DEATH RIDES WITH FAST RACING DRIVERS

BUSTER MILLS TAKES STING FROM JACKETS

Ranger Bull Dogs Win Opening Game, 20 to 0, by Sensational Playing.

“Vine! Vid! Vi—whatin thunder is that passive form for ‘I came! I saw! I got the stuffing hooked out of me and my men.’ Whatever it is, Coach Dykes of Stephenville is in all probability saying it to himself as he takes his men over the long, long trail to Stephenville nibbling the bitter fruits of defeat by a score of 20 to 0 in the opening game of the football season on Nitro field, Ranger. And that was almost an exact reversal of the history of last year’s opening game between these same two teams when the score stood 10 to 0 in favor of the Yellow Jackets.

The outstanding feature of the game was Buster Mills’ sensational run for a touch down after making fifty yards across a broken field going through a hole in Stephenville’s line which Cooper helped to make when he discourteously stepped right in front of Pikertin, Stephenville’s husky center. And Cooper didn’t even apologize for it. After that it was all up with the stingers. Stephenville was outclassed from the first. Britton, in the fourth quarter made some good line plunges netting his team two first downs after it was too late to do them any good, even though Ranger hadn’t finally stopped him. Several short lateral passes were attempted by the Jackets a number of which were completed, but the majority, incomplete, and none netting any very material gain.

Matter of Interference. Stephenville also attempted some semblance of interference, just enough to advertise the fact that they could interfere. Ranger did not think it paid to advertise and left interference off their schedule almost altogether. In fact, never was game played with so little interference and so much leaving every fellow at the mercy of the foe. But it didn’t take interference to give Mills that sensational play or T. Bone Shell, his long kick-offs and tackling and plunging or J. Walker his all round smashing work or Harvey and Phillips their pass work or Hays his goal kicks or Hicks of five days’ practice his sensational plunges or a number of other players which amount to real classy football work in the season’s first game.

And while we are talking of features, don’t forget Charlie Gohlsom, one of the 21 suits Coach Cherry sent in to give their baptism, who did some plunging and tackling that made the side lines catch their breath and the visiting football men say, Ranger had made a new discovery in football material.

Out of Town Visitors. Among the visitors present was Coach Chapman of Cisco who took many pointers from the play and observation and shook his head a few times as man after man in Ranger’s first and second lines showed the class that is Ranger. The officials of the game were Myers of T. C. U., Higginbotham of Texas A. & M. and Aubrey of Baylor. Superintendent J. D. Bramlet of Stephenville stayed on the side lines to the last, trying to put pep into his dying gladiators while Superintendent Holway shouted encouragement to the Bull Dogs.

Boyce House of the Fort Worth Record and Whitehead of Cisco, who it is said, helps the real estate men fill their vacant houses with promising material for the Cisco team were also visitors to the game as was Mr. Butler an Eastland newspaper man. The pep squad led by Chief Malphrey of the first department and Leader Underwood of the Ranger Band, and kept going by their yell leaders Mr. Allworth, Miss Lonsdale and Miss Hall, supplied far more pep than is ordinary in an opening game. Nearly four times as many people saw the game as were in attendance at last year’s opening game, according to Mr. Lanier, who handled the tickets.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX PITCHER MAKES RECORD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—With two men out in the last of the ninth inning in a game between the White Sox and the Senators here today, Bobby Veach, Washington right-fielder, cracked out a single and robbed Ted Lyons, Chicago pitching ace of a no-hit game. Chicago won 17 to 0.

SNOW FALLS SATURDAY IN WESTERN MONTANA

HAVRE, Mont., Sept. 19.—A heavy snow storm in western Montana today interrupted communication and hampered traffic. Four inches of snow was reported at Helena and a snow storm was raging between Havre and Cut Bank all morning. Telegraph and telephone lines were carried down.

Hassen Opening In Breckenridge Very Brilliant Function

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.
BRECKENRIDGE, Sept. 19.—A thousand carnations didn’t begin to go around at the opening of the Hassen company’s new store in Breckenridge, Friday night, it is said, and of the thousands of people who thronged the aisles, many had to content themselves by gazing at the floral offerings contributed by numerous Breckenridge business firms in recognition of the event.

The evening is said to have been featured by all that makes for a beautiful and auspicious inauguration of a new firm in a city. Orchestra music, banks of flowers, magnificent displays of merchandise, including fabrics of many and variegated hues and, most of all, what is believed to have been record-breaking crowds.

The Hassen company is under the management of C. R. Spaulding and has at its head Mr. John Hassen, one of the heads of the Boston store of Ranger.

PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR GOING TO CALIFORNIA

Rev. H. J. Reemtsma to Leave Eastland Tomorrow for His New Field.

Rev. H. J. Reemtsma, for the last three months temporary pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Eastland, will leave Monday morning for California, where he had accepted a call before coming to Eastland from his home in Indiana. He will go from Eastland to Albuquerque, N. M., where he will be joined by Mrs. Reemtsma and their daughter, and from there will go to Fowler, Calif., for a short visit with Mr. Reemtsma’s brother, who is pastor of the Presbyterian church at Fowler. Mr. Reemtsma goes to Madona county, California, where he takes up his new duties.

While Rev. Mr. Reemtsma’s stay in Eastland has been short, he has endeared himself to the people, not only of Eastland but of the surrounding towns and communities, who will regret very much to see him leave.

Mr. Reemtsma’s work in California will be along the county unit plans. The territory he will represent will be 60 miles wide and 90 miles in length, and will contain eight charges, the membership of which is composed of people of various callings and occupations. It will be his duty to visit among the people and either preach or sermons, or to preach, at the different churches. Mr. Reemtsma has plans for erecting a central broadcasting station for the purpose of broadcasting his sermons over the district.

Methodist Missionary Women Will Meet In Carbon This Month

The Women’s Missionary societies of the Methodist church for the Cisco district will hold their annual meeting in Carbon in about 10 days. The meeting will be conducted by the Cisco district and should not be confused with the conference recently held in Gorman or with the general conference, which will be held in November.

There are 20 auxiliaries in the district and each one will send two delegates to the Carbon meeting. A large number of visitors are also expected. The conference is made up of several districts. Mrs. J. H. Stewart, of Eastland, is president of the Central Texas conference, Women’s Missionary societies, and Mrs. J. A. Caton, of Eastland, is district secretary.

OIL OPERATOR KILLED WHEN CAR CRASHES

Sid Carrigan Crushed Beneath Automobile, Which Turns Turtle.

A car turned turtle in the outskirts of Cisco at 5:15 Saturday afternoon, crushing the body of one of its occupants, Sid Carrigan, oil operator, 42, who lived but a few minutes after the accident. The other occupant, whose name was not learned, escaped without serious injury.

HIGHWAYMAN SHOTS HIS WAY TO FREEDOM

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 19.—A street car motorman was killed and a woman dangerously wounded when a purse grabber grabbed the woman’s bag and shot his way to freedom.

CLUB WOMEN ENTERING ON WORK OF YEAR

Eastland County Federation Entertained by New Era and 1920 Clubs of Ranger.

BY RENA B. CAMPBELL.
If the success of the joint reception of the 1920 Club and the New Era Club yesterday afternoon at the Gholson Hotel is any straw in the wind that will indicate their success for the coming club year, then members of both clubs may feel that the 1925-1926 year’s work will be the best and the most profitable they have ever enjoyed. It was a colossal affair and the performance with which every groove fitted into every other groove of the afternoon’s entertainment was a silent attestation of the spirit of harmony that prevails between these two clubs.

The same success prophesy might apply to the Eastland County Federation, which also had its initial meeting of the year at the same time.

In Reception Line. Guests were met at the head of the stairs by Mrs. Olson of Cisco, acting for Mrs. Philip Pettit, president of the County Federation; Mrs. A. L. Duffer, president of the 1920 Club; Mrs. L. C. Buchanan, president of the New Era Club; and Mrs. Reagan, former president of the sixth district, who formed the reception line and introduced the honor guest, Mrs. Maggie Barry of A. and M. College, to the incoming guests.

The mezzanine floor and the green room were beautifully decorated with vases of roses and other cut flowers and a number of handsome oil paintings adorned the walls. A table, laid in linen and lace, bore a large punch bowl, almost buried in ferns. Refreshments of lobster and bread and butter sandwiches and sherbet punch were served. Mrs. John Gholson, Mrs. Barney Carter and Mrs. R. M. Davenport represented the 1920 Club, and Mrs. Frank Green, Mrs. Clifford of Olden and Mrs. W. W. Housewright represented the New Era Club. Both committees looked after the comfort of the guests and attended to the serving.

A splendid musical program was rendered. Shubert’s Serenade by Mr. Leo Underwood, cornet; Mrs. Walter Murray, mandolin; Mrs. Housewright and Mrs. Clifford, of Olden, violin, and Walker, of Eastland, piano, a splendid number. Some choruses that struck a responsive chord in the hearts of all were sung by Mrs. G. C. Barkley, Mrs. J. M. White, Mrs. A. L. Leake, Mrs. C. C. Patterson, Mrs. A. G. Jury and Miss Christine Carter, with Mrs. Hall Walker on the piano. They sang “One,” “When You and I Were Young,” “Maggie,” “When You and I Were Seventeen.” The last number was a duet by Mrs. G. C. Barkley and Mrs. J. M. White, “Carry Me Back to Ole Virginia,” with Mrs. Clifford playing the violin and Mrs. R. M. Newman the piano accompaniment.

Mrs. Barry Speaks. Mrs. Barry carried her audience of some 150 representative club women of Eastland County right along with her from the time she bowed her stately head in recognition of their applause upon rising to speak until she finished, for she had a message that went straight to the thinking women. She spoke on the vital subject of “The American Home.” She spoke to the home-maker, not to the housekeeper, explaining that so many people, when they thought of a home, thought of it in terms of housekeeping and not of home-making, but that a woman who stops there does only one part of the job. She declared that women had never realized the dignity of their vocation of directing a home and that her profession was not a recognized profession. It has no place in the census bureau. She said that she hoped by the time the next census taker came around that the American woman, when asked what her business was, could say “I am a home-maker. My place of business is at home. She had many wonderful and vital things to say to her hearers and said it with the personal charm and magnetism that has made her a factor in state and national life.

Other Speakers. Miss Ruth Maddocks, state president of Mothers Congress and Parent-Teachers associations, made a brief speech, as did Mrs. George Langston, who spoke on “World’s Peace.” Miss Ruth Ramey made a plea for a “Big Sister” movement among the club women for the benefit of the rural girls, and asked and received the support of the federation. The session of the county federation followed the program. Mrs. Phillip Pettit of Cisco, the president of the federation, was unable to be present and Mrs. Olson of Cisco very graciously presided in her place.

This triple event, the opening of the 1920 and the New Era clubs of Ranger, and the first meeting of the county federation, topped as they were with Mrs. Barry’s lecture, and the privilege of her presence, marked a great day in clubdom of Eastland County and will go down in club history as one of the biggest and the most far-reaching events in women’s club history here staged in the county. It will cast a long shadow—for good.

Must Be Irish

The west is trying to rival Atlantic City with a beauty show of its own. Miss Frances Lee Collins of Shreveport, La., has been chosen to represent Louisiana in the beauty contest of the International Petroleum Exposition at Tulsa in October.

CHINESE TONG LEADERS TO BE DEPORTED

More Than 500 Orientals Taken in Raids to Stop Tong Warfare.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—More than 500 Chinese faced deportation here today following the greatest roundup of Orientals ever made in this city, made by more than 150 policemen and government agents in secret raids in an effort to stamp out the tong war. Officers broke into theatres and arrested Orientals in groups of 12 or more. All of the Chinese were taken to the Federal building, where they are detained until Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Emory Buckner could question their rights to be in this country. Deportation proceedings went forward at once and in two hours more than a dozen had been ordered deported. Several others picked up on the streets of the Bowery were questioned and ordered to show their certificates or face deportation. When raiders rumbled the Hip Sing Tong headquarters, some opposition was enacted. One of the Orientals turned off the lights as the officers entered and out of them hauled a hatchet at the leaders, which buried itself in the wall. When the lights were turned on eight hatchets were found in the room.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Seventy-two Orientals arrested in the wholesale roundup last night were sent to the Tombs to await deportation, the government’s weapon against war-tong men. Several of those arrested last night were released today when they presented certificates of registration.

TEACHINGS OF BRYAN SCORED AS DANGEROUS

LENOX, Mass., Sept. 19.—The champions of modernism tonight answered the posthumous attack of William Jennings Bryan upon evolution. Dudley Field Malone, counsel for John B. Scopes, the Tennessee school teacher, convicted of teaching evolution, speaking here before the national convention of laymen of the Unitarian Church of America declared: “Bryan’s death removed the ablest leader from the most dangerous movement in the United States.” It was even more bitter in its arraignment of the Tennessee law.

“The psychology which crucified Jesus, murdered Bruno and burned Joan of Arc, the fear of political theology to test its power by the truth, today animates a movement which is a menace to the internal peace of our country,” he said.

RUSSIA KEEPS COVETOUS EYE ON BES-ARABIA

Threatened Revolution May Give Soviet Chance Again to Enflame Near East.

VIENNA, Sept. 19.—Possibility of new trouble in the Near East, this time at the rim of Russia, was foreseen here today. When it was learned that Bes-Arabia was in the throes of an insurrection, it was suggested that Russia might react strong to this situation. Of 496 defendants in the monster Kishineff “red trial,” 13 were reported to have been hanged already, without trial. Russia has looked on the Bes-Arabia situation with sullen eyes ever since the Versailles treaty snatched the territory from her, and she may swoop down with her red army and try to obtain it. Along with the imposition of martial law, Roumania has also forbidden newspaper men to enter. Sixty thousand soldiers and 10,000 gendarmes are reported to have been employed to prevent an outburst, while artillery levelled six villages as an example.

Air Service Probe Will Start Monday; Mitchell to Testify

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The air service of the United States government tonight stood at the threshold of an era of searching investigation, which is to be tested in the crucible of expert analysis. Monday at 10 o’clock the first session of President Coolidge’s aircraft board will convene here and at the same time the navy’s investigation into the Shenandoah disaster will be opened in Lakehurst. The inquiry board will be under chairmanship of Dwight F. Morrow, of J. P. Morgan & Co., an old college friend of President Coolidge. The Lakehurst probe will be conducted by Rear Admiral Hillary P. Jones, chief of the naval staff. In this prosaic procedure, the inquiry is expected to reach a big climax Wednesday or Thursday with the summoning of Col. William Mitchell to take the stand and substantiate his charges that touched off the investigation. It is said that Colonel Mitchell may also be summoned before the naval board to explain his charges against the navy.

Mosul Dispute Yet Faces No Solution

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 19.—The Mosul boundary dispute tonight appeared further than ever from solution, when Ewisk Bey declared bluntly Turkey’s early pledge to observe any decision of the council was not binding since the Angora national assembly had not ratified it. The council had decided earlier in the day to refer to The Hague court the question of whether the council was to act as arbitrator or mediator in the disputed jurisdiction over Mosul as between Turkey and England. When the Turk made his blunt declaration, Colonel Amery, England’s colonial secretary, immediately notified the council that England would not feel herself bound to its similar pledge unless the Turks first renewed their pledge.

MEMBERS OF ALLEGED LYNCHING MOB JAILED

MARSHALL, Texas, Sept. 19.—The entire mob of 17 men, which attempted to take three negroes from the jail here Friday, spent the night in jail and are still being held. The mob came from Carthage, where the negroes are alleged to have made an attack on R. D. Tiller and his son, Ray. When the sheriff of Panola county learned the mob was coming to Marshall, he wired the sheriff here to take them into custody, which was done with the aid of the state rangers.

MARSHALL, Sept. 19.—The three negroes who were saved from a mob here last night, seeking revenge for the shooting of W. D. Tiller and his son Thursday, were spirited out of Marshall today. This is the second time the blacks have been moved within 24 hours to prevent mob violence. They were taken from here to an unknown jail for safekeeping. Seventeen members of the band who attempted the lynching party and who were jailed last night, were released this morning.

DENVER BANK CLOSES DOORS.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 19.—The Globe National bank with deposits of nearly $3,500,000, closed its doors this morning by voluntary action of its officers. The board of directors of the institution were in session before noon but no statements were issued.

France and U. S. Near Agreement on Plan to Pay U. S. What Is Due

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—With the opening of the debt funding operations with France, terms which the United States and France can accept, had been virtually agreed on. Salient points of the settlement, which is a compromise between the settlement of Great Britain and the United States, are: Consolidation of all debts owed by the United States to France in lump sum, with reduction of accrued interest by computing it at 5 per cent from contract date until December 15, 1922 and since that time 3 per cent on through.

BRITISH “RED” WANTS KELLOGG BAN RESCINDED

LONDON, Sept. 19.—Shapurji Saklatvala, British communist of parliament, barred from America by United States Secretary of State Kellogg’s withdrawal of his visa, wants an “investigation and defense before a special committee and the bar of American public opinion.” He told the United Press today he had made this request in answer to a cablegram received from the American Civil Liberties union offering to pay the legal expenses on a test case of the Kellogg ban.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Secretary of Labor James S. Davis has requested the solicitor general of the United States for a ruling on the immigration law under which he can exclude any avowed member of the communist party who seeks admittance into this country. Davis announced he expected a ruling within a few hours on his question which specifically related to Shapurji Saklatvala, member of the English House of Commons whose American passport was cancelled by Secretary Kellogg.

Ranger Boosters Will Attend Two Neighboring Fairs

C. C. Patterson, secretary of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, is out getting together his booster forces who will go to the Eastland and Breckenridge fairs on the special Ranger days assigned and make their color. Ranger day at the Eastland fair was set for Sept. 25, but will, in all probability, be changed to avoid a conflict with a local football game scheduled in Ranger. Mr. Patterson hopes to see Ranger show up on these two occasions much as they did in Mineral Wells during the West Texas Chamber of Commerce meet.

Extension of Cattle Quarantine Depends On Court's Action

HOUSTON, Sept. 19.—Strict quarantine of 22 counties was imminent Saturday unless Judge Cantry dissolves his injunction at Galveston protecting dairy cattle there from slaughter. It was announced by federal quarantine authorities after a telegram from the chief of the bureau of animal industry at Washington. It was said no extension of the quarantine limits would be necessary if the court dissolves the injunction. The hearing at Galveston was adjourned late today until Monday. Declaration of martial law also hinges on Judge Cantry’s order in the suit, former Governor Ferguson said today. Many states are threatening to declare an embargo if the injunction is continued.

BODY OF MISSING MAN FOUND IN REMONET CANYON

LANGTRY, Texas, Sept. 19.—Identified by a railway and pullman ticket, the body of Fred Berry, 35, was found in Pump canyon, near here today. Berry stopped off here en route from San Francisco to Miami, Fla., July 13. Officers said there were no sign of violence on the body.

TOTS MAY ENTER SCHOOL BY PAYING TUITION

The trustees of the Eastland city schools have decided to permit children who will become 7 years of age by Jan. 15 to enter school upon the payment of tuition, provided that they enter by Sept. 25. Such children should enroll as soon as possible.

FIVE CARS IN CRASH AND ONE DRIVER KILLED

One of Four Others Injured May Die Following Accident on Race Track.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 19.—Five men were injured, one of whom died later, here this afternoon when five racing cars going more than 80 miles an hour piled up on the track in the first event of the automobile racing program here today, the opening day of the Illinois State fair. Roy Humphrey of Keokuk, Iowa, died in St. John’s hospital early this evening. Paul Clancy, of Chicago; Benny Shoaff of Springfield, Ill.; Homer Ormsby of Indianapolis, and “Dutch” Bauman of Indianapolis, were drivers of the other four machines which piled up when Clancy, cutting in front of another machine clipped his wheels and both machines turned over, the other cars driving into them. Bauman is badly injured.

Tilden Wins Tennis Championship For Six Consecutive Years

FOREST HILLS, LONG ISLAND, N. Y., Sept. 19.—After all, there is only one Tilden. The national tennis champion again smashed his way to victory this afternoon in the finals of the national tennis championship, defeating Bill Johnston of San Francisco, 4-6, 11-9, 6-3, 4-6 and 6-3. When William T. Tilden II left the court of the West Side Tennis club this afternoon, he carried with him the championship cup he had won six times in the last six years and four times by defeating “Little Bill,” his opponent today. But it is a fact that “Big Bill” was not a popular victor, for many of the spectators cheered the loser. Tilden was irresistible when he got into his stride.

First Games of Dixie Series To Be Played In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 19.—The first game in the Dixie series to decide the professional baseball supremacy in the south, will open at Spillers park here Wednesday, Sept. 23. Atlanta, pennant winners in the Southern association, and Fort Worth, will play the customary seven game series. The teams will return to Fort Worth and play the third game on Saturday, Sept. 26. Three games are scheduled at Fort Worth, after which they will return to Atlanta if necessary.

COTTON CROP IN EASTLAND COUNTY GOOD

Is Most Easterly of West Texas Counties Having Favorable Yield.

The Dallas News is out with a cotton map which shows graphically, the good, fair and poor counties of the state from a cotton growing standpoint, and Eastland county is marked pure white which, according to the professional baseball supremacy in the south, will open at Spillers park here Wednesday, Sept. 23. Atlanta, pennant winners in the Southern association, and Fort Worth, will play the customary seven game series. The teams will return to Fort Worth and play the third game on Saturday, Sept. 26. Three games are scheduled at Fort Worth, after which they will return to Atlanta if necessary.

VERY HOT SEPTEMBER WEATHER IN KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 19.—Hot weather that has gripped the Southwest nearly all of August and September has resulted in closing down of several class rooms in schools here when the temperature reached 90 degrees. In some rooms yesterday the thermometer registered 95 and 96. With a mark of 95.7 yesterday, the thermometer registered the hottest day in September here for 37 years.

BIBLE THOUGHT.

Fruit of the Spirit: The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law.
 Prayer: Almighty God, we pray Thee to write upon our hearts the great lesson of Love set forth by Thy Son in His death upon the Cross, and grant that we, being awakened by this amazing pledge of grace, may give ourselves up wholly to Thee, to live to Thy glory and in service of our fellow-men, through Christ our Lord—Amen.

THE ART OF MAKING MEN.

While it is true, as Sheridan said, that you can't make a tin whistle out of a pig's tail, nor a silk purse of a cow's ear, it is none the less true that many tin whistles have been spoiled in the making from good tin, and much good silk has been wasted in the making of purses.
 You can't make any sort of a man out of any sort of material. The man who could be made into a good farmer may make only an indifferent lawyer with the best possible care and training.
 As well send a man out to cultivate corn in a stony field with shining, bright tin blades on the plow as to send one to cultivate morals with a parchment diploma. He may look to be all right, but he is not adapted to the work in hand.

It used to be said that the weakly boy in the family was set apart to become a preacher because he was of little account on the farm. He mostly wore live wool in his ears and red flannel around his neck. He was usually morose and solemn-like, because of a lack of spirit due to the presence of adenoids. This weakness was often regarded as the sign of a call to the ministry.
 But the preacher of the future must be a teacher of the people resembling somewhat the old-time schoolmaster who was able to advise concerning all matters in which the people were interested.
 His mission will be not to make good Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists, Roman Catholics, or what not, but to make good citizens, for no man can be a Christian who is not a good citizen.

The preacher of the future will be the friend and counselor of everybody in his community without regard to sect or denomination, the instructor of the ignorant among farmers and mechanics—a teacher in the fullest sense, an instructor in the ways that lead to success and comfort here on earth, which are the sure ways leading to comfort and happiness hereafter.

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, who is a graduate of an American university, has introduced a dress reform among the Turkish inhabitants. He insists that in accordance with the country's present march of progress its male inhabitants must discard fez, turban and so forth and woman folk their veils and replace them by articles worn by Europeans. His wishes have been complied with in several cities.

The income tax lists shows that John D. Rockefeller Jr. pays the highest individual income tax, this year $6,277,699. Henry Ford paid personally $2,608,808; his son Edsel, $2,158,055. Most of their profits stay in the company for reinvestment and pay corporation tax. Henry Ford's company, however, pays this year $16,493,160 income tax, $2,000,000 more than last year. And for some reason no one hears a complaint about it.

Funny how some folks strive to be impressive and to leave the impression that they are not quite of Ranger's earthy earth. Sometime they sacrifice truth in order to create this glamour. One smart matron always declares that she never shops in Ranger, things are not quite exclusive enough for her. She either waits until she runs into Fort Worth or Dallas or shops when she goes east. She is a haughty matron, quite in the social swim (not one who hangs her clothes on a hickory limb and can't get near the water), but a real, bona fide member of society, and she has her weight in more ways than one, but she simply can't get by with the little white lies that she springs about not shopping at home, as she never misses a sale and is often seen emerging from shops with her arms full of bundles. It's evident that she buys something in Ranger and that she does not get all her glad rags at wholesale from eastern houses.

BRIDGE FOR HOUSTON GUEST.

One of the gayest parties of the week, among the young ladies of the city, was the bridge party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Saunders in honor of her niece, Miss Mozelle Thompson, of Houston. The party was given in the artistic entertaining suite of the home for the ever-entertaining game, amidst a floral setting of red geraniums, vincias, and the wild thistles, which were used in pretty profusion. A salad course followed the game. Miss Christine Schmuck won the high score prize, a piece of lingerie; Miss Howdeshell low score prize, a floral pin and as a remembrance of the occasion Mrs. Gregg presented the honor guest with a Scotch scarf. Those invited to share the afternoon's pleasure with the honor guest were Misses Johnson, Betty Jean Mangum, Helen Howdeshell, Helen Stafford, Marie Phibbs, Helen Gholson, Mayme Ruth Langston, Christine Schmuck, Lucille Davenport, Thelma Showalter, Hortense Ross and Mrs. Harry Brelsford of Eastland.

THOMAS-HUDDLESTON WEDDING.

A recent copy of the Cisco Daily News carried the following account of a wedding that will be of interest to many people in Ranger, as the bride, who was formerly Miss Alma Huddleston, formerly lived here and made her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGinnis, who have since moved to Cisco.

"Coming as a surprise to their many friends was the marriage of Miss Alma Huddleston to W. M. Thomas of Breckenridge, which took place Tuesday night at 7 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. T. E. Bowman and witnessed by only a few friends and relatives. Mrs. Thomas was a popular young lady both in business and social circles in Cisco, having been employed at Kleinman's dry goods store for the past two years. Mr. Thomas is well known in Cisco and also in Breckenridge, where he is manager of the Harman Drug company. Their many friends in Breckenridge are welcoming this young couple there, where they will make their home, while their friends in Cisco extend their best wishes and hopes for a very happy future."

COFFEE SHOPPE TO OPEN.

They say that there are just two big events in Ranger during the month of September, one is to be the opening of the Gholson Hotel

Coffee Shoppe and the other is to be, well, that would be telling and as a nice little gentleman bird told me, and also told me to "keep it under my hat," we will let the subject drop right there, but anyway, everybody is looking forward to the opening of the Coffee Shoppe. It's going to be a gala event. Everybody knows what the Gholson Hotel parties are when the management stages them always giving, as they do, a rarified atmosphere of refinement and culture. This year the coffee Shoppe will open with a dinner and a mince dance, on Monday, September 28. Folks who attended the opening last year have not forgotten that even and the good times they had, and it is safe to say that this event will surpass anything heretofore given at the Gholson.

Gingham Dresses.

The gingham dress will be the "Sunday dress" of the members of the Alathean and the T. E. L. classes of the Central Baptist Sunday school, taught by Mrs. A. L. Leake and Mrs. L. McNeer, respectively for the next three months. Hats will also be taboo. If the weather gets too cold before the three months period is up for members of the class to come without hats, they may wear their hats and discard them at the class room door. The men's Bible class, taught by Dr. A. K. Weir, with J. C. Smith as president, have challenged the two women's classes in a membership contest that will last three months, and the women have decided to enter the contest with the agreement to wear dresses made only of gingham or percale and to go bareheaded to church until the contest ends. This action was taken so that all members of the class may dress alike, and to do away with dress discrimination so that no woman in Ranger can say that she does not have good enough clothes to come to Sunday school. Members and prospective members who do not have their gingham dresses ready by Sunday may wear some other kind of dress, but all are expected to don their gingham and percales that have them. The contest will have a banquet as a climax, which the losers will give to the winners. The challenge has been hurled through the press to the members of the Bible class—what is their answer?

ATTENDS CHURCH MEET IN FORT WORTH.

Mrs. A. L. Leake, district historian of the Women's Church department and Mrs. J. M. White, have returned from Fort Worth, where they attended a two day session of district and state officers.

A BRIDGE TOURNAMENT ANNOUNCED.

A bridge tournament looms large on the horizon of Ranger's social affairs. It is announced for Tuesday, Sept. 29, and will be held at the Gholson hotel, for the benefit of the kitchen and dining room of the Ranger Country club. At one time the ladies of the club planned to give a kitchen shower, but since this would doubtless have been confined to members of the club only, it was decided to revise their first plans and to have a large tournament. Tickets for the event will cost 50 cents and can be bought from any of the following committees: Meses, H. E. Wilson, Clyde Kilpatrick, Gifford Clegg, E. E. Crawford, Charles Dyer, Fred Yonker and C. C. Craig. The prizes will be many and attractive. There will be refreshments, of course, and it bids fair to be the largest event of the month. The women of the Country club have "put their hands to the play" and when those women announce an event of an entertainment or enterprise, it means it's going to be well worth while.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT O. E. S. MEETING.

The Ranger chapter of the Eastern Star will hold their regular every-month birthday party, Monday evening, at the Masonic temple. The hostesses for the evening will be Meses, J. F. Dreinhofer, F. J. O'Donnell, L. F. Hicks, W. P. Paschall, and Misses Geneva Arner and Helen Howdeshell, all of whom had birthdays either in August or September. There will be initiation work also and after this is completed a social hour will follow during which time refreshments will be served. The work of the evening will commence at 7:30. All members of the Ranger Eastern Star and contributing members are invited to attend.

A NEW SCHOOL HOUSE THEIR GOAL.

The Central Ward Parent-Teacher association had its first meeting Friday afternoon and started off the work of the year with a new brick school house for Central Ward as their goal. They are taking a long aim, but "if the court knows itself," the City Dads just as well get busy and begin to plan on calling a bond election to put this school house across, for the women are behind the movement in dead earnest. At present the primary department of the school is out in the yard in one of the old frame buildings and the other grades are on the top floor of the high school building, so, as it stands, it's a school divided against itself, and to say the least of it, it's very inconvenient. Mrs. L. L. Neal, president of the club, presided over the meeting. Professor Holloway was present at the meeting and offered some valuable suggestions for work. A resolution was passed to have the shack that the janitor lives in moved off the school grounds and it was decided to hold chapel services several times a week, if not every morning. The arrangement of this was left to Mr. Holloway. The club will meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month in the primary building.

W. M. U. Central BAPTIST CHURCH.

The W. M. U. of the Central Baptist church will meet in circles Monday afternoon. Circle No. 1 will meet with Mrs. Roy Wilks of South Oak street, and Circle No. 2 will meet with Mrs. Haden on Mesquite street. These meetings will be very important and a full attendance of all members of the respective circles is requested.

ning, when its first meeting is scheduled for the season. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the school building, according to a call sent out by Mrs. J. T. Gray, president of the association.

YOUNG SCHOOL P-T-A HAS ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At the first meeting of the Young School Parent-Teacher association for this school term, held Tuesday afternoon, there was an election of officers. Mrs. W. H. Burden, president pro-tem, presided over the meeting. Officers elected for the ensuing nine months were: President, Mrs. Jones; first vice president, Miss Virginia Brooks; second vice president, Mrs. J. T. Gullahorn; secretary, Mrs. O. L. Phillips; treasurer, Mrs. Mitchell. The meeting was attended by Prof. Holloway, who made a nice helpful talk. Mr. Lewis, principal of the school, was also present, and made a short talk, as did Miss Carter, teacher of music in the school, and Mrs. Kemble, teacher of expression; the meeting was a most enthusiastic one and pretends great things for this association in its year's work.

DELPHIANS TO MEET.

The announcement comes that the Delphian club will meet on Oct. 8, the first meeting of the year. The program will be announced at a later date.

OFF TO SCHOOL.

Otho Stubbsfield, who has been one of the tellers at the Ranger State bank for the past eight months, and prior to that time held a position as bookkeeper at the Peoples State bank, has resigned his position and left yesterday for Austin, where he will enter the University of Texas and prepare to get a degree in business administration.

HORSE SHOW TO BE FEATURE AT EASTLAND FAIR

Cowboy Parade and Rodeo Suits Also Promised as Added Attractions.

Secretary George W. Briggs of the Central West Texas Fair association announced yesterday that a children's horse show had been added to the already long list of attractions at the fair, which opens in Eastland Thursday, and that the first performance would be given on the opening day. There will be a large number of boy and girl riders and some specially trained horses.
 All old-timers and others who desire to be in the cowboy parade, are requested to meet at the Pickering Lumber company on North Lamar street, Saturday morning at 11:30, where a chuck wagon will be ready to head the parade. Those having ponies that may be used for the parade are requested to bring them down town for the parade.
 Joe Weaver, master of ceremonies in the terrapin derby, states that this event is attracting much interest and that a large number of terrapins have already been entered for the race.
 "Hackberry Slim's" rodeo, which has just been added to the list of attractions of the San Antonio Amusement company, which will furnish amusements for the fair, is an attraction that is drawing much favorable comment.

Alvin Ireland and Ernest Smith, two of the three prisoners who broke jail at Archer City 10 days ago, and a third man identified as Leo Wright were captured by officers near here late today after a search of several hours. All were armed, but captured without resistance.
 Ireland escaped from jail after an appeal had been filed from a 20-year sentence in connection with the robbery of the bank at Dundee last November. Smith was awaiting trial at the time of the break. Officers indicated there were no charges against Wright.

TAX REDUCTION MADE POSSIBLE BY ECONOMY OF ADMINISTRATION

By United Press.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The way to further tax reduction has been opened by the economy of the administration, the annual report of Budget Director Lord to the president showed tonight. Every known method of economy was utilized by the government, resulting in a surplus of more than a quarter of a billion dollars.
 The revenue for the year amounted to $3,780,148,684.42 while the expenditures were $3,529,643,446.06. The surplus at the end of the year was utilized by the treasury department in the further reduction of the public debt, the reduction during the year being $734,619,101.69.
 Operations of a general reserve during the four years of budget control has resulted in preventing requests for deficiency appropriations and have been a material factor in holding expenditures down.

FORT WORTH IS WINNER OF TEXAS PENNANT

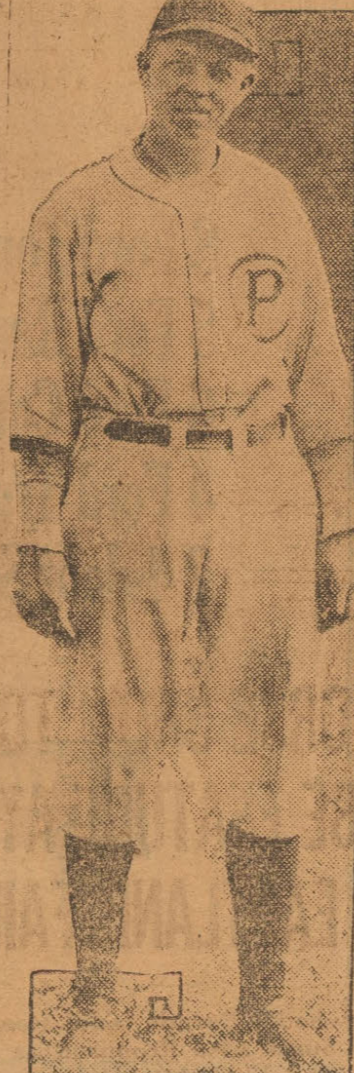

Takes Three Games in a Row; Last Game by a Score of 7 to 3.

The Texas league pennant race is over at last with Fort Worth an easy winner of all three games in the play-off series. The final game played on the Fort Worth diamond Friday resulted in a 7 to 3 score in favor of the Panthers.

Slim Love pitched a great game for Dallas was put in the box, and Wachtel was put in the box, and failed to find himself during those first two innings, which are always his acid test. Dallas ran in two runs, followed later by a third, in the second inning, which was all Dallas could pile up. Wachtel did not last a full inning. He was relieved by Jimmy Walkup, who held the Steers to a single unearned score in the second, while the Cats piled up their eventual seven, eliminating all doubt that they will play Atlanta, winner score inning by inning to overcome the three-run lead of Dallas and finally run their own score up to that of the Southern association pennant, in the Dixie series.

When Wachtel let the first three men up run in two scores and later, Walkup let in a score, Dallas fans went wild. It looked like a sure win. Their jubilation proved short lived, however, as the Cats led by Mulens, with his two doubles, made up their losses and won the game—and the pennant. Farther than that, the whole matter is now ancient history, practically all fans having heard the results and become resigned to the inevitable or elated at the much desired, and laid Texas baseball to the discard to turn their minds to the great school and college game, football.

Fence Buster!

They call him the Fence Buster of the minors. He's Joe Brucher, a pound hitting marvel of the Peoria club, Three-Eye League. Over a stretch of 40 games he got 67 safe swats, 17 of them being homers. He stacks up as a corner.

BRECKENRIDGE BOXING BOUTS ARE HELD UP

Whether Suspension is Permanent or Merely Temporary Is Not Known.

Legion men and others who, robbed of the opportunity of seeing their favorite sport staged at the Ranger arena, were wont to take a run over to Breckenridge for their thrills, will have to curb their desires in that direction, at least for the present, possibly for all time, the bouts in Breckenridge having all been called off.

Whether this is a temporary suspension or a final shutting down of these exhibitions in the art fistic, is not stated positively. Belief is expressed that the order is only temporary and will hold only through-out a revival meeting in one of the Breckenridge churches. Others say this is the beginning of the end.

CHARGES AGAINST MISS EDERLE ARE REFUTED

By United Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The United States Swimming association, which financed the trip of Gertrude Ederle to France for the purpose of swimming the English channel, tonight prepared an official statement on the subject of the American girl's failure, refuting the charges by Jabez Wolfe, the painter, to the effect that Miss Ederle trained on the front porch with a ukulele, and substantiated the claim she did not neglect her opportunities.

Henry Ford is not the only automobile maker who believes in electrifying his plants. The Chrysler plant at New Castle, Ind., is also soon to be electrically run. Contracts have been signed with the local electric service company for 1,500 horsepower of electrical energy to be used here.

MAVERICKS OF EASTLAND WIN OPENING GAME

Defeat John Tarleton Fish in Hard-Fought Game, Score 6 to 3.

The Eastland Mavericks proved too much for the John Tarleton Fish and defeated them by a score of 6 to 3 in the opening game of the football season at Connellee Park in Eastland Saturday afternoon.

While neither team played consistent football, both gave evidence of having good material in them. The Fish had a fast back field while the Mavericks had a strong line. Both teams fumbled the ball a great deal and always appeared not to know just exactly what to do with it when they got hold of it.

The visitors kicked a field goal in the first quarter, but Eastland scored first, it coming in the early part of the third quarter, when Hunt, Maverick halfback, made a touchdown. W. Day, left ender for the Mavericks, was the outstanding start for the locals, while the quarterback on the Stephenville team featured for them.

King, right tackle; Harrell, left ender; Matthews, left tackle and R. Cox, center for the Mavericks, played a good game. In fact the entire team showed much improvement over the game played a few days ago against the All-stars.

For the first game of the season, the attendance and interest was splendid.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—No prosecution ever went into a case with less enthusiasm than the War Department goes after Col. "Billy" Mitchell, for the roast he gave the army's and the navy's management of their respective aviation services.

And no wonder, for here's a situation in which the prosecution is on the defensive, with the accused, quite indifferent as to his own fate, hot after a verdict of guilty against his accusers.

The worst of it, from the War Department's standpoint, is that Col. "Billy" can't lose, no matter how the case ends. The War—and Navy—Departments can hardly do anything else. Suppose the colonel's vindicated. That means he wins, and he can win only on the ground that what he said about aviation was justified—a frightful pair of black eyes for the War and Navy Departments alike.

On the other hand, suppose he's found guilty of insubordination and even deprived of his commission.

In that event he's a martyr, a mighty popular one, too, and those who made him one are correspondingly unpopular for doing so.

THE War Department will try to disregard what Col. "Billy" said and concentrate on the proposition that the way he said it was what made it insubordinate.

The colonel will admit that he was insubordinate, perhaps, but insist insubordination was a patriotic necessity, because the country's welfare depended on the broadcasting of the truths he had to tell.

IF the War and Navy Departments could show that American aviation really is up to snuff they wouldn't have so much to fear, but Mitchell undoubtedly can prove the air inferiority of the United States to France, England and Japan, at least.

The question, "How does this happen?" arises naturally, and Mitchell's answer, "Official incompetence," comes in very pat.

He may not be able to make out his whole contention—that aviation has rendered surface fleets obsolete and surface armies nearly so.

But he can make out enough of it—that our two flying services aren't what other countries' are—to get the War and Navy Departmental goats.

COOKING SCHOOL DEMONSTRATOR WHO WILL CONDUCT INSTITUTE

Above is Mrs. Ida Chitwood, demonstrator, who will conduct the Eastland county cooking school or institute running from Monday, Sept. 21, to and including Friday, Sept. 25.

An attraction that will prove of much importance to the women of Eastland and surrounding territory, is this coming cooking school in Eastland, which will open Monday, modern tools and equipment and the new ways of preparing food which has eliminated much of the hard work and drudgery of olden times. Every home is a budget in itself, where expenses should be governed in accordance with the income. Lack of system in this matter as well as lack of knowledge on the part of the housewife has disrupted many

MRS. CHITWOOD

Sept. 21 and continue each afternoon from two to four, closing with the session Friday afternoon.

Every woman who can possibly attend this school will want to do so. It is designed to be for all women the greatest treat of the year and will bare many new methods of making home attractive and the kitchen, the greatest place on earth.

There may be some who will say, "The old ways are good enough for me," but those who have thought the same in times past have changed their minds, being willing and, in fact anxious, to try the newer methods. There are many new ideas in kitchen and dining room management that have never been thought of before.

Home making and home-keeping has become glorified by the many ways and means of overcoming many of these obstacles will be explained by Mrs. Chitwood, who has had wide experience in matters of this kind.

Ways of decorating simple dishes and of preparing the table for formal affairs will be given by Mrs. Chitwood who knows and understands how all women like to entertain and how many of them have to manage carefully in order to do so. This and many other special ways of making the home attractive will be demonstrated and thoroughly discussed by Mrs. Chitwood.

The entire week's course will be given free of any costs to the women of Eastland and surrounding country.

WILL HOLD PETROLEUM EXPOSITION

Tulsa Promises Oil Men Bed and Board and What-ever Else City Affords.

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 19.—Accommodations will be found for everyone who attends the International Petroleum exposition, which will be in progress October 1 to 10, states E. F. McHenry, general manager, contradicting a rumor that Tulsa would be taxed to find lodgings for the 30,000 persons who are expected to visit the oil show.

The fact that reservations are taken at the larger hotels first gave rise to the erroneous impression, every one, and it is even doubtful if any one particularly desirous of obtaining a room in his favorite hotel will be unable to procure it, if he makes arrangements in advance. The opening of three large hotels, the Mayo, Densmore and Albany, since last fall, and a thorough canvass of private residences to locate available rooms, provide adequately for the crowd that is expected.

Since early in the session it has been clear that the crowd this year will be exceptionally large. Special oil trains are being sent from Bradford, Pa., Chicago, Pittsburgh, San Antonio, Texas, Fort Worth, Texas, Los Angeles, El Dorado, Ark., and Wichita, Kan.

Billy Evans Says

PENNANT STRAIN

THE strain of a gruelling major league pennant race is something which only one who has been through the mill can understand.

Winning a world championship means a prize of at least $5000 to every player on the victorious club.

That is quite a pot of gold to be shooting at with the long winter coming on and no salary checks due the first and fifteenth.

Often a ball club cracks under the strain. When such a thing happens, said club is usually branded as yellow lacking in courage.

I have never quite agreed with that viewpoint. A case of "nerves" that causes the collapse of a team is not always due to a lack of courage.

There can be many other contributing causes, inexperience being a most prominent one.

For several years in baseball circles the courage of the Pittsburgh club has been questioned, because of its failure in the stretch.

I have always felt such criticism was undeserved yet it has done to some extent to demoralize the team.

It was inexperience and a lack of faith starts to take the place of courage, that handicapped the Pirates.

Pittsburgh team of this year.

practically the same that failed in previous years, is living down the stigma of being branded as yellow.

PIRATES DELIVER

THE recent series of five games with New York at the Polo Grounds offered the Pirates a perfect setting to definitely establish their baseball status as a truly great team or a quitter.

The Pirates won four of the five games, and, as it now seems, paved the way to the winning of a National League pennant for Pittsburgh.

The final invasion of the west by the eastern clubs of the American League offers an excellent example of what the pennant strain means to a team.

Philadelphia, which has led the American League almost all season, started east with a two-game lead. It lost that margin in the first three games at St. Louis by dropping all of them.

Of the first nine games played on the trip, Philadelphia won only two. Washington, during the same period, played only a trifle better than 300.

Consistent play on this trip by either of the two contenders might have clinched the pennant.

On form it would seem both clubs had cracked, yet each team is a courageous aggregation.

Philadelphia's inexperience proved most costly, while the temporary collapse of Washington's veteran pitchers put the world champs in the hole.

BAKED SPINACH AND TOMATOES
Two pounds spinach, 4 tomatoes, 1/2 onion (minced), 1 teaspoon sugar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, few grains pepper, 1-2 cup fine dried bread crumbs, 4 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons buttered crumbs, 2 tablespoons grated cheese.

Wash spinach and cook in its own juice. Chop very fine. Peel tomatoes and cut in slices. Put a layer of dried crumbs into a well-buttered baking dish. Cover with a layer of tomatoes, sprinkle with onion, salt, pepper and sugar and dot with butter. Add a layer of spinach. Begin with dried crumbs and again continue layer for layer with seasoning until all is used. Cover with buttered crumbs, sprinkle with cheese and bake 25 minutes in a moderately hot oven. Serve from the dish in which it was baked.

STATE FAIR OF TEXAS PROGRAM IS COMPLETED

All-Texas Exhibition Will Feature Unusual Events, Including Numerous State Days.
Indians and Georgians; members of Lions clubs over a large section of Texas; Spanish war veterans; Texas "Knights of the Grip" and many others, are to attend the State Fair of Texas at Dallas, Oct. 10-25, on "special days," designated as the meeting dates for their respective clans.
Indications are that numerous Texas counties will have different days upon which their citizens will attend the State fair, the keen spirit of friendly rivalry being engendered by the many comprehensive agricultural displays to be made in the annual State fair agricultural show.
The special day calendar, up to Sept. 15, carried the following designations:
Saturday, Oct. 10—A. & M. and Sewanee day.
Monday, Oct. 12—Texas Press association day; Georgia day.
Tuesday, Oct. 13—Dallas and Dallas county day; Baylor and T. C. U. day.
Wednesday, Oct. 14—Farm bureau day; Texas Swine Breeders' day; Mozart club day.
Thursday, Oct. 15—Poultrymen's day; Texas Jersey Cattle club day.
Friday, Oct. 16—Texas Welfare association; Texas League American Penwoman; Children's day; Franklin county day (Franklin county farm club boys and girls to attend in large numbers).
Saturday, Oct. 17—Traveling Men's day; Texas Commercial Executives day; University of Texas day; Auburn day; all college circus day.
Sunday, Oct. 18—Spanish war veterans day.
Monday, Oct. 19—G. A. R. and Woman's Relief corps day. (Wylie college, Marshall, and Oklahoma normal, Coyle, Okla., negro institutions, will play regular scheduled conference game in athletic stadium.)

Tuesday, Oct. 20—Holstein Breeders' day.
Friday, Oct. 23—R. O. T. C. day; Indiana day; Lions day.
Georgians from all over the state are expected to gather, and the plan is to organize a Texas Georgia club.
The Dallas Indiana club plans a big meeting, which may result in a similar state-wide organization.
Members of Lions' clubs within a 200-mile radius of Dallas, have been invited to meet in Dallas on Lions' day, in letters which have gone out over the signatures of President John A. Erhard and Secretary C. J. Crampton. Announcement of the several programs for the different days will be made later.

Bad news from Texas. Grasshoppers there. What Texans need is more time for fishing.
They think a Virginia man who whipped his wife is crazy. If she can cook, we agree with them.

That's the trouble with having too many laws. They have a tendency to arrest progress. (Copyright, 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)

Most Powerful Car of Its Size and Weight —a One-Profit Value

THERE are (as you probably know) only two manufacturers who actually build their cars complete—make all their own bodies, engines, clutches, springs, gear sets, differentials, steering gears, axles, gray iron castings and drop forgings.
One of these is Ford—in the low priced field. The other is Studebaker in the fine car field.
This one-profit principle of manufacture makes possible four great advantages.
1. It eliminates the extra profits and overhead that many other manufacturers have to pay and include in the purchase price to you. This keeps Studebaker prices low.
2. It enables us to build a better car because the vital parts are designed, engineered and manufactured complete by one organization. Being built as a unit—Studebaker cars function as a unit, with all of the advantages of unit over assembled construction.
3. It makes possible finer quality because Studebaker, being an independent manufacturer, with no subsidiary or allied companies to favor, is free to buy on the open market, demanding the finest materials at the lowest possible price. Studebaker purchasing agents are unrestricted in their search for quality and value. Studebaker designers and engineers are unhampered by outside interests.
4. And, finally, because of these one-profit savings, Studebaker is able to offer you a sturdier, more substantially built automobile. We pay a premium for the finest steel. We use hard wood in body construction. Plate glass in the windows. The finest grades of upholstery. Genuine full-size balloon tires. Unusually fine interior trim with no exposed tacks, and heavy hardware. Throughout the entire car—in hundreds of hidden places—you find the same high quality of materials and workmanship that you see out in the open.
The Standard Six Coach shown below is a splendid example of One-Profit value.
It offers greater power than any other car of its size and weight, based upon the rating of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. And luxurious riding comfort made possible by the big balloon tires, resilient springs, comfortable cushions and ample roominess.
But the only way to judge this car is see it—drive it! Feel the luxurious upholstery. Sit in the deep, soft, comfortable seats. Experience the surge of its tremendous power. And then compare it with other coaches.
The recent Studebaker price reduction and policy of "no yearly models" only serves to emphasize the logic of this reasoning.
If you seek a bargain in a quality car—by all means see this One-Profit Coach.

1,800 HEAD OF ANGORA GOATS USHER IN NEW FARM INDUSTRY

Mohair and Mutton Producers Found Exceedingly Valuable in Clearing Lands of Shrubs in This County.

"Don't be a goat. Own goats, if you want to thrive and make Eastland county thrive." That is the essence of the advice you would be given if you asked S. L. Reese, proprietor of Clover Leaf farm, though in not exactly that language. Last week Mr. Reese drove through the streets of Ranger with a wagon load of some of the finest young full-blooded Angora goats any man ever laid eyes on. They were hardly more than kids, yet their mohair wool hung from their bodies and down their foreheads (as is said to be the mark of a pure breed) in festoons like curly moss from a gulf coast live oak or magnolia tree. And there hangs a tale—a goat tale—a true tale of an industry which has lately sprung up in Eastland county which is big with promise.

Now be it known, these 50 goats just received, all pure strains, are just a drop in the bucket—or is it but a tit? When you undertake to appraise the Angora goat industry in this vicinity and county, Mr. Reese's herd alone (or do goats go in flocks instead of herds) runs up around 1,800, a large number of them pure Angoras and the bulk of them bred up to goodly strains. Add to that Dr. Terrell's fine herd, J. B. Ames' pretty flocks, L. P. Pease's nice bunch of mohair shrub eaters and mutton producers, and the goat colony looms large.

What are goats good for? Why are Angoras better than other goats? How profitable are goats to the farmer? Is Mr. Reese's dream of the finest goat farm in Texas, surrounded by many others which he hopes may become even finer, a flight of imagination or a thing early to be realized?

The answer seems obvious in the main. The value of Angora goat raising is manifest and is based upon more than one source of increment.

First of all, the mohair. For the food they eat and the wool they produce, it is said a good Angora will produce a greater net cash yield than any other animal or any plant product. For mutton (they call it chevon, now), it is only a question whether your goat is worth more alive or dead. But far and away the largest item of present value, Mr. Reese believes, is the goat's utilization in the clearing up of wild lands, thousands of acres of which still remain untitled in the county and vicinity.

The goat is a shrub eater. Given full browsing sway, he will beat a whole army of men armed with grubbing hoes; it is said. Once the goats have done their work, the rest of the clearing comes cheap.

Another thing developed in the discussion of this matter of clearing lands and that is the fact that acres on acres of land in this county and vicinity have an underflow of ever-lasting and apparently inexhaustible water which can be utilized to make it rain any time a farmer needs rain—only the rain comes from out of the earth instead of out of the clouds. But of that more later in another story.

It is a well known fact that mohair raised in Eastland county notably by J. B. Champion, has been announced the highest grade ever known in the known world.

RISING STAR NOTES

Special Correspondence.

RISING STAR, Sept. 9.—Notwithstanding the fact that the boll weevil has done and is still doing considerable damage to the cotton in this section, farmers are gathering more than was at first thought they would get. Picking has been resumed following the letup caused by the recent rains.

Coach Williams of the Rising Star Wildcats, the High school football team, announces that the Wildcats will play their opening game of the season with the Gorman High school team at the Gorman tree fair next Tuesday afternoon. Next Friday the Rising Star team will play Desdemona High school at Desdemona. Lela Mae, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bellah, who are visiting friends here, sustained a fractured arm Monday when she fell from a tree in the back yard where she was playing. The city council of Rising Star has put a ban on the littering of the streets with posters and other such advertising matter. The attention of Rising Star law enforcement officers was called to this custom of spilling and they were instructed to see that the practice was stopped.

The Favored Four

Because of Supreme Quality, New Performance Results, Advanced Engineering, Superior Workmanship

Out of Chrysler engineering and manufacturing skill come the extraordinary performance and value of the Chrysler Four—plus quality and beauty never before equaled in its price class.

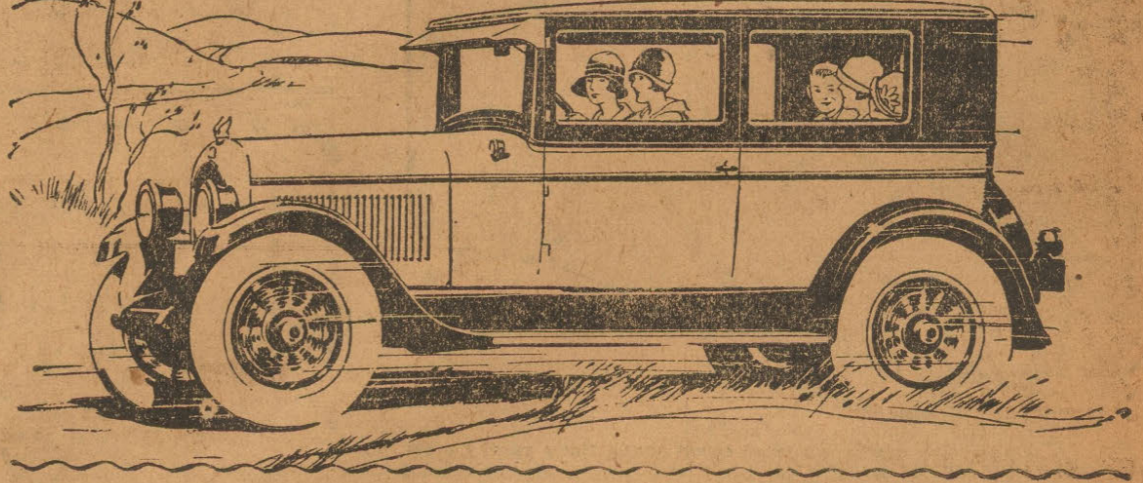

The Chrysler Four is, in the most precise sense, a fine car—fine in principle, fine in materials, and fine in its standards of manufacture and assembly.

It is built with painstaking care, and to a degree of accuracy and precision, heretofore unknown among cars of its price—in the most modern and scientifically equipped manufacturing plants.

Obviously, when such quality is combined with the unusual roadability which results from Chrysler designed spring suspension and balloon tires; with low center of gravity, pivotal steering and the option of Chrysler hydraulic four-wheel brakes to give utmost safety; and with Fisher bodies for maximum comfort—the result is unapproached motor car value in the thousand dollar class.

Everywhere, men and women who know motor cars are favoring the Chrysler Four. Women, who like fine things, say it is a delightful car to drive and to ride in. Men are enthusiastic over its extraordinary performance, its economy and its durability. Test it out, yourself behind the wheel. We are eager to provide the opportunity.

New 1-Ton Truck

Chassis Only $550 f. o. b. Flint, Mich.

Chevrolet introduces a new one-ton truck, built according to the fundamental policy of this company to provide "Quality at Low Cost".

It has a fine appearance and is specially designed and constructed for commercial service. Its deep 6-inch channel steel frame, hung low to the ground on long semi-elliptic springs, allows the platforms to be placed at the right height for easy loading and unloading.

The powerful Chevrolet motor is famous for its ability to stand up under heavy service. It has well balanced crankshaft thoroughly lubricated, standard 3-speed transmission, fully enclosed dry-plate disc clutch, extra heavy rear axle with large spiral bevel driving gears and rigid one-piece pressed steel housing, heavy truck-type wheels and large tires, full running boards and fenders, Remy generator, starter and distributor ignition, and other quality features.

This truck is not only well adapted to city work but also for use in hilly country and over difficult roads.

For lighter loads there is a Chevrolet commercial 1/2 ton chassis possessing the same quality features, price $425 f. o. b. Flint, Michigan.

Season's Smartest HATS

Here's a presentation that is certain to meet with approval, even among the most exacting dressers. Smartly tailored Hats are shown in velets, velours, felts and hatter's plush. Some are be-ribboned; others have feather fancies and rhinestones for trimmings.

From $2.95 to $16.50

THE latest reading on style barometers shows skirts still rising, while sleeves are falling.

Skirts now are resting at 14 inches, though it is predicted they will probably rise to the 16-inch mark before the winter is over. It's greatly feared that this will tend to lower the temperature of knees—when the cold breezes blow,—for the smartest ones will scarcely be covered.

Sleeves have fallen to the wrist this season, for daytime wear, and are much more interesting and varied than they've been for many a moon.

There's an attractive tight-fitting sleeve with a turned-back cuff; the looser shirt sleeve, often with a contrasting cuff peeping out beneath its outer cuff. And there's the peasant sleeve delightfully trimmed with embroidery, contrasting bands, or ribbons and lace. There's the artistic pontifical sleeve and the graceful flowing sleeve of the bishop's robes. In fact, sleeves this season are so artistic they're just about going to run away with the frock.

There's nothing to stop 'em but the limits of the designer's imagination—and there aren't any limits.

If you dress correctly this winter, you'll see to it that your skirts are short and your sleeves long—and interesting.

Belong to the Church," This is said to be one of his most masterly addresses. That and the farewell to be said are expected to make this service memorable.

The Flowers evangelistic party will go away from Ranger cherishing many pleasant recollections of the hospitality and whole-hearted co-operation of people, press and civic organizations during their stay in the city, as they repeatedly assert and Ranger will remember them for a long time with equal pleasure and gratification for the constructive Christian work they have accomplished. Lacking the sensationalism of the ordinary revivalists, they have confined their efforts largely to building up Sunday school classes, young people's societies, the churches (without partiality between denominations), and the moral atmosphere of the town generally. Ranger will bid them Godspeed as they go on their way.

ON THE RANGE AT RANGER

By THE FENCE RIDER.
(Items for this department must be phoned in to the Fence Rider, by 12 o'clock daily in order to insure their insertion. Don't be haphazard. Jingle the telephone bell.)

By a strange coincidence, the news of Friday's final play-off game between Dallas and Fort Worth was spread out on the front pages of the Fort Worth papers and ran way inside the Dallas News. Such things will happen.

Saturday opened up as a "scrappy day." A downtown dog fight started in the wee sma' hours cheated the alarm clocks out of their jobs and educated language from aroused lodgers. The Times couldn't print and get by the United States mails. Whether that early canine scrap was superinduced by forebodings of what was to happen later on Nitro field, only the dogs can tell.

"Where do you stay in Ranger?" one man asked another one day last week.

"At the Majestic," was the reply. "I am at the Paramount," the other told him.

"What is your act?" a third man asked. "Act? How do you get that way? I'm a traveling man," they replied soto voce.

Then, thinking they were "stringing him," the third man gave them this ear full: "I stayed at the Player-Lasky. I did have a room at the Gloria Swanson, tried it a week, went over to the Doug Fairbanks and didn't like my room, so—." But it is said he never lived to finish the sentence.

Everybody was disappointed that the band hadn't got in shape to function at the rally on game Saturday. Otherwise, the rally, for a first game stunt, was all heart could desire.

When you fondle her blonde curls don't call her "Sweet Meats." Say "My dear Chevron!" Or, "You darling Angora!" Or just plain "Oh, you Kid!" All of which terms are popular around Ranger now that fine goat raising is thefad.

It has been reported to The Fence Rider that some creature in a car tried to break through the snake dance line of those happy high school kids Friday night. Don't believe it. They ain't no sich animule.

The FLAPPER WIFE

by Beatrice Burton © 1925 NEA SERVICE INC.

THE STORY SO FAR:
Gloria Gordon, beautiful flapper, marries Dick Gregory, a struggling lawyer. Her idea of marriage is fun and fine clothes, but no work or children.

She refuses pointblank to do her own housework, and hires a maid. But Dick has to let the maid go, because he can't afford her wages. Gloria has swamped him with her debts. She becomes infatuated with Stanley Wayburn, an actor. When he leaves town to go to New York, Gloria follows him. But he spurns her. Then she tries to get a job as a chorus girl and fails. She begins to realize how lonely she is for Dick.

When she comes home to him, he takes her back, but not as his wife. Gloria wonders if he is not in love with his secretary, Miss Briggs. Dick stays out late one night. Gloria is sure that he is with Miss Briggs, but the next day she learns that he spent the night at the home of Dr. John Seymour, who had shot himself because of his wife's love affair with Jim Carewe.

The breach between Gloria and Dick widens. Gloria tries to do a good job of housekeeping and fails. At last she makes up her mind to leave Dick. The morning she decides to go, May Seymour comes to see her. She shows Gloria a clipping from a newspaper, and bursts into tears.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY:
Gloria unfolded the little clipping, curiously.

"Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Millbrook announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjol, to Mr. James Neale Carewe, formerly of Boston. The wedding will be an event of late October," it read.

"Jim Carewe engaged!" Gloria cried aloud. "Why, did you ever hear of such a thing! And who's the girl, for goodness sake?"

May looked up at her with wet, red-rimmed eyes. "She's a little cousin of Myra Gail's," she said. "A young thing just graduated from school this month. She can't be more than 20—and Jim's 36, if he's a minute! Talk about cradle robbing!"

Gloria shook her head slowly. "But May," she said. "You never cared a snap of your finger about Jim. I've heard you say so a hundred times. It was always Jim who was wild about you."

"I know it," May answered, "but Jim's like all men. He wants to be respectable. He'd never marry me in a million years since this—this scandal about John's—suicide."

She pressed her handkerchief hard against her lips for a moment. Then she went on bravely. "This girl can give Jim just what he wants. Respectability, a handful of friends, youth—everything clean and new and shining. Perhaps he still does care for me, but he's not going to marry a scandal! He's too selfish to do a thing like that! He thinks too much of himself."

She took off her black hat and tossed it down on the hall table. "You haven't any coffee on the stove, have you?" she asked. "I haven't had any breakfast." "I haven't had any, either," Gloria answered. "Come out into the kitchen. I won't promise to cook anything for you. But Dick left some coffee on the stove, and there's jelly and rolls."

She stopped and looked hard at May for a minute. "Well," she said, "I guess we're both out of luck, my dear. I'm leaving Dick this morning. We've agreed to disagree. And I'm going back home to my people."

They stood there looking at each other with empty eyes. Neither had a word to say.

It flashed through Gloria's mind that they were like moths dancing around a light. They had flown too close to danger and had had their wings singed and broken.

But Stanley Wayburn and Jim Carewe were safe enough! One married, the other engaged to be married! They had escaped. Men always did.

It was the woman who took all the slurs, the snubs, and the pain. The man went scot-free from one love affair to another.

"Gloria," May said suddenly. "Let's go out of this town! Let's go away where nobody knows us, and start over again."

But Gloria shook her head. "No," she said. "I tried that once. The time I went to New York. And I almost died from homesickness. I—I wanted Dick."

May stared at her. "Well, you poor little fish, why are you leaving him, then?" she asked, "if you care anything about him?"

"It's Dick who wants me to go," Gloria answered. "He—he's through with me."

"Oh, you're crazy," May answered. "You might tell that to some people, and get away with it! But I know Dick Gregory—and he's in love with you, and always has been!"

After May had gone, Gloria thought over what she had said. Was it possible that Dick still loved her? No, May was wrong. Dick couldn't love her any more, or he wouldn't let her go this way, would he?

All morning as she made the beds and washed the dishes, Gloria listened tensely for the phone to ring. There was just a bare chance that Dick would call her from the office to ask her not to go away from him. But no, Susan Briggs was at the office. And Dick was completely under her sway. He was probably not even thinking about his wife at home. His wife, packing her trunks to leave his house, forever!

Hadn't Dick said that Miss Briggs was the one person in the world who gave him sympathy and understanding? A man didn't talk that way about a woman unless he was in love with her. Gloria told herself dejectedly.

She looked her trunks, and presently the expressman came for them. There was nothing more to do—no excuse for staying. And still Gloria lingered in the house that had been the House of Dreams for her and Dick.

House of Dreams? Heart-break House was more like it!

Gloria laid the key to the front door down on the hall table, where Dick would be sure to find it. She picked up her little handbag, and went out. The door closed behind her. It closed on a chapter of her life.

The Sunday after Gloria's return to her father's house, Aunt Dorcas came to dinner. She brought Uncle Henry along with her—a small, silent man. He had been married to Aunt Dorcas for 24 years. And he showed it.

"I told you that Glory had left her husband, didn't I, Henry?" Aunt Dorcas asked between bites of roast beef and Yorkshire pudding.

Uncle Henry made a tired sound in his throat.

"And a very good thing it was, too," Aunt Dorcas went on. "A very good thing!"

Gloria raised her eyes to her aunt's large, florid face. "Why is it a good thing for a woman to leave her husband?" she asked.

"That's not what I said," Aunt Dorcas answered, sharply. "But in your case it was. When a girl—a poor girl—marries the son of rich parents, and they treat her as the Gregorys treated you, the best thing she can do is to clear out!"

Gloria looked down at her plate. "They've been very nice to me—both Father and Mother Gregory," she said. "They gave us the money for our honeymoon, you know. And Mother Gregory gave us the family silver for a wedding present."

Aunt Dorcas raised one hand like a traffic policeman. "A-ah!" she cried, "but that was for their son! What did they ever do for you? Did old Mrs. Gregory ever give a party to introduce you to all their high-and-mighty friends? Not she! She left you right out in the cold, as far as I can see!"

Aunt Dorcas folded her hands on her magnificent chest, and looked around, daring anyone to deny what she had said.

No one did. The meal came to an end at last.

Gloria followed her father and Uncle Henry out on to the front porch, leaving her mother and aunt to clear away the dishes.

There were times when she couldn't stand Aunt Dorcas in large doses. Today was one of them.

She sat down on the front steps and looked through the Sunday paper. Suddenly the photograph of a house in the advertising section caught her eye. It looked like their house—Dick's and hers. It was their house!

"Owner must sell," read the cut-line beneath the picture. "Six-room house, with finished attic. Everything in good condition. Good terms if buyer takes furniture. Call Mr. Gregory."

So Dick was going to sell the furniture, too! Everything that had been theirs—the friendly yellow lamp in the living room, the cunning white kitchen table, the gold-colored Chinese rug that had lain like sunlight on the floor of the dining room.

"I suppose he'll sell even the little red smoking-stand I gave him for Christmas," Gloria thought miserably, "and my little tea-wagon!"

The little tea-wagon had been the bride of Gloria's heart. It had looked so homey with its blue tea cups, and the little silver teapot that had been Dick's grandmother's.

"I think I'll telephone Dick and ask him for that little tea-wagon," she made up her mind that night, as she lay in bed.

But when the morning came, she did not telephone. She decided to go to Dick's office to ask him for the tea-wagon. She didn't know why—but she wanted to see him! She wanted terribly to see him again.

She spent two hours bathing herself, brushing her hair, making herself lovely for Dick's eyes. Her beauty was her only weapon against Miss Briggs. She must keep it bright and shining!

"Thank goodness, I'm still young," she thought. "Years younger than Miss Briggs, who must be at least 30."

"After a while I shall be 30, and call myself 29," Gloria said to herself. "But I'll bet I won't look like Susan Briggs! So long as there's a grain of powder or an inch of lipstick in the world, I'll have it, by jinks!"

Her heart was light as she hurried down the street to the street car line. She hummed happily, as women do when they are going to meet the man they love. But did she love Dick? She didn't know. She knew only that in a few minutes she would be seeing him again.

That was enough.

She had hardly stepped from the street car when she did see him. He was not 10 feet away from her, walking along the pavement. And beside him, looking up into his eyes, was Susan Briggs!

Organized Labor Gaining Rapidly Throughout Japan

"A draft of a law relating to labor unions is to be introduced at the next session of the diet (in December)," Minister of Commerce and Industry Kataoka has announced. "The right of collective bargaining must be granted the labor unions and we admit that legislation of this kind should have been enacted many years ago," said Kataoka. "Capital has nothing to fear from such a move, because public opinion will always be the great guiding factor in settling disputes between employers and employees."

Details of the proposed law have not yet been made public, but it is understood it will be a general measure, covering the full scope of labor's right to organize, bargain, engage in co-operative enterprises and carry on all activities admitted for recognized societies.

Announcement of the impending legislation is almost coincident with the return of Banji Suzuki, Japanese delegate to the international labor conference at Geneva, and follows a hard fought strike in the big plant of the Shibaura Iron works near Tokio.

With labor playing an increasing role in Japanese national life some of the conservative newspapers see the possibility of extensive political power for the proletarian groups within the next few years. The Asahi says that the recent proletarian meeting in Osaka was a "signal success" and that a preparatory committee for organization of a proletarian party is at work.

"What's New For Fall?"

Is the question of the day. And there are many answers equally correct and smart, for Fall has devised as many new modes as she has moods; designing new, soft, rippling contours; providing odd and clever backs, and letting fancy play her own accompaniment in planning sleeves and necklines. Even mixed new colors, whose very names are a picture!

Women's Silk Gowns

A welcome new softness appears in the silhouettes of silk frocks for Fall. Skirts flare at back, front or side, or by pleats or godets a gentle fullness is accomplished. Waistlines come slightly nearer normal, sleeves and necklines have infinite variation.

In crepes, satins, Canton faille and brocade, our Fall frocks illustrate all the established vogues.

Women's Fall Coats

Many and varied are Fashion's moods in her selection of designs for Fall coats! Coats that flare at the front, sides or back, coats that are deftly molded to the lines of the body, slim, piquant coats and warpy coats, gorgeously fur-trimmed or chically plain—each have an important place. But certain it is that all of the best modes are included in our collection.

Play From Novel, "Enchanted April," Proves Good and Amusing Comedy

By ALICE ROHE

(Written for the United Press) A surprisingly entertaining play has been made out of that much read book by "Elizabeth," "The Enchanted April." To be sure the play is occasionally cumbered with clogging conversations but the high lights are so radiant that the shambling progress of the action is easily forgotten.

Most conspicuous of these high lights is Alison Skipworth as Mrs. Fisher, the formidable aristocrat with her memories of Gladstone and Carlyle (who took castor oil to excess, my dear.) She is worth the price of admission many times a week.

Another highlight is Herbert Yost as the unctuous solicitor, Mellish Wilkins. Then most noteworthy there is the unique and rarely intelligent treatment of the Italian servant conversation problem. Those acolytes of realism should present Rosalie Stewart, who produced this play, with a laurel wreath. For the first time in my memory at least, nature servants are not made to sputter a low comedy dialect. Other highlights are the beautiful stage setting of the castle and the general quaintness of the story.

This story of the two dreary London housewives chafing under the monotony of their dull lives, answering an advertisement to rent a castle in Italy on the Mediterranean their taking in two other co-guests the blossoming influence upon their lives is of course well known.

In the book I found Lottie Wilkins tiresome with her prattle about love and her toothy uplifting smiles. Elizabeth Risdon hasn't been able to live this blight down in the play. This sweet Pollyanna stuff is a bit amusing to those frank enough to realize that the effect of these same Italian skies and sweet perfumes and insinuating subtleties of climate is not catalogued scientifically under the head of metaphysical uplift. I couldn't help wishing all through the performance that George Kelly with his genius at characterization and of dramatic psychological effects might have had a chance at fixing up this play, with the real understanding of Italy's effect upon "soul consciousness" as a working basis. "The Enchanted April" dramatized by Kane Campbell just misses being a corking comedy. It is a good and amusing one. The Francesca of Adalina Roattino is fine but John Ravoid as Domenico lacks conviction. Helen Gahagan plays Lady Caroline about whom the love interest centers. o

RANGER BOYS' CAMP EXPERIENCE AT BEAR LAKE IN THE ROCKIES

WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON DE MOLAY ORGANIZATION AND NATIONAL TRAINING SCHOOL

By JACK GALLOWAY
(Jack Galloway, Master Councilor Ranger Chapter De Molay and Jack Sanderford, local Scriber of the order, having gone as delegates to the National convention at Bear Lake, took advantage of the occasion to make interesting notes on their life in the mountains, which young Galloway has been induced to set down in serial form. The story is of such interest The Times gives it to its readers for their pleasure. The story will run through several daily issues to its conclusion.)

Thursday, was an all-day session with no hike scheduled. Mr. Dickerson had the first two periods and showed us how much a chapter could do to help members study out their life work by advice from successful men. Mr. Staggs in the morning session discussed "Chapter Athletics." He showed us the part a De Molay chapter could take in teaching the members organized team-work.

Mr. Dickerson spoke in the first afternoon session on "New Members," and in the second session on the Representative De Molay Contest. This contest is conducted to make members aspire to all around development, mental, physical, social, economical, spiritual. To be a Representative De Molay is the highest honor a De Molay or any other young man can achieve, for though there are many contests and awards for exceptional mental or physical developments, there is no other reward for high grade all around development, and according to Mr. Dickerson, all aroundness should be an ideal. In the evening session Mr. Dickerson spoke on special honors awarded to De Molays and about contests between chapters.

On Friday, the last day Mr. Dickerson conducted an open forum for questions on all subjects, then turned the meeting over to Mr. Staggs, who discussed inter-chapter athletics. He told us that the Grand Council was organizing an athletic department, the purpose of which is to organize De Molay chapters into leagues and districts, and have district and state champions. The athletics that will be especially promoted are baseball, basketball, tennis and track. Mr. Dickerson had the third session and talked on "American Citizenship" and showed what a great part De Molay chapters can take in developing better citizenship.

The hike that afternoon was to Loch Vale, one of the beauty spots of the park. The final address that evening was by Mr. Cheley, who showed his principles of leadership could apply personally to each one of us and gave directions on the conduct and bearing of one desiring to be a leader. After his talk an impressive ceremony was held, each of the boys telling how much he had gotten out of the camp and how he had enjoyed the companionship there. Then with Mr. Staggs at the piano, several old-fashioned songs were sung, and we bade each other farewell.

MARKED DOLLAR RETURNS FORTY YEARS AFTERWARD

By United Press.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., Sept. 17.—The marked dollar of the Kirk family has returned.

Forty years ago, 1885, R. A. Kirk sent 100 new silver dollars to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Kirk at Princeton, Ky., in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. The elder Kirk was so pleased with the gift that he scratched his initials, "D. K." on six of the silver dollars and gave them to six grandchildren.

Recently R. A. Kirk, who is a desk clerk at a local hotel, saw a silver dollar in the cash register on which initials had been scratched. Upon examining it he found the dollar had been coined in 1885 and that the initials were "D. K."

OLDEN, Sept. 19.—Little Artie Belle arrived last week to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Howell. She weighed eight and one-half pounds. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Satterfield, who recently moved to Coleman, were visiting friends in Olden last week-end.

Mrs. Hubert Russell of Crosscut spent this week in Olden with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Leclair, and family.

Mrs. Toria Robertson was in Gorman a few days this week.

Mr. Parker of Gorman was an Olden visitor Tuesday.

H. R. Horner was in Coleman this week.

Mrs. A. A. Branscum and daughter, Lola, accompanied by Mrs. B. F. Cayce, left Friday for Denton, where Mrs. Branscum will attend North Texas Teachers' college. Mrs. Branscum and Mrs. Cayce will visit relatives and friends in Dallas and Fort Worth a few days before returning home.

Mrs. J. R. Horner has joined her husband at Westbrook, where they expect to make their home.

One week of school has gone by with a large number of students enrolled.

E. J. Allen is on a trip to Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Aylward have moved to Abilene, where their daughter, Dorothy, will attend college. Mrs. Yeldell is here visiting her sister, Mrs. S. E. Miller.

MORTON VALLEY

Special Correspondence.

MORTON VALLEY, Sept. 19.—The people of this community are rejoicing over the splendid rains that fell recently and they are now very busy picking cotton.

We are still inviting more people out to Sunday school. Mrs. Charlotte Bond, one of our teachers, will be back Sunday to take charge of her class. Let us all be present and have a good lesson.

The Morton Valley singing class met with the Yellow Mound class last Sunday night. A general invitation is extended to everyone to come out and help in the singing Sunday night.

Mrs. Joe Tow is planning a trip to Oklahoma soon.

Mrs. Self and children of Comanche are spending the week with Mrs. Charlie Fisher and family.

All who were not out at the community fair last Saturday, Sept. 12, missed a great time. There was an abundance of dinner on the ground and quite a lot of nice exhibits. Several people were her from Breckenridge and Eastland. Mr. Bush and Mr. Briggs of Eastland and Mr. Patterson of Breckenridge were the judges.

Several from this community are attending school at Eastland this year.

The Morton Valley school opening was postponed two weeks on account of the people having so much work to do.

Miss Verda Carter spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Estell Sneed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bond have returned from Colorado, Texas, where they had been visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Winnie Hamilton and Miss Margie Sneed spent Saturday night and Sunday with Misses Dawsie and Olive Carter.

Mr. Hammett and family spent Sunday with Mr. Carter and family. Fred Johnston and family have returned from Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fisher are visiting their parents and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Finisey and Mr. and Mrs. Johnston of Eastland spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bond.

MITCHELL-HOWARD LINE WILDCAT FLOWING FREELY

Special Correspondence.

COLORADO, Texas, Sept. 19.—Two feet additional drilling, following the setting of the pipe and drilling down, has doubled the natural flow production of the Magnolia's Foster wildcat on the Mitchell-Howard county line. The pay formation, which is a sandy limestone, similar to that of the Westbrook and Big Lake fields, has now been penetrated a total of four feet. It was topped at about 2,870 feet. Production for 24 hours is reported 480 barrels. The test has been making about 10 barrels per hour by heads since its first flows in the latter part of August. It is located in section 17, block 29, township 1 South, T. & P. Railway company surveys, and is about seven miles from the original Westbrook field in Mitchell county.

CISCO NEWS

Special Correspondence.

CISCO, Sept. 19.—R. C. Knight, an oil operator in the Putnam field, who resides at Abilene, suffered a stroke of paralysis here Tuesday afternoon. He was taken to the sanitarium and at last reports was better.

James M. Eddleman, 70, Cisco pioneer, died at his home here Thursday afternoon. Funeral services were held Friday, followed by interment in the Cisco cemetery. Three daughters survive him. They are Mrs. Henry Evans, Anson; Mrs. Cal Hazel, Nimrod, and Miss Myrtle Eddleman of Cisco.

Chief Engineer Shelton of the state fish, game and oyster department at Austin, was in Cisco Friday, doing preliminary work on the temporary hotchery booths at Lake Cisco, to have them in readiness for operation next spring.

The Randolph Badgers will open the football season Oct. 3 when they play the Sul Ross State Teachers' college Lobos at Alpine.

GORMAN'S FREE FALL FAIR OPENS TOMORROW

GORMAN, Sept. 19.—Plans for the Gorman free fall fair have been completed and everything is in readiness for the opening Monday. Most of the exhibits were placed Saturday.

Flour for the various baking contests was donated by Gorman grocers and the culinary department, it is stated, will be one of the most interesting of the show.

There is an unusually large list of individual agricultural exhibits. The poultry department also attracted a number of entries. Many rare and valuable articles have been entered in the art department. "Hackberry Slim's" rodeo and other amusements will be attractions at each of the two days of the fair.

QUARANTINES AGAINST LIVESTOCK FROM TEXAS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 19.—Four other states today contemplated California's action in placing quarantines on Texas products because of the hoof and mouth disease, advices, received by the state department of agriculture indicated. A quarantine order prohibiting the shipment of hogs, cattle and sheep from this state into Texas was signed late yesterday by governor W. F. Richardson. Arkansas has also issued strict quarantine orders against Texas. Missouri, Nevada, New Mexico and Idaho departments have signified similar action it was said.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 19.

The Pennsylvania agriculture department today instituted a statewide antine against all importations of cattle, hay, hides and straw from the state of Texas effective next Monday. The quarantine will bar cattle cars from the state unless they are properly disinfected.
