PORTO RICANS ARE DESPERATE OVER TYRANNY

Cables Indicate That Harding's Endorsement of Reilly Doesn't Set Well.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—A cablegram of protest resulting from yesterday's declaration at the White House that the difficulties of Governor Reilly in Porto Rica had not undermined President Harding's confidence in him was made by Felix Cordova Davila, Porto Rican resident commissioner, one of the editors of the San Juan Democratia, and was as follows:

"Associated Press dispatch says Harding indorses Reilly and proclaims his integrity. Please wire immediately our true situation. Am prepared to begin hunger strike against the tyranny. After enormous demonstrations, black flags throughout island."

Interpreting the references to a "hunger strike" and the "black flag" as reflecting a popular state of desperation, Davila replied:

"The President is giving full and careful consideration to the situation. Wait. Remember Porto Rico's record of four centuries for law and order."

CLAIM CLIMATE CAUSED SHORT WEIGHT SUITS

SWEETWATER, April 15.—Judge W. P. Leslie has just heard and passed on a habeas corpus case involving the validity of the weights and measures act passed by the Texas legislature in March, 1919, it was reported today. Recently quite a number of cases have been filed in the justice court of this precinct, charging violation of this law on the part of a number of milling companies over the state in shipping packages containing less than the required weights of products.

The Great West Mill & Elevator company of Amarillo, of which Frank Kell is president and E. F. Humphreys general manager, filed application with Judge Leslie setting up that sixty cases had been filed against their firm and attacking the validity of the law under which the charges were filed, because of a conflict with certain federal rules and regulations; because of unconstitutionality and because the administration of the law by the department of weights and measures of Texas failed to take into account the effect of climate and atmospheric conditions on the weights of flour.

After the hearing, Judge Leslie indicated some doubt as to the validity of the law, but he resolved in favor of its validity and thereupon remanded the defendant Humphreys to the custody of the sheriff. Notice of appeal was given and the case will be given to the court of criminal appeals, as the millers propose making a test case of it.

The occasion was the visit of inspection by General Amaro, commander of the Third division.

MERCHANTS WANT CLAIM HOLDERS TO CALL FOR F. & M. BANK BALANCES

Although practically all of the scrip issue has been redeemed by the Retail Merchants' association, only about half of the assignees of accounts in the F. & M. bank have called at the offices for their balances, Secretary M. O. Burt stated last night. On assigning their accounts over to the association, former depositors of the bank were

WANT A BABY?

Captain J. T. Lynn, founder of the Lynn Orphan Work in Dallas, arrived in Ranger yesterday in the interest of placing babies in Christian homes of the city and community. Captain Lynn and his wife have been conducting the work on free-will offerings for the last ten years and he is known in all sections of the state. The work is non-sectarian. In the last year Captain Lynn has carried seventeen babies in his basket for a total distance of 3,750 miles, the captain caring for them until they were adopted in homes.

Captain Lynn states that he is here either to place babies in homes or to take in babies in need of a home. Babies will be taken at any age, if healthy, he states.

He requests that any one desiring to take a baby into their home call on him at the Gholson hotel, with a reference from their pastor.

KLAN AGITATION POLITICAL ROW, MAYFIELD SAYS

Claims Dallas Politicians Stir It Up to Force Over Senatorial Candidate.

AUSTIN, April 15.—Earle B. Mayfield, Texas railroad commissioner and candidate for the United States senate, today declared that the recent agitation over the Ku Klux Klan is confined largely to the city of Dallas and is nothing more nor less than a political fracas raised by Dallas politicians for the purpose of forcing the candidacy of a certain candidate for the United States senate. "I refuse to walk into their trap," he said.

Mayfield's statement was made in a letter replying to questions about the Ku Klux Klan, propounded to him by a Dallas newspaper. He said the Ku Klux Klan is by no means the paramount question in the senatorial race and declined to express his views concerning it. He declared that the transportation question is the biggest question involved and said the Ku Klux Klan question in the senatorial race is raised by designing politicians.

Stating that the attention of the people of Texas is riveted on the repeal of the transportation act, he concluded his reply to the Dallas paper by saying:

"I therefore most respectfully decline to be led into a controversy concerning an issue over which the United States senate has no jurisdiction and which designing politicians have raised for the sole purpose of obfuscating the real issues in the senatorial contest."

IRISH INSURGENTS MAY FORCE GRIFFITH TO GIVE EASTER ADDRESS IN JAIL

SLIGO, Ireland, April 15.—This Irish town, where Arthur Griffiths, president of the Dail Eireann, is to deliver an Easter address tomorrow in favor of the free state, was full of armed men tonight and reinforcements of the insurgent followers of Eamonn De Valera were pouring in from the country. Nearly every house in the city was occupied by groups and there was wholesale commandeering of food supplies.

It was stated tonight that the insurgent troops intend to allow no civilians on the streets after 12 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. In view of the presence of so many armed men, it is feared few citizens will attend the meeting, which it was suggested tonight, might be delivered in the county jail—the sole important building now in possession of free state supporters.

RUSS FAMINE'S BACK IS BROKEN, MESSAGE SAYS

LONDON, April 15.—"America has broken the back of the biggest famine in the world's history," was the Easter message sent the United States today by Walker Lyman Brown, European director of the American relief administration. His statement was based on dispatches just received in London from Russia.

"We have not reached the end of our troubles," said Brown, "but we have successfully initiated a program for feeding four times as many people as the original program called for."

"While the feeding of 5,000,000 Russian adult famine sufferers is being initiated, the number of children being fed has reached 2,000,000 in round figures and is constantly increasing. The child feeding goal aimed at is 3,000,000, exclusive of the Ukraine, where a program is contemplated."

There is no parallel in history for the task America has undertaken in the valley of the Volga, according to Brown.

PETTING PARTIES?

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The stream of visitors that has flowed into the White House since President Harding opened the gates and inaugurated the practice of daily receptions reached the high water mark today, when 1,500 persons shook hands with the chief executive. They filed past him in his office at the rate of some forty or fifty per minute.

House officials estimated that 7,500 had shaken hands with Mr. Harding during this week.

Carbon Black Plants May Be Permitted

Railroad Commission Holds Hearing April 26 to Decide Whether Wasted Casinghead Gas May Be Used for Purpose.

AUSTIN, April 15.—The railroad commission today announced a hearing of the application of the Ebony Carbon company to establish a carbon black manufacturing plant at Breckenridge, on Wednesday, April 26.

The company seeks to obtain permission to make carbon black from casinghead gas, said to be wasteful after the gasoline contents have been extracted therefrom.

BUSINESS IN WEST DOUBLES SINCE FALL

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Business conditions over the West and Southwest have improved 100 per cent since last fall, according to Eugene F. Meyer Jr., managing director of the War Finance corporation, who returned today from a survey over twenty states west of the Mississippi. The survey was made at the request of President Harding.

CAPITAL EAGER FOR LOW RATE U. S. SECURITIES

WASHINGTON, April 15.—A heavy oversubscription of the new treasury issue of 3 1/2 per cent six-month certificates, bearing the lowest government interest rate since 1917, was announced tonight by Secretary Mellon. Preliminary reports, he stated, indicated that the total subscriptions will aggregate more than $300,000,000.

All the federal reserve districts, he said, have reported oversubscriptions of their quotas. Further details as to allotments will be announced when the final reports are received by the treasury.

SNAPPY SHOW SET FOR TODAY AT BALL PARK

A fast and snappy program will be the order of business at the ball park today, when the Nitros tangle with the Prairie Pipe Liners in a practice game and are in turn succeeded by the riders and ropers assembled by Red Kelly for an exhibition of those arts.

Kelly is backing his horses to win, and to add interest to the exhibition, regular rodeo rules will prevail, to be enforced by three judges, one of whom will be selected by himself, another by the riders, and a third by the two judges first chosen. Hanman has been offered a reward for every spur mark he can leave on Midland in the first five jumps and he is out to earn it.

Gene Reynolds will have his paint pony there for the delectation of the crowd, it is promised; Florence Hughes will ride "Two-Step," another Kelly horse which won acclaim at the Abilene fair last year, and also has her own horses for trick riding and rope work.

A pleasing exhibition without rough stuff or lagging is promised. The ball game starts at 3 o'clock and the rodeo stunts follow immediately after its close.

STATE AUTHORITIES ARE INVESTIGATING FIRES

AUSTIN, April 15.—The state fire insurance commission is being called on at present to investigate a great many fires where the origin is undetermined, the state fire marshal said today. He has just returned from Floyd county, where he investigated the origin of several fires. In one case an indictment for arson was returned, he said.

RUSSIANS ASK FIFTY BILLION RUBLES' DAMAGE

War Claims Two and a Half Times as Great as Russian Foreign Debt.

PARIS, April 15.—A Havas agency dispatch from Genoa said the Russian soviet delegation to Genoa had presented a bill of 50,000,000,000 gold rubles to the allies late today.

The bill was made of 35,000,000,000 gold rubles, said the dispatch, for damages suffered in Russia from the depredations of Denikine, Kolchak, Yudenitch and Wrangel, and 15,000,000,000 for other damages including the loss of Bessarabia to Rumania. The dispatch adds that the soviet government delegates claimed that while recognizing Russia's pre-war debts, they were creditors to the allies and not debtors.

Prime Minister Lloyd George, the Havas dispatch asserted, informed the Russians that their claims was unacceptable and was contrary to all reason and justice. It said he requested them to consider and bring in a reply favorable to the allied demands, otherwise there was no object in continuing the conference so far as Russia was concerned.

DAMAGES MUCH GREATER THAN RUSSIAN DEBT

GENOA, April 15.—The Russian delegates were told today to definitely answer yes or no as to whether they will put into practice the conditions of the Cannes resolution and those contained in the expert's report, according to a brief communication issued tonight concerning the negotiations between the allied leaders and the Russians.

"It seems impossible," said the statement, "to get anything tangible from the soviet delegates, who astonished the allies by demanding 50,000,000,000 rubles because of foreign intervention. This is two and one-half times greater than the amount the allies claimed from Russia."

An unofficial statement earlier in the meeting was more optimistic. It pointed out that more has virtually been accomplished than was dreamed of when the Genoa conference originated.

WINSETT QUILTS AS CHRISTIAN MINISTER HERE

The Rev. J. G. Winsett, for more than a year pastor of the Christian tabernacle here, has resigned from his charge to enter the general evangelistic field. He will preach his farewell sermon at the church this morning. Mr. Winsett's resignation became known last night following the return of himself and family from Denison, where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Winsett's grandmother. Mr. Winsett explained that he had tendered his resignation two weeks ago to become effective after tomorrow. He will continue to keep his home here in Ranger, he said, and will remain here for some time, completing plans for his evangelistic work.

Mr. Winsett came here in November, 1920, from Amarillo and with the assistance of three others built the Christian tabernacle on Main street. He then organized the church and Sunday school here and last Easter preached his first sermon in the tabernacle.

During his residence here he has been active in law enforcement work, having given considerable of his time, individually and with the Law and Order league, in attempting to rid the city of bootleggers, gamblers and vice in general.

GRAND JURY RECESSES

MIDLAND WINS HARD FIGHT FOR NEXT CLUB MEET

Midland was chosen yesterday afternoon at the closing session of the Sixth District Women's Clubs convention as the place of meeting in 1923. Four towns—Midland, El Paso, Sweetwater and Cisco tendered invitations, and Midland won the decision over El Paso by the margin of five votes, after both Sweetwater and Cisco had withdrawn in her favor.

At 4:30 o'clock the seventh annual convention adjourned. The adjournment was followed by a drive over the city, in which the visitors were shown Ranger as she now is. Delegates and officers were busy catching trains in all directions Saturday night, so as to be home for Easter, and this morning finds them practically all gone.

College Credits for Club Work. "Give women credit for what they know," was the burden of the message that was brought to the convention in its Saturday afternoon session, when Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, of Claude, addressed it. Mrs. Warner discussed "College Credits for Club Women," telling her audience of this plan, which is now in embryo only. It is proposed to give women who have had to stop school before attaining their degrees, college credit for work done in the clubs, so that they may thus go on and finish their courses later in life. She said that none of the club women had had a credit awarded them, since leaving school and that she thought it was right and just that they should have.

The West Texas Normal, at Canyon City, inspired by the new Seventh district, had adopted this plan and is trying it out. The College of Industrial Arts at Denton has approved it and will adopt it as soon as conditions will permit.

The Why of Credits. In her reasons for college credits Mrs. Warner said that education should be made a common thing instead of ignorance, that it will add dignity and prestige to club work, that it will be one step toward universal education, that it will make clubs and club women think along uniform lines, that it is a profitable way for a woman to rest, that it will keep mothers growing with their children, and that it meant a continuance of a woman's college education.

Miss Empress Young of Abilene favored the assembly with a reading. A number of reports were given and after the invitations had been extended and accepted, the convention members stood and sang "America" and so was ended the Seventh annual convention of the Sixth District of Texas Federated Clubs.

The following resolutions were adopted by the committee:

Resolution of Courtesy. Whereas, we, the officers, delegates and visitors of the Sixth District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, do appreciate the hospitality of the city of Ranger; and Whereas the Rotarians, their president, Mr. Collier, and the Lions have contributed greatly to our convention; be it

THEFT CHARGE IS AMUSING TO GEN. SEMENOFF

Anti-Bolshevist Leader Traveling on Borrowed Money, Wife Says.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Mme. Gregory Semenoff, who before the war was said by the Grand Duke Cyril to be the most beautiful woman in Petrograd, testified today that her husband, long the terror of Russian bolsheviki, was without funds.

This statement was made before Peter B. Olney as referee in the bankruptcy proceedings growing out of the alleged theft of $478,576 worth of merchandise by General Semenoff near Chita, Siberia.

General Is Poor!

David W. Kahn, attorney for the trustee in bankruptcy, sought during the hearing to ascertain General Semenoff's assets. The general was present, but he was not called to the stand. Mme. Semenoff and two other persons were examined, and it appears that the general is so poor that he has to borrow money from his brother in Mongolia to pay his traveling expenses here.

The general is under a bond of $25,000 and is living at the Waldorf Astoria with his wife and Misak Aivazoff, representative of manufacturing interests in Vancouver. He was arrested by a squad of deputy sheriffs as he stepped off a train from Washington.

When he was told that a judgment for $478,576 had been returned against him in Harbin, Manchuria, and that it was on this that the plaintiff sought to collect, he shrugged his shoulders.

Courts Don't Count.

"Pout! A court in Harbin says I am a thief and that I must pay money," he exclaimed. "Ha! ha! It is to laugh. There are no courts in Harbin. They are here today and gone tomorrow."

George W. Glaze, counsel for Semenoff, said the proceedings against his client were of the "flimsiest" sort.

"There is not even a copy of the Harbin judgment upon which they base their charge," he said.

The hearing before Referee Olney was remarkable most for the effect Mme. Semenoff had upon the gathering of lawyers, clerks, interpreters, photographers and reporters. Her maiden name, she said, was Helen Viktorovna Tersitskaya. She answered questions in a quick, quiet, willing manner, speaking in Russian. It was brought out that Mme. Semenoff's chief possession was the $50,000 pearl necklace which she gave as security for bail for her husband.

"What duty did you have to pay on the necklace at Vancouver?" the referee asked.

RUSS AMBASSADOR REFUSES TO TESTIFY ABOUT SEMENOFF

WASHINGTON, April 15.—A new proposition over the presence of General Semenoff in this country arose today when the senate labor committee sought to subpoena in its investigation of the case of Bori Bakhmetoff, the last accredited Russian ambassador to the United States, and found its rights to do so contradicted under the law of diplomatic immunity.

Bakhmetoff, sent here in 1917 by the Kerensky government of Russia, was not in Washington when the subpoena was issued, but it was said at the embassy that immunity would be claimed. Embassy officials added they would suggest to the state department that American statutes make it punishable to attempt serving a subpoena on an ambassador.

Senator Borah of Idaho, chairman of the committee, was not deterred by the statement of the Russian officials, however, stating that the question of Bakhmetoff's status would have to be determined when it arose through his failure to respond to the committee's summons, it being strange, the Idaho senator said, for a man to claim to be ambassador of a government which went out of existence five years ago.

At the same time Senator Borah telegraphed New York authorities asking whether there was any way to punish the former Cossack chief for the murder of American soldiers in Siberia.

Bruce E. Haines & Dr. Herbert Bryson.

Dr. Herbert J. Bryson is held by Huntingdon, Pa., police, following the slaying there of Mrs. Helen Kirby Haines, whom he is accused of having "stolen" from her legal husband, Bruce E. Haines of Washington. Mrs. Haines disappeared from the household of her legal husband in August, 1920. In Huntingdon she lived as "Mrs. Bryson," despite the fact that her legal husband denies having been divorced. Haines asserts that he will spend his last dollar to prosecute the man "who stole my wife from me!"

HUSBANDS AND WIVES 'REASSIGNED' BY CALIFORNIA RELIGIOUS CULT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—Sensational charges against the Perfect Christian Divine Way church of San Francisco and Los Angeles are made by Mrs. Freida Schwarz of San Francisco in an affidavit now in the possession of Santa Clara county authorities, according to a story in the San Francisco Examiner.

The affidavit, according to the statements of Assistant District Attorney Fred L. Thomas and Probation Officer Katherine Brattan of San Jose, recites the alleged experiences of Mrs. Schwarz and her husband as members of the colony which the church has maintained at Alma, Cal., near San Jose, for more than two years. The affidavit was given by Mrs. Schwarz to Cornelia Stanwood, secretary of the state board of charities and corrections.

According to the affidavit, husbands and wives were separated when they joined the colony and the individuals "reassigned" by the mandates of the cult's leaders.

It was as a result of the affidavit of Mrs. Schwarz and of supporting testimony of Mrs. Pearl Archer of San Francisco, the Examiner's story says, that an investigation of the colony's affairs was started, together with the seizure of four children of the colony by the juvenile court.

The children taken by the court are the two sons and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Stauss, members of the colony, and Willis Riker, son of "Mother Lucille" and "Father" W. C. Riker, who were indicted by the San Francisco grand jury recently, following an investigation of the cult.

Attorneys for the colony deny the charges against it.

GOO'BY, DROUTH! KRAUT COCKTAIL HAS FINE KICK

CHICAGO, April 15.—Sauerkraut the lobster-a-la-Newburg of the poor, is coming back with a delectable punch. The tip was passed around at the annual meeting of the National Kraut Packers association held here Tuesday, and if what they say bears up under test, Mr. Volstead will have to work up a new law.

"You can make for yourself a concoction with a sting in it," the tip went. "If you have a barrel or keg of sauerkraut in the house, just take the juice in a shaker with some ice and you have a cocktail with a delightful kick. It looks like a Bronx and tastes like a spiked lemonade." and tastes like a spiked lemonade." maintain that daily consumption of sauerkraut will make women beautiful. CHARCOAL DOESN'T RID 'CORN' OF FUSEL OIL, TEST SHOWS

FORT WORTH, April 15.—That fusel oil cannot be taken out of corn whisky by running it through charcoal has been proved by H. M. Stevenson, chemist, who tested whisky captured by federal prohibition officers in this district. By running the whisky through charcoal the amount of poison in proportion to the amount of alcohol is greatly increased and the whisky is more dangerous, according to the report.

The report submitted by the chemist is as follows:

"In order to affirm or disprove the generally accepted theory that whisky containing fusel oil when filtered through charcoal is rid of its fusel oil, a sample of corn whisky, which on analysis, showed a fusel oil content of five and eight-tenths per cent, was filtered three times through wood charcoal, once through bone charcoal and once through blood charcoal.

"The original on analysis showed 58.3 per cent alcohol by volume, and 5.8 per cent fusel oil, and after treatment, the same whisky showed 54 per cent alcohol and 5.8 per cent fusel oil.

"These results show that the alcoholic content has been decreased, but that the fusel oil content has remained the same. Thus the proportion of fusel oil to alcohol was increased and this made the filtered whisky a more poisonous substance from the standpoint of fusel oil than the original."

FIFTEEN CONDITIONAL PARDONS ARE CANCELED

AUSTIN, April 15.—Governor Neff has within the past few weeks canceled fifteen conditional pardons and paroles, and the fifteen persons returned to the penitentiary, it was learned today at his office.

DRIVE CHILDREN FROM GRAIN SHIP WITH BAYONETS

Russian Relief Steamer's Captain Tells of Famine Brutality.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 15.—A tale of famine, brutality and horror was related by Capt. M. L. Hart of the steamship Deep Water, which has just returned from Odessa, Russia. The Deep Water was a Russian relief steamer. At Odessa the Deep Water was met by thousands of children.

Virtually unclothed and showing unmistakable evidence of starvation, they swarmed about, ready to beg for food as soon as the unloading of the grain was begun, but only to be driven away by Russian soldiers.

Captain Hart said those who resisted were bayoneted.

It took nine days for sixty-five half-starved stevedores to unload the ship. Two of their number were killed during quarrels.

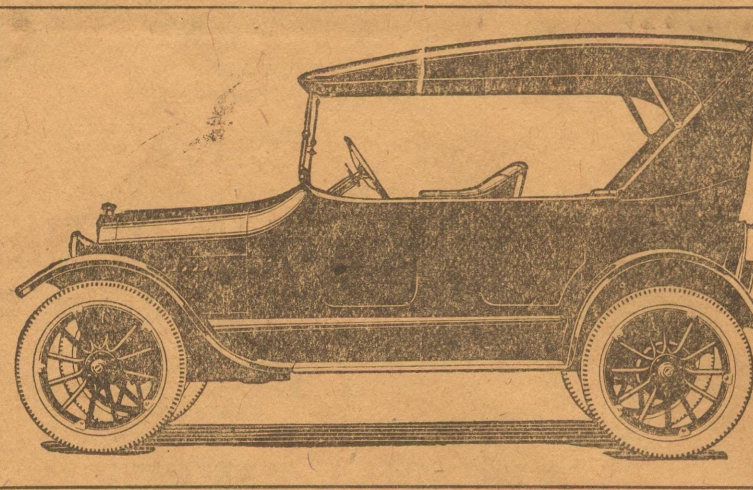

Night of Horror.

Captain Hart refused to permit any of his crew to go ashore, but one night two of the men slipped away.

They passed a night of horror before they could get back on board, they said. They told of seeing men stood against a wall to be shot by a firing squad, of seeing men, women and children fall in the streets, exhausted from hunger, and as a climax to their adventure they saw three trainloads of dead being shipped out of the once flourishing city to be thrown into a hole.

Captain Hart said that the Russians' spirit had been broken by the harsh and brutal methods of the Russian soldiery and they were offering virtually no resistance to terrible treatment.

They believe that the I. W. W. has conquered the United States and that they are sending the grain over to them. They also believe that Bolshevism has gripped the whole world and that resistance is useless.

BANDIT STRIPS MAN OF ATTIRE, SENDS HIM HOME IN UNDERWEAR

GRANTS PASS, Ore., April 15.—O. A. Colby, prominent merchant, arrived at his home late for dinner and clad only in his underwear and a pair of rubber overshoes. He explained to his astonished family that a hold-up man had met him near his home, driven him into the brush nearby, taken his watch and money and then ordered him to strip. Colby said his objections vanished under the proximity of a revolver held within an inch of his head. After he had removed his suit, hat, silk shirt, collar, tie, shoes and socks, the robber donned them.

TOBACCO GROWERS PLAN CO-OPERATION

KINGSTON, N. C., April 15.—Sixty-five thousand farmers in one big organization have set about controlling the 1922 tobacco crop in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. Fully organized and officered by leading planters and bankers of the three states, the growers declare they will demand a better profit for the crop. Their leaders say the organization is the most powerful of the kind in the country.

Co-operative marketing of tobacco is to be started in the Virginia and Carolina belts late in the summer. It is already in operation in Kentucky. The Tri-State Co-Operative Marketing association will own or lease hundreds of warehouses for storage and selling purposes. In these the golden weed will be held until buyers call for it. In past years the auction system has been in effect. Under this, tobacco was rushed onto the markets in such quantities that a tremendous crop was usually in the manufacturers' hands in a few weeks' time. The growers, according to the organized farmers' leaders, paid the penalty in reduced prices.

BASEBALL AT EASTLAND.

WIFE PLOTTED DEATH OF HUSBAND, VERDICT

KITTANING, Pa., April 15.—Mrs. Amelia Whann was found to be guilty of having plotted to bring about the death of her husband, Dr. John Whann. The jury deliberated ten hours.

Eugene Sanz, the state's chief witness, testified that he attacked the physician after Mrs. Whann had professed her love for him and asked him to attack her husband. Mrs. Whann, testifying in her own behalf, denied the charges. Dr. Whann sat at his wife's side throughout the trial. Immediately after the verdict was read Sanz was called before the court and sentenced to serve not less than ten years and six months and not more than twelve years in the West-ers Penitentiary.

A CHANCE TO GET TOGETHER.

Co-operation is the keystone of the success of any town. Without it, the entire structure does not necessarily fall, but certainly the industrial edifice that is reared will not be as strong and substantial as with the keystone intact.

With the formation of the New Chamber of Commerce, details of which are now being worked out, there is a splendid opportunity for Ranger to once more present the united front which won the admiration of civic boosters everywhere two years ago.

But the point is, it need not continue to exist. The old Chamber of Commerce has passed away—been erased. Those who held grievances against the old chamber should erase them—not transfer them to the new. Rather, they should greet the new organization as a friend, and throw in their lot with it, for the betterment of the community.

Vanishing Greyhounds of Uncle Sam's Great Fleet

CHARGE GIRL LURED WEALTHY MAN TO DEATH

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 15.—Sophie Kellyon, 21 years old, was pictured here by District Attorney James as arch conspirator in a plot to lure George John, middle-aged, rich and married merchant, to the Pocono mountains for a robbery that resulted in his slaying.

He asked a jury to convict Miss Kellyon of the crime and to send her to the electric chair. He declared the crime had all the elements of first degree murder, and that no other verdict would satisfy the commonwealth.

He said he expected to prove that Jan. 6 John and the defendant met. John had considerable money, and after a short conversation they parted company, with an agreement to meet again.

Following this, the prosecutor said, came a trip in an inclosed automobile, which later was found bullet-riddled and containing John's body.

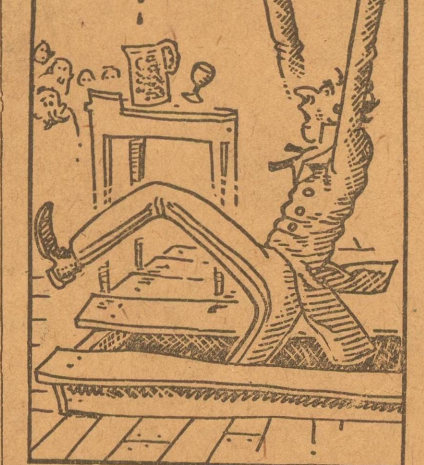

MANICURIST CANDIDATE FAVORS BOBBED TAXES

TOLEDO, Ohio, April 15.—Because she believes that a woman senator would represent the public more honestly and more intelligently than any man who ever occupied a seat in the state senate at Columbus, and because she is confident that women voters would elect a woman to the Ohio senate if they had a chance, Miss Pearl Thomas, manicurist, is going to give them that chance.

She will seek election next November on the Republican ticket. She believes in bobbed hair and bobbed taxes, in short skirts for women and short hours for workers.

SELLING PICKLES!

April 15.—What is said to be April 14.—What is said to be the last word in a specially designed run-running motor car was seized here when its driver, J. L. Myers, formerly of Chilli-cothe, was arrested on a charge of having transported whisky, and was fined $500 by Mayor V. J. Dahl.

The machine was constructed with secret compartments, in which the liquor was stored. Myers gave it out that he was a pickle salesman, and compartments were so disposed that he could produce jars of those relishes when a genuine customer for them made his or her appearance.

When seized, the car is said to have contained thirteen quarts of liquor and eight jars of pickles. The prisoner gave his residence as Detroit, and after paying his fine was given possession of his peculiar vehicle and told to leave the jurisdiction of the court.

WINE AND BEER BUT NO SALOONS IS WET SLOGAN

NEW YORK, April 15.—Three thousand opponents of the eighteenth amendment rallied around the standard of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment here in the first practical effort to crystallize wet opinion in New York into definite action against the Anti-Saloon league.

The meeting was in Carnegie hall, and so enthused were its promoters that announcement was made from the platform that Madison Square Garden had been engaged for a larger demonstration May 3.

Told to Observe Law. Personal liberty was the keynote of the entire meeting, and the moderation of the association's objective frequently was stressed. The audience was urged to observe the law, while working to repeal it.

Captain Stayton nominated five basic principles as defining the principles of the association. The first slogan of the association, he said, was "light wines and beer now, but no saloons ever."

The second principle, Captain Stayton said, was "Repeal the Volstead act, or, at least violently amend it," a remark which was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

The third objective of the association, the speaker continued, was to work conscientiously and always lawfully and patriotically for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. The fourth was to "restore the sacred principle of state rights which had been flouted by the eighteenth amendment," and the fifth, "to guard the constitution from further mutilation by financial minorities."

GUNS DEFIED, BANDITS USE FEET ON VICTIM

STUEBENVILLE, Ohio, April 15.—Andrew Mitchofski, of Adena, Ohio, striking coal miner, drew his savings, $3,000, from a bank today, preparatory to returning to Europe.

Near his home two highwaymen halted him with pistols. Preferring death to the loss of his money, Mitchofski told them to shoot. The robbers became indignant, returned their weapons to their pockets, attacked him with their feet, took his money and fled.

A BAS WORK!

Hobo Brothers Haven't Hit Lick in Thirty Years.

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, April 15.—"Sandy" MacAllister and "Mack" MacAllister are brothers. Back in 1892 they were employed in a mine at Bisbee. They haven't been employed since. "Sandy" had a quarrel with the foreman and was discharged. "Mack" became angry and quit.

They took an oath that day never to work again. They have kept it.

Twenty-First Trip.

Since then they have been across the United States twenty times and are here on their twenty-first trip, headed for the coast. They always stop in El Paso when they travel the southern route, and they usually alternate between some northern and southern route. It is easier to "get by" on freights through the south than it is through the north, they say. "Bulls" in the South are not so particular about catching "bos" on trains, "Sandy" said.

The two brothers have saved some money and it is lasting well because they wear overalls, do their own washing and mending, carry their own cooking utensils and do their own cooking. They prefer sleeping in the open, winter and summer, they declare, "because we are used to it," was "Mack's" explanation.

Not Tramps!

"We don't mix with other hoboes," he continued, "they are only tramps." When "Mack" and "Sandy" come to a thickly settled community they usually walk through, presenting the appearance of cross-country hikers.

F. M. Robinson, a former railroad detective, knows the MacAllister brothers well. On a recent trip made by them he invited them out to his home when they came through El Paso just to talk over old times with them.

They are known in many towns by workmen in railroad yards, who sometimes remark when spring comes around: "Well, it's about time 'Sandy' and 'Mack' were coming in."

ZION CITY DWELLERS FAVOR RIGID BLUE LAWS

ZION CITY, Ill., April 15.—Stricter blue laws enforcement, with a continuance of bans on smoking, dancing, swearing and gambling and a censorship of women's clothes, has been endorsed by the voters of Benton township, which includes Zion City. Liberals were defeated by a majority of 700 votes at the polls when the Theocratic party, indorsed by Wilbur Glenn Voliva, "Overseer of Zion," elected all its candidates.

WESLEY BARRY WILL REMIND YOU OF WHEN YOU PLAYED HOOKEY

Did you ever play hookey from school?

Wesley Barry, the freckle-faced movie star, plays hookey more than once in the Gus Edwards' screen play, "School Days," which shows at the Liberty theatre today and Monday. And in playing hookey, Wes' is said to lay the foundation for a story that will appeal to every human being who has experienced the thrills, the pranks and the many disappointments of boyhood.

For little Wesley, as the untamable and irresponsible Speck Brown, loves the old swimmin' hole and his dog, "Hippy," more than all the wealth and education in the world. But he chances to meet a wealthy uncle who induces him to pursue an education among the juvenile high-brows in the East. In his new surroundings he tries to be chummy. He also tries to put over an invention perfected by his old friend, Left, called "You Can't Lose-It-Clothes-Pin." He finds himself duped by a pair of clever swindlers.

Disgusted with the artificial existence of his wealthy schoolmates, keenly disappointed by his failure to put over the invention, Wes' longs for the old swimmin' home and his dog. In the wee small hours of the morning he runs away from his palatial residence, boards a freight train and finally arrives safely back in his old haunts. Once more he is happy, for he not only has his dog, but also his little sweetheart, and he can roam at will through nature's playground.

WRITER ADMITS HE LIKES WILD GIRLS OF TODAY

CHICAGO, April 15.—"I am getting old, so I will leave the flappers to the young fellows; but I like the wild girls pretty well myself," says Booth Tarkington, author of books, stories, plays and scenarios in which young people are featured.

"I don't know much about the wildness of Chicago young people," he continued, "but in Indianapolis the older people are exclaiming more than ever over the wildness of them. "But I don't think they are so bad. There are more young people than ever before as our population grows and so, there are more moderate ones as well as more wild ones, even though some of the wild ones are wilder than ever before."

"The reason for all the hullabaloo about the present day girl is merely the increase in population. The wild ones attract more attention and the impression gets out that they are all wild."

"Do you agree with one of your characters in your latest play that they are 'brazen little hussies in boys' breeches,' with a pint of homemade gin in their pockets?"

"Well, you noticed he changed his mind later and admitted they had a lot of charm. Just between you and me, I think the wild ones are pretty attractive, even if they do carry flasks of homemade gin."

Convention Week's Feature

Easter is here again. Easter with all of its "ghosts of Eastertides gone by." Easter of our childhood days, when rabbits and eggs formed our mental backgrounds. Easter of our later years, when each year brings us reverently to some place of worship, where we may thank Him for a day of resurrection. Down the lane a bird is singing, flowers are wafting their perfume, trees are telling the story of a new birth in the nocturne they hum with their breezes. All nature tells the story "Easter is here," and we are glad and the world is glad and all is well. Social interests are renewed, new frocks and hats are appearing, parties are being dated up and from all indications the coming weeks are to be the busiest for many weeks.

Among the many things that are going to happen is a really private dance, to be given at the Gholson on the evening of the 24th, for the young society folks only. This past week has been well taken up with the Federated Club's convention, as practically everything scheduled for the latter part of the week was cancelled for that, and on account of Good Friday—but like Lent, that is also a thing of the past, so from now on, watch the society page fairly scintillate with happenings.

Invitations are out for a bridge party on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Eben Finney as hostess at the Finney home. On the following Tuesday, which will be the 25th, Mrs. A. G. Jury will entertain with bridge at the Gholson.

FAREWELL DINNER TO MRS. C. F. CLARKE.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Nourse entertained with a farewell dinner in honor of Mrs. C. F. Clarke at their home in Cooper addition, Friday evening. Easter decorations were used profusely throughout the house. In the dining room the table was made very beautiful with its centerpiece of potted ferns.

MRS. EAVES GIVES EGG HUNT.

Mrs. W. R. Eaves entertained her Sunday school class, which is the junior class of the East Ranger Baptist church Sunday school Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock with an Easter egg hunt. Nine dozen eggs were hidden in and around the yard of the Eaves home and the children had lots of fun hunting for them. Truett Fulcher found the largest number of eggs and received the prize, a nest filled with Easter eggs. Refreshments of candy eggs and ice cream cones were served. Those present were: Ruby French, Rose Debeaufort, Nell Bigbee, Opal Harding, Adam Cook, Andrew Eaves, Edgar Barker, Truett Fulcher, Henderson Lindsey, M. F. Drury Jr., James Garber White, Juanita Smith.

MOONLIGHT PICNIC.

Taking advantage of the moonlight nights, a crowd of the young people, most of all of whom are members of the B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church, went for a moonlight picnic Thursday night. They met at the church and motored out to a place near Tiffin, where they "pitched camp", making a huge bonfire to ward off the night winds. Outdoor games were played, and as a fitting climax to the evening's pleasure, the girls and women in the crowd unpacked a picnic lunch, which was eaten with much pleasure.

Those enjoying this nice affair were: Dr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Spaulding, Misses Clara Shipp, Ollie Dickson, Lorena Dickson, Mabel Knight, Hilda Frasier, Ann Holland, Mittie Morris, Fay Pierce, Agnes Gray, Lois Stevens, Julia Owens, Ivey Lowe; Messrs. V. Davis, Bill Hale, R. S. Polk, Bill Herrington, A. L. Miller, J. Keenan, S. M. Ozretuis, Bennie Rhodes, Claude Gray.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH EASTER EGG HUNT.

The Easter egg hunt given Saturday afternoon by the ladies of the First Baptist church was a great success, over 150 children being present. Hodges Oak Park was the scene of this hunt, and eggs were hidden in the most elusive places. It may not have been a goose that laid the golden egg that was found by John Williams, but it was a real live Belgian hare that he received as a prize for finding it. The children all had a good time, as did the ladies who sponsored it.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB MEETING.

Conspicuously pretty was the meeting of the Twentieth Century club, Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Champion. The hostess, alive to the season, let her decorations take it as a keynote, and Easter suggestions ran riot. An electric fan was a means of moving colors with its trappings of many toy balloons. Green nests filled with eggs, green nests with motherly biddies keeping guard, were in every available place; rabbits peeped from green nooks making the whole reception suite a veritable Easter land.

Bridge was as usual the diversion for the afternoon and a bread and butter set, the high club prize, went to Mrs. Frank Reames. A pair of embroidered pillow slips was the high guest prize, and was awarded to Mrs. C. B. Hedrick. A collar and cuff set was given to Mrs. E. L. McMillan.

The guests were refreshed with a delicious luncheon course of stuffed tomato salad, sandwiches, veal loaf, and coffee, each plate having as a reminder of Easter a chocolate rabbit as a centerpiece. Favors were baskets and yellow baskets filled and guarded by an Easter bunny during the entire afternoon. Those present were: Meses. J. W. N. Denning, Saunders Gregg,

A. Neil, Frank Brahaney, Harold Whitbeck, J. C. Martin, Thomas Thorpe, C. B. Hedrick, Howard Cole, D. W. Champion, Frank Reames, Miss Mary Bonner Campbell.

FRIDAY BRIDGE WITH MRS. HAYDEN.

Mrs. J. B. Haden was hostess to the Friday Bridge club this week on Saturday instead of on Friday, as is usual, out of deference to Good Friday. The Haden home was beautiful in its Easter decorations, and Easter eggs were given as favors. In the awarding of prizes, Mrs. Walter West received the high score club prize, a cream and sugar set; Mrs. Ira Nourse, the club consolation, a fly swatter. Mrs. Foulke received the high guest prize, a set of water glasses, and Mrs. J. T. Lander the guest low score prize, a cream ladle. The refreshments were Boston brown bread, served with Boston baked beans, coffee and cake.

Those present were: Mrs. Pop Endicott, F. E. Langston, John Moyer, Ira Nourse, J. T. Lander, C. N. Ochiltree, J. C. Martin, A. G. Jury, E. E. Crawford, Frank Champion, J. C. Pullen, Harry Logsdon, E. L. Hodges, Roy Jameson, E. J. McMillan, Foulke, J. S. Blair, Harry Reed, E. J. Wiss, W. J. McFarland, Fred Yonker, J. C. Martin, T. B. Sectt, Miss Douschka Bobo.

CELEBRATES NINTH BIRTHDAY.

On Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock De Vera Hunt celebrated her ninth birthday with a party at her home, 421 South Rusk street. During the afternoon numerous games were played and some very excellent readings and musical numbers were given by the children. Easter eggs, placed at each plate were favors, and ice cream and cake were served.

Those present were: Nonda and Iris Hogue, Cleo and Alta Parish, Mildred Bruce, Francis Bordeaux, Nona Hunt, Faye and Junior Eberly, and the little hostess.

GUILD MEETING.

St. Mary's guild will meet with Mrs. Vincent Wakefield Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Members are requested to bring or send a united thank offering box to this meeting so they may be sent off. A full attendance is requested.

A MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

The Amusu club will give a miscellaneous shower Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Moyer, in honor of Mrs. C. F. Clarke, who has been spending the winter here, but will leave soon for California.

AN EASTER PARTY.

Mrs. J. S. Reynolds entertained at her home Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 p. m. with a little Easter party in honor of her little friends of Ranger. While the little tots were playing games, Mrs. W. A. Cox and the hostess slipped out and hid eggs. Then came the hunt. Little Miss Ella Guyton, finding the most eggs, was awarded a golden Easter egg. Little Cootie Guyton found the smallest number of eggs and was presented with an Easter chicken.

After the hunt the little people returned to the house, sang songs, gave readings, told jokes and riddles. Fruit, popcorn balls and Easter eggs were enjoyed by the following children: Ella and Cootie Guyton, Mary Eloise and Henry Standard, Rose Mary Huffman, J. L. Heydon, Glenn Cox. Mrs. Reynolds was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. W. A. Cox.

The flowers are of blanch colored marguerites, and the sash measures nine feet in length. The hat will be presented to Mrs. Harding by Madame Sunshine, creator of millinery, who designed it.

Political Scheme Nipped in Bud at Women's Conclave

Funny little things creep in even in meetings as dignified as a district club women federation convention and though the ballot is a new weapon in the hand of woman, it's not so new that she hasn't learned the cunning of electioneering in a very subtle manner, and will stoop sometimes, as do her brothers in politics, to "put something over the other fellow."

At one session, a petition supposed to be indorsing certain movements on the part of a well known educator who happens also to be a candidate for a national office, was passed through the assembly by a page. The delegates, fired by admiration for this woman, were signing right and left, woman-like, without looking at the petition.

However, the lady who was trying to put this over reckoned without her host, for the sharp eyes of one little woman detected something irregular and asked the page who started this petition going. On being informed of the originator, she sent the page over and told her to tell the lady that she knew that she was doing something against the rules of the district and unless she withdrew the petition she would "call" her on it; so the lady, fairly scared, immediately withdrew her petition—which had it been permitted to go the rounds would have received head lines in all the newspapers that the sixth district unananimously indorsed the candidacy of the educator by her political fight. How easy it would have been—a

EARTH BULGES AND MOVES CITIES TOWARD EQUATOR, SCIENTIST SAYS

LONDON, April 15.—"Greenwich has apparently drifted as much as half a mile toward the equator in the last eighteen years."

This is a declaration made by Prof. J. W. Evans, famous astronomer. "Naples is one-third of a mile south of where it was fifteen years ago," adds Professor Evans, "and between 1877 and 1913 Cambridge, Mass., moved twenty-six feet away from Greenwich, England."

Professor Evans adds that experiments show that the earth bulges under the pull of the sun and moon in an up and down movement of about eighteen inches.

"The world is like a Japanese lantern," he says. "It tends to telescope if the poles are pressed toward each other, but resists in other directions."

Tammany leader could not have conceived of anything easier to put over—but it didn't, and the perpetrator of the scheme was the victim of unrealized hopes and a catty lecture.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 15.—After a seven years' wait, Wilhelmina Meyer has arrived within reaching distance of the $101,000 which her former husband, Virgilius St. J. Mayo, wealthy New Haven manufacturer of automobile radiators, was ordered to pay her in 1915.

In a decision handed down here Miss Meyer was awarded not only $101,000, but an additional $26,000, representing the interest from 1917. Her suit was an action in equity to attach property in this state said to be recorded in the name of Mrs. Lois Waterbury Mayo, the manufacturer's second wife.

Miss Meyer became Mrs. Mayo in 1904 and for eleven years lived in ignorance that her husband had another wife living and undivorced. She made this fact the ground of a damage suit. Mayo was indicted for bigamy at the time, but was not convicted.

JUDGE DAVENPORT SAYS TIMES DREW WRONG INFERENCE FROM HIS KU KLUX CHARGE TO GRAND JURY

Exception is taken by Judge George L. Davenport of the Ninety-first district court to the accounts appearing in the Ranger Times and the Fort Worth Star-Telegram of his Ku Klux Klan charge to the Eastland county grand jury on April 10, in which the court was declared to have given the Klan a clean bill of health. The interpretation of the charge that the court evidently did not consider the Ku Klux Klan parade several weeks ago at Gorman as illegal, is also objected to by Judge Davenport, who states that the parade was never called to his attention.

Judge Davenport stated in his charge that "Be it said to the credit of such organizations in Eastland county that no such acts have been committed, which have been called to the attention of this court, which would justify or authorize criticism from this court, and I have no right to assume that the organizations in this county were organized with the purpose or intention of doing more than to assist the officers in the enforcement of the laws of this state."

Inference Is Wrong. Judge Davenport objects to the headlines in the Ranger Times, to the interpretation drawn from his charge that he did not agree with the attorney general on the illegality of Klan parades, and because only excerpts of his charges were published. He requests in a communication that the whole charge be published. That part of his charge referring to the Ku Klux Klan, as furnished by Judge Davenport, follows:

"There is a great deal of discussion over the state of the union, as to the existence of the Ku Klux Klan, and this organization is charged, whether rightfully or not, with having undertaken, without the assistance of the organized forces of our government, to administer punishment to persons who, doubtless, within the opinion of the members of the Klan, had violated some of the laws of the various states, or of some moral code adopted by the organization. Be it said, to the credit of such organizations in Eastland county that no such acts have been committed which have been called to the attention of this court, which would justify or authorize criticism from this court, and I have no right to assume that the organizations in this county were organized with the purpose or intention of doing more than to assist the officers in the enforcement of the laws of this state, and with the view of rendering such other legitimate services as such organizations might be called on from time to time to render.

Klan Can't Dictate. "If, however, there should be an inclination on the part of some to assume the reign of government, either locally or otherwise, without recognizing the long established, government departments, I desire to insist that no such intentions be carried out, and that the mind of any such person or persons be disabused of any such intention. So long as this organization, are willing to assist the organized government forces toward the enforcement of our laws, no one has any right to criticize, but should the Klan in this county undertake to dictate to any of the citizens their course of conduct and to force upon them their moral code as has been charged to such organizations in other counties, then any such organization would subject itself to criticism and to condemnation by the law-abiding citizens of any such community.

"My attention has been called to certain occurrences which, if true, would constitute a violation of the laws of this state, which have been by some charged to the Ku Klux Klan, but from information received by this court, the facts are not sufficient to authorize anyone to charge any such offenses to the Ku Klux Klan, without further investigation.

Only Citizen's Rights. "I desire to state in this connection, however, that this or no other organization has the legal right to do more as an organization than any citizen of this state has a right to do individually, and if you find that any such organization, or any member thereof, has committed any act in violation of the law, it will be your duty to investigate any such offense, and return bills of indictments where the facts will justify.

"I am not called on, however, at this time to give my private views as to this or any other organization, but do take this occasion to state that I personally have no prejudice against any organization which has for its purpose the principles enunciated by this organization, further than to suggest that so far as it occurs to this court there could be no good reason or purpose in concealing the identity of any member of such organization, and of doing the work in secret which is claimed as the object and purpose of the organization."

To the Voters of Eastland County: I have decided to make the race for Sheriff of Eastland County, and announce herewith as a candidate for such office. I have lived all my life in Texas. Am 35 years of age and was born and principally raised in Ellis County. I have lived at Gorman in Eastland County about ten years, during which time I have been city marshal of Gorman, deputy sheriff and constable of that precinct. The people among whom I have lived for the past ten years at Gorman know me and my life, and I refer you to them as to whether I am competent and worthy of making Eastland County a good sheriff. I feel that I know the duties of an officer and shall at all times act as such. Of course, it goes without saying that our laws should be enforced, and if I am elected sheriff I shall fearlessly enforce the laws of our country, state and nation, but I shall be considerate of the rights of our citizens, and not act hastily and without authority. Any officer who does not stand for the enforcement of our laws, should not be an officer. But there is a right way and a wrong way to enforce every law. Because a person might be clothed with official authority is no reason why he should ignore the rights of our citizens. Lawful authority is what distinguishes an officer from a private citizen, and I shall at all times try to act within my lawful rights, and expect our citizenship to do the same. I have no promise to make than that to do right. I have no favorites to shield and no enemies to punish. I am not the candidate of any organization, individual or clan. I know of no law other than that of our country, state and nation, and shall not be guided by any visible or invisible creed than that of the Constitution and the laws of the State of Texas and of the United States, which every officer is sworn to uphold, and no other. I will make as close a canvass of the County as is possible between now and the primary, and shall be glad if you will withhold your promise of support to anyone until you have seen me and have investigated my qualifications. Yours respectfully, AARON M. BRYANT. (Political Advertisement)

BE 100 PER CENT CANNIBAL, FOOD EXPERT'S ADVICE

BUFFALO, N. C., April 15.—"Be 100 per cent cannibal; eat raw meat; gnaw the bones to the marrow to attain the highest degree of physical perfection."

Such was the advice given to delegates of the Erie County Woman's club by Dr. Albert Sy, of the University of Buffalo, who spoke on food values at a meeting here.

"Civilization has caused the average human to become too pampered," declared Dr. Sy. "We should not be so fastidious in our tastes. We discard the most nutritive parts of a creature."

"The same practice is true of our preparation of vegetables. Raw potatoes, raw carrots and sugar in its natural state are included in the cannibal diet."

And, finally, the delegates were told they should drink more water—at least two glasses with each meal—not between meals, as they previously had been taught to do.

The latest fad among English girls is that of having somebody's picture painted on their ankle.

Miss Dorothy M. Hehfield, of Aberdeen, is said to be the only woman practicing law in South Dakota.

W. J. BARNES PROMISES CHANGES IF ELECTED AS PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

W. J. Barnes, former assistant county attorney under W. V. Dunnam, who announced his candidacy for county attorney sometime ago on a strictly law enforcement platform, spent yesterday in Ranger in the interest of his campaign. Mr. Barnes, who has been active in law enforcement work in the county, declares that he has taken an uncompromising stand for law enforcement and that if he is elected to office that the present order of things will take a decided change. He is an ex-service man, having served as a captain of infantry throughout the war, and during his residence in Eastland county has been engaged in the practice of law in Cisco and Eastland, in addition to his service on the former county attorney's staff. He is a graduate of the University of Texas. His announcement appears in the Times today. Once in a while the United States senate does something constructive, such as ratifying the four-power treaty.—Chicago News.

SAFETY FIRST.
One snappy day recently Johnny's mother sent him to the store to get half a dozen eggs. On his return he handed her a paper bag containing six articles, which, though egg-shaped, were certainly never laid by a hen. "What are these?" said his mother. "It was eggs I sent you for." "Well, ma," said Johnny, "the streets were awful slippery an' so I thought I'd get some lemons instead."—Boston Transcript.
