VALENTINO IS RELEASED ON $10,000 BOND

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—Rudolph Valentino, screen actor, was arrested here today on a felony charge of bigamy. He surrendered to the district attorney's office, accompanied by counsel, and arrangements were immediately made to provide for release on bail. Valentino was taken before Justice Bowser and pleaded not guilty to the charge of bigamy growing out of his marriage in Mexicali, Mexico, last Saturday to Winifred Hudnut, while he was legally married to Jean Acker, actress, in whose divorce case only an interlocutory decree was handed down last January.

CHICAGO, May 20.—Winifred Hudnut, whose marriage to Rudolph Valentino in Mexicali, Mexico, has resulted in charges of bigamy against the moving picture star, reached Chicago today en route to her home in New York, with a pledge for Valentino on her lips and tears in her eyes when she heard the latest news of the screen idol. All the way on her long trip from the West she steadfastly refused to discuss the case with scores of newspaper reporters who boarded the train at almost every station or who were already on it when it started.

U. S. STAND ON RUSSIA MAKES ITALIAN SAD

Europe Can't Wait for Economic Survey, Says Minister Schanzer.

GENOA, May 20.—It was with the deepest regret that "we had to renounce the previous collaboration of the United States in the Genoa conference," said Foreign Minister Schanzer of Italy to the correspondents this evening on his departure for Rome.

"Even before the decision of the political commission was made to appoint a commission of experts to meet at The Hague, where the work of the Genoa conference will continue," Signor Schanzer said, "I personally called on Mr. Child (the American Ambassador to Italy), expressing the ardent desire not only as the president of the conference, assembled here, but particularly of Italy, that America should participate in the new meeting at The Hague."

"The negative answer from the American government was the cause of additional regret. Different Viewpoint. Secretary Hughes' note and his telegram of explanation communicated by Mr. Child made clear the viewpoints of the American government. America has no intention of refusing to aid in Russian rehabilitation, but between America and Europe there is a different conception of the methods to be adopted," Schanzer said in explaining the American viewpoint as he understood it.

"In substance," he said, "the American government would like before anything else to make an inquiry into conditions in Russia, in order to establish the remedies necessary for the reconstruction of that country. Instead, at Genoa we have already entered into negotiations with the Russian government for liquidation, in order to establish the conditions of future relations with that country. These negotiations will be continued at The Hague."

60-Year-Old Negro Hanged for Assault

COLUMBUS, Texas, May 20.—Mose Bozier, 60-year-old negro, was hanged to a tree today by a mob of about 300 persons near Alleyton after he had been taken forcibly from officers, who were holding him on a charge of assault of a white girl about 12 years old yesterday. Bozier, who lives in the Bushy community, about twelve miles northwest of Columbus, according to the officers, assaulted the young girl about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was arrested about 9 o'clock this morning by Officer Stein near Fretzburg, about five miles from the scene of the alleged crime. The mob which took the negro from the police hanged him about 1 o'clock this afternoon with no other demonstration and was quiet throughout.

It is understood that the various phases of the present muddle were gone into extensively.

SHALLOW GAS SAND STRUCK IN GHOLSON WELL

An unexpected gas flow, estimated at 4,000,000 feet, was struck yesterday by Gholson, Smith & Disney in a well on the Gholson tract, one mile north of Lacassa, at a depth of 1,463 feet. Although wells were drilled in the same general neighborhood several years ago, none of them, so far as known, struck this sand, and the showing is considered very encouraging. The operators will decide whether to make a gas well of the test or drill it deeper.

Several other wells in the Lacassa-Caddo district are in the pay zone this week and are either producing now or will be drilled in within a few days. The Texas company's A. S. Veale No. 1, four miles west of Caddo, was drilled in Thursday and is making 484 barrels from 3,175 feet. An offset to it will be drilled at once by the same company.

IDENTIFIED AS ATTACKER OF CONROE GIRL

Tied to Stake on Courthouse Square in Mid-Afternoon.

CONROE, Texas, May 20.—Joe Winters, negro, 25 years old, was burned at the stake in the courthouse yard here Saturday afternoon. Thousands of persons, including women and children, witnessed the lynching. Winters just before the match was applied admitted a criminal assault upon a 14-year-old white girl near Leonidas.

The burning of Winters followed a long chase with bloodhounds. Another negro was arrested late Friday and spirited away to Houston for safe-keeping. Early Saturday morning the bloodhounds were put on the trail. Then it developed that Winters was the man wanted. Stores were closed and men came from surrounding towns to join in the manhunt. Winters was caught at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon five miles east of Conroe. He was taken to Leonidas, where the girl positively identified him. He was brought to the courthouse square. Kindling was built up around him. Oil was thrown on the pile and a match applied.

The negro was tied to an iron fence paling and a fire lighted under him. He had been brought back by the officers to be incarcerated in the county jail, but the crowd took him from the officers and saw that he at once paid the penalty.

RANGER MEN PAY FINES IN BOOZE CASES

S. L. Reese, whose place north of Ranger was raided several months ago by Prohibition Officer Bandy, was convicted in Federal court at Abilene Wednesday of manufacturing liquor and sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 and serve six months in jail. A forty-horse power boiler, confiscated by the authorities following the raid, will be sold at auction on the premises Mr. Bandy stated yesterday following his return from Abilene. S. F. Reese was sentenced to serve six months in jail. The court was astounded at the reported size of Reese's plant and inquired if it was incorporated.

PEOPLE OF U. S. VICTIMS OF TOO MUCH TAXATION

Inefficient Office Holders Held Responsible for Increasing Economic Burden.

(Theodore Williams in Leslie's Weekly.)

Discussion of the subject of taxation was never less academic, nor more timely, practical and urgent than it is today. Few of us have realized how very tax-ridden the American people are. Everywhere the tax gatherer is eating into their substance, diminishing their means of subsistence and depriving them of the sinews of enterprise. The consequence is that all over the land the taxpayers are murmuring and in a mood of revolt against a condition for which inefficient public servants are held largely responsible.

Statisticians tell us that for every family of five in Massachusetts the tax total averages $557 and in New York state $535 per year. This is astounding and almost appalling. Many will term this is the peak of plunder under the guise of the law. The situation in several of the other states, if not quite so bad, is plentifully depressing, and to add to the blackness of the prospect it is promised that, in most sections of the country, the taxes will be increased and not lessened during the next few years.

Local Taxes Also Mounting

In our cities local taxes have been bloating rapidly since prewar days. The amount levied on property in New York city is now $60 more per family than in 1914, in Chicago $70 more and in Philadelphia nearly $100 more. But that sort of thing has not been going on in the larger cities alone.

This showing is typical of the smaller towns also, census figures disclosing in them a large increase in the expense of administering their affairs. Villages and rural districts suffer similarly and their taxpayers have as good cause to complain as have the residents in more populous communities.

Abuses of taxation have reached the dimensions of an epidemic. It may be argued that a greater part of the public obligations of country districts, cities, states and nation were unavoidably or wisely contracted and the payment of interest and principal of these cannot be avoided.

So far as such an assertion is true (as it is in the case of our national government, which had to fight a great war) no blame can be attached to the creators of taxes.

But it is a notorious fact that those who legislate for the people too often ignore sound business principles and the public weal. Too much politics, too much catering to special interests and too much initiating of unnecessary public projects account for a vast deal of the present oppressive levies.

COOLIDGE TO ADDRESS PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY

By Associated Press.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 20.—Vice President Calvin Coolidge arrived here at 6:50 p. m. today to address a mass meeting sponsored by the board of education of the Presbyterian general assembly tomorrow evening at the coliseum.

The invitation to speak was sent the vice president by Edward T. Hill, general secretary of the Presbyterian board of education, who requested him to talk on Christian education. So far, Coolidge has no other speaking engagements for his 36-hour stay here.

Commissioners this afternoon expressed pleasure at the communication from the Southern Presbyterian assembly at Charleston, W. Va., which appears to weigh for closer relations and perhaps ultimately the union between the two branches. Efforts at reconciliation between the northern and southern Presbyterians have been a recurring feature of each year's general assemblies since the split of the church caused by the civil war. There has been a gradual, almost imperceptible drawing together, especially during the recent years, each year's effort at rapprochement falling just short of accomplishment. The slight difference in the name of the two branches often leads to confusion. The northern church is known as the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America while the southern is called the Presbyterian Church in the United States. The northern branch has been gradually extending its activities and there are a considerable number of congregations south of the Mason-Dixon line.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 20.—Commissioners and ruling elders of the southern Presbyterian church tonight were awaiting with interest word from Reformed churches and the northern assembly regarding the action today of the southern general assembly in adopting a resolution promoting church unity.

AMERICA'S FOREMOST NAVAL EXPERT WILL RETIRE TO FARM

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Capt. John G. Deuret was nominated today by President Harding to be chief naval constructor and chief of the bureau of construction and repairs of the navy department, with the rank of rear admiral. The nomination of Deuret to one of the most important offices in the navy department, foreshadows the retirement of Rear Admiral David W. Taylor, who has been chief of the bureau for more than eight years and who is understood to have asked for leave from July to the date in December when he will be eligible for retirement by reason of continued service of more than thirty-five years. He will retire to his farm in Virginia.

The retirement of Admiral Taylor marks the passing from the active naval service of one of the most distinguished technical experts in the navy service.

Among the naval architects of the world, Admiral Taylor is generally accorded a place not easily to be filled and it is generally admitted that his genius is more largely reflected in the design of the battle craft of all navies today than that of any other single individual in the world.

During the war Admiral Taylor practically controlled the letting of contracts for hundreds of millions of dollars in new naval ships, including the thirty-five-knot destroyers built for the purpose of crushing the German submarine attack. Under his bureau also was developed the monster seaplane NC-4, which flew across the Atlantic.

NEWARK, May 20.—There is some consolation in being poor, according to Frederick L. Hoffman, third vice president and actuary of an insurance company.

PET HEN INSISTS ON LAYING EGGS ON TABLE

YORK, Pa., May 20.—A pet hen owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Laucks of Red Lion, delivered an egg a day and has for several weeks to the kitchen table of the Laucks home.

This pet chicken discovered the kitchen door ajar one morning and she slipped in, flew up on the table, and, scratching together several pieces of paper, deposited a beautiful white egg. Then with slight notice, informing her mistress, who was in the yard hanging up clothes, the hen slipped from the house and went about her daily routine of gathering food.

Since her first effort, the door has been left open, and when Mrs. Laucks forgets to do so, the hen cackles for some member of the family to open the door. A cushion has been provided for the nest.

MARYLAND WETS WAGE FIGHT ON SENATOR FRANCE

BALTIMORE, Md., May 20.—The United States Senatorial fight in Maryland is becoming more muddled every day due to the fact that candidates have begun to announce and at the same time are lining up with either the wet or dry factions.

Congressman John Phillip Hill, republican, a pronounced dry, is the latest to bob up and will announce his candidacy for the United States senate next week. A few months ago the possibility of Mr. Hill as the republican nominee for the senate was discussed, but he waded it aside. Recently, however, a strong sentiment has developed in favor of Mr. Hill and he has reconsidered.

Joseph I. France, republican incumbent, is a dry. He and Mr. Hill are expected to have a lively fight in the primaries.

Mr. Hill's opposition to the Volstead law and his steady efforts to overcome it have won for him more than a local reputation. He now has a bill before congress designed to lessen what he characterizes as the Anti-Saloon League's hold upon the nation. In a speech in Baltimore recently Mr. Hill delivered a scathing attack upon the Volstead act, the Anti-Saloon League and Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the prohibitionists. His address is said to have added greatly to his political strength.

WANTED SERVICE!

GOSHEN, Ind., May 20.—J. H. Monroe, 26 years old, contemplating a trip east, stood in the path of the Twentieth Century Limited today, waved his arms and brought the train to a halt here. Monroe, the engineer said, climbed aboard behind the tender and shouted, "Let's go!"

He was put off but repeated the performance when the second section of the train came along. Then railroad detectives arrived. He was arrested and held for investigation.

Real Movie Thriller Will Be Staged at Ft. Worth Pageant

FORT WORTH, May 20.—Beginning May 27 and continuing for twelve days, Fort Worth will stage one of the most brilliant entertainments that has ever been attempted by any Texas city. It has been named the "Pageant of Progress," and according to those who are directing it, it will be a most progressive step in civic entertainment.

There will be a multiplicity of attractions, housed under a gigantic carvas. Bathing girls and artist's models will pose for the esthetic and so the most popular will go a prize of $200. A circus with some of the highest priced acts obtainable will occupy one end of the more than two acres of the tented city. At the other end will be a rodeo under the personal direction of "Texas Bud," who has in his corral some of the wildest equines remaining of the fading West. To the daring riders will go cash prizes totaling $5,000. In addition, gold buckles will be awarded those who the judges proclaim the most daring and intrepid riders who ever mounted a wilder horse or a wilder steer.

The special features will be a free outside aerial performance brought from St. Louis, New York and Paris at a cost of $15,400. Another feature will be the slack wire performance of Nina Parsons, who twice daily takes life into her own hands, smiling at the grim monster of death, eluding his wrath, escaping his clutch and with the abandon of her line lands safe and sound to the shuddering shouts of the many who have acclaimed this petite child of the tan-bark the last word in wire walking.

The bathing girls and artists models will be selected from the fairest dozen of society girls, who have agreed to lend their efforts to help for the reason the exposition is for the benefit of the Fort Worth police band, than which there is no better. The funds derived from the pageant will be expended in taking the fifty-two-piece band to San Francisco in July so as to be in attendance at the international convention of the Police Chiefs of America.

The outstanding attraction of the pageant will be the novel and thrilling climax in which the police will be the leading characters. The scene is laid in the underworld. Dips, snowbirds, second-story men, gunmen, govhoads and the motley array of derelicts for which the lower stratum is noted will be there, a common rendezvous for the gentry who comprise the submerged tenth, scarlet sisters will mingle with their paramours, the sinuous Apache dance to the strains of seductive music will be danced. The alarm has sounded at headquarters that a battle between the habitues of the dive has occurred, the drag-net is set. The lights go out, the cry of "bulls" is shrieked from the darkness. A squad of real Fort Worth policemen break in. Flitting features and red gun fire and all the melodramatic atmosphere of a Blaney will be produced. A cry of fire will bring the fire department to the scene, when the spectacular work of rescuing those trapped will be performed by a crack squad of firemen. Rehearsals that have been held show the performance to be most realistic and provides a thrill a minute.

MEDIUMS FOOL A. CONAN DOYLE, HOUDINI SAYS

NEW YORK, May 20.—When it comes to mediums there is no one living who has had more experience than Harry Houdini, late of Appleton, Wis. As he himself admits, there was only one man who knew more about them than he did—Dean Harry Kellar, who died more than a month ago, Says Karl K. Kitchen, in the New York World.

"There isn't anything that any medium or groups of mediums have done that I can't do under the same circumstances," said Houdini, with becoming modesty, recently at a luncheon of the Dutch Treat club.

"In fact I'll give them a mile's start and catch up with them. I have attended several thousand seances in my life. I have investigated practically every well known medium in the world. And I don't hesitate to say they are all practice frauds and that only the most childlike can accept their revelations seriously."

Not for a moment does this astute showman criticize Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Sir Oliver Lodge or any others of their belief. Houdini is convinced of their absolute sincerity. He merely states in his humble opinion they are mistaken in what they have seen, and, what is worse, that in their eagerness to believe they are imposed upon by unscrupulous tricksters.

"Five or six of us magicians working together can fool the greatest scientists in the world," he went on, away. All seven are dead and bur-

"because sceptics are the most easily fooled. That is one reason why I have never been fooled—I am not a sceptic. I am willing to believe—if I can be convinced."

"I made several compacts with close friends to give me a message of some kind after they had passed away. All seven are dead and buried, but I have not had a single message.

"How do the mediums work? you ask. They're tipped off what to say. And as for ectoplasm—they simply regurgitate."

Of the 588,618 civilian employees of the U. S. government, 62,822 are in Washington, D. C.

GASOLINE AND OIL.

Gasoline, 30 cents.
That is the sign that will soon appear at Ranger filling stations, according to predictions.

In one camp there is woe, in another rejoicing. The first is composed of fellows who run an automobile and do not like to pay 33 1-3 per cent more for the juice with which to rack his back over chugholes.

Then there is the oil man!
One of these gentry had the nerve to rejoice in the increase—and at the same time say that a cut in crude was to follow it. Whatever his line of reasoning may be, he figured it was a good thing for the oil fields.
Most of them, however, expect crude to advance, along with gasoline.

Such an occurrence, of course, would be of undoubted benefit to the entire community. Money drives drills down, and the more money that can be visioned in the bowels of the earth, the more dollars are going to be spent in trying to bring it to the surface.

If high priced gasoline means higher priced oil, then Rangerites and Ranger's neighbors can well afford to grin in chorus every time the quotation goes up. And that is generally what it means. Gasoline goes up before oil does, just as certainly as oil tumbles before gasoline. When Ranger was producing $3.50 oil, it paid up to 35 cents for gasoline and didn't murmur.

The oil situation hereabouts—active drilling—is decidedly looking up.
What will it do with several boosts in the price?

But if crude stays down, why, sic 'em, Daugherty.

Chiefs of Unions Held in Chicago Labor War

The leaders of Chicago unions, arrested on the charge of murder in connection with the labor war that followed the Landis wage award, lost their first court fight and have demanded early trials. Among them are: Fred Mader and "Big Tim" Murphy, president of the Gas House Workers' union, is under conviction for mail robbery and has been arrested scores of times. The photograph, taken in court, shows Mrs. Fred Mader and Mrs. Tim Murphy, while at the extreme left are Detective Sergeant Quinn, Fred Mader and Murphy. Standing is Detective Sergeant Cartan, in charge of the prisoners.

BIG TULLOS GUSHER SETTLES TO 500; ONLY ONE DRY HOLE ON LEASE

Special to the Times.
CADDO, May 20.—The Mid-Kansas company's Tullus No. 8, sensation of North Central Texas a week ago, when it came in for a production of 5,000 barrels, has settled down to 500 barrels daily, which is in line with other producers on the lease.
However, it is regarded by its owners as a good well, on what has proven to be an exceptionally good lease.
The Tullus lease has been a consistent producer for three years, and during that time there has been only one dry hole drilled on it.

Well No. 1 was drilled in during the first part of June, 1919, making 250 barrels, natural, flowing by heads. After about three weeks, this well was shot into increased production, making about 700 barrels. At the time the shot was put in the entire string of six-inch casing was pulled and after the well was shot, it was never run in again until about five months ago. This well continued to flow through the eight-inch casing and a thousand feet of open hole for two years and a half before it was cleaned out and the six-inch casing run. At this time, this well is still flowing 110 barrels.

No. 2 was drilled in shortly after No. 1, and is still flowing. At the present time it is only flowing about ten barrels, but the company is preparing to clean out. Six months ago, when it was last cleaned out, it increased its flow to 139 barrels, and it will undoubtedly increase its flow when it is cleaned out again.

No. 3 has been plugged, as the lime was so hard they were unable to shoot this well into production. This is the only well on the lease that is dry.

No. 4 came in during February,

1921, at 250 barrels flush production after a shot. This well has been a steady producer, and is today flowing 100 barrels.

No. 5 came in on May 3, 1921, at 180 barrels natural. After a shot it increased its flow to 1,785 barrels.

The settled production from this well is 350 barrels, which it is still making.

No. 6 was drilled in on Feb. 20, 1922, and after a shot made 85 barrels. At the present time this well is on the tubing, with an anchor packer, and is flowing 40 barrels.

No. 7 is full of oil with a fishing job on.

No. 9 is rigging up.

No. 10 has a rig going up now.
It is expected that the company will make several new locations on the lease immediately.

DALLAS DURBAR IS MARDI GRAS OF SOUTHWEST

By United Press.

DALLAS, May 20.—Starting with special musical services in churches and music conservatories, Dallas will throw open its doors Sunday, May 21, to one of the most pretentious entertainments ever undertaken in the Southwest—the Southwest Durbar. The Durbar will be a new form of celebration.

The whole idea of the Durbar is novel. Many cities have their music festivals; others their athletic carnivals, while still others specialize in purely theatrical entertainments. The Durbar combines all these features with others into one week of fun and entertainment.

The Durbar proposes to begin with a giant street parade Monday. Included in the line of march will be forty visiting bands, in addition to local bands numbering more than a score. In the afternoon in the stadium at Fair park will be held a hand contest for purses of more than $1,700. The bands will give a concert in which more than a thousand musicians will take part.

A feature that has attracted unusual interest is the rodeo. Purses of more than $10,000 are expected to attract the "elite" of cowpunching society. The prizes offered by Tom Burnett of the old Triangle ranch are the largest ever offered in a like contest. Entertainment to appeal to all tastes will be offered. For music lovers the opera "Martha" will be given on the evening of May 23. This opera will be presented in concert with a chorus of 700. The principal parts will be taken by well known artists. Another concert will be given Thursday.

The most thrilling attraction for which arrangements have been made is the aero contest. This is the first one of its magnitude held in the Southwest and one of the few legitimate air meets held in America. More than thirty "aces" will pilot biplanes and monoplanes in looping the loop, altitude climbs, tall spins and other thrilling stunts.

Railroads have authorized a rate of one and one-half fares for the round trip.

Everywhere a spirit of "Mardi Gras" will hold forth and for a week the city will be given over to the legions of fun.

FORD ALMOST FIRED!

DETROIT, Mich., May 20.—Henry Ford once nearly was fired.

The time once was when the world's richest man worked for a salary and he didn't please his boss "so much," as is attested by a memorandum in the possession of Alex Dow, head of the Detroit Edison company, and one of the most cherished documents of that person.

When Henry Ford first came to Detroit more than 30 years ago, he went to work for the Detroit Edison company, then in its infancy, as an engineer, while at the same time he experimented with a "gas wagon" as it was then called. And this same "gas wagon" was the "fly" in the ointment for his bosses.

"Fire Ford if he can't devote less time to that dam 'gas wagon.'"

Today Dow often sits in his office and chuckles at this note and wonders just what the world would have missed if the Edison company had carried out its intention.

OHIO JUDGE TO LET WIND DECIDE HIS CANDIDACY

AKRON, Ohio, May 20.—Winds of Ohio in reality will decide for Municipal Judge A. F. O'Neil whether or not he will run for the democratic nomination for governor or for the nomination for United States Senator, according to an announcement.

O'Neil will ride in a balloon made by an Akron factory and drift with the winds. If the wind lands him in Ohio he will look upon it as an omen that he is to run for governor. If the winds carry him outside of Ohio he will look upon this as an augury that he is sought outside the state of Ohio and therefore will enter the race for United States senatorship. The Judge refused to make any comment as to what he would do if by chance the winds should carry him over the lake into Canada, where prohibition has not made itself felt.

It was a similar announcement which placed Judge O'Neil in the race for the United States senatorship in the last election.

At that time the judge announced that if he ran he would make his campaign by airship.

Princess Fatima is now being supported by the British consul. She arrived July 8, 1921. No announcement was made yesterday of her future program.

To the People of Eastland County:

In announcing my candidacy for the office of County Attorney, I desire to say that, having acted as assistant in that office, I am familiar with the duties of the County Attorney and the many problems confronting him in that office. I invite a full consideration of my stand for law enforcement while connected with that office and as a private citizen. I realize what the people of Eastland County demand from this office and know that a man who has at any time compromised himself with the faction in Eastland County that stands for open gambling and whisky selling and other violations of the law is handicapped in that office and cannot enforce the law satisfactorily. I have stood for law enforcement in the past, am standing for law enforcement now, and will stand for law enforcement in the future. Experience has taught me that a man in an office of this kind takes the same stand for law enforcement after he gets into office that he has taken prior to being elected. I invite the closest investigation of my official record as well as of my private life, and I promise the people of Eastland County to use conscientiously and fearlessly every effort to enforce the law in our county and especially as against the organized clique of law violators who in the past have openly run gambling houses and saloons in our county and who are now openly defying any officer who is attempting to do his duty. I am against the officer who will in any manner compromise with these law violators, and when elected I promise to prosecute these officers at any available opportunity. I do not believe in the County Attorney's office of Eastland County trying to throw the blame for failure to get convictions on any other office in Eastland County, but if any other office or officer interferes with and prevents the proper enforcement of law I believe it the County Attorney's duty to tell the people that fact. I don't believe in too much harmony in the court house of Eastland County where such harmony is secured at a sacrifice of law enforcement. If I am elected to this office and have the reasonable support of the other enforcement officers, and the law enforcement program of Eastland County continues as it has since the oil boom came I shall not embarrass my friends and the other good citizens of the county who stand for law enforcement by asking for another term of office.

I am against the County Attorney of Eastland County making any agreement with law violators when he cannot openly face a jury and tell them of that agreement as the criminal is being tried, and I pledge myself never to make any agreement that would restrict the amount of punishment that a jury of this county, after hearing the facts in the case, should impose. I am against any court house clique in Eastland County that seeks to perpetuate itself in office, and I am glad to say that I have the active opposition of that set of politicians who have been imposing upon the people of this county in the recent past.

DIAMOND FATIMA HELD AT $300,000 BRINGS ONLY $5,500 AT AUCTION

NEW YORK, May 20.—The Darya-Noor diamond, for which the Princess Fatima expected $300,000 which is said to have adorned the peacock throne of Alexander the Great and which stood out in its 44-carat glory from the turban of the princess until it was seized recently by the Government to satisfy various liens, was sold at public auction for $5,500.

The government's claim for duty amounted to $1,400, and other claims brought the total to $5,364, making the princess richer after the sale yesterday by $136.

Princess Fatima, who came here with high hopes, expecting that the proceeds of the sale of the historic jewel would be sufficient to put her three sons through Oxford university, was not present when Auctioneer Henry Brady knocked down the heirloom. Azim, Hashim and Akber, the sons, were present.

John E. Keim made the high bid. The diamond may soon decorate a Fifth avenue showcase, for Mr. Keim is said to represent Tiffany's.

Following his bid half an hour was allowed Mr. Keim to return with a certified check, but before going away he nonchalantly tossed a package to the auctioneer as security. It contained what he said was a diamond worth more than the one he had bought.

A lawyer for Princess Fatima said she owed a jeweler $2,179 and $108 and $177 respectively to two hotels and $500 to her former attorney.

ADVICE ON FOOD IS OFFERED BOTH FATS AND LEANS

With the raisin growers inquiring into our "iron," the yeast manufacturers inquiring into our "vitamines," and the beauty specialist advocating water and the vegetarian preaching against meat, the path of the poor mortal in search of nutritious food is beset with uncertainty, according to Miss Helen Gillette, Red Cross worker of Eastland county, who is organizing nutrition classes here for adults, particularly women.

Miss Gillette plans to hold a large meeting next Wednesday, at which time she will organize special classes for the overweights and underweights of Ranger and prescribe a diet for each particular case. Miss Gillette's adult work is part of the program sponsored by the Child Welfare club of this city. She will spend Wednesday of each week here.

With the advocates of raising for "iron" yeast for "vitamines," water for beauty and a vegetable diet for health in general, scattering their advertisements through the current magazines and newspaper, "what is a poor mortal to do?" Miss Gillette inquires.

It is to help with some of these questions, Miss Gillette states, that the Red Cross is offering courses in food selection and nutrition under the instruction of registered dietitians. For the present Miss Gillette is holding meetings at 4 o'clock every Wednesday afternoon at the First Baptist church.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE VIOLENCE IN COUNTY

WAR VETS LOSE VOICES FROM GAS EFFECTS

DALLAS, May 20.—Poison gas inhaled by American soldiers in France is beginning to show its effects by causing service men to lose their voices, according to a report made by the United States Veterans' bureau to the various department headquarters of the American legion. The bureau has asked Texas headquarters of the legion to inform gassed veterans whose ability to speak is becoming impaired to report to the nearest bureau physician for examination.

The first operation for this disease was on Brigadier General Roy V. Hoffman, Oklahoma City, Okla., attorney, who practically lost his voice. General Hoffman's voice is now completely restored as a result of the operation. The legion is asked to spread the information and to get service men suffering from a growing inability to speak to go before veterans' bureau doctors for prompt examination. If the case warrants, the bureau announces, former soldiers will be sent east for operations.
