'WIZARD' WILL TAKE PART IN ROTARY SHOW

Big Vaudeville Performance to Be Staged at Majestic Thursday and Friday.

Ranger talent, assisted by Willard the Wizard who made a decided hit with theatrogoers last week, will present a big vaudeville show on May 4-5 at the Majestic theatre, under the auspices of the Rotary club.

The entertainment committee, composed of Gus Coleman, Raymond Teal, Karl Jones and Gifford Clegg, have made arrangements with the "wizard" to exchange his booking dates so as to return here and take part in the local show; and the city's best amateur talent is being booked for the performances.

Is Welfare Fund.

All funds raised are to be used by the Rotary club in carrying out the welfare work of the organization, for which an extensive program has been mapped out, including the organization and equipping of additional Boy Scout troops here. Other civic organizations of the city have been asked to co-operate with the Rotary club in making the vaudeville a success, and the talent is being selected from the city at large.

Tickets will be placed on sale Monday and may be obtained either at the Fountain or from Karl Jones, in charge of the ticket sales. The cast as announced last night includes: Louis Ducker, Julius Krause, Bob Taylor, Karl Jones, Mrs. R. C. McCoy, Big Foot Gibson, Pop Endicott, Gus Coleman, Dr. Clyde C. Craig and Raymond Teal.

Willard the Wizard crowned his achievements as a magician early in the week by hypnotizing three well known Rangerites on Thursday night before a crowded house and sending them riding bucking hobby horses across the stage, fishing in imaginary creeks and killing Thurber snakes.

RUSSIA TOLD WORLD CAN DO WITHOUT HER

By Associated Press.

GENOA, April 29.—The preamble of the proposals to Russia, adopted today by the subcommittee on Russian affairs of the economic conference, began by emphasizing the desire of all countries participating in the conference to consider honestly and systematically the problems of the restoration of Russia in order to re-establish economic stability.

After setting forth the situation in Russia, the preamble carefully pointed out that the world, although temporarily embarrassed by the fact that Russia no longer exports foodstuffs and raw materials as formerly, can very well go on without her, because this deficiency will be filled from other sources and because "commerce, like water always finds new channels when the old ones are obstructed." The preamble insists upon the necessity of foreign producers and traders re-entering Russia but says this is obtainable only by assuring foreigners of adequate safety by acknowledging Russia's debt.

Vice Premier Bartha will not leave Genoa for Paris before Tuesday, it is announced. He will await the definite adoption of the terms of the memorandum to Russia.

NO INCREASE SHOWN IN FORT WORTH DEATH LIST

FORT WORTH, April 29.—Another body was taken from the subsiding waters of Sycamore park this afternoon, making the second body recovered today and the sixth in all. The list of known dead remains at thirteen, however, as the body found this afternoon was that of a negro already listed.

The Trinity was rising slightly this afternoon but only from back waters, weather bureau officials said.

SAVING HIS TALK!

By Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, April 29.—Governor Neff, arriving at Amarillo this afternoon, declined to make any comment on charges of the Dallas citizens committee opposing the Ku Klux Klan that many rangers and Texas national guardsmen are members of the clan. Word to this effect was received here in special dispatches this afternoon. Neither would Neff make any comment when informed that Judge Napier of Wichita Falls would make the race against him.

BEULAH AND PEARL GET ACTION!

Pifered Saturday, Arrested Sunday, Indicted Monday and Convicted Wednesday, Their Record; and More to Come.

Beulah Bailey, 23, of Houston, and Pearl King, 22, of Cundiff, Jack county, have never had a dull moment since they sneaked from the McCleskey hotel here last Saturday night, one of them with 250 simoleons which formerly had represented the total assets of an Irishman in search of the gay life.

Seldom have things happened so suddenly as they did to Beulah and Pearl. They got drunk en route to the station, stole the suit case of a Fort Worth attorney en route to Strawn, got robbed in Strawn, accompanied two kindred male spirits to Mingo on Sunday morning, were arrested on Sunday afternoon, were billed by the grand jury at Palo Pinto Monday morning, and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary on Wednesday. Moreover, they were brought back here yesterday on bench warrants, were identified by the Irishman, were grilled by the police and county attorney and are now behind the bars at police headquarters, facing additional prison terms.

As a final climax Beulah bit Pearl on the nose.

Beulah is a hasher and Pearl is just Pearl. Pearl says Beulah stole the suit case and Beulah says Pearl rolled the Irishman. Beulah smokes Camels. Pearl prefers Home Runs. Neither "can be bothered" about the two-year sentences.

Beulah admits that stealing the suit case was a faux pas and only considered in a moment of devilishness. They spied the suit case while passing through the Fort Worth Pullman and "being drunk, carried it along." Both plead guilty of being indicted by the Palo Pinto grand jury and in a land where the suspended sentence is unknown, they were en route to the prison when taken into custody by Ranger officers armed with a bench warrant from Eastland county. Following an examination by Chief Davenport, the King girl confessed to the theft here and was identified by the Irishman, who has never recovered his money.

75,000 PERSONS MADE HOMELESS BY MISS. FLOOD

2,000 Isolated in One Town Face Starvation; 3,500 Miles Covered.

By Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, April 29.—Reports were received here late today that the 1,000 inhabitants of Harrisonburg, La., and 500 refugees from Catahoula and other flooded parishes in the section face starvation unless food supplies reached them soon. A steamboat loaded with provisions was reported to be en route to Harrisonburg but the time of arrival was not known. Five hundred more refugees from the surrounding country were expected to reach the town tomorrow. This it was recognized, will aggravate the situation.

Many isolated communities are filled with refugees driven from home by the rising waters. Disquieting reports have been received at Jonesville of families marooned at different points along the Louisiana and Arkansas railway.

First Lives Lost.

The first loss of life as a result of the crevasse near Ferniday was reported today from Clayton, La., where two negroes were drowned.

Incomplete unofficial estimates, based on late reports from the flooded area, indicate as a result of three weeks in the Mississippi river and of backwater from tributaries, approximately 3,500 square miles—equal to the combined area of Delaware and Rhode Island—are inundated in Louisiana, Arkansas and Mississippi, and that probably 75,000 persons are either homeless or are living in flooded homes.

The largest area reported under water is in the Yazoo river basin, where it is estimated that 1,750 square miles, comprising some of the most fertile land in America, are covered with back waters.

TWO BODIES RECOVERED.

PALMER, Texas, April 29.—The bodies of Andy Lomax and his wife, negroes, who were drowned Tuesday morning in the Red Oak creek, three miles west of Palmer, have been recovered, it was learned today.

REPUBLICANS LAMBASTED BY SENATOR WALSH

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Declaring that the "association of nations" which Harding said was to take the place of the league of nations "is a forgotten shibboleth," Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana at a dinner tonight, tendered Chairman Cordell Hull of the Democratic national committee by women members of the committee, said it is pertinent to inquire, in view of the attitude of the administration, why we went to war.

"The season is particularly opportune," said Walsh, "for instilling the conviction that the sublime purpose for which we entered the war remains only half finished and I inquire what plan has the Republican party or those responsible for its policies formed to accomplish the end the league was contrived to attain? Along what lines do they propose to redeem the pledges made to induce enlistment, popularize the draft act and float the Liberty loans?"

Concerning the armament conference, Walsh declared the administration yielded to the pressure of public opinion in the matter of calling the conference, the results of which, he said, removed in no way the danger of another conflagration in Europe which conservative statement at Genoa assert is imminent and in which we may be forced to take part.

Senator Jones of New Mexico and Chairman Hull also spoke briefly.

Former President Woodrow Wilson declared in a letter read that this is undoubtedly a critical turning point in the affairs of mankind and it clearly falls on the Democrats of the United States to lead the fight.

SWEETWATER KICKS AT DELAYS IN MAIL

By Associated Press.

SWEETWATER, April 29.—Today was the fifth day mail has failed to arrive from the east over the Texas & Pacific, and Mayor Shepard has telegraphed the postoffice department at Washington to know why under such circumstances mail should not be dispatched over the Santa Fe. Two bridges a few miles east of here have been out of use until today.

Two Klansmen 'Talk' As Jail Door Yawns

Austin Police Commissioner and Lodge Worker, Answer Questions of Grand Jury When High Court Mandate Is Served.

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, April 29.—J. D. Copeland, police commissioner, and F. G. Reynolds, clerk of a local fraternal organization, this afternoon appeared before the grand jury and answered questions about the Ku Klux Klan which they refused to answer when first called before that body, later being adjudged in contempt of court and fined $100 and sentenced to jail until they answered the questions.

The answers were made on advice of counsel, it is understood, the two men conferring with their attorneys a few minutes before they entered the grand jury rooms.

Whole State Watched.

The answering of these questions brings to a close a case that has gained statewide attention. It started when the grand jury was directed to investigate the killing of Peeler Clayton in an alley bordering the "Ku Klux Klan hall," and the alleged illegal acts of the Klan in this county.

Asked questions which had been asked Reynolds and Copeland were: "Are you a member of the Ku Klux Klan?"

"Who are the officers of the Ku Klux Klan?"

"Who are the members of the Ku Klux Klan?"

"Who have you seen at the meetings of the Ku Klux Klan?"

Claimed Legal Rights.

They claimed their constitutional right not to incriminate themselves gave them the right not to answer. They had already said they knew nothing of the sending of threats or warnings to various persons.

District Judge J. R. Hamilton then adjudged the two men to be in contempt of court for refusing to answer the questions and ordered them put in jail until the questions were answered. He also fined them $100 each.

The case was carried to the court of criminal appeals on ex parte proceedings. That court upheld Judge Hamilton's order and refused a rehearing only last Wednesday. The mandate of the appeals court was issued yesterday and mailed to Sheriff Miller. It is still undelivered.

Reynolds and Copeland were summoned to the court house under certified copies of the mandate and brought before the grand jury. They then answered the questions originally put to them. This information was given newspaper men by Judge Hamilton.

U. S. to Bar Klansmen.

In its final report, the grand jury said the federal government will soon make an investigation to ascertain if any of its employes belong to the Ku Klux Klan. "We learn from what we think is a reliable source that the federal government will soon have a general housecleaning of its servants and that those who belong to this organization will have to disassociate themselves from the organization or leave the service," the report stated.

"We find in our reinvestigations that representatives of the state government have been involved in this organization. This, we think, is unfair to the great mass of the citizenship of this state."

TRAIN THAT PUT ALEDO ON MAP FINALLY RESCUED AND MOVES ON

No. 11, as it is known in railroad circles, the Oil Field Special as it is known throughout this section, or the "marooned T. & P. train at Aledo" as it has been named in press dispatches over the state telling of the destruction of the flood, pulled into Ranger last night at 10 o'clock, after having been almost five days en route from Fort Worth here.

No. 5 out of Fort Worth, and due here on the regular schedule at 12:28 a. m., arrived here this morning an hour late, as the result of the detour over the Santa Fe tracks to Weatherford. The washouts west of Aledo have already been "cribbed" or trestled over by the repair gangs and the huge gap washed through and under the fill east of Aledo is expected to be trestled over by this morning in time to allow No. 23, en route to Sweetwater to arrive here this afternoon somewhere about the usual time of 1 o'clock. Neither train will proceed any further than Sweetwater, owing to washouts west of that place.

One Was Stayer.

None of the eighty-odd passengers who left Fort Worth Monday night were on board No. 11—the last, an elderly standpatter, being persuaded to leave the train Thursday despite his determination to remain on board "until the wheels rotted or began to move."

Tales of a food shortage and the opening of boxes of perishable goods carried on board the train, as reported from Fort Worth, were denied by the train crew and likewise by G. B. Barrington, former transfer man of Ranger and now of Mexia, who left the train Wednesday and arrived here over the Hamon line. "We got cussed out when we woke up the farmers and storekeepers early Tuesday morning, but after that there was plenty of food and there never was a time when the passengers could not have left the train and returned to Fort Worth," Mr. Barrington said, and explained that the majority had left the train Wednesday after giving up hope that the road would be repaired.

McCarty Pitches In.

O. H. McCarty, general manager of the Ringling roads and an old friend of Superintendent Knightlinger of the Texas & Pacific, was a passenger on board the train and organized the gangs that were put to work immediately to repair the road bed. Lack of materials, however, hampered the work and the extent of the washouts prevented moving of the train until late today. Mr. McCarty reached here yesterday morning over the Hamon line and departed shortly after for his offices in Eastland.

A message received yesterday by S. B. Tunnell, freight and passenger agent, from the superintendent, says the washout along the fill east of Aledo, which prevented the train from returning to Fort Worth, extended for a considerable distance, and a hole large enough to bury the new Texas & Pacific station here was washed in the ground underneath the fill. The washouts on the east is said by the train crew to have been caused by the tremendous rush of water from surrounding hills.

To the west of Aledo there was a series of washouts caused by the flood waters of the river. The washout on the east is thought to have occurred only a short while after the train passed over the fill, as it was but a half mile from the rear coach.

Only Temporary Work.

The cribbing or trestling work which the road expects to complete tomorrow over the washed out portion of the fill is only of a temporary nature, officials here explain, and the roadbed through the flooded areas cannot be put into good condition for some time.

Nothing was known of the trouble west of Sweetwater, which still prevents through train service to El Paso, as this is in the Baird division. If this trouble is repaired in time, through train service will be resumed over the road from Fort Worth west tomorrow.

CROKER, FORMER TAMMANY CHIEF, DIES IN IRELAND

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, April 29.—Richard Croker, former leader of Tammany Hall, New York, died at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at Glencain castle, Sandy Ford, a few miles from Dublin. His wife was at the bedside.

The former political leader spent the better part of the last ten or twelve years in Ireland, where he owned extensive estates, making visits to the United States almost yearly. The last of these visits was in the spring of 1921, when he went to New York in connection with the legal proceedings instituted by his son to prove him incapable of managing his own estate. The elder Croker won the suit.

EAKEN WELL AT PIONEER MAKES 2,800 BARRELS

Drilled Two Feet Deeper, Flow Is Tripled; Two Other Producers.

An increase in depth of two feet Friday night more than tripled the production of the Stone & McMurray Eaken No. 2 at Pioneer, according to reports last night. The well, which came in last Sunday with a production of 800 barrels, is now making 2,800 barrels daily on the gauge, it is stated. The depth is reported around 3,000 feet. The Stone & McMurray Eaken No. 1, one of the wells that first attracted attention to the Pioneer field, is now making 550 barrels, it is said.

T. B. Slick is also reported to have brought in his Eaken No. 1 during the week with an initial production of 1,000 barrels.

The Keystone Drilling company, according to reports at Eastland, brought in a producer north of Rising Star during the week making between 300 and 500 barrels.

GOMPERS SAYS LAW BROKEN BY OPEN SHOPPERS

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 29.—The open shop fight of the citizens committee to enforce the arbitration award of Judge Landis is a violation of the secondary boycott decision of the United States supreme court.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor told thousands of union workers at a mass meeting on the municipal pier tonight. The meeting followed a parade nearly two miles long and demonstration against the enforcement of the award.

Citing supreme court decisions on the secondary boycott in the Danbury Hatters, Duplex and Buck stove and range cases, Gompers challenged lawyers in the audience to dispute his statements that the citizens' committee, which has raised several million dollars to back contractors in the fight, was itself violating those same decisions.

"The mistake the building trades made," the veteran labor leader said, "was to agree to the selection of a judge of any sort as an arbiter. Landis is not only a lawyer but has the judicial frame of mind; that is, you give them one inch of jurisdiction and they will take a mile."

COAL STRIKE GETTING ROUGH IN UTAH AND PENNSYLVANIA

By Associated Press.
 SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 29.—Two companies of the national guard of Utah were ordered to be ready to entrain at 6 o'clock this evening for Scofield, in the Carbon county coal fields, where trouble broke anew this afternoon in connection with the strike of coal miners. The troop movement was ordered on the strength of reports that striking miners had held up a freight train near Winter Quarters and forced seven alleged strikebreakers to leave it. The strikers numbered seventy-five, according to the advices, and the engineer brought the train to a stop when they fired shots in the air. Miners posted on the hills above Scofield and Winter Quarters are reported to have fired upon mine guards who attempted to reach the train to escort strikebreakers to the mines.

TED HAMILTON IS CANDIDATE FOR CONSTABLE

C. C. (Ted) Hamilton, until recently deputy constable under Constable R. L. Faircloth has formally announced his candidacy for the office, opposing Constable Faircloth and P. P. Palmer. Mr. Hamilton's plans to make the race have been generally known for more than two months but no formal announcement was made until yesterday. In company with Deputy Constable Shell McDowell, Mr. Hamilton was "let out" of his deputy constableness several days ago following disagreements of the deputies with the constable. Although Mr. McDowell has spoken of frequently as a candidate for the office, he has made no announcement of his plans. Friends of the officers state that they were not discharged because of their announced or contemplated opposition to Constable Faircloth, but because of seeing the duties of their offices in a different light from the present constable. Mr. Hamilton has been a resident of Ranger for the last forty-two years and for several years has served as a peace officer both in the police department and in the constable's office. He is running for office on a law and order platform.

By Associated Press.
 WAXAHACHIE, April 29.—D. L. Lovell of Bryan, Texas, charged in an indictment with the beating to death of J. N. Hale, an aged transient, was in the hands of the jury tonight. Circumstantial evidence figured in the case. Hale was murdered last September in the southern part of the county. The defense closed today without placing any witness on the stand, though a number had been subpoenaed.

BOMB HURLED AT SOVIETS WHILE LOOTING CHURCH

By Associated Press.
 RIGA, April 29.—An attempt has been made to assassinate the members of the Russian soviet commission requisitioning church treasures at Tvar, on the right bank of the Volga river, it was reported in soviet official quarters here today. While the commission was carrying on its requisitioning, according to the reports received here, a member of the "Black Hundred" threw a bomb into the Cathedral of the Transfiguration, an ancient edifice of rare beauty, built in 1689. No one was injured but the explosion shattered many ancient statues and windows.

'TORNADO' AND 'CYCLONE' OF GOSPEL JOIN FORCES

FORT WORTH, April 29.—Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist church here and well known throughout the United States as the "Texas Tornado," announced tonight the formation of a statewide evangelistic team, composed of himself and the Rev. B. F. McClendon, known as "Cyclone Mac." Rev. Mr. McClendon, formerly a Methodist evangelist, has joined the Baptist church and will be baptised Sunday night. In combining to do evangelical work throughout the country, either Norris or McClendon will remain here to fill the duties of pastor while the other will fill calls from other states. Norris said he already had many engagements.

SHOP WORK INCREASING.

By Associated Press.
 CLEBURNE, April 29.—The employees of the car department of the Santa Fe shops here began working six days per week today. They had been working five days per week for some time. The men in the locomotive department, who have been laid off for a week, will return to work Monday.

HEALTH EXPERT TO BE IN RANGER ON WEDNESDAY

Miss Gillette, Red Cross worker of St. Louis will spend Wednesday in Ranger in the interest of nutrition work among the school children and general health work here. During the forenoon she will be with the nutrition class in the schools and in the afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock, she will hold a health conference at the First Baptist church. The conference is free and every mother of the city is invited to attend. The nutrition work in the schools, with the installation of scales, can now be carried on in a more satisfactory manner, it is announced. These scales, on which the school children are weighed to determine whether or not they are receiving the proper nutrition from their food, were recently purchased with funds raised by the tag sale of the Junior Red Cross and have been installed in the High school, Central ward, Young and Cooper schools. The services of Miss Gillette have been retained by the county chapter of the Red Cross to conduct the work in the schools.

BABY SHOT IN TODAY'S BATTLE IN PENNSYLVANIA

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 29.—New developments in the Fayette county coke region late today following riots at Tower Hill No. 1 of the Hillman Coal company and at the Orient mine of the Orient Coal & Coke company included orders by Sheriff I. I. Shaw that no assemblies of any kind will be permitted in the county; a request from the sheriff for an additional machine gun and 10,000 rounds of ammunition, and reports from a Uniontown hospital that Tony Rose, shot by a state policeman in the Tower Hill fight, is expected to die.

All of the four state policemen injured in the riot will recover, Captain Herbert Smith, in charge of the district, said tonight, although Lieutenant Charles T. Smith is in a serious condition, one of his eyes having been nearly torn from its socket. He was seriously beaten by the crowd of about 500 men and women, his gun having jammed while he attempted to shoot in self-defense. Mary Raven, a 2-year-old child who was struck by a stray bullet fired by Louis Hill, a deputy sheriff on guard at the Orient mine while he was attacked by ten men, was expected to recover, it was stated tonight. John Ramie, a miner, was also wounded by Hill. Fifty-three persons—fifty men and three women—are in the county jail here in connection with the riot.

GOMPERS ADMITS NEW YORK UNIONS ARE GUILTY OF UNFAIR PRACTICES

NEW YORK, April 29.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has appealed to the Loekwood investigation committee to keep hands off organized labor, and let the building trades unions put their own house in order.

When Samuel Untermyer asked Mr. Gompers what he would say if he knew the committee contemplated recommending to the state legislature that laws be enacted to "halt the abuse of power by labor unions, by holding union members responsible as individuals for loss sustained to contractors through these abuses," the veteran leader half arose and replied: "I should not only object; I should protest such action."

Asked what alternative there might be, he said: "Patience, while organized labor exerts itself to correct these abuses within the organization." Then, at the suggestion of Mr. Untermyer, he offered to "do all in his power" to bring the unions to cease practices which he confessed were "unfair, unwise, uncalled for, and not in keeping with the principles of organized labor."

Flay Legal "Straitjacket." Mr. Gompers declared, however, that relief must come from within the American Federation of Labor, not from new laws, asserting "you can't bring the American workmen into a legal straitjacket."

The committee adjourned until May 3, when Mr. Gompers will be asked to resume. In the meantime, Mr. Untermyer announced he would ask Mr. Gompers to make good his offer to aid the committee by suggesting how the building trades might be purged of labor abuses without interference by the state.

The labor leader for three hours listened to a recital of acts which, according to testimony previously offered by union officials, contractors and workers, has obstructed building, and, according to Mr. Untermyer, blocked attempts to relieve congestion, house shortage and excessive rents by the construction of cheap dwellings.

Mr. Gompers said he had not known that, as recited by Mr. Untermyer, the bricklayers on six buildings in Brooklyn struck at the lunch hour last Monday for an increase from $10 to $12 a day, and got it.

He also was not aware, he said, that a similar strike took place in New York yesterday, where the workmen exacted promises of $13 a day before returning.

Alleged Abuses Listed. He did not know, he declared, the Plumbers' union of New York had been closed to candidates, except brothers and sons of members, since 1920; that plumbers refused to install certain modern fixtures because they required less labor hours than other kinds; that one union had compelled an employer to pay his men several hours' overtime because they waited ten minutes after the whistle for their weekly wages; that Plasterers' unions forbade the use of molds for interior decorations in any building in order that the moldmakers might remain steadily employed; that more than 100 mantels intended for installation in a New York hotel were destroyed because they contained a package of cement, and the plasterers refused to install them; that an imitation marble wall, in the same hotel, was destroyed because it did not meet with the approval of a union delegate and his executive committee; that certain unions had a rule that when only one man was required for the job he should receive a foreman's wages, or that contractors from other cities on jobs in New York were required to pay the union scale prevailing in their resident city if it was higher than the scale here.

Regular shipments are to be made of fresh peaches, melons, grapes, cherries, plums, apricots and asparagus from Chile to New York from October 15 to May 15 of each year.

SHERIFF, HOW CAN YOU GET CHEAPER BEANS?

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, April 29.—Upon the recommendation of a municipal engineer expert from New York city, hired by the Chamber of Commerce to show El Paso how to cut its tax rate, reduce city expenditures and how to operate its schools and other business, the county commissioners have instructed Sheriff Seth Orndorff, in charge of the county jail, to reduce the cost of meals to prisoners.

The sheriff formerly was authorized to spend 50 cents a day for the prisoners' meals. The county commissioners order now provides the prisoners shall eat on 40 cents a day each.

RADIO FEVER SPOILS FRISCO TABLE MANNERS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Table etiquette is rapidly passing at one of the leading San Francisco hotels since it installed radio telephones on each of the serving tables in one of its dining rooms. Diners now eat with one elbow on the table to support a hand holding a telephone receiver to an ear.

NO "OLD HEADS" HERE.

As a matter of simple justice, to say nothing of common sense, Ranger should wake up to itself and quit this gossiping about "the old heads" insisting on running things and not giving anybody else a chance. It's pure deer poppycock. In the first place, there are no "old heads" running civic organizations here, in the sense that the term is commonly used. They are mature business men, to be sure, most of them connected with the larger and more vital business interests of the town, but they are not senile plutocrats who block the efforts of others because they want nothing done, as the term implies. Furthermore, though they are the men who really can afford to spare the least time for civic affairs, they are the only men who seem to have any time to give.

There never was a time when the old Chamber of Commerce would not have welcomed willing workers with open arms. There are men doing work who would relish turning it over to someone else, but when the opportunity is presented, the someone else turns his shoulder and passes indifferently by. So the so-called old-head stays on the job, because somebody must make an effort to keep the wheels of progress turning.

And yet those fifteen or twenty men, who struggle on by themselves, get blame instead of praise. They are stifling the aspirations of others who desire to help the city! Bunk.

The "old heads" in Ranger have for the most part been here two or three years. There is no new blood, though they themselves. There is none to whom Ranger's advancement is more vital. What they have done—and it is more than the average unthinking citizen realizes—they have done without aid or offers of aid from those who now would cast them aside. They did not elect themselves to civic office; they were selected by others, who in effect said: "Now you run things; but don't look to me for any help."

A new Chamber of Commerce is being organized. It was started by men connected with the old chamber, because everyone else seemed ready to let matters slide. But the temporary organizers will be glad to work in the ranks if the "new blood" which is clamoring for a chance will just step forward and show a disposition to work. That will be something they have long looked forward to.

"Old heads" who are hopeful for a large and enthusiastic chamber of Commerce may deprecate this article. They may think it will antagonize some prospective members. But it is due them in all fairness, and it may aid in removing the beam from the eyes of some who accept hearsay as facts.

C. M. CALDWELL WILL SPEAK AT BAPTIST MEET

C. M. Caldwell, prominent resident of Breckenridge and representative from other towns in the Cisco Baptist association district will speak at the mass meeting tomorrow afternoon at the East Ranger Baptist church.

The Rev. Jeff Davis, field secretary of the general convention, will preach tomorrow morning at the 11 o'clock services. The meeting of the association will adjourn tomorrow night following evangelistic services.

COMMON LABOR WILL CONTINUE SUNDAY MEETS

A big meeting of the Laboring Men's branch of the American Federation of Labor, which was organized here several weeks ago among the county road workers to obtain relief from the low wage scale, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, it is announced. All working men interested are invited to attend. No color line is drawn in the union, the organizers realizing that to be effective all classes of labor making up the local labor market must become organized to accomplish results, it is stated.

Officers state that a strong organization is being built up among the workers here and that since the organization of the Ranger branch that the movement to organize common labor has become statewide, with branches springing up in numerous cities and towns of Texas. Numerous additions are reported weekly by the local union.

The weekly meetings here are being held at the Carpenters' hall, next to the Masonic building on Elm street.

FATHER PLACES JUSTICE ABOVE HIS SON'S LIFE

AUSTIN, April 28.—Governor Neff now has in his office petitions to commute to life imprisonment the death sentence of Carl Parker, sentenced to hang in Houston on May 4, following his conviction on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Mortie Conroy, a taxicab driver, last year.

The papers in the Parker case include a letter from the murdered man's father, correcting reports that the father did not wish to see Parker hanged. The letter stated there was no spirit of revenge in the father's heart but that he wanted to see justice done and implored the governor to act in accordance with the evidence in the case.

If the present plans of the governor are carried out, Parker will hang without action on the case by the governor. He is on a speaking tour in the Panhandle and northwest Texas and will not return to the capital until May 8, so he told his secretaries. It is understood that the governor did not take the papers in the case with him.

BIG TOWNS WILL USE 'DAYLIGHT SAVING' TIME

NEW YORK, April 29.—Daylight saving will begin at midnight tomorrow in more than 500 of the nation's largest cities, in about 200 smaller cities or rural communities, and in every nook or corner of several states, notably on the Atlantic seaboard.

Railroads will operate on standard time, unless a bill now before congress which would give them permission to use daylight-saving time-tables is passed. But banks and stock exchanges and business radiating out of New York and the four or five great cities along the coast will be on daylight saving time.

Most of the leading business centers of Europe have adopted daylight saving time, holds aloof and will continue it this year but discard it in 1923 under a new law. London took to saving daylight on March 28 while all the cities of Belgium and France will join her tomorrow or already have done so. Germany, by a national law, holds aloof and will conduct all its business and trade on its usual time standard.

BAR COMMITTEE FAILS TO PASS ON CRITICISM

EASTLAND, April 29.—The committee recently appointed at a meeting of members of the Eastland County Bar association to draw up resolutions on the criticism of District Judge George L. Davenport by Federal Judge Wilson, on the latter's action in releasing federal prisoners on habeas corpus writs, did not meet yesterday afternoon in the Eighty-eighth district court room as scheduled. So far as can be learned, the committee did not meet at all, probably as the result of the crippled train service and the conditions of the highways leading into this city.

The committee was appointed to investigate the matter of the federal prisoners' release, obtain all the facts in the case, and draw up appropriate resolutions. According to attorneys attending the meeting, nine members of the Eastland County Bar association were present at the time.

REPAIR WORK AT ST. RITA'S IS UNDER WAY

Three more weeks will be required to complete the repairs to St. Rita's Catholic church, which was partially unroofed by the tornado some time ago and the interior damaged by water. The repair work started a week ago but will require considerable time to complete, the Rev. Father Gerkin stated yesterday afternoon, as the entire interior of the church will have to be gone over and portions of the woodwork replaced. Damages will exceed $5,000, it is estimated.

Until the church is completed, both the 8 a. m. and 10 a. m. masses are being held at the Knights of Columbus lodge room, at the corner of Pine and Marston.

WYOMING MAYOR HELD FOR ATTACK ON PASTOR

EVANSTON, Wyo., April 29.—This town is in a turmoil of excitement following an alleged attack by Mayor John T. Romick upon the Rev. George Chalmers Richmond. The Rev. Richmond declares he was brutally beaten and pushed into a gutter filled with mud. The attack was occasioned, it is said, by a reform campaign conducted by the minister. Mayor Romick was arrested.

Governor Carey notified the Rev. Richmond Saturday that the state would take no action upon Richmond's demand for the removal of Prosecuting Attorney Abraham Crawford, unless the complaints were supported by more concrete evidence.

Governor Carey's message followed a reference by United States At-

JUDGE STARNES SLANDER SUIT SET FOR MONDAY

EASTLAND, April 29.—The $50,000 slander suit filed last October by County Judge C. R. Starnes against J. R. Stubblefield of Eastland is set for hearing Monday in the Eighty-eighth district court. The suit was filed by the county judge following remarks alleged to have been made by Mr. Stubblefield attacking the character of Judge Starnes, at a mass meeting at the city hall here. The meeting was called following the receipt of an anonymous letter received by Mr. Stubblefield threatening his life.

Richmond reported in his letter of appeal that he had defied the mob in their demand that he leave Evanston. His letter of appeal followed one of complaint against Prosecuting Attorney Crawford.

SOCIETY

AND ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

MRS. R. B. CAMPBELL, Editor Telephone 418

HONORING MRS. R. B. WAGGOMAN.

This week's festivities have sounded a bridal note that has not before to any extent been echoed in Ranger's social affairs, and this note was further emphasized Friday afternoon when Mmes. Lytton R. Taylor and Earl Taylor, at the home of the former, entertained in honor of Mrs. R. B. Waggonman, a recent bride. The Taylor home took on a rather bridal-like atmosphere with its color scheme of pink and white, which was carried out in every appointment, and in its floral decorations. On entering, one pleasing sight that met the eye was a punch bowl under a pink shaded light, presided over by a veritable vision in pink, Miss Mable Baker, who served punch throughout the afternoon. Cut flowers in pink and white were dispersed here and there in the entertaining suite, and long window boxes full of lovely plants lent a pleasing background to the scene.

There were eleven tables at bridge and the guest prize, a hanging basket filled with sprengeri ferns, went to the honor guest, Mrs. Waggonman. Mrs. J. B. Haden received the high score prize, another pretty hanging basket, filled with flowering plants in pink and ferns, while the consolation prize, a hand-painted pitcher which was the work of Mrs. Waggonman, went to Mrs. J. B. Stackable.

The same dainty color scheme prevailed in the refreshments, which were white brick ice cream, served with cubes of white cake dipped in white icing, and was decorated with pink and white flowers, and macaroons, all served on plates decorated with pink frills of crepe paper and lace doilies. Salted pecans in pink nut cups made a pretty and delicious relish.

Mrs. Waggonman wore a black canton crepe gown, Mrs. Lytton R. Taylor was dressed in black taffeta, and Mrs. Earl Taylor in black charmeuse.

Those invited to welcome Mrs. Waggonman to her new home were: Mmes. Eben Finney, William Clegg, Gifford Clegg, A. G. Jury, J. B. Stackable, M. O. Burt, Frank Brahaney, Charles Conley, Leo Parr, J. C. Pullen, J. B. Haden, Glen Garrett, M. H. Clark, Ed Maher, William Conway, E. A. Ernst, G. C. Barkley, W. H. Burden, T. L. Lauderdale, Garrett Bohning, R. D. Lavery, C. H. Moffett, C. E. Maddocks, M. H. Fouke, Harry Pearson, Roy Jameson, D. L. Jameson, M. K. Ollie and mother, S. P. Boone, L. A. Vandervoort, A. J. Orth, O. L. Phillips, Cabe Terrell, Sandford Terrell, L. H. Flewellen, Cunningham and Jones of Cisco, Karl Jones, T. J. Holmsley, Frank Rarey, A. N. Harkrider, H. D. Woods, Shirley Marston, F. A. Brown, E. E. Crawford, R. C. SENIOR GIRLS HONORED.

A week ago last Saturday, Mrs. F. E. Langston and daughter Mayme Ruth, entertained with bridge and 42 in honor of the senior girls at their home in Hodges Oak Park. The Langston home was very attractively decorated in potted plants and cut flowers and the games were followed by a beautifully appointed luncheon of chicken salad, potato chips, macaroons and coffee.

In 42, the high prize, a box of correspondence cards, went to Miss Blanche DeBolt, and the consolation, a corsage bouquet, to Miss Edna Clark.

In bridge the prizes were the same as in 42 and the high score prize went to Miss Nannie Haden, and the low score prize to Mrs. Ted Dreinhofer.

Seniors and other guests present were: Misses Marion Stubblebine, Nannie Haden, Marie Armer, Blanche DeBolt, Ella Dreinhofer, Rose McEver, Thelma Collins, Mabel Knight, Eulalia Wolf, Edna Clarke, Clara Haden, Evelyn West, Beatrice Dreby, Alice Dreby, Blanche Niver, Eppie Jean Groves, Peggy Tucker, Dora Mayne Cole, Douschka Bobo, Frances Bunch; Mmes. Ted Dreinhofer, Howard Cole Jr., and the hostesses.

MISS CAMPBELL HONORED WITH A SHOWER.

Saturday afternoon at the Gholson hotel, Miss Mary Bonner Campbell, whose engagement to Mr. Robert J. Bates Jr., was announced Monday night, was the honoree of a very beautiful party, which ended in a shower of lovely gifts. Mmes. L. J. Marks, A. G. Jury, Ove Overson and C. N. Ochiltree were the hostesses honoring Miss Campbell, and because she is the "little girl of the Gholson" and they were all four so interested in her happiness, they arranged this lovely party for her.

The mezzanine floor of the Gholson was attractively set for this occasion. The color scheme was pink and green and was carried out by the use of pink and green maline and cut flowers and potted plants. Just in front of the green room, streamers of the pink and green maline were brought from the side of the entrance to a central point and ended with a big bow under which was a kewpie doll. Kewpie dolls also caught the maline on each side of the stand, while a bowl of gold fish on the stand caught the colors reflected in their clear pool. Baskets, jars and boxes of blooming plants were used very effectively, while a large basket filled with pink roses made an effective centerpiece.

Miss Irene Wansley and Miss Helen Gholson presided over the guest book, and also assisted the hostesses in serving. Mrs. C. N. Ochiltree, saying that she had no light to guide her feet! but experience, requested all the ladies present to write ten traits they most admired in men, feeling that unless Miss Campbell's future husband could qualify, that she was at least being forewarned. Dainty cards, decorated in men's heads, were passed around and after the ten traits were written, they were read aloud and judged. Mrs. R. M. Schmuck was awarded the prize, a lovely antique vase, and her ideal traits in man were these: Honesty to his fellow man; reverence, to all women; a pal to his wife; always polite; sympathetic; always straight; always a man; a wife's best friend and counselor and who thinks his wife and children are next to God. A very dominant trait to be admired in men was a dishwashing trait and one that comes home early. The judges in the contest were Mmes. John H. Moyer, C. C. Craig and McLaughlin.

In a cut prize Miss Marion Stubblebine was the lucky one, receiving a charming incense burner.

Little Edna Ruth Fair looked like a pink vision when she came through the green room entrance, pushing before her a pink and white draped baby buggy, in which little Ethel May Overson, a sure-enough kewpie, with only a huge maline bow, which was tied just underneath her arms, sat literally lost in parcels and packages of all kinds and sizes. These were turned over to Miss Campbell, who began untying them and each and everyone present shared in her happiness and enthusiasm she radiated. Many, many lovely gifts were received and the honoree with a tear choked voice thanked those who had so sweetly remembered her. After the gifts were opened, the hostesses served refreshments of ice cream and homemade angel food and devil's food cake. The hostesses were beautifully gowned in black and the honoree in periwinkle. Those present were: Mmes. Cabe Terrell, E. E. Crawford, Fred Dreinhofer Jr., H. B. Wilson, J. A. Martin, L. W. McLaughlin, D. L. Jameson, Roy Jameson, G. C. Barkley, M. H. Clark, W. D. Conway, J. F. Champion, A. E. Ernst, R. M. Schmuck, Frank Brahaney, C. H. Moffett, Ben A. Owens, H. S. Cole Jr., Paul Lacy, John D. Gholson, T. J. Holmsley, W. R. Flaherty, Gus Coleman, Karl Jones, L. A. Vandervoort, M. O. Burt, John H. Moyer, A. N. Harkrider, C. C. Craig, William Clegg, R. B. TWINS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY.

Saturday afternoon when Howard and Hubert Hinton returned from a ride with their father they were overjoyed to find that a number of their playmates had gathered at their home and that a real party was being given in honor of the twins' birthday.

The house was attractively decorated with cut flowers. The dining room was especially beautiful with softly shaded lights and brilliant streamers of red crepe paper, carried from the chandelier to the corners of the table, whose centerpiece was a blooming begonia.

Howard and Hubert were the recipients of many nice presents. The guests were given favors of tiny dolls for the girls and toy dogs for the boys.

Mrs. Hinton was assisted in entertaining her little guests by Mmes. Copp, Rickard and Stewart. After delicious refreshments of punch, angel food cake and ice cream were served, the guests departed, wishing Howard and Hubert many happy returns of the day.

Those attending this delightful party were: O. C. Murphy, Roy Jameson, Carl Cook, Harold Rickard, Edgar Walton, Burton Davis, Trut Fulcher, Carl Wagner, Alvis Ingram, R. L. Mouring, Robert Barr, Mary Wade Harllis, Mildred Harllis, Claribel Stewart, Frances McNeil, Elizabeth Dillingham, Mattie Ben Shipp, Cleo Fucher, Elizabeth Ballinger, Elizabeth Davenport, Norma Hinton, Hubert and Howard Hinton.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB WITH MRS. CLUNEY.

Mrs. Walter Cluney was hostess to the Twentieth Century club this week. Tables were arranged for bridge and in the final count Mrs. E. L. McMillen received the club high score prize, an ivory jewel case; Mrs. E. J. Wiss the consolation prize, an everyready pencil and Mrs. McNallen the guest prize, a string of beads.

A salad course was served to the following club members and guests: Mmes. Morris McNallen, E. L. McMillen, Frank Champion, E. J. Wiss, J. S. Blair, Gilliard, William Denning, A. Neil, John Thurman, John Dunkle, and Miss Mabel Dunkle.

The meeting next Friday will be with Mrs. E. L. McMillen.

CLUB ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.

Friday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock the G. G. R. G. club entertained their friends with a delightful party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Klinger. There were three contests. First, a bread contest in which J. S. Reynolds and Fannie Lois Cox were the successful participants, Mr. Reynolds winning as a prize, a long stick of peanut brittle candy, and Miss Cox, a box of candy. The second contest was a cracker race, on which Paul Dresser won the prize, an orange, and

MAJESTIC.

"Fascination," the latest Mae Murray production, which is presented by Robert Z. Leonard, reveals the famous star in the most ambitious of her roles. No other character that she has portrayed requires as much difficult emotional acting as "Fascination," which is at the Majestic theatre today and Monday. Altogether it marks a new step in her career, a step in the direction of tensely emotional drama.

"Fascination" is by Edmund Goulding, who wrote Miss Murray's sensationally successful "Peacock Alley" from a story of Ouida Bergere. Most of the scenes are laid in Spain. Miss Murray appears as Dolores De Lisa, the daughter of a Spanish father and an American mother. She combines Latin fire with Yankee pep. The combination leads her to bolt from the rigid restrictions of her Spanish home to join the crowds going to the Easter bull fight. There she becomes fascinated by a handsome toreador and this fascination leads her into a series of vivid adventures.

The cast includes Helen Ware, Creighton Hale, Robert W. Frazer, Courtenay Foote, Charles Lane, Vincent Coleman, Emily Fitzroy and Francis Puglia.

STARTS TO SHOOT HAWK. RICH FARMER KILLS WIFE

By International News Service
 SPRINGFIELD, Tenn., April 29.—Informed by his wife that a hawk soared over the barn yard, W. C. Edmondson, wealthy farmer, today seized a shotgun to kill the bird. He stumbled to the doorstep. The gun was discharged and Mrs. Edmondson fell, wounded in the side. She died a few minutes later.

EL PASO SEEKS TO HAVE QUAIL SETTLE THERE

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, April 29.—One hundred and twenty-five Bob White quail have been received from the state game, fish and oyster commissioner, W. W. Boyd, from Brownsville, Texas, to be planted in the Rio Grande valley. The birds are being mated, cared for and protected by a man hired for that purpose by the El Paso County Game Protective association. When the mating is completed the birds will be released on a farm in a valley south of the city.

The experiment is in connection with an effort to get quail started in this section. The only kind of quail in the vicinity is the "Mexican" or "Blue" quail. This variety is a fast runner but does not flush or fly like the Bob White quail.

An attempt to raise Bob Whites in the valley failed fifteen years ago. There was not enough moisture for them, it was said. The district now is cut with hundreds of irrigation ditches, and it is believed to be sufficient.

34-ACRE FARM UP $250,000 IN 40 YEARS

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 29.—A thirty-four-acre farm, less than twenty miles from Chicago's loop, sold this week for $250,000. It was bought about fifty years ago for $1,750, so that its increase in value paid the family which held it for forty years at the rate of $5,000 annually. Its value, as soon as it is sub-divided with a few roads and sign posts, is reckoned at $500,000.

This place is the Mahoney farm lying on Lake Michigan between two of Chicago's wealthy North Shore suburbs. It is a narrow strip between the lake and Sheridan road, one of the busiest automobile arteries in the mid-west. The streets in the new sub-division will be named from Sir Walter Scott's novels, the same as streets in Kenilworth, which the farm adjoins.

DIVORCEE HAS RIGHT TO ENTERTAIN MEN

Mrs. Esther C. Newton

Mrs. Esther C. Newton, of Chicago, may entertain as many men as she likes, ruled a Chicago divorce court judge. Lawrence J. Newton, her divorced husband, objected to increased alimony on the ground that she didn't deserve it, inasmuch as "she entertains too many men."

UNMUZZLED DOGS CAUSE ARREST OF 1,020 OWNERS

NEW YORK, April 29.—Health Commissioner Copeland received a report yesterday from Lieutenant Gleason, in command of the health squad, indicating that since January 1 there have been 1,020 arrests of dog owners on the charge of allowing their dogs to go unmuzzled. Of this number 839 were convicted, 176 received suspended sentences, three were discharged and a two of the cases are still pending.

When the flag passes in a parade or review, the spectators should, if walking, halt; if sitting, arise, stand at attention and salute. Civilians should remove their hats, although women are expected only to stand respectfully until the colors pass. All men in uniform of any branch of the army and navy are required to stand at attention and salute until the colors have passed.

Announcement of G. G. Hazel as a Candidate for the Office of County Attorney.

Yielding to the solicitations of my friends, I have decided to offer my name to the Democratic voters of this county as a candidate for the nomination of the office of county attorney of Eastland county.

Having served the county one term in this capacity, I am asking for the support of the voters for this requested second term upon the strength and consideration of my record as county attorney and as assistant county attorney, in which capacity I am now attempting to serve the people.

I realize that that which is demanded of any public official and especially of a county attorney is results. A man connected with this office may mean perfectly well and make the most attractive promises, but if some material results are not achieved, then the people have a right to demand something by way of explanation of such failure other than a mere disclaimer of responsibility. With this realization, I have, while former county attorney, endeavored to secure a reasonable amount of results in securing convictions in criminal cases. At the present time, my associates of the county attorney's office and I are devoting our time to the actual work of securing convictions by legitimate methods, without wasting any of our time in attempting to dictate what other officials shall do or in making excuses for ourselves in cases wherein we fail, as we inevitably do and have done upon occasions. I feel in this connection that I have the right to ask that the question of my efficiency or inefficiency shall be determined from my entire record rather than upon the results of some one particular case that may have ended in a way displeasing to the individual voter.

I stand for law enforcement and have always been ready to assist our grand juries in the investigation of any violations or any reliably reported violations and have never thrown anything in the way of such investigation.

I ask your careful consideration of my record and qualifications and if you feel justified in favoring me with your vote and influence, I shall appreciate the same and, if nominated and elected, shall have as my chief end and purpose the justification of such confidence thus demonstrated in me.

Yours with thanks for all favors,
 G. G. HAZEL.

Romance Crumples When Woman Is Held For Luring Suitor to Robbery by Fiance

NEW YORK, April 29.—Romance crumpled up in a corner and gasped for breath when Magistrate Folwell threw in the finishing jolt by sending to Raymond street jail in $7,500 bail each William Vetter and Mrs. Emma L. Denier, an affianced couple, on charges of assault and robbery made by Vetter's rival, Charles Auerbach.

From out of the conflict of stories told by principals, neighbors and detectives, this much was developed:

Robber Got Big Haul.

Shortly after they had parked under a tree a man stepped to the machine, poked a pistol at Auerbach and went away with his $3,000 diamond pin, a gold watch and $55, making no effort to rob the woman, who had a $300 diamond ring and $30.

The detectives, suspicious of the bandit's inattention to Mrs. Denier, trailed her and saw her Saturday evening meet her mother, Mrs. Sadie Lee-man, and Vetter, saw them visit nine pawnshops on the Bowery and watched the girl display a diamond ring for pawn.

These incidents presented to the court, Magistrate Folwell held Vetter and Mrs. Denier for examination today on charges of assault and robbery, the police alleging that the girl lured Auerbach to robbery at the hands of his rival for her heart, Vetter.

Seeking Annulment.

Mrs. Denier is married to Charles Denier, a riveter. Her family said she has instituted annulment proceedings and planned to become Vetter's wife. On the other hand, Vetter's parents expressed surprise at learning she was married.

Auerbach, a widower of a year, met the girl a year ago and paid court, recently being refused as a husband because, the girl explained, she was engaged to Vetter. Nevertheless, she was not averse to meeting him on occasion and thus accepted his invitation Wednesday night for a ride.

It is Auerbach's story that the girl posed as the daughter of the owner of a rather good-looking apartment house in which she lived, and that she never permitted him further than the doorway because "mother is too ill to let me bring any one in." As a fact, her father is the janitor of the building.

A bat cannot rise from a perfectly level surface.

SPORTS CLASSY HURLING AND FLAWLESS SUPPORT BLANK ABILENE, 4 TO 0

The Nitros staged a session yesterday of which any saint might be proud. Not a single black mark is to be scored against their record for the afternoon, and to cap the performance, they smeared a sanctifying coat of whitewash over the visiting Eagles from Abilene, Texas. The score was 4 to 0, achieved after a flashy battle, in which York mechanically turned the Eagles back in the pinches, while the Nitros, emulating the early bird, went out and got their while the getting was good. That the beating wasn't worse was because of earnest endeavor and high ambition on the part of the Abilene infield, composed of Messrs. Lyall, White, Sain and Moore. That crowd put over four double plays during the pastime, nipping the same number of Nitro rallies. Perhaps Mr. Edgar, pitcher, should have some credit also, for allowing his drives to be rapped so swiftly into outstretched gloves. Anyway, they made the aforementioned double killings and provided the scintillating feature of the game, despite the manifest ability displayed by the Nitro crew.

"Shot" in First. The Nitros put about a ten-quart jolt under Abilene's belt in the very first round. Bellah drew a pass to start the inning. Clayton's bunt moved him to second. Hardgrove hit through short, counting Bellah. Craig bunted and beat it out, the ball hitting him in the back as he crossed the sack. Hoffman nearly took a leg off Lyall with his drive, and with the bases full, Plumlee drove a fly to deep center and Hardgrove counted. In the second, Alledr smacked the ball over the fence for a circuit drive and in the fourth Hoffman led off 21—LEGAL NOTICE NOTICE OF BANKRUPTCY PETITION FOR DISCHARGE. In the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Texas.

In the matter of Sara I. Lavery, doing business as Vogue Hat Shop, bankrupt. No. 904 in bankruptcy. OFFICE OF REFEREE. Abilene, Texas, 4-28-22.

Notice is hereby given that Sara I. Lavery, of the County of Eastland, and district aforesaid, did, on the 15th day of April, 1922, file in the Clerk's office of said Court, at Abilene, a petition setting up that he has been heretofore duly adjudged a bankrupt under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1898; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the Court touching his bankruptcy, and praying for a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate in bankruptcy, save such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

On considering the above mentioned petition, it is ordered that any creditor who has proved his claim, and other parties in interest, if they desire to oppose the discharge prayed for in said petition, shall, on or before the 1st day of June, 1922, file with the Referee for the Abilene Division of said district, a notice in writing of their opposition to a discharge in the above entitled cause.

D. M. OLDDHAM, JR., Referee in Bankruptcy.

with a sizzling drive down the right field line—making second on a close play—and came all the way home on a wild pitch.

Oratory, Too. Whereat there was much protest of the Grady White patent-applied-for type from "Andy" White. He and Umpire Spencer both appeared to have their feelings ruffled, but "Andy's" insistence wasn't strong enough to overcome Spencer's righteous determination. The clinching argument was a reminder that the park has gates, delivered with one firmly outstretched thumb.

So Grady took his ire out on the Nitros. He forthwith gave the double play signal and the boys put it on right away and kept it on for the next four innings. Sain had the first opportunity that very round, when with Plumlee on first, he scooped up Alledr's hard rap through the box, stepped on second and threw to Lyall. He started another in the fifth, taking Clayton's tap after Bellah had singled to center. In the sixth Lyall pulled a peach of a play, being on both the starting and receiving end of a dual killing, and in the seventh, Moore horned into the cast by grabbing Duckworth's hot smash and making a long double, second to first.

White Hits 'Em. Grady White was the chief molester of York's curves yesterday, twice bumping, a double and making the Nitros work like everything to keep alien spikes away from the platter. He smacked his first one over Hoffman's head in the opening round, went to third on an infield out, and then essayed to pilfer the plate. But York and Duckworth were that cool, that calm! One served the apple up without fluster; the other received it as casually as one would a card from the sweetheart of yesteryear, and applied it to Mr. White's person with the nonchalance befitting a Nitro in a new white suit.

York pulled out of another hole in the third, caused by one of the few Nitro notions that didn't pan out. With one gone, Burch thumped the ball to center and was held at second by Craig's fast work. Edgar slammed a hot one at Alledr, who figured he could nip Burch at third. It was wrong think, this time. Both were safe, and while the Nitros were getting over their perturbation, Edgar stole second. But Bellah, taking his time, threw out Sain, and White lifted a high one to Clayton. Thus was the plate again kept unmarred.

The Super Sixth. There were two on in the fourth, but York's hardest test came in the sixth, when White again led off with a double. Lyall's Texas league to center, followed by a journey to second without interference, but men on second and third with rone down. Etheridge slapped a hot grounder to Plumlee, who held White at third and tossed to first. Moore was deceived by York's kinkers, and Scoggins' best was a weak tap to York. It was most magnificent. Also, it seemed to have a debilitating effect on the Eagles. Only one man got on in the next three innings, despite the insertion of two pinch hitters into the pastime.

SPEAKER TIED FOR TOP PLACE IN A. L. BATTING

Hornsby Away Down List in National; Williams Leads in Home Runs.

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, April 29.—Kenneth Williams, the hard hitting outfielder with the St. Louis Browns who startled the baseball world by cracking Babe Ruth's home run record for the first two weeks of the season when he smashed out his sixth circuit drive, is at the top of the batters in the American league, according to averages released today and which include Wednesday's games.

Williams is tied with Tris Speaker, the Veteran leader of the Cleveland Indians. Each has an average of .449. Williams is not only topping the hitters, but is showing the way to the base stealers with eight thefts. His six home runs is a big advantage over his rivals, and if he maintains his present stride, Ruth will have a big handicap to overcome when he returns to the game on May 20. The St. Louis slugger also is out in front in total bases with a total of forty-two.

Sisler Well Up. George Sisler, another star of the Browns, has been wielding the willow with telling effect since the curtain rose, and is trailing the leaders with an average of .444.

Other leading batters for five or more games are: Pratt, Boston, .432; E. Smith, Boston, .429; E. Collins, Chicago, .380; Scott, New York, .378; Wood, Cleveland, .375; Jamieson, Cleveland, .370; Blue, Detroit, .364; Heilmann, Detroit, .364; Cutshaw, Detroit, .346; Rice, Washington, .346.

Three Home Runners. George Kelly, the Giants' first baseman, who last season led the National league home run hitters, is out to repeat this season, but appears to have some keen competition in his teammate, Meusel, and Cy Williams, the Philadelphia outfielder. This trio has clouted out three homers apiece. Kelly is topping the batters with an average of .445, while Tierney, the Pittsburgh second sacker, is three points behind with a mark of .442. Hornsby of St. Louis, who carried off the league's batting honors last season, is down in the list with a mark of .368.

Rabbit Maranville of the Pirates and Rawlings of the Giants are having a nip and tuck race for the honors among the base stealers. Each had pilfered four.

Other leading batters for five or more games are: Tierney, Pittsburgh, .429; Harper, Cincinnati, .421; Hollocher, Chicago, .388; Williams, Philadelphia, .385; Maranville, Pittsburgh, .378; Parkinson, Philadelphia, .375; Hornsby, St. Louis, .368; Bigbee, Pittsburgh, .362; Henline, Philadelphia, .351.

BEAUMONT HAD TEXAS LEAGUE'S BIGGEST OPENING

By Associated Press. DALLAS, April 29.—Beaumont was awarded the Texas league opening day attendance cup, according to an announcement by President Roberts tonight, which gave the following attendance in the various cities:

Beaumont, 6,072; Houston, 5,284; Wichita Falls, 4,543; Galveston, 4,450; Fort Worth, 3,521; Dallas, 3,407; Shreveport, 3,163; San Antonio, 2,012.

Cersiciana won the cup in the Texas-Oklahoma league, with an opening attendance of 2,313. Sherman was second with 2,040 and Mexia third, with 1,937.

The bat is warm-blooded, like any animal that suckles its young. Its habits are not very well known, but the female is thought to have two young to the litter, about July.

METHODIST BOARD OPPOSES LAW TO PROHIBIT WOMEN'S SMOKING

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Legislation intended to prohibit women smoking is "unwise," according to official announcement issued here by the Methodist Episcopal church through its board of temperance, prohibition and public morals.

The announcement was issued under the name of Rev. Clarence True Wilson, general secretary of the board.

Numerous Inquiries. It was called forth by numerous inquiries that came to the board at the time New York police were arresting hotel and restaurant proprietors under the mistaken impression that an ordinance was in force prohibiting smoking by women in public places.

The Methodist church, however, in its announcement allows no room for doubt as to its attitude toward smoking by women.

The announcement reads in part: "We very much doubt the wisdom of legislation attempting to prevent the use of tobacco by women. We favor, and have always favored, the prohibition of the sale of tobacco to minors, but never have favored the extension of any such prohibition to adults, either men or women."

Not Respectable. "However, women who smoke certainly show no respect for their own womanhood. God Himself is responsible for the difference between a woman and a man, and the proper sort of women are proud of them and fully realize that they incur certain obligations because of them."

"The woman who smokes is, at best, a poor imitation of a man. An imitation seldom is to be admired much, whether it be imitation furniture, jewelry or men."

"In trying to imitate a man a woman shows an altogether unwarranted sense of inferiority."

"The public press reports that prominent women, in commenting on the action of the New York police sergeant, said: 'Most of the more intelligent women smoke.'"

"If the woman who said this really believes it, God help her—no one else can."

Think It's "Smart." "Most of the women who smoke are poor, dragged-out, pathetic creatures, who have got an idea into their heads from certain novels and magazines that it is 'smart.'"

"Of course, a few really 'smart' women do it, if 'smart' is a proper adjective to apply to a woman of little sense and much money."

"Meanwhile, the real women of the country, almost 50,000,000 of them, are going their own sweet way, using the brains God gave them, respecting themselves and respected by the remainder of the population.

"For every woman who smokes there easily are a thousand who abstain."

FLYING PARSON MARRIES COUPLE IN THE CLOUDS

NEW YORK, April 29.—A five-passenger Fokker airplane 1,500 feet in the air served the purpose of a church yesterday afternoon at Curtis field, Mineola, L. I. A church proper was the only factor lacking in the marriage of Miss Sara Cocke-fair and Albert P. Schalke. Outside of that the ceremony was complete.

The Rev. Belvin W. Maynard, the "flying parson," was the officiating clergyman. He piloted the Fokker and the happy pair to the clouds. He changed his flying costume to a typical clergyman's garb in the airplane, and when the bride had promised to "love and honor" the bridegroom the "flying parson" got into his flying togs and piloted the married couple to earth again. The mothers of the bride and groom heard the words of the ceremony through a wireless telephone.

The bride was a nurse at Brooklyn hospital. A number of her sister nurses were on the field, and when Mrs. Schalke got out of the machine they showered her with kisses and ruined a big bouquet of sweet peas she carried as the gift of the bridegroom. She lived with her parents at 121 De Kalb avenue, Brooklyn.

The bridegroom is 30 years old and is athletic director of the Veterans' Mountain camp in the Adirondacks.

MUNITIONS FOR CHINESE REVOLUTIONISTS SEIZED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Seizure of 15,000 rounds of ammunition and a quantity of revolvers and rifles, believed to be destined for Chinese revolutionists, on board the liner Nanking was announced this afternoon by customs officials.

The ammunition and guns had been concealed in baggage of steerage passengers, according to the customs authorities.

CHICAGO HOCH SENDS SAILOR UP PHONE POLE

CHICAGO, Ill., April 29.—Morris Blight, a sailor from Albuquerque, New Mexico, who has roved the Spanish main and sampled various kinds of poison, today took a few shots of Chicago liquor. Shortly thereafter, bootless, coatless and hatless, he was found clinging to the top of a telegraph pole in East Ninety-fifth street.

"Come down from there," bel-lowed a policeman.

"Aye, aye, sir," responded the sailor as he slipped down the mast.

"What's the big idea?" asked the officer as he gathered Blight in and summoned the wagon.

"I'm on my way to Cleveland to sail the Great Lakes," he replied.

In court he explained to the judge that while he was climbing the pole, newly acquired friends made off with his shoes, coat and hat, but from a hidden recess in his shirt, he produced $35.

"Be on your way to Cleveland, admonished the judge, "but try a boat or train. Cleveland is not in the direction you were climbing."

POST-WAR REACTION ENSLAVING WORKERS, SOCIALISTS CLAIM

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 29.—That "elementary rights won by centuries of sacrifice have been invaded by post-war reaction" is contended in a congressional program which, according to preliminary agenda issued from national Socialist headquarters at Chicago by Otto Branstetter, executive secretary, will be presented here at the Socialist Party convention April 29. The preamble to this program affirms the Socialists' ultimate aim of public ownership and democratic control of the great industries, but adds, "while preparing for this fundamental change and working toward it as a final end, we realize grave questions of grave immediate concern face us today."

"The post-war reaction has chosen the organizations of labor for the principal object of its attack," the proposed program states. "The propaganda of the 'open shop' is an assault upon the freedom of organization of the wage workers."

"The Kansas industrial court with its prohibition of strikes is the logical result of this nation-wide propaganda. Already bills have been introduced in a number of states and in congress embodying this vicious idea. Anti-syndicalist laws have been passed in many states which threaten to restrict or abolish the workers' right of organization."

The agenda also contained the following statements "Within twenty years the foreign policy of the United States has witnessed a radical and alarming change."

"The system of shameless profiteering continues unabated."

"Human life and health are still sacrificed for the gains of the masters of industry."

"Wide spread and inhuman child labor still curses a nation that boasts of its civilization."

"Organizers of the trade unions have been mobbed and driven out of some communities. In the areas of the steel trust union meetings have also been suppressed. These invasions of the most elementary rights won by centuries of sacrifice cannot be permitted to continue without effective protest."

"In this period of wide-spread unemployment and general distress caused by the greed, planlessness and recklessness of the capitalistic privateers, the governing parties have shown a callous indifference to the wants and needs of millions of workers."

RUNAWAY TEAM WRECKS IOWA FREIGHT TRAIN

NEOLA, Iowa, April 29.—A runaway team of horses ran into a Milwaukee freight train, derailed nine cars, toppling them into an eighteen-foot ravine. There were forty-three cars in the train. The team struck the eighteenth car. The horses were killed.

TWO WOMEN WHIP MAN INDEPENDENCE, Kan., April 29.

—Because they had "heard he had been slandering them" in pool halls, a laborer was taken out on a country road and whipped by two women early this week, it became known here today.
