FORMAL OPENING OF DEPOT ON APRIL 25

AX WIELDING IN KANSAS MAY BE LAID TO FATHER

Believed to Have Poisoned Self After Severe Grilling by Officers.

By Associated Press.
CONCORDIA, Kan., April 7.—L. T. Tremblay, farmer living near St. Joseph, this county, five of whose sons were hacked with an ax early Tuesday, resulting in the death of one of them and the probable fatal injury to three, was found dead early today at the home of a neighbor, where he had been staying since the tragedy. Tremblay himself had apparently been attacked and injured at the time of the tragedy. No trace of poison was found about the room or the body. The coroner is now conducting an investigation. Tremblay grew suddenly ill last night when experts from the state prison put him through a severe grilling as to the circumstances surrounding the slashings. Officers expressed the opinion that Tremblay had committed suicide and advanced the theory that he had taken a drug some time last night.

NON-UNION MEN LEAVE MINES IN PENNSYLVANIA

By United Press.
BROWNVILLE, Pa., April 7.—The coal strike is spreading rapidly into the non-union fields of Pennsylvania. National organizers have persuaded over 15,000 non-union workers in the heart of the unorganized district to drop their picks, causing the closing of thirty-four mines, most of them belonging to the United States Steel corporation.

OPERATOR SAYS CONTRACT WOULD BE 'FINANCIAL SUICIDE'

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 7.—Statements defending the bituminous coal operators in reference to negotiating a central agreement with the miners' union, made by T. H. Watkins, a bituminous operator of Pennsylvania, before the house labor committee at Washington yesterday, were attacked today by President Lewis of the miners' union. Lewis said Watkins' declaration served merely to increase the controversy and bitterness now existing. Watkins was quoted as saying that it would be "financial suicide" for the operators in each district to enter any agreement with the miners not based on conditions in that district.

FENN MINERS APPEAR AT HOUSE INVESTIGATION

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—Mine union representatives from the central Pennsylvania fields appeared today before the house investigation committee in support of the attempt of national mine officials to bring about federal regulation. "Any industry that gives 100 days work a year is in need of reorganization," President Robey of District 22, told the committee.

TORNADO WRECKS DAIRY

By Associated Press.
BLACKWELL, Okla., April 7.—A tornado which struck a dairy farm and a half southeast of here early today demolished two milk houses and a feed barn and killed and injured many of the dairy cows. A tenant house was lifted by the wind and set down several feet away from its foundations, without damage. One man was injured. A heavy rain and hail storm followed the wind.

PHILIPPINE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE VISITING IN WACO

By Associated Press.
WACO, April 7.—Thomas Albert Street, associate justice of the supreme court of the Philippines, is here visiting his brother, C. C. Street, city attorney.

HOUSTON JUDGE DIES.

By Associated Press.
HOUSTON, April 7.—Judge John W. Lewis, 54, judge of the county court at law No. 1, died this morning following an operation two days ago.

Receiver Lancaster and Other High Officials Will Take Part in Ceremonies.

The formal opening of the new Texas & Pacific depot here will be held on April 25, it was decided yesterday afternoon at a meeting between city and Chamber of Commerce officials and representatives of the road. Superintendent Knightlinger and F. E. Burke, land and tax commissioner, explained that an earlier date for the opening would prevent J. L. Lancaster, receiver of the road, from being present. Other railroad officials who will be here for the opening and take part in the program are: Superintendent Knightlinger, General Manager Somerville, E. F. Mitchell, chief engineer, and F. E. Burke, land and tax commissioner. The program has not as yet been arranged.

The two railroad officials arrived here yesterday afternoon in Superintendent Knightlinger's private car for the conference to explain their reasons for setting the opening at a later date than the one desired by the Chamber of Commerce.

Practically all of the interior work on the new depot has been completed. The walls have been decorated, part of the fixtures and furniture installed and the lighting fixtures are now being hung. An attractive feature of the new station will be the park on the north side, running from the end of the building to Main street. On the south end of the building, a large space is provided for the parking of automobiles.

SOUTH TEXAS FLOODS WILL EQUAL 1915

By United Press.
HOUSTON, April 7.—Overflows in the lowlands of Texas' principal streams will be as extensive as in 1915, according to the local weather bureau. The crest of the flood in the different rivers is not expected for at least forty-eight hours in this section, as the waters are moving slowly. The Brazos river is out of its banks at Navasota but is due for another rise when the crest arrives, in the next two days. Inhabitants have been repeatedly warned to leave the lowlands before the real flood arrives. The main flood in the Trinity is reported well south of Dallas. At Liberty it has broken the controlling levees and inundated the Beaumont road.

LEGION POST INDORSES PROBE OF VETS' BUREAU

By United Press.
GREENVILLE, Texas, April 7.—Greenville post of the American Legion has unanimously indorsed the stand taken by Congressman Rayburn of Texas in demanding a probe of the handling of relief work for disabled and sick veterans of the world war. Otto Morgan, post commander, announced this morning. Morgan declared Rayburn's charges are true and the Greenville post has the facts of several cases of neglect in this vicinity. The post stands ready to present its evidence.

PIONEER LAND SUIT

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, April 7.—Suit has been filed here by A. B. Teston of Eastland county, against C. Brennan of Dallas, alleging that the defendant has unlawfully taken possession of 51.3 acres owned by the plaintiff near Pioneer, and seeking to remove the defendant from the property.

SMALL'S PROSECUTORS SEEK BANKING BOOKS

By United Press.
WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 7.—Prosecutors of Governor Len Small, charged with conspiracy to embezzle state funds, today continued their fight before Judge Claire Edwards to obtain all existing records of the First Trust & Savings bank at Kankakee and the Grant Park Trust & Savings bank.

TRUTH NOT TOLD ABOUT SHOOTING OF U. S. AVIATOR

Mrs. Day's Moan "Oh, My Honor," and Handkerchief in Hand Probed.

By United Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 7.—"The shot that killed Lieutenant Colonel Paul Ward Beck was fired after, in my opinion, Jean Day had seen something that swept him off his feet," District Attorney Hughes declared today in a statement. "It is in respect to that vision that in my opinion Judge Day hasn't told the whole truth."

Hughes' statement today was the most sensational development in the case of Day, who has said he slew the colonel in self-defense after he had seen Mrs. Day being attacked. Hughes statement brings out the following points:
"Not Defending Life."
"1. Judge Day asserts he fired in self-defense. In my judgment, if the shot was fired in self-defense it was in defense of his home and honor rather than in defense of his life."
"2. I am frank to say that if Day would tell the whole truth no jury of red-blooded citizens would ever render a verdict against him. However, to be equally candid, I must say that so far he has not told the whole truth."
"3. Whether or not Beck was shot from in front or in the back is one of the greatest questions in this case. An X-ray examination would tend to show that Beck was not looking at Day when the shot was fired."
"Why the Handkerchief?"
"4. Another unexplained feature is the handkerchief that was found clutched in Beck's hand. What was he doing with that handkerchief? It must have had a certain significance."

"5. Previously to the shooting, Day and Beck had been very good friends. What extra contingency changed this sentiment?
"6. Why did Mrs. Day after the shooting moan, 'Oh, my honor'?"
Hughes declared the question of the handkerchief and the alleged moaning statement of Mrs. Day are the two most vital points in the case. The statement is signed by Hughes.

May Bar Public.
The question of whether to admit the public at the hearing of evidence in the coroner's inquiry into the death of Colonel Beck, has turned to an analysis of the statement of J. P. Day, capitalist and lawyer, that he struck the officer down with his pistol when he found him making improper proposals to Mrs. Day.

Justice of the Peace McWilliams, before whom the inquest will be held, wants to conduct the hearing in a large court room, sufficient to accommodate those interested in the case. The county attorney, on the other hand, is desirous of holding the hearing in the small office of the justice and ruling out morbid curiosity seekers. The hearing will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

DREAMS MERELY GUARD SLEEP, MEAN NOTHING, SCIENTIST DECLARES

By Associated Press.
LONDON, April 7.—Dr. William Brown, mental specialist and head of the department of psychology in King's college, University of London, has pronounced a novel theory of dreams. He rejected the claim of the psycho-analysts that dreams are always significant, and that every part of them has a meaning which must be looked for in primitive desires lurking in the subconscious mind. He gave them a much simpler significance.

"The function of a dream is to guard sleep," he said before the institute of hygiene. "In sleep desires, cravings, anxieties, the memories of earlier days, all of which are the lower and fundamental elements of the mind, well up and strive toward consciousness while the main personality is in abeyance. If they reach consciousness, sleep is at an end, but the dream, which is a sort of intermediary form of consciousness, intervenes, and makes the impulse innocuous so that sleep persists. This theory covers the entire ground of all types of dreams."

EX-SENATOR GIBSON DIES AT BONHAM HOME

By United Press.
BONHAM, Texas, April 7.—Ex-State Senator S. F. Gibson, 54, died at his home last night after an illness lasting about a week. Senator Gibson served in both the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth legislatures and was author of the famous Gibson bill pertaining to insurance companies doing business in the state, which was the big political issue of Ferguson's second administration.

NEW KLANSMEN TOLD NOT TO TELL

By United Press.
AUSTIN, April 7.—Two hundred candidates initiated by Capital City Klan No. 88, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, a few miles out of Austin, last night, were instructed not to tell the grand jury they are members of the klan. "Just refuse to answer if the grand jury asks if you are a klansman," they were told.

WOULD BRIBE FARM BUREAU TO BEAT FORD

Offered $2,500,000 to Ruin Muscle Shoals Deal, Affidavit Says.

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—A sensational charge that the Alabama Farm Bureau federation had been offered a virtual bribe of $2,500,000 if it would seek to obtain a government lease on the Muscle Shoals nitrate plant No. 2 and thus defeat the efforts of Henry Ford to lease the entire project, was made today by the American Farm Bureau federation.

In a letter by Roy C. Bishop, secretary and manager of the Alabama federation, he alleges that General R. E. Steiner had urged that the Alabama federation seek to lease the nitrate plant No. 2, to assure a supply of fertilizer for the farmers, and said that a prominent company would purchase the rest of the project and would make a contribution of $2,500,000 to the federation. Bishop then charged that Steiner represented the Alabama Power company. A connection with the Alabama Power company was denied by Steiner, Bishop said. Steiner also promised to guarantee 100,000 horsepower to operate the nitrate plant, Bishop alleged.

Bishop's letter is in the form of an affidavit, Gray Silver, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau federation, said. He will present it to the house military committee, now investigating the various offers for the Muscle Shoals projects.

OFFERS REWARD FOR FUGITIVE STATE OFFICIAL

By Associated Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, April 7.—The statement by Governor J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma in a public address here yesterday that he believed Fred J. Dennis, former state banking commissioner, to be an honest man, has resulted in a statement from Campbell Russell, chairman of the state corporation commission, offering a reward of $100 to any one delivering Dennis to the sheriff of Oklahoma county in ninety days. Governor Robertson and Dennis were indicted jointly by the grand jury, conducting an investigation into the banking situation, on charges of accepting a bribe to allow the Guaranty State bank to remain open after it was insolvent.

Russell said that Dennis should have an opportunity to clear his name of suspicion and added that he could not do so in the Bermuda Islands, Mexico or Patagonia. He suggested that 100 good citizens join him in offering a reward.
Dennis resigned several weeks before the grand jury reported and left the state. His whereabouts are unknown.

SIX KILLED WHEN LONDON-PARIS PLANES COLLIDE

By Associated Press.
PARIS, April 7.—Two Paris and London express planes collided in mid-air this afternoon over Thieux, seven miles north of Paris. Both pilots, three passengers and a mechanic were killed.

STOLE HIS STILL!

By Associated Press.
CLEBURNE, April 7.—Burglars last night stole a large copper still that was part of a collection of curios owned by Roger Collins.

Girl's Fatal Exposure Laid to Gas Company

$20,750 ASKED AS DAMAGES BY RANGER COUPLE

Pneumonia Results From Running About in Cold to Keep Meter In.

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, April 7.—The action of the Ranger Gas company in shutting off the gas from the home of R. A. Shelton, postal carrier, at 316 Mesquite street on Jan. 14, is held directly responsible for the death of Aline Malone, young daughter of Mrs. Shelton, in a suit filed today in the Eighty-eighth district court by the child's mother and stepfather. The little Malone girl, an ardent Salvation Army worker in Ranger, died on Feb. 20 after lying unconscious several weeks with pneumonia, alleged to have been brought on by exposure when the mother sent the little girl hurrying over the city in frantic attempts to prevent the gas from being shut off. The sum of $20,750 is asked as damages and medical expenses.

Warm From Work.
The child had been helping her mother with the family washing, when agents of the gas company appeared at the home to shut off the gas and take out the meter. The mother sent the little girl hurrying to the gas company offices with a note, then to the postoffice, where the stepfather was employed, and then to the police station. All efforts to prevent the meter being removed were in vain, the complaint states, and the child, warm from the steam and her exertion in washing, fell ill from the exposure.

Meter Wrongfully Removed?
It is claimed by the plaintiffs that the meter was wrongfully removed from the house by the gas company, as the December gas bill had been paid promptly and the payment of the November bill had been held up awaiting an examination of the meter and gas connections by the company. After protesting the November bill of $5.40 at the gas company offices, Mrs. Shelton claims, the company employees assured her that she need not pay the bill until an examination of the meter was made. This, she alleges, was never done and a second bill for November was never presented.

The plaintiffs are represented by County Attorney Ove Overson.

DALLAS RAIDERS FIND BIG STOCK OF DRUGS

By United Press.
DALLAS, April 7.—Continuing the series of dope raids made here recently, the federal agents raided a rooming house here last night and seized a large amount of dope, including 100 capsules of cocaine, a large bottle of "snow" and a complete assortment of dope guns. Three men in the house at the time of the raid were arrested.

A young woman about 20 years old eluded the officers and mysteriously escaped from a room on the second floor. Officers were guarding all exits and it is believed she escaped through a secret passage.

GRAIN CROP ESTIMATES

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—Winter production of wheat this year was forecast at 872,974,000 bushels and the rye production at 69,667,000 bushels by the department of agriculture, in the first estimate of the season issued today and based on April 1 conditions, which were: Winter wheat 78.4 per cent of normal; rye, 89 per cent.

GIRL SLAYS FATHER

By Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS, April 7.—Miss Maude A. Ritchie, 18, a telephone operator, today shot and killed her father, George A. Ritchie, 53, a butcher, who she asserted was abusing her mother.

FIRE AT SHERMAN.

SHERMAN, April 7.—Fire early today destroyed the Hall planing mill, the Hall soap factory, the Thompson cafe and a frame building belonging to Dr. W. B. Loving. The blaze started in the planing mill. The loss is estimated at $7,500.

HOW LONG?

By United Press.
DENTON, Texas, April 7.—M. Champion, 74-year-old negro, was found guilty of murder today and sentenced to life imprisonment by a jury in district court here today. The jury returned the verdict at 9 a. m., after being out since early yesterday afternoon.

BOOSTER TRIPS AND WAGE SCALE TALKED TONIGHT

Merchants' Association Will Take Action at Gholson Ball Room.

The contemplated booster trips into the territories north and south of Ranger, to advertise the opening of the West Texas league season, will be discussed tonight at a special meeting of the Retail Merchants' association in the basement ball room of the Gholson hotel.

The $2.25 wage scale paid for common labor by the county road contractors, which has been the subject of frequent meetings of the labor bodies of late, will also be brought up at the meeting tonight and the participation of the association in the matter considered.

Plans suggested for booster trips through the northern section, taking in Breckenridge, Caddo and other towns, and another trip through the territory to the south, taking in DeLeon, DeLeon, Gorman, Cisco and Eastland.

IRISH REBELS MASS FOR WAR ON ULSTERITES

By United Press.
ENNISKILLEN, Ireland, April 7.—An Irish republican army massed along the Leigrim border has invaded Ulster territory. Reinforcements are being rushed from Belfast to points on the frontier where the rebel forces have penetrated the first line of the Ulster defense.

In a skirmish believed preliminary to a general engagement, near here last night, a rebel patrol ambushed scouts of the Ulster constabulary, killing one and wounding three.

HOUSTON CANDIDATE WILL OPPOSE KU KLUX

By United Press.
HOUSTON, April 7.—The Ku Klux Klan became an issue in local politics today with the announcement of J. S. Bracewell of his candidacy for district attorney of Harris county. In his platform as announced, Bracewell takes a decided stand against the Ku Klux Klan and mob rule.

Colonel Billy Mayfield, editor of Mayfield's Weekly, who announced as a candidate for lieutenant governor some time ago, has come out in his paper during the last few weeks strongly in defense of the klan.

SENATE VOTES TODAY ON FEDERAL JUDGES BILL

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—Beginning disposition of amendments to the bill authorizing a score of additional federal judges, upon which a vote is scheduled for late today, the senate this morning adopted, 25 to 21, the amendment by Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, Republican, to provide another federal judge for New Jersey.

PORTO RICAN GRAND JURY REPORTS ON GOVERNOR

By Associated Press.
SAN JUAN, P. R., April 7.—District Judge Foote has been asked by the grand jury to turn over to the fiscal authorities the report presented by the grand jury Wednesday on its investigation into the administration of Governor E. Mont Reily and other officials.

SOVIET LEADER MAY APPEAR AT ECONOMIC MEET

Dramatic Appearance of Lenin Possible When British and Russians Clash.

By ED L. KEEN, United Press Staff Correspondent.
LONDON, April 7.—A dramatic appearance at Genoa of Premier Lenine of Russia would not be an entirely unexpected development of the economic conference which opens Monday. The Russian dictator, it is suggested, may be traveling incognito to Italy to outwit the enemies who seek his life and to startle the world by appearing to cross swords with Lloyd George in a struggle to replace Russia in the confidence of the world. With or without the presence of the Bolshevik premier, the feature of the Genoa parley will be the clash of interests between the Russian delegates and the allied states. The former, heralded as the giants of a new industrial system, but who have not tested their powers against other nations, have arrived at Genoa with an aggressive program conflicting with that laid down by the allies.

BRITISH DELEGATION EN ROUTE TO GENOA

By United Press.
LONDON, April 7.—Premier Lloyd George, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Magen, and the main body of the British delegation, left today for Genoa. Marquis Curzon, Lloyd George's high hand man on the British delegation, was ill and unable to leave with the rest. Curzon expects to leave Monday, arriving after the conference opens.

CONFERENCE AT PARIS.

By United Press.
PARIS, April 7.—Premier Poincaré and Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation at Genoa, boarded the special train which is carrying Lloyd George and the British delegation to Italy as it was being switched through the railroad yards in Paris today and held a hasty conference with the British premier.

TWO RANGER MEN ON PROGRAM OF MEDICAL MEET

"The coming of the Eskimo Stork" will be described here Tuesday at the meeting of the Northwestern District Medical association Tuesday, by Dr. Frederick A. Cook, in addition to the polar explorer's public lecture on his dash to the North Pole. Dr. Cook's paper on the Eskimo stork comes under the gynecology and obstetrics section of the meeting. A number of other interesting papers will be read by local and visiting surgeons from all over northwest Texas.

Ranger men appearing on the program are Dr. C. O. Terrell, chairman of the medical section, and Dr. L. E. McAdon on "Typhoid in Children." The Rev. A. N. Stubblebine will deliver the invocation. The welcoming address will be delivered by J. E. T. Peters and the response by Dr. J. H. Eastland of Mineral Wells. Business sessions and the 6 o'clock luncheon will be held at the Gholson hotel. Dr. Cook will deliver his polar lecture at the First Baptist church, Tuesday night.

TWO KIDNAPPED MEN UNHARMED BY MASKERS

By Associated Press.
NEW ORLEANS, April 7.—Two white men who were kidnapped early Wednesday and Thursday by masked bandits have been accounted for, and declare they were not harmed. They are Thomas Pipitone, 26, and Emile Brunot, a pugilist.

PRESBYTERIANS SELECT FORT WORTH FOR 1923 MEET

By Associated Press.
FORT WORTH, April 7.—The North Texas Presbyterian convention, in session at Arlington, today selected Fort Worth for the 1923 convention.

NOSE IS GUIDE TO CHARACTER, GERMANS TOLD

Short Nose Indicates a Stumpy Soul; Length Is Guarantee of Brains.

BERLIN, April 7.—"The nose is a reliable indicator of the virtues and vices of its possessor, a thermometer of his soul temperature and a betrayer of concealed passions." That was the burden of a lecture delivered before the society of the "Friends of Physiognomy" in Berlin.

For those who make a scientific study of people and noses the latter is a prophet and a signboard of character and nature. It is by the nose no less than by the lines in the palm of the hand that fortune tellers are guided in making their prognostications.

On the handbills announcing the lecture owners of peculiar noses were invited to come, and the consequence was that the audience presented an interesting study in this particular feature of the human physiognomy.

Looked Like Mutt. The lecturer chose several noses for illustrative purposes, one of them being an aquiline type of such extraordinary proportions as to awaken the suspicion that the owner was an accomplice who by the aid of wax and cosmetics had been engaged to add to the gayety of the occasion. This was foiled by two other noses as flat as a Dutch landscape and capable of the most extraordinary possibilities of expansion.

According to the lecturer there are bourgeois and aristocratic, good natured and rebellious, conservative and revolutionary, courageous and pusillanimous noses—in other words, noses with every possible viewpoint. Nobly formed and aggressive noses are characteristic of the aristocratic, highborn, ruling classes of all races and nations.

The short and stumpy nose indicates a short and stumpy soul; the Slavic races thus endowed have but little bent for philosophy, but are given to mysticism which never has been able to break away from materialism.

On the whole, it is the long aquiline nose which is found to be united to intellectual traits of a high order. The noses of Goethe, Schiller, Kant, Frederick the Great, Lavater, Rousseau and Napoleon were cited to prove the lecturer's theory of intellectual and physical aggression.

JURY DIVIDED IN WICHITA KANSAS MURDER TRIAL

WICHITA, Kan., April 7.—The jury considering the case of B. A. Henson, aged ranchman, charged with killing his stepson, Walter Shaffer, stood 10 to 2, it was announced at 10 o'clock this morning.

Despite the objection of her parents, due to her youth, Miss Margaret Train, daughter of former Assistant District Attorney Train of New York, has eloped and become the bride of Reginald Embree of Boston, her fellow art student in Paris. They will go from Los Angeles to Algiers for a honeymoon.

SENATE STILL FIGHTING OVER CIVIL SERVICE

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Democratic senators today renewed their attack on the administration's civil service record, which was defended by Republicans. Taking the floor in the debate over the judgeship bill, Senator Harrison, Democrat, of Mississippi, criticized the Republicans for not acting on the resolution to disclose the President's reasons for the discharge of the executives from the bureau of engraving and printing. Harrison said that it was part of a "diabolical plot to do things under cover."

ELOPED WITH SON-IN-LAW DIVORCE PETITIONS SAY

MAYSVILLE, Ky., April 6.—Two homes were wrecked by the elopement of a mother, 45, with her son-in-law, 23, according to the story related in a divorce suit here.

Mrs. Ima Gallagher Kellum, 18, says she was married two years ago and was happy on the farm of her husband, Carl. Then her mother, who lived with her father on a neighboring farm, ran off with Kellum and never returned, the petition says.

Lillian Russell, former American stage star, has been appointed a special investigator for the United States government and has sailed for Europe where she will look over the intended immigrants to this country.

NURSE INVENTS CORSET TO CURE SEASICKNESS

NEW YORK, April 7.—This is the story of a young woman who gave up seven years of her life so that she could follow the sea and fathom the causes which brought the dreaded "mal de mer" to ocean travelers.

Yesterday, certain that she had wrested the secret from Father Neptune's lockers, the heroine of the story, Miss Edna Freeze, quit her quarters on the Fruness Withy liner, Fort Hamilton, where she was ship's nurse. Her most cherished possession was an anti-sea sickness corset, which she had constructed.

As a passenger a decade ago, Miss Freeze says she was seized with a terrible attack of "mal de mer." On her return she decided to investigate the causes and develop a possible remedy.

She obtained a position as ship's nurse on a liner and for nine years has sailed the seven oceans. Most of the women passengers came under her care. Experiment followed experiment until in the end she believed she had obtained her object.

Invented a "Corset." In addition to providing her sick passengers with the "stabilizing" corset, Miss Freeze gave her patients a drink she prepared herself, and of a sudden, she says now, the sickness passed away. She said yesterday at her home, No. 551 West 178th street: "No one ever tried to help the ocean traveler. It always seemed the opinion that sea sickness was a necessity to travel by sea. However, I firmly believe now that the corset I made to keep me from becoming as ill as the passengers, is as important to shipping as a non-sinkable lifeboat."

SHIP SUBSIDY PLAN BEING CONSIDERED BY COMMITTEE

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 7.—Charges that the administration's ship subsidy plan was discriminatory were made and denied today before the house committee considering the plan.

Senator Reed tells the senate that the Washington conference was a farce. However, it couldn't have been as funny as some of Senator Reed's speeches.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

MONTANA RIDER WILL TRY TO TOP KELLY'S BAD BUCKING HORSE

Chick Hannan, professional broncho rider of Miles City, Mont., who was a contestant at the recent Fat Stock rodeo in Fort Worth, will attempt to ride Midnight, the bucking horse of Red Kelly, here tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 at the Texas & Pacific stock pens, north of the depot. Hannan has posted a $25 forfeit that he will be able to ride the horse under all the contest rules.

Midnight, who last Saturday threw his rider at the Ross Mule barns and seriously injured him, is well known throughout this section, having appeared in a number of rodeos. His rider was disqualified at the rodeo here last fall.

GIRLS OFTEN VAMP SELVES INTO TROUBLE

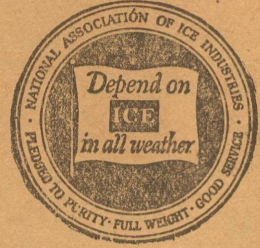

LOUISVILLE, April 7.—Fifty per cent of the girls with whom social workers must deal meet trouble through their own premeditated plans. Such was an opinion reached at a conference of Louisville social workers.

The girls who get into trouble, it was said, go out with the express purpose of matching wits with some man and causing him to spend his money foolishly.

"Their game works all right for a time and probably they can number a long list of 'dupes taken in,' but they finally meet their match and life turns out to be not so 'delightfully funny after all,'" one worker said.

MOST BLONDES KINDA FICKLE, SAYS ANALYST

But He Evens Up; Brunettes Slow Thinkers—and Sentimental.

KANSAS CITY, April 7.—If you have a date with a blonde you'd better call her up to remind her about it. If you have a date with a brunette don't worry.

Slams and compliments were passed out promiscuously to blondes and brunettes by Gordon J. A. Hargrave, character analyst, who spoke recently in Kansas City.

With three blondes and three brunettes on the platform as exhibits, Mr. Hargrave pointed out the strong points and the weaknesses of each type, says the Kansas City Post.

"Blondes are more scatter-brained, more fickle than brunettes," he declared.

Triumphant laughter from the brunettes.

"On the other hand," he added, "brunettes are very slow in thinking. And they are very sentimental."

Cheers from the blondes.

Blond Man is Usually a Success.

The lecturer declared that the blond type of man puts business first in his life and usually is a success at business.

The brunette, he said, is interested first in his home, his family and friends.

"A blond man frequently forgets to telephone his wife when he will be home late from the office," he declared.

"The psychological approach to a blonde is to ask 'How's business?' In greeting a brunette, however, you should say 'How are you feeling?' or ask him about his wife or sweetheart."

Blond Person's Brain is Quicker.

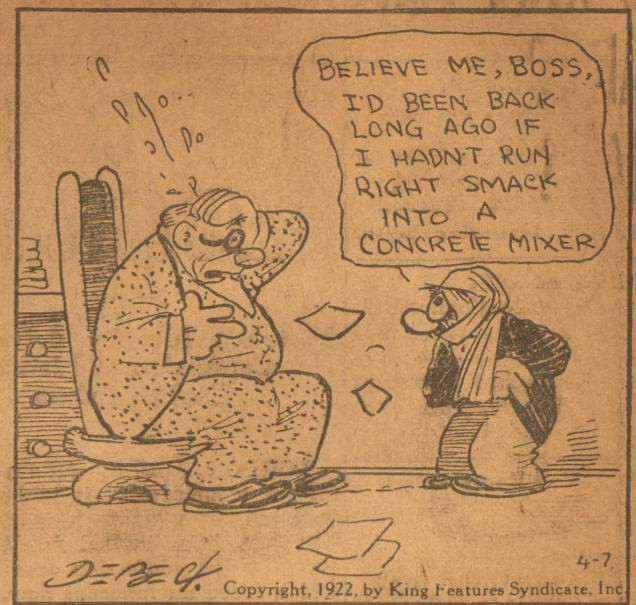

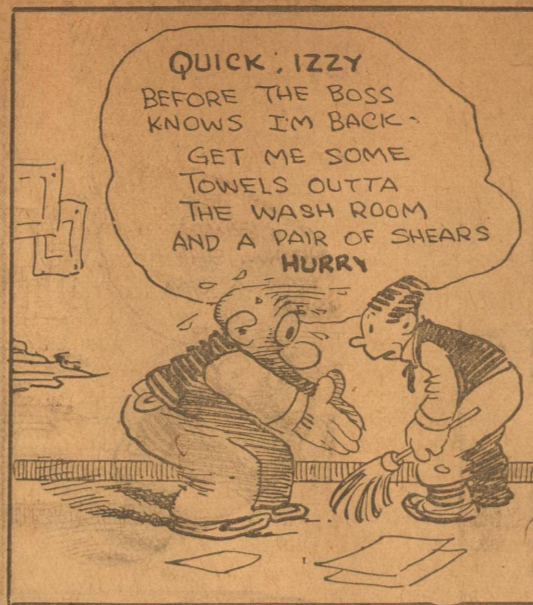

"The brain of the blond person vibrates faster than that of the brunette. A blonde thinks more quickly. On the other hand, the brunette is more thorough and methodical about all that he does."

Mr. Hargrave declared that employers should be careful to put blonde and brunette workers in the work best adapted to each.

A blonde, he said, would be more successful in selling goods to a person of the same complexion, as their minds would work in the same methodical manner.

OPERA STAR IS ROBBED OF GEMS WORTH $45,000

ROBBERS ESCAPE.

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—Girl robbers who yesterday escaped with $45,000 worth of jewels belonging to Amelita Galli-Curci have escaped into Mexico, authorities here believed today.

Mexican authorities have been asked to institute a thorough search across the border.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 7.—Two girl bandits, operating with skill and daring, Thursday robbed Mme. Amelita Galli-Curci, opera diva, of jewels valued at $45,000 at San Juan Capistrano, according to reports to the sheriff's office here.

The girls, described by Mme. Galli-Curci as youthful and pretty, confronted her in the woman's dressing room of a cafe. While one of them greeted the diva pleasantly, gaining her attention, the other snatched the jewel case from her and both dashed through the cafe to an automobile, which is said to have been waiting with the engine running.

Before either Mme. Galli-Curci, who was greatly excited, or her husband, who was waiting in the cafe, could give the alarm, the girls were in the car and it had disappeared at high speed toward this city.

The jewels in the case, according to the report to the sheriff, included a seventeen-carat diamond ring and a platinum bracelet, set with two ten-carat diamonds.

FORT WORTH HOTEL MAN SLASHES WRISTS AND THROAT, SHOTS SELF

FORT WORTH, April 7.—His throat cut from ear to ear, a bullet hole through his heart and both wrists slashed, the body of Boomer Jones, about 40 years of age, was taken from the Albany hotel early Thursday night.

Jones killed himself after officers had been called to raid the place, according to information received at the police station. When police entered the room where Jones was with three or four other persons, he was bleeding from the throat and wrists, and it was after they walked into the room that he fired the shot into his body, according to the statement made by the officers. A butcher knife was used in slashing the throat and wrists.

Jones had lived in Fort Worth about four years. He came here from Houston. He had been owner of the hotel about two years.

OIL FIELD WORKERS SHOT BY FOOTPADS

SHREVEPORT, La., April 7.—Leroy Patterson, oil field worker, was shot and probably fatally wounded by two highwaymen in the Haynesville field, according to information reaching here.

Patterson's story was that he was ordered to put up his hands, did so, and when the highwaymen found no money in his pockets they ordered him to turn his back and shot him. Later he said they came back and threatened to shoot him again, but listened to his pleas and went away.

SINCLAIR GETS BIG CONCESSION IN WEST AFRICA

FORT WORTH, April 7.—After more than two years of negotiations, valuable oil concessions have been obtained by the Sinclair interests in Portuguese West Africa, according to a wire received by O. H. Powell, general superintendent of pipe lines here. Cable advices have just been received by the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation to the effect that the Portuguese government has published a decree granting permanent oil rights to the Companhia do Petro de Angola, a Portuguese corporation. This company is financed by the Sinclair corporation and is being operated under Sinclair management. The area covered is almost 70,000 square miles.

Several Wells Drilling.

Several wells are now drilling, and a base camp is located near Loanda, where quantities of drilling and other equipment have been received, and drilling is being pressed with all possible speed. If the expressions of experienced oil men, according to Powell, are only partly realized, something equal to, if not surpassing, Mexico or Persia may speedily grow out of this concession. In point of distance and transportation costs, this province is nearer Western Europe than either Mexico or Persia, it is declared.

All of the oil rights of the province are the property of the government, and not of private owners, so that the company's arrangement with the government gives it exclusive rights, and the company is also free from all burdensome taxes and restrictions on the importation of material for operations and from export duties on oil which it may produce or refine.

The potential field covered by the concession extends for about 600 miles north and south along the west coast of Africa in the province of Angola, and the oil deposits in no case extend more than eighty miles inland. The oil region is crossed by a railroad extending from Loanda toward the interior, and by several navigable rivers, chief of these being the Cuanza, navigable for about 100

MAN HELD AFTER LIQUOR RAID ON ROOMING HOUSE

Jack Carpenter, arrested by the police on a liquor charge yesterday afternoon in a raid on the Dallas rooms on Walnut street, waived preliminary examination before Justice of the Peace McFatter and was held to the grand jury under bond of $500.

Two women taken in the raid pleaded guilty to vagrancy charges at police headquarters and paid fines and costs of $15.70 each. Several gallons of liquor are said to have been seized by Patrolman Floyd Daniels and Jim Ingram, who conducted the raid.

Because of the light rainfall and open, grassy plains, the area is exceptionally healthful, it is declared, and there are no topographical obstacles to the transportation of material, erection of drilling rigs and laying of pipe lines.

BOXCAR ROBBED

The police are holding a suspect in connection with the robbery of a shipment of groceries from a boxcar in the Hamon yards, which was reported yesterday afternoon.

HOME BANKING SAFEST.

Do you believe in the safety of a bank? Naturally.

Well, don't you believe that a bank which has some 80 per cent of its resources in cash and negotiable resources is about the safest in which your money could possibly be placed? Why not?

Then listen: Last Saturday, the Peoples State bank of Ranger advertised that it had deposits of approximately $1,684,000, and at the same time it had in cash and cash-on-demand securities some $1,490,000. That means that the Peoples State bank is in a position to pass the money across the counter as fast as the depositors can line up to get it.

That is an unusual situation. It shows that the bank is at present acting mainly as a depository. It is acting in that way, making only such loans as are super-conservative, because it must keep in a position to maintain the confidence of depositors. It must do this until confidence in the local financial situation has returned.

Now this is admittedly a free ad for Ranger's only bank because what helps the local banking situation helps Ranger. It is an attempt to show that money is safer in this bank than any other in Texas, or the United States, for that matter. All over the country there has been inflation, followed by depression. Established banks have had to take their losses. Most of them have been able to do so, but they have been to some extent weakened by the strain. They cannot be as strong as a new institution which has never had to withstand this strain.

Therefore, isn't it common sense to keep money—especially RANGER MONEY—in the home town bank, where from all indications it is safest, and where it is at once more convenient and more useful to the community.

Ranger people have at least $4,000,000 on deposit, somewhere. Why shouldn't it be here? If it is brought where it is earned and belongs, it will be a powerful aid in bringing about a return to normalcy and business confidence.

The Peoples bank is a new institution. It cannot be otherwise than safe. The same will be true of any other bank which in time is certain to open its doors here.

DOUBLE SAVES ARMY OFFICER HELD AS FORGER

Mistaken Identity Solved By Confession of Man in English Prison.

LONDON, April 7.—All the material for a melodrama is to be found in a case of mistaken identity which has just been settled in Wrexham, Eng., by the confession of a convict which freed an innocent man.

What made this trial all the more remarkable and dramatic is that the innocent man and the convict not only resemble each other closely, but the natural handwriting of one was so like the signature used by the convict in his forgeries that a professional expert pronounced that the innocent man signed a check which was really signed by the convict.

Henry Milton Drinkwater entered the British army as a private and came out a lieutenant, having won his commission both by study and gallantry. The end of the war found him in bad health and straitened circumstances. Upon his discharge from the service he settled in Leeds with his wife and opened a small shop. He was making a fair living, nothing more, when the baby was born and his expenses increased. Drinkwater responded to the needs by working all the harder but still was only making a living when tragedy threatened to crush him.

About three months ago a blank check was stolen from a book on a table in the military barracks at Wrexham. The check was signed with a forged name, and was passed on to a woman in Wrexham. When it was returned to her as a forgery she started after the man who passed it. In her inquiries she learned that Lieutenant Drinkwater resembled the passer. Accompanied by the police she went to Leeds and positively identified Drinkwater as the person who had given her the strip of worthless paper.

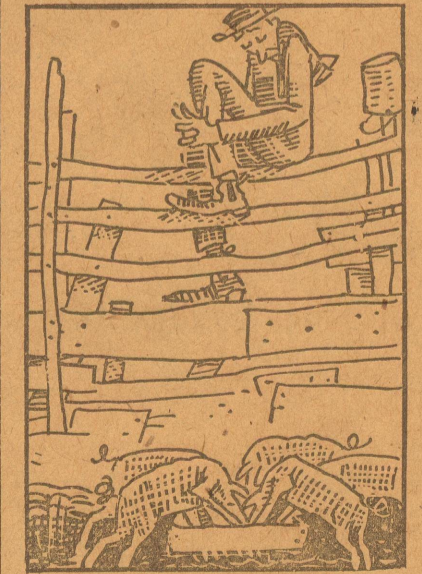

Testimony by an Expert. On that identification the accused was taken to Wrexham, where he had sold some pictures and given receipts for the payments. Those receipts were laid before a Mr. Smart, of Manchester, an established authority on handwriting, and with them the forged check. Mr. Smart made the analysis of the writing which is made by all graphologists where a legal issue is at stake and declared the receipts which Lieutenant Drinkwater had given had been signed by the same hand which signed the check. Mr. Smart, who sadly belied his name, based his opinion upon the peculiarities of the capital H which occurred both on the receipts and check.

Lieutenant Drinkwater was in a bad way—the way to prison. The woman who had been defrauded would not concede that she could possibly be mistaken. The handwriting expert had declared against him. He had an alibi that at the time the check was passed in Wrexham he was dining at a Colwyn Bay hotel but he had difficulty in establishing an alibi absolutely.

Witnesses Were in Doubt. He was honest and his witnesses were honest, but there were lapses which could not be explained. Had he been a crook offering a crooked alibi, it is safe to say that the memory of the witnesses would have been marvellous, but the memory of the ordinary and honest man for times and places and their relations, is usually most unreliable, and so it was with Lieutenant Drinkwater and his witnesses.

While Drinkwater languished in

Teachers Driven to High Perches as Rats Invade School

HAVERSTRAW, N. Y., April 7.—Pied Piper, resurrect thyself, Haverstraw is calling thee.

The mayor, the high school marm and the board of education need you, yearn for you.

Every day, so the board has been advised, several army corps of rats frolic in the high school rooms, driving the teachers to lofty perches and convulsing the 350 students with laughter.

Every night the rodents browse in the library, the desks and the gymnasium lockers, filling themselves with history and the three R's. In the last two weeks they have gnawed all the Civil War out of 100 American history books and destroyed a large store of information regarding the parsing of a sentence and simple algebra.

While the juniors were in gymnasium yesterday a squad of pests carried away all the money in their pockets, $35 in currency.

And, Pied Piper, the rats wouldn't be so bad if they weren't infested with fleas.

ANTI-VOLSTEAD JURORS HALT LIQUOR TRIAL

NEW YORK, April 7.—"Are any of you gentlemen prejudiced against the Volstead law?" asked an attorney of twelve talesmen in federal court where the trial of Edward Dimm, an alleged prohibition act violator, was scheduled to begin.

"I am," said prospective juror No. 1.

"So am I," said No. 12.

"Wait gentlemen," interrupted the lawyer. "Those who feel that way please stand up."

The whole twelve stood up.

It was the last of the panel and, as all were excused, the trial had to be postponed to get new talesmen.

WOMEN JURORS FAILURE, SAYS ST. PAUL JUDGE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 7.—It isn't worth while having women serve on juries with men, declared Judge John L. Rounds of the St. Paul municipal court, in commenting on the experience of four women and eight men while deliberating on a case involving a small suit for damages.

The women, all elderly, stayed up all night, sitting in rockers, while the men went into an adjoining room, trying to sleep on desks. No cots had been provided for either men or women.

The four women and four men favored awarding damages to the owner of an automobile which had been struck by a street car. The other men favored a verdict for the street car company.

"Women won't compromise," said Judge Rounds Sunday. "They argue for the principle of the thing and it's all or nothing with them. If this jury had been composed of men only, rather than disagree entirely, they would have compromised and awarded a smaller sum to the plaintiff than that which he asked. But the women wanted to give him everything."

CHICAGO, April 7.—Annulment of a "spite marriage" was sought in court by Harry W. Riffle, acting for his daughter, Marion, 17.

According to his petition his daughter, after a quarrel with her sweetheart, met Robert W. Wray, 31, a salesman, who persuaded her to join in a mock ceremony.

DETROIT, Mich., April 7.—Robert Downie, custodian of the church house of the fashionable First Unitarian church, was acquitted this afternoon on an assault and battery charge made by Mrs. Rinker, 35 years old. Mrs. Rinker accused Downie of having grabbed her by the ankles and dragged her down the steps of the church.

"I caught hold of the foot she kicked me with and led her down the steps by it," Downie testified before Judge Faust.

Several women witnesses testified that the odor of liquor was noticeable on Mrs. Rinker's breath, and that she indulged in the loudest of comments on the manner in which certain women were playing cards. When he asked her to desist Mrs. Rinker kicked him in the stomach, Downie said.

CLEVELAND CHURCH TO ERECT SKYSCRAPER

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 7.—Plans for the erection of a twenty-story building to cost approximately $1,500,000 have been announced by trustees of the First Presbyterian (Old Stone) church. The building will be erected on Ontario street, adjoining the church, which is one of Cleveland's landmarks.

Dr. A. B. Meldrum, the present pastor, is the fifth who has officiated at Old Stone church since its foundation.

SLEUTHS IN SKIRTS TO HUNT HIJACKERS

DALLAS, April 7.—Detectives disguised as flappers, in French heels, picture hats, short skirts, plenty of rouge and a "come hither look" to end the wave of hijacking in Dallas, is the latest venture.

The police department is to take these steps in an effort to rid the city of highwaymen who have been terrorizing the city for the past several days and nights. The "flapper cops" will carry their gats in the ultra fashionable handbags, it is said.

With the exception of the hosiery the detective department believes it has a scheme which will bring home the bacon, it is said, for obvious reasons the "flapper cops" will wear lisle instead of transparent silk stockings. The flappers will be on the job tonight, it was indicated.

PIONEER CHURCH IS HOTEL FOR HOMELESS

PIONEER, Texas, April 7.—To care for those who can no longer sleep in the open on account of the continued rainfall and those unable to obtain accommodations elsewhere, the Methodist church here has been thrown open to the public. The church is centrally located on the main business street. Rev. D. A. Chesholm, pastor, has provided a generous supply of newspapers and magazines, as well as fuel and light, and in the evenings the church partakes of the appearance of a club. There is an unwritten rule among the guests, however, that reminiscences must cease and lights go out at 11 p. m.

SAVES STOCK BUT IS SLAIN BY HUSBAND

CARMI, Ill., April 7.—Angered because she sought to protect some stock which had strayed into his farm yard, Aaron White shot and killed his wife at Springerton, Ill., north of this city.

White had taken his shotgun into the yard with the announced intention of killing the stock, but when his wife sought to save the lives of the animals he turned the gun on her, discharging the contents of one barrel into her face.

Mrs. White turned to flee and her husband discharged the second barrel into her back, killing her almost instantly.

The house in which White barricaded himself was surrounded by a posse and in the following battle White, who is 70 years old, was wounded. He was arrested.

OKLAHOMA WOMAN KILLED BY HUSBAND

BRISTOW, Okla., April 7.—Mrs. M. E. Dobbs of this city was shot and killed by her husband while in the company of another man in the east part of the city early Thursday. Dobbs is an oil field worker and has lived in Bristow about two months. He gave himself up to the police immediately after the shooting. The Dobbs have a 10-year-old daughter and a son aged 15.

ELKS ARE HOSTS.

A number of guests were entertained last evening at the Elks' home, when the Elks were hosts at an informal reception and housewarming. Friends of this order have been anticipating this event for some time since it was known that the Elks were making some extensive improvements in their home and a great deal of interest has been manifested in this remodeling. The home is now equipped with a large, spacious reception suite, a buffet lunch room and a kitchenette, wherein a chef has been installed to serve lunch and dinners to members of the club daily.

For the first time in the history of Elkdom in Ranger, their members can say "I am lunching at the club." The lunch room is very cleverly arranged, being the conversion of a porch that formerly ran around the east side of the building, and is practically glassed in on one side. The club rooms were very beautifully decorated for the occasion in red and white carnations, ferns, and in the extreme end of the parlor, two stately palms made an effective background for the beautiful Elk's head that adorns that part of the room. Bowls of vari-colored candies formed centerpieces for the luncheon tables on which was served sandwiches, olives and coffee.

Incoming guests were met by Mmes. E. E. Crawford, Roy Jameson, Karl Jones and Frank Brahaney, while Mr. Karl Jones acted as a personal escort on a sightseeing tour of the rooms, showing first a room that had not been done over, as a sort of "before and after taking" effect.

Domino tables were arranged on the front porch for those who wished to play, and bridge tables on the inside. "Pop" Endicott's orchestra furnished the music for the evening.

Taken from every standpoint this reception was a most successful affair, and no doubt is a forerunner of many good times to come, as it is hinted that the Elks intend to have a ladies' night, and all of those present feel that their hosts are to be congratulated on the transformation of their club rooms and the innovations that they have inaugurated. During the evening a large number called.

Among those present were Messrs. and Mmes. E. E. Crawford, Bob Hansford, Karl Jones, A. N. Harkrider, Eben Finney, A. G. Jury, Roy Jameson, Frank Brahaney, Gus Coleman, John Milford, Sandford, W. C. Palmer, C. C. Craig, Harry Logsdon, R. B. Waggoman; Mrs. R. B. Campbell; Misses Peggie Lawler of Sapulpa, Okla., Mary Bonner Campbell; Messrs. A. Joseph, Pop Endicott, Earl Scott, Julius B. Krouse, Wade Swift, Aubrey Jameson.

BAKE SALE TOMORROW.

APRIL FOOL PARTY. LAST NIGHT.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White entertained the young men and women of the East Ranger Baptist church last night with an April Fool party, that was a joke from start to finish, with the exception of real refreshments whose reality had to be proven before the guests would partake of them.

The fun began at the door when each guest was furnished a dunce cap, large ones for the young men and little ones for the young ladies, all in different colors and sizes, and partners were found by the matching of caps. Favors were hidden about the house and when found were packages, securely wrapped and tied. The finders were then required to unwrap their packages and to wear their favors around their necks. These favors were the source of much merriment, being mousetraps, teething rings and such similar laugh-provoking things. There was a contest in the nature of a joke, in which Miss Pansy Garber and Mr. William Drury were the successful contestants, receiving for prizes a package of moth balls and capsules.

Another clever diversion was the unveiling of a masterpiece, that was represented as having just been added to the art collection of the White home. The guests were led into an adjoining room and when the curtain that shrouded this picture was drawn back, beheld the reflection of their own selves.

All children love ice cream cones, but somehow these were passed up, as on biting in it was discovered that the ice cream was only a thin coating to disguise an interior of cotton. The refreshments of salad, sandwiches, pickles and punch were really real—just as the spirit was that prompted this party, and as was the good cheer that radiated from it. It was indeed a pleasant April Fool, and the season was indicated by house decorations of apple and plum blossoms.

Those who were so pleasantly fooled were: Misses Ruby French, Verdie Jones, Helen Carpenter, Lois Walker, Allie Walker, Lillian Neal, Dorthea Williams, Johnnie Wilson, Phyllis Williams, Ruby Garber, Pansy Garber, Mabel Harding, May Marchbank; Messrs. and Mmes. Paul Lacy, H. T. Carpenter, Richard Dennis, Jack Garber, Roy Wilkes; Mmes. Otha Moore, Roy Swearengen; Messrs. William Drury, Robert Searles, Bernice Lemma, George Lemma, J. M. Herrington, Bill Eastland, Burnett Walker, Arthur Williams, Polo Gordon, S. B. Abney, Frank Pugh, Raymond Hise, Dalton Williams.

ELKS' DANCE AT EASTLAND.

A number of Ranger's young people went to Eastland last night to the Elks' dance.

Among those attending from here were: Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Williams, H. Fair, Misses Douschka Bolo, Charles Terrell, Gilbert Reineman, Denis Ray, Helen Brown, William McCauley, Wilbourne Collier, Mary Bonner Campbell, Aubrey Jameson, Lon Garrett, Miss Esther Fair, Chick Fair, E. Lipman, Scott Murray.

Mr. & Mrs. H. C. Auer, Jr.

There'll be few rifts on the sea of matrimony if man and wife enter into a "common sense" marriage, declares Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Auer of Chicago. While "hubby" stays home and writes short stories, Mrs. Auer goes to a theatre with another man. Such a program alternates between the two. They both do as they please. It's easy to get along that way, both assert.

GERMANY ALSO HAS LIQUOR SMUGGLERS!

HAMBURG, March 16. By Mail.—Germany, like America, is engaged in a war with liquor smugglers. High customs duties and a dearth of "hard liquor," instead of prohibition, is the incentive to smuggling here and the rum-runners are able to sell their illicit goods at a big profit.

Captains and crews of fishing boats are doing a thriving smuggling business in all ports on the German coasts, say customs and marine officials.

EL PASO, April 7.—Thieves have stolen more than a hundred red lanterns from the city street department during the past twelve months. City officials are in a quandary as to why, or for what purpose, the thieves want the lanterns.

The thefts have angered city officials and now all lanterns used for street work are set into a concrete base weighing twelve pounds.

Miss Ethel Hutson, widely known publicist and club woman, recently launched a crusade against the 8-cent carfare in New Orleans by making conductors on the street cars accept a 5-cent fare.

SUN LINIMENT LOOSENS MUSCLES OF PLAYERS AFTER NITRO BERTHS

If there's anything in ball players' size and pepper, things will be going off with a loud bang over the West Texas circuit this year. It is yet to be early to get down to cases on relative playing skill of Ranger's athletes, but under the genial sunshine of the last two days they have been rapidly rounding to form, and in yesterday's setto between two choose-nines several showed earmarks of having the goods. These practice games will be a regular feature of the afternoon grind, with batting and fielding practice in the mornings.

Plunlee, a third baseman from Springtown, Parker county, Texas, of which Weatherford is the county seat and speed demon's delight, made a hit with the fans yesterday by some snappy work at shortstop. He went far to his right on one occasion and propelled the apple straight on a line to first, nipping the runner by five feet. It was a play in midseason form. Seale, of the Prairie force here, played short for the other team and had no hard chances.

Two Keystones.
Hardgrove, who came here from Arkansas via Vicksburg, and Crowley, from Bluffdale, Erath county, which had a fast independent team last year, are contesting the second-base job. Hardgrove drew the limelight yesterday by making a dandy stop far to his right and busting a triple. Crowell also stepped into one nicely. He's a cheerful youngster, with a fighting grin.

Back of the plate was a big red-head named Clayton, whose arm has not rounded into shape, and a new catcher named Gibson, a stocky, peppery person who showed he was playing ball all the way. He backed up the bases and clouted the apple to the fence in a way that tickled the railbirds.

Out in the gardens, there's a lot of competition. Five men—Craig, Delane, Pully, Hoggman and Brown—are after the jobs, and it promises to be a merry race.

In the box, Zapalac, York (not Jack) and Roberts, right handers, and Holden, southpaw, are rounding into form and showing better every day. Each pitcher worked two innings yesterday.

Workouts will continue daily, and Sunday afternoon, there will be a practice game, with a small ante for the benefit of expenses.

After that, the ax will begin to fall among the twenty-five or thirty candidates out for places. And about that money! It's still coming in, but the list below includes nearly all the cash contributors. There's a few more coming in daily, but now is the time to write that check, so Ranger boosters can point with pride and say, "Yes, my name's printed there." Most any fellow you meet will tell you where to take it.

DISCLOSE HOUSEMAID AS UNKNOWN AUTHOR

WISCONSIN, Wis., April 7.—The voice from an unknown grave echoed here through the unpoetic environment of a court procedure to place the crown of successful authorship upon a Wisconsin woman, who during her life had been seemingly nothing more than a competent housemaid and housewife.

There is surprise among the residents of this little city where Amelia Swanson energetically dusted, scrubbed and baked, at first for others and later in her own neat little home as the wife of Jud Baker, Summit, Wis.

She died in the Wankesha insane asylum last May.

Although the book written by Mrs. Baker under the name of Emily Svenson was published and created a literary furore in 1908, it was only through probate proceedings that the authoress was identified.

The book is "A Modern Valkyrie," which even today would seem "advanced" and which when published was considered ultra radical.

Since that time more than $9,000 in securities have been unearthed, showing that Mrs. Baker possessed a bit of financial wisdom. A collection of beautiful old silver and personal jewelry was found. This would indicate that the book which deals with servant and sex problems, must have brought some money.

Amelia Swanson came here in early 1900 with the family of C. M. Quincey, wealthy New Yorkers.

NEW YORK CLUBS SHOT TO PIECES BY MEN'S HURTS

NEW YORK, April 7.—With only three more practice games on the road, the New York Yankees are returning home with a disorganized infield and a seriously censored outer guard. The Yanks, with the regular season thus imminent, may be considered a very strong ball club only in the pitching and catching departments. Even their famous hitting is expected to be less famous this season in the early absence of Ruth and Meusel and the permanent absence of Roger Peckinpaugh, ex-member of murderers' row.

There is now some talk of an inter-league deal between the Yanks and the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Dodgers have two recruit outfielders, Hood and Post, who might help the Yanks, but waivers would have to be obtained from seven National league clubs.

Frank Frisch, the Giants' second baseman, now hobbling on crutches to ease his spiked foot, may return here in advance of the team and rest up in hopes of being fit for the opening game with the Dodgers next week. Frisch is a challenger for Ruth's title of most-injured ball player in the majors.

Carl Mays' little fit of petulance has passed and the submarine ball pitcher will work for the Yankees in the first exhibition game with the Dodgers at Ebbets' field, Brooklyn, upon the clubs' return to New York. Mays recently was displeased at being yanked out of an exhibition game and threw a $2.50 baseball over the grand stand to show how angry he was, for which Miller Huggins, manager, fined him. Whereat Carl threatened to tear up his contract and go back to farming at $2.50 a day. He has reconsidered.

Nay Rucker, former first citizen of Brooklyn, has been invited by Charley Ebbets, owner of the Dodgers, to pitch an exhibition game against the Yanks in Brooklyn, just to see what he can do with Babe Ruth. Rucker worked out with the Dodgers in Florida recently and convinced himself that there was still some work in the old arm.

TOSSED TOO HIGH; LINEMAN RETIRES

SEDRO WOOLLEY, Wash., April 7.—Tossed as if by a giant catapult, 100 feet upward into the top of a tall fir tree, was the experience of Amos Hozley, a telephone lineman, this week.

A run of logs from up the Skagit river formed a big jam two miles from here. The ice storms of the winter had sagged the telephone cables so that when the logs piled up thirty feet one big timber reposed on top of the cable drawing the wire rope as taut as fiddle string.

Hosler went up a pole on the south bank of the river, fastened his belt around the top, and went to work loosening some of the cross arms to release the strain on the cable.

Suddenly, without warning, the cable parted near the log jam.

The pull released on the bending pole and Hosler's belt being just over the small protruding top of the pole would not hold him and he was shot through the air with the speed of a bullet. His fellow workmen expected to pick up a lifeless helper, but luckily his fall was broken by the dense leafy growth of a tall fir, and in a few minutes he came down, threw a time slip from the foreman, and forever quit the lineman's trade.

Had his belt been fastened under a cross arm he would have been shook to death, for the pole vibrated violently for some time.

SHARK IN BALLAST TANK.
NEW YORK, April 6.—An official of a Brooklyn drydock concern today solemnly announced that when the good ship Minnesota recently had been pulled out of the water a shark was found swimming around in one of her ballast tanks. He explained that a bulging plate let in the infant man eater and it could not find an exit.

WOMAN LOVED HUSBAND BEST; JAILS MOTHER

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—"If a man shall leave his father and mother and shall cleave to his wife and they shall be one—"
What about a woman?
Mrs. Winifred Kramer was forced to choose between her mother and her husband, and it was no mere mother-in-law family quarrel either. The bride's mother, Mrs. Mattie Hanan, fired four bullets at Paul Revere Kramer, her daughter's husband, slightly wounding him. She was arrested and held in $5,000 bail on a charge of assault. On the word of the wife and daughter, the fate of husband and mother depended. Mrs. Kramer testified in support of her husband and sat beside him in court.

Justice Channing Pollette, in Los Angeles, sent Mrs. Hanan to jail for lack of the necessary bond. Kramer declared that if she were liberated he would almost prefer to go to prison himself, so much did he fear her. Mrs. Kramer said she loved her mother—but that her husband was first in her affections.

The accused woman chided her daughter bitterly as she was led to a cell declaring that she was responsible for her imprisonment. Mr. and Mrs. Kramer said that Mrs. Hanan had opposed their marriage, and after the ceremony had come to live with them. The shooting followed the announcement of the young couple that they intended to move.

BROKEN RADIUS ROD HOODOOD HIS TRUCK
COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 7.—Misfortune ran true to form and did not come singly to J. E. Bazler, transfer man today.
Bazler drove his truck into the automobile of W. J. Isheim this afternoon and was thrown to the street. He arranged to pay for the damage and had a physician attend to minor injuries. He climbed into his truck and started away when the rear wheel tossed a stone through a large window.
Again he arranged to pay the damages. As he took the wheel once more, the truck swerved into the automobile of Elijah Hunt, parked along the curb. Dismounting, Bazler examined his truck and started off again. This time the machine bolted into a telephone pole, broke it off, carried away a fire plug and stopped against a building.
Bazler was thrown out again, and after having a physician dress a cut on his head, found that a broken radius rod had been the cause of it. This explanation proved to be a story to police who conducted investigation.
K, April 7.—In a game of good pitching on both ends the Cowboys defeated the Batteries 4 to 3. Batteries—Hubbard and Allen, Hubbell, Hitt, Hays and

FLEMING NAMED LEAGUE V. P. AT LUBBOCK MEET

President W. R. Fleming of the Ranger ball club returned yesterday from Lubbock, where he went to attend a meeting of the West Texas league, at which the schedule was adopted. So far as Ranger was concerned there are only a few minor changes, the principal one being that on returning from the north end, the club will make a one-game stopover at Sweetwater, instead of coming straight through. San Angelo and some of the other clubs had a warm session, however and several changes were made. The revised schedule is expected to arrive here in the next few days.

A Rankin Johnson, who was to have been president and manager of the Amatillo club, and also was first vice president of the league, was barred from participation in the league's affairs by Secretary Farrell of the national association, and Mr. Fleming was elected first vice president in his place. Johnson jumped or organized ball several years ago and is alleged to have persuaded other players to quit their contracts.

Allen Owns Cafe.
Sled Allen, who is managing the Lubbock team, also is proprietor of the largest cafe in the South Plains metropolis, Mr. Fleming said. Sled is ready to go. He has the Ballinger team of last year almost intact, and keeps about a dozen youngsters trying to push one of his regulars out of a job. Johnny Singleton, however, is not among those present.

A big entertainment was planned for the meeting by the Lubbock people. A barbecue was rained out, but a chicken dinner at the Elks' club, attended by more than 200 guests, was substituted. The town is as excited over the ball club as Hickville over a circus.

COLD APARTMENT COSTS N. Y. LANDLORD $2,500
NEW YORK, April 7.—For the first time in American history a verdict for damages based on the failure of a landlord to supply his tenants with heat was rendered here Monday.
James D. F. Cochenour was awarded $2,500 damages for the death of his son, William, aged 4 months, by a jury before Justice Crosby in the supreme court, Brooklyn. The verdict was against George H. Jackson, owner of the apartment house in which Cochenour lived. Cochenour claimed that the absence of heat in the apartment last January resulted in the death of his son.
Cochenour testified that when he investigated he found no coal in the cellar and was told by the janitor that the furnace could not be lighted.

HIGGINBOTHAM BETTER.
SHERMAN, April 7.—Manager Grayley Higginbotham of the Sherman baseball club, who was operated on Wednesday after a sudden appendicitis attack, was reported out of danger.

PARIS, KY., TURNS OUT TO FISH FOR KEG O' BOOZE

PARIS, Ky., April 7.—Early last night the banks of Stoner creek, for a distance of a mile—below Paris, were lined with excited crowds, armed with ropes, poles with hooks on the end, and a number in skiffs, waiting the arrival of a barrel of Sam Clay whisky which persons farther up the stream noticed floating down.

It was thought the barrel was a part of the stock remaining in the distillery up to a year ago and that it had been buried near the stream.

The high waters of the last few hours evidently had washed it from its place of concealment. According to those who saw the barrel it was floating low in the water as though partly full and both heads were intact.

SAYS BOOTLEGGERS HELD HIM AS PRISONER IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, April 7.—To be kidnapped by three alleged bootleggers and kept prisoner for six days in a Broadway hotel, watched every minute by an enemy with a ready revolver, was the harrowing experience related in court by Edwin F. Stoockly of Belmont, L. I., who appeared before a magistrate to testify against the trio.

Each of the three men was held on $1,000 bail for further hearing on Monday on the kidnapping charge. One was held on $500 additional bail for carrying the revolver which Stoockly says was his terror during six days and five nights.

Even the experienced detectives, familiar with the strange stories which often come from the hidden haunts of the White Light district, were amazed at Stoockly's weird story—that during the time he was held prisoner he was escorted through crowded streets, fearing to cry for help to men who brushed his sleeve. He said that one or more of the alleged bootleggers, walking with him, would remind him that the slightest cry would mean death.

In court today the trio, however, turned on their accuser. They swore he had robbed them of $2,000. Whereupon Magistrate Harris held Stoockly on $2,500 bail on a charge of grand larceny.

ROOSEVELT ADMIRER GIVES PORTLAND STATUE

By Associated Press.
PORTLAND, Ore., April 7.—Admiration for Theodore Roosevelt as a man and citizen prompted Dr. Henry Waldo Coe, a Portland physician, who knew Roosevelt as a cowboy in North Dakota, to donate to the city of Portland an equestrian statue of the former president. The statue is now being made by a Phimister Proctor, noted sculptor.

BRITISH BIBLE SHIP NOW HELD AS LIQUOR SMUGGLER

KINGSTON, S. C., April 7.—The Message of Peace, British West Indian booze ship held at Wilmington, N. C., after being seized by the coast guard farther up the coast, is an example of a good ship having gone to the bad.
The Message of Peace fulfilled its mission for years, carrying Bible truths to the dock workers and shore population of English coast towns. Then the minister died and the craft was sold.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT.
Suspicious Mistress: "Jessie, didn't I hear you talking with somebody?"
Cook: "Yassum, reckon so."
Mistress: "Haven't I told you repeatedly, Jessie, that you must never have any of your gentlemen friends call here?"
Cook: "Hee, hee, missus. How he will luff when he hears dat! Lor' bless you, dat wasn't no gemmun 'Frien'. Dat was jus' mah wuffless, no-count hubban."—American Legion Weekly.

SUMATRAN MALES TAKE IT EASY; WOMEN RUN EVERYTHING

NEW YORK, April 7.—Governmental affairs are entirely in the hands of women at Batak in Sumatra, it is reported by Gertrude Emerson, magazine writer, back from twenty-two months of travel in the Orient.

The men love the situation and are not trying to get equal rights, she said. They don't have to buy shoes for the children, keep the wife in new hats, worry about taxes, promote schemes to keep the country from going bankrupt or perform any of the other dutiful tasks that threaten the masculine world over. The women boss politics, property and children.

If one tried to reform the matriarchal system, Miss Emerson said, one would get his head neatly severed from his body and "without doubt" she added, "the men would do the cutting."

Miss Emerson traveled alone, now by camel or elephant, now by sampan, horse, train or airplane, often over routes where she was warned no woman had ever gone alone before.

POSTAL SERVICE FOR PRISON LOVE LETTERS

By Associated Press.
WILMINGTON, Del., April 7.—Flirtation between men and women prisoners at the Newcastle county workhouse have reached such a point that Warden Mordecai S. Plummer, rather than have them exchange notes secretly, has established a jail postoffice and censorship for love letters.

"It was the logical thing to do," said the warden. "Because men or women are in jail is no reason to think they won't fall in love. Lots of romances begin in prison."

"I know of one case where at least ten men have written that are ready to die for one girl imprisoned here."

HOLLIS DIVORCE BARES NEW RENO FOR MILLIONAIRES, WHERE THEY CAN GET DECREE, DODGE ALIMONY

NEW YORK, April 7.—American millionaires are about to discover and establish a new Reno, if the divorce obtained in Sofia, Bulgaria, by former Senator Henry M. Hollis of New Hampshire is finally upheld.

But Sofia, Bulgaria, will far outstrip Reno, provided the arguments set forth by Mr. Hollis' American legal associate prove to be the law of the world as well as the law of the land. For, according to Attorney Edward Thomas Moore, an international lawyer of New York and Paris, an American may not only drop his wife in Sofia, Bulgaria, but he can also drop all financial responsibility—he can cut off his wife without a sou.

Moore's remarks were brought about by former Senator Hollis' remarriage in Rome to Miss Anne White Hobbs, of Concord, N. H., and the statement of his first wife, Mrs. Grace B. Hollis now living at Princeton, N. J., that she did not recognize the foreign divorce.

"Open Controversy."
Moore admits he expects an "open controversy" to result from Mr. Hollis' divorce and remarriage.

Since Mrs. Hollis obtained a decree of separation from the New Hampshire supreme court in 1915, Moore said, Mr. Hollis has provided liberally for her support but from now on will be under no obligation to do so.

"A divorce decree terminates all rights arising out of the marriage contract," said Mr. Moore. "The dower rights and other rights of a wife exist only during the married state. The separation is superseded by the divorce decree and any obligation under the separation for the husband to support his wife, because of the marriage is ended when the marriage is dissolved."

Moore was asked what action could be taken by the defendant in such a case, divorced without her knowledge in a foreign country where the law permits the defendant to be notified of a divorce action by publication in the newspapers of the land.

"All she can do," said Moore, "is to question the validity of divorce obtained abroad. She is a resident of New Jersey and might bring an action in that state on the ground that the decree had been illegally obtained."

Action in Bulgaria.
"But we could argue that the only possible illegality would be in failing to comply with the Bulgarian laws as to residence, publication of notice, etc., and that jurisdiction in such an action was not vested in the New Jersey courts, but in the Bulgarian courts. We should insist that any action to set aside the decree be argued in the Bulgarian courts."

"In other words, international law gives to each country the right to determine the requirements to be complied with before it will grant a decree, and the right to decide whether that decree has been granted legally or illegally. Naturally, a legal and valid decree granted by the courts of one country must be recognized under international law by every other country throughout the world, and a second marriage following such a decree must be recognized as valid anywhere in the world, provided that the second marriage is performed in accordance with the requirements of the country where it takes place."

Under this situation, it is pointed out, what is to prevent James A. Stillman, for example, from going to Bulgaria, getting a divorce and shutting off all financial assistance to his wife?

21—LEGAL NOTICE

Statement of Ownership, Management, Circulation, etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

Of Ranger Daily Times, published daily at Ranger, Texas, for April 1, 1922.

STATE of Texas, County of Eastland—ss.

Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared R. B. Waggoman, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of the Ranger Daily Times, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:
Publisher—R. B. Waggoman, Ranger, Texas.
Managing Editor—H. E. Bozeman, Ranger, Texas.

2. That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give its name and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock.)
Times Publishing Co. (Owner), Ranger, Texas; R. B. Waggoman (stockholder), Ranger, Texas; Walter Murray (stockholder), Ranger, Texas; B. E. May (stockholder), Fort Worth, Texas.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: (If there are none, so state) None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is 2,531. (This information is required from daily publications only.)
R. B. WAGGOMAN.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 6th day of April, 1922.

'MYSTERY MAN' VAINLY TRIES TO REMEMBER PAST

Wife and Children of Shell Shocked Victim Believed Located.

DENVER, April 7.—Hayward Thompson, two-brained "mystery man," is still knocking in vain at the impenetrable wall of amnesia he erected between him and his past life.

And while he racks his shell-shocked brains, groping unsuccessfully for the memory threads which will lead him back to his wife and babies and home and friends, American Legion officials are being deluged with calls and visits from persons who give the "mystery man" a dozen different identities.

Out of the maze of conflicting identifications, that of C. J. Moore, branch manager here of the R. M. Hollingshead company of Camden, N. J., furnished the lead which is expected to restore Thompson to his wife and children, even though it may not restore his memory. Moore declares Thompson was in his employ as a salesman at the time of his last mysterious disappearance; that Thompson's wife and children are in Kansas City, Mo., and that the Kansas City Red Cross has been conducting a nation-wide search for the missing "mystery man."

"Hayward Thompson is the man who came to me from Kansas City, Jan. 5," Moore said Monday. "He brought with him a letter of introduction from W. B. Bowers, our Kansas City branch manager, who had asked me to put him on as a salesman in this territory. Bowers said Thompson had splendid recommendations."

"Thompson went to work at once and sent in his first orders from Pueblo Jan. 8. He was in Rocky Ford Jan. 11, in La Junta Jan. 12, at Trinidad Jan. 16, at Colorado Springs on Jan. 21.

"He appeared perfectly normal, but there were several peculiar incidents in connection with his southern Colorado trip. For instance, order No. 13 in his order book was not filled out. The word 'void' was written in the middle of the sheet. But he took a number of orders on Jan. 13. His order book is a blank from Jan. 16 to Jan. 21.

"While he was in Colorado Springs he wired the Kansas City office for funds. I wrote a letter to him on Jan. 9. A couple of days later I received a reply, written on the back of my letter. Then I heard no more from him until Feb. 24, when he telephoned and asked to see me at 7:30 o'clock that evening. I waited for him, but he didn't show up."

"In the meantime I had been trying to find out what had become of him. Mr. Bowers notified me that the company was helping to take care of his family, and said Mrs. Thompson had enlisted the aid of the Red Cross in trying to locate him.

Said He Had Been Ill.
"Thompson, in his telephone call to me, said he had been ill at St. Luke's hospital. At the hospital, I was told he had been there but that he had

EVERYTHING BUT CAT'S PAJAMAS NAMED IN SUIT

NEW YORK, April 7.—Dr. Martin L. Tirrell, physician to many wealthy New Yorkers, is suing his wife for a separation and in his complaint and affidavits has submitted to the supreme court a letter which he says Mrs. Tirrell wrote to a young friend, Charles Hecker, since dead, dealing with their mutual affection for a cat, named Nigger, because of its color.

The letter was written in November, 1915, when Hecker was traveling for his health. It ran, in part: "My Dear Boy—Nigger is as cute and fine as ever. But I guess you don't love it any more for you don't say anything about it in your letters. Nigger is lonesome for you. I often see him look up with those big loving eyes when some one is coming. Nigger thinks it may be his long lost playfellow."

"Hon, my heart is hungry, too, and I listen for the sound of a footfall I know and a voice that is music in my ears. Will you come home?"
"I hope you will have grown splendid and manly and a true mate for the woman you love."

Mrs. Tirrell, denying charges by her husband that she treated him cruelly, threatened him with a carving knife, pretended to shoot herself, denied him admission to her boudoir, swore at him, threw his clothing out of her room, threatened him with a revolver, unless he made a will in her favor, swore at her mother when the latter vowed on her knees for Dr. Tirrell and generally made life so unhappy for him that he had to live apart from her, admits writing the Hecker letter.

But she wrote it, she says, at the request of a girl friend, who was Hecker's fiancee and unable to write at the time. The sentiments contained in it were entirely those of her friend, she maintains.

The Tirrells were married at Coaticook, Quebec, in 1894.

mysteriously disappeared from the hospital."

L. Schlesinger, publicity director of the Colorado Service Star, which is the American Legion official state paper, said numerous persons had called at his office, 5 Evans block, Monday, to identify the "mystery man."

"We have had all kinds of identifications for him," Schlesinger said, "and if all these are correct he has been in a number of different places at the same time. One man declared he was in a marine hospital with Thompson and said Thompson was getting checks at the time from the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Another said his name is Rice."

Edwin Hewitt said the photograph of Thompson is an exact likeness of a man known as Henry Hoot, whom he employed as houseman and chauffeur from April to July 9, 1921. Hewitt said Hoot explained, in leaving his employ, that he was returning to his home town in eastern Colorado to be married.

Al W. Morrell says he was in the Burge-Deaconess hospital, Springfield, Mo., with Thompson shortly after the close of the war.

Ragged Clothes With Silver Lining Get Mike a Job!

NEW YORK, April 7.—That clothes may make the man, but don't prove anything, was demonstrated before Magistrate Folwell in Brooklyn today. Michael Szekeczuk, 60 years old, stood before the magistrate with toes protruding from the remnants of someone else's shoes. His clothes, both in point of condition and filth, beggared description.

The magistrate was moved while listening to how the prisoner stopped a pedestrian on Fulton street and on the plea that he was starving received ten cents; and as Mike had made a bee line for the nearest restaurant, his stock with the courts rose. But when Policemen Smith and Hughes interrupted to remark that the starving man walked right in the front door and right out of the back without stopping even for a tooth pick and a drink of water, the jail doors opened.

These same doors closed on the prisoner for six long months when $1,617 in United States postal savings certificates and $15 in cash were found in his pockets. However, Mike won't have to beg for his living until Sept. 21. The city will keep him "free, gratis, for nothing," as the saying goes. And when he comes out he'll have his $1,632.

PARTED EIGHT YEARS FATHER AND DAUGHTER SPEAK ALIEN TONGUES

NEW YORK, April 7.—Joseph Spence of Unionville, Pa., and his 17-year-old daughter Mary Louis Spence, whom he had not seen for eight years, couldn't understand a word each said to the other when they met after the steamship Kronland docked. The daughter spoke only French, although born in the United States, and her attempts to converse with her father were almost tragic until a woman interpreter from the Travelers' Aid society came to the rescue.

At the age of 18 Miss Spence went to France with her mother, who died during the war, and her father recently decided to bring her here to live with him and her older brother, a student at Williams Trade school.

WORLD'S BEST FORGETTER FORGOT HIS MOTOR CAR

EAST ORANGE, N. J., April 7.—Ernest J. Rueg of West Hoboken, admitted to the state motor vehicle commissioner that he had mislaid his automobile on a Westhewken ferry, March 4, "as one would forget an umbrella."

The manner of it was this, he explained:
Rueg drove aboard the ferry, left his machine, entered the cabin and became absorbed in his newspaper. When the Manhattan shore was reached he landed with the foot passengers, took a taxicab to his office and never thought about his car again until he was informed that it had been found.

The commissioner explained that he really mustn't be so absent-minded for, police had passed many perfectly good hours trying to solve what they thought must be either a suicide mystery or the theft of an automobile which bandits feared to drive off the ferry.

Rueg pleaded that it was the first time he had broken a traffic law in fourteen years, and the commissioner suspended sentence.

WOMEN BARRED FROM GOVERNOR SMALL JURY

WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 6.—Women will not serve on the jury that is to try Governor Len Small on charges of conspiracy to embezzle state funds.

This was indicated by Judge Claire C. Edwards here late Wednesday, when consideration was given the objections of the governor's attorneys to the present jury list because it did not include the names of women. The court declared that it did not believe women were necessary and G. C. Leforgee, chief of counsel for the governor, said that he would not insist on women.

Attorneys for the governor asked for more time and the case was again delayed.

It is now believed that the case can not come to trial until after the state primaries on April 11.

More Than 350,000 Tenants Clash With New York Landlords.

NEW YORK, April 7.—More than 350,000 New York residents had trouble with their landlords last year and started legal actions of various kinds. This was disclosed in a report made public by the board of justices of the municipal court.

Of the 361,345 rent cases actually brought to the attention of the courts 117,859 trials were conducted. The volume of actions showed an increase of 47 per cent over 1920.

VERA CRUZ, April 7.—A demonstration by syndicalists against high rent ended in the shooting to death of a woman tenant, the wife of a Spanish merchant. The syndicalists have refused to pay more than 2 per cent of the assessed value of the property rented, and have come into almost daily clash with authorities recently.

AVIATORS LAND IN CAPE VERDE ISLANDS

ST. VINCENT, Cape Verde, Island, April 7.—The Portuguese aviators who are attempting a flight across the Atlantic from Lisbon to Brazil arrived here safely Wednesday afternoon at 5:20 o'clock from Las Palmas, Canary Island. They left Gando Bay, near Las Palmas, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning.

After passing the bonus bill the house will pass the hat for some votes.—Indianapolis Star.

FLORIDA BOOTLEGGERS ARE SAID TO BE "ON THE RUN"

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Florida bootleggers are "on the run," said a report received by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes from Col. L. G. Nutt who has been directing the Florida dry campaign and studying conditions in Cuba and the Bahamas.

Cuba and the Bahaman officials, he said, had already begun co-operating with this country in an effort to reduce smuggling of liquor and narcotics.

MAN BADLY BITTEN BY OWN FALSE TEETH

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Dr. Fred Repetti had the unusual experience of being bitten by his own false teeth.

Repetti stepped off a curb, and was knocked down by an automobile, which was being driven by a policeman off duty.

One arm was fractured, but that was only part of the damage.

He had his false teeth in a hip pocket, and when he fell, the teeth were driven in the flesh as far as the rubber gums, inflicting a painful bite.

19-CENT GAS AT FORT WORTH.

FORT WORTH, April 7.—Motorists paid 19 cents per gallon for gasoline in Fort Worth Thursday.

Some filling stations reduced the price to 19 cents Wednesday, but the 2-cent cut was not general until Thursday. There is no economic reason for the drop, local oil company officials stated, and the price will probably rise again shortly.

It should be 22 or 23 cents instead of the 21-cent price of Wednesday, they declared. The companies were forced to cut when other companies began selling motor fuel at the lower prices.

HE'S A COP, THO PHOTO GRACES ROGUE GALLERY

SEATTLE, Wash., April 7.—While three photographs which detectives state were those of Fred L. Trombly graced the rogue's gallery in central station here, Trombly himself served for six months as a Seattle patrolman. He is now under arrest and police announce they have his confession to a series of robberies here.

The record ascribed to him was that of a term for grand larceny, an escape from Monroe reformatory, a six-months' sentence for petit larceny and a sentence of six to fifteen years in the state penitentiary for theft of diamonds.

FATHER'S ADDICTION TO MOVIES AND CANDY RUINS HAPPY HOME

MONTROSE, Scotland, April 7.—With most familiar vices, new and old, to choose from, a local father chose the flapper's road to ruin. His wife complained to a police court that he was neglecting her and their five children to spend his week's wages on nightly visits to the "movies," where he consumed huge quantities of candy.

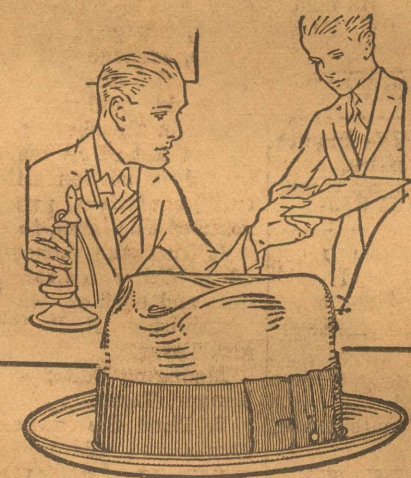

The court summoned the man, who signed the pledge.

NEFF ENDS STUDY OF STATE MACHINERY AT CAPITOL

AUSTIN, April 7.—Governor Neff Thursday completed his round of visits to the various state departments, made to familiarize himself with the administration of the state government in preparation for his speaking tour over the state next week on "Texas, Its Perils and Possibilities." However, the governor has not visited the capital press.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Mrs. Lucille Terger is held by the police following the killing of Samuel King, 64, a boarder at her home last night.

Mrs. Terger has told several conflicting stories of the murder. Police said they did not believe the true story of the killing has yet been told. Aside from the woman in custody, there were no witnesses to the slaying.
