COUNTRY CLUB TO BUILD FINE CLUBHOUSE

New York Financiers Butt Into Texas Family Quarrel on Pretense of Fighting the Klan

BUILDING WILL MARK PROGRESS WON IN RANGER

Structure Of Stone and Heavy Timber To Be On Shore Of Hagaman Lake.

A site for the new clubhouse of the Ranger Country Club was staked out this morning by a committee appointed for this purpose. The site will be approximately 250 feet from the first tee in the little grove between the course and Hagaman lake. Construction of the clubhouse will probably start in March.

The ground is smooth in the grove and the committee, consisting of J. W. Sanders, C. A. Conley and L. L. Rector, also marked out ground for a tennis course and croquet course.

Blue prints and specifications were shown to the membership last night for the first time when the club met at the Elks clubhouse on West Main street. E. B. Finney of the Baltic Gasoline company, drew up the plans. Finney is a member of the club.

To Use Native Stone.

The clubhouse will be constructed of native stone and heavy timbers, and will be 30x60 feet and will have one wing. The assembly room, which will be true the dimensions of the clubhouse proper, will have a floor adapted for dancing, and which can be used as a dining room and for all kinds of entertainment programs.

In the wing will be the men's and women's lockers, showers, dressing rooms, lavatories and kitchen.

The interior will have stained beams. Not so much lumber will be needed for the building except for the floor, window sashes and doors. There is enough stone in the immediate neighborhood to construct this clubhouse and many others.

The probable cost of the building has not yet been estimated, but it will be kept as low as possible in order not to have a debt hanging over the head of the club.

Longest Veranda Will Face East

The longest veranda will face the east or the golf course for then there will be shade in the afternoons for those who wish to loaf on the wide spaces of a veranda. A small veranda will face the lake and the gun shot grounds.

The blue prints will be on display in Crawford's pharmacy in a few days.

The club will sponsor picnic and dance, the former to be on Feb. 29, and the latter on March 7. The picnic will be an unusual one, as it will combine both work and play. There will be a picnic lunch served by a committee consisting of wives of several members, who are Mrs. G. C. Craig, C. A. Conley and A. N. Harkrider. Dr. C. C. Craig will make arrangements for the dance.

The work will consist of getting the stone, needed by the masons for construction purposes, to the clubhouse site. Teams and transportation for this labor will be in charge of J. W. Sanders.

Will Be Social Center

The proposed clubhouse will be the social center of Ranger when it is completed, members say. Invitational dances given by the Elks, Shriners club, Knights of Columbus and other organizations in downtown places of Ranger will probably be held at the clubhouse instead next winter, they say.

The clubhouse will be the means of quickening social life in Ranger and tea dansants, masquerade parties, bridge parties and various social affairs will be become more numerous when the assembly room is available.

It is probable, J. M. Ralston, secretary of the club, said today, that membership fees will be made payable in advance for this year, because of the clubhouse construction expenses.

LIQUOR BRIBE TESTIMONY CAN BE ADMITTED

State Ranger Testifies That Sheriff Admitted "They Have Goods On Us."

By United Press.

CLEBURNE, Feb. 20.—Judge Irwin T. Ward today ruled that the testimony of State Rangers R. T. Shumate and M. Burton to the effect that E. L. Roark, charged with accepting a bribe in connection with the Glen Rose liquor raid, had admitted a statement to them that he had taken money from bootleggers, will be admitted in the trial of Roark.

Judge Ward's decision was announced this morning following arguments by attorneys on admissibility of the evidence. Following the decision, Burton, state ranger, was placed on the stand and his testimony in substance was as follows:

That he was standing on the courthouse lawn of Glen Rose on Aug. 26, 1923, the second day of the raid talking to the then sheriff, T. W. Davis of Somervell county and in the presence of other officers.

He called Roark from across the street and Davis said to Roark: "Ed, die, these men have the goods on us and I have told them the whole truth about this matter and I want you to go ahead and tell them the whole truth about it just as I have."

Roark then said:

"Yes, I know they have the dope on us and we have been taking money. We were both just a pair of dam fools, and we have been trying to figure a way out of it the last six months but they have had us tied and we couldn't do anything."

Burton testified that Roark also said: "I have been expecting to be arrested ever since you fellows came here yesterday."

R. T. Shumate, ranger captain, was called to the stand and corroborated Burton's testimony.

TAXICAB FARES ARE INCREASED IN PARIS

By United Press.

PARIS (By mail to United Press).—The Paris city council has been forced to increase all transportation fares including taxicab fares, to balance its budget and carry on this year with a clean slate. The budget was balanced at 1,438 million francs.

The new fares on the Metropolitan and the Nord-Sud will be raised ten centimes in first and five centimes in second class, becoming 60 centimes and 35 centimes respectively. Auto-buses and tramways will charge five centimes more. Street cleaning taxes will be raised 200 per cent. The initial fare for taxis will be for 400 instead of 600 meters, this being equal to an increase of 20 centimes per fare.

It was necessary to meet additional allowances, because of the recent vote of the chamber of deputies placing the bonus of higher pay to civil servants upon the municipal exchequer. This item alone represented 21,700,000 francs annually, and completely upset the plans of the economy seekers.

Bouanchaud accused Fuqua of being friendly to the Ku Klux Klan. Tuesday's election was a run-off primary and virtually the entire Fuqua ticket has been victorious with the possible exception of Justin F. Deschoud, candidate for state auditor, who is in a tight race with T. O. Harris.

BARNES GUILTY, SAYS JURY, PUNISHMENT IS FIXED AT TWO YEARS

By United Press.

The jury in the Cleve Barnes case, which has been on trial this week in the Eighty-eighth district court, returned a verdict of guilty this morning and assessed punishment at two years in the state penitentiary. The case had been with the jury since about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Barnes is charged with unlawfully possessing whiskey. He was indicted by the grand jury in May, 1922, following a raid made on his place in Ranger by a committee of citizens. In this raid it was claimed that $18,000 worth of whiskey and other intoxicating liquors were captured and destroyed.

Barnes first trial in September, 1923, resulting in a hung jury which stood seven to five for acquittal. In December, 1923, he was tried again, this time the jury found him guilty and placed his punishment at two years in the penitentiary. County Attorney W. J. Barnes agreed to a new trial in this instance and the third trial was had in January of this year, resulting in a hung jury.

Attorneys for Barnes stated this morning that a motion for a new hearing would be filed and should that be overruled an appeal would be taken to the higher courts.

"It becomes my duty to sentence you," Judge Atwell said. "As you probably know the first offense is punishable by a fine, the second by a term in jail."

"I am going to quit," Mrs. Keyes said. "All I want is leniency, and you'll never see me here again. She has an eight year old son."

Since his arrival he has been kept in a blanket tent heated by lights. More than 250 inches of his body was burned by the flash. As soon as the burns heal sufficiently skin will be grafted on the affected areas.

PRESIDENT OF COLUMBIA PUT IN COMMAND

Fifty New Yorkers To Contribute Morals and Money In Fighting Mayfield.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, has accepted the leadership of a movement to center the fight against the Ku Klux Klan by unseating Earle B. Mayfield as junior United States senator from Texas, he told the United Press today.

Convinced that if the Klan is to be stamped out, Mayfield must be unseated, 50 men of affairs in New York have been asked to grant moral and financial support to Texans now working in Washington to evict their junior senator. Col. Henry D. Lindsley, former mayor of Dallas, is prominent in the movement and attended a conference last night in which Dr. Butler outlined his program.

Lindsley will act as treasurer of the movement and money will be raised to insure a complete presentation of the Peddy protest in connection with the Mayfield contest and bring about a comprehensive hearing before the senate committee on privileges and elections.

Recount of Ballots In Anderson County Reported Completed

The recount of the ballots was begun yesterday on order of the senate committee, which is investigating Mayfield's election. The committee completed the recount of the first county, but the totals were not made public.

Luther Nickels, attorney for George Peddy, claimed the difference in signatures may indicate some of the ballots were not signed by presiding judges who have that exclusive power. Seven boxes from Anderson county, a strong Mayfield district, were said to be missing.

QUARREL IN THE RANKS.

"Colonel" Billie Mayfield in his weekly continues the expose of so-called boss rule in the Ku Klux Klan and in so doing makes interesting charges against Zeke Marvin of Dallas, head of the clan in the state. Of course, if "Colonel" Billie is a clansman, he must have taken the clan obligation, which, according to some on the outside, pledged himself not to reveal any shortcomings or wrongful acts of a fellow clansman other than treason and murder.

It is evident, however, that the information from the outside was all wrong. The obligation does not bar a clansman from proclaiming violations of the dry law, apparently, for "Colonel" Billie goes to considerable length in exposing the head of the clan in Texas. He says in his weekly that the clan head in Texas was "bagged in federal net with trunk full of liquor and pays fine."

It does not do for outsiders to assume that clansmen will stand by each other through thick and thin if "Colonel" Billie is a clansman, as has been supposed. He says that Grand Dragon Marvin and his retinue visited Houston in the interest of Felix Robertson, the Marvin candidate for governor of Texas in opposition to State Senator V. A. Collins of Dallas, and clan candidate endorsed by "Colonel" Billie and after meeting with the clansmen in Houston "Marvin and his retinue of paid officials were the most dejected looking lot of men ever seen in the state of Texas."

The Ku Klux Klan has been charged with being a secret organization, but it cannot be with "Colonel" Billie on the inside, for he appears to glory in telling the secrets. He differs from the esteemed contemporary in Eastland which claims to know a whole lot about law violations but refuses to tell them. Can it be that the clan has an obligation after all and that the esteemed contemporary refuses to violate that obligation and make charges against a fellow clansman?

It is all very confusing with "Colonel" Billie talking so freely and the esteemed contemporary merely making threats. Dwellers in the visible realm have been taking both very seriously, but now they are up in the air, surrounded by invisibility. However since the emperor of the invisible empire has sold his throne for visible coin and left the invisible realm, it may be that Billie is merely following his example and if both be given enough rope they will hang themselves and the clan at the same time and nothing will be found inside the hooded skeleton but bunk.

BARNEY GOOGLE AND SPARK PLUG—

Cooking Expert Uses Calumet When Making Doughnuts

By Helen Harrington Downing. For the past few years there has been a noticeable tendency to buy ready baked and delicatessen foods instead of preparing them at home; and with many it has become a permanent habit, hard to drop.

Lately, however, it has been noticed, home baking is again finding itself of prime importance among other household duties and new as well as old favorite recipes are being exchanged. Card index recipe boxes are given to the bride-to-be; while housewives and students are taking as great pride in showing their ability in the culinary line as the chef and teacher.

Home baked foods have, after all, the best flavor and taste, and real appreciation is shown when a plate of fresh home baked doughnuts or crullers are served where bakery goods have been the usual thing, and when hot light, crisp fritters are served for dessert, every one is bound to be pleased.

When a platter of piping hot corn fritters or salmon croquettes, seasoned just right, are brought to the table with suitable accompanying sauce or gravy, the appreciation shown is sure to repay the efforts of the one who prepared them.

These things certainly show we are getting back some of the good old fashioned days of home happiness.

Points About Deep Fat Frying. The fat should be tested to see that it is at the right temperature for the best cooking. Not more than four or five doughnuts should be fried at one time when using a medium sized kettle such as is found in the average kitchen. A larger number will cool the fat and the result is the doughnuts are apt to crack. Neither will fried food be as crisp if cooked in too much of a hurry. Slow but not too slow cooking is preferable.

The frying basket should be lowered gently into the hot fat until the contents are completely covered with the hot fat. After frying, lift up the basket and allow it to hang on a hook or strip at side of kettle, and drain off any excess fat. Lift out doughnuts on to a piece of clean unglazed brown paper, which will absorb any further grease. Change the paper as soon as it becomes greasy.

Calumet Doughnuts.

4 cups flour 4 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder 1-2 level teaspoon salt 1 cup sugar 2 eggs, beaten together 2 tablespoons melted butter 1 cup milk Sift flour, then measure, add baking powder and salt and stir three times, put sugar and butter together, add well-beaten eggs, then flour and milk alternately. Turn out on a well floured board and roll out 1-2 inch thick. Cut with doughnut cutter. Let stand five minutes and fry in a kettle of hot fat. Vanilla or cinnamon may be added.

WATCHMAN AT DICE GAME SURPRISED, HOUSE PINCHED

Eleven negroes were in the flat and all were marched to the office of Justice J. N. McPatter, where fines were assessed against seven of the men. The other four were freed. Deputy Constable John Boyd made the wholesale arrests.

Talking Studebaker Is Mystery None Is Found To Explain

In speaking of the "Talking Studebaker," that is to be exhibited in Ranger on the afternoons and evenings of Feb. 21, 22, 23, at the Studebaker salesroom, M. R. Newham said that about all he knows of the marvelous automobile is that it beats anything he ever heard of. That is as far as he will go to discuss the "Studebaker," for that is the name of the strange automobile goes by. Mr. Newham announced that he is just as much mystified over the automobile as those who have seen it and he can hardly wait until it arrives.

Over in Gainesville last week where Studebaker was on exhibition, an amusing incident is told by Mr. Fowler, the local dealer. About 7 o'clock in the morning, the negro who sweeps out the show room was scared nearly out of his senses by a voice from the car saying, "Here nigger, get busy with the broom or you'll lose your job." Mr. Fowler says he hasn't seen the negro since, but never has that place been swept so clean, quick and thoroughly before.

Mr. C. A. Parker, who is in charge of the "Talking Studebaker Publicity," says: "The company has four cars in the country doing this stunt, all accompanied by accomplished trainers, but the strange part of the mystery is that no two of them perform alike, yet, all are equally clever, which is quite convincing that mechanical and human brains are much alike."

Mr. M. R. Newham, in speaking of the talking Studebaker, says: "Just what makes the thing talk is a mystery, but it is declared that this eloquent car talks so plainly that it gives many people the 'jimmies.' Amusing incidents are on record where superstitious people have credited supernatural agencies with doing this vocalizing. Mr. Newham said to the Times reporter that he knew the Studebaker could do almost everything else, and in fact all that a real car is supposed to do, but he didn't know until Mr. Parker sprang the news, that the Studebaker can talk. He is certain, however, that it must have an attractive voice."

GEORGE SISLER WILL TAKE UP PITCHING NOW

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor) NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Reports current some time back and confirmed recently by the officials of the St. Louis Browns that George Sisler would try his hand at pitching next season, if he can't see well enough to return to first base, brings up the question: "Why couldn't Babe Ruth do the same thing when he can no longer qualify as an active regular?"

Like Sisler, who first attracted the attention of major league scouts when he was pitching for the University of Michigan nine, Ruth started out as a pitcher.

It was Sisler's talent at hitting that made him too valuable to sit on the bench three days after pitching one game, and it was the same power with the stick that caused Ed Barrow to turn Ruth into an outfielder.

Sisler and Ruth have baseball talent that are strictly in common. Sisler is a great first baseman and Ruth is a good one; Ruth is a great outfielder and Sisler is a good one; both can hit and both can pitch.

Ruth was the best southpaw in the American League when he was working as a pitcher with the Boston Red Sox, and the Yankee players say that the Babe needs only serious work and a little practice to become a fine pitcher again.

Ruth's legs will go back on him before his batting eye begins to get out of focus. Sisler's vision went faulty when his other physical faculties had hardly more than reached their full development.

The Babe has a powerful pair of shoulders and a great arm and they should retain their strength even after his legs disqualify him for work in the field.

If Babe Adams can get along so well as a pitcher at an age, which is decidedly antique for a major leaguer there should be no reason why Babe Ruth could not do the same thing even though he has not kept up in his pitching.

Ruth is thirty years old now. The experts give him no more than three more seasons to start, as he has been starting, and they think then that he will start to slip.

Before the Sisler case, however, no one seemed to have given a serious thought to the possibility that

THURBER CLUB WILL START THEIR SEASON TRAINING MARCH THIRD

THURBER, Feb. 20.—At a recent meeting of the Thurber baseball club, the following officers were elected for the season of 1924: A. D. Lidia, manager; W. H. Cooze, business manager; W. A. Merritt, secretary treasurer.

Practically all members of the club were present and the meeting proved to be a very enthusiastic one. The usual spirit of cooperation that has carried the club through two very successful was shown.

Thurber's record for 1923 consisted of 37 victories, one tie, out of 56 games played. Plans for the coming season were discussed and regular training will start March 3, and the team will soon be in readiness to take on all comers in the oil belt section.

The Ideal Road and a Personal Service During the past few years standards of Concrete road construction have been steadily advanced. This has been made possible largely through the construction and tests of different types of design. For example consider the Bates Experimental Road built by Illinois. Over a two-mile course, 63 different sections were laid. Three principal materials in wide variety of thickness and combination were employed. Then fleets of motor trucks were sent over the surface. For many days and nights the loads—a total of 377,460 tons—pounded across that two-mile stretch. At its completion only thirteen of the original 63 sections had survived. Ten were of portland cement concrete. The other three had heavy foundations of the same class of Concrete, that had been used without additional wearing surfaces in the first ten. Properly built Concrete pavement is the most enduring and economical type of road construction known. Skid-proof, rigid, and lowest in maintenance cost, the Concrete road is the ideal road. The Portland Cement Association has a personal service to offer individuals or communities. This service is designed to give you more for your money—whether you use Concrete or have it used for you. Our booklet R-3 tells many interesting things about Concrete Roads. Write this office for your copy. PORTLAND CEMENT ASSOCIATION Southwestern Life Building DALLAS, TEX. The average American drank 514 cups of coffee in 1923 as compared to 465 cups in 1922. This average is not based upon statistics of coffee imported into the United States, which is the usual basis, but upon a far more conclusive figure—the amount actually delivered from American warehouses to the roasters, in due course to the jobber, retailer and consumer. These figures have not taken into consideration coffee taken from warehouses for re-exportation.

AMERICANS INCREASING CONSUMPTION OF COFFEE

Anyone can prove the per capita consumption by remembering the following: Deliveries from American warehouses in 1922 were 9,482,306 bags; in 1923, 10,581,839 bags. The United States population estimated in 1922 was 110,000,000; in 1923, 111,000,000. All coffees, heavy and light, average 135 pounds to the bag, and a pound of coffee makes forty cups. It is known that Brazilian coffee weighs 132 pounds to the bag, but the milder coffees run considerably higher, making 135 pounds a fair estimate.

Birmingham Lady Took Cardui for Relief of Change of Life Troubles and Says It Helped Her "So Much."

Birmingham, Ala.—"I first took Cardui for that tired, worn-out feeling that comes from being dreadfully run-down," says Mrs. Catherine E. Smith, of 2106 Stout Street. "Twenty-five years ago, I was suffering from womanly weakness. I read of Cardui in an almanac, and thought I would try it. I got a bottle and it helped me from the first. After that, during the whole of my married life, I took Cardui when I needed it. "About four years ago, change of life came on me. . . I grew weaker and weaker, and was confined to my bed, where I lay on my back for days. I was told that only a severe operation could do me any good, and this depressed me very much, for I dreaded such an ordeal. "I remembered how Cardui had helped me for female trouble in the past and I had read of how it had helped other women during change of life, so one night I told my husband to go to the drug store and get me a bottle. I began taking it at once. From the first dose I could feel myself getting stronger. . . I continued to take Cardui until I was entirely through this very trying period of a woman's life. Women to attract must Radiate Health!

BEAUTY is the magnet which draws all eyes—and back of beauty—Health—working silently—Red blood tingling through the veins;—the glow of youth in the cheeks;—the spring of eagerness, of vim, of vitality in the walk;—the ever graceful air, unrestrained by care or worry. —All the charms of beauty. All the works of health.

Men are fascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous, perhaps—wondering—hoping—praying for that attractiveness that is not theirs. But why the wondering—the hoping—the praying for that craved-for attractiveness—that beauty. Good looks is the barometer of one's condition. Good health radiates beauty. S. S. S. purifies the blood—creates new red blood cells—rids the system of impurities which make beauty and attractiveness impossible. As women to attract must radiate health so must they keep their systems free from impurities and their red blood cells ever increasing. S. S. S. does both. S. S. S., since 1826, has been riding the system of impurities—pimples, blackheads, boils, eczema and rheumatism—building red blood cells—aiding women to be attractive by radiating health. S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks, scientifically prepared and proportioned. All good drug stores carry S. S. S. It is more economical to purchase the large size bottle.

GARNER'S TAX REDUCTION BILL GAINS HEADWAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Democrats scored their second victory in two days when the house this afternoon adopted the Garner stock dividend bill by a vote of 162 to 112. Profits from the sale of stock dividends, regardless of when the stock is sold, would be subject to the regular income tax rates under the amendment offered by Representative Garner, Texas.

Under the present law, profits from the sale of stock dividends more than two years of issue are subject to only capital assets tax of 12-1-2 per cent.
Only 274 votes out of a total of 435 in the house were cast on the amendment and republican leaders hope to be able to reverse today's action when a record vote is taken in the house proper.
