HOUSEWRIGHT ENTERTAINS BOY SCOUTS

Has Them As His Guests for Dinner, Then Takes Them To Picture Show.

At 8 o'clock troop No. 1, Ranger Boy Scouts, 30 strong, assembled at the Methodist church and marched in a body to the Gholson hotel where they were entertained for the evening by Mr. W. W. Housewright, a member of the Ranger Rotary club which is sponsoring the scout movement in Ranger.

Senior Patrol Leader Jack Sanderson returned thanks at the beginning of the very enjoyable four-course dinner, which included ice cold watermelon and ice cream, and a toast to Mr. Housewright was proposed by Patrol Leader Richard Alworth.

Address to Boys. At the conclusion of the business session, Mr. Housewright spoke to the boys on "Keep Clean and Be Progressive," in which he gave the boys many good suggestions for being better men when they grow up. He stressed the fact that most smokers only smoke from force of habit and that if the habit is never formed there is no need for smoking. He said that most conscientious business men would not employ a man who drinks because they realize how receptive his mind is to temptation, and that cheating is worse than murder because it is always premeditated. He urged that to be progressive one should never be satisfied with his position, should always remember that he is as good as anyone else and should so live that he could always conscientiously maintain that position, and he should always, at all times, be a man.

Mr. Housewright stated that to every Boy Scout who was present, who would, within the next few days, send him a letter telling, as nearly as they remembered, just what he said in his discourse, he would give a Confederate Memorial half dollar which has recently been issued by the government, and which sells for one dollar, the proceeds to be used in the construction of the Titanic carvings on Stone Mountain in Georgia.

To terminate the very pleasant evening the scouts were escorted to the Lambs theatre by Mr. Housewright, where they enjoyed the evening's program.

Plan Swimming Party. Directly after the dinner, the scouts held a brief business session in which they decided to meet at the Methodist church next Friday evening, 7:6 o'clock to go on a swimming party, after which they will go to Eastland and visit the Boy Scouts there. Plans for the Fourth of July were discussed and the scouts are going to do all in their power to make that day an enjoyable and memorable one.

WORK ON WELL SPICER NO. 1 SUSPENDED

Showing of Gas and Oil Indicates Resumption Soon; Depths of Other Wells

Work on the Spicer No. 1 well of the States Oil corporation and Corzelli brothers in the Carter-Barkley pool about seven miles north-west of Ranger, has been temporarily suspended at a depth of 3,480 feet, at which level there was a good showing of gas and a slight showing of oil, but it may be resumed at any time. It is understood that some hitch has developed with reference to the lease which it is desired to straighten out before the well is brought in.

While the known limits of the pool are now confined to the immediate area about the Pritchard No. 1 of Barkley and associates and the several wells brought in by Barney Carter and his partners, there is an unproved territory of about one mile to the westward where drilling is now in progress, and the indications there are said to be promising.

Drilling of wells that extend in a line in a southerly course from the Carter-Langford wells is progressing rather slowly, according to reports. The various depths so far of most of the wells are reported as follows:

- Barney Carter-Thomson's Langford No. 4, 700 feet.
Barney Carter's Fambrough No. 1, 700 feet.
Barkley et al. Pritchard No. 2, 2,825 feet.
Pritchard No. 3, 2,800 feet.
Hart, Hickey and Carter Pritchard No. 1, 2,300 feet.
Pritchard No. 2, 2,450 feet.
Pritchard No. 3, 1,100 feet.
Pritchard No. 5, 315 feet.
McLester-Carter Pritchard No. 2, 2,740 feet.
Gholson-Desney-Carter Pierce No. 1, 1,300 feet.
States Oil company's Vaughn A, 330 feet.
Vaughn B, rigging.

SHEPHERD GETS SEVERE JOLTS DURING TRIAL

Testimony of Witnesses Puts Bad Mark on Defendant's Record.

Under the highway law, which becomes effective June 18, arrests on the highways for violation of highway traffic laws can only be made by designated highway officers. These officers are to be appointed by the county commissioners' court and are to be paid a straight salary of $150 each per month, together with expenses of himself and motorcycle.

No arresting fees are to be charged. This, it is charged, is to eliminate the possibility of officers making arrests for fees. Traffic officers operating on the highways under the new law will not be allowed to leave the highway except when chasing a law violator. They will also be compelled to wear uniforms and badges and arrests made and information as to violation of the law obtained by the officer hiding or placing traps cannot be used in court.

The law regulating headlights, which also goes into effect June 18, is considered by many as one of the most important laws yet passed by the legislature for the controlling of highway traffic and is to be rigidly enforced, the officers say. County Attorney Barnes stated Saturday morning that the machines for testing headlights had not been received in Eastland county, neither had the garages where tests are to be made been designated.

Cutouts Abolished. Muffler cutouts on cars is strictly forbidden by the terms of the new law going into effect June 18. It is a violation of this law to run a car with the cutout open or to even have one on the car, and parties arrested on charges of this kind will be prosecuted for both offenses.

According to the officers there is to be a general tightening up of all laws regulating highway traffic and an effort made to prevent accidents along the highways which result so often in the loss of life and in a majority of instances cause personal injuries and damages to automobiles.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 13.—The attorney general of Nova Scotia has applied for more troops to be sent to the Cape Breton collieries to quell disorders among the 12,000 striking miners, it was reported today.

With some of the strikers reported armed, the forces are entrenching themselves around the power station at New Waterford.

Objects to Hugging So Uses Knife

Gertrude Williams, 18, Chicago model, is held on a charge of stabbing Samuel Friedman, agent of the building in which she lived. It all happened because he tried to hug her, she says.

NEW HIGHWAY LAW EFFECTIVE NEXT THURSDAY

Headlight Regulations, Elimination of Cutouts Are Two Specific Provisions.

The new highway law, passed by the recent legislature and which goes into effect June 18, along with numerous other laws enacted by the legislature, will be strictly enforced in Eastland county, according to County Attorney W. J. Barnes and the officers whose duty it is to enforce the law.

There are several new laws affecting state highway and motorists, among which is senate bill No. 74, which makes Texas highway regulations conform to the federal regulations, for the purpose of encouraging a continuation of federal aid for highway construction.

AGED COUPLE GETS FORTUNE FROM DAUGHTER

Learn of Inheritance Only After Years of Dire Poverty; Win Court Battle.

J. H. Broadway and wife of Lampasas, Texas, the former 73 years of age, blind and virtually deaf, and the latter about the same age and very feeble, were made happy and given hopes of being able to spend the rest of their years in peace and comfort, Friday, when a jury in the 51st district court returned a verdict in their favor that meant from $30,000 to $50,000 to them.

The case was that of Broadway vs. Miller and involved an interest in the B. F. Eakan estate near Pioneer, on which the original oil wells, opening up the great Pioneer oil field, were drilled some three or four years ago. A son of Eakan had married a daughter of the Broadways long before the Eakan property, in which he had a child's interest, became so valuable with the production of oil.

Both young Eakan and his wife soon died, as did the mother of Eakan, which left the property of the young Eakan and his wife to the parents, J. H. Broadway and wife, of Mrs. Eakan.

The Broadways and the elder Eakans did not know each other and neither B. F. Eakan nor the Broadways knew that they were entitled to any interest in the wealthy Eakan estate, all of them being farmers and not versed in the law. It is alleged in plaintiff's petition that E. J. Miller, a young lawyer of Brownwood, learned of the estate and the interest inherited in it by the Broadways and set out to find them. After a search of a few days Broadway and his wife were found in a little cabin near Lampasas, where the old man was engaged as a day laborer to cut stovewood. Miller, it is alleged, told Broadway and his wife of their inheritance, but concealed from them the value of the estate and secured from them a power of attorney to act for them, by the aid of which they were to give him two-thirds of what he got for them.

As soon as the Eakans learned of the existence of the Broadways and learned that they were entitled to a certain interest in the Eakan estate, they went to work to locate them, which they did. Eakan employed the law firm of Conner & McRae of Eastland to represent him in straightening out the affair, and Broadway and his wife filed suit against Miller to cancel the power of attorney given him, which was done by the terms of the jury's verdict returned in Judge Davenport's court Friday.

Both J. D. McRae and Earl Conner, attorneys for Broadways, made eloquent appeals in their speeches before the jury and more than once during their talks tears were to be seen in the eyes of jurors, as well as in those of many of the spectators.

Manslaughter Charges Follow Woman's Death After Hit By Auto

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 13.—Mrs. Seena Barrett was released today on bond of $2,000 after being held on second degree manslaughter charges, in connection with the death of Miss Helen Melichar.

Miss Melichar died today after being run down by an automobile driven by Mrs. Barrett. Preliminary hearing for Mrs. Barrett was set for June 19.

LITIGATION OVER CRAWFORD ESTATE NOT YET ENDED

DALLAS, June 13.—Further litigation over the settlement of the estate of the late Col. W. L. Crawford, was precipitated here today when Mrs. Lucy Crawford, daughter of Colonel Crawford, filed a motion for rehearing of the case completed a few weeks ago. Mrs. Kate Lester Crawford and her son, William Lester Crawford, are defendants in the suit. The estate, valued at $200,000, passed into the hands of the second wife and her son after several years of litigation, climaxed by the slaying of Paul O'Day, by William Lester Crawford.

Mexicans and Foreign Residents of Mexico Comment on Kellogg's Statement

MEXICO CITY, June 13.—British and American people here, as well as the Mexicans, were much excited by word from Washington that Secretary of State Kellogg had issued a stern warning to the Calles government that American rights in Mexico must be protected. There was much speculation as to what Secretary Kellogg's statement might foreshadow.

Foreign Secretary Aaron Saenz, in an interview with the United Press, said he could not take official cognizance of the statement until it had reached him through official channels. He said that any answer to the statement would come direct from President Calles.

Skiffs, canoes and rowboats floated through the streets. Electric light, water and gas and telephone service went out for the day in the downpour.

POLICE WARNED TO WATCH FOR CONSPIRACY

Anonymous Writer Says Slayings of Jim Daniels May Stir Up Trouble.

Anonymous letters seldom deserve any attention, but occasionally there is one that arouses interest no matter if its credibility is questioned. Leonard Davenport, assistant chief of police of Ranger, received such a letter yesterday. The handwriting would indicate it was written by a woman. It is dated in Ranger, June 12, and was mailed in Ranger the same day. The letter refers to the killing of Police Officer Jim Daniels, several months ago, has no signature, and reads as follows:

"Mr. Leonard Davenport. Dear Sir: I have wanted to tell you something about the killing of Mr. Daniels, but I have been afraid to say anything. The man that killed him are trying to lay it on to somebody else. So if they kill some of the officers they can say he did it.

"The way they do it to talk about it in the presence of a man they think will tell, so you will hear it. Then they say this man is going to kill you. You know what such talk will do if they was to kill you, and that is just what they are going to do if they think they can do it without being caught.

"The man that killed him is in Ranger. There is another man they would like to get out of the way, but I don't know his name, but they are afraid of their finger prints being used and they think this man can use them.

"Now Mr. Davenport, I do hope we won't have any more killing. God knows, we have had enough. Do be careful and don't fall for their plans to stir up animosity, so they can hide their crimes behind another man."

Ever since Officer Daniels was killed, various threats have come to the ears of the officers, and, while most of them are regarded as idle vaporing, due precautions are always taken.

Near Cloudburst at Breckenridge Fills Streets With Water

Breckenridge has been blessed with plenty of rain so far this year but not the kind of rain that the farmers want. The cloudburst that spilled its water over Breckenridge Friday night was only one of the several that have visited the town this year.

Rain started falling early Friday evening and the heaviest rain fell around 8 o'clock, according to some Ranger folks who were caught out in it. The streets were flooded and they were washed from the streets by the force of the downpour. Letting up after a few minutes the rain changed into a hard, steady downpour that added to the water that had already flooded the town and surrounding territory. At one time big hail fell, forcing people and animals to duck for cover.

CALLES WILL REPLY TO WARNING FROM KELLOGG

MEXICO CITY, June 13.—Secretary of State Kellogg's warning to Mexico to maintain order and keep her obligations will be answered soon by President Calles. Unofficial observations show that the Kellogg warning is viewed here as ill-timed and possibly conducive to encountering disgruntled elements in obstructing the government's program.

Storm Friday Night Precedes Heat Wave

Black and threatening clouds that hovered to the northwest of Ranger late Friday afternoon broke over the city and swept down over Eastland county about 9:30 o'clock. For a few minutes the wind blew violently, the thunder pealed and lightning played vividly and then the rain poured down.

But while the rain appeared to be falling in torrents, the total precipitation was less than a half inch. The wind and the lightning did no damage in Eastland county, so far as was learned.

DEATH FORGES HIS WAY INTO SCHOOL HOUSE

Three Killed by Ball of Fire That Comes Down Chimney in Stephens County.

BRECKENRIDGE, June 13.—Three persons were killed and more than a score injured when a ball of lightning shot through a school house during a thunder storm at Pleasant Hill, near here, during the night.

More than 100 persons were assembled in the building, when a ball of fire burst through the chimney, ran across the floor and out through the door.

The dead are: Earl Ledbetter, 22. Mildred Broyles, 13. Harvey Lee Broyles, 11.

The injured: Gwendolyn Broyles, sister of two of the victims. Clyde Perry. Leona McMin.

Annie Dye Broyles. Buddie Richardson. Infant sister of the Broyles victims.

Mrs. Maggie McIntyre, mother of the Broyles children. John Blackburn. Lottie Blackburn.

Albert Thackerston. All the killed and injured were residents of the Pleasant Hill community, about 13 miles south of Breckenridge.

Attending Banquet

Fifty members of the Breckenridge Chamber of Commerce were present to attend a banquet and speaking given by the Boys and Girls clubs of the community for the purpose of raising money to send delegates to A. & M. College short course in July. After the banquet was served on the schoolhouse lawn the crowd went inside the school building to hear speeches.

Just as the last speech was concluded a violent cloudburst accompanied by high wind struck the building. The people nestled together, expecting the building to be blown down. Probably more than 100 persons were crowded into the small building at the time.

R. H. McCarty, editor of the Albany News, who was with the Breckenridge party, gave a vivid account of the accident.

Flaming Ball of Fire

"I had just moved from in front of the stove, over to the side of the building when the bolt struck," he said. "If I had not moved I would have been directly in its path of the bolt and probably would have been killed."

"The first intimation we had was a violent thunder clap. Then the lightning apparently came down the stove pipe and exploded in the stove. I then could see a big flaming ball traveling toward the door on the east side of the building. Every person in its path was injured, the three killed being first in its path.

"The utmost confusion reigned for a time. The rainfall was continuing, but a few cool persons took charge of the situation, stopping the incipient panic, persuading the people to remain standing where they were to avoid the trampling of women and children, and then the rescue work was begun.

Injured Cared For

"The dead were carried to one side and the injured were taken right out in the rain where resuscitation efforts were begun. Others entered automobiles and drove through the pitch darkness and blinding downpour 13 miles to Breckenridge for aid.

"Strangely, every person seriously injured lived in the community."

As the bolt struck the building was enveloped in darkness which added to the confusion.

Scores of oil tanks were blown down by the wind which, accompanied by a rainstorm, swept over the country.

Saturday, following the storm, dawned warm and kept getting warmer all the day. Thermometers at 3 o'clock in the afternoon registered between 107 and 110 degrees in the shade. But it was dry heat, a cool breeze blew and none suffered.

DALLAS, June 13.—Heat records for the season were smashed when the mercury climbed to 99. The previous mark was 96. A heavy shower brought relief late in the afternoon.

BIBLE THOUGHT
 For thou, Lord, will bless the righteous; with favor wilt thou compass him as with a shield.—Psalms 5:12.

FATHER.
 The mix-up of the dates for the national observance of Father's day has been definitely settled for June 21.

At Christmas time we go about wishing every one a merry Christmas and best wishes for a happy New Year. On Mother's day we acknowledge the fact that her life is one eternal sacrifice to her children. But there's father.

Nobody notices father any more than they would a battered old cash register that was only good for a touch when you needed it. Many a dad has grown despondent and a little bitter as he looks at his children to whom he has given his very life's blood and who give him very little in return. Everything he makes goes to the family. Took on extra work to send the boys and girls through college. He may be a little shabby but the girls have new party frocks.

Life isn't very gay for him. Just a treadmill back and forth from office to home, over and over again. No romance. No thrill. So far as he can see he is just the children's father and a money-making machine.
 But suppose on this day his wife told him how she appreciated the never-ending work, the never-ending sacrifices he makes to keep her and the children safe in the home nest. He would purr like a cat if his girls would tell him how much they love him, and if the boy would say he was "the best man he ever knew." It would make his heart sing for joy and hedge the rugged path with roses. Surely on this day we might well express our love and appreciation for his thousand acts of kindness to us.

Who is it wears the patch work hose And seldom goes to picture shows, That his girl may have fine clothes, It's Father!

Who is it wears last summer's hat That his boy may be a sporty frat, And thinks it's quite all right at that It's Father!

Who is it buys the bread and meat Who keeps the shoes on all our feet And then gets shoved in a back seat, It's Father!

We've Mother's day and Poppy day, And lots of other holidays, But almost all are labor days, For Father!

Get out his slippers and easy chair Caress and smooth his rumpled hair And let him know you're glad he's there— Your Father!

Today wear a flower red (A white one if the dear soul's dead) And reverently bow your head In thanks for such a Father.

MARY, MARY, HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?
 An esteemed contemporary of recent date, carried a story entitled, "Have I Planted Flowers?" and the story suggests the fact that there was a rumor of a garden, a real flower garden, in fact, a beauty spot, to be planted in Ranger, just back of the Gholson hotel. Upon investigating the growth, or rather the non-growth of the garden, it seems that a number of things have happened to keep this garden from flourishing like a green bay tree.

In the first place, plans for its birth were almost too late for this spring's growth. Then it seems that the ground was tar covered, as some of the forces that laid paving in Ranger, kept their supply of tar stored on this lot, and when they needed a supply would knock in a barrel head, use what they wanted, and leave the rest to trickle on down into the soil, until, in the process of trickling, it had almost given the garden site an asphalt coating. Tons and tons of this had to be removed, which took weeks and weeks of time, during which Old Sol or the spring rains, would not wait on the garden.

When at last it was cleaned off and the ladies of the New Era club, who were mothering this particular spot, could get in there to work without getting tar heels, they discovered there was no water, and although the city duds, or whoever the powers that be in that particular line, were implored to put water there for the thirsty plants, to date the water has not been forthcoming. In the meantime, the garden, has changed its looks considerably. Its clean, and beds have been laid out, and some green trellis work set, and it looks as if somebody cares for it, but it also reminds one that a garden is not like a camel in the matter of going thirty days without water, and the ladies in charge of the garden assert that they are tired of waiting on men to do things, for that the only time in life a man is not late is to his own funeral, and then it's too late to do his widow any good. They feel that naturally the city duds will take the hint and bring relief to the thirsty would-be garden.

The following toast, given at the New Era luncheon, a few weeks ago, and written by Mrs. Allison, expresses just how the New Era club feels about their garden.
 The New Era club garden is but an empty dream,
 "Tell me not in mournful numbers,
 And that the seeds are dead, not sleeping,
 And the trees are not what they seem."

HONORING TULSA VISITOR.
 In compliment to Miss Margaret Armer of Tulsa, who is a guest at the Armer home, Mr. and Mrs. George Armer entertained several couples Friday evening at their home on Page street. It was an informal affair, with dancing to while away the hours. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following guests: Misses Geneva and Margaret Armer, Faye Nixon, Mrs. Lena Hight, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Van Dorn, Messrs. Doyle.

SWIMMING PARTY.
ENJOYABLE PICNIC AND
 Most every evening finds some crowd hitching themselves away to some delectable spot for a picnic and a swim. On Friday evening a number of Ranger young folks chose Lake Cisco for their outing and enjoyed a long swim, followed by a bountiful picnic lunch. The party included: Misses Callie Sue Morris, Emma Stevens, Iva Mae and Louetta Hannah, Mable Knight, Messrs. John Tibble, Dewey Jones, Irwin Aikin, W. G. Anderson, Dr. McCorkle, Virgil Dominipue.

XXTH CENTURY CLUB.
 The meeting of the Twentieth Century Club, Friday, with Mrs. Sanders Gregg, at her home on Pine street, was one of the most enjoyable card club meetings of the week. It was a morning affair, starting at 9:30 and terminating with luncheon. A great profusion of Shasta daisies, grown at the home of one of the club members, furnished the floral decorations. The games resulted in the high score favor going to Mrs. John Thurman, the low score to Mrs. Frank Champion and the guest prize to Mrs. Marvin Echols, of Nagadoches. Those present were: Mesdames G. C. Barkley, Walter Burden, Frank Brown, W. D. Conway, Frank Champion, E. L. McMillen, William Love, E. J. Wiss, Chas. Walts, M. L. Holland, Marvin Echols of Nagadoches, John Thurman.

 The next meeting will be with Mrs. M. L. Holland, June 26.

BIBLE SCHOOL PICNIC.
 Passers by the Rotary park on Main street on Friday afternoon had to stop and look at the happy crowd of children and adults enjoying a picnic. This was the picnic given by those behind the Vacation Bible Study Classes, and there were about two hundred present. The children brought with them refreshments of fruit and sandwiches and these were supplemented with other goodies, which the ladies passed around in baskets to the children as they sat on the grass. A picture was made of the happy picnickers.
 This picnic is another very visible effort of the part of the churches to help the children find their social life in the church and with the church people.

MRS. THURMAN TO ENTERTAIN THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB.
 Mrs. John Thurman will entertain the Thursday Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Cherry street, at 1:30 o'clock, honoring her sister, Mrs. Marvin Echols of Nagadoches.

Mr. Martin states that he hopes to live in Ranger a long time.

Harkrider, Beverly Dudley, John Thurman, Saunders Gregg, J. T. Gullahorn, E. E. Crawford, R. W. Thomas.

HE IS SEVEN.
 There is a poem somewhere that starts "I'm seven times today," and these lines expressed the age of little James Bronson Jr., when his mother, Mrs. J. A. Bronson, entertained a number of his little friends in honor of the happy event, Friday afternoon, at the family home on Young street.
 The children played games on the lawn until the afternoon's shadows began to lengthen, when the hostess served them dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake. In memory of the day, the little host was the happy recipient of many lovely gifts from his little guests. Those who helped him celebrate his seventh birthday were: Edward, Tenks and Ruby Bishop, Sonny Dudley, Junior Dyer, Betty Sullivan, Mildred, Jane, Jimmie and Jack Journey, John Dee and Charles Henry Ford, Kathleen Elliott, Junior, Finona, Orceca and Kenneth Nanny, Fay, Jessie, G. W. and Bernice Long, Leano and Gordon Strawn.

PLAN POPPY SALE.
 The ladies' auxiliary of the American Legion will hold a poppy sale, July Fourth, in connection with their other activities of that day. They will also take charge of an advance sale of tickets for the events scheduled here for the Fourth. They will be assisted in this work by the High school girls of Ranger.
 The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be Wednesday, July 1, but in all probability there will be a called meeting before that date.

CLASSES IN NURSING TO BE RESUMED.
 Those who had the privilege of attending the free classes in home nursing given by Miss Faye Nixon, last summer, will be glad to learn that these classes will start again on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. They will be held on the mezzanine floor of the Guaranty bank building, where they were held last year, and they are absolutely free, this work being a part of Miss Nixon's service. Every woman in Ranger who can possibly spare the time should take advantage of this course, as it is an unusual opportunity to learn home nursing correctly. There will be three lessons a week—Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

 The girls' home nursing classes started some two weeks ago, these classes are for the high school and the graded school girls, and the classes are well attended and doing nicely. Apropos of this subject, it seems that when one can get training in so kindly and needful profession, one should take advantage of it.

RANGER ELKS PLANNING DANCE WEDNESDAY NIGHT
 Plans are being made for a very delightful time at the Ranger Elks' dance, Wednesday evening. Jack Gardner, himself, will have charge of the orchestra and lovers of good music know just what that means. Electric fans galore will keep the dancing hall cool, so no one need stay home on account of the heat.
 Folks from all parts of the oil belt are expected at this dance.

W. F. Savage, a former resident of Ranger, but who is now living in Austin, is a business visitor in Ranger. Mr. Savage was formerly connected with the Ranger Garage company.
 O. D. Dillingham will leave Sunday by automobile for a business trip to New Mexico. He will be out of the city for several days.

SINGING MEET NEXT SUNDAY IN EASTLAND
 Will Continue Through Sunday; Entertainment of Big Crowd Is Planned.

Plans for taking care of the large crowds expected in Eastland next Saturday and Sunday on the occasion of the meeting here of the T-P sunshine district singing convention, composed of a large number of counties surrounding Eastland county, will be completed early this week and everything will be in readiness for the convention next Saturday morning, according to Judge R. L. Rust, president of the convention.
 Committees appointed by Judge Rust and the Eastland Chamber of Commerce have been busy the last few days obtaining funds and making arrangements for the housing and feeding of the delegates, and for feeding the crowd Sunday at the noon hour. The citizens of Eastland, and especially the business firms that have been approached, have been very liberal, members of the committee say, and by the time the canvass has been completed sufficient funds for taking care of the convention expenses will have been collected, it is stated.

Judge Rust and S. C. Hunt, who have taken the most active part in working up an interest in the convention, are very enthusiastic over the reports from over the country as to the number of singers that expect to be here. Practically every singer of note and the publishers of many music books and periodicals have written or otherwise advised that they will be on hand and that they will bring their best quartets with them.
 Just where the convention will be held and where luncheon will be served Sunday will be announced within the next day or so, it is stated.

Wholesale houses of Cisco and Ranger, or at least some of them, would furnish coffee for the occasion, have told the committee that they ion.

Terrific Storms Take Toll of Life In Middle States
 By United Press.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Terrific wind and electrical storms throughout a wide section of the middle west were blamed today for at least four deaths. Many persons were injured and much property damage was reported, many wires also being blown down.
 Spectacular storms were reported last night in Wisconsin and Northern Illinois, following a heat wave that a few hours before had caused scores of prostrations. Wind, driving at a pace of 60 miles an hour, rashed gigantic waves in Lake Michigan, carrying more than a dozen small crafts far off shore.
 In Wisconsin, one person was killed by the storm, which apparently was an aftermath to a tornado which swept Southern Minnesota the night before. Flood waters in Minnesota, which accompanied the high wind, were reported below the danger point today, but damage to farm lands and crops will total about one-half million dollars, it is estimated.

ENGLAND'S GREATEST FORTUNE WITH A PEERAGE ADDED WAS FOUNDED ON SOAP FACTORY

By CLIFFORD L. DAY,
 United Press Staff Correspondent.
 LONDON—England's counterpart of Henry Ford is dead.

His life was one of the most amazing business careers of modern times. At 17 he was a grocery clerk. At 73 he had amassed a colossal fortune, running into hundreds of millions of dollars.

One thousand directors were proud to sit on the boards of his many corporations.
 Born at William H. Lever, son of a humble Lancashire tradesman, he died Viscount Leverhulme, soap king of the world.

His motto was "hard work," his goal was achievement, and his monument is success as represented by a commercial octopus whose tentacles extend to all the far corners of the earth.
 The secret of his success was courage, combined with foresight, industry and skill. He was a living example of the fact that mastery of self is the greatest qualification for leadership.

If cleanliness be akin to godliness, then Lord Leverhulme might have claimed that among the tens of millions in all latitudes numbered among his customers he performed beneficial if not noble work.
 As head of the firm of Lever Brothers he gave the United Kingdom a larger export trade in soap to neutral markets than that of any other three nations in the world combined.

Today, with a share of debenture stock approximating $25,000,000, or which a large proportion was held by Leverhulme himself, Lever Brothers are able to boast an annual net profit of nearly $30,000,000.
 Under the co-partnership scheme inaugurated by the late viscount, about $10,000,000 worth of shares are owned by workmen employees of the firm. In the last 15 years these profit-sharing laborers have received nearly $10,000,000 in dividends over and above wages.
 The company possesses the largest share capital of any British industrial undertaking. The amount authorized is 130,000,000 pounds (approximately $650,000,000).
 Had 200 Companies.
 Its interests embrace over 200 companies in various sections of the globe, and its shareholders exceed 187,000. Eighty-five thousand people, in practically every country in the world, are on its payroll. Twenty-five thousand of them are native blacks in Africa.

And the creator and mainspring of this gigantic machine was the man whose life has just been snuffed out by a few days' illness of bronchial pneumonia.
 While Lord Leverhulme, there could have been no Lever Brothers. It was he, and he alone, who barely 40 years ago laid the foundation of this mammoth undertaking.
 "Intelligence, thought, prudence, self-denial and the exercise of money for high attributes," was in his own words the recipe which made him one of the greatest industrial leaders the world has ever produced.
 Hard-fisted though he was in calculation, he yet came to be known as the ideal capitalist by the manner in which he passed along to his laborers a commensurate share of his winnings.

He had the strange power of electrifying those with whom he worked.
 In many respects Lord Leverhulme closely resembles Henry Ford, of whom he was a great admirer. Dynamic force, defiance of convention, and outspokenness were among his dominant characteristics.
 He was a pioneer in those methods which have shown how it is possible for the human race to attain happiness and prosperity under a system of highly-organized private enterprise.

"One sees in the distant future that every business man who is to be successful will be unselfish as the supremest way of attaining his selfish ends," he said.
Quick Decisions.
 He was a master at snap decisions. His guiding policy always was to depute his authority so that it would not be necessary for him to attend to details and that business could go on without a hitch if he were absent. Hardly a year passed, excepting during the war, when he was not traveling in the eastern seas, the western hemisphere, or in Africa. An African trip, in fact, brought on the cold which spelled his death. Whenever any problem was submitted to him, he demanded it be concisely stated, ready for concise decision. He had an almost uncanny knack of making the right choice within the space of a minute or so.
 In 1923 he fluttered the doves of the devout by saying in the Wesleyan Central hall of London that every treasury note should bear the inscription: "I know that my Redeemer liveth." He was quoting from an old story, but it was sufficient to get the hall thereafter barred to all political meetings.
 And now that the tremendous human dynamo behind it all himself has ceased to him, three reputations remain to dedicate his memory.
 The first was the towering energy and courage responsible for his commercial rise.
 The second was the rugged, resolute individuality which made his character almost as notable as his success.
 The third was his rare proclivity of stirring up trouble with artists and other people whose susceptibilities are usually very carefully studied.
 Despising business timidity more than anything else, he did not know the meaning of fear. Laziness, to him was an inexcusable sin. He was up daily at 4:30 in the morning right up to the time of his illness, and had done a full day's work before most men have reached their offices.
 A demon for work and time-saving, he dictated letters so fast that generally he had three secretaries to take down simultaneously what he said. He adopted this system so that the trio of stenographers could compare notes and themselves eliminating errors, thus saving his own time. He had an obsessing horror of needless delay.

 His wife, who died in 1913, had wide repute as a charming though modest hostess. He was married at the age of 23, when earning $5 a week, and attributed his business success to the inspiration and aid of his wife. As a tribute to her he combined her family name of Hulme with his own in choosing the title for his peerage.
 For the same reason the name Hulme Lever was given to the one child of the marriage, a son who now at the age of 37 has succeeded to the viscountcy and to an estate said to be larger than that possessed by any other property owner in the United Kingdom or any of the British dominions.

They Don't teach this in school

We spend eight, twelve or even sixteen years fitting ourselves to make money, but not so much as an hour in learning how to make that money work and produce MORE money for us.

We work hard—and manage to save some money—but most of us STOP THERE, when, if we went just a step further and put our savings TO WORK we could materially increase our earnings.

For instance: do you know that only $1000 if PUT TO WORK—can be made to earn $70 MORE a year for you? and that's almost $6.00 a month.

It's not hard to put money to work to produce MORE money. Like everything else; it's easy IF you know how.

This advertisement is published so that YOU may know how to put your money to work in the same way that hundreds of customers of the lighting company have put their money to work. They have put their savings to work by INVESTING in

Ranger Gun Club Marksmen Make Some Fairly Good Scores

While only a few marksmen turned out for the regular weekly shoot of the Ranger Gun club, scores were fair, despite the exceedingly warm weather. The old reliables were on hand for their regular shoot, hot weather or not, and an enjoyable time was had by all.

The shoot is held at 4:30 each Friday afternoon, the late hour to give marksmen who work a chance to attend. Birds and ammunition are furnished by Killingsworth-Cox company at cost and all the aspiring shooter has to bring with him is his gun.

Scores turned in at Friday's shoot were:

Pleasant Greetings Of Chinese Servants

PEKIN, China (By mail to United Press).—When the hot days come and the foreign business agent in China is down in the mouth, his firm having asked why business is so dull, he can get consolation, even elation, if he listens in on the telephone conversation between servants.

Here's a sample translated literally. "Hello."
"Hello; this is the number one personal confidential Chinese representative of great man Wilson, manager in China for the beautiful Egyptian Cotton company. Bring your master to the telephone so my great man may speak to him."
"My great man is asleep and anyway he has not time to talk to ordinary men over the telephone," countered the other. "Tell your master to tea if he wants to talk and he'll get some good food for once in his life. Don't bother me any more."
"We have the best food in the world over here. My great man doesn't eat Chinese food, comes the rejoinder. "He gets his ham from America and wines from France. Anyway, I think your master's asleep because he's drunk."
"That gag the opening for the servant who was called."
"Of course my August superior is drunk," he replied. "He is the number one world manager of the United International Pail company everywhere in the world established. My great man is certainly drunk. He was last night and the night before. He drinks a thousand dollars worth of wine every day. Your master hasn't money enough to get drunk."
Then the receiver was hung up. Neither great man talked, the man who put in the original call was told his friend had gone to Tienisin. The other was told nothing of the call by the servant though smiled his pleasure when his assistant told of the servant's staunch defense of his social position.

SHORTAGE OF GIRLS APPEARS APPROACHING

Recent Birth Reports Show Boys Are 15 Percent in Excess.

(Copyright, 1925, by United Press.) NEW YORK, June 13.—Unless the stork watches its step there is likely to be a shortage of flappers in the next generation.

The legendary bird is now ushering into the world approximately 15 percent more boys than girl babies, figures gathered by the United Press showed today.

Not so long ago, reports show, girl babies predominated, but during the last few months the male of the species has taken the lead and is now running well ahead of the weaker sex.

Eleven of 14 cities reported increases in boy births. Only two reported an excess of female births. In the other city—Kansas City—births by sex were equally divided.

Figures deal with the last 50 births recorded in the various cities: In Cleveland, 27 boys and 23 girls; Milwaukee, 31 and 19; Detroit, 26 and 24; Cincinnati, 30 and 20; Indianapolis, 26 and 24; Lincoln, Neb., 28 and 22; Denver, 35 and 15; Los Angeles, 27 and 23; Omaha, 22 and 28; New York, 27 and 23; Chicago, 26 and 24; Dallas, 26 and 24; Kansas City, 25 and 25.

Of the total of 700 births reported from the 14 cities, 375 were boys and 325 girls.

The fact that males now predominated need not cause too much concern, however, say physicians here. "Births run in cycles," they explain. "At one time boy babies will predominate; at another, girls."

Two Weeks Revival at First Baptist Church, Ranger, Begins Today

Posters are out announcing a two weeks revival that will begin at the First Baptist church today and last for two weeks. The pastor, Rev. W. A. Johnson, will conduct the morning service today.

The evangelist, Rev. Gordon Bennett, will occupy the pulpit in the evening. The Jackson brothers will conduct the singing. The men are twins and are brothers of Dr. Walter Jackson of Ranger, and their singing is said to be very fine.

Services will be held twice a day, one service at 10 a. m. and the other at 8 p. m. This should be a strong trio, as Gordon Bennett is a speaker of rare ability, and the Jackson brothers are singers of rare sweetness. Everybody is welcome to these services.

GEISHA GIRL TIRES OF GAY, AIMLESS LIFE

Becomes W. C. T. U. Worker, Which Finds More Congenial.

TOKIO, Japan (By mail to the United Press)—Once upon a time in this island empire there was a geisha. Her mother had been a geisha and had died when her daughter was a very young girl. So the daughter lived in the geisha house and when she was a little older, she began to learn how to do the funny little dances and to sing the staccato geisha and do things with her hands and fans that are considered quite wonderful by the Japanese. Then, when she was not quite 15 years old, she became a full-fledged geisha and started in on her life of entertaining others. It was all very gay and she had a splendid time for a while. She had known a lot about all this sort of thing, for she was born and had always lived in a geisha house. But she was quite thrilled by her first to really appear as one of the trio that entertained the funny Japanese gentlemen at dinner one night. Then the years rolled by and it came to be about a year ago and that was nearly seven years after the little geisha first began to dance and sing and she was, as you may have guessed, about seven years older and things palled on her that had been gay at first. She disliked her life of tinsel and forced gaiety. The Japanese men always drank too much sake, the Japanese wine, and they no longer were funny. She wanted to get away from it all. So Retsuko—her name is Retsuko Ishikawa—thought and thought and finally she went to a friend and told her about how she hated the geisha life. Her friend told her about a kind lady who always was helping girls, and the result was that Retsuko met the kind lady, who was a W. C. T. U. worker in Japan, a Miss Moriya, the secretary of the union in Tokio, and told her the story of her life. The secretary was efficient. She found that Retsuko's father, whom the little geisha had never seen, was a well known lawyer in Tokio and a former member of the house of representatives in the diet. She told him of his daughter and how Retsuko wanted to get away from it all. He suggested it might be profitable for him to take his daughter away from the tea house. He did. So now Retsuko is no longer a dancer and samisen player. She is a W. C. T. U. worker, and she finds the life much more suited to her tastes—at least, for the time being. She says the old life that looks so gay from the outside seems now like a nightmare to her. She never wants to go back but plans, so she says, to devote the rest of her life in helping others.

Eczema

At last a good night's sleep!

Oh! The joy of a peaceful, restful night. What a wonderful "up and going" feeling follows such a night of undisturbed slumber.

Oh! What tortures—what agony—what despair—goes with the nights where eczema and other skin diseases hold power and drive away rest and peaceful slumber. For under the cover of darkness like crafty beings of the underworld these eruptions work their most serious havoc.

S.S.S. is the established conqueror of these annoying skin diseases. S.S.S. drives these ever disturbing elements from your system—elements that carry in their wake—lack of energy—undermining health! You may try in vain to get rid of them, by using salves, lotions, washes, all to no purpose. You can't do it that way—the seat of the trouble lies deeper—impure blood trying to throw off poisons through the tender skin.

S.S.S. purifies the blood. It aids Nature in creating new red-blood-cells by the million! Blood-cells that send new rich blood coursing through your system. Red blood that drives away eczema—drives away pimples, blackheads, boils and rheumatism, too. An increase in red-blood-cells means added strength, added vitality and renewed vigor. Because the medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable, it may be taken with perfect safety. Start taking S.S.S. today and watch it rout that annoying, skin destroying, health undermining army that holds your system in its grasp! Learn again what it means to enjoy peaceful, restful nights of slumber.

Yunnanese Troops Driven From Cantonese Headlong From Canton

HONG KONG, China, June 13.—Yunnanese troops have been driven out of Canton by a brilliant coup of the Cantonese troops and are in full flight today. At their heels, the Cantonese are giving chase.

Meantime, soldiers in the Shawmeen colony, at Canton, are throwing up barricades, fearing possible further trouble. Foreign women and children are being taken to Hong Kong. Chinese Plan Big Demonstration to Express Protest

By United Press.

PEKIN, June 13.—Students and workers here have planned a monster demonstration for Monday, which, it is anticipated, will be accompanied by a one-day strike, in protest against the killing of eight Chinese by volunteers in a British armory at Hankow, Thursday.

Advices from Hankow declared that Chinese troops stood idly by while students and strikers stormed the armory and did not interfere. The following day a delegation visited the Japanese consul and expressed regret because of the killing of one Japanese and the wounding of others.

HENNESSEY-LOWE WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

By United Press.

SPECIAL Correspondence.

CISCO, June 13.—A marriage that was intended to be a very quiet affair proved to be quite a public occasion when the large crowd attending the Baptist choir practice at the city hall attended in a body the marriage of Mr. D. T. Lowe and Miss Johnnie Hennessey, when Judge J. M. McDonald spoke the words that joined this happy pair at the city hall Thursday evening.

Both of these young people live at Eastland, and armed with the required marriage license they motored here Thursday, arriving about 10 o'clock at the city hall where they awaited the coming of the justice to quickly and quietly perform the ceremony. Just as the officiating officer arrived on the scene, the choir practice adjourned, and those present went in a body to witness the ceremony and offer their congratulations and best wishes to the newly weds.

The bride is a daughter of the late John Hennessey, long a peace officer of Eastland county, and known to many here, where the family lived before their removal to Eastland.

What the World Is Doing

As Seen by Popular Mechanics Magazine

Weighing the World

In a curious, cell-like compartment of concrete thirty-five feet below the earth's surface, Dr. Paul R. Heyl of the bureau of standards is weighing the whole world in a most remarkable manner.

This great globe on which we live weighs six thousand million million tons.

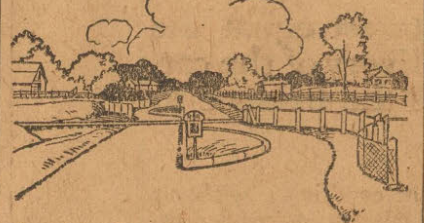

If we are to accept the figures of other scientists, who attempted to weigh it some three decades ago. The figure obtained by these experts was carried to an accuracy of one part in 5,000. Dr. Heyl is working for greater accuracy—one part in 60,000. This is how he is turning the trick.

Dr. Heyl's laboratory is located far underground in order that the delicate apparatus with which he works may be free from the effects of vibrations such as set up by moving motor trucks, speeding automobiles and ponderous street cars. A so-called torsion pendulum, which terminates in two small gold balls, is suspended in a brass bell jar in a concrete space just outside the subterranean laboratory. This bell jar widens from an upper diameter of five inches to a base diameter of one foot. The little balls of gold are suspended by tungsten filaments, one one-thousandth of an inch in diameter. The arrangement is such that by the action of gravitation, the pendulum is set into oscillation during one of the test periods. A reflecting mirror carries the motions of the turning pendulum to the laboratory where they are noted by Dr. Heyl. He uses these data in a scientific formula, along with figures representing the distances between the balls and a steel cylinder within the bell jar, and between the balls and the center of the earth, to figure out how many times heavier the earth is than the cylinder. In this way, he calculates the accurate weight of the earth. When the weight of the world is determined, it will be easily possible then to ascertain the weight of the United States, Africa or Siam. Lines drawn from the borders of the United States or any other country would be extended to the center of the earth to form a cone or other geometrical figure of a size that could be calculated.

S-Bend in Street at Crossing Reduces Auto Hazards

As an experiment in safety, a novel arrangement of the road and crossing signs is being tried in Florida at a grade intersection with a railroad. At the right, on either side of the track, the street is curved and is guarded by a stout wire fence to keep autos from plunging through. Motorists are thus prevented from driving straight across the rails, and in slowing down for the curve, naturally become on the alert for trains that may be approaching. The sign, supplemented at night by a bright red lamp, is placed in the middle of the road at the end of a plot bordered by a white curb, which serves to emphasize the warning. The curve is said to discourage drivers from attempting to beat trains across the tracks, one cause of many accidents.

Flowers, which are placed in vases for display, will last much longer if leaves that extend below the surface of the water in the vase are removed.

Using Loop with a Neutrodyne

Many readers who have a neutrodyne set will no doubt wish to use a loop instead of an outdoor aerial. A simple one to construct is shown in the illustration.

It consists of four pieces of broomstick, cut to the lengths indicated in the upper right-hand detail. Six saw cuts are made on opposite sides at one end, to hold the wire, and the inner ends are screwed into a gas-pipe cross. Number 22 d.s.c. wire is used and six turns are wound on each side. The loop is held up, yet permitted to rotate freely, by inserting the 17-in. stick into a floor socket, which is screwed on a wooden base. Both ends of the wire are connected to a variable condenser of 001-mf. capacity, which is equal to that of any 23-plate condenser. From the condenser terminals leads are brought out to the receiving set and connected to the antenna and ground binding posts.

The three diagrams given in the lower part of the illustration show several other methods of hooking up the loop to the instrument, with and without the condenser. Each hook-up should be tried separately to determine which works best; this varies with different sets.

GORMAN NEWS BRIEFS

The Blackmon well being drilled by Kirk & Brewer of Gorman west of town, is down more than 1,400 feet. On the Sims well in the same location the 10-inch casing has been set at around 1,000 feet. The rig is up on the Stephens and drilling is to be started soon.

BEDFORD NEWS

Special Correspondence.
BEDFORD, June 13.—The farmers surely do appreciate the much needed rain that visited this section early Wednesday morning as everything is growing nicely now.

The general health of this community is fairly good at present. Miss Dora Matthews is attending the summer school session at Cisco High school.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely. Mrs. C. E. Spruill and daughters of the Bedford Sunday school were visitors to the Corinth Sunday school last Sunday.

The people of both Bedford and Corinth communities have been attending the East Side Baptist meeting in Cisco this week.

The Banner club girls have not had a meeting for some time on account of our instructor, Miss Ruth Ramey, not being able to attend them, but we hope to have one soon so that we may go on with our club work. We are busy now with our contest dress and after we have completed them we shall start canning green vegetables.

Solomon Was Right

HE SAYS: (Proverbs 21:19)

"It is better to live in the wilderness than with an angry and contentious woman."

Had the use of ice been thought of in those days we might not have had this note of cynicism in Solomon's works.

He was probably letting it be known in unmistakable terms that he was 'tired of coming home to a meal and eating limp lettuce, drinking lukewarm wine, and dipping butter up with a spoon,' when one of his 600 wives placed her hands upon her hips with arms akimbo, tilted her dainty head a little and said:

"Solomon, if you are so bloomin' wise, why don't you tell us of a more satisfactory way of keeping food than in a cellar?"

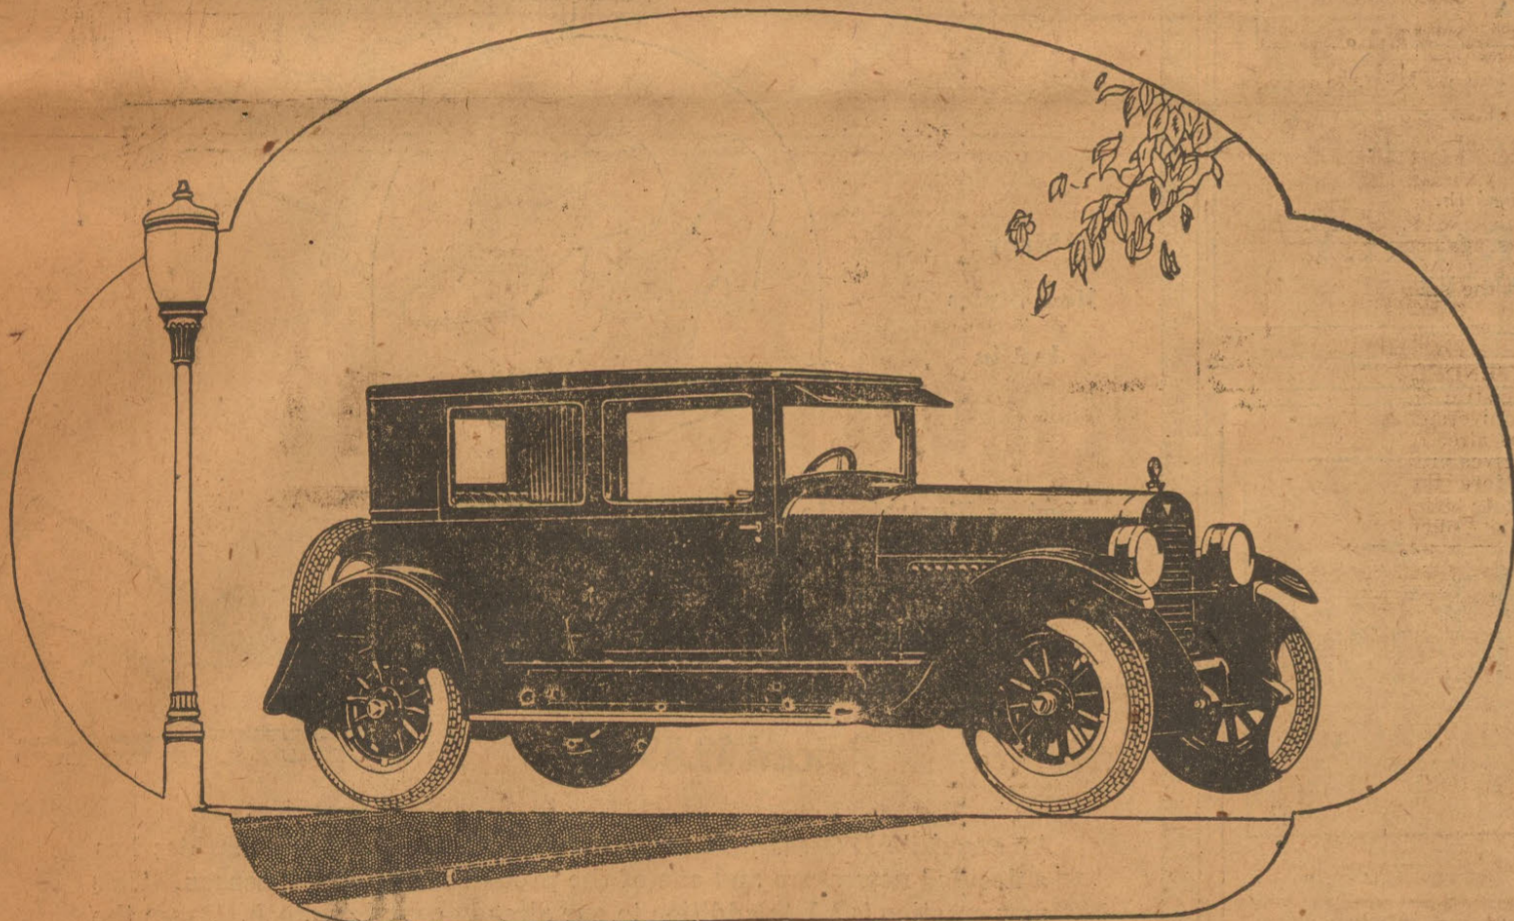

Whereupon, Solomon, seeing the question unanswerable, went off to himself to pout and remarked as above. Now isn't that just like a man?

But the use of ice has smoothed out this wrinkle in modern domestic tranquility. The question now has an answer.

The generous use of ice promotes summertime happiness in any household, besides paying for itself many times over in the food it saves.

Curry Pool Oil Co. Buys Leas eto Drill Near the Carter Pool

The Curry Pool Oil company, which has been operating for some time out of Breckenridge in the Curry pool, has just bought the lease of the west 80 acres of the 160-acre tract of C. Vaughn, block 58, northeast of the Carter-Barkley wells and proposes to begin drilling right away. Arrangements for building a rig already have been made.

The location is about half way between Carter's Langford No. 1 and a well of the Tee-Pee company which for a long time has been producing about 160 barrels of oil daily, and the indications point to the possibility of obtaining a number of good producers on the tract.

Joe drew up the curb, stopped the car: "It's a nice night for a ride," he said. "Are you going south?" "No, but you are," Lottie answered, as she hopped on the running board, and wagged a revolver playfully into his ribs. "Drive to the nearest police station."

Joseph went south, and was locked up for disorderly conduct. He continued south to the Bridewell. Lottie is a policewoman.
