PROHIBITION MAY SPLIT THE REPUBLICANS

STATE CAMPAIGN TO CATCH VOTES

Thousand Delegates 100 Women Included Attending Powwow

By United Press.

DALLAS, Sept. 7 .- Disagreement over what stand the party will take on the prohibition question looms up today at the state republican party convention, as it got under way with nearly 1,000 delegates in attendance, including 100 women.

Eugene Nolte, state chairman for two years, and probable choice for re-election, called the convention to order at 10 o'clock.

Acting Mayor John Harris of Dallas welcomed the convention with a reminder that although their party had never furnished a Texas govern.

Mosquito Killer Will Stay on Job Until October

Reports that Jay Phillips, who has en directing the anti-mosquito campaign in Eastland during the summer, would leave about Sept. 10, are without foundation, according to City Secretary W. E. Dakan.

"Mr. Phillips will remain on the job in Eastland at least to Oct. 1 and longer if necessary," Mr. Dakan said. Owing to the fact that there has been so much rain mosquitoes have been so bloodshed nor hard feeling. Three was no bloodshed nor hard feeling. "THE FLAME OF THE YUKON" WINS

For Cotton Pickers

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce is having a number of calls for cotton pickers and if anyone desires employment of that kind and will make application to Secretary George W. Briggs at the chamber of commerce rooms in Eastland, and effort will be made to place them in touch with employers.

The new Metropolitan screen version of "The Flame of the Yukon," inade a decided hit on its presentation at the Lamb theatre yesterday, and again today. The featured players in the leading roles—Seena Owen and Arnold Gray—appeared to excellent advantage in their respective roles. Miss Owen vested the dramatic part of the "The Flame," a dance hall girl on the Yukon, who is transformed by love, with refreshing warmth of characterization, while Mr. Gray as the tenderfoot from the states was exceptionally virile. His states was exceptionally virile. His fight with Black Jack Hovey, portrayed by Matthew Betz, was a thrill ing affair that roused the spectators to a high pitch of excimement. The support rendered by Jack McDonald, as Sourdough, and Vadim Uraneff as the cripple, Solo Jim, was quite effective. On the whole, "The Flame of the Yukon" is distinctly worthwhile.

ROAD TO MANDALAY
ORIENTAL PRODUCTION Almost every race on earth minweight champion puglist, lost a ten round labor day feature bout to Brad Simmens, negro heavyweight, of Drumright in a decision by Kid Feenes, referee.

Johnson's failure to land out in boxing was Feenes' basis of decision.

Almost every race on earth mingles in the bizarre Oriental scenes, laid in Singapore, in Lon Chaney's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, "The Road to Mandaly," in which he plays a sinster ruler of an Oriental underworld. The new play, now being shown at the Lamb Theatre, is a vivid mystery drame meanting. Totals 38 7 8 27 13 3

Ranger Fields Visioned Back In 1911 by Prophet FRECKLES

A man in California, who claims that he visioned the Ranger oil fields in 1911 at approximately five hundred millions, writes the Ranger Times to know if the and any new wells being heart the and if we get wells being brought in, and if we get any oil in Ranger territory now. He said that if God had not held him back for a divine purpose, the field would have been opened in 1911 and that he came near teleaphing the mayor of Ranger that a Creator had told him there was a point field here that would produce. n oil field here that would produce at amount of oil.

He did not state in his letter why his same source of information was holding out on him now and forcing him to get his data on the present production second-handed. The letter has been turned over to Secretary C. C. Patterson to answer.

The harvest moon is coming soon. Be very careful. It's known as a powerful heart stimulant.

evening. The picture was brought here at a great expense to Carl Barnes Post No. 69, and the proceeds derived from the door receipts since Mussolini took charge.

One can't help but notice the increase in earthquakes around Italy since Mussolini took charge.

The picture was brought the door about 2 o'clock. Mrs. Sivalls who was driving a Buick roadster, accompanied by her mother, was driving slowly down.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION OF FINAL ACCOUNT. Mrs. Sivalls who was driving a Buick roadster, accompanied by her mother, was driving slowly down Pine street and had approached a point opposite the Ranger Gasoline company's filling station, when a young man driving a Ford touring, rounding the corner from off Rusk street, waved a hand at some parties on an opposite corner, and then seeing the approaching car, he pulled to the right, and evidently badly frightened backed to the left into the Sivalls' car. The left front wheels hit and the top windshield was broken out of each car. Mrs. Hulse was badly cut about the head and face by the flying glass and was rushed to the City-County Hospital for treatment, but was later removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sivalls, on Cypress street, where she is suffering from shock and painful cuts. Mrs. Sivalls, while not cut is also suffering from shock and painful cuts. Mrs. Sivalls, while not cut is also suffering from shock and painful cuts. Mrs. Sivalls, while not cut is also suffering from shock and the young man who was driving the Ford, whose name was not learned, suffered a cut mouth. Both cars were damaged.

Counties Cannot Lease Highways For Oil Drilling

Counties are without authority to lease highway rights for drilling of oil wells, according to a ruling re-cently handedd own by the attorney general's department answering questions submitted to them by the Jefferson county commissioners' court.

Counties are not in possession of rights-of-way, the opinion said. The state, in which control of the road lies, is invested with their custody, it held.

Only the legislature could grant authority for leasing the highway for drilling purposes, and this has not been done, the opinion said.

It has been suggested that Eastland county could lease some of its high-ways, which offset producing oil wells and thereby receive much ad-

Eastland Cotton Yield Cut by Pests To 12,000 Bales

Mr. and Mrs. George True of Ranger, have returned from Decatur, where they spent Labor Day with Mrs. Trues' mother, who lives near there. They were delayed in getting home on account of high waters around Fort Worth, the results of rains there Sunday night and Monday, but reported that with the exception of that, the roads were fairly good.
