

LEGION MAN LAYS LASH ON JACK DEMPSEY

Speaker Reminds Comrades Thousands of Soldiers Suffer While Bruiser Grows Rich.

VALLEJO, June 25.—American Legion members here are still discussing the talk on the Dempsey-Carpenter fight given by Nelson G. Welburn at the "buddies night" smoker at the Scouts hall, where 300 former service men had gathered. Welburn said in part:

At the Letterman hospital in San Francisco and in 24 different hospitals throughout the country there are from 1,500 to 3,000 maimed, crippled, diseased veterans, who have lain prostrate on their backs ever since the war. Many of them will lie there for life.

Many Suffer.

Thousands of victims of gassing and the climatic hardships of France now have incipient tuberculosis but are unable to obtain proper treatment for this dreaded disease because the government has not the proper facilities for their reception.

Through all of this I am ashamed and sorry to say that the general apathy of the public is deplorable. On July 2, in Jersey City, thousands of Americans will pay over $1,000,000 to see thirty-six minutes or less of prize fighting. One of the participants is a man who chose to fight, and, if need be, die for his country; the other is one who chose to remain at home.

Reward Prize.

The one who chose to remain at home will be given as his share a tribute of over $350,000—willingly paid by thousands of Americans, while the American Legion has for two years tried to obtain a mere pittance of tribute for the prostrate heroes of our country.

And I say to you comrades, if I am called on to make any choice in this contest, I am for that man, irrespective of creed or nationality, who has personified the expression: "If a country is worth living in it is a country worth fighting for," and by this I mean Georges Carpenter.

SUMMERS, MARKET MAN, FOOLS FRIENDS, TAKES WIFE AND ESCAPES

L. T. Summers, groceryman, and Miss Ollie Mae Johnson, put one over on their friends Friday night by being quietly married at the home of Rev. W. H. Johnson. Mindful of the fate of other victims of Cupid's darts in the recent past, they kept the proceedings almost secret and last night boarded the midnight train for a honeymoon.

The bride is the dark-haired cashier of the Summers store. Whether she will let her husband continue as a baseballer with the Business Men is unknown, but as she has been running his store for him for several months while he pastimed, she probably will.

FROST MOTOR CO. WILL OCCUPY NEW QUARTERS

The Mission garage is being remodeled and Tuesday it will be occupied by the Frost Motor company, which is moving from its present location on Walnut street. In addition to its agency for the Buick motor cars the firm will, as formerly, carry a complete line of automobile accessories. It will also have a completely equipped repair shop.

RECKLESS THIEVES TAKE CONSTABLE'S CAR

With their usual cheerful disregard for the law and upholders thereof, thieves Friday stole an automobile belonging to C. C. Hamilton, deputy constable. The car is a Ford roadster 1920 model. It was taken from Rusk street. It is not known if the thief or thieves stole the car with the knowledge that it belonged to an officer of the law, or whether they just took it in the run of the day's business.

EARLY PASSAGE OF TARIFF BILL IS PREDICTED

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Passage of the tariff bill by the house before July 20 was predicted today by Representative Mondell, Republican house leader, who conferred with President Harding, and by Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee. They also agreed that the revenue bill would be taken up immediately after the passage of the tariff bill, and Mr. Mondell added that the special session of congress would end when the last bill was enacted.

Representative Fordney announced that the tariff bill would be presented next Saturday afternoon, after Democratic committee members had been given an opportunity to consider the measure in full committee.

CHINESE SAY HOP DIVE IN JUAREZ SHOWS THEM UP IN A FALSE LIGHT

JUAREZ, Mexico, June 24.—Declaring that the Chinese customs are being basely misrepresented and that the people are ridiculed as degenerate, the Juarez Chinese Fraternal union has appealed to the Chinese ambassador at Mexico City asking that President Obregon be petitioned to order the prohibition of a resort in Juarez from luring tourists into a club by showing a "dive" with men and women impersonating Chinese smoking opium.

The activities of the place are offensive to the 200 Chinese in Juarez and block the union's work for material uplift of the Chinese in Mexico, officers said.

On request, Mayor Rodriguez ordered the attractions to be stopped. A meeting of the city council, however, protested the mayor's act, saying that the resort was operating upon licensed premises and that the city administration could do nothing to suppress the alleged misrepresentations.

The mayor then rescinded his order, according to officers, and the Chinese Fraternal union took the matter up with the Chinese ambassador at Mexico City.

FINDS UNHOLY CITY.

BOSTON, June 25.—How he converted a whole town to Christianity was told here by the Rev. Frederick McNeill, of the Evangelical Association of New England. The wayward town was Cranberry Isle, Me. When he arrived the clergyman found Cranberry's Isle's only house of worship had been closed for years. The Rev. McNeill removed the bars from the windows. He enlisted the rural postman as his chief lieutenant and announced the reopening of the church. After some hard work he had the natives attending church seven days a week. Hard work is a cure for anything, is the contention of the Rev. McNeill.

Platinum is nearly four times dearer than gold.

70 PER CENT OF AMERICA'S CHILD LABORERS ARE FOUND ON FARMS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 24.—Seventy per cent of America's child laborers are found in rural occupations, Dr. Owen R. Lovejoy, general secretary of the National Child Labor committee, told the committee's sixteenth annual conference here tonight.

"The other day," he said, "we read that some men had formed a $100,000,000 organization to help the farmers' plan of co-operative marketing, whereby they could hold their crops for a good market. The National Child Labor committee has also a $100,000,000 proposition to help the farmer hold his best crop, not for any market, but for himself and the old homestead. By a conservative estimate it is worth at least $100.00 to his dad to give a child a chance to play, develop and go to school. There are more than a million country children who are not getting that chance today."

"Here," declared Dr. Lovejoy, "is an opportunity for investment where there is no possibility of losing. The whole of America will gain."

Dr. Lovejoy asserted that five thousand children between the ages of 6 and 15 are engaged in raising beets in Colorado alone, according to an investigation conducted by his committee. In Oklahoma children as young as five are picking cotton regularly, while the average daily attendance at school is only 57.2 of the enrollment. "Similar conditions exist in the beet fields of Michigan, the tobacco fields of Kentucky and Colorado, the onion fields of Ohio and the wheat fields of Dakota," he said.

ACTIVITY IN FRANKELL POOL IS INCREASING

Activity in the Frankell pool continues on the increase. Yesterday on the Hamon quarter, one mile east of town, the Atlantic Production company was moving in a set of tools to begin spudding. One-half mile south of Frankell the Prairie Oil & Gas company has its rig for Ware No. 3 almost completed. It is thought that this well will be ready to spud within the next few days.

NEW DELICATESSEN IS OPENED AT TEAL HOTEL

A delicatessen that lacks little in completeness has been opened by Raymond Teal on the lawn of the Teal hotel. It is directly under the

FIREWORKS

—AT—

VALLIANT & CO.

Hodges-Neal Bldg.

Times Want Ads Pay

LOST—Good Gates Half Sole Casing, Tube and Rim; size 31x4; Ranger-Caddo road, about noon Friday; good reward. F. J. Bolender, Caddo, Box 288.

management of Fritz Richter. Many kinds of sausage, cheese and cold meats are carried in stock, much of which is ordered directly from the makers in the East. The cheese comes from one of the best known cheese makers in Wisconsin.

A pavilion has been built and is equipped with neat tables and chairs. Tables are also placed under the trees on the lawn. The whole place is well lighted.

WILLIS, DEMOCRAT, IS WINNER FOR SENATE

DALLAS, June 25.—Hart Willis, Democrat, was elected state senator from the Sixth district, composed of Dallas and Rockwall counties, in a special election held today to choose a successor to the late J. C. McNealus.

More than 100 American girls are still in Coblenz, Germany, engaged in Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Salvation Army and other welfare work.

IF THAT CAR NEEDS REPAIR

—You surely want it fixed where the work is best, where satisfaction is guaranteed, and where prices are right

JONES & DEFFEBACH

Do that sort of work, and are equipped to do welding, radiator work, etc.

SPECIALS FOR MONDAY

Men's work shirts; best grade.....50c
Lion brand work shoes.....$1.95 to $4.95
$12 dress shoes; all lasts.....$4.95
Men's blue overalls.....$1.00

—Our store is full of Bargains for men and boys—come in and see them

WE HAVE A FEW MORE OF THOSE RARE BARGAINS IN LADIES' SILK HOSE

High grade black, light and dark gray at...98c
Ladies' aprons and children's dresses at...98c

PRICES IN SILK UNDERWEAR THAT ANYONE CAN AFFORD

Big bargains in ladies' silk underwear
—crepe de chine and wash satin at...$2.95

—Just received a shipment of gingham and organdy dresses—the prices are right.

—You will always be able to find the best in ladies' and children's shoes at the very lowest prices at

J. C. SMITH

OPPOSITE GHOLSON HOTEL

MRS. LOUDERMILK'S SPECIAL SUNDAY DINNER

CHICKEN AND DUMPLINGS

BOILED HAM	GREEN PEAS	GREEN BEANS
CORN ON THE COB
CREAM POTATOES	SLICED TOMATOES
COMBINATION SALAD
STUFFED PEPPERS	GREEN ONIONS
SWEET RELISH	OLIVES
LEMON PIE
COFFEE	ICE TEA	BUTTERMILK SWEET MILK

—HOME COOKING—

Mrs. Loudermilk Dining Room

McCleskey Hotel

What's YOUR Time Worth?

When you go to buy a pair of boots, a can of peas or a kitchen cabinet, do you know exactly what you want—or do you "shop around" and take pot luck?

You can save many an hour's time—and many a good hard dollar—by knowing beforehand what you want, where to get it, and approximately how much it will cost.

You can always know this much before you enter a store.

If it's clothing, you know how well it should wear and what the style should be. If it's a musical instrument, you know what to expect in tone and workmanship. If it's a carpet sweeper, you know what kind of service it should give.

Merchants with established reputations for honesty are the best with whom to deal.

Merchandise with established reputation is the best to buy.

The only way to be sure of the goods you buy is to read the advertisements in this paper regularly. As a practice it's far better than rummaging around.

It saves time. It saves money.

Read the Advertisements

Sliced Watermelon ON ICE

Ice cold all the time—come in and order a piece of our frozen watermelon, it will refresh you these hot days.

Have you tried our Ice Cream Sodas? People tell us they are the best in town.

CANDY ICE CREAM CIGARS

After the show or while shopping drop in at the

Palace of Sweets

"RANGER'S SOCIAL CENTER"

HAYS IS TOLD WOMEN BARRED AS POSTMASTERS

Regulations Said to Create Serious Situation for Women in Southern States.

By BASCOM N. TIMMONS, Times Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Complaint has been made to Postmaster General Will H. Hays against regulations which it is asserted definitely set up a bar against women serving as postmasters in presidential offices.

The matter has been taken up by women's organizations who have lodged vigorous complaints, while Mrs. Harriett Taylor Upton, vice-chairman of the Republican national committee, has gone direct to the White House with an appeal that the regulations, made under the president's executive order, be changed. The activity of Mrs. Upton, upon whom rests the responsibility of organizing the women voters for the Republican party, indicates the seriousness of the situation, which is taken to mean the radical elimination of women from consideration in connection with appointments to postoffices of presidential grade.

It is pretty generally conceded that, unless the regulations are modified, it will be impossible for a woman to land a postmastership. This will be a hardship on the women of the South, especially, for in the Southern states the new voters have made little effort to obtain political recognition or reward, but have been holding back with a view to getting some of the postoffice appointments. Disqualification for these appointments would leave them without a chance for any place, and women in the organization here fear it would be the beginning of a state of apathy which they do not care to see.

Waits on Hays.

Mrs. Upton, who has given her life toward obtaining a share in the government for women, is represented as having told Postmaster General Hays that if the questions required to be answered by applicants for appointment as postmasters were honestly answered, no woman could be postmaster of any office of any class in any section of the country. The requirements as to qualification and experience of applicants for postmasterships are held to effectually bar all women from holding the position.

The particular section that has given offense to the women is that which requires executive experience in charge over a large number of employees. The number of persons one must have had charge of and the number of years such control must have been exercised depends upon the size of the postoffice for which the examination is being taken. In some instances one must have had charge of more than 100 employees for several years. In smaller offices the requirement is proportionately less. But practical demonstration over a number of years of one's capacity to handle a force of employees is a part of the examination for every postoffice of the presidential grade. And it is this new provision of the system of selecting postmasters which has aroused the opposition of women.

Many Are Available.

It is pointed out that there are few women who have had executive control of large forces over a number of years, and especially in the South, where women have not engaged largely in business, and yet there are many women who would make good postmasters, but who would be unable to qualify as eligible under existing regulations.

Miss Alice Robertson, representing the second Oklahoma district in congress and serving acceptably, was appointed postmaster at Muskogee by former President Roosevelt, but she says she could not have qualified under Postmaster General Hays' regulations, though she "never heard of any complaint against her postmastership."

The late Mrs. John E. Kenna, widow of a former senator, was appointed postmaster at Charleston, W. Va., by former President Grover Cleveland, and served two years. She established an enviable record and set up a possibility in service later adopted by the department, but had the present regulations been in effect she could not have been appointed.

Anthony Takes It Up.

Representative Daniel J. Anthony, of Leavenworth, Kan., has taken up the fight of the women, has expressed his personal opinion to the postmaster general, and so long as present regulations stand will not have anything to do with the naming of a postmaster in his own city. His personal objection is increased because of the fact that the new rules set up an age limit at sixty-five years, which bars from consideration any of the old soldiers at Leavenworth. In fact, the new order bars any civil war veteran from making application for appointment.

The postmaster general has promised to review the regulations and see what can be done but there is little reason to believe the regulations will be changed.

Much Complaint.

There has been considerable complaint from many quarters relative to the new regulations. In most cases private conferences between the postmaster general and congressmen have been quite satisfactory, as the ephemeral nature of the "examination" for presidential offices is pointed out. The civil service commission has been at considerable pains to explain formally that examinations for first, second and third class offices are not under civil service rules, but under regulations prescribed by executive order. This is satisfactory to the male politicians, since they will be able to establish business record for almost any man they favor, but the woman whose occupation has been in the home is effectively barred. If experience is to be required before opportunity to serve in official place is given women party workers say it is a good deal like the parental direction to the young boy to stay from the water until he has learned to swim.

RANGER LAWYER WILL RUN FOR BURKETT'S JOB

A Ranger attorney, Sam K. Wassaff, today announced himself as a candidate for representative from this district to fill the place of Joe Burkett, resigned. The place will be filled at a special session to be held July 16. Three other candidates are already in the field.

Mr. Wassaff is a partner with Lytton R. Taylor and has been practicing law in Ranger for about two years. Before that time he was an attorney in Oklahoma.

He favors the following platform: curtailment of expenditures for state affairs; establishment of a West Texas A. & M. college; repeal of the tax on motor trucks; a rigid modification of the homestead and exemption laws; good roads.

Mr. Wassaff said in making his announcement that he had been waiting for someone from Ranger to get into the race but no one had come forward. He promises a vigorous representation from this district if elected.

GEO. MEYER, 'WANDERING JEW,' SAYS HE CAN'T DO WITHOUT TIMES

George Meyer, of Olden, sometimes referred to as the "wandering Jew," in a letter to The Times says that he has been subscribing for the paper since it was first published and feels that he could not be without it.

Incidentally he inclosed a check. Nobody yet knows how the title of "Wandering Jew" came to be hung upon George. The only explanation put forward is that for years he was a circus man and traveled all the paths of the world.

George does not wander any more. He has decided that Olden is going to be a metropolis. Why, nobody knows. Every time anyone moves away he buys their house. George has the spirit of the man who said, "If I was in hell I would say 'hurrah for hell' while I was there."

BRECKENRIDGE APPOINTS NEW FIRE DEPARTMENT CHIEF

BRECKENRIDGE, June 25.—R. B. Smalley, formerly a Gulf Production company worker, has been appointed Breckenridge fire chief. Smalley was four years with the Oklahoma City fire department and two years in Muskogee, Okla.

AWNINGS FOR RESIDENCES AND STORES

—Sleeping porch curtains, covers, bags, and all kinds of canvas goods made to order in all colors and styles. Satisfaction guaranteed. Ask for prices.

RANGER TENT AND AWNING FACTORY

211 N. Marston Young Rooms

ECZEMA!

Money back without question if HUNT'S GUARANTEED SKIN DISEASE REMEDIES (Hunt's Salve and Soap) fail to cure the treatment of Itch, Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter or other itching skin diseases. Try this treatment at our risk.

ALL DRUGGISTS.

GOSH! PASTOR REAL ANGRY OVER BOOZE FRACAS SAYS HARD WORDS

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Rev. Dr. E. C. Dinwiddie and Wayne B. Wheeler are jamming hard words down each other's throats over pending anti-beer legislation.

Their fracas which began before the house rules committee considering the proposal of driving through congress the Volstead anti-beer and alcoholic industry regulatory bill, has reached the stage where bad names are being hurled.

In a statement defending himself against Mr. Wheeler's attack in which he charged Dr. Dinwiddie with "unwittingly" helping bootleg traffic, the latter retorted with a burning broadside, in which he said Mr. Wheeler's "obstinacy and poor judgment" will result in the country being flooded with beer and other liquors within a brief period.

Flood of Beer Is Feared.

"Wheeler, and Wheeler alone, is the man who is going to let loose a liquor flood in this country by an attitude that is impossible of understanding," retorted Dr. Dinwiddie.

"Wheeler loads up this bill with all sorts of provisions striking at the foundations of legitimate business, and then expects congress to give it clear passage. He expects the impossible. The course he favors will hurt law enforcement."

The two disagreed violently before the rules committee, Dr. Dinwiddie agreeing with Chairman Campbell that the anti-beer provisions should be separated and rushed by Andrew J. Volstead, chairman of the judiciary committee, author of the bill, who desires all of it or nothing.

It is high time for prohibitionists to realize that a "dry United States is a long way off," Dr. Dinwiddie said and that in face of it, temperance advocates should display patience. "The dry era cannot come 'right off the bat' were words he used.

Agrees on One Point Only.

"I agree with Wheeler that congress should outlaw beer," said his statement. "But I see no need at this time of attempting to urge congress to do something that manifestly congress is unwilling to do. A bill containing a straight anti-beer provision, without a lot of other frills that seek to effect a remedy for existing evils, might have a chance of passage."

The bill, as presented, would be defeated in the house, asserts Mr. Dinwiddie, and would be against an impenetrable wall in the senate.

"The senate is more deliberate in its handling of such matters, and there is slight chance that senators will consent readily to rush through a measure which aims a blow at industries of their own constituents," he said.

"I maintain," his statement goes on, "that there is a real emergency in the prospect of the government authorizing the sale of beer.

"This emergency can be met by offering a straight anti-beer bill in congress without other provisions included, that are bound to stir up controversy."

"The house as at present constituted will pass a bill of this sort drawn along reasonable lines. But there is no telling what its attitude may be now. However meritorious these other provisions may be, this is no time to press them in congress."

"It simply means a deluge of beer in the United States shortly, for the treasury cannot legally withhold regulations granting to brewers the right to manufacture medicinal beer and distribute it to their trade."

"As I see it, former Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer was absolutely right in his interpretation of the Volstead act. He could not have ruled otherwise. Nor can the treasury be compelled to issue them if brewers expected to further delay these regulations. The treasury could be compelled to issue them if brewers obtained a mandamus from the court, directing such action by the treasury."

"Truthfully Told—Truthfully Sold"

Studebaker

LIGHT-SIX

QUALITY

The Luxury of Motion

—The quick responsive motor of the "Light Six" together with the feeling of absolute comfort is alone one of the biggest distinctions of its value. There is no doubt in the minds of Studebaker owners that they received the highest ability of proven mechanics in efficiency, beauty, durability and economy.

IT MUST BE EXPERIENCED TO APPRECIATE
LET US DEMONSTRATE TODAY

OILBELT MOTOR CO. INC.

J. T. GULLAHORN, Mgr.

Phone 232 Corner Austin and Cherry

"In other words, the law is the law, and it is going to be construed as it stands, an emergency, therefore, exists which should be met by a straight beer bill."

In Japan, "reeling girls," who are apprenticed to the silk manufacturers at the age of 12 to 13 years, live in the factory inclosure, where there are dormitories.

OUR SHIRTS

QUALITY

Cool Shirts—and that's what men want these hot days—we have shirts of all descriptions but quality in every weave.

Our wonderfully large selection of silks, silk stripes, crepes, madras, in every pattern and color are the best that money can buy.

No-fade cotton pongee shirts, French cuffs; special shipment $3.00

For Service and Satisfaction

E. H. & A. DAVIS

"The Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes"

Corner Pine and Rusk

All Seasonable Flowers

We are prepared to fill all orders with promptitude, assuring you only first-class blooms. Fresh and beautiful.

Prices Right

Phone 314

MAJESTIC FLOWER SHOP

Majestic Show Bldg.

CHEF'S CAFE

SPECIAL SUNDAY DINNER
12 NOON TO 9 P. M.

CANAPE OF SHRIMP
FRIED SPRING CHICKEN COUNTRY STYLE
MASHED POTATOES LETTUCE AND TOMATO SALAD
ANGEL FOOD CAKE VANILLA ICE CREAM
TEA COFFEE COCOA
PRICE $1.00

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Can you think of any other passenger car that offers you so many advantages as the Ford Sedan? It is a car for everybody, everywhere. The business man finds it an asset in his business; the farmer has no end of uses for it, and when it is done with business, it does duty for the whole family.

Order your Ford car now. Don't wait until the rush season comes. Just phone us or drop us a card.

Make It Easy on Yourself

Cash or Terms

LEVEILLE-MAHER MOTOR COMPANY

Phone 217. P. O. Box No. 4. Main and Hodges Sts.

Summer Eats and Summer Drinks

ICE COLD WATERMELON ON ICE

ALL KINDS DELICATESSEN

ICE COLD BEER ON TAP

Priced Right at the

Delicatessen Garden

Teal Hotel Grounds

AND WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES Edited By MISS MARGUERITE COYLE

LIBRARY PARTY. Mesdames M. H. Hagaman, C. C. Chenoweth and R. M. Davenport were hostesses on Tuesday morning to a number of guests in a series of parties being given for the benefit of the Ranger Public library and rest room.

Mesdames Maddern, Roger Fenlaw, Wm. Clegg, Lytton Taylor, Bell, Williams, Gilmore, George Hemmingson, Kelly, E. B. Reid, M. H. Smith, Harry Reed, O. L. Phillips, Bearden, Stinchcomb, F. E. Langston, Chaney, Jarvis, M. L. Davenport, W. M. Pearce of Dalhart and Mrs. Braswell of Clarendon.

These parties which are being given are proving very much of a success, both socially and financially. It is understood that each lady entertained must in turn entertain others, thus swelling the library fund. Mrs. E. J. Barnes is treasurer and Mrs. M. K. Collier, secretary. Each hostess is requested to turn the money over to Mrs. Barnes and the names of her guests to Mrs. Collier.

CHURCH SOCIAL. The men's class of the Christian church gave a social entertainment for men only Thursday evening. There were twenty-two men present and eleven watermelons. The last made their exit before the end of thirty minutes. After the discussion of plans for the future, a few games were enjoyed. One guessing contest dusted up the memory on twenty-four characters of the bible. The sketches of the characters were made by the daughters of Mr. H. E. Clewell, teacher of the class. The meeting lasted about an hour. It is the intention of the class to hold one social meeting the last Thursday of every month.

The class extends hearty thanks to the Hub Ice Cream company for cooling the melons.

Swimming Party. Miss Marian Stubblebine was hostess to a swimming party at the Oil Cities Electric company's lake, Thursday evening. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Fenlayson, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Bohning; the Misses Mary McRay, Elizabeth Moffett and Messrs. Aubrey Jameson, Charlie Terrell, Howard Cole, Dick Phillips, Clifford Clegg and Wilbur Stubblebine.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATION. The opening of the Ranger School of Music and Art will soon be announced. The influence of an institution for musical education has long been needed in Ranger and West Texas, so that this announcement will be greeted with enthusiasm by the citizens of Ranger.

The faculty of the school will consist of C. H. Endicott, state certificate teacher of California, pupil of the late Calixa Lavallee, also musical director of the Majestic theatre in Ranger; Chas. Abel, graduate Lycee de Coutances, France, late musical director, Princess theatre, Toronto, Canada, also of the famous Calumet and Hecla orchestras, assisted by Miss Isabelle Abel, who will have immediate charge of the elementary classes in piano and violin. Charles Endicott will have charge of classic and aesthetic dancing classes, calisthenics and deportment. All of these teachers have had European as well as the best American experience, it is said.

The various departments will cover violin, all stringed instruments, piano, organ, band and orchestral instruments, saxophone and reed instruments. Theory will be taught and the same opportunities will be afforded as in any of the larger conservatories.

The young women's and the young men's classes of the Methodist church were given an advertising party at the home of Mrs. Jensen Friday evening. The affair was in costume and each guest represented some familiar advertisement. This entirely new feature was predominant in all of the evening's entertainment. After the contests in which the representations of the advertisements were decided upon, and the serving of the refreshments, the guests and hostesses adjourned to the home of Mrs. Jensen's mother, Mrs. Cooper. There were games and music were enjoyed. There were at least fifty guests. Mrs. Rowland is in charge of the young women's class and Mr. Chenoweth is in charge of the men's.

RETURN FROM CONFERENCE. Misses Beth Deffebach, Vertie Shell and Rhea Alworth have returned from four days' stay at Waco, where they attended the annual Epworth League conference. They report a splendid meeting and an enjoyable time and extend the compliment to the Waco people that they certainly know how to entertain. There were delegates from all the Central Texas leagues.

GIRLS' SEWING CLUB. The Girls' Sewing club met with the Misses Wolfe, on Stevens avenue, Friday afternoon. An hour was spent in sewing, after which a flower contest was engaged in. Mrs. Wolfe, assisted by Mrs. Stevens, served a lovely salad course to the following: Misses Gladys Hanks, Inez and Eunice Brewster, Alice Heckendorf, Gladys and Marjorie Maddocks, Ethel Shaw, Mary and Virginia Brooks, Jean Tennet, Margaret Walton, Edna MacRush, Eulalia and Mildred Wolfe. As each guest departed, she was given a thimble tied with green and white ribbon, the club colors.

CHURCH CANTATA. The Cantata of the "Story of the Pink Rose" to be given Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian Church is a story based on the conversion of a young man, the leader of a "gang of thieves." The story centers around the old "Mulberry Bend" slum district of New York City. Musical numbers will be sung throughout the story. Service starts at eight o'clock. The following will be the program: Chorus—"Pity the Fallen," Miss Genevieve Amer and Mrs. Maddocks Solo—"The Pink Rose," Mrs. T. J. Homsey. Chorus—"Love Never Fails," Mr. Arthur Kinard. Chorus—"If Ye Then Be Risen," Solo—"Christ Is All in All," Mrs. J. Finlayson. Solo—"Only One," Mr. Lytton R. Taylor. Chorus—"Ye Gates Unfold," Chorus—"What Then."

LOS COMPANEROS. On Wednesday, June 23, Los Companeros will revel at Shamrock park. Each lady will bring lunch for two there will be swimming from 6 to 7 and dancing in the pavilion at 9. While the ladies prepare the lunch the club will hold its regular meeting.

SLUMBER PARTY. Miss Helen Brown was hostess at a slumber party Wednesday evening. The usual midnight luncheon salter with gossip was enjoyed. The following guests were present: Misses Vivian Forker, Helen Gholson, Clover Bebo.

CHILDREN'S DAY. Children's Day will be observed this morning at the First Presbyterian Church with a candle sermon by Rev. Stubblebine and a program by the Sunday School. The preaching service and the Sunday School will begin at the usual time and a brief study of the lesson will be given. The public is invited.

PERSONALS. Miss Jennie Lowes will leave Wednesday for Tulsa, Okla., where she will spend two weeks visiting her uncle, W. M. McDermott, chief dispatcher in the telegraph department of the Gulf Pipe Line company.

BROTHER LOCATES HIS LOST SISTER BY MEANS OF PUBLIC LIBRARY

By International News Service. LOS ANGELES, June 25.—Reunited, through a curious coincidence, with a sister from whom he had been separated for twenty years a sick hero of the Bardenelles campaign and the sister for whom he had been searching are residing together in London, according to Everett E. Perry, Los Angeles librarian. The two were brought together by the Los Angeles public library, which became interested in the case when a letter was received by Librarian Perry from the London soldier asking aid in his hunt for his sister, who he thought might be living in Los Angeles or vicinity.

While library workers were making an apparently hopeless attempt to find the missing woman, with the aid of the Los Angeles police department and the sheriff's office, the woman was located by a strange development.

The brother had appealed to the library, knowing his sister to be a great lover of books. And it was through this slender clue that the woman was finally found.

The woman later entered the library and requested help in looking up data relative to questions in which she was much interested, said Librarian Perry. Writing her name and address on a slip of paper, she left the library, with the request that the information sought be mailed to her.

Librarian attendants noticed that the name of the woman was that of the sister of the disabled war veteran. She was at once communicated with and placed in touch with her brother.

A letter received by Librarian Perry from the grateful veteran brought the news that the long-separated brother and sister are residing happily together in London.

RENTS IN BOSTON TENDENCY TO DECREASE

BOSTON, June 25.—The prospect for lower rents was described as encouraging by the state commission on necessities of life today. "At the present time rents of heated apartments with service are more numerous," the commission said in a letter sent to city and town officials. "Many apartment house owners are finding it necessary to reduce their rental demands in order to secure occupants. The prospect for lower rents is encouraging." The housing shortage continues to be a great hardship and burden upon many families, however, the commission said. The letter declares that building costs are liquidating and the drift toward tenantry has been checked.

EXAMS FOR POSTOFFICES.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Postmaster General Hays today announced that he had asked the civil service commission to hold examinations to fill vacancies now existing in the postoffices at Aubrey, Cooper, Haskell, Hermleigh, Rochelle and Trent. Due notice will be given at the respective offices of the date when these examinations will be held.

Churches

THE SALVATION ARMY HALL

323 South Austin Street. Open air services every Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:15. Indoor services Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday at 8:15. Young people's meetings every Wednesday night at 7:30 Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. All are invited to attend these services. A cool, clean, well lighted place to spend an hour in worshipping Him who lives, loves, and is the Savior of all.

CAIT. AND MRS. F. F. MULLINS, CHURCH OF CHRIST.

Corner Rusk and Mesquite. 9:45 a. m., Bible study, 10:45 a. m., regular service; 2:30 p. m. Bible study at Young school; 3:30 p. m., preaching at Young; 8:15 p. m., regular evening service, "where a welcome awaits you." J. W. McKinney, minister; 829 Blackwell road.

RANGER CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.

421 Pine street. Services Sunday 11 a. m. Services Wednesday 8 p. m. Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Reading room same building, hours 10 to 12 a. m. All are cordially invited.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Children's day exercises will be given in connection with the regular morning preaching service. The exercises will start at 10:30 a. m. with the program of the scholars and a "Candle sermon" by the pastor. Preaching 8 p. m. A beautiful cantata will be given at the evening service consisting of a story read by the pastor and the musical parts rendered by the choir. Rev. A. N. STUBBLEBINE, Pastor.

ST. RITA'S CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Blackwell Road. Rev. Father E. A. Gerken, Pastor. First Mass 8 a. m. High Mass 10 a. m. FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Tabernacle off Marston on Main. Sunday School 10 a. m. Communion and sermon 11 a. m. Evangelistic message 7:30 p. m. John G. Winsett, Minister.

EAST RANGER BAPTIST.

Corner Foch and Blundell Streets. Sunday School 10 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunbeams 3 p. m. Junior B. Y. P. U. 4:30 p. m. Senior B. Y. P. U. 7 p. m. W. M. U. Wednesday, 8 p. m. M. F. DRURY, Pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Sunday School 9:45 a. m. Morning Service 11 a. m. Young People's Meeting 7 p. m. Evening Service 8:15 p. m. Prayer and Church Meeting, Wednesday 8:15 p. m. Preaching at Tiffin First Sunday 11 a. m., Third Sunday 8:15 p. m. Sunday school 10 a. m. (Union.) COOPER SCHOOL HOUSE.

Sunday school 4 p. m. Methodist Community tabernacle in Riddle addition. Sunday school 3:30 p. m. Dr. Leon Sensabough, secretary of Oklahoma Sunday school board, will preach at 11 o'clock a. m. and 8:15 p. m. REV. L. A. WEBB, Pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Walnut off Marston. Sunday school 10 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. Junior B. Y. P. U. 4 p. m. Senior B. Y. P. U. 7 p. m. W. M. U., Wednesday 8:30 p. m. Prayer meeting, Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Choir rehearsal, Friday 7:30 p. m. W. H. Johnson, Pastor, 413 Walnut st.

SOME FRUITS FROM MEXICO ARE BARRED FROM UNITED STATES

LAREDO, Texas, June 25.—Many visitors to Laredo who cross the Mexican border and try to bring back with them some of the fruits which are a novelty find that the introduction of certain fruits prohibited by the United States department of agriculture, because of the dangerous insect pests which they harbor and which might cause great damage if brought into this country.

Oranges, sweet limes, grapefruits, mangoes, sapotes, peaches, plums, avocados (known by the people of the border as aguacate and in Florida called alligator pears), sugar cane, sweet potatoes and a long list of other fruits, vegetables and grains are barred from admission and when visitors bring them across the river they are obliged to surrender them to the guards, who dispose of them, frequently throwing them into the river.

The favorite purchase of strangers here is the aguacate, which is known in other sections as a tropical importation, and the average tourist is denied the pleasure of a salad of the delicious fruit upon their arrival of this side of the Rio Grande. A ruling of the agricultural department permits the aguacate to be brought in, provided it is opened, the seed and skin removed and the pulp mashed. Some tourists take fruit jars over the river and have their aguacates prepared in this fashion.

The cheapness of many of the Mexican fruits, as well as their delicious flavor, unfamiliar to many who know the orange and sweet lime only after it has been imported in a green condition and permitted ripen in storage, cause many of the visitors to go into raptures over the display. But they are disillusioned when they arrive at the barrier and their fruit is confiscated.

SALTILLO, Mexico.—A state land office or agricultural agency for Coahuila has been established in Saltillo for the purpose of handling applications and concessions for public lands throughout the state.

MRS. STILLMAN'S FATHER COMES TO HER AID

"Fifi" Stillman has real help at last. The sturdy man photographed here with her is James Brown Potter. He is her father. He came all the way from Europe to let her know she need not fight a lone battle. Just to prove it, here is what he says: "My daughter is the best daughter in the world. She is the most devoted mother. I am sure she has been a good wife."

Ol' Jasper Jones' Flight Of Eloquence Inspires The Reporter To Mix His Too

"I'll tell you what is wrong with most folks," Jasper Jones said to the reporter as the twain gathered for the afternoon festivities, "they spend too much time doing the same thing. To most men the day is a trip to their jobs in the morning and back home in the evening with the rest of the day spent in the same uneventful way. They who don't bore themselves working and doing nothing bore themselves at the same old round of jazz. I kinder mix 'em up and take on a little side line once in a while. The other day I was out toward Thurber. Out there are many hills. From a distance the hills seem to be a mass of green trees and cool shades, but when the climber starts up he finds his way disrupted by briars and thorny bushes that clutch at his clothing as if they were trying to hold him back from some hidden dangers. Snakes, maybe.

The shadows and the boulders none of deadly copperhead snakes and rattlers that strike quick and sure. A sinister air seems about but the visitor, half hesitant, feels impelled to climb. An unexplainable feeling sends him up. He passes gnarled crags and scraggly cedars that have the ruggedness of great age. The underbrush swishes as the climber goes up and his feet kick loose stones which rattle and roll away among the dead leaves.

Ghosts of Past. "The climber starts and stops, then goes on, half afraid of something that has neither shape nor substance. Moldering foliage of a long-dead age mingles with the pungent smell of the cedars. As he goes up the silence is pregnant with a meaning that has no definition. From time to time he turns back and then toils on until the crest is reached, and he looks away over miles and miles of endless green mesas until the green becomes a haze that hides another hill. "Gazing along the mountain ridge the climber's eye follows it until it breaks and again takes up its course, and goes on, until its end becomes hidden behind a smoky blue. On the river side is the valley, and the falling sun, cutting across the tree tops until they glint like a shimmering sea, unbroken except for the white gleam of a farm house in a setting of the brown dirt of an abandoned farm. One stands for long and simply gazes, as the silence grows. Shadows Creep Up. "As one looks down the slanting sides of the hill the rocks and crags catch and hold the sunlight until they flash and flame like precious stones scattered broadcast by the prodigal hand of man. But as one watches the shadows creep up. The flame dies, leaving dead and lifeless stones; it passes up until another spot is reached that breaks out in glittering red yellow and green fire. So surely do the shadows creep toward one, that they seem an inexorable doom that will presently absorb the watcher in its oncoming power. As the darkening line comes steadily up, turning stones into flashing light and then leaving them dead and lifeless, the watcher looks away into the valley which has been gripped in shadow, seeking some sign of life—the baying of a dog or the cheery voice of a farm hand lifted in song. Nothing is to be heard but the twittering of the birds going home to their roosts; and the low sweet hum of the little creatures of the night. One turns and goes down. The impressiveness of the

LOS ANGELES CHINESE TRAFFIC IN SLAVE GIRLS, SPEAKER SAYS

By Associated Press

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 25.—That Chinese slave girl traffic is "going on right under the noses of our city officials" was the statement made by Dr. Charles R. Shepherd of Los Angeles, Cal., general missionary among the Orientals, at the Northern Baptist convention in this city today.

"I know from personal experience and not from hearsay that this is a fact," he declared, citing the instance of a Chinese girl 16 years old sold in San Francisco for $2,700.

In speaking of the tongs of the country, Dr. Shepherd said: "These tongs are not only an insult to the churches of America, they are an insult to the great Masonic order. Over the entryway of one of the bloodiest and most powerful fighting tongs in America is a sign, 'Bing King Tong, Free Masons.' It masquerades as a Masonic lodge, while it is made up of those who engage in the traffic in Chinese girls, who labor to frustrate our laws, who plan bloody murder, and pay professional assassins to carry out their plans."

The Chinese, as a whole, make good citizens, however, Dr. Shepherd maintained. The better class among them own their own homes, participate in community affairs, and throw themselves into all great national movements, he said.

Throwing an old shoe after the bride was originally a sign that her father relinquished all dominion over her.

Our Policy is to give the best of the season's modes at prices that are lowest. That is the foundation of our Supreme Values.

Another shipment of summer dresses just arrived; all sizes and colors. Priced $5.95 to $22.50 from

Hume's SMART WEAR FOR WOMEN

107 So. Marston St. Between Main and Pine Special for Next Week Only All Jersey Silk Petticoats $2.63 All Jersey Silk Petticoaters $2.63

PRICES DOWN at TEXAS DRUG COMPANY

In view of the fact that the market prices have declined in the soda fountain line, the Texas Drug Company will give their patrons the benefit of this drop. Following is a list of popular drinks that have been reduced:

- Milk Chocolate .15c
Ice Cream Sodas .15c
Limeades .13c
Lemonades .13c
Ice Cream .13c
Egg Malted Milk .25c
Malted Milk .22c

SPECIALS—ICE CREAM Per Quart .50c Per Pint .25c

TEXAS DRUG COMPANY

UNWRITTEN LAW CALLED INTO USE IN FRANCE

Jury Acquits Youth Who Killed Husband of Woman He Loved.

By NEWTON C. PARKE
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, June 25.—Prominent Frenchmen and women, including the country's best lawyers, writers and parliamentarians, have suddenly plunged into a controversy over the application of something akin to the American "unwritten law," but broadened to include every kind of so-called "love murder."

The discussion arose over the acquittal of a young engineer who shot and killed the husband of his former mistress in the street, without any preliminary discussion taking place. His only excuse was that he loved the woman and that his victim had taken her from him.

The Countess de Noailles immediately pronounced her opinion.

"The jury was right," she said. "In a crime like this, where love is so important an element, where there is so much human tragedy involved, a jury has the right to find that there were two victims—the man who fired the shot, as well as the man who fell dead at his feet."

"To acquit such people is simply absurd," replied Alfred Capus, well-known French writer and member of the French academy. "They should be punished like any other murderers."

De Porto Riche, French playwright, applauded the verdict.

"I am always happy when the jury shows itself lenient in such cases," he said. "A death sentence against the young engineer would have been monstrous."

Henry Bernstein, one of the best-known of modern French dramatists, took exactly the opposite view.

"There should be no such thing as the 'unwritten law' or the acquittal of a person alleged to have been suddenly moved by a great love to kill another," said Bernstein. "In most cases real love has nothing to do with the crime. It is simply the last act of hatred directed by a weak mind."

Minister of Justice Bonnevay has taken cognizance of the controversy by introducing a bill in Parliament to permit jurors to comment on all crimes and recommend sentences. At present French juries only return verdicts of acquittal or conviction, without comment.

LOTS OF CHILDREN ARE BORN WITH TAILS MAN TELLS LONDON FOLKS

By International News Service
LONDON, June 25.—"Children born with rudimentary tails are not so rare as generally supposed."

This startling statement was made by Professor Arthur Keith, a famous anthropologist, during a recent lecture which he delivered at the Royal Institution.

During the discussion which followed the lecture several doctors declared that they had had professional experience with children born with "vestigial" tails, and one physician stated that among the recruits he examined for the army during the war no fewer than eight grown men possessed this peculiarity.

"Huxley's verdict that man can claim no place apart in the animal world, but is actually a member of it in substance and structure remains unchallenged today," said the professor.

"I have devoted over thirty years to examining the problem of man's origin and have come to the conclusion that Huxley and Darwin have exaggerated rather than underestimated the structural gaps which separate man from his nearest allies."

"Neither Darwin nor Huxley ever said or believed that man had arisen from the gorilla, the chimpanzee or the orang-outang. What they did say and what all anthropologists now believe, is that we must search for characteristics which man and the great anthropoids share to some distant ancestry which is common to both anthropoids and man."

"These apes do not represent a series of evolutionary jumps, culminating in man, but are end-branches from a common stock."

HUGO STINNES ARRANGED FOR OCCUPATION OF RUHR DISTRICT

Stuttgart Paper Bares Details of Economic Deal With French to Seize Industries, When Troop Mutiny Balked Plan; Iron Master Won't Deny It.

BERLIN, June 24.—When France made military preparations to occupy the Ruhr district pending the allied ultimatum to Germany, the Paris L'Humanite's story that the Briand government was going to execute an agreement between Louis Loucheur, minister of the liberated regions, and powerful French industrial interests on the one hand, and Hugo Stinnes and other Rhenish iron and coal magnates on the other, was not taken seriously, because the impression prevailed that the Paris communist publication first twisted the facts and then interpreted them to suit its peculiar political purposes.

Matters assumed a different aspect when the Schwaebische Tagwacht, Stuttgart, printed what it called an explanation why the chambers of commerce of the Ruhr district, which are controlled by Hugo Stinnes, August Thyssen, the Krupp and the Stumm, passed resolutions urging the reichstag to reject the allied reparation ultimatum, and proclaiming that they were willing rather to submit to the humiliation and severe economic losses involved in the occupation of the Ruhr district than to see the Fatherland accede to the arbitrary and impossible demands of the entente.

Understanding Reached.
Hugo Stinnes and other Rhenish Westphalian captains of industry, according to the Schwaebische Tagwacht, negotiated with French mining interests, with whom they are affiliated in Luxemburg and various other undertakings, and arrived at an "understanding" that the Ruhr district be occupied by the French. While emphasizing the traitorous character from the German point of view—of the purposes of Stinnes and his associates, the Stuttgart paper gives also the alleged selfish motives of the parties to the "understanding." The plan as outlined in the Tagwacht was this: As soon as French troops take charge of the Ruhr district, the miners are denied the right to strike, in accordance with the established policy of French military commanders in the occupied territory on the Western bank of the Rhine. The number of the hours of labor are increased and the wages cut down. The result of the longer working hours—at present seven a day—is a larger output, and of the reduced wages is smaller cost of production per ton of coal. Exportation of coal to unoccupied Germany is reduced to a minimum or absolutely prevented. That will lead to accumulation of immense stocks of Ruhr coal, as France and Belgium have already an oversupply of coal, through their mines are worked only part time. When the accumulated supplies of the Ruhr district are sufficient to satisfy French needs for a period of several months, the French coal operators will be in a position to force the wages down by a general lock-out of the coal miners, if need be.

Both Sides to Profit.

So, the Schwaebische Tagwacht says, the French as well as the Ruhr coal operators would profit from lower wages and the other industries of those territories would obtain cheaper fuel. Stinnes and his German associates, furthermore, would evade paying their share of the reparations the Fatherland has to make, for French occupation of the Ruhr district would amount to annexation.

While the Tagwacht's story gives many details, it might be doubted if it was not for one fact—up to now it has not been repudiated. That is the more significant as Stinnes owns not only more than sixty German daily papers, among them the most widely read, but also every important news agency. The only answer the Stinnes press made to the Tagwacht's article was a panegyric on the lofty patriotism of the German iron and steel magnates, who would never entertain a thought of entering into a pact with the Fatherland's enemies.

It seems that the French plan of occupying the Ruhr district was given up, not so much out of deference to England and Italy as on account of the numerous mutinies of French soldiers who wanted to be sent home. Such mutinies were reported from Dusseldorf, Mainz, Treves, Vannes, Orleans, Belfort, Nantes and from many French regiments while on their way to the German frontier—the 33rd Infantry, Colonial Infantry, 63rd Infantry, 3rd Dragoons, 14th Dragoons, etc.

PARIS LADIES START NO STOCKING STYLE

By International News Service

PARIS, June 25.—Not all the knocks in the world have killed the stockingless fad. Warm weather saw dozens of Parisian beauties at the races minus their stockings, white limbs contrasting sharply with the black gowns, the prevailing mode. A number of the bare-legged girls wore ankle bracelets.

Le Petit Bleu fears the fashion is about to have a rebirth. "If ankles are perfect they lose nothing by being shown in light and transparent silk," says the Paris newspaper. "If they are imperfect they lose much by revealing the naked truth. Ladies, keep your stockings on."

STRIPPED BY LIGHTNING.

By International News Service

PARIS, June 25.—A bolt of lightning completely stripped Louis Martin, a shepherd, who was caught in a thunderstorm in the mountains near Levens, but he escaped with only a few burns.

Hunt's Soap
insures a Clear, Dainty Complexion

The rich lather of Hunt's Medicated Soap carries with it a very fine pore of the skin the medicine which destroys disease germs and gives a healthy cleanness to the complexion.

OIL CITY PHARMACY
CRAWFORD'S PHARMACY.

CANCER

It's successful treatment without the use of the knife. Hundreds of satisfied patients testify to this method. Write for free book. Tells how to care for patients suffering from cancer. Address
Dr. W. O. BYE, Kansas City, Mo.

The El Paso Tailors

—The place to get your misfit clothes made to fit you.
103 So. Rusk Street

City Barber Shop FOR SERVICE

—We are the oldest shop in the city and try to be the best. Try us.
NEAR THE DEPOT

NOTICE

Starting July 1st

We Will Lower the Price of Storing Cars to $10.00 Per Month

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

W. H. Rogers Garage

Agent for Hudson and Essex Cars

WEDDING RINGS

DIAMOND SET, PLATINUM, WHITE GOLD, GREEN GOLD AND PLAIN

HALTOM, YOUR JEWELER

With Texas Drug Co. Main and Austin

On Holidays and All Other Days

—we are prepared to do your transfer work at reasonable rates. We haul large or small, heavy or light packages, almost any distance. Our auto trucks do the work quickly and safely. Any hauling for the Fourth of July or this summer?

Ranger Transfer and Storage Co.

The Red Ball Line Phone 117 The Red Ball Line R. R. Ave and Houston sts.

JUST RECEIVED

25 Misses' and Young Women's Imported Organdy Dresses

A special shipment of beautiful solid Organdy Dresses has just arrived at the psychological time for week's-end parties, country club dances, and for short, "over-Sunday" trips.

They are of genuine imported Organdy—the sheerest, coolest, and most delightful frocks you ever saw. About fifteen different models. Made in youthful little pinafore styles, sash backs, surplice fronts, and fichu effects. Most of them are self trimmed—row upon row of picot ruffles, deep cluster tucks—all the features dear to the feminine heart.

Colors Are:

—NAVY	PRICES
—COPEIN	$10.25
—JADE	$12.25
—ROSE	$16.25
—PINK
—BLUE

Richardson-Brown Company, Inc.

Not more than 25 per cent of the working force in any establishment in Canada shall consist of either inexperienced adults or young girls.

London bootmakers claim that the English woman's foot is growing of a small park, where girls may rest larger, due probably to their addiction to golf, tennis and other sports.

An "Adamless Eden," in the form and meditate undisturbed by young men, is being planned in London.

FROST MOTOR CO.

Opens their new location Tuesday, June 28

The Mission Garage

Buick Sales and Service United States Tires Storage Gasoline and Oil

417 MAIN STREET PHONE 45

TIMES SPORT PAGE

BASEBALL, TRAP-SHOOTING, ALL SPORTS

ALL THE NEWS OF THE WEST TEXAS LEAGUE

MANY HOMERS AND NEAR HOMERS FIGURE IN BEARCAT VICTORY

Nitros Lose When Ballinger Gets to Lefty in Seventh; Score 6 to 4.

Special to the Times.

BALLINGER, Texas, June 25.—Ballinger took the series from Ranger today, defeating Lefty Adkins 6 to 4. Four home runs accounted for five of the ten runs scored. Clopp first up in the first inning parked the ball. York was hit by Liles, Singleton scored him with a near three-bagger, being tagged out on Penn's throw to Knight. Ballinger scored her first in the third when Briscoe tripled and King squeezed him in. Lovelace made the score 3 to 1 with a homer in the sixth, but Briscoe retaliated in the last half with a duplicate to it.

Fatal Seventh.

The seventh was a nasty inning for Adkins. Burch singled, Knight sacrificed and White scored himself and Burch with the fourth homer. Liles got a pass and fuller and Briscoe each doubled Briscoe's blow clearing the bases. It looked bad for Liles in the eighth, for he walked both Tate and Hamilton and Lovelace singled. Robertson then scored Tate with a long drive to center. Allen popped and Adkins rolled, ending the suspense for Bearcat fans. Ranger again threatened in the ninth but Brown gathered in Clopp's long fly and York, who singled, was doubled out on Singleton's drive which threatened to clear the fence.

Three fast doubles were pulled. The game was fast and clean. A dust storm interfered with playing in last inning.

The score: AB. R. H. O. A. E.

Ranger	3	4	10	2	12	1
Clopp lf	3	1	1	3	3	0
York lb	4	1	1	13	0	0
Singleton cf	5	0	1	0	0	0
Tate 2b	3	1	1	5	0	1
Hamilton 3b	2	0	1	1	10	0
Lovelace rf	5	1	2	0	1	0
Robertson ss	3	0	0	2	6	0
Allen c	4	0	1	1	4	0
Adkins p	3	0	0	1	1	0
Totals	32	4	10	24	12	1

AB. R. H. O. A. E.

Ballinger	3	1	1	3	3	0
Fuller, 2b	3	1	1	3	0	0
Briscoe, ss	4	2	3	4	2	0
King, cf	3	0	1	4	0	0
Brown lf	4	0	1	4	0	0
Penn rf	3	0	2	2	1	0
Burch lb	3	1	1	9	1	0
Knight 3b	5	0	0	1	1	0
White c	3	1	1	0	2	0
Liles p	2	1	1	0	0	0
Totals	30	6	10	27	10	4

Ranger.....200 001 01-4
Ballinger.....001 001 40x-6

Summary—Two-base hits, fuller, Briscoe; three-base hit, Briscoe; home runs, Clopp, Lovelace, Briscoe, White; sacrifice hits, King, Burch, Knight, Robertson; Double plays, Robertson to Tate, Burch to Briscoe, Penn to Burch struck out, by Liles 1; bases on balls, off Adkins 1, off Liles 5; hit by pitcher by Liles, 1. Time of game 1:50. Umpire Heitt.

BRONCS TAKE THIRD STRAIGHT FROM ORPHANS

Special to the Times.

BROWNWOOD, June 25.—The Broncs outbit the Orphans today and won easily, 9 to 2. Except for the terrific clouting the Broncs handed Cruse, it was a regular ball game and was a vast improvement over the slugfests which had preceded it. The fielding in the main was excellent.

The score: R. H. E.
San Angelo.....9 16 0
Orphans.....2 7 3
Batteries—Browning and Kelly; Cruse and Browning.

JOHNNY EVERS LIKES LANDIS' DECISION IN HEINIE GROH'S CASE

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Johnny Evers, manager of the Chicago Cubs, thinks the recent decision of Judge Landis that Heinie Groh must play with Cincinnati or not at all is one of the greatest ever made in baseball. At the same time, Evers expresses the belief that several ball players in the major leagues are not doing their best, because they want to be traded to a team with a chance to win the pennant and cites this as probably one reason for the heavy hitting.

"The ball players should do their best at all times and not think only of getting with a pennant winning club," said Evers. "Judge Landis in the Groh decision has shown them that he will not stand for any foolishness and I think you will find a big improvement in the work of several men as a result of that decision. I think one of the reasons so much hitting is being done against pitchers who are supposed to be good is because several of them are laying down in the hope of being traded. Now that's not a criticism of pitchers or players as a whole. It just refers to a few of the undesirable element, but I think they'll perk up a bit now."

HOW DEMPSEY WON HIS SPURS OVER WILLARD

Champion Rushed Big Kansan to Ropes, Floored Him 7 Times One Round.

Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard met for the world's heavyweight championship at Toledo, Ohio, July 4, 1919. The day was blisteringly hot. Thermometers at the ringside registered as high as 130 degrees. The big arena, constructed to seat 75,000 persons, contained only a few hundred more than 19,000. The gate receipts, however, insured the financial success of the event.

There was a marked contrast in the demeanor of the boxers as they entered the ring. Jess Willard, the champion, was almost arrogantly confident. He approached the ring with a sure stride, climbed through the ropes and gazed calmly out on the crowd with the suggestion of a confident smile playing around his mouth.

Dempsey's manner was more serious. A scowl, which visitors at his Atlantic City training camp have seen this summer while he has boxed, was intensified as he heard the instructions of Referee Ollie Pecora. The casual observer would have said he was doubtful of his ability to defeat his huge opponent.

With the bell for the opening round, doubt as to Dempsey's confidence vanished. He rushed Willard, plying him with rights and lefts, first to the jaw, then to the body.

After 45 seconds of action, a right to the body and a left to the jaw dropped Willard to the canvas. For the remainder of the round, the champion displayed courage seldom equaled in the squared circle. Seven times during the round Willard was either knocked down or sent helpless to the ropes. He was prone when the gong sounded for the close of the round. In the clamor, the gong was not heard and it was believed for a moment that Willard had been knocked out. Dempsey even started to leave the ring, believing that he was the victor. There has been doubt as to whether he actually got out of the ring.

Willard, a fiery, bloody mass, both eyes closed but still fighting, managed to last two more rounds. He was unable to answer the bell for the fourth round and Dempsey was declared the winner by a knockout in three rounds. Carpentier became a heavyweight in 1913. The year which saw him defeat Marcel Moreau for the middleweight championship of France and then invade the ranks of the heavyweights to twice defeat Bombardier Wells, the big Englishman, was probably the most sensational of his career.

Carpentier, through his superb boxing skill, gave Moreau a terrific beating in eight rounds, forcing his opponent to quit, although with a rise in which Moreau's seconds declared that his glove had been split and his hand injured.

Carpentier was now ready to meet Wells. The bout was staged in Ghent, June 1, 1913. Carpentier knocked out Wells in the fourth round. The Frenchman declares that the first three minutes of that match were the worst he ever experienced in the ring. Wells knocked Carpentier down for a count of nine in the first round. Spectators were amazed when the Frenchman regained his feet. Hanging on, he weathered the storm. He stalled through the second, felt out his man in the third and found that the stomach was his opponent's vulnerable spot.

In the fourth, after about a minute of action, Carpentier fainted for the jaw. Wells lifted his guard and Carpentier shot a right to the mid-section that sent Wells down and out. It was a remarkable show of pluck and recuperative power on the part of the Frenchman, still in his 'teens.

U. S. MINT SEEKS TO RECOVER "BAD COINS"

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The collecting of "bad money" coins which have been imperfectly minted is the peculiar hobby of Douglas N. Starr, sergeant of the guard at the war department. Starr's collection is thought to be the only one of its kind in the world.

The National Museum has received one collection of 200 imperfect coins gathered together by Sergeant Starr, and now he has completed a small private collection, containing twenty-two imperfect coins, ranging from a silver half dollar minted in 1807, to dimes and pennies of 1920.

Ray Baker, director of the mint, has asked Starr to sell this collection to the treasury department, either for exhibition or for the coins to be cancelled as worthless. Starr has refused to comply with this request, and Mr. Baker will ask the passage of a law to compel the return to the government of imperfect coins.

The old half dollar, two dimes with the date of 1875 and 1890, six buffalo nickels, four of the new dimes, one Indian penny and nine Lincoln pennies comprise Starr's latest collection. A portion of the disk is unstamped on each of these coins, this having occurred when the die which stamped the coins was not properly centered. A portion of the coin was stamped twice in two cases. On one of the Lincoln pennies a part of the die had struck over an already imperfect coin, leaving two separate impressions, neither of which was properly centered.

OUR CHAMPION PLAYS IN ENGLAND

Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, American woman tennis champion, photographed in action during the recent women's tennis tournament at Beckenham, England. Mrs. Mallory was eliminated by Mrs. Beamish, of England, in the semi-final round. The tournament was won by Miss Elizabeth Ryan, of California, who defeated Mrs. Mallory's conqueror in the finals.

CHEEVES WINS.

CINCINNATI, June 25.—Cheeves, the big husky Chicago pitcher grabbed last year from Eastland of the West Texas league, had Orney battering victoriously today. He allowed only six hits and got away to an easy 6 to 2 victory.

SWATTERS WIN SEESAW BATTLE FROM EAGLES

Special to the Times.

SWEETWATER, June 25.—Sweetwater won an exciting eleven-inning game from Abilene today, 9 to 8, thereby evening up the series. Abilene got away to a four-run lead in the first round. Then Manager Popboy Smith went into the box and held the Eagles while his Swatters were pounding Hill for runs. The Swatters tied it in the fifth and went two runs ahead in the eighth, after the Eagles had added one. Then the Eagles came back and tied the score in the ninth before Popboy could jerk himself. Game Saver Richburg held the visitors through the extra innings.

Both sides hit frequently and erred consistently. The fielding of Milam, the pitching of Popboy and the batting of Whitney were features of the game.

U. OF T. TRAINS WHITE RAT TO ESCAPE FROM MAZE IN TEST CASE

Special to the Times.

AUSTIN, Texas, June 25.—During the past session of the University of Texas students in the psychology department conducted a series of tests on animal learning as seen in the ability of a white rat to escape from a maze. A hungry rat was placed in a maze containing a number of false paths, but from which the animal might escape after repeated efforts. When the rat had reached the exit, it was rewarded with food. The time consumed in the process was carefully noted with the aid of a stopwatch, and the rat was then placed in the living cage to await the next trial. Only one trial each day was given. It was soon noticed that the time required for the animal to escape was becoming less and less with each succeeding trial, until at last it selected the true path immediately. The rat was then said to have "learned" the maze. In the case of one of the rats the initial trial required thirty-five minutes, while the twenty-third and last trial required but twenty-two seconds. Results were intended to demonstrate the effect of training on the lessening of misdirected energies and to show the actual beginning and growth of the learning processes of the lower animals.

That women can become successful in big positions is borne out by the fact that Mrs. Cora B. Williams has been president of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railroad for the past seven years.

Miss Marie Apel, a well-known English sculptor, has just completed a statue of Captain Guymer, the most famous of French aviators, who lost his life in the war. The figure is in bronze and of heroic size.

BETTING NOT HEAVY ON BIG RING BATTLE

Last-minute Wagers Expected to Bring Much Money From France.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Wagering on the Dempsey-Carpentier bout for the world's heavyweight championship at Jersey City, July 2, is extremely light despite interest on two continents that promises to eclipse that evidenced in any previous title battle. Both men have numerous admirers who, as yet, have failed to back their opinions with much money. Stimulated wagering is expected on the eve of the bout with a probable inflow of currency from France.

According to figures at which some money has been wagered in Wall street, Jack Dempsey seems likely to go into the ring an odds on favorite at 3 to 1. Although in past bouts for the title the champion, almost invariably has been the favorite, not since the Sullivan-Corbett battle has the title holder been so strongly favored in a bout of major worth. Sullivan was a 4 to 1 choice over "Generalman" Willard. Willard was a 2 to 1 favorite over Jess Dempsey when the challenger won at Toledo. Jim Jeffries entered the ring favored at 2 1/2 to 1 to beat Jack Johnson at Reno. Johnson, three weeks before he met Jess Willard at Havana, was a 3 to 1 favorite, but these figures shifted as the day of the bout approached and the negro climbed into the ring with the odds of only 6 to 5 in his favor. Jim Corbett was approximately a 2 to 1 shot over Bob Fitzsimmons when they met at Carson City.

Only $75,000 Bet. The total amount of money wagered on the coming battle to date is estimated by a New York sporting man not to exceed $75,000. A large part of this amount has been placed in so-called "break" bets. Odds of 9 to 5 have been quoted that Dempsey will win by a knockout. Persons who back Carpentier to drop Dempsey for the count demand odds of 20 to 1. Odds of 10 to 1 have been asked by persons who would wager that Carpentier will not answer the bell for the third round.

Paris, almost hysterical in its enthusiasm for the French war hero, nevertheless is dubious when money is mentioned. Word received here states that Dempsey rules as 8 to 5 favorite on the boulevards, with little money placed.

Betting men believe that the lack of wagering is due largely to the fact that Carpentier's supporters desire unreasonable odds. Also, they declare that the international aspect of the contest, while making for the unusual interest which will draw the greatest "gate" in the ring's history, is largely sentimental and not conducive to heavy wagering for that reason.

"The bout does not compare with the Jeffries-Johnson and the Willard-Dempsey battles at a corresponding period," one Broadway man declared. "There was at least $2,000,000 wagered on the result of the Toledo battle and it is safe to say that as much or more changed hands at Reno when Jeffries lost to Johnson."

FORMER PUG CHAMP KILLS AGED WIDOW AND THEN SUICIDES

CHICAGO, June 25.—Mrs. Margaret Ennis, 72 years old, a wealthy widow, was shot and killed when in her apartment here by Sergeant Thomas Smyth, 50 years old, of the British army and former middleweight pugilist champion of Ireland. After slaying Mrs. Ennis, Smyth committed suicide. The slaying was the result, according to police, of Smyth's jealousy.

Mrs. Ennis met Smyth, it was said, after the war. He became her suitor, but later, police say, was displaced by another man.

Fearing Smyth's threats, Mrs. Ennis recently sold the apartment in which she lived for $100,000 and was preparing to leave Chicago.

GEORGES AS HE IS TODAY

Georges Carpentier, photographed in the ring at his training quarters in Manhattan, L. I. He is already in fighting form.

THUMBNAIL SKETCHES.

MISKE LASTED THREE ROUNDS WITH DEMPSEY

By Associated Press.

Jack Dempsey defended his title for the first time last Labor day against Billy Miske. He was the same terrible mauler that put Willard aside. His punches seemed to have almost super-human force behind them and Miske lasted less than three rounds.

The challenger had grit aplenty and he knew how to box. He landed direct blows against the champion frequently and his quick footwork eluded several punches. Although forced to be inactive for a year under the care of surgeons, Miske showed himself a much better scrapper than when he appeared on the eve of the Dempsey-Willard match and fought Batling Levinsky. But he was no match for the giant killer. Dempsey disabled him in the second round with a vicious blow over the stomach and just below the heart. In the third round he knocked him down three times before Miske was forced to quit.

The first time he was felled he stayed down for the count of nine and he was smiling when he regained his feet. The attack that finished the fight consisted of a hammer blow to the stomach followed by a right to the chin.

Carpentier's Career. The defeat of Carpentier by two of the greatest middleweights that America has had, Billy Panke, the "Illinois Thunderbolt," and Frank Klaus of Pittsburgh, is now cited by persons who believe that the Frenchman stands small chance with Jack Dempsey at Jersey City, July 2.

Carpentier was then only 18 years of age but was big and rapidly growing out of the middleweight class. He already stood five feet 11 1/2 inches, his present height, and it is declared that he had considerable trouble making the middleweight limit for both bouts. He was meeting two of America's best boxers, both in their prime.

Carpentier's defeat at the hand of Klaus came early in the year. Although defeated, he gave Klaus a great battle for 19 rounds. Then it was Desamps, rather than Carpentier, who brought the battle to a close. The manager climbed through the ropes to save his groggy charge from further punishment and Carpentier, remonstrating, was forced to quit, Klaus winning on a foul. The American, however, was a clean-cut winner and surely would have scored an actual knockout had the bout continued.

BASEBALL

TODAY

RANGER

—Vs.—

SWEETWATER

GAME CALLED AT 3:30 P. M.

Two blocks from Marston, off Main

ADMISSION 75c

Tickets on Sale at The Fountain and Texas Drug

NEGROES WILL BE CROWDED FROM TROUGH

Political Plums Won't Fall to Them as in the Past.

Special to the Times.
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Leading negro politicians have been told they will not be given positions under the Harding administration that have to be passed upon by the Senate. That is understood to mean that the jobs of register of the treasury and recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia will go to white men, although a large number of minor places will go to prominent colored men and women.

This agreement was not reached until Will H. Hays had quit as chairman of the national committee and was succeeded by John T. Adams. Mr. Hays opposed the plan to force the negro to the background and eliminate him as an issue in the South. His opposition was not open and aggressive, but strong enough to interfere with plans to build up a "white Republican party."

Chairman Adams, it is understood, is more friendly to the idea. In the distribution of patronage the southern negro will be ignored if white men can be had for the jobs. Republican leaders are experiencing some trouble in organizing a formidable party of whites in South Carolina. They have been flirting with former Senator John L. McLaurin, Senator Tillman's colleague in the Senate fifteen years ago, who could have the job of pie counter attendant for his state if he would agree to reorganize the G. O. P. forces along white lines.

The new southern policy will accord only secondary consideration to the so-called "black and tan" element. Chairman Adams will take up the situation on his return to Washington from Iowa. A series of conferences has been arranged and it is understood the problem will be threshed out. This change of attitude is bound to affect the party in the North, where in some states if the negro votes should turn to the Democrats they would carry with them the balance of power.

FEDERAL LAW ASKED TO PROTECT ELK HERDS

By International News Service
WASHINGTON, June 25.—As a result of the mild winter experienced in many parts of the country, Uncle Sam's famous elk herd, which was reduced from about 29,000 to 1,000 during the winter, is expected to stage a strong rally, the field workers of the biological survey have reported to the department of agriculture.

During the previous winter the food shortage was such that the herd in the district around Jackson Hole, Gros Ventre and Buffalo Park valleys was simply starved and frozen out.

The contrary prevailed last winter. With plenty of forage, and easily accessible because of lack of heavy snow, the herd pulled through and has a most favorable outlook.

The agents want to the need of suitable government-owned winter ranges, stating that those set aside experimentally have not proved desirable. State and federal legislation to protect the herd is needed, it is said, if these valuable animals are to be preserved.

COLORADO SHRUB SAID TO CONTAIN RUBBER

By International News Service
ALAMOSA, Colo., June 24.—San Luis valley residents are keenly interested in reports reaching here that crude rubber is contained in an indigenous shrub that grows quite promiscuously in this region, known as "rabbit brush."

E. C. McCarty, professor of botany at the Colorado agricultural college, in Fort Collins, is expected here soon to gather several hundred pounds of the shrub to ship to Eastern rubber companies for further experimental purposes.

That the shrub has a large percentage of crude rubber has already been established, according to Professor McCarty, who says that, after extracting considerable of this material from the shrub, he sent it to a big rubber company for tests. Chemical analysis disclosed, according to Professor McCarty, that the rubber in the shrub was of a high grade and that it vulcanized readily.

Professor McCarty declared in a letter to the local chamber of commerce that experiments will be continued at the agricultural college to determine whether the rubber-bearing shrubs can be transplanted and improved.

600 ERUPTIONS IN MT. LASSEN.

By International News Service
REDDING, Cal., June 25.—Lassen Peak, America's only "live" volcano, has been in eruption 600 times in the last seven years, according to reports made by three local volunteer observers to Prof. J. S. Diller of the United States geological survey, here to spend several months studying the causes for the volcano's activity.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

FOR SALE—Pair of ponies and ice cream wagon. Selling 80 to 100 gallons a week; good steady trade; $400.00; no trading. 221 E. Main.

LOST—Billbook, containing approximately $200; has my card and several pictures in it. Believe lost in Lamb theatre or between theatre and Rusk-street corner. R. S. Norris, 303 S. Rusk st. Reward.

COLOSSAL CARRIER OF THE NORTH NOW HAS A NEW HOME IN NEW YORK

Because of the importance of transportation problems on both sides of the northern international boundary the consolidation of the Canadian Pacific's New York representation, with the sole exception of the freight department, in the new twenty-one story Canadian Pacific Building, is regarded in transportation circles as a move of wide moment. Two floors of space in the great building, one block from the Grand Central Terminal, have been leased for twenty-one years at a rental of about $3,000,000.

The story of the Canadian Pacific is one of the great romances of big business. Sixty years ago Captain Palliser, who had crossed the Canadian Rockies after suffering great hardships, declared that a railway could not be built through them. Beginning in 1871, the Canadian government devoted nine years to the selection of a route and then turned the titanic task over to the Canadian Pacific. Overcoming apparently insurmountable difficulties, physical and financial, George Stephen, Donald Smith and William Van Horne built the railway through the mountain wilderness joining eastern and western Canada together with bands of steel in only five years.

Forty years ago the Canadian Pacific Railway was a dream. Today it has a trackage of 19,500 miles, 5,500 miles of which are in the United States, fleets of steamships which span the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, the Great Lakes and the waterways to Alaska and the palatial hotels dotting the Dominion from New Brunswick to British Columbia. It employs nearly 100,000 men; its fast trains bridge the vast 2,885 mile stretch between Montreal and Vancouver in only 92 hours and its assets total more than a billion of dollars. During four years of war its ships ferried across the seas carrying 1,000,000 troops and war passengers.

George Stephen, afterwards Lord Mount Stephen, was first president of the company. He and his cousin George A. Smith, afterwards Lord Strathcona, were natives of Scotland. Sir William Van Horne the master builder of the railway and its second president was a native of the United States. So was Lord Shaughnessy, the railway genius who succeeded him and who is still chairman of the company. E. W. Beatty, its fourth president, is a native-born Canadian.

NON-STOP FLIGHT ATLANTIC TO PACIFIC TO BE ATTEMPTED SOON

By Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, June 25.—Plans to attempt a non-stop airplane flight from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast in the near future have been announced by David R. Davis, a wealthy young California sportsman, and Eric Springer, a veteran pilot of Europe and America. The flight, if successful, not only would prove epoch-making as the first of its kind, but probably would bring to America and to an American machine, two of three most coveted aerial records—marks now held by foreign flyers.

In completing the coast to coast flight, a distance by line of approximately 2,500 miles, the flyers would break the non-stop distance record of 1,940 miles, made by Alcock and Brown in crossing the Atlantic shortly after the war. Indications are that a successful trip also would establish a new record for continuous flying, the present mark being twenty-four hours, nineteen minutes, seven seconds, held in France. The third of the most coveted achievements of flyers—the record for straightaway speed—probably would not be affected in a coast to coast flight.

Special Machine.
The plane in which the attempt will be made is an especially constructed machine in which every modern mechanical appliance tending to insure the success of the trip will be installed. Every detail of it will be of American design and manufacture. Designed by Donald W. Douglas, it has been christened the 'Cloudster.' It will not be particularly large, the wing spread being fifty-six feet, the length thirty-five feet and the height thirteen feet. Many war planes were larger.

The tanks will carry 650 gallons of gasoline for the 400-horsepower Liberty engine. An instrument of special construction will enable the pilot to tell whether the plane is flying level, even though he is in a fog which makes the earth invisible. Other instruments will register the gasoline consumption per hour, the oil consumption, the direction and speed of the wind, the air speed and ground speed of the machine, and all other data useful to an aviator in attempting such a record breaking flight.

The plane has been completed for nearly two months. Its speed has been found to be close to 110 miles an hour as a maximum.

Present plans are to start the flight in July.

GOVERNMENT EXHIBITS LARGEST WATCH KNOWN

By International News Service
WASHINGTON, June 24.—The largest watch ever known to be manufactured is being exhibited in the priceless collection of the government housed in the National museum. It

RESOLUTION

Perhaps 'Tis a Late Date for Resolutions—but

WHY NOT MAKE A RESOLUTION

to attend the

BIG BANKRUPT SALE

of the stock formerly known as

CAWLEY BROS.

P. & Q. Bldg., L-Shape Room

We Just Received Line of

Ford Casings

—which we are offering at a low figure while they last. These casings are guaranteed to give satisfaction.

30x3	$15.00
30x3 1/2	$16.50

—All other casings at a low price. We are selling good tires cheaper now than any time during the past 10 years

SEE US BEFORE BUYING

—We handle OLDFIELD, GOODRICH, RACINE CORD TIRES.

—KOKOMO, RACINE, PERFECTION and FIDELITY FABRIC CASINGS.

Victory Service Station

116 S. Marston

was manufactured by a big watch-making company of Lancaster, Pa., and was loaned to the government for two months for exhibition purposes.

This mastodon among chronometers measures 1 1/2 inches in diameter, is 1 1/2 inches thick and has a main spring 9 feet long. It is an exact duplicate of the standard 23-jewel watch of commerce, the jewels being synthetic stones. The timepiece was constructed at a cost of $5,000 and represents some of the finest workmanship of its kind in the country. The "train," the wheels which run it, is of solid gold, with the eggs in the teeth treated specially to harden them against wear. The winding wheel is of steel. Although it has a nine-foot mainspring, the watch is run by a weight.

SAY! STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

STOP—For a minute and let me tell you what we have to sell. All kinds of men's clothing. We have the finest selection of men's shoes—shoes that will back up their style with conservative durability. Men's dress shirts in silks, pongee and zero-linen. Men's work shirts in flannel and blue denim. We have ties, collars, underwear—we have everything for the conservative man today.

LOOK—For us. Come to see us. The store with the Bright Orange Front. Get our prices.

LISTEN—Our store offers you a better opportunity of buying goods at rock-bottom prices, because in buying merchandise wholesale for three big stores we are able to get prices lower than for one individual store. Call and see our quality and prices.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

ARMY SUPPLY STORE

"The Place That Saves You Money"

315 Main Street Next to Ranger Garage

STOP FIGHTING DISEASE AND OVERCOME IT

To treat the effect of disease is a useless waste of time and money. At best temporary relief is all that can be expected and often medicine fails even in this, doing more harm than good and leaving the patient weak and thin from under nourishment and lack of exercise.

The only way to effect a permanent solution of the health problem is to remove the thing that causes sickness, for there can be no effect without a cause. Where there is smoke there is fire; put out the fire and there will be no more smoke.

TORTURED NERVES CAUSE DISEASE

The nervous system goes to every part of the body. It is impossible to even touch the skin with the point of a needle without touching a nerve. The larger of these nerves supply the muscles with their impulse to act, and the various organs with the energy they must have in order to do their work.

When one of the movable pieces of bone in your spine gets out of place it causes a pressure on the nerve trunk leaving the spine at that point and thus reduces or stops the supply of vital energy the nerve is supposed to carry. This cruel pressure causes sickness in some form and that sickness will never be entirely done away with until the pressure is removed.

Chiropractic adjustments remove the pressure, the nerve being thus permitted to do its work and health soon follows as a natural and logical result.

DR. L. ROBINSON, Chiropractor

Office: 115 1/2 N. Marston St.—Southern Rooms
Office Hours: 8 a. m. to 12 m., 2 to 9 p. m.—Examination Free
PHONE 419

WEST TEXAS MILITARY ACADEMY
Junior Unit of R. O. T. C. Uniforms Furnished by United States Government. Affiliated

Established in 1893 this academy has had 28 years of experience in building boys into strong, dominant men of accomplishment. The schedule of the academy is so planned that the boy may enjoy outdoor military drill and regular course to develop his body, with the advantage of learned academic instructors to further his mental advancement. The ever increasing popularity of the W. T. M. A. as a preparatory school, with a limit of 150, makes it advisable to reserve accommodations as far as possible in advance. Write today for illustrated catalogue. 1921-22 session opens September 6.

J. TOM WILLIAMS, Supt., San Antonio, Texas.

BIG DOINGS AT CADDO

THREE DAY RODEO AND CELEBRATION AT CADDO

In The Heart of Stephens County Oil Fields.

THREE BIG BALL GAMES

July 3, Ranger Gulf vs Caddo.
July 4, Ivan vs Caddo.
July 5, Strawn vs Caddo.

—Spend your vacation in Caddo during the Rodeo and Baseball Tournament.

Shirt Week at Joseph's

This is going to be Shirt Week at Joseph's and in keeping with his policy, "The Best for Less," he has made big reductions on all shirts. Silk Jerseys, crepe de chine and silk broadcloth that have been selling for $8.50 are now only $5.95

BIG ASSORTMENT OF PUSSYWILLOW SILKS in dandy stripe patterns made expressly for us by the Rotary Shirt Co., and bearing our label, are now reduced from $9.50 to only $6.95

ARROW SHIRTS in plain and fancy stripes, made of madras and non-fade percale; all sizes, and any sleeve length. Now on sale for $1.48

IMPORTED FRENCH MADRAS SHIRTS in plain and corded patterns, guaranteed not to fade. These shirts were made for us and are guaranteed by us. Big assortment to select from, only $2.95

TO SAY $4.50 MADRAS SHIRTS FOR $1.95 would sound like a dream, but in reality that is so if you compared the prices six months ago with today for we are selling Arrow shirts of heavy madras for $1.95 only

ARROW SHIRTS in sizes from 14 to 18 and in colors suitable for the boy of 14 to the man of 80 may be had at Joseph's now for $2.48

—We have a number of Organdy Dresses in stock. CO-ED and other makes go at a reduction of 25 per cent.

All silk dresses greatly reduced

—Men's summer suits of Palm Beach and Priestley's English Mohair from $7.95 to $18.95

—Men's three-piece, all-wool suits, some two pair of trousers, for $25.00

SNOBBERY IN BRITISH TRADE GETS AMUSING

Even Window Washing Outfit Boasts "High Appointment."

LONDON, June 24.—England is the land of business run by "appointment," royal or titled. There is hardly a shop of any fashionable pretense in London, from a tailor's to a butcher's, which has not emblazoned on its windows "By Appointment" to some king or queen or relative thereof.

Occasionally this system produces an amusing result. For example, there is a firm making toilet requisites which claims "By Royal Appointment to H. M. Queen Alexandra" and has the legend on each box or bottle, including bowls of shaving soap.

But the last stage of ludicrousness in this "appointment" scheme is attained by a window cleaning company which has a page advertisement in a London theatre program headed "Under Royal and Distinguished Patronage." Then comes a long list of "patrons," beginning with "H. R. H. the Princess Arthur of Connaught," and "H. H. the Maharaja of Baroda" and including one earl, one marchioness, one countess, eight "ladies," three "honorables," one knight, and two members of parliament. The recital ends rather modestly with the names of a famous producer of Shakespeare and a well known author, followed by "&c., &c., &c."

Undoubtedly the "and so forths" have nothing to recommend them but their ability to pay their window cleaning bills. They probably greatly enjoy patronizing an establishment, even so lowly as a window cleaning concern, which is "Under Royal and Distinguished Patronage."

"ARE WE DOWNHEARTED? NO." SAYS BOREN OF THE INDEPENDENTS

Mark A. Boren, who was connected with the Ranger postoffice at a time just before the discovery well and since with the postal department at South Bend has just returned from an extensive visit to oil centers in Wyoming, Montana, Arkansas, and Louisiana.

"Independent operators," he said today, are not discouraged over the low price of crude oil. Seasoned men who have been through several raids such as this believe that the giants have bitten off a larger hunk than they can chew in this case and in only a short space of time crude oil will

MEN Think of It WOMEN

—Here's a sale that stands supreme among the value giving events of the Boston Store. Their great Shoe Sale. Every man and woman should realize and come and see these values, extraordinary

Hanan & Sons, Howard & Foster

—Shoes are considered the height of shoe perfection, men should purchase several pair of shoes during this event. Women are offered hundreds of the season's smartest modes—all taken from our regular higher price stock and reduced.

—We advertise the truth and the truth advertises us.
—Appreciate these goods by calling and seeing these best known brands cut to the limit.

LOOK

SALE

take an upward swing. Independents Will Profit.

"Elimination of new development at this time surely means that when the upward trend does come independents will profit greatly from the oil they are putting in storage."

In many cases this profit will be in excess to the loss caused by the price of oil at this time. "This is true," he said, "because many independents are putting down pipe lines, building storage and curtailing their present pipe line runs as much as possible."

The larger companies are now in the fields, Mr. Boren declared, and are making preparations for a larger development than has ever gone on before.

JAPAN'S ARMY ESTIMATE FOR 1922 IS 260,000,000 YEN

TOKIO, June 25.—The army estimate for 1922 will be 260,000,000 yen, according to newspaper reports. This sum is slightly in excess of last year's appropriation.

Never read by firelight; the dancing flames are most injurious to the sight.

Cool Off At

PANTAZE SWEET SHOP

—There is nothing so delicious as a DISH OF ICE CREAM
—We invite your inspection of our new sweet shop just opened.

PANTAZE SWEET SHOP
McCLESKEY HOTEL BLDG.

NOTICE

The affairs of the Texas Bank & Trust Company and those of the Farmers & Merchants State Bank have been combined.

Customers of the Texas Bank & Trust Company will find those with whom they have been accustomed to do business at the Farmers & Merchants State Bank, ready to serve them. All checks drawn on accounts of the Texas Bank & Trust Company will be honored at the Farmers & Merchants State Bank and customers may continue the use of the check books on the Texas Bank & Trust Company.

TEXAS BANK & TRUST CO. FARMERS & MERCHANTS STATE BANK

PROGRAM FOR WEEK

TEMPLE—Sunday, Monday and Tuesday—Priscilla Dean in "Reputation." Wednesday—"The Passionate Pilgrim" (all-star cast), and comedy. Thursday and Friday—Olis Skinner in "Kismet," and comedy. Saturday—William Fairbanks in "Western Adventure," and comedy.

LAMB—Sunday and Monday, Alice Lake in "The Greater Claim," also comedy, "Shuffle the Queen," and Pathe News. Tuesday and Wednesday—Shirley Mason in "The Lamp-lighter," also comedy and Pathe News. Thursday—May Allison in "Last Card," also Rollin comedy and Pathe Review. Friday and Saturday—Tom Mix in "The Big Town Round-Up," also comedy and Pathe News.

LIBERTY—Sunday—Hugo Ballin presents "East Lynne," and Buster Keaton in "High Sign." Monday—Tom Mix in "Hands Off." Ruth Clifford and Jack Sherrill in episode one of "The Invisible Ray," a wonderful new serial; also Billy West comedy, "Service Stripes," and Mutt and Jeff comedy. Wednesday—Robert Warwick in "In Mizouri," and Roland comedy, "Burglar Bold." Thursday—Jack Pickford in "Just Out of College," and Century comedy, "Yamps and Scamps." Tuesday—Roy Stewart in "The Bond of Fear," and Educational comedy, "A Homespun Hero." Friday—William S. Hart in "The Toll Gate," and Mack Sennett comedy, "Great Scott." Saturday—Tom Mix in "Prairie Trails," and Charlie Chaplin in "1 A. M."

MAJESTIC—Albert Taylor Stock company presents "Peaceful Valley," and picture, Alice Brady in "A Self-Made Widow."

TEMPLE

Critics who have commented upon the strange dramatic power of "Reputation," Priscilla Dean's Universal super-feature which is now at the Temple Theatre, have attributed its force to the epochal story, the personal magnetism of the star, the elaborate presentation and the admirable direction; but all of them have overlooked a quality to which may be credited its greatest appeal. That is the quality of contrast.

"Reputation" is made up of contrast—drastic contrasts which carry a thrill with every rapid change from character to character, locale to locale, and incident to incident.

As the story opens, Miss Dean is seen as a worldly actress in a country village, the first contrast. Then comes her European tour where she is feted at magnificent banquets dazzling in profusion. In contrast to this is shown the man she has discarded, a friendless, pitiful wreck, wandering in the reeking valleys of Limehouse, the sewer through which the human filth of the world is kept away from the discerning nostrils of London toward the traceless gray immensity of the sea.

Then, when dissipation has marred her beauty, the woman is shown an outcast in the slums of New York while her daughter is seen in dignified elegance and comfort, taking a place on the stage and impersonating her own mother.

"Reputation" has been described as the most dramatic story ever filmed and it is without question Priscilla Dean's greatest dramatic triumph. Edwin Levin wrote it as a novelette under the title of "False Colors," while Lucian Hubbard, scenario editor at Universal City, adapted it to the screen, changed the theme to heighten the dramatic quality and introduced some of the inimitable touches of humor and pathos for which he is noted.

LIBERTY

Certain stories—in novel or play form—constitute an important part of our American civilization as do the telephone, the telegraph, the incandescent bulb or the automobile; they are an integral part of our life. Only a small number can be counted among this high order: "In Old Kentucky," "The Old Homestead," "Ben Hur," "Way Down East" and, greatest of all, "East Lynne." Originally written by an English novelist, Mrs. Henry Wood, the novel was soon transplanted to the United States and dramatized as well. So many scores of editions have been published here and so many hundreds of presentations of the play have been seen on our stage, that it has come to be regarded as an American product—just as a foreign born infant brought here will absorb our civilization and become a representative American citizen.

The greatness of "East Lynne" lies not alone in the five generations who have known it, nor in the hundred million Americans to whom it has been familiar; the basis of its universal appeal as a book, as a play—and now as a photodrama—lies in its humaneness, its sympathy, its sweetness and its moral lesson. Nothing can long endure which is founded on a false morality; that explains the fleeting popularity of the great mass of our literature, our drama and our films. It takes an epic tale to endure the test of time; "East Lynne" is the ever-green, the hardy perennial in the garden of literature. Showing at the Liberty today.

LAMB

Alice Lake, beloved little star of the screen world, will be seen by local motion picture goers in "The Greater Claim," the Metro special which will have a run of two days, beginning today at the Lamb Theatre as the feature attraction.

The appearance of Miss Lake is always an event of importance, for she lends to whatever role she essays, buoyancy of youth, wonderful charm, and a great gift of acting.

In "The Greater Claim," adapted from the Izola Forrester-Mamm Page story, she has the part of Mary Smith, the Polles beauty, who marries a wealthy youth, only to find that his father soon kidnaps him so as to separate them. She furiously annuls the marriage and proceeds to disgrace the family name. Shady schemers use her and her child to get lush money. The climax comes with a big vital situation, where mother love surges and where a man is called upon to make a clever move to discover who is really the mother and who the adventuress.

"The Greater Claim" was adapted for the screen by Albert Shelby LeVino, and directed by Wesley Ruggles, under the personal supervision of Bayard Veiler, Director of Productions. Sidney Ullman designed and executed the art interiors.

The supporting cast includes Jack Dougherty, Edward Cecil, De Witt Jennings, Florence Gilbert and Lenore Lynard.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF KABER ARRESTED

Salvatore Cola (center), photographed immediately after his arrest in Buffalo, New York, charged with the murder of Daniel Kaber, wealthy Cleveland publisher, who was killed almost two years ago. In connection with the death of Kaber, the late publisher's mother-in-law, the wife and stepdaughter are under arrest. According to District Attorney Moore, Cola admits stabbing Kaber twenty-four times.

16-YEAR-OLD CRIMINAL ESCAPES DOZEN TIMES, NOW IN SAN QUENTIN

By International News Service
SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Cal., June 25.—"Wee Willie" is once more behind bars. And the present question agitating prison officials is whether the unusual ingenuity displayed by this sixteen-year-old boy in escaping from jail will manifest itself behind the bars of the state penitentiary.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO RANGER THEATREGOERS

For the rest of the summer the Majestic Theater will be open on Sunday's only.

REMEMBER
BIG VAUDEVILLE EVERY SUNDAY.
Matinee 3:30 Night 8:30
TODAY'S PROGRAMME.

THE ALBERT TAYLOR STOCK COMPANY

Presenting the beautiful play
"PEACEFUL VALLEY"

Picture Presentation
Alice Brady

—in—
"A SELF-MADE WIDOW"
MAJESTIC THEATRE

sentence, sending the boy to the penitentiary only after Preston Reform school authorities and Mather Field army authorities had requested that the boy be sent somewhere else. The boy had escaped from the reform school several times and was a deserter from the army.

The youth, since he entered upon a career of crime at the age of thirteen, has had probably the most remarkable juvenile record in police annals in the United States. Three times he escaped from Whittier Reform school. Twice he escaped from the county jail at Eureka, nearly wrecking the institution on one occasion and sawing his way out on the other. In addition, he escaped from the county jail at San Luis Obispo county.

His criminal activities include over twenty burglaries, one army desertion, passing of worthless checks and the theft of automobiles.

His boast that "no jail could hold him" was always effective until now. Prison officials believe that the stone walls and bars of this institution will prove his Nemesis.

"Wee Willie" takes it all good-naturedly.

SNAKE ADOPTS MOUSE WHEN PUT IN HIS CAGE

NEW YORK, June 25.—A small white mouse placed in the same cage with a South American boa constrictor as food for the latter has been adopted by the snake, according to Edwin A. Osborne of No. 9418 One Hundred and Sixteenth street, Richmond Hill, owner of this unusual family.

The mouse, with the aid of some straw, has made a nest in the coils of the boa constrictor, and Mr. Osborne declares that the most amicable relations exist between the two.

Although the snake is non-poisonous, it has great constrictive power and recently crushed the life out of a rat placed in its cage in twenty-four seconds. The reptile refused to eat the rat, however, and Mr. Osborne a day or so later placed the small white mouse in the cage. The mouse scampered in and out among the coils of the snake without interference by the latter, and the two have since been on the best of terms.

Mr. Osborne, who is a newspaper man and writer of animal stories who has made a hobby of collecting snakes, declared that this is the first instance on record, so far as he is aware, of a snake adopting a mouse.

Coppers for boiling clothes can now be fitted with pipes to heat water for bathroom use.

Easy to Take—Quick to Relieve
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER
SAFE & SUCCESSFUL
SANTAL MIDY
Each Capsule bears the name MIDY
Beware of counterfeits

TODAY AND MONDAY
Alice Lake

"THE GREATER CLAIM"

Also Comedy
"SHUFFLE THE QUEEN"
—and—
PATHE NEWS

Times Want Ads Pay

Ranger School of Art and Music

Room 5, Terrell Bldg., 113 1/2 North Rusk Street (I. O. O. F. Hall)
Enrollment office, Room 2, same building

FACULTY

CHAS. ABEL, graduate Lycee de Coutances, France. Chas. Endicott, graduate Boston Conservatory, Julius Eichberg, Pres.; Miss Isabelle Abel—Mrs. Endicott.

The Various Departments Will Cover:

—Violin and all string instruments; piano and organ, Saxophone and all Reed instruments; all band and orchestra instruments; classic and aesthetic dancing, calisthenics and deportment.

ORCHESTRAL MUSIC FURNISHED FOR ALL OCCASIONS

JAZZ?—NO! SYNCOPATION?—YES!

"Music Not Noise" Our Motto

Bands and Orchestras taught individually or ensemble

DANCING BOATING BATHING

—AND—
Shamrock Park

Aerial Swings, Spring Boards and New Shutos

—A recreation place for refined people.
—Life guards on duty at all times.

Bathing, 25c; Suits, 25c
JACK JARVIS, Manager.

Majestic Confectionery

Newly Opened
The Majestic Confectionery is now opened to serve delicious ice cream and cold drinks. Stop in when you are warm and after the show. Soda fountain absolutely sanitary.

Majestic Confectionery

and
Flower Shop
Majestic Show Bldg.

SUNDAY SPECIAL CHICKEN DINNER

FROM 11:30 A. M. TO 9:30 P. M.

MANHATTAN CAFE

The Finest Cafe in West Texas

—The place where the best of everything is served at very moderate prices.

The Coolest Place in Town

MANHATTAN CAFE

-- of Guaranteed Purity

—An assurance that you can enjoy each and every delicious bit of Ranger Ice Cream

—From the selection of each pure ingredient and the sterilizing of the freezers to the time it is delivered to you in sanitary carriers our efforts are untiring to insure the purity of this perfect Ice Cream.

—There is a Ranger dealer near you.

Ask for YAM-YAM

The full quart brick

"THE TASTE WILL TELL"

Ranger Ice Cream Co.

CARL LAEMMLE Presents

Priscilla Dean

The most dynamic personality in moving pictures, in

"REPUTATION"

Stuart Paton's Tremendous Drama of Woman Against Woman

Remember

"OUTSIDE THE LAW"

—and don't miss seeing this great Universal-Jewel Production De-Luxe.

—also—

UNIVERSAL COMEDY

KUM
EEP
UMFY
OOL

LIBERTY THEATRE
TODAY
HUGO BALLIN
Presents
"EAST LYNNE"
—and—
BUSTER KEATON
—in—
"THE HIGH SIGN"
PROGRAM 10¢ CHANGED 25¢ DAILY.

BELLEAU WILL BE REBUILT BY AMERICANS

Little French Village to Be Memorial to Men Who Died There.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Bellevue, the little French village on the edge of the foothills of Belleau Wood, is to be rebuilt by Americans as a memorial to the American dead in this historic battle.

There were only about eighty-five houses in the little place and they were destroyed in the fierce fighting which raged from Chateau Thierry along the Marne when the American troops turned the tide of the last German drive in the summer of 1918.

Near the village, on a hillside, white crosses mark the graves of the heroes who fell in that battle, and as a lasting memorial to them, the American committee which includes many notables is setting out to rebuild the place. The name of every American who joins in the project will be inscribed in a book to be deposited in the city hall in the new village of Belleau Wood Memorial association of which Mrs. James Carroll Fraser of this city is chairman.

Plan Has Support.

President Harding, General Pershing, Secretary Weeks and various others have indorsed and supported the movement. The late Chief Justice White indorsed it before he died.

The numbers of American soldiers buried in the Belleau Wood cemetery, by states, follows:

- Alabama, 28; Arizona, 3; Arkansas, 13; California, 53; Connecticut, 53; Colorado, 13; Delaware, 4; District of Columbia, 4; Florida, 3; Georgia, 31; Idaho, 17; Illinois, 134; Indiana, 54; Iowa, 35; Kansas, 26; Kentucky, 33; Louisiana, 21; Massachusetts, 20; Maine, 44; Maryland, 24; Michigan, 106; Mississippi, 11; Missouri, 61; Montana, 27; Nebraska, 19; New Hampshire, 48; New Jersey, 62; New Mexico, 3; New York, 241; North Carolina, 79; North Dakota, 16; Ohio, 138; Oklahoma, 27; Oregon, 2; Pennsylvania, 247; Rhode Island, 7; South Carolina, 4; South Dakota, 10; Tennessee, 19; Texas, 64; Utah, 15; Vermont, 27; Washington, 27; West Virginia, 27; Wyoming, 6; Virginia, 18; Wisconsin, 48.

GOLD BEING PANNED IN LOS ANGELES CITY

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—Gold is being panned daily but a few miles from the center of the city of Los Angeles and near the heart of the north residential district. Guy W. Rollins, chief engineer for a rock and gravel company, which operates in the Arroyo Seco, has installed a system of crude sluice boxes and each day "pans" out a quantity of the precious metal that nets him $20 weekly.

The gold dust is found in the gravel that is dug from the bed of the Arroyo Seco and for years has been left with the crushed gravel to be used in road construction. Rollins discovered the "pay streak" when he entered the company's employ several months ago and has been panning it since then.

DARING MERMAIDS KEEP ROLLING 'EM DOWN TO SPITE THE BLUE LAWS

BOSTON, June 25.—Fair bathers considered themselves quite daring when they appeared at local beaches with stockings rolled down to their knees, and when they rolled them down far enough to show the dimples on said knees and didn't get "pinched" they thought they were "getting away" with something. Then when the really courageous mermaids continued the rolling process to their ankles they were—o-o-h, so daring!

Now comes the announcement that there is no rule and has not been a regulation compelling the wearing of stockings at state bathing reservations.

In other words, the mythical regulation has been self-enforced, and the beach heart-breakers are wondering whether to blame the blue-law advocates for the propaganda that put it across for two years.

TRAVEL IN COMFORT

—Our trunks, suit cases and traveling bags are built to stand hard usage. No more worrying about the rough handling. You know that your things will arrive safe and uncrumpled.

—Stop in and look them over.

H. FAIR
JEWELRY AND BROKER
105 S. Rusk St.

POLICE KILL 171 MEMBERS OF "ISRAELITES"

Religious Sect in Africa Refused to Evacuate Government Land.

CAPETOWN, June 25.—A native religious sect which calls itself the "Israelites," under a "prophet" named Enoch, who refused to evacuate government land at Bulhoek, near Queenstown, Cape Colony, has been forcibly ejected, losing 171 killed and 126 wounded in a fight with mounted Cape police.

For some years past, the government had permitted the "Israelites" to celebrate "Passover" on a common but each year a growing number of pilgrims remained behind on what they called "holy ground" until a village of some 350 huts had sprung up. The sect forbade anybody to enter the village, or to recognize any authority except orders from "Jehovah, the God of Israel," as interpreted by Enoch the prophet.

The government some time ago endeavored to register the settlement but the police were obliged to withdraw to avoid bloodshed.

Peaceful efforts by the secretary for native affairs and others to induce the "Israelites" to withdraw failed. They steadfastly refused to go.

Finally a force of 800 mounted police moved from Queenstown to demand the surrender of the village. With shouts of "Jehovah says we must fight," 4,000 natives charged the police with swords and assegais, the women urging on the men with wild religious chants. The police let them come on until within thirty yards and then fired, with the result stated. Thereupon the prophet Enoch surrendered and the village is to be demolished.

The affair has caused some stir in the Cape house of assembly. Premier Smuts declared that in view of the natives' obstinacy, there was no other way to make them understand that they must obey the law.

GOODS STOLEN FROM DENTIST'S OFFICE HAVE BEEN RECOVERED

Goods valued at about $600, stolen from Dr. C. C. Craig, were recovered Saturday by J. B. Ames, chief of detectives. The merchandise consisted of sheet gold for dental work and a pearl worth several hundred dollars. According to Ames, Dr. Craig did not know the latter item had been stolen until it had been recovered and delivered to its owner. Ames says that he has the necessary information to lead to the arrest of the burglar.

Dr. Craig's office was entered several days ago and the goods taken.

DAUGHTER SIDES WITH STILLMAN

Miss Anne Stillman, the beautiful daughter of James A. Stillman and Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman, who has taken sides with her father in his suit against her mother. She is a sister of "Bud" Stillman, who says of her: "I can't understand girls. I'm sorry for Sis. She seems to think father is a 'Lily White' angel." Young Stillman is standing by his mother. He said: "It seems a hard thing to say, but I can no longer recognize the man who is attacking my mother as my father."

COMPLETE LINE HUDNUTS THREE FLOWERS

- THREE FLOWERS SACHET POWDER
- THREE FLOWERS VANITY CASES
- THREE FLOWERS LIP STICKS
- THREE FLOWERS VANISHING CREAM
- THREE FLOWERS TOILET WATER
- THREE FLOWERS BANDOLINE
- THREE FLOWERS BRILLIANTINE
- THREE FLOWERS FACE POWDER
- THREE FLOWERS ROUGE
- THREE FLOWERS TALCUM POWDER

OIL CITY PHARMACY
117 Main Street

CRAWFORD'S PHARMACY
Gholson Hotel

—We believe our Fountain Drinks are better—Because we serve

ENGLAND BOMBARDS IRELAND FROM AIR WITH 'TRUTH' PAMPHLETS

By EARL C. REEVES
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, June 25.—Lord Northcliffe's war-time methods of wearing down the "home front" by constant bombardment by propaganda of the civilian territory behind enemy lines is being used in Ireland today.

Northcliffe, as director of propaganda in enemy countries, sent airplanes loaded with pamphlets telling "the truth about the war" across many miles of territory. The distribution of this "ammunition," it is generally conceded, played a great part in ending the war.

He is to this day ardently hated in Germany.

The application to Ireland of these principles of fighting with ideas is revealed in a dispatch from Millstreet, which is in the heart of the south of Ireland stronghold of republicanism.

An airplane has dropped thousands of leaflets throughout the district, worded as follows:

"Read this, and if you still decide to be led astray by your leaders in the belief that you are 'soldiers' and entitled to be treated as soldiers, you have only yourselves to blame.

"Only armed forces who fulfill certain conditions can avail themselves of the rights conferred by the laws and customs of war.

"These conditions are that they must wear a fixed distinctive sign or uniform, recognizable at a distance. They must carry arms openly, and must conduct their operations in accordance with the laws and customs of war."

Sinn Fein has contended that its Irish Republican army is a national army—that its members, if captured, should be entitled to treatment accorded prisoners of war.

EL PASO.—Eighty-five certificates were presented to students at the close of the training school for teachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. This was an increase of twenty-two over last year.

The City Bakery
—is now in its new location at 122 North Austin street.

WE HAVE A COMPLETE LINE OF PASTRIES

Hot Rolls at Noon and Evening.

NO MORE DRUDGERY
THE EASY VACUUM WASHER

—Modern, up-to-date. Let us demonstrate. Have you a big washing? make it a pleasure—forget the worry and drudgery.

RANGER GAS COMPANY, Inc.

To Dine Here Is Truly a Delight

A MID such surroundings and such service as we offer it is truly a pleasure to dine here. Stop here before or after the theatre or movie, at noon, or breakfast and have a good palatable meal with us.

You'll find the food, service and appointment just as you would expect at any first-class restaurant, with prices considerably lower.

And it's the food after all that means so much. Prepared by a chef who is an expert in his business you're assured of getting the best that nature has served to you—just as you wish.

Ranger Cafe

"Ranger's Foremost Restaurant."

ANNOUNCEMENT

—We are in a position to serve satisfactorily Dodge Brothers car owners in securing promptly Genuine Dodge Brothers repair parts and give first class repair service as needed.

Ranger Garage
311 Main Street Phone No. 1

SALE OF SALES CONTINUES

The great sale of the Toggery continues for one more week. We have established a reputation for radically reduced prices. For one more week we are going to offer to buyers the greatest phenomenal price slaughtering that Ranger has ever witnessed. Now is your opportunity of buying men's and women's wear for a great saving. Here are some of our bargains. Look them over and come where the crowd buys.

FLORSHEIM SHOES

$22.50 and $20.00 values now $9.75 only

Hope Domestic 35c Values 12 1-2c Yard	Thread Silk Fancy Hose Special 98c	Men's Lisle Sox All Colors Special 9c
Brown Domestic 25c Values Special 10c	Organdie Blouses $4.00 Values Special 98c	Silk Crepe Shirts $12.00 Values Special $4.98
Georgette Overblouses Special $5.49	Ladies' White Canvas High Top Shoes $1.49 Pair	Men's Caps $3.00 Values Special 98c
Georgette Blouses $12.00 Values—$10.00 Values Special $4.25	Ladies' Fancy Hose 98c Values Special 39c	Straw Hats Special $2.95
One-Half Price on Ladies' Silk Underwear	9-4 Purple Bleach Sheeting Special 40c Yard	Men's Silk Fibre Hose Special 48c
One Lot Ladies' Oxfords Special $2.95	Men's Athletic Under- wear $2 and $3 Values 79c Suit	One Lot of High-Grade Men's Shoes $2.98 Pair
Ladies' Oxfords $12.00 Value Special $3.95	Men's Panama Hats $7.50 and $12.50 Values Special $2.95	One Lot Men's High- Grade Oxfords Special $3.49
Gillette Safety Razors $6.00 Value for $2.95	Slippers $3.50 Value $1.95	Ladies' Felt House Slippers $6.00 Value for $1.49

THE TOGGERY
201 MAIN ST.