AMERICA'S NOTE TO OREGON IS SATISFACTORY

Mexican President Will Accept Basis for Negotiations, Washington Report Says.

By A. L. BRADFORD
United Press Correspondent
WASHINGTON, May 31.—President Obregon of Mexico will accept the American memorandum on the question of recognition as a "basis for negotiations" it was declared here today by advisers of the Mexican president.

The next move by Mexico, it is thought, will be a reply by the president Obregon to the communication or memorandum from Secretary Hughes, which was presented by George T. Summerlin in charge of the American embassy in Mexico City. Observers here think that if this is satisfactory, American recognition may be extended.

Dispatches from Mexico City were regarded today as having definitely established that the American memorandum did not demand signature or written guarantees in a protocol or like document as a condition to recognition, and that it did not embody the recommendations of the Fall report for dealing with Mexico as one press association reported in giving what purported to be the nature of the memorandum.

Dispatches from Mexico City also indicated Obregon was satisfied with the American communication.

BOLSHEVISM NOT MENACE.

By Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, May 31.—"Bolshevism does not constitute a menace to Mexico," declared Antonio Diaz Soto Y Gama, socialist leader in the chamber of deputies Monday. Senator Soto Y Gama has long been recognized as an irreconcilable radical chief and has been charged by political opponents to have planned the division of the lower class of the Mexican congress by alleged Bolsheviki two weeks ago.

He added "Mexico is not prepared for Bolshevism. Its proletarian classes, because of their lack of education, experience and general worldly knowledge, are not in a position to supplant the present ruling class." Local newspapers attach much importance to Senator Soto Y Gama's utterances.

TEXANS URGE RECOGNITION.

WACO, May 31.—A program urging that the United States recognize Mexico was sent Secretary of State Hughes today by seventy-five Waco and Texas business men who returned from a tour of the southern republic early today.

The plea for recognition, one of the many that have been sent to Washington by state officials and civic and commercial organizations since Obregon became president, was declared based on observations of the party while in Mexico as to the economic and social conditions there.

The telegram was signed by Mayor Ben C. Richards, president, and W. V. Crawford of the Texas Cotton Palace association and representatives of various other organizations who made the trip.

Recognition of Mexico and continued peace in that country will open almost immeasurable trade expansion fields for southwestern industries, it is declared by proponents of recognition.

BOMB UNDER T. & P. ENGINE MADE OF TNT

N. T. was the explosive contained in the bomb that exploded in the yards of the Texas and Pacific railroad Monday morning and it was wrapped in a newspaper of the radical variety, according to a conclusion reached by investigators.

The agency which caused the explosion was not ascertained, according to the investigators, by a man who had much experience in handling the article. Bits of the wrapping of the bomb were found on the spot and every word which could be read had reference to oppression, Secretary of State Hughes, rebellion and other communistic terms.

TRAIN CRASH!

EDINBURGH, Ind., May 31.—Fifty-seven persons were hurt two probably fatally last night when a freight train of the Pennsylvania railroad crashed into the Dixie flyer, a fast Indianapolis, Columbus Southern traction car carrying a trailer.

Both car and the trailer were loaded to capacity with persons who had attended the speedway race at Indianapolis.

12 SENIORS OF RANGER HIGH GET DIPLOMAS

Lytton R. Taylor Addresses Packed House at First Baptist Church Monday Night.

Ranger folk packed the First Baptist church last night to witness the graduation exercises of the 1921 term, at which twelve seniors received diplomas. There were flowers in abundance and applause for the graduates, at the end of a well-balanced program.

Lytton R. Taylor delivered the address to the graduates, in the address he lauded the American public school system, saying that it was the first step in a general educational system and the lifting of the pall of ignorance that hung over the world. He traced educational progress from the days of the ancients, when "the wrath of the gods brought the thunder, the lightning, the floods and the earthquakes; great monsters controlled the seas; ignorance hung over the world like a pall and shut out the view on all sides."

That is a vast difference from the world today, he said. Today, one may find a lake in a drop of water, with living forms scurrying to and fro therein; he may study the stars and learn distances incomprehensible to the mind of man; he may delve into science and literature; all the progress of the ages is open to anyone who seeks it.

Value of Printing.
Mr. Taylor paid a tribute to printing as the chief means of lifting ignorance from the world. This invention, he said, had made it possible for leaders in every line to leave behind them for study and development a description and summary of their best efforts. The low cost of books had made them available to almost everyone, whereas, before Gutenberg's day, books were laboriously compiled by hand, and were chained to cathedral altars for safety.

Credit for the public school system was given to the Pilgrims, who in 1842 established the first public school system supported by taxation that the world had known.

Advices College Course.
Mr. Taylor advised all the graduates to attend college, and thus fit themselves for still greater advancement in life and usefulness. Any person who has the will can find the means to continue their studies, he said.

Mmes. McCoy, Wakefield, Shepard and Newham rendered the quartette from "Lucia di Lammermoor" to the delight of the audience.

Durward Brown was valedictorian; Miss Verna Barrett salutatorian; Miss Arville Clemmer, class historian, and Miss George Connell, class prophet.

STATE ASKS LIFE OF BOY 11 YEARS OLD

Prosecutor Claims Lad Slew 7-Year-old Playmate in Cold Blood.

KNOX, Ind., May 31.—The state today demanded the life of an 11-year-old boy.

The trial of Cecil Burkett, charged with the murder of Benny Slavin, his 7-year-old playmate started.

It is expected that a jury will not be selected for several days.

Prosecutor James A. Dilts, charges the crime was committed in cold blood and will demand the death penalty. Cecil, his brother Alfred, aged 9 and Frederick Sherman, aged 7, were playing in the Burkett back yard last Thanksgiving.

Benny Slavin and his little sister Clara, 6, were in the adjoining yard. Benny was shot and killed with a rifle. The state said the shooting was the result of a quarrel. Cecil said it was accidental. Citizens of Ora where the shooting occurred have rallied to Cecil's defense. They raised $10,000 bail on which he was released. He has been attending school since his playmate was shot.

School children and parents will be called as witnesses.

PREACHER IS CHASTISED THE SECOND TIME

By United Press.
NEWBURGH, N. Y., May 31.—The Rev. Bouck White, radical agitator and former pastor, has added another beating and a ducking to the program of punishment being meted out to him by the villagers of Marlboro because of his difficulties with his French bride, it was learned here today.

Four of the "vigilantes" again called at White's home in automobiles and took him to Orange lake, twelve miles away, where they ducked him. From there they went to Walden, six miles from Marlboro, and tied him to a tree while they debated what should be the next step. They finally decided on a horsewhipping. Afterwards he was returned to his home.

TEXAS IS 'WOULD-BE LAND-GRABBER,' NEW MEXICO DECLARES

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 31.—The state of Texas is attacked as a "would-be land grabber" in briefs filed today in the Supreme Court by Frank W. Clancy, counsel for New Mexico in an original suit by that state against Texas to obtain official delimitation of the interstate boundary along the Rio Grande river. Declaring the present claim of Texas would put the Rio Grande "on Rocky bluffs or sand hills, far above any possible river beds," the brief called attention of the court to what it described as the "predatory and unscrupulous character of the defendant's claims and matters."

PRIOR ALARM CALLS FIREMEN TO ALFORD HOME IN YOUNG ADD'N

Thousands Gather in Glare of Flames and Watch Unequal Battle Against Destroying Element; Witnesses Tell of Two Men and Mysterious Automobile.

A fire spectacular in more than one particular caused damage estimated at $80,000 to the Commercial hotel, the joint property of Carey Judson (Curly) Harper and Cleve Barnes at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning. Insurance of $40,000 was carried on the building, with Collie & Barrow, and there was said to be insurance of $10,000 on the contents. Status of Harper's share in ownership of the property is pending in the bankruptcy courts. For several days past carpenters have been engaged in remodeling the interior into family apartments.

Thousands were roused from their beds in all parts of the city when the second fire alarm within the space of fifteen minutes sounded. "Another fire! Where is it?" neighbor called to neighbor in the stillness of the early morning. The first alarm had taken the department and their equipment to Young addition, where they found the charred hulk of the J. R. Alford home, which burned several days ago, again in flames. Chief Buttomer left a man and a line of hose at the scene and hastened back to the heart of the city with all possible speed.

Glare Lights Streets.

By this time long tongues of flame were licking and curling their way skyward from the upper portion of the Commercial hotel, while in the glare of light which illuminated the surrounding streets thousands of men and women were congregated huddled together in knots, talking in subdued tones. It seemed that an entire block might be doomed.

Firemen had lost precious minutes in their dash to a house already destroyed. Despite the fact that when they finally reached the scene the fire the building was at the length of its upper story was did manifold service, hampered in the work for a time by lack of water the pressure or both.

Crowds watching from the no were thrilled with horror for a few minutes after the men had laid their lines to a vantage point at the rear of the building's roof when they saw a fireman struggling with a line of hose at the corner suddenly throw up his hands and disappear. He had fallen inside, however and soon reappeared, and with the assistance of comrades reached his objective.

Origin Not Known.

No definite information as to the origin of either the fire which firemen found eating away at the wreck of the Commercial hotel, or the explosion which gutted the Commercial hotel, was to be had Tuesday morning. The second and third story walls of the hotel were of sheet concrete and lath and were thin.

The only occupant of the building at the time of the fire was said to be "Noisy" Watson, who requested carpenters a day or two ago to place hooks inside the screen door at the Main street entrance so that transients seeking rooms would not wake him. Although sleeping at the Commercial hotel, Watson has had a room engaged at the Travelers' hotel since May 24. His personal effects were in his room at the Commercial.

Mysterious Automobile.
Accounts of a mysterious automobile in which two men hurried from the scene of the fire following the explosion were given by a woman living in the neighborhood of the Summer Garden to the north of the Commercial hotel and a man, a member of the street cleaning department, who was working on Marston street when the explosion occurred.

The woman was awakened, she thinks, by the sound of the explosion, and when she looked from her window she saw an automobile in the open space back of the hotel. She next saw, she said, two men emerge from the shadows close to the building and, entering the car, drove quickly away. The city employee also saw the men hasten away in the automobile, but is of the opinion that he saw them before he heard the explosion.

Explosion Was Seen.
Before there was any evidence of fire the explosion blew flames a short way above the roof of the hotel, when they subsided, and black smoke arose. The explosion took place in the rear corner room of the building, according to Clay Jordan, a patient in the Clinical hospital, who witnessed the occurrence. Jordan was awakened when the fire engines were making the run to the Young addition fire and was lying gazing out his window, which is on the side of the street opposite the hotel building. He was looking directly at the spot where the flames first arose.

Jordan said he thought at the that it sounded like a small explosion.

Gas Pipes Blazing.
City firemen were on the scene of the explosion, according to the statement that they were on the third floor burning up the building.

AN ALIBI FOR GIRL'S SLAYER IN EVIDENCE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 31.—Testimony by a witness for the defense that Denzel Chester was seen alone on a downtown street corner at midnight of October second today opened the way for creation of an alibi for Chester on trial charged with the murder of Miss Florence Barton.

The girl was slain on the outskirts of the south end of the city last October second, ten miles from where Wm. Neville, former city auto mechanic testified he spoke with Chester almost exactly at midnight. The murder was committed "shortly before or shortly after the hour of midnight," he testified.

City firemen were on the scene of the explosion, according to the statement that they were on the third floor burning up the building.

Carpenters who were working at the remodeling of the building said they had shut off the gas at the building meter on the ground floor Monday, and that while they left it in this condition, they also left the pipes where they had disconnected stoves, uncapped and open.

Numerous other persons who were on the scene early declared they heard an explosion before the fire gained headway.

FAMOUS MUMMY IS PROPERTY OF METHODISTS

Is That of Morganatic Wife of Amenophis III, Died 1420 B. C.

By Associated Press.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 30.—The mummy of the historically famous morganatic wife of the Egyptian king, Amenophis III, who died about 1420 B. C., has just been received at the museum of the Emory university here, one of the larger institutions of the Methodist Episcopal church, South.

The mummy, together with almost a cartload of priceless records was brought to this country by Dr. W. A. Shelton, professor of Semitic languages at Emory, who spent a year in excavations of lost cities.

Queen Ti, the name of the bride of Amenophis III, was famous in her time through the fact that the king in marrying her, defied the world by choosing a bride for love and thereby disregarding royal traditions. She was considered a woman of rare beauty. Her son, Amenophis IV, abandoned the gods of his fathers and built altars to a new god—a one God.

The records received by Emory include the tablet found by Dr. Shelton beneath the royal palace in ancient Babylon, on which a Babylonian king wrote his most famous deeds in order that they might be preserved through the ages. Scientists so have translated only a few words of this tablet, according to Dr. Shelton. Only two other similar tablets, buried by ancient kings, have been discovered, it is said.

Among various other interesting articles in the Emory collection is a piece of rope—grass rope, similar to that you can buy anywhere today—only this piece, perfectly preserved, was taken from a tomb after reposing there several thousand years. There are also bronze trinkets, small tools and weapons and many jars and vases.

WINTER SPORTS IN MIDST OF SUMMER

By United Press.

SEATTLE, May 29.—Winter sports in midsummer is the novelty to be offered visitors to Rainier National Park this season.

The big feature of the sports entertainment is the fifth annual ski tournament scheduled for July 3, at Paradise Valley, 5,557 feet above sea level, on the slopes of Mountain Rainier, where the "flowers and glaciers meet."

Ski jumpers from the Pacific northwest, middle west, Canada, Norway and Sweden will compete for honors. These ski jumping contests are held under the direction of the Northwest Ski club. Last year hundreds of persons went to Paradise in cars from there viewed the ski jumping. Other crowds lined one side of the course which was marked off on Alta Vista knoll near the inn. The tourney this season will be held over the same course.

The warm weather last year made the course sticky and the going rather heavy, so that no new records were set up.

Fatal Bumps for Cyclonic Traveler May Bring New Comet to Grief.

(By International News Service.)

LONDON, May 31.—Pons-Winnecke, the short period comet, which is hurtling through space at a speed of many thousand miles an hour towards the earth, will not have the best of the "bump," according to Professor A. Fowler, chief lecturer in astronomy at the Imperial Science College, South Kensington.

"It is generally accepted," said the professor, "that we shall come in contact with its tail, if at all. In this event it is possible Pons-Winnecke may become so disintegrated that other self-respecting comets will disown him."

Cyclonic Traveler.

One can picture some scientists in a few weeks' time picking up a small meteor, the mortal remains of this cyclonic traveler in our space. "Alas, poor Pons, we knew him well!" will doubtless be the comment of the astronomical world.

Professor Fowler was the first scientist to prove that the tails of comets have carbonic oxide gas, instead of the deadly cyanogen gas, as was previously supposed.

"When the tail of Pons comes in contact with this earth," continued Professor Fowler, "vast quantities of carbonic oxide, which is an odorless gas, will be absorbed in the atmosphere of this planet. There is no cause for alarm, since the proportion of carbonic oxide is so small in relation to the immense volume of atmosphere round the earth that the effect will be imperceptible. People do not realize how many million tons the atmosphere we breathe weighs. At ground level the weight is fourteen pounds to the square inch. In addition to gas the tail will contain meteoric dust—that is, particles of iron and nickel. This dust is not likely to reach us.

Fascinating Theory.

"As to how a comet is formed I cannot tell you any more than I can tell you, from a scientific point of view, how the earth was formed. Perhaps they come from gases thrown off from the sun, which are gradually cooled. On the other hand, leading authorities on astronomy say that is clear that comets cannot have originated within the limits of the solar system. They propound the fascinating theory that comets, such as Pons-Winnecke, come from a distance in space so great that it is impossible to think or speak of it in terms of miles."

Professor Fowler added that Jupiter, to whose family Pons-Winnecke belongs, may cause a disturbance and so alter the path of the comet that it will reach its nearest point to the earth about June 27 the date on which it is expected.

"When the public interest in Halley's comet became acute I worked out the exact date of the arrival," continued Professor Fowler, "but I should be involved in laborious calculations for days on end if I were to ascertain the day on which Pons will drop his visiting card in the shape of a shower of meteorites."

Miss Iskah Thrall of Pasadena, a senior at the University of California, is the greatest girl athlete of that state, having carried off every athletic honor.

COUNTY ATTORNEYS NOT ENTITLED TO SLICE OF DELINQUENT TAXES

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, May 31.—The county attorney of any county in Texas is not entitled to commissions upon delinquent taxes collected for the state and county in a suit in which the county attorney represented the state and county, according to an opinion handed down by the attorney general's department.

The opinion was given upon the request of Earl P. Adams, county attorney of Houston county, where, at recent terms of the district court, certain judgments were made in favor of the state department for delinquent taxes. In each instance the decree of the court provided that the county attorney should have and retain a commission of ten per cent on the amount of the judgments. Upon payment of the judgments to the court, settlement was made with the county attorney and the tax collector, according to the terms of the court's decree.

The state comptroller refused to recognize the decree, it was pointed out in the opinion, and refused to allow the county attorney the ten per cent commission granted him by the court charging the same to the tax collector of the county. The opinion was then sought as to the legality of the court's decree.

WAR FLAMES AGAIN RAGE IN BALKANS

Macedonian and Albanian Irregulars Sweep Down, Pillage and Burn on Way

By HENRY WOOD United Press Correspondent. ROME, May 31.—Sweeping down from the highlands of Macedonia and Albania, great bands of irregular soldiers today are threatening to start another Balkan war which may involve Europe.

The fighters, almost bandits in their mode of warfare but driven by strong nationalist feeling entered foreign countries.

Pillage and arson marked their trail. The government thus taunted immediately planned to raise forces to combat them.

The old Balkan troubles were involved in the fighting. Greece wants more land to the north; Bulgaria wants to reclaim some of the territory lost in the war and Serbia wants to retain her newly-won lands.

Latest advices received here showed the situation especially critical in Macedonia and Albania, whose problems were not solved by the treaties of St. Germain and Sevres.

Reports showed that large bands of irregulars have been recruited throughout the Balkans, almost every portion of the warring region having contributed its share of fighting men. The government's back of them either are arming to protect their legitimate interests or are preparing to back the irregulars from their own country in an effort to extend their boundaries.

League May Be Late. Officials here feared that before the allied supreme council or the league of nations can intervene the irregulars will clash with regular military forces and start the conflict which may embroil not only the Balkans but spread through Europe.

The danger in Albania is due to the fact that the Greeks have occupied strategic points commanding the two most important Albanian cities, Koritza and Arzircastro while the Serbians are holding the river Drin in northeast Albania. The Albanians although intending no offensive themselves are mobilizing to prevent further occupation.

NO POSTOFFICE.

No postoffice building for Ranger, is the word from Washington printed in yesterday's Times. No postoffice building for anywhere else, for that matter. For the Republicans have decided that this is to be an economical administration.

No public buildings have been erected for four years, despite the serious handicaps which the postal system labors under, due to inadequate quarters in hundreds of places. Fort Worth and Dallas, for instance, with buildings outgrown, are forced at times to use the great outdoors as a scouting room.

But now federal buildings would cost $75,000,000 or so, and this sum must be saved because we must build warships and buy Daugherty $8,000 automobiles and enforce the prohibition amendment and do other things which pile taxes on top of taxes and deficit on top of deficit.

Truly, this administration, and the next, and the next for long years hereafter should be economical. But economies such as this will lead to ruin and stagnation. It is the very kind the citizen practices. He cannot afford to build a house, but he can buy glad rags and ride in autos and take a trip every summer, and do other things which call for expenditures which leave nothing in their place.
Those expenditures are not necessarily to be condemned, but the government as well as the citizen can well effort to stick to the ideal of housing first.

The ruling of the G. O. P. is onerous, and will be a source of keen disappointment to Ranger folk. For the word had gone out unofficially that Ranger was to receive its long-desired federal building this year.

FLOATING BODIES IN DANUBE RIVER ARE
CAUSE OF ALARM

BUDAPEST, May 30.—Much mys-tification and considerable alarm have been caused in Budapest by the fact that one or two bodies of human beings bearing unmistakable traces of violence have been washed ashore daily for two weeks at a point on the Danube river, a short distance above Budapest.

Some of the victims had their feet bound together with wire, other bore many wounds and, in one case, the bodies of two girls with stones tied to their necks.

None of the bodies have been identified. Detectives say that it is evident that passengers on the Danube river are falling victims to murderous bands.

TINKER BOB STORIES
By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB.

THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS.
PHOEBE.

"Dear-ie, Dear-ie," cried Mr.
Phoebe, as he darted after another fly who chanced to come too close and Tinker Bob heard the click of his little black bill. Phoebe was always sure when his bill clicked, that Mr. Fly was his for all time. It was with pride that he again came back to the tall weed, and devoured his victim.

"That's Surely a Fine Place for a Nest," Said Tinker.

"You said you lived down here," said Tinker Bob, "but I can't see where you live. I know you wouldn't be foolish enough to build a nest on the ground, and if you were foolish enough I know Mrs. Phoebe wouldn't hear of such a thing. And there are no small trees about, so I can't see how you can be so close to your home." Tinker Bob had forgotten the place where Phoebe had built his nest the year before.

"Dear-ie, dear-ie, it must be you have lost your memory, O King," you came to visit me, once before when I had three little children.
Can it be you don't remember?"
The King of the Forest had so many homes to visit that he really had forgotten. Then he said: "I think I must have visited you, it can't be that you live in the same place."

Phoebe laughed to himself at the way the King was guessing. "Dear-ie, dear-ie, I wouldn't tell anyone else but you because I know you are a friend of mine. Mrs. Phoebe is in our home right now, under the very bridge you are going to cross."

"Oh, you're trying to fool me Phoebe," returned the King jokingly.

"I'm telling you the truth as sure as I live, O King. If you don't believe it just look for yourself." Phoebe darted away after another fly.
"Dear-ie, Dear-ie, you see, you see, I live right under the bridge." And he carried his captive fly right under the bridge and alighted on the ledge of stone just beneath the floor.

There, sure enough was a nest and Tinker Bob could see Mrs. Phoebe's bill and the top of her head above the edge. "That's surely a fine place for a nest," said Tinker Bob as Phoebe came back again to the tall weed and began to sing contentedly. "How did you ever come to think of such a place as that, I'd like to know?"

"Oh, we phoebes always build our nests around bridges if we can find them. You see it is quite safe here, for no one ever thinks of us having a nest under a bridge. Have you seen Chebec yet? He ought to be here now."

Just then Tinker Bob's attention was called away.

IRISH REVOLT IS LIKENED TO
U. S. WAR OF SECESSION AND NOT
LIKE THE U. S. WAR OF 1776

By WILLIAM A. MALLABAR,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, May 29.—The great bulk of the reasoning multitude in America are no more interested in Ireland than they are in the South Pole.

This is one of the many flat-footed statements which appear in a book just issued under the title of "The Administration of Ireland, 1920."

The author, who conceals his identity under the initials "I. O.," devotes a lengthy chapter to "Ireland and America," starting out with the declaration:

"The Irish have always sought in a new land that prosperity which their own country failed to afford them."

"In the case of America, geographical considerations have influenced the trend of emigration. Ireland, the western outpost of Europe, almost necessarily stretches out her hands to America, endeavoring to bridge the intervening ocean with a bond of sympathy and understanding."

this case the world's sympathy is against it.

"The citizens of their adopted states must be Americans first and before all things; their allegiance must be unquestionably to the country of their adoption, else are they but sojourners and scarce trusted guests. There can be no room in the great republic for half-hearted citizens, as she proved so uncompromisingly during the great war."

Hyphenism Not Tolerated.

The author then goes on to claim that it is very doubtful whether the republic as a whole has any real interest in Ireland. He states that agitators, mainly from interested motives and from a desire to participate in the benefits that sometimes accrue to those who fish in troubled waters, are the ones who have always represented themselves as friends of Ireland.

After a brief history of the efforts of Casement to make an allegiance between Germany and Ireland during the early days of the war, the writer states that finding Germany a broken reel the Irish malcontents have turned once more to America as believing that the price of citizenship might be expected to be most in sympathy with Irish ideals.

On this subject the author says:
"Who have one guarantee which can never fail us; that the only type of man who can influence American policy is the man who is a citizen of the

RIGHT OF WOMEN TO SIT ON GRAND JURIES IN TEXAS TO BE DECIDED

By Associated Press.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 30.—Can women sit on grand juries in Texas?
This question is now before the court of criminal appeals for final answer. It was submitted in a case from Waco, where Robert J. Riddle is seeking a habeas corpus writ and release from jail, contending that he is illegally restrained because of an illegal indictment. Such indictment is void and illegal, his lawyers contend, because it was returned by a grand jury that was composed of ten men and two women.

The constitution of Texas is the legal basis of both sides in the case and the battle of wits that was waged before the court of criminal appeals was forceful, argumentative and at times humorous. The three members of the court listened attentively to the pleading of the lawyers, obvious of the fact that their decision would settle for some time at least the question of whether women can sit on juries in Texas.

In a recent oral opinion, an assistant of the attorney general's department said that women could not serve on juries in Texas. He did so inciting the difference in rights of men and women in Texas. The court's ruling will decide his opinion in the matter.

The records of the case show that about Dec. 25, 1920, Robert J. Riddle was arrested, charged with murder and placed in the McLennan county jail to await action of the grand jury. At the January term of the fifty-fourth district court, 1921, a grand jury composed of ten men and two women was impaneled and this grand jury returned an indictment against Riddle, charging him with murder. The two women members of the jury voted for the indictment and on April 1, 1921, he was tried on the indictment and found guilty. His punishment was assessed at ninety-nine years in the penitentiary.

Attorneys for Riddle then appealed for a new trial on the grounds that the grand jury which returned the indictment was illegal and this appeal was denied by the district judge of McLennan county. It was then appealed to the court of criminal appeals.

The attorney for the defendant argued that the only question involved in the case was whether a grand jury composed of ten men and two women is a legal grand jury. He pointed out that the constitution of Texas provides that a grand jury shall be composed of twelve men and in this instance he cited the case of Ex-Parte Reynolds where it was held that a grand jury composed of fourteen men was illegal and in that case the defendant had served seventeen years in the penitentiary. The court held he had been illegally restrained and that all action of the courts in convicting and sentencing him, acting under an indictment by such a grand jury, was an absolute nullity. The attorney said that under the constitution the first requirement of a grand jury in Texas is that he shall be a man.

The answer filed by the state is based mainly on the qualifications of a grand juror as provided by the legislature. The constitution provides that the legislature shall prescribe the qualifications of a grand jury.
In these qualifications the juror is referred to as "he." The first requirement included that "the requisite be a qualified voter."

The state holds that the framers of the constitution and the legislators who wrote the qualifications meant that the word "men" should designate men or women and that the word
"he" should be construed as referring to men and women. Under this plea he asserts that women have the same rights as men and that they are therefore qualified to sit on grand juries. The state's attorney claimed that the framers of the constitution were able and educated men and that if it had been their intention to confine service on grand juries and petit juries to male persons only, they would have used the words "male persons."

The right of suffrage that was recently conferred upon women by both the national and state governments, gives women the right to serve as jurors, the state's attorney holds.
If the ballot is placed in her hands and she is allowed to cast her vote in the affairs of the country she is qualified to serve on juries, the attorney pointed out.

The case will be decided by the court at an early date, it was announced. This is the first case in which the qualification of women as jurors was attacked in Texas. It is regarded by the members of the court as the only instance in Texas' history of women serving on a jury.

ALLIES WILL STOP WAR IN NEAR EAST

By ALFRED J. WEST
(Unted Press Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, May 30.—When Greece and Turkey have become thoroughly "fed up" on war, and either one or both countries are on the verge of physical and economic exhaustion, the Allies will step in and dictate the terms of peace—regardless of the desires of either of the combatants.

This, in effect is the strategy the Big Four have adopted to the warfare in the Near East, according to Downing Street officials.

Greece launched her attack against Turkey after the London conference, against the advice of the allies. Turkey invited the attack by refusing to compromise with the Greeks on questions which would undoubtedly have been settled in favor of the Moslems chiefly because the Greeks were the parties concerned.

HUSBAND SPECULATED
WITH WIFE'S DOWRY
AND MADE MILLIONS

By Associated Press.

BUDAPEST, May 31.—A remarkable story of how a young Hungarian made a profit of 4,000,000 crowns by speculating with his wife's dowry and then sending her and her dowry back to her father, has just come to light here.

Four months ago Joseph Klein, a young merchant of Budapest of small means, married a Transylvanian girl and received with her a dowry of 2,000,000 Rumanian lei (worth at present exchange rates about one and one-fourth cents per lei).

The bridegroom quickly changed his wife's dowry into Hungarian currency and received in exchange 14, 000,000 crowns, the crown then being quoted seven to the lei.

After the honeymoon the young husband found that his good opinion of both the Rumanian currency and his wife had declined, and that the crown was now only five to the lei.

Mr. Klein thereupon bought back his wife's dowry for 10,000,000 crowns and sent her and her dowry back to her father. By that transaction Klein made a clear profit of 4,000,000 crowns and is now said to be on the lookout for another wife.

This is an example of how the marriage market here has been affected by the fluctuation of exchange values.
When the Hungarian crown sank very low, the value of Transylvanian, Czech and Slovak girls, backed by good Rumanian lei, Jugoslav dinars and Czecho-Slovak crowns considerably in the eyes of the Hungarian youths and at least as many matches were made on the exchange as in heaven.

Slowly, with the improvement of the Hungarian money, the demand for girls from the lost provinces abated and Magyar girls are again very firm in the market. Former marriages with foreign currency girls are now being canceled for the sake of Hungarian women.

PUBLIC DISAPPROVE
CAVE DWELLERS WHO
DISCARD CLOTHING

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, May 30.—The colony of cave-dwellers of Berlin, which took the back-to-the-land doctrine so literally that scores of men, women, boys and girls dug caves for themselves in the banks of the Spree just out of Berlin and discarded all modern wearing apparel, has been dispersed by the police. The colony's leader, Dr. Heinrich Goldberg, a socialist magistrate that the experiment was a simple solution of the housing and cost of living problems.

The cave-dwellers began by discarding hats and shoes but soon decided to do away with clothing altogether and in this fashion dispersed themselves in the Spree, or sat about their cave doors munching black bread and sausages, apparently oblivious to the crowds of sight-seers who began to frequent the vicinity.

Dr. Goldberg, from his abode in the "Cave of the Nietzschean" issued the following circulars discarding the philosophy of the present civilization and the faults of the Nietzschean circulars discarding Communism, the philosophy of the present civilization and
the faults of the Nietzschean
circulars discarding Communism, the
philosophy of the present civilization and
the faults of the Nietzschean

Somebody spoiled the experiment by convincing that the brotherhood was being deleterious effect upon the moral and calling attention on the doctor's career, which was said to have included efforts to warm England, Russia and Poland.
The colony has disappeared but its leader has become a familiar figure upon the streets of Berlin, wearing long hair and going barefoot.

FINE FIELDING SAVES ADKINS IN OPENING CLASH AT BALLINGER

Nitros Win, 9 to 7, Though Badly Outhit; Walks Helped Some.

Special to the Times. BALLINGER, May 31.—Nifty fielding by the Nitros enabled them to beat the Bearcats in the opener here yesterday. Lefty Adkins was wild and Ballinger nicked him for thirteen safeties, resulting in packed cushions in every round. The wonder is that Ballinger did not make a million.

CABINET MEMBER GIVES DEMPSEY A TRY OUT

An unusual and rather unconventional pose of Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty made on the occasion of his visit to the training camp of Jack Dempsey, at Atlantic City, N. J. The attorney general squared off with the champion and, in fun, started a fight for Dempsey's jaw.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR.

Ruth made his twelfth homer off Walter Johnson on Polo grounds. Five Yank batters hit for fifteen bases against Washington in the sixth inning. Lewis and Hamah hit homers, Mogridge and Meusel triples and Peck a single.

HOW MUCH ARE KNOCK DOWNS WORTH IN RING?

Greatly Over-rated by Average Person, Wisconsin Boxing Expert Believes.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 30.—The value of a knockdown in a prize fight is greatly over-rated by the average person and at times should receive virtually no consideration in deciding the winner, according to several leaders in the fight game in the central West.

In that awful first he walked five men and the Nitros ganged four of their eight safeties. Another walking he in the sixth caused the opener to be jammed before a man was out. The derrick was called and Crockett was hoisted away from mither. The three deadheads scored on Thompson, but after that the celebrated "Bugs" had the Nitros using their bats for Indian clubs.

ERROR AT PLATE GIVES ABILENE 2 TO 1 VICTORY

Special to the Times. ABILENE, May 31.—Westfall dropped the ball after tagging Comstock at the plate in the tenth frame of the best game played here this season, and the Eagles won by the score of 2 to 1. Although the Scouts outhit the locals, fine fielding on the part of Abilene pulled Gomez Hill out of the dangerous places three or four times and White's men carried off the bacon. The fight put up by both teams in the pinches featured the game.

MANAGING IS CONDUCTIVE TO HEAVY HITTING

Special to the Times. CHICAGO, May 30.—Managing a ball club seems to be conducive to heavy hitting, for Ty Cobb, pilot of the Detroit Tigers, and Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Indians, are giving Harry Heilmann of Detroit, a terrific fight for the batting leadership of the American League.

BRONCS TAKE GAME BY SOME SCORE OR OTHER

SWEETWATER, May 31.—San Angelo won yesterday by some score believed to be 11x10, in a wild melee which filled the scorebook with errors and hits and boneheads and other interesting features. The hieroglyphics were so numerous that they overlapped and they will have to be referred to a professor of Egyptology for a translation.

THIS JUDGE GRANTED 138 DIVORCES IN ONE MINUTE

By ALFRED J. WEST (United Press Staff Correspondent) LONDON, May 30.—America has so long been regarded as the home of quick and easy divorce, that it has come as a distinct shock to staid Britisners to learn that the divorce courts in London are churning out decrees at the rate of one every seven and a half minutes of working time.

Further, there is a waiting list of some 2,000 persons seeking divorces, when the judges have time to spare. The British divorce court is part of the High Court of Justice, headquarters in London, and "The Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division" as it is called, is run by Sir Henry Duke, President of the Division, and two High Court judges.

OLD MEN TALK WAR AT THE SKAT CLUB IN BERLIN, GERMANY

BERLIN, May 31.—That Hindenburg months and months before the war's close saw the handwriting on the wall and often wanted to call a halt, is the story that comes from the inner recesses of private "skat" club in Hannover.

This same story casts a sidelight on his feeling for Ludendorff—a feeling that is generally admitted not to be very cordial.

Hindenburg, living in his pretty modest cottage in Hannover, and having a few intimates, "skat" furnishes his amusement, and he likes a little group of old men—the more so, because they know him and don't talk war and politics.

While waiting one night for the field marshal to join them, the old men had discussed the war. "I sometimes wonder if it was really necessary to sacrifice so many lives for naught," remarked one, not noticing Hindenburg had entered the room.

"If the war had gone according to my idea, it would have closed much earlier," he replied, with dignity. "I saw two years ahead what would come. I knew what the consequences would be even in 1914, 1915 and a longer time in the east when I was condemned to inactivity. I then followed all events carefully, and always studied the war. I knew in advance the outcome of Verdun and saw the time when they would call me. All happened as I expected. They came and fetched me, and later I have more than once wanted to say as I worked over my maps—Schluss, Schluss (the end, the end.)"

"But there was pressure from too many sides. And, in the last analysis, I am only human, and was already an old man."

The old men were moved. One ventured to ask: "And what about Ludendorff?" "Go," merely replied Hindenburg. "That was a judgment, as far as the old men were concerned. It spelled Hindenburg's feeling toward the man who mixed it politics with strategy, who unlike Hindenburg, wasn't all soldier."

REMEMBER to ask your grocer for Calumet Baking Powder and be sure that you get it—the Indian head on the orange label. Then forget about bake day failures. For you will never have any. Calumet always produces the sweetest and most palatable foods. And now remember, you always use less than of most other brands because it possesses greater leavening strength.

Now Remember—Always Use

TOMMY MILTON WINS TITLE AS SPEEDWAY KING

Leads Every Lap After De Palma Is Forced From Race.

By United Press.

SPEEDWAY, Indianapolis, Ind., May 31.—Tommy Milton again proved his claim to the title of world's speed king here on Monday when he won the ninth 500-mile automobile racing classic.

Careful driving, good headwork and continued nursing of his machine won for Milton.

Milton's average time was ahead of that made in 1920. He made the 500 miles in an average time of 89.84 per hour. The time for the race was 5 hours 34 minutes 44 seconds. The victor drove a new car, which had traveled less than 100 miles before he started the race. He kept it going steadily, but not at a sensational pace for the first 100 laps, trying it out. After he had found out that it would do, he gave it the juice and was never headed but once. That was in the 117th lap, when Roscoe Sarles took the lead for a short distance.

The race was remarkable for the closeness of the finish. Sarles, who finished second, was less than a lap behind Milton during the last 100 miles.

Jules Ellingboe was right behind Sarles. Ellingboe relieved Percy Ford, the Chicago amateur driver, after his own car was forced out of the race. He drove a careful, consistent race and was well up toward the front throughout the race.

The real test of the race was when the other drivers forced Ralph De Palma to drive his car to pieces.

De Palma, setting a pace close to ninety-four miles an hour, led from the start to the 280 mile, with the exception of two early laps. He looked like De Palma was going to be able to pull through successfully as, one by one, his challengers fell side by side of the track. But two connecting rods gave way and he was forced to give it up. He won $10,650 in prizes, however, for winning the laps.

ALL NATION ELECTRIFIED, IS PLANNED

Millions Will Be Spent to Extend Electrical Energy to American Industry.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 30.—Plans for the launching of a gigantic electric light and power development program, nationwide in scope, will be unfolded at the forty-fourth annual convention of the National Electric Light Association to be held here beginning tomorrow and lasting until June 3.

Development plans will be discussed which call for the expansion of the industry and the expenditure of millions of dollars for the purpose of extending the service of electrical energy to American industry.

Electrification of steam railroads, national water power development, plans for super-power development, which means the connecting of the electric resources of the nation into powerful distributing systems and scores of other subjects will occupy the attention of the delegates during the four days' session.

More than 3,000 delegates and their wives are expected and they will include the leading men of the electrical industry from all parts of the country. General sessions will be held every morning and in the afternoon the convention will split up into sections at which various phases of the industry's problems will be discussed.

Martin J. Insull of Chicago, president of the National Electric Light Association will deliver the opening address. One of the most important speeches will be the address by James E. Davidson, of Omaha, who is chairman of the Public Relations National section. Mr. Davidson will outline the work of his committee in promoting a better understanding between utilities industry and the public. Legislative bodies, public utilities commissions and federal authorities.

At the same session, David Darrington, of New York will discuss the development of company organizations, a movement aimed to result in closer relations between employees and the companies. Among the other speakers will be James A. Perry of Atlantic, president of the National Association of Railway and Utility Commissioners; R. H. Ballard, of Los Angeles, a member of the public policy sub-committee, and Alex Dowd of Detroit.

PETTY THEIEVRY IS AGAIN VEXING THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Petty thieving for the first time in several weeks is again becoming a nuisance. Last night a pistol was stolen from a car on a down town street and a set of harness was taken from B. White on the McCleskey lease. This theft was out of the city limits. Sunday night the People's drug store on East Main street was entered and a small quantity of cigars were taken. On the same night a small amount of clothing was stolen from a residence in Hodges Oak Park. Chief of Police Reynolds said Tuesday that he was going to round up the dope heads and give them "the air" and he was sure that the petty thieving would cease.

Such actions in the past he declared had always proved a good remedy.

WAYFARER IS PLEASED WHEN HIJACKERS PROVE TO BE RABBIT HUNTERS

The twilight had fallen; two figures, both armed, stepped from an automobile to the side of the road, and waited a tense moment for their prey to appear. A second car came up and without hesitation the driver stopped his machine and raised his hands in the air. He was taking no chances. "All right," he said in a decided Yiddish accent, "take vot I got." However it was explained to him that the armed men were Chief of Police Reynolds and his father-in-law, H. Robinson, who were out rabbit hunting and were only waiting for Bunny to stick his nose from behind the brush.

Mr. Robinson said this morning that between himself and the chief they bagged twenty rabbits and only missed two shots.

Mr. Robinson it happens, is one of the original brothers of the Robinson Brothers' circus. There were five of the brothers and Chief Reynolds' father-in-law was one of the clowns and did a trick riding act.

Neither has he forgotten how to entertain both the children and the grown-ups.

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL IN CHICAGO HAS NEVER SEEN A TRAIN

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 30.—The Peoria street Y. W. C. A., on the west side, recently discovered a girl member, 15 years old, living only nine blocks from the heart of Chicago, who has never seen a railroad train, except in books, has ridden on a street car but once, and has never been in the loop.

The discovery was made when the Y. W. C. A. planned a summer camp in the woods. The girl is Dolly Malley, oldest of a family of five children.

"No, honest," she told interviewers, "I've never seen a railroad train. I've seen pictures of 'em in books, but never a regular one. There aren't any right around here, and I've never been over to any of the stations where they come in. I've never been in the loop either."

"I've ridden on the 'L' several times, oh, six or seven, maybe. But only on the street car once, sir."

Fordson

The Fordson saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time. The Fordson plows, harrows, drills as much ground in the same time as from four to six horses. (Many farmers say it does the work of eight horses.) The Fordson does for the farmer just what machine power does for the manufacturer—it enables him to manufacture his product at less cost. And that is what the farmer wants to do; grow his crops more cheaply and make his margin of profit greater. And the Fordson will help him do it.

Let us prove this to you by a demonstration on your own farm. Just phone us or drop us a card.
