P. A. makes one of the finest cigarettes a fellow ever smoked. It rolls easier because Prince Albert is crimp-cut and stays put. Doesn't blow all over the place. For the same reason, a P. A. cigainstant you lay it down.

Try rolling 'em with P. A. Me-o-my, what a smoke! Cool as a cucumber. Fragrant as locust blossoms. Sweet as a melon. Never a tongue-bite or a throatparch, because the Prince Albert process took a firm stand on that matter right at the start of P. A.'s career.

The more you know about rolling cigarettes, the more you appreciate this better cigarette tobacco. Yes, Sir-Prince Albert for home-rolled cigarettes every time. Get yourself a tidy red tin rette burns better . . . doesn't die the or a toppy red bag of P. A. before you do another thing!

Incidentally, if you want to get genuine pleasure out of a jimmy-pipe, pack it with P. A. Many a man has learned that he can smoke a pipe (and enjoy it) with good old P. A. for packing. There's a P. A. sunshine shop just around the corner! Get going, Man!

One guest at the Baseball Writers' dinners and the National League's golden jubilee celebration created almost general comment.

He didn't do anything to make himself conspicuous or to even dre vattention to himself. He didn't dog anything that a perfect gentleman wouldn't do. He just sat there at the festive boards.

"This is the first time I ever saw Hornsby at one of these dinners," a prominent player, who is a regular guest at these social functions, remarked.

And it was the first time that hundreds present had ever seen, the greal Rogers Hornsby, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, out of his baseball states and home tun hitter almost as good as Babe Ruth, Hornsby was an always deprived of his proper place in popularity by the lack of color and showmanship.

Crowds followed Babe Ruth in the street. They pointed him out as an institution when he appeared at a theater, a supper club or as he sped by in a brightly colored roadster. The Babe sold himself to the public on the playing field and in private life. He didn't do it intentionally but he was just built to be a showman.
