DALLAS, May 21.—J. S. Strickland millionaire electric interurban promoter, builder and official of Dallas, dropped dead at his home here today while eating breakfast in bed. Death was due to heart trouble.

He was one of the most prominent traction men of the country. At the time of his death he was president of the Dallas railway company, the Dallas Power and Light Company, the Texas Electric Railway company, the Dallas Securities company, Dallas Union Trust company, and active vice chairman of the Texas Land Securities Syndicate.

Strickland came to Texas in 1879, and spent his boyhood in Ellis county. He came to Dallas in 1899 and became connected with interurban electric railway promotion. He promoted and built the Dallas-Sherman interurban and then promoted and built the Dallas and Waco line with a branch to Corsicana.

HABEAS CORPUS SEEKS RELEASE OF DAN REESE

A writ of habeas corpus will be filed this afternoon in Judge George Davenport's court in an effort to secure bail for Dan Reese under charge of murder for the death of B. Davis. The writ will be filed by Taylor & Wassaf, according to their statement, and they will ask that the hearing be set for next Wednesday. Reese after he killed Davis was remanded to jail without bond under a charge of willful murder with malice aforethought.

The office of the attorneys for the defense stated this morning that they would be able to show that Reese was acting in self defense when he shot Davis.

G. C. Dedrick, who was held temporarily after the killing, has been released.

In the habeas corpus hearing the attorneys will seek to show that circumstances surrounded the killing which did not warrant the holding of Reese without bond.

MANY FOUNTAINS IN CITY ARE INSANITARY

Only Two Found by Inspector to Be in Good State of Sanitation.

The soda fountains of the city generally are in an insanitary condition according to Wade Swift, sanitary inspector who yesterday made an inspection of these places. He stated that only two were found in a good state of sanitation. However, all the owners of the places were eager to carry out his recommendations and he was sure that they would all be in first class shape soon.

In regard to the examination of employes of cafes, restaurants, butcher shops and other places Mr. Swift said that he had found that certificates of health were being issued by certain physicians without an examination. These men he declared, for a fee of $1 would fill in the necessary blanks and sign it regardless of the condition of the person to be examined. Friday morning he did not know what measures his department would take to combat this practice. He was to have a conference with Sanitary Commissioner Dr. R. H. Hodges who he expected would outline a method of procedure. The law plainly states that the examination shall be made by a reputable physician. Others of the medical profession Mr. Swift stated were making a careful examination and collecting a fee of $5 for the work.

It is thought if Dr. Hodges finds that some physicians have been issuing the certificates without a real examination he will declare all such certificates void and demand that the persons holding them procure others from doctors known to be reliable.

THESE "TRIPLETS" HAD GERMANY'S EXPERTS IN STATISTICS PUZZLED

United Press Staff Correspondent. BERLIN, May 21.—After discussing earnestly, pro and con for several weeks, whether a woman could bear triplets—two in January and the third in March—the German scientific world awoke today to find it had been victimized. Instead of being confronted with a new scientific wonder, they had merely "fallen for" a false report of the statistics bureau, according to which a workman's wife, already mother of ten children, had borne two children on Jan. 18 and the third on March 9.

The statistics bureau was likewise an innocent victim of the woman. It appears that the woman, in expectation of becoming a mother soon, had notified the bureau of the birth of twins. This false notice, made in January, was given apparently so she could obtain extra food and milk cards.

Then, in March, when her one child was actually borne, the midwife, in accordance with the law notified the proper authorities. This one child, incorrectly regarded by the statistics bureau as a delayed triplet, was duly recorded in the records, whereafter this strange "phenomenon" became public.

PRINCIPAL FIGURES IN NEW YORK "BUNGALOW MYSTERY"

Mrs. Hazel Warner

John H. Reid

Arthur Tyler

A country-wide search is being conducted for Arthur Tyler, alias "Don" Collins, known to the New York police as a gambler and confidence man, who is wanted in connection with the shooting of John Reid, wealthy manufacturer, in the home of Mrs. Hazel R. Warner, the Bronx, New York. Mr. Reid is in a critical condition, suffering from five bullet wounds. Collins, according to the police, was extremely jealous of Mrs. Warner, who is separated from her husband. Several months ago, according to the police, Collins visited the Warner bungalow and in a fit of jealous rage smashed mirrors and wrecked furniture. Reid, say the police, had replaced Collins in the affections of Mrs. Warner. Mrs. Warner disappeared since the shooting and the police have had no trace of her. The Warner bungalow, which represents an investment of $50,000, and is luxuriously furnished, is being guarded by the police and Mr. George Kruger, an uncle of Mrs. Warner.

WAYWARD BOY HOLDS FAST TO CODE OF HONOR WHILE MOTHER WANTS FOR COMFORTS OF LIFE

"Good morning, Nixon."
"Good morning, sir."
"Have you been a good boy, Nixon?"
"Yes, sir."
"Good day, sir."
"Goodbye, sir."

As regularly as the sun comes up in the east, this ritual goes on between a little ragged boy badly in need of a haircut and a local attorney and has been transpiring since a time six weeks ago when the boy robbed the till of the Burton-Lingo company of $104. Before that he was in trouble in Dallas for a similar offense. In each case the attorney procured his release and the last time he was turned over to the lawyer who took it on himself to be responsible for his good behavior.

The boy is Nixon Waldrop, 11 years old. In all those six weeks he has not missed trudging his way up the stairway to the attorney's office and the morning rites are as solemn as a sinner at confession. Not for anything would the lawyer permit an air of levity to break into the morning exchange of respectful greetings.

His Simple Faith.

The child, he says, now has an interest to which he looks forward.

BOMBERS SQUEAL!

By United Press. CHICAGO, May 21.—Two new confessions from men accused in connection with the bombing and slugging plots in Chicago's labor troubles, were announced by police today.

James Sweeney, alleged leader of the gang which bombed scores of buildings here and Andrew Bartlett, accused of being the chief bomber, confessed, chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris announced.

The stories told by Sweeney and Bartlett were practically identical with the confession of Andrew Kerr, member of the gang who first "squealed."

FORMER SENATOR DIES.

SANTA FE, N. M., May 20.—Thomas Benton Catren, United States senator from New Mexico from March 27, 1912, to March 4, 1917, died at his home here yesterday. He had been ill for about fifty months.

He knows that his friend believes in him and each morning he wants to make the pilgrimage with his heart free of any mischief.

Saturday morning he came with an air of sadness, bringing a note. His mother is in deep trouble and from out even his tender years he understands just what that trouble is. He knows the fear of not having enough to eat.

The note is not addressed to the attorney.

In substance it reads: "It is very necessary that I ask you this favor. It is absolutely for the benefit of myself and my three little children who are left here without funds with which to even secure groceries. My husband left one of the boys here to look after us and he left without leaving us even a dollar. I had a letter from him yesterday saying that he would send us some money in a few days. I have got to have some provisions for my babies now. If you will please let this boy have $2 I will call and pay it. I am sick and unable to work otherwise I would not come to you or anyone else with this."

FOCH VIEWED MARSHAL OF FRANCE IN UNIFORM FROM THEATER BENCH

By Associated Press. PARIS, May 20.—Marshal Foyelle, in the full regalia of a marshal of France, decorations, baton and all, was presiding over a meeting of French war veterans at the Invalides the other night, when he espied Marshal Foch, in civilian clothes, seated after the tenth row from the platform and trying to appear inconspicuous between a former private and a corporal.

"What are you doing there?" he called out from the stage, "your place is up here, come right here this minute," he added in mock serious tone. After the meeting, as they were leaving the hall, some one overheard Marshal Foyelle ask Marshal Foch something to this effect: "What was the idea of occupying a hard bench in the audience when you could sit on a nice easy chair on the platform?"

Foch replied: "I just wanted to see how a marshal of France looked in uniform to a mere civilian."

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—Cracksmen obtained several thousand dollars in loot when they blew the doors off two safes at the offices of the Coca Cola Bottling Works on South Central avenue early today. One safe door was blown a distance of thirty feet.

RICH WOMAN ROBBER ONLY MENTALLY OFF?

Millionaire Maid in Palatial Home Stocked With Stolen Finery Is Arrested.

By United Press

CHICAGO, May 21.—The family of Mrs. Joseph S. Heil, millionaire maid and confessed robber, stood loyally by her today as she stood accused of stealing $25,000 worth of household goods. Two children and her husband remained with her at the detention home throughout the night, while she underwent examination to determine if she was "Raffles" or a kleptomaniac. Verdict of physicians and police was that it was a clear case of kleptomania.

Mrs. Heil, charming young wife of a banker and broker, lived in a palatial home, surrounded by every luxury. Her husband gave her $300 a month for pin money, and besides paid her bills for everything she purchased.

She had a nurse, two maids and a houseman. She was the mother of three sturdy young boys and a girl.

Yet when police traced her to her home, they found $200,000 worth of stolen house goods and jewelry, ranging from canary cages to diamond rings and silver and de luxe editions. Pawn tickets for $5,000 worth of goods, which had been disposed of were found. Mrs. Heil was identified as the "perfect maid" by a score of housekeepers on the North Shore "gold coast." They identified her as the person who for many months has answered ads for a "maid" and after staying a few days would disappear articles on which she could lay her with the most expensive household hands.

WOMAN POPS? MAN DECLINES SHE SUICIDES

By United Press

NEWARK, N. J., May 21.—Mrs. Mabel Connelly, 19 years old, committed suicide in a movie theatre after Elmer L. Broadwell, also 19, refused her proposal of marriage.

Broadwell, who was held as a material witness, was expected to be released shortly.

He said he accompanied Mrs. Connelly to the theatre and shortly before the end of the performance she asked him if he would marry her if she divorced Connelly.

"I told her I was fond of her, but that I did not love her enough to marry her," he said. "She left me to go the rest room, after saying 'then I haven't got a friend in the world. I might as well be dead.'"

The sound of the shot was heard in the lobby of the theatre, and a panic was narrowly averted. Broadwell was the first to reach her. Ushers testified that he entered the room room after the shot was fired.

OKLAHOMA FARMER IS HELD IN DUAL MURDER

By United Press. HUGO, Okla., May 21.—Lawrence Ballard, a farmer residing near Swink, Okla., is held in the county jail, authorities announced today, following the death of Mr. and Mrs. Derisch, who were shot to death at Swank Thursday.

Ballard was captured near the Oklahoma-Texas boundary line late yesterday. He declined to discuss the affair. The motive for the crime has not been revealed, authorities said.

Ballard is in jail following what authorities said was a gun fight at Swink late yesterday.

The shooting culminated from differences between the principals that had existed some time, according to members of the Choctaw sheriff's force. Derisch was declared to have made an attempt to kill Ballard some time ago, declaring Ballard had insulted his wife.

Ballard, awaiting preliminary hearing, declared he avoided Derisch until the night of the shooting, when, while en route home from school closing exercises, he saw Derisch draw a gun. Ballard was alleged to have fired his shotgun, blowing Derisch's head off. When Mrs. Derisch attempted to fire a revolver she was shot through the heart, it was declared.

Ballard was arrested at the mouth of Kiamichi, on Red river.

British and Egyptians Still Fighting Heavily

By United Press. CAIRO, Egypt, May 21.—Fighting continued late yesterday between British troops and Egyptian nationalists here and in Alexandria.

British cavalry swept the narrow streets here, clearing them of mobs of revolutionists.

Heavy casualties were reported. Many nationalists were killed and wounded in engagements with British troops at Alexandria. One British soldier was killed. Details were meager.

Renewed outbreaks were expected today.

SCRIVNOR IS THREATENED BY PRISON MATES

By United Press. DALLAS, May 21.—George Wheeler, alias Charles E. Gaines, arrested several weeks ago by federal authorities at Indianapolis, Ind., was identified as a participant in the fatal robbery of the Jackson street postoffice here last January, by W. F. Scrivnor, confessed participant, who was the principal witness at trials of those convicted of participation in the robbery.

Fear of possible violence to Scrivnor by other prisoners at the county jail today caused officials to transfer him to a solitary cell.

SEARCHER OF SOULS SAYS RICHES SHAME

Special to the Times. CHICAGO, May 21.—The hidden soul of the average American is an amazing thing, in the opinion of Dr. Wilhelm Stekel, of Vienna, a rival of Freud and a co-leader in the advancement of the science of psycho-analysis.

He revealed in an interview here today that wealthy men are ashamed of their wealth, ashamed of making money. He has been in Chicago for three weeks searching the souls of the people. He said:

"I have been astonished by the American complex. All the men and women who have come under my observation here have an identical neurosis. It is the money complex.

"I have found every wealthy man I have analyzed here is ashamed of his wealth, ashamed of making money. He begins to give excuses for his wealth as soon as we sit down to talk. His daughter, when analyzed, gives excuses.

Money Brings Blushes.

"When he talks about how much money he has or what he does to make money he blushes. His daughter apologizes for him. His son also is ashamed. Often I find his son given to socialistic theories, wanting to give the family riches away. I often find the father apologizing for his riches by saying that he has accumulated money only that he may be able to use it in enjoying others' happiness."

SOLID VOTE IS NEEDED ON T-P STATION HERE

The legal power to deed fifteen feet of Commerce street to the Texas & Pacific railroad will be vested in the city commission Monday if the charter amendment to be voted upon at that time is carried. But there has been a fear expressed that the vote will be so light that the railroad company will say that it is not representative and for that reason will not proceed with the erection of the new station. To avoid this possibility a warning is sent out to every legal voter to cast a ballot on that date.

The city, it is said, does not want anything to hinder the immediate construction of the station after the election and to be sure that nothing does happen, it is hoped that the amendment will carry by a solid vote of the citizenship.

REMEMBER WHAT BRET HARTE SAID ABOUT THE HEATHEN CHINEE?

LICHAUN, Shensi Province, China, May 21.—Waste of money is inevitable when large sums are used for emergency relief in a country like China, where "squeeze" is an accepted and honorable practice, but an investigation of the famine region leads to the belief that the money that has been poured into this stricken land has for the most part been very well spent. Daily there is less and less waste.

But there are financial plague spots. Here in Shensi is to be found one of them. The local magistrate has, until John Hayes and his party of foreigners arrived on the scene to internationalize the control of the funds, been playing ducks and drakes with the money forwarded from Peking and Shanghai. Hayes put a sudden end to that situation when he discovered that the magistrate's home village was listed as having 8,000 starving persons whereas it is doubtful if that many people live in the community.

"My village elders submitted the figure," blandly explained the magistrate, "and I had to accept their word or they would lose face with my people."

Hayes was of the opinion that food was more important than face and immediately set about remedying matters.

Another grave condition is being dealt with in the district administered by the southern army. A fund of $50,000 for famine relief fell into the hands of the authorities and was distributed impartially—and then re-collected as taxes.

But in spite of these instances of graft it must not be believed that the great majority of the famine relief money is not going into the proper channels.

JEWELS, SILK UNIES, 'NEVERYTHING WORN' BY MURDERED NEGRO

With twenty-five buck shot holes in his body, a negro by the name of Williamson who is said to have been the "boss of the flats" is dead at the Milford morgue. Robert Wilson, another negro, is under arrest for the shooting of Williamson. He used a shot gun loaded with buck shot and fire three times.

Williamson is said to have chased Wilson with a knife and then Wilson in turn secured the gun and killed Williamson.

Officers say that the dead man has been the boss of the flats and had an agreement with several negroes whereby they were to rob white men and split with him. They declare that a valuable diamond ring is in one of the local banks and that it is his property.

EAGLES GANG BLOWS IN NINTH, BREAK TIE HILL GIVES NITROS

Nitros Lose Third Straight in Hard Fought Battle; Long Hits Feature.

Those Eagles die hard. Twice yesterday, with two men out each time, they applied the ash to the apple with a vim that would have won much applause on their own home grounds.

In the first attack, they overpowered a two-run lead that the Nitros had acquired. In the second they broke a tie which Gomez Hill had presented to the Nitros.

But he got revenge by refusing to have his "awful ninta," as his habit has been, his falling from grace was not explained.

The final score was 7 to 5, which sounds like a goodly battle. It was the only disappointing feature being the Nitros' failure to win more than a pinch-hits made some action strictly in accord with the rules of order.

Backed by a renovated cast, Nick Carter essayed the hurling for the Nitros. With the exception of the two rounds casually mentioned above, Nick did fine, but Judge Fillman refused to run them out of the testimony, so the Eagles copped the verdict.

Cawthon Can Throw. Pete Cawthon, the Nitros' newest member, broke into the fray at shortstop, thereby showing his willingness to do any baseball chores that the situation demands of him.

Pete is an outfielder, and all he claimed was that he would make a stab at the job. He has been coaching all the season and while in physical trim, hasn't played any games and hasn't looked over much pitching.

Jonny Singleton also moved into the first line of defense and had a perfect day at short. He had four chances and rambled three, but recovered in time to sing the runners out.

Abilene also presented a patchwork lineup, with White and Becnel out of the game. White has a badly sprained leg and Becnel into second on his arm in Thursday's game, regardless of the fact that he wears his pads elsewhere.

Kizziar led off with a simon pure three-base rap. Milan strolled. Hartrick rapped one to Murphy. It was as hot as the hinges of a drugless drug store on Saturday night, but Spuds came up with the pellet and threw Kizziar out at the plate.

Errors by Cawthon and Murphy plus one hit gave the Eagles a score in the third, but the Nitros evened up, on Clapp's second three-ply blow and the misdirected strategy of Hill. York had again appeared in the martyr's role, but in trying to cross 'em up by bunting the third strike, went out on a foul tip.

Then Hill set himself to break up that squeeze play. He guessed right. It was on. But his first one was far to the right and Stover's despairing clutch missed the ball three feet.

In the fourth, Eagle bats got busy on Carter and for a time the rumble of hits sounded like a tool shop in the old days. Two were down when the massacre started. Stover was on first, Comstock lined to center, squarely between Clapp and Lovey, and the two were poor seconds in the race to the fence.

SAN ANGELO, May 21.—San Angelo again won from the locals Friday, making it two straight. The final score was 8 to 6.

LAST ROUND FINISH WINS FOR SCOUTS

CISCO, May 21.—In the most exciting finish ever witnessed in Harrell park, Cisco, in the eighth inning, tied the score and won in the ninth when Cantrell made a wild pitch, allowing a Scout runner to score.

The final score was Cisco 6 and Ballinger 5. Up to the eighth Cantrell had the Scouts eating out of his hand and his teammates had piled up a three-run lead. A sensational rally by Cisco tied the score. The old Mineral Wells line-up was slightly shaken up, there being two or three Ballinger semi-pro players in the game.

WALTER JOHNSON PASSES, SAYS WRAY

They never come back from Bad-arnville. The Walshes and the Woods and others have all tried it; but once they journeyed to old Bonsetter Reese for a failing arm, it's the beginning of the end. Not that it's the bonesetter's fault. But when the wing goes lame after years of speed-ball heaving, the fireball merchant's one best bet is through. He never gets it back.

And so we pause to condole with Walter Johnson, who last year retired after hurling a no-hit contest. He was not "done," not Walter; merely a kink bothered him; but it was advisable to rest him up, Griffith said. A journey to the bonesetter was encouraging, and the start of the present season found Griffith expecting the once great fast ball pitcher to recover fully.

But Johnson's figures for the season are significant. Here they are: IP. R. H. SO. BB. W. L. T. TO 47 31 60 28 17 2 3 1 3. Fancy Walter the Great being hit for 60 safeties in 47 innings, and being driven from the box three times at this early stage of the season!

Yesterday's game was probably his worst showing. He was plugged for 9 hits and 8 runs in 4 innings; but luckily was not charged with the defeat of his club.

LAD KILLS MAN.

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—Sixteen-year-old Jesus Rocha is in the custody of juvenile authorities today charged with murder. He shot and killed Eulogio Barrientos, 40, in defense of his mother, Mrs. F. Martine, according to police records. Barrientos is said to have attacked Mrs. Martine.

A Letter to Tex Rickard.

Dear Tex— We saw a note in one of the papers recently which said that you intended putting on three preliminaries to the Carpenter-Dempsey mill. Oh, Tex, have a heart! For the love Mike DON'T DO THAT!

When a fellow goes to a big fight he WANTS TO SEE THAT BIG FIGHT. He doesn't want to see a bunch of hams wrestling around, slapping and falling down. HE WANTS THE BIG FIGHT.

They don't put on a pair of semi-pro teams before a world's series game. Why do it in a big fight? Put a band in there, as you did at Reno. Give us a bit of music— then the big fight.

BANK DEPOSITS ARE STATIONARY IN VIENNA

VIENNA, May 21.—Bank deposits here have remained virtually stationary for three months, thus forcing the banks to resort to emergency measures to meet demands of large depositors for payrolls and similar purposes. They are depositing securities with the government and having money printed to order.

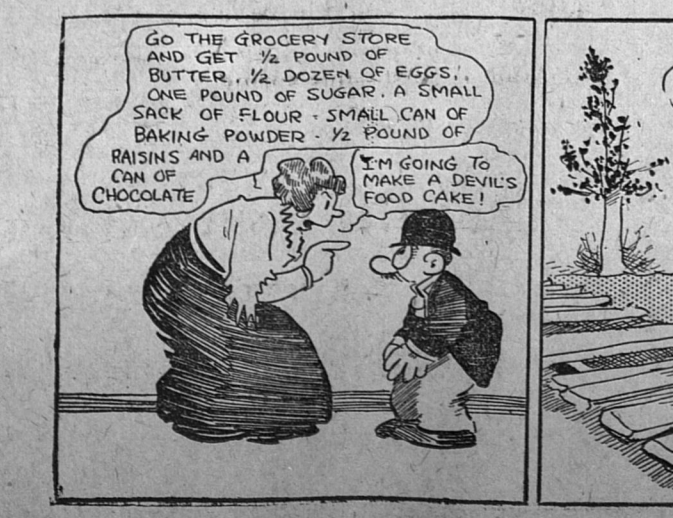

The curious situation is ascribed principally to the law governing depositors, which requires a complete identification of the individual. Many persons object to this, not wishing to disclose their assets for taxation and preferring to have many small bank accounts under different names. The bankers have asked for the repeal of the law.

Another explanation is that there is so little faith in the Austrian crown that the people spend it as fast as they get it for something of tangible value.

MADAMOISELLE DIANE A HIT IN GOOD BILL OF PANTAGES NOW ON

Whatever is a "chanteuse," Mlle. Diane, who, with Jan Rubini, violinist, does the headline act on the Pantages at the Majestic this afternoon and tonight, is most certain to make that enticing-sounding term live long in the memory of those who delight in artistry.

Rubini, if he's a Swede, is more nearly a master of the violin than any Swede before him and he certainly loves someone, for he plays the heart passion into every draw of his bow.

LIBERTY. There is the twang of the sea, the thrill of human combat with the elements and the drama of red-blooded sailors in "Godless Men," the Reginald Barker Production, a Goldwyn offering.

This photoplay is a film adaptation of the Ben Ames Williams story "Black Pawl," which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. The sea-dog who has been called "Black Pawl" He rules his ship Deborah with fear, the most mutinous character aboard being his own son Red Pawl.

CAPTAIN WHO WOULDN'T FIGHT GERMAN KIN MUST SERVE TERM

ST. LOUIS, May 21—Civil courts have no right to review or change the sentences pronounced by regularly constituted courts-martial, and, as the result of this decision, handed down by the United States circuit court of appeals at St. Paul, Captain David A. Henkes, formerly of the United States army, will have to serve out a five-year sentence to the penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, from which he was released by a writ of habeas corpus in the federal district court of Kansas after serving twenty-two months.

Before he was sent to France he asked to be assigned to other duties, and after his arrival there he wrote another letter seeking another assignment.

Three thousand miles of road, between Boston and the city of Los Angeles, has no terrors for Olga C. Grover, pretty 18-year-old Boston high school girl. With her mother as sole companion, Miss Grover is going to make the trip from coast to coast in her own car. Miss Grover is going to handle the wheel the entire distance. She expects the trip will take about six weeks, for they plan to see something of the country as they go through. Miss Grover has mapped out the following route: From Boston to New York, thence to Washington via Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City and out along the famous Santa Fe Trail by Santa Fe and the Grand Canyon, Needles, El Centro, San Diego, and up the famous Camino Real to Los Angeles. marine duty in the transport zone, or any other duty of similar nature, all of which I will perform to the best of my ability."

A third letter recited that since he could not reconcile fighting in the trenches against possible relatives with the dictates of his conscience and his offer of service elsewhere had been ignored, "my first duty has become one of tendering my resignation as an officer in the army."

President Wilson reduced the twenty-five-year sentence to five years. Captain Henkes served twenty-two months of this term before he was released under a habeas corpus writ by the federal district court of Kansas. Since that time he had been residing in Kansas.

Ruling is Reversed. J. R. McCrea, commandant of the federal prison, appealed from the decision of the lower court. That rendered Saturday by the United States court of appeals at St. Paul reverses the lower court.

Captain Henkes will have to surrender himself within thirty days after the appeal court mandate is issued. That will be sixty days after May 14, or July 14 next.

Judges Sanborn and Carland of the district court of appeals, and District Judge Lewis of the federal district court, sat in St. Paul as the appellate court and handed down the decision. It holds there is no merit in the defendant's plea that the court-martial may not be reviewed or altered by civil courts. "If otherwise held," the decision says, "the civil courts would virtually administer the rules and articles of war."

BRITISH MILITARY SHOW.

LONDON, May 21.—The Royal Naval and Military Tournament—the annual prize show of the British Army, Navy and Air Force—opened today at Olympia west London, with the customary pomp. The Duke of Connaught declared the tournament open, and King George, Queen Mary and other members of the royal family will visit the show before it ends June 4.

The tournament is a series of competitions for horsemanship, swordsmanship, bayonet-fighting, etc., with brilliant displays of specialist branches like the Royal Engineers, with displays of bridge building under fire.

PAPERING WALLS WITH AUSTRIAN BANKNOTES PROVES PROFITABLE

GENEVA, May 21.—Papering the walls with Austrian banknotes proved such a good advertisement for a St. Gall restaurant that other innkeepers have taken up the idea. They have found that the cost is little more than that of good wall paper.

NICOTINE'S REPRIEVE. It will be a severe blow to the purists—this scientific vindication of tobacco by the eminent English surgeon, Sir James Cantlie. It is his conclusion that of the "four social poisons"—the others being tea, coffee and alcohol—Lady Nicotine is the least injurious. It is advisable only that approximately the same amount of her be consumed each day, thus not to overwork the heart or disappoint it of the portion it is prepared to handle.

SOME REPUBLICAN PROSPERITY The 20 per cent. wage reduction announced by the United States Steel Corporation for its great army of employees comes when the self-constituted party of prosperity and the full dinner-pail is in control of all branches of the Government. It is for this reason alone to be held as much responsible for the industrial depression which has made this and other current wage reductions necessary as it held the Democratic Party responsible for the panic of 1893 following closely upon the return of that party to power earlier in the same year.

This is why steel and other wages are now being reduced when they were expected hardly a year ago to be holding at the top figures. THE FIRST BOOM By MORRIS

TINKER BOB STORIES By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB.

THE FERRY GOES UNDER. The ferry was ready to leave when out of the thicket nearby came a fellow running at top speed. He called to Three Legs to hold the ferry for him to get over the river right away. It usually happened that the first trip in the morning was made without more than one or two passengers. But the trip was made anyway, even if there was no passenger. This fellow seemed to be in a great hurry, and when he climbed aboard the ferry he was anxious that Mr. Long Neck pull out into the river at once. But there is no urging Long Neck, in fact, he couldn't move fast if he wanted to, but he was very steady.

Now this fellow had a long tail and a long body but his legs were short. In the summer time he has a coat the color of the woods and thickets and in the winter he has a coat the color of snow. He travels mostly at night and speaks about as though someone was looking for him all the time. But on this occasion he was up early in the morning to take a trip. Tinker Bob watched the ferry pull out from the shore with this lone passenger on board. He knew there was something wrong or this fellow would not be in such a hurry. But the King said nothing, just kept watching. Soon there appeared in the edge of the thicket, on the limb of a small tree the sweetest little fellow you ever saw. Yes, it was Mr. Chipmonk. He seemed to be looking for someone. He climbed away out on the limb and stretched his little neck trying to locate someone. Then suddenly he looked out into the river and such a chattering you never heard. He spoke threats against that fellow on the ferry so fast you could not catch them all. Then it was that the King knew who had been harmed by this wicked fellow. He went to the thicket. "What's all the trouble about Mr. Chipmonk?" asked the King. "O King, there is trouble enough. I came over here on the ferry with my family to get away from that fellow but he followed me here and has destroyed my home. What he wants to do is frighten me so that I will tell him where some of the feathered creatures live then he thinks he can feast on their blood. But I will not do that."

DEATH MAY DEFEAT MEXICO IN EFFORTS TO GET EMBEZZLER

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Death may defeat the efforts of the Mexican government to extradite Captain Carmel Carlos Garcia of a charge of having embezzled $60,000 while paymaster in the Mexican army. Garcia is dying of tuberculosis in the San Francisco county jail. If he goes to Mexico, he may be shot as a traitor.

That Weasel Never Paid His Fare. family to get away from that fellow but he followed me here and has destroyed my home. What he wants to do is frighten me so that I will tell him where some of the feathered creatures live then he thinks he can feast on their blood. But I will not do that. "Look, look, look," cried Tinker Bob as he pointed to the river. "Something has happened." Sure enough something had happened for Mr. Long Neck, the turtle, had disappeared under the water and left his only passenger struggling in the river. "I wonder what that means?" No one knew what it meant till Mr. Turtle came back again for another load, then he told about it: "That Weasel never paid his fare and said he didn't have to pay it, so I merely told him I didn't have to carry him." Had you guessed that it was Mr. Weasel, the Great, who was riding on the ferry? (To be Continued.)

CONVICT ENDS LIFE TO ESCAPE RECAPTURE AFTER ABDUCTION OF OFFICIALS AS HOSTAGES

RAWLINS, Wyo., May 21.—Albert Biscaro, 32, notorious convict with a long prison record, is dead today with a self-inflicted bullet through the heart following his sensational escape from the Wyoming state penitentiary here. Biscaro succeeded in getting outside the prison walls by making hostages of Dr. Raymond Barber, the prison physician, and R. A. Magor, county clerk, both of whom he threatened to kill unless his orders were obeyed. The desperado, confined in the prison infirmary, was armed with a revolver, said by officials to have been smuggled into him by his wife, who has been arrested. When Dr. Barber and Magor entered the infirmary yesterday Biscaro covered them with his weapon and compelled the physician to exchange clothes with him. He then summoned Warden Hadsell and told the latter that unless the guards were withdrawn from the prison walls, the gates opened and Doctor Barber's automobile placed at his disposal at the infirmary door he would kill both Barber and Magor. To save the two men's lives, the warden agreed to the demand, and Biscaro, Dr. Barber and Magor were soon headed for Casper in the physician's high powered car. Allowing the freed prisoner a three-block start, Warden Hadsell and Sheriff Saunders of Carbon county with an armed posse in several automobiles, started in pursuit. A mile outside of Rawlins Biscaro forced Magor to leap from the automobile, which was traveling at a rate of 50 miles an hour. Magor was not badly injured. When Biscaro and Dr. Barber were 25 miles from Rawlins, the car burned out its engine bearing. Biscaro ordered the physician to accompany him to the nearby foothills, but Barber escaped in a fusillade of shots from the convict's revolver. Biscaro fled toward a ravine as his pursuers rushed up and sent a bullet through his heart, dying almost instantly. Biscaro had served terms in the state prisons of Colorado, California and Montana. Do not waste timber, grass, beauty, fishing, hunting. Be careful with fire.

years ago. He fought extradition on the ground that his was a political offense, and that in Mexico he would have to face a firing squad. He said he wished to die in this country and be draped with the American flag. The case has been carried through several courts. After having been released several times on bail, Garcia underwent a serious operation and tuberculosis developed. Recently he was pronounced in a serious condition. Lower courts order him returned to Mexico, but he has carried his appeal to the United States supreme court, which must decide in which country his life will end. When arrested, Garcia had in his possession $28,000 of the $60,000 he admitting having taken. The remainder had been spent chiefly for jewelry and clothing. The courts took charge of the $28,000 and ordered that the cost of keeping him in jail and supplying him with medical attendance should be first deducted and the sum remaining be returned to the Mexican government. If the decision goes against Garcia, the Mexican officers will have to nurse him carefully to get him across the line, where, he says, he would be shot. OVERSEER OF ZION IS SUED BY WOMAN

WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 21.—Wilbur Glenn Volvia, overseer of Zion City, today was made defendant in a damage suit involving the question of "how much clothing shall a woman wear?" Mrs. M. W. Austin, agent for a travelogue, contended before Justice Coulzon that she was wearing "sufficient attire" when Volvia ordered her out of the Zion home several weeks ago. Volvia and William Crane, a night clerk, declared she was not fittingly attired, but refrained "for modesty's sake" from describing her apparel. Mrs. Austin had been called to the telephone unexpectedly when the incident occurred.

TWO MISSING SHELLS ADD TO MYSTERY IN FLIER'S DEATH

BOSTON, May 21.—Although insisting they still strongly believed that Captain Patton O. McGilvary, former overseas flier, killed himself, police officials today were running down several details connected with his shooting a week ago. The Back Bay alley in which his body was found, was raked over again in a search for two pistol shells reported missing. The body bore four bullet wounds. Only two discharged shells were found.

BURGLAR CHASED FROM THREE HOMES IN HOUR, GETS LONESOME DOLLAR

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—There was neither pleasure nor much profit for a hard luck burglar who entered three homes in one hour early this morning. He awakened the prospective victims and was chased away after having aroused the neighbors in the vicinity of Victor and Sidney and South Second streets. One intended victim had a gun and Mr. Burglar just escaped a bullet. As the result of his enterprise he gathered in exactly one paper dollar.

ATE DOG AND LIKED IT.

SEIBERT, Colo., May 21.—A banquet at which baked prairie dog was the principal item on the menu was served to 20 citizens of Seibert recently in honor of officials of the White Cloud Mining Company here. The prairie dog dish was augmented by trimmings of mashed potatoes, gravy and salad. Persons who had seen prairie dogs for years, for the first time realized what good meat they had been passing up.

POLICE REPORTER'S LUCK DESERTS HIM AS "BABY EDITOR"

The police reporter of the Times, being something of a fatalist, always did believe he was the playing of fate to be buffeted about at the will of the gods. That belief became a certainty Saturday.

Witness all you who believe that luck has no bearing on the destinies of those who inhabit this turbulent world.

In fifteen months of service the police reporter has time after time written bright little gems of literature about new babies in Ranger homes. His best thought has gone into these stories because the police reporter also has felt the thrill of being a newly-made father. In time he gained the title of "the official baby editor." New babies were almost automatically passed along to him, but in all those stories no proud father came bearing gifts as a tribute to his mastery of English.

Three days ago a new voter came to the home of one of the city's legal lights. The police reporter through a perverse fate was working on a more or less prosaic murder story and the Times editor dashed out a piece of literature heralding the arrival of the new citizen.

Saturday the father, with the light of proud parenthood in his eyes came to the Times office bearing a box of our leading brand of cigars for said editor, all because of that one little story. Then they say there is no such animal as luck, and fate has no control over the destinies of mankind. The police reporter will never believe any such trash.

MYSTERY OF LONE FLIER WHO DISAPPEARED

By Associated Press.

PENSACOLA, Fla., May 21.—Loss of five men and the free balloon on March 22, was the first serious accident in the lighter-than-air section of the Pensacola Naval Flying School, the largest of its kind in the world, since its establishment in January 1914. The balloon in command of petty officer George Keener, Wilkinson, of Houston, Texas, and carrying four student pilots, R. V. Eland, machinist, mate, first class, of Belleville, Illinois; E. L. Kershaw, of Payne, La.; J. C. Elder, of Lebanon, N. Y.; and W. H. Trefrey, of Salem, Mass., set out on a usual night practice flight required of students, during which they must cover at least 200 miles.

On April 8, a fishing schooner sighted a black patch twenty-six miles southwest of Cape San Blas. It was the missing balloon. The basket still was attached and there was just enough gas left in the bag to keep it afloat. No trace of the men was found. Hope for their safety later was abandoned.

There have been few accidents in which balloons or dirigibles from the school have figured and no fatalities previously had been recorded. On September 30, 1918, Dirigible A-245 burst into flames as the result of an over-heated motor manifold. Men holding the mooring ropes, let go but not before the four men aboard had leaped to safety. At an altitude of 1,000 feet the flames reached the hydrogen charged bag and a terrific explosion followed. The wreckage fell into the bay.

Balloon A-5029 was destroyed by lightning some time later.

In the heavier-than-air section, which includes the seaplanes, there have been several fatal accidents.

Flier Disappears.

The most mysterious incident occurred December 26, 1917, when student aviator Edmund J. Crowe left the station for an hour's solo flight. Nothing has ever been heard of the aviator or the plane. A year later a skeleton and parts of what was believed to have been an airplane was discovered in a swamp near here. Some believed the skeleton to be that of Crowe but the identity never was established.

On June 12, 1918, in making a short turn necessary a machine skidded and the right wing struck a tree. The tree, twenty inches in diameter, was broken off by the force of the impact fifteen feet from the ground and the top fell upon the plane after it had crashed pinning the aviator beneath. The plane was wrecked but neither aviator was so much as bruised.

Two days later H. S. Alden skidded and flew directly into the port of a hangar. The struts and wings of the plane lodged in the structural steel between Alden and the machine suspended twenty feet from the ground. Alden's only injury was a slight laceration of the face.

Ensign C. A. Roedell and Machinist Mate E. A. Murpha were in a crash on October 1, 1918, which is probably one of the most unique on record. While rising from the water the plane struck the masts of a fishing schooner, sheared off both spars and fell from the deck, stripped every bit of rigging from the vessel and fell into the bay. Neither flyer was injured. The aviators had failed to see the schooner as it was between them and a brilliant rising sun.

COPELAND SCHOOL'S FIELD DAY HEROES WERE OVERLOOKED

Copeland school is disappointed because Tiffin school was given credit for victories of its pupils in the Ranger school's field day held at Nitro park two weeks ago. Those winners were: Wayne Gatlin, first in the thirty-yard dash, for 9-year-old boys; Laverne Lowe, third in the 8-year-old girls' race, and Zora Britton, third prize in the 7-year-old girls' race, all belonged to Copeland school, but were credited to Tiffin in the report.

EVEN FRANCE FORGETS HER WAR HEROES

By EDWIN HULLINGER, United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, May 21.—Even in France, the people who "stayed at home" forget easily the sacrifices made by the men who fought in the war, but fortunately there are ex-pollis in civilian ranks to remember and take the part of their ex-comrades who fared less happily than they.

A regular "O. Henry" incident of this affection of a sound comrade for his crippled brother-in-arms occurred at a little open-air cafe opposite the Gare du Nord.

A beggar, with one leg gone below the knee and an empty sleeve tucked into his pocket, was making the rounds of the tables. His face wore that dazed, numb expression of one who has suffered so much that he has become insensible to any vicissitude of fortune. Three service ribbons were in his lapel buttonhole.

One of the guests, an ex-service man, noticed the ribbons and invited him to "have a hock."

There was a whispered consultation inside and the waiter tugged the man's coat sleeve and informed him the house "didn't serve beggars." The guest pointed to the cripple's sleeve badges, and retorted indignantly:

"Perhaps, then, the house serves its benefactors. This man lost his leg and arm for the proprietor's patrie. The proprietor may have a sense of gratitude."

The proprietor stood pat. Other guests, ex-service men, became interested and soon there was a crowd around the irate customer and the shoulder shrugging "patron."

The beggar meanwhile sat in stupefied dazedness, listlessly fingering his crutches. He was so used to this kind of thing that it no longer surprised, hardly even seemed to hurt.

Finally another guest at a far table shouted:

"Waiter, you can serve me, anyway. Bring me a hock."

With a flourish he seized the glass from the waiter's hand, strode across and deposited it in front of the beggar. The crowd cheered. The proprietor scowled.

The second guest, also an ex-service man, smiled at the beggar, bowed to the proprietor, and with that sense of the theatrical which is one of the charms of the French temperament, raised his own glass to the "Memory of the 'grande guerre'."

CAPACITY HOUSE ENJOYS "NEW CO-ED"

A capacity house enjoyed the high school class play, "The New Co-Ed," presented Friday night at the Cooper school and a good-sized sum was realized for the high school library.

"Punch" Doolittle, Estella and Madge, played by Arthur Williams, Blanche Garber and George Connell, were the principal funmakers, and Joe Terry as the gentleman of color and "peace" also drew many laughs.

Extra numbers between the acts, presented by pupils of Miss Pratt, expression teacher, also were enjoyed.

The play will be presented Monday night at the Young school auditorium.

WORKER NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH IN A FIERY FURNACE

Death in the cramped space of the fire box of an oil-field boiler came near being the portion of R. Byatt Friday afternoon. As it was Byatt is badly burned about the head and arms and is now in the Clinical hospital. The burns were caused by gas used as power for driving an air hammer becoming ignited in some manner unknown.

Byatt, employe of the Ranger Boiler Works, was in the fire box of the boiler cutting loose the beading around the flues. He had worked some time using gas as a power to drive his air when as he picked up his "gun" to continue the gas became ignited. It continued to burn, he said, after he had extricated himself from his cramped quarters. His clothing did not burn because he said it had become wet from the leaking flues of the boiler.

The worst of the burns are on Byatt's arms. They are both nearly a solid blister. His face is also badly blistered.

PRESBYTERIANS PROMISE MUSICAL
EVENT OF SEASON

The Ranger Symphony Choral union will give its first musical "song fest" at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The program will consist of a first part, composed of miscellaneous selections, and a second part will be the presentation of the cantata of the "Daughter of Jarius," based on one of the miracles of Christ.

Mrs. R. C. McCoy is directing the rendition of the cantata. She is assisted by Mrs. E. B. Reid as soprano, Mr. J. Raeborn, as basso, and Jack O'Brien, tenor.

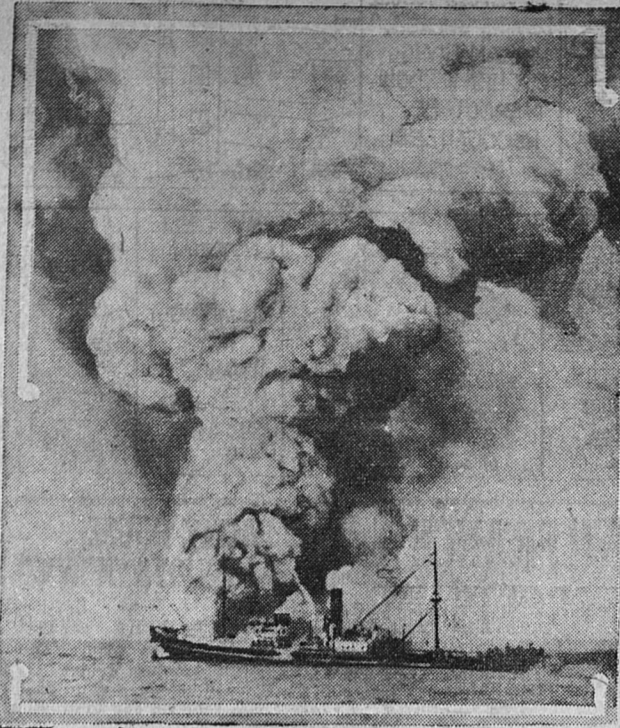

Rev. A. N. Stubblebine will preach a short sermon on the story of the miracle of the subject of the cantata. This promises to be the musical event of the year and as the capacity of the building is limited, friends are advised to come early.

COPS HORN IN ON GAME AND TWO PAY FINES

The musical clink of silver against silver suddenly ceased late Friday afternoon as the police rudely horned their way into a little gentleman's game of cards down on Austin street. Two young men giving the names of John Jones and Jim Smith pleaded guilty to a gaming charge and paid $20.70 each.

BURNING OF THE TOKUYO MARU AT SEA

CANADA TO BEGIN TAKING NATIONAL CENSUS JUNE FIRST

By Associated Press
OTTAWA, Ont., May 21.—Thirteen thousand enumerators will be employed to take the national census which will begin June 1. With the aid of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in remote districts, they will be expected to get the name of every man, woman and child in Canada's 3,729,665 square miles. This is an area larger than the United States including Alaska and is one-sixth of the land surface of the globe.

Gathering of the data will require from four to six weeks while the exact population will be known in five or six months. It is estimated at 9,000,000. The cost of the work will be $1,750,000.

Much information aside from population figures will be gathered. Questions will concern not only such individual matters as age, sex, race, occupation, and earning capacity but details of agriculture, finance and industry.

The population of the Dominion at the census of 1871 was 3,689,257 and at the 1911 census, 7,206,643.

Go to Church Sunday

The responsibility of the moral welfare is generally "put up" to the churches and the clergy. But is this a fair conclusion? The morals of a community are not only a part of the church and clergy but all citizens, organizations and families, are equally responsible. The church and the clergy are leaders in developing and sustaining moral sentiment and conviction. The higher the moral conviction the safer is the city. "Righteousness exalteth a city; sin is a reproach unto any people." If the citizens of Ranger will go to church, support the efforts of the clergy, nothing but good can result.

Go to church Sunday; satisfy conscience, enjoy good fellowship, and gain vision and help for next week—and see if you will not enjoy life better.
