YOUTH FINALLY LAID TO REST IN DALLAS CEMETERY

The last chapter in the career of the blonde-haired boy killed in Ranger last Saturday after-noon was written in Dallas yesterday when he was buried in Oakland cemetery as Arthur Norton, grandson of Mrs. Mc-Whorter of that city.

Once the body went to Dallas as young Norton. It was returned to Breckenridge as Clarance Teakell and again sent back to Dallas as Arthur Norton. Yesterday at a private funeral the body of the boy was placed by the side of that of his mother and father, who only recently died.

YEP, SOMEBODY'S ALWAYS TAKING JOY OUT O' LIFE; NOW IT'S DURNED BULL PUP

Briggs is right; something or somebody is always taking the joy out of life. For example, this morning there was a lovely dog fight in the making. The preacher, the small boy, the banker, the newspaper reporter and others had stopped to enjoy a few moments sport.

Tentative advances had already been made by a part of the audience to place their money on "Ring." "Old Sport" also had his admirers. Everything was all set for a pretty fight. The combatants were rearing upon each other's necks, snarling and flinging nasty best dog manner.

At this stage a little old names back and forth in their brindle mongrel had to stick his nose in where he had no business—he dashed between the fighters, knocking them apart, and both seeming well pleased with the turn events had taken trotted away.

A newsboy present expressed the sentiments of the crowd when he declared in a high nasal tenor: "Ain t life hell?"

Negro Survivor Says Men Slain With Axes, Pistols and By Drowning to Cover Conditions Amounting to Slavery on Georgia Farm.

International News Service.
ATLANTA, March 25.—With the alleged confession of Clyde Manning, a negro in their possession, and John Williams, wealthy plantation owner of Jasper county, in jail at Covington, authorities here and in Jasper county declared today both Williams and Manning would be tried on charges of having slain eleven negroes, some of whom were thrown into the Yellow river. The negroes, officers said, all were laborers on the Williams plantation and were slain to prevent the possibility of their "squealing" over conditions on the plantation, said to clearly approach slavery.

The killings, all within the last sixty days, it was said in Manning's alleged confession, were carried out with the utmost brutality. Four of the men, Manning is declared to have confessed, were knocked in the head with an axe, one was shot to death and the others were taken to the Yellow river, chained and weighted with stones and "drowned like rats."

pulsion also from the party of Senator del Valle Iberlucea and Deputy Bunge, who led the fight in the convention for adherence to the Lenine doctrines. The executive council replied that, since these men were national legislators elected on the Socialist ticket, it was not in the power of the council to take any disciplinary measures, such action lying with the party, but that the matter would be taken up at the next party convention the latter part of this year.

A demand also was made in the senate for the expulsion of Iberlucea from that body on the ground of alleged seditious utterances at the convention. This was followed by an attempt to have him tried in the federal courts for sedition. In the senate the matter was referred to a committee with instructions to report on the question of the jurisdiction of the senate in the case.

The accusation against him in the federal court, brought in Buenos Aires by a private citizen, was dismissed on the ground that the alleged crime was committed in Bahia Blanca where the convention was held, and that the Buenos Aires court had no jurisdiction.

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT BLAMED BY STATESMAN FOR TRAFFIC IN OPIUM

By Associated Press
TOKIO, March 25. — Opposition charges of government irregularities in the opium traffic in the Kwantung in the opium traffic in the Kwantung leased territory were the basis of remarks by Representative M. Koba of the Nationalist group in the Diet.

The speaker alleged that a private organization called the Kosai Zendo, which has the opium monopoly in Kwantung, though nominally Chinese, is really a Japanese concern and all the irregularities in the opium traffic in Manchuria are traceable to it.

He read extracts from contracts said to exist between the Chinese under whose name this so-called "charity organization" is conducted and the Japanese who, he said, are behind the scenes. He also presented extracts from the books of the firm according to which the Japanese interested derived a profit of 286,500 yen between August 3, 1919 and March 21, 1920,

CLASSICS FOR US.

Saturday night will be opera night in Ranger. Singers of note will exhibit their wares at the Methodist church under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

The folk who enjoy that sort of music should be out in full force. Those who are not certain, but rather hope they will like it, should turn out in large enough numbers so that the two classes will pack the church.

That would, of course, be highly desirable. Operative performers, just like their brothers and sister of the jazz department, work better to a full house and vociferous applause. Then, too, it will keep the chamber from feeling sad over money lost on public

Uplift, and refining influences any town must have for its all around development. There quite possibly are persons here who pine for classical music and will be happier and more liable to remain if it can be had. There may be other persons who will learn to like it, and certainly it is held to be of great benefit to the growing child, though it doesn't al-But in any event, fur nishing this entertainment is a function for some civic body such as the chamber. It is a function which could easily be neglected. But the Ranger chamber doesn't do things that way. It feels, and rightly, that its endeavors should cover all phases of human endeavors, boost something that all classes of any considerable size are interested in

This is a move that will be worth while for the individual citizens to support. Some will enjoy the music. Those who do not will have opportunity to think of some sarcastic jokes which may go well on the morrow. And even a poor joke is worth a little something these days.

Squads of special men were spread to all parts of the greater city, expert men picked to patrol the lower East Side where venders were even using school children as "go-betweens" to supply addicts.

Constant watch was kept on incoming ships where alleged smugglers were resorting to all manner of ricks to "sneak" the narcotics into his country. Once the anti-narcotic orces were working systematically and arrests became frequent, the ituation soon gave evidence of being cleared up.
