

BIG COMPRESSORS INCREASE THE PRESSURE OF GAS FROM 25 TO 350 POUNDS AT LONE STAR GAS PLANTS

By HOWARD BARMAN
For supplying natural gas to distributing companies in 66 cities and towns in Southern Oklahoma and East Texas, the Lone Star Gas company now holds 89 units of C. & G. Cooper engines connected with compressors in operation. Several other makes are also in use, but the Coopers are in the majority.

Twenty-nine of these particular units have been installed in the Eastland county fields. This is one-third of the total number. This demonstrates in a concrete way the faith which the Lone Star has in the Eastland county gas fields.

M. B. Lasch, district superintendent, has asked for more units at plant No. 3, and he has assurance that additional units will be installed. Plant No. 4 was placed in operation Feb. 7, ahead of schedule. The speed of construction is due to co-operation of Ranger people, Lasch said.

Once inside a gas plant the first question a visitor will often ask is, "what are those big engines doing?" The residue gas is taken at a low pressure from the casinghead gasoline plants and boosted to a high pressure at the gas plant and then forced to cities and towns for commercial and domestic use.

Compresses Gas to 100 Pounds.
The gas is brought through the waste lines of the gasoline plants at a pressure of about 25 pounds. The gas is compressed to a higher pressure, about 100 pounds, by the low stage compressor. It then passes through a system of piping, where the gas is cooled by spraying water from jets.

RECORD OF POULTRY RAISER SHOWS PROFIT FROM FLOCK OF HENS

County Agent R. H. Bush is having a number of poultry club members over the county keep records on their flocks in order to be able to tell just what is being done in the poultry business in the county.

Mrs. J. B. Eberhart of Romney is one of those keeping a record. She has 370 Banded Rock hens and for the month of January sold from them for market and hatching purposes, $152.80 worth of eggs. For that period of time she paid out for feed for them, $90, which left her a profit of $62.80.

SENATOR BURKETT AT HOME AFTER PLEASING TRIP

Senator Joe Burkett returned Wednesday night from Austin where he appeared Wednesday before the state supreme court in some cases in which his firm were employed. Mr. Burkett has been absent from Eastland for several days, a part of which time has been spent in the interest of his campaign for governor of Texas. He is highly pleased with the reception that has been given him in the parts of the state where he has been and says things are looking good for him.

The cooling system is a network of water and gas lines extended over a cement reservoir. It is usually located about 75 feet from the plant. From the inter cooler, as it is called, the gas passes to the high stage suction header to the high stage compressor. It comes in at this point at about 90 pounds pressure, but is compressed to about 350 pounds pressure. It then passes to what is known as the after cooler, which is the same cooling system as the gas first passed through at 100 pounds pressure. After the gas is cooled by the cold water it goes on to the consumer.

Cooler Increases Production.
The inter cooler adds about 33 per cent to production because of the decrease in expansion, which accompanies the compression, by the cold water spraying over the gas.

With the additional installation of compressor engines, it means that the Lone Star has a market for more gas and believes that the erection of additional engines will not find the fields wanting. Only seven months in Eastland county, yet one-third of the Cooper engines owned by the largest producer of gas in the Southwest are in this field.

Besides the big Cooper engines for compressing gas, the Lone Star has two 35-horsepower and six 25-horsepower Superior engines for pumping water from the reservoir where gas is cooled to the engine room and back.

These plants are under the supervision of a chief engineer and his assistant. All four plants have three engineers and three oilers each with the exception of Plant No. 3, which has nine oilers and in addition three engine room helpers. Plant No. 3 is the biggest plant of the quartette.

Who Are on Payroll.
Other men skilled in their particular lines are needed to keep the organization going smoothly. Three repairmen, two pipe fitters, blacksmith and one helper, concrete foreman, general labor foreman and 15 laborers and two night watchmen. All of these men form a permanent payroll. In addition there is the pipe line department with a general foreman, several sub foremen and with as many men as needed, usually eight or 10 men.

The men work in shifts of eight hours. The company believes in the old saying, "recreation, rest and work go hand in hand."

Extensions Can Be Made.
Extensions can be made conveniently to the present structural steel buildings, which vary in length, but are uniform in width. Plant No. 3 is 238 feet in length, No. 4 is 210 feet and Nos. 1 and 2 are 140 feet. The company has plenty of ground to expand on at each plant, owning from five to 20 acres of ground adjacent to the gasoline plants.

While calculating on the immense costs of building these plants, the expenditures on pipe line construction is a big one. The Lone Star laid down about 52 miles of 12, 14 and 16-inch pipe in Palo Pinto and Eastland counties the last six months of 1923.

Ground for the first of the four plants now completed, was broken on July 10, following the arrival of Mr. Lasch here from Ardmore, Okla. On Dec. 1, all three plants, Nos. 1, 2 and 3 were in operation. Plant No. 4 was the last to be started.

The Best Clothing Store for you

You don't care how good a store is, if it isn't good for you; your money ought to benefit you more than the store.

Of course every clothing store wants your trade; we do. And we figure that the best way to get it is to make this a store for you. If we do that and you know it, we'll have business enough.

Our idea in making a store that serves its customers interest is this:

- 1—Good quality in merchandise is necessary.
- 2—Prices as low as good quality allows; there is a bigger total profit in many sales at a small margin than in a few sales at large margin
- 3—Guarantee the customers' satisfaction.

These are some of the ideas we have to make this "The best clothing store for you"

Chestnut & Smith Acquire Gasoline Plant At Eastland

The Cornite Gasoline & Oil company plant, one-quarter of a mile west of Eastland, was reported to have been sold to the Chestnut & Smith corporation during last week.

F. G. Yonker, general superintendent of the Texas division of the Chestnut & Smith corporation, was out of the city Saturday and could not be reached for a statement.

The gasoline plant is said to have a capacity of 12,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day. The plant has not been running to full capacity.

The new owners, it is said, plan to increase the plant's capacity and lay new lines, south and west of Eastland. C. F. Corzelius, formerly of the old organization, who was in Ranger Friday, said that he would continue with the new company and would be field buyer of gas. He lives in Eastland.

TOO MANY BEARDS DON'T HURT MOVIE

The confusion of whiskers jumble things for a certain houseful of people whose activities form the basis for the side-splitting farce comedy "Her Temporary Husband," which comes to the Lamb theatre Sunday for a two days' showing.

Sylvia Breamer, the heroine of this hilarious laugh-provoker, must marry within 24 hours to win a fortune. She wants the fortune but not the partner that goes with it. So she marries a graveyard candidate, a "youthful" chap of about 95 summers.

Lucky for Owen Moore, her enterprising admirer, the intended groom sports a heavy crop of whiskers. Owen dons cheater's masquerades as the dying "victim" and gets married to the girl—then complications.

Before the amusing situation is straightened out almost everyone in the bride's home is "hiding behind the bushes." A gang of ruffians come to kill the bewiskered bridegroom. Then it is a case of "on ag'in, off ag'in Finnegan," as the bewiskered masqueraders try to keep one jump ahead of the bold bad villains.

The picture was made to produce laughs—to be a genuine gloom chase—and it lives up to its mission with a vengeance.

RANGER CLUB WILL HOLD MEETING AT CITY HALL

A speaking program is being arranged for the semi-monthly meeting of the Ranger club Monday night. It will be announced Monday afternoon, J. A. Davenport, president of the club, said.

The meeting place has been changed from the Gholson hotel auditorium to the city hall, where they are several hundred seats.

POLICE DOCKET NOTES

Emmett Hancock of Olden paid a fine of $15.70 in city court Saturday. He was charged with reckless driving.

Roy Trower of the city secretary's office reported to the Ranger police Saturday that his Ford roadster was stolen from Frankell the day before. He offered a reward of $25 for the recovery of the car.

Sanitary Officer Wade Swift brought in a man Saturday on a charge of violating the sanitary laws of the city. He promised to rectify the alleged nuisance and was released.

INFANT SON DIES

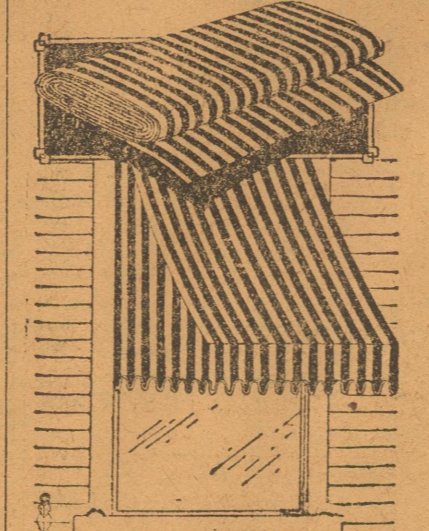

Arthur Drake, the two-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Drake, living on the old Eastland road about four miles west of Ranger, died Friday in the family home. Funeral services were conducted Saturday by the Rev. A. L. Leake, pastor of the Central Baptist church of Ranger, and interment made in the cemetery near the home. There was a large attendance of friends at the funeral.

MRS. LILLIAN WELLS PUTNAM IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

The hearts of many friends were saddened, Wednesday, by the death of Mrs. Lillian Wells Putnam. She had been confined to her house for about a year, a constant sufferer, slowly awaiting the summons that finally came.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. W. H. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Ranger, with burial in Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. Putnam came to Ranger four years ago, the Rev. Johnson officiating at her marriage to Mr. Putnam. Her maiden name was Lillian Wells. She was born in Pulaski county, Tenn., Dec. 22, 1878. Her pleasant smile, cheery words and gracious courtesies won her many friends. Her trust was in her Savior, so that those who loved her know their separation will not be for long. Neighbors and friends were constant and loving in their attendance during her long illness. Her husband and family wish to thank them all, especially Mrs. Kittrell of Cisco, who was with her much towards the last. She is survived by her husband, C. C. Putnam, and a brother, T. J. Wells.

It was loaded into an electric truck and was brought down from the library building of Columbia University, New York City, to the Hotel Astor. Here, it was used by the toastmaster at the annual dinner of the International Benjamin Franklin society, and after the dinner, while New York was beginning to consider going to bed, the same electric truck carried the chair safely back to Columbia where a waiting watchman returned the chair to its accustomed place—the meeting room of the board of trustees.

They Paid $200,000,000 for Studebaker cars last year

Find out why folks did it

LAST year 145,000 people paid over $200,000,000 for Studebaker cars. The demand for these cars has almost tripled in three years. It has become the sensation of Motordom. There is a new situation in the fine-car field. You should learn what it means to you.

Studebaker had to lead in this field. This concern has led in its lines for two generations. Any other place would be unfitting. This is how we became the world's largest builders of quality cars.

$90,000,000 assets

Studebaker has $90,000,000 of assets. Of this $50,000,000 is invested in modern plants and equipment. We have spent $32,000,000 for new plants and equipment during the last five years. So they are modern and efficient. They contain 12,500 up-to-date machines. We have $8,000,000 in drop forge plants, $10,000,000 more in body plants. So we build complete cars without paying other makers profits.

We spend $500,000 yearly on an engineering staff. There are 125 skilled men employed in our department of Research and Experiment. They make 500,000 tests per year. We employ 1,200 inspectors. Each Studebaker car must pass 30,000 inspections during manufacture before it leaves the factory. Those enormous facilities enabled us to produce the utmost in a car. And we had the will to do it.

No stinted costs

We never stint on costs. Every steel used is the best steel for its purpose, regardless of the price. Then on some steels we pay makers a 15 per cent bonus to insure exactness in them. Every Studebaker car is Timken-equipped. The Special-Six and the Big-Six have more Timken bearings than any car selling under $5,600 in America. The Light-Six more than any competitive car within $1,000 of its price.

We use genuine leather upholstery. We use Chase Mohair for the closed car upholstery. Some good upholstery would cost $100 less. To curb vibration, we machine all surfaces of crank shafts, as was done in Liberty Airplane Motors. Very few cars do that.

How such prices?

How can we give such extra values—scores of them—yet sell at our low prices? Because these values brought us buyers—145,000 last year. The major extra costs are divided by enormous output. Let us show you the extras you get, because of these matchless facilities.

Learn Why 145,162 Bought Studebakers in 1923.

Studebakers hold the top place in the fine car field today. In 1919, the public paid over $80,000,000 for 39,356 Studebaker cars. In 1920, the public paid over $100,000,000 for 51,474 Studebaker cars, an increase of 31% over 1919. In 1921, the public paid over $120,000,000 for 66,543 Studebaker cars, an increase of 29% over 1920. In 1922, the public paid over $155,000,000 for 110,269 Studebaker cars, an increase of 66% over 1921. In 1923, the public paid over $201,000,000 for 145,162 Studebaker cars, an increase of 32% over 1922. In 1924, business has opened with Studebaker as never before. Learn why all these buyers preferred Studebakers.

Wanted--Jobs for Eight Ambitious Young Athletes

Wanted--Jobs or positions for about eight or nine young men, all high school graduates, and several college graduates. These men have references, and are ambitious and young.

The names and addresses of these men are in the keeping of Albert (Peaches) Ridings of the Lone Star Gas company. Ridings has been asked by several business men to organize an independent team in the spring to represent Ranger in the proposed oil belt league.

Ridings accepted the task, got into communication with young men of his acquaintance, some of whom are now in school, and he has secured the promises of about 10 men that they will come to Ranger and play baseball this summer, providing they can find employment here.

Working Conditions Tight.—Ridings has put their proposition up to a number of oil company executives and several business men. Things are quite tight with the big oil and gas companies at present and he couldn't get any encouragement that the men could be placed. The Texas Pacific company and the Prairie Oil & Gas company can not use any men in the Ranger fields; the Lone Star Gas company is functioning nicely and similar working conditions prevail with the other big companies with offices here.

Saturday Ridings said that he would be willing to write to any of the boys and inquire of their experience in any line, if any employer would be interested.

There are now four men, all baseball players, working and living in Ranger, who are Bud Dinsmore, Dot Scoggins, Lory and Ridings. They were with the Snappers last year.

Baseball men, interested in an oil belt league, will gather in Olden on Feb. 14, at the offices of the Magnolia Petroleum company to lay their plans. Ridings wants as representation of Ranger fans at the meeting.

A ten per cent discount is allowed if bills are paid before the tenth of the month. The minimum charge is $1.00.

Junior Basketball League Series In Eastland Arranged

The American Legion Athletic club has taken on a new line of activity, by beginning a junior basketball league for boys under 17 years of age. Eight teams have now entered and as many more from any place in the county may enter by getting in touch with the physical director, Jim Boyer.

The teams represent most all the boys in the city. Five of the teams known as the Tigers, Red Dots, Junior Outlaws, Pirates and Bears, come from the high school, although none of the varsity players are allowed to participate in the games.

The other three teams represent the South Ward, West Ward and News Boys. Every team is practicing and is looking forward to the winning of a pennant which has been ordered and will be on display soon.

The players of the Maverick team have gladly donated their services to referee the games, which are to be played on Wednesday at 4:30 and Saturday at 2:30. The public is invited and no admission will be charged.

CARBON DEFEATS CISCO IN SECOND FAST GAME

Carbon met the Cisco Lobos in the second game of the three-game series which decides the county championship, and Carbon defeated the Lobos at Carbon. The first half ended with the score in favor of Cisco, 8 to 6.

Carbon came back stronger in the second half and tied the score 14 to 14 at end of third quarter. It seemed that which ever team broke the tie would win and Carbon managed to do this several minutes before the end of the game. Final score, 16 to 16 in Carbon's favor.

Both Carbon and Cisco each have one win and one loss to their credit and meet each other next week to decide who represents Eastland county in the district meet.

Roy Wilson, New Football Captain, Goes Out Scouting

Roy Wilson, newly elected captain of the 1924 Ranger High school football team, is on the job. Saturday, he made a jaunt to Chaney to see if there was any material in that locality for his team. He had a talk with several boys and he expects results to materialize from his missionary work.

The new captain plans visits to surrounding towns to "sell" the Ranger High school to likely scholarship and athletic material. Roy will take for ammunition, the recent numbers of the school annual, photographs, and newspaper stories of the team and the big banquet at the Gholson hotel Thursday night.

When Head Coach R. N. Sandlin at the banquet stated that Roy Wilson knew little of practical football when he first came out last fall and that he had to be shown what it "was all about," persons began to inquire how did he push himself forward so rapidly as to be a strong candidate for captainship honors.

Roy has shown himself to be a consistent worker and a willingness to keep in training, the coaches say. This in a general way explains Roy's rapid rise of stock.

He came here from Rochelle, Texas, about two years ago and lives with his parents at 513 South Hodges street. He is out now trying for the tennis team, expects to don a baseball uniform in the spring and may go out for track. He is a junior and 18 years old.

SOUTH WARD P. T. A. TO GIVE PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

A special patriotic program has been prepared for the South Ward P. T. A. meeting which has been changed from Tuesday to Wednesday on account of several social and other activities. Talks on the lives of Washington and Lincoln will be made by boys of the school. Also a short paper on the life of the late President Wilson will be read.

This meeting is a very important one and every member is urged to be present at 3:45 sharp. Mrs. Joseph M. Weaver, president.

PHYSICIAN'S LECTURES HEARD BY FIFTEEN HUNDRED PERSONS HERE

"I have had a great day in Ranger," Dr. Charles E. Barker, physician, lecturer and author of health books, told an audience of men Friday night at the Liberty theatre as he concluded his 90-minute talk, "A Father's Responsibility to His Son."

It is estimated that he spoke to 1,500 men, women and children in his three addresses here Friday, according to Gus Coleman of the Ranger Rotary club, which organization contracted last August to bring the health expert to this city.

Probably 600 school boys and girls heard Dr. Barker in the high school auditorium in the morning. An estimated 200 women and 300 girls of high school age attended his afternoon lecture, "A Mother's Relations to Her Daughter."

Dr. Barker speaks at Winslow, Ariz., Monday, and then jumps to the coast. He started his speaking tour in Maine 60 days ago under auspices of the Rotary International clubs.

A small pamphlet, containing his lecture to men, will be distributed Monday, Feb. 15 at the Gholson hotel to those who agreed Friday night to take one.

His exercises recommended for girls and women at the afternoon lecture appear elsewhere in this issue.

TWO MEN MAKE BREAK FROM JAIL IN MARYLAND

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Feb. 9.—Holding those who tried to interfere with them at a distance by raising a razor threateningly, Charles Fackler and Lee Worth escaped from the Washington county jail at noon today.

They tried to turn loose all of the prisoners, 35 in all, but failed in that largely because of Abraham Dees, former deputy sheriff, now serving a term as a bootlegger. Fackler was recaptured but Worth is still at liberty.

Dees, in spite of his bootlegger activities, was a trusty in the jail, and allowed the freedom of the place. He was attacked but managed to keep at a distance from the men's razor.

ALASKAN RAILROAD POINTED TO AS HIDING SCANDAL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Congressional investigation of the government Alaskan railroad may be demanded as the result of data gathered by labor leaders, who made a secret trip to study the railroad system in Alaska, it was learned tonight.

This was intimated by Timothy Healy, New York, president of the firemen's and oilers' union when he said today that the "Alaskan railroad steal will be the next great American scandal." He refused to explain his statement, and labor leaders were reticent.

B. M. Jewell, head of the railroad employes department, American federation of Labor, said Healy's statement was surprising to him. Dan Sutherland, delegate in congress from Alaska, said that he had an "inkling of what was coming." It might cause a "lot of trouble," Sutherland said.

NAVARRO COUNTY JUDGE SUGGESTS MARTIAL LAW

CORSICANA, Feb. 9.—Judge Hawkins Scarborough said today he was in favor of asking for martial law, following the extensive raids, which resulted in the arrest of 89 men and women the past two days.

A number of women were released after paying fines. Considerable liquor and gambling paraphernalia were confiscated. A grand jury investigation will start next week.

LAWYER AND PREACHER HAVE OPEN-AIR DEBATE

Rev. M. O. Parker, said to be an itinerant preacher of Oklahoma, and R. M. Dalrymple of Fort Worth, attorney and lecturer, engaged in a public debate from a wagon on a vacant lot on Cisco's main street Saturday afternoon.

The first talk was given by the Oklahoma man and it was described by several Ranger men as a diatribe against a particular religion. Dalrymple followed and he set out to answer Parker's charges.

The crowd that listened to the men impeded traffic. The remarks of the two men were taken down by a stenographer on the wagon.
