AUSTIN, March 27.—There are some very clever politicians in the city and county of Dallas, and not the least among these may be mentioned Hon. Thomas B. Love. This was very aptly illustrated at the meeting there several days ago in behalf of Dan Moody's candidacy for governor, when it was made to an governor, when it was made to appear that a "mourner's bench" had been arranged for those who supported "Ma" Ferguson in her campaignees. paign two years ago.

Now one would have thought that those who refused to vote for the democratic nominee and voted instead for Dr. Butte, republican, in the general election, would have been the proper ones to approach and kneel at the political mourner's bench this year. But those who thought that way evidently did not know the resourcefulness of the Hon. Tom Love. As a result of the Moody rally in Dallas, however, there has been some "making up" among the politicians, who are evidently agreed that they will vote for Moody

Contestants Battle Hard For Honors Throughout The Day

By BOYCE HOUSE In the hardest fought track and field meet in the history of the county, the Ranger Bulldogs emerged victors by a narrow margin over the Eastland Mayericks, whose small but valiant squad made the result doubtful till the very close. It was the first time that Ranger has ever won the county track meet.

To Eastland goes the honor of having the high point man of the day. Ed T. Cox, the 200 pound lad, accumulated 21 points—four first places and a fourth place. He was first in the 220 dash, the 220 low hurdles, the shot put and the discus but had to content himself with fourth place in the 100 yard dash.

The Cisco Loboes were a poor third, the points being: Ranger 66, Eastland 59, Cisco 23.

BLANTON BORN FOR CONGRESS SAYS EXPERT Mound Sunday

By CHARLES P. STEWART NEA Service Writer

Four pitchers will get an opportunity to work this afternoon for the Eastland Tigers when they play the Ranger Magnolias in Nitro Park, Ranger, in the first game of the season, a practice affair.

Knox, Bryant, Broyles and Fairbairn will each get to serve curves and fast ones to the Magnolias. Peacock has been called away by illness of his mother, necessitating a switch in the lineup. Fuller, Laffoon, Cooper and Coleman will compose the mfield. Brayant will be behind the plate. Guidas, D. Andrews, Duncan and Taylor will apear as outfielders.

A number of Ranger's matrons have been reducing during Lent—taking advantage of the lack of rich food at parties to lose a few pounds—and one sometimes wonders why. It used to be a crime to be skinny and now it is a crime to be fat, and yet isn't health the greatest asset of beauty of face and figure? Well regardless of the answer, Easter will usher in some new figures, with its new bonnets and new frocks and by DeGroff.

SOUL FIRE OFFERING

AT LIBERTY THIS WEEK

Richard Barthelmess has never had a more picturesque or colorful picture than "Soul Fire," the John S. Robertson production which First National is now offering at the Liberty theatre.

"Soul Fire" is based upon Maitin Brown's successful Broadway play.

"Soul Fire" is based upon Martin "Soul Fire" is based upon Martin Brown's successful Broadway play, "Great Music." Brown's drama was a study of a young musical genius seeking to find himself. The composer's search carries him about the world until, almost a derelict, he finds the incentive to write great things in the simplicity of the South Seas. The picture moves before sweeping panorama. Opening in Italy, where Eric Fane has been studying music, it swings to Paris, for the young composer has been caught in the web of a Russian adventures who alone recliges his great venturess who alone realizes his great promise. The story next finds Fane a wanderer—a broken dreamer—in Port Said, the "wickedest city in the world." From Port Said he ships upon a tramp steamer, finally bringing up on a lonely island in the Pacific.

Such a sweeping background provides many varied scenes. A logia overlooking an Italian city, a cabaret in the Latin quarter of Paris, a sailor den in Port Said, and the sensuous sweep of a tropical island, all provide colorful moments.

Incidentally, it should be noted that Eric Fane furnishes Barthelmess with his best acting role in a long time. The young star gives a fascinating and compelling performance of the young composer broken direct from the Hippodrome of London, the Moulin Rouge of Paris and the Scala in Berlin. When the revue was first presented in New York, Messrs. Fear Cathcart Case Will Cause New Standard

By S. P. HOLLINGSWORTH

(United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, March 27. — In-stead of the "double standard" of morals, we will have a "multiple standard" in the United States if Judge Bondy's decision in the Cathcart case stands, according to W. Rival Town Boy Stage Real Battle

TRIESTE.—Enraged because the young gallants of the neighboring villarge of Zviric lured among all their girls, the youth of Stubizze recently attacked their rivals in a bloody encounter, fighting a pitched battle in the market-place of Stubizze. Three were killed and 200 wounded. The girls fled in terror.

Stubizze and Ziviric are two villages of Crotia, whose names betoken the pugnacious character of their inhabitants. The girls of Stubizze are the pick of the countryside, while Zviric's maidens are considered plain.

As a consequence, all the country the village seeing their rivals talking and laughing with the Stubizze girls, while they themselves were left out in the cold, began to cast insults and threats at the Zviricites.

It was not long before the various groups of contestants drew up in two lines in the market square, and the pitched battle began. It started with stone throwing, and very soon a first class free-for-all was in progress. Revolvers and knives were drawn, and the Stubizze maidens ran away, shrieling with terror.

When the police finally succeeded in clegging up the row, they found three dead and some 200 wounded in the willage seeing their rivals talking and laughing with the Stubizze girls, while they themselves were left out in the cold, began to cast insults and threats at the Zviricites.

COLONEL DELIVERS LECTURE ON VISIT HIM ON BIRTHDAY

"This weather" remarked the as in a day that would take the blue clonel Saturday morning to a crowd ribbon off the weather exhibit that if friends who had called to to pay the New England fellow took four days to gather up, according to ark

The colonel began to look out of the window of his office. He had a far away look in his eyes. The boys who were there to present the old goutleman with a box of stogies, he would not accept any other kind, know there was something on his mind that he wanted to unburden on them. They knew he was in a reminiscent mood.

The colonel began to look out of cvercat, gatosnes, and winter he are winded as covering.

"Mark Twain advised his weather collector to visit New England on a spring day. I invite him to come to Texas any season of the year.

"You don't call this bad weather, do yeu?"

"I have seen it snow up in the Panhandle in July."

Comparison Made

"You know, Mark Twain wrote a delightful story about New England weather. Well, New England weather has nothing on Texas. In my opinion 'Texas can give New England cards and snades in the weather casino game, and then win out."

"You have all kinds of weather in Texas and you will see that I am right."

"Now by temporary of the country, while out here they would call a court of inquiry."

"For instance, I have seen exactly twelve kinds of weather in Texas in one day. I have seen exactly twelve kinds of weather in the twelve kinds of weather in the twelve kinds of weather in the twelve kinds of weather in Texas in one day. I have seen exactly twelve kinds of weather in the twelve kinds of weather in Texas in one day. I have seen exactly twelve kinds of weather in Texas in one day. I have seen it so dry here that when a rain did come it drowned all the frogs in that area."

"You ought to read Mark Twain's New England weather and then compared it with Texas and you will see that I am right."
