BIBLE THOUGHT
 IF—If thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul—THEN, shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday; and the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones—Isaiah 58: 10-11.

TEXAS CENTENNIAL

In William Carey Crane's life of Sam Houston, published in 1884, it is stated that the first Mexican civil government of Texas was organized by Don Juan Antonio Sancedo, political chief of the province of Texas at San Felipe de Austin on May 20, 1824, and that in a proclamation then issued Stephen F. Austin, the real father of Texas, was appointed "Police Chief and Judge."

Crane adds that the first land titles were issued in July, 1824, and that "From this period may date the American history of Texas." There are other incidents in the history of Texas that are more dramatic but none that is more important, for with Austin's appointment the influence of Anglo-Saxon civilization and democracy commenced to assert itself in Texas, and to quote Crane again:

Immigration began to flow and spread itself over the fertile domain of the province of Texas. The forest gave way to the axe of the hardy pioneer; the wild prairie to the plowshare of the husbandman; plantations were opened and villages sprung up on the hunting grounds of the savage. In nine years from the first settlement of Austin, the Americans had explored the whole southern portion of the province, and redeemed it from the wilderness of the wild beast and the Indian, and covered it with an industrious and thriving population. The news of Austin's colony spread rapidly over the western states and many adventurers sought to join him. Colonists came faster than provision could be made for their support. Besides suffering greatly from the Orankawa Indians, the settlers were often reduced to the necessity of living on wild game and clothing themselves with skins. Buckskin was the common dress. Occasionally a strolling peddler would penetrate the wilderness with a piece of domestic or calico, which was esteemed as valuable and elegant as silk and satin are with us now. Letters now extant, give harrowing pictures of the sufferings of women and children for the ordinary necessities of life. Such was the foundation of the goodly heritage now enjoyed by the inhabitants of Texas.

The year 1924 is therefore the real Centennial of this glorious state, the first in the Union in its cotton production and area as well as in many other respects and soon to become the fourth in its population.

Why not celebrate a centenary so important and so auspicious by an exposition that will attract the attention and the presence of the world. You can do it and if you set your- it with the Texas spirit that I know, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco will have to look to their laurels for theirs were municipal affairs while yours would have the support of the greatest state in the Union and five millions of people, who have always thought in terms of the superlative and acted accordingly.

I will not suggest details for they would have to be carefully thought out but I wish that I lived here, that I might have a hand in developing the idea, for the picture of an Interna-

Fishhook Hung From Kite To Catch Giant Tuna

To catch tuna and swordfish, kites are being used on the west coast to carry the hooks and bait far from the boats. After they are sent up, the fishing line is attached to the kite string which drags it over the water. When a fish bites, the sportsman reels it in close enough for a companion to strike with a harpoon. As some of the catches weigh from 100 to 300 pounds, lively battles take place. Rules of a club formed by fishermen permit only the angler and spear thrower to kill or gaff the fish. In contests, shooting disqualifies the participant. To be eligible for membership a candidate must land a tuna weighing at least 100 pounds or a swordfish of more than 200 pounds, using heavy tackle.

War Engines of Future To Be Electric

Electricity is to be a strong factor in future wars according to statements made by British experts who see in the discoveries of science a terrible power of destruction from mysterious waves of electric current sent through the air from hidden sources. Motors of airplanes and seacraft will be halted by special waves of wireless broadcast for thousands of miles and even infantry and cavalry might be thrown into confusion or utterly destroyed by strong jets of water charged with electricity and mixed with acids. Machine guns and monster naval cannon, it is said, may be noiseless, and the projectiles will be "fired" by electric force. Sound made by electrically operated instruments will roar out over the battle fields with such a racket as to wreck the minds of opposing armies that dare to remain within hearing. Heat generated wirelessly will shoot out unseen over wide areas, destroying property and life without warning.

Erecting Supports for Aerials

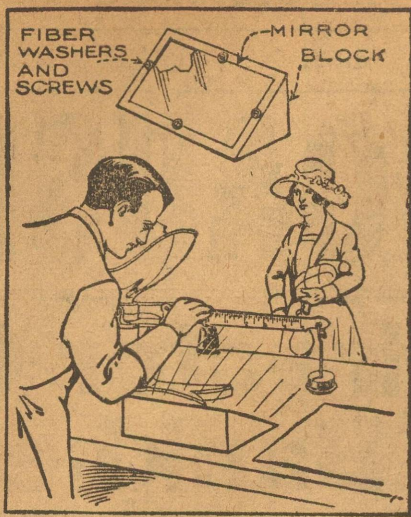

A simple method of erecting supports for aerials, when height is not a great consideration, is to nail lengths of 2 by 2-in. wood to the roof as shown in the drawing. The supports are fastened on opposite sides of the roof, and are located over rafters, so that the spikes can be driven into these. The distance between the upper ends of the supports should be about 16 to 24 in. Ordinary porcelain insulators, which can be procured from any electrical store, are screwed to the ends of the supports and the aerial is attached to these. Care must, of course, be taken to have the aerial wires stretched as rigidly as possible so that they will not touch the roof.

Illuminating the Scale Beam

The difficulty in properly adjusting the weight on the beam of a scale in a small store, due to insufficient light, was reme-ded by providing a mirror set in the position shown, to reflect the light on the scale beam, the mirror being mounted on a triangular block. The light from the window opposite the scale was reflected so that the graduations could be seen distinctly, and at night the store lights were similarly reflected on the beam. The use of an electric light was first suggested but the mirror was found to serve the purpose just as well, and without the cost of burning an extra light.

Tracing Starter Troubles

Before blaming the starting motor or switch when the starter refuses to operate and the battery is known to be in good shape and fully charged, or nearly so, examine all terminals carefully, taking them off, cleaning thoroughly with a file or sandpaper, and scraping the battery post clamps inside and out. Very often there is nothing wrong except dirty or corroded terminals, and cleaning will remove the trouble at once. Keep the battery posts and clamps clean and covered with vaseline to prevent corrosion, and be especially careful about the ground connections, which in many cars collect dirt, and rust or corrode.

It is also good practice to examine the starting-motor cables occasionally, and to renew them if the insulation is badly frayed or there are broken strands.

"SERVE AND ADVERTISE" RECIPE BRINGS RAILWAY SUCCESS AS IT WILL TO ANY WORTHY ENTERPRISE

By United Press
 ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 5.—"Serve and advertise."

This is the recipe for successful operation of an electric railway given by Britton I. Budd, president of the Chicago, North Shore & Milwaukee line, which today was awarded the Charles A. Coffin electric transportation prize for 1923.

The prize, consisting of $1,000 in cash and a medal, was given at the close of the convention and will be awarded annually by the General Electric company to the electric railway doing the best work for public and industry.

A score of electric railways competed this year. The Budd road won largely on its showing in popularizing service, increasing public good will and improving relations with its employees.

"The aim of the management is to make every employe feel that he or she is an important part of the organization," Budd says.

Make Employees Happy.—Much time and money is spent annually by the company in giving their employes better educations encouraging them to become American citizens (if foreign-born), and helping them build homes. Employees seldom are discharged. If a man or woman does not fit in one position, he is transferred to others, until he finds his proper niche.

Accomplishments by the road include increasing its gross passenger earnings five times in seven years and its freight earning 15 times in five years. Ten years ago it was in a receiver's hands.

The company's annual advertising appropriation is the largest of any electric railway in the United States. Newspaper space, car signs, company publications, billboards, motion pictures and other mediums are utilized.

"No matter how frequently trains may run," Budd says, "if they are made up of cars of obsolete type, unsightly in appearance and uncomfortable in riding qualities, they will not meet with popular favor. If the cars are good and the roadbed in bad condition the service will not satisfy the public. If employes are untidy in appearance, careless in the manner in which they perform their work, if they do a small favor for a passenger grudgingly and only when asked, the service is not satisfactory. If ticket agents are not ready to answer correctly and promptly any and all questions asked by the public relative to service, prospective customers will turn away disappointed and form a poor opinion of the company."

The prize was awarded by C. D. Emmons, former president American Electric Railway association, Baltimore, Md.; L. H. McGraw of the McGraw-Hill company, New York, and John G. Barry and A. H. Jackson of the General Electric company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Budd's road operates between North Chicago and Milwaukee and practically parallels one of the best railway lines in the Middle West.

RIOTING IN WARSAW LED BY SOCIALISTS HAS MANY CASUALTIES

By Associated Press.
 WARSAW, Nov. 7.—Twenty-three persons were killed and more than three score wounded in rioting and bomb throwing growing out of the strike of railway workers. The disorders occurred in spite of the agreement of socialists to call off the strike in return for the government's promise to withdraw the military from the railways.

The most serious rioting was at Cracow, where the crowd disarmed a company of infantry. The men were rescued by a cavalry charge in which 20 were killed. A bomb was exploded in Warsaw yesterday in the headquarters of the socialists, killing two men. A socialist leader was killed in another town during the course of a disturbance.

STRAWN GAME PROTEST TAKEN TO AUSTIN TODAY

Ranger high school will be represented at the meeting of the executive board of the Texas Interscholastic league at Austin at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The game was played with the understanding of the authorities of the two high schools that it would be considered as a practice game, regardless of the result.

As the game was played merely to give both teams a tryout, eligibility rules and other requirements of the league were ignored by both teams.

A statement from the school principal that one player was back in his studies was taken to Austin.

Strawn and Ranger are in different sections in the league.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 7.—If the necessary arrangements can be completed, Phil E. Fox, publicity chief for the Ku Klux Klan, will be placed on trial immediately for the murder of Capt. W. S. Coburn, attorney for the so-called insurgent faction in the Klan.

This announcement, coupled with the issuance of a peace warrant against Imperial Wizard Evans and several of his lieutenants, and efforts to obtain counsel for Fox constitute outstanding developments this morning.

BARNEY GOOGLE AND SPARK PLUG—

MONUMENT TO THE NATIONAL GAME SHOULD NOT LEAVE OFF NAME OF TYRUS COBB, SAYS HENRY FARRELL

By HENRY L. FARRELL, NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—As a matter of fairness, in addition to the motive of making it historically accurate, baseball heads should not start with the year 1922 in memorializing the outstanding heroes of baseball.

The American league is about to erect a monument to the national game in the national park at Washington. This monument will display prominently a tablet upon which is to be inscribed the star players of the league.

The first name on the monument will be that of George Sisler, the great first baseman of the St. Louis Browns, who was voted the most valuable player of the American league for the 1922 season.

Below the name of the Brown star will appear that of Babe Ruth, the great Yankee outfielder, who received the highest possible vote as 1923's most valuable player.

There is no reason why the names of those two great players should not appear on a monument which is designed to hand down to posterity the record and fame of the game's outstanding stars.

Sisler, beyond doubt, is, or has been, one of baseball's greatest players; and Ruth, if not the greatest of them all, surely has been the most spectacular.

However, there are reasons too obvious to mention and too numerous to recount, why the list should not start with the star of 1922.

If the United States government should decide to erect a national monument as a memorial to its great war leaders, it most certainly would not start with General Pershing. It would not head the list of foremost statesmen with the outstanding national figure of 1922.

The American league monument never will live up to the purpose for which it was designed if its table does not bear the name of Ty Cobb.

Memory of the record books are not necessary to recall the deeds of the great Cobb, whose record over a long stretch of years is the greatest in baseball.

Technically, the American league board of directors might feel that it has not the province to dig into the past and pull out dusty names for embellishment, but it does not have to go down deep in the archives for proof of Cobb's right to a ranking

Medical Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected New Tablet Called "Calotab."

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known by the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large, family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.—Advertisement.

COMMUNITY CHEST FOR EASTLAND TO BE DISCUSSED TONIGHT

Wednesday night, at 7:30 o'clock, at the American Legion Athletic club, there will be a joint meeting of all committees on the community chest proposal.

The Elks, Retail Merchants association, Rotary club, Lions and other organizations of Eastland have appointed representatives to attend the meeting and map out a plan of campaign for the community fund idea.

It is planned to combine all of the charitable activities of the city into one central bureau, to be administered by competent heads.

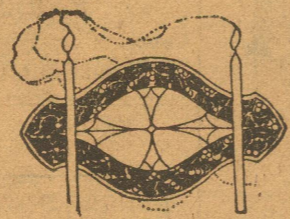

One intensive drive for funds will be made, carried on by teams, over a period of two or three days. In this manner it is desired that sufficient money be subscribed to take care of Eastland's charity for the year.

CISCO NO STRONGER THAN RANGER OFFENSIVELY, SEASON SCORES SHOW

Secret practice sessions will be the rule at the city athletic park all of this week in preparation for the hard game with Cisco Hi Saturday at Cisco.

As the Cisco game will make or bust the hopes of the Rampagers, the athletes are appreciative of the task ahead of them. The cry now is "on to Abilene," which is reminiscent of the cry of 1922.

Cisco gridders should be in top notch form as the Lobos were idle last Saturday, while the Rangerites were fighting a tough battle at Comanche. This means the Lobos have no injuries to nurse.

While the Lobos have piled up a bigger total of points than the Rampagers, supporters of the latter team point out that they have met more representative teams of this section than the former.

The only two hard games played by Cisco have been the ones with Breckenridge and Strawn. Ranger has met Comanche, Breckenridge, Strawn and Eastland in hard fought battles.

It is noticeable the Lobos have not been able to cross the goal line of Breckenridge or Strawn more than once in either game. Ranger was able to cross the line of both teams for a marker.

In the Strawn game, the first of the season for either team, the Palo Pinto boys had the advantage of an earlier start in training. In the Buckaroo game, the field was too heavy for any good running by the fast and elusive Zarafonitis brothers.

YOUNG SCHOOL P. T. A. PLANS PROGRESS

A new lunch room for the school children, the erection of speed signs on all four streets adjacent to the school grounds, and the raising of money for the state endowment fund of the Congress of Mothers, are some of the accomplishments reported at the meeting of the Young school parent-teachers association held Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Shipp, president in the chair. A short program from first grade children was given by Edna Louise Taylor, Betty Jean Burden and Joe Thornton, who gave songs and readings to the accompaniment of the Victrola. The club has raised $10 for the endowment fund, and has leased a building across the street from the school, which was formerly used as a store, and which will now be transformed into a lunch room for the children. A program pageant will be given during Thanksgiving week for the benefit of this association, and 200 children will take part who will be drilled by Mrs. Peters.

The membership campaign is progressing nicely. At present Miss Latham's room is in the lead. A picture will be presented to the room obtaining the largest number of members. The regular meeting days are the first and third Tuesdays in each month.

RANGER SHRINERS TO GIVE MERRY PARTY

Given an even break on the weather, entertainment night of the Ranger Mystic Shrine club Tuesday, Nov. 20, will be the most enjoyable social event of the season. This was the statement made today by Shriners who attended last night's meeting of the club at the Gholson hotel, when a decision to hold entertainment night was made.

Shriners will be privileged to invite their friends to the party, it was announced. Dancing will be on the lobby floor and the playing of cards on the mezzanine floor. The supper will be served in the hotel's banquet room. The club rooms of the Shriners will be thrown open.

The management of the Gholson hotel will employ decorations in the lobby and mezzanine floor in keeping with the spirit of the party. Howard Gholson, C. N. Ochiltree and W. J. Colegrove were made members of the Ranger Mystic Shrine club last night at the club's meeting at the Gholson hotel, where the club has rooms.

SUGGESTION AS TO HOW BRIDES MAY ENTERTAIN WITH LITTLE EFFORT

Instructions to brides by Helen Harrington Downing are given in the following article and recipes.

For her first entertaining the bride would do well to confine herself to an easier meal, say a Sunday evening supper. There is always something rather informal about this meal. As most people dine in the early afternoon hours on Sunday, supper may be served later than usual, and it may follow music or some entertainment suitable to the occasion.

- Individual Strawberry Shortcakes.

Make a dough as for standard biscuit, adding a heaping tablespoon of sugar to the baking powder and flour, if sweet shortcake is wanted. Bake in individual cake tins 15 to 20 minutes in moderate oven. Brush with melted fat. Crush the strawberries and add sugar enough to make juicy before spreading on top of shortcake. Whipped cream sweetened and flavored to taste served on top adds to its palatableness.

When fresh strawberries are not in the market, delicious canned or preserved strawberries may be used as substitutes.

Zanesville, Ohio, is much troubled by congested traffic in the heart of her business district and the traffic committee of the city council is giving the installation of a light signal system similar to that used along Fifth avenue, New York, serious consideration. By this system traffic is controlled by vari-colored electric lights which flash on and off from signal towers erected along the center of the street.

COURT REFUSES ORDER TO PREVENT ALLEGED EXPOSE OF THE KLAN

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The United States circuit court of appeals this week upheld the action of Federal Judge Winslow in denying the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., an injunction restraining the International Magazine company from publishing in Hearst's International an alleged exposure of the Klan in articles written by Norman Hapgood.

The knights sued in federal court in July to enjoin the magazine from continuing publication of the articles which it was claimed were based on records unlawfully taken from the offices of the Klan in Georgia. According to the complaint the papers were taken from the Klan office by a clerk who sold them through an intermediary to the magazine for $3,000. Return of the alleged stolen papers was asked. Judge Winslow denied application or the injunction after attorneys for the defense maintained the articles had been based on information obtained by the department of justice.

Physical Health means Beauty!

HEALTH and beauty go hand in hand. Where the system is run down—the face drawn and haggard—the body limp and lifeless—beauty is missing. Looks of pity supplant those that might have been gazes of admiration.

Restore your health and beauty will take care of herself. S. S. S.—the rich blood builder—rekindles the spark of health and lights the blaze of beauty by building red blood cells. The nerve power of your system finds life in these very blood cells. Build more red blood cells and your nerve power will increase. S. S. S. builds them. Rich blood will tingle through your system. That lost charm will return. Your entire system will be repaired. You will be ready to cope with the impurities and blemishes that handicap beauty.

As physical health means beauty so, too, does S. S. S. mean beauty. For S. S. S. means systems that are free from impurities—pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema, rheumatism. S. S. S. and good health go hand in hand.

S. S. S. is made of pure vegetable ingredients. It is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is more economical.

Muscle and Control Make Every Goal

ENERGY, strong muscles and steady nerves not only win the goals in football but all the other goals in life. And children have an excellent start toward making these goals when the foods they are served contain the elements which build and store up bodily energy and strong health.

The food element, Dextrose, which your doctor can tell you gives vigor and stamina to blood cells and tissue, is of utmost importance to growing children. And because Karo—either Blue Label or Red Label—contains such a large percentage of Dextrose, it is a most valuable food for them. They like the delicious tempting flavor, too.
