Touching Romance of Old Song "Kathleen."

Frederick Nichols Crouch, composer of the music of "Kathleen Mavourneen," the deathless poem which inspired Charles J. Brabin to write for the screen the big William Fox special by that name, which will be seen today at the Lone Star theater, had a checked career; but the most remarkable of his experiences was reserved for his later years.

It seems that a boy named James Marion Roche, born at New Ross, Kil-kenny, Ireland, grew up with the music of "Kathleen Mavourneen" ever on his lips; his love of the song was un-speakable. In time he went to America.

In 1883 Roche visited Baltimore and learned accidentally that Crouch resided there and was having a hard time to make both ends meet. Roche's love of "Kathleen Mavourneen" was as great as ever, and his desire was to aid its com-poser.

To this end Roche, with rare delicacy and tact persuaded Crouch to adopt him as a son. As James Roche Crouch he did what he could to make life a little easier for his "father."

Weatherford Now Uses Natural Gas; Other News Notes

WEATHERFORD, April 9.—This city now has natural gas. It was turned into the mains Thursday and there is plenty for all purposes. The city has recently been "completely piped and from the number of con-nections being made the coal dealers will have to hunt other vocations next winter.

Weatherford's water supply has been augmented 26,000 gallons daily by the completion of a well on the southwestern part of the city. Two other wells are to be drilled and when they are completed all possi-bilities of a water shortage will be eliminated.

One of the largest real estate deals recorded in this city was made recently when Babe Woodhouse pur-chased the building on the west side of the square from H. W. Kuteiman the consideration being $100,000. This building is practically new, being only about eight years old, is built of brick and is three stories high.

Major George Wythe, whose home is in this city, was recently appoint-ed foreign trade adviser with head-quarters at Constantinople. He will take up his duties there in about six weeks.

In last Tuesday's election, Weath-erford elected a new mayor in the person of Nolan Queen. Mr. Queen is an attorney by profession and it is believed his administration will be one of the most successful in the his-tory of our town.

Weatherford's newly organized Y

J. E. L. completed the election of directors at its regular meeting last Tuesday night. The Y. M. B. L. is a live bunch of young men and great things are expected to be accom-plished.

Paved streets in Weatherford are fast becoming a reality. Thursday saw the first real paving laid, and work will be pushed until the job is completed.

One of the most modern garages in the state is now being erected here by the Hopkins Motor company of which Clarence Hopkins is owner. It is being constructed of brick and covers a lot 200 feet square.

ADMIRAL WILSON PRAISES UNITED STATES NAVY DURING WAR

The admiral added that the energy the navy department put into the war and its accomplishments de-serve the commendation of the nation.

BASEBALL.

Dallas Marines Wallop Nitros in Slow Contest, 8-2

ON THE ROAD.
Jim Galloway last night embarked with one string of the Nitros for Wichita Falls, where they open a four-game series today with the Spudders. Mac McCormick will have charge of another string which works out here today and then goes to Eastland for Saturday and Sunday games.

In two large innings, the Dallas Marines thumped out enough base hits and the Nitros contributed enough errors, both of the box score and ivory variety, to spoil a contest that started out to be good. The conclusion was 8 to 2. Rariger didn't have the 8.

When Dude Mooney singled to right and Lefty March caught hold of one f Mr. Landry's benders for a double, scoring Dude, in the second frame, the game looked bright. Lefty Munger, flirring for the Nitros, pulled out of a tight box in the third, but the blow-up came in the third.

Mattick singled to left. Palmer singled to center. Mattick was on third, by reason of a passed ball. Palmer started to swipe second and Browning heaved the ball to center field. Mattick scored. With Palmer on second, Scoggins rolled to Munger, who lost his head and played to third. Jim relayed to first and March dropped it. Palmer scored. Robertson singled past second and was safe at second when Davis dropped Tate's throw on Landry's roller. Scoggins scored.

Three free rides issued by Munger, a clean single and a fluky double, with some chasing of the ball in center field added four to the Dallas end in the seventh. The intervening tally came in the fifth, when Mattick singled and scored on Palmer's double.

Rariger's second and final tally came in the seventh, when Lovelace lifted a long tall drive to center and stretched it into a triple by the grace of Red Miller, umpire. He scored when Slattery overthrew third after retiring March unassisted.

NITRO NOTES.

NITRO NOTES.—14
Jim Galloway and John Pickett, traveling secretary of the Nitros, climbed aboard the Oil Special last night for Fort Worth and thence to Wichita Falls, taking with them Lovelace, Browning, Kelly, Munger, Mooney, Holland, March, McGown, Tate, Davis and Smith. They will tangle with the Spudders in four games, starting today.

Mac McCormick will have charge of the workout here today, with Dillard, Anderson, Cullum, McDougal, Hawes, Thomas, Lynch, Boyer and Sudderth. Mac will have charge of the team for two games in the field at Eastland, starting Saturday. Secretary Trimble will have charge of the team in the trip over.

Whatever may be said of Red's eye as an umpire, the fans agreed that his voice is good. He indicated his decisions smartly as he made them, in contrast to Munger, who umpired the day before. Billy Bee, of the Star-Telegram, lost a cigar. He bet a cigar that Lefty, as an umpire, was paralyzed in both arms. He lost when Lefty waved his right arm in the seventh inning.

March's sound wallop to center, in the second frame, scoring Mooney, was a keen blow. Lovelace deserved a good double on his drive to center in the seventh. He got three bases, through Red's generosity. "You won that one, Red," chirped Slattery, the Marine first sacker.

Tate had a bad day at short, but allowance must be made for his first day in that position. Things look a whole lot different from the short infield than they do at third and he handled himself well at that station.

The fans were glad to see Jim Galloway in the game. He played that night eight chances cleanly. Browning in would have gotten transferred with a tall fly that Jim would have had easily, but which luckily rolled foul. Jim poled out a good double, also.

STILL SAYS HE OWNS OLDEST BALL USED IN CHAMPIONS' GAME

EMPORIA, Kan., April 9.—O. M. Willite of Emporia has found occasion to rally to the support of his claim that he has the oldest baseball, used in a championship game, in existence. Every once in a while, Mr. Willite says, someone breaks into print as a claimant of the oldest baseball in existence. The most recent "pretender" was named in a sporting magazine with a ball that was used in a New York game, September 20, 1868.

Mr. Willite has written the magazine: "I will wager $100 that I own the oldest baseball in existence, used in a championship game." Mr. Willite states in his letter that he has all necessary evidence to prove his claim, even to the "bat boy" at the game in which the ball was used, September 9, 1857, who still lives in Emporia. The game was between the Tri-Mountain club of Boston and the Portland, Me., team and was played on Boston commons, Portland winning 47 to 42. The ball is encased in a one-piece cover and is ten inches in circumference.

A POUND OF CAUTION BEST.

When an accident is avoided, it is good for the man in the automobile and for the man in the street.

If the driver of an automobile is careless, the man in the street is in danger, no matter how careful he tries to be. If the man in the street is careless, there is danger of an accident, even though the man at the wheel is breaking his heart in his eagerness to avoid running down anyone.

Therefore, caution, like charity, should begin at home. It is foolish for the man in the street to swear at the automobile driver after a close shave if he has contributed to the unpleasant situation by not watching his step; and it is equally asinine for the driver of a machine to ejaculate wildly if he has failed to take every possible precaution against mishap.

In most accidents, those who ride and those who walk are in some measure to blame.

HE OVERPAID HIS TAXES.

Everybody knows that there is a watchful eye scanning men and things to prevent the dodging of taxes.

But the news of the day shows that the tax collector is not a grim and greedy person who thinks only of gathering in money. A man in Dallas has just received a check from A. S. Walker, collector of internal revenue for Texas, because he overpaid his income tax.

It is true that the check was for only one cent—not a large sum in the year 1920—but it shows that the collector is keeping a watchful eye upon what is paid to him, with the determination to see that no taxpayer parts with more cash than is necessary.

Those of us who are poor hands at adding up figures will now have more ease of mind. If we make mistakes and put our income tax at too high a figure, there will be a check in the mail for us one of these days.

BREXER RABBIT AND RED EYE.

The rabbit is perhaps the most timid of all living things. When one of them got a nip of bootleg whiskey the other day in Dallas its effect upon him leaves no doubt of the might of moonshine.

Luckily, Brexer rabbit was locked in a room when he went on his spree and he couldn't pick a fight with anyone. But he hit holes in the furniture.

This is the way the story is told in an Associated Press dispatch today from Dallas to the Ranger Daily Times:

"Bootleg whiskey and a domesticated rabbit got together in Chief of Police Ryan's office here the night before Easter Sunday.

"When Chief Ryan entered his office Easter Sunday morning, intending to take the rabbit home to a young boy friend, he found his mahogany desk scratched, papers all thrown about and chairs showing marks of the rabbit's teeth. In a corner, on his gunny sack bed, bunny was sleeping it off.

"The rabbit had overturned two bottles of bootleg whiskey, which the police had seized in a raid; had gnawed out the corks and apparently had imbibed freely of the liquor. As the police cat or dog were not available, it was assumed the rabbit had 'taken it out' on the office furniture."

SOMEONE MUST PRODUCE

Unrest keeps the cupboard bare. When a nation is in turmoil, it is forced to look to other nations for supplies of food, and if it cannot pay for the food it must depend upon charity or go without.

This lesson is emphasized in an Associated Press dispatch today to the Ranger Daily Times. This dispatch says:

Under-production as a result of labor troubles and unrest in Europe has caused an unprecedented movement of wheat and flour through the port of Galveston.

"Fifteen thousand tons of sacked wheat flour will move through Galveston for trans-Atlantic points within the next few weeks, according to an announcement by Edward F. Newirth, second vice-president of the United States Grain corporation.

"The first cargo of this movement will be taken on by the British steamship Esperanza, the flour probably being destined to points in Italy. Other cargoes, it was expected, would follow to points in the United Kingdom and Belgium."

Hot Sands to Give Second Ball, Dinner, Dance on April 23rd

The second monthly ball of the Hot Sands will be given at the Summer Casino Friday evening, April 23. It is the intention of the committee in charge to make this affair even more of a success than was the one given in March. Several new ideas have been adopted for the decorations and dinner will be served after the dance, which will end at 1 o'clock.

The Hot Sands club is not a part of the Masonic lodge, but membership is limited to Masons in good standing.

Due to the fact that the last ball was given on such short notice, many who were eligible could not be reached, and it is the purpose of the committee to have the tickets on sale not later than the 10th of the month, thereby giving every Mason who desires the opportunity to be present. Tickets can be secured from Dr. Carl Wilson at his office in the Cole building, or from any of the following committee: Guy Wetzel, Leslie Hagaman, Cleo Wilkins, Forrest Box, James and Louis Ducker.

G. A. Bryant, local oil dealer, arrived last night from Hasse, Comanche county. He is interested in the Comanche Oil association, whose Sturkie No. 1 is attracting wide attention following a good showing of oil and gas. Mr. Bryant is stopping at the Hotel Theodore.

BREEDEN'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND PRAISED BY NEW YORK TRAINED NURSE

Miss Maud I. Gritman, a trained nurse in one of the hospitals at Port Chester, N. Y., says: "Several months ago I received from you a bottle of your Rheumatic Compound. It helped me, and I have been free from rheumatism since taking it. A short time ago I recommended it to a patient who was suffering intensely and unable to walk with rheumatism. I advised this patient to get Breeden's Rheumatic Compound. He has taken three bottles and is now able to walk and all pain is gone but to effect a permanent cure he wishes to continue the use of your medicine a little longer. I am inclosing a money order, for which please send me two bottles of your Rheumatic Compound."

"I am a trained nurse and I have never found anything to equal your remedy in the treatment of rheumatism." Rheumatism is usually very painful. Breeden's Rheumatic Compound will give you quick relief from pain, although it contains no narcotics nor anything harmful. It will not hurt your stomach; you can eat your regular diet while taking the medicine; you do not have to use other medicines in connection with it in order to get quick results. It is not recommended for all the ills of the human family and does not contain medicines for different diseases but it is a preparation for rheumatism, therefore it has no effect in the treatment of this ailment. It gives quick relief where others fail. It is supreme in its field. It is not high priced. Try a bottle today.

106 Years Old, 3rd Set of Teeth

Lafayette Strickland, of Decatur County, (the old gentleman in the center of the picture) is believed to be the oldest man in Georgia. His exact age was not known until a few days ago, when his daughter came across the old family Bible, which had been mislaid. The record in the old volume gave the date of her father's birth as 1813. Some of the oldest men in his county say they recall that, when they were boys, Mr. Strickland was a gray-bearded man.—Bainbridge, Ga., Post.

The Oldest Man in Georgia Has Used Thedford's Black-Draught as Long as His Daughter Can Remember, For Deranged Stomach and Liver Troubles.

Attapulgus, Ga., Jan. 30, 1920.
MY FATHER was born Feb. 5, 1813, making him 106 years of age. He was a confederate soldier, fighting all through the Civil War. He also fought in the Indian War. His father and a man named Sharp settled this county. My father was born in this county and has never been away except to the war. When the Indians fought the Whites here, my father was cut on the head by an Indian, carrying now two big scars across his head.
 My father has his third set of teeth, and can still get around the yard in good weather. He had splendid health, till he began cutting this third set of teeth. While cutting these teeth I had to use with him a mild laxative, and I have never found anything better than Black-Draught. This I have used with him ever since I can remember. When I was a child my father used Black-Draught, on up to now. That is what I use with him. I can recommend Black-Draught and gladly do so. It was my father's family medicine and I suppose it will be till he dies, as it is reliable, and I have never found anything that did him the same good when his stomach is deranged. For old people, Black-Draught will help the liver acting.

(MISS) ELLA STRICKLAND.
IMPORTANT! There is only one genuine Black-Draught Liver Medicine, but many imitations and substitutes. Do not be deceived! Look for the name on the package! Refuse all imitations!

All Texas Urged to Give a Week to Health Fight

AUSTIN, April 9.—The week beginning April 19 is designated as Health week in a proclamation issued by the governor, as follows: "I am informed by the state board of health that over 25 per cent of the deaths and sickness in Texas is of a preventable nature and modern scientific sanitary literature teaches that many of these diseases have their origin in dirt, and that many cases of blindness and physical defects are due to lack of knowledge. "Now, therefore, I, W. P. Hobby, governor of Texas, at the request of the state board of health do hereby proclaim the week beginning April 19, 1920, as Health week. "This week to be devoted (a) to the distribution of educational literature on keeping physically fit, and teaching our children preparedness against the pitfalls of disease, through lectures, physical examinations and demonstrations; (b) an examination into the various health ordinances and perfecting them; pledging moral support and enforcement; (c) a careful inspection of our homes and city surroundings; (d) providing facilities, both physical and financial, for removal of any contaminated or infected places found, and "Whereas, my information is that: "Mosquitoes transmit malaria; "Poor housing conditions are comforts and aids of tubercular germs; "Dust offers a splendid medium for many germs to be transmitted; "Common towels and drinking cups both factors in propagating disease; "Dumping grounds are incubators for many disease-producing organisms if material is not properly disposed of; "Hundreds of Texans are victims of rabies from unmuzzled dogs, and "Whereas, the prosperity of Texas depends upon the health of her citizens, "I therefore, urge every individual, organization, public health authority, public official and the schools of the state to observe this Health week, April 19, 1920."

New Oil Stations Visited by Many Over New Railroad

More than 100 persons took advantage of the opening of passenger service on the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railroad yesterday to visit the new towns of Edhobby, Jakehamon and Frankell, and indications are that double this number will avail themselves of the service daily.

A mixed train, carrying passengers and freight, leaves the Hunt street depot at 7 a. m. each morning, arrives at Edhobby at 7:55 and pulls into Jakehamon at 8:45, according to schedule. On the return trip the train leaves Jakehamon at 9:30 a. m., arrives at Edhobby at 10:10, reaches Ranger at 11:15, leaves at once for Frankell and arrives there at 12:20 p. m. At 12:30 the train leaves Frankell, arriving in this city at 2 p. m., and leaves at once. Edhobby is reached at 2:55 p. m., and Jakehamon at 3:40 p. m. The train leaves Jakehamon at 4 p. m., reaches Edhobby at 4:40 and Ranger at 5:40 and Frankell at 6:40. The last train from the north arrives here at 8:05 p. m.

This service allows a person to catch the first train out of this city and spend the whole day in Edhobby or Jakehamon, and the whole afternoon in Frankell, and get back here for the night.

All kinds of freight are being received at the local depot for shipment north or south, J. M. Strupper, general freight and passenger agent, stated today. Effective April 7, the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railroad was made a participating carrier in Texas lines traffic 2 D, covering classes and commodities between points in Texas, Mr. Strupper stated, and also in Texas lines tariff 36, covering rates on lumber between points in Texas.

"By being a concurrent carrier in these tariffs, the new road is permitted to join other lines in protecting through joint rates between all points in Texas on traffic to Edhobby, Frankell and Jakehamon." Mr. Strupper pointed out. "We will have the line through to Dublin by the middle of April, giving us a direct route to connections with the Frisco and Katy."

HOW TO STOP A HEADACHE

Aspirin Relieves Pain in Two Minutes—Prevents Return by Removing Cause—Absolutely Safe.

Doctors and druggists are delighted with the new Aspirin Elixir which relieves the pain of headache in two minutes and also removes the cause by gently acting on the liver, overcoming biliousness and constipation and thereby preventing the return of the headache next day. Doctors especially recommend Aspirin for the reason that it is not dangerous to the heart and does not upset the stomach.

The next time you have a headache go to your nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirin and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful in a little water. With your watch in hand count off two minutes and call for your money back, as per manufacturer's guarantee, if you can't feel your headache fading way within the time limit. Your druggist invites and expects you to try Aspirin so don't be bashful. Everybody is doing it. Same guarantee applies to colds, coughs and neuralgia. Adv.

Welcome Relief From the Tortures of Rheumatism

Can Come Only From the Proper Treatment.

Many forms of rheumatism are caused by millions of tiny germs that infest the blood, and until the blood is absolutely freed of these germs, there is no real relief in sight.

The most satisfactory remedy for rheumatism is S. S. S. because it is one of the most thorough blood purifiers known to medical science. This fine old remedy cleanses the blood of impurities, and acts as an antidote to the germ of rheumatism.

S. S. S. is sold by druggists everywhere. For valuable literature and advice address Chief Medical Adviser, 107 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Nearby Coal Lands Now Under Study by State Boosters

DALLAS, April 9.—The resources and raw products of this state are being catalogued by the Texas Chamber of Commerce, W. R. Clark, manager of the research department, announces, so that information may be supplied to outside capital.

Iron ore, lignite, coal, clay products, silica sand, cement, cotton gins, wool mills, corn products, farm implements and machinery, rice mills, canning and preserving fruits and vegetables, crops, developed farm lands, cheap agricultural lands, gulf coast lands and irrigated lands have been surveyed by the Texas Chamber of Commerce. The announced purpose is to develop Texas' manufacturing and mining industries just as rapidly as feasible. As soon as connection can be made with organizations that might become interested in establishing plants in Texas, information will be passed on to the 216 local commercial bodies in this state, thus giving each community opportunity to get more factories.

Among other things, the bulletin refers to the coal lands in this part of Texas. The bulletin says:

"The workable area of bituminous coal lands in Texas is 8,200 square miles and includes the counties of Eastland, Erath, Maverick, Palo Pinto, Webb, Wise and Young. There are in this state nine coal mines, operating seventeen shafts."

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH BUYS MANSE FOR PASTOR

Automobiles Used in Texas Getting Close to 400,000

AUSTIN, April 9.—Registration of motor vehicles in Texas during 1920 is expected by officials of the state highway department, to pass the 400,000 mark.

During the first quarter, which ended March 31, 316,843 vehicles were registered. This is within 15,000 of the total registrations last year, and highway officials estimate that 100,000 more registrations will come in during the last nine months.

Mae Murray in "On With the Dance"

"On With the Dance," A Paramount Artcraft Triumph, Says Jesse L. Lasky Of Famous Players-Lasky Corporation

Mae Murray Has the Biggest and Most Distinctive Role of Her Entire Screen Career

Jesse L. Lasky, speaking during the recent convention of Famous Players-Lasky executives and exchange men in Chicago, announced George Fitzmaurice as one of the "Big Five" who will direct for that organization during the coming year. "On With the Dance," exhibited privately at the Famous Players-Lasky projection room, is final proof of his fitness for the selection. "On With the Dance" deals with the city, its good aspects and its bad, its problems and its rewards. New York is the city mentioned in the subtitles and pictured in the scenes, authentically by the way, but the choice is made solely because some definite name had to be used. The things the story says of New York are as true of any other great city. The appeal of the picture is universal. Mae Murray's Greatest Role. Mae Murray, whose Sonia Varinoff is the central character, has never had a role that even suggested the ability disclosed in her present portrayal. As the tempestuous Russian peasant girl, thrown upon the mercies of the city, tossed about by her own uncontrollable whims, led by impulse into great adventures, making not a few mistakes but atoning for all in a single sacrifice, she is perfect. Memory suggests no other star who could have done as well. David Powell, the male lead, plays a difficult role superbly. Victim of Sonia's caprices, disappointed in love, married to a butterfly, serious-minded, industrious Peter Derwynt is no ordinary screen character. Powell makes him live. Any actor might be justly proud of the feat. Alma Tell, as Lady Joane Tremelyn, contributes one of the few believable screen portrayals of nobility. Her carriage is superb. Her points register. In repose and under the great stress to which she is put she is every inch the lady of gentle birth and training. Other impersonations are clever. To Robert Schable, dissolute Jimmie Sutherland, must be given credit for a sterling impersonation. The character of Sutherland is a repulsive one. The sympathy of the audience is never with the role or the actor who plays it. And Robert Schable has not asked sympathy. He has given the character life. George Fitzmaurice's direction is a work of art. There were great sets to be lauded in the preparation of the scenes. There were many characters to care for, a host of actors to manage, a crisp script to be followed, a big story to tell. A slip in technique would have been fatal. A scene too long drawn out, a plot phase treated too lightly, and the power of the story would have been impaired. But with the skill of the born story teller, the sense of the natural entertainer, he has kept the story elements in the order of their relative importance. He has drawn 100 per cent of the story value from a story that is 100 per cent interesting. Intensely Interesting. The plot of the story holds from first to last. Sonia Varinoff, coming to this country from Russia in the steerage, is rescued after an automobile accident and taken to "The Tower," a bachelor apartment shared by Peter Derwynt, a struggling architect, and Schuyler Van Vechtan, more successful, where, following the death of her father, she becomes a member of the household. She resists all attempts to educate her and impulsively brings about a break between Lady Joane Tremelyn, his fiancée, and Peter. Lady Jane, urged by her mother, then marries Jimmie Sutherland, a wealthy wastrel. Peter, later, marries Sonia "to care for her." He quickly finds this is a large assignment as his wife develops extreme extravagance. At a dinner in The Tower the four meet. Joane and Peter talk over old times. Jimmie Sutherland is attracted to Sonia. They visit a cabaret and he is fascinated by her dancing. The Masked Dancer. The result is that he buys a restaurant for her on Broadway. She dances nightly, wearing a mask, and her place prospers. She repays the money she has borrowed of Sutherland, but he persists in his attention. When she is convinced by Jimmie that Peter and Joan are unfaithful to them she throws caution to the winds. Peter visits the restaurant and, in his anger, shoots Sutherland. The denouement is far to interesting and startling to be told in advance.

Don't Blame New York

Said one: "New York! To me it typifies misery, tragedy and sin where all that is beautiful withers and dies!"

Said the other: "Nothing fine or beautiful dies! Don't blame New York! It's not her fault! It's the fault of those of us too weak to fight the brave fight the city inspires. Don't blame New York. She gives each of us our opportunity to make what we can of it. If we're strong and good, the good in us will win. If the bad is strongest, God help us!"

The city! Where Broadway and Hester street and Fifth Avenue and the Bowery and Herald Square and Harlem and Riverside Drive and Avenue A all meet—the vital, flashing, magnificent, merciless city—New York!

Stripped of its masks, its innermost secrets of life laid bare in a tale embellished in luxury and made human as the beat of the simplest heart.

That's "On With the Dance!"

New York Life in All Its Phases Is Shown In "On With the Dance"

Many-sided New York was reproduced accurately in a motion picture during the filming of "On With the Dance," the new photoplay featuring Mae Murray and David Powell at the Lamb theatre during the latter part of the week. This is George Fitzmaurice's first personally produced cinema. It is peculiarly a story of New York in both its lighter and more sombre moods. To give the story home, Mr. Fitzmaurice incorporated scenes from every base of life in the big city. In the studio he built a Fifth ave-

"On With the Dance" at the Lamb Theatre Starting Today

"On With the Dance," which will be the attraction at the Lamb theatre for a week starting today, was shown last week at the beautiful Rivoli theatre, New York city.

With reference to this, the initial presentation in the metropolis, Francis Agnew says in the New York Telegraph:

"On With the Dance," the film version of Michael Morton's play, which the Famous Players-Lasky folk are heralding as a super-special production, was the principal reason for the early use of the S. R. O. sign at the Rivoli yesterday afternoon. The picture also has claim to distinction in the fact that it is the first of the Paramount-Artercraft releases labeled "A George Fitzmaurice Special."

The label is a just one. Mr. Fitzmaurice's direction contributes so large a share to the success of the picture that he should be starred along with the members of the cast. "On With the Dance" is presented as featuring Mae Murray and David Powell, but it can truthfully be called an all-star production featuring an all-star cast. There are five roles of equal importance in development and portrayal, and two other roles of fewer "lines," so to speak, but cast and played with stellar effect.

Story of New York Life. "On With the Dance" relates a story of gay, worldly and expensive New York, hence a story of broad interest, a theme and atmosphere which has a peculiar fascination for all classes everywhere. This fact alone would make it entertaining, and when so well interpreted as it is in this production and against such a colorful and lavish background, its success among bigger and better pictures is assured. How much the film resembles the play we can not say, not having seen the play, though doubtless Ouida Bergere's admirable adaptation elaborated the plot considerably and effectively, and in all probability we are indebted to her for most of the clever and convincing subtleties which do much to make the story sincere.

Mae Murray is altogether adorable as Sonia, the little dancer from Russia, who is befriended by Schuyler Van Vechten, a New Yorker, who relates the story of the film as proof of his belief that the city is not wicked, but that it "burns away the dross of humanity and purifies the gold."

David Powell lends dignity and the magnetism of his personality to the sympathetic role of Peter Derwynt, the architect who marries Sonia after the trickery of the impish little dancer has broken his engagement to Lady Joane Tremelyn.

Alma Tell, whom we have not seen on the silver sheet before, is lovely and her performance as Lady Joane is marked with restraint and womanliness, while Robert Schable is sufficiently smooth and despicable as Sutherland, the wealthy villain, whom Lady Joane marries, though she loves Derwynt.

Action Discloses Crime. The action revolves around these four characters, showing how Sonia's love of dancing and pretty clothes gets her entangled with Sutherland, who backs a cabaret for her. Derwynt, Ella Sutherland and Sonia atone for her past by making a confessor which acquires him. Derwynt finds happiness with Lady Joane, while Van Vechten helps Sonia to reveal her real self. John Miltern, as Van Vechten, and Zola Talma, as Fay Desmond, the other woman in Sutherland's life, make minor supporting roles of individual importance.

MAE MURRAY AS A DANCER

It was the dance that first made pretty Mae Murray a favorite in the 'Follies. She is a veritable spirit of the dance in the latest photoplay, "On With the Dance," in which she is featured with David Powell.

As an immigrant from Russia, Miss Murray celebrates the first glimpse of the Statue of Liberty by staging a wild dance in the steerage of an ocean liner. And later as the self-proclaimed millionaire she tells about in a gay cabaret as the famous "masked dancer," she has the role of a pleasure-loving girl suddenly beset by all manner of temptations, alluring, and finally redeeming herself and securing happiness in the end.

David Powell has a congenial role and the company includes Alma Tell, John Miltern and others. It is the first of the George Fitzmaurice pictures and was personally supervised by the noted director. Paramount-Artercraft is releasing it.

FITZMAURICE AVIATOR

Novel Shot Was Secured for "On With the Dance."

George Fitzmaurice, the motion picture director, who is now producing films under his own name, is an airplane enthusiast. Every morning when the weather is favorable, Mr. Fitzmaurice leaves his little home in Mamaronek, on Long Island sound, for a spin in a seaplane belonging to a friend of his. So exhilarating has he found the sport that he recently ordered a plane for himself.

The producer claims that this is not at all an extravagance, for "shots" from the air are often of great value in the movies. For instance, in the first George Fitzmaurice production, "On With the Dance," one scene shows the whole of Manhattan Island. To secure this view, it was necessary to go up 18,000 feet. A cameraman and Mr. Fitzmaurice ascended, with a telephone connecting them, with a high altitude photography is remarkably clear.

Mae Murray in a New Film

"On With The Dance"

Mae Murray, the pretty stage and screen player who is featured in the first George Fitzmaurice production, "On With the Dance," is another of those talented young actresses who have risen to stardom from the ranks of the Follies. Miss Murray was a hit in the 1915 edition of the Ziegfeld show. On the authority of James Montgomery Flagg, she has the world's most cameo-like profile.

In addition to her rare beauty and stage talents, Miss Murray is a dancer of extraordinary grace and ability. She was a headliner in vaudeville for several years. She has lately been devoting her efforts to motion pictures exclusively and has starred in ingenue and straight dramatic roles.

"On With the Dance" presents her as a pleasure-loving orphan who is thrown up against some of New York's "fast set" as well as representatives of the worth-while class. How she overcomes her baser impulses and works out her destiny happily is the theme of what is declared to be a more than ordinarily interesting photoplay. George Fitzmaurice directed and Ouida Bergere furnished the scenario. It is a Paramount-Artercraft.

ABOUT OUIDA BERGERE

Wrote "On With the Dance," Mae Murray Film.

The field of motion picture writing is one in which woman early proved equality with man. Some of the most famous scenarists are women. Among the top notchers is Ouida Bergere, authoress of "On With the Dance," the photoplay in which Mae Murray and David Powell are appearing at the Lamb theatre this week. Miss Bergere started her picture career as an actress with Pathe. One day she submitted to her director an original story which she had written. He was delighted with it and through his influence she was placed upon the Pathe scenario staff.

Here she met George Fitzmaurice, producer of "On With the Dance." They collaborated in the filming of "Via Wireless." Miss Bergere later left for California and wrote three stories for Fannie Ward. Mr. Fitzmaurice followed soon afterward and their budding romance culminated in their marriage. Later becoming connected with the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, the gifted pair united in the production of several of Elsie Ferguson's pictures, notably "The Avalanche," "The Witness for the Defense," "A Society Exile" and "Counterfeit." Their latest effort together is "On With the Dance," the first of a new series of big productions bearing Mr. Fitzmaurice's name.

MAE MURRAY ON STAGE.

Mae Murray, the pretty motion picture player, who is featured with David Powell in the George Fitzmaurice production, "On With the Dance," is shortly to desert the screen for her first love, the stage. Miss Murray, it will be remembered, first leaped into prominence as the beautiful dancer of the 1915 Follies. Her success in that show was followed by a successful career in pictures. Now her work has attracted the attention of the stage managers and she is to be starred in a new play by Samuel Shipman, the brilliant co-author of "Friendly Enemies," "East Is West," "The Woman in Room 13" and "First Is Last."

The story concerns the adventures of a pretty little Russian girl, suddenly left an orphan amid the luxury of New York's smart set. Her encounters with men, good and bad, her temporary yielding to the lure of a "soft life," and her final redemption in the big crisis provide an absorbing plot that holds the interest of audiences every moment.

The picture is the first of the George Fitzmaurice productions released by Paramount-Artercraft.

Pulse of New York Life Felt in "On With The Dance"

The picture at the Lamb theatre this week feels the pulse of New York and finds it not alone the hive of temptation that it is so often called, but also the haven for vaulting ambitions in the arts and sciences. "On With the Dance" is the big city in all its seething phases. Against this background a dramatic love story has been worked out by the master hand of Ouida Bergere, certainly one of the leading scenarists of the silver sheet.

Mae Murray and David Powell are the featured players. Miss Murray shows that she has not lost one whit of her skill in the dance, which first brought her into prominence in the Follies. But she also exhibits pleasing qualities as an emotional actress and as always, the stave gentleman and accomplished actor.

TEXAS SERVANT, AGED 103, HELD HIS JOB FIFTY YEARS

BROWNSVILLE, April 9.—Luis Hernandez, who has served the past fifty years as a servant in the home of a local family, died recently at the age of 103 years, from influenza.

According to records, Hernandez was born in Guadalupe, Mexico, in 1817, and came to the United States with Santa Anna's army in 1836. He returned to Mexico and fought under Emperor Maximilian. In the late sixties he again entered Texas at Brownsville, where he secured employment in the family of Mrs. Anna Wise and remained here until his death.

Hernandez was of pure Indian blood, and smoked "shuck" cigarettes practically all of his life. He survived his wife and two children a number of years.

Of course, women are changeable; many a one will even change her mind about changing her name.

On With The Firestone Tires And Away With Tire Troubles

"I'm simply tired of this eternal tire trouble. It's all because you don't buy Firestones at first. Most of my friends' cars are equipped with Firestones and they don't have a small fraction of the grief I have.

"Our next tires must be Firestones. See the Central Motor Company today. Mrs. Smith is always raving about their quick and courteous road service."

TO MY FRIENDS:

I opened this men's clothing store about a year ago. I have made lots of friends in Ranger and money, too. But I also made a killing in oil leases. And therefore I am closing out all my stores excepting the department store at Chandler, where I have my home, my wife and family. I contracted with Keene Jacobsen Sales System to close out my stores, and I am going out on the square with everybody. I don't ask for any profits now—I have made my profit already. All I will say to my friends is that if you ever had the opportunity to get good, well known merchandise dead cheap, my Ranger Toggery is where you will find it and if you don't take advantage of the prices Keene Jacobsen has placed on these goods you will fool yourself and nobody else. My Sincere Thanks,

WHEREAS, thereupon said statement was duly filed with the City Commission, and by said Commission examined and approved, and resolution passed by said Commission determining the necessity of levying an assessment for a portion of the cost of said improvements against abutting property and the owners thereof, and fixing a time and providing for a hearing to such property owners, their agents or attorneys, as provided by the terms of the City Charter and ordinances and Chapter 11, Title 22, Revised Statutes of Texas of 1911, at which hearing said owners were to be heard concerning the benefits of said improvements to their property or to an error or invalidity in said proceedings; and any other matter or thing connected with said improvements; and property owners, their agents or attorneys, desiring to contest said assessment, to correct any errors in same, or in any manner to be heard concerning the benefits thereof or any other matter pertaining to said assessment or said improvements, were heard, and all matters of error or mistake or inequalities or other matters requiring rectification which were called to the attention of the City Commission having been rectified and corrected, and the City Commission having heard and considered all the evidence offered in the premises, and said commission being of the opinion from the evidence that the assessments herein below made and charges hereby declared against the abutting property and the owners thereof are just and equitable, and that in each case the assessment made against any particular parcel of property is less than the benefit accruing to said particular parcel of property by means of the enhanced value thereof on account of said improvement; That the City Commission having considered the facts and adopted the rule of apportionment set forth below and a division of the costs of said improvement between said properties, and the owners thereof, are just and equitable and producing substantial equity, considering the benefits arising from said improvements and the burdens imposed thereby;

BE IT THEREFORE ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF RANGER:

GERMAN MUSIC IS HEARD AGAIN AT LONDON CONCERTS
LONDON, April 9.—German music is returning to England without awaiting protest or hostility. Strauss' work was heard here for the first time since 1914 when his "Don Juan" was played last on the program in Queen's hall recently with the idea that those who did not want to hear it need not remain. Some members of the audience left the hall.

PLEATS AND MORE PLEATS ARE FAD FOR THIS SPRING

Here is a spring model, whose charm and femininity lies in the accordion pleated skirt which is the favored mode for this spring. The laboratorily embroidered bodice, however, is also a pleasing feature and its beauty is enhanced by the use of a delicate collar and cuffs of white organza and lace.

ENGLISH COUNTESS IS AGAINST TITLES

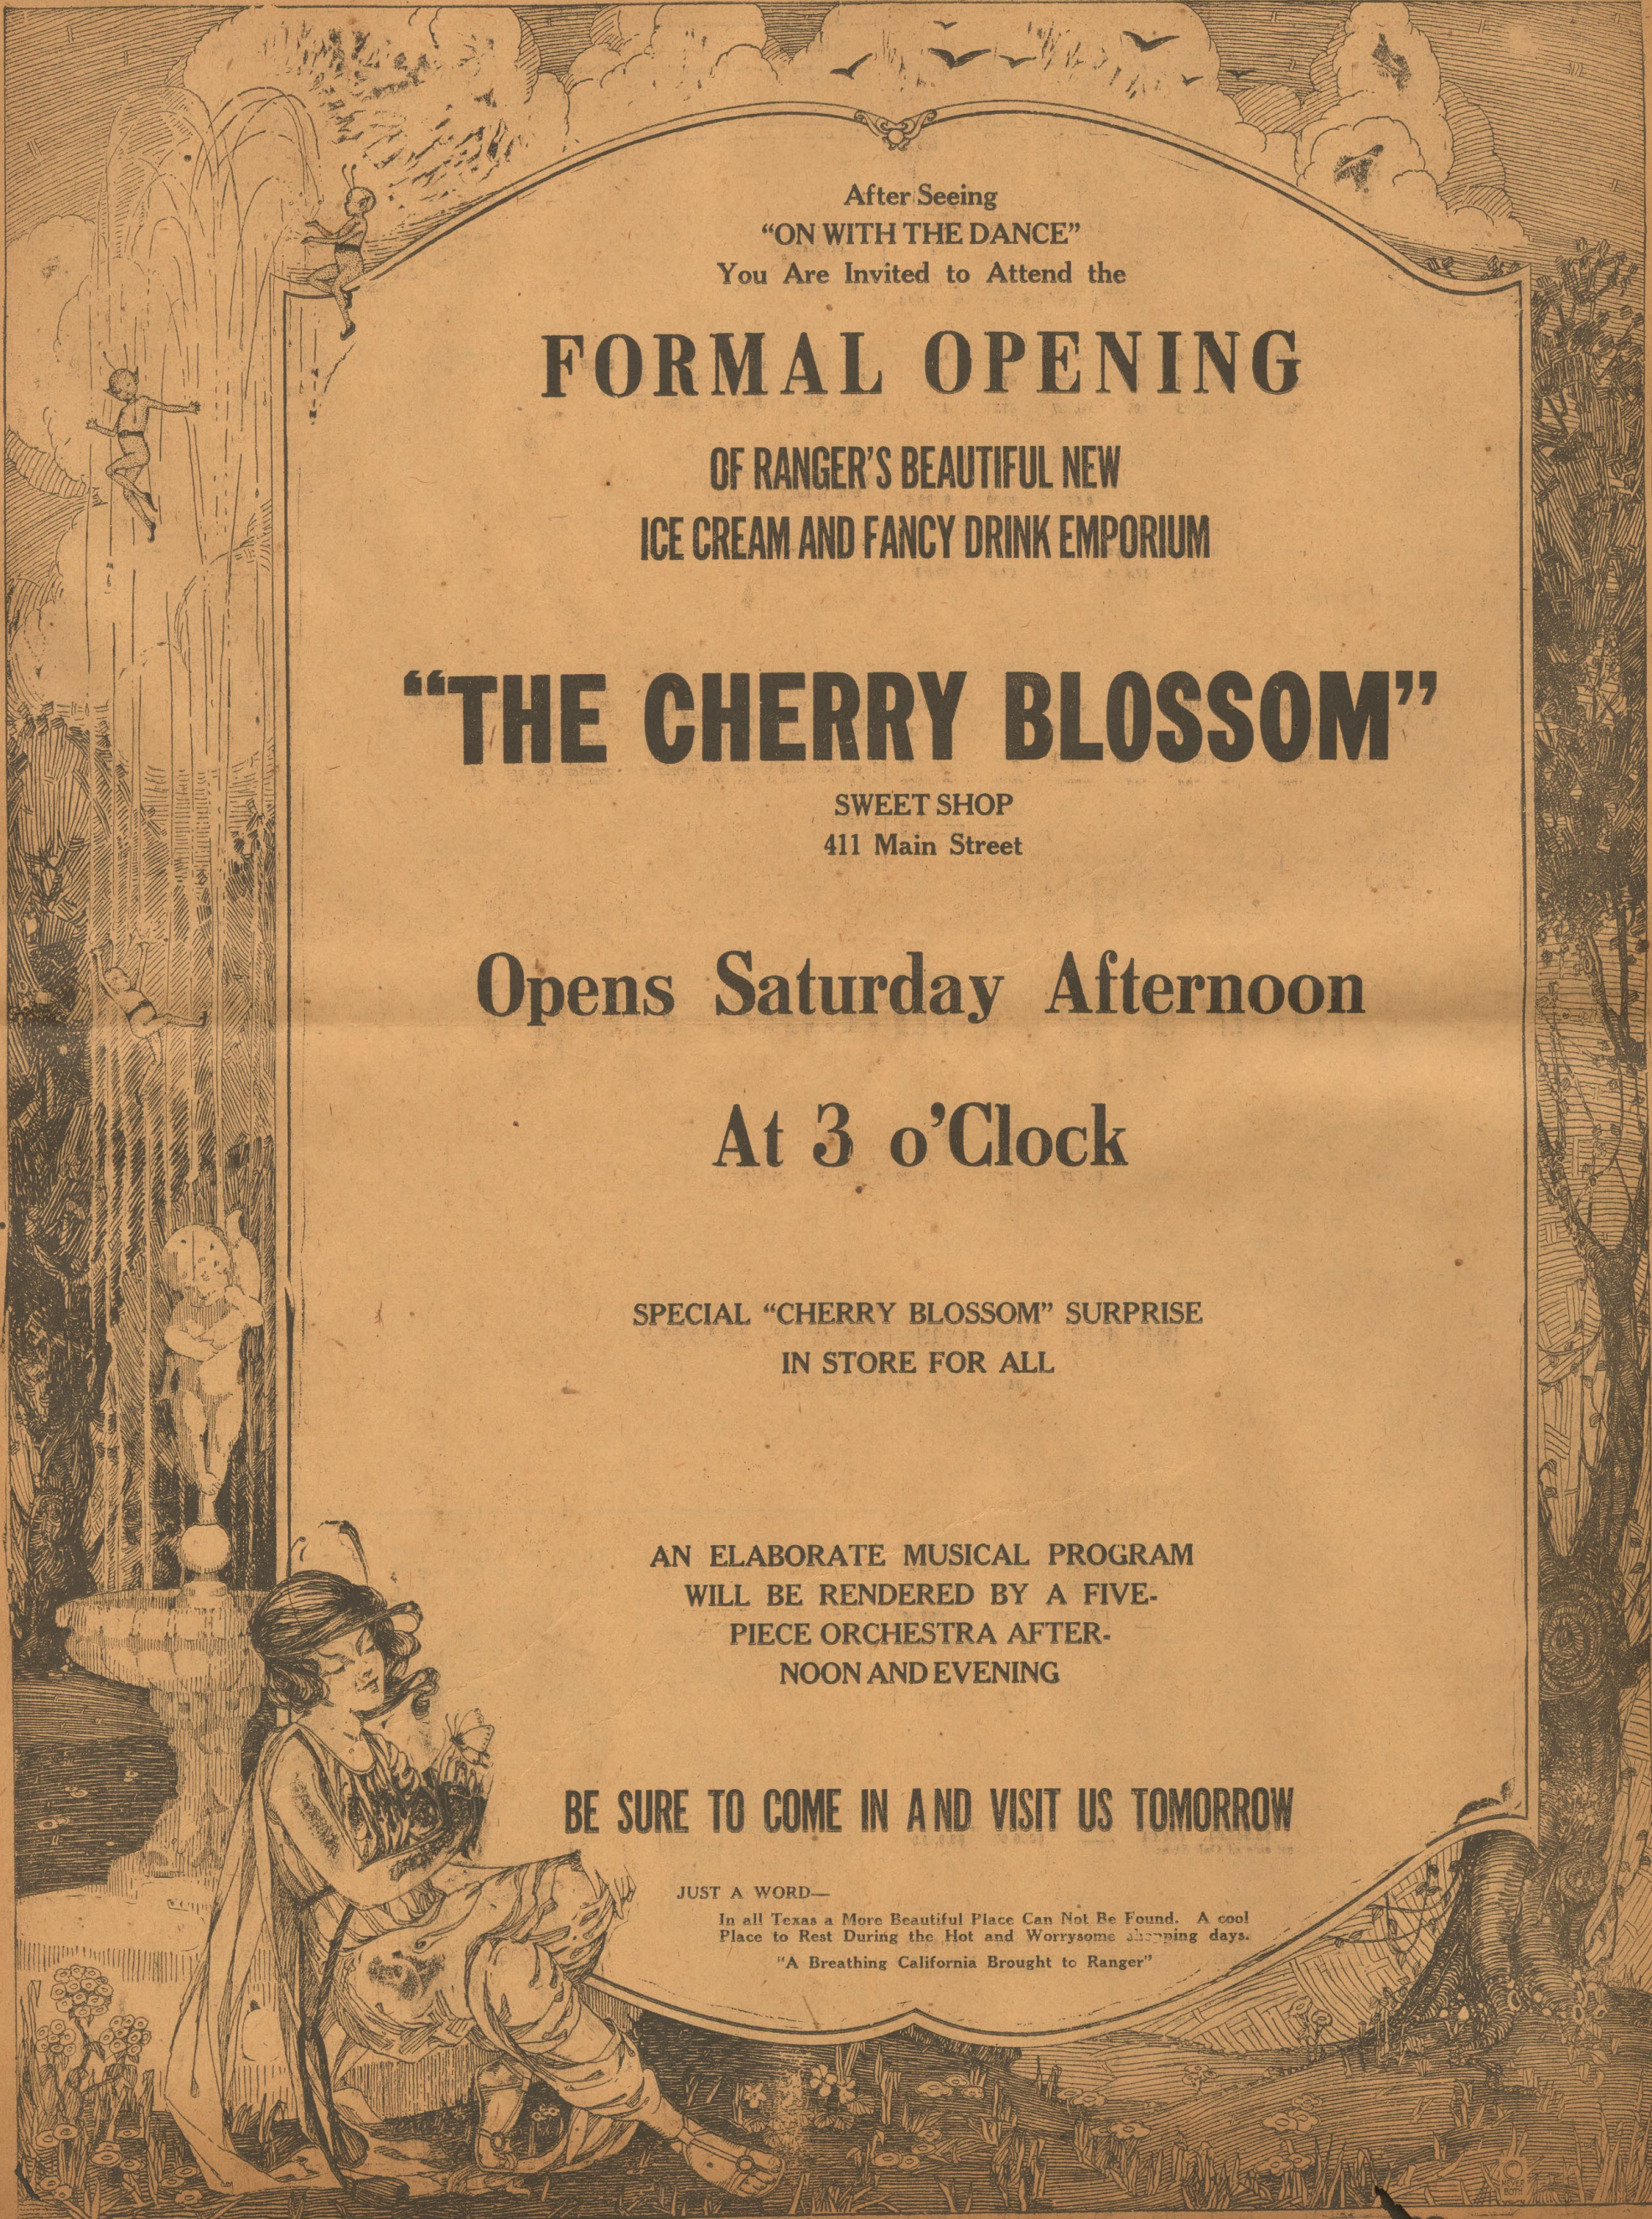

The Countess of Warwick, now running on the Labor party ticket in Walthamstow for election as the second woman member of the British House of Commons, if elected will carry to the lower house a strong antipathy for the title system. Her views are well advanced and include a belief in the nationalization of the coal mines.

Have You Given Up?

Are you one of the 85% of men over 65 years old who have given up, and are waiting for the end? There is no reason for any man or woman to sit in a corner and give up the pleasure of life—the joy of living—the social and business activities that make life worth while. In middle life and old age the cells of the body are not reconstructed as rapidly as in youth. The cell-salts so abundant in the rich red blood of youth are insufficient in the blood of older people. The heart action slows down, the circulation of the blood slackens, the blood lacks a sufficient supply of vitalizing oxygen and the organs of the body fail to function. The body in youth possesses more heat than in middle life or old age. That's because there is an abundance of cell-salts in the blood when the body is young—and the blood is rich in oxygen which burns up and eliminates the waste tissues and worn out cells. In youth the quick hot blood urges to action and the body renews itself quickly. As we grow older we slow down, sit in a sunny corner and give up. We fail to learn the lessons of life and weaker become in the energy and mental activity. The laxative package of 100 tablets, sufficient for two weeks' treatment only costs $1.
