BOOSTING THE CHICKEN FARM TO HIGH PLANE

Better Poultry Campaign Getting Under Way in Eastland County.

The better poultry campaign being sponsored in Eastland county by the Texas Baby Chick association in connection with the extension department of the A. & M. college, which got under way Nov. 1, is progressing nicely, according to County Agent E. H. Bush, who is one of the chief workers in Eastland county for the campaign.

From one to four farms in the county are to be selected as demonstration farms for the campaign, and while none has been designated, several, including F. M. Spurlin of Eastland, George W. Briggs of Eastland, Dudley Bros. of Ranger, Frazier Poultry farm of Cisco and Jack Spear of Carbon, have made application to have their places designated as demonstration farms. These designations will be made by Mr. Glazner of A. & M. college, and Mr. Bush states that it is likely that all of these four applicants will be named.

Rules For Farms.
In selecting birds for the demonstration farms the rules laid down by the Texas Baby Chick association at their recent meeting held in Arlington will be used with the following additional rules:

All birds passed by the inspector must be banded with state sealed and numbered leg bands at the time of inspection. Only one variety shall be kept on the farm unless ample provisions have been made to keep these varieties and their eggs separate. Birds rejected by the inspector shall have their tails clipped. No bird, except those with state sealed and numbered leg bands shall be allowed in the breeding flock, and no male birds shall be allowed in any other flocks aside from the breeding flocks that may be kept on the farm. In the selection of male birds, special attention shall be given to the constitutional vigor. Whenever possible, male birds from an accredited flock of known high production shall be used.

Culling of Flocks.
Flocks shall be accredited and shall be vigorously and thoroughly culled for egg production at least once each year, and shall be mated to pedigree males, through dams laying 200 or more eggs in one year. The eggs produced by such flocks shall average 24 ounces to the dozen after Feb. 1 in the case of pullet flocks, and at all times of the year in case of yearlings or older hens. The eggs shall be reasonably uniform in size, shape and color.

When the flocks shall have finished one year's laying, they may become certified flocks, provided they shall have a record of 200 eggs or over, in the case of pullets, and 170 eggs or over in the case of hens, as determined by trap nest records of the home flocks, conducted under the supervision of the extension service of the A. & M. college.

Personal visits shall be made for the purpose of giving instructions both to the demonstrator and other interested people in the community or county, in feeding for egg production, correct housing, flock management, proper care of young stock, breeding, sanitation and marketing.

COLONEL MITCHELL WILL TESTIFY ON OWN BEHALF

Road Building Plant Moved Adjacent To Pleasant Grove Road

The Alex Construction company of Eastland, which has the contract for re-topping the Bankhead highway between Ranger and Straw, and also the repairing and re-topping of the Pleasant Grove road between Ranger and the Stephens-Eastland county line, has shut down its plant which was in operation east of Ranger and is moving the machinery to the Pleasant Grove road. The controversy over the site of the highway commission contract with the Hoffman Construction Company for road building caused the work on the Bankhead highway to be discontinued.

ROTARIANS OF THREE CITIES HAVE SESSION

Eastland and Cisco Guests of Ranger at Delightful Inter-City Meet.

"You have some big dam lobos. Whom our bull dogs almost made their hoboes. But everybody here knows Where the championship next year goes!"

So sang Raymond Teal, the Will Rogers of Rotary, old time vaudeville actor in his and Gus Coleman's premier act before something more than two hundred Rotarians, Anns and good fellows at the inter-city meet of Eastland county's three Rotary clubs in the Gholson hotel Wednesday night. The group was about equally divided between Eastland, Cisco and Ranger.

The composition was his own, as were other stanzas wherein he roasted "Baldy," as President John Thurman of Ranger, master of ceremonies was styled; Mayor Williamson, of the big dam city, Cisco, whom he represented as building a good dam, and "Good Eggs" Buchanan, former president of the Ranger Rotary club who "owns a lot of houses, and hasn't any dogs and cats but has a lot of mooses."

Gus Coleman did his stuff in like humorous vein. In similar gridiron club style, the entire affair was carried off, beginning with the distribution of identification tags, tall hats for men and flat hats for women, by Secretary W. W. Housewright. These were worn throughout the evening, giving the appearance of a colonial gathering on the male side and a serving of pancakes on the side of the ladies who shone notwithstanding their grotesque head gear.

The affair went over with a bang. A sing song was led by Gifford Legge and Gus Coleman, and his Rhythm squad furnished music. Representative Hagaman presented "apologies," "Gasoline Gus" of jitney bus fame, read a technical paper on "The Atomic Osmosis" of Tergevister and Forrest D. Wright former president of the Cisco club was the program for the feature address of the evening.

Act III as announced on the program read:
"Dance on main floor, bridge on the mezzanine, tiddle-de-winks in the hall, crap game in the alley." All but the alley portion came off essentially as scheduled, although the mood of the assembly did not run much to so quiet a game as bridge.

The menu was appetizing and was served in courses. Marshall McCullough, Eastland attorney, gave the invocation and, later, made a snappy three-minute speech on "Saving America through the American Women Putting Service Over Self," and "Staying home and raising children instead of running off to be governors and the like." Mrs. Ben McClinton of Cisco gave some charming vocal numbers, including "Birds of the Morning." Superintendent J. H. Morgan of the Cisco public schools, who introduced himself as "Honk Irvin's little boy," stressed continuous education begun in school and on other spheres. Teal's composition, "Don't be a stranger down in Ranger Town," sung on prior occasions in Ranger Town, was justly sung by the entire assembly who also sang "America," facing the flag.

Ed Haber of the Ranger club named Colonel R. Q. Lee, as his alibi and the Colonel declined to make his speech which he announced was an hour long at best, but the assembly felt good over his happy remarks none the less.

These were the high lights of what is said to have been one of the best, most successful and most enjoyable inter-city meetings ever held by Eastland county Rotarians and Rotary Anns.
President H. P. Brelsford of the Eastland club was unable to attend. Sec. McCullough represented him. President E. F. Crawford and Secretary J. P. Flynn of the Cisco club were both in attendance.

ELECTRA WAGONER GILMORE ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Electra Gilmore, sister of Guy Wagoner, oil and ranch millionaire, is slightly improved. The bulletin issued this morning said she had spent a restful night and there was a good chance for her recovery.

World Is Unfair To Girls Seeking Career, Says Noted Woman Judge

JUDGE FLORENCE ALLEN
By NEA Service.
Cleveland, Nov. 19.—Why should a family take precedence over a career in a woman's life, when a man is allowed to devote himself to his work without leaving as much as a scrap of time for his children?

No Set Rule.
"I don't feel that you can give any sweeping answer to that question," she began. "It's the sort of thing that can't be settled by one set rule. Each individual woman must decide. 'But I'll say this; men have a responsibility to their homes and children just the same as women have, though it is not always recognized. A father who devotes all of his time to his business and spends none with his children is being unfair to them. It is the father's duty to be a real father to his children and not a mere provider."

"The world is rather more liberal than it used to be in regard to women who seek careers, although it could well be even more liberal."

Duty to Children.
"There is one thing to be remembered: If a woman who is striving for a career neglects her children her first duty thereafter is to the children. One has a responsibility toward the new lives one brings into the world that is more important than anything else."

"I don't mean that a mother can't have a career. If she has the ability to give her children the care and love they need and still can devote herself to her work successfully, that's different. And I know of cases where it has been done."

"But you see it isn't a matter you can lay down rules about. It's for the individual to decide."

Judge Allen is probably as outstanding an example of the woman who decides on the career she would like and then goes ahead and gets it as the country affords. And in the getting of it she has had as much glory as any woman could ask.

Success in Law.
She began her career as an attorney in Cleveland—one of the first of her sex here to practice at law. Then, some seven or eight years ago, she became an associate on the county prosecutor's staff.

From this point her rise was fast. She was elected to the common pleas bench in 1920 by a tremendous majority, and two years later was elected to the supreme court by another wide margin. Her next "promotion" may be the United States senate.

Storm Off Florida Coast Subsides and Vessels Enter Harbor

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 19.—Hurricane winds and mountain seas off the coast here subsided today, enabling the ships anchored outside since Tuesday to come into the harbor. The Berkshire, with 206 passengers from Philadelphia, was the first in, following the George Washington with 265 passengers from New York.

"It was one of the roughest voyages of my entire marine career," Capt. Charles Jones of the Berkshire said, as he brought his ship into port and tied up safely. "Two days out from Philadelphia we ran into a hurricane blowing 70 miles an hour and we had to slow down to three knots an hour."

CISCO MAN SEES HIS DEAD BROTHER ON SCREEN

CISCO, Nov. 19.—Seeing and recognizing one's dead brother in a movie picture is rather an unusual experience, but just what happened to Legionnaire B. V. Frost, member of the John William Butts Post, American Legion, Cisco, upon seeing the picture, "Fighting in France," being shown at a local theatre under the auspices of the local legion post. While living over again those tragic days of fighting in France, and when the American doughboys were flashed on the screen as the 128th infantry of the 32nd division here in action, Mr. Frost last night recognized his younger brother, Private Fred Frost, who was later killed in action while fighting with the American forces in the battle of the Meuse-Argonne forest, August 1, 1918. Mr. Frost stated that his brother enlisted for overseas service in July, 1917, and was assigned to the 128th infantry, 32nd division, and he was killed shortly after this realistic war picture was made.

CAPT. PAUL FOLEY TO KNOW HIS FATE TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The Shenandoah court of inquiry today completed its inquiry into the charges by Mrs. Margaret Lansdowne against Capt. Paul Foley and took the case under advisement. A decision is to be handed down tomorrow morning. The court refused to grant a motion to exonerate Foley at once, made by his counsel on the ground that no evidence of guilt or alleged twisting of facts had been presented.

IMPROMPTU AUTO RACE ENDS IN THREE DEATHS

EAST ISLIP, L. I., Nov. 19.—Death of three men today ended an impromptu auto race. Two autos in which the men were engaged in a "bush" crashed simultaneously into the side of a moving passenger train.

Service Ranks High in Code of the Lions

The code of ethics of Lionism, the service idea, the fact that it is the civic and business institutions which give out service, rather than those which eternally seek self aggrandizement, which really succeed, the importance of forging success out of trying to outdo a competitor in service rather than to destroy him, the importance of observing the Lions' slogan for this year which is "Child Welfare," were among the things stressed by Judge N. N. Rosenquest, one of the four assistant deputies of District Governor Cravens of Austin, in his address to the Lions of Ranger at their noonday luncheon Thursday.

Thirty-three Lions and a few visitors heard the address. It was the first of a series of addresses Judge Rosenquest will deliver in his itinerary covering all clubs in the western portion of the state, it was announced.

Music Is Enjoyed.
Prior to the address, the club enjoyed some fine music by Mrs. R. W. LaPralle, Mrs. Charles G. Norton, Miss Evelyn Long and Miss Belya Dixon. Mrs. LaPralle, accompanied by Mrs. Norton, sang "Oh, For the Wings of a Swallow," and as an encore sang "Answer." Miss Long played a violin selection accompanied by Miss Dixon which won applause.

Secretary Ringold of the Ranger Building and Loan association reported marked progress of the building and loan movement set on foot by the Lions a short time ago, saying he had never yet seen anything started in the city which had met with such general approval.

Lions Owen of Eastland and Harris of Fort Worth brought greetings to the club from their respective clubs.

Lion Rosenquest, in his address, paid a high tribute to the Eastland and Ranger clubs, the former for its playgrounds and tourist park achievements, and the latter for its commendable work in stabilizing property values through a building and loan association. He gave some interesting facts regarding the history and origin of Lionism, which he declared is of Texas birth, San Antonio and Abilene contesting the claim of having been first to organize. He said San Antonio has one of the largest clubs in the United States but that the Little Rock, Ark., club has now passed it in point of membership, having the largest membership in the nation. However, he said pointedly:

"A good Lions' club is not necessarily a big club. A small club that does things is superior to a large club that fails to give out service—put out something for the benefit of humanity. The world is not crying so much for dollars and cents as for human sympathy."

The speaker called attention to the empty pews in churches which do not take up the work of rendering service to humanity as compared with those which do. He gave the total membership in all Lions' clubs at this time more than 40,000 with 850 clubs functioning, three of which are in Eastland county.

TEXARKANA MAN KILLED BY WIFE IN SELF DEFENSE

TEXARKANA, Nov. 19.—Henry Wilmoth, Kansas City Southern special agent and former policeman on the Texas side, was shot and killed at 3 a. m. today at the family home. Mrs. Wilmoth told the police she did the shooting, acting in self defense.

"RED" GRANGE TO PLAY WITH ILLINOIS TOMORROW

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 19.—"Red" Grange will be at his regular place on the Illinois team when it meets Ohio state, Saturday, even though it is established he has already signed a contract to play professional football, it was said today.

THIRD MAN HELD IN KRUM BANK ROBBERY EXONERATED

DENTON, Nov. 19.—Efforts to implicate Ned Stiff, former foreman of the Yancey Store ranch, in the daylight robbery of the Krum bank, on June 9, were abandoned today when County Attorney Elbert Hooper filed a motion in the Sixteenth district court dismissing the charges against Stiff in connection with the holdup. The charges included robbery with firearms and three charges of unlawful assault.

LITTLE GIRL BRUISED BY FALL FROM AUTO

Lois Brage, aged 4, fell from a car driven by T. Massey, Wednesday afternoon, as the car rounded a turn in the Bankhead highway in Ranger, when the car door swung open. She was badly bruised but sustained no serious injuries.

Eastland and Ranger Movie Theatres Now In Syndicate Chain

Final consummation of a deal by which the firm of Dent & Muslemann, Inc., of Dallas, composed of Louis L. Dent and C. J. Muslemann, has purchased a number of Texas theatres, has just been announced at the firm's headquarters.

Included in the number of shows purchased were four in El Paso, four in Wichita Falls, three in Amarillo, three in Paris, three in Tyler, two in Abilene, four in Breckenridge, three in Ranger, two in Eastland, and two in Denton, some of which were not in operation.

The purchase price approximated $1,000,000, it is stated.

DEEPER POOL MAY BE FOUND NEAR CARBON

Well To Be Drilled On Allison Farm Near Woods' Shallow Well.

The Hallmark Oil Company, it is stated, will begin drilling in the immediate future on the W. I. Allison farm in the Bear Springs community, about eight or nine miles southeast of Eastland and adjoining the Mrs. M. J. Collins tract, on which C. D. Woods et al recently brought in a producer at a depth of 880 feet.

Operators drilling in the vicinity of the Wood Collins No. 1, which is about four and one-half miles east of Carbon, believe that a profitable shallow pool will be developed in that section and with this in view are planning to drill a number of wells, of which the Allison well doubtless be the first.

The M. J. Collins well is being drilled deeper in hopes of finding a deeper and better pay, but in case this is not found, the shallow gas and oil found at 860 and 880 feet will be a paying proposition.

W. I. Allison, on whose place the Hallmark Oil Company will drill, lives in Eastland.

"Red" Grange Has Big Money Offer In Professional Football

CLEVELAND, Nov. 19.—In a copyrighted story the Cleveland Press said today:

"Red" Grange, the galloping ghost of the Gridiron, will tell the world what he plans to do Saturday, after the last play is clocked in the annual game between Ohio State and Illinois at Columbus.

Grange will announce formally he has signed a contract to play professional football with the Chicago Bears for the remainder of the year for a bonus of $20,000 for signing and a 10 per cent split of all gate receipts and a flat guarantee for each game, it is claimed.

"My information is that Grange came to this agreement with the manager of the Chicago professional football club four days ago," said Joe Williams, sports editor of the Press, who signed the story.

Forecast of Speech By President Sends Rail Stocks Higher

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—George Hales, manager of the Chicago Bears, denied this afternoon he had a contract with "Red" Grange to play professional football with the Bears. "I have no contract with Grange," he said, "but I am extremely hopeful that he will play with the Bears on Thanksgiving day. I will talk tomorrow with him after the game tomorrow."

Terrific Cyclone In India Claims Toll

BOMBAY, India, Nov. 19.—A terrific cyclone has swept South India and 800 persons are reported killed with more than 10,000 pounds sterling property loss.

The cyclone is said to have been the most severe in the history of India. Many ships were wrecked and survivors are suffering. The Mellabar coast south of Bombay is reported heavily damaged.

OAKLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT HAS NEW BUILDING

Fifty-One Students Enrolled There May Pursue Studies Through Eleventh Grade.

The Oakley school district, about six miles north of Ranger and only a short distance from the Barney Cartor oil pool, has completed a new schoolhouse, which is to be occupied Monday. The old school building has been sold and will be moved away.

The trustees of the Oakley school district, J. H. Webb, R. A. Barker and George Miller, are to go to Breckenridge tomorrow to turn in their report to the county school superintendent.

All patrons of the school and the pupils, too, have been asked to meet at the school Saturday morning and spend as much of the day as they can moving the school furniture into the new building and clearing all debris from the grounds. A box supper is announced for Friday night of next week to raise money with which to buy schoolground equipment. An entertaining program is being arranged.

FRENCH TOWN'S MAIL COMES VIA NEW YORK

PARIS, Nov. 19.—The good folk of Eu, a quiet town on the Channel coast of France, have grown into the custom of having their mail delivered to them via New York.

The French equivalent for United States is "Etats Unis," and in addressing their letters, many French people mark the envelope "E. U." Careless mail clerks toss all envelopes so marked into the bags destined to be carried to New York.

So the Euians have addressed a strong letter of protest to the French Post Office realizing that letters intended for them are but a cooshell in the tide of mail addressed to the United States, but urging that something be done to emphasize the dots and thus distinguish "E. U." from "Eu."

On the night of Oct. 17 two small bands of brigands made their way into the city and began looting. Some of the soldiers were attacked and shot at.

There have been altogether too many of these incidents in various parts of the world since the horrible experiences of the Boers in the Transvaal, and contributes to the fear, jealousies and hatreds that exist between nations.

CONSTRUCTION RECORDS GAIN IN THE SOUTH Houston, Texas, and Miami, Florida, Exceed All Previous Month Totals.

ATLANTA Ga., Nov. 19.—New construction records in Southern cities continue to be recorded. During the month of October, both Miami, Fla., and Houston, Texas, exceeded all previous totals for building permits recorded during a single month.

Florida cities were again leaders in gains, being almost 6 times greater last month than the corresponding month of 1924. Texas also stepped forward to new construction heights.

DAN HORN, Nov. 19.—Miss Ruth Ramey, Eastland county home demonstration agent, was in the Dan Horn community Tuesday, but there was no meeting of the girls' club on account of the fact that so many of the members are busy picking cotton in an effort to get it all picked in time to enter school, which opens next Monday, Nov. 23.

Sammie Hull had the misfortune of getting an arm broken while cranking his car last Saturday. Miss Estel Starn had the following as dinner guests last Sunday: Miss Frances Lasater, Misses Charlie, Ben, Sybil and Margarette Parks, Miss Alene Pass and Miss Melba Ruth Bailey.

Mrs. Zuma Whitehead and son, Jack, were recent guests of Miss Elizabeth McMullen. Mrs. Etta Parks spent Sunday in the J. D. Speegle home.

Mrs. J. G. Heslop gave a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. Heslop's sixty-fourth birthday. A number of friends were invited.

Mrs. Hattie Sawyers and children of Scranton were Sunday guests of Mrs. Carrie Hull.

Pat McCulloch of Ira, Texas, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McCulloch.

Miss Willie Weed had as her guests Sunday, Misses Vera Harris, Chloe Speegle and Lillie Tarver.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bailey and children of Scranton visited in the G. L. Bailey home and attended church here Sunday afternoon.

Miss Bertha Livingston went to Sabanno Sunday where she will teach school this term.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Avery were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Speegle.

Mrs. Moll Abbott and daughter, Irene, spent Sunday in the Rev. John Moore home.

THE NEWSPAPER REPORTER

The newspaper reporter strikes the highest note of happiness and excitement in the human scale. I have yet to find a reporter who willingly left his job for one more lucrative in another line. Yet they all do.

For the truth is, the skilled reporter is worth more than the profession pays him and he soon finds it out and goes to other fields. He quits romance for dollars with regret.

The job of reporting is romantic for the simple reason that it daily twangs all the chords of emotion. A click of the telegraph key may send a reporter up to the ganjplank on the first lap of a journey to remote Kamechatka. A simple police blotter entry may give him first scent of a murder that will rock the nation.

The reporter is angling daily in the vast reservoir of potential thrills. He deals with the stuff that is "stranger than fiction."

The real reporter is a strange animal. In appearance he is often shiftless and cynical. In unimportant matters he is at times unreliable. He is given to romancing with his fellows. His manner of living does not always click with conventions.

Yet when the test comes—when the big story breaks—he galvanizes instantly into the most dynamic and efficient of human beings. His poses and artificialities are gone. He quivers for the chase. He is a news-hound.—O. O. McIntyre, in Hearst's International-Cosmopolitan.

Eighty-eighth District Court Orders—Alice Starns vs. George J. Starns, divorce, judgment for plaintiff upon payment of costs; Ivan Austin et al. vs. M. A. Katz et al., order setting aside a former judgment of this court in the case; H. C. Steele et al. vs. American Glycerine company, order to dismiss at plaintiff's cost; exparte John W. Webb et al., application to change name granted.

Ninety-first District Court Orders—Mrs. A. J. Henry vs. A. J. Henry, divorce, decree granted to plaintiff and maiden name of Lena Rivers Elrod restored; First National bank of Gorman vs. F. D. Knight, J. Frank Sparg appointed as guardian ad litem to represent the defendant.

Gives Advice to Expectant Mothers

"I ADVISE all expectant mothers to use Mother's Friend." Writes Mrs. Wesley Miller, Hudson, Mich. "I have had nine children. With my first three I suffered for 24 hours. Beginning with the fourth I used Mother's Friend and was sick only 15 minutes. Since then I have had five and was only sick about 10 minutes with each."

Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician and has been a positive blessing to thousands of expectant mothers for over three generations. Plain oils only penetrate the skin. But the highly refined oils and other ingredients in Mother's Friend make it penetrate through the skin to the muscles and ligaments, making them soft and pliable, thus aiding the tissues to relax and adjust themselves to the changes during motherhood.

The mothers who praise Mother's Friend the most are those who did not use it with their first baby but through its use with the second, were able to realize its almost unbelievable results.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradford Regulator Co., Dept. 34, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all druggists—everywhere.

Wife of Hammer Victim

Mrs. Priscilla Clark whose husband, William J. Clark, was brutally murdered by a hammer slayer at Hillside, N. J. Joseph Cowen, alleged by the police to have been in love with Mrs. Clark is being held. Allegations that an elopement was planned have been made and Mrs. Clark has been closely questioned and consistently has maintained her innocence of any knowledge of the circumstances or Cowen's purported motives.

TAKES THE PLACE OF "DRASTIC" CALOMEL FOR COLDS & FLU

"Pepsin-ated" calomel acts better—clears up colds quicker—and kills flu germs

Nasty clinging colds and dangerous flu germs quickly lead to lung infection. Clear up these troubles immediately, but never do it with old style "raw" calomel. It is too drastic on your system. There is a newer and more improved kind that is especially made for colds, grippe and flu. It does not tear through your system like a streak of lightning. It acts mild and gently, for it is combined with pepsin, which makes it work slow and more effectively. This new pepsin and calomel combination is known as "Pepsin-ated" Calomel. It has all the beneficial cold, grippe and flu germ-inactivating effects of the old style "raw" calomel—but the drastic and unpleasant effects have been entirely neutralized with pep-

When it's Thanksgiving—and the teams are drawn up for battle on the gridiron—when the first touchdown goes over and the grandstands rock with frenzy—have a Camel!

WHEN the college bands are playing to make your blood tingle. And the cheers and answering songs sweep back and forth between the opposing thousands of rooters. When, following that tense hush, a swift player darts out from the flashing formations on the gridiron and races across the goal for the first touchdown—oh, man, or superman, when the taste of joy is too keen to endure—have a Camel!

For Camel is the boon companion of your joys. Roam as far as you will from the prosaic things of every day, Camel will be the truest smoke friend you ever had. Not a tired taste, not a cigarette after-taste, not a regret in a million Camels! Just full and fragrant smoke contentment, just added zest in living.

So when your own college's team tears through for its first smashing goal this Thanksgiving Day—when life seems fullest of the frenzy of happiness—joyfully apply the fire and taste the smoke that's loved by millions.

Have a Camel!

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

Mavericks Keeping Fit To Play Eagles of Abilene Friday

The Mavericks have been given some workouts recently to keep them in condition for the game with the Abilene Eagles to be played at Gonnellee park in Eastland, Friday afternoon.

While there is not the enthusiasm and interest in this game as there was displayed in games with Ranger and Cisco, nevertheless, a good attendance and a good game is expected.

It is stated that Abilene fans are chartering a special train to run from that city to Eastland on the occasion of the game.

Coach Adams of the Mavericks stated that his lineup for the game would, in all probability, be as follows:

HARVARD FOOTBALL TEAM OUSTED FROM THEATRE

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—Harvard football team was held from, thrown for a loss and penalized when it attempted to stage a show at the Tremont Theatre last night. Led by Capt. Dolph and Manager Osborn the varsity squad and several substitutes appealed to the police after they had been ejected without force from the lobby by a policeman, who accused them of being intoxicated. Police Lieutenant Dobbins decided neither the captain or manager had had a drink.

HOUSEHOLD MARKETING NOW DONE BY WEIGHT

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Not very long ago, when the head of the household took her basket to market Saturday afternoon she bought her vegetables and fruits for the Sunday dinner by the pint, stalk, quart, dozen peck, half dozen, bushel, and handful. Not so today. It's six ounces of grapes, four pounds of potatoes, 12 ounces of kale, a half pound of shell-peas, and a 10 pound pumpkin that go into the market basket.

So widespread and rapidly has become the use of the scale, according to the Department of Agriculture, that the farmer has not been able completely to master the change, resulting in a loss to himself. For this reason the Department is preparing a series of articles, especially for the farmer, which will consist of lessons in the use of scales.

In explaining the need for such information by the farmer the Department reminds one that while the farmer keeps a pretty close check on his pocketbook he is often loose with his weights. Sometimes he does not even use weights—for example, when he sells cattle by the head instead of by the pound.

GOING OUT TONIGHT WITH THAT PIMPLE SHOWING

The boy or girl who has nothing to worry them about the way they look are so much more noticeable when compared to the shrinking and back-sliding of the ones who are afraid to mingle in the fun because they know how unattractive they must look on account of their pimply, blotchy or rough, eczemic skin.

Their one friend is Black and White Ointment, if they will just use it faithfully, because it will get rid of all those ugly bumps and make their skin soft, smooth and lovely. Then, to keep it that way, be sure to use Black and White Soap when you wash. They are both economically priced in liberal packages. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and the Soap.—Adv.

To add the last touch to a delicious salad . . .

SEASON your salads with a mayonnaise made with Mrs. Tucker's Shortening.

Just melt two cupsful of Mrs. Tucker's and pour into lightly beaten egg. Add half a teaspoonful of mustard, a teaspoonful of lemon juice and vinegar, some salt and a pinch of paprika or cayenne pepper. Inexpensive, easy, this makes a delicious dressing.

This is but one of the countless uses for which Mrs. Tucker's is incomparable. A pure vegetable shortening, it imparts a delicious creaminess to all cooking and baking. It has all the richness of butter and none of the heavy greasiness of lard. And it goes further than ordinary shortening.

Get a pail of Mrs. Tucker's from your grocer today. It is made exclusively of choice cottonseed-oil. You can be absolutely certain that it will be absolutely sweet and fresh. The air-tight feature of the new pail makes sure of that. Interstate Cotton Oil Refining Company, Sherman, Texas.

GRID BREAKS

THE breaks of the game mean more in modern football than in the old days of the line crushing game.

In football, the blocking of a kick, the intercepting of a forward pass, the recovery of a fumble are classed as breaks of the game.

When a team wins through the medium of any of the above so-called breaks, it is usually regarded as having been very lucky. I am inclined to disagree with that viewpoint.

The blocking of a kick calls for agility in the line. The intercepting of a pass or the recovery of a fumble means that the fortunate player has followed the ball instead of being lucky, the team doing the above mentioned things, make the breaks.

Dartmouth beat Brown by two touchdowns. Sage of Dartmouth by blocking two vital kicks, put his team in line for both scores. An intercepted forward pass by Sayles of Harvard made it possible for the Crimson to defeat William and Mary.

Every Saturday the breaks decide a majority of the important games, but the breaks are not always mere luck; rather they are the result of good football.

MANY UPSETS

FOOTBALL east, west, south and north had its upsets on Saturday, Oct. 31. It's the unusual when the weekend games fail to produce something out of the ordinary.

However, it is doubtful if any of the eastern or western reversals of form compared to that of the south when Tennessee defeated Georgia.

Vanderbilt beat Tennessee 24-7, an easy victory. Georgia came along and soundly trounced Vanderbilt, 26-7. Comparative scores, which after all mean nothing in football, made Georgia 46 points better than Tennessee.

When the two met, Tennessee provided the south its biggest upset of the year by winning from Georgia 12-7.

Past performances apparently have no meaning in trying to dope the winners. Poor weather conditions and soggy playing fields have caused havoc with the general play.

Romantic Beauty of Old Spain Set Down in Glittering Gotham

HERE is a saying that all the world, at some time or other, comes to Broadway. This may not be literally true, but certain it is that this great American thoroughfare is one of the most cosmopolitan in the world. The whole world knows Broadway and Broadway has a rather intimate acquaintance even with some of the world's farthest corners.

When the New Coral Gables building, just off Broadway on Forty-second street, was completed, New York was frankly puzzled for a brief period. There was something strangely foreign and yet vaguely familiar about the thing. Then the light of understanding began to creep over this greatest of American cities and Gotham awoke to a realization that she had been elected permanent hostess to a particularly charming guest from ancient and sunny Spain.

Spain Comes to Broadway For that is the architectural motif of the structure that is now the Coral Gables building. Originally and for many years it was known to New Yorkers as the Rand building. There was nothing particularly outstanding about it. It was just one of the typical New York buildings of that particular section of the city.

When it was taken over to house the offices of the New York representatives of the remarkable new Florida city, H. George Fink, the architect who has been responsible for much of the typical Mediterranean architectural beauty of Coral Gables, went to New York with his plans and took charge of the work of remodeling the old conventional front. He wanted to create something that would be unique in New York and at the same time typically representative of the spirit of Coral Gables. He was audacious enough to attempt the task of introducing a touch of the true Spanish architecture into the heart of New York. The illustration above testifies to the fact that he accomplished it.

The view from the street presents a typical Spanish facade with three entrance arches entering upon an inner patio constructed around what was the conventional lobby of the old office building. Overlooking this patio, on the interior, is a particularly attractive flower-hung balcony and from this balcony the view of the patio, with its reproduction of an old Spanish well, its stone benches and its old wrought iron doors is delightfully quaint. The reception hall and inner offices are also finished in this typical Spanish design.

An Old World Jewel

Set down in the midst of the modern theatre district of New York, the Broadway and Forty-second street section, this quaint touch of old Spain has attracted considerable attention. As one views it from the front approach, one might expect to catch the notes of a Spanish guitar and the lilt of a clear tenor love song. The roar and rumble and glitter of the greatest of New World cities hem it in on every side. Sometimes one gets the impression that this hubbub of modern noises and this glare of modern lights will close in gradually until they throttle and kill this strange newcomer. And one is just a trifle surprised as time goes on to find that this old Spanish jewel continues to send forth its quiet, Old World glow in such a strange and unaccustomed setting.

For a great many years there has been a saying that one could find anything one might desire somewhere in New York. Until this Coral Gables building appeared, however, there was nothing like it anywhere in Manhattan.

SIX-FOOT LINE WILL BE SEEN IN GAME FRIDAY

Next Year's Ranger Team Will Meet Gorman's First String.

Ranger fans will be given an opportunity to see next year's Ranger players perform at Nitro park, Ranger, at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon. The game will be at popular prices, not because it would not draw heavily at any price, it is said, but because the school athletic association can afford it and it is desired to popularize this first showing of next year's timber in which, it is revealed, there will be a line, six out of seven of whom are each six feet tall or more. This, and the fact that Buster Mills, who is known to have been shaving close on his senior year studies and can only finish by extra strenuous work this year, is now believed to be a 1926 prospect for the Ranger team and will, for that reason, be in the line-up Friday, is attracting unusual attention to that game with the snappy Gorman team.

QUEEN MOTHER ALEXANDRIA REPORTED CRITICALLY ILL

By United Press. LONDON, Nov. 19.—Queen mother Alexandria suffered a severe heart attack today and is in a critical condition, the United Press learned this afternoon. The attack occurred at 5 o'clock this morning. A bulletin issued this evening said "her majesty Queen Alexandria, who has been in failing health, suffered a severe heart attack this morning and her condition is critical."

The queen mother's eighty-first birthday falls on Dec. 1. She has always been popular in England, where she was immortalized by Tennyson as the "sea king's daughter from over the sea."

SAN BENITO CITIZENS PROJECTING NEW HOTEL

SAN BENITO, Nov. 19.—Determined that San Benito shall have a new hotel, a committee of local citizens have made an investigation of its possibilities, consulted and received favorable advice from a firm of hotel experts, and decided definitely to build a hotel with local capital that will be one of the finest in the Rio Grande Valley.

Since no one has shown the initiative to erect a suitable hotel to meet the growth of the city and community citizens took the only alternative and decided to build it themselves. Plans call for a building to cost $225,000 with furnishings, that will be modern in every respect. Local capital to finance the building company is being pledged.

GILMER.—The annual picnic of the East Texas Public Service Company will be held here November 21.

HOLLIDAY.—The electric transmission line between here and Archer City is expected to be completed in a short time.

A break in the smoke stack recently put the electric generating equipment of the Singer Building, one of the famous structures in New York's financial district, out of action. This occurred at five o'clock of a Sunday afternoon but by nine the next morning the necessary temporary connections had been made and electricity from a service company was available for illumination and to run the electrically operated elevators.

CATTY Mrs. Leonard: Mrs. Harker is thirty-three, but you couldn't tell it. Mrs. Lennox: Nevertheless, I will from a service company was available.—Good Hardware.

SILVER FOX FARM DECEIVES THE PUBLIC

By United Press. PARIS, Nov. 19.—Georges Legrand, a shrewd confidence man known to two generations of Paris police, was recently arrested after he had floated his latest scheme to make the public rich, a silver fox farm which was to be run on a perpetual motion plan.

Two silver foxes were to be purchased and when they grew fat were to be striped of their skins and fed to their progeny. These would eventually suffer the same fate and thus the farm would show nothing but a profit of skins.

But the police stepped in before the two foxes were purchased. The next day Legrand's office was flooded with letters bidding for shares in his company. One day's mail brought in checks for 100,000 francs.

In Chicago they are now using a new type of electric street car. It is made up of a trolley car and a trailer and between the two there is a curved-sided vestibule. This provides the utmost in safety for the passengers and at the same time gives great flexibility in rounding curves. Because of the number of passengers the car can carry other cities are planning to use them to relieve traffic congestions.

"Magic Casements" Beautify the Home

BY AGNES PORTER
"Charm'd magic casements, opening on the foam
Of perilous seas, in fairy lands for-torn."

BY MANY, those two lines of Keat's are considered the most beautiful in all English verse. However that may be, there is no doubt about the appropriateness of the use of the adjective "magic"; for casements—all windows—are capable of performing a sort of sorcery in adding to the beauty of the home and the pleasure of those who dwell within it.

Just as the eyes of a human being, if they are clear and wide open, give you a pleasant impression of the person, so the windows of a house, if they are well glazed, well designed, well placed, and well curtained, give you a pleasant impression of the house. For this reason the woman who is proud of her home will devote as much thought to the windows and their curtaining as to any of the other details which naturally fall within her province.

Plate Glass Fills Bill
Every window of the ordinary type has four main functions. It must admit the light of the sun. It must be capable of admitting its proportional amount of ventilation. It must offer a clear and unobstructed view. It must harmonize with the general architectural design.

The glass, therefore, must be faultless in its texture, and it must have that brilliant lustre which does so much to add to the appearance of the home a subtle air of cheerfulness and distinction. There is no difficulty about obtaining such a glass. Plate glass fills the bill perfectly, and it can be supplied by any builder or competent glazier.

The Curtains
The choice of the glass is of the utmost importance, but nearly every window needs the graceful folds of the curtain to give the final touch of aesthetic satisfaction. At the same time, the curtains act as the harmonizing medium between the furniture and the walls of room or hall. They are not so prominent as the furniture, nor so reticent as the walls; and so they naturally take the middle course, striking the note of grace and charm, after the other essentials have been provided.

The type of curtain to be used chiefly depends upon the architectural features of the window. As a general rule, curtains may be hung straight or looped back with cords; they may be hung only to the sill or all the way to the floor.

If the window casing is built straight from the top to the floor curtains should usually be hung in the same manner. The height of the ceiling is also an important consideration, for the longer the straight side curtains are the higher the room will look. The shorter they are, the lower the ceiling of the room will seem to descend. The use of a valance, or looping the curtains with cords, will always serve to diminish the apparent height of the ceiling.

Choosing the Material
In choosing the curtain material one will naturally be guided by the general decorative scheme of the room. A rich gamask curtain would be as unsuitable for a Mission card room as a rag carpet in a gilded ball room. Expense, too, will play a part in the selection of the material, but expense need never be a bar to lovely and ingenious effects.

The richest silks and velvets money will buy can add no more to the appealing charm of a room than is attainable with cretonnes, chintzes, dotted swiss, or even with a few lengths of unbleached muslin, a dye pot, and a venturesome spirit. In the dyeing of the fabric practice makes perfect as it does in most worthwhile things; so it is better to experiment at first with a few samples thrown into the dye pot.

The dyed fabric can be stitched with quaint designs in wool, or it will form an excellent background for brilliant Japanese flowers of cotton crepe. But until you have tried you will never know the joy of blending colors to attain something really unusual—rich peacock shades, glowing amber, and softest blue. Nor until you try your hand will you have the added joy of evolving striking and original effects with your own well thought out designs.

So He Never Called on Her Again

Jack Long, 20, of Los Angeles, left the home of his sweetheart one night and was waylaid by two rival suitors. They put him in a barrel, nailed it up and put it on a railroad track. Long managed to roll himself off the track and went down a 20-foot embankment, where he was found hours later, a life is recovering in a hospital.

NOTICE BY PUBLICATION IN PROBATE.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the Sheriff or any Constable of Eastland County, Greeting: You are hereby commanded to cause to be published (in a newspaper of general circulation, which has been published continuously and regularly for a period of not less than one year in your county) at least once a week for 10 days previous to the return day hereof, copies of the following notice:

THE STATE OF TEXAS To all persons interested in the estate of Wyatt Henry Trigg, deceased, as B. C. Morgan has filed an application in the county court-at-law of Eastland county on the 7th day of November, 1925, for letters of administration upon the estate of Wyatt Henry Trigg, deceased, which said application will be heard by said court on the 11th day of January, 1926, at the courthouse of said county, in Eastland, Texas, at which time all persons interested in said estate are required to appear and answer said application, should they desire to do so. Herein fail not, but have you before said court, on the first day of the next regular term thereof, this with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Witness my hand and official seal, at Eastland, Texas, this 9th day of November, A. D. 1925. (Seal) ERNEST H. An electric cleaner in use about the house on an average in the course of a year collects fifteen bushels of dirt and dust. As there are some 4,500,000 of these cleaners in use throughout the United States this means that each year they are gathering well over fifty million bushels of dirt which would otherwise have to be gathered up by brooms and dust pans. The average American farm still depends upon animals to provide 60 per cent of power utilized. Electricity provides 5.6 per cent of farmused power, tractors nearly 17 per cent, stationary engines, 12.5 per cent and windmills but a trifle more than one per cent. The rectory of St. John's Episcopal Church, Sharon, Pa., is the most completely electrified residence in Sharon. It was built as a model electrical home and sold to the church after it had been opened to the public for a time as an exhibit. CANYON.—Construction of the electric transmission line between Canyon and Happy is under way.

WALTER P. CHRYSLER'S TRAFFIC TALKS

Pedestrians are waiting at C, to cross. When signal is given for North and South traffic to stop and for East and West traffic to move, Pedestrians should be permitted to cross before Car A is permitted to make right hand turn or Car B is permitted to make left hand turn. When pedestrians are signalled to go cars making left or right hand turns should be required to wait for pedestrians—not block their line of march.

WALTER P. CHRYSLER'S TRAFFIC TALKS

Motorists while waiting for traffic signals should keep back of line of march of pedestrians. They should not require pedestrians to walk around cars. A-A is line of march of pedestrians. Position 1 is correct position of car. Position 2 is incorrect. Too much cannot be written about this little matter of correct stopping.

DALLAS PREPARING TO ENTERTAIN TEACHERS

DALLAS, Nov. 19.—Dallas will entertain 10,000 guests when the Texas State Teachers' Association meets here November 26 and 27 for a two-day convention. If hotels are unable to accommodate the enormous crowd, there are plenty of volunteers who will provide accommodations for the teachers, J. F. Peeler, convention official, said. Several downtown meeting places have been arranged for to care for the huge gathering.

TATTLERS

It is commonly supposed that women are more vindictive than men, that women's tongues are the destroyers of reputations. I have proved that this is a fallacy. No woman in the world is as unforgiving and malicious as a man whose advances have been repulsed. And this type of man is not confined to any particular nation or race, although, of course, it is rarer among the Anglo-Saxons. It is not the man to whom a woman gives herself who maligns her—it is the one to whom she has refused herself.—Clare Sheridan, in Hearst's International-Cosmopolitan.

TOM SIMS SAYS

So live that you can go to the door without wondering if it is a bill collector. It would be all right for a mother to wait up for her daughter to come in if she could sleep in the daytime. Nothing puzzles a bald-headed man more than how fast his whiskers can grow. Love is awful stuff. It's a fire which breaks out unexpectedly, then keeps two people busy gathering fuel for it. And, if love is a flame, then jealousy is the fire department. Men are terrible people. Especially married men. Costs a married man more to live. But maybe it is worth more. (Copyright, 1925, N. A. "ONE-ARM" WOLFE SENTENCED TO PRISON FOR LIFE

By United Press. MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 19.—"One-Arm" Wolfe will be sentenced sometime today or Friday to life imprisonment in the Michigan City state prison. He was held guilty by a circuit court jury here last night on a charge of first degree murder and the recommendation was made that his punishment be fixed at life imprisonment instead of death. Wolfe was tried for the murder of Ben and Mary Hance, near here, in which he was said to have aided "Dutch" Anderson, recently killed in Michigan, chum of Gerald Chapman, under sentence of death in Connecticut.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

Railway Brotherhood Meeting Today Demands Return to "War-Time" Wages

By United Press.
 CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The International Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen met here today to consider demanding "wartime wages" from all railroads on the continent.

The conference which opens today is a special meeting called for the specific purpose of considering the negotiation of a wage agreement with the railroads. The present agreement expires January 1, although a clause in the contract permits cancellation of its provisions on 30 days' notice.

The rail organization points out that their pay was slashed by the Railway Labor Board—a total of 12 percent being taken from the high point in wages prevailed in wartime. One cut came in 1921 and the second in 1923.

Last year, by independent negotiations with the railroads, the trainmen obtained a 6 percent increase, and would join the movement and give it full support.

However, Grand Chieftain Johnson, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers denied that his organization had taken any action toward backing the move.

The meetings are being held in the Capital building here and will probably last through tomorrow.

Forty-six cities and towns in Oklahoma have within the past four years either sold or discontinued the use of their municipally owned electric plants to purchase electrical energy wholesale from some electric service company or to give such a company a local distribution franchise.

The generating stations of the companies which supply electricity to the people of Texas in the course of a month burn as fuel a million cubic feet of natural gas which is about a fourth of all the gas burned in the United States.

ALICE.—The electric transmission line from Corpus Christi to this city will be completed this month and electric service here will be from the transmission line.

have hopes of dickering for another advance in wages.

Today's meeting, David J. Robertson, Cleveland, President of the Brotherhood pointed out, has no set plans. Committees are to be appointed to draw up suitable scales, which will be submitted to the delegates at the meeting. No preliminary demands were organized. President Robertson refused to predict what action would be taken, but admitted that negotiations with the various roads would probably follow.

Other rail brotherhoods may join in the move for increased funds, it is believed here. Divisional meetings of the Railway trainmen were held earlier in the month, and plans for demands are believed to have been formulated.

If the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen should threaten decisive action, it was believed that other Brotherhoods, including the shopmen and mechanics

"You can't beat life, no matter how hard you try!"

That's the keynote of

"SPINSTERHOOD"

By Virginia Swain

The new, great newspaper serial to be released November 23 in This Paper

Love and pain and ambition! Glory and heart-ache!

Close to the life of every woman, and every woman who sees the opening chapter will read it to the end.

Written directly for the readers of this paper—and directed by the only staff in America that KNOWS HOW to construct successful newspaper serials!

Love and Ambition! Both beckon to the modern girl.

Both have their joys. Both have their sorrows.

Love promises a happy marriage . . . the building of a dream home . . . rosy-faced children to bring joy during the springtime of life and to take away the pangs of loneliness in old age. But there's the drudgery of being a wife and a mother—the washing of dishes, the cooking of meals, the worries of rearing children, and the spectre of divorce.

Ambition promises to bring the world to the feet of the modern girl—fame, renown and publicity—her name in the flickering signs of Broadway—wealth, freedom and independence. But there's the other side—a life without love—the loneliness of spinsterhood—no one to share joys and sorrows.

These are factors that enter into the most important decision the modern girl is called upon to make. Often it is the determining factor in future happiness.

Every girl at some time or other during her life thinks deeply on this problem.

Virginia Swain's new newspaper serial, "Spinsterhood," deals with this great problem of life. It handles the question in a manner that assures the widest possible reader interest. It is a true to life story of a girl who makes her great decision and then tests it in the crucible of experience.
