Jody Tate grabbed off a batful of a fast one in the latter half of the same round. The high-powered punch rolled to the boards and Jody took third. There he waited watchfully while Lovey tried to squeeze him in. The bunt went into the air but almost over Truesdale's head. Frankie took the ball with one gloved hand and a desperate leap, but fell after the catch and Jody made it back to third. Then Hamilton (alias Jack Diamond) stepped into the breach, his two-ply blow to right center counting

Weeds and Union Principles Get Jasper Jones in Dutch With Wife LIVES OF CHILDREN

No Regrets. "It all happened when we moved. Without a single regret I left the best crop of weeds in Ranger. Honest, I will match them against anybody's weeds. Nestling among them, too, were a million cute little families of chiggers. When we moved, the chigger family was torn mother from child. Those that had annexed themselves to our person we took with us and left the family mourning.

Jasper, I want you to get a hoe and cut these weeds. It will be a disgrace if you don't.'

the hallowed door-stoop, and even if I did, I would be infringing on the rights of the weed-cutters union, and I could not do that.

union. You know how these women are always trying to pick a flaw in a fellow's defense. Finally I compromised by promising to get a memer of the weed-cutters' union to do the work. I tried, but the hoe filers are out on a strike and of course a weed-cutter couldn't file a hoe; it

WILD BEARS ENDANGER

"A wild wilderness of weeds, the home of the festive chigger, has grown up around our door stoop." Jasper Jones told the reporter this morning as the pair in unison turned their eyes toward the sun as it sparkled in the eastern sky—only they weren't looking at the sun. "And those same weeds have just about wrecked a happy home. Talk about a siren invading the sacred precincts—she has nothing on a patch of weeds for causing loud and vociferous talking at the evening meal."

"A wild wilderness of weeds, the wouldn't be right. And being a union man myself, I can't work more than sum myself, I can't work more than man myself, I can't work more than man myself, I can't work more than man myself, I can't work more than sum of the cytomer of the sacred that a council and old hunters say that it has been twenty years sinee a bear has been twenty years cially when they clutter up the path to the front door. It looks shiftless, she says, and then adds: 'Just think of what the neighbors will say.'

ATTENTION

This establishment is standing squarely behind the Farmers & Merchants State Bank, and depositing every cent taken in, so that the confidence of the city of Ranger is not shaken.

When you help to make a run on a bank you do a wrong, in this case, to approximately fifteen thousand people, or the city of Ranger and surrounding country. Think about it, then you are sure to leave your money where it is being protected by the state of Texas, and where you are protecting the people who make up this city.

ECHO OF TONG WAR REACHES RANGER COPS: CHINAMAN SOUGHT

One reads quite often of the tong ars of the Chinese in California and in reading shudders and doubts the truth of the statements. They appear too horrible to believe in this

To the police station this morning came a notice from a chief of police of a California city, asking that one hended if he comes this way. The notice says that the man sought is a Chinese gunman; that he killed Quon Yen and is a member of the Sue On Tong. The latter statement eans that a tong war is in progress or has been in progress, and that Bing Kong, true to his tong killed his nan and then disappeared.

AMERICA IS DESCRIBED AS THE HAPPY HUNTING GROUND OF DIVORCE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, July 1.-America was escribed as "the happy hunting round of divorce" and "the home of livorces" by the Rev. A. V. Magee, vicar of St. Mark's church, London, turing a discussion of the divorce question by the London Diocesan concrence just ended. A resolution was acopted pledging the conference "to dhere to the principle of the indisolubility of Christian marriage."

The Rev. Mr. Magee denounced Lord Buckmaster's bill in parliament for divorce reform, saying it could adequately be described in two titles, 'Divorce While You Wait" and "Mariage on Trial for Six Months."

An amendment to the resolution hat the conference should pledge itself to adhere "to the teaching of Jeus Christ concerning marriage" was

If some citizens of Ranger persist in sowing seeds of distrust by making accusations against the men upon whose shoulders rests the handling of the community finances, and by taking money out of circulation, they will cause others to lose confidence and serious consequences will result.

If Ranger is to have the services of financial institutions, Ranger must have implicit faith in the men at the heads of the banks. The town cannot function in a modern way without a bank, and the bank must have the moral support of the people or it cannot function.

If your faith in Ranger and in the F. & M. bank is not sound enough for you to leave your money there after all the assurances you have had from the representative business men, and if you have no confidence in the State Guaranty Fund, you have no right to expect Ranger to have faith in you. If you sow seeds of pessimism and encourage lack of confidence you will surely reap hardship for yourself, and cause your friends and neighbors much inconvenience, if not actual want.
