FORT WORTH ISOLATED BY FLOODS

WASHOUT DELAYS DEPOT CELEBRATION

T. & P. High Officials Blocked
While En Route; Building
Occupied Today.

A passenger train left Baird at 3 o'clock this afternoon, will reach here about 4:30 or 5 o'clock and proceed to Mings, thirty miles east, the local railroad officials advise. After reaching Mings it will turn and proceed west to Sweetwater, running without definite schedule. No word has been received here as to when regular train service can be resumed, but Superintendent Knightlinger stated this morning it will be at least twenty-four hours.

"The greatest blow to the Texas & Pacific in the history of the road," the cloudburst, which last night washed out more than nine miles of track, bridges and other railroad equipment between Weatherford and Dallas, has resulted in the postponement of the ceremonies scheduled to attend the opening of the new Texas & Pacific passenger station here tonight.

The offices of the road here will be moved into the new station tonight and the ticket offices there will be officially opened at 12:01 a. m., S. B. Tunnell, local freight and passenger agent, announced this morning. The formal opening ceremonies, however, have been postponed until a later date to allow officials of the road to be present, it was announced by H. S. Cole, temporary chairman of the new Chamber of Commerce and master of ceremonies. Mr. Cole's announcement followed a telegram from Superintendent J. W. Knightlinger at Fort Worth, expressing the keen regret to the road officials at their inability to attend the opening here because of the great damage resulting to all the roads entering Fort Worth and Dallas from the cloudburst. Superintendent Knightlinger's message expressing the best wishes of the road to the citizenship of Ranger on the opening of the new station follows:

"Extremely regret inability on the part of officers of the railroad to attend ceremonies on the opening of the new passenger station at Ranger this evening, however, it is realized that you fully understand the condition caused by the cloudburst in the vicinity of Fort Worth and Dallas where all roads have practically been put out of commission for from fifteen to twenty-four hours.

"Will be glad to be with you at a future date when it is possible for us to do so. The citizenship of Ranger has the sincere best wishes of the entire management of the Texas & Pacific, we assure you.

"J. W. KNIGHTLINGER."

In preparation for the opening, for which a short but elaborate program had been worked out, S. B. Tunnell spent yesterday in decorating the building with evergreens, shrubbery and potted palms. Superintendent Knightlinger's private car, in charge of his secretary, arrived here from Fort Worth early last night in anticipation of the superintendent's arrival here this afternoon on Receiver J. L. Lancaster's private car, with Mr. Lancaster; J. B. Payne, traffic manager; J. A. Somerville, general manager, and George D. Hunter, general passenger agent.

KANSAS FARMER LOSES
LIFE WARNING NEIGHBORS

WICHITA, Kan., April 25.—A man believed to be Jesse Waggoner, a farmer, of Kingsley, is believed to have lost his life last night in attempting to warn neighbors of rising waters, after a cloudburst and heavy rains over a wide area had sent streams throughout western Kansas to flood stage. The territory further along the water courses is threatened with danger.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 25.—Accused of having used his grocery store at Jamerson's line, on the American-Canadian border, as a secret channel through which hundreds of immigrants illegally have slipped into the United States, Harry Gordon pleaded guilty in federal court.

He was fined $125 and committed to jail for one day.

The back door of the store is in Canada and the front is in the United States.

BRYAN TOO FLIGHTY

By Associated Press.

Athern of Boston university, a member of the committee.

The statement, Athern said, will say Bryan will not be asked to attend the convention because he is not a practical Sunday school man, and not because of his theological or other views.

KKK LEADERS TO BE QUESTIONED AT RAID PROBE

Goblin and Kleagle Ordered
Before Inquest Over Dead
Constable-Raider.

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, April 25.—More than one inquest was expected to be held today over the body of M. B. Mosher, constable, who was killed early Sunday morning when a large band of masked men of which he was a member raided the home of Mathias and Fidel Elduayen at Englewood, a suburb.

Chief Deputy District Attorney Doran declared he proposed to try and learn who composed the raiding band and what inspired them. Doran said there was no doubt that Frank Werner, night marshal at Englewood, who responded to appeals of neighbors of the Elduayens, was thoroughly justified in firing the shots which killed Mosher, wounded his son, Walter E. Mosher, and also wounded Leonard Ruigg, deputy sheriff.

Witnesses subpoenaed for the inquest include William S. Colburn, grand goblin, and W. G. Price, king kleeagle, of the Pacific domain, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

SALVATION ARMY BOARD WILL MEET TOMORROW

BODIES OF THOUSAND SPANISH SOLDIERS LIE UNBURIED AFTER FIGHT

By Associated Press.

MELILLA, Morocco, April 25.—More than 1,000 unburied bodies of Spanish soldiers lie in the vicinity of Darquebdani, the position recently captured from the Moroccans, according to reports reaching here from native sources.

These bodies are scattered along a line four kilometers in length over valleys and broken ground. The bodies still are in uniform, but their pockets have been turned inside out and rifled, these reports say.

This is all that remains of the garrison commanded by Colonel Araujo, which occupied Darquebdani before the disaster inflicted upon Spanish troops, by the Moorish tribesmen last July.

SAVES BRIDE TO BE.

CLEVELAND, O., April 25.—A three months' love feud reached a climax here when Charles Grimshaw was shot and seriously wounded at the home of Mrs. Edith Erdmann, his bride to be, whose life perhaps was saved by Grimshaw, who, after being shot, took the gun from his assailant, another suitor and a boarder at the house, and drove him away.

Grimshaw was shot through the jaw.

Hospital physicians say his condition is critical.

A Second Overflow!

By United Press.

FORT WORTH, April 25.—The horror of further damage from flood waters was faced by Fort Worth late today when reports from Bridgeport were received announcing that a cloudburst there this morning would send another wall of water down on the stricken city tonight.

With this added danger spurring them on, rescue workers renewed their efforts to get scores of marooned persons to places of safety.

At 2:30 this afternoon the flood waters were reported slightly receding. The estimated number of dead has increased to sixteen.

GENOA PARLEY AGAIN HEADED TOWARD ROCKS

By Associated Press.

GENOA, April 25.—The Genoa conference is drifting toward the rocks again. Whether it can be kept from wreckage depends upon the possibility of adjusting new demands of the Russian soviet delegates with the position of the allied governments, who declare they will steadfastly stand by the resolutions adopted at Cannes, on which the conference is founded.

Foreign Minister Tchitcherin of soviet Russia declared today the allied resistance to the Russian principle of nationalization was blocking the economic conference.

SCORES OF NEEDLES SWALLOWED BY CHILD

By Associated Press.

DENVER, April 25.—Scores of needles swallowed four months ago by Hazel M. Parks, 1 year old, penetrated to every part of the child's body and in spite of expert medical attention the child died at her home.

The physician in charge of the case reported that he extracted needles from tissue just under the ribs, from the breast, from the navel, and other parts of the body.

An X-ray picture showed the presence of the bits of metal in more remote parts, where they could not be reached by the surgeons.

In addition to the needles the child swallowed several safety pins, and these were removed from the throat and digestive organs. The needles, however, penetrated the flesh where the safety pins could not go.

FATHER CARRIES OUT THREAT TO DROWN SONS

By Associated Press.

DETROIT, April 25.—The body of a boy 8 or 10 years old, answering in a general way the description of Liendoune Besse, one of the small sons of Ray Besse, who disappeared with two boys March 3, after he had threatened to kill the children, has been found in Detroit river. Besse's body was found in the stream yesterday.

Finding of the boy's body convinced Mrs. Besse, the widow and mother, that her husband had carried out his alleged threat to "do away with the boys to make her suffer."

The harbor master's crew is dragging the river for the body of the second boy, Baeburne, 6 years old. Mrs. Besse is reported to be near death from shock.

U. S. COULD HAVE PREVENTED WAR PERSHING SAYS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The United States with adequate military preparation under strong leadership, could have prevented the occurrence of the world war, General Pershing declared today in testifying before the senate military committee in behalf of the war department's plea for an increase in the military establishment over that proposed by the house.

Failure to recognize the existence of "envy and malicious hatred" among the nations as among individuals, he said, had invariably sent the United States unprepared into great crises, caused "unnecessary loss of life and left us staggering under our financial burdens."

RIISING AT DALLAS.

By Associated Press.

DALLAS, April 25.—The heavy rains flooding many houses in the lowlands early today caused damage estimated in excess of $50,000. Much of the flooded area is in the negro section and in the vicinity of Fair Park. A number of families were rescued from their homes before daylight. The rainfall here is reported at nearly five inches.

Trinity river is expected to go to forty feet or more in the next twenty-four hours. Train and interurban traffic northeast of Dallas has been interrupted by submerged tracks and washouts.

FEUDISTS JOIN TO STOP LAWLESSNESS

By Associated Press.

MANCHESTER, Ky., April 25.—Feudists of Clay county, who a few months ago were ready to shoot opposing clansmen on sight, have joined hands with each other and with civil authorities to clean up Hill creek, following the action of Circuit Judge Johnson, who yesterday issued warrants for the arrest of 200 residents of the mountain territory. All persons in the Hill creek territory over 12 years of age will be taken into custody by posses in Johnson's drive to stop lawlessness in the mountains of Kentucky.

ELEVEN DROWNED WHEN CLOUDBURST SWELLS STREAMS

By Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, April 25.—Eleven persons were drowned and a least 1,500 rendered homeless in this city by the flood last night. The city water plant was put out of commission and other public utilities endangered. All interurban traffic has been suspended and street car service crippled as a result of the storm, the most terrific in the recent history of Fort Worth and vicinity, Monday night and Tuesday morning. Nine inches of rain fell in the twenty-four hours ending at 9 a. m., breaking all previous records. All ambulances in the city and scores of automobiles were pressed into service use for rescue work.

Ten flood victims were taken to hospitals but most of the victims were rushed to the headquarters of the Fort Worth Welfare association, where coffee and restoratives were available.

The spillway at Lake Worth suffered no damage but twenty-four inches of water was running over the dam at 9 a. m. Residents of Arlington Heights and North Fort Worth are completely marooned, the water extending from Paddock and Seventh streets viaducts for nearly half a mile. The right field grandstand at Panther park is half submerged and the ball park fences are entirely submerged. The river gauge is standing at 36.7 feet, a rise of 29.7 feet in twenty-four hours.

The danger of fire was added to the horrors of the flood here when the west side yards of the Cameron Lumber company burned, the high water preventing the fire department from reaching the blaze. During the night a number of houses were struck by lightning and resulted in fire alarms.

The flood was reported receding at noon today.

Preparations are being made to add to the police patrol forces tonight in the event that the power plant is not able to furnish light.

Ten persons are reported drowned, twenty-five unaccounted for and hundreds of others rendered homeless at Fort Worth by the Trinity river flood, which since a cloudburst over that section late last night, has been sweeping through the lowlands and inundating whole sections of both Fort Worth and Dallas. All of North Fort Worth was cut off by the flood and a large portion of that section covered with water from three to fifteen feet deep, when several hundred yards of levee north of the Tarrant county court house gave way at 9:30 this morning, as the Trinity rose in waves. The flood has topped and is pouring over the levee west of Paddock viaduct. The city water supply has been shut off and the lighting system is partly out of commission.

Both Fort Worth and Dallas are virtually cut off from railroad transportation by disastrous washouts on both sides of the

JERSEY JURY ACQUITS WOMAN WHO SLEW SISTER FOR WRECKING HOME

By Associated Press.

FREEHOLD, N. J., April 25.—A jury of men acquitted Mrs. Hermina Renzelman, 31 years old, who shot and killed her young sister, Gesine Wessels, January 15, because of alleged intimacy with her husband.

The jurors were chosen in three hours and after deliberating a half hour, they returned a verdict of "not guilty because of temporary insanity at the time of the shooting." Spectators applauded.

Paid Sister's Fare

Mrs. Renzelman testified that she had sent money to her sister in Germany last August to enable her to come to America, and on her arrival had been met by her husband and taken to their home.

"For five weeks I noticed an apparent attachment between my sister and my husband," she said. "On two occasions I caught my sister kissing my husband. Later my husband took my sister to New York, saying he had found a position for her, leaving me in my lonely country home."

"I was left alone for two months and could stand it no longer."

She then told of going to a friend in New York the Friday before the murder and telephoning her husband's place of business. They met that evening.

Wife Was "Sister."

"I asked him where my sister was," she testified. "He said he would meet me the next day and take me to her. We went to an apartment where my husband introduced me to the lady of the house as his wife's sister."

"I upbraided my sister for living there with my husband. I asked why she did not go to work and she said she would not, but would continue to live with Fred. I upbraided my husband, saying they were not married, and he said, 'We are as good as married. We don't need the law.'"

"I induced my sister to accompany me home Saturday. From that time my mind was a blank. I don't remember anything that happened."

The sister was killed the next day.

TRUCK DRIVER
FINDS JEWELS
SINGER LOST

By Associated Press.

SAN DIEGO, April 25.—The jewels stolen from Mme. Amelita Galli-Curci at San Juan Capistrano have been returned to her by Warren J. Shepperd, an automobile truckman, who found them under a tree near his roadside camp.

Shepperd said that neither he nor his wife "thought much of the jewels," which are valued at $45,000, and that they left them on the seat of their automobile truck last night when they made camp. The spot they were found was a few miles north of San Juan Capistrano.

Shepperd said that he was traveling south, making slow progress because his heavy truck had developed motor trouble, when he saw the jewel case, its cover open, lying under a small spruce tree beside the highway. Thinking that it was a small suitcase lost from some automobile, he stopped and picked it up. Inside were some of the jewels, two of which had been presented to the singer by royalty, but many others were scattered about on the ground as if the case had been thrown from a passing automobile and burst open. A string of pearls had been broken, and some of the pearls were scattered far from the case.

'CLEANUP' BALKED, LOS POLICE CHIEF QUILTS

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, April 25.—Colonel J. W. Everington, United States army (retired), has completed a tempestuous but brief career as police chief here with the announcement that he would resign because the police commissioner refused to back his dismissal of two officers.

Colonel Everington, when he took office, announced that he would "clean up the city," and asked the moral support of the public.

City officials, he said, refused to co-operate with him, but the officials declared co-operation was unnecessary because there was "nothing of importance to clean up."

IN HER CUPS

Nature is a drunkard—given to violent tempers, expressed in floods, cyclones and petty meannesses, when at the height of intoxication; fits of tempers which are so sudden that no man may foresee.

Then nature on the other hand may feel remorse, feel it so strongly that the earth grows barren while waiting for one single drop to quench its thirst. And in her abstaining moments, no teetotaler is more rigid than upholding the principles of abstinence.

But by and by, Nature begins to feel sorry for herself and for the dreariness of the life she is living. So Nature takes a "shot" or so. Forthwith she smiles, and with fresh, moisture-flecked breezes and cooling showers regales the parched earth. And all the world is glad that Nature has again taken to drink. She's more frolicsome, more emotional, her moods more varied; altogether, much better company when she's in her cups.

But like man, she can't hold the "edge," and must swing from extreme to extreme, with only one stage of the cycle enjoyable to her children.

And unlike man, she recognizes no attempted control by any amendment, eighteenth or otherwise. Nature will go on many a spree hereafter.

two cities. All roads entering Fort Worth are reported out of commission with little chance of resuming service under twenty-four hours. Telephone lines connecting Fort Worth and Dallas from the west were reported down this morning near Benbrook. The Western Union lines, although under water in many places where the poles were washed away were reported crippled this morning. The Texas & Pacific lines west is cut off at Weatherford by a series of washouts, and from the east at a point on the other side of Dallas.

Two women flood victims at Fort Worth are reported to have been washed from a tree on Florence street, where families were driven to housetops and into trees. Two men were reported drowned at the baseball park in North Fort Worth, where the water is from ten to fifteen feet deep.

Whole Family Drowned. An entire family of five, on top of a house swept down the river, was reported drowned by the telephone company when the house struck a bridge and threw the family into the river at a point three miles from Fort Worth. At noon today it was reported that many houses had been washed away and several streets covered with debris. Seventh street for a distance of half a mile is under ten feet of water. Fifteen feet of water is reported in the ball park in North Fort Worth and three feet in the North Fort Worth police station, about midway between the Paddock viaduct over the Trinity river and the stockyards at Niles City. The fire department is unable to answer calls for lack of water supply and both firemen and police have been called out to protect levees as far as possible.

Sections of Dallas are also flooded and numerous families were driven from their homes and rescued in night attire early this morning. Tarrant and Dallas county deputy sheriffs rode through the bottoms ahead of the flood, warning all residents to vacate their homes and move to higher ground at once.

These reports were obtained from the Associated Press, the United Press, the Texas & Pacific railway and the telephone and telegraph companies.

The seven-inch rainfall over Northwest Texas last night and the cloudburst in the vicinity of Fort Worth and Dallas has put all the roads leading into Fort Worth practically out of commission, according to a message received here this morning from Superintendent Knightlinger of the Texas & Pacific.

T. & P. Loses Nine Miles. Nine miles of the Texas & Pacific track is officially reported swept away in a series of washouts between Weatherford and Dallas. Bridges were washed away along with other equipment and long sections of the line are standing under four and five feet of water. Officials of the road declare that the flood is the worst blow received by the Texas & Pacific in the road's history. Trains from the west and east are being held up at various points along the line, including east of Dallas.

Three miles of Texas & Pacific track is reported, by road officials here, to have been swept away between Weatherford and Aledo; three miles between Aledo and Fort Worth and three miles between Fort Worth and Dallas. The condition of the roadbed now under water is unknown. The tieup of trains as announced here follows:

Where Trains Are. The T. & P. eastbound train No. 12, which left here this morning at 12:28, is held up at Weatherford. The westbound train due here at 3:30 this morning and carrying a large portion of the eastern mail, is held up at Aledo. No. 3, running into Dallas from the East, is cut off on the other side of Dallas. No. 23, westbound and due here at 1 o'clock this afternoon and the Sunshine Special due here at 6:33 tonight, are cut off on the other side of Fort Worth.

Hamon Line Open. According to Hamon road officials here, the Frisco road is still operating into Fort Worth and the passenger service over the Hamon road and Frisco connections is still open. It is expected that the eastern mails will be sent via that route until the Texas & Pacific direct line is again in use. No flood damage is reported in this section.

EIGHTEEN DOGS WERE HIS RIVALS; DIVORCED

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., April 25.—A divorce has been granted to Charles W. Young, wealthy President of the Compressed Oil Corporation, from Madeline B. Young. Young charged desertion and alleged his wife lavished her affections on 18 dogs and none for him.

The testimony concerning the dogs kept by Mrs. Young was given during the trial yesterday. She denied desertion, and said she was forced to leave Young because of his temper. She declared he exaggerated about the dogs, although she admitted having kept her numerous pets. Mrs. Young also admitted that their union had not been blessed by children because she did not wish them.

"Fighting Parson," World War Veteran, Tells of His Amazing Restoration to Health

"I HAVE taken only one and a half packages of Ironized Yeast, yet I have gained ten pounds in 15 days."

Such is the remarkable statement of the Rev. L. W. Vandergriff, pastor of the Fairview Church, Athens, Tenn., whose experiences during the world war have caused him to be known by many as "the Fighting Parson."

"I was crippled up in the army, and have been in ill health ever since. But now, thank God, I am on the road to recovery, and feel better than I have felt in five years. I am only too pleased to give this testimony, for I think I am doing my fellow man a service if I can induce him to try Ironized Yeast."

From everywhere come equally surprising reports of the apparent "miracles" performed by IRONIZED YEAST. And all because IRONIZED YEAST embodies an exclusive scientific process—a process which enables yeast to bring its wonderful results often in half the usual time!

How New Process Makes Yeast Doubly Effective

While Science admits that Yeast is of wonderful value in building flesh, clearing the skin, and increasing energy, it is found that yeast alone is not enough to bring 100 per cent results. For while yeast contains certain vital health-building elements, experiments prove that some other agent is needed in order to quickly CONVERT these important yeast elements into new firm tissue, energy and health.

Everyone knows the great value of iron in changing our food into living cells. So working on this problem, our scientists finally discovered the amazing process of ironization—the scientific process which enables you to derive from yeast ALL of the wonderful benefits it holds for you.

Beware of Substitutes This remarkable process of ironization is embodied only in IRONIZED YEAST, the one scientifically correct yeast treatment. Therefore do not accept imitations. Always insist upon the genuine IRONIZED YEAST. It is the only way you can be sure of getting the best. Get IRONIZED YEAST today, $1.00 a package.

AMARILLO COMES NEXT

With three games rained out in a row, the Clovis team will leave tonight, provided trains are running, and Amarillo is due here tomorrow to open a three-game series. Following Amarillo comes Abilene, and after the Abilene series, the Nitros hit the road for twenty-two days.

That's a long time to be away, and during the next six games, sufficient money must come in to virtually provide for two payrolls, as a team can do little better than break even while away from home. Secretary Hemmingson will have the books balanced in a few days, and they will show the club with about $1,400 on hand. Nearly all of the money spent thus far has gone to league deposits, payment for uniforms, and the like.

The new suits have arrived, and with a strengthened team, the Nitros propose to christen them with a victory on the first fair day.

That's the best time to start getting behind the team. Out in Abilene and other towns, the clerks in the stores take turn about going to

A MAY DANCE AND AN ANNOUNCEMENT

Sam Wasaff, attorney, long ago attained fame as a host, on account of his noted bachelor dinners, but on Monday evening he appeared in a new role, that far eclipsed anything yet given by him, in which he appeared as host for a dance at the Gholson, honoring Miss Mary Bonner Campbell. The scene of the dance was the Gholson ballroom. It was typically a May Day dance, for it looked as though some one who loved May and knew just where to find her prettiest wild blossoms had gone out into the woods and tried to smuggle them all into the ballroom. There was bank after bank of snowy-faced black haw blossoms, mixed with trailing honeysuckles, which converted the ballroom into a miniature outdoors, while American Beauty and pink La France roses suggested more cultivated gardens.

Since this was the first dance after Easter, new frocks were very much in evidence, and brilliant gowns, worn by beautiful girls, made a dominant note in the medley of colors which formed the setting of the scene. Heralding the approach of May a throne covered in flowers and vines, was placed before the central pillar, just outside of the ballroom parlor, and here the May Queen was crowned. Numbers were passed around and the lucky number, which was the hoodoo "13" was drawn by Miss Irene Wansley.

Queen Irene, very lovely in a pink baronet satin and georgette gown, chose Mr. Wasaff as her grand chamberlain, and it was his hands that placed the rose crown on her red gold hair, where it reposed as gracefully as crowns should repose on the uncrowned queens of America. Mounting to her throne, Queen Irene commanded all her subjects to bow before her and then getting a taste of royal power, she demanded many cruel things of her loyal subjects, which were enforced by her jester, Aubrey Jameson, and the grand chamberlain.

For instance, she made Lon Garrett give a spring dance, and Bill McCauley, on account of history saying that he had some Indian ancestors, do an Indian war dance, and Miss Johnnie Shults and W. A. Smith give an imitation of another couple "courting," and others sing songs, and one to wiggle his ears and so on until her Royal Highness thoroughly amused, asked for something new.

It was then, that Grand Chamberlain Wasaff, ever heedful of a queen's whims, bowed before the throne and in a few well chosen words, filled with the feeling of reverence such announcements occasion, told her that he was giving her a silver tray, filled with tiny cards, which would announce a romance that had seen its growth in Ranger, and then he handed her the tray, and she, bidding her subjects to come forward, handed each of them a bride's card, on which was written "Mrs. Rena B. Campbell announces the engagement of her daughter Mary Bonner, to Mr. Robert J. Bates, Jr., Monday April 24, 1922."

Then pandemonium broke loose. The Queen had had her day, it was now "Long Live the Engaged Ones." Congratulations were virtually showered on the young couple and when quiet had been a little restored, Miss Helen Perrin, dressed in a white and black sport suit, passed among the guests distributing favors. These were placed in a bowl that is an heirloom in the Campbell family, and were tiny bottles of French perfume, with gold stoppers, and on gold cords. Music for the evening was furnished by the Red Box orchestra, and they caught the spirit of the affair, even to breaking into the wedding march on one occasion. Delicious punch was served throughout the evening.

Miss Mary Bonner Campbell is the only daughter of Mrs. Rena B. Campbell, formerly of Weatherford, but now of Ranger, and Mr. Robert J. Bates, Jr., is the son of Brigadier General R. J. Bates of Detroit, Mich. Mr. Bates has been with the Sun Oil Company for the last two years and is now located at Desdemona, where they will make their home after their marriage, which will be sometime in June. They are both very popular in Ranger and have many friends who wish them great happiness.

Miss Campbell, the honoree was dressed in a chiffon gown over satin. Miss Irene Wansley, who was crowned, was dressed in a pink baronet satin and georgette gown.

Those invited were: Misses Helen Gholson, Irene Wansley, Johnnie Shults, Douschka Babo, Olive Lietz of Breckenridge, Dora Mayne Cole, Peggy Lawler, Ruth Barnholt, Marion Holloway, Helen Perrin, Marion Stubbebine, Lucy Belle Baker, Mabel Baker, Emily and Ella Dreinhof, Mary Bonner Campbell, Messrs. and Mmes. Boy Pulls Tooth With Pliers So He Can Play on Flute

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.—A real martyr to music has been brought to light by Miss Winetta L. Stacks, superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Deaconesses home here. Miss Stacks in describing the efforts to initiate music classes in settlement work, told of one small boy who confided that his life's ambition was to play the flute. The teacher struggled in vain to teach him, but his lips would not pucker right. Finally the teacher said: "Joe, I guess you will never learn to blow a flute because of the way that front tooth has grown. It is in the way."

A few days later the lad's mother returned home to find her son's face bloody but shiny with triumph. He had borrowed pliers and had pulled the tooth.

"And at the first recital of the students of the class," Miss Stack concluded, "he blew notes on the flute."
