," smiles the ice flash. "In two weeks time, I was racing on them. In a year, I won my first national title."

But Leo hasn't concentrated on ice skating by any means. He has played baseball, football, been a life guard and a bike racer.

"I always went back to the ice though because I found I got more out of it—better medals, prizes and money, not to mention a couple of trips to Europe."

Even so, Freisinger admits that if he hadn't been offered a chance to appear in "Stars on Ice," he might have been patrolling the outfield for the Chicago Cubs this year.

"I was physical instructor of the Chicago Park system last year and played semi-pro ball. I tried to get an ice skating job previously with Bill Burke, manager of the show. I told him that I could jump over 15 barrels but he didn't believe me.

"Then came an offer of a contract with the Chicago Cubs. Just as I was about to sign, Burke asked me if I could really jump over the barrels. I showed him a picture where I was jumping over 10 barrels. He pulled out a contract and I had a skating job."

While touring with Miss Henie, Freisinger met Jimmy Caesar, another speed skater. They started practicing together and developed the act they are now using on Broadway. They appear in two numbers, one when they impersonate Tartar warriors and jump over prop tree stumps, and again as themselves when they leap over 12 barrels in various formations.

"Talk about your ice skating thrills," says Leo, "we get them every performance. The stage we use is about 70 feet deep and 80 feet wide. We have to get up considerable speed for the jumps and there is always the danger of slipping while going to the front of the stage. We've gone off several times."

Fellow performers never miss the Freisinger-Caesar act. They are still talking about the time Caesar caught his skates in Leo's back in the jump over his partner and prop tree stumps. The steel runners tore Freisinger's leather belt and put a dent in his ribs which required hospitalization.

Leo is married to a former dancer and their pride and joy is 16-months old Joan who already is at home on a pair of skates. Freisinger's greatest thrill came while touring Europe in 1938. He was the only American entered in a Swiss meet and he broke the world's speed skating record for 500 meters.

"As I started to leave the ice, the band played the 'Star-Spangled Banner.' It sent a tingle through my body I'll never forget. It was really the thrill of a lifetime."

Fourteen Titles Up Today For Decision

By FRITZ HOWELL
VANDALIA, Ohio, Aug. 26.—Fourteen championships were up for decision today at the 44th annual grand American trapshoot, 11 on a carry-over from yesterday's 200-target 18-yard program. Which was halted by darkness, and three on the regular schedule. Heading the list was the 50-pair doubles competition in which Rudy Etchen of Kansas City, now a shooting instructor at Great Lakes naval base, will defend the title he won a year ago.

When Elmer Riddle gained his second 1943 victory over the Dodgers he had handled 128 fielding chances without an error since he entered the National League in 1939.

J. R. Hinkle, 64-year-old Corsicana, Texas, crackshot, won the only title decided in the curtain-raiser program of the abbreviated "grand," his 295 of 300 being good for the professional clay target championship at 16 yards.

Five years ago Hinkle suffered a broken neck in an automobile accident and bone was taken from his leg and grafted to his vertebra. The loss of bone from his leg forces him to use a cane. The victory was his first major title in 37 years of trap-shooting.

Aggie Swimmer Sets 3 Records

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 26. (AP)—Diminutive Danny Green, one-man swimming team from Texas A. & M. entered only three events in the southern AAU swimming meet, and set new records in all three.

He splashed the 100 yards in 55.3 seconds to nose out former national champion, Halo Hirose, and clip 2.7 seconds from the old mark. He lowered his own mark of 5 minutes 21.4 seconds for the 440 by racing the distance in 5:17.9. His new record of 2 minutes 22.26 seconds for the 220 clipped nearly five seconds off the old mark.

Sports Training Paying Dividends

BLACKLAND ARMY AIR FIELD, WACO, Aug. 26. (AP)—American youths' participation in sports is paying dividends to the army air forces, says Major Guy C. Richardson, flight surgeon at Blackland army air field.

"We have found that former athletes can more easily develop the high coordination needed in modern flying, and are more physically fit," he declares.

"Aviation cadets are the best physical specimens in the army. Because of their former athletic experiences we find less of them go on sick call, fewer are injured in the rough training classes which go over our combat obstacle course."

Analysis of one class of aviation cadets here showed that 60 per cent had had athletic experience in high school or college.

Army Grid Teams Are Scheduled In Denver

DENVER, Aug. 26. (AP)—Two army teams—Lowry Field of Denver and Fort Warren, Wyo.—will open Denver's football season Sept. 11.

After that contest the Lowry Bombardiers will undertake a schedule which includes Lubbock air base at Lubbock, Texas, Oct. 9.

Redskins Take Worst Defeat Off All-Stars

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 26. (AP)—Sammy Baugh was "right," the Washington Redskins acted the part of professional champions—but what can you do against the greatest collection of collegiate all-stars, fellows who have had the benefit of magnificent coaching?

The answer would seem to be: lose. And that's what the Redskins did last night. Not only did they bow to the Harry Stuhldreher-coached 1943 all-star edition, but they took the worst thumping of any pro team in the 10-year history of this traditional preview of the nation's football season.

The score was 27 to 7, a supremacy margin of 20 points that outdid the performance of the 1938 all-stars, who also defeated Washington, 28 to 16. That, incidentally, was the last time the collegians had won in the series, but they busted the pros' four-year victory monopoly wide open last night.

In the first period Missouri's Bob Steuber took a Redskin punt at midfield and scampered 50 yards for a touchdown, a placement by Wisconsin's Pat Harder making it 7 to 0 in favor of the all-stars.

Baugh, who ended up with 22 pass completions good for 273 yards, chucked a four-yard throw to Joe Aguirre good for a Redskin touchdown opening the second period and tying the score, 7 to 7, after Bob Masterson's placement kick.

But the all-stars had a passer, too, a brilliant fellow from Tulsa University named Glenn Dobbs, who threw to Harder in a play carrying 37 yards for another all-star touchdown. Harder's kick making it 7 to 0 in favor of the boys.

In the third period the Redskins, with Baugh pitching, were sneaking deep into all-star territory, and Sammy lofted one for a touchdown try. Otto Graham intercepted on the three-yard line and travelled the entire 97-yard route for a touchdown. The score was 20 to 7 for the all-stars.

The all-stars, before the game was over, cut loose Pat Harder on a sideline sprint for 33 yards and a fourth college touchdown, and Stuhldreher sent in reserves so fast the officials got squeamish counting noses before the gun sounded.

FOOT ITCH
ATHLETE'S FOOT

Beware of It Spreading
Often the disease spreads all over the bottom of the foot. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse.
Get relief from this disease as quickly as possible because it is both contagious and infectious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crotch of the legs.
Why Take Chances?
The germ that causes the disease is known as Tinea Trichophyton. It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows it takes 15 minutes of boiling to destroy the germ, whereas, upon contact, laboratory tests show that H. F. will kill the germ Tinea Trichophyton within 15 seconds.
H. F. was developed solely for the purpose of relieving Athlete's Foot. It is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You need not paint the affected parts. H. F. gently peels the skin, which enables it to get to germs which lay under the outer scale.
Itching Often Relieved Quickly
As soon as you apply H. F. you should notice the itching is relieved. You should notice the inflamed parts with H. F. right and morning until you feel much better. Usually this takes from three to ten days.
H. F. should leave the skin soft and smooth. You may marvel at the quick way it brings you relief.
Don't wash for Athlete's Foot to become serious. Get H. F. today.

RELIEF GUARANTEED OR MONEY BACK

At least 80% of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form, and the skin cracks and peels. After a while, the itching becomes intense, and you feel as though you would like to scratch off all the skin.

Take Good Care of Your Electric Iron
... Make it Last the Duration!

Electric irons are among the growing list of war-scarce electric appliances. The steel, nickel and brass that formerly went into irons is now going into bullets and bombs for the Japs and Germans. That is why your electric iron should stay on the job for the duration.

Here's How You Can Help Make Your Iron Last

Keep the bottom of the iron clean. Wait until the iron is cool, then wipe off with a damp cloth.

Avoid ironing over buttons, hooks, zippers or other hard articles that will scratch the iron.

By all means, avoid dropping your iron. This ruins more irons than any other one thing.

Keep the iron cord plugged tightly on the iron, and always disconnect the cord first at the outlet.

Ironing Hints Worth Remembering

If your iron is a non-automatic type, you'll make it last longer and save electricity by disconnecting your iron when it is hot enough to use, and reconnecting it when more heat is needed. This will prevent overheating your iron.

Remember, it's the contact of heat with the dampened garment that removes wrinkles, so don't wear yourself out pressing down. Let the heat do the job.

Rub the sole plate of your iron once a month or so with paraffin or beeswax. Wipe off on a paper or cloth.

If your iron has become soiled or starch has stuck to it, run the hot iron over some salt sprinkled on a newspaper.

Buy Bonds, But Hold On To Them, Please

Howard county is going to fall in meeting its bond quota in August and in September will face the imposing task of raising $1,791,400 in the third war loan drive during September.

Our work in selling bonds is out of us and no doubt about it. Every person who can rake up at least $18.75 is going to have to do that and as much more as possible in order to achieve these goals.

But there is one thing which most of us can do that will help a lot—and that is hold on to every last one of our bonds unless we are faced with a real, honest-to-goodness emergency.

Two weeks ago the Herald conducted a survey among the local certifying agencies to determine the extent to which people are cashing in their bonds. The result was—to the Herald, at least—spalling. Roughly 20 per cent of the purchases were being redeemed as rapidly as they could be.

Since then, the Herald has made a spot check with one certifying agency. During the original two-week period, this agency had certified a total of $9,825 (maturity value) for redemption. During the past two weeks this figure was cut to $5,675, or a decline of 42 per cent.

There may have been other factors, but we choose to believe that one of the most potent forces in whittling this rate of bond cashing was the white light of publicity.

The results impel us to this conclusion: If bond cashing can be cut 42 per cent in the space of two weeks simply because the attention of the public is called to the practice, it proves positively that a whole of a lot of the emergency purposes.

To our mind, the amount of redemption is still excessive, and considerably so.

We appeal to people to buy bonds until it hurts—and we mean that literally. Then if a real emergency arises, cash those bonds. But otherwise, hang on to them. Let's be patriotic all the way and not just at drive time and by signing deduction slips to fool the boss and co-workers. Isn't that fair enough? Isn't it American?

Hollywood—Coons Sits Down For Dinner With Soulful And 'Shy' Corporation

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—The other day I sat down to lunch with a soulful corporation, new in Hollywood.

It goes by the name of Producers Corporation of America, and its pictures will go out through United Artists. But when PCA came in to lunch, it looked like Sig Schlager and Harry Joe Brown.

Harry Joe Brown is the producer. Sig Schlager is the promoter, the boss man, the fellow who rounded up the bankroll, the scripts, and—armed with a chubby—the producer. Brown is a shame, quiet little man who is (said Schlager) too modest to talk about himself.

"You oughtn't to be here—I'm going to talk about you, Harry," said Schlager, who is ebullient and not at all shy. A former newspaper man, later a movie press agent, later a movie talent agent or 10 per center, Sig never had training in shyness.

Harry Joe grinned, amiably, and let Sig talk about Harry Joe, PCA, and its scripts. First, about how a movie corporation is born, which was what I wanted to know:

"I wanted to get into production," said Sig, "and I had a property—'Kneckerbocker Holiday,' the musical by Maxwell Anderson and Kurt Weill. I wanted to get Harry Joe as producer. He'd been turning out hits for 20th Century-Fox, but he was tired of it and wanted a rest. Here was a fellow with a fine artistic urge good-naturedly forgetting it and fitting his talents into a groove for other people. In a company like ours, Harry Joe can really express himself. In the major studios a producer can't do that, because there are too many supervisors."

With "Kneckerbocker Holiday" and independence (to cut it short) Sig lured Harry Joe away from rest. With both he promoted the bankroll, and now PCA is an eager infant, ready to start kicking.

Harry Joe (said Sig) saw in "Kneckerbocker Holiday" not merely a period musical (it's set in the days of Peter Stuyvesant in old New York) but a symbol of "the American spirit struggling for the first time to express itself." It's to be a patriotic picture—without flag-waving, without a battle scene, with singing, laughing, dancing, and nobody getting serious, but the theme shining clear.

"You take away the music and the comedy," put in Harry Joe, "and you still have a story. I like that."

So we went on to another picture planned, Mark Twain's "The Mysterious Stranger." This is the posthumously published story in which Mark Twain practically gave up hope for the human race—an odd piece for an optimistic screen to handle.

Ah, but (said Sig) Mark Twain's daughter (Clara Clemens Gaborivitch) is adapting it for the screen, and she has letters from her father in which he declared that he had changed his mind about the philosophy earlier expressed in his story. "So our treatment," said Sig, "will reach conclusions exactly opposite to the philosophy of the original—it ought to create a sensation in the literary world."

In the early 17th century, seamen tarred their ropes and caulked their sailing vessels with tar and pitch.

Capital Comments—Stimpson Comes Up With Another Texas General

THE LONG NIGHT

By Eleanor Atterburg

Chapter 3
Bette was still checking charts carefully when Sue came on duty.

"Hi, sis," Sue yawned gracefully as a kitten. "Anything doing?"

"These records are in a mess, Sue." She frowned at her sister. "Did you make your entries yesterday?"

"Yes, angel. Most of them."

"Most of them! What do you mean? You don't do the job half-way!"

"Oh, don't make noises like Dr. Farrell," Sue said carelessly. "Mercy, he nearly bit my head off yesterday because I made a trivial little error in filling some charts."

Bette abook her head. "No error is trivial in this work, Sue. Why a life may depend on it. You can't afford to be careless. You know that."

"Oh don't be an old owl!" The younger girl reached for her hand, squeezed it. "Sometimes you're so darned serious about your old profession. After all, honey, it's only a job."

But Bette couldn't laugh it off. "It's more than that, Sue. You don't appreciate—"

"Oh, yes I do, darling. Run along now. I'll finish these. Better try to get some sleep. You look hollow-eyed."

Back in her bunk, Bette did try to turn off her busy mind, get some sleep. Heaven knows they would need all the energy they could store up once they were ashore.

But Sue's remarks had roused and old worry. It was only because of Bette that Sue had gone into nursing in the first place. Now that they were absolutely alone in the world, Bette'd want to be sure they were together. And Sue really could make a marvelous nurse. She had a way with people. Her patients adored her, responded to her instantly. And of course, Sue was awfully young yet to settle down to serious things. What if she did seem lazy at times. She'd grow up eventually. It—and again the old anxiety, raised its battered head—in the meantime she didn't let something dreadful happen through her carelessness.

Bette was still awake when Sue came in.

"Bette?" Sue whispered as her land looked like.

Great heaps of jagged mountains rose straight out of the sea. They'd have to be eagles to live on those cliffs, she thought wryly. And then her glance discovered the little valley spread between the cliffs.

They walked the length of the wooden dock, across an open square to the cluster of buildings nestled at the base of a sheer mountainside. With every step, Bette saw the mountains rising precipitously, saw the valley grow proportionately smaller as daylight revealed even loftier peaks beyond. And the valley wasn't so tiny at that. Beyond the buildings stretched a newly constructed air field. Bette counted ten big bombers in the first glance.

"Tell me about him," Bette said now.

"He was raised in the Philippines. His father was an exporter. His parents and two younger sisters are in a Jap concentration camp in Manila. His brother was killed at Bataan."

"What are you talking about?"

"Scott, of course. Scott MacQuaid."

"Oh," said Bette, and was silent. It was dark and raining steadily when Bette Stuart was first of ten nurses to climb down a narrow, swaying ladder to a landing boat.

She looked over her shoulder, considered the distance carefully, jumped.

She made it of course. Sue was right behind her.

"Well, that's done," she said under her breath and found her place in the bobbing boat.

"And the worst is yet to come," Sue added wryly, huddled close to Bette. "I'm frozen. I certainly hope this boat isn't as frail as it looks. I'd hate to be tossed into that water."

After eternities of freeing wind and rain, a pair loomed suddenly out of darkness. Again it seemed only a miracle that she made her frozen body achieve the ladder, mount it, scramble up onto the rain-soaked landing.

"Here we are," she said aloud, more to prove to herself that it was so. And on the heels of relief came real thrill. Here, in Alaska! They'd actually arrived! Dawn was changing the deep darkness: for dully grey now, Bette ready now to laugh at her own recent terrors, stood erect, tried to see what an Aleutian is-

Mack Simmons Wins His Reinstatement As T&P Engineer

J. M. (Mack) Simmons, suspended by the T.&P. Railway Co. following a locomotive explosion at Iatan on May 29, 1941, has been reinstated by order of the national railroad adjustment board at Chicago, Ill. in an order dated Aug. 23.

Not only was he ordered reinstated as a locomotive engineer, but he also was awarded pay for all time lost since June 1, 1941.

Simmons suffered burns and a broken arm in the boiler blast, and Andy Anderson and A. R. Dyer were injured also. They were reinstated a few months after the mishap by the railroad.

bravery; is 64 years old, but acts and looks fifty. He told me about his attempt to kidnap the Kaiser.

In January, 1919, two months after the armistice, Col. Lea was with his outfit in the third army of occupation in Luxembourg; he and some pals conceived the idea of slipping over into Holland, getting possession of the person of the Kaiser and taking him to Paris to be tried on charges of war guilt; he got duly signed passports for himself, three officers and four enlisted men; getting leave, effective immediately after a review of their division, they got into two autos, drove 18 hours without stopping through Luxem-

Doings At Rodent Ridge—
Wherein Rats Learn Of A Modern Pied Piper Who Uses Dogs, Gas

By HELEN WILSON

Rats scurried here and there, darting in the many entrances which had been chiseled into their town hall through the courtesy of Mayor Maynard Mouse and the city council of Rodent Ridge.

This was an important meeting—something that had to do with invasion and war. Big rats, little rats, skinny rats and fat rats took their places in the convention hall, anxious for Mayor Mouse to begin his talk.

Typus sneezes echoed above the chatter of neighboring rodents, and following each wheeze, mousey mustaches were carefully wiped and straightened into place.

At last Mayor Mouse rose, placed his tapering tail neatly behind him and began to speak. "Friends and neighbors, doubtless you have read where a clean-up and rodent extermination campaign is about to get underway in the city of Big Spring."

A drone of comments drowned his next statement. "Quiet please. As I was saying the campaign starts today, and the thing which has your city councilmen of Rodent Ridge extremely worried is that a rat exterminator known as F. L. Harding, has been employed to destroy our entire population. In order to acquaint you with the characteristics of Harding's duties, I must first of all, tell you that he conceived the idea of mortal extermination through a process which was practiced by the U. S. government in killing prairie dogs in Wyoming and Arizona. With the aid of a hand pump, he uses a cyanide gas to drive us out of our homes, and neighbors I must warn you that the pump has a long hose which worms to your very back rooms."

"Not to disturb you further, fellow rodents, but the gruesome part of my sad ultimatum is that if you are driven out, five fox terriers will be at your door to run you down and break your necks," intoned Mayor Mouse.

"I must warn you that he is a merciless man, his system successful and his dogs ruthless. Word has come to me of the thousands of our countrymen he has exterminated in Midland, Odessa, Roscoe and Haskell. From Rodent Ridge he will go to our villages in Colorado City."

"It is a sad day, and I as your leader am worried for this man Harding is known as the Pied Piper of the 20th century, is a menace who now lurks in this very vicinity, ready to begin his campaign today. After an extensive study and research in our library on the subject of such an attack, my advice to you, brother rats, is to run like—," sagely concluded Mayor Mouse.

Pvt. Rumpff, aged 22, is the son of Mrs. C. G. Chapin of Bayard, N. M., and came here in February of 1942. He worked at the bombardier school project until he enlisted here on July 30, 1942. His training included a stay at Ft. George G. Mead, Maryland before he sailed in December of 1942.

He was married April 21, 1942 at Midland to Mildred Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Thompson, 2208 Scoury, where she and their son, Bobby Cliff, whom he has never seen, now reside. The young hero also holds the Purple Heart and his North African campaign bar.

Here 'n There

Gwendolyn Monrooney underwent an appendectomy Wednesday at the Cowper Clinic and Hospital and is reported as doing nicely.

Members of the family of Roy A. Sneed have received a card from a Lieut. Lola Range, dated August 1st, advising them that Sneed had been promoted from the rank of private first class to staff sergeant just before his death on August 5th. Sgt. Sneed's death was from natural causes according to word sent by the War Department. He was stationed in New Guinea with the Army Air Corps.

Annette Boykin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Boykin, is convalescing from a tonsillectomy to which she submitted Tuesday morning.

E. B. Bethell and daughter, Mrs. Maurine Amick, returned Thursday from Italy, Texas where Mrs. E. B. Bethell, victim of a long illness, was buried Wednesday morning beside relatives. A son, Joe Bethell, returned to his navy station at Williamsburg, Va.

C. Gruhn and Mrs. V. Jahnke, father and sister of Mrs. Fred Schmidt, are here from Chicago, Ill., visiting with Flight Officer and Mrs. Schmidt until the end of the week.

Eira Phillips, long time barber shop operator, has purchased the Lyric barber shop from Paul Darrow, and was announced Thursday, and will assume operation of it.

Henry Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Jones, has been assigned to Fargo, N. D., for specialized training in air corps administrative work, his parents have been informed. Henry volunteered while still a student in Tech and was inducted through the district center at Lubbock. Sent to Camp Wolters, he was transferred to Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, for six weeks before going to North Dakota.

Friends here have heard indirectly from Pvt. Kenneth Luton, who is a Japanese war prisoner, and it was the first word in more than a year. Taken with the fall of Corregidor, the former Big Spring youth was interned in the Philippine war prison camp No. 1, where he wrote his parents in Denison he is still located. He is in "good health, uninjured and all right," and added "please give my regards to friends and relatives. His address is US Air Corps, Interned by Japan, formerly Philippine Islands, care of Japanese Red Cross, Tokyo, Japan, via New York, N. Y.

Everywhere was green, verdant growth. Thick grass on the flat land. Then heavier brush. Beyond that, the pines and firs marching straight up the mountain side to the snow line.

Bette stopped a moment on the low porch of the building labelled 'Hospital' and looked out across the valley. How could war invade this peacefulness? Bette breathed deep of the sharp, cold air. It seemed impossible that this beautiful valley could be a battlefield!

"Isn't it wonderful?" she asked as Sue caught up with her.

Sue's glance was skeptical. "Maybe—if you like being lonesome. Give me less scenery and more people, please."

Bette laughed, turned to follow her into the building. Then, just as they pulled open the door, the sound of planes drew them back to the porch railing. Out of the clouds overhead they saw three planes circle deliberately, like graceful gulls, making a complete survey of the base tucked into the mountain valley.

"Could those be enemy planes, do you suppose?" Bette asked.

In the same moment, she saw the insignia under the wing. "They are!"

To Be Continued.

Recruiter Asks Employer Aid

Business men can aid the war effort by counseling sympathetically with young women who are interested in enlisting in the WACs, Lieut. Mary F. Goldmann, WAC recruiter, told the Lions club Wednesday.

She urged employers to be proud of their women employees who wanted to join and to encourage them in it. Not only will they release men for fighting duty, but will return after the war as much more efficient workers, according to Lieut. Goldmann.

"I know you may be sacrificing to give up a good girl—and that's the only kind we want—but who isn't going to have to sacrifice to win the war."

If WACs recruiting had produced full quotas, Lieut. Goldmann ventured it might now be unnecessary to draft fathers so efficient have WACs proven themselves in handling administrative and technical jobs in the army.

Revival Ends At Knott Community
