

TWO MORE BLACKS SLAIN ON GEORGIA "DEATH FARM"

T. & P. PLANS TO SLICE WAGES OF HIGHER-UPS

Receiver's Notice Says Order Will Be Effective on May First.

By United Press.
DALLAS, April 1.—Wages of every class of skilled employes, including officers and subordinate officials, will be reduced by the Texas & Pacific Railway company inclusive of allied lines, effective May 1, according to a receiver's notice today which asked for conferences with representatives of employes.

CHARLES SAYS HE'LL THROW UP KING JOB

By United Press.
PARIS, April 1.—Former Emperor Charles has agreed to leave Hungary, according to the newspaper, Bon Soir.

Charles' departure is only a matter of hours, the paper said today. It was declared that Charles and representatives of the government reached an agreement at Steinamanger.

ALLIES WARNING.
PARIS, April 1.—The allies today warned Hungary that "disastrous consequences" will result if former Emperor Charles is restored to the throne.

The warning was dispatched by the council of allied ambassadors. The note declared the allies will not tolerate Hapsburg restoration, nor recognize any such government.

HORCHY QUILTS.
PARIS, April 1.—Admiral Horchy, regent of Hungary, has abdicated in favor of former Emperor Charles, according to a Budapest dispatch today.

Charles was reported advancing on Budapest with the monarchist under General Lehar.

Count Julius Andrássy, former premier, was said to have been made president of a council of ministers to conduct the government until Charles formally resumed his throne.

Lehar's army was expected to reach Budapest tonight. The garrison was reported ready to go over without resistance.

The above dispatch was received after denial had been made of the first report that Horchy had resigned.

TWO FACTS APPARENT.
By Associated Press.

PARIS, April 1.—Two authentic facts appear from the mass of sensational rumors relative to the attempt to restore Charles as head of the Hungarian government. The first is that Charles is still in Hungary; the second is that the "little entente," comprising Czechoslovakia, Jugoslavia and Rumania, and "big entente" are ready to strike if Charles succeeds.

Premier Briand's newspaper, Eclair, understands the entente government is considering the steps to take in the event the Hungarian situation is not soon cleared. Ivan Praznovsky, Hungarian minister to France, declares his disbelief in reports that Charles has been successful in his attempt, adding, "Hungary has had enough coups d'etat. While the people would perhaps like a monarchy, they want it to be established through regular constitutional channels."

The French charge d'affaires at Budapest notified the foreign office here today he is unable to confirm press reports of Hungarian troop movements, adding that absolute calm prevailed at the capital.

CHARLES WOULD EXPLAIN.
STEINAMANGER, April 1.—Former Emperor Charles declared here today his departure from Hungary will be conditioned upon permission to issue a proclamation to the Magyars explaining the "unfavorable circumstances" compelling his withdrawal, and saying he temporarily conferred the regency on Admiral Horchy.

To Blockade Hungary.
PRAGUE, April 1.—The cabinet is considering a rigorous blockade of Hungary should Charles refuse to leave the country. The Czechoslovakia representative at Budapest was charged to inform Hungary that if Charles refused to depart, the Czechoslovakia government in agreement with Rumania and Jugoslavia, would immediately take measures to prevent his restoration.

PARIS, April 1.—If the fashionable women of Paris adopt the Moorish style of dress, which is dominant in the new spring vogues now being shown by the dressmakers here, they will be seen hiding their hair under turbans and learning to walk with a swinging motion of the hips, says the Daily Mail.

RAT PARTIES? YEP, RANGER HAS 'EM; SOME CLASS, TOO!

Rat parties are the latest wrinkle in social circles in Ranger. To properly stage the affair, the valiant men arm themselves with sticks, stones, picks and shovels, while the women, with their skirts carefully pulled tight above their knees, occupy the adjoining roofs in the neighborhood of where the party is being held.

The first of these social functions was held Wednesday in Young addition. The names of the prize winners were not given, but one result is that the rat family was depopulated to the extent of 150 mothers, fathers and children, and the women had an opportunity to exhibit some excellent hosiery of various colors and texture. It is said that at times as the escaping rodents rushed hither and yon among the pickers more than silk stockings was revealed. After the party had assembled it moved enmasse on the holes and burrows of the rats. The "varmints" were dug out and the men, with the assistance of faithful terriers, chased them with sticks and stones. After the battle the guests "ate and made merry," and a good time was had by all.

LAWTON MAN WAS MURDERED FROM BEHIND

Shot Fired Into His Body to Make Sure That He Was Dead.

By United Press.
AMARILLO, Texas, April 1.—Sheriff George Frampton of Lawton, Okla., left Perryton for "beam point in Oklahoma" with Cleo Gobin and William Tate, after obtaining confessions from the men that they murdered Russell Sprague of Lawton, according to local officers returning from Perryton where they helped obtain the confession.

Arrested with Gobin and Tate were two women companions, Mrs. L. Duss, known as "Jack" and Eva Huek. Written confessions were obtained from the men and verbal statements from the women, authorities said.

Sprague, the alleged confession relates, was knocked in the head from behind by Tate while playing a game of cards. His body was loaded into a car and carried to a secluded spot on the banks of a creek six miles away.

Tate is alleged to have laid his hand over Sprague's heart and finding it still beating fired a shot into the body as it was thrown into the creek.

WAR HANGS ON FATE OF PRINCE OF HAPSBURGS

BY ED L. KEEN.
United Press Correspondent.

LONDON, April 1.—Widespread war hung today on the fate of a Hapsburg prince, the former Emperor Charles in his efforts to regain the Hungarian throne.

Hidden away in the mist of Europe with communication lines broken and with a censorship on the Hungarian drama was being enacted behind a screen.

Conflicting reports declared that the Horthy regency was functioning normally and also that it had been overthrown with the abdication of Horthy in favor of Charles.

Known developments including definite threats of war were: Mobilization of Czechoslovakian, Rumanian and Jugoslavia armies on the Hungarian border.

A sharp notice from allied ambassadors that the allies "will not tolerate restoration of the Hapsburgs."

Meeting of both the Austrian and Hungarian parliaments to consider the situation.

First Posed Photograph of Mrs. Stillman.

Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman. Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman, vivacious wife of the banker, in a charming photo-study, posed at her retreat in Lakewood, N. J. Note the remarkable youth and charm of the beautiful woman who is the center of the country's most amazing divorce scandal. This remarkable picture shows that Mrs. Stillman's supreme poise and self-control have not been shaken by the nerve-racking developments of the past few days.

CITIZENS' CANDIDATES TURN HARASSING FIRE ON OPPOSITION

"Just Another Clique," "Candidacy Based on Boasts of Money Spent," Among Charges Made; "I Promise Nothing I am Not Sure I Can Fulfill," Gholson's Stand.

Charges of "clique selection" of candidates on the Citizens' ticket, made by Non-Partisan adherents, backed last night. At a Citizens' rally held at Cooper school, H. S. Cole, candidate for finance commissioner, countered with the assertion that the Non-Partisan ticket was selected one at a time, by two or three men and possibly by one. "And yet they are now giving our 'clique' credit for eighteen," Cole said. "At least I understand that eighteen is the latest figure our opponents are quoting."

"If the Non-Partisan party can be persuaded to hold a few more meetings—one every night, if possible, I am certain that will insure the election of the Citizens' candidates," Cole said. Then he devoted a few compassionate remarks to the Non-Partisan leaders.

"Dogganism" was the word coined by Cole to express the policy of those who "believe the ins should be out and the outs should be in." That, he said, was the real foundation of the Non-Partisan ticket—a chronic criticism of everything done by the Chamber of Commerce, the Retail Merchants, the city administration, and other civic bodies.

Not "Forced Down."
Cole defended the manner of selecting the citizens' ticket, saying that any group of men had a right to select candidates whom they believed could best represent the city's interests, and that such a ticket was not "forced down the throats of the people," as charged, because the polls were open, anyone could run who wished, and the verdict would be expressed by the people through their ballots.

Other speakers were: V. V. Cooper, John M. Gholson, W. L. Evans, A. Davenport, Ed Maher and M. R. Newnam.

ALLIES WILL CRACK DOWN ON GERMANY

By United Press.
PARIS, April 1.—Allied ambassadors have been instructed to prepare plans for further penalties to be inflicted on Germany, the ambassadors' communication said today.

The penalties to be drafted by the ambassadors and their experts are to be submitted tomorrow. The decision was reached following Germany's failure to complete disarmament by April 1, as demanded.

SEVEN PEOPLE MISSING AS SHIP SINKS

U. S. Shipping Board Vessel Rams Boat With 300 on Board.

By United Press.
SEATTLE, Wash., April 1.—Seven lives were probably lost when the freighter, West Hartland and the steamship, Governor, crashed here early today. The Governor was sunk in the strait of Juan de Fuca, off Port Townsend.

The West Hartland, badly damaged, was expected to limp into Seattle with the survivors of the Governor, estimated at 291.

According to wireless reports here, four members of the crew and four passengers are missing.

Several of the crew of the Governor were injured by escaping steam. The Governor went down in an hour and ten minutes after she had been rammed by the West Hartland.

The West Hartland, a United States shipping board freighter, was in charge of Captain John Alwen. The Governor, which belonged to the Pacific Steamship Co., was captained by E. P. Bartlett.

MRS. STILLMAN GETS $90,000 ANNUAL BALM

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 1.—Mrs. Fifi Potter Stillman today was granted a portion of the additional alimony and counsel fees which she had asked in the divorce suit brought by James A. Stillman, president of the National City bank. Justice Morschauer granted her $7,500 a month alimony, $35,000 counsel fees and $12,500 additional expenses for witnesses. They had asked that her temporary alimony be increased from $5,000 to $10,000 and for $75,000 counsel fees.

Dead-lock Predicted.
The Stillman divorce suit will result in a deadlock if both sides prove the charges they have brought against each other, Justice Morschauer declared today.

Morschauer pointed out that neither side can obtain a divorce if their joint accusations are upheld.

"If these charges are established, the plaintiff and defendant will find themselves in the same position as before the commencement of the action, except that they will have had their day in court, or perhaps several days," he said.

TWELVE-CYLINDER STILL OPERATED IN THE HEART OF TOWN

A sixty-gallon copper still—a regular professional still, none of these amateur affairs—was captured this afternoon in the heart of town. To wit, on Pine street, just back of the Federal bakery. It is believed the bakery odors helped to disguise its location.

To all appearances it has been operating for some time. Besides the still, there were three fifty-gallon barrels of mash and five empty barrels, and a small quantity of whiskey which the officers obtained by turning the spigot.

Unfortunately, they put the liquor in a bottle and then allowed the crowd to see the contraption. Some ungrateful spectator swiped the liquor.

Prohibition Enforcement Officer J. W. Anderson and Deputy Constable John Barnes made the raid. Two men are being held.

Honest-to-gosh.
The Citizens' party will hold another rally tonight at Young school.

POLITICAL RALLY AT LONE STAR HALL FOR WOMEN ONLY

Men will be barred from a women's "John M. Gholson for mayor" rally which will be held at the Lone Star at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. All women interested in the city election are invited to be present. Several Ranger women, including "new-timers" and "old-timers," will make short addresses.

In addition to the political speeches, there will be a special musical program. Mrs. Reid, Mrs. McCoy and Miss Douglas will sing.

RANGER CASES IN SPOTLIGHT AT EASTLAND

P. Learned, Cleve Barnes and Ed Bigbee Among Those Tried Next Week.

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, April 1.—Ranger cases will furnish the headline attractions at next week's session of the Eighty-eighth district court.

On Monday, P. Learned will be tried on swindling charges in connection with an alleged shortage in Christmas seal money, and Tom and Delia Fox Vallos will be tried for theft. They are accused of taking another person's property from a safe deposit box.

On Wednesday, Cleve Barnes faces four charges of running a gambling house. These are among the cases that grew out of the raid made some time ago on the Commercial hotel. In this raid County Attorney Dunnam and state rangers rounded up eighty-seven men.

On Thursday, Ed Bigbee will be tried for the murder of W. J. Dickson, who was shot and instantly killed on the streets of Ranger. Family trouble is alleged to have been the cause. Bigbee was not indicted by the first grand jury that convened after the shooting, but was indicted last week and released on $5,000 bond.

The complete docket follows: Monday, P. Learned, swindling; Tom Vallos, theft, Delia Fox Vallos, theft; E. F. Baker, swindling; Ed Iseley, assault with intent to rape.

Tuesday—Harland Payne, theft; C. R. Moffet, theft, two cases.

Wednesday—Cleve Barnes, running a gambling house, four charges; Walter Underwood, assault with intent to murder.

Thursday—Ed Bigbee, murder; M. J. Foreman, receiving stolen property; L. E. Sullivan, receiving stolen property; L. Kennett, receiving stolen property.

Friday—J. F. Murphy, swindling; Wm. M. Murphy, theft, Blanche Prince theft.

BROTHERS WHO WED SISTERS ASK DIVORCE

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 1.—John and Henry Leibrock of Mamaroneck, brothers, who eight years ago at a double wedding married two sisters living in Newark, today began action before Justice Morschauer in Supreme court for divorce from their wives. The plaintiffs named a White Plains chauffeur as co-respondent, and charged that the alleged infidelities took place on the same date.

According to counsel for the brothers, John served the papers in the action upon Henry's wife, and Henry upon John's wife. The sisters, it was said, returned to the home of their father in Newark recently. John and his wife have one child, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leibrock have three children.

TOTAL NUMBER OF MURDERS IS THIRTEEN

Authorities Seek Bodies of Blacks After Confessions Are Heard.

By United Press.
COVINGTON, Ga., April 1.—Two more negroes, making a total of thirteen, were murdered on the famous Jasper county "death farm," according to additional disclosures said to have been made today before state officials investigating the case.

Bodies Sought.
Authorities are endeavoring to secure substantiating evidence which may lead to discovery of the two remaining bodies, which, according to the alleged statement of a former negro workman on the "death farm," were buried on or near the place.

According to the negro's statement, his two fellow workmen were killed under the orders of Hiland Williams, son of John S. Williams, owner of the farm, who is himself accused of ordering the execution of eleven negroes, said to have been held on his farm as peons.

MAN TRIED TO BRIBE DUNNAM, IT IS CHARGED

Oil Center Man Wanted a Chance to Make Money, Is Alleged.

Special to the Times.
EASTLAND, April 1.—J. A. Jackson of Oil Center is in jail, with the charge of attempt to bribe an officer against him as a result of an alleged attempt to bribe W. V. Dunnam, county attorney, Wednesday.

The allegations in the complaint are that Jackson, who runs a hotel at Oil Center, came to the attorney's office stating that the sheriff's department had been "jobbing" him. That he had been running a hotel over a garage at Oil Center, but that he could not make a living that way, and that he could make plenty of money if "let alone" and permitted to run a gambling house, and that he would make it to the interest of the county attorney if he would give his consent.

Mr. Dunnam asked him if he meant by that that he would pay liberally for the privilege, and the man assented. It is alleged. Dunnam then called Assistant County Attorney McCullough in, and had Jackson go over the statement again. Dunnam then told Jackson he was a crook and mistook him (Dunnam) for one, and ordered Jackson from his office. Jackson is now awaiting trial.

GERMAN NOTE NOT RECEIVED AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Confirmation is lacking at the state department today of Berlin reports that the German government had made definite proposals regarding reparations to the United States including a suggestion that Germany assume liability to this country for part at least of the allied debts to the United States.

The department said Commissioner Dresel at Berlin reported in substance his conversation with German officials on the general question of reparations from time to time, but no intimation was given that he had transmitted a formal or informal proposal as suggested in the dispatch.

GIRL STUDENTS QUIT 'SHIMMY' BOYS, YOUTHS COME RIGHT BACK AT 'EM

PEORIA, April 1.—Girl students at Bradley college here have begun a campaign against young men students who smoke and attend what they term immoral dances. The girls have adopted resolutions not to attend dances where the "shimmy" is permitted.

NEW PRESS SERVICE IN TODAY'S TIMES; EARLY EDITION SOON

With today's issue the Times presents the United Press instead of the International News as its main auxiliary to the Associated Press. It believes this change will enable the Times to give a better paper, particularly as to state news, as the United Press has members in practically every Texas city. This service costs us more, but we expect to regain the added expenditure in increased benefit to Times readers.

The Times also plans an early edition, to be put on at an early date, to catch the east and west trains, thus materially increasing the circulation. It is now systematizing its working conditions so that this will be possible, that being the main reason why it moved the advertising "dead line" up to the afternoon preceding publication. The first issue of the new edition will appear soon, but local subscribers will continue to receive the 3:30 paper, as at present.

COPPER MINES CLOSE DOWN IN ARIZONA

Big Producers in New Mexico and Nevada Also Suspend Operations.

BISBEE, Ariz., April 1.—Copper production in mines of the Phelps Dodge corporation here will be suspended indefinitely on April 15, and the corporation's smelter at Douglas, Ariz., will close the same date, according to announcement made today by Grant H. Dowell, manager of the Copper Queen branch of the corporation.

About 500 men will be laid off here, leaving a force of about 1,000 at work, as compared with an average payroll in normal times of 3,500. Complete suspension of all copper production, said Mr. Dowell, was necessitated by the increasing surplus and decreasing price of copper. Development work only will be continued in the mines and surface operations will be confined to construction of a new concentrator in the southern end of the district and to work on Sacramento hill, now being reduced by steam shovel.

Colonel John C. Greenway, manager of the Calumet and Arizona Mining company, the second largest producer of copper in the district, said today he had received no instructions as yet concerning any suspension of the Calumet and Arizona mines and smelter. The Shattuck Copper company, third largest mining company here, ceased operations last November.

CHINO COPPER COMPANY TO CEASE OPERATIONS

SILVER CITY, N. M., April 1.—A complete shutdown of the mining and milling operations of the Chino Copper company, operating at Santa Rita and Hurley, was announced today, following the arrival of Col. Daniel C. Jackling from New York. The shutdown will take effect within the next ten days. It was reported here that suspension of operations by the Chino will be followed by the shutting down of all the other Jackling properties, including the Ray Consolidated in Arizona; Nevada Consolidated, in Nevada; and Utah Copper, in Utah.

ANACONDA MINES AT BUTTE TO CLOSE

NEW YORK, April 1.—Suspension of mining operations by the Anaconda Copper Mining company, one of the largest producers of copper ore in the United States, was announced here today by John D. Ryan, chairman of the company's board of directors, after four other concerns earlier in the day had made known their intentions of shutting down.

Lack of domestic and export demand was given as the reason for stoppage of activities by Anaconda and other concerns, which were the Utah Copper, Ray Consolidated, Chino Copper and Nevada Copper companies.

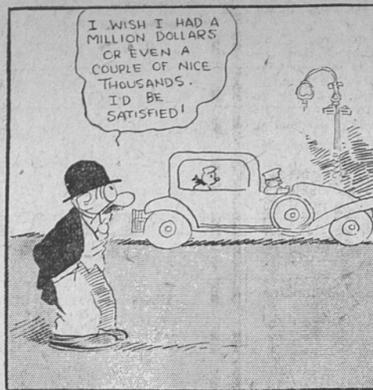

Officials and others interested in the five companies expressed the opinion that the shutdowns would be only temporary. Normal production, they said, would be resumed as general industrial conditions became better.

No Other Course Advisable.

Mr. Ryan made public a statement by the directors to stockholders of the Anaconda company which said the suspension was ordered "with regret and only after deliberate consideration compelled the conclusion that under existing conditions no other course was advisable."

"The mines and plants of your company," the statement continued, "are in good condition and can and will be so kept that a normal production at reasonable cost can be speedily made whenever there is sufficient improvement in the business situation to warrant an output on an economic basis."

It's April Fool for the Holdup Man—

rant an output on an economic basis."

Mining properties of the Utah Copper, Ray Consolidated, Chino Copper and Nevada Copper companies have completely suspended operations, owing to conditions in the copper market, it was also announced here today by Charles Hayden of Hayden, Stone & Company, who is financially interested in all four concerns.

Large Stocks Unsold Copper.

Large stocks of unsold copper and small consumptive demand both in this country and abroad were given as reasons for the shutdown.

"A continuation of production," said a statement by Mr. Hayden, "which can not be sold at the cost of production would only lead to later demoralization, a detriment to shareholders and ultimately a much greater pecuniary loss to employees.

Copper is a basic industry and it is the belief of the management that rebuilding of commercial industry in this country and abroad will not require a very long period of shutdown. Industrial developments will have to be appropriate to reopen these properties."

1,500 MEN AFFECTED BY UTAH COPPER SUSPENSION

SALT LAKE CITY, April 1.—About 1,500 men will be affected by the closing of the Utah Copper company's mine at Bingham, Utah, and the mill at Arthur. The exact time it will take to close down the industries could not be estimated by officials of the company, but it was believed that several days would elapse before operations entirely ceased.

R. C. Gemmill, general manager, and L. S. Gates, assistant general manager, are this afternoon conferring with representatives of the employees and explaining the reason of the shutdown. While only 1,500 are affected now the Utah Copper company employed more than 3,000 at its mines and mills in the prosperous days.

"Since the armistice and to the first of this year, the company has been operating on practically a 50 per cent basis. By the middle of 1920, the conditions of industry were such that the scale of wages should have been

CARRANZA OFFICER RELEASED ON BOND

By Associated Press

LAREDO, April 1.—General Humberto Barrios, formerly Carranza army officer under arrest pending deportation proceedings, was released last night from jail under $500 bond. General Pablo Gonzales, former prominent Mexican army leader, signed his bail. Barrios was arrested Wednesday by immigration officers and charged with illegal entry into the United States.

reduced. However, the company continued to operate at a loss during the latter part of the year, without asking its employees to bear any of the loss. During 1920 our surplus of unsold copper increased by some millions of pounds. About the first of this year we made another curtailment, but even with this curtailment, we have not been able to dispose of more than a limited portion of the output and then only at prices several cents below the actual cost of production."

BOSTON CADETS SLOW TO DO 'EYES RIGHT' WHEN GIRLS ON LEFT

BOSTON, April 1.—Because the East Boston high school cadets were slow to execute the movement "Eyes right," when the girls of the school were spectators on the left, Principal Richardson has barred the girls from watching drills.

A hundred lads absented themselves from formations yesterday in protest. A committee of girls called on the principal and asked that he reconsider the ruling.

He declined, on the ground that progress could not be made while the boys in the ranks divided their thoughts between dresses and drill.

SMALL BIBLE, SIZE OF THUMB NAIL, REQUIRES MICROSCOPE TO READ

By Associated Press

GREEN BAY, Wis., April 1.—Probably one of the smallest Bibles ever printed is in the possession of George J. Minor of this city. The Bible was presented to Mr. Minor by an old Scottish woodsman, who spent years in the north woods, in exchange for a nail.

The miniature book contains 875 pages and is one-eighth inch wide, one-quarter of an inch thick and three-quarters of an inch long. The Bible contains both the Old and New Testaments, aside from a wood cut and two or three pages devoted to introductory matter, and a facsimile of the original grant of both houses Bryce, printed over the signature of King James and Queen Elizabeth.

A small gold case houses the Bible. The case is in fair condition, though worn from its constant use. A small space on the front of the case once held a magnifying glass through which could be seen the front cover of the bible bearing the words "Holy Bible." The scripture can be read with the naked eye provided the eye-sight is good.

NEFF WILL ACT ON BILLS TODAY

By Associated Press

AUSTIN, April 1.—The executive department announced today the governor will not act until late today on remaining bills now on his desk. The bills include the University of Texas expansion bill, two school bills carrying $7,000,000 total, West Texas A. and M. college bill and the "Anti-Japanese" land ownership measure. Time limit on disposal of the bills is midnight tonight.

HOBOS MOBILIZE.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 1.—James Eads How, known as "the Millionaire hobo," who is engaged in forming an organization of unemployment here, declared today that it was probable that a big delegation soon would wait on President Harding and request that work on government projects be hastened to provide more jobs. He said that the delegation which would go to Washington would travel afoot, picking up unemployed on the route, and that it might number several thousand before it reached Washington.

WOMAN AGE 77, REPORTS GAIN OF 15 POUNDS

Mrs. Margaret Reister, 2216 Chester st., Little Rock, Ark., a resident of the city for forty-four years and who has a wide circle of friends, and admirers, is now an ardent champion of Tanlac. Following is her statement:

"I don't believe anybody ever had stomach trouble any worse than I did and for that reason my recovery is all the more remarkable, as my age was naturally against me. Still more marvelous to me is the fact I should gain fifteen pounds in weight. I never heard of this happening to a seventy-seven-year-old woman before and shows what a wonderful medicine Tanlac is.

"I seem to have a new lease on life and I give Tanlac all the credit for it. When I began taking it I couldn't lift my head from the pillow. My family and friends had given up hope. I, too, thought the end was not far off. I had awful pauses all the time and such a pain in my right side I could hardly stand it. I was told I had stomach trouble and also neuritis. I began taking Tanlac as the last hope, but, to my joy, it proved to be just what I needed. By the time I finished the first bottle I was able to get up and walk around the room. I kept taking it and kept improving.

"All my pains have disappeared and I eat what I want and never have any trouble with indigestion. In fact I feel stronger and better than I have in ten years. Tanlac is the talk of our neighborhood since my remarkable improvement and no wonder; for in all my life I have never known anything to equal it."

Tanlac is sold in Ranger by Phillips Bros., and in Eastland by Butler Drug Co.—Adv.

WRITES A BOOK FOR CANCER PATIENTS

A book which should be read by every person suffering from cancer has been published by Dr. O. A. Johnson, eminent cancer specialist. This remarkable book tells the truth about cancer and its treatment without cutting.

Dr. Johnson is today one of the foremost in the study of cancer. He conducts in Kansas City, Mo., a large, fully equipped Research Laboratory, and has treated many sufferers in the past twenty years. This treatment is entirely non-surgical, as the knife is not used at any stage. Purely medicinal measures only are employed; that is, external applications to destroy the cancer and internal medication to purify the blood. Hundreds of patients testify to the success of the Johnson Laboratory.

"Cancer Truths," Dr. Johnson's book, will be sent free to any sufferer or friend. Delay should be avoided. Address Dr. O. A. Johnson, Suite 560, 1324 Main street, Kansas City, Mo.—Adv.

GIRLS FLOAT TWENTY-FOUR HOURS TO TEST SAFETY SUITS

In order to test the durability of a safety suit for ocean travelers, two New York girls, the Misses Ruth Maples and Doris Vanderweken, donned the suits and floated in the waters of New York bay for twenty-four hours. They took their meals standing up in the water and even slept part of the time. Neither was the worse for the unusual experiment after the twenty-four hours were up. The photo shows the girls, with A. E. Jackson, floating around off the Battery wall.

RELIGION AS PREACHED IS A FAILURE, RABBI DECLARES IN SERMON

NEW YORK, April 1.—That religion as preached today is a failure and the sole cure for the ills of the time is a broad liberalism built upon the solid foundation of the Ten Commandments was the substance of remarks made yesterday afternoon at the Republican club luncheon by Rabbi Joseph Silverman of Temple Emmanu-El. The topic was: "Is the Church fulfilling its mission of influence upon the moral and social conditions of the people?"

Other speakers were Dr. Durant Drake of Vassar college, Robert E. Speer, president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, and Thomas F. Woodlock, chairman of the executive committee of the Layman's League for Retreats and Social Service.

Rabbi Silverman was the only one who took the negative view. His opinion, he stated very earnestly, applied alike to Catholic and Protestant Christianity and Judaism. "Religion," he said, "was instituted to accomplish the brotherhood of mankind. We have had about 3,500 years of Judaism, some 2,000 years of Christianity; we have had Mohammedanism for a long time—and there is just as much disorder in the world as ever. In fact, do we not observe that one religion is on the neck of the other? The trouble is theology. Theology is the canker-worm of humanity. We have had entirely too much theology and too little of real, ethical religion.

"Theology is the science of God, and one man knows as much about God as the other. Sectarianism is largely responsible for the world's great disorders. It will always be a menace until we take a substitute.

The one substitute for sectarianism is liberalism of thought, feeling and action—every man to think and feel as he wants. Theology would be in the background, and in the foreground we would have the Ten Commandments. They are enough for anybody."

Robert E. Speer declared in his brief talk on the subject that the church had fulfilled its mission. He said too that there are "financial influences in this country trying to coerce the church into holding to its former restrictive work of dealing solely with men's souls and their future life. The church can turn its back to the work that lies before it, but if she does she will have nothing but empty hands to show when the day of judgment comes."

Mr. Woodlock gave the Catholic point of view.

LOOK 'EM OVER.

The city election will be held Tuesday, April 5. Before that date there will be several rallies at which candidates on both tickets will present their claims, and other speakers will give reasons why certain men should be selected.

The question of who will serve Ranger for the next two years is up to the voters. Ranger will be best served during those years if the voters before the election hear all the candidates, review their pledges and make up their minds for themselves. To depend upon hearsay reports may lead one to form an erroneous conclusion.

Women as well as men should go to these meetings. They are voters and should inform themselves.

There are no serious differences as to policy expressed by the two factions. There probably will be none. That, then, brings the question of selection down to personalities. Not the bitter, mud-slinging type of personalities, but the plain question of which is the better man. They are all good men, but some of them, because of habits of thought, because of experiences in life, because of the many things which go to make up character and ability, are better than others.

Which is the better is for the voter to decide. And he—and she—can best do that by personal observation.

OUT IN THE DESERT.

Ten of these forty-eight United States are "beer states." Only ten. Do you know what "beer states" are?

They are those which will benefit, or the opposite, according to your individual viewpoint, by the declared intention of the powers at Washington to "liberalize" the policy of the department of prohibition enforcement.

Texas is one of the arid thirty-eight.

Texas is dry by constitutional amendment, voted in accordance with due process of law by the people of the Lone Star state.

Of the ten "beer states," eight are eastern states. Louisiana and California are included in the "immortal ten."

Former Attorney General Palmer ruled, just before he stepped aside to make room for Mr. Daugherty, that those Americans fortunate (or unfortunate) enough to reside in one of the ten states still amenable to dry and wet constructions of the provisions of the Volstead law, may be permitted to purchase and imbibe sixty gallons of beer annually.

In the ten states affected, retail druggists will be permitted to dispense beer to ailing persons. Of course there is no cause for haste or premature excitement, even in the ten "beer states," for the eleventh-hour ruling made by Mr. Palmer, must receive the approval of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon before it becomes effective.

It is generally conceded, however, that Mr. Mellon will put his O. K. on Mr. Palmer's last official acts.

Sixty gallons a year. Hmmm, let's see; about one and one-eighth gallons a week.

But Texas needn't get excited.

A doctor in Sweden claims to have discovered the sleeping-sickness germ. What is needed is something to kill it. It seems to be infesting all localities where things need to be done.—Houston Post.

THE WOMAN WHO SAW

The Woman joined her friends late at the University boarding house dinner table. She had just come from a lecture by the head of the Slavonic department, and was so thrilled by the account of certain ancient picturesque customs that survive down to our own day that she hardly noticed the young girl who had been seated in the one vacant place at the table.

"Just imagine," she exclaimed, "Prof. Blank told us of one custom in the southern part of Europe dating from pagan times, that is still practiced as part of the Easter celebration in remote villages of Bulgaria. Just make a mental picture of the most beautiful girl of the village stripped naked and covered with vines, leaves, grasses and flowers. Think of her as led from house to house by a band of girls who sing a strange old song whose meaning they do not know. Wise men in that region worship songs. The singing band halts at each doorstep and the householder comes out and pours water over the girl, who personifies the spring's awakening. The water, of course symbolizes spring showers. Isn't that quaint and fascinating, and don't you wish you could see some of those archaic things that survive in remote corners of the earth?"

The Woman paused for breath and the young stranger at the table took the opportunity to make the following contribution to the conversation: "Those regions do not seem remote to me, because I am a Bulgarian and I've several times seen what you describe in country villages."

The coincidence was startling. To have told a story in a public dining room in the hearing of perhaps the only person in New York who could have responded with a perfect understanding from personal experience. The Woman had never seen a Bulgarian and somehow never expected to see one, and there she sat at her side. Verily we are all next door neighbors. And it's high time we grew to be internationally-minded.

Able to Take Nourishment. It was the busiest hour in a crowded midtown restaurant, when even the prettiest waitress becomes a bit flushed as she hurries with the chicken patties and nut bread and dashes along with mysterious delicacies hidden beneath a tender, creamy mass. In came a tall, gaunt lady dressed after the fashion of a one-time caricature of a suffragette. She made her way through the crowd to a table, where the narrow space between the chair and the wall made it impossible for her to seat herself. After sundry beckonings she captured a waitress.

"Please move the table—I've got sciatica and cannot do it myself." The table was promptly moved. "Now read me the bill of fare, please, my weight is poor, and I haven't my glasses." She heard it through. "Not so fast," she said sharply. "I don't hear very well."

The waitress gave her a freezing look, and reread the menu. "I'll have a chicken sandwich, orange pekoe tea and lemon water ice, with white mountain cake. But first please close that ventilator—I've got a touch of neuritis today."

But the girl had fled, and as she passed the Woman heard her wail: "My Gawd! does she think this place a hospital?"

A Subway Holdup. The stout Tired Business Man devoted himself attentively to his last Edition as two giggling young things stationed themselves in middle aisle indulged in a few playful jerks, the two girls, lightly accommodating themselves, took a few half dancing steps to maintain their balance, encouraged to further innocent merriment by the involuntary smile of those near by.

Mr. Tired Business Man, sensing the unseemly levity in his vicinity, gave an angry glare at the giggling girls. This might have sobered them had not the train at that moment essayed a rush around a curve. Both girls lurched heavily toward the hitherto disdained straps. Brown Eyes reached a safe haven, but Blue Eyes, hypnotized by the severity of the T. B. M.'s glare, pitched straight at him! Horrors! Her hands, outstretched, smashed right through the T. B. M.'s togethly on his chest. Brown Eyes, with a long, strong sideways reach, clutched Blue Eyes before further damage was done. They clung together, hysterically gasping, amid audible smiles from the nearby passengers as T. B. M., with surprising dexterity, found a haven on the rear platform. Then both girls collapsed into the vacant seat, which just fitted them.

The Woman added one more to her already lengthy list of ways and means of securing seats in the subway.

Too True. Roger has had the measles, and while there was a time when he was very sorry for himself, the experience has not been without its bright side. As Roger's convalescence progressed fancifully cut oranges, ice cream and other dainties suited to an invalid's appetite appeared in steady procession from sympathetic relatives and friends.

When Roger's mother returned from her marketing the other morning she announced: "I met Mrs. B. when I was out and she sent her love to you."

Roger gazed at his parent in mingled disappointment and disgust. "What's love?" he complained. "You can't eat it."

BOYS PILFER WHOLESALE GROCERY, POLICE REPORT

One or more boys at some hour last night entered the Harnett wholesale grocery house and stole a quantity of cigars, school tablets and chewing gum. The full extent of the steal had not been learned this morning. Entrance to the store was effected through hole made in the rear and the size of the aperture is clear evidence to the police that boys did the work. The hole is so small, they say, that a man's body could not have passed through it.

"Tinker Bob" Stories by Carlyle H. Holcomb

THE VISIT TO THE ANT'S PALACE.

They were all snugly resting in the Magic Basket, Tinker Bob, Silky the Monkey and Mr. Ant Bear, and away over the hills and valleys they went. Tinker Bob was very happy for he had long been ready to go back to the Forest, where the creatures of his heart dwelt, and where his home was.

"Over the hills we go, away to the land of snugs. To the Northland Forest—ho! In a basket we will go."

This was the song of Silky for he was so happy to think Mr. Ant Bear was going to the Northland with them and he would have someone to talk with about the old land they were leaving behind.

"Look here, Silky," said Mr. Ant Bear, "what will I do if the Ants are not plentiful and are not good to eat?"

"Oh no," replied Silky. "We'll find some bugs for you to eat if the ants are not plentiful. You don't need to worry about the things you shall eat for the King of the Forest will provide so that you will only have to eat what is set before you. There will be no worry about there being plenty. I know this King well enough to know he will find enough."

"O Silky, you know I cannot eat bugs nor anything else but ants, and if there are not enough ants here I'd better stay here in the South where they are plentiful. You see I know where to find them here."

BARTENDER GETS STIFF FINE FOR SALE OF DRINK OF LIQUOR LAST JULY

ST. LOUIS, April 1.—Judge Paris in the Federal court today fined Herman Luders, a bartender in the saloon of Ike Kiefer, in the Princess hotel at Eighteenth and Chestnut streets, $250 on his plea of guilty to a charge of selling a drink of whiskey to a prohibition enforcement agent July 20, last.

A charge against Kiefer of having whiskey in his possession was dismissed. It was testified that Kiefer was out of town at the time the whiskey was purchased from Luders.

Gustave Swanson, former owner of a saloon at King's highway and Manchester avenue, pleaded guilty of having sold a drink and also a half pint of whiskey to a prohibition enforcement agent on March 30, 1920, and was fined $100. Attorneys for Swanson made a plea for leniency, stating that Swanson no longer was in the saloon business, and had an invalid wife and several children to support.

RIPLING RHYMES BY WALT MASON

RED NOSES. John Barleycorn is planted, the law has put him out no tanglefoot is granted to any thirsty scout; no bar-keep hands the bittern, the bourbon or the rye, to any human critters, as drouthy months go by. But oh, the crimson noses I see upon the street— as red as any roses that make the summer sweet! Where do they get their fining, their bright autumnal hue, since vintners are not vinting, and brewers do not brew? The bar-keepers are not clinging the glasses as of yore; the doors that once were swinging swing inward now no more; John Barleycorn is busted, his rig is rusted, there is no demijohn. But oh, the crimson noses that through the ether plow! The looker-on supposes they should be bleached by now. They should be fair and white—than is the driven snow, since Barleycorn, the blighter, was slain long months ago. There should be no such noses, since Barleycorn is dead, but every hours discloses new shades of blooming red. Oh, can it be that water will tint the human beak as well as stuff that's hotter—the bo'oze men used to seek? And can it be that drinking down where the steamlet flows will paint a fellow's blinking and blooming, blistered nose?

REFORMER FINDS IT TOO ROUGH IN 'WINDY CITY,' RETURNS HOME

CHICAGO, April 1.—John Henry Ralston, rescue worker, was to leave Chicago today for Sparta, Tenn., with his wife and daughter, Minnie, 15.

"We came to Chicago to save the wicked city from sin," said Ralston, "but the city nearly wrecked our lives and home."

This followed the attempted kidnapping of the daughter, Minnie, last night. Ora Miller, one of Ralston's "converts," who testified he was formerly a safe-cracker, is in jail charged with the deed.

DUMB FOR FOUR YEARS: TEETH PULLED; TALKS

BALTIMORE, April 1.—Four years ago, when his son was drafted for world war service, Benjamin Zion Kramer was so grief-stricken that he lost the power of speech. Today Kramer had two teeth extracted by a dentist and shock restored his power of speech.

"Good luck," cried Kramer as he leaped from the dentist's chair. They were the first words he had uttered in four years.

The dentist said the pulling of the teeth must have shocked a nerve, which caused Kramer to speak again. Inquiry at Kramer's home and in the neighborhood confirmed the fact that he had not spoken since his son Nathan was drafted. When questioned he replied to queries, giving his name, his age and other information, although he seemed to hesitate before speaking the words, as if he did not remember them clearly.

CUTE SCHEME! 'SALTED' BARREL OF WATER SOLD AS HIGH GRADE LIKKER

ST. LOUIS, April 1.—Nicholas Kostoff, 30 years old of 711 North Eighth street, East St. Louis, was arrested by prohibition enforcement officers this afternoon on information that he had been selling casks of water on the representation that they contained whiskey.

M. T. Kiggins, chief probation enforcement officer, said his men had seized as evidence two casks alleged to have been sold by Kostoff. In one of these a rubber hot-water bottle containing a pint of whiskey had been fitted into the bung-hole from inside the cask. In the other there was a coil of copper pipe containing a quart of whiskey. This pipe was connected with the bung.

Prospective purchasers, Kiggins said, were permitted to remove the bung and sample the contents, not knowing that they were drawing only from a small receptacle of whiskey. Kostoff refused to make a statement.

WOMAN KILLS BANDIT DRESSED AS CLOWN

NEW CASTLE, Pa., April 1.—Albert Huish, alleged "clown bandit," is dead. He was shot and killed by Mrs. Clara Defonso last night. Huish, attired in a "clown suit," his face hidden with a devil's mask, stopped at the Defonso home, an alleged "blind pig."

"Open the door," he demanded, after knocking. Mrs. Defonso opened. Meanwhile Benny Capriglione, who is connected with the place, was inside, hiding behind the door. Huish did not see him. He stepped into the house, gun pointed at Mrs. Defonso. Capriglione seized Huish's hand holding the gun. Mrs. Defonso rushed upstairs, secured a revolver, and, while Capriglione and Huish tussled for the possession of Huish's weapon, Mrs. Defonso shot one, the bullet hitting Huish. He died immediately.

Little Benny's Note Book by Lee Pope

I wasn't allowed out this afternoon on account of some of my actions, and I was up in my room feeling bum about it and I could here the fellows yelling and playing outside, and all of a sudden I thawt, G. I know wat I'll do. I'll make a rope out of sheets and things like they do in books and ix-cape out the window.

Wich I started to do, and I tied my sheets and pillo case together without making very long of a rope, so I went over to my sister Gladdis Room and Gladdis was in there powdering her nose and trying to look as if she thawt she was bevitfill, me saying, Hay Gladdis, do me a favor, will you?

I doubt it, wat do you want? see Gladdis, and I sed, Loan me your sheets and bolster case for a wile, will you?

I thawt it would be something sensible like that, sed Gladdis, and I sed, Well will you, Gladdis? Swell chance, sed Gladdis. Meaning she wouldnt, and I went down in ma's room and nobody wasent there and I quick pulled the sheets from underneath the covers and took them up to my room and tied them on, making pritty long of a rope, and I hung it out the window to see the effect, thinking, Holey smokes, G. I guess maybe I wont, wat the use?

And I pulled it back in agen and jest then I herd ma say, Well for goodness sake wat happened to my bed? Properly looking kind of different on account of me pulling the sheets out, and I quick called down, Are you looking for your sheets, ma? O, so thats it, is it? have you gone crazy? sed ma.

No mam, I'll throw them rife down. I sed, Thinking it would be safer to throw them than take them, ony ma didnt wait, coming running up before I had them half undid, and she gave me a cupple of fearse cracks and undid them herself and then gave me a cupple of fearse more.

NEW GOVERNOR OF PANAMA CANAL ZONE

Colonel Jay J. Morrow, who was recently appointed governor of the Panama Canal Zone by Secretary of War Weeks.

AUTOS INVADE MEXICO'S VAST OIL REGIONS

GALVESTON, April 1.—Dobe houses, which dot at intervals the roadway of the Mexican coastal states of Tamaulipas and Vera Cruz and which were ancient even when Hernando Cortez, the conqueror, first set foot in 1519 on Mexican soil, now are witnessing another "invasion."

According to Edward L. Dohney, pioneer oil man in that region, in an interview given the Associated Press, this is an invasion of machinery—the American motor truck—instead of man.

The great coastal oil region of the southern republic, which stretches in an arc southward from Tampico to Tuxpam and which extends far inland, was once a dense jungle, cut only by seldom traveled bridle paths and broken by scattered hamlets. These little hamlets, or cluster of houses, were built of adobe, which seemingly lends itself to the demands of the Mexican climate, and, according to historians, range in age from 1,000 to 2,000 years. Built by Toltec or Aztec slowly and laboriously, apparently the little one-room houses are impervious to the ravages of time and weather.

In early days transportation in this region, as in others of Mexico, was extremely simple. An Indian pack carrier or a burro carried all of the few supplies that were needed by the scattered homes and hamlets. The railways, when finally they came, connected only several of the larger towns, leaving towns and villages in the jungle still dependent upon the burro and pack carrier as the chief means of transportation.

Oil opened a new era in transportation, however, for the rail lines proved inadequate to handle the heavy traffic consisting of supplies, building materials, machinery and foodstuffs. Therefore in order to keep pace with the development of the region, the motor vehicle was called upon to bear the major portion of the transportation burden.

Thousands of automobiles, motor trucks, caterpillar tractors and heavy wagons drawn by many teams of mules traverse these roads daily, carrying their quota of supplies, the great drilling areas. An idea of the vast amount of material can be had when it is noted that there are 161 pipe lines, virtually all of which are eight or ten inches in diameter, totaling nearly 1,000 miles, in the coastal region. In addition to these there are over a thousand oil tanks, with a capacity of 60,000,000 barrels of oil. Derricks, building material of all kinds, repair parts, machinery, knocked down automobiles and foodstuffs comprise a good portion of the remainder of the traffic in-bound for the drilling regions.

GERMANY IS DUMPING HER GOODS IN BELGIUM

By R. H. SHEFFIELD. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) BRUSSELS, April 1.—In a formal note addressed to the Belgian government, the Belgian Federation of Contractors charges Germany with dumping. This is declared to be so formidable that no industry outside Germany can fight against it unless determined and rapid action are taken at once.

It is further charged that the whole financial power of the German state has been placed at the disposal of German industry, enabling German firms to grant the most liberal kind of terms in the way of long-time credits. This is protection the Belgian contractors declare.

This incident arose between the Belgian government and the Belgian Federation of Contractors, when the government recently accepted a German proposal to supply rolling stock for the Belgian State Railways.

Incorporated in the protest is a denunciation of governmental policy in ordering German goods at an apparent saving of 18,000,000 francs when it is declared, Belgium will in the long run stand to lose 21,000,000 francs by reason of unemployment and so forth.

The protest declares it is a false policy to consider solely and wholly the mere question of lowliness of price on the ground of delivery, and makes a plea for governmental assistance for strictly national industries, now suffering from scarcity of foreign orders, thereby making local business all the more valuable.

By awarding governmental orders to a foreign country, the protest points out, Belgium is deprived of a valuable source of revenue at a time when it is badly needed.

CAN OPENER PROVES A POOR INSTRUMENT FOR CUTTING THROATS

A can opener is a handy instrument to have in any home. In the good old days when a party was on it could be pressed into usage to lift the tops from the amber brew, and it has been known to open cans. However, in that case it was absolutely necessary for the wielder of the instrument to have expert knowledge of the technic of opening cans with a can opener, else it would fail.

However, yesterday the can opener found another usage. The time-honored custom of women pulling hair in battle was discarded for the little instrument as a means of offensive attack. It would appear that one of the combatants made a remark, whereupon the other combatant rolled up her sleeves in the best of style and the battle was on.

At this stage the first duellist grabbed the handy little can opener and attempted to cut her opponent's throat. But, as it has many times before, it failed of its purpose. It would not cut a throat, but it did leave a scratch.

20 WHO KILLED THOUSANDS AT KRONSTADT EXECUTED

HELSINGFORS, April 1.—Twenty sailors from the battleship Sebastopol, including sub-Captain Denierin, were executed immediately after being sentenced by a revolutionary tribunal in Petrograd on March 20, according to the Krasny Gazeta.

They were tried as ringleaders of the battleship revolt during the Kronstadt episode, and because their bombardment from the warship had caused thousands of casualties, it was declared.

BIG GAME HUNTERS ARE PLANNING FOR THE LONG TRAIL THAT LEADS TO YUKON'S UNSPOILED HUNTING FIELDS

Are you planning to hunt big game in the Yukon this season? If so, have you engaged your guides? If you have not, lose no more time in doing so. Guides are none too plentiful in the far north and both guides and transportation are being looked by what promises to be the biggest bunch of hunters that have gone to the Yukon. A report has just come out from one of Yukon's best known guides, to the effect that caribou are more plentiful than heretofore known and are ranging in great droves. The two principal districts are the Klondike, White River and the McMillan River sections, the start for either is made from White Horse. McMillan district is reached by an all-water route, the White River wholly by land. Outfitting may be done at White Horse. Some hunters bring along their own ammunition and bedding, but this is unnecessary as Yukon outfitters know to a "T" just what is needed and are ready to furnish it. Both districts are governed by the same laws, and licenses, costing $100, are obtainable at White Horse. From fifty to sixty days must be allowed for the hunting trip. Anything under fifty days demands a pace that precludes choice of heads. In addition to caribou, moose, bear and sheep, goats may be gotten by making short side trips to the particular haunts they favor. Plenty of good fishing may be enjoyed on either trip. Yukon guides have no superiors, but like other choice things, their number is limited. Intending parties should contract for services as early as possible. Hunting in the Yukon is an expensive sport, but this makes it all the more attractive to the sportsmen who can afford it. The limited number of hunters who visit this vast, rich country are sure to get good bags. Head guides command from $12 to $15 per day, while second guides, cooks, canoe men and helpers get from $7 to $10 per day. The cost of a Yukon hunting trip will total from $3,500 to $5,000 for a fifty day trip. This sum is, of course, exclusive of cost of transportation in reaching the Yukon, which includes a three and one-half days' voyage by way of the Inside Passage along the coast of British Columbia.

OIL RECEIVERSHIP ASKED FOR PRODUCERS' AND REFINERS' OIL CORP.

Special to the Times. EASTLAND, April 1.—W. E. Templeton et al. vs. Producers & Refiners Oil Corporation et al., for debt foreclosure and receivership, is the style of a suit filed in the district court here.

NEW WELL EXTENDS CRYSTAL FALLS POOL

Special to the Times. CRYSTAL FALLS, Texas, April 1.—Considerable new territory has been opened up with the drilling in of the Brown and Co., Inc., No. 1 well on the R. Brown tract, four miles east of Crystal Falls. This well is considered of great importance due to the fact that it is located north of the Clear Fork of the Brazos. It offsets in this direction the big J. W. Hill producers of the Mid-Kansas company. The pay was reported struck at 3,200 and with the tools two feet in the lime indications point to a good well, there being a heavy gas pressure.

FRUIT NEAR EASTLAND THOUGHT BADLY HURT

EASTLAND, April 1.—The cold weather of the last few days starting Sunday damaged fruit and truck materially in this section. Ice was in evidence in many places at an early hour Tuesday morning, and it is the consensus of opinion among many of the old timers that the fruit crop has been damaged possibly 50 per cent if not more as the result of the freeze and frost, in low places.

POLICEMAN'S SLAYER TO BE HANGED TODAY

International News Service. WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 1.—The loose end of a rope, which had been fastened to the top of the gallows of the state penitentiary here was to be looped about the neck of John Schmitt today—the trap was to be sprung—and the condemned murderer was to "hang by the neck until dead." Schmitt was sentenced to be executed for the killing of Detective James O'Brien in a revolver duel at Seattle, Wash., January 21, during which he fatally wounded Patrolman Neil McMillan and W. T. Angle. The officers were attempting to arrest him for the alleged murder of E. H. Schultz, following the robbery of a store at Olympia, Wash., a month previous. Schmitt is the first murderer to be hanged under the capital punishment law which was passed by the legislature in 1919. During his incarceration in the penitentiary he refused to see either pastor or priests. He admitted to Warden Drumm that he killed Schultz in his successful attempt to escape after robbing the store at Olympia, though he claimed he only intended to "wing" his pursuer. He also confessed to several robberies in the state of Washington, including the looting of gas-filling stations in Seattle, in reference to which he frequently boasted of having "collected from Rockefeller." Secretary Hoover says that resumption of trade with Russia is impossible until Bolshevism is either abandoned or overthrown. That is a good indication of the position which the Harding administration will take on the subject.—Buffalo Express.

IF I EVER RUN, IT WON'T BE FOR OFFICE, INGRAM ASSERTS

Gaudy circulars—red ink and everything—announcing "J. E. Ingram for Mayor," were hanging on the most prominent downtown posts this morning when the denizens of the city began their jobward trudge. They disappeared shortly after Ingram discovered one. He doesn't know whether it's a joke or what not, except that it isn't true. He has no intention of running for public office, doesn't want one and even if he did, it is too late to get his name on the ballot, he says. Ingram thinks some of his friends did it, this being THE DAY, but he I like to know who they are. "Anyway, I discovered it cost them $25, so the joke isn't on the printer," he said.

CARVED FIGURE OF CHRIST IS CALLED WORLD'S MASTERPIECE

Convict Artist Lies in Unknown Grave in Spanish Honduras.

International News Service. NEW YORK, April 1.—A carving of the head of Christ, in which intensity of suffering is expressed in space no larger than that of a silver dollar, has just been exhibited to the public for the first time in its tragic history. That this marvelous miniature reproduction of the death agony of Christ on the cross was inspired by the genius of a great though unknown artist is the opinion of experts who have viewed it. The priceless little masterpiece is now in the possession of Mrs. Oliver Harriman, of 142 East Fifty-sixth street, this city. The carving has won the admiration of prelates and the high approval of artists. The head is carved in relief on the concave pad of a Florida bean, with half the outer shell of the bean making a frame for it. One must use a microscope to perceive the delicacy of the carving, which brings out the features with tender detail, with tears coursing down the cheeks. Long exposure has hardened the pod until it is now like yellowed ivory. Creator Unknown. The creator of the miniature masterpiece lies in an unknown grave in Spanish Honduras, the victim of a death punishment inflicted by the law of the land. But the gem he has created has inspired artists, prelates and laymen alike to a spirit of humility such as might be caused by the living presence of the Master. The story its custodians have heard of it is that it was made in 1895 by a man awaiting death in a Guatemala prison. On the way to execution he passed a small package to his jailer to be given to the family of the condemned with these words: "This is my last message." Value Unknown. It remained a souvenir in the family several years, and it was then accepted in discharge of a debt by a man who held a lien on the family home. This new owner kept it for fifteen years, admiring it, but with no thought of its art value, and then he gave it to a Senor Navia, the son of

CHILDREN'S SHOW AT LIBERTY TOMORROW

"Little Red Riding Hood" and an "Edgar" comedy will be shown tomorrow morning at the Liberty theatre in the first of a series of benefit performances for the schools and other institutions. This program, which will be run from 9 to 12 o'clock, is designed to be of special interest to little children and mothers. It will be under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Cooper school and the proceeds will go to payments on the school piano.

MRS. FLYNN IN CHARGE OF GUARANTY SMOKESHOP

Mrs. Helen Flynn has taken over the Guaranty smokeshop, formerly operated by Mrs. E. N. Jonas. She has restocked it with the most popular cigars and also will carry magazines and candies for the trade. Mrs. Flynn at one time was connected with Cole's cafeteria. In 1781 Benjamin Franklin established the first circulating library in America at Philadelphia. There are 800,000 persons employed in the United States Post Office department.

PERFUMED MALES WITH OILY HAIR MAKE CUSSED HUSBANDS

Voliva Says Tie 'Em in Bed Quilt and Beat 'Em With Broom.

International News Service. CHICAGO, April 1.—Comes again before us Mr. Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion City, and informs the homophobes on "The Cussedness of Modern Husbands to Their Wives," to-wit:

"A man goes into a home and courts a beautiful girl. She has a lovely father and mother, and the most charming surroundings.

"He sits there with oil on his hair, a perfumed handkerchief in his pocket, and buckwheat batter on his head.

"He says: 'Now, darling humpty-dumpty, if you only will promise to be mine you will never have to put your hands in dishwater and I will dress you in silks and satin.'

"The infernal liar!

"She has her hands in dishwater two-third of the time after she marries him. They have four sweet little children. He is an Odd Fellow on Monday night, playing the duncer; an Elk on Tuesday night, a Buffalo on Wednesday night, a Maccabee, on Thursday night and a Bumblebee on Friday night.

"He leaves his wife at home with the children while he is out fooling around, wearing a little apron in a secret lodge room.

"If I were in her place I would sew him up in a bed-quilt, beat him with a broom and put a kitchen apron on him and make him wash the dishes." Further than this, deponent saith not.

ORDERS BRIDE BY MAIL BUT 'SHE'S' IN JAIL; NOT A LADY, EITHER

NEW YORK, April 1.—H. W. Thompson of North Branch, Minn., was lonely. He wanted a wife. Knowing no eligible women, he inserted an advertisement one bleak day last November in Cupid's Column, a matrimonial publication issued at St. Paul. A kittenish reply came promptly from a Miss M. E. Stewart, who gave her address as 302 West Fifty-fourth street, New York.

Miss Stewart said she was 23 years old and a blonde who was not without charm. She admitted a hankering to get married, but added that in a financial sense her life had been rather discouraging.

Then Assistant United States Attorney Maxwell S. Mattuck looked into the matter and said there was no such person as Miss M. E. Stewart of 302 West Fifty-fourth street who was broke.

According to Mr. Mattuck, who yesterday caused the arrest of J. J. Stewart of 527 West One Hundred and Fifty-eighth street, an employee of the Palisades Park commission, J. J. Stewart, who is no lady, wrote the letters to Thompson and obtained $250 with which to pay the railroad fare of the bride-to-be and caparison for the wedding.

Therefore, Mr. Mattuck maintained J. J. Stewart was using the mails in an attempt to defraud. So Stewart was arraigned before United States commissioner Hitchcock yesterday and held in $2,500 bail.

Stewart was arraigned by Postoffice Inspector Nathan Noyle. The search for him began when the prospective bridegroom failed to get a show for his money. He, becoming weary of waiting, notified the postal authorities. Inspector Noyle said he traced the checks to Stewart.

HAD MODEL HUSBAND BUT HE WAS ROUGH

International News Service. CHICAGO, April 1.—Clement Fabulick was a model husband, but he had one decided failing—"an un governable temper," according to his wife, Mrs. Annie Fabulick. A few days ago Mrs. Fabulick stood up in Judge Jesse Baldwin's divorce court. Her nose was almost entirely missing.

"He bit it off," she explained, adding that Fabulick now is in Joliet for his little act. Mrs. Fabulick was given her marital freedom.

RANGER NEEDS JOHN M. GHOLSON —For Its— MAYOR

—He is backed by the best citizens of Ranger.

—We are all out for the same thing, a greater and prosperous Ranger.

—Those who have heard this man speak must have been impressed by his sincerity.

—He is not running for a political job—his friends and associates are running him for Mayor because Ranger needs a man of his type.

—Here is a man who is attracted by the chance to be of service to the citizens of Ranger.

—Here is a man whose views regarding Ranger are sound business-like views.

—They are the views of the people who are making Ranger.

—Here is a man who believes in efficient economy of administration.

—Here is a man deserving the support of every voter who wants energy and intelligence in executive positions.

—He has already proven his ability as a citizen of the highest type.

—John M. Gholson is an experienced business man. He is no office chaser. He was reluctant to run until he felt that perhaps he could be of service to this city. He brings to the civic post he seeks a matured judgment. Very valuable in public deliberations. He brings to the position he seeks, both poise and probity. He will make Ranger a mayor that all citizens will feel justly proud.

—Give this man your support and influence and put a real business man at the head of Ranger's city government.

SPORTS

Nitro Notes

The Nitros are out hustling these days. Yesterday it was a long grind of more than four hours, split in the middle just long enough to allow for refreshments.

There are twenty-two players on Sled's list, including three catchers, eight pitchers, seven infielders and four outfielders. A few more men are expected.

Ranger to start with will have five or six of last year's crew as a nucleus. Clopp, Mooney and Lovelace are back after their old jobs in the outfield. Menke, who started the season at first base, and Jack York, who finished the flag chase, are back. The rest of the infield will be new, at least at the start. Jody Tate will stick around with the Marines, according to latest reports.

Yeh, Boyer. The big boy has written that he wants to come back into the fold and the club yesterday received his formal release from the St. Louis Cardinals. Boyer never reported along in May, about three weeks after the season opens. Three old pitchers will be here, Red Hill, Tommy Harding and Smoke Boyer.

Lefty Munger, who was one of the pre-season aspirants for a job with the Detroit-Columbus series, on his way back after their old jobs in the outfield. Menke, who started the season at first base, and Jack York, who finished the flag chase, are back. The rest of the infield will be new, at least at the start. Jody Tate will stick around with the Marines, according to latest reports.

The Nitros will stage two contests Sunday. Sled will split the squad, taking one bunch to Breckenridge and sending the other to Straun, under the command of John Singleton. On the 9th and 10th the club will play at Albany, and on the next Saturday and Sunday, the Albany club will be here for two games. This is one of the fastest independent teams in West Texas.

EASTLAND FANS WILL HAVE BASEBALL TEAM

Special to the Times. EASTLAND, April 1.-Rahleigh Fairborn is responsible for the statement that a baseball team is in process of organization in this city, that will be one of the best independent teams in this section, and that they have already been challenged to a match game by Gorman. Teams have been organized at Breckenridge and Rising Star, and it is thought that many fast games will be enjoyed by local fans throughout the long, hot summer months. Some interest is being evidenced among local fans. It is pointed out that they have one of the best parks in the country here, and the possibility of the organization of a four-team city league has been suggested, including the high school team, the Elks team, and that of other organizations, if enough material can be found to make out the four teams.

CHICAGO SUNDAY PAPER COST TULSA OIL MAN TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS

International News Service CHICAGO, April 1.-Sunday papers come high in Chicago. A Tulsa, Okla., oil operator recently paid a little over $200 for his.

He was on a limited train ready to start for Kansas City when just before starting time he discovered he had neglected to purchase a Sunday paper.

He made a wild dash down the platform, bought the paper and returned-but the train was gone.

"I'd give $1,000 to catch that train," he exclaimed, and the gateman overheard him.

Robins said a special engine might be chartered, and things began to hum around the station.

D. H. Campbell, passenger agent, communicated with the general manager.

"Hold the 'flier' at Brighton, near Joliet," he was told; "give him an engine for $100 and charge him $2 a minute for the flier's delay."

He caught a local train to Canal and Sixteenth streets, where the 'live' engine waited. The track was cleared to Joliet and the race was on.

He arrived at Brighton's thirty minutes late, at $2 a minute, boarded the train and was on his way. He paid cash for everything-about $168 to the railroad and more than $50 in tips for everyone concerned.

"I've a big deal on in Tulsa," he explained. "I had to make it."

No one thought to ask his name.

BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD FOR 220 YARDS

Charles Paddock, the University of Southern California sprinter, who clipped two-fifths of a second off the world's record for 220 yards at a meet in Berkeley, Cal. The old record was 21 1-5 seconds. Paddock, timed by four clockers, broke the tape in 20 4-5 seconds.

HUBBY HAS RESTAURANT, WIFE CANNOT GET EVEN MEAL TICKET, SHE SAYS

DENVER, April 1.-Although Howard Fry is manager of a big Seventeenth street restaurant, his wife testified in the county court that she couldn't get a meal ticket there.

She told Judge George W. Dunn she had brought suit against her husband in justice court for non-support and the court had ordered the restaurant man to take care of her.

This failed to get her even "cut-fee-and," she said, so she started divorce proceedings and was granted temporary alimony. But the alimony was not forthcoming, she said.

Friday she asked the court to give her a divorce without alimony. To be free was all she asked. Judge Dunn granted her a preliminary decree.

HEAVYWEIGHT HORIZON SHOWS TOMMY GIBBONS-COMING UP FAST

By JACK VEIOCK, International News Sporting Editor NEW YORK, April 1.-Tommy Gibbons, clever St. Paul socker, is something of an idol with the boxing fans around Lill' Ole Gotham since he made his recent debut here as a heavyweight.

Tom punched his way into the hearts of the fans at the expense of one Paul Sampson, a rugged Bronx heavyweight, and his speed and hitting ability amazed the crowd. Sampson had never before been knocked out. Gibbons disposed of him in two rounds.

Many of the fans at the ringside were present at Newark last fall when Georges Carpentier and Bat Levinsky staged their little party and it did not take them long to agree that Gibbons stands just as high as the versatile Georges in the ranks of title contenders.

In short, Sir Thomas is rated plenty good enough for a crack at Mister Jawn Dempsey any day.

On Carpentier's Trail. Gibbons has been on Carpentier's trail for many months. He is on the trail of every good heavyweight from Jack Dempsey down, and about all he needs to boost his stock sky high in the heavy weight division is a chance to show what he can do against the big boys.

Perhaps a few more pounds would not hurt Gibbons-he weighs 170 now-but even at that weight he is big enough and strong enough to hold his own with the best of 'em. Dempsey proved pretty conclusively that weight isn't everything when he trimmed Jess Willard at Toledo, and what is true of Dempsey is true of Gibbons or Carpentier.

If Gibbons could fill all the engagements boxing promoters try to line up for him he would be the busiest boxer in the country. But that is where the rub comes in. Promoters everywhere want Gibbons but cannot induce the leading battlers of the country to get into the ring with him.

In short, Thomas plays too rough for the boys, and when they see him coming they try to put his eyes out with heel dust.

Has Busy Manager. Eddie Kane, who manages Gibbons, probably covers more territory in search of bouts than any other fight manager in the business. Kane is forced to take long jumps hither and yon in lining up opponents, and he often skips half way across the country only to have some match fall through because Tom's prospective opponent suddenly discovers that he would rather not meet the hard-hitting Irishman. Kane made a tentative strike, however, when he introduced Gibbons to the New York public, and he is gradually working into a position where the lads who have been dodging Tommy-and this list includes the best of 'em-will have to kick in or take back seats in the eyes of the boxing public.

Gibbons only recently developed a real hayo punch. As a middleweight, he was not a knocker-out, but as he kept taking on poundage he discovered that he possessed the power to put across a sleep-producing wallop, and he goes into the ring with the idea of knocking out his man as quickly as possible. This same idea, by the way, proved a mighty big help to Dempsey in his sensational climb toward the championship, and Gibbons today has started a nice string of knockout victories that is bound to grow fast.

As Tex Rickard and other promoters throughout the country stand ready and willing to feature Gibbons

SOCIETY

MRS. MADDOX ENTERTAINS.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. E. Maddox entertained twenty women at her home in Young addition in honor of Mrs. Frank L. Burke of Las Cruces, N. M., who is in the city for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lytton R. Taylor.

An unique feature of the event was that each guest represented a book and much merriment resulted in guessing the titles.

During the afternoon Mrs. Homley and Mrs. Shepard sang for the visitors.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cakes, coffee and candy were served to the following guests: Meses. Burke, Lytton R. Taylor, Earl Taylor, Shepard, Burt, Dean, Hornsby, Boon, Bohning, Stevens, Howard Gholson, Deitrich, Moffet, Stubblebine, Dyre, Streeth and Houghton.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. L. S. Reavis returned Thursday from an extended visit with relatives in El Paso.

C. W. Tatum, advertising manager for Richardson-Brown Co., is in Ranger on business. Mr. Tatum expects to be here until the middle of the month.

Mrs. A. S. Riddle of Richardson-Brown Co., returned Wednesday from a brief business trip to Dallas.

HOBO ARRESTED FOR WASHING HIS SHIRT

International News Service
DENVER, Col., April 1.—Hoboes and cleanliness don't mix in Denver, according to a mandate laid down by the police department.

A knight of the road caught washing his shirt in a creek on the outskirts of Denver was arrested by Patrolman Bates.

"It's another one loose," Bates remarked.

The blotter at headquarters reads: "Reported lunatic in Cherry Creek investigated by South Denver station. Hobo washing his shirt. Arrested on vagrancy charge."

The moral is somewhat clouded.

CHEF'S CAFE

—Don't make your wife sweat over a hot stove Sunday, while you read the paper and smoke cigars. You can't blame the dear little thing for being cross. Give her a day's rest the same as you have yourself.

—Now really don't you think she is entitled to that much consideration?

—It is a violation of the law to work a horse seven days out of the week, but of course the law-makers didn't think it necessary to compel you to treat your wife that well.
