DALLASMAYOR ASKS KU KLUX

Asks All City Employes to Withdraw From Membership in Organization.

By Associated Press.

DALLAS, April 6 .- The Ku Klux Klan in Dallas was asked to disband today by Mayor Aldredge in a statement in which he also requested all municipal employes who are members of the klan to resign from that organization at once.

The mayor urged that harmony be restored between klansmen and the anti-klan faction in the city, Citizenship First.

"To those of you who are courageous men and are loath to quit under fire, I would answer that your first interest and highest responsibility rests on you as citizens of Dallas and not as a klansman," the mayor said

Say Explainers in Telling of Cook's Offensive Against Porter and the Porter's Counter-Attack.

Greek and negro combatants and friends filled the police station this morning while Frank Brown, porter at the Bernardo hotel, sought to explain why he waylaid John Varthis, pastryman at the Ranger cafe, as the latter left his room on the second floor of the McCleskey hotel. Varthis likewise was called on to do a little explaining as to why he struck the negro last night when the porter claimed to have entered the cafe to carry an order back to the Bernardo hotel. Walton Berry, another porter at the Bernardo, who is said to have accompanied the Brown negro to the McCleskey in search of the Greek, did a little explaining on Greek, and one explanation was that the negro had believed the Homeric lingo to be oil field cussing. "Don't get humped up!" he told the pastryman, and the pastryman hit him-but not with a pie. He hit him with his fist, the negro says, and the latter, noting the presence of others in the restaurant, hurriedly left the establishment. Brown admitted that he went to the McCleskey hotel to get revenge and that he "jumped on" the pastryman as he left his room. The negro boasted that "whipping Greeks" had been one of his main accomplishments in Dallas before coming to Ranger. Two negroes and the pastryman were released on bond for their appearance later in city court.

Ranger Refinery May Reopen In Sixty Days

Circuit Court's Decision on Receivership Leads to ARMY Creditors' Negotiation for Operation by Eastern Capital.

The Ranger Refining company plant, closed for a year as a result of a receivership suit, may be reopened within sixty days as a result of negotiations now proceeding among the creditors, W. H. Fouke, in charge of the company offices here, said this morning. These negotiations have been begun since a recent opinion of the federal circuit court of appeals at New Orleans, reversing a decision on receivership jurisdiction rendered by Judge Wilson of the Northern district of Texas, and reinstating W. D. Girand and W. J. Stewart as receivers, as appointed by the Texas court.

The plans now under way contemplate reopening the refinery with the aid of Eastern capital.

Pending the outcome of negotiations among the Texas and Missouri creditors, all court action will be held in abeyance, it is stated. Negotiations to reopen the plant with Eastern capital began in Fort Worth on Dec. 1, and were continued at a meeting in St. Louis on March 8.

All attempts to open the refineries have been hitherto prevented by a fight between the creditors. One group some time ago filed bankruptcy proceedings in the federal court at Kansas City, setting forth that the company's principal place of business was in Missouri. Similar action was taken by another group of creditors before Judge Wilson of the federal district of North Texas. Judge Wilson during the latter part of November, held that the jurisdiction in the matter lay in the federal court at Kansas City. The Texas creditors' group appealed. The case was argued before the federal circuit court of appeals at New Orleans on March 13 and the decision placing the jurisdiction in the Texas court, rendered the latter part of March.

Kelloggs Corn Flakes snap up fussy appetites something wonderful!

No coaxing needed to tempt family folks and visitor folks to eat a-plenty—not when there's a big pitcher of milk or cream and lots of Kellogg's Corn Flakes—and, maybe some handy fresh fruit—ready to tickle fickle palates!

Kellogg's are unlike any corn flakes your ever ate! They're the original kind—they ought to be best! No other corn flakes are so deliciously flavored; no other corn flakes retain such wonder-crispness till eaten! And, Kellogg's are never leathery or tough or hard to eat!

Kellogg's are always a delight to serveand a treat to eat at any meal! In fact, you'll never know how good corn flakes can be until you know KELLOGG'S! The difference is astounding!
